my the British in this neat little piece of work has swollen to 200, of whom five are officers. Needless to say the Germans in the trenches for miles away from this spot will be restless in the fear that sections of their trenches will be blown up in like manner. German guns and trench-mortars did a deal of shelling of British positions between Loos and Hulluch, and in front of Aix Noulette, and the British retaliated by bombarding the opposing lines.

Four things were settled at the great conference of the allies in Paris, as embodied in a formal resolution and made public last night. These are:

Unity of military action on unity of front as the allied general staffs may determine. 2. Unity of economic conference to propose the appropriation of measures to realize this solidarity. 3. The taking of military action is thus left with the allied general staffs. These will strike the enemy, not at a date fixed beforehand, but when the opportunity of the need is presented. Military action may be delayed on e western front by those Clyde workmen who have been induced by agitators to go out on strike in several factories where heavy guns are being manufactured. The conduct of these agitators is so suspicious as to lead to the supposition that they are being inspired by the enemy. But the opportunity chosen for the launching of such military effort rests upon so many factors that the effort might have to be made without the full complement of these big howitzers. Neither do generals work on a fixed program, but they stand ready to seize advantages when they are offered. Thus the Russian general Linavitch, who, under the Grand Duke Nicholas. captured Erzerum the other day, had planned in a general sense regular siege operations at this city, but seeing the easy manner in which he defeated the Turks, he at once hit on the project of carrying out the capture by assault, and his judgment was vindicated by the success that was so speedily won. Thus the Russian army of the Caucasus is considerably

While sailing about in the North Sea, probably in the vicinity of the German coast, Saturday night British light cruisers encountered a division of German destroyers and the Cleopatra rammed and sank a German vessel. The Cleopatra is one of the new light and fast ships added to the British fleet since the beginning of the war, and her exploit more than balances the loss of the Medusa, which went down after all the crew had been saved, The loss of a destroyer to Germany is a greater mishap than the loss of a destroyer to Britain, which has now probably double the number of these craft in commission that Germany has, and on that account the sinking of one of these units in the case of Germany bears a percentage of loss double that in the case of Great Britain.

The German overseas news agency (Wolff Press Bureau), which spreads abroad fictions which even the German general staff balks at fathering, sent out yesterday wireless reports stating that the losses of the Russians in their offensive against the 75-mile front held by Von Hindenburg amount to 80,000. Sixty divisions of Russians are said to be engaged in the battle, and it is asserted that the German lines have been unshaken. The real truth concerning the fighting there is that the Russians have made progress of several miles in two important sectors where the main struggles have been proceeding, namely, in the Jacobstadt sector and the lake region. The Russians have also made considerable gains west of Dvinsk. Anyhow, the loss of the equivalent of four divisions out of sixty engaged on the Germans' own showing would be less than seven per cent.

York County

Conference to Be Held Between Commission and York County Officials Soon.

OPPOSED TO DEVIATION

It was stated in York County municipal circles yesterday that a communication had been received by County Clark Phillips from George H. Gooderhem, M.L.A., chairman of the Toronto-Highway Commission, asking for a conference between the members of the York County Council and the Toronto-Hamilton representatives. The purpose of the proposed meeting, it is stated, is to try and arrive at some clear understanding as between the two commissions relative to the control of the Lake Shore road. At the present time the whole thing is said to be in a muddle with nobody responsible for the upkeep of the highway. "The fact of the whole matter is," said a member of the York Highway Commission, "that none of us know where we are at, now that the Toronto-Hamilton people have taken over the road, and we are out of it. We have never been able to get any satisfaction out of the commission, of which Mr. Gooderham is chairman, and they evidently do not wish to allow us anything for the work we have put on the Lake Shore road."

The Toronto-Hamilton Highway Commission have built 13½ miles, beginning at Clarkson and running westerly to nearly Vakville. A litle grading has been done at Port Credit, but beyond this nothing has been done on the Lake Shore road."

Instead of keeping along the Lake nothing has been done on the Lake Shore road.

Instead of keeping along the Lake Shore road from Toronto to Hamilton as embodied in the original bill an amendment is now before the private bills committee of the legislature asking that the highway be diverted from the Lake Shore at the Etobicoke creek to Queen street along which it is proposed to run until it strikes the water again at the Humber Bay. The distance is approximaely 5½ miles or exactly the same as if the highway continued along the southern route.

The Township of Etobicoke will oppose any further grant toward the road, and George S. Henry, M.L.A., for East York, who is also a member of the York County Highway Board, and W. H. Pugsley will represent the county commission when the bill comes before the committee. Whether they will oppose the deviation from the Lake Shore to Queen street depends upon the cost and other conditions not yet made public.

ing I had started a ranch in Alberta, and was discontinuing business here.

I am operating a ranch of 1280 acres in Alberta, but have no intention of making any change whatever in the Aurora business. The ranch will not take up any of my time, except I will, each year, go west for a few weeks. This year, as I am building a house, barn, and making some other improvements, I intend to spend the month of May and part of June in Alberta.

I wish you would be good enough to make this correction. We have been in business here since 1853, and have a wide connection. A report, as it is now in circulation, would very seriously affect our business. Yours very truly,

The disgraceful and dangerous condition of Davenport road, particularly that portion between Marchment road and Christie street, is a matter of serious complaint amongst the residents of Ossington avenue and Oakwood district.

Clifford E. Blackburn, J.P.; president of the Ratepayers' Association, in that section, states that he will bring the question before the next meeting of the association and request that the city engineer be written to urging the immediate placing of a concrete sidewalk on the south side of Davenport.

"The slimy and muddy condition of the plank sidewalk on the north side of Davenport road was responsible for a number of falls last Sunday," said Mr. Blackburn, "and nothing will suffice to prevent this state of things in wet weather unless the city place a retaining wall along the embankment on the north side of the road. The city's workmen are engaged every day trying to keep the roadway clean, but it is impossible,"

Aurora, March 27.

As an indication of the growth of the Methodist Mission in the northwest district, two new churches will be erected during the year in the North Earlscourt and Oakwood sections to replace the present temporary frame structures. During the summer the associate pastor in charge of the Oakwood Mission, Rev. Harry Pawson, will be ordained. Rev. Roy Rickard of the North Earlscourt Mission has resigned his charge, having enlisted for overseas,

A special service of song was held last evening in the Earlscourt Salvation Army Citadel, St. Clair avenue west, a capacity audience being present. Adjutant Patterson addressed the meeting, and the musical portion of the proceedings was contributed by the Girl Cadets, assisted by an augmented choir.

Nearly all the votes against the measure came from Ontato Conservatives. The Quebec members present were in favor of the Canadian Northern, and they were reinforced from both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, The western Liberals, Messrs, J. G. Turriff (Assinibota) and W. A. Buchanan (Medicin Hate) supported Sir Adam Beck and the hydro radial cause, while against them were lined up some Ontario members, in-cluding W. H. for the charter was being put up by Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway, which had long desired entrance into Hamilton and Toronto. Dr. Reid, while not pressing the point, nor making any official declaration more than intimated that the whole Canadian Northern system might soon

The meeting was a turbulent one and several members protested against the interruptions from Quebec members, who display a remarkable interest in and familiarity with the local affairs of Ontario.

Reid Reviews Efforts.

Before the general discussion com-menced Hon. Dr. Reid, acting minister of railways and canals, addressed the committee. He said that he had en-deavored to bring about a settlement between the parties. He understood purpose of stating the position of the government.

The Canadian Northern, Mr. Maclean continued, as a great transcontinental railway system, was entitled to get to the Niagara and Detroit frontiers, but between the parties. He understood at one time that the main point in dispute was the line between Fort Eric and Port Colborne. He had, therefore, prevailed upon the Canadian Northern people to drop that line from the bill. But while this met one of the objections.

These proposals were not satisfactory to the Canadian Northern, and Dr. Reid said that in his opinion they reflected upon him personally as acting minister. No construction, he said, could be com-menced by any railway until the route map was approved by the minister of railways. He saw no reason why the railway board should be called upon to act.

The last statement caused Mr. Bureau of Three Rivers to sarcastically inquire why the hydro radial was so inquire why the hydro radial was so frantically fighting the renewal of a charter that would never be used to build a railway. W. H. Bennett said the hydro radial was not so popular as people supposed. The bylaw had only received a majority of 500 in Sir Adam Beck's home City of London.

Dr. Edwards (Frontenac) protested against the treatment that had been accorded to Mr. Armstrong. Members from other provinces, he said, had come there determined to bulldoze Ontario.

Dr. Edwards went on to say that he would not grant any concession to the Canadian Northern, because it repudiated its written obligations. It had re-ceived $5,000 for some conces-sion from a municipality in his township and had then failed to carry Touch of Comedy.

D. B. Hanna: "What you are talking about is a contract made by the Bay of Quinte Railway and occurred many years ago." Dr. Edwards: "You are like every other lawyer—you will try to make a case for your client." This caused a roar of laughter, which left the mem-

Sir Adam Beck rejoined that the hydro radial could build the road for $3,000,000 less than the Canadian Northern. "Yet." he added, significantly, "this government seems to be backing up the Canadian Northern."

Mr. Hanna: "I call for the protection of the chair. I have been accusted of every other crime in the calendar, but never before have I been called a awyer."

Dr. Clark of Red Deer thought the Northern."

He went on to say that the company that really wanted the charter was the Delaware. Lackawanna & Western. That road had long been anxious to get into St. Catharines, Hamilton and Toronto. The bill was designed to help out an country.

It would not do, Mr. Maclean said, to hide behind the railway committee. The government must accept full responsibility for this bill if it passed the house, but the government should try to get some bility for this bill if it passed the house, but the government should try to get some solution of the problem. That was difficult, but not beyond solution. It would be a godsend, he thought, to the Canadian Northern to have a fine double-track road built for them from Toronto to Niagara and Detroit. The hydro radial was anxious to build the road and willing to give the Canadian Northern running rights.

