EMIGRATION FROM BRITISH ISLES

Interesting Discussion in the House of Commons.

State Assistance and Other Phases—Speeches by Rt. Hon. J. R. Clynes and Hon. E. T. Wood, Under Secretary of State.

London, Nov. 4.—(Canadian Press)—An earnest and interesting discussion on emigration occurred yesterday in the House of Commons on the colonial office vote in aid of overseas settlement.

Mr. Clynes favored supervision of state assistance for emigration and immigration so that labor could move about as circumstances required and conditions for mutual benefit be maintained.

Mr. Wood added that the problem was soluble only by permanent co-operation between Great Britain and the dominions.

Mr. Wood added that the problem was soluble only by permanent co-operation between Great Britain and the dominions.

Mr. Wood added that the problem was soluble only by permanent co-operation between Great Britain and the dominions.

Bonar Law Takes Hand In Settlement of The Vexed Irish Question

MAY EXERT INFLUENCE ON EXTREME UNIONISTS

Had Conference With Lloyd George Last Night—London Regarded Outlook as Improved Today—Good Omen in Silence of Ulster M. P's.

London, Nov. 4.—A Bonar Law, one of the most prominent members of the Unionist party, and former government leader in the House of Commons conferred with Premier Lloyd George last night and is taking a hand in the effort to reach a settlement of the Irish question.

The Daily Mail, in discussing Mr. Law's interview with Lloyd George said today that he would, if necessary, bring independent influence to bear upon the extreme Unionists with the view to achieving a complete agreement.

The outlook for a successful continuance of the Irish negotiations was regarded somewhat improved here today because of recent suggestions regarding Ulster's possible share in the settlement and the prospect that Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, would take part in the discussions.

PIERS IN GRIP OF GREAT FIRE

Wharves, Barges, Cars and Oil Tanks Burn.

Wharves, Barges, Cars and Oil Tanks Burn. The Erie Railroad's Weehawken Plant Ablaze Along Nearly Half a Mile of Water Front—Loss Likely a Million or More.

Weehawken, N. J., Nov. 4.—The Erie Railroad's Weehawken piers and water front yards were laid waste early today by one of the most spectacular fires the metropolis has witnessed in years.

The fire was discovered a little before midnight on pier 15. Within an hour it had swept over nearly a half mile of water front, illuminating the sky for miles around, and drawing great throngs of spectators to the Jersey and Manhattan sides of the Hudson.

The fire was the third to occur in Erie railway property within six weeks. Six weeks ago fire was seen in the machine shop at Jersey City and two weeks ago on a Jersey city pier, both were extinguished before much damage had been done.

The Evening Times and Star

The St. John's Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John's Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act. Telephone—Private exchange connecting all departments, Main 2417. Subscription Prices—Drivers' category, $4.00 per year; by mail, $5.00 per year in Canada. By mail to United States $5.00 per year. The Times has the largest circulation in the Maritime Provinces. Special Advertising Representatives—NEW YORK, Frank R. Westrup, 350 Madison Ave.—CHICAGO, E. J. Fawcett, Manager, Association Bldg. The Audit Bureau of Circulation audits the circulation of The Evening Times.

THE TARIFF TALK

The Monetary Times, an influential financial journal, has no fear that Canada would suffer from tariff revision. Under existing tariff provisions, the Monetary Times said in a recent editorial, the primary industries of the country have been retarded and the loss to Canada in this way is greater than the gain resulting from forced expansion of manufacturing. Continuing, it urged that "a moderate reduction in the tariff" would relieve the present depression in many branches of business and industry, and then went on to say: "Such a gradual reduction is necessary if Canada is to get back to a more solid position. The practical policy for the present is the adoption of this principle through its immediate application should be only slight." Hon. Mackenzie King has pledged that a Liberal revision of the tariff would injure no legitimate industry. In this pledge he is joined by such leaders as Hon. W. S. Fielding and Sir Lower Gouin. The Liberal policy is practically the same as that which the Monetary Times advocates, and it is one that commends itself to the people. When Mr. Meighen goes about endeavoring to throw the people into a panic through fear of free trade and tariff factors he is not fairly representing the case. So far as the maritime provinces are concerned, a high tariff is distinctly against their interests, since they cannot develop industries because protective freight rates deprive them of a market. Hence they are not moved by the tariff talk. They want tariff revision.

On this subject the Montreal Witness says:—"There has to be a tariff for revenue. The protective element cannot be suddenly removed. The aim must be revision downward of the protective elements of the tariff, with a special view to the encouragement of the basic industries of the country. Mr. Meighen has been perfectly right when he has kept saying that Mr. King's policy was the same as Mr. Crea's, but altogether wrong—we shall not say, dishonest—when he said that both proposals make a clean sweep of protection, seeing that neither of them so proposes. Mr. Meighen, who accuses his opponents of lack of definiteness, has not distinctly said that the revision he proposes means more protection, neither has he denied when it has been said that the issue before the country is between more protection and less protection, revision upwards or revision downwards."

What is Mr. Meighen's tariff policy? Is it revision upwards? He gives no indication on that subject. If Mr. King is a "trimmer," so also is Mr. Meighen. But the people have had experience of a Liberal tariff, that made the country prosperous. They will give the Liberals the opportunity to do the like after 1921 as they did after 1906.

TORIES AND THE BENCH

The unflinching assertion of Hon. Mr. Bristol in Toronto that he would resign if three vacant judgeships were not given to Conservatives is freely quoted as an indication of the quality of the Tory mind. It was, as the Toronto Globe says, "drag the ermine (or anything else) in the mire of the spoils system." None of Mr. Bristol's colleagues has rebuked him, although, as the Globe says, "every one of them should have rebuked it as a personal insult and a public scandal." We quote further:—"If there were a sound public opinion Mr. Bristol's elimination would be swift and final. The Globe ventures the assertion that public opinion has been cut-garred. Appointments to judgeships have been exempted from the ordinary operation of the patronage system, even in its palmy days. It may be true that, as a rule, members of the bar chosen for judicial positions have belonged to the party in power, but under every government there have been exceptions. Even Sir John Macdonald, who was always zealous to reward supporters, expressly declared that merit alone must govern elevations to the judiciary. Mr. Bristol has signalled his promotion to the ministry by enunciating a doctrine from which hitherto even the most seasoned spoliemen have recoiled. He has made no denial and no apology. The prime minister and minister of justice share responsibility for his utterance if they fail to repudiate it. Members of the bench and the bar have a special grievance, but they have no redress if the government refuses to protect their professional honor."

The Griffenhagen outfit, which was imported from the United States to reform the civil service system of Canada has been sent home. In the Tory view there were two things wrong with it. In the first place it was Yankee, and in the second place it interfered with the working of the spoils system.

WAKING THEM UP

With regard to the customs marking act to which reference was made in this paper yesterday, the Montreal Gazette commends the action of the minister of customs, and gives the late minister a parting kick, but goes on to intimate that ministers in general are none too mindful of their duty to the public. We quote:—"The new minister of customs, Mr. Baxter, is beginning his administration with more regard to business interests than was exhibited by his predecessor. He announces his intention to recommend to his colleagues the suspension of the marking act until parliament gives more informed consideration to the legislation than it received last session, a course which, unless we are much mistaken, means its repeal. No one appears to know the origin of the law, and certainly no convincing reason to support it has ever been offered. When its provisions came to be understood, there was a rising tide of protest from importers, and a scarcely less vigorous outcry by British Chambers of Commerce. The consequences of applying the law could not be otherwise than harmful to business without benefit to any one, neither importer, Canadian manufacturer, nor ultimate consumer. The Gazette long since urged that the customs department should attempt the operation of the act, even though disregard of a statute was involved in such proceeding, and it is satisfactory to learn that this advice has not fallen upon deaf ears. The incident will not be without value if it teaches ministers of the crown to feel the mercantile pulse before disturbing business with irksome and irritating legislation."

