With the sending out of the general strike order last night, the struggle between the steel trust and the Amalgamated Association is precipitated and will be fought to a finish. In brief, it means that 2,400,000 workmen will shortly be arrayed against the $75,000,000 of the trust.

Tunnelled Underneath Safety Vault in Selby Smelting Works, Struck Upwards and Bored a Hole in the Floor—Carried Off Spills in a Boat.

Vallejo, Cal., Aug. 6.—Gold bricks, valued at $300,000, were stolen during the night from the Selby Smelting Works. The robbers evidently had been working on the job for two or three months. They had dug a tunnel from outside the house, beginning with a shaft about three feet deep. Thence they worked downward to the vault, and, striking the tunnel, bored a hole wide as the manhole of a boiler. Part of the hole was bored two months ago. It is thought, and the last was completed during the night. Thru that hole they took the gold bricks, and carried them to a bank near the mouth of the tunnel, east of the smelter, where they were evidently placed in a boat. In their hurry the robbers left two of the bricks on the bank.

Ghost in the Room.

During the night one of the workmen reported to his fellows that he heard noise in the strong room and that he saw a ghost. The others ridiculed him for his superstition, but no investigation was made to see what caused the noise. The entrance to the tunnel was covered with a frame, over which the employees of the smelter passed repeatedly every day, but no one seemed to notice anything out of the way.

Not a Clue.

Sheriff Vele of Contra Costa County and Chief of Police Sanford of Vallejo have been notified and are now at the works. The police of San Francisco and all the bay cities are at work on the case, but so far there is not the slightest clue to the robbers.

The work was that of skilled men, and their elaborate plans were carried out without a hitch. They got all the bullion in the vault, leaving behind only the two bricks which were dropped on the shore. Only one day's accumulation of refined gold was kept at the works. Yesterday's run was unusually heavy, and the gold was

Nora O'Reilly, Niece of Dr. O'Reilly of Toronto Mysteriously Drowned Near Orangeville.

Orangeville, Aug. 6.—Caledon Lake, a pleasure resort about three miles from this town, was the scene of a distressing fatality this afternoon. Little Nora O'Reilly, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. H. H. O'Reilly, manager of the Bank of Hamilton agency at Niagara Falls, Ont., was playing about one of the bathhouses in company with some other children. After a time her nurse noticed she was missing and a search was instituted, which resulted in finding the child lying in the lake immediately in front of the bathhouse.

Dr. Caesar of Toronto, who was in his bathhouse nearby, was summoned at once and worked for nearly an hour in a vain effort to restore life.

No one saw the child get into the water. It is supposed that the dirt from the tunnel was taken out at night and dropped in the bay. First reports stated that the tunnel was two or three hundred feet long, but, according to late advices, it is only about 20 feet in length. The shaft was started close to the wall and was sunk below the foundation. Thence it was only a short distance under the floor of the vault. It is thought the men who committed the robbery took their plunder in a launch and made off directly for San Francisco. There are plenty of places, however, to which they may have gone, either up the Sacramento River or to the shore of any of the numerous bays.

Property Stolen.

Following is a list of property stolen: Four fine gold bricks, all numbered, and containing as follows: No. 1, 236.1, 300 ounces and a fraction; No. 2, 237.2, 300 ounces; No. 3, 238.1, 125 ounces and a fraction; No. 4, 239.1, 125 ounces and a fraction. Also 10,000 ounces of gold in various shapes and a little silver. The gold in the bricks is worth $2 an ounce.

Aided By Someone.

One of the officials of the Selby Smelting Works said: "We find that the plotters were aided by someone thoroughly familiar with the system employed at the works and one fully informed as to the construction of the vault. Last night one of the watchmen, employed about the premises, heard noises inside the vault and informed his fellows that the devil or ghosts were inside the vault. They laughed at him and made no investigation, and thus the robbers were left unmolested as their work."

Such is the Opinion of Senator Dandurand, Who is Impressed With a Visit.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Trade will be deflected from Montreal. Such is the opinion of Senator Dandurand, who today returned from Sault Ste. Marie, where he has been interviewed by the Clergo, accompanied by Mr. Pelletreau of the Franco-Canadian Line, in the interests of that corporation.

