CESSATION OF COAL MINING COMPLETED

No Sign of Any Break in Ranks of Men, Dislocation of Industry Widespread.

TRANSPORT WORKERS IN CONFERENCE

Country Awaits Anxiously Report from the Meeting to Learn Their Attitude.

London, Oct. 18.—The cessation of coal mining throughout the country seems complete, for, although the miners in some districts appear to have entered the strike in a half-hearted manner, there is no sign yet of any break in the ranks of the men and consequently the dislocation of the country's industry is becoming widespread.

There is a confirmed report to-night that the Government intends to offer the miners a compromise of one month's pay in advance, provided they accept submission of the whole dispute to an independent tribunal.

Liverpool and Manchester announce the impending suspension of the tramway services, and among the minor effects of the strike is the cessation of public school functions.

Attitude of Leaders

Newspapers contrast the attitude of Clynes and Thomas with that of C. T. Cramp, president of the National Union of Railwaymen, who has given an unambiguous statement of that union of the serious situation which will be created if the miners are defeated.

Special to The Standard. St. Andrews, N. B., Oct. 18.—By the mistake of a returning officer from one of the polling booths in St. Stephen, a mistake which admits having made, J. M. Flewelling (O) was declared out of Declaration Day proceedings for Charlotte County held at St. Andrews on Saturday.

Allowing for the error made the standing of the four leading candidates is Dr. H. I. Taylor, (O) 3,731, S. D. Gault (O) 3,659, J. M. Flewelling (O) 3,651, Scovell (O) 3,632. The official returns show Mr. Pollard (O) to have 3,595 votes.

RECOUNT IS DEMANDED

A recount has been demanded and those who are well versed in the Charlotte County situation are confident the recount will reverse Mr. Pollard's slender margin over Mr. Scovell.

The Government supporters were quite jubilant Saturday, when it was reported Mr. Flewelling was defeated in the face of the returns showed and they sent the cheery news to Premier Foster. When they learned of the error that had been made by the returning officer they had nothing to say.

VERY SINGULAR, ILL-ADVISED AND INOPPORTUNE APPEAL

Professors of Oxford University Ask for Friendly Inter-course With Germans.

London, Oct. 18.—An appeal for re-establishment of the friendly intercourse which existed before the war has been addressed to professors of Arts and Science and members of universities and learned societies in Germany and Austria by a large number of professors and doctors of Oxford University.

The letter, the text of which is printed in the London Times, expresses a desire to "dispel the embitterment of animosities, that, under the impulse of loyal patriotism, may have passed between us."

The hope is also expressed that in the field where the aims of these bodies are one, a reconciliation may be effected which will lead to deeper sympathy and better understanding on the part of both nations, "which civilisation demands."

Commenting editorially on this communication, the Times says: "The great majority of Oxford men parties are our regret at this singular, ill-adviced and inopportune appeal."

VIENNA LADIES SMART DRESSERS EVEN IN MISERY

Social Conditions at Present Are Appalling But Society Goes on.
(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)
By LEON SCHALIT.

Vienna, Oct. 18.—Although miserable social conditions and hunger have forced thousands of Viennese women literally to sell themselves for a loaf of bread, the wealthy classes still are equipping themselves in clothes in order to maintain their reputations as "smart dressers."

Recently a "fashion week" was held here and an immense variety of the latest evening dresses of gold and silver brocade were shown. The colors included the red, blue, green, male skin gray, yellow, black and lavender. Some beautifully finished and artistic afternoon dresses included crepe Liberty, velvet and chiffon and were decorated with fur and embroidery. Cloaks are fashionable now and are being made in the red, light gray and beige and are of cape or kimono shape. Short sleeves and a deep décolleté at the back are much in favor. A large display of smart hats, many of velvet, is being shown. Huge sums are being spent for these things by the wealthy, often in order to escape the new taxation and capital levies, but the masses walk about in rags.

Glad Rags And—
Vienna these days may truly be said to be a city of glad rags—and just rags. The only medium in apparel seems to be the overalls. These lucky people who can afford them wear beautiful clothes—the Viennese were always well dressed—and those who can't must choose between overalls and any odd thing. A strong "overalls" movement has been initiated among the new poor; government officials, teachers, painters, musicians, actors, the middle class generally, are enrolling as members of the "Overall Club" and bearing the ridicule of the press.

In consequence of the miserable social conditions, the position of women has never been so bad in this city as now, many girls who are still merely children being seen on the streets. Many women out of sheer hunger sell themselves for a meal, and the evil has permeated also the so-called "better classes," as they cannot earn sufficient by a decent profession to make even a scanty living.

Blood Transfusion.
Several cases of blood transfusion have caused some talk in this city lately. A rich woman who had undergone a difficult operation was given a transfusion of half a tube of blood taken from a poor girl expecting a child at the same hospital. The girl, who received an insignificant reward, has accused the doctors of having deceived her and drawn her blood against her will.

A greater sensation has been caused by an alleged discovery by Professor Strinich, who contends that by a certain operation, old and middle-aged people can regain part of their youthful strength and energy, and prolong their lives. He reports three successful cases, one middle-aged and two old men. The Professor has also experimented with success on rats. On publication of his discovery, he received thousands of letters, but he complains of not having any means at his disposal, no proper laboratory, no servants and no animals for experiments, and he hopes that in a more prosperous country such as America, his labors may be continued and protied by.

The Theatrical Life.
Theatrical life in Vienna has not suffered much by the war, except by occasional strikes of actors, actresses and musicians, and the impossibility of performing plays with large casts and elaborate mounting, as owing to the immense prices of costumes, scenery and material the managers cannot raise the very high sums necessary. Naturally the prices of seats have risen accordingly. For Franz Lehár's melodious and very successful opera "The Blue Mazur," half a million kronen (nominally $100,000) was spent. A large number of other operatic and musical comedy shows are running with titles such as: "Queen of the Air," "Little Dutch Woman," "Love's Intoxication," "Love at First Sight," "Love on the Roof," "Miss Tuck," etc. According to the Russian pattern attempts have been made to "socialize" a theatre; but with what success remains to be seen.

Actress Suicides.
A sad event was the suicide of Thily Kutschera, one of Vienna's most popular young actresses, who played men's parts. She had fallen in love with a wealthy young man, who promised to marry her, but jilted her and married another actress at the same theatre. Strangely enough, she was invited to her rival's wedding, and brokenhearted, afterwards threw herself from a fifth floor window. She left a letter to her parents saying that she found it impossible to bear the burden of his sin longer.

Since the war, the marriage rate has risen immensely, in spite of great economic difficulties; but so also has the divorce rate. The new Socialistic regime has rendered it possible for Catholic divorced persons to re-marry, which is forbidden by the Church of Rome. Thousands of Austrian Catholics have availed themselves of this opportunity, among them a member of the Hapsburg dynasty, a secretary of state, and men of note. The Catholic clergy are furious at this, and the Christian Socialists proclaim that the country is going to the dogs through utter demoralization.

WATCH FOR LIQUOR.
Chicago, Oct. 18.—Druggists of the Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana districts have been warned by Federal Prohibition Director Ralph W. Scaue to watch for the 10,000 stolen liquor prescription blanks which were stolen from his office within the past few days, and which are good, when filled out, for $30,000 worth of whiskey.

SAYS ST. ANDREWS IS PROGRESSING

Mayor Kennedy of St. Andrews was in town on Saturday and left for home on Monday. He says that the tourist season at the border was one of the best this year that the town has ever experienced. The Algonquin Hotel Company is negotiating with the town for the purchase of a lot of land alongside the golf links, on which it is proposed to erect a $60,000 club house next season. The town is now lighted by electricity and arrangements are being perfected for putting in a water system next season. The sidewalks will also be improved. The Bank of Nova Scotia has begun the construction of a bank building on Main street. The contract for the foundation has been awarded to J. A. Grant and Co., Ltd., of St. John.

FOUR CANADIAN CASES BEFORE PRIVY COUNCIL

Canadian Judgments Are Ready for Delivery—One Quebec Marriage Case.

London, Oct. 18.—(By Canadian Associated Press.)—The sittings of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council began tomorrow, when there will be heard two appeals from Australia and New Zealand, four from Canada; one each from Guyana and Gibraltar, and 32 from India.