Need Another Road.

Dr. Reid said there would have to be another road between Toronto and Niagara. The Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific were taxed to capacity. If the Canadian Northern built the road the minister would see that the hydro radial got running rights. He intimated that the Canadian Northern would eventually be taken over by the Dominion Government.

American railway by giving a black eye to the hydro-electric.

Double-Track Solution.

W. F. Maclean said he represented 199,000 people, four-fifths of whom probably lived in the City of Toronto. He might, therefore, say that he was the senior Toronto member.

Mr. Maclean said that the responsibility for this bill would be upon the minister and the government. They could not evade it. They must find a solution of some kind. It had been suggested that the Canadian Northern be given running rights over the hydro radial. The Canadian Northern, as a great transcontinental railway, had undoubted right to get to the Niagara and Detroit frontiers, but if there were physical difficulties it should not be at all impossible to make one double-track road serve two systems.

Stop Wasteful Duplication.

An enormous majority of the people of Toronto had endorsed the hydro radial bylaw, and development of the hydro radial service was very, dear to the hearts of the people of Ontario. The hydro radial scheme should not be defeated; neither should the Canadian Northern be unjustly dealt with. The two interests might be got together, and it was the duty of the government to see that they got together.

It was time to stop the wasteful duplication of railway construction in this country.

It would not do, Mr. Maclean said, to hide behind the railway committee. The Northern had running rights over the Intercolonial. This was the signal for general disorder. Mr. Armstrong, pale with the first signal for moinformation from Mr. Armstrong's large and the represented committee should vote. He was good to the hydro-electric. Double-Track Solution.

He pointed out that the "unfit" allowed to take the places of men who had risked their lives for the empire. Speaking of the effects of the war Mr. McCarthy stated that the enthusiasm of the Canadian people had grown without limit, and the fidelity of the empire to the best ideals of the 20th century had proved an inspiration to everybody. A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion" and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nervebuilding properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lackare usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well-fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fulness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any dring or medicine. which inflames the delicate stomach lin-ing, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medi-cine whenever necessary, but I must ad-mit that I cannot see the sense of dosing inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your drug-gist, eat what you want at your next as directed above, and see if I'm

It was the duty of the province to develop these resources to the utmost. Agriculture development was important and the need of farm labor was a pressing problem. The committee should take up this problem as part of their work and call before them eading agriculturists, manufacturers and military officers for advice. Mr. Rowell touched slightly on recruiting

"No nationalist minority in ountry is going to deter us from doing our full duty," he said. "I be-lieve that Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier in expressing the de-termination of the people of Canada to prosecute this war to a successful conclusion, expressed the overwhelming sentiment of both races in the Dominion of Canada.'

Spoke for Himself.
"When we asked to have a card index established why should it be sidetracked?" asked Mr. Godfrey, in supporting his bill for registration. munitions had requested the military for West York and I don't want any authorities to remove the delinquents body to accept responsibility for under the Defence of the Realm Act. what I say, but I think we have a (Ducharme), Mr. Godfrey wondered what his feelings were when he had to face the figures of Quebec in recruiting. Quebec, in the opinion of Dr. Godfrey, had not done her duty. More work and less talk was necessary in order that we could put forth our best effort to do all possible in the present war. He didn't ap-prove of the slip-shod method of recruiting we had in this country, and favored national service. Had the provincial treasurer, when he wanted $2,000,000 a year ago, issued a proclamation and then sent out recruiters to get the money? No, he had passed an act and conscripted the finances of the province. Dr. Godfrey pointed out that men were forced to serve on juries without being allowed to de-cide whether they would or not.

The present pace in recruiting was undemocratic because it put a discount on patriotism and a premium on shirkers. In France at the outbreak of the war every man had dropped into his place Position in Canada.

"What have we got here? Men laiming to have that country (France) as their motherland claim ing to stand as they stood years ago are fighting about regulation 17," said Dr. Godfrey. Ontario was being drained of her skilled mechanics. The evidence at the inquest into the Port Credit railroad wreck disclosed that a train crew had been on duty twentyhours. Would that two been the case had there been no shortage of men? But the recruiting ser geants were taking men away from he railroads and other industries, and thus they were being impaired.

"Whether the committee accept my bill or not, I know I'm right," asserted the member for West York. "Let us have a card index system when we shall be able to get those that should go, know who can't go, and thus orgaize our resources.

Favored Voluntary System. Hon. T. W. McGarry, provincial treasurer, thought the bill was along the lines we should avoid, because it touched on a question which came under the jurisdiction of the Dominion Farliament. He referred to the splen did work accomplished by the depart ment of agriculture in trying to meet and for farm labor, and expressed the view that the government had done everything that the people of the province wished it to do till last summer we were proud to be able to say that we recruited under the voluntary system. Why should the suggestion now be made that another system was necessary? "I take issue with the man who says that thruout Ontario there is any want of feeling or desire to do all that is possible for Britain in the present war," said Mr. McGarry.
Ontario's Good Showing.

He quoted figures to show the progress of recruiting in the Dominion, and he compared Ontario with the rest of Canada. On the basis of 1911 popuiation, we should have recruited onethird of the 250,000 men called for up till Dec. 31. Of the number asked we had provided 81,752, or 2000 short of one-third. But since Dec. 31 we our had recruited at the rate of 3600 men per week, and if that pace is kept up, we would have our share of men in khaki by Aug. 1. Mr. McGarry thought that 3600 men per week was as many as the military authorities could handle There were matters connected with the enlistment of men that must be decided by the military authorities at Ottawa, and not by Ontario. The special committee could consider the resolution, but one of the first things that should be done was to get in touch

R. R. Gamey (Manitoulin), vigorously opposed both the registration bill and Mr. Rowell's resolution, in a fiery speech, which stirred the members of the house. Ontario was patriotic and needed nothing of the kind, he said.
Toronto was the essence of patriotism. He wondered why the leader of the opposition at Ottawa and the preright to get at the root of who is responsible," he continued. Refersion at Ottawa and the premier of Quebec did not make remarks along the lines of those of the leader of the Ontario opposition. It would be interesting to hear what they were doing down in Quebec.

"It's absolutely unfair to try to throw out an insinuation of any kind that Ontario has not done her duty or to try to measure her with France," said Mr. Gamey. "When war was declared the Hun was ready to step into France. The French flocked to the Put France 3000 miles away from the battle lines in the same position as Ontario and you wouldn't find the patriotism like you find it in

In Cradle of Loyalty. "Old Ontario has been planted in the cradle of loyalty by the kind of men who are fighting for us today," said

Mr. Gamey.

Conscription in Ontario was not ne essary. Registration was not a concern for this province; it was up to the Dominion Government. Registration would show every province exactly where it belonged. It was all nonsense to get up and talk about motions and bills of the kind. Mr. Gamey insisted that any act of registration must be levelled at all the provinces and not at Ontario. Mr. Gamey referred to the British blood that was being spilled in France oday. Then the French agitators would stand up in Quebec and say this was not our war. What kind of sentiments were these? In conclusion, he Mrs. Thomas E. Aim Not Conscription. Before the house adjourned Mr. Ro-well emphasized the fact that there was no suggestion of conscription to his resolution. Dr. Godfrey interrupted to say that neither was there any conscription about his bill.

Premier Hearst said that in sending the resolution and the bill to a special committee the government was not supporting the principle as in other bills before the house but desired that a full and frank discussion take place. "I repeat that the paramount of this house, of this province and of its people, is to do everything possible to end this terrible war," cluded the premier. E. W. J. Owens (South East Tor-

MAKE PREPARATIONS TO

Filling in of Catfish Pond Again Before Civic Parks Committee.

PRESENTED NEW SCHEME

Commissioner Chambers Thinks He Can Save Big Sum on Expenditure.

Sunshine and spring floods have rought to the minds of the members of the civic parks committee the nesity for making preparation to fight he mosquito invasion this summer in he vicinity of Catfish Pand in High Park. The proposed filling-in of the ond came before the committee again resterday, when Commissioner Chamers presented a scheme which he thought would save the city about $12,000 of an expenditure of $68,740, iready approved by council.

The commissioner's recommendation s that instead of constructing a fourot drain to take care of the water foot drain to take care of the water enering the pond from the north, connecting same with the Keele street storm sewer, the present stream running into the pond being diverted to run along the west shore of the pond, the south end. It was pointed out that this diverted stream would drain the hillsides and ravines bordering on the present pond and would do away with the necessity of excavating thru the park for a concrete sewer, which would not take care of the drainage from the hillsides. The committee considerable discussion among the re-sidents in the vicinity of Dovercourt Park. Yesterday a deputation in op-position to those who want the game eliminated from the park altogether, visited the committee, claiming that if there was any damage done by the boys it was done by the older ones and not the "kiddles" between the ages of seven and twelve. The matter will be decided by the committee later.

No Further Need for It and Assets Are Handed to Board of Control.

Toronto Municipal Loan Association, yesterday presented a statement of the association's affairs to the board of association's affairs to the board of control, and handed over the assets as follows: Cash, $40,582.65; bonds unissued, $75,000, and outstanding loans amounting to $4,377.26, 70 to 80 per cent. of which are collectible. With the turning over of the assets the asfound that there was no further need nt when the association was organized no longer exist. The relief work endered thru the association entailed only a small loss.

It was decided to recommend that $2900 be provided to improve the ventilating and lavatory accommodation in the dog, poultry and manufacturers' building at the Canadian National Ex-appeal against the award in the O'Neill of the northeast corner of Parliament and Gerrard streets, whereby the city cluding Saturday evening. The taxes on the property of the High Park Bowling and Curling Club are to be cancelled, as the club is be-

None of the speakers explained why an outside commit-tee had conducted the petition campaign which resulted in the governnent's action.

