Beauty Hints

Rain Water and Its Many Uses for Your Toilet

By LUCREZIA BORI
Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Now that the "melancholy days" have come do not rant about the weather. The misty rain of November holds beauty for every woman who will make it her own. When you see the dark clouds gather and the sun hide his face, smile, for there's beauty in the rain. Perhaps you have often marvelled at the soft, pink-and-white skins of the English and Irish girls whom you have met. Have you thought much about the climate that is characteristic of their home countries? The frequent rains and fog have a marvelous effect upon the complexions of the women who live on these islands. In combination with fresh air and a sane diet, rain water is an invaluable beautifier.

The Foot Bath.

To take advantage of the next rainy day. Put on your raincoat over a short-sleeved shirt and a warm shirtwaist, and without an umbrella, walk out in the rain. Let it beat down upon your face. Let it wash every part of it. The rain now and then only to allow it to wet the face again. When you have walked briskly for several miles return home to look at the results. Your flesh will be glowing and tanned up to a surprising state of firmness and firmness, you know, means lack of wrinkles and sagging. The skin will be clearer, and the texture more velvety.

Just here let me suggest that you collect rain water in buckets, basins or the rain barrel, made immortal in song and story. There are many uses for the heating rain water.

Four a quantity into a basin or foot tub, add a generous tablespoonful of bicarbonate of soda or an equal amount of powdered borax. This will relieve the soreness, soften the calloused spots, and will generally improve the condition of tired and aching feet.

Best for Hair.

Fall winds are apt to make the hands rough and red. Here again rain water will show its power as a beautifier. Bathe the hands in rain water. If you have time, make a tablespoonful of rain water and rub it well into the hands. Leave it on for 20 minutes, then wash dry the hands thoroughly. Note how well it has cleansed and smoothed and white the hands and arms as a result.

Every woman desires that her hair should be soft and shining. When shampooing your hair always use rain water if you would give it the most beneficial bath. Use a pure white soap (made into a jelly). Nothing need be added to soften the water. Rinse through several changes of rain water. If you have left hair, dry it in the shade. The air, of course, is better for drying than artificial heat. It requires a longer time, but pays in the end.

Always use rain water to bathe the face, arms and neck. Add a few drops of tincture of benzoin if you would like white, transparent skin. It will also act as an astringent.

For any toilet preparations that call for distilled water use rain water.

Once more I'll ask you not to frown when you open your eyes on a gray day. Mist and rain should beautify you, but you must first catch the rain water.

How Swimming Pools May Be Kept Sanitary

By DR. L. K. HIRSBERG

A. B. M. A. M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

THERE is more mischief at work in some swimming pools than most of us dream. The bacilli of typhoid and dysentery are not the only microbes ready to be gulped into the stomach or snuffed into the tonsils, ears and nose of the diver and swimmer. Bronchitis, tonsillitis, middle ear infection, "pink" eye, conjunctivitis, intestinal infections, running noses and even tuberculosis have been caught in badly cared for swimming pools, though happily not very often.

How then are we to take our delightful swims in the Young Men's Christian Association and other private pools, free from fears of infection? There are several simple things that may be cheaply done to purify the all-too-seldom changed water of the pool.

Before anyone enters a properly kept swimming pool a thorough shower bath after a soaped cleaning from scalp to soles must be provided. No bathing suits or any clothing should even be allowed in the pool, for cloth of any sort does much to pollute the water and to encourage the growth of microbes.

Sulphate of copper, as proposed by Prof. Thomas, is a harmless and effective germ killer. One 80th part—less than a grain—of copper sulphate to a million parts of water used every day will keep a pool sanitary and sweet. For most pools with less than 150 bathers daily, this is ample.

The director of a swimming pool need multiply the number of gallons capacity of his pool by the weight in pounds of one gallon water, namely 8.3, then divide the result thus determined by 2,000,000—which is the solution one-half part per million.

The result is the weight in pounds of copper sulphate to be added. If the pool holds 50,000 gallons, 37 pound or six ounces to be used.

The blue vitriol must be added every day to the pool. It can be dragged up and down the pool in a bag attached to a pole. To use it just before a fresh water is poured in is a waste. At noon or the supper hour is the best interval for its introduction.

Answers to Health Questions

R. C. L. Q.—I have ulcers in my mouth. What remedy will you prescribe for me?

A.—A mouth wash of glycerine and alum water may be used. Clean the teeth after each meal with any chloride of potash tooth paste. Take several grains of oxide of magnesium before meals and a Bulgarian tablet after meals. You need sunlight, fresh air and outdoor exercises; also use a one-grain chlorate of potash tablet on the ulcers.

J. C. H. Q.—Will you kindly tell me what to do for a cold in the head which has lasted for over a year? It seems to affect my hearing, too.

A.—Colds lasting for such a length of time should have medical attention. Have a thoroughly competent and reliable physician examine you. Try the electric battery at your ear every four hours. Apply ammoniated mercury, 4 grains; vaseline, 1 ounce, to the nostrils.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He cannot always undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address ALL INQUIRIES to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care this office.

OFF for a walk—and out on the road they met a motor car. But they do not see the car—it is doubtful if they even hear of its motor and the crunch and swish of its flying wheels as it glides along. They have no eyes, no ears for anything but EACH OTHER—their hearts throbbing too loudly and their feet dance along too lightly, as they march to the tune of their laughter and love! But she in the motor car—the she of the silk and satin—she of the chauffeur and the flying wheels—SHE sees THEM. And in that swift moment of passing she gains a picture that lingers—a picture in which she wishes that SHE were the central figure. For THAT what wouldn't she give?

Revelations of a Wife

By ADELE GARRISON

Why Dicky Mimicked, "Don't Speak That Way, Madge."

WHAT'S the matter, Madge? Got a crumple on something?" Dicky faced me in the old hall of the deserted Putnam Manor Inn, where we had expected to find warmth and food and the picturesqueness of a century back. Instead of these things we had found the place in the hands of a caretaker. Dicky had asked to go through the house on the pretence of wishing to rent it.