"The Boss government," he continued, "has rapidly sized up the situation and done the right thing to old Ontario, in contracting with Clergo for the building of the railway thru Manitoulin Island, by running a ferry to Tobermory, and continuing the system to Meaford and Owen Sound, where it joins the old Ontario railway line.

"Thus it deflects trade which would have been contributory to Canadian Pacific and Montreal into Toronto. Thus, old Ontario is rescued for its share in helping to develop New Ontario, and the building of a railway up to James Bay by the Clergo syndicate has been a great factor."

London, Aug. 6.—Lord Lansdowne, the Foreign Secretary, replying in the House of Lords today to a question of Earl Spencer, Liberal, said the Chinese negotiations had recently made rapid and satisfactory progress. The indemnity question was disposed of, with the exception of a few minor points.

There was still some question whether the matter of the commercial facilities in China had not better be transferred to some other place than Peking, and to some more widely held than the present conference. Great Britain was still in favor of the open door through China. They could not complain that they had not equal commercial advantages in the Yang Tze Valley.

End Was Peaceful and Her Features Bear a Serene Expression—Funeral Services Will Be Simple in Accordance With Her Desire—The Kaiser Well Guarded.

Cronberg, Aug. 6.—The body of the Dowager Empress lies in the bed chamber overlooking the valley of the Main. It has been embalmed by Prof. Reubens, and lies embedded in a mass of tubs and in France roses. She died in a soft sleep, painlessly, and her features bear the most serene and peaceful expression. The death agony was brief, lasting hardly a quarter of an hour. When Prof. Reubens informed Emperor William that his mother's heart had ceased to beat the Chaplain made a brief prayer, and His Majesty An Imperial Cabinet order decreed that there shall be six weeks of national mourning. All public amusements, including concerts and theatrical performances, are suspended until after the funeral. The bells of all churches in Germany must be tolled daily for fourteen days from noon to 1 p.m.

In accordance with the expressed wishes of the deceased, the funeral services will be as simple as possible under the circumstances. The body will remain on the bed where she died until ready for the coffin. The roses in which it is almost buried are from her private garden, many of the blooms being from bushes cultivated by her own hands. No one will be allowed to view it, except the members of the immediate family and household.

Emperor William had a long interview with Count Von Bismarck today. He drove from Homburg to Friedrichshaf, and soon after his arrival there the following announcement regarding the funeral arrangements was made: "On Thursday the royal family will attend the funeral services in the Castle, at which the Bishop of Ripon, who was summoned by the Empress, will officiate. Only the immediate family will be present. "Saturday evening the coffin will be escorted from Friedrichshaf to the Protestant Church in Cronberg by a torchlight procession, followed by the royal family on foot. "Sunday afternoon a funeral service will be held in the presence of the family or the Empress, her household and a few of her friends and other privileged persons. It is expected here that King Edward will be present. The royal family will go to Potsdam Sunday evening, and the body will be taken there Monday evening. The funeral service will be held at the Mausoleum at Friedrichshaf. Potsdam, will be held Tuesday. As it was the Empress' wish that there should be no State ceremony, the service will not be attended by all the German royal personages. It will be as simple as possible. Emperor William has received a telegram of sympathy from the Pope.

KAISER CLOSELY GUARDED.

New York, Aug. 6.—The Herald's correspondent at Cronberg, describing the funeral arrangements, says the place is filled with troops, whose presence is considered necessary for the safety of the Kaiser. The entire road was patrolled the whole night, and the troops had been on duty for eighteen hours.

The correspondent says: "Up to a late hour the entire road from here to Cronberg was full of people watching for the Kaiser, and they unanimously interpreted ominously his non-return. Everywhere, too, there appears that peculiar class of individuals unmistakably belonging to the secret police. "As I have said, there are troops everywhere. They are posted at the entrance gates, at every private gateway and all around the park, which is hemmed in by strands of barbed wire. They took up their positions during last night. "Friday after 6 o'clock this morning the Kaiser appeared, driving at a high rate of speed. "Early that time the whole route between here and Homburg was patrolled by lance-cavalry. "The Kaiser looked anxious. He disappeared like a phantom in his grey military cloak and has not been seen for twelve hours. "There was nothing to say, or, rather, there was a conspiracy to say nothing."

KING MAY NOT GO.