Joseph Gibson, past president, said that there was not a thought of jealousy. They were willing to work with a committee of 100 or a committee of 1000, it did not matter how many. This was the only allusion to the Warburton-Wylie movement. The fact that the Committee of One Hundred had decided to raise a big campaign fund to keep their movement in operation was ignored. The usual Alliance com-mittees, covering all lines of campaign work, were appointed. The convention authorized the executive to send a deputation this morning to thank Premier Hearst and his col-

Quebec to Go Dry.

Quebec Province will go dry within three years, according to J. H. Roberts of Montreal. He declared that the Quebec Alliance and the Catholic Anti-Alcoholic League had united for a provincial prohibition campaign. TORONTO UNIVERSITIES

Officials Yesterday Emphatically Stated There Was No Truth in Report.

When a World reporter asked Chancellor McCrimmon of McMaster University yesterday if there was any oundation for the Hamilton report that McMaster might locate in Hamilton, he stated that he knew nothing about it. McMaster University had taken no steps whatever in regard to a change.

whatever in regard to a change.

Even stronger was the statement of authorities at Victoria College. The Federation of Colleges with the University of Toronto was working out as near perfection as anything human could. Twenty-five years ago, before federation. Senator Sanford was anxious to have Victoria locate in Hamilton, but since the federation nothing was heard around Victoria College on the subject. Most emphatic were the remarks of Pagistrar Exchange of Toronto University. Most emphatic were the remarks of Registrar Brebner of Toronto University. He said on account of the federation, Victoria College could not move. A college in Hamilton could only do the work of a good high school. The reason why the federation was formed was because it was found that the smaller colleges could not do the required work. High schools, he stated, were now doing first year university work.

From these statements it looks as the the Hamilton committee which urged the board of trade to take every possible step to induce a college to locate in Hamilton will meet with little success.

SENTENCE WAS CHANGED.

Richard Boyd appealed against a conviction in the police court for assaulting a policeman, claiming that he had not been represented by coursel. Judge Coatsworth changed the police court sentence of six months to a fine of $30 and $10 costs.

In the criminal sessions yesterday, Mrs. M. Feldstein, on trial with E. A. Stevenson on a charge of false pretences, was found not guilty, while Stevenson was found guilty by the jury but was allowed out on suspended sentence. When the verdict was brought in Mrs. Feldstein fainted.

St. Grymes County, Texas.

Buras was the son of a wealthy farmer living at Keith, St. Grymes County, Texas. Trouble between Burns and Peteete, a neighbor, ensued over Peteete taking down the line fence between the two farms and allowing his pigs to run among and de-stroy Burns' corn. Burns warned him time and again to stop this practice, ut Peteete refused to do so.
Burns endured Peteete's action for about a year, until one Sunday, about ilve years ago, the two men met outside the church. Peteete shouldered Burns, taunted bim with being a coward and told him to go home and get a gun. The taunt was too much for Burns, and he did as he was told. A fuel followed, and Peteete was killed. Burns was arrested on a charge of murder and found guilty of man-slaughter. He was sentenced to three years in prison.

When he had but eleven months to serve, Burns broke jail. He came to Canada two years ago, and joined the American Legion on its inception. Rurns is considered one of the smart-est soldiers in the legion. He is now held by the police, pending instruc-tions from the police authorities at Huntsville, Texas.

Aviation.

Almost daily there is coming to hand fore an enemy thus provided. So tain about the inadequacy of the measures adopted by the government there in this respect that the government candidate at a recent election, backed sive and advanced aviation measures, was returned triumphantly.

This is in England where people are accustomed at times to think and done to enlist workers in toys from speak for themselves. What they the ranks of the returned and invalidwould do to a government which has ed soldiers. Work of this kind might refused to do anything at all for aviable found to be suitably light and removal and ethical foundations it does tion it is not for us to say, but the munerative. Meanwhile there is an jecture. At Ottawa the authorities to "toyland, toyland, mystic, merry who have power appear to be deaf to joyland," in the Board of Trade exhiall representations on the question. The authorities who have no power are precluded by their position from expressing their views.

In Toronto the strongest feelings are entertained among those who understand the importance of aeroplane service and letters have been received on the matter from the highest authorities in Great Britain, where it is now realized that no dallying with the subject will be permitted. Canada is behind every other place in the world in aviation. Deplorable as this must be felt to be by all patriotic Canadians. there does not at present appear to be the duty of a native Canadian should glad to hear from any who are interested in this question, and he may be addressed at the Military Institute.

It is not long since Australia made an offer of a complete squadron for the Royal Flying Corps, and the offer ed. The squadron has been provisionally organized in Australia, with 28 officers and 186 men. But this is not all. The Melbourne papers state that arflying corps unit for active service per cent. abroad. This is one of the things which Canada could do almost better than anywhere else. Yet the governare declared to be the best men to be year, South Africa 5 1-2 per cent, New flying camps, and our aeroplanes are per cent. and Canada 2.37 per cent. being purchased by all the allied nations.

An offer by Colonel Merritt to send five to ten men a month was received forward without a day's delay. Yet by the British War Office as most important assistance. Yet as a nation we are not doing as much as the little Island of Mauritius, which raised $25,-000 in three weeks by public subscription for the presentation of aeroplanes to the war office. The cost of two fighter aeroplanes with guns has been paid over, and subscriptions are still coming in. If the government will do nothing the people of Canada must bestir themselves to some similar ac-

Toys.

Christmas is still some distance away, but those who cater for Christmas have to think a long way ahead in order to be ready for the demand when it arises. Christmas would be little for the little people if there were no toys. Toys mark Christmas with a reputation which it never loses, and if we devote ourselves to larger toys as we grow older we may be grateful to Christmas for having implanted the

We have been indebted to our friends the enemy for most of our toys for many years past. They do not entertain Christmas sentiments for us any longer, and, however unwilling, we are compelled to reciprocate in kind. There are more emphatic ways perhaps, of manifesting our feelings than by a boycott of German toys, but it is one way, and not an ineffective way. Perhaps the toy-makers of Germany are not so fond of hating as some of their fellow-countrymen are, but if they do not share the common sentiments of their nation they must look to the kaiser for remedy.

We have been forced to the decision that we shall make our own toys. We had been doing it to some extent, and we had been using British toys also to some extent. A man invented and made a fortune out of a "Teddy Bear" toy, and we used him extensively. But now we are set on having toys of our very own, that will represent the spirit and the art and industry of the Dominion, and perhaps preserve alive something of the old aboriginal quality which makes our land distinctive among all the lands of the earth.

The toy exhibition which was open ed yesterday by Sir George Foster, in the Board of Trade, does full justice to Canadian enterprise in this industry. The exhibit is, however, a sample exhibit of all kinds of toys, brought together with the object of affording the Canadian toy manufacturer an opportunity to compare his work with others, and to let him pick up new ideas, or old ones for that matter. which can be adapted to Canadian trade. There is evidently room for advance.

Those of us who are getting gray may remember the toy drums of years ago, with their parchment heads, or occasionally their sheepskin ends. All that is changed and the child has the advantage which used to lie with the deafened parent. It is now possible to buy an indestructible drum with a steel head, which may be pounded ad libitum, so that if you hate any man sufficiently to do him a grievous injury, a present of one of these to his the evidence that the Government of charming little five-year-old son will Canada is doing less than it ought to do the trick with deadly certainty. In do to increase the aviation forces the old days our parents encouraged which are of such vital importance us to beat harder and harder, and so to the army at the front. With- the climax quickly, arrived and the out aeroplanes, skilled pilots and drum head burst and there was an observers, an army is helpless be- end of the intolerable noise. But science and art and manufacture have strong is the feeling in Great Bri- advanced, and now there will be no end to it.

Sir George uttered one view which we fear is a fallacy where toys are concerned. He thought they should be by both the old parties, was turned instructive as well as amusing. Recruiting.

In the address made by General the Hon. James Mason in the senate two weeks ago, he quoted figures which should cause some reflection among Canadians who have the interest of their country at heart. There is a general feeling that Canada should do her duty in the war. But it is to be regretted that the majority of Canadians of eligible military quality think that their duty should be done by someone else. They are willing that any way of remedying it except by be done by proxy. As a class, as the private effort. Colonel Merritt will be senator mildly puts it, native born Canadians "have not yet shown a disposition to do their full duty."

He pertinently asks where are the next 250,000 men to come from, after stating the figures for the enlistments to date. The census totals give 973.621 was, of course, most cordially accept- eligible men of Canadian birth. Of these 73,935 have enlisted, or less than thirty per cent. The census total of British born is 285,858, and of these 156,637 enlisted, or sixty-three per cent. rangements are being made by the The foreign born numbered 278,652, minister of defence to send a complete and of these 18,899 enlisted, or eight

With relation to the total population our proportion is rather disheart. ening. Great Britain had eight per ment will not budge. Our flying men cent, under arms at the close of the had, when they go over to the English | Zealand 4.15 per cent., Australia 3.57

There are a million men of military age and quality now left in Canada. Half of them at least ought to come the regiments have to draw recruits as a dentist pulls teeth. General Mason paid a fine tribute to the men who have had the sense of duty, the instinct for national service, and the practical patriotism to do what is required of them in this most crucial struggle. He is of the opinion that in duty to the nation and of necessity to the cause in which we are enlisted, steps must be taken to bring home to those who have not yet understood their duty what is required of them. All single men in Great Britain are now under conscription. Married men, it is anticipated, will soon be under the same emergency rule. The emergency is as great in Canada as in the old country, and if the Can-

OVERSEAS TROOPS AT OSHAWA

OSHAWA, March 28.—This town will again, this week, be treated to a lavish display of pictures in this week's ssue of The Toronto Sunday World. Last week a very fine series of pictures appeared in The Sunday World, and it will be gratifying to see that Oshawa looms so large in the military eye of Ontario. In this week's issu there is a humorous picture of Col. Sam Sharpe's 116th Battalion doing the "Poodle Hop"; another very excellent picture is that of the Bugle Band of the 84th Battalion, which is in charge of Bugle Sgt. Cuthbert; there is also a view of a sham fight indulged in by the troops stationed here. The bu glers and drummers are also pictured together with their mascot, in charge of Corp. Parkes. There is a certain humor suggested when speaking of a painted horse, as the public generally nfer that it has reference to things political; however, this picture shows a group of soldiers at Oshawa painting equine so as to disguise him from eyes of the enemy. The Toronto Sunday World is for sale at Heriderson Bros., and Hallett's book stores, and to insure obtaining a copy of this week's issue it would be well to place your order at once.