The most important Canadian appeal raises the question whether Dominion companies are subject to legislation in the provinces regarding licenses or registration as a condition of exercising their corporate powers within the province. Several parties are joined in this issue, including the Attorney-Generals of the Dominion and of Ontario.

Six Canadian judgments are ready for delivery, including the famous Quebec marriage case of Napoleon Tremblay and his wife, Melvina Levesque, in which the question of whether the French law, as applied to the Province of Quebec at the time of the cession of Canada to England in 1763, still applies to Canada. The question has, in some degree, been modified by the re-marriage of the two parties last month after due dispensation obtained from the Roman Catholic Church.

There is also before the Privy Council the question of the title of lands which were formerly part of India reserves.

TRAINS CRASH IN DENSE FOG

Accident on Pennsylvania Railroad Causes Death of One and Injury to Many.

Colonia, N. J., Oct. 18.—Passenger train Number 202, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, bound from Philadelphia to New York, crashed into the rear of a freight train at 3:50 o'clock this morning, near here.

Edward Quail, of Philadelphia, the engineer, was fatally scalded when the passenger engine overturned. The fireman and several persons on the passenger train were also reported injured, but none seriously.

All of the passengers on the train who were injured by broken glass or shock were attended by the train crews, who administered first aid. Quail was taken to St. Peter's General Hospital at New Brunswick, N. J., where he died two hours later from scalds received when his engine turned over.

Railroad officials said the accident was probably due to the fog, which is believed to have obscured the signals. The freight train was a special, Number 367, eastbound, had been waiting at the block for a short time when the passenger train, progressing slowly on account of the fog, smashed into the rear of the freight.

This new way to beautiful teeth

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You would never go without it if you knew.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat. You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brushing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

At the drug store named below, a 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent. Simply present the coupon.

Get this free tube. Its use will be a revelation. To you and yours the results will open a new era in teeth cleaning. Learn now what they mean to you.

with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digester in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers troubles caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film. Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

Teeth will glisten when the film-coat goes

Get this free tube and watch it. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

REDS PAINT CITY, BUT IT STARVES YET

Omsk Has Street Names Changed and Many Alterations, Still City of Misery.

London, Oct. 18.—Omsk, Siberia, formerly the anti-bolshevik headquarters of the late Admiral Kolchak, has been transformed into a Bolshevist headquarters, seat of the soviet government for all Siberia, chiefly by the use of red building, red paint and red propaganda posters and pamphlets printed in Moscow and sent to Siberia.

New street signs, featuring bolshevik nomenclature; new heroic street scenes and monuments constructed of wood and painted red are other changes noted by the Associated Press correspondent who recently pressed Russia.

Behind the scenes, Omsk is the same city of suffering refugees, scant food and clothing and difficult living conditions in general, according to Russians who talked to The Associated Press correspondent and his companion, the first Americans to enter Omsk after Admiral Kolchak's hurried evacuation. There has been little relief in an economic way for the people, there being as much dissatisfaction under the reds as there was under Kolchak.

Allied Missions Gone.

Gone from Omsk are the varicolored uniforms of Allied missions from Paris, London and Tokio and forgotten is the Omsk express, the weekly train to Vladivostok. The former are replaced by envoys and missions out from Moscow, usually for food or supplies that may be obtained for shipment to the bolshevik capital. American Red Cross nurses and Y. M. C. A. men have been replaced by bolshevik workers who wear the red insignia on their caps.

Military opposition to the soviets having been overcome, attention has been turned to constructive work. Attempts are being made to solve the ever-present food shortage by vegetable gardens in public parks and even in several streets. The entire grounds of the cathedral were given over to potato growing during the summer.

At the head of Lenine street, at the top of the hill in the main part of the city, an heroic wooden arch painted red, carries the likeness of Lenine, and Karl Marx, the German communist whose philosophy is taken literally by the bolsheviks. At the other end of the street is a great red wooden column, erected to the memory of the bolshevik killed in the fighting near Omsk.

Bolshevik headquarters have been established in the new building which Admiral Kolchak had planned to use to house his ministry of justice. A red banner bearing the inscription "First Home of the Siberian Soviet," marks the building. In front of it is a huge granite block, formerly the pedestal of a statue of a notable of the reign of Emperor Nicholas. Now it awaits a new bust of Karl Marx.

SEEKS AID FOR THE WAR STRICKEN LANDS

who spoke at the Canadian Red Cross Dinner at Toronto on Saturday on behalf of the British Empire War Relief Fund to combat disease and distress in the war-stricken areas of Europe. Mr. Hoover was American Food Administrator during the war, and was Director-General of Relief in Europe for the Allies and Associated Governments after the Armistice. It was Mr. Hoover's discerning genius which organized the saving meal a day of fat, sugar and milk for Belgian children during the occupation. After the Armistice Mr. Hoover organized the European Children's Relief Administration, whereby, at its maximum, about 3,500,000 children in some twelve of the liberated countries received one supplementary meal a day to bring them through into normal growth and health.

Mr. Hoover commended very earnestly the Canadian Red Cross Appeal for funds to fight disease and to save the children in the war-stricken poorer countries of Europe. He said that the American Children's Relief Administration in Europe would cooperate in every possible way to aid in the distribution of supplies for the children through approved national and local agencies in the name of the Canadian Red Cross.

How Many Men Keep Youthful Looking?

It is well known that within recent years the men have become extensive patrons of beauty specialists and massurers. Not only the fastidious, but men generally who have a care for personal appearance. This has also led to the employment by many of home methods calculated to enhance or preserve physical attractiveness, especially by those who abhor "beauty parlors." Of these, perhaps the most widely used is the mercurized wax treatment, which explains the mystery of the silver-haired gentleman with the boyish face. The mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is applied the same as cold cream, only not rubbed in. This gradually absorbs the dead and half-dead cuticle in tiny particles, revealing the fresher, healthier-hued skin beneath. To secure best results, many apply the wax at night, washing it off in the morning. Women not only encourage age husbands in this, but use the treatment themselves.

To keep away wrinkles and babyiness, many men use, after shaving preferably a simple lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxo lite in a half-pint of witch hazel. This gives splendid results.

Why Doesn't Your Sleep Rest You

WHEN a man really rests, sleeping soundly all night, he wakes up with a new feeling of being alive—almost like being made over again.

But how often you hear someone say—"Oh, I sleep all right, but it doesn't seem to rest me!"

Probably this has happened to you many a time. The fact is that you did not sleep soundly—and your bed had more to do with it than you realize.

A creaky bed, a bed that sways, a spring that sags and lets you down into a hollow, a mattress that is lumpy or uneven, pillows that are hard or unclear—put your nerves on edge and make your muscles tense.

For deep, sound sleep you must have equipment built for sleep by Simmons Limited—involving every nerve and muscle to relax.

The Simmons Metal Bed is noiseless. Just as the sleep-inducing Spring is a Simmons "Waldorf," of specially tempered spring coils. Fine Springs that fit the contour of the body and support the spine.

Sleep is a big subject. Write us for the booklet, "What Leading Medical Journals and Health Magazines Say about Separate Beds and Sound Sleep." Free of charge.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Canada's National Day of Thanksgiving is over; it was one of the most delightful ever enjoyed. The weather was ideal at the week-end, and, as a result, there was a great procession out of the city to the shores and to the summer camps for a final visit before the winter comes.

With the moving of the day from November to mid-October the character of the national thanksgiving day has changed greatly. No longer is it one where the family gathers at home for a quiet time together and to enjoy turkey and cranberry sauce. The bird has been relegated to the Christmas board and the home day is changing rapidly to one of wandering afield. But with such a glorious day as St. John enjoyed yesterday it would be a strange individual who could sit at home and mope. The weather called all to enjoy nature in its autumnal beauties.

Canada has much for which to give thanks. The post-war readjustments are being made with little inconvenience or clash of classes; the bitterness between the classes that marks so many overseas lands is fortunately absent from the Dominion; the labor difficulties that were so numerous a year ago are much fewer; the cost of living is showing a downward tendency; business is good and prospects are bright.

Canada is happy. True, there are many whose hearts will never be so light again because of the hero who sleeps in the shrine soil of France or Belgium, but the war clouds have passed and brightness is filling the Dominion once more. Even those whose hearts are heaviest find in Thanksgiving Day a period of intense satisfaction as they recall the dauntless heroism of the one who counted not his own life dear unto himself and whose name liveth forever.