"I haven't a bit of a crumple," I tried to speak as cheerfully as I could, for I dreaded Dicky's anger when I told him my feelings upon the subject of going over the house under false pretences. "But I don't think it is right for us to go through the rooms. The woman wouldn't have let us come in if you hadn't said we wished to rent it. It's deception, and I wish you wouldn't insist upon my going any further. I can't enjoy seeing the rooms at all."

Dicky stared at me for a moment as if I were some mechanical humanity he had never seen before. Then he exploded.

"Another one of your scruples, eh? By jove, I wonder where you keep them all. You're always ready to trot one out just in time to spoil any little thing I'm trying to do for your pleasure or mine."

"Please hush, Dicky," I said. "I was afraid the woman in the next room would hear him, he spoke in such loud tones."

"I'll hush when I get good and ready," I longed to shake him, his tone and words were so much like those of a spoiled child, and stood for a minute or two in sulky silence before the empty fireplace.

"Well, come along," he said at last. "I'm sure there is no pleasure to me in looking over this place. I've seen it often enough when old Forsman had it filled with colonial junk, and served the best meals to be found on Long Island. It's like a coffin now to me. But I thought you might like to look it over as you had never seen it. But for heaven's sake let us respect your scruples."

I knew better than to make any answer. I wished above everything else to have this day end happily, this whole day to ourselves in the country, upon which I had counted so much. I feared that Dicky would be angry enough to return to the city, as he had threatened to do when he found the inn closed. So

"Sometimes you have a gleam of almost human intelligence," he commented gravely.

"Thank you very kindly," I returned in the same spirit of rally, glad to have his good humor restored. Dicky, good-natured, is a delightful companion. Dicky, sulky, is about as companionable as the traditional bear with the sore head.

"What, by heck, here's about what we're looking for," drawled Dicky with an intonation he fondly imagined to be a successful imitation of a countryman's voice. "Look at this joint, will you?"

"This joint" was a country store, which evidently had been the old-fashioned "parlors" of an immense farmhouse. I went slowly up the steps trying to think of some slight purchase I could make before asking the courtesy of a telephone. Once inside I forgot for a minute to ask anything so charmed was I by the 60-year-old atmosphere the little store breathed.

Barrels of salt pork and potatoes stood in the middle of the room. Cans of corn and tomatoes rested next to boxes of writing paper, and bars of soap on the shelves. There was a small glass case of candies, such as I had not seen since I was a tiny child on a visit to the country. But the thing that attracted me most was a display of calicoes which lay spread out upon the floor. Barrels of salt pork and potatoes stood in the middle of the room. There was a small glass case of candies, such as I had not seen since I was a tiny child on a visit to the country. But the thing that attracted me most was a display of calicoes which lay spread out upon the floor.

I had seen the same thing in quilts which my mother had pieced when she was a young girl. I had heard her lament that nowhere could she find such calicoes any more. An old friend of hers, a gentle, frail creature, lived near the boarding house where my mother had spent her last days with me. I knew that she delighted in the old-fashioned patchwork, and that she, mourned the absence of the old-time materials.

"How much is this a yard?" I laid my hand upon the calico, and lifted my eyes to the man behind the counter. I had hardly observed him in my survey of the store. Now I saw that he completed the picture. Old, yet royal of cheek and bright of eye, his white beard and old-fashioned spectacles made him just the right central figure.

Dicky flashed a glance at Dicky, who had followed me in, but he did not see it. I saw he was absorbed in planning some

Six Delicious Dinner Oddities

By ANN MARIE LLOYD

- A Green Pea Dish.
Take one quart of shelled peas, the heart of a lettuce, six young onions, two tablespoonfuls of butter, half a pint of stock, and four strips of bacon. Previously wash the lettuce carefully, and tie it with a string to keep it in shape. Wash and trim the onions. Melt the butter in a saucepan and put in the peas, onions, and lettuce; add half a pint of water and cook with the lid on. When the peas are tender take out the lettuce, untie it, and shred it finely and add to the peas. Parboil the onions with the edge of a wingless or with a little more butter than has been added the dish may be served.
- Salmon Cutlets.
An excellent method of preparing these is to take one pound of tinned salmon, one teaspoonful of breadcrumbs, three-quarters of an ounce of butter, melted, one ounce of flour, one tablespoonful of vinegar, one gill of milk, one egg, pepper and salt and mustard to taste. Break up the salmon and mix with the other ingredients, but only half of the egg. Then form the baking-board neatly, and form the mixture into cutlets or rolls. Cover them with the egg left over, toss in breadcrumbs, and fry in boiling fat. Into the end of each put a small piece of macaroni, and garnish with parsley.
- Baked Herrings with Vinegar.
Take a number of herrings, cut off the heads and tails, open and clean the fish, and lay them in a deep pan with a few bay-leaves, whole pepper, half a teaspoonful of cloves, and a whole teaspoonful of allspice; pour over them equal quantities of vinegar and water, bake for an hour and a half in a slow oven. The fish will be found to be very tasty when served.
- Vegetable Soup.
The ingredients for this are one ounce of butter, one large carrot, one turnip, one onion, two sticks of celery, one pint and a half of stock, a small tablespoonful of flour, half a pint of milk, a teaspoonful of salt and pepper to flavor. Melt butter and fry sliced vegetables; add stock and seasoning. Boil till the vegetables are soft, and then pass through a sieve. Boil again and add thickening, and continue to boil till the flour is cooked.
- Balloon Cake.
Mix two tablespoonfuls of yeast with one of cream, add to it six tablespoonfuls of flour to make a light dough. Set it to rise in a warm place. Roll out the paste very thin, and afterwards cut it with the edge of a wingless or with a paste-cutter into cakes of any desired shape and size. Bake on tins for four minutes.
- Rhubarb and Almond Jelly.
Add to about one quart of hot, sweetened, stewed rhubarb one large tablespoonful of gelatin dissolved in a little cold water. Stir well, put in a handful of chopped almonds, and pour into individual moulds. Rub, when cold, with cream or boiled custard.

How She Solved the Problem of the Scalloped Blouse.

