THOS. WILKINSON IS THE NOMINEE

Supporters of the Borden Platform Nominate Aid.
 Thos. Wilkinson As Their Candidate--All United
 to Send a Supporter of R. L. Borden to Ottawa.

The Conservative convention called to meet here today consisted of a large number of delegates and representatives from the different parts of the riding. Besides the Regina delegates there were good delegations from Rouleau, Yellow Grass, Milestone, Balgonie, Arat, Pilot Butte, Hedgesford, Condie, Tregarva, Fox-
 leigh, Earl Grey, Craven, Wascana, Aylesbury, Craik, Lumsden, Wascana, Findlater, Dundonald, Pense, Grand Coules, Springdale and other parts of the constituency.

President Whitmore took the chair and called the meeting to order. A committee on credentials was appointed and commenced work at once.

The resignation of J. K. McInnis was read and on motion received and accepted.

Nominations were accepted before adjournment at noon and were as follows:

J. K. McInnis, nominated by J.
 S. 2d, seconded by H. C. Rankine.
 Thos. Wilkinson, nominated by J.
 A. Goth and seconded by J. Brooks.
 Dr. Cowan, nominated by A. J.
 Bradley and seconded by S. J. Taylor.

B. J. Bott nominated by J. H.
 Anderson and seconded by D. D.
 Ryan.

These were all the names that were placed before the convention.

The candidates were called on in the order in which they were nominated. J. K. McInnis, B. J. Bott and Dr. Cowan withdrew after making short but appropriate speeches, pledging their hearty support to the candidate. The unanimous nomination was consequently tendered to Mr. Wilkinson who replied briefly.

Addresses were delivered on questions affecting the campaign by F.
 C. Tate, M.L.A., T. A. Anderson,
 M.L.A., and G. S. Houston.

The greatest unanimity prevailed throughout the convention and every element of the party and supporters of the Borden platform are united and determined that the Regina constituency shall elect a Borden candidate on October 26th.

THE CANDIDATE

Thomas Wilkinson, was born in Cheshire, England, in September, 1867, moved to Canada in 1871, and has spent more than a quarter of a century on the western prairies. In 1894 he married the third daughter of Judge Holman, of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, and engaged in farming near Birtle from 1895 to 1900, and the next ten years were spent in the general store business and banking business at the latter town, and also as general travelling agent for the McCormick Harvesting Co. Moved to Pense, Sask., in 1900 and successfully carried on a hardware and imstrumental in having Pense elected into a village and was elected the first Overseer. Having a thorough knowledge of the west Mr. Wilkinson at once saw that Regina was destined to become the chief social and commercial centre of the great new province, about to be created, and moved here in the fall of 1904, to take charge of the Cockshutt Plow

Co.'s Saskatchewan business, and was the means of establishing a provincial general agency. With unbounded confidence in the west, and Regina as a distributing centre, he set to work with the spirit of western enterprise and built a warehouse.
 In 1905 he built the one he occupied
 when manager of the Fairchild Co., one of the largest concerns in their line of business in Canada; in 1906
 he erected the Downey street warehouses. In 1907 Mr. Wilkinson was elected Alderman for Ward 4, City of Regina.

Mr. Wilkinson is an energetic man with a clean record and his election would be a decided acquisition to the Borden cause. He is a good organiza-er and an untiring campaigner.

BORDEN ON H. BAY ROAD

Government Ought to Build,
 Own and Operate Terminals
 and Elevators--Conservative Policy for Years.

Belleville, Ont., Sept. 26.—Asked for his views as to the prime minister's statement at Niagara Falls respecting the Hudson Bay railway, Mr.
 Borden said this morning: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has suddenly discovered the eye of a general election, that the Hudson Bay railway must be built. The Liberal Conservative party has been pledged to the building of that railway ever since 1895,
 when it was promised by Sir Charles Tupper. The present government has reached the same conclusion in the thirteenth year of their administration. Sir Wilfrid Laurier declares that the government will build the railway, or, rather, some party of men will be entrusted with its building.

"In my opinion the road should be built by the government immediately and under such conditions as will ensure absolute control of the rates to be paid by the farmers of the west. Sir Wilfrid Laurier says the terminals and all the elevators shall be built by the government and retained by the government. My opinion is not only built by the government, but operated by the government as well, in order to prevent unfavorable conditions which in the past have proved extremely disadvantageous to the great producing population of western Canada."

The Bank of British North America will erect a building at Battleford.

THANKSGIVING DAY SET

November 9th is the Date--
 Election Officials to Get More Pay--Better Salaries for Civil Servants.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—A meeting of the cabinet council, attended by the four ministers now in Ottawa, Hon.
 Messrs. Aylesworth, Lemieux, Fisher
 and Scott, was held this afternoon and all arrears of departmental business requiring consideration in council were cleared up. An order-in-council was passed proclaiming as Thanksgiving Day, Monday, November 9th, which is also the King's birthday.

A new civil service classification
 and a scale of prices for lighthouse keepers were adopted. The schedule will have the effect of slightly raising the salaries now in force, and will generally better the conditions of the men who have hitherto been paid comparatively inadequate salaries.

Permission was given for the passage through Canada of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of Boston, bearing arms, on October 4
 next, en route from Boston to Chicago.

