PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

[No. 30—1922]

OTTAWA, May 17, 1922.

The Hon. A. B. COPP, LL.B.,
Secretary of State,
Ottawa.

SIR.—I have the honour to submit to you a report of the work of the Public Archives for the years 1919 to 1921 inclusive.

In the appendices will be found the proclamations issued by the Governor of Lower Canada from 1792 until 1815. These, with those for Upper Canada, which will appear in the next report, are in continuation of the proclamations issued from the establishment of Civil Government in the Province of Quebec in 1764, until the division of that Province into the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada in 1791.

The proclamations are followed by calendars of the Board of Trade papers known as Series C. O. 42, and of the Shelburne or Lansdowne collection. Both of these series throw much light on the early history of the older Canadian provinces, as well as of the Maritime Provinces.

From the Shelburne papers, have been taken a group of letters addressed to Lord Shelburne by Governor Parr of Nova Scotia, which describe the arrival of the United Empire Loyalists and their settlement in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and these are printed in appendix D.

The last appendix contains the beginning of the statutes of Upper Canada. Those appearing in this report are a reprint of a volume of Statutes of Upper Canada for the years 1792 and 1793. This volume, which is in the possession of the Sulpician Library of Montreal, is, so far as can be ascertained, the only one of its kind in existence.

It is believed that the material contained in these appendices will be found of great value to all students of Canadian history.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. G. DOUGHTY,
Deputy Minister and Keeper of Public Records.

APPENDIX A

DIVISION OF THE INDEX AND INFORMATION

INDEX

The work of indexing the manuscript documents of the Military or C series has been carried on systematically since my last report. Seventy-four more volumes have been indexed in this series.

Indexing of various other volumes has also been done in connection with the preparation of lists of published biographies, genealogies, etc., which are now of great help in furnishing information, by facilitating and expediting the work.

The number of cards prepared, typewritten, classified, and distributed in their respective drawers, is as follows:—

Series C.. . . . .	80,407
Sundries.. . . . .	19,738
Total.. . . . .	100,145

SEARCHES

The number of requests for the production of documents and for information on the most varied subjects, made by Departments of the Public Service, by students of history, and other inquirers, both verbally and in writing, augments daily. As the Public Archives become better known to an ever increasing number of seekers after historical data, requests for information follow the upward trend. No less than 1,153 such requests have been received and attended to during the last two years, while the number for the preceding two years was 434, showing an advance of 719 or nearly two hundred per cent. This growing number of inquiries naturally results in a parallel increase of transcription.

THE MAP DIVISION

The work of the Map Division shows a steady growth since the publication of the last Report.

The figures of maps received, searches made and copies of maps sent out, are as follows:—

	Maps received.	Searches.	Copies of maps.
1919.. . . . .	274	394	18
1920.. . . . .	422	228	160
1921.. . . . .	993	248	166
Totals.. . . . .	1,689	870	344

The maps receive include several rare maps of old France, besides many copies of maps relating to Canada, which are in the Dépôt de la Marine, and other repositories in Paris.

A number of specially interesting maps of old Quebec are included in these copies. Some valuable maps of Acadie have also been received which will prove of great value to students of the Acadian portion of Canada.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

Amongst the copies of older maps should be included reproductions of the Martin Behaim Globe of 1492; and Ribeira's Mappa Mundi of 1529; the latter being the earliest known map on which the name of Cape Breton appears.

There are also some original maps, prepared by the Deputy Postmaster General nearly a century ago, showing the post towns and routes of Canada as then existing; also a plan of the old Ottawa City Post Office, on Elgin Street, which stood almost where the arch giving entrance to the rear of the Langevin Block stands now.

A detailed survey of the St. Lawrence, made by order of Governor Murray in the years 1760-1-2, presented by the Admiralty has also been received. It is virtually a replica of part of the map known as the Murray survey, but being made in sections bound together is more adaptable to reference.

There are also plans of military operations on Lake Champlain, during the early wars; copies of de L'Isle maps, and a number of additional maps of the late war; besides the various departmental maps of the Dominion and provinces.

The nature of the questions referred to this division varies very widely, ranging from inquiries as to the origin of names, or as to original names to questions of boundaries and titles, some of them being of very grave import.

A PROCLAMATION

GEORGE R.

Whereas divers wicked and seditious writings have been printed, published, and industriously dispersed, tending to excite tumult and disorder, by endeavouring to raise groundless jealousies and discontents in the minds of our faithful and loving subjects, respecting the laws and happy Constitution of Government, civil and religious established in this kingdom; and endeavouring to villify and bring into contempt the wise and wholesome provisions made at the time of the glorious Revolution, and since strengthened and confirmed by subsequent laws for the preservation and security of the rights and liberties of our faithful and loving subjects: And whereas divers writings have also been printed, published, and industriously dispersed, recommending the said wicked and seditious publications to the attention of all our faithful and loving subjects: And whereas we have also reason to believe that correspondences have been entered into with sundry persons in foreign parts, with a view to forward the criminal and wicked purposes above-mentioned: And whereas the wealth, happiness, and prosperity of this kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due submission to the laws, a just confidence in the integrity and wisdom of Parliament, and a continuance of that zealous attachment to the Government and Constitution of the kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the minds of the people thereof: And whereas there is nothing which we so earnestly desire as to secure the public peace and prosperity; and to preserve to all our loving subjects the full enjoyment of their rights and liberties, both religious and civil: We, therefore, being resolved, as far as in us lies, to repress the wicked and seditious practises aforesaid, and to deter all persons from following so pernicious an example, have thought fit, by the advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all our loving subjects, as they tender their own happiness, and that of their posterity, to guard against all such attempts, which aim at the subversion of all regular government within this kingdom, and which are inconsistent with the peace and order of Society; and earnestly exhorting them at all times, and to the utmost of their power, to avoid and discourage all proceedings, tending to produce riots and tumults, and we do strictly charge and command all our Magistrates in and throughout our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do make diligent enquiry in order to discover the authors and printers of such wicked and seditious writings as aforesaid, and all others who shall disperse the same: And we do further charge and command all our Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, chief Magistrates in our cities, boroughs and corporations, and all other our officers and Magistrates throughout our kingdom of Great Britain, that they do, in their several and respective stations, take the most immediate and effectual care to suppress and prevent all riots, tumults, and other disorders which may be attempted to be raised or made by any person or persons, which, on whatever pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to law, but dangerous to the most important interests of this kingdom: And we do further require and command all and every our Magistrates aforesaid, that they do from time to time, transmit to one of our principal Secretaries of State, due and full information of such persons as shall be found offending as aforesaid, or in any degree aiding or abetting therein; it being our determination, for the preservation of the peace and happiness of our faithful and loving subjects, to carry the laws vigourously into execution against such offenders as aforesaid.

AN ORDINANCE for suspending the Sessions of the Court of King's Bench at Montreal, and to facilitate the Proceedings in Appeal Causes.

delivery, which is to commence there on the last Monday of the preceding Month of August, will be useless to the Public, expensive to the Crown and burdensome upon the District; and more especially, as that Session according to an Ordinance passed before the late Division and Partition of the Province of Quebec, on account of the vast extent of the District of Montreal, was prolonged to a period since the said Division, not necessary for the dispatch of the Business of the District, as the same now stands reduced.

Be it therefore enacted, declared and ordained, by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and the Executive Council of the Province of Lower Canada, and it is accordingly enacted, declared and ordained by the Authority of the same, That so much of two certain Ordinances of the seventeenth and twenty-seventh Years of His Majesty's Reign, as enjoins the sittings of the King's Bench at Montreal, and each sitting for ten Days inclusively, shall be and is hereby repealed. But for maintaining the due and regular administration of the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Court of King's Bench.

Be it also enacted, declared and ordained by the same Authority, That the want of such Session in the said District of Montreal, shall in no case work a Discontinuance, or be in any manner detrimental to the Causes, Business and Proceedings of the said Court of King's Bench, but that Provision shall be made by Rules and Orders thereof for such District sitting or sittings, as the due and legal Process and Trial of the Issues formed in the said Court may require.

And be it further enacted by the same Authority, That it shall be no valid objection in the Law, to the Return of a Writ of Appeal, or to the Security required on Appeals, that such Writ was returned by, or such Security taken before only one of the Judges of the Common Pleas, any thing enacted or ordained by any former Act or Ordinance to the Contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, declared and ordained, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed in any manner, to abridge His Majesty's Prerogative for constituting his Courts, in such manner as His Royal Wisdom may think proper, for administering the Criminal Jurisdiction of the said Province.

Being informed by a Letter from one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, that the Persons at present exercising the supreme Authority in France have declared War against His Majesty on the first Day of February last; and being commanded to cause the same to be instantly made as public as possible in this Province. All His Majesty's Subjects within the same are hereby notified thereof, to the intent that care may be taken on the one hand to prevent any mischief which otherwise may happen from the present conduct of the French, and on the other may do their utmost in their several stations to distress and annoy them, by making captures of their Ships and destroying their Commerce. ## PROCLAMATION

Whereas in the last Session of the Legislature of this Province, a certain Bill intituled, "An Act for the division of the Province of Lower Canada, for amending the Judicature thereof, and for repealing certain Laws therein mentioned," was passed by the Legislative Council, and by the House of Assembly, and the said Bill was reserved by Me the Governor of the said Province, for the signification of His Majesty's Pleasure thereon. And Whereas in pursuance of an Act passed in the Thirty first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain Parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America; and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province," the said Bill hath been laid before His Majesty in Council, and His Majesty in Council hath been graciously pleased to grant His Assent to the same; I have therefore thought fit to declare that the said Bill has thereby become an Act of the Legislature of this Province. And I do hereby notify to all Judges, Justices and Officers of His Majesty's Courts, and to all other His Majesty's Subjects, that the said Act, intituled, "An Act for the division of the Province of Lower Canada, for amending the Judicature thereof, and for repealing certain Laws therein mentioned," hath full force and legal effect, from the Day of the Date hereof, and I do require that all Persons govern themselves accordingly.

Whereas according to the Laws of this Province all endeavours whatsoever to enhance the common price of Provisions and all kind of Practices which have an apparent tendency thereto are highly criminal and punishable by fine and imprisonment. ## A PROCLAMATION

Whereas it hath been represented to me by divers Memorials and Petitions signed by a considerable number of Respectable Inhabitants of the Province, setting forth that, on account of the great demand for Wheat and Flour, and the high prices given for the same, the Farmers had been induced to dispose of the greatest part of their stock on hand, to Agents buying up the same, for the purposes of Exportation, whereby the price of Bread had considerably increased; and that from the appearance of the Harvest, in many parts of the Country, it was likely to be less productive this Year than usual, whereby much inconvenience and distress might possibly ensue, unless timely measures should be taken to prevent the same. And Whereas the consideration of such Memorials and Petitions was referred to a Committee of the Executive Council, and by the report of the said Committee it appears that the Exportation of Grain has already taken place, to a considerable amount; and that from the result of an extensive enquiry by the said Committee instituted, for the purpose of ascertaining as nearly as might be the quantity of produce of this Year's Crop, it is generally conceived that the present Harvest will be sufficient to supply the consumption of the Province, and to furnish feed for the ensuing Season; but that such is the eagerness of the inhabitants to avail themselves of the present high prices, that many of them have actually bargained for the sale of their small produce to be exported, and have even began to thresh out the pittance that should be reserved for the subsistence of their Families. Having duly considered the pernicious consequences that may ensue should such a practice become general, and that the situation and circumstances of this Province render it expedient, in case any unforeseen deficiency should arise in the produce of the present year, that proper resources should be secured in time. To the end that His Majesty's good subjects may be relieved from the apprehension of scarcity and want, which can only be accomplished by immediately preventing the further Exportation of Grain from this Country. And Whereas the Provincial Parliament stands prorogued to the fifteenth day of October next, whereby their advice and assistance in the premisses cannot be procured, nor their timely Sanction for the attainment of the security proposed. Therefore, from the immediate and pressing urgency of the occasion, and to the end that all precautions may be taken to provide for the quiet, advantage and sustenance of His Majesty's Subjects in this Province, with the advice of the Executive Council, I do order, and it is hereby accordingly Ordered that an EMBARGO be laid from and after the tenth Day of September instant, upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden, in whole or in part, with Wheat, Pease, oats, Barley, Indian corn, Flour and Biscuit, that shall not be laden and cleared out at the Custom House, on or before the tenth of this present Month; and that the said Embargo do continue and remain from the said tenth Day of September instant, until the tenth Day of December next. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Exportation of a certain quantity, to Wit, seven hundred and four barrels containing twelve hundred and thirty two quintals of Flour being the remainder of a purchase already made on behalf of Government for the use of the Kings Troops at Nova-Scotia, at such time as shall be deemed most convenient for His Majesty's service upon the production of a certificate for such purpose to be issued and signed by the Commissary of Stores and Provisions specifying the quantity so shipped and the name of the vessel on board of which the same shall be laden. And the Collector and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs hereof are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand and Seal at Arms in the Castle of Saint Lewis, in the City of Quebec, in the said Province of Lower Canada, the Ninth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety five and the Thirty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

UPPER-CANADA.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency

PETER HUNTER, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the said Province of Upper-Canada, Lieutenant General Commanding His Majesty's Forces in Upper and Lower-Canada, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province passed, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Seven, intituled, "An Act for Securing the Titles to Lands in this Province," the Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, at any time during the space of three years from the passing thereof, was empowered to issue Commissions, and the Commissioners therein named, were authorized to hear and decide upon all Claims to Lands within this Province, in all Cases in which the Faith of the King's Executive Government had been pledged, and in which the Deeds of Letters Patent of the Crown had not issued.—AND WHEREAS, Commissions were accordingly issued, and the Commissioners therein named duly attended, and proceeded to decide upon some of the Claims that came before them; but many Persons, during the space of the said three years, neglected to come forward and give the necessary notice to entitle them to have their Claims heard; and many others gave notice of their Claims, and either altogether neglected to attend before the said Commissioners to prosecute such Claims, or came unprepared with the necessary Documents, Proofs and Evidence, and although warned and made fully acquainted with the nature of the Proof essential to the establishment of their said Claims, altogether neglected to attend again, either in Person or by Agent, or to take any proper steps for ascertaining their Titles in manner by the said Statute directed.