Berlin, Aug. 6.—It is asserted in Berlin to-night that King Edward will probably not go to Homburg or Cronberg, but will proceed direct to Potsdam to await there the arrival of the body.

NO CHANGE IN TORONTO'S PROGRAM CONSEQUENT ON EMPRESS' DEATH

By the Time of the Duke of York's Arrival the Period of Mourning Will Have Expired—Mayor Howland and Alderman Cox Interviewed on the Question

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—(Globe despatch)—The death of the Empress Frederic is expected to result in the abandonment of all social functions on the occasion of the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. It has also been suggested that the military reviews may be abandoned, but Gen. O'Grady-Haley said this morning that he did not consider such action likely.

The death of H.R.H. the Dowager Empress of Germany and sister of King Edward, will not materially affect the demonstration in honor of the visit of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York in Toronto. At present the whole of Ontario is mourning for her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the arrangements made by the local reception committee considered this. The whole Empire is also in mourning now for the late Queen's eldest daughter, but by the time the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York arrive in Toronto, mourning will have expired, and, therefore, there is no reason why citizens should not demonstrate within the limit of their individual regret.

Lieut. Bimsley, A.D.C. to the Lieut-Governor, said to The World last night that the word had been received at Government House which would tend to curtail the arrangements made by the City Reception Committee to receive the royal party. Mayor Howland was asked what he thought about it, and after a few minutes of consideration he said that he would make no difference to the way Toronto people wanted to receive the royal party. While the citizens feel every sympathy with the King and the royal family in this bereavement, he was satisfied that Toronto could fully express that sympathy in paying tribute to the high representatives of royalty who will be here in October. Ald. B. S. Cox, chairman of the Reception Committee of the City Reception Committee, was interviewed immediately on his return from a few days in Muskoka, and he said that he knew the arrangements of his committee would be fully carried out. At the request of Lieut-Governor Sir Oliver Mowat, he visited Lieut-Col. Gibson, the Attorney-General, and, as the result of his visit, he was satisfied that the original arrangements for the welcome of their Highnesses would be fully carried out.

THE DOG AND HIS WORLD AFTER THE CONFERENCE.

London, Aug. 6.—Lord Lansdowne, the Foreign Secretary, replying in the House of Lords today to a question of Earl Spencer, Liberal, said the Chinese negotiations had recently made rapid and satisfactory progress. The indemnity question was disposed of, with the exception of a few minor points.

There was still some question whether the matter of the commercial facilities in China had not better be transferred to some other place than Peking, and to some more widely held than the present conference. Great Britain was still in favor of the open door through China. They could not complain that they had not equal commercial advantages in the Yang Tze Valley.

The Foreign Secretary also said that the Duke had been in Peking, and to some more widely held than the present conference. Great Britain was still in favor of the open door through China. They could not complain that they had not equal commercial advantages in the Yang Tze Valley.

POLITICAL POINTERS. The date of Mr. Whitney's tour has not yet been announced, but a story comes from Port Elgin, which goes to show that the original program was marked out and subsequently abandoned. Conservatives of that place engaged a band for a big demonstration on Aug. 19, the idea being that Mr. Whitney would open his oratorical campaign in Toronto on the 15th and start out on a tour to embrace many towns and villages in the province.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S TROUBLE

That British Columbia's prosperity is hampered, especially in the development of her mines, is without doubt. The friction brought about by the passage of the eight-hour law has not yet disappeared. The mine owners also have their eyes on the local government. That there are signs of a local government that are not to the liking of the mine owners is shown by the fact that they are paying more than their share of the taxation; and the government reports that those who claim to be oppressed have brought the evil on themselves by over-capitalization. There may be chances for argument on both sides, but in any case it is well for some competent authority to take hold of the business and endeavor to restore prosperity to the province. It would be a good idea for the Dominion government to appoint a commission, as suggested by The Victoria Times, and have the trouble fixed up. It should be easy to work out some compromise, and the mine owners are paying more than their share towards the cost of government. If it is found that they are unduly taxed, let the rates be equitably adjusted; if not, then let the owners accept the situation, stop grumbling, and settle down to the development of the province. That there is over-speculation cannot be doubted; that non-resident capitalists have in some cases been unfortunate is equally probable. But no amount of fault-finding will improve matters. If promoters have made mistakes, and induced speculators to pay too much for certain properties, the latter should not be blamed, but the capitalists should accept the inevitable, and sell at the best prices they can get.

