GOVERNMENT SUSPENDS SUGAR ORDER

FOIL A PLOT TO BLOW UP PENITENTIARY IN KINGSTON SUGAR SITUATION HOLDS UP MEIGHEN'S TRIP TO WEST BRITISH MINERS' STRIKE IS NOW ALMOST CERTAIN

ASQUITH ADMITS PREMIER AND IS SCORED BY CARSON Former Prime Minister Says Lloyd George Condone Reprisals. IS CALLED A TRAITOR

London, Oct. 14.—The political tempest which has been aroused by the recent pronouncements of prominent men on the Irish problem, notably by Premier Lloyd George, Viscount Grey and former premier Asquith, received a fresh impetus today when Mr. Asquith bitterly attacked Mr. Lloyd George, while at the same time Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Patriot leader, made an equally acrimonious assault on Mr. Asquith.

Speaking at Ayr with reference to Mr. Lloyd George's Welsh address, Mr. Asquith declared that "all the premier's flippancies and all his vulgarities have not diverted and cannot divert attention from the fact of the fact of his confession of political bankruptcy."

He said that the premier's speech would be interpreted as at least condoning the reprisals in Ireland. Sir Edward Carson, on his part, in a speech in London asserted that Mr. Asquith at the most critical moment in the Irish situation was attempting to minimize the efforts toward a solution. A man who would do that for the purpose of gaining support for his party issues, he declared, was a traitor to his country.

Regarding the reprisals, Mr. Asquith said he was confident that when parliament resumed it would insist upon an independent and impartial inquiry into the reprisals cases, which "were not acts of self-defence, but blind vengeance."

Referring to the burning of creameries he declared that no parallel to these reprisals could be found except in the achievements of the Germans. So far as he knew no one concerned in the outrages of the past four months had been punished. He concluded with a condemnation of what he called the makeshift home rule bill now before parliament.

Sir Edward Carson, discussing the measure put forward by the premier for home rule for the south and west counties and another for Ulster, said that a majority for this was secured, but he personally thought it was cruel to the people of Ireland to present to try to lead Ireland into a political war for independence. If once that war broke out it could not be ended during the present generation.

AMBASSADOR DAVIS LAUDS WORK OF THE LEAGUE

New York, Oct. 14.—John W. Davis, United States ambassador to England, declared in a speech at Cooper Union tonight that the league of nations up to the present time has been entirely successful.

"It was never designed to take over and solve by mere magic the multiplied troubles which the great war has brought upon mankind," Mr. Davis said. "It has worked no miracles, but for an organization so newly-born, it has fully justified the highest hopes of its founders."

John Hoffman, giving an address at Windsor, but believed to be Detroit, stole $2,000 worth of jewelry from the City Hall Jewelers, Queen street, a few days ago, and confessed to the deed to detectives in Toronto yesterday. When arrested he was outside a jewelry store on York street, his pockets filled with diamonds, pearls, beads, rings and other precious stones and necklaces.

DISCOVER BIG PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON IN CITY OF KINGSTON

Master Fiends Had Sufficient Nitro-Glycerine to Demolish Penitentiary—Unknown Parties Outside Jail Said to Be Leaders in the Scheme.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 14.—(By Canadian Press)—The Kingston Standard, in an exclusive story on its front page today announces sensational and astounding discoveries of a master plot to make a general jail delivery from the Portsmouth penitentiary and to blow the entire institution to atoms. Have just been made at the penitentiary.

The finding of enough nitro-glycerine to blow the entire institution to nothing, together with some fuse and a quantity of weapons proved the unearthing of the most daring and fiendish plot ever recorded in this section of Canada.

While the officials of the penitentiary refused to discuss the matter today, it was learned that suspicion has been entertained of a plot for some time, and as the result of rigid investigation the discoveries were made. A general search was instituted, and after certain portions of some structure were torn away several cans of nitro-glycerine, together with fuses, were found, while elsewhere a number of rifles and guns were unearthed.

It is an open secret that there has been suspicion directed towards several convicts for some time, and the discovery is another link in the chain.

HAS DONE ITS BEST TO AVERT CALAMITY OF A MINERS' STRIKE

Lloyd George Says Government is Still Ready to Explore Any Avenue Leading to Peaceful Solution—Miners Reject Government's Proposal and Country Faces Strike.