IT in the garden this morning, when I was gathering the very last flowers, I could not help wishing that the dahlia would flaunt their flaming beauty throughout the winter, and the chrysanthemums when the frost had covered everything with shining crystals. No, winter has to collect his toll, but he gives as generously in return.

I went over to the west wall to see how the roses promised a big crop of berries, and found that last night's storm had torn them down in several places. I reached high to fasten them to the supports, when, without even giving a warning rattle, the sieve of my under-arm seam tore from the shoulder. One glance at this gaping rent served to convince me that nothing short of magic could make the blouse wearable again. But being of a frugal mind, I put on my thinking cap to discover a way to make use of it.

Then I recalled a stunning blouse I had seen in a window. It was a combination of blue and white crepe, and I when this was finished I cut away the rose-colored crepe beyond the scalloped sleeves of the plain white. I trimmed the collar, cuffs and bodice front with bands of black velvet ribbon. This note of contrast is decidedly effective.

I wanted a broad strip of a material that would carry out the color scheme of the blouse, and hunted about until I found some wide, broad velvet ribbon in tones of black and rose. It was expensive, but I only had to have three-quarters of a yard, and I figured that could use it with several frocks.

My blouse is so lovely that I run it every now and then to let it. After all, I think the colored blouses are more attractive than the plain white ones, and I'm glad they are fashionable this year.

WHERE THE SHIVER OF A GOAT DECIDES LAWSUITS.

THE Kulu valley, far up in the Himalayas, in India, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque bits of country it has ever been my lot to view. Hills, mountains, rolling land and level stretches meet the eye wherever one may turn, with a charming variety that never grows tiresome. The air, too, is so clear that Kulu seems like heaven compared to some other parts of the settling crowded land.

It was a surprise, therefore, to find in this lovely land the most intense superstitions. The ordeal of the shivering goats was the strangest of all. Two men were at odds and wanted Justice from each other. Each insisted that the other was a scoundrel and a thief. They could not agree to have the case tried in the English court, each feared the lies of the other and his witnesses. So they turned to the ways of their fathers for a decision.

Before an old priest of their faith, each brought a billy-goat. The priest stood in the middle and on each side stood the petitioner and his friends to back them up. After a few incantations at the shrine, the old priest stepped forward with what looked like earth in his hands. This he rubbed into the backs of the goats. No matter how they struggled and batted he kept right on, while their owners held them still with the light of hope shining in their eager eyes.

The earth-like stuff that the old priest used must have been a strong irritant, for after a while one of the goats shivered. There was no mistaking it. The shiver was one that could not be denied. And the owner of that goat which shivered first set up a shout of gladness.

Justice in Kulu.

That was joined in by his friend—for he had won.

From this decision the other did not dare appeal. The goat had spoken with his shiver. He had lost, there was nothing to do but pay his enemy the money he owed him.

Can Help Canada to Finance Munition Orders?

Speaking from an industrial standpoint, it may be said that Canada's eggs are all in one basket. If we are to do any considerable business this year, if the dwellers in the cities are to be prosperous as well as those who dwell on the land, we must get war orders to a big amount from the mother country and her allies. The manufacturer finds the home market poor, and overseas trade is negligible except for the war orders from the allies. Highway construction has ceased, and building operations have declined almost to the vanishing point. Trade figures, always more or less deceptive, should not blind us to the real situation. We must get munition orders in large quantities, or we will have a bleak winter in our cities throughout Canada. If we get a big lot of them, and are able to take care of them, we come at once into something like our old-time prosperity.

But you will say there is no trouble in getting them; the allies are willing to give us orders to the amount of $500,000,000. True, the World will go further, and venture to say that $1,000,000,000 would be nearer the mark. But what use will the orders be if we cannot swing them; if we are unable to finance them? The allies cannot pay out cash in gold for their munitions. They must have a line of credit say up to $500,000,000.

Who is going to extend that credit to them?
Some manufacturers can afford to take part of their profits in British consols and French rentes, but material must be bought on short credit, and labor must be paid in cash. The man who toils must be paid in the currency of his own country, which is legal tender for everything he desires to buy. The banks cannot extend a credit of $500,000,000; they have not the capital to begin with; they have been doing business for years on the most contracted currency in the world, and having no bank of discount they must maintain enormous reserves of liquid strength.

All, therefore, agree that the financing must be done by the Dominion Government. It has even been suggested that the Dominion Government should sell bonds and raise money to loan to the allies. That plan, we think, for many reasons cannot be seriously entertained. No other plan except the one from time to time put forth by The World has been suggested.

Our plan is for the allies to put up collateral for the credit they are to receive. That collateral should consist in part of gold; it might also include consols, rentes, short time treasury bills and other gilt-edge securities, such as U. S. government bonds and standard railway securities. C.P.R. stock, we think, would be excellent security. Or the bonds of Great Britain for her own account; associated with the allies for what they want.

Suppose, then, that the British Government came to the Ottawa Government asking for credit, say up to $500,000,000, and put up as collateral $100,000,000 in gold, and $500,000,000 in self liquidating securities, would not the Dominion Government be justified in paying out $500,000,000 upon the order of the British Government to the manufacturers, material men and workmen of Canada? But if you ask where would the Dominion Government get the money, we would have no hesitation in saying that to finance so huge a credit the government would have to issue in large volume Dominion notes or national currency.

Would the national currency thus to be issued be good money? Would there be anything behind it?
In our opinion it would be the best money in the world. It would not only be based upon the collective wealth and credit of the Canadian people, but it would be supported by a fairly adequate gold reserve, and it would be also secured by gilt-edge securities earmarked for that purpose. Objections to this plan may be offered and we would be glad to hear them. We would be even happier to hear some better plan suggested. As matters stand, we put ourselves up

Good Sense Prevails

It was evident that when the Hydro-Electric strikers brought their own cool judgment to bear on the situation they would see the essential feature presented to them by the Electric Commissioners. We had every confidence that once understanding the true bearing of their action they would act as we believe reasonable men have always acted in similar circumstances.

