Town and County News.

A New Paper has been started in the village of Rond Eau, under the title of the Rond Eau News.

The County of Peel Fall Exhibition will be held at Brampton, on the 7th and 8th of October, when upwards of $1,800 will be offered in prizes.

The Brampton Brass Band, on their return from the Guelph Exhibition, were entertained at a supper at the Brampton House, over 60 persons being present.

We believe it has been decided not to hold any Show in Mount Forest this year but to prepare for an extensive affair to be held next season.—Examiner.

HAMALL'S SERENADES at the Town Hall to-night. Something entertaining may be expected from this fine troupe, who, we observe, are favorably noticed by sundry of our exchanges.

JOSEPH ARCH.—We are glad to notice that Mr. Arch is making himself acquainted with the character of Ontario farming and that he is likely to visit Guelph. He is now in the Niagara district, and the Globe says that on Wednesday he will probably visit the Central Fair, at Hamilton, and afterwards he and Col. Denison will start on a trip through the country in the direction of Guelph and Galt.

THE ARTILLERY.—This afternoon at 4 p.m. the Wellington Field Battery will be inspected by Col. Taylor, D.A.G., on the grounds in rear of Mr. Lemon's residence; and on Tuesday at 2 p.m. by Col. French, Inspector of Artillery, in the same place. The camp will break up on Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning next. The battery is composed of four guns; four officers—Captain McDonald, Lieutenants McCrea and Nicoll, and Assistant-Surgeon McDonald; 64 men, and 51 horses. They are being instructed by Staff-Sergeant Clark, R.A.

TWO SUMMER DAYS.—Everybody is remarking the great heat of Saturday and Sunday. Taken in connection with some of the very cool weather of the past summer, it is as though the clerk of the weather was amusing himself with a little transposition—as though he had kept back two midsummer days until now, supplying their place with abstracting two fall days from the then future autumn. On Sunday the thermometer stood at over 80 degrees in the shade, and 96 degrees in the sun. The ladies were equal to the occasion, and the streets and churches were made gay by the light and graceful summer toilettes, which were thought to have been things of the past so far as this year was concerned.

POLICE COURT.
(Before the Mayor) Sept. 27.
THE AGRICULTURAL FARM CASE.
At the adjourned hearing of the charge made by Mr. Stone against Messrs. Stark and Hall, at four o'clock this afternoon, Mr. McCandless read the following telegram from Mr. McKellar:—
"Stark and Hall are authorized to take possession of the buildings on Stone's farm for the Government."
Mr. Stone said that he bore no ill-will whatever against the prisoners, but as they could produce no authority whatever for their extraordinary conduct, he had no alternative but to set as he had done. He was going to Toronto on Monday, when he hoped to have the whole matter settled in relation to the Agricultural Farm.
The case was then remanded until next Thursday, and the prisoners were bailed out on their own recognizances.

The Scott Murder.
The examination of Lepine commenced on Friday before Judge Bortney and Justice McIntosh. The question of jurisdiction was raised by Mr. Royal, and argued at length. Mr. Cornish appeared for the prosecution. The Court ruled that this Court had nothing to do with jurisdiction. Evidence was to be heard, when upon the question of an interpreter, proceedings were stopped, and the Court adjourned.

We have received last Saturday's Grip from John Anderson. The cartoon represents John A. and Mackenzie in conversation. Both figures are exceedingly characteristic and well drawn. John A. is remarking "I admit I took the money and bribed the electors with it; is there anything wrong about that?" Underneath is a quotation from last Friday's Mail:—"We in Canada seem to have lost all ideas of justice, honor and integrity."
On Friday morning a man as "Phillips" fell from a three story building a distance of some forty feet, by striking some two-inch planks projecting from the end of a wagon laden with bricks; the force of his fall was weakened, although the blow was sufficient to smash the planks. It was found that beyond a contusion of the leg was all.

The Provincial Show.

FAT CATTLE.
The animals actually shown in this class fall short of the entries considerably. Some shown last week in Guelph have not reached London. Among those conspicuous for their absence may be named the splendid steers owned by Mr. John S. Armstrong of Eramosa. Owing to their non-appearance Mr. George Thompson, of Whitby, has no rival, and his really fine animals had all their own way.