London, Oct. 14.—After consulting with Sir Robert Horne, president of the board of trade, today, Mr. Lloyd George replied to the miners' executive to the effect that the government had exhausted every effort to prevent a calamity, and had explored, and was still ready to explore, every avenue which might lead to a peaceful solution.

In a letter to Robert Smillie, the miners' leader, the premier expresses profound regret and disappointment at the rejection of proposals "so surprisingly reasonable," and says it is impossible to conceive of any situation more likely to bring about serious disaster to the country's trade.

The premier reviews the government's efforts to find a solution and points out how, finding that recent increases in wages have been followed almost automatically by reduced production, the government has sought an arrangement providing an incentive for a larger output. He expressed the belief that the country will be fortified in its determination to endure the trials imposed by the rejection of the offer in the knowledge that the proposals made by its elected government have received the support of the most responsible and experienced minds in the federation.

Facing Industrial Crisis. The United Kingdom today was faced with perhaps the most ominous industrial crisis in its history, due to their demand for the coal miners to allow the strike notices to become effective Saturday night following their rejection of the compromise offered to them in the form of a two-shilling per shift increase in wages.

JAMAICA-CANADA PACT IS RATIFIED

Kingston, Jamaica, Oct. 14.—The legislative council today ratified a trade agreement between Canada and Jamaica. Under the agreement Jamaica obtains a preference of 50 per cent. on several articles, including sugar, while Canada obtains a 25 per cent. preference in return for a subsidized steamship service between Montreal, Jamaica and the West Indies, which will carry freights at reduced rates, beginning in January next.

LIBERALS CHOOSE MAJOR H. KIPPEN FOR N. E. TORONTO

Eight Were Nominated, But All Others Dropped Out.

SPEECH BY DEWART

A very moderately-attended meeting of Northeast Toronto Liberals was held last night in Foresters' Hall, for the purpose of selecting a candidate to oppose Major A. Lewis, the Conservative nominee in the forthcoming election for the legislature on Nov. 8.

There is little doubt but that Dr. H. Dewart, Dr. Smillie Lawson, Controller Ramsden, M. J. O'Leary, Dr. George A. Bingham, Mrs. H. E. Moore and Col. A. E. Kippick, were the only candidates who were nominated, but they all dropped out except Major H. Kippen, D.S.O., M.C., who was proposed by Col. J. C. Cooper and duly adopted by the convention.

The others nominated were: Mrs. A. H. Norton, Dr. Smillie Lawson, Controller Ramsden, M. J. O'Leary, Dr. George A. Bingham, Mrs. H. E. Moore and Col. A. E. Kippick. There is little doubt but that Dr. H. Dewart could have obtained the nomination had he so required, but he firmly declined the honor. Controller Ramsden took the opportunity to announce his intention to run for controller again next January.

Major Kippen, in returning thanks for his nomination, declared himself in favor of the fullest development of hydro power, and restful, and he also wanted the Ontario government to make itself more felt, and in evidence at Ottawa, and contended Premier Drury should protest to Ottawa against the sugar embargo. He was also in favor of the Liberal policy in regard to timber lands.

Liberal Leader Speaks. H. H. Dewart, the Liberal party leader, made a fighting speech, and declared the farmer party, assisted by a small section of the Labor party, were not the only party in the province, and were but a group in politics, and not a party. He said the Toronto Liberals could have obtained the nomination of the Liberal leader, but he felt sure they would do so again in the next division election. Referring to the candidature of Major Lewis, the Liberal leader asked: "Do you want a committee to inquire into the honesty and selflessness of the Liberal candidate, who voted for them, and he felt sure they would do so again in the next division election. Referring to the candidature of Major Lewis, the Liberal leader asked: "Do you want a committee to inquire into the honesty and selflessness of the Liberal candidate, who voted for them, and he felt sure they would do so again in the next division election."

MEIGHEN WARNED BY MAJOR LEWIS

Sugar Order's Rescinding and Dismissal of Board Are Strongly Urged.