It is the testimony of business men having to do with the customs department that never under Conservative rule did they receive as sympathetic and prompt consideration of grievances as when the Liberals were in power. Yesterday's despatches told of amendments to the obnoxious measure which the Montreal Gazette, Conservative, says should be repealed. It may be left for a Liberal government to give justice to the business interests of the country in this as in other matters.

THE WAGE QUESTION

A table showing the increase in weekly wages in factories in New York state since 1916 has been prepared by Mr. Henry D. Sayer of the state department of labor. The average for each year is as follows:

1916	$14.43
1917	16.38
1918	20.35
1919	23.50
1920	28.15

In the present year there has been a gradual decline from an average of $27.61 in January to $25.07 in September. Commenting on the conditions, Bradstreet's says:—"While wages have tended to recede, reports as to operations have improved. It may be recalled that the state department of labor last week reported the most pronounced gain in manufacturing activities in New York state since the close of September, 1919. Commissioner Sayer then reported that, notwithstanding the fact that substantial reductions in employment were still reported by a number of factories, the total number of factory workers employed last month was approximately 8% per cent greater than in August."

The average wage paid is still very much higher than in 1916, and is still a very important factor in keeping up the price of manufactured goods. There is, however, some increase of industrial activity, and the situation is more hopeful than it was a few months ago. It is obvious that improvement will be slow and this is confirmed by the statements of financial and industrial operators throughout the country.

Being a member of the postal service is almost as exciting as riding a bucking broncho. Now you're on—now you're off. Those eight clerks and carriers in St. John who were off yesterday are on again today. The government at Ottawa appears to make a virtue of changing its mind at irregular but frequent intervals, just to keep the people guessing. Those affected by the changes never know when they are safe.

Only a few days ago Sir Edward Kemp was protesting against the mere suggestion that he should leave the political battle-field for the senatorial hospital. He was fiercely determined to carry the government banner to victory in East Toronto. Well, Sir Edward has gone to the senate, to strengthen the arms of Foster, Calder, etc., etc.

The Brantford (Ont.) Relief Association has started a campaign to raise $25,000 for relief for the unemployed, and the city council has pledged itself to provide whatever is necessary over and above what the Association raises to care for the unemployed during the winter. The council also voted to spend $31,000 on public works to provide employment.

In Chatham, Ont., a woman is a candidate for a seat in the city council, and another for the Board of Education.

The news concerning the Irish situation is more reassuring.

A CITY DAWN

I see the molten flood of morning-gold surge o'er the slumbering city roofs; I hear the voice of the steam sirens, shrill and clear. Up from the reaches of the river rolled in numerous bell-voices of clarion mould Resound, and on a sudden reappear With faces smiling, eager or solemn mood The early toilers—'till yast human food I go with them in spirit breathe their hopes. Taste of their joys and drink of their despair! From out the chalice want and woe have maddled Hold him not less who trade life's on-ward slope. And bravely on his hand and forehead bend wears The narrow sign of Toil a' accented—Clinton Scollard in New York Herald.

NOTICE. This is to notify my customers and others that there is present here one Benefit Store in the city, situated on Haymarket Square, and that the undersigned is the sole proprietor.

I will be responsible for no groceries, farm produce or other goods shipped or carried to "Benefit Stores" unless ordered for same has been personally signed by me. This notice also includes any transactions whatever, in connection with above mentioned business. (Signed) W. M. STEEVES.

THE "FUGITIVES" (Halifax Chronicle).

The more one learns about the census the more disappointing its figures become. The increase in population is far from satisfactory, it is, in fact, less than the number of immigrants recorded as coming to "Benefit Stores" in the last ten years. Making due allowance for the losses from the war and the "flee," there is still a discrepancy that is quite disquieting. One of two solutions suggests itself to the thoughtful Canadian. Neither is satisfactory. First there is the feeling that perhaps the great horde of census enumerators appointed less for their qualifications than for their political support, did not count in all the inhabitants of this great dominion of ours. Though a costly error, this could not be called irreparable. A recount might show better results.

But the second possibility is much more alarming than this could possibly be. It is, briefly, that Canada has been used as a sort of last clearing station for the neighboring republic. There is very little use in inducing immigrants to come to Canada if living conditions here do not attract them to remain. Naturally there is every inducement for settlers to make Canada their home. If they do not stay, it is reasonable to charge that government regulations are not conducive to comfort and prosperity.

In his diatribes against free trade regulations Mr. Meighen is fond of saying that Britain's free trade policy has driven her people like "fugitives" from her shores. He admits that they are found in every part of the Empire doing good work and being good citizens. He makes no allowance for the old Viking blood which flows in British veins and has always driven them forth to conquer new lands. He does not, however, attempt to explain how, with all the "advantages of protection," in a new and sparsely settled country, with abundant natural wealth, so many immigrants have apparently declined to remain with us. It would be quite in order for him to make clear what has become of the "fugitives" from our own land. This would interest a great many people in Canada, and would be a matter worthy the attention of Canada's premier.

RUSSIA STRUGGLES BACK TO NORMAL

Trading Revives as Soviets Relax Repression.

Little Basis as Yet for Foreign Commerce With Government Control and Few Goods.

(By a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.)

Moscow, Sept. 21.—Russia's struggle to recover economic normalcy overshadows all political considerations. The one subject which is commanding the attention of Russians of all parties and sects.

The contention of the Bolsheviks that food and manufactured articles had been hoarded has been justified to a certain extent by the sudden appearance upon the markets of nearly all kinds of food-stuffs and notions. Market stalls and small shops opened speedily after the declaration of free trade in domestic commerce. Needles, pins, thread, nails, toilet articles, soap, shoes, tin cans, Australian cured beef, English bottled pickles, pressed caviar, sugar, cheese, tea, coffee, biscuits, and various household articles and furniture made their appearance suddenly.

Prices are so high that only the wealthy, as wealth goes in Russia today, can buy extensively, but the market folk do such a lively business that the Bolshevik claim about extreme hoarding of money, foreign as well as Russian, is also supported to a considerable extent. Larger shops have not opened extensively in the centre of Moscow, and the small hatters, shoe dealers and clothiers have chiefly confined their activities to various street markets and bazaars. As the weeks of free trade drag on merchants are becoming more secure in their position and have apparently lost all fear that the Soviet government threw open the markets for the purpose of driving goods out of hiding and confiscating them.

Starve in Sight of Food.

In one of the worst famine centres on the Volga the Associated Press correspondent saw hungry refugees starving within sight of markets where bread, meat, and all sorts of foods were displayed in great quantities for sale at prices entirely beyond the reach of the Russian peasantry.

"Why don't you seize the food and feed these people?" the correspondent asked provincial government officials who were not able to obtain enough food to give 40,000 orphan a scanty ration.

"That would only make food scarcer," the governor replied. "It would drive all the supplies back under cover, and the market would be closed to buy. Consequently, they would have to depend on the government rations and bring their supplies into the markets and the burden which the government has in collecting food is lessened."

Work For Food, Not Rubles.

Russians who are in the worst plight are the formerly well-to-do who cannot find employment under the Soviet government. Employees of the government are all given food. Consequently all departments are greatly overstaffed and the clamor for positions is deafening. Salaries are small and the scale is so varied that it is impossible to learn what the standard is. But employees work for food rather than money. One woman clerk in the foreign trade department said she received 7,000 rubles a month. A soldier employed as guard at a government guest house says his wage is only 1,000 rubles a month, with an allowance of one pound of black bread, two lumps of sugar, and a limited amount of rice and cassia, or rough meal made from millet and used by the Russians as a sort of breakfast food. With bread selling at prices ranging from 3,000 to 7,000 rubles a pound, according to quality, these salaries are ridiculous.