ON BEING DISAPPOINTED.

Disappointment doesn't have to be defined—we all know what it is. Disappointment comes to us. But it never fails to leave—in times. That is the encouraging thing about it.

There are ways to handle disappointment. In a rough sort of a statement, the best way to handle it is to "grin and bear it" while it lasts—then it won't last long!

But when disappointment comes to us and is as fresh as early dew, we are not apt to welcome happy words of counsel. We are very much alone when disappointment comes.

There are things to remember, however, in connection with being disappointed.

Disappointment is a problem. And you will have to solve it as you would a problem in mathematics. And when you have solved it—it is gone.

Many of the happenings of life, which at the time seem to bring gloom and cloud, in reality are forerunners of hope and encouragement. We have no visible assurance of anything. We find our features as we would an unread book which we hope is going to bring us both pleasure and knowledge.

The commonest happening in life is disappointment. But one of the uncommon acts of a human being, is to walk right past disappointment—without even speaking to it!

On being disappointed—look UP at it!

THE NEW GENERAL.

When Sir Arthur Currie, commander-in-chief of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, was appointed head of McGill University there were many who doubted the wisdom of the choice. For the General they had the greatest respect as a military leader, but field operations and the direction of a great educational institution are so far apart that they can be forgiven for fearing the brilliant warrior might be accepting an impossible task.

Recently, however, several Canadian cities have had a glimpse of the new Sir Arthur. He is touring Canada in the interests of his University, and from every city he has visited there is coming the highest praise of his work. He is revealing the fact that the hard schools of business and war have taught him a thorough appreciation of the real problems of education and the needs of a vigorous nation like Canada. As an educationalist he is rapidly assuming leadership even as he did in France.

The campaign is showing a new side of the sturdy character of the General who leads McGill.

THE BORDERS OF RUSSIA.

A rather propitious state of affairs has been created by the occupation of Vilna. Whether Vilna is in or out of Lithuania seems to rest on a basis of military occupation. It was occupied first by Russia, then by the Poles, who evacuated it and have now again occupied it. The territory all along the border between Poland and Lithuania is in dispute. In July last, Russia signed a treaty with Lithuania, but was subsequently charged with breaking the terms of it and playing the masters in Vilna.

It is announced that the case will be considered by the Council of the League of Nations at Brussels on October 20th. In the meantime General Zeligowski has hoisted a flag of a new state of Vilna and copies with this arbitrary action the statement that he has no intention of entering into a conflict with Lithuania. It is asserted that the Polish Government was entirely ignorant of Zeligowski's plan to seize Vilna.

All round, things seem to be badly mixed. The peace between Soviet Russia, negotiated at Riga, a few miles from the Lithuanian border, has not been concluded, and fighting continues as a sort of everyday occupation. Little Lithuania is making a mass levy to recapture Vilna. A cabled despatch on Tuesday informed the world that the peace treaty between the Poles and Soviet Russia had been signed, but the forces of the two nations are allowed to go on fighting until last night, when the armistice became effective.

It is doubtful, however, whether the Soviet Government can ever have peace. It represents a mere fraction of the people of Russia; all others are anti-Bolshevik.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The Appeal Direct.
 (Port Arthur Chronicle.)
 It will come with some of a shock to the element that is decrying the newspapers as a "kept press" that the railway association and manufacturers' associations are publishing advertisements over the sign and seal of their organizations in which those organizations speak direct to the people of Canada. Naturally if those interests "kept the press," they would order the newspapers to publish the facts and statements they desire to impress the public with and to do it under the guise of editorials or news stories. The newspapers have through a long course of slander at the hands of irresponsible agitators and intellectual incompetents sustained a dignified silence, knowing well that the time would come when the ravings of the radicals would be refuted by indisputable evidence.

Following Meighen's Trail.

(Sydney Post.)
 The Toronto Globe is making a rare spectacle of itself these days. Figuratively speaking, it is following the trail of the Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, dancing a savage waltz dance necessarily and murderously. It is determined to have the Prime Minister's scalp the first time it catches him asleep, or to perish in the attempt. Convinced that those speeches Mr. Meighen delivered in the Eastern Townships were vile disruptions outpourings, the sometime seditious and sanctimonious Globe has declared war on him to the knife. And firm in the righteous conviction that all is fair in war, it has become a sturdy distortionist of the Prime Minister's discussions of public affairs, and a beligerent announcer of his own sentiments he never expressed and speeches he never uttered.

BONE DRY LAW STANDS.

The Supreme Court of the United States has refused to reconsider its decision of June last sustaining the validity of the prohibition amendment to the National Constitution. There does not seem much chance of the dry law being legally broken in the United States.

BRITAIN'S "MOST SACRED SPOT."
 (London Morning Post.)
 The "most sacred spot" in Britain, according to the judgment of John Richard Green, has passed under the hammer. For Cliffs End, Ebbw Vale, is located at the spot where Henry and Horsa landed in 449 A. D. But the place is doubly sacred by reason of the fact that it was here, a hundred and fifty years later, that Augustine and his forty monks arrived on that mission to the Saxon Ethelbert which was to be fraught with such momentous consequences. The spot where Augustine first met the King and his Christian wife, Bertha, is marked by a handsome Runic Cross.

"Ontario's Desperate Plight."

(Quebec Chronicle.)
 The more one learns of industrial conditions in Ontario, the more surprising it is that there has not been already a decided movement to Quebec of Canadian and American factories. Such movement is certainly not a matter of time provided that we can command effective and sufficient wide publicity for the attractions that we have to offer.

At the moment the Ontario manufacturer is short of power and struggling to get relief, no matter how or from where. While it may be possible to tide over this present need, the future outlook is not bright if new plants are brought into the province to increase the demand made upon an already over-taxed power supply.

Just how acute the situation is can be judged from an article in the Financial Post of Toronto which complains that, with an increased power consumption during the year and no provision made to increase the supply, Ontario manufacturers are facing the winter season with serious apprehension.

The picture conveyed by the article cited above furnishes a stark contrast to conditions that obtain in this city and district where there is not only an abundance of power for every present need, but a reserve supply sufficient to meet the heaviest demands that can be made upon it for some time to come, at least. Surely there should be some means by which this truth can be brought home to the manufacturing world to the mutual benefit of prospective industries and of Quebec itself.

Keep Your War Bonds.

(Vancouver Sun.)
 Why do people with small quantities of war bonds persist in selling them while the market is unfavorable? Why will they refuse to recognize that they are themselves largely to blame if they receive less than par? War bonds are a commodity and their price in the market is governed by the same laws as any other commodity. If a lot of people want to sell and few want to buy, the price goes down correspondingly. To blame the Government for this result is foolishness, as a matter of fact, the Government is doing its best to keep the price up by itself buying bonds, with whatever loose money it has on hand, and by exerting pressure on large holders not to unload. But these processes are only available within narrow limits. The thing to do with your bonds is to put them away and forget about them except once every six months when the interest is due. If you do this you may be quite sure you will finally get a hundred cents on the dollar for them.

Benny's Note Book

Pop was smoking with his feet up and I was sitting on the floor looking at the advertisements in the paper to keep my mind off my homework, and I saw one saying, Be a Draftsman, Earn Good Money With Little Work.

Me thinking, G. I wonder what a draftsman is? I bet it's a man that goes around putting windows up and down for millions—also they will get snuff air without getting in too big of a draft.

Sounding like a good easy job without needing much study or experience, I started to practice on pop, walking around the room and opening all the windows about 6 inches and then I walked around again and opened them about 4 more inches and then put them all down again about 3 inches on account of the air starting to come in too fast, with feet then pop gave a fierce sneeze saying, Confound it, I just got rid of one cold and here I am sneezing again.

Me thinking, Holy sneaks, draftsman to the rescue.

And I quick started to go around putting all the windows down again, and pop sneezed 4 more sneezes without stopping, saying, Wait in the name of ventilation are you doing with those windows?

Sir! I'm putting them down, I see, and pop said, Putting them down, well who and why and we were put up?

Sir? I put them up to practice being a draftsman and earn good money with little work, I see.

You're the only one in the world knows what you're talking about, shut those windows, and pop.

G. pop that was I'm doing, I see, Well I was and pop kept on sneezing, and, young man, you'll rue this day.

Well G. pop, goah, what is a draftsman?

