See Nos. 54 & 55
of Schedule.

23. The summons under the 91st section of "The Upper Canada Division Courts Act of 1850" may be served by delivering to the defendant a copy thereof, and showing the original, if required: and shall be served ten days at least before the day on which the party is required to appear: provided always, that the service of such summons, at any time before the day appointed for the appearance of such party, may be deemed by the Judge to be a good service, if it shall be proved to his satisfaction, that such party was about to remove out of the jurisdiction of the Court.

See No. 22 of Schedule.

24. The Form of affidavit for an Attachment shall be according to the Form in the schedule, in lieu of the Form given in "The Upper Canada Division Courts Act of 1850," schedule D.

25. In all cases where an Attachment shall issue, (whether the suit be commenced by attachment in the first instance or not) and the summons against the defendant shall not be personally served, the hearing or trial shall not take place until a month after the seizure under the Attachment.

For Form of attachment, see 13 and 14 Vic. ch. 53, Schedule E.

INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS.

26. When in any action, the defendant is desirous of inspecting any deed, bond, or other instrument under seal, or any written contract, or other instrument in which he has an interest, and which shall be in the possession, power, or control of the plaintiff, he may, within four days from the day of the service of the summons, give notice, by pre-paid post letter or otherwise, that he desires to inspect such instrument, at any place to be appointed by the plaintiff, within the division in which the suit is brought; and the plaintiff shall appoint a place accordingly; and if the plaintiff shall neglect, or refuse to appoint such place, or to allow the defendant or his agent to inspect it within three days from the day of receiving such notice, the Judge may, in his discretion, on the day of hearing, adjourn the cause, for the purpose of such inspection, and make such order as to costs, as he shall think fit.

WITHDRAWAL BY PLAINTIFF.

27. If the plaintiff be desirous of not proceeding in the cause, he shall serve a notice thereof on the defendant, in the manner directed in "The Upper Canada Division Courts Act of 1850," for the service of a notice of set-off; and, after receipt of such notice, the defendant shall not be entitled to any further costs than those incurred up to the receipt of such notice, unless the Judge shall otherwise order: and where a cause is not withdrawn until after the opening of the Court, the hearing fee shall be charged, unless otherwise ordered.

ADJOURNMENT OF SUIT.

28. Where a cause is adjourned, no order of adjournment shall be served on either party, except by direction of the Judge; and where the adjournment is opposed by either party, a hearing fee, as for a defended cause, shall be charged, and the usual costs of the day, in the discretion of the Judge.

NOTICE OF DEFENCE.

See Nos. 8 and of Schedule.

29. Where the defendant is desirous to avail himself of the Law of Set-off, the Statute of Limitations, or any other defence requiring notice to the plaintiff, under the 43rd section of "The Upper Canada Division Courts Act of 1850," the Forms of Notice in the schedule may be used, to be served in the manner directed by the Act.

See No. 10 of Schedule.

30. With a view to save unnecessary expense in proof, the defendant (or plaintiff) shall be at liberty to give the opposite party a notice in writing, that he will admit, on the trial of the cause, any part of the claim or set-off, or any facts which would otherwise require proof; and after such notice given, the plaintiff or defendant shall not be allowed any expense, incurred for the purpose of such proof: the notice to be according to the Form in the Schedule, or to the like effect, and served on the plaintiff or defendant, or left at his usual place of abode, at least six days before the trial or hearing.

CONFESSION.

31. Every confession or acknowledgment of debt, taken before suit commenced, must show therein, or by statement thereto attached at the time of the taking thereof, the particulars of the claim or demand, for which it is given, with the same fulness and certainty as would be required, if such claim or demand were sued on in the ordinary manner; and unless application for judgment on such confession or acknowledgment shall be made to the Judge, within three calendar months next after the same is taken, or at the sittings of the Court next after the expiration of such period, no execution shall be issued on the judgment rendered, without an affidavit by the plaintiff or his agent, that the sum confessed, or some and what part thereof, remains justly due; and applications for judgment shall be made at a Court holden for the division, wherein the confession or acknowledgment was taken.