TURK CAMP RAIDED BY BRITISH AIRMEN

Successful Attack Made on Hundred Miles East of Suez Canal.

SET CAMP ON FIRE

One British Airman Put Body of Turk Infantry to Rout.

LONDON, March 28.-A successful aerial raid on the Turkish advance base at Bir-El-Hassanah, 100 miles east of the Suez Canal, is reported in a Reuter despatch from Suez. The raid was made by British airmen on March 24. Forty bombs were dropped on the Turkish camp, which was set on fire. Other bombs hit the reservoir and the buildings erected by the Turks in the last few months.

erected by the Turks in the last few months.

One British airman routed, single-handed, a body of Turkish infantry. Descending to within 200 feet, he approached the Turks from behind, and opened fire with his machine gun. The Turks fled in panic.

All the aeroplanes returned in safety, having flown some 200 miles.

It has become a practice of British airmen when flying over the desert to attack and disperse hostile patrols by spraying them with machine gun fire.

POPULACE OF MILAN ENJOYED RAID BY AIR

Mistook Bombardment of Austrians for Trial of Italian Craft.

GRIM REALIZATION.

for Revenge in Reality of Death.

Margaret George, the Canadian acano, received the following interesting etter from Milan, Italy, Feb. 15: Yesterday two Austrian aeroplanes gave Milan its baptism of fire.

Yesterday two Austrian aeroplanes gave Milan its baptism of fire. They circled over the city at a great height for half an hour, dropping bombs, and then made off, chased by Italian aircraft. According to reports up to date, they got clear away.

This bombardment is probably unique in the history of air raids. If the Austrians had been able to clearly see the people they were bombarding, they would have seen an ocean of smiling faces turned skywards watching their movements. During the half-hour that the bombardment lasted the majority of the populace thoroly enjoyed it. The explanation is simple. By a peculiar coincidence, the evening before last the papers announced that a trial of aircraft would take place shortly. Consequently, the next morning no one was surprised to see aeroplanes in the sky, with mitraglia potting at them. Mighty crowds surged into the streets and squares to watch the performance. Even the alarm given by the fire brigade was taken to be part of the proceedings. Everyone was intent on listening to the bark of the guns and in watching the white smoke spreading out under a glorious blue sky as each shell broke away up in the heavens. Various people, who said they could distinguish a black cross under the wing of one of the aeroplanes, were laughed to derision. Everything was crammed into one short half-hour—the people's thoughts were in the clouds, and no one had time to think. Only when the aeroplanes had disappeared on the horizon, and the reports circulated like wildfire of people being blown to pleces, did realization dawn that the deeper boom that had been heard at intervals had been the exploding of bombs in distant parts of the city.

The object of the raid, presumably, was to terrorize the people, but it only provided them with an entertainment, which they thoroly enjoyed as long as it lasted. Afterwards, when the news had traveled round of the grim reality, of people being killed, the time for panic was passed, and one heard on every side only bitter growlings at the dastardly meth

MOVING PICTURES OF CANADIAN SCENES FOR BRITISH TROOPS.

At the request of the British authorities the Grand Trunk System has supplied a series of motion pictured reels, which are being shown to the troops in France and Belgium during their brief periods of rest behind the line. Thousands of British troops are daily watching these pictures of Canadian scenery and Canadian industries.

Six moving picture reels are being projected, and they show the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific, farming in the prairie provinces, packing the Ontario apple crop, sport in the High-lands of Ontario, maskinonge fishing at St. Anne de Bellevue, shooting the Lachine Rapids, and scenes at Niagara Falls. The pictures bring before the empire's fighting men in a vivid manner the attractions and resources of Canada. The Rev. F. I. Anderson, chaplain fic manager of the Grand Trunk in connection with these films, says: "I only wish you could see the faces of the crowds of men who turn up evening after evening to get an hour's enjoyment and change of thought and environment, which enables them to go back to their 'jobs' with redoubled

LONDON, March 28. 9.30 p.m.-The Duke of Westminster has been awarded the distinguished service order for "gallant and distinguished service in the field," in connection with an engagement at Sollum, in the operations against the Turks on the western Egyptian frontier, March 14-17.

The Duke of Westminster is a major in the Cheshire Yeomanry territorials. He was in command of an armed car section, which dashed into the Senussi tribesmen's camp, 25 miles west of Sollum, shooting down the gun servers, scattering the hostile force and rescuing ninety shipwrecked sailors, who had landed on the Cyrenaica coast and had been seized by the tribesmen.

These scouts of business, he declared, would have business information at their fingers' ends, and in working in conjunction with the trades department at Ottawa, could radiate a benefit to the whole nation.

Careful of Materials.

After the war, too, Sir George said, there was going to be a more careful distribution of the raw products of the country. "It is the first duty of a nation to inventory its raw products and regulate their distribution," he said. "It must never again be found after the declaration of war that our enemies by means most ingenious and most systematic have gained control to a great means most ingenious and most systematic have gained control to a great degree of all our raw products." Altho the speaker went definitely into the metal difficulties of Australia and South Africa and the control Germany had secured of them, he did not specifically mention Canada's nickel resources.

In opening, the minister of trade declared it would be the saddest time in the history of this or any other country if there was no real advantage derived from this war. "We must keep our faith firm and strong," he said, "that out of it all there is to come the biggest advantage which will outweigh all the sacrifices we have made."

Sir George Foster tried to impress upon home.

Sir George Foster tried to impress upon the business men something of the effect of sudden sounding of the peace bell, closing tens of thousands of men out of munition factories. Here, he pointed out, another immense reorganization must be prepared for. Altho the business of munition-making was maleficent, he explained it was worth all that was spent on it, because it was one which was necessary to win the war. Economically, he pointed out, its cost was of no benefit to the country, in that it was creative of nothing useful.

Capital Different.

Capital Will be different after the war, he explained. It will be more difficult to get, and it will cost more. In this respect, too, he pointed out how the cost of government administration was bound to increase, and this latter expense must be met out of the taxes of the people. A world revolutionized, is the situation. Sir George declared, the tradesmen of Canada must face after the war. To attack the problem he had a plan—practical organization.

"We read of all this wonderful organized activity of munition manufacturing, of shipping, of recruiting, and the million

"We read of all this wonderful organized activity of munition manufacturing, of shipping, of recruiting, and the million and one things all working smoothly together under state organization." Sir George said. "Does not that very fact suggest to you the remedy for the situation?" he asked.

At the head of the table were F. G. Morley, A. E. Clemes, A. O. Hogg, J. D. Allan, E. H. Gurney, J. G. Kent, Sir George Foster, A. Hewitt, J. W. Woods, H. Blain, K. J. Dunstan, C. W. Woodland, George Barron, C. Marriott, G. W. Howland.

DEFENCE LEAGUE MET

Small Meeting Sent Forth Strong Edict Calling for Compulsory Service.

In a small room in the Foresters' Hall, College street, twenty-three members of the Canadian Defence League met for their annual meeting last night, and for two hours enthusiastically discussed compulsory training and service and the best means by which it could be established in Canada. The great majority of those present were over the age for military service, and two women were included in the audience. Col. W. H. Merritt presided and following the discussion, in which practically everyone expressed views in favor of compulsion, a resolution was adopted by which one of the clauses, regarding the objects of the association, will be amended to read that the league advocates compulsory training and service. Another resolution by Lt.-Col. William Hendrie of Hamilton asking that the Militia Act of 1866 be enforced, was also carried.

Rev. Father Minehan was the first speaker and in the opening stages of his speech made a scathing arraignment of the Dnited States. He declared that that country had submitted to insults which no self-respecting nation would stand for. In declaring himself to be an enthusiastic supporter of compulsory service, he said that the present voluntary system of obtaining men was "slow, wasteful and thoroly unscientific." As authority for this assertion he quoted Lieut.-Col. Price of the 204th Battalion, who, at the inauguration of his campaign, stated at a public meeting that it would cost $10,000 before hir unit could be completed. This he naintained was an indefensible waste of money and a waste of energy.

"People may well say to me: It is all very well for you to talk." Let me say that if I was free no man would have to come after me." he concluded.

Canon A. MacNab said he was very enthused over voluntary training a few years ago, but now his opinion had been changed absolutely. In a small room in the Foresters' Hall, years ago, but now his opinion had been changed absolutely.

Prof. Baker of the Toronto University was of the opinion that, altho they might, in adopting compulsory training, be providing for a contingency that might never arise, yet at the same time he thought everybody was of the opinion that such training was conducive to manliness.

"Why should I send by dearly beloved son last June to fight for some foreigners who will not fight?" said Lieut.-Col. Hagarty of the 201st Battalion in announcing his views on the subject. "I might say that they are not only foreigners, but there are a lot of do nothings walking about our streets at the present time."

walking about our streets at the present time."