United States mint, says: "In so far as an enlargement of the money stock, with the expansion of credits which accompanies it, furnishes support to growing industries and promotes a natural and orderly development of the world's resources, it is a good thing. But when excessive force of society are in full action, you cannot make the world richer by pouring money into it. You reach the point then where additional means dilution, where the new supply can find employment only by a decrease in the value of the old stock. When this occurs, all business relations, based upon terms of money, are disturbed; speculation, instead of industry, is promoted; economic waste and adventure run riot, and end in a collapse that disorganizes the whole industrial system."

of things that should not exist in any country.

There is a big difference in the appearance of the farms and villages in Minnesota and those we have seen in Canada. In Canada they do not seem to blossom the same, and this, I think, is solely due to the money being taken out of the country districts and invested in cities. Our country deposits are kept in the banks of the cities, and the money seems to circulate to the best advantage. We have no such things as branch banks to gather in money and ship it away, but, instead, the money is deposited and loaned in the same section of the country on personal security and real estate. I think it would be well for our legislators to make a study of the country of abolishing the branch bank system, as it would undoubtedly prove of great benefit to your country.

We have been led to think how much superior our banking system is over that of our neighbors, but we imagine there is a great deal of truth in the criticism of Mr. Griffith. The small local banks in the States do much for the farmer in the places where they have the smaller kind of branches, other than to take deposits which are shipped to the head office for use there.

Our small places have not the banking facilities that corresponding places have in the States. Why shouldn't they have?

FIRST RESULT OF THE STRIKE.

The initial result of the failure of the strike is a revival of the Amalgamated Association to come to terms, was a strike on Saturday of $3,750,000 in the value of Steel stocks, also it is said James R. Keene was sent into Wall-street with $10,000,000 at his back to keep the Trust's shares from a big tumble.

Reports from Pittsburgh intimate that Mr. Morgan's justice and moderation has led him to measures to bring about a settlement. It is said that Mr. Morgan lost his temper when he met President Shaffer and his associates on Saturday, and fumed and raged until he was out of breath in hurling denunciations at the representatives of the workmen. That was a display of weakness which no one expected from a great man. Loss of self-control is at any time a mistake, and the man who gives way to a passion is always weaker as a result of the frenzy.

After a day or so in which to cool down, Mr. Morgan may have abandoned his extreme ideas. It is reported that he returned to Wall-street on Monday, as did also President Schwab, and that they appeared to realize the seriousness of the crisis which they have to face.

An important consideration in connection with the battle of capital and labor is the attitude of the American Federation of Labor. The secretary of that organization is said to be a trade unionist on the continent. It is at stake, and it may reasonably be supposed that he speaks the view of his colleagues. If the Federation comes to the aid of the Amalgamated Association when the strike is declared, it will mean a fight to a finish, and the loss of both worlds to the men of the continent. On the other hand, the Trust will be fighting for every corporation in the country.

A triumph for the men will mean, in great measure, the subjugation of capital, and almost a reversal of present conditions. A triumph for the corporations will mean complete freedom for the men to do as they please with the "dictation," as it is termed, of trade unionists, and workmen will have to serve as units instead of as a body.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Some financiers are said to be afraid there will be too much gold after the Boer war is over, and that business will be organized. Most of us find trouble in getting the best of the present situation. A few brinks and snuff and we will endeavor to make good use of them.

This returned hero emphasized his admiration for the Australian troops by saying they are the finest fellows in the world. But there are others the sentiment does not think much of. The only irregular troops that surrendered were the Imperial Yeomanry, and these fellows were always giving themselves up.

BROADVIEW LODGE NOT TO BLAME

Editor World: E. B. Biggar has a long letter in The World complaining that after giving an excursion ticket issued by Broadview Lodge, I.O.O.F., an accident on the line delayed the train from 1.30 to 9 o'clock. On behalf of Broadview Lodge I want to point out that the committee who managed the excursion were not in any way responsible for the delay, as they did not guarantee any hour of arrival at Owen Sound, excepting regular time table.

LOCAL TOPICS.

THIS VETERAN'S FIGHT.