Workers in some of the automobile factories are reported to receive from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 rubles a month. Others are paid less paper money and receive perquisites in the way of manufactured products, food, rent, etc. So in all the maze of figures it is impossible to reach any average wage or salary.

Under the revised economic plan fares must be paid on railways and street cars. Charges are also to be made for light, telephone, telegraph and postage. Free rent is also disappearing and renters are to be required to keep up repairs at their own expense, under the direction of house committees.

These changes are increasing the difficulties of persons whose incomes and forcing gentilefolk into the street markets with their remaining furs, jewelry, silverware, clothing, linen and clothing.

Ex-Aristocrats in Trade.

Most of the old-time aristocracy has long ago learned the ways of trade, and it is not the hardship it once was to stand in the streets and barter away personal effects. Many of the former members of leisure classes have taken very naturally to changed conditions and gone in for trading on a strictly commercial basis. The only two restaurants in Moscow where satisfactory meals are served are staffed by cultured women who speak German and French as fluently as Russian and receive diners with all the courtesy found in better class dining rooms. The manager of one of these restaurants is the wife of an officer high in the Bolshevik Red army, who was formerly a colonel in the imperial army. Her husband's salary is wholly inadequate to support her two children and aged parents so she worked for the government until the new economic policy made it possible for her to enter business of a more remunerative sort.

Krasin and other economic experts who are working out the new trade policy make it plain that both retailers and wholesalers are free to engage in domestic trade without government interference. However, all exporting and importing of goods is to be through government channels and as the government is not inclined to spend large sums of money for purchases abroad, it is difficult to see where Russian merchants are to get foreign articles after the small stocks which have been uncovered are exhausted.

Krasin hopes to get foreign credits through a consortium which will enable Russia to buy on long time or to exchange raw materials for manufactured articles. But such negotiations are slow and uncertain and the broken-down railways make it impossible to assemble raw materials speedily. When the correspon-

THE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNAE ENJOYS A CANADIAN EVENING

It was a Canadian evening at the meeting of the High School Alumnae last night and the excellent programme made a special appeal to everyone present. The meeting was held at the home of the president, Miss Grace Campbell, 47 Hazen street, and was attended by an unusually large number. Miss Florence Estabrooks was in charge of the programme which took up in turn the Indian, French and English periods. In the first part of the programme Miss Dorothy Sinclair read a paper on Indian Legends. The weird song of the medicine man was given by Miss Marion Thompson with chorus assisting. Mrs. P. B. Ellis recited "The song my paddles sing" by Pauline Johnson, and some records of Indian music, loaned by William McIntosh, were played. The French period opened with a paper by Miss Mabel Rogers on "Home Life in French Canada." Miss Helen Pendleton recited "The Habitant" and Mademoiselle Saulnier sang "The song of Alouette."

The English period was presented by each person taking part, giving first the history of the life of a Canadian poet and then reciting one of the poems written by that poet. In the sequence the names of those taking part and the poets and their works were as follows: Miss Helen Murray, Eliza Curran, "The Ship of Grey St. John"; Miss Barbara Dobson, Bernard Trotter, "The Poplars"; Miss Jessie Lawson, Fred Manning, of St. John, who was killed at Vimy Ridge at the age of twenty-one, "Sonnet on Duty"; and another poem, both taken from unpublished writings; Miss Dorothy Hickson, "Song of Late September"; Miss Jean Somerville, Jean Bleuet, "Scotch poem"; Miss Roberta Smith, Wilfrid Campbell, "England." It was announced that the Alumnae had been able to arrange for a lecture to be delivered by Rev. Canon Armstrong under its auspices.

TIME WE WOKE UP.

(Halifax Echo)
It is true, as Mr. Orerar has pointed out, that the last places in the world needing "protection" are such maritime sections as comprise the far eastern provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are, as the Progressive leader said, strikingly like the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the maritime provinces though not surrounded by water, are nevertheless isolated from the rest of the Dominion. This very isolation affords them an excellent opportunity to build up a great and prosperous import and export trade with the rest of the world. All three provinces possess natural wealth and resources which should fit them for such trade, independent of the great aggregation of provinces back of them, known as the Dominion of Canada.

INSIST THAT RADIUM AIDS IN CHECKING CANCER

Memorial Hospital Officers, in Statement, Say Experience Proves it Efficacious.

(New York Times.)
Recent statements that the treatment of cancer by radium was a failure and that the old methods of surgery were still the only methods giving hope of relief or cure, brought dissenting replies yesterday from officers of Memorial Hospital, Central Park West and 106th street, where radium is used extensively for cancer, and from Dr. C. Everett Kipling, director of the Radium Institute, 207 West Seventieth street, a privately endowed institution.

Herbert Parsons and Archibald Douglas, president and secretary, respectively, of Memorial Hospital, issued a joint statement on behalf of the officers and attending physicians, in which they said that "sweeping and general denunciations, based on data not thoroughly investigated, are misleading to the public and serve no good purpose."

"At the Memorial Hospital," the statement said, "we have under treatment several thousand sufferers from cancer, many of whom are being treated with radium. These people read the papers, and when doubt is cast upon the efficacy of the method with which they are being treated they are apt to suffer grave mental disturbances, their proper treatment may be interfered with, or even interrupted, and the best efforts of both our physicians and surgeons are hampered."

"The hospital has in its charge $400,000 worth of radium, the largest quantity, we understand, in any public hospital in the world, and the entire emanation from this is used every day in the year. We need double the quantity of radium now on hand."

"The Memorial Hospital treats cases of cancer in several ways—either by surgery only, by surgery and the application of radium or x-ray, or both; by the application of radium or x-ray alone, or by the application of both radium and x-ray."

"We are finding treatment by radium most effective in hundreds of cases and while our medical staff cannot announce any cures until more time has elapsed, it is significant that great numbers of cases, after several years, show no recurrence of the disease."

"The claim of our hospital is that in many cases radium offers the best possible relief in cancer, that in other cases its use is either ineffective or unwise, that by the proper use of radium under highly trained and expert medical advice only."

Dr. Field said investigations reported by all of the notable radium hospitals of Europe and America put radium on an equal basis with surgery.

"Ten years investigation have proven that radium exerts curative action in many types of cancer," he said. "It cures on its destructive energy, by means of rays which cause no visible effects on normal tissue. Overcrowding the dosage may injure the patient's resistance. At present our belief is that cancer in its primary state may be cured by surgery plus radium."

"To deny either agent of treatment its rightful place must place the critic as either unduly biased or ignorant. More than 600 highly scientific physicians throughout the world are now working daily with 115 grams of radium valued at $13,000,000, and most of them have been working more than five years. I have never heard of a single one of those who gave up his radium or lost interest in the results he is securing. Radium is, at present, fast reaching a standardization of dosage that will insure better results."

Literature issued by the American Society for the Control of Cancer for distribution during "National Cancer Week," which began yesterday, may be had at booths in the Grand Central Terminal and the Pennsylvania Station. More than four million pamphlets will be distributed throughout the city.

Milwaukee people have just entertained over the week-end a boyhood friend whom they remember as Tom Shaughnessy, who terminated a promising political career when he left his native third ward and city some 40 years ago. He was just over 21 when he was elected president of the common council, and his old associates have every reason to believe that he could easily have reached much higher political office if he had stuck to that line. His schooling ended when he was fifteen years old, but he was possessed in unusual degree of the qualities of a self-made man and had made an exceptionally good start on the making.