AND WHEREAS, notwithstanding such manifest inattention and negligence, in order to accomodate and indulge His Majesty's Subjects, the said Act was, by another Statute passed in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-Nine, extended and continued for the further term of two years; but such indulgence failed to produce that activity and exertion which was expected, and ought to have marked the conduct of those for whose benefit the Law was passed.

AND WHEREAS, in the last Session of the Parliament of this Province, the Legislature again extended the time within which the King's Subjects may assert their Claims, in all Cases where the Faith of Government stands pledged, and the Deeds or Letters Patents have not issued, for the further term of two years from that period, and Commissions were issued, and the Commissioners duly attended at the respective times when the Assizes were held for the several Districts in this Province, but some of the Parties, who had given notice of asserting Claims, came in the same unprepared manner as had before been experienced, and many more never attended at all; so that, if such gross negligence and inattention is persevered in, the salutary and benevolent intentions of the Crown, in assenting to such repeated extensions of so indulgent a Law, will be altogether disappointed and frustrated.

BE IT THEREFORE KNOWN, TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, That the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, with the other Commissioners named in the several Commissions, issued under the Authority of the last mentioned Statute, will, for the purpose of deciding on all such Claims as aforesaid, attend at the following times and places—VIZ.—

At YORK, for the Home District, on the Twenty-Third Day of December next, on the first day of February, on the Twenty Fourth day of March, and on the Twentieth Day of July—1803.

At NIAGARA, for the District of Niagara, on the Twenty Fifth Day of April—1803.

At NEWCASTLE, for the District of Newcastle, on the Twenty Third Day of May—1803.

At KINGSTON, for the Midland District, on the Second Day of May—1803.

At JOHNSTOWN, for the District of Johnstown, on the Seventeenth Day of May—1803.

At CORNWALL, for the Eastern District, on the First Day of June—1803.

At CHARLOTTEVILLE, for the District of London, at the Assizes, which will be held for that District in the year 1803—and

At SANDWICH, for the Western District, also at the time of the Assizes, which will be held for that District in the said Year 1803.

Previous to which, all Persons interested will give Notice, according to Law, in the Offices of the Clerks of the Peace of the respective Districts:—And His Majesty's Subjects are hereby required to take Notice, that such Claims will then be called on for hearing, and the Commissioners will continue to sit till they shall have afforded opportunity to the Parties of having every Case heard and decided upon; but that after they have so done, such Commissioners, or any other Commissioners, will never more sit again in the execution of the said Commission, and the Parties who shall then neglect to bring on their Claims to hearing, will forever have lost all opportunity of acquiring, by any means, a legal Title to their Property, and will have to regret that they so grossly neglected their own Interest, and omitted to avail themselves of that indulgence so repeatedly in vain held out to them by the Crown.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms, at York, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Two, and in the forty Third Year of His Majesty's Reign.

A PROCLAMATION

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great-Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments, on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East-Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes, may, either by Accident or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who by Colour of such Passes may carry on their Trade; We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That the Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force for all Vessels sailing from the Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the present Year, in Order to give sufficient Time to Our Trade to be furnished with Passes of the New Form; and that after the Expiration of that Time, no Passes but those of the New Form shall be considered as valid, except in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes: And We do hereby further declare, That in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force during the Terms herein-after mentioned; (that is to say), For Vessels returning from the Ports to the Northward of the Straights of Gibraltar; or from the Ports within the Mediterranean; in the West-Indies; or in North America, to the Thirty first of March next; For Vessels returning from the Western Coasts of Africa, to the Thirtieth of June next; For Vessels returning from the East-Indies, and all other distant Parts, to the Thirtieth of June One thousand eight hundred and four; and for Vessels which may sail from the Ports of Our United Kingdom previous to the Thirty-first of December next, for a further Time of Two Months beyond the Periods above mentioned, according to their respective Voyages. And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, on or before the Expiration of the Periods herein before mentioned respectively return the same into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our Foreign Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled: and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of the New Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Treaties subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council on the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, so far as the same remain unaltered by the Regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council bearing Date respectively on the Twenty-eighth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventy six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and according to the further Regulations then there made, and Our Instructions given to our said Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland, touching the same: And whereas many Ships and Vessels belonging to Our loving Subjects, continue several Years trading from Port to Port in the Mediterranean, without returning Home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their Passes to be exchanged; We do hereby, for the Ease of Our Trading Subjects, publish and declare Our Pleasure, That upon the Application of any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other substantial Merchant, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great-Britain, and Oath made by him of the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and that Three Fourths of the Company are Our Subjects, according to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, (intituled, An Act for encouraging and encreasing of Shipping and Navigation), or such other Proportion as may be authorized by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a Bond for the Return of such Pass at the End of Three Years, or of the Voyage, if that shall sooner determine, it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a New Pass for such Ship or Vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said Owner or Merchant shall desire, with Direction to such Consul, that, upon Application to him from the Master of the Ship, for which the Pass is made out, and surrendering up his Old Pass, and entering into Bond for the Return of such New Pass, he shall deliver out the said New Pass to such Master, and transmit the Old one, with the Bond, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great-Britain: And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any Abuses that may be attempted by Foreigners relating to the New Passes to be issued as aforesaid; We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That all such New Passes, to be hereafter issued for any Ships and Vessels whatsoever, belonging to any of Our Subjects, inhabiting the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, shall be made out in a peculiar Form, different from the Form of the New Passes, to be issued for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominion; and that such New Passes shall be lodged with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and issued out only by him, according to the Regulations made by Our said Royal Predecessor King George the First, and Ourselves in Council, as aforesaid: And the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, is hereby charged and required, not to issue or deliver out any such Passes to any Persons whatsoever, other than such as are really Our Subjects, inhabiting in the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and strictly to conform themselves to the Regulations and Instructions made and given as aforesaid: But in regard it sometimes happens, that Ships, belonging to Our Subjects of other Parts of Our Dominion, call in at Gibraltar without Passes, and have Occasion to be furnished therewith; We do, for the further Conveniency of Trade, hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, or High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively hereby empowered, to lodge Mediterranean Passes, of the same Form with the New Passes, for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions, in the Hands of Our Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, with Directions to him to issue and deliver out such Passes to any of Our Subjects, not being Inhabitants of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar; provided the Person or Persons applying for the same, do comply with and conform to the several Rules and Regulations now in Use, and required to be observed by such Our other Subjects. And We do hereby order, That the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great-Britain, and the Commissioners of Our Revenue in Ireland, do cause to be carried into Execution such Parts of the said Order of Council of the Fourteenth Day of June One Thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning Passes, as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remain now in Force, and of Our Orders aforesaid, made in Council, on the Twenty eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and that they do direct their Officers in the several Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to demand of the Masters of all Merchant Ships, so soon as they shall return into Port from a Foreign Voyage, all Passes granted as aforesaid which shall be in their Possession, to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older Date than the Periods herein-before severally and respectively mentioned for the Return of the Passes of the present Form, then such Passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such Passes, according to the true Intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the Name of every such Master, and of the Ship or Vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, to the End that Directions may be given for putting the Bond, entered into on the granting any such Pass, in Suit: And all Our Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our Islands, Colonies, or Plantations, Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, are hereby expressly required and commanded to yield due Obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the Orders, Instructions, Regulations, and Directions before mentioned, on Pain of Our High Displeasure.

MUTINY ACT.

IN FORCE FROM THE 24TH MARCH, 1803.

Some Alterations have been introduced into this Act, which it is thought expedient to point out to the particular attention of commanding Officers of Regiments, and for the information of the Army in General.

DESERTERS.

*A General Court Martial has no longer the power of adjudging deserters to serve abroad as Soldiers; a service to which the regular soldier is always liable in the ordinary course of duty; but the Court is now authorised, in cases where death may be thought too great a punishment, to sentence a Deserter to transportation as a Felon, either for life, or a term of years, according to the degree of the offence and if before the expiration of the term limited by the sentence, a Soldier so transported shall return into, or be found at large within any part of the United Kingdom, without leave from His Majesty, or the Commanding Officer of the place to which the Soldier was ordered to be transported, or without some other lawful cause, every such person being convicted thereof, in the ordinary course of law, will be deemed guilty of Felony, and will suffer death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy. Sec. 4,

Where a Court Martial, either in the cases of Desertion, or of any other Capital Offence, shall have given a sentence of Death, His Majesty is impowered, if he shall think fit, to order that punishment to be changed for transportation as a Felon, for Life, or a term of years, as to his Majesty shall seem meet; and the punishment for returning before the expiration of the term limited by such order of His Majesty, will be Death as a Felon, without benefit of Clergy. Sec. 5.
Page, 13.

Persons harbouring, concealing, or assisting Deserters, are now liable to a Penalty of Twenty Pounds for each Offence, instead of Five Pounds as in former Acts. Sec. 609.
Page, 118.

The right of the Military, to apprehend Deserters, and to receive the reward for apprehending them, without the assistance of a Civil Officer, is now established. Sec. 607.

*This does not interfere with the power given by the Act, 42d, Geo. III. d. Cap 90, § 127, to Courts Martial, in the Militia, to sentence Deserters belonging to those Forces (who are not liable by their original Engagement to be sent out of Great-Britain) to serve in His Majesty's Regiment without limitation as to the period or place of service.

This Section has been altered, so as to put it out of Doubt, that Gaolers at Places on the road between the original Place of Confinement, and that of final destination, are obliged to receive Deserters, into their Custody, without any Fee or Reward, whether the Deserters are conveyed by virtue of a Magistrate's Warrant, or under Military Escort, by an order from the War Office.

FORFEITURE OF PAY, DURING CONFINEMENT FOR CRIMINAL OFFENCES.

The Pay of Officers and Men, convicted in the ordinary course of Law of any Criminal Offence, and under confinement in consequence thereof, is forfeited, from the day on which the conviction takes place, to the day of their return to their Military Duty.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

EXTRACT of a circular Dispatch dated 2nd April 1806, from the Right Honorable William Windham, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations have taken into their Consideration the State of the Newfoundland Fishery, and various applications respecting the better Supply of the British Islands in the West Indies, and the conquered Colonies with Provisions, more particularly with Salt Fish. Upon a full and attentive consideration of the Information laid before them, their Lordships have recommended to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, to authorize the payment in the several British Islands and Colonies beforementioned, of a bounty of Two shillings Stg. per Quintal upon Newfoundland and all other British American Salted Fish, which shall be imported into the said Islands in British Ships, from the 1st day of June 1806, to the 1st. day of June 1807. And also for the payment of the bounties undermentioned on pickled Fish of the following descriptions, viz.

On Shads per barrel of 32 Gallons	1	6
Herrings — do. —	2	6
Mackerel — do. —	3
Salmon — do. —	4

Imported in like manner into the said Islands. A particular Account of the amount of the bounties so paid, will be kept in each Island and Colony respectively, in full reliance that the same will be repaid to the British Treasury as soon as the Legislatures of the several respective Islands shall have made provision accordingly; and shall also have made provision for the continuance of the said Bounty for the time abovementioned.