HEREFORDS.
In its report of the London Fair, the Globe says in reference to Herefords:—"They make splendid beavers and are not bad milkers. They are easier kept than the shorthorns, and surer breeders than the shorthorns. However, Mr. Stone explained the fact that he has, that year after year, a single breeder makes nearly a clean sweep of the prize list. Mr. F. W. Stone, whose tenacious regard for this valuable breed of animals is very praiseworthy, has only a single rival at the present exhibition, in the person of Mr. George Hood, also of Guelph, who shows a bull and a heifer, the bull bred by Mr. Stone, and the heifer by her exhibitor, Dan Verbena, by Carlisle. It is almost needless to enumerate the various animals shown by Mr. Stone. They are a splendid lot, and would distinguish themselves not the showing rings of their native country. Indeed, we are not sure but that, as in the case of the shorthorns imported by Mr. Cochrane, a transferee to Canadian pastures has improved them. Commander-in-Chief and Canadian Knight, the two four year old bulls on the ground, first shown by Mr. Stone, and the second by Mr. Hood, are both choice animals. The younger bulls and all the females, with the exception above named, are from the Moreton Lodge herd, and as the various lots presented themselves in the ring, with their solemn looking faces and goodly proportions, it was impossible for any connoisseur in cattle to withhold from them the meed of admiration. Mr. Stone shows seven bulls of various ages, three aged cows of which Vester 4th is the Queen, three three year olds, three two year olds, and it is not much to say that there is not a single inferior specimen among them. Nearly all the proprietors of refreshment booths on the London Fair grounds were brought before the Police Magistrate on Friday, charged with unlawfully selling liquor. In each case a fine of $50 and costs was imposed.

Base Ball Match.

Below we give the score of the game in Seaforth on Saturday between nine from the Maple Leaf and the Star Club of that village. The game was a poor affair all through. Spectators say the umpiring was very partial, balls and strikes being too frequently called. Our boys say the Seaforth Club are good players; but we have no hesitation in saying they would find their hands full if our fellows took hold of them in earnest. Owing to the fact that ballists are out of practice now, and little interest generally being taken in the game by Guelph people so near the close of the season, we decline giving a fuller report.

The Royal Commission.

The Commissioners met at 11 o'clock Saturday and called the name of John A. Perkins, a Montreal lawyer. Mr. Perkins failed to answer, the fact being that he had refused to obey the summons. The Court then adjourned till 3 p.m., at which time, resuming, Mr. Abbott's depositions were read over and signed. The corrections made by the witness were few and unimportant, and no attempt was made to extract further information from him. At four o'clock the Court adjourned.

AN EFFICIENT WATCHMAN.—Two desperadoes were made early on Friday morning by five ruffians, to overcome the watchmen at the Treasurer's office on the Fair Grounds, for the purpose of robbing the Association safe. Several shots were exchanged between the burglars and the watchmen, and it is believed one of the former was wounded. Nothing has been discovered to assist in identifying the rascals. Some persons express the belief that the reported attack on the Treasurer's office was set off by the watchmen with a view to obtaining a reward for supposed bravery. On the other hand it has been reported that a man left the city by train on Friday, said to have been indicted with a knife, but which is thought to have been the effect of pistol shots fired by the watchmen in repelling the attack.

THE TIMBER REGION.—It is authoritatively stated by western exchanges that the quantity of timber likely to be cut in the timber regions of Michigan the usual quantity. We announce the fact in the hope that it may influence some of our Canadian young men who contemplate going there to well consider their chances before making the venture. It is alleged by the Tribune that wages will not average more than twenty-eight dollars per month during the ensuing winter, at which figure numbers are willing to make engagements, while in past seasons men earned from thirty to thirty-five dollars per month and board.

CHEAP MUSIC.—At Day's Bookstore fine choice and selected polkas for pianoforte for 60 cents.

BY TELEGRAPH.

M. Thiers and the Left.

Skirmish in Cuba.