Shut up, and pop.

Well I did, and pop kept on sneezing.

IRELAND MUST NEVER BE CUT FROM BRITAIN

'Great Britain Holds Her God Placed Her There and There She Shall Remain.'

quietly and in a friendly fashion, developing his business. He was boycotted. One day a respected Roman Catholic lady customer called and requested to know the amount of her indebtedness to his store. He was surprised and sought an explanation, the time for payment not being due. She broke into tears, said she had no fault to find with him or the goods he sold. She had done business with him and his predecessor for years. Her parish priest, she said, had ordered her to pay her account and never again to enter the store. She went on to say that after a private mass celebrated at her house, she was entertaining the priest and other guests to breakfast. The priest, looking at a loaf of bread upon the table, asked who made it. On being told that it had been bought at the store of this Protestant merchant, he lifted the loaf and threw it on the floor, saying that he would not eat in her house until she procured a 'decent Roman Catholic loaf.' He proceeded to forbid her purchasing further in this merchant's store. In the same manner this merchant lost dozens of his Roman Catholic customers, and, realizing that there was no hope of liberty to develop his business, he removed north. He is now, as the result of his energy, at the head of a large manufacturing business, giving employment to many people.

"A story such as this, with all its socio-economic revelation of the priestly mind, goes far to explain the lack of initiative and progress in southern and western Ireland.

Two Claimants to Power.

"There are in Ireland two claimants to civil power. There is, on the one hand, the State, and, on the other, the Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church. Acting sometimes in accordance with the will of the State and at other times opposing that will, the Hierarchy evidences its consistent claim to be the dominating factor in civil as well as religious affairs in Ireland. Where power is, there lies the seat of government, and no state can tolerate the continued passing of its power into the keeping of any other authority. Let us illustrate briefly how the power of the Bishops rules in Ireland.

"Michael Davitt, himself a Roman Catholic and a leader in Irish political life, was roused to an amazing protest against the Bishops' 'eternal hunting' after political influence and temporal power, and their assumption of authority to dictate to laymen what they should think and do in the affairs of the nation.

"The Government in 1914, while the war was raging, and in order to achieve a settlement in Ireland, proposed to put the 1914 Home Rule Act into force, with the exclusion of six Ulster counties. This proposition was accepted by Mr. John Redmond and Sir Edward Carson, but was vetoed by the Hierarchy and the matter dropped.

What Redmond Said.

"In 1917, on the suggestion of the Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, a convention of representative Irishmen was set up in Dublin to draw up a scheme of settlement of the Irish question. It was a gathering of all creeds. The Sinn Feiners alone refused to attend, but in spite of their absence, it is admitted that this was an extremely representative of Irish life. After many months of meetings and at a point when fiscal policy was under discussion, a significant thing happened. When Mr. Redmond was accepting certain moderate proposals, the Roman Catholic Bishops were insisting on drastic terms. Redmond arose and referring to an amendment in his own name, proceeded:

"But when I came to the Convention this morning I found that it was opposed by three of the highest dignitaries of my own church, some of my political friends also disagreed with me, and though I believe I could carry a majority of the convention with me, it would split my party and I cannot see that any purpose would be served thereby. I would therefore ask leave to withdraw my amendment, as I feel I can be of no further use in the matter."

"Thus the only statesman southern and western Ireland possessed, against his own judgment, bowed before a will more powerful than his own. John Redmond walked out from the Convention, and in a few short weeks his life drew to a close. With such forces as Redmond and the Hierarchy divided against themselves, what hope was there of a settlement being reached?

Denounced Conscript.

"In 1917, conscription had drawn to the colors even the middle-aged men of England, Scotland and Wales, and when these lands were being bled white, it was proposed to apply conscription to Ireland. The Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church met and denounced the proposal. Archbishop Walsh called it an oppressive and inhuman outrage. The proposal came to nothing.

"It may not be generally known that in Ireland the cost of Primary Education is altogether paid by the Government, while for the most part control is in the hands of the clergy. On the part of Protestants, and especially in Ulster, there is a strong desire to have the control of primary education placed in the hands of duly elected public bodies, such as the Education Board. Reform of this kind is bitterly opposed by the Roman Catholic Hierarchy, who see in interference with their control of education. Owing to the extraordinary growth during recent years of the city of Belfast, and to the fact that during the war building operations had entirely ceased, it was found that the school accommodation was inadequate. On account of this, several

POLAND LOOKS FORWARD TO A GREAT FUTURE

Big Trade Development Expected After Peace is Once Signed.

DANZIG TO ODESSA ROUTE IS REVIVED

Hope to Capture the Trade of Central Europe by This Thousand-Mile Waterway.

By JOHN LATHROP.
(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)
London, Oct. 18.—When peace shall have been signed between Poland and Soviet Russia, the trade of the present shall have been succeeded by a reasonable degree of neighborliness between Poland and Germany and Czechoslovakia, tremendous economic and social forces will be released in the beginning of an era of productive ness.

One of the enterprises which will be promoted is the revival of the once great trans-continental trade route from Danzig on the Baltic Sea, to Odessa, the chief port on the Black Sea. There was a time when this route was utilized for the conveyance of large quantities of goods, and in those days Poland, then dominant in north-central Europe, controlled this channel of commerce. Danzig was Polish, and the Polish influence extended far southward from the proposed lower boundary of the Polish state in the Carpathian mountains to the free cities of the Hanseatic League, flourished and commanded a great sea and land commerce.

Plan a Revival.
Parasiting Poles today plan the revival of this route which was killed by the Germans who built up Hamburg and Bremen and relegated Danzig to a negligible position. For two years these plans have been in process of development, although nothing could be done of actual work so long as wars swept the region through which the route would run.

Inquiries, however, have been made as to sources of capital, and certain governmental congresses have been planned as an incentive to capitalists. It was one of the chiefed projects during the Paris Peace Conference, and the desire to forward it was one of the reasons for the Polish wish to be given Danzig by the Versailles treaty.

The route will be the Vistula river through Warsaw to the headwaters of that stream; along a canalized 200 miles to the headwaters of the Dnieper river, and down that river to Odessa—1000 miles in all from terminus. Ships at Danzig and Odessa will transship by modern dock devices to modern economic river-carriers; there will be local inland harbors and turning basins at convenient points along the route—and the Danzig to Odessa route would be in effect what Germany dreamed of as her "Berlin to Bagdad" or "Mittell Europa" scheme, whereby she would command the commerce between the west and the east.

Better Than German Route.

It will be better than the Berlin to Bagdad route because it will be a water level route, which the German route could not have been. Precisely as the engineers carried the New York Central railway along the Mohawk Trail, so this channel of commerce will follow the lines of least resistance and drain central Europe. Branch canals and canalized rivers will be added, until a vast network of admittedly economic trade channels will serve a region 1000 miles long by almost as many miles wide.

It will carry as tonnage the sugars of Posen, West Prussia and other parts of Poland, the oils of Galicia, the timber resources of Poland, and in surplus when normally returns, cotton goods from the Lodz, Poland, great textile centre, and other commodities, while Ukraine and the Ukraine of Odessa is the seaport, will contribute tonnage from its fertile areas.

Just before the late war, Germany, Russia and Austria signed a treaty for the development of this route. Russia failed to carry out her engagements, so the canal never was constructed. Peace will emerge the planners for the enterprise, and it is within economic and engineers' laws to picture a scene of prosperity and

Moving 4 Buttons adds Another Year of Service from Stanfield's Adjustable Sleepers and Combinations.

Because of its remarkable quality, Stanfield's Underwear for men, women and children has always been good for an extra year of wear. But the children were growing out of Stanfield's Combinations long before they were wearing their way out of them. So we designed Stanfield's ADJUSTABLE Combinations and Sleepers, that grow with the children and always fit.

Four buttons, sewed to vertical tapes on the waist, hold upper and lower parts snugly together as one garment. Simply moving these buttons down, little by little, adjusts the garment to allow for at least two years' average growth, and to fit comfortably all the time. Made in 3 sizes: 2 to 4 years—4 to 6 years—6 to 8 years.

Write for free Sample Book of beautiful Stanfield-knit fabrics used in Stanfield's Underwear.

STANFIELD'S LIMITED, TRURO, N. S.