ASSAULTS RUM PRESCRIBING.

Dr. Elliot Says Multitude of Physicians Succumb to Big Fizz.
Boston, Nov. 3.—Dr. Charles W. Elliot, President Emeritus of Harvard University, rather astonished his audience at the Twentieth Century Club when he charged that multitudes of physicians were prescribing liquor "for the money they can get out of it."

"It is the medical profession which at this moment is serving the cause of the advocates of intoxicating drinks," he said. "There has come a very considerable change of practice in regard to fees. A considerable class of reputable physicians now base their charges on the supposed income of the patient or on their guess at it. One cannot affirm that this practice is unworthy of the profession. Too many worthy physicians and surgeons have already adopted it."

"But what is the consequence in regard to the temptation presented to physicians in general by this mode of charging? Physicians are constantly invited by patients of their own and by outsiders to prescribe alcohol. Now if that appeal is made to men in the habit of basing their charges on the income of the patient you see what a temptation is presented to the physician."

"This is a very serious condition of things, for multitudes of physicians are yielding to that temptation, and this is a case for bringing to bear on that class of physicians the strong influence of public opinion. We here should enlist in the undertaking."

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ARMISTICE DAY. Arrangements for the placing of a wreath of poppies on the soldiers' monument at Fernhill on Armistice Day was made this morning at a special meeting of the executive of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E. The regent, Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, presided. It was also decided to ask one of the returned chaplains to be present and conduct a memorial service. The tribute will be placed during the silent period at 11 o'clock. The executive also decided to ask the members of all the I. O. D. E. chapters, numbering some 400, to be present at the public memorial service in Trinity church in the afternoon. An invitation to all relatives interested in the monument at Fernhill to attend the service there, has been issued. A few matters of routine nature were dealt with.

ONE CASE WHERE TARDINESS WON

Promptness is almost invariably rewarded in some manner, but it is not often that tardiness has compensations. The rule was inverted in the case of George Hart, who appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning and his arrival half an hour after the appointed time saved him a fine of $10 and gained for him his freedom. George's name was called at 10 o'clock to answer a charge of traffic violation but there was no response. After the court had disposed of several other cases, Mr. Hart's name was called again and he came before the bench. "What is this man charged with?" asked the magistrate. "Exceeding the speed limit," the clerk responded. "I hardly think that he is guilty, as it took him half an hour to get here," was the magistrate's comment and Hart was allowed to go after explaining that he was engaged on an emergency call.

JUGO SLAVS ARE NOT SATISFIED

Want More Than the Exile of Charles.

Demands Made Upon Allies Disarmament of Hungary One of the Items—Also Said Czecho-Slavs Will Not Demobilize.

Budapest, Nov. 4.—Former Emperor Charles was dethroned and the Hapsburg dynasty was ousted from Hungary by a bill adopted by the Hungarian National Assembly today.

Vienna, Nov. 4.—The Hapsburg dethronement act in Hungary is declared by the Austrian press to be inadequate from the viewpoint of Austria and the Little Entente nations in that it failed expressly to exclude ex-King Charles and the other Hapsburgs from the dethronement. Therefore, it is declared, neither Czecho-Slovakia nor Jugoslavians will demobilize.

The Belgrade government is reported to be preparing another note to the Allies reiterating the demand for the complete disarmament of Hungary, with a representative of Jugoslavians leading a commission of control.

The note also will ask the re-embodiment of the Little Entente for its express mobilization and will assert that the Venice agreement for the adjustment of the Burgenland dispute is unacceptable, as contravening the treaty of Trianon.

It has been understood here that Premier Bethlen of Hungary intended to resign when the dethronement act was passed.

Paris, Nov. 4.—Demands for the execution of the Trianon treaty between Hungary and the Allies, indemnification for the cost of calling Jugoslavians to arms and the complete disarmament of Hungary are made in a note to the Entente nations by the Jugoslav government, says a newspaper despatch from Belgrade.

THOUSANDS AT THE FUNERAL OF LADY LAURIE

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—Side by side with her late eminent husband in a sheltered vault in Notre Dame cemetery, Lady Laurie was laid to rest this morning.

The funeral took place from her late residence in the sense which perpetuates the family name. It was an impressive manifestation of the public regard for a charming personality.

Several thousand people, including many of the most distinguished men in the country, were either in the procession or lined the streets. Hats were raised as the cortege passed, in reverence for a noble woman, who in the life of her distinguished husband had played the part of a helpful consort.

The governor-general was represented by Major William O'Connor, A. D. C., the dominion government by Sir James Loughheed, acting premier; the government of Quebec by Premier Taché, Hon. J. L. Ferrant and Hon. A. David.

The municipal corporations of Ottawa and Hull were represented by Mayor Plant and Mayor Cousineau, the Liberal party by Hon. Mackenzie King, Sir W. L. Mackenzie King, Sir W. M. Howes, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Rodolphe Lennox, Senator Beique and P. C. Larkin.

The chief mourners were Robert Laurie, nephew; A. N. Brodeur, of Montreal, and Carolus Laurie, brother-in-law; Raoul Laurie, and Sir George H. Howes, nephews; M. Dorion, M. L. Marit and M. Durocher, of Montreal.

The choir sang the impressive requiem of the Abbe Perot. At the offertory, the choir sang the requiem by Schubert. In the sanctuary were Monsignor Lebeau, Fathers Bourassa, Charbonneau, McGoan, Marchand and Paquette.

SPEAKS ACROSS THE CONTINENT

Phone Rehearsal of Armistice Day Ceremony in Honor of Unknown Soldier.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The call of a bugle, the chime of bells and the voice of a man were swept across the continent from San Francisco yesterday to be heard over a wide stretch of ground about Arlington National cemetery with every note, every jangling vibration of the bells and every spoken syllable as distinct as though sounded 100 feet from the listeners' ears. Yet the sounds originated in San Francisco, the speaker stood on the roof of the great auditorium there and the music came from records played in the building on New York and to another gathering in San Francisco. Telephone wires by the thousands of miles, lined by the hundreds of telegraph operators by the score were needed for the test as they will be needed on Armistice Day, to bring the experiment to the success so certainly foreshadowed by the day's perfect results.

MISS BURNHAM GETS POSITION

Toronto Overseas Worker Supervisor for Canada's Female Newcomers.

(Toronto Telegram.)
What is considered by many the most vital feminine post in the gift of Canada has come to a Toronto woman, according to the announcement made today by the Civil Service Commission at Ottawa. They have chosen Miss Mary V. Burnham, superior of the woman's section of the Department of Immigration, from which Mrs. Charles Robson, of Winnipeg, resigned some months ago. Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Burnham, floor street, Miss Burnham has an enviable record of war service at home and abroad and a special training that should be a splendid equipment in her new work. In April, 1915, Miss Burnham went overseas as a V. A. D. in the Canadian Convalescent Home for Officers at Dieppe, and afterwards at Trouville. Her service here on the executive staff lasted until September, 1918. Sir Douglas Haig mentioned her splendid work in despatches, and Miss Burnham also received medals for general service, and for 1915 for overseas service. Returning to Canada in No-

Her work here lasted until July, 1920, and during that time Miss Burnham came in contact with thousands of overseas women, who had faced new condition in Canada or were about to make their homes here. Miss Burnham remained with the hostel until it was taken over by the immigration authorities, and then took up the social service course at the University, paying special attention to immigration problems. CONTENTMENT IN POVERTY.