Resolutions vigorously protesting against the action of the board of commerce in restricting the importation of cheap sugar from the United States, and in fixing a maximum price of 21c a pound for the sale of Canadian sugar were unanimously adopted last night by the Conservative Association of Ward Two, Northeast riding, and the Conservative Women's Auxiliary of Ward Four. Major Alex C. Lewis, Conservative candidate in the coming by-election in the Northeast riding, last night telegraphed Premier Arthur Meighen at Ottawa, as follows:

RESCINDING OF SUGAR ORDER ON OCT. 20 SEEMS CERTAIN

Hon. C. J. Doherty Advises Dominion Cabinet That Board of Commerce Had in His Opinion No Power to Make Order Fixing Price and Shutting Out Competition—Premier Meighen Defers Western Tour for Week.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Action by the government in regard to the order of the board of commerce fixing the price of granulated sugar at 21 cents per pound and confining sales to Canada, came with dramatic swiftness tonight when it was announced to the Canadian Press, Limited, that the order had been suspended pending a hearing before the governor-in-council on Wednesday, October 20. Unless reasons can be shown for contrary action at the hearing the order of the board will doubtless then be finally rescinded. Meanwhile, as stated, it is suspended.

Owing to the importance of the matter and his desire to be present at the hearing and until the question is finally disposed of, Prime Minister Meighen has decided to defer for one week his western tour. All dates of meetings announced are, therefore, postponed for that length of time. Order Probably Illegal.

The decision of the government was arrived at today after a full consideration of the effect of the regulations passed yesterday by the board. This decision, which is set out in an order-in-council based upon a report made by Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, sets out the view that the regulations passed by the board of commerce are very probably illegal and that whether strictly illegal or not they are of a character never intended by the legislation establishing the board. The view is further expressed that they seem designed to effect a purpose wholly outside the board's authority.

On these grounds the government has acted on its own motion and has declared the order inoperative. In view of the very great importance of the question involved opportunity will be given to all interested, for and against, to be heard by the governor-in-council if they so desire, and Wednesday, October 20, at 10.30 a.m., has been fixed as the date of the hearing.

Doherty's Opinion as Guide. The order-in-council, after quoting the paragraphs of the board of commerce order which would have had the effect of prohibiting the importation of refined sugar into Canada, proceeds to quote the opinion of the minister of justice, which forms the basis of the decision arrived at. It is in part as follows: "The minister observes that there arise on the face of the regulations embodied in said paragraphs questions which require to be considered."

SUGAR BUBBLE BURSTS BIG INTERESTS SHAKEN

Directors of Certain Refining Companies and at Least One Supporting Bank Stand to Lose Heavily—Protests Against Dear Sugar Put Issue Squarely Up to Meighen.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Certain Canadian sugar refining companies, their directors, at least one bank that protected them, stand to lose a lot of money out of sugar; and they have appealed to the board of commerce at Ottawa for relief. They even allege that they refused to sell the refined sugar to the United States when they could have made a big profit, and sold it to Canadian consumers on a narrow profit. They even say they did, at the request of the Dominion government at the time.

A lot of speculation took place in refinery shares in sugar, aided by money being found to carry the shares on margin; also by money being found to carry sugar bought on speculation. A sudden drop in the price of sugar in the States has knocked the bottom out of this adventure in Montreal, and the refiners, their directors, the speculators in shares and sugar, those

SUGAR REFINERS "STUCK" WITH $60,000,000 STOCK

H. R. Drummond, President of Canada Sugar Company, Charges That Continuous Government Control Has Developed Crisis Affecting Entire Commercial Structure of Country.

Montreal, Oct. 14.—(By Canadian Press)—That, as a direct result of continuous Dominion government control of the industry, the sugar refiners of Canada are left with commitments representing a value of $60,000,000, which they have been forced into acquiring, accumulating and holding under government orders, and which they are unable to sell, except at a loss involving the practical destruction of their industry, if compelled to do so in face of the ruinous market conditions that now obtain under the unusual market conditions in the United States; that the issues involved do not stop short at the sugar refiners, but they affect the entire commercial structure of the Dominion of Canada, and that the present situation is not of the making of the sugar refiners and would not have developed had they been left to their own devices—above are the points made by Huntley R. Drummond, president of the Canada Sugar Refining Company, Limited, speaking after a conference with representatives of sugar refining interests in this city