Several amendments were made to the existing schedule of salaries and allowances to returning officers, con-stablers and other officials connected with the carrying out of the provisions of the election act. The secretary of state, Hon. W. R. Scott, has found that owing to the small amount now authorized for the payment of individual election officials there have been many refusals to accept the positions offered. Accordingly the pay of election constables has been raised from $1 to $1.50 per day
 at Albert jail.

Court News

The charge of forgery against J. K.
 Smith of Francis was one of the first tried in the supreme court last week.
 Mr. Ross acted for the prosecution and Mr. Haultain defended. After the evidence for the prosecution was all in Mr. Haultain argued that a case had not been made out and so did not call any witnesses. The judge summed up in favor of the accused, and allowed the jury to decide. After being out ten minutes they brought in a verdict of not guilty.
 The accused, however, is still in custody having to appear to answer another charge.

Robt. McClelland was found guilty of a charge of attempted rape on an

$150,000 WORTH OF

REGINA THE CAPITAL CITY'S BEST REAL ESTATE

At Practically Your Own Price

OWING to the unparalleled demand for the products of Young-Thomas Soap Co.'s Factory at Regina, and the absolute necessity in consequence of increasing the productive capacity of the factory. Mr. J. M. Young, the president of the company, has determined to convert a portion of his immense Real Estate holdings into cash. In order to make these extensions at the earliest possible date, he is offering at Public Auction to the people of Saskatchewan the greatest opportunity ever given to secure the most desirable property in the Capital City at practically your own price. Never again can property so happily situated be secured, as at this tremendous sacrifice sale. The upset prices are two-thirds lower than we have sold similar property adjoining. It will pay any man or woman, no matter where located, to take a trip to Regina and secure some of these snaps, either for investment or a home.

You all know Regina, the Capital City, the Best City west of Winnipeg, with its beautiful homes, paved streets, granolithic sidewalks, best of city water, finest sewerage, electric lights and the best public buildings, churches, schools, Y.M.C.A., beautiful parks, all that goes to make a beautiful home, and a magnificent investment "in the whole west—none other can equal it." Also the new Capital Buildings now in course of erection, costing in the neighborhood of $2,000,000. Some of this property is on the line of the beautiful Boulevard Driveway outlined by the Government between the Legislative buildings and Government House.

Lots Ranging
from $30 to $200

This is certainly the chance of a lifetime, and the fortunate buyer of this property, will have secured advantages either from an investment standpoint or for home purposes, that the earliest investors in the Capital City, who have made their thousands, did not have. You have even now with all these improvements that have been added, that have made Regina the Queen City of the West, a chance to get in on the ground floor.

Car Shortage.

Months ago when the crop prospects were good The West referred to the question of the supply of cars and urged upon the government the necessity of seeing that the transportation companies were prepared to handle the farmers' wheat as soon as it was ready for market. We regret to say that we do not find any evidences of anything being done by either the government or the transportation companies to make any preparations to prevent a blockage this year. The result is that from a great many stations the word comes that farmers cannot get cars. What can be done now? Well if nothing better, surely Hon. W. R. Motherwell can write another letter.

Hudson Bay Railroad.

Liberal newspapers are trying hard to mislead the electors as to the policy of the Conservative party with regard to the Hudson's Bay railroad. They would like the people to believe that if Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not returned to power, this railway, which vitally affects the western provinces, will never be built. Here is the reply Mr. Borden makes to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's remarks on the railway:

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier has suddenly discovered, on the eve of a general election that the Hudson Bay Railway must be built. The Liberal-Conservative party has been pledged to the building of that railway ever since 1895, when it was promised by Sir Charles Tupper. The present government have reached the same conclusion in the thirteenth year of their administration. Sir Wilfrid Laurier declares that the government will build the railway, or rather some party of men will be entrusted with its building. In my opinion the road should be built by the government immediately and under such conditions as will ensure absolute and thorough control of the rates to be paid by the farmers of the west. Sir Wilfrid Laurier says the terminals and all the elevators shall be built by the government and retained by the government. My opinion is that the terminals and elevators should not only be built and retained by the government, but operated by the government as well, in order to prevent unfavorable conditions which in the past have proved extremely disadvantageous to the great producing population of western Canada."

If Sir Wilfrid Laurier were returned and the work commenced surely the people of Canada can fairly judge what the result will be. It would follow very probably the precedent established in the case of the National Transcontinental. Friends of the government would reap big profits from the sale of supplies. There would be another opportunity for the black sheep of Sir Wilfrid's party to make fortunes at the public expense.

The building of the Hudson's Bay railway is one very good reason why the Liberals should not be returned to power. We want the railway, but we want it at a reasonable price.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier told the people that the G. T. P. would cost the people about thirteen millions of dollars, but it will actually cost two hundred millions. A government which makes such erroneous calculations should not be entrusted with any more large undertakings.

We want the road, we want it built by the people and we want control of the rates, and most of all we want the people to operate the terminals and the elevators so that the most advantage may accrue to the farmers of western Canada.

The People's Leader.