There is a sort of poverty that is of the Devil; it means squalor, famine and disease. I hold no brief for such poverty, or for its forbears, or for its offspring. There is, too, an elegant sort of "strained circumstances" that means giving up one of the automobiles and the better brand of cigars; it deserves few tears. But between these limits exists the province of true poverty, in which more than half of us always live—and usually wish we did not, and see no reason why in a free America we should not emerge from it. This is the province of skilled laborers and of most professional men; it includes the men who run their own furnaces and the women who "do their own work" but not other people's. From it comes the bulk of the support of the movies, the public schools, the Ford car, professional baseball, and the church. . . . On the whole, the wealth and the comfort of those whom I describe as truly "poor" is slowly increasing; but unless new sources of wealth are tapped for a population that remains stagnant, there can be no very sudden increase of wealth or comfort for the "poor" as a class. Yet most of the increase in happiness of the nation, if each individual is to count for one and only one, must come within this class, for the obvious reason that it includes most of the population. I am not at all sure that the bulk of the population is conspicuously

Shave Once Over~

The New Improved GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR
Uses the same fine Gillette Blades as you have known for years—but now your Blades can give you all the luxury of the finest shaving edge in the world. Identify the New Improved Gillette by its:
Fulcrum Shoulder
Overhanging Cap
Channelled Guard
Micrometric Precision
Automatic Adjustment
Diamond Knurled Handle
Diamond Trademark on Guard
Finer Shave, Longer Service
More Shaves from your Blades
Shaving Sets & Traveler Outfits
$5 to $75

ONCE over with the New Improved Gillette and your face will be smoother, cooler, fresher than after any shave you've ever had before.

The free shaving edge, safely guarded from the face, slips smoothly over chin and cheek without pull or effort. Cut hairs and lather go into the channel. They cannot jam in between blade and guard and cap. They cannot clog the shaving action.

Men who believe in enjoying the inventions of this age are not hesitating to discard their razors of yesterday for the 75% greater efficiency of the New Improved Gillette.

NOTE—One of the first things to strike the user of the New Improved Gillette is its simplicity.

Most men prefer to screw the handle up tight to get the most satisfactory shave.

The Gillette Blade and Gillette Razor are developed to work together. No Gillette Blade can deliver its full shaving quality unless used in a genuine Gillette Razor—built by Gillette, in the Gillette way and up to Gillette standards.

Gravity not a Real Test

A MOTOR fuel to give good mileage and complete satisfaction must contain a continuous and unbroken chain of boiling points. It must be a straight-distilled product of uniform high quality. The so-called gravity test means nothing. It is not a real measure of gasoline quality.

Imperial Premier Gasoline is a straight-distilled, all-refinery product. It burns clean. It all goes into power and mileage from the first to the last drop in your tank.

Imperial Premier Gasoline gives you everything which you have a right to expect from good gasoline. If better gasoline could be made, Imperial Oil Limited would make it.

Breaking Up of The Empire Is Not Feared

Sir Robert Borden in Inspiring Address in New York, Says Integrity of Empire Assured.

New York, Nov. 3.—Refuting the contentions of those who maintain that the attainment by the dominions of the status and influence of self-governing nations tends towards the disintegration of the British Empire, Sir Robert Borden, Canadian delegate to the conference on the limitation of armaments at Washington at a luncheon given in his honor by the Lawyers' Club here today, declared that on the contrary this development assured the integrity and security of the British commonwealth.

Mr. Borden said that the organization of the League of Nations, which had inspired the United States president to convene the meeting of nations at Washington, was the result of the action of the nations of the world, and that the nations of the world were united in their prayers for the fulfillment of his endeavor.

EXPLANATIONS GIVEN OF THE RYAN CHARGES

The inquiry under oath being held by the city council in charges preferred by John P. Ryan in regard to work being done by the Canada Lock-Joint Pipe Company, was continued last evening in the committee room at City Hall. Commissioner Jones presided, and other present included Mayor Schofield, Commissioners Bullock, Thornton and Frink, J. P. Ryan, D. Mullin, K.C., representing Mr. Ryan; E. C. Weyman, representing the company; W. H. Harrison, acting city solicitor; W. G. Chase, of Toronto, president of the company, and G. J. Bruce, local manager, and G. H. Harlow, engineer. F. P. Vaughan, C. C. Wray, George Waring and James Gilchrist, of the local branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada, were present as spectators.

The questions of the commission paid to E. J. Terry was first brought up and Mr. Mullin contended that as this matter was one of the charges it should be investigated. Mr. Jones said that what had passed between the company and some one outside the council had nothing to do with the matter. Mr. Mullin said that it had been charged that there was plain inference that Mr. Terry's influence with the mayor had influenced the award of the contract. Mr. Harrison read the previous testimony in which Mr. Ryan had said that he knew nothing of any graft and said that it was a matter between Mr. Terry and the company and was a private transaction. Mr. Bullock felt that the council was clear of any charge of graft, but that public did not know the situation, and it should be cleared up.

There was further discussion of the matter by several present, and Mr. Weyman said that there was no secret of money having been paid to Mr. Terry. He had been the company's representative for years in the maritime provinces and had kept it in touch with proposals, gave it details of jobs, etc. The company had agents in all parts of the country and the money had been paid for services rendered. Mr. Harrison contended that the specifications and its tender had been the lowest. There had been absolutely no graft.

Mr. Mullin argued the matter ought to go into. Mr. Jones said the council had nothing to conceal and he could go ahead. Mr. Mullin then asked Mr. Ryan if he knew anything further in regard to the Terry matter, and Mr. Ryan replied that he did not.

The Clay Used. Charles Kingston, seventeen years old, was next sworn. He had been employed by the company from July, 1921, until about a month ago. His job had been mixing the mud and tamping it into the pipe. By mud he meant clay. He did not know the proportions of the mixture. He put a pall of mud in each batch. He took his orders from Mr. Allen. It was a kind of clay brought to the job in teams. The mud was put in a machine and ground down. It was like clay and in lumps when it arrived. The mud was a necessary part of the mixture for the pipe, so far as he knew. The amount of mud was gradually cut down to three-quarters and then half a pall.

Percy Warrington was the next witness. He went on the job in March, 1921, when pipe was first laid, and still was with the company. He was foreman of the pipe laying gang. He took of his duties. He had nothing to do with the making of the pipe. He said that there was a certain amount of clay supplied to go into the pipe to make the concrete more dense. It was a good class of brick clay. The gravel was crushed, sometimes twice, and put through a revolving screen. All material went through the screen.

Only Twelve Leaks. Mr. Harrison said that it had been charged that there had been twenty-one leaks up to Oct. 18 and it had taken fifty bags of cement to repair each of the leaks. He knew that there were twelve leaks and it was not correct that there were twenty-one leaks. The leaks were charged to a certain amount of leakage. The leaks were not so serious as they were represented to have been. The leaks would not hurt the pipe but make it better, as collar cement to the leaks would make the pipe thicker. He explained how the repairs were made, which made the pipe from six to fifteen inches thicker. All twelve leaks had been repaired. The final test was yet to be made but tests made so far showed the pipe to be up to specifications. He would say the concrete in the pipe was good. Leaks might be caused by handling pipe causing inevitable cracks. There had been only one leak at a joint, caused by a cracked pipe. The repairs had used no extra cost to the city.

In reply to the mayor, Mr. Warrington said that he knew of clay being used in making cisterns and other jobs to make them watertight. By using the clay the company would not save on the cement.

To Mr. Frink, he said that various sections of pipe were tested by water pressure before being laid. At this stage Mr. Bullock read a section of the specifications which required the engineer might vary the lines, grades, materials and modes on the job. The question was, did the engineer know that clay was being used.

Have You SORE HANDS in Winter?

