THE IRREGULAR HOUSE.

Their Keepers Up Before the Magistrate.

was Veteran Gets Six Months at the Reformatory—Other Sentences and Fines.

A number of people who were eager and curious to see, and hear the trial of the keeper and inmates of the houses of prostitution arrested last Thursday night appeared and applied, but without success, for admission to the police court. Many were the ways and means adopted to gain admittance; the newspaper editor appeared to work the most successfully, as each paper had several would-be representatives. One young man wanted admission as the reporter of the Christian Guardian, but he did not succeed.

The first called was Kate Fleming, who appeared with a very serious and careworn look on her face, showing that the charge brought against her had caused no small degree of anxiety. She is stout, matron-like, well dressed, and yesterday wore a valuable fur jacket. From her appearance one would hardly imagine that she was up for the fifth time to answer the charge of keeping a house of ill-fame, and against whom there are six previous convictions for selling liquor without a license. She withdrew her former plea and pleaded guilty. The magistrate then sentenced her to six months in the reformatory, and seemed to be disgruntled, attempted to, but could say nothing, and was led quietly out of the room by one of the policemen. In the hall, however, she broke down, and commenced bemoaning at the top of her voice, her hard fate. While a number of her own and the inmates of other houses gathered around her and endeavored to pacify her, she continued to weep.

The inmates of Kate Fleming's house were then paraded. They were Maggie Raymond, Lillie Elliott, Hattie Smith and Mabel Nelson. The mother of the first named appeared to claim her daughter. She said she had received a telegram from her, saying she was in trouble, but did not know the trouble. She had come to see her. The magistrate spoke of sending Maggie to the Mercer; the mother cried bitterly and said "O, for God's sake, sir, don't send her there, I'll take her home and try to make her a better girl." She was allowed to go on her own bail to appear for sentence when called upon. Hattie Smith, who appeared very sad and dejected, was allowed to go, as it was shown that she was only a visitor. Lillie Elliott and Mabel Nelson were each fined $50 and costs or six months to the reformatory.

The next one brought up was Mary Davis, who was charged with keeping a house of ill-fame at 187 York street, pleaded not guilty. The evidence against her as well as in the other cases was given by the police and the informer, Stock. She had been charged with keeping a house of ill-fame at 187 York street, pleaded not guilty. Conclusion of a Cause Celebre.
St. Louis, Nov. 29.—Yesterday a decree of divorce, with the custody of the children, was granted to Barnes Dixon, whose wife eloped with John Curtis, aged 20, and attracted a good deal of attention in Texas and the east, and created a great scandal here. Curtis testified to his relations with the woman. She is highly connected here.

Suicide of a Nonagenarian.
DETROIT, Nov. 29.—At Frankfort yesterday morning, Mr. Anderson, a Scotchman, 90 years old, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a pocket knife, at the residence of his son, J. C. Anderson, superintendent of Frankfort furnace company. Failing health and old age made him weary of life.

Labor Riot in New Orleans.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—Several hundred hoodlums paraded the streets last night with banners bearing the inscription, "Blood, no contract work." The parade broke up in a riot, and knives and pistols were used on all sides. The rioters were dispersed by the police. William Glennon and Peter Mitchell were mortally wounded.

Heavy Damages Agreed by a Railway.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 29.—A verdict of $100,000 was given against the New York Central and Hudson River railway yesterday in favor of George Smith for damages sustained in Tonawanda last July by being struck by an engine.

No, Sir-ee.
"No, sir-ee," remarked the old resident, "my wife didn't bring me a cent. But it was all my fault. I wouldn't have it. The morning of the day we were married I says to her, says I: 'Maria, how much money have you got?' Says she: 'John, I've got just 25 cents.' 'Then, says I, 'come with me.' And I took her down to the bank and had her quarter worth the bank. I want to go to have a woman twitting me about spreading' around on her money.' Li-Quor Tea is always good alike.

A Painful Accident.
Yesterday while a man named Ed. Rice was engaged excavating at the rear of some cottages in course of erection on Monroe street, Riverside, a stone weighing over one ton rolled over and struck him breaking his back and leg. In two places beneath the knee. He was removed to the hospital.

Mr. James O. Neville, the general importer and export agent of the Allen line, and general dominion shipping agent, 333 Dorchester street, Montreal, Canada, says: "While on a late exhibition trip to the states my old foe, the rheumatism, attacked me and gave me a rough stage. Having read the endorsement of well-known people who had used St. Jacobs Oil I determined to give it a trial. In two weeks time I was as well as ever, and fully able to attend to my business."

Wild Cat Shot.
From the St. Thomas Times.
Thursday evening as the sons of Asa Williams, of Southwold station, accompanied by several other young men, were out engaged in searching the woods for coons, the dogs treed what was supposed to be a monstrous coon. Mr. Williams' son shot at the supposed coon, and when it reached terra firma the dogs immediately pounced upon it, and after a fierce struggle succeeded in killing it. Upon examining it the young man found it to be a wild cat, which had been making depredations in that locality for some time past. It measured 6 feet 11 inches in length.

The Dignity of the Ballot.
From the Boston Transcript.
Whooop-ee! It's a votin' I am, 'Tis the right of the citizen, 'An' I votes for the fellow that's best—Hoory for honest Dinmick McCarty!

For the sake of the world.
I'm opposed to tyants, an' votes 'em for the rights of the citizen, 'An' I votes for the fellow that's best—Hoory for honest Dinmick McCarty!