Now the children get all the wear out of STANFIELD'S Unshrinkable UNDERWEAR. Sleepers and Combinations are alike except for the feet added to the Sleepers. They have all the advantages of Combinations, with the added protection of double thickness around abdomen and kidneys. The lower garment in either can be quickly removed and changed if necessary without undressing the child or the chest.

Built to Lower Industrial Costs—This Steam Hose

Goodyear Steam Hose definitely lowers industrial costs: —by giving longer service. —by doing away with the nuisance of heated wire-winding, and bent wire-winding. —by enabling you to cut steam hose to any desired length. —by preventing blistering and bursting from unequal expansion.

These things Goodyear Steam Hose does because Goodyear has developed a steam hose so strong and tough that wire winding is unnecessary. Goodyear would not have developed this new type of steam hose had Goodyear been content to build industrial hose in the same old way.

But Goodyear investigation and research into hose failings and hose possibilities revealed whole new fields of endeavor. The result is a complete line of industrial hose of super-serviceability and unusual economy.

Goodyear builds steam, air-drill, water, suction, fire, and other types of industrial hose. The expense of hose in your plant can be decreased and the amount of work done increased by a Goodyear analysis of your hose problems. A trained Goodyear man will call on you without obligation. Phone, wire or write the nearest branch, or Goodyear Mechanical Goods Service Station.

If Hair Is Turning Gray, Use Sage Tea

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your crown. It fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

The Truth About Sugar

THE Sugar industry of Canada is confronted with a serious situation and has appealed to the Government to come to its assistance.

Ignorance of the circumstances leading up to this situation has led many people to enter objections to the measures of relief that have been proposed.

The purpose of this statement is to put the plain facts before the people of Canada, in the belief that at heart they want to play fair and are willing to accord a square deal to everyone.

The present upheaval in the world's sugar trade has been brought about by enforced liquidation of some large stocks of raw and refined sugars held by American and Cuban interests. Its effect in Cuba, where some of the native banks have been forced to suspend payments and where the Government has put into effect a sixty-day moratorium, are of common knowledge.

A feature of the disturbance has been the dumping upon the American market of a quantity of so-called "distressed" sugar, in amount relatively unimportant to the whole supply, but sufficient, nevertheless, temporarily, to disorganize the trade.

Part of this "distressed" sugar, forced into the market under conditions of practical bankruptcy, has found its way into Canada where it has, temporarily, upset trading conditions and made it impossible for Canadian Refineries to market their product except at a ruinous loss.

It is pertinent to observe that the low prices quoted for this "distressed" sugar now being dumped in Canada, by no means reflect the true market price in the United States. Only a day or two ago the newspapers announced that the American Sugar Refineries Company, the largest sugar refiners in the States, and who control some 40 per cent. of the production of that country, are selling sugar on the basis of 22½ cents a pound, equivalent to 25 cents in Canada, at the present rate of exchange, several cents a pound higher than that contemplated for Canada in the order made by the Board of Commerce, and since set aside.

At the present time the plants of four of the largest Canadian Refineries are closed; thousands of men are out of employment; millions of capital are temporarily inactive and unproductive.

The refineries have bought or are committed to buy raw sugars to the value of over $60,000,000. Their sales in Canada, due to the conditions before stated, are at a standstill. It follows that the financing of the raw sugar already under contract, will be an impossible task for the refineries with all their resources. The burden will devolve upon the banks if a critical situation comparable to a panic is to be avoided.

The question naturally arises, why have the Canadian Sugar Refineries allowed this situation to develop and what justification have they for appealing for public support of their industry in this crisis.

The Refineries disclaim responsibility for the situation.

They maintain that if they had been left to shape their own course the situation, so far as they are concerned, would not have developed.

They frankly admit that had control of their business not been taken out of their hands by agents of the Government, they would now have no shadow of excuse for appealing for protection.

What are the facts?

For over a year the Board of Commerce, created by the Government, exercised absolute control over the prices at which sugar could be sold in Canada, and fixed the price, from time to time, on a basis contrary to all established commercial usages.

At the same time the Trade Commission, another agency of the Government, refused permission to the refiners to export sugar, which they might have done and thereby reduced their liabilities very materially without injury to the domestic market.

Government control went further and even prevented the resale abroad of raw sugars not necessarily needed in Canada.

The Refiners do not believe, when the situation is fully and fairly analyzed, that their request involves any serious hardship upon the Canadian public. On the contrary, taking into account the benefits the public have already enjoyed in having been enabled to purchase sugar in Canada for months at a time at a price materially lower than the price prevailing in the world's market, amounting, at times, to 10 cents or more a pound; having regard for the national interests involved in keeping the sugar industry actively operating and preventing the loss occasioned by unemployed labor and unproductive capital; considering, furthermore, the strong advisability of keeping trade within the national boundaries instead of sending it abroad where a Canadian dollar is regarded as being worth only 90 cents or less; and having regard, above all, for the very grave necessity of maintaining Canada's industrial, financial and commercial equilibrium in these trying days of world-wide readjustment, the Sugar Refineries of Canada believe that both the Government and the people will admit the justice and fairness of their position and will afford them the temporary consideration necessary to meet the situation.

Government control caused the refineries to lay in additional stocks of raw sugars after the price had advanced and when it was economically less desirable to buy.

Throughout all these transactions, the refineries vigorously protested against the invasion of their rights and frequently gave warning as to what the ultimate result would be. They were met by assurances that their rights would be fully protected.

In meeting their objections the Board of Commerce promised that the refiners would be protected in a falling market to the same extent that they had been deprived, by the Board, of their opportunity to take advantage of a rising market.

The Board of Commerce, in a ruling dated June 11, 1920, laid down this principle:—

"The Board will not recognize prices based on replacement values on a rising market. It will be its duty in good time, as it hopes, to as carefully protect the trader on a falling market by permitting him to average his cost down as it must now carefully protect the consumer in compelling the trader to average his costs up."

The present appeal of the refiners to the Government and to the Board of Commerce is merely a request for a fulfillment of the pledge thus given.

In the same judgment, as illustrating the powers of the Board, it says:—

"The Board will prohibit all refiners from selling to other than wholesalers. It will prohibit wholesalers from buying from other than refiners. It will prohibit speculators from buying or selling at all."

In other words, the Board assumed full power to control the price as well as the conditions under which sugar was marketed in Canada.

The ruling recently made by the Board and suspended by the Government, pending a further hearing, was in strict conformity with the principles the Board had laid down and is in no sense an innovation.

Sugar control and restrictions on exports were finally lifted July 1st, 1920, but with the order revoking the restrictions a letter was issued from the Department of Trade and Commerce which practically once more tied the hands of the refiners so that they were not free even then to sell their products in the world's markets, where the price was still some six cents a pound higher than the prevailing market price in Canada.

Had they been left entirely free, even at this late date, to adjust their trade to the new conditions, Canadian refiners could have sold their products abroad at a price that would have protected them against the slump which has since ensued, and enabled them to meet later conditions without serious loss. Again, they were prevented from doing so.

The actual cost of Government control to the Sugar Refineries of Canada, irrespective of the losses which now confront them in the disposal of their present stocks, is conservatively estimated at from twenty to twenty-five million dollars.

The refiners have facts and figures to prove that their losses, if compelled to sell in competition with "distressed" sugar dumped into Canada from the States, will run into many additional millions.

The sugar refineries are in a different position from any other class of manufacturers in Canada, whose products have not been under Government control, and who have not been denied the right to a free market.

Two herds of buffalo, one about 4,000 all told, are roaming country north of Peace River, remaining wild specimens "unconquered of the plains."

Information regarding these was brought to Ottawa, by Mr. Kitto, D. L. S., exploratory officer of the national resources from the interior department, who reached the city after a four month trip to the north-west, covering a portion of six months.

Contrary to reports, Mr. Kitto did not discover the herds, and claimed to have done so. He took, however, three photographs of the herds, the most important information is that while government officials know of the existence of the herds, they thought numbers between 200 and 300 usually they number 2,000, in two of 1,000 each.

Mr. Kitto saw many locking calves, and says that the herd are on the increase. He pictures of individual animals and extensive notes, all of which embodied in his report to the west. Mr. Kitto also brings of extensive silver finds in the Territory.