Yellow Fever in Memphis.

The Panic.

Bombardment of Carthage.

London, Sept. 29, 6 a.m.—The Times' special despatch from Paris says:—M. Thiers, on his return to that city, will assume the leadership of the party of the Left.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Louise Mullback, the celebrated German novelist, is dead.

Madrid, Sept. 27.—General Ceballos and Minister Mazonave arrived at Alicante on Friday, and were enthusiastically received by the people. The efforts of the foreign consuls to prevent bombardment of the city by insurgent men-of-war failed. Admiral Yelverton declined to go beyond his instructions from London, which were to maintain an absolutely neutral position. All merchant shipping left the port and anchored outside the harbor, and the city was at the last moment offered to stop hostilities, but the English and French commanders refused to join him in the act. The bombardment opened at five o'clock Saturday morning, and 600 projectiles, some filled with petroleum, were thrown into the city, and the German commander at the last moment offered to stop hostilities, but the English and French commanders refused to join him in the act. Havana, Sept. 25.—In a skirmish in Java on the 20th with the Insurgents the Spaniards killed ten and took several prisoners, and the Spaniards had eighteen wounded.

There is a panicky feeling here among bankers and merchants.

Memphis, Sept. 28.—There were sixteen yellow fever interments here to-day. The weather is very unfavorable for abatement of the disease.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—The representatives of all banks and savings institutions in this city met to-night, and agreed to suspend payment of currency.

The Late Mr. E. F. Heath.

Another venerable and honored man has gone from amongst us. Edmund Field Heath died at Puslinch on Saturday, at the ripe old age of fourscore years. The Major—as he was usually called—first saw the light in Nottingham, England, and was one of the earliest pioneers of Puslinch, having settled in 1832 on the farm upon which he died. He was an exceedingly useful man in his generation. His nature was a generous one, and he showed throughout his long life a high sense of honor and a rectitude of character, with a hearty countenance for the scheming trickery now unfortunately too prevalent in our country. Many a poor unfortunate was indebted to him for good sound practical advice and assistance; and whether in capacity of magistrate or neighbor he was always a peacemaker. Many offices of trust and honor were filled by him during his long residence in Puslinch. He was one of the oldest magistrates in the county, having been on the Commission of the Peace for nearly 40 years.

Mr. Heath's funeral will take place at the family burying-ground, near his late residence, on Tuesday next.

Free and Easy Evidence.

The Commissioners have, in one point, especially justified the confidence placed in them by Sir John. At an early stage in the proceedings that gentleman protested against hearsay evidence being received. This was quite correct and proper; but at various stages since it has turned that what he meant was a hearsay evidence against the Government should be received, but that any amount of that kind of proof in its favor would be acceptable. Thus Sir John was allowed to swear that he heard that the Reformers were spending two dollars to one that the Tories spent in the elections, and his statement was fairly received as evidence—without the Premier even being asked who told him so. On Friday this feature was exhibited in a marked manner. Mr. Thomas White, who has been specially eager to do a little general swearing on behalf of his Ottawa friends that he has hovered around the Capital for nearly a week at the expense of the expense of the country, informed the Court that he had heard that $25,000 had been raised by the supporters of Mr. Jette, and that he understood that Carter's bribery fund to a great extent had gone in favor of his opponent. Mr. Langevin also heard evidence against the fact that Mr. C. had spent $15,000, and understood that Cauchon's opponent (Ross) had spent $30,000. Mr. Langevin, who seems to have devoted himself actively to picking up rumors as he did to picking $32,600 from Allan, also swore that he had heard that the Kamouraska candidate spent eight or nine thousand dollars each, and that in Bellechase the expenditure was very large.

The object of this so-called evidence was to create the impression that the innocent and clean-handed Sir John had really been very moderate in his bribery work. But it is quite clear that the evidence furnished is entirely worthless. Sir John did not attempt to swear of his own knowledge that he was met with any corrupt expenditure in Kingston; nor did Langevin swear to anything definite of the kind in his own constituency. Each took his stand on rumors, and neither was asked to name the author of these rumors, so as to trace the reports to their source and find out whether there was any truth in them. The understanding between Macdonald and his Commissioners apparently was to create suspicion of the Reformers, but to afford no definite proof—insomuch as no such proof could be obtained. It is of a piece with their whole proceedings to demand positive evidence on oath of everything against the Government and leave scope for unlicensed lying on their behalf. That is the sum total of the matter.—Hamilton Times.