Would Not Be Austere.

Major (Rev.) Crawford Brown maintained that the present system was farfrom voluntary and that compulsion in an indirect way was being practised everywhere. "We are taking men who are the backbone of the country and letting some of the—well, we don't want to use terms to distinguish them—stay at home," he said, "men, who by virtue of their accomplishments and their work here, are the ones who are realizing that somebody has to fight and they are going when others who hold practically no positions at all and, who will, after the war, be a burden on the country, are staying at home. We must teach the masses—I think I may say—we must make the people realize the need of national defence."

The following officers were elected: President, Col. W. H. Merritt; vice-presidents, Canon A. MacNab, Rev. T. Crawford Brown, Father Minehan, R. S. Hudson, Lieut.-Col. A. E. Belcher, R. E. Kingsford, R. E. A. Land, Dr. A. H. MacKay, Major-Gen. Turner, Col. R. W. Leonard, Hon. Lieut.-Col. C. W. Rowley, H. Paton; treasurer, Captain D. A. Cameron. Leonard, Hon. Lieut.-Col. C. W. Row-ley, H. Paton; treasurer, Captain D. A. Cameron.

TO STAY IN SALONIKI Letter Just Received by President Falconer Denies Recent

Reports. NO NEED FOR WORRY

Celebrated Anniversary of Or ganization in Coovocation Hall Last Night.

Reports that No. 4 University Base Hospital was to be moved from Salonik in the near future were denied by a letter from Gen. Roberts, read by President Falconer at the meeting held last night in Convocation Hall in anniversary of the hospital, which was organized a year ago. Gen. Roberts wrote to the effect, however, that the hospital would be moved to a new site on the east side be moved to a new site on the east side of Saloniki. This site was on a promontory, with the bay on both sides, a situation that would have many advantages—over the present one. This means moving the entire hospital across ten miles of city and country over very narrow and poor roads. Gen. Roberts wrote that there was no need to worry over the German air raids. Bomb-preof trenches have been constructed for the nurses during a raid. The anti-aircraft batteries give the raiders a very warm reception and the French aviators have succeeded in capturing two enemy aircraft quite recently and have placed the machines on exhibition at Saloniki.

Work Reviewed.

President Falconer and Dean Clarke

President Falconer and Dean Clarke reviewed the formation of the hospital from its inception, reported on its cost and splendid equipment and the vast volume of work already accomplished. The expenditures had been heavy, but the equipment had more than justified the expenditure. It was now admitted to be the best equipped hospital with the forces in Greece and was commissioned. forces in Greece and was commissioned to handle work for all the other hospitals in that zone for which no other unit had the equipment.

Mrs. V. E. Henderson, secretary of the Women's Supply Association, told of the tremendous work of equipping the hospital, it requiring 61,651 articles, not including surgical supplies. Up to date this committee had forwarded 3340 cases of hospital supplies.

Dean Clarke told of the splendid contributions of Westminster Chapter, I.O.

Manager Savage of the Portland Hockey Club announced at three o'clock today that Ernie Johnson would appear on the ice tonight. Mr. Savage at the same time admits that he realizes the law will compel him to pay over Johnson's share of the Stanley Cup gates in court.

In regard to the reported threat of the Wanderer owner that tonight he will make offers to any Portland player he may desire, Savage said: "Let him."

The more Sullivan watched the deeper his grief. At the finish Tom Jones rushed around the ring, shouting, "Willard broke his hand." Sullivan utered a growl of epic disgust. "He sprained his foot getting away, ye mean." And the noblest Roman wrapped the drapery of his furthed coat around him, jammed down the pearl gray hat and toddled down the pearl gray hat and toddled

Jim Rice Will Start

His Crews Next Week

New York, March 28.—James C. Riee, coach of the Columbia crew, turned his weather eye toward the Hudson yesterday afternoon and after watching the diminishing ice flow said that next week his guand of blue and white oarsmen would change their quarters from the machines to the barge at Edgewater, N. J. If the weather continues warm Rice believes the river will be perfectly clear in ten days.

Because of the early date of the Poughkeepsie regatta and the late start outdoors Rice has laid out a busy season for his oarsmen. Besides the revival of the annual, interclass and interdormitory races, there will be three hard races in May for the varsity, one for the junior varsity and two for the fresh men.

Owing to the record squad that has turned out, the quarters at Edgewater had to be renovated so that extra shells could be housed there. The shells were old ones, brought over from the Gould boathouse on the east shore. Rice said that the varsity will not have a new shell. The men have decided to cast their fortunes with the old Edwin Gould. It was this shell in which the 1314 varsity won at Poughkeepsie for thirst time in nineteen years and the 1315 crew used in the race against vale last fall.

This delightful summer district the "Highway to Health and Happiness. is attracting more and more attention every year from the ever-increasing army of tourists that are looking for new fields to explore, new scenes to enjoy and a place where vacation days may be spent with profit. Algonquin Park is a territory that appeals to the summer vacationist and offers more attractions than any other district in Canada. Two thousand feet above sea level with an area of 2.500,000 acres of forest lands and rivers, it offers unlimited opportunities for the canosist, the angler and those who love out-of-door life. The ishing is good and the forests abound in game, which, of course, can only be snot with the camera, as hunting in the park is prohibited. The Grand Trunk have erected comfortable hotels and log cabin camps in different parts of the park, which offer first-class accioumic dation for those ho do not desire to rough it. AMERICAN HOCKEY TO BE ORGANIZED

PITTSBURG, March 28.-Julian T. Fitzgeraid of Chicago, president of the Western Skating Association, and secretary-treasurer of the American National Hockey Association, was a visitor yesterday. He came on to confer with the president of the organization. Roy D. Schooley of this city, and to formulate further plans to bring hockey in the United States under one governing body. Fitzgeraid and Schooley conferred with Ray C. Johns, manager of the St. Paul team, who is also a vice-president of the United States Hockey League, and who had power to represent that organization at the conference. At the conclusion of the meeting Fitzgeraid announced that prospects are very bright, and that the officers of the new organization are highly elated over the progress which has been made. itzgerald of Chicago, president of the

"We have received assurances from Mr. Johns that his league will go into this movement to bring all the hockey clubs in the United States into one organization," said Fitzgerald. "The league which he represents is composed of St. Paul, Houghton, Calumet and the American Soo. Johns thinks that inside of a month he will have Duluth and Minneget it—providing the promoters will put month he will have Duluth and Minneapolis lined up with hockey teams for next year. That will mean six teams in that end of the country alone. Our league already controls Philadelphia, Pittsburg. Chicago and St. Louis, with prospects of going into New York, Cleveland and Detroit. We will, of course, give the preference to existing organizations in any city where they are properly conducted. I make this statement for the reason that persons interested in new rinks in New York. Cleveland and Detroit have approached us with propositions to get New York, Cleveland and Detroit have approached us with propositions to get in. We would prefer to take in those now interested in the game in those cities, but, of course, if they refuse to come along, we will put teams in each of these cities. Our plans are all made, and will be carefully worked out for the next two months. Mr. Johns, on behalf of his league, has agreed to have every club in that league represented at a big meeting which will be held in Chicago in July. The date for this meeting will be fixed by President Schooley in a few days.

in July. The date for this meeting will be fixed by President Schooley in a few days.

"The Western Skating Association, which has control of all territory in the west, has recognized the movement and has instructed me to put all the force of our organization back of it. In Chicago they are simply wild about the prospects of having hockey back there next year.

"The principal object of the movement now under way is to organize all the hockey interests in the United States, so that we will have some power when we act, and that one club will stand back of the other. An American hockey team, the St. Paul team, won the Art Ross Cup fairly and squarely. The Canadian hockey authorities have refused to turn it over. If we were all allied together it would not take long to bring them to their senses. The president of the organization would simply issue an order that no Canadian hockey team would be allowed to compete in the United States until the cup was turned over. This would soon bring them to time."

STILL THREE CORNER TIE IN INDIVIDUAL EVENT

Toronto Trundler Will Roll Off Today at Toledo for First Place.

TOLEDO, March 28.—America's greatest bowling tournament came to an end here tonight when the last shots in the individual event were rolled shortly before 7 o'clock without displacing the former leaders. Three of the four championships were won by Chicago, which entered the heaviest delegation from an outside city, while the big Illinois town has a chance to make a clean sweep if Frank Shaw of that city can out-roll Ben Huesman of Cincinnati and Sam Schliman of Toronto tomorrow night.

Sykes Thoma and Hank Marino won the doubles with the mark of 1279 rolled two weeks ago.

T. and D. Divide Clubs Into Two Sections

The T. & D. directors at their meeting decided to divide the teams entered this season into two sections. A and B, and propose grouping them as follows:
Section A.—Sunderland Albion, Lancashire, Overseas-Hearts, Ulster, Dunlop Rubber, Toronto Street Railway, Thistles, Old Country, Wychwood, Eatons, Section B.—Baracas, Corinthians, Harris Abattoir, Royal Canadlan Dragoons, Cedarvale, Swansea, Lancashire Rovers, H. & S. United, Caledonians, British Imperial. Imperial.

Before the league season proper opens on April 29 one or two test games will be played with picked teams. Intending referees should send in applications at

NEW YORK. March 28.—The stewards of the Jockey Club had a short but busy meeting yesterday afternoon.

Representatives were appointed for the various meetings at the metropolitan tracks, and licenses were granted to 85 trainers and 21 jockeys.

The two-day meetings of the United Hunts Racing Association at Belmont Park Terminal on May 13 and 17, and that of the Piping Rock Racing Association at Locust Valley on May 30, and June 3. were also approved.

