PETITION WITH 730,000 NAMES

Revolt Against New French Law to Follow

SOCIALISTS BACK OF IT General Military Uprising With Wholesale Desertions Reported Planned Against the Three Year Army Service — Proposal is to Make Outbreak as Soon as Law Passes

(Canadian Press)

Paris, July 4.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed in the Chamber of Deputies on Thursday. While the debate was in progress the house was surrounded by the entrance of a long file of deputies, bearing an enormous package. Some carried their burdens on their shoulders, some on their heads, and some staggered beneath the weight of two loads.

The line advanced to the president's chair and the bundles were carefully deposited in front and around it, until the president was completely hidden from view. His voice, however, could be heard calling to the ushers to remove the ramparts. The line of beavers consisted of the socialist deputies, who were presenting a petition against the three year army service bill. It contained 730,000 signatures.

New York, July 4.—A Paris cable says—According to news received from all parts of France, a general military revolt, accompanied by wholesale desertions, has been organized by the socialists, especially those of the labor party, in protest against the three year law.

It is said that the revolt will break out as soon as the law finally passes into effect. Recent incidents at Tours, Belfort and Rhodes, according to official information, were only preludes to a general outbreak and this is why the government is now being so rigorously against the anti-militarists.

With the central labor council dissolved and most of the officials of the confederation in prison awaiting trial, it is hoped that the movement against the law will be more successful. There is a general fear, however, that the conspiracy is so widely ramified that most dangerous multiples will have to be quelled even should the plan for a general strike succeed.

WATER AND SEWERAGE FOR TWO NEW STREETS

The steady growth of the city is indicated by the large amount of extension work demanded for the water and sewerage department this year. Already long stretches of pipe are being laid in new territory this year and the meeting of the city commissioners this morning Commissioner Wigmore recommended the installation of water and sewerage facilities in two new streets.

These are Brunswick place, off Douglas avenue, a new property which is being developed by the New Brunswick Realty Co. Ltd., and Olive street, between Prince and Duke streets, on the east side of the city. The property owners guarantee a return of ten per cent. on the investment from the water service amounts to that much.

Mr. Wigmore also recommended the purchase of twenty eight inch, eight to ten inch valves for use in connection with the new water mains which are being laid.

Commissioner McLellan was present at the meeting of commissioners this morning to discuss the location of new hydrants for which connections are to be made while the work of renewing the water mains is in progress.

SUSSEX RE-TAKEN

Battle in Broiling Sun is Won by the Blue Force — Whole Operations Very Successful

(Special To Times). Sussex, N. B., July 4.—The battle between the red and blue "armies" is over. Sussex has been recaptured from the enemy and happiness and rejoicing follow. The Blue Force, which marched to Apohaqui yesterday and bivouaced there, broke camp about daybreak and hastened to the camp here. Colonel McLean, commander of the Red Army, had bivouaced all night at Bonnell's farm, about two miles distant, and it was in that vicinity that the conflict occurred. The battle was waged beneath a boiling hot sun, and with very few casualties. The artillery batteries from their vantage ground on a hill near the Knoll opened fire and this was at once answered by the heavy booming of the guns located on a hill some distance away by the relieving army and followed with a sharp and incessant exchange of rifle shots fired by the infantry and artillery. The "battle" began about 6 o'clock and lasted for a little more than an hour. The air became heavy with the scent of powder, and the peaceful surroundings of the farm lands nearby were rudely disturbed by the cracks of the Ross rifle and the hiss of the machine guns. The field operations and bivouacing were regarded as the most successful in the way of tactical maneuvers attempted at Sussex. The men acquitted themselves excellently and the whole scheme went through satisfactorily. The troops are breaking camp today.

British Expedition Into Bogota in Search of Wealth of Gems Hidden in Cache For 80 Years

(Canadian Press)

London, July 4.—When Lord Cowdray's firm sent Lord Murray to Bogota the oil contracts contemplated were only a minor consideration, according to reformation. It appears that when Lord Cowdray was in Central America last he secured information that a great hoard of rough emeralds had been lying in a secret cache near Bogota for more than eighty years. The directions given by his informants were indefinite and incomplete so Lord Murray was commissioned to send out a searching expedition including four expert American prospectors and trappers, and three trusty Scotchmen engaged in Lord Cowdray's Central American enterprises.

GREEK TROOPS DRIVE BULGARS

Villages Looted and People Put to Torture or Death—Another Battle Said to Be on — War Correspondent's View of Situation

(Canadian Press)

Saloniki, July 3.—Since their victory over the Bulgarians at Kilkish, the Greek troops have been successful in several smaller engagements in which the fighting was of a very severe nature. They are driving the Bulgarians before them toward the north and east. During the fighting which resulted in the occupation of Ghergheli by the Greeks, the Bulgarians became panic stricken and hundreds of them jumped into the river Vardar, where many of them were drowned.

The railroad between Ghergheli and Saloniki by way of Karauli has been restored and is in operation. About 2,000 wounded Greek soldiers arrived today in Saloniki furnishing evidence of the heavy fighting that had taken place. No news has reached here as to the result of the battle which began yesterday between the Greeks and the Bulgarians to the north of Kilkish, but it is known that the Greeks were successful in another fight at Matsukovo in which the Bulgarians suffered heavily.

The Greek authorities complain that the Bulgarians have looted some Greek villages and have tortured the inhabitants who will not sign a petition asking the Bulgarians to continue their occupation of the district.

Minister Recalled from Athens

New York, July 4.—A cable from Athens says: The Bulgarian minister at Athens has been recalled and will leave for Sofia on Saturday. Before giving notice of his recall, the Bulgarian minister again called on the Greek government and expressed his protest against the Bulgarian detachment at Saloniki. In his first declaration to the press, Mr. Venizelos, the minister maintained that a Greco-Bulgarian condominium had been established to govern the Balkan peninsula.

Mr. Venizelos protested energetically against this point of view.