The Panic in Wall Street.

The causes of this panic are not difficult to discover nor to explain. It would have seemed idle to contend for a truisim so palpable and conclusive as that a banker cannot, without inviting disaster, invest his deposits on call in railway bonds; or combine the business of railway promotion and banking. And it is just that folly and this impossible feat that Jay Cooke & Co. were in the act of attempting when they succumbed. The first named error is an old one; it has ruined many a prosperous firm and many a promising undertaking, and doubtless will again. Depositors discovered the misapplication of their funds in this case, and because Jay Cooke & Co. could not meet their demands with Northern Pacific 7 per cent., or with pine lands at Puget Sound, there remained only the other alternative of putting up their shunters. Gambling with depositors' money in a crime; but we shall, for charity's sake, admit that their investment in the bonds of an unconstructed railway, projected to run in great part through a desert, was only an error, for which the prospect of extravagant commissions affords a very inadequate excuse.

The panic which began on Thursday week may be described as a railway panic. Kenyon, Cox & Co., closed their doors because they were loaded down with Canada Southern bonds, which they could not sell, though the securities of a first-class and finished railway, and with the backing of such a financial magnate as Mr. Daniel Drew. Upon the line itself the effect is that work is stopped. Employees have, we hear, been generally discharged, and the Company, for the time, placed in the most serious embarrassment. Jay Cooke & Co. sunk beneath a load of Northern Pacific bonds; and it is reasonable to assume that in the absence of such persistent and energetic promoters, slow progress will be made in building the funds necessary to carry on this colossal and most unpromising undertaking. Fisk & Hatch had made large advances on Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad bonds. On Friday last their directors on call asked them for $1,700,000 within a few hours after opening in the morning; as money could not be borrowed on their securities, the only recourse was suspension, and, perhaps, bankruptcy. The discredit of railway securities has thrown the New York and Oswego Midland Railway Company into the hands of a receiver, and an order has been issued requiring the Company to show cause by the 2nd of October why it should not be declared an involuntary bankrupt.

Once that panic was set afoot by these large railway-banking firms, the contagion spread almost unchecked. Nearly all the other firms suspended for the same reason, viz.: that stocks tumbled, and their customers could not make good their margins in time. If, therefore, the panic commenced with the large firms mentioned, it was extended and intensified by the speculative stock-broking firms who act for the horde of speculators behind the scenes, that are determined to grow rich by operating in stocks. "Our customers failed to make good their margins," is the story of nine out of every ten houses that failed. This is an instructive commentary at once on the kind of business carried on in Wall Street, and also on the effect upon a nation of an irredeemable paper currency. These stock firms are largely supported by the money of all sorts of people, who, disgusted with the ordinary, old-fashioned ways of making money, are determined to get rich right off by taking advantage of the fluctuations in the currency and in the price of stocks. It cannot be denied that this spirit of speculation has been fostered and developed, as it never was before, by the present condition of the currency. In Philadelphia it is remarked that where fifteen stock-jobbing firms answered the needs of that city before the war, it now requires at least fifty. And there is not the slightest risk in making the assertion that, until the currency is placed on a sound footing, this state of things will not only continue, but will wax worse and worse. If whiskey is a curse, an irredeemable paper currency is a tenfold more blighting curse.—Monetary Times.

"THE ALDINE" for October contains several rare gems of art, among which are four full-page pictures, each a masterpiece. Mr. J. S. Davis has a lovely picture called "Nutting," a group of children beneath chestnut trees; Mr. A. Lawrie gives a grand view of Elizabeth Valley, in the Adirondack Region of New York; Mr. H. Hunt is represented by the "Eve of St. Agnes;" and Mr. Girotto has a characteristic sketch of Harsen Mansion, in the City of New York. Besides these great pictures, there are a number of excellent views by celebrated artists. The literary contents of this number of The Aldine are very brilliant, and embrace a variety of entertaining and instructive subjects. This excellent art journal is published at $5 a year, by Messrs. J. Sutton & Co., 58 Maiden Lane, New York, and is a work which no lover of the beautiful in art should be without.