From the first we suggested that the action taken was precipitate and incited by outsiders rather than of the men themselves, and we have seen no reason to change that view. It is obvious that a public ownership undertaking cannot raise the wages of its employes beyond a certain percentage over the standard wages paid in the locality in question.

It appears certain that one definite advantage will arise out of the strike, in the better understanding and closer relations that are sure to exist between the commissioners and the men in future. Not a few influences have been at work making bad blood between them, and the establishment of better relations due to definite knowledge of what is wanted and what is possible on either side will close out the possibility of outsiders fomenting misunderstandings. The very erroneous impression that the commissioners or their general manager were opposed to trades unionism will be entirely removed, and the men will also understand that any grievances they may have will be attended to and adjusted when properly submitted.

It is a matter for satisfaction that a regrettable misunderstanding has been corrected and an unfortunate incident closed. The settlement of the dispute we feel sure will be honorable to all concerned, and the commissioners are not likely to remember the losses and inconvenience to which they have been put on behalf of the citizens when they consider the frank attitude of the men and their desire to re-establish harmony.

Drawing the Line of Life
A Chicago doctor has been tried for allowing a baby to die, excusing himself on the ground that the child was malformed and likely to grow up an idiot or something of the kind if he performed the operation which might have saved its life. A great deal of discussion has been going on in medical circles for a number of years as to the right a doctor or surgeon has over a patient's life. The patient has no doubts on the subject whatever. When he calls in a physician he expects that all that the doctor's science and experience can suggest will be done. He does not expect the doctor will consider the question whether the patient has a right to live or whether society would be benefited by his taking off. If anything of that sort should be considered necessary the patient will probably hold that it has been amply provided for in the court of law.

In Chicago, however, there are different views held on such matters, as there are about many others. It appears at any rate that this particular surgeon had scruples about allowing a child to live that did not bear all the marks of hygienic perfection. If this doctrine is to be admitted there are a lot of people who will desire to know, and perhaps insist upon knowing, where the line is going to be drawn. It is impossible to judge from a man's exterior what gifts he may possess interiorly. This Chicago surgeon would undoubtedly have made no effort to save the life of Phil Callan had it been left to him to make a decision. Mr. Callan was born without arms or legs, and could not have been recognized from a hygienic point of view as a desirable addition to the population. Yet he grew up married, rode the bounds, was of marked intellectual ability and became a member of the house of commons for the County of Louth, and was carried in and out by an attendant in his parliamentary duties.

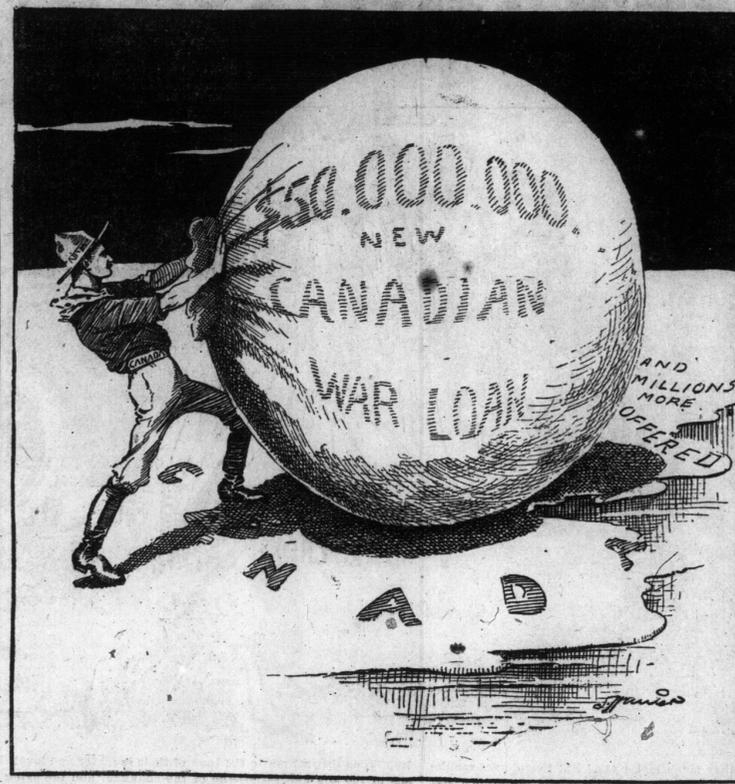

It seems to us that it is the duty of a doctor or surgeon to prolong and preserve life where his science or skill enables him, and he has no right to undertake the decision of any person's right to live.

War Loan for Small Investors
A correspondent suggests that the government should follow the British practice of issuing scrip for small amounts, so that small savers may have a share in the war loan. To all intents and purposes the issue of $100 bonds payable in instalments serves the same purpose. A ten-dollar instalment on application, ten on Jan. 3, and twenty each month following till May will serve the purpose of most of those who desire to invest their savings at the present time. Perhaps.

BUSHIRE, Persia, Nov. 23 via London.—W. T. ## RAISED DOMINION TO PLACE IN SUN

Sir Charles Tupper's Work Reviewed by Sir Guilford Molesworth.

MAKER OF COUNTRY

Brought About Confederation, Protection and Construction of C. P. R.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Sir Guilford Molesworth has sent to The Standard the following personal appreciation of the late Sir Charles Tupper:
"The last day of October, 1915, brought to an end the career of Sir Charles Tupper, the most extraordinary man of the age, whether considered from the point of his able statesmanship, or his marvelous foresight, his successful achievement as an enterprising builder, his devotion to the country, his self-sacrifice or his noble character. It was only after he had passed out of the political arena that the results of his policy slowly but steadily developed to the fullest extent."

"About half a century ago the condition of Canada was disastrous. Good government had become impossible; the changes of administration had taken place within two years; trade was paralyzed, and credit ruined. For five months in the year the trade of the country was paralyzed. A thousand miles of disolate country, occupied by savages and wild animals, intervened between western and eastern Canada; the Rocky Mountains interposed an impassable barrier to the political arena. Confederation Canada has been rescued by three great measures, mainly carried out by the energy and genius of Sir Charles Tupper. These measures were the federation of the Dominion, the adoption of a protective policy, and the construction of a railway connecting east and west Canada."

