Reasons Why The C. Is The Best

The Charlottetown Business College's claims of superiority are not based on hot air, bombast or broadside bragosity.

The equipment of this college is complete in every respect. There are enough typewriters, forms, etc., for every student, and therefore none are kept back and none especially favored. The teachers are the best that can be secured and the location idealright in the heart of the business district-the courses plain, practical and full of "usable" knowledge.

Students who graduate from this institution are QUALIFIED to cope with any problem that is placed before them in actual practice. This institution is the only one in the Province to turn out successful verbatim reporters.

The courses cover bookkeeping, auditing, type writing, shorthand, brokerage, banking, business cor respondence, navigation, engineering and Civil Service preparatory exams.

Headaches

It takes a person who has had and is subject to headache to describe the suffering which attends it. The dull throbbing, the intense pain, sometimes in one part of the head, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indicates that there is something amiss with the system. The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches the seat of the trouble is due to its success in relieving and permanently curing the cause of the headache.

All Hail, Jesus Mary, Ail Hail!

(Continued from last week.) "Certainly not, my dear obild'. Fasting was very common among he Jews, either on occasions of private sorrow or of public repentance. Besides these, which were only vol un'ary, the law of Moses ordained a general fast on one particular day of the year, which was for this reason called the day of atonement."

"But were the little children obiged to fast under the old law, Father Pierre?" asked Madeleine, with a shy lance at ber sister.

"Not absolutely to fast," he anwered, almost langhing at little Nina's look of consternation; "but whenever a Jawish mother consecrated one of her children to God (as was sometimes the case), she wine and certain kinds of meat. "Well. Nina." answered Father Pierre, "should such a misfortune occur again during the time of Holy Lent, try and take it as a little penance sent you, iastead of the fast Paradise in punishment of his sinse imposed upon your elders. Remember, that it your beavenly Father does not require little children to fast, He at least expects them to be always cheerfully obedient to the will of their superiors."

"Your good book was quite in the ight," said Father Pierre. "The fast from sin is the great object of our Lenten mortifications, and the fast from food is chiefly to be considered as a means of obtaining this

"That is, I suppose," said old Martha, "because Almighty God rewords our penance by granting us a reater grace to resist temptation." "Basides this additional grace, which is certainly given," observed the Father, "the soul also requires a greater command over the body; strengthens and tones the stomach and for if she can compel it to refrain rom food, which is its most natural nolinstion, she can surely curb it in its more evil propensities. It is therefore an expellent plan to take some particular fault, and to try and subsude it during this holy season, when additional graces are given ufor the purpose, Toerefore, I am quite sure that my little Nina will now really begin to conquer ber temper; Madeleine will te more orderly in the care of the household and Marie will never be so late for