"THE MECHANICS' MAGAZINE," the Canadian Patent Office Record and Mechanics' Magazine, has been sent us by Mr. John Anderson. An old liking for mechanical matters has led us to examine it with much interest. It is full of information as to the latest improvements in mechanical science, and the more important are illustrated with well-executed woodcuts. The contents include scientific jottings of varied character. Railway and building matters are also touched upon—and in this connection we noticed in a former number a fine engraving of the new Toronto post-office—a magnificent building, but spoiled, in our opinion, by "too much massiveness." The magazine is issued monthly

The Reason Why.
 The reason why the magnificent Retail Grocery Establishments in the Alma Block and on Lower Wyndham Street, belonging to John A. Wood, are so very popular with the intelligent public:—
 Because the Goods are all of the best quality.
 Because the Prices are invariably the lowest.
 Because the Clerks are courteous and obliging.
 Because the Stock is the largest to select from.
 Because the goods are always clean.
 Because the Weights and Measures are always correct.
 Because, in fact, the proprietor understands his business, desires to please his customers, makes good use of his capital, and buys for cash in the best markets, and always deals liberally with those who honor his stores with their custom.—
 These and many other weighty reasons have contributed very largely to make the name of John A. Wood, as connected with the Grocery trade of Guelph, so well known, and his stores so very popular.

Guelph Evening Mercury
 MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 29, 1873
 The Agricultural College Difficultly.

Public curiosity has been greatly excited by the extraordinary case in the police court on Saturday. Nothing transpired in court in explanation of the strange proceedings at Morton Lodge; and beyond the surmise that they probably arose from a difficulty between Mr. Stone and the Provincial Government, the general public could glean nothing definite. A further sitting of the court on Saturday afternoon, and the production of Mr. McKellar's letter, did little more than confirm this surmise. It is not often that negotiations for the sale of a farm culminate in a police-court, and when the parties to the negotiation are amongst the most prominent men in Ontario it is all the more strange and regrettable that such an unseemly incident could not have been avoided. The facts of the case are about as follows:—

Our readers are aware that the Ontario Legislature at its last session authorized the Ministry to purchase Mr Stone's farm of Morton Lodge. In pursuance of this, a preliminary agreement of purchase was drawn up in April last, by which Mr. Stone undertook to sell Morton Lodge Farm to the Government for $75,000; to furnish satisfactory title; to give possession of the house on the 1st May last, and of the farm on the 1st December next. The offer of Mr Stone was only open to the 1st of March last, whereas the House did not give final authority for the purchase until after the date. This enabled Mr Stone to obtain some further concessions from the Government, one of which was that he should retain possession of the farm until the coming December, and have the benefit of this year's crops. Some delay then ensued in procuring a proper title, partly in consequence of documents being required from a person in England; and it is only lately that this obstacle was got over. Then another difficulty arose. The farm was understood to contain 550 acres at the time Mr. Stone offered it for sale; but he had bought it in several parcels, and when an accurate measurement came to be made, the acreage was found to be 583. Mr. Stone put in a claim for compensation for this additional 33 acres; Mr. McKellar replied that the Government bought the whole farm, not a certain number of acres; Mr. Stone would not give way, and the matter again hung fire. As Mr. McKellar was very anxious to commence operations, he conceded this point so far as to grant Mr. Stone 33 acres from the farm, to be taken from what part of it Mr. McKellar thought proper. This was agreed to by Mr. Stone. Shortly afterwards deeds were sent up for signature, specifying the piece of land taken off. Mr. Stone refused to sign them, because the 33 acres had not been taken off in a square block, but in an irregular piece, resembling the letter L. Mr. Stone communicated with Mr. Movat on the subject, and made an appointment to meet him to-day (Monday) and bring about a settlement. Meanwhile Mr. McKellar was in London at the Provincial Fair, and knew nothing of Mr. Stone's communication with his colleague. On his way home he called at Guelph, and learned of Mr. Stone's rejection of his offer. No doubt impatient of more delay, Mr. McKellar appears to have decided upon stringent measures, and sent up two men from Toronto to take forcible possession of the farm, under the terms of the agreement of April last. Mr. Stone at once had the two agents arrested; and our readers know the rest.