In the struggle to rid themselves of their present ruinous rulers it is the signal good fortune of the Canadian people to have in public life a man round whom they unhesitatingly rally. Mr. Borden's career lifts him up and unmistakably marks him out as the leader of his countrymen at this crisis in their national affairs. The popular instinct, usually more discerning than the judgment of the shrewdest publicists, has figured upon him as the man to be entrusted with the people's cause and the people's standard in the campaign.

The record which commends Mr. Borden to the people is an open and singularly meritorious one. Among the many great services that have been rendered to this country by statesmen of the Conservative party high place must be accorded to Mr. Borden's work as leader of the opposition. Never was public duty performed more faithfully, and seldom more fruitfully, than was that discharged by Mr. Borden as the opposition chief. We believe the public appreciates this service as the most important ever done for it by any statesman in that particular capacity. Had there not been an able and patriotic opposition the secrecy in which the government kept its wrong-doing enveloped would not have been so soon penetrated, and a situation of still greater gravity would have been created before the rascalities were exposed. Had there not been alertness and most telling aggressiveness on Mr. Borden's side of the house, the dark lantern hand might have worked away unsuspected until the tale of their operations began to be read in symptoms of national breakdown.

A state can be riddled to the point of ruin as well as a bank can, if there is not strenuous attention to duty on the part of some interests concerned. The Ontario bank was cleaned out, and, in addition to bearing the loss of their capital and rest fund, its unfortunate shareholders have to pay off liabilities of about three-quarters of a million dollars. Had the board always had an effective opposition to deal with, the methods of the general manager would have been brought into the light before all was lost. It is impossible to exaggerate the value of the work done for Canada by the opposition under Mr. Borden. In all but their numerical strength the opposition in the last house will compare favorably with any body of men that ever acted together in that chamber. The average of individual ability among them was high, and as their leader had their whole confidence, the country got the full benefit of their collective ability. Their well directed and untiring cooperation was needed to break into the secret system the ingenuity of the grafters had built up.

Mr. Borden's hold upon the people is the stronger because of their conviction that he is a statesman and no mere striver for office. No man could be less of an opportunist. In this particular his character presents a striking contrast to that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who is undoubtedly the most supple shifter that has ever figured in the politics of Canada. Mr. Borden lays down his principles and is steadfast. His professions are the same everywhere, and do not vary, as do those of his opponent, according to the locality in which he is speaking. And they should be sound principles, the choice of mature judgment, formed by parliamentary experience and laborious study of political questions. There are few indeed, who have such a mastery of Canada's public questions or who possess so full and ripe a knowledge of our political system. Those who heard or read his address to the students of Toronto University some years ago upon the working of our institutions could not but be impressed with the grasp and temper of the deliverance. It won the admiration for him as a man of broad views and fine culture. The government has yielded him the high praise of appropriating several of his ideas. It changed the constitution and powers of the railway-board in accordance with his suggestion. It adopted with material modification, his proposal for the preservation of industrial peace. It has embodied some of the election law reforms he advocated. It partitioned Ungava and Keewatin among the three provinces, Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba, more or less as he suggested. Civil service reform was undertaken on his initiative. Other ideas of his were copied or adopted with alterations. But he could not induce the government to part with the grafters, or to refrain from encroaching upon provincial rights. While Mr. Borden's political principles are the result of his own sane and independent thinking, they have that correspondence with the aspirations of the people which is the test of the true popular leader.

Mr. Borden's most adverse critics ungrudgingly admit that he is in every sense of the word a gentleman. A statesman who is so true to his political professions and who stands for honesty in government could not well be wanting in that sincerity of private character which is the main quality of a gentleman. He is a courteous and reasonable opponent, and has often waived party advantage in order to influence the government to a given course in the public interest. If the people make him Canada's next premier he will adorn the office and render the country distinguished service.—Mail and Empire.

Editorial Note

Time for a change at Ottawa.

Canada needs honest men to retrieve her good name.

Grant Laurier's request and let him finish his job by Oct. 26th.

Another five years of jobbery such as the Laurier administration has been guilty of will completely wreck the Dominion.

Press Comments.

(Winnipeg Tribune)

Then the fellow (Sifton) actually takes credit with the farmers for the legislation on the grain business, when as minister he privately knifed every effort that was made to secure relief. His conduct was such that even the Rev. Dr. Douglas felt called upon to denounce his "cold steel."

Among other things he has to his credit:

The unspeakable Yukon deal and Yukon mismanagement.

The Crows Nest deal.

The Blairmore townsite.

The Arctic expedition.

The Saskatchewan Valley land deal

The Algoma Indian land deal.

The grazing land scandals.

The irrigation land deals.

The timber limit deals.

The Winnipeg post office site deal, by which he must have added $75,000 to his fortune.

And God only knows how many more transactions, any one of which would destroy a British cabinet minister for ever.

And yet along he comes, announces another railway deal, says it will be a great thing for the west, works up a hurrah, and there you are.

Can this awful man do the trick again?

It is up to the people of Brandon.

(Grenfell Sun)

Our chief reason for opposing the government at the present election is that they have not been true to "the well known historical principles of Liberalism, or to their own platform of 1896, or to the promises and pledges made to those who supported them. Political opportunism, and expediency, however successful they may be for a time, are poor substitutes for political integrity. They destroy confidence in those who look upon political honesty as a fundamental virtue in political life, and open the door to political corruption of all kinds. That such has been the tendency in this case has been notoriously manifest, even by Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at Sorel, where he declared it was the part of Liberals to turn out their own "black sheep."