It is further intended to recommend that the respective Legislatures should grant a Bounty of One shilling Stg. per Quintal on Newfoundland, and all other British American Salted Fish imported as aforesaid; and also impose a duty on all fish imported from the United States of America, to countervail any duty which may be payable within those states on the Importation of British fish, such duty and such bounty to take effect from and after the 1st day of June, 1807.

I am commanded to signify to you His Majesty's pleasure, that you, forthwith communicate the substance of this letter to the Merchants, and others within your Government interested in the beforementioned Fisheries, in order that they may avail themselves of the encouragement which it is intended to afford to their trade.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have taken measures for providing sufficient and regular Convoys for the vessels employed in the Newfoundland Fishery, and supply of West India Islands; and Instructions have been given to Sir Andrew Mitchell, and Sir Erasmus Gower, to extend that protection to the Trade of Nova Scotia, and the other North American Colonies, bound to the West Indies, upon the vessels assembling to take the benefit of the protection of the Ships of War appointed for that service.

WHEREAS the exportation of Gun-powder, Ammunition, Arms and warlike Stores of any denomination or description whatsoever from our Province of Lower Canada to Foreign parts may at this time prove injurious and prejudicial to the interests of our Empire, inasmuch as such exportation will not only deprive us and our subjects of a resource which in the course of future events may be required, but by re-exportation from Foreign Ports may become a source of supply to our Enemies. And we do hereby further entirely prohibit and forbid the exportation of Gunpowder, Ammunition, Arms and Warlike Stores of every and any denomination or description whatsoever from our said Province and from every and any part thereof to every and any other port, place and country whatsoever, save and except our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the rest of our Dominions to which by Law, Gunpowder, Ammunition, Arms and Warlike stores may now be exported from our said Province.

And it is our will and pleasure, and we do hereby order that the said Embargo and prohibition do continue and remain from the date of these presents until the first day of January next ensuing the date of this Proclamation.

All which our loving Subjects and all others concerned are to take due notice and govern themselves accordingly: We by the tenor of these presents firmly enjoining and commanding them, and every of them and all and every our Officers and Ministers whatsoever to be in all things and to the utmost of these power aiding and assisting in the due execution of this our Royal Proclamation.

AT THE COURT AT THE QUEEN'S PALACE, THE 11TH OF NOVEMBER, 1807.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS certain Orders, establishing an unprecedented System of Warfare against this Kingdom, and aimed especially at the Destruction of its Commerce and Resources, were, some Time since, issued by the Government of France, by which "The British Islands were declared to be in a state of Blockade," thereby subjecting to Capture and Condemnation all Vessels, with their Cargoes, which should continue to trade with His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas by the same Orders, "all trading in English Merchandize is prohibited, and every Article of Merchandize belonging to England, or coming from her Colonies, or of her Manufacture, is declared lawful Prize:"

And whereas the Nations in Alliance with France, and under her controul, were required to give, and have given, and do give, effect to such Orders:

And whereas His Majesty's Order of the 7th of January last has not answered the desired purpose, either of compelling the enemy to recall those Orders, or of inducing Neutral Nations to interpose, with effect, to obtain their Revocation, but, on the contrary, the same have been recently enforced with increased rigour:

And whereas His Majesty, under these circumstances, finds Himself compelled to take further measures for asserting and vindicating His just Rights, and for supporting that Maritime Power which the exertions and valour of His People have, under the Blessing of Providence, enabled Him to establish and maintain; and the maintenance of which is not more essential to the safety and prosperity of His Majesty's Dominions, than it is to the protection of such States as still retain their Independence, and to the general intercourse and happiness of Mankind:

His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered, that all the Ports and Places of France and her Allies, or of any other Country at War with His Majesty, and all other Ports or Places in Europe, from which, although not at War with His Majesty, the British Flag is excluded, and all Ports or Places in the Colonies belonging to His Majesty's enemies, shall, from henceforth, be subject to the same restrictions in point of Trade and Navigation, with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, as if the same were actually blockaded by His Majesty's Naval Forces, in the most strict and rigorous manner:—And it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all trade in articles which are of the produce of manufacture of the said Countries or Colonies, shall be deemed and considered to be unlawful; and that every Vessel trading from or to the said Countries or Colonies, together with all goods and merchandize on board, and all articles of the produce or manufacture of the said Countries or Colonies, shall be captured, and condemned as Prize to the Captors.

But although His Majesty would be fully justified, by the circumstances and considerations above recited, in establishing such system of restrictions with respect to all the Countries and Colonies of His enemies, without exception or qualification; yet His Majesty, being nevertheless desirous not to subject Neutrals to any greater inconvenience than is absolutely inseparable from the carrying into effect His Majesty's just determination to counteract the designs of His enemies, and to retort upon His enemies themselves the consequences of their own violence and injustice; and being yet willing to hope that it may be possible (consistently with that object) still to allow to Neutrals the opportunity of furnishing themselves with Colonial produce for their own consumption and supply; and even to leave open, for the present, such trade with His Majesty's enemies as shall be carried on directly with the Ports of His Majesty's Dominions, or of His Allies, in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

His Majesty is therefore pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, That nothing herein contained shall extend to subject to capture or condemnation any vessel, belonging to any Country not declared by this Order to be subjected to the restrictions incident to a state of blockade, which shall have cleared out with such cargo from some port or place of the country to which she belongs, either in Europe or America, or from some free port in His Majesty's Colonies, under circumstances in which such trade from such free port is permitted, direct to some port or place in the Colonies of His Majesty's enemies, or from those colonies direct to the country to which such vessel belongs, or to some free port in His Majesty's Colonies, in such cases, and with such articles, as it may be lawful to import into such free port;—Nor to any vessel, or the cargo of any vessel, belonging to any country not at war with His Majesty, which shall have cleared out from some port or place in this Kingdom, or from Gibraltar or Malta, under such regulations as His Majesty may think fit to prescribe, or from any Port belonging to His Majesty's Allies, and shall be proceeding direct to the Port specified in her clearance;—Nor to any vessel, or the cargo of any Vessel, belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, which shall be coming from any Port or Place in Europe which is declared by this Order to be subject to the restrictions incident to a state of blockade, destined to some port or place in Europe belonging to His Majesty, and which shall be on her voyage direct thereto; but these exceptions are not to be understood as exempting from capture or confiscation any vessel or goods which shall be liable thereto in respect of having entered or departed from any port or place actually blockaded by His Majesty's squadrons or ships of war, or for being enemies' property, or for any other cause than the contravention of this present Order.

And the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers, and other vessels acting under His Majesty's Commission, shall be, and are hereby, instructed to warn every vessel which shall have commenced her voyage prior to any notice of this Order, and shall be destined to any port of France, or of her Allies, or of any other Country at war with His Majesty, or to any Port or Place from which the British Flag as aforesaid is excluded, or to any Colony belonging to His Majesty's enemies, and which shall not have cleared out as is hereinbefore allowed, to discontinue her voyage, and to proceed to some Port or Place in this Kingdom, or to Gibraltar or Malta; and any vessel which, after having been so warned, or after a reasonable time shall have been afforded for the arrival of information of this His Majesty's Order at any port or place from which she sailed, or which, after having notice of this Order, shall be found in the prosecution of any voyage contrary to the restrictions contained in this Order, shall be captured, and, together with her cargo, condemned as lawful prize to the captors.

And Whereas Countries, not engaged in the war, have acquiesced in the Orders of France, prohibiting all trade in any articles the produce or manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions; and the Merchants of those Countries have given countenance and effect to those prohibitions, by accepting from persons styling themselves Commercial Agents of the enemy, resident at Neutral ports, certain documents, termed "Certificates of Origin," being Certificate obtained at the Ports of shipment, declaring that the articles of the cargo are not of the produce or manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, or to that effect:

And whereas this expedient has been directed by France, and submitted to by such Merchants, as part of the new system of warfare directed against the trade of this Kingdom, and as the most effectual instrument of accomplishing the same, and it is therefore essentially necessary to resist it;

His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that if any vessel, after reasonable time shall have been afforded for receiving notice of this His Majesty's Order at the port or place from which such vessel shall have cleared out, shall be found carrying any such certificate or document as aforesaid, or any document referring to, or authenticating the same, such vessel shall be adjudged lawful prize to the captor, together with the Goods laden therein, belonging to the person or persons by whom, or on whose behalf, any such document was put on board.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein, as to them shall respectively appertain.

AT THE COURT AT THE QUEEN'S PALACE, THE 11TH OF NOVEMBER, 1807,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Articles of the growth and manufacture of Foreign Countries cannot by Law be imported into this Country, except in British ships, or in ships belonging to the countries of which such articles are the growth and manufacture, without an Order in Council specially authorizing the same:

His Majesty, taking into consideration the Order of this Day's date, respecting the Trade to be carried on to and from the Ports of the enemy, and deeming it expedient that any vessel belonging to any Country in Alliance, or at Amity with His Majesty, may be permitted to import into this Country articles of the produce or manufacture of Countries at war with His Majesty:

His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is therefore pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all goods, wares, or Merchandizes, specified and included in the Schedule of an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof," may be imported from any port or place belonging to any State not at Amity with His Majesty, in Ships belonging to any State at Amity with His Majesty, subject to the Payment of such duties, and liable to such drawbacks as are now established by Law upon the Importation of the said goods, wares, or merchandize, in Ships navigated according to Law; and with respect to such of the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, as are authorized to be warehoused under the provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses without payment of duty," subject to all the Regulations of the said last mentioned Act; and with respect to all articles which are prohibited by Law from being imported into this country, it is ordered, that the same shall be reported for exportation to any country in amity or alliance with His Majesty.

And His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That all vessels which shall arrive at any port of the United Kingdom, or at the Port of Gibraltar or Malta, in consequence of having been warned pursuant to the aforesaid Order, or in consequence of receiving information, in any other manner, of the said Order subsequent to their having taken on board any part of their cargoes, whether previous or subsequent to their sailing, shall be permitted to report their cargoes for exportation, and shall be allowed to proceed upon their voyages to their original ports of destination, (if not unlawful before the issuing of the said Order,) or to any port at amity with His Majesty, upon receiving a certificate from the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs at the port at which they shall so enter, (which certificate the said collectors and comptrollers of the customs are hereby authorized and required to give,) setting forth that such vessels came into such Port in consequence of being so warned, or of receiving such information as aforesaid; and that they were permitted to sail from such Port under the Regulations which His Majesty has been pleased to establish in respect to such vessels. But in case any vessel so arriving shall prefer to import her cargo, then such vessel shall be allowed to enter and import the same, upon such terms and conditions as the said cargo might have been imported upon, according to Law, in case the said vessel had sailed after having received notice of the said Order, and in conformity thereto.

And it is further ordered, that all vessels which shall arrive at any port of the United Kingdom, or at Gibraltar or Malta, in conformity and obedience to the said Order, shall be allowed, in respect to all articles which may be on board the same, except sugar, coffee, wine, brandy, snuff, and tobacco, to clear out to any port whatever, to be specified in such clearance; and, with respect to the last mentioned articles, to export the same to such ports, and under such conditions and regulations only, as His Majesty, by any Licence to be granted for that purpose, may direct.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

AT THE COURT AT THE QUEEN'S PALACE, THE 25TH OF NOVEMBER 1807,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council dated the Eleventh of November instant, respecting the Trade to be carried on with His Majesty's Enemies, was pleased to exempt from the Restrictions of the said Order all Vessels belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, together with their Cargo, which shall be coming from any Port or Place in Europe which is declared in the said Order to be subject to the Restrictions incident to a State of Blockade, direct to some Port or Place in Europe belonging to His Majesty, and also all Vessels which shall be cleared out from Gibraltar or Malta under such Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to prescribe, and which shall be proceeding direct to the Ports specified in their respective Clearances:

And whereas it is expedient to encourage the Trade from Gibraltar and Malta to Countries under the Restrictions of the said Order, subject to Regulations to be made in respect thereto; His Majesty is therefore pleased to prescribe the following Regulations in regard to such Trade, accordingly, and by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Sorts of Flour and Meal, and all Sorts of Grain, Tobacco, and any other Article in an unmanufactured State, being the Growth and Produce of any Country not being subjected by the said Order to the Restrictions incident to a State of Blockade, except Cotton, and Naval and Military Stores, which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta direct from the Country where the same were grown and produced, shall, without any licence, be permitted to be cleared out to any Port or Place not being in a State of actual Blockade, without the same being compelled to be landed: But neither the said Article of Cotton, however, imported, nor any Article which is not the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or which has not been imported in a British Ship, or from this Kingdom direct, (except Fish,) and which shall have been laden at the Port of original Shipment after the Period directed by an Order of this Date to be taken as the Time at which Notice of the said Order of the Eleventh of November shall be considered as having been received at such Port of Shipment, shall be permitted to be exported from Gibraltar or Malta, except to some Port or Place in this Kingdom; and all other Articles of Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of this Kingdom, or which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta in a British Ship, or from some Port or Place in this Kingdom, together with the Article of Fish, however imported, may be exported to any Ports or Places in the Mediterranean or Portugal, under such Licence only as is hereinafter directed to be granted by the Governor of Gibraltar and Malta respectively;

