4,000 FALL IN CENTRAL AMERICAN BATTLE; SALVADOR CRUSHES THE GUATEMALANS

Sweeping Victory for Former Causes Guatemalan Government to Sue for Peace---General Regalado Assassinated by Members of His Escort.

Mexico City, July 17.-News was reselved yesterday that a rumor was current in Salvador that Gen. Regalado was assassinated by two men, who formed part of his escort, and that these men were Guatemalans employed for the purpose. Col. Pinedos' forces, which entered Guatemala via British Honduras, are now said to be in the mountains south of the Mexican State

The following dispatch was received from San Salvador: "Never before in the history of Central America has there been such hard fighting. Salvador, Guatemala had about three men to one. Notwithstanding the great odds. Salvador won every battle. The loss on both sides was great, Salvador losing about 700 killed, and 1,100 wounded, and Guatemala about 2,800 killed and 3,900 wounded. Gen. Regalado when killed was over a mile in advance. He had 50 picked officers and men with him Everyone was killed, and after the rear troops came up and drove the Guatemalan troops forward, they found over 600 dead Guatemalan soldiers, including severa! officers. In that battle, Salvador captured the enemy's artillery. Then Guatemala asked for peace. Salchanged conditions."

When this dispatch was filed, the two armies were facing each other, and sible to examine the other eye. resting on their arms, waiting the resuit of President Roosevelt's telegram.

WINDSOR HANGS HIMSELF IN JAIL

Christopher Spindleman, Charged With Brutal Killing of His Wife, Strangles Himself With Shoelaces.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Windsor, Ont., July 17.-Eluding the vigilance of a special watch placed on him, Christopher Spindleman, who on Saturday killed his wife, hanged himself at Sandwich jail early this morning. His body was found a few minutes before 6 o'clock by Turnkey Her, who was on his morning rounds. The murderer had successfully wound a pair of shoe laces around his neck, tied one end to a chain which is attached to his cot, and slowly strangled himself. With Spartan fortitude he waited for death at his own hands. He had carefully laid his plans for taking his life. There is no doubt he intended selfdestruction after he was first arrested, having been thwarted by his son in his attempt to shoot himself.

Chief Wills ordered a special watch on the prisoner. Sergt. Jackson and Officer Lister purposely removed his shoes and took them away from him. They searched carefully for an instrument to commit suicide and made his detention so secure that he had no means of "snuffing out."

Sergt. Jackson said: "Spindleman would have done the deed here if we had given him the chance. We left him with only his underclothing, and he would have a hard time in ending his life by hanging or strangulation." The murderer took advantage of the first opportunity to carry out his original plans. After being committed to Sandwich the prisoner was under a special watch. Jailer Sparks detailed two men to keep an eye on the cell and have an electric light burning in the corridor all night. Spindleman waited until the vigilance was relaxed, having hid his shoe strings after takto teach mathematics in Kingston Col- and asks for another inquiry, so far as ing off his shoes. With dexterity born of despair, he made a noose to slip over his neck and attached the other end of the string to the cot. Drawing the noose taut, he turned over on his face, and death must have resulted in a few minutes from strangulation.

London, July 17. - Retribution has befallen the suffragettes, or, as one newspaper calls them, the fooligans, in Manchester, where their own meeting was more completely wrecked than any they have tried to break up. A huge, good-natured crowd listened to the speakers for some time, but when dissentients began to roast the orators with inconvenient comments, their spirit became infectious. The voices of the speakers were drowned in derisive shouts and laughter.

Then James Kier Hardie, a Labor member of Parliament, appeared, and the animosity he lately courted by championing the Zulus against the South African colonists, broke loose. The crowd soon became rowdy and many of the audience started for the platform.

The meeting was being held in a deep hollow in a public park, and as the crowd surged downward the position became dangerous, threatening a murderous crush at the bottom of the hollow. Women shrieked and fainted. Men on the lower slopes began to fight those rushing down, to prevent a catastrophe. General pandemonium followed. Realizing the danger, Mr. Hardie and his supporters organized a movement uphill, conducting the women speakers. It was a stiff fight. They were often carried off their feet by the crowd, but they saved themselves from disaster, and reached the top of the hill, where they were mobbed, being compelled to run for safety.

They were vainly pursued by their enemies. The other women speakers were less fortunate. They were hustled, hooted at and chivied. Eventually they took refuge in a house, which was besieged by a howling mob until the police rescued them.

Mr. Hardie and Mrs. Parkhurst escaped by scaling high spiked railings,

Mrs. Mitchell, one of the suffragettes, made a good fight. In a scrimmage she knocked down one male assailant and smashed her umbrella over the head of another.

DREYFUS SAVED BY LUCKY CHANCE

Story of How the Famous Forgery Was Discovered.

OLD LETTER HAD BEEN KEPT

Comparing This With Photograph of Bordereau Led to the Discovery of Esterhazy's Crime.