We are determinedly opposed to the "protective" policy of the government, which with the enormous sums paid out as bounties and subsidies, we regard as quite as bad as the old tariff and probably much worse than any "revised" tariff the Conservatives would have ventured to make had they remained in office. And we are just as strongly opposed to their subsidy policy by which railways running through some of the oldest and most populous parts of Ontario have received large grants of public money which have been wrung out of the hard earnings of the workmen of the country.

(Qu'Appelle Progress)
 Notwithstanding their opposition to Mr. Haultain in the recent provincial campaign, the "Liberals" in this country recognize in him a man of sterling worth, and one who is conceded by all to be one of the ablest, if not the ablest, in the west. In a similar way, R. S. Lake, the Conservative candidate in the federal campaign, has gained the respect and friendship of his constituents, and there is strong evidence to show that on October 26 he will have the support of many Liberals of the old school, if not the new. His calm, logical reasoning and total avoidance of abuse, both on the floor of the house and on the hustings, together with his untiring devotion to western interests, have made him a power in the land, more of the like of whom parliament could well afford to have. Qu'Appelle considers him as a gentleman of broad national spirit, as a farmer ever ready to battle for the farming community, and as a man of wide culture and experience.

(Bystander in Toronto Sun.)

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is reported as saying:

"In an organization like ours, with thousands of employees and tens of millions of dollars, there may be men who are not what they should be. It is our work to turn them out, and we shall do it."

"But how came these men in? That is the question; and is it likely that most prompt and thorough-going in those who brought them will be the turning them out? So long as the system of government by party, that is by faction, lasts, the contestants, in default of any real bond of principle, will have recourse to corrupt influences and to the agents and henchmen of corruption. Each of the parties will profess, as does Sir Wilfrid Laurier, detestation of the men "who are not all they should be" and determination to expel them. Clear of them, we cannot hope to be till the government ceases to be a factious fighting for power and place and becomes truly national, a consummation which does not seem to be very near.

In the meantime, it is a question whether something may not be done by an occasional change of government, which at least breaks up for the time the net work of corrupt influences, schemes and communications, and in the present case may give us a temporary respite at least from the reign of "graft" of which our people are so loudly and with so much justice complaining.

(Victoria Colonist)

It is useless for the Liberals to belittle better terms, in connection with the representation of this province and also to seek to excuse the inaction of Mr. Templeman and his co-representatives by pointing to the fact that Messrs. Whitney and Reolin did not espouse our cause. These gentlemen were not called upon to fight the battles of this province, but a part of the responsibility resting on Mr. Templeman and the others was to see that British Columbia, as a province received a fair deal in the adjustment of her financial relations with the Dominion. This they did not do. Mr. Templeman is in the city, we challenge the Times to obtain a statement from him of anything whatever done by him to promote the recognition by the Dominion government of that degree of consideration, which Mr. Macdonald, leader of the Liberals in the local house, declared it entitled by reason of the exceptional conditions existing here. The people are entitled to know the facts. We have said and we feel, in the absence of information to the contrary, that we are justified in repeating that Mr. Templeman did not co-operate with Mr. McBride in any respect whatever to secure recognition of these claims.

We are told by our contemporary that Sir Wilfrid Laurier took no part in the inter-provincial conference except to ask that British Columbia be treated generously. This is not quite correct, but it is correct that Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked Mr. McBride to submit the case of the province against the Dominion to the other provinces for settlement. In other words, the premier of Canada shirked the responsibility of passing upon the merits of the claims preferred by Mr. McBride acting on the instruction of a united legislature. He placed Mr. McBride in a position which he never ought to have been forced into, and from which he extricated himself only by withdrawing from the conference. There is a species of "mastery inactivity" which is more effectual than anything else, and it was by such tactics that Sir Wilfrid Laurier avoided admitting the justice of the claims of this province and thereby antagonizing Quebec and at the same time made a show of generosity towards Mr. McBride. Our representatives were likewise inactive, but their inactivity was not mastery. It was the inactivity of political paralyzants.

Conservatives Set Example.

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—Hon. Jas. Martin gave an interview today in which he made a red hot attack on the Liberals, he said: "Last night's Conservative convention is an objection to the different methods of the two parties. In connection with the Conservative convention the delegates were legitimately and fairly selected. They met in open convention and freely cast their votes in accordance with their opinions, which is in striking contrast with the disreputable tactics adopted by the Liberals." When McPherson was first nominated the primaries were packed with all kinds of loose fish, hired to attend for the purpose of nominating him against the wishes of the Vancouver Liberal Association. It is openly asserted by the friends of Mr. Senkler and Mr. Farris, the unsuccessful aspirants for convention honors, that a large contingent of Italians, another large outfit of war rats and loafers, and a number of hotel huns piloted by a well known hotel keeper, were on hand, and when the convention was called, these were supplied with halibut, already marked for McPherson. Whether these statements are true, I do not know, but judging from past experiences they are very likely to be true."

BORDEN SAYINGS

It is our duty to see that the party system is worked in the most advantageous manner to bring about a higher standard of public life in this country.