Steamships conveying 1,500 Bulgarian prisoners from Salonki arrived at the Piræus yesterday. A large crowd was sitting on the quays and, to prevent disorder, the harbor master refused to allow the steamships to enter the port. There was a demonstration in Athens last night, through marching and singing Mr. Venizelos and Mr. Boskovich, the Serbian minister. The Bulgarian legation is guarded by Greek troops.

Sofia, Bulgaria, July 4.—A regiment of Serbian infantry accompanied by two squadrons of cavalry, continuing the artillery crossed the Bulgarian frontier yesterday, and reached the top of Tzernek Hill, where the troops are now encamped.

London, July 4.—King Constantine of Greece telegraphed personally today to the Greek minister in London, reporting of the massacre of Greek soldiers by Bulgarians in Macedonia, and of the extermination, under the most horrible circumstances, of the Greek populations in the villages through which the Bulgarians retreated.

Says Bulgars are Doing Well

Vienna, Austria, July 4.—Lieutenant Herminigunde Wagner, war correspondent of the Reichspost, who attained such notoriety during the hostilities between Turkey and the Balkan allies, telegraphed from the front that the Serbian army suffered terribly at Ochovopec, and that the Serbian victory over the Bulgarians at Salpi, was only a momentary success of merely local importance. The outstanding operations of the Bulgarian troops toward Kratoev and Egri Patanka have, he says, been successfully accomplished, so that the Bulgarians are at present advancing on Kumanova and the Serbian frontier.

On the right bank of the river, Vardar, he adds, the flanking operations of the Bulgarians have likewise progressed favorably so that Serbian positions at Voles or Kropoli, 24 miles southeast of Uskup, have become untenable and a Serbian retreat is imminent.

The Bulgarian offensive movement against Saloniki, he says, is also being continued successfully and portions of the Greek army have begun to retreat.

A telegram to the same newspaper from Sofia, says: Premier Danef and his cabinet, have resigned and a coalition ministry is being formed by General Racho Petrov, who, after the capture of Saloniki, was appointed military governor of that city. General Michael Savoff, the commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian army, has been appointed minister of war, while General Radko Dimitrieff, the victor of Kirk Killiseh and Lule Burgas, has been appointed the chief command of the Bulgarian army in the field.

The correspondent of the Reichspost at Athens telegraphs that Premier Venizelos has declared the conference of the Balkan powers at St. Petersburg belated and rendered impossible by the resumption of hostilities. A special session of the Greek parliament is to be convoked by the premier to draw up and pass a proclamation to the Greek nation and army.

Belgrade, Serbia, July 4.—The newspapers here say the fighting between the Bulgarians and Serbians has been in progress at Kotschana since yesterday.

The first convoy of Bulgarian prisoners taken by the Serbians, consisting of 1,160 rank and file, and seventeen officers, passed through Uskup today.

How a Wandering Knight of The Bike Won a Fairy Princess

After Pushing a Bicycle All Over Europe, He Sees, Wins and Wins Italian Nobleman's Pretty Daughter and Now They're Coming "Home" to Be Happy "Ever Afterward."

Maximilian St. George and his fiancée, Signorina Ape Mani.
 (Times' Special Correspondence)
 Chicago, June 30.—"You can't tell me that romance is dead!" says Maximilian John St. George.
 And Maximilian knows what he is talking about. For he worked his way to Europe on a cattleboat, rode a bicycle 10,000 miles through strange lands on forty cents a day, and won the heart of a rich and beautiful Italian noblewoman in her marble mansion on the Bay of Naples.
 Max was not rich. Besides, he had his own ideas of travel. He wanted to see and study people. So he made up an itinerary of 10,000 miles, covering nearly every part of Europe, took his bicycle and $250 and started.
 He had spent a morning among the ruins of old Pompeii, and paused at Castellamare di Stabia to eat his lunch beside a marble villa overlooking the lovely Bay of Naples. Curious villagers gathered around the strange visitor in khaki, with his dusty bicycle and knapsack and his foreign air.
 He noticed two women watching him from the villa. The younger one finally called out:
 "Parlez-vous français, monsieur?"
 "Certainement, mademoiselle!" Sure, he spoke French.
 "Would the gentleman not like some wine with his meat?" she asked.
 "It would go well enough," he answered.
 A servant appeared and led him into the villa. It was like an "Arabian Nights" tale.
 He was conducted to a magnificent dining room where a table was set for three. And, to his astonishment, he found himself eating luncheon with Signorina Ape Mani and her mother, in the home of Signor Quirico Mani, chevalier of the Italian Crown, warship builder and scion of one of the oldest and noblest houses of Italy.
 He told them of his wanderings and they listened as Desdemona listened to Othello.
 The signorina played the piano and violin for him and showed him the whole villa, with its beautiful furnishings, mosaics, paintings, sculptures and other art treasures, and then he went on his way.
 But the young American could not forget the pretty, talented Italian girl, and she did not forget him. They wrote to each other occasionally. And then, last year, Max went back to see her. And there, in the orange garden Signorina Ape (whose name means "honey bee") promised to be his wife.
 They will be married on August 4 at Castellamare, and it will be a grand wedding, such as befits the daughter of a chevalier of the crown. And Max, now junior member of a flourishing Chicago law firm, will bring her home with him.

LOBBY INQUIRY

Washington, July 3.—Two short sessions today covering subjects from Wall Street operations to lemon growing in California, brought the senate lobby investigation to a temporary end again. The committee adjourned tonight until Monday, when an effort will be made to clear the decks for the opening of the "Mullah testimony" involving alleged lobbying operations by the National Association of Manufacturers. Wall street and sugar and wood men were tonight ordered to appear Monday. Edward Lauterbach and David Lamaz will again be questioned as to their participation in efforts to influence members of the Morgan firm.