NEAL THEM WITH ZAM-BUK.

FOR chapped hands, chilblains, cold-sores and frost-bite, there is no treatment so beneficial as dressings with Zam-Buk. When the roughness, irritation and redness of the skin is followed by cracking and bleeding, dirt and disease germs may find their way into the raw places and cause inflammation, blood-poison or winter eczema.

Zam-Buk stops the pain entirely. Simply smear a little herbarial Zam-Buk on the sore parts and wrap up carefully. Letting the Zam-Buk soak into the tissues, soothes away smarting itching pain, and assures rapid healing with healthy new skin.

The striking quality of Zam-Buk is its rare herbarial origin. It contains none of the mineral salts of common salves and ointments. Prepared exclusively from rich, unadulterated oils, Zam-Buk is a concentrated balsam of the highest purity and of unsurpassed healing, soothing, and antiseptic efficiency.

Use Zam-Buk also for the application of cuts, burns and scalds, and for chafes, abscesses, ulcers, ringworm or other skin or scalp diseases. 50c. box or $1.25, all druggists and dealers.

GET Zam-Buk TO-DAY!

Imperial marched to the Army where an enjoyable smoker was held and local talent carried out a series of songs and dances. Sergeant Watson sang several songs and Jack Rossley gave several Scotch impersonations. Sergeant Jones also sang on the saxophone. Sergeant A. W. Watson acted as accompanist. The affair was a success.

The Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Portland Methodist church gave a mystery party at Fallview Cottage, Lancaster, last night and had a very good time. The costumes worn were the source of much amusement and showed much originality. Home made refreshments were served. Refreshments were served.

About forty friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christopher, 92 Mecklenburg street, last evening and tendered a novelty shower to Miss Nellie Smith, of Fort St. John, who is soon to be a bride. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music and refreshments were served.

Because of the absence of the president, D. C. Clark's regular meeting was postponed and the ladies' concert at the residence of Mrs. H. Roy Gregory in Queen street on Wednesday evening with Mrs. T. H. Carter, the regent, presiding. The chief business of the meeting consisted of making the final arrangements for the forthcoming ball.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stimulate the weakened bronchial organs, subside the inflammation, soothe the irritated parts, loosen the phlegm and mucus, and help nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulation.

Mr. John H. Root, 40 Maple Ave., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with bronchitis and had a very bad cough. I had it so long I was beginning to get afraid of other developments. I tried all kinds of cough remedies without relief. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I got a bottle, and it convinced me to believe that I had at last gotten the right medicine. I used several bottles and I feel perfectly well. I have recommended it to other friends, and good results followed."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c. and 60c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FUR FARMING IS DEVELOPING

Growth of Industry Makes Good Losses Due to Civilization—Spreading Westward.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—No matter what happens to the incalculable resources of Canada in wild fur-bearing animals, late statistics of the Dominion Bureau indicate that the losses in this resource caused by the spread of modern civilization over the wilds will be more than made up by the fur farms on which the fur farming industry will be diligently developed. In 1920 there were 887 fur farms in Canada, including 578 fox farms, six mink, two raccoon farms and one karakule sheep farm. The animals on these farms were valued at $4,722,905. The greater part of this value being made up of 18,994 silver foxes, valued at $3,884,417. The value of animals sold from these farms in 1920 totaled $763,321, and the pelts sold brought an additional $888,335.

The selling value of live silver foxes ranged from $100 to $1,100, and of the pelts from $75 to $750. The industry is creeping westward. Prince Edward Island, where the industry began, is still in the lead with 609 farms, on which the animals are valued at more than three million dollars. But Nova Scotia, forty-five; New Brunswick, fifty-seven; Quebec, eighty; Ontario, forty-two; Manitoba and Saskatchewan, four; Alberta, fifteen; British Columbia, eleven; Yukon territory, four farms.

Most of these farms are fox farms, but 218 mink were born in Nova Scotia, Ontario and Quebec farms, thirteen raccoons on Ontario and Quebec farms, thirty-one skunks on Ontario farms, and 490 karakule lambs in Alberta.

The "Teamsters" and "Chauffeurs" Union, local 661, held its regular monthly meeting last evening in its rooms in Prince William street. The meeting was largely attended and the president, the union, Albert Kripkapat, occupied the chair. In addition to the usual routine business two new members were initiated.

The Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Portland Methodist church gave a mystery party at Fallview Cottage, Lancaster, last night and had a very good time. The costumes worn were the source of much amusement and showed much originality. Home made refreshments were served. Refreshments were served.

About forty friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christopher, 92 Mecklenburg street, last evening and tendered a novelty shower to Miss Nellie Smith, of Fort St. John, who is soon to be a bride. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music and refreshments were served.

CLINGS TWO DAYS TO CLIFF; ATTACKING BIRDS SAVE LIFE. Nice, Nov. 4.—Swept by a heavy wave against a cliff while bathing, Lovell Marston, a Canadian tourist, clung two days to the rocks. He would have perished by the fact that he was attacked by birds whose noise attracted the attention of pedestrians on the top of the cliff. Marston was hauled 600 feet up the steep cliff. He was badly hurt about the head by the birds, but will recover.

BRITISH COMPLAIN TO UNITED STATES. (Canadian Press Despatch). London, Nov. 3.—Alleged hardships suffered by British subjects at Ellis Island, New York, came up for brief consideration in the house of commons today. Cecil Harmsworth, under-secretary of foreign affairs, was asked whether representations had been made to Washington on this score. He replied that, judging by the distressing accounts received of the treatment of British subjects at Ellis Island and the conditions under which they were compelled to live, the strongest complaints would be justified.

Repeated representations made to the United States government declared the under-secretary, "have, I regret to say, had no tangible result, but further negotiations are proceeding at the present moment, which I hope may lead to some permanent improvement."

"BUSINESS QUEEN." Paris, Nov. 4.—Following the recent visit of Queen Marie of Roumania to this country, several French financial and commercial leaders have gone to Bucharest to assist in setting up new Roumanian industries.

Anaemia. Thin, watery blood is no more nourishing than thin, watery milk—skim milk. But you can soon enrich this blood, overcome the anaemic condition and build up the whole system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. F. C. Simmons, 42 Curtis St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "For about eight years I suffered from anaemia. My circulation was poor, my gums and lips were pale, and I was nervous and unable to sleep well. I had frequent headaches, seemed restless and was a buzzing sound in my ears. There was also some of my complaints, and I often was attacked by weak spells, went to a doctor, who told me I was anaemic, but as I did not get any better I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after the first box I felt brighter and my headaches completely disappeared. I continued using the Nerve Food for quite a while. I am quite well now, and cheerfully and gratefully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to people suffering as I did before. I used this splendid medicine."

DO ALL MY HOUSE WORK. Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly get about.

Cobourg, Ont.—"For many years I have had trouble with my nerves and have been in a general run down condition for some time. I could not do my work half of the time because of the trouble with my monthly sickness. I was told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and advised to try it. It has done me good, and I have strongly recommend it. Since I have taken it I have been able to do all my own work and I also know friends who have found it good. You can use these facts as a testimonial." Mrs. ELIZABETH FLATNER, Box 761, Cobourg, Ont.

Why will women continue to suffer so long more than can be understood, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For forty years this good old fashioned, root and herb remedy, which contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CHARLES CHEERED IN PARLIAMENT

(Canadian Press Despatch).

Budapest, Nov. 3.—When Count Stefan Bethlen, the premier, introduced the bill in the National Assembly today calling for the dethroning of former King Charles and the ousting of the Hapsburg dynasty from Hungary, there were cheers for Charles by the legitimists. The bill protests against the interference of foreign powers in Hungary, provides for the removal of the Hapsburgs from power and calls for the postponement for an indefinite period of selecting a new king of Hungary.