Above the ties of party allegiance must be kept in sight the necessity that honest men of all parties shall insist on honest expenditures of the public funds, honest administration of the public domain and decent appointments to office, based on character and public service.

I charge that the administration has used the public domain in the west for the benefit of their party friends, systematically and under the forms of law.

Is there any Liberal who will venture to stand up and approve of the plundering of the public domain of Canada?

The day is coming and it is not far distant, when there will be not only investigation into some of these timber transactions, but restitution. The Conservative party stands pledged to bring back to the people of Canada all these lands which have been alienated by collusion and fraud.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier asks that he be allowed to finish his work. Why did he not let the civil service commission finish their work? The report of the commission would in Great Britain, put any government out of power within ten days. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding say we are muck-rakers. Were these civil service commissioners muck-rakers, and if they were, who made the muck?

The work of the opposition in one case, that of the North Atlantic Trading Company, saved $800,000 to the people of this country.

As to immigration, we believe that in the past ten years the government has been too urgent as to the quantity of the immigration and altogether too negligent as to the quality.

Canada should at all times retain absolute and complete control of immigration, and the government made a false step when it handed over to Japan the control of immigration from that country.

We ought to manufacture all the articles which can be reasonably and usefully manufactured in this country. We don't believe in sending our raw material abroad and then sending our good Canadian money to the foreign countries to buy articles made out of the raw materials of this country, bringing our people into competition with the pauper and unfair labor of other countries.

No man is a true friend of the country who does not lend his aid to the project of putting political corruption and the carrying on of clean elections.

We will endeavor to get the consent of every province, all of which entered politics on certain terms, to make in regard to the reform of the senate. At least, I will undertake to say that in one year we will make as much progress as they made in twelve years.

I have known Mr. Foster for twelve years and I have yet to hear of one public act of that gentleman, which was not honest, straightforward, creditable to himself and creditable to this country.

Even if everything said of Mr. Foster by that gentleman (Globe editor) were true, I would esteem him above that gentleman who on the sabbath day preaches righteousness and every other day defends the wrong.

Does Sir Wilfrid Laurier regard Mr. Pugsley as the proper custodian of the millions of the public money of this country that are expended in public works?

IN FAVOR OF UNION

Anglicans Believe that Organic Unity Would Lead to Truer Conception of Christian Ideal

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 28.—The first business of the general Anglican synod at the opening sitting this afternoon was the election of a prolocutor, the choice falling on Dean Farthing of Kingston. The choice was unanimous. The new prolocutor, after expressing his thanks took the chair.

The other officers named were as follows: Deputy prolocutor, Rev. Rural Dean Coombs, Winnipeg; clerical secretary, Rev. Archdeacon Clark, Hamilton; lay secretary, R. Campbell, Quebec; treasurer, Judge McDonald, Brockville; auditors, E. J. B. Pence, Kingston and Lansing Lewis, Montreal; registrar, F. H. Gishorne, Ottawa.

A message was received from the upper house announcing that Archbishop Sweeney of Toronto, had been chosen secretary of the upper house.

The feature of the opening session naturally was the charge of Archbishop Sweetman, the primate of all Canada. After feeling reference to the death of Bishop Carmichael, of Montreal, the primate dealt with the work before the synod. In his reference to recent legislation the primate referred to many privileges the church in Canada enjoys. He eulogized some of the recent legislation of federal parliament including the Lords Day Act. He rejoiced that Canadians enjoy more stringent divorce laws than exist in any English speaking country. It was decided to send six members of the lower house, and three members of the upper house, to attend the funeral of Bishop Carmichael in Montreal tomorrow. They will include the archbishop of Toronto and Rural Dean Coombs of Winnipeg.

The first evening session was devoted to the reception and discussion of reports. The committee on church union concludes its report with the following statement: "The committee believes that organic unity, such as contemplated, would result in a higher and truer conception and realization of the Christian ideal and therefore that no opportunity should be lost in seeking it, and no sacrifice consistent with legitimate adherence to principle should be spared."

At a meeting of the Anglican mission board, the grants for 1909 to western diocese were not struck, as the Pan-Anglican congress distribution is likely to be made in January and will affect the same places.

REVELATIONS OF THE MARINE DEPARTMENT

Agent Gregory, of the Quebec station, seems to have been a thorn in the side of the department. He took upon himself to order supplies so liberally that it was found necessary several times to call him to account.

On Sept. 20, 1906, Gregory was instructed to incur no expenditure exceeding $100 without receiving approval from headquarters. Thus runs the commissioners' memorandum.

In the fall of 1906 a serious misunderstanding arose over the purchase by Gregory of chemical fire extinguishers for the vessels of the Quebec agency. It seems that in July of that year Gregory had received authorization from the department to purchase them if he considered it necessary. The authorization seems to have been forgotten, and Gregory was severely reprimanded for buying them. The following summary of the correspondence reproduced verbatim from the commissioners' report will give the reader a glimpse of what occurred:

October 8, 1906—Gregory writes about fire extinguishers bought from Perrault, who is now an employee of the agency, and has a lot of fire extinguishers on hand which he would like to sell to the department. Under the circumstances, as he is a poor man with a family and now unable to go out and solicit their sale. This was well understood by the late lamented minister, who was his friend and fully recognized, the worthiness of the said chemical fire extinguishers, I would recommend that the department take them off of his hands as we have several stations requiring such protection.