ONE COMMANDER FOR THE WESTERN FRONT?
Question Will Be Raised in the House of Commons Today.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The advisability of placing the French and British forces on the western front under one commander will be raised in the House of Commons tomorrow by Sir George Scott Robertson. Sir George has given notice that he will ask Premier Asquith whether consideration has been given to the proposal that a single commander should be appointed to command the British and French grand fleets were operating together.

SCHOOL FOR SPIES IS OPERATED AT ANTWERP
Disclosures Were Made by a Renegade French Woman.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The Temps publishes the following from Geneva: "A military court here has sentenced Marie Therese LePilloupon, a native of Cahors, France, to serve a month's imprisonment and pay a fine of 200 francs on the ground that she is a German spy. She told the court she had been arrested at Lille by Germans and taken to Antwerp where she was compelled, even to the advantage which might be obtained by placing all the land forces of the French and British under one supreme individual commander, as would be the case if the British and French grand fleets were operating together."

JUDGMENT FOR EXECUTORS.
Thomas H. Halsted and others, the executors of the estate of the late J. A. Halsted, were awarded judgment in the non-jury assizes by Mr. Justice Clute in their claim for $3125, alleged due on a promissory note; the decision carries interest on the money. The note was made by G. R. Magann in favor of F. A. Knapp, on Aug. 13, 1914.

RUGBY Preparing For the Benefit Game

ARGOS EXPECT TO BEAT TIGERS ON MURPHY DAY

Committed Complete Arrangements for Tickets—Crowd Coming From Hamilton.

A meeting of the Glad Murphy benefit committee was held in the King Edward Hotel last night and practically every branch of amateur sport was represented. Major Heron of the Argonaut Football Club was chairman. Among those present were Messrs. T. P. Galt, Controller Joe Thompson, James N. McKenzie, Frank Knight, Eynie Laidlaw, R. E. Greer, F. C. Lyonde, F. J. Mulqueen, W. Kennedy, Joe Dedrych, Chas. Furlong, Jas. McCaffery, A. H. E. Kemp, Joseph Wright, Jas. Murphy, Father Carr, Frank J. O'Grady, Charles Quenneville, John Stormont, Frank Dissette, Lieut.-Col. Barker, Sergeant Major W. Grant, Willie Keeler and secretary Jas. J. Dolan.

Twenty-two boxes were auctioned last night and realized the sum of $785. The remaining twenty-three boxes will be sold by a special committee consisting of Messrs. T. P. Galt, Chas. Furlong, H. Mackenzie and F. J. Mulqueen. This committee are going to make a whirlwind canvass today and expect to be sold out before night.

The grand stand seats are going like hot cakes and it looks as tho the demand for these will rival the Army and Navy game. Everybody wants to help the Glad Murphy boy and everybody wants to get a seat to see the Argonauts put the knot in the tail of their old rival, the Tigers. Joe Wright's team is out in the lead with over 200 tickets sold. John Stormont stands next with nearly 200; Eynie Laidlaw is close to the 200 mark. The St. Michael's Hockey Club only commenced last night, but look out for this team with Frank Dissette and Joe O'Grady teaming up together. F. J. Mulqueen and Dick Greer are also expected and look for a big sale. Bill Kennedy, Charlie Furlong, F. C. Lyonde, John DeGruy, Sergeant Major Grant, James McCaffery, Pat Kent and Jimmie Dolan all have a large number of seats sold and they expect to have the Varsity Stadium grand stand sold out by Thursday evening.

It was unanimously decided at the meeting last night that there would be no complimentary seats for this game, with the exception of the competing teams and referee and umpire. Official badges will be issued to the remaining officials. The committee also decided to issue a limited number of touch-line badges at a minimum price of $2 each. Murphy had the honor of securing the first touch-line badge, which was followed by F. Lyonde and Charlie Miller for similar amounts.

Boxer seats are now in the hands of the committee and will be sold immediately. It is fully expected that the attendance at the Glad Murphy game will be the largest ever recorded in Toronto and probably the Dominion. For this reason it was decided to place bleacher seats as well as grand stand seats on Saturday would be sure of having seats.

A despatch from Bobbie Kerr, secretary of the Hamilton Tigers, late yesterday afternoon said that they expected over 600 people to come down from the mountain and seat in a special hurry-up call to reserve a section of the Stadium for Tiger supporters. The Tiger supporters are quite confident that they can trim the Argos right in Toronto again and are coming down confident and willing to wager that they can repeat. Anybody possessing seats for this game will be lucky indeed by the time Saturday comes.

HOCKEY Ottawa Not in Favor of American Cities

Argos vs. Tigers

The Argos had a fine practice last evening at Victoria College. The players are working out for the Glad Murphy benefit game just like for the championship. They say the Tigers must work better than last Saturday or their clean list of wins will go. The committee met at the King Edward and reported a wonderful sale of tickets. A great crowd and a fine game assured Saturday at the Stadium.

The Lucky Tigers This Was Varsity Year For Championship

The Varsity: The University of Toronto athletic directorate decided there would be no intercollegiate football at Varsity this year. The result was there was no first team wearing the blue and white this year, but after all is past and done, the wonder grows at the number of undergraduates who have played on senior teams.

There is no doubt that the University of Toronto would have been represented by a four or five of mean calibre had not unpreventable causes interfered with college football.

The Argonauts who wear the double blue have been the most attractive field for U. of T. football recruits. No less than seven undergraduates have played with this team in the interprovincial series this season.

O'Connor of St. Mike's and O'Flaherty have been stone walls on the Argonaut backfield. Big Sam Brown of Varsity has been the mainstay of the scrumline, while Sheehy of Dents and Burns, a Mel, have been regulars as outside wings. Sullivan, who is a U.C. freshman, has held regular berth at inside wing.

The T.R. and U.C. teams have used Broderick of St. Mike's on their back division consistently throughout the season, while other Varsity men, including Brown, were carried with their spares.

Smithson, who is kicking the Capitals toward the intermediate Dominion championship, has from the beginning of the season been one of the best players in the Dominion. He is kicking the Capitals on their line-up.