RAILWAYS MUST CARRY TRUNKS BY FREIGHT

Ottawa, July 3.—Henceforth trunks may be sent by freight on Canadian railways if corded securely. This means that the public won't have to pay express charges, which were referred to by Chairman Drayton at the railway commission this morning as enormous.
 An order was issued by the board after a hearing of the case that trunks be accepted as freight, if securely corded. This was done in spite of strenuous objections of the railways as voiced by George Ransome, of the Canadian Freight Association.
 "The reason this matter is up is the tremendous charges by the express companies for taking trunks by themselves," said the chairman. "There is one I have in mind where $8.10 was charged, three cents per pound. This is perfectly absurd."
 The present limited liability admitted by the railways of $5 was, he also thought, too low, and more will be heard of this, while an order will go forth ordering trunks to be accepted as freight. A release of liability may be made a condition of this.

MISSING SINCE JUNE 8

Peter Murray Left Home in North End to Walk to New River in Search of Work - No Word Since
 (The Daily Telegraph)
 Leaving his home in Sheriff street on June 8 with nothing but a kit of tools and some working clothes, after saying good-bye to his wife and children, Peter Murray walked in the direction of Spruce Lake with the intention of going to work on Sunday, near Musquash. From that day his family has heard nothing of him and they are at present in a state of intense anxiety over his disappearance.
 Becoming more alarmed each day, Mrs. Murray was at a loss what to do. At length she wrote a letter to New River and yesterday she received the sad reply that her husband had never arrived there, and no one in the district could give any information concerning his whereabouts. Immediately she placed the matter in the hands of the police and they intend to exert every effort in tracing the man.
 It will be remembered that Peter Murray was the man who reported and prosecuted Mark Carey for peddling liquor on Sunday. Being out of work and seeking employment, he decided to go to New River where he was sure he could get work. On June 8 he left his house and people saw him walking up Main street, out Douglas avenue and in the direction of Spruce Lake. Since he left the city nothing has been learned of him and fears are expressed that some mishap has befallen him. He may also have been with foul play. Many of his friends in the North End when they learned of his disappearance feared that such might have been the case.
 It cannot be found what happened after he passed beyond the city limits, and it is not known how far he went or what caused him to give up the idea of going to New River. He leaves at home his wife and three small children, who are in need of his assistance. They have placed the matter before the police and their urgent assistance is asked to clear up the matter.
 Murray is a man about 40 years of age, about five feet seven or eight inches tall, thin with a lean face. He is of a sallow complexion and has dark straight hair. When he left the city he was carrying a parcel of working tools and some working clothes. His family would appreciate any information about him.

The exhibit will be in the city until eight o'clock tonight when it will leave for eastern points. Britain is by far the wealthiest nation in the world. There is great wealth in the United States, but it is mostly in the possession of a few millionaires.

RAILWAYS CANCEL
CARTAGE TARIFFS
IN NEXT OCTOBER
(Montreal Herald)

The railways of Canada have issued notice of cancellation of tariffs covering cartage services at different cartage points in the Dominion. On and after October 1, the date when this notice will come into effect, shippers and consignees will be expected to make their own arrangements for cartage. It is stated that the companies have been forced to take this step owing to the failure to renew existing contracts with the cartage companies at present prices. The latter claim that owing to the increased cost of labor, supplies, and other matters essential to the service, they must have increased compensation. On the other hand, the railways assert that they cannot add to their burden of such expenses for the same reason as has induced the cartage companies to make their claim—namely, extra expenses. It is declared today that not only are the new conditions in line with the customary practice in the United States, where the public have to make their own arrangements for deliveries to and from the railway terminals, but also in many cases American shippers and consignees prefer to use their own teams. Should the cartage companies continue to work for shippers at the same rates a good deal of the present anxiety will be relieved. But that they will do this is at least doubtful, as the extra expenses of which they complain will still have to be met.

THOUSANDS KILLED IN BALKAN WAR
London, July 3.—The condition of affairs in the Balkan region is extraordinary. The twenty-four hours which the Bulgarian government accorded to Greece and Serbia to cease operations have expired. During the same period Bulgaria undertook to abstain from hostilities in order to give Russia time to intervene in favor of peace. But hostilities are being carried on, on both sides, apparently with the ferocity characteristic of the Balkan soldiers, and no declaration of war has yet been made. The respective diplomatic representatives are still at their posts.
There is now only the faintest hope that Russia or the powers will be able to prevent the struggle which is to decide whether or not Bulgaria shall be predominant in the Balkan confederation.

LITTLE MILDRED WETMORE
WINS THE FINE PONY OUTFIT
Announcement Made at Nickel Theatre This Afternoon—It Was a Strenuous Contest, Conducted Like an Election
One of the happiest children on the North American continent this afternoon was dainty little Mildred Wetmore of that popular summer resort Renforth. Mildred is the rightful owner of the beautiful little brown mare "Shadland Fedora," also the outfit of carriage and harness offered by Nickel Theatre and Oak Hill for the largest number of votes deposited up to June 27 last. It took more than four and a quarter million votes to win that precious little animal and equipment, for that was the approximate score of still younger and more diminutive Audrey Beryl Jones of Wright street. So it will be seen it was a battle royal between these little girls. Up to yesterday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock nobody knew who owned the pony outfit. All sorts of rumors were afloat among those interested, some of the stories placing the winning number above ten millions. To be exact Miss Wetmore's total was 5,098,180. Audrey Beryl Jones had 4,268,665.
Following are the next nearest competitors, who were hundreds of thousands in advance of the second line of contestants, to say nothing of the great number in the hundred-thousand class and the host who trailed further behind.
Jean Featherstone, 197 King street east. . . . . 2,160,335
Nan Coleman, 254 Carmarthen street. . . . . 1,848,873
Roy Merryweather, 207 St. James street, W. E. . . . . 1,766,895
Helen G. Lawlor, Pitt street. . . . . 861,910
Harold Maxwell, 90 St. James street. . . . . 796,800
Geoffrey Bowman, 87 Hazen street. . . . . 689,060
Mrs. W. E. Sumner. . . . . 602,780
Bates Tapley, Fair Vale, N. B. 489,250
The first announcement of the result of the vote was made known from the same stage this afternoon at every round of the program.
"Shadland Fedora," the prize pony, is thus pedigreed in the national records of the Canadian Pony Society under date of June 19th, 1913, also in the American Shetland Pony Club—
"Shadland Fedora (232) 1920—Light brownish bay, foal brand 554, foaled May 1911; bred by Powell Brothers, Shadland, Pa.; 2nd owner Mr. Irwin Dunlop, Greenfield, Ohio; 3rd owner, W. H. Golding, St. John, N. B. Sire "Shadland Raven," 8264; "Shadland Robin" (imp.) 672. Dam—"Shadland Victoria" 1659; "Shadland Dollie" (imp.), 641."
Needless to say there will be some great times among the kiddies of Renforth when "Fedora" joins the Wetmore family. Mildred's father is George W. Wetmore, city traveler for Baird & Peters, wholesale grocers.