Eight days of mourning for Hungary because of the country's humiliation through the recent escape of Charles have been ordered by the minister of the interior. All theatres and other places of amusement are closed.

WASP FATALITIES. London, Nov. 4.—Since the recent death of M. Henrietta G. Castelnau, a Danish minister, from a wasp sting there has been increased discussion of the many fatalities caused by wasps this year. One theory is that the insects are poisoning their victims by carrying prussic acid, which is used to destroy their nests.

Good for rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains and strains, aches and pains, sciatica, sore muscles, stiff joints and the after effects of weather exposure. For forty years pain's enemy. Ask your neighbor. Keep Sloan's handy. At all druggists—55c, 70c, $1.40.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS. Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites any overworked kidneys and efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poisons. Use a salt that will flush the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. Use any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a few days and your kidneys will then act. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. It makes a delightful effervescent beverage. It is inexpensive; harmless and water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

United States entered the war, Colonel Roosevelt asked permission to raise and equip a great volunteer force lead him to France. This was denied him and the incident was a great humiliation. The President was trying to prevent his rival from gaining any credit out of the war. The incident describes the meetings the President had with his predecessor when the matter was under discussion. The incident indeed, he says that Wilson was a great admirer of Roosevelt and was a great admirer of Roosevelt. There is a sweetness about him that is very compelling. You can't resist the man. The Slight to Wood.

The reason the permission was not granted to Roosevelt was that the Administration realized that the war had to be fought by professionals, while Roosevelt would have been a volunteer. There could be no experimenting with volunteer commanders, no matter how great their ideas, how noble their motives, or how eminent their positions in the nation. To make an exception of Col. Roosevelt would have been to strike at the heart of the whole design. This is the explanation of Mr. Tumulty, who says that it was the President's strong personal wish that the matter might have been otherwise arranged. The Wood incident had trained his division and on the eve of his departure to France he had been ordered to remain behind. This was a great blow to him and carried the Republican press.

Again it was asserted that Wood, because he was an intimate friend of Roosevelt's and a prominent Republican, was, for political reasons, being cheated out of his share of the credit. Mr. Tumulty's brief explanation is that Wood was kept at home because Pershing did not want him to go. He did not ask for Wood. His retention in the United States was considered merely a matter of army routine when the decision was made, but the hubbub is produced caused Tumulty, always a shrewd politician, to urge the President to intervene and send Wood either to France or to Italy. He pointed out that the Administration was being unfairly condemned for a decision of Gen. Pershing. The President replied profanely: "I do not care a damn for the criticism of the country. I do not intend to embarrass Gen. Pershing by forcing his hand."

The chapter devoted to Mr. McCombs was written, no doubt, as an answer to recent articles published by friends of Mr. McCombs, who did some little time ago, but left behind him manuscript concerning his association with Mr. Wilson. McCombs was his campaign manager when Mr. Wilson was first elected President. It is believed that McCombs, Col. Harvey, and Henry Watkinson were primarily responsible for Mr. Wilson entering politics. Harvey became one of his bitterest enemies.

ESTIMATE NOT CORRECT
(Montreal Gazette.)

The fall in cotton, which has carried priced down 3.13 cents from the high level of September 27, resulted directly enough from the market's sudden conviction that, with $447,000 bales ginned from the present crop to October 18, and with 1,223,000 bales ginned from last year's crop during the fortnight following that date in 1920, and 2,673,000 in November, 1920, it is impossible that the department's 4,337,000 bales estimate of this year's total yield should be correct. The proper forecast, today's cotton market insisted, would be 7 to 7 1/2 million bales. The argument is plausible, but no more plausible than the Government's argument that the crop was so small and was picked so early as to make it easily possible that nearly all the crop has already passed through the 18,000 ginneries. We shall possibly find the question settled by the fortnightly "ginning figures" of next Wednesday, Nov. 10.

THE LATH MARKET
Chatham World.—The lath market is on the decline. The World was informed today. This will be bad news for our lumbermen who have been cutting a considerable quantity of laths this fall. Many small operators went into the business on the strength of the high prices prevailing early in the season.

REPORT GERMANY IN FISH MARKET

Newfoundland Seriously Disturbed Over Reports from Oporto—Norwegian Trifled?

(St. John's Advocate.)
Does Newfoundland, with all her other troubles, face the disagreeable prospect of having to meet with German competition in the Oporto market?
That is the question which is prompting itself to the minds of Water street today. For despatches to the Board of Trade, posted up this morning, announce that over two thousand—2,885, to be exact—quintals of German fish are in Oporto this week.

That is all that is definitely known about the matter. Is it just an isolated shipment? Or is it the first and last one from Germany? Or is the beginning only? Is more fish to follow from whence this came? In short, are we faced now with German competition in our Oporto market? It is a question of no mean importance.

How much fish does Germany catch, anyway? Where does she catch it? In the North Sea? Presumably in the North Sea. Does she catch more than she consumes? Has she ever exported fish before?

Is this "German" fish Norwegian fish camouflaged as German fish?
Was it caught by Norwegians and shipped by German ships manned by German sailors, to avoid paying the tax?

Can this country face German competition, if it really comes? There is one feature about it which is worth examining—exchange. The German mark is now worth half a cent—outside Germany that is. Inside Germany a mark is worth a mark. Suppose Germany next year sold a lot of fish to Portugal, at ten dollars. That would be 2,000 marks Co-operative Wool Growers. Sales made by this association to date already equal the total disposed of a year ago and by far the largest quantity of this has gone to domestic mills. Better sheep, better methods of grading the wool by the growers, and better fatturing and marketing of the grown wools are responsible for the improvement reported.
Fine Wool in Demand.

The most marketable wools at present are the fine and fine medium wools. This has been the case for some time past, although there is, at last, a really growing tendency on the part of the mills to use and to show more interest in the lower grades. Medium wools are already in fair demand. It is the opinion of the Co-operative that, as competition between mills becomes keener for business, coupled with the depression caused by lack of buying by the public generally, manufacturers will gradually be seeking lines of goods made of the cheaper wools, such as these lower grades.
The spread in price between the fine wools and low wools is still very marked and in addition there is beginning to be a decided shortage in the fine wools.

Recent London sales show an improvement in crossbreds and low wools and there has been quite a movement in low medium wools in the United States recently.

Average prices prevailing in this market for graded wool run as follows:
Coarse, 9 to 11 cents; low staple, 12 to 14 1/2 cents; medium staple, 13 to 16 1/2 cents; fine medium staple, 18 to 20 cents; the variation in price depending on character, quality and shrinkage of the wools.

We are forwarding shipments of seven different lots of wool early next week to London, England," continues the report, "to test out that market as to price and also to convince the English trade of some extent of the class and character of the wool grown in Canada.
At present the wools most saleable in England, we believe, can also be placed in Canada, while for the lower grades
the market the world over is somewhat uncertain owing to the large stocks in this class of wools, however, some improvement is looked for in the near future, as is intimated above."

Expect U. S. Demand.
"Our American representative under recent date advises us as follows: "The present tariff which we have is absolutely prohibitive on wools, and, as our Canadians are all busy, excepting the ones making ladies' dress goods, we have quite a fine wool in demand."

In the Garrison League, Headquarters took all four points from the 6th Signal Company. The winners totaled 1,188, and the losers 1,099. A company took all four points from C. A. S. C. The winners totaled 1,125 and the losers 1,064.

THE RING.