This we believe to be a fairly accurate statement of the matter at issue, and our readers can form their own conclusions upon it. Mr. Stone and his attorney, Mr. Lemon, also Mr. Sturton, M. P., and Mr. Gow, M. P., left for Toronto by the early train this morning; and we sincerely hope, for the sake of the town, that they will bring the matter to an amicable settlement. We withhold further comment till we learn the result of to-day's interview.

The by-law granting aid to the Brantford, Norwich and Port Burwell Railway, to the amount of $20,000, by the Township of North Norwich, was carried on Saturday by a majority of 32. This makes a total amount of bonuses of $1,600 per mile towards the construction of the line.

Another of G. W. McMullen's Lies.

The following letter appears in the Toronto Mail, Aug. 8, 1873.

QUEEN'S HOTEL, TORONTO, 7th Aug. 1873.

MY DEAR CONFRERE,—I see in this morning's Globe that the special lie furnished by that paper, McMullen, amends his story so as to represent our paper, La Minerve, as having received those $4,000 from Sir Hugh in the shape of a loan instead of a gift. As in his previous statement McMullen had no hesitation to say that the money was given and not lent to the Minerve, I presume his new imposture will not get any credit among the people of Ontario. However, I am bound to state as the editor and one of the proprietors of La Minerve, that our establishment did not receive any money either by gift or by loan from Sir Hugh Allan or any of his agents, in relation to the Pacific scheme; and that in our case McMullen has been true to our French proverb, "a beau mentir qui vient de loin."

ASHUR DANSEBROT.

Sir Hugh Allan, in cross examination at Ottawa, Sept. 20, 1873, says:

"I discounted a note for the proprietors of the Minerve, which they agreed to pay in advertising, and I think that was the only transaction I ever had with any newspaper. I think it was four thousand dollars."

In commenting on the foregoing the Globe wants to know something about these advertisements. It has looked through many copies of the Minerve and can't find any of Sir Hugh Allan's advertisements. What a pitiful sham!

The Rival Clansmen:

A Scottish Vendetta. CHAPTER I. THE VOW TAKEN—"COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE."

"Your words have decided me, father. I swear that should Hector McLeod, or any of his race, cross my path, and I have opportunity, I will have their lives."

"Thank God for that! You are a McKenzie yet, my son. And now I can die in peace. But first let me give you my blessing. Bend here your head."

"My best blessing continue with you. May your head, your limbs, your eyes, your weapons never fail you, but stand you in good stead in time of need; and may the McLeods learn that one more terrible has come against them than ever they have met before."

The young man was unconscious of what his father was saying to him. His mind was contemplating the nature of the work he had undertaken upon himself, and which he still felt that he ought not to have bound himself to perform. It was not so much generous feelings which repelled him from willingly undertaking what was required of him, as a secret dread that such an attempt might prove fatal to himself, as so many of the counters between the McLeods and the McKenzies had proved to the latter before. To this was added a certain degree of cultivation which he had received in Edinburgh, where he had spent several years, and the anxiety he felt to secure a lady for his bride on whom he had lately set his heart. This latter was all the more imperative inasmuch as he had learned that another, a stranger, had found favor with the lady on whom were centred his affections.

The free and easy life of the metropolis had considerably blunted the wild, clanish spirit with which his father had been so anxious to imbue him. Stern, unwavering, inflexible attachment to kinsmen was the bond of union between the members of a clan; but in Edinburgh he found that men were chiefly attached to themselves, and only took an interest in their neighbors or their kinsmen if it were likely to be of service to them. Selfish by nature, Ian saw much to admire in this egoism of his companions and friends in the south, and had returned to the north with far different feelings and tastes from those which he had brought home he had possessed.