When a sum-up is made of all these stars, and a selection is made from the Dominion Cup experts, it makes one wonder what chance Tigers would have stood for the Dominion honors this year had not a variety decided to play football in war-time.

MANY SOLDIERS WILL ENTER BOXING TOURNAY

For the Ontario boxing championships this year there will be a large element of aspirants from the ranks of the soldiers quartered here and in Hamilton and Brantford. Besides the regular divisions there will be special classes for 113 and 125-pounders. The seat sale opens today, and popular prices have been decided on by the union. The bouts will occupy two nights, Saturday and Monday, and will be the last attraction at the Arena before the ice is put in.

GETTING BEST GRASS FOR GOLF COURSES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Knowing him to be a golfer of unquestioned enthusiasm, the United States Golf Association is going to ask President Wilson to help determine what kind of grasses make the best golf course. A committee from the organization called at the White House today, seeking an appointment with the president to discuss the study of grasses for both fair and putting greens.

F. PATRICK WANTS TEN MORE PLAYERS

Then He Will Be Satisfied—Toronto Players Hand Out Salve—Gossip.

Vancouver Province: Five members of last season's Toronto Hockey Club are now safely entrenched on the coast. Cully Wilson arrived in Seattle early in the week, and last night Harry Holmes, Frank Morrison, Jack Walker and Carpenter reported to Manager Pete Muldoon of the Metropolitan in the Sound City. The players appear to be very enthusiastic regarding hockey prospects on the coast this season, and expect to have a big year. The former Toronto quietest stated that they would like to start practice immediately, but Muldoon did not want to parade his men for inspection before next Monday. The coach and his stars finally decided that it would be better if they commenced work tomorrow night. Harry Holmes, who has been in the city since Cameron would not be out this way this season. "He signed a contract to play with the 'H.C.' last before we left for the west," said Holmes.

President Patrick announced today that the F.C.H.A. would continue to raid the National Association until they secured all the players they want for the coast. Frank wired ten eastern stars last night flattery and guarantees, and he expects to receive favorable replies to his offers within the next few days. Four prominent N.H.A. puck-chasers were included in the list, and the balance are amateurs who will make application for the next meeting of the Ottawa City League at the next meeting of that body.

If suitable arrangements can be made during the course of this week, it is almost certain that the crack Alvin team will make application for the next meeting of the Ottawa City League at the next meeting of that body.

A Montreal despatch says: With the football season at McGill closed, the students are now on their attention to red and white hockey prospects. It is practically an assured fact that there will be no intercollegiate games this year, as Toronto Varsity has decided to figure in any intercollegiate contest as he has McGill. However, the red and white will have a senior team this season just as in former years, and it is expected that the Queen City students will also have an aggressive team on the ice. The McGill players will figure in the City League playoffs, but blue and white will probably play in the senior section of the Ontario Hockey Association, according to reports from Toronto.

Several Maritime Province players have been recommended to the Ottawa, and Smith is endeavoring to get a line on them. Andy Kyle was boosted for a while, but it was passed him up. It would be hard to improve that Ottawa defense, as it played in the home and away series against Wanderers last March.

Argus Duford is the first real holdout of the Ottawa Hockey Club. Duford had several conferences with Coach Smith, but his terms are said to have been beyond the reach of the Senators, who explained that they would have to meet this season.

An Ottawa despatch says: A new amateur hockey club to represent Ottawa in the Ontario Association may be organized shortly. A well known former Toronto pro, now in the capital, was approached last week by Eddie Wettliauer, one of the O.H.A. missionaries, and informed that the application of an Ottawa Club to the eastern section would be made. The O.H.A. annual meeting will place two weeks hence and the personnel of the various groups will then be determined. It was thought that the Ottawa club would jump at the opportunity of entering the big amateur circuit, but owing to the disapproval of Eddie Wettliauer they were only lukewarm about it at first. The Ottawa club is now expressing the opinion that the City League, now in the process of reorganizing, would be the best outlet for the club. Aberdeen finally referred the question to a committee.

It was a surprise to all that efforts would be made to organize an amateur club. The promoter stated that a number of players had volunteered their services, and that he believed he could muster a team capable of getting into the finals. Something definite on the point will be done in a day or two. It is proposed to team up with Smith's Falls, Brockville, Kingston and Cornwall. Sutherland informed the writer Saturday that Cornwall had decided to enter with a very strong team. Aberdeen suggested that the gate receipts, knowing from past experience that small town clubs would not draw here, but to this the O.H.A. could not consent.

The Hamilton Depot Regiment, Canadian division, has entered a team in the O.H.A. intermediate series. The team are several former O.H.A. players from different towns, and probably a good team will be the result. The list of officers is as follows: Hon. president, Lieut.-Col. W. C. Brooke, C.C. Present, Major T. B. Balfour, B. Squadron. First vice-president, Major Gordon J. Smith, A. Squadron. Second vice-president, Major W. Alan Stroud, C. Squadron. Secretary, Lieut. H. T. Hall, adjutant. Treasurer, Capt. B. C. Ball. Manager, Lieut. W. G. Sipp. Committee—The three squadron sergeant-majors and two privates to be appointed later. The team will be known as Depot Regiment, C.M.R.

Lawrence Solman, manager of the Arena, is the authority for the statement that his directors have ordered him to offer the local pro. clubs the same terms as they received last year, and this list will have a last year's value. The following are the terms given last year were: The first $10,000 taken in the clubs got $50 and the Arena $50 per cent. From $10,000 to 15,000 the clubs got 60 and the Arena 40 per cent., and all over that the clubs were given 70 per cent. of the receipts.

The management threatens to remove both clubs to Boston if the Arena fails to better its terms. Mr. Solman said that he is the best he has to offer and that the Arena will have to get on without pro. hockey.

An Alvinston despatch says: A meeting to organize a hockey club for the season of 1915-16 was held in the council chamber of the Boston Braves last night. The following were the officers elected: Hon. President, George Brown; president, Dr. P. L. Poirer; first vice-president, George Oranger; second vice-president, Al. Blundell; secretary-treasurer, H. Newcombe; manager, Joe. Croome; trainer, K. Williams; working committee, Austin, M.