Paris, July 16 .- As a fitting epilogue to the acquittal of Alfred Dreyfus, M. Philip Buneau-Varilla today made public a remarkable story of how he first discovered positive proof of Dreyfus' innocence and the guilt of Major Count Esterhazy, a story heretofore known to only a few intimates including Dreyfus, who said during a recent dinner here that while the establishment of photograph of the bordereau." his innocence was attributed to many causes, M. Buneau-Varilla's chance detection of the counterfeit bordereau, or the main document on which the May Be Enlarged to Hold Severa prosecution relied, was the real cause of the triumph of justice.

"A document among my old records was the basis of the whole Dreyfus agitation," said M. Buneau-Varilla, "and was instrumental in his final acquittal. Dreyfus and I entered the polytechnic school together in 1878, I recall his very characteristic Jewish look, which was rather unprepossessing. But he was a good fellow and a companionable student. Our ways parted on our graduation, he going into the army and I becoming a government engineer.

"We seldom came together after that, but once chancing to meet him on the Avenue Montaigne, we chatted about a project, which I was directing, for the development of the French Congo. Later, Dreyfus wrote to me, asking for information about the project ical study upon the French possessions in Africa. Through an oversight the letter remained unanswered.

White Shirtwaist Suits Direct From New York

Our buyer, while on his way to Europe, stopped off in New York long enough to leave orders for some of the latest New York originations to be shipped to this store.

Shirtwaist Suits are here. They'll delight you with their fascinating touches of style newness, with their invitingly cool looks, with the goodness of the materials, with the reasonableness of the prices. Everyone is in white-the popular and sensible thing for summer wear.

$6.50 seems a remarkably reasonable price for this fine lawn suit. The front of the waist is a rather novel affair. Tucks and embroidery insertion appear to have started out to form a yoke, but end by just missing it. Short sleeves with embroidery insertion and lace. Buttoned at back. Good, full skirt with nine gores. Front gore trimmed with three rows of embroidery insertion.

$7.50. This is indeed an attractive style. Front of blouse is daintily embroidered and tucked. Buttoned at side. Short sleeves are lace trimmed. Front panel of skirt trimmed to match front of blouse. Deep flounce is tucked and separated from upper portion of skirt by a row of insertion. Fine white lawn is the material.

$9.00 for this bewitching, soft, light, clingy mull? Little enough, for certain. Front of waist is elaborately embroidered and trimmed with lace and embroidery insertion. Buttoned down back, which is "prettied up" with lace insertion and tucks. Lace insertion collar attached. Short sleeves. Skirt elaborately carried out in detail to match front of waist. acre. American settlers have been coming to the country in steadily increasing numbers, and the winter wheat area of the present year will probably be 50 per cent larger than last year. There was a rumor that the winter wheat sown last year had been killed off, but later reports show the damage to have been slight and to have been due, as has been already suggested, to the fact that it was sown too late. The Calgary Millwas sown too late. The Calgary Milling Company has placed on the market a fine quality of flour manufactured especially from Alberta Red winter wheat, and the fact is largely lie school boys have benefited just as LITTLE SHOP WORLD-FAMED advertised that a famous Toronto biscuit firm on receiving a sample of it immediately wired for ten barrels. It is doubtless, too, in the confident assurance that Alberta winter wheat will become a normal product here, that the Alberta Biscuit Company has already begun work on the foundations for a large factory in Calgary."

Mr. Acland also describes the vast irrigation project of the C. P. R. in the land on either side of the railway between Medicine Hat and Calgary, about 3,000,000 acres in all, half of which is irrigable. Four or five million dollars

A Modish Shirtwaist (6355)

"Very Smart," you will say on first glance at the accompanying shirt The design is one of unusual attractiveness and possessing that rare quality of becomingness. A pretty yoke extends over the shoulders and finishes the box pleats which appear in front and back. The front edges of the yoke are tabbed and adorned with small buttons, the same idea being repeated in the cuffs. The box pleats are pressed into position, and a pleasing change from the usual stitching. A light-weight broadcloth would make this into a stunning waist, as would silk, linen or Rajan. For the medium size, 3 1-4 ards of 36-inch material are needed; 7 sizes, 32 to 44 bust measure.

In the city schools, speaking generally what may be considered religious instruc tion is limited to the reading of the Bible and a prayer by the teacher, the singing of hymne and the recitation of the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments by the children in unison; and in some cases the Apostles' Creed. The latter is naturally objected to. In some of the schools but in only a small proportion, as I understand it, there are familiar talks by the teachers and superintendents, and occasionally by a curate or some other clergyman upon those simple, easily understood moral truths which are the common property of all denominations and the foundation of character. The pending bill to amend the law does not prohibit that. It apparently proposes to continue this sort of instruction-"the skeleton of religion," as James Ramsey McDonald, one of the Labor leaders, expressed it. ligious subjects, but attendance shall not

The supposed motive for the shooting was the rejection of Scheulg's attentions to MEAT EXPOS HITS PACKERS Miss Karcher by the young woman and ner parents.

From the time Scheuig secured em ployment at the butcher shop, he paid Great Falling Off in the Shipment to court to Karcher's daughter. His attentions were discouraged, when it was rumored in the neighborhood that he had a wife and children in Germany. Yesterday Scheuig again asked the girl to marry him, and when she refused he opened fire on her. One shot struck her over the heart, and she fell unconscious.