And it is hereby further ordered, that Licences be granted by the Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or other Persons having the Chief Civil Command at Gibraltar or at Malta respectively, but in His Majesty's Name, to such Person or Persons as the said Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or Persons having the Chief Civil Command shall think fit, allowing such Person or Persons to export from Gibraltar direct, to any Port in the Mediterranean, or to any Port of Portugal, or to any Port of Spain without the Mediterranean, not further North than Cape Finisterre, and from Malta direct to any Port being within the Mediterranean, with any Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, and any Articles which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta from this Kingdom, to whomsoever such Articles shall appear to belong, (not being Naval or Military Stores,) in any Vessel belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, or in any Vessel not exceeding One Hundred Tons Burthen, and being unarmed, belonging to the Country to which such Vessel shall be cleared out and going, and also to import in any such Vessel or Vessels as aforesaid, from any Port within the Mediterranean, to Gibraltar or Malta; or from any Port in Portugal or Spain as aforesaid, to Gibraltar; such Port and such Destination respectively to be specified in such Licence, any Articles of Merchandise whatsoever, and to whomsoever the same may appear to belong; such Articles to be specified in the Bill of Lading of such Vessel, subject however to such further Regulations and Restrictions with respect to all or any of the said Articles so to be imported, or exported, as may be inserted in the said Licences by the Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or other Persons having the Chief Civil Command at Gibraltar, or Malta, for the Time being respectively, as to them shall, from Time to Time, seem fit and expedient:

And it is further ordered, that in every such Licence shall be inserted the Names and Residence of the Person or Persons to whom it shall be granted, the Articles and their Quantities permitted to be exported, the Name and Description of the Vessel, and of the Master thereof, the Port to which the Vessel shall be allowed to go, which shall be some Port not under actual Blockade; and that no Licence so to be granted shall continue in force for longer than Two Months from its Date, nor for more than One Voyage; nor any such Licence be granted, or acknowledged to be valid, if granted to permit the Clearance of any Vessel to any Port which shall be actually blockaded by any Naval Force of His Majesty or of His Allies:

And it is further ordered, that the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers, and all others whom it may concern, shall suffer every such Vessel sailing conformably to the Permission given by this Order, or having any Licence as aforesaid, to pass and repass, direct between Gibraltar, or Malta, and such Port as shall be specified in the Licence, in such Manner, and under such Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions as shall be expressed therein;

And it is further ordered, that, in case any Vessel, so sailing as aforesaid, for which any such Licence as aforesaid shall have been granted, and which shall be proceeding direct upon her said Voyage, shall be detained and brought in for legal Adjudication, such Vessel, with her Cargo, shall be forthwith released by the Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty in which Proceedings shall be commenced, upon Proof being made that the Parties had duly conformed to the Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Licence; the Proof of such Conformity to lie upon the Person or Persons claiming the Benefit of this Order, or obtaining or using such Licence, or claiming the Benefit thereof:

And it is hereby further ordered, that no Vessel belonging to any State on the Coast of Barbary shall be prevented from sailing with any Articles of the Growth or Produce of such State, from any Port or Place in such State to any Port or Place in the Mediterranean, or Portugal, such Port or Place not being actually blockaded by some Naval Force belonging to His Majesty, or his Allies, without being obliged to touch at Gibraltar, or Malta.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein, as to them shall respectively appertain.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance made and passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of the Province of Quebec, on the Thirtieth day of April, in the Twenty fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Ordinance concerning Advocates, Attorneys, Solicitors and Notaries, and for the more easy collection of His Majesty's Revenues" it is amongst other things enacted that all and every Notary and Notaries of and for the said Province, and all and every Sheriff, and the several Clerks of Courts in the separate Districts of the said Province, shall, regularly and duly, every three months, in every year, send and transmit, to the Receiver General of the King's Domain, an abstract of all and every deed of sale, or act equivalent to a sale, and deeds of Exchange and deeds of Gift, subject to life rent or charge, and of all and every sale by Auction or otherwise under Process of any of His Majesty's Courts, and also of sales by Licitation or Judicial order and decrees, whereby any rights and dues may accrue to His Majesty's Revenue in the said Province, under the several Pains and Penalties in case of neglect or disobedience, in the said ordinance set forth and declared.

And Whereas the said ordinance, in so far as the same respects the more easy collection of His Majesty's Revenue in this Province hath not been duly conformed to, and it being expedient that strict obedience be paid to the said ordinance, to the end that His Majesty's Revenue may be more easily and uniformly collected.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS divers wicked, seditious and treasonable writings have been printed, published and dispersed in this Province, with the care and government of which I am entrusted; and whereas such writings have been expressly calculated to mislead His Majesty's good Subjects, to impress their minds with distrust and jealousy of His Majesty's Government, to alienate their affections from His Majesty's Person, and to bring into contempt and villify the administration of Justice, and of the Government of the Country; and whereas, in the prosecution of these wicked and traitorous purposes, their authors and abettors have not scrupled audaciously to advance the most gross and daring falsehoods, whilst the industry that has been employed, in dispersing and disseminating them at a very great expence, but the source of which is not known, strongly evinces the perseverance and implacability with which it is intended that these purposes should be pursued; And whereas, consistently with that duty, which I owe to His Majesty, and that affection and regard with which I view the welfare and prosperity of the Inhabitants of this Colony, it was impossible for me any longer to disregard or suffer practices so directly tending to subvert the Government of the former, and to destroy the happiness of the latter, I do therefore, hereby announce, with the advice and concurrence of His Majesty's Executive Council, That with the same advice and concurrence, measures have been adopted, and that due information having been given to Three of His Majesty's said Executive Counsellors. Warrants as by Law authorized, have been issued, under which some of the authors, printers and publishers of the writings aforesaid, have been apprehended and secured.

Deeply impressed with a desire to promote, in all respects, the welfare and happiness of the good People of this Province, and acting under the Instructions of the most benevolent and best of Sovereigns, whose faithful Servant I have been for nearly as long a period as the oldest inhabitant has been his Subject, and whose highest displeasure I should incur, if I made any other than that happiness and welfare the rule of my conduct, it would indeed be with a very sincere concern, that I should find reason to believe that the arts of these factious and designing men had produced any effect, and that doubts and jealousies should have found their way, and have established themselves in the minds of deluded Persons.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

To these, if any such there be, and indeed to the public in general, I would recall the history of the whole period during when they have been under His Majesty's Government. Let them remember the state they were in when they became British Subjects; and let them bear in their recollection the progressive advances they have made to the wealth, happiness, security and unbounded liberty which they now enjoy. During fifty years that they have been under the English dominion, has one act of oppression—has one instance of arbitrary imprisonment—or of violation of property, occurred? Have you in any one instance, or under any one circumstance, been disturbed in the free and uncontroled enjoyment of your Religion—and lastly, while all Europe has been deluged in blood, and while various of His Majesty's other colonies and possessions have at times experienced the horrors of war, and some even under the vicissitudes of that state, have undergone a deprivation of the inestimable happiness of living under British Laws and British Government, by becoming a prey to temporary conquest, have you not enjoyed the most perfect security and tranquillity under the powerful protection of that same Government, whose fostering and paternal care has been equally employed in promoting your internal welfare.

What then can be the means used by these evil-disposed and wicked persons, by which they can hope to bring about their traitorous and ambitious designs—by what arguments can they expect that a people, in the enjoyment of every blessing that can contribute to happiness in this world, shall renounce that happiness, to embrace their views? By what argument can they expect that a brave and loyal people, hitherto impressed with the warmest and sincerest attachment to the best of Kings whose whole reign has been one series of benefits bestowed on them, shall abandon that loyalty and become monsters of ingratitude, fit to be held up to the detestation of the world, to promote their projects? It is true, the most base and diabolical falsehoods are insidiously promulgated and disseminated. In one part, it is announced as my intention to embody and make soldiers of you, and that having applied to the late House of Representatives to enable me to assemble twelve thousand of you for that purpose, and they having declined to do so, I had therefore dissolved them. This is not only directly false, such an idea never having entered into my mind, nor the slightest mention having ever been made of it; but it is doubly wicked and atrocious, because it has been advanced by persons, who must have been supposed to speak with certainty on the subject, and was therefore the more calculated to impose upon you. In another part you are told that I wanted to tax your lands, and that the late House of Assembly would consent only to tax wine, and upon that account, I had dissolved the House. Inhabitants of St. Denis! this is also directly false, I never had the most distant idea of taxing you at all, such had never even been for a moment the subject of my deliberations, and when the late House offered to pay the Civil List, I could not have taken any step in a matter of such importance without the King's instructions, and therefore it was still long before we came to the consideration of how it was to be paid. In truth not one word was ever to my knowledge mentioned on the subject.

In other parts, despairing of producing instances from what I have done, recourse is had to what I intend to do, and it is boldly told you, that I mean to oppress you. Base and daring fabricators of falsehood, on what part or what act of my life do you found such an assertion? What do you know of me or my intentions? Canadians, ask of those to whom you formerly looked with attention and respect, ask the heads of your Church who have opportunities of knowing me; these are men of honor and knowledge, these are men from whom you ought to seek for information and advice; the leaders of faction, the demagogues of a party, associate not with me; they cannot know me.

For what purpose should I oppress you? Is it to serve the King? Will that Monarch, who during fifty years has never issued one order that had you for its object, that was not for your benefit and happiness—will he now, beloved, honored, adored by his subjects covered with glory, descending into the vale of years, accompanied with the prayers and blessings of a grateful people, will he, contrary to the whole tenor of life of honor and virtue, now give orders to his Servants to oppress His Canadian Subjects? It is impossible that you can for a moment believe it. You will spurn from you, with just indignation, the miscreant who will suggest such a thought to you.

Is it for myself, then, that I should oppress you? For what should I oppress you? Is it from ambition? What can you give me?—Is it for power? Alas! my good friends! with a life ebbing not slowly to its period, under the pressure of disease acquired in the service of my country, I look only to pass, what it may please God to suffer to remain of it, in the comfort of retirement among my friends. I remain among you only in obedience to the commands of my King. What power can I wish for? Is it then for wealth that I would oppress you? Enquire of those who know me, whether I regard wealth: I never did, when I could enjoy it, it is now no use to me; to the value of your country laid at my feet, I would prefer the consciousness of having, in a single instance, contributed to your happiness and prosperity.

These personal allusions to myself—These details, in any other case might be unbecoming, and beneath me; but nothing can be unbecoming or beneath me that can tend to save you from the gulf of Crime and Calamity, into which guilty men would plunge you.

It is now my duty, more particularly to advert to the intent and purpose for which this Proclamation is issued; I do, therefore, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Executive Council, hereby warn, and earnestly exhort all His Majesty's Subjects, to be on their guard against, and to be cautious how they listen to the artful suggestions of designing and wicked men, who, by the spreading of false reports, and by seditious and traitorous writings; ascribe to His Majesty's Government evil and malevolent purposes, seeking only thereby to alienate their affections, and lead them into acts of Treason and Rebellion, calling upon all well disposed Persons, and particularly upon all Curates and Ministers of God's Holy Religion, to use their best endeavours to prevent the evil effects of such incendiary and traitorous doings, to deceive, to set aright, such as may have been misled by them, and to inculcate in all, the true principles of Loyalty to the King, and obedience to the Laws.

And I do hereby further strictly charge and command all Magistrates, in and throughout this Province, all Captains of Militia, Peace Officers, and others, His Majesty's good Subjects, that they do severally make diligent enquiry and search, to discover as well the authors as the publishers and dispersers of all such wicked, seditious and traitorous writings as aforesaid, and of false news in any way derogatory to His Majesty's Government, or in any manner tending to inflame the Public Mind, and to disturb the public peace and tranquility; to the end, that by a vigorous execution of the laws, all offenders in the premises may be brought to such punishment as may deter all persons from the practice of any acts whatever which may in any way affect the safety, peace or happiness of His Majesty's Loyal and faithful Subjects in this Province.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms, at the Castle of Saint Lewis, in the City of Quebec, in the said Province of Lower Canada, this Twenty-first day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and ten and in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is the bounden Duty of all His Majesty's Subjects, constantly to humble themselves before Almighty God, and fervently to renew their supplications for Divine Aid and Protection, more especially during the continuance of a contest so sanguinary and awful, as that in which His Majesty, in behalf of the British Empire, is now engaged, and most particularly when the other calamities of the present times are so sadly embittered by the personal affliction of our beloved Sovereign.