PAYMENT INTO COURT.

32. When the plaintiff shall, in accordance with the 46th section of the "Upper Canada Division Courts Act of 1850," signify to the Clerk his intention to proceed for the remainder of his demand, and such signification shall be given within three days after he received notice of the payment into Court, but after the rising of the Court at which the summons was returnable, the case shall be tried at the then next sittings of the Court, and be put upon the list for that Court in the regular order.

AMENDMENT.

33. Where a person, other than the defendant, appears at the hearing, and admits that he is the person whom the plaintiff intended to charge, his name may be substituted for that of the defendant, if the plaintiff consents, and thereupon the cause shall proceed, as if such person had been originally named in the summons; and, if necessary, the hearing may be adjourned on such terms as the judge shall think fit; and the costs of the person originally named as defendant, shall be in the discretion of the Judge.

34. Where a party sues, or is sued, in a representative character, but at the hearing, it appears, that he ought to have sued or been sued in his own right, the Judge may, at the instance of either party, and on such terms as he shall think fit, amend the proceedings accordingly; and the case shall then proceed in all respects, as to set-off and other matters, as if the proper description of the party had been given in the summons.

35. Where a party sues, or is sued in his own right, and it appears at the hearing, that he should have sued, or been sued, in a representative character, the Judge may, at the instance of either party, and on such terms as he shall think fit, amend the proceedings accordingly; and the case shall then proceed in all respects, as to set-off and other matters, as if the proper description of the party had been given in the summons.

36. Where the name, or description of a plaintiff in the summons, is insufficient or incorrect, it may at the hearing be amended, at the instance of either party, by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit: and the cause may then proceed, as to set-off and other matters, as if the name and description had been originally such as it appears, after the amendment has been made.

37. Where the name or description of a defendant in the summons, is insufficient or incorrect, and the defendant appears and objects to the description, it may be amended at the instance of either party, by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause may proceed as to set-off and other matters, as if the name or description had been originally such as it appears, after the amendment has been made: but if no such objection is taken, the cause may proceed, and in the judgment and all subsequent proceedings founded thereon, the defendant shall be described in the same manner.

38. In actions by or against a husband, if the wife is improperly joined or omitted as a party, the summons, may, at the hearing, be amended at the instance of either party, by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause may proceed as to set-off and other matters, as if the proper person had been made party to the suit.

39. Where it appears at the hearing, that a greater number of persons have been made plaintiffs, than by law required, the name of the person improperly joined may, at the instance of either party, be struck out by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause may proceed as to set-off, and other matters, as if the proper party or parties only had been made plaintiffs.

40. Where it appears at the hearing, that a less number of persons have been made plaintiffs than by law required, the name of the omitted person may, at the instance of either party, be added by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause shall proceed as to set-off and other matters, and judgment shall be pronounced, as if the proper persons had been originally made parties; and unless the person, whose name is so added, shall assent thereto, either at the hearing or some adjournment thereof, personally, or by writing signed by him or his agent, proceedings on the judgment shall be stayed, until the Court next after five clear days from the day of hearing; and if the person, whose name is added, shall at the hearing or an adjournment thereof, consent to become a plaintiff, (such consent being in writing signed by him or his agent) execution shall issue as the Judge shall think fit; but if such party shall not consent to become a plaintiff in manner aforesaid, either at the hearing or at an adjournment thereof, judgment of non-suit may be entered.

41. When it appears at the hearing, that more persons have been made defendants, than by law required, the name of the party improperly joined may, at the instance of either party, be struck out by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause shall proceed, as to set-off and other matters, as if the party or parties liable had been sued, and judgment shall be given for the party improperly joined.