From this it would seem that Gregory considered he had not sufficient authority to make the purchase.

Four days after, Oct. 12 the deputy wrote Gregory, reprimanding him for his high handed action. He said: "With reference to fire extinguishers purchased from P. P. Perrault, I find no authority on file in the department for the purchase of these fire extinguishers, and I notice that within the last couple of years large purchases have been made from this gentleman. In this connection I may say that in 1904-5 the late minister purchased from Mr. Charles Patton fire extinguishers to the sum of $9,000. Of this number 142 were sent to Quebec for the use of your agency lighthouses and Dominion steamers. Besides that a number were stored in Montreal and are there still. If you had notified the department that fire extinguishers were absolutely necessary to put on board the Dominion steamers and to be used at the lighthouses, the required number would have been sent from Montreal. Instead of that it appears that you have made purchases from Mr. Perrault without any instructions or authority from the department. The minister would like an explanation in regard to this matter. He would also like to have a statement of how the fire extinguishers purchased in 1904-5 were distributed."

Gregory promised to send the statements, which the Commissioners say, seems never to have been received.

Rosthern, Sept. 24.—The biggest thing in wheat yields at Rosthern this year is a crop which went forty-five bushels to an acre. The honor of growing such a remarkably fine crop belongs to F. W. Henshell, the biggest wheat grower here. Threshing was interrupted for a few days by the rain but is going on again. The wheat is turning out very well. It is going one to four Northern. The Canadian Northern is ballasting its Dalmeny branch but there is no regular service yet. The settlers, however, are furnished with cars to haul out their wheat. The Company is constructing a telegraph line to the Laird end of steel, where a station is to be built. The townsite of Laird is on the market. Many lots are being sold.

Ontario Liberals

So badly demoralized are the Liberals of Ontario that it is very possible that in a number of ridings there will be no government candidates and support will be given to an independent or as was the case in many seats in the provincial fight, the two Conservatives will fight it out. In Dundas, Andrew Broder, the present member, may get an acclamation, as the Liberals have been unable to find anyone with sufficient courage to tackle such a forlorn post.

C. E. Cameron of Iroquois, is spoken of, but he does not regard favorably the idea. The convention has been called for Tuesday, Sept. 29, in Prince Edward county. It is very doubtful if there will be a Liberal candidate. At present G. C. Alcorn, the present opposition member and an independent, H. C. Mullin, are in the field. The government is also having trouble in securing opposition against Col. Sam Hughes in Victoria and Haliburton. Dr. Giles was first nominated, but he don't like the prospect and has dropped out and at present the redoubtable Colonel has everything to himself.

EXPEDIENCY AND HYPOCRISY.
But more than this, while on the one hand they took the duty of work with the other hand they granted a bonus to Canadian manufacturers on sial, which was imported, and in the last fiscal year Canada paid $40,000 by way of bounty on this article. This expediency and hypocrisy of the Liberal party, why were they not honest in admitting their mistake and restoring the duty? What is a bounty but protection? Of course we know the rose by any other name would smell as sweet. Are you paying less for your hatched wire and your harvesters than you were in 1897? In my election in 1897 on every platform Mr. Sifton and my opponent Joe Martin shouted for free implements, and showed and secured the Massey-Harris manufacturing company, and every other Canadian manufacturing concern. They declared that those desecrated corporations were sucking the life blood out of the farmers of Canada. How they deceived you? They have had an opportunity and an their first opportunity the duty still remained the same 20 per cent. They were not satisfied with that rate, and they also gave a bounty or rebate to the manufacturers of these implements on the iron and steel that enters into their composition. They thus not only retained the duty, but they added insult to injury by further bounting the other manufacturers of implements. It is true in their revision of 1898 they reduced the duty to 10 per cent, but the bonus and rebate remains. Mr. Sifton has had to explain this and apologize in this city for this party in connection with this matter, and he will have to continue to explain it before the can satisfy any right minded man that he was ever sincere in this declaration for free implements. Can the explanation be? It is all a piece of rank hypocrisy of the Liberal party on every question. The effect of maintaining the duty of 20 per cent. upon this class of implements is that we have had large industries established by Americans in Eastern Canada, paying out thousands of dollars in wages, and giving the farmers of Canada a better home market for their produce. If we had thrown out this duty it would simply have meant the American manufacturer would have controlled the output and raised the price, and you farmers would have been paying far more money for your implements than you are today. We have Mr. Sifton's word for it that this was a question that was settled and was now a dead issue.

DR. CON-
S OFFICERS
lected at Annual Meeting of the Provincial Congress of Saskatchewan
at Regina, Sept. 29, 1908.