WINNERS OF DR. MAHER'S TRIPS ARE ANNOUNCED
Drawing Held This Morning—Matthew Briggs Coburn and Mrs. John Akeley
The lucky winners of Dr. J. D. Maher's free trips are Matthew Briggs Coburn of Harvey Station, who wins the chief prize of a trip to Montreal, Toronto, Niagara and New York and return, or $40 in gold; and Mrs. John Akeley, 8 Barker street, who secures a return trip to Boston.
The drawing took place this morning, Philip Grattan, M. P. F., and J. M. Robinson, president of the Board of Trade, officiating. Twelve numbers were drawn for each prize with the understanding that, if the holder of the first number drawn does not claim the award in reasonable time it will go to the next and so on.
The numbers drawn for the first prize are as follows: 8971, Matthew Briggs Coburn, Harvey Station; 405, Edgar Hughes, 122 Adelaide street; 2405, 5122, 1574, 1834, 5402, 4272, 5408, 5414, 9860 and 4748.
The drawings for the second prize are: 5257, Mrs. John Akeley, 8 Barker street; 5854, 7198, 5479, 5089, 7861, 7963, 7138, 7615, 7201, 5856, 5316. ( )

CAN PLANTS SEE?
The final conclusion at which we arrive is, therefore, that although plants may not perceive (as we understand the word) the images which can be formed so perfectly in their epidermal cells, nevertheless they have a contrivance that enables them to distinguish light from darkness and to respond thereto. It is not suggested that plants feel in the same way that animals do; all that we can say is that internal activities of the plant are so closely bound up with external stimuli that the plant is constrained to move in a given direction until there is harmony or equilibrium between the activities of the plants in relation to the external world the more clearly does it appear that the stimulation of the living substance of the plant which results in its response to external forces is certainly on a lower plane, but probably only different in degree and not in kind from the stimulation of the much more highly organized nervous tissues in animals.

QUEEN A HOSPITAL NURSE
Margherita Assists at Operations in Roman Hospitals
Queen Margherita, who at the start of the war desired, at the urgent representation of her husband, from going to help her Montenegro father and sisters under the Red Cross, has blossomed forth in Rome as a hospital nurse.
The other afternoon she paid a surprise visit to the Children's Hospital, and attended an eye operation, holding the little patient in her arms.
Then, hearing that an operation for appendicitis was about to be performed in another ward, she asked to be allowed to lend a hand there, too.
For this it was necessary that Her Majesty don nurse's attire. She performed her duties to perfection, being told off as one of three nurses in attendance on that particular case.
On leaving the hospital the Queen signified her intention of paying frequent visits in the future, adding that it had been one of the most enjoyable days of her life.—New York Tribune.

SAFETY DEVICES SAVE 8000 LIVES
In his testimony before the government inquiry into the methods of the Steel Corporation, Mr. Farrell spoke of the "rescue corps" connected with the ore and coal mines. He said that he has thousands of personal acquaintances among the workmen of the corporation and has worked in the mills with a large number of them.
The corporation has a corps of bacteriologists who examine the drinking water in the mills. Last year the men employed by the corporation in the Connelville region made 3900 gardens and raised garden truck valued at $250,000 or an average of $50 per man. The corporation furnishes the seeds and men to plow the ground. The corporation builds houses for employes, when necessary. In 1911 and 1912 the corporation spent $1,363,967 on safety devices and since 1906 the fatal accidents among employes have been reduced to 40 per cent. In other words the safety devices have saved the lives of about 8000 men.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

MR. BORDEN ON THE LINKS

St. Andrews, N. B., July 3.-Two distinguished Canadians are now here enjoying the cool sea breezes, Premier Borden, who arrived by train today, and Hon. W. S. Fielding, who reached here yesterday. Both have their wives with them. The premier hopes to enjoy a few days golfing on St. Andrew's famous links.

A later despatch from St. Andrews gives additional details of the morning - particularly concerning the visit of Canada's Prime Minister to the golf links. Just as Mr. Borden got teed up to drive the seventeenth hole a pale green Emergency was detected peering from the bushes on the right of the starboard bunker.

The Greeks in St. John are law-abiding and industrious citizens, but we are likely to get fewer of them hereafter. The government of Greece has decided to restrict emigration, owing to the losses sustained in the war, and also because the little kingdom is increased in size as a result of the conflict. In future, only those more than forty years of age are to be allowed to emigrate.

Not to be outdone so far as municipal ownership is concerned, Cleveland, O., in order to give its hospitals and other municipal institutions a pure milk supply, has decided to run a municipal dairy. The city has purchased nearly 8,000 acres of land on which it has located the county farm for the poor, a farm sanitarium for tuberculosis patients, and a farm in connection with the house of correction. The city's cows will graze over the pastures of this tract, and its public institutions will use the milk, butter, and cream produced there in preference to that from outside dealers.

COST AS MUCH AS DREADNOUGHT

Facts of Interest About New York's Great New Building. Do you know that the Woolworth building in New York cost fully as much as a super-dreadnought battleship? Well, it did. The bill was $14,000,000 if you please. Apparently Mr. Woolworth had no difficulty in footing it out of his "five-and-ten-cent" savings, which goes a long way to demonstrate the importance of small change.