Eddie McKay, the prominent London hockey and football player, is flying Dayton, Ohio, where he is taking a course in aviation with the Curtiss Company. McKay is now residing in the Royal Flying Corps. He is doing well in this line, and experts say that he will make a splendid aviator.

Lance Lett, the crack goalie of the Russell team, in the Lower Ottawa Hockey Association, is now residing in Ottawa, and will likely be picked up by one of the capital clubs. He has lived in Russell for the last three years and has guarded the nets for that club.

Tommy Lowrey, the former Hull star, will likely cast his lot with the Ottawa Britannias this season. Last year Lowrey was one of the stars of the Lower Ottawa Hockey Association.

A Vancouver despatch says: Mickey Mackay, centre man, and Lloyd Cook, defence player of the Vancouver hockey team, yesterday received wire, and turned down offers from Canadiens, Ottawa and Toronto. With the exception of Hugh Lehman, now en route to Vancouver, the local team is complete, and the players had their first practice last night.

Montreal sends the following: Managing Director George Kennedy of the Canadiens announces officially that he has signed up Neway Lalonde. Last year Lalonde was regular goal keeper, owing to an attack of muscular rheumatism and neuritis, but his showing on the ice this season was so good that it looks as if he would be as good as ever on the ice this winter. It is announced that Brownie Baker, as well as Donald Smith, will be seen on the line-up of the Wanderers, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The management expects to have as strong a team as any of the other clubs will be able to produce. The men will start practicing next week, and the moon practices, which were a feature last year, will be changed to evening practices this season, for the men have all managed to land good jobs for the winter. The Cleghorns, of course, are permanently connected, and the father, the once-celebrated lacrosse player, in the off business with Hesson as their principal goaltender. The have no fear whatever of any of their rivals.

At a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of hockey supporters at Woodstock, it was decided to enter a junior and an intermediate team in the O.H.A., and if suitable grounds can be arranged, an intermediate team will be entered in the Northern League.

Communications with outside places are now under way and replies are expected within a few days. The outlook is promising.

NEWS TO GARRY.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 23.—"That's surprising news to me. I never heard of it before," was the comment of President Garry Herdman today when he learned of a Chicago rumor that Hand Gowdy, Johnny Evers and Charley Schmidt of the Boston Braves are to come to the Reds in exchange for Tom Clark, Charley Herron and another player. There's no such deal pending," Herrmann said.

GAFFNEY LAUGHS.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 23.—"Absolutely nothing is going on here," said Gaffney of the Boston Braves this afternoon when asked if there was any foundation to the story that Garry Evers and Schmidt would swing to the Cincinnati club. HOW AMERICAN A. A. U. GATHERS IN THE PROFITS

Boxing Most Profitable of All the Sports—Something in Athletics.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A recapitulation of the profit and loss items of the A. A. U. for the past season shows that four fixtures were productive of gains.

These were the ten-mile and seven-mile walk, the indoor swimming championship, the Panama-Pacific track and field championships and the boxing tourney held at Boston.

The boxing was the most profitable of all the sports controlled by the national body. It netted a profit of $384.30.

Every year the money gathered from the boxing game has helped to swell the exchequer of the A. A. U.

Some 20 years ago, when the association was without a penny, the first relief it got was from a boxing tournament, ever since the annual fixture shows up well on the credit side of the balance sheet.

A number of the followers of athletics have been anxious for a couple of months past to learn how much money was made at the track and field championships at San Francisco, held in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The sum tabulated on the secretary-treasurer's report was $337.72. This was a good sum, considering that the weather was cold.

PRO TEAMS IN EAST READY FOR SEASON

Every Club Has Its Players in Line—The Roster.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—The situation in the National Hockey Association is far from settled, the four eastern clubs have practically completed the work of signing up their players.

There are only three or four more to be added to the Ottawa club and Coach Smith will be ready to send his Senators out on the ice.

The Quebec club has landed all of last year's players and Sammy Lichtenberg's Wanderers will be found about intact.

Canadiana has signed up its players and the event of the two western teams being dropped, the championship race between the Wanderers and the Senators will be a thrilling one.

For the defence, on the line there will be Jack Lynch, Eddie Gerard, Frank Nighbor and Angus Duford, with the possibility of one or two of the amateur stars making good.

Nick Bawit and Eddie Lowery will be added to the Ottawa roster.

Quebec has Paddy Moran for goal and on the defence there will be Joe Hall, Harry Mumery and Dave Etoch.

Many other games are scheduled for Thursday, Columbia, New York University and Fordham will close their seasons on that day.

The University of Pittsburgh promises to be one of the hardest-cought of the day.

Horses and Carriages

A GENTLEMAN who kept a small fruit farm at Niagara the past two years, having sold it recently, sent his nice bay mare to us yesterday. She is the short-limbed, thick, blocky built sort. We believe she is sound, a great roadster, warranted free from all bad or vicious habits, exceedingly easy keeper, always round, plump and fat; she weighs about 1100 lbs. What a grand little mare she would be for some farmer to do garden work, as she follows the furrows without lines! She is an artist at this sort of work, used to autos and city sights and sounds, just the mare for nervous ladies to drive or ride; excellent steel-tired buggy and harness, pretty fur rug; summer rug, halter, large well-lined blanket, good halter and girth, buggy created and all put free on car here. Send or bring us $60 and you own this nice mare. Apply including this nice mare. Apply to address Manager, Toronto Pony Home, 288 1/2 Bathurst street. Our phone is College 1856. THE GREATEST PRAYER IN THE WORLD

Prayer is the highest act of man. In it he is nearest to his Creator and the farthest from his sometime brother—the brute. All women and most men pray—whether they admit it or not. Prayer is the soul's answer to the question, "If a man die, shall he live again?" It came direct from Heaven, and did not unfold itself along with the convolutions of the brain.