42. Where several persons are made defendants, and all of them have not been served, the name or names of the defendant or defendants, who have not been served, may, at the instance of either party, be struck out by order of the Judge, on such terms as he shall think fit; and the cause shall then proceed, in all respects, as to set-off and other matters, as if all the defendants had been served.

43. Where, at the hearing, a variance appears between the evidence and the matters stated in any of the proceedings in the Division Court, such proceedings may, at the discretion of the Judge, and on such terms as he shall think fit, be amended.

44. In cases of amendment, a corresponding amendment shall be made, in the presence of the Judge, in the proceedings of the Court, antecedent to such amendment; and the subsequent proceedings shall be in conformity therewith: and all amendments shall be made in open Court, and during the sitting of the Court.

45. The Judge may, in any case, refuse to set aside, or to hold void, any of the proceedings, on account of any irregularity or defect therein, which shall not, in his opinion, be such as to interfere with the just trial and adjudication of the case upon the merits.

AFFIDAVITS.

46. Every affidavit, in any proceeding in the Court, must be entitled in the cause, (if a cause has been commenced) stating the christian and surname of the parties as in the summons, and also that of the deponent, and his place of abode and addition ; and if an affidavit be sworn by an illiterate person, the jurat must contain a certificate of the Clerk or Commissioner administering the oath, that the affidavit was read in his presence to the party making the same, and that such party seemed perfectly to understand it ; and there shall be no erasure nor interlineation in any jurat : but the Judge shall not be bound to reject, as insufficient, any affidavit not complying with the above requisites, or any of them, but may, in his discretion, receive the same.

POSTAGE.

47. Postage necessary for the transmission of any process, order, notice, or other matter, by the Clerk or Judge, shall be paid, in the first instance, by the party on whose behalf the proceeding is required, and shall be costs in the cause.

WITNESS FEES.

48. On application made to him in that behalf, the Judge shall determine, what number of witnesses shall be allowed on taxation of costs ; the allowance for whose attendance shall be according to the scale in the Schedule, unless otherwise ordered ; but in no case to exceed such scale, except the witness attends under subpoena from the Superior Courts ; and, before allowing disbursements to witnesses, the Clerk shall be satisfied that the witnesses attended, and that the claim for fees is just.

See No. 14, of Schedule.

ABATEMENT.

49. Where one or more of several plaintiffs or defendants shall die before judgment, the suit shall not abate, if the cause of action survive to, or against such parties,

50. Where one or more of several plaintiffs or defendants shall die after judgment, proceedings thereon may be taken by the survivors or survivor, without leave of the Court.

51. Every judgment, order, and decree of the Court, shall be entered by the Clerk in the Procedure Book, according to the Forms given in the Schedule, or to the like effect; and when any order is made for the payment of any debt, damages, costs, or other sum of money, the same shall be payable at the office of the Clerk of the Court forthwith, or at such periods as the Court shall order.

NEW TRIAL.

See No. 19 of Schedule.

52. Application for new Trial may be made viva voce, and determined on the day of hearing, if both parties be present; but if made when both parties are not present, it shall be in writing, and show briefly the grounds on which it is made, (which grounds, if matters of fact requiring proof shall be supported by affidavit,) and a copy thereof, and of every such affidavit, shall be served by the party making the application, on the opposite party or his agent, or left at his usual place of abode or business, if within the division,—or if without the division, then with the Clerk, who shall transmit the same forthwith to the opposite party; and the application and affidavits, (if any) together with an affidavit of the service thereof, shall be delivered to the Clerk, within fourteen days after the day of trial, to be by him, on receiving the fees and necessary postage, transmitted to the Judge, with a copy of the original claim, and other papers necessary to the proper understanding of the case, which delivery to the Clerk shall operate as a stay of proceedings, until the Judge's final decision on the application is communicated to the Clerk; and the Judge after receiving such papers, shall delay for six days deciding upon the application, to enable the opposite party to answer the same in writing or by affidavit, if facts stated by the applicant in