For a building of such mammoth proportions a few popular figures concerning the construction may be of interest, says a writer in Power. When it is considered that 24,000 tons of steel, 17,000,000 bricks, 50,000 cubic yards of sand, 15,000 cu. yd. of broken stone, 7500 tons of terra cotta on the exterior and 28,000 tons on the interior for partitions, etc., 53,000 lb. of bronze and iron hardware, 288,225 lb. of red lead, 8000 hollow steel doors, and over 3000 exterior windows were used, some idea of the work involved may be obtained.

There are 87 miles of electric wiring, 48 miles of plumbing pipes, 12 miles of marble trim and 12 miles of slate base. The main part of the building has a base area of about 150x197 feet. It is 29 stories high and its contents is 15,200,000 cu. ft. The tower is 84x86 feet and its top floor is the fifty-fifth story above the curb.

In acres the rentable office space totals 27, and elevators and corridors take 13 more. The total weight of the caissons is 208,000,000 lb. and the cost of the building completed about $18,000,000.

The plant apparatus installed for the purpose of furnishing power, light, heat, ventilation and refrigeration for this magnificent building represents good office building practice.

Six water-tube boilers of 2454 h. p. capacity supply steam to four tandem-compound generating units, which furnish electrical energy to thousands of lights, 27 traction elevators, motors on the ventilation and for other purposes, and exhaust steam for 104,000 square feet of radiating surface supplied by a return-line vacuum system.

Features are the provisions for safety on the elevators and the partial condensation of steam from the free exhaust. The remaining vapor is passed into the smoke flue and from the exterior, no steam is visible.

A FAMILY OF BANDMASTERS

(London Standard). Dan Godfrey, jr., eldest son of Dan Godfrey, musical director of the Bournemouth Corporation, yesterday entered the band of the Coldstream Guards under Dr. Mackenzie Regan, after the usual formality of enlistment, and was very kindly encouraged by Colonel Monck, commanding the regiment, a descendant of General Monck, who raised the Coldstream Guards. A link has thus been formed with the several members of the Godfrey family who became celebrated as bandmasters of the British army. - Charles Godfrey (Coldstream Guards), 1815-1865; Dan Godfrey (Grenadier Guards), 1859-1894; Fred Godfrey (Coldstream Guards, 1865-1880; and Charles Godfrey (Scots Guards and Royal Horse Guards), retired in 1907. After qualifying service in the Coldstream Guards Dan Godfrey, jr., will go to the Royal Military School of Music at Kneller Hall as a student in bandmastership, and will in due course receive an appointment. Mr. Godfrey was born on May 21, 1888, the day before his father commenced his duties under the Bournemouth Corporation.

Destructive Statesmanship (St. Andrews' Beacon). Chatham is up in arms because the new minister of railways has deprived it of a very useful branch line, and this too in the face of some very vigorous protests from the friends of the government. This is only another example of destructive statesmanship that we have had under the Borden regime.

The Turks were the first people to bury their dead in cemeteries adorned with ornamental headstones.

JUST LIKE FATHER. Father always forgets that it is mother's birthday until she bawls him out about it after breakfast. Then he goes downtown and sends her home a screen door for the kitchen or a rubber mat for the bathroom as a present - Cincinnati Enquirer.

PUTTING IT OFF. "He's a mean man." "How so?" "When his little girl begs for an ice cream sundae, he asks her if she wouldn't rather have a gold watch when she's nineteen."

BRUTE! She-The views were magnificent. He-How many mirrors in the room?

TO SAY NOTHING OF THE NEIGHBORS. "Mother," said the small boy at the piano, "may I quit practicing for awhile?" "Why, are your hands tired?" "No, My hands aren't but my ears are."

THE REASON. Muggins-I wonder why Dolly Dashiway is so popular? Buggins-She's one of those girls a fellow feels he can propose to without any serious danger of being accepted.

THE ALARMING FEATURE. Professor-Doesn't it make you sad to see women wearing feathers of the poor little birds on their hats? Married Man-It isn't the feathers that makes me sad-it's their bills!

HER COMMENT. "The Greens are going to Europe for the summer." "Isn't it awful what people will do to let other people know they've got money?"

A SMART TAILORED SUIT

This is of natural colored tussore. The skirt is of the corded character with a pleat down the front, while the coat is built on modified Norfolk lines. It is finely strapped and provided with patch pockets, the collar and cuffs embellished with shrimp-pink tussore.

COMPROMISE ON THE WIDTH OF THE SKIRT

Decision Reached by Ladies' Tailors in Convention in New York

New York, July 4.—Little did American women dream that 844 tailors from thirty-four states of the Union sat up until two o'clock in the morning engaged in a prolonged struggle to allow them a few more inches width in next winter's skirt. The National Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers' Association has just ended its semi-annual convention here.

When it came to the width of the skirt at the helm there was dissension. Twenty-two states, including New York and Massachusetts, stood out for a narrow skirt. The Boston representatives proved that the step of an American woman is not more than fifteen inches and a New York member said that New York women have succeeded in reducing their step to thirteen inches to accommodate fashion.

But a Delaware tailor, warmly backed by others who knew that the community was going to have much more leeway than those stepping across Washington street or dodging across Broadway, argued strongly for a good two yards and a half with a friendly silt thrown in.

Pinus a compromise was made.
Skirt hems are to be from 88 to 90 inches in circumference, with a demure slash and will clear the ground by one or two inches. These arbitrary rules have been laid down by man, so if the slash is deeper it is simply an instinct of self-preservation on the part of women and not of unseemly coquetry.

The thirty-four tailors brought thirty-four suits with them, which were shown on living models. The New York contingent strongly favored three piece suits as the most practical for American women, showed a novelty in a "leg of mutton" skirt. It gains its name from the way the skirt material is draped and arranged to fall in wattle folds.

Chicago presented a startling up-to-date business suit. The skirt was the feature of this. It had hip pockets into which the representatives said that anything from a handkerchief to a pistol could be carried. Chicago also sent a peg skirt, made of one piece of material and fitted only by pressed dart pleats.