This desire to work only for self had been the chief obstacle in the way of his agreeing to carry out his father's desire. No good could come of it, so far as he could see; it would benefit him not in the least, and might besides so increase his hereditary enemies as to place himself in a position of danger. He had, while his father with quivering voice and excited gesture recited the ill which had come upon the McKenzies through the McLeods, felt the old spirit rise within him, and had been so far carried away as to promise to his father to carry out his behest.

This he had no sooner done than he regretted the doing of it, and as his mind wandered over the track we have indicated in these lines, the idea of the solemn obligation became more and more repugnant. He could not tolerate the irksomeness of the situation. No! he would yet renounce it, and rather bear the old man's curse upon him.

Springing to his feet from the kneeling position he had assumed in order to receive his father's blessing after taking the vow, he cried out—"Father, even yet I renounce this obligation; I cannot bind myself to do this thing. I will not, curse me as you will."

"There was no reply. "Do you hear me, father?" Still no answer. A sudden pallor blanched Ian's cheeks as he bent down and gazed into his father's face. One look confirmed what his heart had dreaded. The old man was dead.

THE NOTED TEA HOUSE.

PLUGHS. Just received, a quantity of the celebrated

Gray Ploughs,

From Scotland, manufactured by Gray & Uddington, near Glasgow.

THE PORTER, ONTARIO & VICTORIA Steel Board Ploughs; also some cheap Cast Board Ploughs on hand. Prices from $7.00 to $20. A good assortment of Stoves and Tin-ware for sale cheap. W. HEATHER, Corner Woolwich-street and Erasmus Street, Guelph, 2nd April, 1879.

THE TRU-JIH WASHING MACHINE. We have manufactured it over four years; has proved a perfect success. It promotes will do well to see our Washer before buying any other; they are simple, strong and durable, and will save clothing, strengthen linens, health and brains. You can fasten on a wringer and do the whole work--and the machine is so simple that a child can use it. The only French-made in the world. Address Isaac Post & Co., Washers, Manufacturers and Dealers in Washers, No. 44 Elm Street, Buffalo, N.Y. Sept. 22, 1879.

Queens, Sept. 28.—Arrived steamship City of Brooklyn from New York, and Ohio from Philadelphia.

Box 2 persons gain a wonderful control over their features. A newly-married Terre Haute man received a letter from his wife's mother recently, declining an invitation to make her home with them, and not even his most intimate friend detected a look of grief in his eye. He even smiled occasionally during the day. Some can smile with a breaking heart. The prospective brother-in-law of a young Terre Haute set down on a bench in the other evening. His smile as he hastily arose and said, "I think it is cooler near the window, love," was sweet but sad. The boy puts a pillow in his chair this week.

Mr. Masson, of Terrebonne, whose name again comes before the public in connection with the vacant Presidency of the Privy Council, is said to have gone down to New Brunswick to try to come to some understanding on the School question, as a necessary preliminary to his entering the Cabinet. Mr. Masson took strong ground against the course of the Government on this question, and unless conciliation be effected, or the question left in abeyance, he cannot join the Administration.

Mrs. Joseph Dixon, of the township of Guelph, ran a tiny scissor from the rim of a corroded brass kettle into her finger after her hand had been made tender and soft by a day's washing. Soon afterwards, her arm swelled nearly double from the effects of poisonous brass, and the finger had to be amputated.

The annual exhibition of the township of Normandy agricultural society was held at Nemadji, on Wednesday last. The weather was exceedingly fine, and a large attendance of people was present. There were nine accidents on English railways on Friday, Sept. 25th.

Mrs. Bankin, an old and well-known resident of Owen Sound, was accidentally burned on Tuesday, and died three hours afterwards.

TALK OF CHEAP MUSIC.—Ninety-four tenor songs, with full piano accompaniment, full size, for $1.50. Day's Book-store.

The long established foundry business of Lutz & Co., Galt, has recently changed hands, and Mr. Lutz has retired after an honorable business career of forty years.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass., And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.