In the days of the Revolution he was on the side of victory, in later years surrendered to disease, but South American Kidney Cure gave him his liberty.

Mr. A. Williamson of Kinross, Ont., a veteran in the American war, and now an invalid citizen, says of South American Kidney Cure: "I have found it a wonderful specific in my case. I suffered a great deal from bladder and kidney troubles, and one bottle entirely cured me. I think it a boon to mankind." Cures in all stages, and gives relief in six hours.

Montreal Gazette: The interesting discovery has been made that it costs Detroit $25,000 per year to keep its City Hall clean. This sum included clean records for the aldermen it would be cheap.

If reports that have been sent from Montreal at times be true, the records of some of the aldermen there would stand a little frightening also.

Mr. Carnegie has offered Montreal $150,000 for a free library on the usual terms. The Gazette is afraid $150,000 would not suffice for a building such as the city would be proud to possess. Perhaps Mr. Carnegie will raise his offer $50,000 or $100,000, if the stipulation of ten per cent. for maintenance stands, it may even then be too much of a burden for Montreal's treasury.

The attempt to wreck a train of the C.P.R. at Smith's Falls yesterday morning is an unfortunate incident. The striking workmen are almost certain to be blamed for it, yet may have known nothing of it.

The Executive of the New York Canal Association has declared against the proposed deep waterway from Buffalo to New York, which was to cost some $9,000,000, but will advocate instead a 1000-ton barge canal. The 21-foot canal would be completed in years, and improved waterways are needed at once. United States vessels will use the Welland Canal for some time yet.

THE SOUTH DAKOTA RANCH AND MR. DRYDEN.

Editor World: The Canada and Dakota Cattle Company has no political bias. If considered by such astute politicians as the Minister of Agriculture and the man who would probably be Minister of Agriculture if the Conservative party came into power in Ontario. When I organized the Cattle Company I knew what all organizers would merit success must do. I selected for its Board of Directors the men I knew who best understood the business to be engaged in, the breeding, raising, buying and selling of cattle. And I was able to secure the cooperation of these gentlemen solely because there is not in Canada such a combination of grass, water, climate and proximity to market, as in the United States. It is another such in the world, as I have acquired for this enterprise. For, desiring to engage in cattle raising, it was surely the dictation of commercial common sense to avail themselves of such unique advantages. But a disgruntled member of the Legislature, a political nobody, asks something unreasonable from the Minister of Agriculture, and is refused, and he must resort to yelp and cause the publication of a lot of newspaper articles, which are not meant to be mischievous. But means. Dryden and Crawford are unlikely to be at all disturbed by it. They will, no doubt, continue in the fulfillment of their duties to their country and their cattle. I am, however, a member of the Cattle Company, helping, I hope, to make both successful and prosperous. It is but a few years since a Minister in the Dominion government, Sir Charles Tupper, was engaged in ranching in the United States, afterwards selling his ranch to the late Hugh Ryan. J. F. PRaises AUSTRALIAN TROOPS.

Sergeant Hobson, Home From the War, Says They Are Finest on Earth. Sergeant Hobson of Strathcona's Horse, and recently of Howard's Scouts, arrived in Toronto yesterday and proceeded to his home in Hamilton, which he has not seen in 12 years. He is a magnificent specimen of a Canadian manhood, and is the son of Joseph Hobson, chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway. For years he was a "cattle puncher" in Montana, and when the Strathconas were recruited he happened to be in Medicine Hat, N.W.T., and enlisted. The sergeant talks entertainingly of the war, and says, "I was killed by the Boers towards the end of the war, but I was not molested after that. On Sept. 1 I was relieved, with many other prisoners, by Gen. French, McLean Howard of Toronto was with Hobson when he was captured."

This returned hero emphasized his admiration for the Australian troops by saying they are the finest fellows in the world. But there are others the sentiment does not think much of. The only irregular troops that surrendered were the Imperial Yeomanry, and these fellows were always giving themselves up.

DEFENCE OF MR. DRYDEN.