Massachusetts was represented by a correct, reserve suit of violet. This, like cloth with demure drapery. This, like several other models is so arranged that the drapery comes in just the right place when the wearer is seated, so the skirt will not bag at the knees.

TARIFF BILL READY FOR THE SENATE

Washington, July 3.—After three months tinkering, the Democratic tariff revision at last is on the way, ready for launching in the senate, as the Underwood-Simmons bill. The Democratic caucus of the senate late today finally approved the measure as revised by the finance committee and by its own action, and a final meeting of the caucus will be held Saturday when the resolution to bind the senators to its support will be presented and adopted.

Public Playgrounds Opening
The Aberdeen, Centennial and Allison playgrounds were opened to the children yesterday. No special course was outlined for the first day, the little ones indulged in whatever sports they chose.
Accommodation for 1,200 children will be provided when the Carleton, Bentley and Alexan. grounds are opened the last of this or the first of next week.
The folk dances, in which the teachers have been instructed by Miss Murray, will be one of the new ideas introduced this summer.

A patent has been granted the Ohio inventor of a spring clip to hold a desk telephone against a wall when not in use.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE

Five professional hoboes were captured at McAdam yesterday by Police Inspector Foster and Policeman Hawthorne.
One claimed he had come all the way from Vancouver without missing a train. Three of the five were sentenced to one month in Fredericton Jail; the others were ordered to leave McAdam within an hour.

An amendment to the original order of the railway commission in regard to fire protection was approved at a meeting of the board yesterday limiting the extent of territory on either side of a railway track within which railways would be responsible for fires to 800 feet.

When Kitty Marion and Clara Given two militant suffragettes were sentenced in London yesterday to three years penal servitude for setting fire to the stand on Hurst park race course June 9, they threatened to go on a hunger strike and die if they were not given their unconditional freedom. They said they had not been given a fair trial and that women never would receive justice until women as well as men were on juries.

Hon. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, K. C.
G., chief justice and acting governor general of Canada, took the place of an altar boy and served the mass which was being celebrated in the church of Notre Dame Des Victories, Quebec, yesterday when the altar boy was taken ill.
Sir Charles was in the city on his way to Murray Bay, in company with ex-president W. H. Taff, for a fishing trip.
Philadelphia, July 4.—Thirteen deaths from the heat in this city were reported at the coroner's office today.

Listless, Backward Children

Made Bright and Active
by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Many a growing boy or girl is set down as constitutionally slow, stupid or lazy when it is really a question of inactive bowels,
lazy liver or sluggish kidneys.

The growing child, with a heavy appetite, certainly cannot long remain
healthy and bright
if the sewers of the body, the bowels
and the kidneys,
are choked up with impurities that should be thrown off promptly.

The maddy complexion, dragging limbs and dislike for mental or physical effort show plainly that the child needs
Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills to stir up the liver and kidneys and regulate the bowels. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills do this most effectively, cleansing the whole system, purifying the blood, aiding the digestion and giving plenty of life and activity. As upon the education obtained may depend the success in life of your boy or girl—see to it that the general health of the child is such that study is pleasure and not a hardship.

Made from roots and herbs by W. H.
Comstock Co., Ltd., at Brockville, and sold by all dealers at 25c. a box.

3 EX-QUEENS MEET IN PARIS
Amalia of Portugal, Eugenie of France and the ex-Queen of Naples

A reunion of three ex-queens is a rare occurrence. At the Hotel Maurice in Paris the other afternoon one might have seen Amalia of Portugal, Eugenie of France and the ex-Queen of Naples taking a friendly cup of tea.

Talking of ex-queens the 74-year-old ex-Empress Charlotte of Mexico, widow of the executed Emperor Maximilian, has lived for forty-seven years in retirement at the Hotel Bonchout, near the unfortunate old lady suffered a stroke, which had an extraordinary effect. On recovering she mentioned her husband's name for the first time since she lost her reason. None of her entourage knows whether or not she remembers anything of the tragedy of Queretaro; indeed the ex-empress presents a perplexing puzzle. Her nearest relatives, who once visited her daily have all died, yet she never seems to recall their absence. Cards and the violin are now her sole companions.

NOT ALL TRAGEDY

Politics is not all tragedy. There are other elements in a campaign besides sad disappointments.

One night during the recent primary campaign one of the democratic candidates for mayor addressed a meeting in a south end neighborhood which was friendly to him and his candidacy. The chairman of the meeting was a politician of the precinct. He had known the candidate for years. The chairman arose to introduce the candidate to the crowd.

"Gentlemen," said the chairman, "I want to introduce to you one of the noblest men that ever sought an office in this city, Mr. ..."

And in spite of his bad English the chairman meant every word of it.

After the candidate for mayor had finished his speech, several candidates for council spoke. One of these men, a reformer, said that would last through his administration.

London, June 21.—The Newcastle family, of which the duke of that ilk is head, shivered in its shoes when it heard May Yohé was coming to town. It is a most eminently respectable dukedom although its members are mostly unconventional as was evidenced in the marriages made by both Lord Francis Hope and his mother, the late Duchess of Newcastle, who had no understanding of a soft corner in her heart for May Yohé. It is said that on more occasions than one she had to be restrained by her mother, Mrs. Hope herself, in making her second matrimonial venture, married a platform speaker, a well-known concert singer and she forgave her second son, Lord Francis, much because she herself had stooped to become a Jeweller to the Duke of Devonshire.

Worth, the Maker of Gowns For Women, and How He Became Famous

REUNITED BY STRAW HAT

Chicago Man's Brother Picked Up in Webster by Brother Whom He Had Not Seen in 15 Years

Webster, July 4.—Picking up a straw hat that fell to the ground and handing it to the man who had lost it, is a common thing. But in Webster, where a brother was picked up by his brother, whom he had not seen in fifteen years, was the strange experience of Anthony Miller.

Not until the stranger inquired about him did Miller realize that the small fellow he did was for his brother, Albert Miller, who had been separated from him after a fifteen years' separation. When the identity of the brothers was made known to each other there was an affecting scene.