Dr. P. D. Stewart returned from the north at noon today after a trip lasting from June into the northern wilds where as yet the Indian regions are in the course of the journey hundreds of miles were covered by the party, of which Dr. Stewart was a member, in canoes, and many waterways known to the vast majority of the people of Canada by names only, were utilized as highways. The object of the trip north was for the purpose of making the annual payment of treaty money to the Indians for the lands which have been expropriated by the government. Dr. Stewart left here on June 6th, the party assembling at Prince Albert. It consisted of the following persons, namely, W. J. McLean, Winnipeg, agent; Mr. Conroy, Edmonton, secretary; James Clare, Prince Albert, interpreter; and Dr. P. D. Stewart, as medical officer. One of the stipulations in the treaty with the Indians is that a doctor be sent north once a year to see them, and in this capacity Dr. Stewart accompanied the party. After fitting out at Prince Albert, the party drove 150 miles to Green Lake and thence to Isle La Crosse. Here the first band of Indians was met and they received their portion of the cash. The Indian consisted chiefly of Crees, but there was also some Chipewyans in the band. They were well clothed and gave the party a good reception. The party next journeyed to the Buffalo river, where another band of Crees were attended to. The next trip was southward down the Churchill river until the waters were reached which lead into Lake Lawrence. At this point there is a mission school which is conducted by the Church of England and is in a flourishing condition. The party next made for the Reindeer river and thence into the lake of the same name. This latter is a very large body of excellent water. The shores are rocky and sparsely wooded with brush and big timber. The party proceeded to the north end of Duck Lake, where the wants of another band of the country's original inhabitants were attended to. This was the most northerly part reached by the party, being the 58th degree, some six degrees north of Saskatoon. Returning to Churchill, the party made a portage to what is called Frog Portage and then by a series of lakes and rivers to Cumberland where there is a Hudson Bay post. By means of Lake Sturgeon and Cumberland access was secured to the North Saskatchewan river. The party reached the Pas by this means, and then came to Hudson's Bay Junction over the new line of railway and then to Prince Albert. It was clearly ascertained on the trip that the waters of the Churchill river were united with those of the Saskatchewan by means of a stream at the Frog Portage. Dr. Stewart reports that consumption is making inroads among the Indians and its progress is due to their mode of living and frequent intermarrying. It will only be a matter of time before the race is extinct. The trip was very successful and no accidents occurred, all returning in excellent health. The greater part of the trip was made in canoes.—Saskatoon Capital.

INDIANS ARE CONSUMPTIVE

Mode of Living and Frequent Intermarrying the Cause—A Treaty Paying Trip Among the Indians North of Prince Albert.

This journey is in woodmanship and design, of the same character as the other fittings of the city hall buildings, being of quartered oak, old English finish and a credit to the manufacturers, the Canadian Office and School Furniture Co., of Preston, Ont. Those who are interested are most cordially invited to inspect. A number of fine engravings for the walls of the reading room also came to hand last week. These were selected some time ago by Ald. Wilkinson, chairman of the fixtures committee of the board, and were published and supplied by the Art Union of London, Eng., as follows: "Day Dreams, Mozzottini, 30x40 in." "Loss of the Revenge," line engraving, 40x27 inches. "Mary and Joseph," line engraving 30x24 inches. "Rebekah," line engraving, 24x 30 inches. "Trafalgar," line engraving, 40x27 inches. "Meeting of Wellington and Blucher," line engraving, 65x21 inches. "Death of Nelson," line engraving, 53x21 inches. "The Wounded Robin," line engraving 33x28 inches. There are one or two portraits of celebrated men to arrive. The originals from which these engravings were made are all works exhibited at the Royal Academy or other leading exhibitions by the most eminent British artists and the engraving has been done by men at the head of their profession. I regret that these cannot be put on exhibition until framed, arrangements for which work are now being made. The library has recently received the following gifts: Romance of Invention, Williams, presented by Mr. P. Shelton, Regina. Eos, An Epic of the Dawn and other poems, by the late Nicholas Flood Davin. Four copies of the speech made by Mr. Davin at the opening of the Lansdowne College, Portage la Prairie in 1889, entitled Culture and Practical Power. These were given by Mrs. N. F. Davin on the occasion of her recent visit to the city. The library has also received from the government printers of Alberta and Saskatchewan the complete sets of the statutes of each province. These are an interesting study as showing the different lines on which the development of the two new provinces is progressing. The West Co. of this city has also kindly supplied a number of Dominion government publications which will be supplemented later by a complete set of the more important from the government printer at Ottawa. Blue books are a branch of literature that is too much neglected by the general public. There is an immense amount of valuable information locked up in them but in order that this may be made accessible to the public systematic cataloging of the contents is required. Every effort will be made to have this properly carried out in the Regina Library. I am very anxious to secure publications, newspaper articles, photographs, documents and letters relating to the early history of the city. Any person having such in their possession or willing either to donate the same or lend them for the purpose of being copied would confer a favor by communicating with the undersigned. J. R. C. HONEYMAN, Librarian.

NINETY MILLION BUSHELS OF GRAIN

Estimate of Grain Raised in this Province Reaches That Figure—Large Quantity of Oats This Year—Crop Acreage and the Yield.