At a Standstill. As matters stand, the sugar industry in Canada today is at a complete standstill. The plants of the four refineries are closed. Twenty-five hundred men are idle. There is an accumulation of stock, raw and refined, amounting to millions of pounds, which cannot be marketed under present conditions. The aid of the board of commerce, except in a way that spells ruin for a considerable part of the industry. The issues do not stop short of the sugar refiners. They affect the entire commercial structure of Canada. The action of the board of commerce has been taken with complete knowledge of what these issues are. If it were merely a question of saving the refiners' profits, that would be another question, but it is much more far-

MANITOBA PREMIER FOR TARIFF REVISION

Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—(By Canadian Press.)—Final arguments for the reduction of the protective tariff were presented to the sessions of the tariff commission here today by representatives of the western farmers.

Winnipeg manufacturers presented statements in which they alleged that the high tariff is essential to the continuance of many industries in Canada. The prairie section of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association presented their final documents in which they argued against various appeals for consideration put in by the farmers during the western sessions of the commission.

Premier T. C. Norris, on behalf of the provincial legislature read a resolution passed unanimously by the house at the last session, which put the legislature on record as approving of the demands of the farmers. The resolution was similar in detail to the one passed by the Saskatchewan legislature.

W. D. Bailey, M.L.A. for Assiniboia, represented the Dominion Labor party before the commission at the afternoon session. He presented the viewpoint of this body on the tariff question and practically supported the arguments of the farmers for reduction of the tariff, although he claimed that a more general co-operation between all parties affected is necessary before any solution can be arrived at.

POLICE ARE STRONG FOR FLASH LAMPS

Aroused Over Suggestion That Batteries Cost Too Much.

Hamilton, Oct. 14.—Now that the new electric flash lamps have been secured for the police department, Chief Whistler is credited with having stated that they were too costly, due to the short life of the batteries. Many of the constables, however, feel that the old-type oil lamp should be done away with entirely, and the use of the flashlights continued, irrespective of the cost. Many of them have carried flashlights for years at their own expense, and state that they will continue to do so, if necessary, rather than use the oil lamps.

G. W. V. A. OFFICIAL EXPLAINS POSITION

"Regarding my speaking at Massey Hall on Sunday next at a mass meeting of returned men," said Com. H. L. Howe, the newly-elected president of the central branch of the G.W.V.A., at a meeting held in Columbus Hall last night. "I cannot go on the platform with Mr. Flynn when he alludes to our policy as 'the one dollar a day camouflage.' I do not think that it is in the best taste for him to make any such allusions in his position."

"I saw Secretary Marsh of the G. A. U. merely to ascertain if there was a basis for unity between us. The politicians are ticked to death to see us fighting each other, and we can only accomplish something by getting together."

The branch heartily endorsed Mr. Howe's attitude on the home question and passed a resolution repudiating the action of the district command in suggesting that Mr. Howe had not taken the proper procedure in connection with it.

Another resolution was that the branch endorse Calver Scott in his campaign against the government in the House of Commons and that in their opinion a commission of returned men be appointed to investigate the whole affair.

Mr. Geo. Murrell was elected permanent secretary and eight new members were initiated into the branch.

CUBAN CRISIS HITS SUGAR EVEN HARDER

New York, Oct. 14.—The extent of the decline in sugar prices in the United States, and its demoralizing effect on producers or holders of remaining supplies, has been emphasized by this week's announcement of a 50-day moratorium in Cuba. Refined sugar, which reached 75¢ per pound for granulated on the peak of the advance last spring, is now quoted here at 11¢ by refiners, while the price of raw sugar has declined from well above the 23¢ level to 7¢ per pound, on the basis of the last reported transaction.

The moratorium is expected by dealers to relieve the market of any immediate pressure from the Cuban stocks, and a slightly better demand for refined sugar has been reported during the past day or two. So far, however, the buying has been limited to orders for prompt shipment.

LINES GOVERNMENT UP WITH INTERESTS

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 14.—The Liberal leader was more than two hours late in arriving here, and was at once whisked to the Empress Theatre, where a large audience was awaiting him. It was his first address in the Yale constituency, where a by-election is now pending to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Martin Burrell.