Albert Miller came to Webster from Chicago on a steamer ship, and was a visitor in Webster a few months ago from Webster, who told him that a man named Anthony Miller lived in the town. Albert took his vacation time to hunt up the Miller in Webster, and Anthony was the first man he met when he alighted from an electric car.

Albert says he and his older brother became separated in New York fifteen years ago, when the death of their father and mother occurred within a few months. Albert went with a distant relative and settled in the west, and Anthony remained in Webster two years ago.

PRENTICE LADS WHO HAVE RISEN TO PLACE IN PEERAGE

(London Tit-Bits)

Not to doxy deeds of arms, although their ancestors have decorated with many a trophy of the battle, but to the keen business acumen, commercial instinct, and the ability of the forefathers to strike a bargain, do many of our "old nobility" owe their rank and riches. Apprentices, farmers, drapers, grocers, brewers, and even barge-owners figure in the romances of the peerage and baronetcy, a mere accident sometimes leading to a goodly estate, every ambitious apprentice has been watching for a similar chance, for Edward Osborne was the founder of the Duke of Leeds' family, and it was his son who, by court influence and intrigue, attained to the highest rank in the peerage.

A Lucky Chance

And it was William Ward, another London apprentice, who founded the family of the Earl of Dudley. He came times to London when a lad, and was bound apprentice to a city goldsmith. A lucky chance placed him in possession of rare riches, for shortly after he had set up in business for himself in Lombard street, a sailor who had just landed from his ship came in and offered him a bargain which he could not refuse. The sailor offered him a lot of rough diamonds. Ward bought them at immense advantage for himself, as well as a second lot which the sailor brought the next day, and it was this lucky stroke of fortune which enabled Henry to become a jeweler to the court. But it was the bargain which he struck with the last of the Suttons, Lord of Dudley, which enabled him to enter the peerage. The Lord of Dudley was hard up and wanted a £20,000 loan on ample security, and he turned to Ward for help. Ward offered him a loan of £20,0

Some Fourth of July Ring Battles

By TOM ANDREWS

In the Willie Ritchie-Joe Rivers bout of 20 rounds today at San Francisco, which will be for the light weight championship of America, these boys will meet at 134 pounds, which is not strictly according to Hoyle, but they will go through just the same. Ritchie, just on the eve of the match, broke with his manager, Billy Nolan, and will be lacking valuable advice from that foxy manager. The weight will favor Ritchie, for Rivers can easily make 133 ringside and be at his best. Ritchie carries a nasty right wallop which is liable to bring home the bacon. If his condition is right, he should retain his title and then be able to meet Freddy Welsh for the world's championship.

Each Cross, the New York dentist fighter, will tackle Bud Anderson, the latest sensation on the coast in the light weight ranks. Bud has come along in the last eight months, but he is no spring chicken and will have to do his best work now or give up hopes of the 133-pound title. Cross is at his best just now and will be able to put up a great battle. Anderson has a bad thumb, but the fact is not generally known, and this may interfere with him in his fight with Cross. Bud depends a great deal on his right cross to put his man away, and with the thumb in bad shape he will be at a disadvantage. The bout will be a runner-up to the Ritchie-Rivers match, as it is expected that the winners of the two contests will be matched for another big affair on Admission day on the coast, September 9.

Still another light weight battle that will be close to the top notchers being candidates for Ritchie's crown. Britton will have all the best of the weights, scaling 138 four hours before the fight, while White will hardly go into the ring above 125 to 126 pounds. It will mean that Charlie will have to play on the defensive for the first half of the battle and then open up in the second half. If he tried to swap punches with the heavier man, he will find his strength going early, for Britton is just as clever as his rival when it comes to boxing. If White can give away that much weight to a clever lad like Britton and win, then he is a wonder and in line for the title but at this angle it looks like Britton.

In addition there will be several other good light weight bouts, such as Young Saylor and Gilbert Gallant at Indianapolis; Eddie Murphy and Johnny Griffiths at Akron, O.; Matty Baldwin and Joe Shugrue at New Haven, Conn.

Johnny Coulon's showing against Frankie Burns at Kenosha the other night was not the kind to make his friends lay down a lot of money to back him against Kid Williams of Baltimore. When they meet before Tom McCann's club in Los Angeles, Cal., July 29, Coulon's layoff for eight months did him no good, although the boy was ill at the time and could not do anything else. The illness no doubt has slowed him a bit, but with proper training for the next month he may get back into proper form, and surprise even his skeptical friends. Johnny got a draw with Burns, although his work was the cleaner of the two, his hitting being sure and hard. He held at heart man for even a champion to tackle, and the fact that he got a draw with Coulon does not hurt the champion's standing. It was a fast fight all the way, with Coulon using straight punches to the body most of the time and Burns playing for the body and head with jabs and swings. However, do not be surprised to find Williams favorite over the champion when they meet at Los Angeles.

ARCHBISHOP CASEY WARMLY GREETED BY ROSSLAND PEOPLE

Reception Held in Knights of Columbus Hall and Order is Praised by His Grace

(Vancouver Sun)
Rosland, June 28—The ladies of the Sacred Heart church held a reception in the Knights of Columbus hall in honor of Archbishop Casey, who was largely attended by the members of the Sacred Heart church. Refreshments were served and Archbishop Casey, Father MacIntyre, Mayor Deschamps and M. E. Purcell were the speakers. There was vocal and instrumental music by the Casey brothers, George Walther and John Borman, and ice-cream, cake and coffee were served by the ladies, and the evening was a very pleasant one.

The archbishop was at the Sisters' hospital, and was detained till about 9 o'clock by the heavy thunder shower that prevailed, and, for a time, he did not care to venture out with such a severe storm raging, but when told that a large throng was expecting him, he good-naturedly went to the reception.

When His Lordship entered the Knights of Columbus hall with Father MacIntyre, he took his seat on the rostrum, and held a reception. M. E. Purcell was chairman.