HERDS OF BUFFALO NUMBERING 2,000 FOUND IN NORTH

Canadian Gov't Official Brings Interesting Account of Ten Thousand Mile Trip.

Two herds of buffalo, numbering about 2,000 all told, are roaming the country north of Peace River, the last remaining wild specimens of the "monarchs of the plains."

Information regarding these herds was brought to Ottawa, by Mr. P. H. Kito, D.L.S., exploratory engineer of the natural resource branch of the interior department, who has just reached the city after a journey of more than ten thousand miles and covering a period of six months.

Contrary to reports, Mr. Kito did not discover the herds, and never claimed to have done so. He brings back, however, two interesting facts regarding them. The most important information is that while government officials knew of the existence of buffalo in the region, they thought they numbered between 300 and 400. Actually they number 2,000, in two herds of 1,000 each.

Herd Has Increased.
The department said Mr. Kito has known for a number of years of the existence of buffalo in the country north of the Peace River and south of the Great Slave Lake. In fact for two years, two men have been engaged in watching them. I went to see how they were getting along, and I was pleasantly surprised to discover that there were many more buffalo than had been suspected. He said had led me to believe that there were between two and three hundred.

As a matter of fact there are between two and three thousand. They are in two herds of about equal numbers. The one roams in the area between Peace and Slave rivers, Great Slave Lake and the Caribou Hills in the west. The other is further north.

Mr. Kito saw many healthy-looking calves, and says that the buffalo are on the increase. He took pictures of individuals and made extensive notes, all of which will be embodied in his report to the department. Mr. Kito also brings news of extensive silver finds in the Yukon Territory.

He left Ottawa this spring and went to Edmonton. From there he went north to the Peace River, down the Peace River and the Slave River to Great Slave Lake. At the lower end of the lake he began the long journey down the Mackenzie River. Most of his trip was done by canoe and with one guide. For hundreds of miles down the Mackenzie Mr. Kito travelled until he reached the Bell River, down which stream and the Porcupine, he came to Fort Yukon, Alaska. His next move was to Dawson city, by way of the Yukon River and out to the Pacific coast. The journey was one of over 10,000 miles.

In the Arctic Circle.
Mr. Kito spent a month or so about 1,000 miles north of Edmonton, in the vicinity of the buffalo country, and another month in the Arctic circle. He says he just missed seeing the midnight sun by a day or two, and therefore nearly the whole of his journey was carried out in the perpetual day of summer in the arctic regions.

He investigated all the natural resources of the region he covered as far as possible, and paid particular attention to the game. He patrolled the vast region between the Peace River, the Great Slave Lake and the Slave River. It was here that he found the herd of buffalo.

During his travels, Mr. Kito met the prospecting parties of the Imperial Oil Company. They were on Windy Point on Great Bear Lake, about 50 miles north of Fort Norman. There were also other parties of prospectors in the northern regions.

The summer in the Yukon, said Mr. Kito, was a beautiful one. Of particular interest regarding the Yukon was the discovery of extensive silver finds in the Stewart River country; some 200 miles east of Dawson City. Investigations seem to point to one of the richest silver fields on the continent have been made.

REV. P. COULTHURST RESIGNS.
Special to The Standard. Campbellton, N. B., Oct. 18.—The Rev. P. Coulturst has resigned his pastorate here. He will take up his place of residence in Baltimore at an early date.

PRUSSIAN POLICE OUT.
Berlin, Oct. 18.—The Prussian security police, organized on a military basis, have been disbanded and have been replaced by a body of 8,000 civil police who are fundamentally local in character, under control of the local civil authorities. The substitution was made in accordance with the demand of the Entente powers.

SMUGGLING FOOD AND TOBACCO.
(By Vigo Teaster.)
Berlin, Oct. 18.—The smuggling of Dutch commodities has assumed such dimensions that a special police force has been established at Cologne Central Station, which arrests dozens of smugglers every day. The smuggling of cigarettes means a loss of millions, both to the Exchequer and to the German cigarette industry. During one day 40 smugglers were arrested; truck loads of smuggled goods are seized every day.

RECORD HUNGER STRIKE, 63 DAYS
Paris, Oct. 18.—The long hunger strike of Mayor MacSwiney of Cork has caused much discussion here as to how long it is possible for a man to fast. Dr. Siccotte has told the Paris Med that the record is 63 days without food set by William Granter in 1831.

"Granter had been sentenced to death and was confined in the prison of Tortoise," said Dr. Siccotte. "He had a horror of the guillotine and to save himself from death by that instrument determined to starve which he did after 63 days."

"Many hunger-strikers have lived longer than could have been expected," he went on. "There are the cases of Tanner, Sued and Merlati, the father of whom starved for 45 days while he lost one-quarter of his weight. Taylor tells of the case of a worker who was imprisoned in a mine for 80 days without food. He lived three days after his rescue and died as a result of being excessively fed. Many lunatics have refused to take food for 20, 30 or even 40 days."

"No rule can be established as to length of time a man can fast. His endurance will depend upon his previous health, his constitution, and also upon his spiritual condition, which is very important. It is well-known that a starving man may increase his endurance a great deal by drinking water."

2000 YEARS AGO

the fighting Gladiators of ancient Rome healed their wounds and sores with rare herbal oils and balms. These are said to have healed the damaged tissues together in a miraculous fashion.

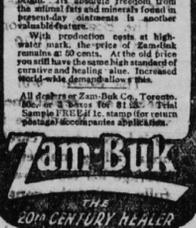

Though the highly-priest secrets of those precious healers were lost with the fall of Rome the introduction of the great herbal balm Zam-Buk has furnished their true successor. It is so marvellously like them in action.

The soothing and healing touch of Zam-Buk is known to all who have used it. Wherever there is a cut, burn, scald, a feverish or poisoned sore, a burn of Erysipelas, Pimples or Rash, Zam-Buk sends the trouble once and for all to the land of the forgotten.

Nothing else known to Science performs such marvellous healing, or does it diffuse from the pores of the skin as Zam-Buk does. This is due to its pure herb character and its ability to absorb moisture from the skin and liberate it in another form.

With protection costs at high-water mark, the price of Zam-Buk remains at 25 cents. The old price of 15 cents still has the same high standard of quality and healing value. Increased world-wide demand follows this.

PRINCE OF WALES' MENAGERIE IS TOO MUCH FOR PALACE

Buckingham Officials Puzzled to Find Room for Cargo of Gifts, Live and Otherwise.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.)
London, Oct. 18.—The return of the Prince of Wales has created a perplexing problem for Buckingham Palace, where the Prince lives with his parents until married. The Prince brought back to London with him a good sized menagerie, and as Buckingham Palace provides no suitable quarters for tropical animals and reptiles, the question has arisen as to what is to be done with the Prince's pets.

It seems that every tribe in his father's dominions insisted upon presenting him with a living token of their esteem. The Prince also wanted to keep souvenirs of his hunting exploits, with the result that the good ship Isenora returned with a cargo that would do justice to the London Zoo. As a matter of fact, the collection of young emus and Australian hares brought back by the Prince are considered to be the only specimens of their kind in Europe.

Carload of Presents.
Besides several tons of livestock, the Prince returns with cartloads of presents, mostly consisting of carved sticks, carved pipes, bark canoes, Maori carpets, door mats and silk pajamas.

The Maori tribes gave him an elaborately carved flag pole, which they asked the Prince to hoist over St. James Palace.

EXPRESS FAITH IN PORTUGUESE

France and Britain Assure Small Republic of Their Confidence and Support.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.)
Paris, Oct. 18.—The recent dispatching reports of a labor uprising in Portugal are the basis for a semi-official declaration from the French Government, that "the greatest confidence and sympathy" exists in the relations between the two republics.

It is remarked that the Portuguese minister of foreign affairs, Senhor Mallo Barreto, had just completed a notable journey to Great Britain, where he was given assurances of renewed Anglo-Portuguese understanding by Lord Curzon. At the same time Lord Milner expressed belief in a closer consolidation of British and Portuguese colonial interests, especially in Africa and South America.

And now France affirms her cordial support of the smaller republic. It is pointed out that the programme of commercial accord now being arranged for Italy will be of the greatest help to the two countries, but will magnify further confidence in the friendship of the maritime republic.

There is still a strong faction of Portuguese royalists who are said to be preparing for a coup d'etat, but this is not considered of great danger to the republican government now in power.