And whereas His Majesty for this solemn purpose, is graciously pleased to order a day of Public Fasting and Humiliation, to be observed every year in His European Dominions, and it is highly becoming that so pious an Example, should be imitated in this part of the British Empire; I have thought fit, by and with the Advice of the Executive Council of this Province, to appoint Friday, the Eighth day of May next, to be a day of Public Fasting and Humiliation, to be Devoutly and Religiously observed as such, by all His Majesty's Subjects throughout His Province of Lower Canada: That in deep humility and contrition, we may acknowledge and bewail our manifold transgressions; and join in earnest supplications to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, for protection, and every other blessing, to Our Most Gracious Sovereign, to his Family, and to his People, and most especially for the restoration of Health, and Comfort to the Royal Sufferer; fervently imploring the Divine favor, and assistance, to crown with success the exertions of His Majesty's Arms, by Sea and Land, and those of his Allies, fighting in defence of their Just Rights; that so the wicked devices of his Enemies may be frustrated, the blessings of Peace restored, and the happiness of mankind preserved and increased.

And I do hereby strictly charge and command the said Public Fast and Humiliation, to be Devoutly observed by all His Majesty's Subjects throughout this His Province of Lower Canada, as they hope for the Protection of Almighty God, or desire to avert from their Country, and from themselves, the Evils and Calamities afflicting other Nations.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it is the bounden duty of all His Majesty's Subjects, constantly to humble themselves before Almighty God, and fervently to renew their supplications for Divine Aid and Protection, more especially during the continuance of a contest so sanguinary and awful, as that in which His Majesty, in behalf of the British Empire, is now engaged, and most particularly when the other calamities of the present times, are so sadly embittered by the personal affliction of our beloved Sovereign.

And Whereas His Majesty, for this solemn purpose, is graciously pleased to order a day of Public Fasting and Humiliation, to be observed every year in his European Dominions; and it is highly becoming that so pious an example should be imitated in this part of the British Empire;—I have thought fit, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of this Province, to appoint FRIDAY the TWENTY EIGHTH day of MAY next, to be a day of Public Fasting and Humiliation, to be devoutly and religiously observed as such, by all His Majesty's Subjects throughout this Province of Lower Canada:—That in deep humility and contrition, we may acknowledge and bewail our manifold transgressions, and join in earnest supplications to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, for protection, and every other blessing, to our most gracious Sovereign, to his Family and to his People, and more especially for the restoration of health, and comfort to the Royal Sufferer; fervently imploring the Divine favor and assistance, to crown with success the exertions of His Majesty's Arms, by sea and land, and those of his allies, fighting in the defence of their just rights; that so the

Lieut. General Sir GEORGE PREVOST,

TO THE INHABITANTS OF HIS MAJESTY'S PROVINCES IN NORTH AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

THE complete Success which has attended His Majesty's Arms on the Niagara Frontier, having placed in our possession the whole of the Enemy's Posts on that line, it became a matter of imperious duty, to retaliate on America the miseries which the unfortunate Inhabitants of Newark had been made to suffer upon the evacuation of Fort George.

The Villages of Lewiston, Black Rock, and Buffalo, have accordingly been burned.

At the same time that His Excellency the Commander of the Forces sincerely deprecates this mode of Warfare, he trusts, that it will be sufficient to call the attention of every candid and impartial person, both amongst ourselves and the Enemy, to the circumstances from which it has arisen, to satisfy them that this departure from the established Usages of War has originated with America herself, and that to her alone, are justly chargeable, all the awful and unhappy consequences which have hitherto flowed, and are likely to result from it.

It is not necessary to advert to the conduct of the Troops employed on the American Coast, in conjunction with His Majesty's Squadron, under Admiral Sir John B. Warren, since as they were neither within the command, nor subject to the controul of His Excellency, their acts cannot be ascribable to him, even if they wanted that justification which the circumstances that occasioned them, so amply afford.

It will be sufficient for the present purpose, and in order to mark the character of the War, as carried on upon the Frontiers of these Provinces, to trace the line of Conduct observed by His Excellency, and the Troops under his Command, since the commencement of Hostilities, and to contrast it with that of the enemy.

The first Invasion of Upper Canada took place in July, 1812, when the American Forces, under Brigadier General Hull, crossed over and took possession of Sandwich, where they began to manifest a disposition so different from that of a magnanimous enemy, and which they have since invariably displayed, in marking out, as objects of their peculiar resentment, the Loyal Subjects of His Majesty, and in dooming their property to plunder and conflagration.

Various instances of this kind occurred, both at Sandwich and in its neighbourhood, at the very period when His Majesty's Standard was waving upon the Fort of Michilimackinac, and affording Protection to the persons and property of those who had submitted to it:—Within a few weeks afterwards, the British Flag was also hoisted on the Fortress of Detroit, which, together with the whole of the Michigan Territory, had surrendered to His Majesty's Arms.

Had not His Excellency been actuated by sentiments far different from those which had influenced the American Government, and the Persons employed by it, in the wanton acts of destruction of Private Property, committed during their short occupation of a part of Upper Canada, His Excellency could not have failed to have availed himself of the opportunity which the undisturbed possession of the whole of the Michigan Territory, afforded him of amply retaliating for the devastating system which had been pursued at Sandwich and on the Thames.

But strictly in conformity to the views and disposition of his own Government, and to that liberal and magnanimous Policy which it had dictated, he chose rather to forbear an imitation of the enemy's example, in the hope, that such forbearance would be duly appreciated by the Government of the United States, and would produce a return to the more civilized usages of War.

The Persons and Property, therefore, of the Inhabitants of the Michigan Territory, were respected, and remained unmolested.

In the winter of the following year, when the success which attended the daring and gallant enterprise against Ogdensburgh had placed that populous and flourishing Village in our possession, the generosity of the British Character was again conspicuous, in the scrupulous preservation of every article which could be considered as Private Property; such Public Buildings only being destroyed as were used for the accommodation of Troops and for Public Stores.

The destruction of the Defences of Ogdensburgh, and the dispersion of the Enemy's Force in that neighbourhood, laid open the whole of their Frontier on the St. Lawrence, to the incursions of His Majesty's Troops, and Hamilton, as well as the numerous Settlements on the Banks of the River, might, at any hour, had such been the disposition of His Majesty's Government, or of those acting under it, been plundered and laid waste.

During the course of the following Summer, by the fortunate result of the enterprise against Plattsburgh, that Town was for several hours in the complete possession of our Troops, there not being any force in the neighbourhood which could attempt a resistance. Yet even there, under circumstances of strong temptation, and when the recent example of the enemy in the wanton destruction of York, of private property, and buildings not used for military purposes, must have been fresh in the recollection of the Forces employed on that occasion, and would have justified a retaliation on their part, their forbearance was strongly manifested, and the directions His Excellency had given to the commander of that expedition, so scrupulously obeyed, that scarcely can another instance be shewn in which, during a state of war, and under similar circumstances, an enemy, so completely under the power and at the mercy of their adversaries, had so little cause of complaint.

During the course of the same Summer, Forts Schlosser and Black Rock, were surprized and taken by a part of the forces under the command of Major-General De Rottenburg on the Niagara frontier, at both of which places personal property was respected, and the public buildings were alone destroyed.

It was certainly matter of just and reasonable expectation, that the humane and liberal course of conduct pursued by His Excellency on these different occasions, would have had its due weight with the American Government, and would have led it to have abstained, in the further prosecution of the war, from any acts of wantonness or violence, which could only tend unnecessarily to add to its ordinary calamities, and to bring down upon their own unoffending citizens a retaliation, which, though distant, they must have known would await and certainly follow such conduct.

Undeterred, however, by His Excellency's example of moderation, or by any of the consequences to be apprehended from the adoption of such barbarous measures, the American forces at Fort George, acting, as there is every reason to believe, under the orders, or with the approbation of their Government, for some time previous to their evacuation of that fortress, under various pretences, burned and destroyed the farm houses and buildings of many of the respectable and peaceable inhabitants of that neighbourhood. But the full measure of this species of barbarity remained to be completed at a season when all its horrors might be more fully and keenly felt by those who were to become the wretched victims of it.

It will hardly be credited by those who shall hereafter read it in the page of history, that in the enlightened aera of the 19th century, and in the inclemency of a Canadian Winter, the troops of a nation calling itself civilized and christian, had wantonly, and without the shadow of a pretext, forced 400 helpless women and children to quit their dwellings, and to be the mournful spectators of the conflagration and total destruction of all that belonged to them.

Yet such was the fate of Newark on the 10th of December, a day which the inhabitants of Upper Canada can never forget, and the recollection of which cannot but nerve their arms when again opposed to their vindictive foe. On the night of that day, the American troops under Brigadier-General M'Clure, being about to evacuate Fort George, which they could no longer retain, by an act of inhumanity disgraceful to themselves and to the nation to which they belong, set fire to upwards of 150 houses, composing the beautiful village of Newark, and burned them to the ground, leaving without covering or shelter those "innocent, unfortunate and distressed inhabitants," whom that Officer, by his Proclamation, had previously engaged to protect.

His Excellency would have ill consulted the honour of his country, and the justice due to His Majesty's injured and insulted subjects, had he permitted an act of such needless cruelty to pass unpunished, or had he failed to visit, whenever the opportunity arrived, upon the inhabitants of the neighbouring American frontier, the calamities thus inflicted upon those of our own.

The opportunity has occurred, and a full measure of retaliation has taken place, such as it is hoped will teach the enemy to respect, in future, the laws of war, and recal him to a sense of what is due to himself as well as to us.

In the further prosecution of the contest to which so extraordinary a character has been given His Excellency must be guided by the course of conduct which the enemy shall hereafter pursue. Lamenting, as His Excellency does, the necessity imposed upon him of retaliating upon the subjects of America the miseries inflicted on the inhabitants of Newark, it is not his intention to pursue further a system of warfare so revolting to his own feelings, and so little congenial to the British character, unless the future measures of the enemy should compel him again to resort to it.

To those possessions of the enemy along the whole line of frontier which have hitherto remained undisturbed, and which are now within His Excellency's reach, and at the mercy of the troops under his command, His Excellency has determined to extend the same forbearance, and the same freedom from rapine and plunder, which they have hitherto experienced; and from this determination the future conduct of the American Government shall alone induce His Excellency to depart.

The inhabitants of these Provinces will in the meantime be prepared to resist, with firmness and with courage, whatever attempts the resentment of the enemy, arising from their disgrace and their merited sufferings, may lead them to make, well assured that they will be powerfully assisted at all points by the troops under His Excellency's command, and that prompt and signal vengeance will be taken for every fresh departure by the Enemy, from that system of Warfare, which ought alone to subsist between enlightened and civilized nations.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms at Quebec, this 12th day of January, 1814.

VOLUME 35

London,
November 26,
1782.

M. Simolin to Count Osterman. (In French.) Informing him of the conference between M. de Raineval and Shelburne; of the ultimatum of the British Government. Raineval proposes to take the terms to Versailles himself. Supposed terms of peace. He knows that the journeys of Mr. Strachey concern the boundaries between New England and Nova Scotia.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

King of Prussia to Count de Maltzan. (In French.) Acknowledging receipt of two despatches of 26 and 29 July. He notices the English Colonies in America are making trouble. Weymouth's proposal to use rigor will only increase the trouble. Does not believe any serious measures will be taken in England, so that matters will remain in confusion until Parliament meets. 7

Potsdam,
August 8,
1783.

Count Lusi to King of Prussia. (In French.) Fox says he wishes King to mediate for peace and would give carte blanche. England ready to admit Independence of America; to exchange with France conquests in India; to yield to Spain, Minorca or Florida or both. They will not give up Gibraltar, which would render the Bourbons masters of that sea. Warns the King not to allow Simolin to have a hand in the affairs. 8

London,
April 23,
1782.

Same to Same. Another conversation with Fox. He has hopes of opening direct negotiations with France and Spain, but fears they will break on question of Gibraltar. Hopes Russia, Germany and other Northern Powers will support retention of Gibraltar by England. 11

April 26,

Same to Same. Has communicated to Fox, the King's observations. King of England grateful and will follow advice. English ministry desires to treat directly for Peace, but sceptical of good will of France. Fox learns France is making large demands in East and West Indies. Spain desires Gibraltar and Minorca. If demands be ruinous to England, nothing to be done but continue the war, and trust to powers interested in the continued existence of England to prevent her being crushed. In meantime Grenville is being instructed to ask France to state conditions of peace. England much disposed to Triple Alliance, including Prussia and Russia, which other powers might join. Fox asked to write a letter, which would be forwarded to Frederick, on the subject. Alliance should be made during the war, to bring France to senses. 12

King of Prussia to Lusi. Discusses at length the several considerations of Prussian interference on behalf of England, as they would affect other powers, particularly Austria and Russia. Weakness of Holland. He desires to know if England still has resources, which would enable her to continue the war. Count de Grasse's defeat has deferred peace. He wants to know whether, if peace were made in 1783, England will not be completely exhausted and negligible for some years, or whether, in the event of some new war, she would be able to sustain allies. 14

Potsdam,
June 17,
1782.