In replying to the welcome extended to him, Archbishop Casey made a pleasing address.

The Knights of Columbus and the good fortune they have to own so fine a hall, were alluded to. He said that in order to be a good knight one had to be a good Catholic, and a good Catholic made a good citizen, and such organizations were of benefit and a power for good, not only for the church, but the communities in which they are located. He was pleased because they are so strong in Rosland. Another thing that pleased him was to see so many nationalities in the Catholic church here, all working in harmony together for the good of the church.

He was pleased to see so many in the church with names like his own, of Irish origin. He visited Ireland and had the pleasure of saying mass in the little church in Sibirreen, County Cork, where his mother and father plighted their troth and were married sixty-five years ago. The archbishop then told of the wit and humor in the old country. He told several Irish humorous stories, which brought down the house and revealed that he is quite a humorist himself. In conclusion, he again thanked the members of the congregation for the reception and congratulated all upon the prosperity of Rosland. It is now prosperous, he said, and it has prospered before it. There is nothing to prevent it from going ahead. Around the town there is the best of land, and this gives a chance for expansion. He had visited the mines, and they gave assurance of great wealth. You will have a very considerable town here. You cannot be half as prosperous, however, as I wish you to be. (Applause.)

After wrapping clothes get a piece of old blanket and mangle it two or three times. This will dry the rollers and save them.

Description of Webster's New Illustrated Dictionary WITH THE LATEST CENSUS

This most convenient and latest of all Dictionaries is based on Noah Webster's Dictionary, revised and brought up to date by the most recent American and English authorities, designed to meet every demand of a modern and reliable Dictionary.

It includes all words in the English language that do not properly belong to a Dictionary of Technical Terms. In fact, its recent publication and careful revision enable it to define and treat a large number of words of recent coinage that cannot be found in any other Dictionary, no matter how cumbersome and pretentious.

Surprising results are obtained in looking up the spelling, pronunciation and definition of a host of words which have been incorporated into our language only yesterday, as it were. Take, for instance: Aero, Aeroplane, Aviator, Aviator, Biplane, etc., introduced as a result of recent aeronautical activity—also such new words as: Brainstorm, Billiken, Cordite, Denatured, Dumtite, Joy Ride, etc.—also Okapi, an animal allied to the Giraffe, and brought into prominence through ex-President Roosevelt's explorations in Africa—also Hookworm, Lettergram, Nickelodeon, Slovaine, Hangar, Equilibrium, etc.

Thus the evidences of painstaking revision are found on every hand.

The policeman was only human and felt the same attraction, so he approached the barrel with intent to inquire after the origin of a lack of dignity, the only indication of his feelings when he found that the garbage barrel had been turned into a sort of morgue. The policeman reported the case.

THE DROWNED MAN WAS JOHN DEVINE

Was Better Known as "Barney"—Belonged Here But Had Been Living in Fredericton

John Devine, better known as Barney Devine, was drowned early this morning in Lower Cove Slip, Brittain street. His body was recovered soon after and at the order of Coroner Berryman was sent to O'Neil's undertaking rooms. He was a former resident of Lower Cove, where he lived with his parents. The coroner has not yet decided whether an inquest will be necessary. The unfortunate man was about thirty-six or thirty-seven years of age, and until some years ago lived in this city. He was well known to many. Some years ago he went to Fredericton, where he was married and had since lived. Yesterday he came to the city and at different intervals was seen in the vicinity of the wharves. One of his friends, when asked about Devine, said that he had been with him until about four o'clock in the afternoon. "We were standing at the top of the pier talking about the time," he said, "and he was sober then and showed no sign of being strange. I left him about four o'clock," he said. "He was seen again in the evening, but from this time onward doubt seems to exist as to his actions until he was taken from the water dead. Police Officer Ward, who was patrolling that section was not sure whether he had seen Devine previously in the night, and could not say that he was a man he sent away when called to quell a disturbance between two men on one of the wharves. The tragedy was witnessed from a distance by members of the crew of the Norton Griffiths tug Muscalogue, which is laid up in the vicinity. One of the men heard a splash, then groans as the unfortunate man sank beneath the water, but before the spot could be reached he was out of sight.

TALK OF A POUND IN RED HEAD SECTION

Complaints of Cows in Highway Lead to Authorities Taking up Matter

Complaints have been made recently by residents of the Red Head district that the number of cows wandering at large in the public highway. The presence of cattle does not make it any more pleasant for those who have to use the road; traffic has been impeded at times and complaints are made that it is no longer a safe highway. Considerable damage to ornamental hedges, which summer residents have set up, the matter has been drawn to the attention of the county council and is receiving some attention. A remedy is provided in the laws for impounding cattle, found running at large, but the law is not as effective as it might be owing to the fact that there is no pound in the parish. The county authorities are trying to arrange for one, and if some one willing to look after the matter can be found immediate steps will be taken to put an end to the nuisance.

THE ICE MAN'S TROUBLES

These Who Saw Did Not Want to Live up to Popular Song Sentiment

The once popular expression "How would you like to be the Ice Man?" would this morning have fallen into disuse had the world witnessed the plight of an unfortunate ice man in Sydney street in the area now being paved.

There is no one more welcome during these days of intense heat, and consequent discomfort, than the ice man. The ice man knows this, and, full of charity for his suffering neighbor, endeavors to lift him in his means to add to the comfort of the world. He even put himself to inconvenience that others might be served. When the road is long to him he seeks a shorter way—and all for unthinking persons. Such was the case with the ice man this morning in Sydney street.

In an attempt to save time he drove along the north side of the King Street street is yet in an unfinished state and in fact is closed to all traffic. However, the team made good progress until it came to the upper end where a projection made advance quite impossible unless with a horse trained in leaping. There was nothing like trying, so they tried. The horses got over, but the wagon stuck and repeated attempts ended in the wagon dumping and the contents spilling over the street. Those who formerly would have been long to see the man at this occurrence seemed to be nowhere; and although there was a knot of spectators the ice man had to suffer the delay and reload.