Captain E. B. Cassatt was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the spring meeting of the Metropolitan Jockey Club at Jamalea. H. K. Knapp will act in the same capacity during the meeting of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park, which follows. Schuyler L. Parsons will be in the stand at Aqueduct during the summer meeting of the Queens County Jockey Club, and Andrew Miller will be steward at the Empire City Racing Association meeting.

Not all the applications from trainers and jockeys met with the approval of the license committee. Harry Woods, the jockey who rode Delft during the summer meeting at Belmont aPrk in 1913. was granted a hearing by the committee. J. H. Glass, however, was denied a riding license, as was Morys, the boy who was set down at Juarez after his ride on Egmont.

An interesting situation arose at the meeting in the case of Harrington, the jocky who was sent down by the officials at Havana. Cuba, until April 6. The point that came up was that the Havana stewards exceeded their authority in keeping the boy down on the ground at a race meeting following the one at which he transgressed.

It was pointed out that the Havana officials should have suspended him indefinitely, and referred his case to the stewards, and Harrington will be on the ground until the Bowle meeting is six days old.

The trainers who were denied licenses were Ernest Cottrell. F. J. Kearns, Frank McDermott and Homer H. Selby. The application of T. Parrington was tabled. The stewards present at the meeting were August Belmont, F. K. Sturgis, Andrew Mill

Raymond E. Ball. Chas. Burlingame, Edw. Campbell. G. W. Corey, Willis Doyle, Esby Graves, John Hanover, Douglas Hoffman, F. Keogh, Benj. Kleeger, Walter Lilley, Joseph McCahey, Jos. McKeever, August Nerger, August Nicklaus. Wm. A. Obert, John Pitz. Morris Rowan, W. Schämehorn, Frederick Smith, A. Schuttinger.

Half Milers Arrive at Their Home in Montreal

MONTREAL, March 28.—The advance suard of the horsemen to race at the half-mile tracks this season have already arrived. The past week marked the arrival of several strings of horses from Juarez, Mex., and they will remain here until the opening at Delorimier Park on Saturday, May 20. The first lot to come in included the horses owned by J. H. Moody, while they were followed by Cecil Knight with a string that includes two owned by W. A. McKinney, owner of Dundreary. Dundreary and Mud Sill have been sent to Kentucky, while Weyanoke and Jefferson are now in Montreal. Ike Striker arrived with a string of 18, including Sharper Knight and Irish Kid, the only two in his stable to earn brackets at the Mexican meeting.

London despatch says: When apprised of the fact that his wife was seriously ill here at 252 Central avenue, seriously ill here at 252 Central avenue, George (Mooney) Gibson broke away from the Pittsburg National League Baseball Club's camp at Hot Springs. Arkansas, boarded a train for his home and arrived yesterday afternoon, via the Wabash at St. Thomas.

The big Pirate catcher found Mrs. Gibson ill, and he will stay by her side until she is on the road to recovery, allowing his mind to stay away from baseball in the meantime. He expects that he will be able to return to his club in the course of a week, as he has high hopes of Mrs. Gibson being convalescent by that time.

Having left Hot Springs on Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, he was in need of sleep and was reluctant to dwell upon baseball matters. He stated, however, that the big squad of players are making fine headway in preparing for the long season under Manager Jim Callahan.

Mooney speaks in the highest terms of Callahan as a leader. He is relieved by the fact that Arthur Wilson, formerly of the New York Giants and late of the Chicago Feds, has been secured as catcher by Pittsburg. With Wilson in the game, Gibson will not have to repeat his record of consecutive games caught in one season, as Wilson and he will share the duty behind the bat.

"What have you against our little town?" asked a nearby sport.
"If you wear suspenders, pay for your own drink and mind your own business you're a rube," commented Larry.

Pittsburg will have its strongest back-stopping corps in history this season. George Gibson, Arthur Wilson and Schmidt, the coast recruit, will make up the trio. Fred Blackwell and Bill Wagner, however, have shown rare form.

ANOTHER RACE TRACK ON BIG SCALE IN CUBA

American Turfmen Interested in Opposition to Curly Brown at Havana.

NEW YORK, March 28.-There was a reunion of turfmen at the Bay View Hotel, Sheepshead Bay, yesterday. Many of them had just returned from Cuba after a session of winter racing. Those who got back from Havana told of plans for a new track and more extensive rac-ing on the island.

Charles E. Henshall is the best known of the men interested in the new venture. Those associated with him are of the men interested in the new venture. Those associated with him are Arthur B. Clark, Henry L. Willis and Fernando Gonzales y Sanchez. This syndicate made application to the authorities of Havana for a concession for a hippodrome to be constructed within the limits of the municipality for the purpose of carrying on racing and breeding stables, the erection of a club house, hotels, restaurants and the privilege of having mutuel betting, bookmaking and other legalized forms of betting.

The exact location of the proposed track was not announced, but those acquainted with the plans say that the grounds will be within ten minutes ride of the principal hotels. More than 100 acres of land have been obtained and arrangements made for a steel and concrete grandstand, beautiful club house and hotels: The club house plans call for a building 100 feet square, to be built at a cost of $50,000. The stables are to accommodate 1000 horses, and the grandstand 5000 persons. Ten thousand dollars will be expended on parks and roads in the grounds.

The new association expects to start racing on Oct. I next, but is not desirous of conflicting with the track at Oriental Park controlled by H. D. Brown. An offer will be made to Brown to split up the dates, but in case this offer is refused the new club will race in opposition to the old track. It is planned to have races at night three times a week and it is quite likely that racing will be continued in the summer for the benefit of the residents,

Two-thirds of the capital in the new enterprise will be supplied by Cubans.

A Rochester despatch says: Next week Wednesday afternoon, providing Ground-keeper Bobby Dorr has shoveled the snow out of Baseball Park, ten Hustlers will report at Baseball Park for spring training. These ten ball players are under contract, but President Charles T. Chapin hasn't named them as yet. Desperate Desmond Beatty, the boy wonder and third baseman, and Mr. Wanamaker, the celebrated department store wonder and catcher, are among the ten. These latter boys have signed contracts. Manager Tommy Leach, The Wee, will have finished his business with John McGraw and with the Pirates at Hot Springs by that time and will be on hand to get a look at his colts. 1½ miles at the 74th Armory Saturasy night, when he appears at the west side temple of sport. Goulding's chances to lower the record mark on this occasion are far more favorable than is generally supposed. The track is regarded as the fastest indoor board affair in the country. In fact, it was Goulding's fast time made in the Connecticut Street Armory which attracted the attention of the A. A. U. officials, who induced him to go to New York.

A. U. officials, who induced him to go to New York.

In addition to the fast track, Buffalo has some of the fastest walkers in the country within her gates, and all of these have assured Athletics Director Jack Rust that they will do their utmost to carry the Canadian to a low record mark. In order to win, Goulding will have to walk his best. The local runners will be given liberal handicaps, and Goulding will find he has a fast line ahead of him. If the Toronto walking marvel can overcome the field, he is almost certain to set a new mark.

EVERYTHING SOLD OUT

Few Milkers and Springers on Sale and Values Were Easier.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 50 cars, 640 cattle, $33 hogs, 8 sheep, 200 calves and Receipts of all classes of live stock were light. The demand being strong caused an active market, everything being sold out before the noon hour.

Butchers' Cattle—About 550 fat cattle, of which there were very few well-finders, were better to act firm.

ing sold out before the noon hour.

Butchers' Cattle—About 550 fat cattle, of which there were very few well-finished animals, were bought up at firm values. There were two cattle sold at $8.75, three at $8.50, one straight load at $8.60, one load at $8.25, one at $8 and one load at $7.90. These sales included about all of the good to choice cattle on sale. Bulls and cows sold at steady values.

Stockers and Feeders—A limited number of these were offered and readily taken at firm values.

Milkers and Springers—Only a few were on sale. Prices for these were reported by salesmen to be easier.

Veal Calves—About 200 of these were on sale. No choice, a few good, a larger number of medium and common were among them; prices were lower.

Sheep and Lambs—Not enough to constitute a market and prices for them are as firm as ever.

Hogs—Of the 833 hogs reported there were only two or three decks for sale, the bulk having been shipped direct or sold to be delivered. The smallness of the number on sale caused prices to advance to $11.25 per cwt weighed off care.

ARRIVED ON MARKET

Demand at Stock Yards Was Were of Splendid Quality and Should Prove Ready Sellers.

ASPARAGUS PLENTIFUL

The Few Domestic Onions on the Wholesale Were Very Poor.

Heretofore our oranges have been supplied by California and Florida, but next season we shall have still another source of supply, as Clemes Bros. received a sample box from Cuba yesterday to show what one grower will be able to export next year. They are of splendid quality, very like the late Valencias, with only one or two seeds in them, and should prove ready sellers. The first car of Mediterranean sweets (Cal. oranges) for this season arrived on the market yesterday ,to White & Co., selling at $3 to $3.25 per case. California asparagus is coming in quite freely and sells at 65c to 75c per large American 100-pound sack onions declined in price again yesterday, selling at $3 to $3.25 per bag.

There are very few domestic onions on the market, and these are mostly of very poor quality, selling at $2 to $2.50 per 75 pound bag.

Hothouse rhubarb is coming in in larger quantities again, and now sells at 75c to $1 per dozen bunches.

Hothouse cucumbers are cheaper, selling at $2 to $2.25 per dozen.

Charles S. Simpson had another car of the Thomas J. Peters Florida tomatoes of very fine quality, selling at $2.25 to $3 per six-basket crate (according to size).

H. Peters had two cars of old cabbage, selling at $1.75 per bbl.

White & Co. also had a car of British Columbia potatoes, selling at $1.75 per bag.