This is why the Lord's Prayer is the greatest prayer in the world. It is divine faith breathed into human words. All creeds, formulas, systems, philosophies, theologies—are within its miraculous compass. It is Religion itself. Like the dewdrop, it orbs the universe. Wise men have studied it reverently. Great men have lived and died with it on their lips. One-half the world has known no other prayer for 2000 years.

WINTER NEEDED TO HELP QUALITY

Open Weather is Keeping Good Quality Cattle in Pastures.

HOG PRICES ASCEND
As High as Nine-Fifty, Fed and Watered, Paid at Stock Yards.

The receipts of live stock at the Union
Stock Yards on Tuesday numbered 66 cars, including 1011 calves, 540 hogs, 1499 sheep and lambs.

Butcher's cattle: The open weather is keeping the good quality cattle in the country; a day or two of real winter would change this. Yesterday there were only half a dozen cars of good quality steers; they sold steady; 10 choice steers sold at $14.00; 1 car, 1000 lbs., at $14.00;
1140 lbs., at $12.25; 1 car, 1020 lbs., at $7.
There was a considerable part of the shipment of hogs of medium to good quality, sewing at $6.25 to $6.75. The balance of the hogging cattle was composed of rough steers and common to medium cows and bulls. Prices for these were steady with Monday's quotations and were pretty well cleaned up at noon.

Stocks and feeders: Farmer buyers have been scarce in the morning, but have been plentiful looking for feeders.
The light, common kind are weak and slow.
Milkers and springers: Good milkers and forward springers were hard to find
yesterday and buyers were disappointed.
Quite a few several open orders for this class and prices are good.

Choice hogs: The choice kind are saleable in the morning at $9 to $9.50, but the small of the calf classes are slow and easy.
The heavy hogs are strong and the high values quoted Monday. Dunn & Leveck sold 157 lambs of the light choice kind at $2.50. The majority of this grade sell from $2.25 to $2.40. Light sheep are advancing in comparison with the heavy and cutters at $2.25 to $2.40; light
and forward springers were hard to find
yesterday and buyers were disappointed.

SETTLEMENT DAY ON MINING MARKET

Profit-Taking Effective, But
There Was a Constantly Good Demand on Concessions.

Yesterday on the mining exchange was a day of settlement. An almost continuous advance in several stocks for upwards of a week had brought prices to a stage where profit-taking was effective and traders likely to test the short side of the market. Prices were in an indecisive condition with buying and selling pressure pretty evenly distributed. Many traders inclined to the opinion that a moderate reaction would be beneficial to the market, and acted accordingly in their dealings. Only an increase in the outside demand, and in this New York was prominent, kept prices intact and permitted the establishment of a higher level of values. The strength of silver, which rose further to $2 3-4 an ounce, was a sustaining factor to the Cobalts, and incidentally an aid to the Porcupines. Price changes for the day were not material, and there was a constantly good demand for stocks offered at small concessions.

McINTYRE EXTENSION ORE TREATED BY McINTYRE MILL

The previous development at the McIntyre Extension about 300,000 tons of ore was blocked out on the 300 and 400 levels. The new plant will now be in operation and it will be impossible to handle the same until the new plant unit of the McIntyre Extension is finished, at the beginning of next year. In the meantime the shaft on from the 600-foot to the 1000-foot level.

SHORTAGE OF LABOR IS FEARED IN CANADA

Collicies Feel Pinch Resulting From Heavy Recruiting of Miners.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—With the returning prosperity and increased industrial activity, the problem of recruiting is growing more serious. A number of industries. It is claimed, are already affected by the large number of men who have gone to the front. Mr. F. W. Gray, of the Dominion Coal Company, has called the attention of the Ottawa authorities to the fact that the enlistment of miners in Nova Scotia has resulted in considerable reduction in the output, which is having an influence on industrial and transportation conditions. Other industries are also having difficulty in getting men and it is feared that by next spring there will be a serious shortage of labor in Canada.

New York Stock Exchange Reported Small Dealings by Public.

ADVANCE FOR C. P. R.

Export Demand for Steel Formed One of Chief Constructive Features.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Trading in stocks today was perfunctory and superficial from start to finish. Dealings diminished to the meagre total of 338,000 shares and except for some of the more speculative specialties, which have recently figured prominently, price changes were insignificant or at least unimportant. A steady tone was maintained throughout but this was due more to the absence of pressure than to any actual demand.

STOCK FLUCTUATIONS RESTRICTED IN RANGE

Montreal Exchange Experienced Day of Light Trading With Steady Undertone.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—Price fluctuations in local stocks were narrow today and business very quiet, but the market continued to maintain a good undertone. Changes in the Canadian market were active and the usual Anise-Holden demand was noted. The market for iron and steel was quiet, but the price of iron ore was active, finishing 1/2 cent lower at 21. Foreign exchange was active, with the dollar selling at a high of 75 for small lots and a low of 74 for large lots. The pound was at 115 1/2, and the franc at 20 1/2. WHEAT REACTION ON BETTER NEWS

Denials of Blockade Proved Offset for Declines at Chicago.

VISIBLE SUPPLY BIG

Liberal Receipts and Another High Record in Ocean Freight Depressing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Denials that any Greek ships were being held up or that a blockade of Greece was in force operated as more than an offset today for early declines in the wheat market here. The close was nervous, but at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 higher, with December at $1.04 and May at $1.06 1/2. Corn gained 1/4 cent, but this was due to the absence of pressure than to any actual demand. The wheat market had but little force until despatches from London were published indicating that reports of a complete stoppage of sea commerce with Greece represented what was feared would happen, instead of telling what was a fact. As soon as an explicit denial was received, the market began to rise, and the wheat market began to ascend in earnest. No subsequent setback of any importance took place and late prices were within 1/4 cent of the top level of the day.

SPECULATION ONLY IN TWO SPECIALTIES

Toronto Stock Market Quiet With Some Activity in Petroleum and National Car.

The only speculation in the Toronto market yesterday was in two specialties—Petroleum and National Car. The market for iron and steel was quiet, but the price of iron ore was active, finishing 1/2 cent lower at 21. The price of steel was offered at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, with the close only 1/4 cent higher.