Identifying the present government with the big interests of the country, Mr. King stated that the nature of one at least of these interests had been disclosed by the order which the government had just sent forth for its appointees on the board of commerce directing that the transactions as to the buying and selling of sugar should be tied to definite channels, which would find their fountain head in the half-dozen refineries which constituted one vast monopoly in this country.

Toward the close of his address he demanded again that the government should make an appeal to the country.

NO "MADE-IN-CANADA" TRAINS FOR BELGIUM

Latter Decides to Place Order for Twenty-Five Hundred Coaches in Germany.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—(By Canadian Press.)—Canada has lost the order for 2,400 steel railway cars which the Belgian government, thru the Canadian Trade Commission, had sought to place with manufacturers in this country, instead of "made in Canada" cars. Advice to the trade commission are to the effect that Belgium has placed the order with Germany and will pay for the railway material with foodstuffs which are to be supplied to Germany.

Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

TELLS SAFE, SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can readily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist, a ounce of Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucous droppings in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly 90 per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing has been restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

BELGIAN SINGER IN FINE PROGRAM

Madame Lucia de Munck, Belgian soprano, gave a song recital in Massey Hall last night with Richard Tattersall and Boris Hambourg as assisting artists. Altho in Toronto some time, this was the first occasion on which the singer had been heard as the principal in a program, she had taken part as soprano soloist in the Stabat Mater with the Knights of Columbus Choir. Last night Madame de Munck had fourteen numbers beginning with "Sonnet d'Amour" by Franca Thome, and closing with "The Wanderer" from the cycle, "A Country Lover" by Graham Peck. Among the most attractive selections were "Absence" by Hector Berlioz, which received tender interpretation, and "Aveate," by Ch. Will Gluck. Two numbers with solo obligato by Boris Hambourg and Richard Tattersall at the piano, were sung with nice appreciation of artistic effects. These were "Le Nil" by Xavier Leroux, and "Chant Hindou," by Henry Bemberg. Madame de Munck has a big soprano voice and displayed fine familiarity with her selections. She had, however, an exacting role and some of the numbers seemed to require more support. Perhaps on some succeeding occasion musical Toronto may have the pleasure of hearing Madame de Munck with full orchestral accompaniment. A number of floral offerings were given to the artist.

The pianist, Richard Tattersall, gained an enthusiastic recall for his graceful and conscientious rendition of "Scherzo," C. Sharp Minor, Chopin. Doris Hambourg played in his usual sympathetic and mastery way.

RESCINDING OF ORDER PROBABLE

Upon consideration of these questions the minister is convinced that the board had no power under the statutes applicable to it to make said orders or regulations, but even if the provisions of the statutes could be by any ingenuity be construed as conferring upon it such power, the minister cannot conceive that such a construction would be in accordance with what was intended or contemplated by the government in introducing or by parliament when enacting the provisions of the board of commerce act and the combines and fair prices act, 1919, nor that it was contemplated or intended that the powers thereby conferred could or would be exercised in the manner they have been by said orders or regulations, or for purposes such as those sought to be attained by the said orders and regulations; that is to say, so as to restrain for the purpose of enhancing or maintaining high prices, buyers or sellers of commodities from dealing with the public at large and to limit them to buying or selling from or to only specified classes of the community with the effect of practically prohibiting importation into Canada.

LABOR INCENSED AT SUGAR ORDER

General condemnation of the sugar policy of the board of commerce was voiced yesterday by labor representatives at the Labor Temple.

Controller Jos. Gibbons, business agent of the Street Railwaymen's Union, said: "I can see no justification for the action of the board. When the sugar refineries back in 1914 bought their raw materials cheaply they did not hold down their prices until these stocks had been utilized, but took their profit with every rise of the market. The United States sugar refineries are no philanthropic institutions because they are selling sugar at 12 and 13 cents per pound. When a man holds you up and picks your pocket you are not a philanthropist, but with the government picking your pocket you have none."

Dear Mr. Maclean:

The recent decision of the board of commerce to hold the price of sugar at 21c per pound has aroused the bitterest feeling that one can imagine against the board and against our Conservative government.

THE HOUSE 'ROUND THE CORNER

By GORDON HOLMES

"Well, Uncle Ferdie, you dear old thing—don't you know me?" she cried. Dr. Scalfie was not a man of demonstrative habit; but for once in his life, he literally gasped with surprise.