Maintenance Cost Of Pavements

Mr. F. W. Sarr, Deputy State Highway Commissioner of New York, in his paper, "The Cost of Maintaining New York State's Highways," read at the Good Roads Congress, Montreal, March 7th, gave the following statistics of the average expenditure for maintenance, repairing and reconstruction per mile per year for each of seven types of roads.

	Per mile
Concrete	$129.00
Bituminous Macadam, Mixing
Method	181.00
Block Pavement	190.00
Bituminous Macadam, Penetra-	Harris Marie F.
tion Method	510.00
Gravel Road	950.00
Concrete Bituminous	1050.00
Water-Bound Macadam	1055.00

These figures demonstrate conclusively that Concrete is by far the most economical and satisfactory of all paving materials.

They are convincing evidence of how your road money may be invested in permanent improvement instead of being spent in re-

Upward Influence Prevailed After Heavy Buying Caused and Ad-Uncertain Interval on New York Exchange.

SHORT INTEREST HIT

ugars Distinguished for Meteoric Flights-Bethlehem Steel Fell.

NEW YORK, March 28.-External

NEW YORK, March 28.—External affairs, as represented by the threatened crisis with the Teutonic powers and the complex conditions in Mexico, appeared to exert very slight influence today, so far, at least, as they bore upon the more speculative aspects of the market. Prices were elevated quite generally after an early interval of uncertainty, but specialties were the only stocks to register more than nominal headway.

Trading was fairly active during the forencon, tapered off materially at midday, and became increasingly apathetic in the final hour. Advances were accomplished mainly at the expense of the short interest, which recently acquired formidable proportions.

Such favorites as Crucible Steel, American Locomotive, the motors and semiactive industrials and equipments, rose one to four points, but metals and oils were relatively backward, except for Butte and Superior and American Zinc. Coppers were variable, the failure of the Anaconda directors to increase the dividend acting as a restraint. Sugars were again distinguished for their meteoric flights, with new high records for Cuban-American, which rose 16, to 245, and South Porto Rico on its gain of 7, to 197.

Rails and other investment stocks were flights, with new high records for CubanAmerican, which rose 16, to 245, and South Porto Rico on its gain of 7, to 187.

Rails and other investment stocks were negligible features, but fairly firm, additional excellent February statements contributing to that tone. Western Maryland issues proved the only noteworthy exception, both the common and preferred reacting a point or more.

Bethlehem Steel added another 25 points to its steady reversal of recent days, falling to 470, and Mercantile Marines were consistently heavy, the marked contrast to the strength in United Fruit, U. S. Steel fluctuated within fractional limits and was eclipsed in activity by half a dozen stocks of lesser prominence. Quotations were a point or more under their beat at the irregular close.
Total sales, 520,000 shares.

Regardless of the apprehension expressed by contractors at the steady rise in prices of fabricated steel and iron, further advances in finished materials were reported today from the Pittsburg district. More orders for rails and other equipment were placed.

Dealings in bonds were without especial feature, aside from advances in St. Louis and San Francisco issues. Total sales (par yalue), $3,260,000.

PRICES ARE BUOYANT ON TORONTO EXCHANGE

Maple Leaf and St. Lawrence Navigation Make Big Advances and Steels Are Higher.

The suggestion that the dividend ennouncement on Maple Leaf had not been fully discounted was verified in yesterday's market. Conservative operators had looked for a 6 per cent. dividend and had figured that at 85 the stock had about discounted such a payment. The shares opened up 6 points over night at 90, advanced quickly to 95, declined to 91, and later rallied to the high price, with the close at 94 5-8. On dividend, it is argued that the price should cross par, but there are many holders who will take substantial profits and until these are out of the way, this selling will act as a pressure against the market. The market outside Maple Leaf was not broad, but the undertone was good. The Steel of Canada punt made a lively market for this stock both in Montreal and Toronto. The price was advanced two points to a new high at 46 and closed at that figure. The only news on this issue is that the statement for the year ending last. In the meantime in spite of the December will be issued this week. Earnings of over 20 per cent, on the stock are predicted, and are other steels were dull. Steel Corporation gave signs of greater activity and possible buoyancy in Montreal, but the shares were quite inactive here. The annual meeting of the Nova Scota. At the latter level free gold was found as the latter level thought sufficient to account for the prices. ia Steel Co. will be held today, and in the vein where it was tapped in the crosscut. The shaft is being conholders is expected to be forthcoming.

Nova Scotia sold up to 106, but later that depth another station will be cut reacted to 105. The only other strong and a level established. The compresstock was St. Lawrence, which opened sor, which was purchased by the up five points at 140 and followed this with a further ten-point rise to 150.

The market closed strong and after the experience of the recent few early in the winter, is now in operaweeks, it is expected that several is-sues which have not yet had an up-smoothly. ward movement, will be taken in hand as opportunity offers.

Dome.

The much talked of deal in Dome Extension has materialized at last according to an official announcement coming from Mr. W. S. Edwards, president of the company, following a meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon.

The Dome Mines has taken an option on Dome Extension property and assets, lasting until October 15th, 1917. The option has been sanctioned by the directorate of each company, but will have to be ratified by the shareholders of Dome Extension and a meeting of the shareholders will be held in the near future for this purpose.

The basis of the exchange is 46,000 shares of Dome Mines' stock for the 2,300,000 issued shares of Dome Extension, or 50 shares of the latter for

CROP DAMAGE REPORTS SHOOT WHEAT UPWARD

BUYING UP OF FUTURES

CHICAGO, March 28.—Crop damage reports appeared to be chiefly responsible for a decided advance today in the price of wheat. The market closed strong, 2c to 3%c net higher, with May at $1.13¼ and July at $1.10½. Other leading staples, too, all showed gains—corn ½c to %c. oats ½c to ½c and provisions 5c to 17½c.

Wheat showed strength right from the start and did not at any time suffer a reaction of much importance. Advices of fields being ploughed up and of extensive winter killing became more and more general from the soft wheat states, and were supplemented by assertions that the seeded acreage of spring wheat on both sides of the Canadian lines would be seriously reduced. One authority said the yield in Illinois, indiana, Ohio. Michigan and the Judith Basin. Montana, seemed likely to amount to half an average crop.

Evidence developed that foreigners were taking a hand here in the buying of future deliveries of wheat. Bulls pointed out that an advance at Liverpool was ascribed to chances that submarine activity would interfere with supplies. Bullish significance was also attached to an upturn in war risk rates on the Atlantic.

Corn rallied in sympathy with wheat. During most of the day the corn market CHICAGO, March 28.-Crop damage was up 2½c at the close today, while July showed 2½c and October 1½c gains. These were the high points of the day. Oats were ½c higher, with both months at the high points. Barley was up 2c and flax 1½c for May and 1c for July.

RICH STRIKE ON CHAMBERS-FERLAND

According to advices from the north a very rich find has been made on the 425-foot level of Chambers-Ferland. The vein is said to be 2½ miles in width and will run about 7,000 ounces to the ton.

Drills are at work on the same level on different veins. A shipment of high-grade ore is expected to be made shortly.

CHIC FABRIC HATS FOR EVERYDAY WEAR

Models of Chiffon or Linen Set Ceremony Was Performed by His Forth Latest Millinery Features and Fads.

BLUE AND LINEN SEEN

Sample With Broad Shady Brim is Trimmed With Turquoise Ribbon.

The spring season is never complete without the appearance of the fabric hat. This season is no exception, except perhaps for the increase in the range of the fabrics, which includes every material from chiffon to oilcloth. The fabric hat is at once a utility hat—for the brim is invariably a broad one, and a droopy one so that old King Sol is completely fooled.

The models exploited up to date, without exception, feature the high crown—but novelty is not absent in crown—but novelty is not absent in the slightest degree. Checker-board effects in woven ribbon vie with Dainty piccot-edged ribbons encircle high, square crowns, three or four rows deep and finish with a simple little tailored bow. One very pretty model of natural linen, had an underfacing of turquoise blue silk with crown-trimming of ribbon in the same shade. This chic little "fabric hat" was intended for wear with a smart sports suit of linen with strappings of blue fastened with dull, white bone buttons.

Dr. Clarke took the exhibit and those in attendance to represent a protest against things as they are, and hoped the convocation would be the first step in a revolt against those who block action in the matter. It was the privilege of J. K. Mac-donald to introduce Sir John Hendric and express his personal sympathy

The lieutenant-governor on rising said it was 12 years since a small but earnest deputation had waited upon the government with a request for action for the class in whose interests the exhibit was held. Since then the numbers of those interested had increased. He knew from correspondence of the great need for care for same families in the pioneer parts of Algoma and northern Ontario, where conditions were in certain cases almost beyond belief. He trusted the movement would create interest and sympathy and educate the public on the ecessity for action. His honor wished the work every success and de-clared the exhibit formally open. Mr.

Carelessness of Public.

Dr. C. J. Clarke, head of the clinic for feeble-minded, which was opened something over a year ago at the General Hospital, spoke in strong terms on the subject under discussion. He referred to the tremendous carelessness of the public arising out of ignorance of the matter. New Product Engaged Attention of Businessmen and Others Yesterday.

PROPER ORGANIZATION

Sir George Foster in Chair and Committee Appointed to Promote Interest.

Of Canada's great new toy-making ndustry, Sir George Foster said yesterday that the toboggan was just hesitating at the brink of the hill. In the afternoon in the board of trade assembly room over sixty manufacturers and vendors of toys met and formed a committee of thirteen men to see that the toboggan reached the bottom of the hill without misadven-

Sir George occupied the chair and it was at his suggestion that the meeting formed a committee of representatives. Proper organization, he said would prove of the greatest benefit to the new industry and also enable the department of trades and commerce at Ottawa to give adequate assistance. He said they should also get under the protecting wing of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association if possible, and as Secretary Murray of that organization said the C.M.A. would be pleased, the committee was instructed to inquire on that possibility. The meeting carried a resolution of organization and expressed its opinion that annual fairs at convenient centres should be adian public in buying Canadian-made toys exclusively, then we are not getting anywhere," one of the manufacturers told the meeting. "In the resotution should be included something to this effect. We must create the demand to exist." Sir George explained that the committee would deal with this phase of the question.