SKIRTS CAUSE ACCIDENTS.
New York, Oct. 18.—A letter signed "Tom Flinn" has been received by the Mayor which places the blame of heavy auto fatalities on the short skirts now worn by the fair sex. "Tom Flinn," who is supposedly a chauffeur, says in his letter to the Chief Magistrate that "it ain't the automobile's fault. The trouble ain't there. Make the woman folks quit wearing dresses so high. That's the trouble. Men walking on the streets and driving cars can't keep their minds on their jobs. They can't look two directions at once."

EX-GERMAN SHIPS ON LAST VOYAGE
New York, Oct. 18.—Two former German passenger liners, the Imperator and the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, have left this port during the past few days on what may be their last voyage in the service of the Cunard line.

The Imperator, next to the Leviathan, the largest ship afloat, and the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, have been running in the Cunard service for the last year. They were taken over by the Inter-Allied Maritime Council at Hamburg, following the signing of the armistice. With other ships they were allocated by Great Britain to the Cunard line for seven round trip voyages.

Officers here of the Cunard line say that the arrival of these two vessels in England on their present trip will end the term of their allocation. The future of both ships is unknown here. Recent reports from London were that they were included among the seized German vessels to be offered for sale at auction in the near future. Whether the Cunard line will make a bid for them is not known.

PICTURES TO REPLACE BOOKS IN SCHOOLS
Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—Motion pictures will eventually displace many text-books in the public schools, predicts Louis Nusbbaum, associate superintendent of the schools in this city. Thirty public schools here now have motion picture machines and rent films from the film exchanges for use in their lessons.

More can often be learned in five minutes with an instructive specially prepared motion picture film than in an hour of study from the text-book, said Mr. Nusbbaum in urging the idea before the property committee of the Board of Education. "Motion picture machines would help out in the text-book shortage."

NUXATED IRON A DRIVING FORCE

BEHIND KEEN SUCCESSFUL MEN AND WOMEN

When you think of the successful men and women you know—people who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that makes them simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron. Nuxated Iron enriches the blood and creates new red blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed force and energy into the whole system. Three million people use it annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST
See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five grain tablets of Nuxated Iron from three times per day for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

Prepared with an instructive specially prepared motion picture film than in an hour of study from the text-book, said Mr. Nusbbaum in urging the idea before the property committee of the Board of Education. "Motion picture machines would help out in the text-book shortage."

A DANGER SIGNAL—TENDER AND BLEEDING GUMS

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea terms creep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.

Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. The teeth loosen, the teeth decay, rotten and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.

Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not fear it. Visit your dentist as regularly as you do your hairdresser. Let Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean.

See and Get tubes in Canada and U.S. If your dentist cannot supply them, send away for them. We will mail them postpaid.

FORHAN'S LTD., Montreal. SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon on Friday, the 15th November, 1920, for the conveyance of His Majesty's Mails, on a proposed Contract for four years, three times per week on the route, Dipper Harbour and Musquash, commencing at the pleasure of the Postmaster General.

Printed notices containing further information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Post Offices at Musquash and Dipper Harbour, and at the offices of the Post Office Inspectors: Post Office Inspectors' Office, St. John, N. PHILIP MURPHY DEAD

Special to The Standard. Boston, N. S., Oct. 14.—The death occurred at South Branch, Kent County, on Wednesday, of Philip Murphy, the youngest son of the late Philip Murphy and of Mary Burns, of South Branch. He was thirty-six years of age and had been in poor health for a long time. He is survived by four brothers, James, in the West; Patrick, Thomas and Joseph, of South Branch, and two sisters, Anna and Agnes, of Boston. The funeral took place to the Roman Catholic church, South Branch, where high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John Daudet.

Miss Roberts, Universal's dramatic star, has returned to Universal City after a lengthy vacation in New York city, her birthplace. It was her first visit to her home town since she made the most of it incidentally while in New York city celebrating her eighteenth birthday and was noted by her former school chums of public school No. 154.

Immediately upon her return to Universal City she began work on a new picture, to follow her recent success in "The Adorable Savage," the South Seas picture adapted from Ralph Stock's popular novel, "Marana."

"I would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac did me," said W. F. Hupp, 832 Camden St., Akron, Ohio, for the past ten years a valued employee with the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. "I will always owe a great debt of gratitude to Tanlac," he said, "because it restored my health completely after everything else failed, and I have gained over twenty pounds. I can now get better sleep, sleep better and work better and I feel like a brand-new man."

The worst thing that can be said about some people is they are never seen at their best—if they have such a thing.

THE WEATHER.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—A depression was centered tonight in Colorado and pressure was highest from New England to the Middle Atlantic States. Snow and rain have occurred in the southern portions of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Otherwise the weather in the Dominion has been fair except that fog has occurred locally in the Lake region.

AROUND THE CITY

THE WOLF CUBS. The Wolf Cubs of Trinity enjoyed a hike to Saints' Rest yesterday, and the boys spent one of the best times in their history, and on their return home wished for another such day in the near future.

WESTFIELD COUNTRY CLUB. A large number of members of the Westfield Country Club were on the links yesterday and enjoyed the use of the weather and golf. While no special tournament was arranged, many individual matches were played during the day.

LEFT FOR CHINA. Hum Jim, the genial proprietor of King's Cafe, Prince William street, left on Sunday for Victoria, B. C., where he will sail for China. He expects to be away from St. John about five months. The death of his father recently in his native land made his return essential. Hum Jim has been in Canada over twenty years.

RETURN TO COLLEGE. The following students from Mt. Allison returned to Sackville this morning, after spending Thanksgiving holidays in St. John: Misses Margaret Nixon, Marion Peterson, Dorothy Niles, Marion Smith, Ruth Thompson, Rosina Doane, Helen Hammond, Helen Smith and Alice Kirk, of Yarmouth.

NAVY LEAGUE CAMPAIGN. The Navy League Campaign is in progress this week. Already the treasurer, H. C. Schofield, is in receipt of a number of contributions for the fund. In view of business conditions which made it difficult to secure a sufficient number of canvassers, it was decided to appeal directly to the public-spirited men and women of the city. The objective for New Brunswick is $20,000, for St. John, $10,000.

INTERESTING EVENING. There was a large attendance at the meeting held last evening by the Central Baptist Young People's union. In the absence of the president, Archie Gillis presided. Solos were beautifully rendered by Miss Gladys Dykeman and Miss Bertie Campbell. A most interesting talk on "How We Should Spend our Time," was given by Edgar Campbell. Another address was delivered by Mr. Collins.

HARRY HARKINS DIED IN BINGHAMPTON, N. Y. Only Son of W. S. Harkins, Well Known Theatrical Man.

The many friends of W. S. Harkins will regret to learn of the death of his son, Harry, who took place in Binghampton, N. Y., on Oct. 17th, particulars of which were received by A. E. Macdonald in a wire from Mr. Harkins. He was an excellent singer by profession, holding a responsible position with a large firm in Binghampton. About two years ago he received a bruise on his shoulder, to which he paid very little attention. Later this developed into cancer, and early last spring he was brought to New York for treatment. The best specialists were obtained, and he was placed under both the radium and X-ray treatment, but no hope was held out for his recovery by the doctors. A couple of weeks ago he left for Binghampton to visit his family and was to return to New York for further treatment. A few days after his arrival home a telegram was received by his father announcing that he had had a serious attack and was in the hospital there. Mrs. Harkins at once left for Binghampton and Mr. Harkins went there direct from here, both being with him when he died. Though suffering the utmost torture since last spring he never complained, notwithstanding that he realized his recovery was impossible. Disposed was about 37 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. Burial will take place in the family lot at Woodlawn, N. Y., about eighteen months ago Mr. and Mrs. Harkins lost their only daughter, while visiting relatives in Philadelphia, she contracted "flu" and passed away within 48 hours. In his lastogram Mr. Harkins says: "We are left all alone now, old friend, the dearest of being the best of a family of seven."

Mrs. E. T. MacArthur Morgan (nee Dunlop) will receive for the first time since her marriage at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Robert Dunlop, 75 Orange street, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 21.

West End Youth Was Found Dead

Avard Wills Died of Heart Failure—Found Lifeless in Bed Sunday Noon.