King of Prussia to Lusi. Does not desire to dismiss proposal of alliance with England, but the latter must approach Russia on subject of Quadruple Alliance to include Denmark. Discusses many difficulties in situation, and sets forth his relations with Holland. England much embarrassed. Old government wrought confusion everywhere. Desires to know if new government can clear matters up. 17

Potsdam,
June 27,
1782.

Same to Same. Learns, for reasons he gives, that Russia is not likely to entertain idea of Triple alliance. Desires information as to new minister. 20

Breslau,
August 26,
1782.

Same to Same. (Extract.) Discussion of relations between France and Austria. Fears that, without assistance from navy, Gibraltar may be lost. 21

Berlin,
September 3, 1782.

B. Franklin to David Hartley. Letters of March 11 and 12 received. Is pleased at good disposition of Great Britain, as indicated by Parliamentary resolutions towards United States. Has no knowledge of opinions of his colleagues; his own remain unchanged. 22

Passy,
March 31,
1782.

Franklin to William Hodgson. Respecting a credit of £300 to Hodgson. Learns there are 200 American prisoners in Ireland. Kindness

- to prisoners on both sides would be productive of good results. Desires to send relief to prisoners. Would like to have his neglected proposition laid before new ministry. Anxious to see end of "devilish contest." 23
- London, April 12, 1782. James Bourdieu to M. Vander Oudermonden. (In French.) (Intercepted.) Informing him that a person, unnamed, will be at The Hague, when he arrives. Respecting some propositions, not mentioned. 24
- London, April 12, 1782. Bourdieu to M. Pache, Senior. (In French.) (Intercepted.) Proposal to reopen communications between Dover and Calais. Will suggest it to Fox. 26
- Paris, June 17, 1782. J. N. to Philip Wray. Gossip about the movement of events. Peace with France still in future. Franklin favors separate peace between England and United States. 28
- St. James, August 7. Mr. Fraser to Shelburne. Sends copy of a letter in white ink. 32
- Paris, July 21, 1782. Enclosure:
- G. Chalmers to Wray. Has not heard from him since 28th ultimo. Fears letters are held in English Post Office. Movements of French, American and Spanish ships. 33
- Nantes, August 10, 1782. Henry Laurens to Bourdieu. Hopes to go to America in September. Speculates on whether, if again captured, he would be set free, as he was liberated by exchange. Speaks of people whom he mentions merely by numbers. Asks effect in England of check, which Lord S.'s messengers received from Congress. His Lordship's delusions as to state of mind in America. 36
- Nantes, August 10, 1782. Laurens to Bridgen and Waller. Repudiates all responsibility on part of America for Refugees and Loyalists, whom he mentions contemptuously. 39
- Brussels, October 11, 1782. M. Tort to Messrs. Bourdieu and Cholet. (Extract.) (In French.) As they are about to settle affairs, he notifies his correspondents that Vergennes must compensate him or he will attack. Wishes to know whether in this matter he is to act on his own account or for them as well. 42
- Paris, November 28, 1782. M. Pache, Senior to Bourdieu. Acknowledging letters of 10th and 15th instant. Regarding the movements of the funds. Vigorous preparations of French and Spaniards for war by sea. Large loan about to be effected. 43
- Versailles, September 4, 1780. Comte de Vergennes to Chevalier de la Luzerne. Has received despatches. His opinion of the personality and views of Mr. Izard-Franklin commended. His refraining from empty menaces most effective method of dealing with French ministers. Congress should know that Franklin on his first request, obtained a million, and will obtain more. Ministry has interests of America always in view. These facts should counteract insidious whisperings of Izard and Arthur Lee. Alarming stories told by Silas Dean of the helplessness of Congress. Enquiries of John Adams respecting articles in the Treaty of Commerce, and American refugees discussed. Measures will assuredly be taken to guarantee independence of the United States. Convinced Congress will not countenance separate negotiations between England and America. Vacillations of Congress very disturbing. A general act of confederation rather to be hoped for than expected. If this were achieved, it would be most undesirable, that the new body should seek the renewal of existing treaties. Neckar has asked Franklin for a letter of credit on Congress for provisions. Urges him to contradict report that French propose to establish a permanent post on Rhode Island. 45

- Vergennes to La Luzerne. This long despatch is calendared in Report Versailles, October 22, 1780. 53
- Comte de Rochambeau to La Luzerne. Enclosing the articles of the Newport, May 27, 1781. 63
- propositions made to Washington and his replies. 63
- Enclosures:
- (1) Propositions with Washington's observations. 64
- (2) Extract from Instructions from Minister of War to Rochambeau. 72
- Translation into French of a letter from Mr. Harrison, Governor of Virginia, to La Luzerne. Gratitude expressed towards France. Asks him to have a frigate sent to bring out a loan. 74
- On the Envoy des Armes, in River James, February, 1782. 74
- La Luzerne to the French Ambassador at Madrid. Gives an account of victory at York Town, and its consequences to the relations of the Americans with English and French. United States seems to flourish on the War, in population and commerce. Situation of United States as regards money. Large trade developed with French and Spanish islands. For the first time since War began, Americans can look with assurance to success. They are comfortable and have a very good army. Distressed conditions of English in United States. 75

VOLUME 36

- M. Ruvigny de Cosne to Sir Thomas Robertson. On question raised by French Commissaries, as to the exclusive use of French in negotiations. French Commissaries insist upon it. Ruvigny stated English Commissaries prepared to accept French case in French, if the French would accept English case in English. French had no instructions to do this. Any delay must be attributed to French Commissaries. 84
- Paris, August 7, 1754. 84
- Earl Albemarle to Sir T. Robinson. French charge death of M. de Jumonville to treacherous conduct of British party. Albemarle repelled charge from such small knowledge as he had of affair. Vaudreuil, Governor of Louisiana, made Governor of Canada. French desire revision of translation made by them of English memorial. 86
- Paris, August 21, 1754. 86
- Robinson to Albemarle. French account of Jumonville's death inaccurate. Mr. Mildmay to attend to revision of translation of English memorial. Pleased with French action regarding removal of Walsh de Serrant from England. Expect Rouillé will make full enquiries regarding Pretender's son; and if he should be found lurking about Paris, that the French government will take all proper action. 89
- Whitehall, September 2, 1754. 89
- Ruvigny de Cosne and W. Mildmay to Robinson. Acknowledging directions to revise French translation of last English memorial concerning Nova Scotia or Acadia. Prospects of amicable arrangement for expediting business with French Commissaries. 92
- Paris, September 11, 1754. 92
- Robinson to Albemarle. King has high regard for Rouillé, and is pleased with friendship between him and Albemarle. But there is much to reprehend in conduct and aims of French Court until there is change, full confidence on English side is impossible. The French should begin by executing Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, and evacuate the Neutral Islands, and relinquish the forts or withdraw forces from English territory in Nova Scotia and on Ohio. Measures must be taken for protection of trade and defence of possessions of English. Rouillé may be spoken to in this sense. 94
- Whitehall, September 12, 1754. 94

- Paris, September 18, 1754. Albemarle to Robinson. Had interview with Rouillé on lines indicated by letter of 12th. Rouillé insisted Neutral Islands had been evacuated; regretted situation on Continent of America, explaining last raid was in revenge for assassination of Jumonville; but Albemarle could not admit that what was an act of war could be so excused. Enclosing letter showing French Ambassador's eagerness to embroil Great Britain and Spain. 98
- Fontainebleau, October 23, 1754. Albemarle to Robinson. (Separate.) An account of mutual recriminations between himself and Rouillé, as to unauthorized acts or threats of hostility. Learns that French Government has some intention of reimposing Droit de Fret on English shipping on account of certain grievances. 101
- Paris, December 22, 1754. Ruvigny de Cosne to Robinson. Albemarle died suddenly that day after apoplectic fit. 105

An account of a conversation with Abbé Joncaire, who asserts that all his family for some generations have had intimate relations with and influence over the several tribes of Indians. He asks that he be made Bishop of Quebec, and his relations given commissions in the British army with command over Indian tribes. Enquiries must be conducted with great secrecy. Another person represents that he can supply saltpetre in unlimited quantities at less than half existing price. 107
- Paris, May 7, 1767. Rochford to Shelburne (Secret and confidential). Detailed account of state of French finance, of the army, navy and Parliament. Character of Choiseul. Conditions of Court. Choiseul's influence with the several ambassadors. Commercial relations between England and France. 113

- do. to do. Arrival of a packet has given him much satisfaction. Has Halifax, passed grants for 4882 families, 150 more are in preparation. At four for August 13, each family, this makes an addition of 20,120. Several hundred more are 1784.
on lands, and grants will be made as soon as survey work is done. Believes the number located is nearly 30,000. Some quarrelling among those seeking locations. In answer to charge that he is taking large grants for himself and family, he declares that all he has had granted to himself or family is 500 acres one and a half miles from Shelburne, where he proposes to build a small house, to spend part of year in. It is probably the seat of government may be removed to that town. Loyalists' pretensions much above their merits. 115

Halifax,
August 17,

do. to do. Pleased to get letter from Shelburne. Answers complaints. He has, as already said, taken only 500 acres for himself. Incomers all settled either on coast or on shores of rivers, except a few, who desired to settle inland. Has done all in his power to avoid partiality or favoritism in distributing grants. Relies entirely on chief justice for advice; keeps attorney general at a distance, as he is a low fellow. Sometimes deceived in his agents, but applies vigorous remedies. Difficult to please "a discontented, disappointed and over-expecting people." Pleased at separation of new province, and appointment of Carleton as governor. 118

Halifax,
October 6, 1784.

do. to do. Weather for several months very fine. Reports from all quarters of Province generally satisfactory; discontents are subsiding. Hopes he has removed any ill-effects of false reports circulated in England. Impatient for arrival of Governor Carleton. 121

Halifax,
November
20, 1787.

do. to do. In prospect of war, he is putting Province in state of defence. Will have between 8000 and 10000 militia. Fortifications in ruinous condition. Difficulty in command of defence owing to presence of Lieutenant Colonel Ogilvie, with rank of Brigadier General. Departure of Prince William Henry on 12th for Jamaica, after stay of 17 days. He expressed much satisfaction with his visit. 122

Halifax,
October 9,

do. to do. Demands made by Rectors and Church Wardens of Shelburne unreasonable. He made coasting voyage during summer. Among places visited was Shelburne, the appearance of which disappointed him. Reasons for its decline. Fluctuations in Province, but, on the whole, it is flourishing. Admits unlimited toleration; nothing else possible with fanatical distractions. Bishop, Tory, Highchurchman. They agree in general, though differ on education in Academy, the Bishop preferring dead languages and ancient history; the Governor insisting on the moderns. Wretched state of defences of Province. Laments arrangement which made Dorchester governor general, as it lowers his consequence among the people. 124

APPENDIX E

LETTERS FROM GOVERNOR PARR TO LORD SHELBURNE, DESCRIBING THE ARRIVAL AND SETTLEMENT OF THE UNITED EMPIRE
LOYALISTS IN NOVA SCOTIA, 1783-1784

MY LORD,

I have the honor to send Your Lordship by this conveyance, a Map of the Province of Nova Scotia, it is the most accurate, in describing the several parts that are Inhabited, of any hitherto made, and hope it will convey a proper idea of it's valuable situation, there being no one part above Twenty five Miles from the Sea Coast or Navigable River, with the finest and best Harbours in the World, Your Lordship will observe that at present the Sea Coast and Navigable Rivers only are Inhabited.

About 7000 Refugees, including Women and Children, have just arrived from New York, upwards of 3000 of them, are clearing the Country, and building a Town, (agreable to a regular Plan sent them) at Port Bosway, a most excellent Harbour, 33 Leagues from hence W: S: W: near 3000 are gone to settle upon the River St. Johns in the Bay of Fundy, the remainder are gone to Annapolis Royal. I have hitherto done every thing in my power, to relieve the distresses of those poor unfortunate People, and shall continue doing them every good Office, as long as I am able, those at Port Bosway, are exceeding well pleased at their situation and reception. I have not yet heard from either of the other two Settlements but intend immediately after the Kings birthday, to go through all of them.