The Weekly Sun in a lengthy defence of Hon. John Dryden's Dakota ranch investment, says among other things: While the American investor is getting every thing in sight in this country, a short time ago Mr. Dryden, a Canadian reaching out and securing some of Uncle Sam's good things in return, short time ago Mr. Dryden, the Secretary of War in President McKinley's Cabinet, invested a large sum of money in erecting a pulp mill in Quebec. Politics ran high in the United States at that time, and the attacks on Mr. Alger were terrific, but we do not recollect that a single journal suggested that he should resign his post because he had made a profitable investment in this country.

THE SUPPLY OF GOLD.

In the early thirties the annual production of gold was about 100,000,000. Since then discoveries of the yellow metal have been made in a number of countries in different parts of the world, Canada among them. So it is expected that in a short time the annual production of gold will reach the vast sum of $400,000,000. Some geologists predict that the gold is only begun, and some of the world's great economists are beginning to wonder what will be done with it all the gold. Like every other commodity, its value depends on the demand for it. A man who owns half a million dollars in gold is just as anxious to get it into the hands of the people as the merchant is to sell his goods. While the latter will hold his goods for a visit, the former takes paper, in the shape of bank, steamship, insurance or government bonds, or city or town debentures, or bank stocks, on which he draws interest. Real estate mortgages are also considered good enough. The point is that money is in the hands of the capitalist, and the interest he draws is his profit. Unless the people want his money he gets no profit and his stock of money is dead stock.

For, desiring to engage in cattle raising, it was surely the dictation of commercial common sense to avail themselves of such unique advantages. But a disgruntled member of the Legislature, a political nobody, asks something unreasonable from the Minister of Agriculture, and is refused, and he must resort to yelp and cause the publication of a lot of newspaper articles, which are not meant to be mischievous. But means. Dryden and Crawford are unlikely to be at all disturbed by it. They will, no doubt, continue in the fulfillment of their duties to their country and their cattle. I am, however, a member of the Cattle Company, helping, I hope, to make both successful and prosperous. It is but a few years since a Minister in the Dominion government, Sir Charles Tupper, was engaged in ranching in the United States, afterwards selling his ranch to the late Hugh Ryan. J. F. McLaughlin.

PRaises AUSTRALIAN TROOPS.

Sergeant Hobson, Home From the War, Says They Are Finest on Earth. Sergeant Hobson of Strathcona's Horse, and recently of Howard's Scouts, arrived in Toronto yesterday and proceeded to his home in Hamilton, which he has not seen in 12 years. He is a magnificent specimen of a Canadian manhood, and is the son of Joseph Hobson, chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway. For years he was a "cattle puncher" in Montana, and when the Strathconas were recruited he happened to be in Medicine Hat, N.W.T., and enlisted. The sergeant talks entertainingly of the war, and says, "I was killed by the Boers towards the end of the war, but I was not molested after that. On Sept. 1 I was relieved, with many other prisoners, by Gen. French, McLean Howard of Toronto was with Hobson when he was captured."

DEFENCE OF MR. DRYDEN.

The Weekly Sun in a lengthy defence of Hon. John Dryden's Dakota ranch investment, says among other things: While the American investor is getting every thing in sight in this country, a short time ago Mr. Dryden, a Canadian reaching out and securing some of Uncle Sam's good things in return, short time ago Mr. Dryden, the Secretary of War in President McKinley's Cabinet, invested a large sum of money in erecting a pulp mill in Quebec. Politics ran high in the United States at that time, and the attacks on Mr. Alger were terrific, but we do not recollect that a single journal suggested that he should resign his post because he had made a profitable investment in this country.

THE SUPPLY OF GOLD.

In the early thirties the annual production of gold was about 100,000,000. Since then discoveries of the yellow metal have been made in a number of countries in different parts of the world, Canada among them. So it is expected that in a short time the annual production of gold will reach the vast sum of $400,000,000. Some geologists predict that the gold is only begun, and some of the world's great economists are beginning to wonder what will be done with it all the gold. Like every other commodity, its value depends on the demand for it. A man who owns half a million dollars in gold is just as anxious to get it into the hands of the people as the merchant is to sell his goods. While the latter will hold his goods for a visit, the former takes paper, in the shape of bank, steamship, insurance or government bonds, or city or town debentures, or bank stocks, on which he draws interest. Real estate mortgages are also considered good enough. The point is that money is in the hands of the capitalist, and the interest he draws is his profit. Unless the people want his money he gets no profit and his stock of money is dead stock.