Teaching Soldiers.

W. Kidner, of the Dominion Hospitals Commission, spoke briefly of the hospital, as in Canada.

Great Wounded Army.

Speaking of the care of the wounded from the time they received their wounds until they are convalescent back home, Prof. Bieler said that there are between 600,000 and 1,000,000 wounded soldiers now in France, many of whom are blind. A vivid picture of the departed soldiers passing thru Switzerland, where they are most kindly cared for on the way back to their homes in France, was drawn by the speaker, who has the cause of his country, La Belle France, so deeply at the speaker.

Take Commission, spoke briefly of the work of the commission in teaching wounded soldiers the art of toy-mak soldiers in toy making right from the moment of convalescence in the first hospital. It would form a part of vocational training which he said would be required by but very few men.

The committee appointed by the meeting is J. E. Alain, Toronto; R. O'Neill, Toronto; E. Chantler, Toronto; F. W. Robinson, Montreal; J. M. Woods, Montreal; J. A. Wade, Montreal; G. W. Botchford, T. G. Ireland.

treal; G. W. Botchford, T. G. Ireland, Montreal; C. E. Speran, London; A. Cohan, E. Appleton, London, and Arthur Reede. The first real "Toy Fair" in the history of the Dominion proved to be an eye-opener. Everybody who visited the board of trade rooms yesterday was surprised by the variety and skill of Canadian workmanship on what up till a few weeks ago was practicelly an unknown indetermine practically an unknown industry in this country. Germany and Austria used to make the bulk of the cheaper dolls, but the huge display of dolls on show yesterday proved that Canadian children can get their dolls made right at home in Canada.

Sir George Foster expressed himself as the most surprised man at the abundance of the exhibits. He explained to the manufacturers how the department had secured samples of the different toys manufactured in the different toys manufactured in other countries and he congratulated them on the work they had already done in reproduction. "In fact many of our reproductions are better than the original," he said.

For Freckled Rough or Spotty Complexions

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which delicate skins are subject after exposure to wind or sun, often appearing in early spring, may readily be sotten rid of. Mercolized wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any druggist's. There's no more effective way of banishing freekles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple solution of powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in ½-pt, witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.

How She Helped Janet Select the Very Latest Wedding Gown.

THE Editor-Man and I have declared a truce. We are going to try being nice to one another, for a change. He says that if I hadn't been so much heralded by my edoring friends he might have surrendered his admiration less reluctantly. I answered that I had come thoroly prepared to dislike him, and that my unfavorable "first impression" was likely to linger for quite some time. He said that he had read hostility in my eyes when we were introduced, and had vowed within himsel! not to "dance to my tune."

my tune."

Then, all of a sudden, he awoke to the fact that I might be worth while knowing better, so he decided to call and hoist the white flag.

brand new,

While I do not altogether approve of the Editor-Man, I rather like his not the Editor-Man, I rather like his not going out of his way to court my favor.

His I - don't - care - whether -you-likeme-or-not attitude is rather refreshing. Then he says such startling things, at times. For instance, he remarked, yesterday, that he didn't believe that any girl who thought a great deal of clothes had any time left to do the worth while things of life. In other words, one must be a "dowd" to secomplish anything of any account. What a queer idea!

What a queer idea!

Dad ought to be here to air his views upon the subject. He believes that no matter how forceful a woman may be, she must be tastefully dressed in order to win the approval of the eye first. He says if she is unattractively frocked she has a big handlcap to overcome before she can command attention or admiration. I'm glad Dad admires "fine feathers."

'dress' Janet came in, and, totally ignorant of the Editor-Man's opinion of a girl "who thinks a great deal about clothes," insisted that I show him the sketch of the bridal gown I had designed for her, and which is nearly completed.

Janet is a firm believer in "prepared-ness." The usual last minute rush will not detract from the enjoyment of her

Janet began to describe the gown and its trimming to the Editor-Man, but I could see that it was all Greek to him, and came to the rescue by re-minding her that since he is to be in the bridal party the frock would be no 'surprise" if she told him all about it Then he took his departure. WINIFRED BLACK WRITES RUNNING AWAY

HE little boy ran away again the other day. It happened like this: He fell off his wheel and made a hole in his stocking and one of the other boys saw it.

"Whoo-hoo!" yelled the other y. "What's the matter with your knee?" And in a second there was a ring of hostile carpers around the little boy, all yelling at the top of their leather lungs.

"Bud's got a hole in his stocking! Bud's got a hele in his stocking! Hoo-hoo! Come on and see the hole in Bud's stocking!"

And Bud, the goaded to madness, rose with furious calm, his round little face tense and his voice shrill with suppressed emotion.
"Kid," said outraged Bud, singslaught. "Kid, go chase yourself. You're nothing but, but"—and while the encircling hosts waited with breathless interest Bud finished the sentence-"nothing but a neighborhood gossip."

This line of attack was so utterly new and different from all strategic plans that the ring fell back and Bud rods out, a proud and lonely victor. But his elder sister, looking from a window, heard and marked, and when he came into the house she said, ever so sweetly:

"How's the neighborhood gossip, Bud?" and before half an hour was over she was calling him N.G., for short, and the mother of the two children, being foolish in her day and generation and lightly moved to laughdren, being foolish in her day and generation and lightly moved to laughter, laughed.

Despair and rage entered into the heart of Bud the triumphant. He burst forth into a torrent of denunciation. Women didn't understand, he said. Girls were gumps, nothing but gumps. He wouldn't live in the house with any kind of a gump another single hour. So saying, he snatched his cap, grabbed up his puppy, clutched his roller skates in his disengaged hand and stormed out of the house-forever. "It Is the Test."

And it was, all of a sudden, very quite in the room and a little sad. Big sister began to cry, for Bud is a good-natured creature, not easily moved to anger, and well and dearly loved.

"Oh," sobbed sister, "he's really gone-oh, oh, what shall I do! But Bud's mother was adamant. She wouldn't let sister run after Bud. She wouldn't let the Brown girl in the kitchen, who had suddenly stopped singing a wild song of the alien lands, go after him. She forbade the gentle relative, who protested bitterly, to move a step, and she herself would not call him.

And daylight began to fade and dusk came on; across the shining silver of the wide waters the star of the watching lighthouse gleamed and shone; the wild wind cried from the sea and shook the windows, but still Bud's mother sat in her chair and read quite calmiy the evening paper, the a close observer might have noticed that she held it upside down.

The little girl wandered miserably up and down the house. The gentle relative made errands from one room which commanded one view, to another which looked another way.

And the evening star shone in the sky and night fell and the little boy was "high-soundin" name.

Mme. Carton—Janet's modiste—says that this bridal gown is the hand-somest she has ever made. I go to the shop every day and offer any suggestions that I consider necessary.

It was interesting to watch the building of the gown. First a princess slip of ivory-white satin was fitted with easy lines to Janet's figure. Then over this was arranged a full skirt of ivory-white mousseline de soie.

The satin bodice is slightly mediaeval in character, having long, closely and it was Tatters, the puppy, but he came—alone.

The little girl gathered him in her arms and called softly from the steps. "Bud," she called over and over. "Come, Bud, the fire is lighted." But there was no answer, and when she shut the door again the little girl could not speak, was no answer, and when she shut the door again the little girl could not speak, was no answer, and when she shut the door again the little girl could not speak, was no answer, and when she shut the door again the little girl could not speak, was no answer, and when she shut the door again the little girl could not speak, the fire is lighted."

and Bud's mother pretended not to have heard her call could not speak, and Bud's mother pretended not to have heard her call the kitchen, and the lights were lit and the odor of food came from the kitchen, and the puppy ran from one room to the other, looking for his little master, and all the house seemed suddenly as lonely as death and as bitter hard to bear as life. "Hark!" A foot on the doorstep, a hand on the door, a rush of cold night air and—Bud!

Bud, with his eyes swollen and red, but smiling. Bud, with his cap on the back of his head and a great bundle of fresh-cut faggots from the lower garden

The Running-Away Folly.

"I heard you say you liked this kind," he said to his mother, and he knelt and laid the bunch of faggets on the smoldering fire. And his mother sank to her knees beside him on the hearth, and they were in each other's arms.

When dinner was ready Bud was hungry. And sister kept filling his glass with the rich milk, and nobody said a word about the hole in his stocking or about the neighborhood gossip or about the time he'd been away.

Later, when Bud was fresh and warm from his bath and went into his room to say his prayers, he told his mother all about it and he said he was sorry And Bud's mother called in sister and the little woman said she was sorry and they all said their prayers together, and in every word of prayer, was a heart-beat of joy and gratitude to think that they were, after all, together. Somehow, the mother thought, as she sat and watched the moon rise and shine upon the restless water, "I wonder if it is so with us to the Great Intelligence. I've run away so many times myself—run away in bitterness and in anger and sorrow—run away in despair, in discouragement and in desperation. How foolish I have been to leave the warmth and light and love. I'll Carton is finishing the inner case with the following the narrow pleated frills of the mousseline dotted here and there with never run away again."

And she told it all to me, and I am telling it to you. Does it mean any and it I wonder?

When vegetables grown at home, and cooked as soon as taken from the ground, are brought to the table, then, and not till then, does one fully understand the superiority of those produced in the home garden. In order to get the greatest amount of pleasure from any vegetable it must be used before its flavor has had an opportunity to evaporate, as it speed-ily will after being taken from the