"Meg!" he stammered. "My own little Meg!"

He grasped her hands in both of his. A dozen questions were hovering on his lips, yet all he could find to say was: "Mother comes tomorrow, or next day at latest."

"Is Mrs. Garth here, too?"

"No, mother comes tomorrow, or next day at latest."

"You intend remaining, I hope?"

"Well, our movements are rather erratic, but we shall have several opportunities of meeting you before we go."

Betty appeared, carrying a lamp, which she set on a bracket at the corner of the stairs. Scalfie, still holding Meg's hand, drew her to the light.

"Come here!" he said. "Let me have a good look at you. Prettier than ever, 'pon me soul! And how is your dear mother? Where have you buried yourself all this time? How long is it? Two years! Never a line to a forlorn uncle, even at Christmas! I shan't forgive you tomorrow, but I'm so pleased to see you tonight that at present I'll forget my neglect."

"Uncle Ferdie, it was not my fault. Mother couldn't bear me to mention Elmdale or any of its associations."

"Ah, of course! of course! But time is the great healer. I'll pray for continued fine weather, so that her beloved mhor may smile on her arrival. Well, well! I feel as tho' I had seen you—seen a fairy. Mind you, I don't vanish before I come downstairs. I'm ready now, Mr. Armathwaite."

The worthy doctor had nearly blundered, but he executed what Americans call a "side-step" neatly enough. Armathwaite smiled at the girl. She had passed this initial test with honors. A couple more such experiences, and James Walker would be fouted as a mischievous fool if he talked of Stephen Garth being alive.

As he plotted the doctor upstairs, Armathwaite glanced at the window of ill-omen. The light of the lamp had conquered the external gloaming. The leaded divisions of colored glass were apparently one uniform tint. Even the somber figure in black armor had lost its predominance.

Whittaker, who was lying on his back, tried to turn when the two men entered his bedroom. He groaned, and said querulously:

"Couldn't you have got here sooner, doctor? I'm suffering the worst sort of agony. This confounded ankle of mine must have been tied up all wrong."

"We'll soon put that right," said Scalfie, with professional cheerfulness. "Will you hold the lamp, Mr. Armathwaite, while I have a look? What time did the accident happen?"

"Exactly at half-past seven," said Armathwaite.

"Whittaker," put in Armathwaite. "Ah, yes! Did you mention the name? The mere sight of Meg Garth drove everything else from my mind. But it's only a quarter to nine, Mr. Whittaker, and a messenger had to reach me at Belleby, three miles away. Hello, who tied this bandage? You, Mr. Armathwaite? Have you had hospital training?"

"No, nothing beyond the rough and ready ways of a camp. A friend in the Indian Medical certainly taught me how to adjust a strip of linc."

"You shouldn't grumble, young man, you've been looked after in first-class style," said the doctor, smiling at Percy. "It may relieve your mind if I tell you that I couldn't have done any better myself. Or, perhaps, if the pain is very bad, you'll think that the poorest sort of consolation. Fortunately, Mr. Armathwaite warned me as to what had happened, so I've brought a lotion which will give you some relief. Now, tell me where I touch a sore place. I shan't hurt you more than is needed to find out exactly where the trouble lies."

In a few minutes Scalfie had reached the same conclusion as Armathwaite. Indeed, he gave the latter a look which was easily understandable. If it were not for the moral effect of his presence on the sufferer, he need not have been summoned from Belleby that night. He applied the soothing lotion, however, and substituted a thin, India-rubber strip for the linen bandage. Then he and Armathwaite assisted Whittaker to undress, and placed him in bed as comfortably as possible.

"Now, I want to assure you that the prompt attention you received prevented a very awkward swelling," said the doctor, before taking his departure. "You've sprained the ankle rather badly. It has been allowed to swell it would have given you a very nasty time. As it is, if you're careful, you'll be able to hobble about in a fortnight—perhaps a fortnight!"

"Whether you remain here or not, you'll be lucky if you can put that foot on the ground within that time. You may be moved, if you're carried, tho' I don't advise it."