Death came very suddenly to Avard Wills, 16-year-old son of John Wills, No. 340 Gullford street, West St. John, who was found dead in his bed at about noon Sunday. Dr. F. L. Kenney, who was called in to examine the boy, stated that death was due to heart failure.

Wills, on retiring Saturday night, told his parents that he was suffering from toothache and had to get up if he should hear him during the night. Apart from the ailment he was in apparently good health.

His youngest brother, Bobbie, who was sleeping in the same room, heard the deceased groaning early in the morning, but when he arose at 3:30 did not notice anything wrong. On being called at noon Avard failed to respond, and on investigation he was found to have passed away.

Heart Failure. It was stated that the boy had procured a bottle of toothache cure from a drug store Saturday night and had applied it to the affected tooth during the night. Dr. Kenney, who investigated the case did not consider the remedy had anything to do with the young lad's death, but that it was due to heart failure alone.

Avard Wills was employed with Jas. W. Carleton, of Duke street, W. E. He was a bright and dependable lad, and his passing away will be a hard blow to his family, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Children's Service Of Great Interest

Flags of Girl Guides and Wolf Cubs Consecrated at Trinity Sunday Morning.

A children's service of great interest was held at Trinity Church on Sunday morning, when flags of Girl Guides and Wolf Cubs were consecrated. Boy Scouts were present, as well as children of the Sunday school in large numbers. Well known hymns were heartily sung by all present.

Was Impressed With St. John Port

Canadian Trade Commissioner to Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Made Inspection Saturday.

Among Saturday's visitors to St. John was Major E. Leonard McCall, the recently appointed Canadian Trade Commissioner to Rio Janeiro, Brazil. While here in company with the secretary of the Board of Trade, he made an inspection of the port's facilities. He was greatly impressed with the possibilities of the port, and saw no reason why St. John, under good management and systematized development, should not become one of the most active ports on the Atlantic coast.

HOW SUBURBANITES SPENT HOLIDAY

"October's bright blue weather" was to be enjoyed at its brightest and best, not only over the week-end, but the holiday as well. Large numbers took advantage of the almost summer-like weather to pay brief visits to summer homes along the two rivers. The landscape with its gold and crimson leaved trees mirrored in the water's placid surface and the ideal weather seemed especially fitting to thanksgiving.

Although there were no flowers to bring back from the country, October had its own offerings of equal beauty, and those who returned to the city carried large armfuls of beautiful autumn rowan berries and golden autumn leaves.

Miss Joan Arnold, national president of the I. D. E. left for the Maritime Provinces on Saturday. Miss Arnold will go to Halifax to organize a provincial chapter for Nova Scotia and will address the Provincial Chapter this week at Fredericton, N. B.

79th Anniversary Was Celebrated

Rev. J. Heaney Gave Historical Sketch at Carleton Methodist Church Sunday.

Interesting services were held in the Carleton Methodist Church on Sunday when the seventy-ninth anniversary of the church and the annual thanksgiving services were united. The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the choir furnished special music which added to the interest and spiritual value of the services.

The Rev. J. Heaney, minister of the church, preached appropriate sermons which included a brief historical sketch of the beginning of the Methodist cause on the West Side of the harbor.

Church History. He stated that the church was dedicated towards the close of the year 1841 but that for thirty years prior to that, services had been held in the West Side and during the best of years of the period they were held in what was called the Union Meeting House which still stands at the head of King street.

In May, 1842 a Sunday School was organized with a membership of 83 which increased to 173 in three months. Today the Sunday School has a total enrollment of 400 which includes all departments.

First Pastor. The first pastor, the Rev. Samuel D. Rice, remained with the congregation three years. The oldest surviving minister is the Rev. Dr. S. F. Huestis, who finished his pastorate in 1889. Other former pastors who still survive are the Rev. Dr. W. W. Wood, Rev. Dr. John W. Williams and the Revs. Thos. Marshall, Robert Crisp, Wm. Penna, Henry Penna, Hedley D. Mart, H. E. Thomas, E. A. Westwood and the present incumbent, the Rev. J. Heaney who is entering into the congregation for the second term.

In the passing of the years changes have been made to the interior of the church and some enlargements have been made. The congregation today number 257, of whom 30 members are non-resident.

Small Supply Of Turkeys

Chickens in Abundance in City Market Saturday for Thanksgiving Dinner.

All the turkeys that were offered on the St. John market on Saturday would not satisfy a very large crowd. Once the Thanksgiving dinner table was not complete without the famous bird but high prices, scarcity of supplies and the moving of the holiday to mid-October has changed the bill of fare for the home. A few turkeys of average quality made their appearance but there was no rush of purchasers. It was chicken day and every stall was crowded with splendid fowl. They sold at 60 cents per pound ready. A few ducks and geese were also available for those preferring that class of dinner.

Examine Clothes For Blood Stains

Clothing of Wm. St. Pierre Now at Provincial Laboratories.

The clothes of William St. Pierre are now being examined for blood stains by Dr. Abramson at the provincial laboratories. Provincial Constable Robert Crawford, who was responsible for the arrest of St. Pierre on suspicion of the murder of Miss Stevie, the young girl telegraph operator, returns to St. John today, where he will remain until after the trial.

Y. M. C. A. JUNIORS ON TREASURE HUNT

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors thoroughly enjoyed the two holidays. On Saturday they took part in a treasure hunt which led them through Rockwood Park. When the final clue was unscrambled it was found to lead back to the Y. M. C. A. where the treasure proved to be a pocket knife. A. G. Morson, associate secretary of boys' work, associated the treasure hunt which gave the juniors such a good time.

Yesterday twenty of the boys left the gym at 9:30 in the morning and went on a hike through the park and out to Long Lake. Dinner at the lake was followed by a ball game. The boys then came into town by the back road and after enjoying a shower at the "Y" left for their homes just in time for the Thanksgiving meal.

POLICE MAKE ELEVEN ARRESTS

Eleven arrests were made by the police during the week-end and holiday. Oskar Dage Andersen was arrested for luring and lurking in Union Depot. John Lane on suspicion of the theft of $30 from the person of Mike Sigot, who was detained by the police as witness. Six drunks were arrested Saturday, one Sunday and two Monday.

Thanksgiving Day Services Held

Special Music and Appropriate Sermons Preached at St. John's (Stone) Church.

Sunday was Thanksgiving Day at St. John's (Stone) Church, and at seven o'clock morning and evening special music was sung and appropriate sermons preached. The church looked especially fine with decorations of hydrangea, wheat, apples and grapes. Rev. Canon Kilbring preached on the subjects of Praise and Thanksgiving at both services.

Excellent music was rendered by a large choir under direction of J. J. Arnold, P. M. organist. In the morning Mrs. George Bell and Mrs. Harrison sang a duet.

Andreas were: "Praise the Lord, Oh Jerusalem," (Maurer), and "Honor the Lord With Thy Substance" (Stahler).

Rally Day. The Stone Church Sunday School was re-organized, new officers appointed and a programme made out, which promises well to be of interest to scholars. There was a good attendance on Sunday, when superintendents of various departments outlined plans for the coming winter.

The following officers were appointed: Rev. G. A. Kurling, superintendent. Kenneth Prior, assistant superintendent. Fred Dunham, secretary. James Dunham, treasurer. Roy Parlee, librarian. Miss Saunders, organist. Stanley Clark, scout master. Miss Gladys Burt, superintendent of Infants' Class. Mrs. Kurling, superintendent of Missions. Mrs. Charles Gorham, superintendent of Cradle Roll, assisted by Miss Jenn Dearborn. Douglas McKean, Miss Marjorie Manning, Miss Ethel McGinley, entertainment committee.

WOMAN PREACHER AT CENTRAL BAPTIST

Mrs. F. H. Bone, Wife of Pastor, Delivered Two Sermons Sunday.

A church crowded in every part greeted Mrs. F. H. Bone, wife of the Rev. Mr. Bone, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, when she preached Sunday morning and evening in the absence of her husband at the Yarmouth Convention. Mrs. Bone is a pleasing speaker and was listened to with much attention. In the morning she spoke on "The Child," while at night her theme was "Filling the Gap," in which she outlined some of the gaps in the social and moral life of the city.

PORT BUSINESS STILL GOING STRONG

Official reports received by the Board of Trade show that for the month ending July, the exports through the port of St. John amounted to $33,582,855, and the imports to $14,965,221.