I have the honor of Your Lordships letter recommending Mr. Goold, nothing will at any time give me greater pleasure, than to have it in my power to be of service to a friend of Your Lordships, but there is really little or nothing in this Province in the Gift of a Governor, which Mr. Goold knows, and hitherto Mr. Townshend has not paid attention to my recommendation, particularly in the instance of Superintendant of Indians I recommended for that Employment a Mr. Cunningham, a Man universally esteemed in the Province, and the most equal to the Office, but he has appointed a Mr. Monck, a Man far from being esteemed or agreable to me, this has hurt my consequence much in the Province.

Accept my Lord of my most sincere thanks, for your attention to my Son Tom, Mr. Clements has informed me how good you have been to me, I hope I shall ever repay it with a steady gratitude; I am at this present moment at the greatest loss imaginable, to know if I am writing to the First Lord of the Treasury, my mind corresponding so strongly with my wishes, tells me I am, if it is not so, Lord have mercy upon us, our latest accounts from London, are the latter end of March my anxiety is not to be describd am afraid I have exceeded the bounds of Your Lordships patience, so shall conclude with my prayers for good News, and Your Lordships health and am with most sincere gratitude My Lord. Your Lordships much obliged faithfull Friend

12 GEORGE V, A. 1922

MY LORD,

I did myself the honor to write to Your Lordship by the last conveyance, in which I particularly mentioned the number of People that had arriv'd from New York, their numbers since that time are considerably encreas'd, to no less than 12000 Souls, the greatest part of them at Port Rosway and the River St. Johns in the Bay of Fundy, I have information of as many more, who intend coming here before New York is evacuated, as well as several who purpose coming from New England, in order to avoid Taxation and the oppression of some of their new Masters; so many coming at the same time, puts me under no small difficultys, the distresses of many and indeed the far greater part of these unfortunate People are not to be describ'd, their sufferings must continue for some time, but when they are properly settled, I have not a doubt of their being a happy People, nothing has hitherto been wanting on my side that could contribute to their comforts, which they have testified upon every occation, and nothing shall be wanting that comes within my power. I am lately returned from a fruitless attempt to explore the Coast and Country as far as Cape Sable, was out ten days, when I was oblig'd to return by Fogs and contrary Winds, my chief object was to see the new Settlement at Port Bosway, which in all probability will in a short time be, the first and most flourishing Town in this Province, I purpose making a fresh trial in two or three days, when I shall be able to give Your Lordship a more perfect account of its Harbour &c.

Government has not yet honored me with their commands, relative to this vast Emigration, I have hitherto acted in the dark, to the best of my abilitys; and flatter myself what has been done will be approv'd of, as they have proceeded from the best motives, humanity and justice.

I can not take my leave of Your Lordship, without expressing my unhappiness and distress at the late unfortunate change, I lament and bemoan it not only personally, but also for the wretched Nation at this present moment, Your Lordship will not think me guilty of flattery, in saying it is a most woefull stroke upon the Constitution. as I shall ever look up to you, not only as my friend, but also as my Minister, I beg Your Lordship will allow me from time to time to communicate the occurrences of this Province, and whatever instructions or commands Your Lordship may honor me with, shall be faithfully observ'd by My Lord

much oblig'd humble Servant

Shelburne, 25th July 1783.

MY LORD,

I did myself the honor to write to Your Lordship a few days ago, expressd my intention of visiting this Coast, particularly that part call'd Port Rosaway, where I arriv'd the 20th, and on the 22d. had the heart felt satisfaction, of shewing a small mark of my gratitude, by naming the first Harbour in the World after Your Lordship, and I flatter myself that the Town will in a very few years, be worthy of so fine a Harbour, its Inhabitants at present are about 7000 Souls, which are every day encreasing from New York, as well as from other parts some of them people of considerable property. the Harbour is about five Miles long, and three and a half broad, the depth of water from five to twelve Fathom, a safe Bay without it for Ships to Anchor in, a deep bold Shore without Rocks or Shoals, and good holding Ground.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

The Town stands upon a gentle rising Ground, the situation most beautifull, the Land good, with a prospect of its being very fertile, some good Timber, the Streets of Shelburne are laid out very regular at Right Angles, the Houses in great forwardness, Industry is seen in every Quarter. my being so particular may seem trifling, but it proceeds from the joy and pleasure I felt, at the universal satisfaction that appeared, upon my naming Your Lordship aloud, and the immediate firing of the Guns in the Town, the Fort, and the Sophie Frigate &c, &c, I then swore in the Magistrates and other Civil Officers. the next day they gave me a Ball, and the Ladys danc'd 'till nearly five, the whole went off exceeding well. I have since had my hands full of business, not of the most agreeable nature, as Your Lordship may well imagine from the variety of Characters, and different Interests of People who compose this Emigration, some of them not very easy to manage, I expect soon the arrival of a Brigade of Blacks consisting of 1500, I shall act to the best of my poor abilities, and if I err it shall not be intentionally, nor from selfish views, my object shall ever be Your Lordships honor as well as my own. I find a vast deal of cunning and design among the people I have to deal with, prolix to a degree, particularly in their writing, for example, I had lately a Petition from a Parson, consisting of no less than seventeen Pages, that I may not appear like him. beg leave to say that I am with great truth and sincerity My Lord

MY LORD,

I have done myself the honor of informing Your Lordship, of the several occurrences that have happened in this Province since my arrival, particularly of the great number of Refugees who have arriv'd from New York &c, they still continue to come to different parts, by two and three Ships at a time, which makes it impossible for me to ascertain their exact numbers, but believe they already amount to about 24,000 Souls, all the Provincial Corps are arriv'd, and chiefly settled upon the River St. John's. The vast Tracts of Land formerly Granted to Individuals, makes it a difficult matter, for me to accomodate so many People agreeable to their wishes. I do my best, and they are thoroughly sensible of it. I have been oblig'd to put Government to an unavoidable expence for Boards &c, in order to preserve many from perishing, but am afraid all will not do, for the oldest man in the Province, does not remember such severe bad Weather, as we have had for some time past.

A Packet being established to run directly from Falmouth to this Place, may I request Your Lordship will do me the honor to write to me, give some Instructions how to act in a Crisis which never happened to any Governor before, whatever Your Lordship may be so good to tell me, shall be regularly attended to. 150 Familys in Connecticut, have just now sent two Agents with a Memorial, to request I would give them a Grant of Land in any part of the Province, and if they succeeded, they assur'd me that at least a fourth part of that Colony would follow them, I have given them every encouragement, and have wrote home for Instructions.

MY LORD,

The final Evacuation of New York having taken place, closes the Emigrations from thence, as well as from other parts, with about 30,000 Souls added to this Province, all of which, except a few lately arriv'd, have got under tolerable Shelter for the Winter, and are accomodated as well as the nature of their situation would admit. yet, notwithstanding that I have used every exertion, have done every thing in my power for them, some few discontented Rascals, at the most distant Settlements, begin to be clamorous and seditious, excepting more than possibly can be done in so short a time, jealous that more is done for one Township than for another, which is not the case, &c, &c, they threaten, and I am told have wrote complaints home against me, without having them made known here, whatever they may be, I am thoroughly well prepar'd to meet. their ungenerous disposition soon shewd itself, upon a late unfortunate change in Administration, which they thought might change their Governor, if he did not comply with every request they made, some of which were highly unreasonable, they gave themselves some airs, but they had no effect with me. there are several Sufferers among them, but at the same time there are many who have been enriched by the late War, and are in far better Circumstances, than they would have been, had there not been a War. Tho they plague me with complaints, and quarrels among themselves &c, I shall continue to render them every good office in my power, and may venture to assert with great confidence, that a very great Majority indeed, approve of my Conduct, but there are some not to be pleased or satisfied.

The Winter has not yet set in with any greater degree of cold, than you generally have in England, at this time of the Year, which is a very fortunate circumstance for our late acquired Inhabitants, particularly for the Disbanded Soldiers, who went so late upon their Lands.

Lord Charles Montague is in the Woods with his Regimt, about five Miles from hence, waiting for the Spring in order to settle upon Land to the Eastward, he has really great merrit for the attention he pays to his People, he is indefatigable, and his Conduct demands my best service and assistance, abstracted from his being the Duke of Manchesters brother, a Friend of Your Lordships. MY LORD

Since I had the honor of writing to Your Lordship, my time has been thoroughly employd, in locating Lands for the Refugees and disbanded Soldiers, and providing for them to the best of my abilities and powers, the expence incurr'd upon the several services will be very considerable particularly in the articles of Surveyors and Boards, I inspect minutely into every charge, and act with as much economy, as if the payment came out of my own pocket, which does not give that satisfaction I could wish, however, I shall continue acting upon the same principle. They are a People very difficult to please:

We have had the mildest Winter ever known in this part of the World, I have seen much worse in England. There would have been a great scarcity of Provisions in the Province, on account of the acquisition of so many Inhabitants, had it not been for the Supplies we have receiv'd from Boston, I admitted (with the advice of Council) their small Craft with Provisions only, which has been a great relief to us, we are now our own Carryers.

I begin to be very impatient to hear from England, not having had any letters since September, am therefore oblig'd to act in the dark in many matters, for want of proper answers. I hear of several more familys, who intend seeking an Asylum in this Province, during the course of next Summer.

A Vessel just getting under way for England, gives me an opportunity of acknowledging the receipt of Your Lordships letter of the 4th Ulto.

Capt. De Meyern's request was forthwith comply'd with, and a Warrant of Survey given his Agent for 700 Acres, a Captains proportion of Land.

I am happy to hear that Your Lordship has so well got over a very severe fit of Gout, Lord Cornwallis writes to me that it will do you a great deal of good, it's paying confounded dear, for Gods sake my Lord do not Quack.

I understand some complaints have been sent from the Loyalists lately arrived in this Province, whatever they may be I can set my face against them, from a thorough self conviction, that it was not in the power of Man to assist them more than I have done, having acted from inclination to alleviate their distresses, as well as my being aware from the beginning, that if I had neglected them, that if I had not paid them every attention, many there are who would have been ready and happy, to throw the blame and accuse my noble friend who sent me here. this consideration has ever been uppermost. to it I have sacrificed my time, rest, quiet and emolument, as to partialitys I could have none, being equally unknown and unconnected in the whole Continent of America. I have acted with the greatest caution, knowing their Eyes were upon every action, and that Your Lordships Credit was concerned. I have refused complying with many of their requests, they were unreasonable. I have now the satisfaction to say they are in better temper, and are getting on exceeding well, the interiour parts of the Country, that have never been explor'd till of late, proves to be much better Land than was expected, for the first time, a Ship load of Horses has lately been sent to the West Indies, several Saw Mills are erecting in different parts, we shall be able to send there a considerable quantity of Lumber. the progress at Shelburne is amazing, they have open'd Roads. 35 Miles into the Country towards Annapolis, a communication between those two Towns will soon be open'd. I can perceive a great alteration in the conduct of some People here, since the late happy change in the Ministry, they do not now talk of turning me out. MY LORD,

I did myself the honor to write to Your Lordship by the Adamant & St. Lawrence, in it I mention'd my having sent the Chief Justice to the River St. John, in order to enquire in the complaints and disagreements of the Loyalists settling there, he is just return'd, after having quieted the minds of almost all the People except their own Agents, who are the real cause of their grievance, those Men were recommended to me by Sir Guy Carleton, as Proper Persons to Locate Lands for the Refugees, from his recommendation I fix'd great dependance upon them, but instead of executing that business, with every possible Dispatch and Impartiality they have prevented the unfortunate Refugees, from getting upon thir Lands as early as otherwise they might have done, and all from a cursed selfish Idea, that the Tract of Country upon the other side of the Bay of Fundy, was to be form'd into a separate Government, when they expected to be appointed to the principal Offices, and to have the sole management, and distribution of the Lands of that new Government.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 30

I assure you my Lord that the retarding of this new Settlement, has distressed me exceedingly, and has given me much uneasiness, lest it might have been thought that those delays proceeded from me, after having pledg'd myself, that the Lands should be ready Survey'd &c, &c, by the time the Snow was off the Ground, such a horrid Idea, could exist only in the minds of some of those Rascalls I have to deal with, they make my situation at times, rather uncomfortable. however, with the assistance of the Chief Justices abilities, and an honest, fair, and impartial Conduct, I hope to be able in a short time, to establish matters upon a just and proper footing.

In every other new Settlement in the Province, we get on exceeding well, in establishing Fisherys, Erecting Towns, and buildings Saw Mills; in less than two Years I hope we shall be able to furnish the West Indies with all the Lumber they may want; and I also flatter myself, that this Province will be in time, of the greatest consequence to the Mother Country. This will be deliverd to Your Lordship by Mr. Finucane, Brother to the Chief Justice he has been here some Years, Secretary to the General's and was with his Brother at the River St. John, he is clever and inteligent, to him I refer Your Lordship for many particulars, that I can not so well explain by letter.