"But it's perfect rot to talk about being stewed up in this room all that time!" protested the other, his eyes gleaming yellow, and his fingers plucking nervously at the bedclothes. "This isn't my house. I'm a stranger here. Besides, there are things I must do. I have to be up and about tomorrow, without fail."

Dr. Scalfie nodded. He was far too wise a person to argue with an excited patient.

"Well, wait till I examine you in the morning," he said. "Sometimes, injuries of the sprain order yield very rapidly to treatment. Take this, and you'll have a night's rest, at any rate." He shook some crystals out of a small bottle into a little water, and watched Whittaker drinking the decoction.

"Let quiet now," he went on, soothingly. "You'll soon be asleep. If that bandage hurts when you wake, you must grin and bear it. I'll be here about 10 o'clock."

Downstairs, he told Armathwaite that he had given Whittaker a stiff dose of bromide.

"Here's the bottle," he said. "If he's awake in half an hour's time, let him have a similar lot. Don't be afraid. He can stand any amount of it."

Armathwaite smiled, and Scalfie smiled back at him. They understood, without further speech, that a youngster of pronounced neurotic temperament could withstand a quantity of the drug that would prove dangerous to the average man.

"Who is he?" continued the doctor. "I haven't seen him here before. Is there any difficulty about his remaining in the Grange?"

"He is a friend of Meg's," explained Armathwaite. "She was staying with his sister at Chester, and we all reached Elmdale within a few hours of one another."

Thus was another pitfall safely skirted. By the time Dr. Scalfie was in the dining-room and talking to Meg, he had arrived at conclusions which were perfectly reasonable and thoroughly erroneous.

In response to Armathwaite, he promised to bring a nurse in the morning, as he was confident that the sprain would keep Whittaker bed-ridden at least a couple of weeks. Then he took his leave.

MANY FATALITIES IN ITALIAN RIOTS

Two-Hour Strike in Favor of Soviet Results in Fourteen Deaths.

London, Oct. 14.—Many persons were killed and others wounded at various places in Italy during a two-hour strike Thursday, says a despatch to The London Times from Rome.

Nine persons were killed at San Giovanni Rotondo, four were killed and 14 wounded in Bologna and one man was killed and several men were injured in a clash between strikers and the police in Milan.

Bombs were thrown at several hotels in Milan, including the Hotel Cavour, where the British delegation to the league of nations conference are staying. No one was injured, however.

The offices of a Socialist newspaper were set on fire and the building was destroyed.

A despatch received in London Wednesday night said the leaders of the Italian Socialist party and of the General Confederation of Labor in Italy had published a joint manifesto in The Avanti of Rome ordering demonstrations in every town in Italy on Thursday. The object of the movement, it was stated, was to force the Italian government to recognize Soviet Russia.

A Rome despatch received here says that there was only partial suspension of work in the Italian capital Thursday. The operatives on the street cars suspended work, but the streets were virtually normal.

The rioting in Bologna, the despatch says, was due to extremists attacking the police barracks. The dead in that city included two policemen. The town was quiet tonight, but work will be suspended tomorrow as a sign of mourning for those killed in the street fighting.

KITCHENER TO HAVE GOOD FUEL SUPPLY

Kitchener, Ont., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Fuel is beginning to arrive in Kitchener daily in sufficient quantities to allow all fears of a serious shortage here this winter, according to a statement of J. Millhouse, G.T.R. agent here.

Joseph Peil, who broke his back in a fall from the top of a house in St. Jacobs today, is now thought by his physician that if his nerves can recover from the shock and the spinal cord is not severed, he will recover. He grows constantly stronger. His case is considered a remarkable one.

REDUCE FIRST YEAR MEDICAL STUDENTS

(Continued From Page 1). ber of students admitted to the first year for the session 1921-1922 must be greatly reduced, says the number entering this year. Accordingly, it has been determined to receive applications until September 15, 1921, after which the students will be chosen on the basis that priority will be given to (1) returned soldiers who have met the entrance requirements as of the present session, and (2) those holding certificates of higher value than, pass junior matriculation. As the university is a state institution preference will be given in each of these classes to residents of the province of Ontario.

Set Higher Standard.

For the session, 1922-1923, a higher standard will be required from those who propose to enter upon the study of medicine.