An estimate of the yield of Saskatchewan's grain crops was issued yesterday by the Department of Agriculture from data supplied by its own staff correspondents throughout the province. The data supplied by these correspondents show that the crop conditions while by no means uniform, are fairly satisfactory to a great proportion of the farmers. It is true that a great many of them have been disappointed in regard to crop yields, but that feeling is perhaps due partly to hopes that were raised earlier in the season by the "Death of Nelson," line engraving, 53x21 inches. "The Wounded Robin," line engraving 33x28 inches. There are one or two portraits of celebrated men to arrive. The originals from which these engravings were made are all works exhibited at the Royal Academy or other leading exhibitions by the most eminent British artists and the engraving has been done by men at the head of their profession. STUBBORN INDIGESTION

One Who Had Suffered for Years Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, while others loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as if weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. With others there is an intense pain and feeling of nausea after eating. Sometimes gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is another frequent and distressing symptom. Mr. Alex. McKay, McLellan's Mountain, N.S., says: "For years I was a great sufferer from indigestion which was gradually growing worse and worse, and it would be impossible for me to tell how much suffering I endured. At different times I had treatment from three different doctors but it did not help me in the least. Then I began trying all sorts of advertised medicines and took ten packages of one medicine especially intended for dyspepsia, but with no better results. I had practically come to regard myself as incurable, and to feel that I would be a continuous sufferer, when one day I read in a newspaper of the cure of indigestion through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I made up my mind to give them a trial. I had used nearly five boxes before they began to help me, but I do not wonder at this for my case was so bad. I used in all a dozen boxes of the pills, and they cured me completely. I can now eat anything we raise on the farm for man to eat and have no longer the pains and discomforts I had endured for years. It is several years now since I was cured, and I have never felt a symptom of indigestion since. I am well known in this locality and you are quite at liberty to use what I say in the hope that this will benefit some other sufferer." All medicine dealers sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Millinery Opening

The annual opening and showing of the fall styles of the Regina Trading Co. took place last week. Women came curious to see, stayed to admire, and went away to praise. The ultimate verdict is that the hats are lovelier, more graceful and universally becoming than for many seasons. Notable are the Marie Louise models both original and copies. Flatness is the characteristic of this great artist's hats this season. Plumes, scarf or flowers are arranged by a master hand on almost crownless shapes. The charming Marie Louise model of bordeaux satin and plumes, pictured is almost absolutely flat, but is worn at a coquettish angle on the head. And indeed, it is a year when every hat is its own law as to how it shall be worn. The millinery show room at the Trading Company was in charge of Miss Macdonald during the days of the opening and elaborate arrangements had been made for the convenience of the sight-seers. On every hand the hats were shown to advantage and walking up the stair way one was soon met with a vista-like array of millinery which immediately caught the eye and idea of the lady looking for her headgear. Refreshments were served in an apartment next to the millinery show room during the days of the opening.

Fall Fairs

The following is a list of places and dates at which fall fairs have been announced: Stockholm, Sept. 30. Quill Lake, Oct. 2. Togo, Oct. 2. Wadena, Oct. 7. Watson, Oct. 8. Govan, Oct. 9-10. Paynton, Oct. 12-13. Duck Lake, Sept. 30. Radisson, Oct. 2. North Battleford, Oct. 6-7. Lloydminster, Oct. 7-8. Lashburn, Oct. 8. Kinistino, Oct. 13. Tisdale, Oct. 15. Canora, Sept. 29-30. Prince Albert, Sept. 25.—It looks as if the C.N.R. would make good on its promise to build part of the line into Shellbrook this year. Contractor Mann is looking over the work of grading with a view to tendering on the work. The force engaged in putting in the false work on the bridge are making good headway. The piles are now in place almost to the center-pier, and the grading of the roads on the side up to the level of the bridge is nearly finished.

Smith, Mayor Smith, Ald. McDonald, Ald. Sinton, and H. W. Laird.

Threshers' Troubles
A rather peculiar wage case was due to be heard this morning at the police barracks. Some twenty men were effected, having worked for a threshing outfit without receiving any wages they declared. One of the men who comes from Ontario is suing Jerry Connor, the owner of the outfit, for $21.85 as a test case. The wages of the men amount to some $620.
Before court proceedings began Connor explained to the magistrate that he was unable to pay the men as the money which the machine had earned had been garnished by the stores where he got his supplies, and by the manufacturers of the outfit. The amount garnished was as much as the machine had earned so that there was nothing left for wages. The court adjourned to get legal advice on the matter.
At 11.15 the case was resumed, F. M. Brown appealing for the plaintiff, Lewis Fern, on oath gave evidence that he was engaged by Connor, but that he had received no pay for the ten days he had been working. Connor then explained the circumstances and admitted that he owed the wages. He had been threshing at two places but when he found that what he earned was being garnished he quit work as he did not wish to beat the men out of their wages. He had plenty of work ahead, he said, but he thought it was no use going on like that. He had some stock, but there were lien notes against them. Asked by Mr. Brown if he had any crop himself he replied that he had but he had been paid for it before it was cut to enable him to carry on his summer's work.
As a way out of the difficulty Mr. Brown suggested that the men file claims for their wages with the court and they would be heard at the next district court in November. He was of the opinion that the judge would reserve the wages of the men against any garnishee of the manufacturer or agent for the machinery. This the men agreed to do as the only course to recover their wages.—Saskatoon Phoenix.

Last Yukon Mail
Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The last steamer conveying all classes of mail matter for Dawson and other places to the north of White Horse leaves Vancouver about October 1. After that only the following classes of mail matter can be sent forward on mails from White Horse.