I begin to be very impatient, to hear how matters have gone since the Dissolution of Parliament, I have not a doubt but that they are consonant to the wishes of My Lord.

I have some reason to think the Chief Justice has wrote to his friend Mr. McNamara, I suppose he has been explicit, and if Your Lordship wishes to be fully informd of the disposition of the People upon the River St. John, with the causes of their complaints, I think you may be able to get at them by that letter.

Shelburne Papers, Vol. 88, p. 110.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to inform Your Lordship for your private information, that the Loyalists in the several new Settlements of this Province, are settling upon, and clearing their Lands, with great industry and expedition, all seemingly happy and contented with the prospect that is before them, both as to Fishing and Farming. except upon the River St. John, where Party and Faction prevent their succeeding, so well as in the other Settlements, the great distance and difficulty of access from this Peninsula to that part of the Province, making it often impracticable for me to determine upon cases which daily occur, has induced me to recommend to Lord Sydney, the forming of that side of the Bay of Fundy into a seperate Government, it would contribute greatly to the content and prosperity of those unfortunate People, and all Business would be carried on with more expedition and accuracy. I find there are many turbulent Spirits among them, who abound with groundless complaints and false representations, and their Agents replete with gross partialitys, it will be a difficult task, to bring about a good understanding, between a Refugee from one of the four Northern Colonies, and those from the Southern, to make them think they are one and the same People, and that their Interest is mutual, this is one great cause of disagreement among themselves. a Transport arriv'd a few days ago from St. Augustine, with 260 miserable Wretches, without a shilling, naked, and destitute of almost every necessary of life, I have taken proper care of them; between 5 and 600 Familys of Quakers at Pensilvania and the Jerseys, have apply'd to me to be transported here, I have referd their request to Lord Sydney, as well as applications from several Familys in Connecticut, Cape Ann &c, the latter several months ago. here I am to lament, the not having answers to my several letters, not only in this case, but also in many others, the distracted state of the Nation, easily accounts for this, we are not without our private Cabals here, indeed My Lord it would be an impossibility to be otherwise, where almost the whole of the People is composed of Scotch, and a very bad addition of the Yankee Race, each Party would be happy to have a Governor of their own Country, the one being as National as the other, they keep me constantly employd, and do not suffer me to eat the bread of idleness.

We have not yet receivd an account of the meeting of Parliament, I am all impatience to know Mr. Pitt's majority, have not a doubt of its being considerable. I have the honor to be with great truth My Lord Your Lordships

MY LORD

The arrival of a Packet has made me very happy as it confirms so great a Majority in the House of Commons, of which I most sincerely congratulate Your Lordship. as my mind tells me you at present fill some high Office, I am afraid my Correspondance may be troublesome, notwithstanding I can not be silent, shall inform Your Lordship in as few words as possible, that Grants have passt the Great Seal of the Province for 4882 Families, other Grants are in the several Offices for 150, which at the calculation of four to each Family makes 20,120 Souls, this calculation is rather under. several Hundred Families more are upon their Lands, but Grants not preparing for want of proper returns from the Surveyors. I may venture to say that in the whole, the Number of Souls located, amount to near 30,000.

There are still several Families unlocated, owing to disputes among themselves, quareling for the same spot, all wishing to be upon the Sea Coast, great partialitys commited by their Agents and Surveyors, the principal of the latter at Shelburne, has fled for fear of being Hanged by the Populace, which certainly would have been the case, had he remain'd there a few hours longer, another at the River St. John Drowned himself, for fear of being detected in his villainies, in short My Lord there are many of them like Sharks preying upon each other, as they would upon the Public were they permitted, the lower Class of People are quiet and industrious.

I find representations have been made already against me, to endeavour to raise prejudices, it's said that I have given large tracts and Grants of Land to my own family, whilst the Loyalists are neglected. I declare to Your Lordship upon my honor, that I have not taken to myself, family or friends a single Acre in the whole Province, directly or indirectly, except a 500 Acre Lott, at the distance of a Mile and a half from Shelburne, where there is a small Cove, I purpose building a little House on it, and to go there every Year for a short space, of time, the Land just there is of very little value, another reason for my fixing upon this spot is, the probability of the seat of Government being removed there, one day or other. I flatter myself Your Lordship will put this representation, down among several other Lies and falshoods that have already been raised, and may hereafter be raised against My Lord.

The Loyalists in general rate their pretensions much above their intrinsic value, that no effort of mine can gratify them, in short I have a most unpleasant difficult Game to play, and have not the assistance that is necessary upon the occasion.

I must here again lament my not hearing from Your Lordship, it distresses me exceedingly as well as not receiving regular answers to several of my letters to the Secretary of State. this may have arose from the late instability of the Ministry, but now I trust that difficulty is quite remov'd.

Shelburne Papers, Vol. 88, p. 115.

MY LORD,

Your Lordships letter, with one from Mr. Clements have made me very happy, as they inform me, of some misrepresentations that have been made to my prejudice.—I have already explained one to Your Lordship respecting large Grants of Land to my family; that being well aware of the times, I had but taken one 500 Acre Lott near Shelburne; the greater and best part of which is located to Loyalists. no Predecessor of mine ever took less than 20,000, but this I denied myself till the whole of those unfortunate People were settled.—I have not sent any one Person into the interior parts of the Province, except a few who wish'd to go there, they are all settled upon the Sea Coast, and Navigable Rivers, which has been attended with great difficulties.—I have not Granted Lands to any of the old Inhabitants, that might in the least interfere with the Loyalists, in order to prevent any disputes between them.

As to distributing Lands partialy, I declare it has been done to the best of my abilities, without partiality favour or affection, some have drawn better Lotts than others, and from false representations probably larger quantities, but this was a thing impossible to avoid, upon so great an Influx of People almost all at, or near the same time.—I am really not conscious of having been led by any Man in particular, in points of Law I have consulted the Chief Justice, and found it necessary to send him to the River St. John, in order to enquire into complaints there, and to make his Report upon them, thus far I have only consulted him, have always found him, manly, liberal, and a Gentlemanlike Companion. The Attorney General I keep at as great a distance as any man in the Province, he is a low fellow.—another absurd report is, that I have dispossessed some of the Loyalists, and placed others upon their land, no such thing was ever attempted, or ever came to my knowledge.—Those are the out lines of such complaints I have hitherto been inform'd of, which Your Lordship may be assured are totally groundless, no complaint can be brought home to me, at least where I have erred intentionally, 'tis true I have had several Rascalls acting under me, principally Surveyors, but am turning them out as fast as I find them out. I have also been deceived in the Characters of some Men, time will set me right here. as to dirt or peculation of any kind whatever, no man upon Earth can be freer. I have here made Your Lordship my Physician, have told every sympton bad as well as good, shall ever do so. have been so prolix, lest the least doubt should remain relative to my conduct—it is a most difficult Task, to please a discontented, disapointed and over expecting People.

Now my Lord allow me to intrude a minute longer, by turning the other side of the Picture, which will shew the unwearied pains I have taken to settle those unfortunates my constant attendance and application to their Business, alleviating their distresses to the utmost of my power, and relieving Individuals even to the detriment of my own family.

I am exceedingly oblig'd to Your Lordship for opening your door to my friend Mr. Clements, shall communicate confidentially with him, I understand he is just now

I can not let the present opportunity slip, without informing Your Lordship, that we have had for several Months past the finest Weather I ever saw in my life, which has given me great pleasure, as it affords the Loyalists so good an opportunity of clearing and cultivating their Lands, and of geting under better Shelter, with several other conveniencies.

My Reports from almost all Quarters are satisfactory, and in general pleasing, there are some discontents, arising from envy and jealousies, but they are beginning to subside very fast. I have found out some honest Men, among those who came lately to settle in the Province, who are of great assistance to me in the distant Settlements, I stood in great need of them.

I flatter myself that long ere this, Your Lordship has been thoroughly convinc'd of the falshood of the several reports propagated in London against me, reports not known on this side the Atlantic, I must own my feelings were effected much lest Your Lordship should credit any one of them. By a letter from Lord Sydney dated 21st, Sepr. there is every appearance of a War, in consequence of which, I have taken the earliest opportunity, to get ready against any sudden Attack, at least as far as is in my Department, by preparing the Militia as well as the Season will admit of, we have in the Province between eight and ten Thousand Men fit to bear Arms. The Fortifications of this Garrison are in a most ruinous defenceless state, our whole Force in Halifax does not amount to 600 Effectives, with one 50 Gun Ship, one Frigate of 28, and a small Sloop of War, should the French pay us a Visit in the Spring from the West Indies, we have no force to resist them, this Harbour and Dock Yard, are Objects well worth their attention. should they attempt it, I shall have a difficult Card to play, the Lieut. Shelburne Papers, Vol. 88, p. 122.

MY LORD,

I am honored with Your Lordships letter of the 15th July, enclosing a requisition from the Rectors and Church Wardens of Shelburne, a request which they had no right to make, as I had given them some time ago £400 out of the money granted by Parliament for building Churches which is £100 more than any other Settlement, and that purely for its namesake, I have therefore subscribed only twenty Guineas for Your Lordship which I think sufficient.

I have been this Summer upon a Coasting Voyage, exploring several new Settlements to the Westward, among them Shelburne, the appearance of which distressed me exceedingly, upwards of two thirds of the Town being uninhabited, and the Country not so well Cultivated as might have been expected, the reasons are obvious the first class of People who arrived there previous To the evacuation of New York, were composed chiefly of the Dregs and Banditti of that Town, of Boston, of other Sea Ports with upwards of 1000 Disbanded Soldiers, who returned to the United States and other parts, as soon as the Provisions &c allowed by Government ceased. Others spent what money they had in building fine Houses, which they sold together with their Lands for mere trifles, then went away. And latterly some have gone off, after receiving Compensation for their losses. The generality of those who came here, were not much burthened with Loyalty, a spacious name which they made use of. Fishing which I so strongly recommended, should have been their chief Object, which they neglected, some from a want of knowledge, others from a want of Cash to carry on that usefull Branch of Business. Those who remain at Shelburne are permanent Settlers, and I flatter myself it will again flourish, from its peculiar situation for Trade, and the excellency of it's Harbour. I am sorry to observe that several other new Settlements have decreased in numbers, but many or indeed most of those who are gone could be well spared, they are partly replaced by a more Industrious Race, however upon the whole, the Province is in a flourishing State.

I perfectly agree with Your Lordship in admitting an unlimited Toleration, a Rule I have strictly observed Ever since my arrival here, and should have found many inconveniencies and disagreeable religious controversies had I not done so, particularly among the people whose Doctrines and principles fluctuate, with every new Hipocritical Canting Rascal, who comes among them from their Enthusiastic friends in the States. Our Bishop is a high Churchman, one who never drank the Glorious memory of King William 'till I made him, we agree very well in general, but differ in some points, particularly in those Your Lordship did me the honor to mention. having from the first institution of the Academy, preferred the living to the dead Languages, modern to antient Learning, he wishees the reverse, but he will not succeed as I have a great majority of the Governors of the Academy with me.

I am just returned from exploring some of the interior parts of the Province, therefore have not had time to enquire the expence &c of Building a Wooden Cottage, but by the next conveyance hope to be able to furnish Your Lordship with the particulars. I found the people in the Country very industrious, in Clearing and Cultivating their Lands.

I am greatly obliged to Your Lordship for your Politics of Europe, particularly so for that part relative to Halifax in case we should be involved in a War. I may safely say, there never was upon Earth a place of such consequence to a Nation as this is to England, so totally neglected, and in such a miserable state of Defence, scarce a Gun mounted for want of Carriages, not one Embrasure or Merlin in order, a small Garrison, commanded not by a Ferdinand or Wolfe. If any thing was to be attempted, I should be at the greatest loss to know how to act, from my not having the smallest share or command in any thing Military, my situation would be awkward as well as highly distressing. For, notwithstanding Lord Dorchesters appointment does not in any degree interfere with me, yet his Rank being so highly elevated, and mine debased hinders the people at large who are not conversant with this matter, from shewing me that respect and attention, which the Dignity of my Office entitles me to, and which is absolutely necessary to carry on the Kings Business. I can not here avoid taking the liberty to observe to Your Lordship, that in my humble opinion there never was a more absurd Idea thought of, or a more ridiculous Appointment struck out, than that of Lord Dorchesters, no one here has yet been able to see the use of it.

I have the satisfaction to inform Your Lordship, that my Son who you was so good to send to India, has by his good Conduct and Behaviour, attracted the notice and attention of Lord Cornwallis. I have the honor to be with great truth and sincerity My Lord.