The entrance requirements will be divided into two classes. Part I will be based upon pass junior matriculation, of which the candidates are required to take Latin, English, History, Mathematics, Experimental Science (Physics and Chemistry) and one of the languages, Greek, French, German, Spanish.

Part II, with consent of honor matriculation in English, Mathematics, Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry, and one of Greek, Latin, French, German.

Candidates are recommended very strongly to complete the pass matriculation in one year and the honor subjects in a subsequent year. The standard in honor subjects is 50 per cent, at least in each subject.

A candidate must have completed the seventeenth year of his age on or before the 1st of October of the year in which he seeks registration. Only under exceptional circumstances will a candidate of thirty years or over be admitted.

EXPLAIN ATTITUDE TOWARDS LEAGUE

New York, Oct. 14.—A statement explaining the position in the presidential campaign of 31 prominent men who have advocated a form of international agreement, was issued over their signatures here tonight, and announced they would support Senator Harding, the Republican nominee.

Elihu Root, Herbert Hoover, Geo. W. Wickersham, Henry L. Stimson, A. Lawrence Lowell, Henry W. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were among the signers of the statement, which says in part:

"We have reached the conclusion that the true course to bring the United States into an effective league to preserve peace is by insisting with Mr. Cox upon the acceptance of such a provision as article ten, thus prolonging the unfortunate situation, created by Mr. Wilson's insistence upon that article, but by frankly calling upon the other nations to agree to changes in the proposed agreement which will obviate this vital objection and other objections less the subject of dispute."

"For this course we can look only to the Republican party and its candidate, Mr. Harding, and to Mr. Cox are bound not to follow it. The Republican party is bound by every consideration of good faith to declare object to a course until the general conditions of Europe make it essential that the stabilizing effect of the treaty already made between the European nations be not lost by them, and that the necessary changes be made by changing the terms of that treaty rather than by beginning entirely anew."

Facts about your name; its history; its meaning; whence it was derived; its significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel.

LEONA. (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Synchro-Cate, Inc.)

Leona is a feminine name evolved in this country from the popular French name, signifying "lion." But its earliest origin was not French, but Greek. Leo was a favorite in Greece. Herodotus attributes its popularity to the fact that the captive Leo was the first victim of the Persians.

The name was passed on thru Greeks to the Romans, and thence to the English. Leo was a favorite name of the Emperor Constantine. Leo was a favorite name of the Emperor Constantine. Leo was a favorite name of the Emperor Constantine.

Leo and Leonie are popular feminine names in Spain and France. Leonarda, from the same source, is also a Spanish favorite. Leona, however, is an American version. By some, it is believed to be the result of the influence of American Indian nomenclature.

Coral is Leona's talismanic stone. It is believed to bring her good health, and protect her from contagion. Tuesday is her lucky day and 6 her lucky number.

Her sleepy head upon the pillow falls. Over her drowsy eyes, the eyelids creep. Tired of her play, her teddy-bear and dolls. Healthy, content and happy—she falls asleep.

Reflections of a Bachelor Girl

By Helen Rowland. Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

What the average bachelor thinks he knows about women would fill a book; but what he has overlooked would fill a Carnegie library.

There are three triumphal days in every woman's life: the day she is born, when all the family wish that she is "wonderful"; the day she is married, when all the newspapers agree that she is "beautiful"; and the day she is buried, when the storkman and her tombstone agree that she was "good and noble."

When the fire of an old love has burned to ashes, it takes merely the zephyr of a new flirtation to blow the last spark away.

The average man builds him a beautiful "ideal" of woman, then marries a dimpled chin, a giggle, or a baby-stare and tries to fit it into the pedestal, and disfigure it with a hair.

When your husband begins picking on the cook and criticizing the domestic regime, let him tell you all he knows about how to run a house. It will only take him two or three minutes.

The exquisite thrill of first discovering that you are falling in love is exceeded only by the thrill of discovering that you have at last fallen out of it.

A confirmed bachelor is one who has come to the inalterable conclusion that a girl "by any other name" than his OWN is not only "as sweet"—but just a little bit sweeter.

The flame of love never dies out in a man's heart; it merely turns like a searchlight on one object after another, dearie.

If there were any terms in the modern debutante's kiss, they must all have died of "painter's colic," long ago.