Condemn Pro Boxing.
A strongly worded resolution, moved by Rev. Wesley Megaw and seconded by Rev. Orr Bennett, condemning the proposed introduction of professional boxing into Ottawa, was passed at a meeting of the Ottawa Presbytery on Tuesday. The discussion which followed this motion vigorously favored the continuation of amateur sports in Ottawa, and was opposed to any step to allow professional boxing to get a foothold in the city.

FOOTBALL.

Will Visit Canada.
The Australian rugby team now playing in Northern Union series in England, will play a series of matches in Canada on its way home next spring. Dal Thomas, former Welsh international star, now resident in British Columbia, has been asked to arrange and manage the tour. He expects to stage 4 games each in Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and possibly in Philadelphia.

Kings and Acadia Tie.

Wolville, N. S., Nov. 3.—Acadia University and Kings College, Windsor, rugby teams, played a 2-2 tie in an exhibition game here today as in their previous game at Windsor. Acadia's superiority in the forward line, and Kings advantage in a speedy and smooth working half line, featured the game.

WRESTLING.

Lewis Defeats J. Polk.
New York, Nov. 3.—Ed. "Strangler" Lewis, former heavyweight wrestling champion, tonight defeated Joe Polk, inter-allied title holder, in a two-fall match. The first fall was gained after six minutes, forty seconds with a double wrist-lock and the second in four minutes, nineteen seconds with a double body hold.

GET NEARER TO HOCKEY RINK

Promoters Find Good Support and There Should be Definite Word in a Few Days.

That St. John is to have a hockey rink is practically assured. At a special meeting of the promoters held in the mayor's office yesterday afternoon that sufficient money had already been guaranteed to build one of the two types under consideration, and enough additional money was in sight to make the construction of the second and more elaborate type possible. Another meeting will be held on next Tuesday when it is hoped to complete arrangements and have the work started immediately. It has been practically decided to erect the rink on the site of the old car barn in Main street, opposite Albert.

This is great news to hockey and skating fans throughout the city. That this city is and has been badly in need of such a rink is evident. Hockey has been one of the chief winter sports in the maritime provinces, but during the last few years St. John boys have been denied the pleasure of participating to any marked degree because they had no rink. A handful of enthusiasts kept the game alive by practicing on City Lake and on open air rinks and thus prevented it from being relegated to "old time sport." If the plans materialize, St. John will be in a position to enter a provincial league and from material available they can be depended upon to uphold "the honors of their home town." A little co-operation on the part of local sports and citizens in general should make the rink assured. From present indications St. John is coming back to its own.

C. N. R. RAIL ORDER PLACING THIS WEEK

A continuance of active operations in the rail mills at Saint Ste. Marie and Sydney is likely as a result of the splitting of a $4,000,000 order between these two producers by the Canadian National Railway. Negotiations have been proceeding for some time and, according to semi-official information, the business is likely to be placed within a couple of days. It is noteworthy that the United States Steel Corporation and leading independent producers lowered their price on steel rails to $20, Pittsburgh mills, within the past ten days. This is a reduction of $7 per ton. It is anticipated that 20,000 tons will be placed with each of the two companies.

FAIRVILLE W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of the Fairville Methodist church met last night at the home of Mrs. William Bonnell, Harding street. Mrs. J. Johnston led the offering devotion. Mrs. Byron Cameron tendered her resignation as president because of serious illness at home and it was graciously accepted. Mrs. Jabez Rice was appointed as the new president. A full and interesting report of the St. John district convention at Sussex was given by Mrs. A. Long and it was decided to adopt three suggestions made at the convention; to have the Wednesday night of conference week a missionary meeting at which all the names of the Canadian missionary stations and at least three foreign stations should be repeated and the geography of each studied to have round table talks and to collect dues before November. The former programme committee was re-appointed and a chapter from the mission study book was read the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

NATIONAL TRAINS TO HALT FOR TWO-MINUTE PAUSE

All trains operating on the Canadian National Railway will be stopped for the observance of the two-minute silence in commemoration of the sons of Canada who sleep in Flanders fields. Instructions to this effect were issued by President D. McHanna of the C. N. R. It has been arranged with the Operating Department that the movement of trains on the Canadian National Railway, as far as can be done consistent with safety, will be stopped for two minutes, beginning at eleven o'clock, Friday morning, November 11, observing local time in each locality, and it is desired that as far as possible to have all work suspended for two minutes, commencing at the hour mentioned.

BRITISH CONTROL MOSLEM WORLD

Great Britain Must Solve the Problems of the Orient, Says Dr. Zwemer—Holds Three Key Cities.

That upon Great Britain will develop in the future to a large extent the solution of many of the pressing problems of the Near East, particularly with regard to the Moslems, was the opinion expressed this week by Rev. Dr. S. M. Zwemer, in an address to a large audience of men at the West End Y. M. C. A., Toronto.

"There are three great cities in the Mohammedan world, and for good or for ill these are practically controlled now by Great Britain. Whether he likes it or not, the Moslem sees his pilgrimages to Mecca controlled by Britain, the Press of Cairo in the hands of the British and the British fleet in possession of Constantinople."

The temporal power of the Mohammedan was gone, Dr. Zwemer averred, and the time was ripe for Christianity to take its place. To the Y. M. C. A. in the East as an invaluable adjunct to the work of the missionary the speaker paid high tribute. The "Y," he thought, could often make an appeal, by reason of its fourfold programme, where the work of the missionary failed to elicit any response.

CANADA MAY FIND IN JAPAN MARKET FOR HER PRODUCTS

Leader of Japanese Business Men's Mission Says There is a Great Future for Trade.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 4.—"I am convinced that there is a great future for trade between Canada and Japan," said Dr. Takuma Dan, leader of the Japanese business men's mission to America and the United Kingdom, who arrived here today aboard the Empress of Russia.

"There is a market for the raw and manufactured products of Canada in Japan, and, on the other hand, there should be a market in this country for the manufactures of Japan."

"We are here to secure knowledge of the business methods of the countries we propose to visit, and, if possible, arrive at a better understanding that will lead to closer co-operation in the establishments of international trade."

The business mission, Dr. Dan said, will be split up into parties, and will visit as many of the larger trade centres of the United States and Canada as time permits. In December the trade mission will set sail for England from New York.

SIAMESE PRINCE AT VICTORIA, B. C.

Good News For Coal Users

A BIT OF COAL HISTORY WITH A HAPPY ENDING

In 1900, twenty-one years ago, Broad Cove Coal was first introduced to St. John householders. From then on, until 1918 it gradually gained in popularity. At that time it was by far the most popular coal for domestic use.

You will remember the Broad Cove coal of 1918 was a coal well known for its free burning and non-coking qualities; a soft coal so free of soot that it was used in stoves and ranges without fear of soot trouble. Up to that time it was the ideal household fuel, either for open fires, range or stove use.

Broad Cove Coal

IN STRANGE HANDS FOR TWO YEARS

Then conditions changed. Control of the mine got into other hands. Mining operations were carried on with an idea of quantity. The quality seemed to be a second consideration. For these reasons we could no longer handle the coal. Retailers who did try to trade in it were compelled to take stone and slack or go without. Broad Cove eventually sunk so low that most dealers were afraid to touch it. Those who did try to supply the demand (with the genuine article) either lost friends or lost money by the quality of coal supplied.

Now Back To Old Conditions

We are now pleased to announce the return to the old order of things. Broad Cove is now being produced with the old fashioned idea of quality in mind. It is now what it used to be prior to 1919. We are again acting as Wholesale Distributor in this territory and can confidently recommend the Broad Cove Coal as produced today to both dealer and consumer. To stop substitution of cheaper and inferior grades of coal for Broad Cove we would thank any consumer getting coal that is not satisfactory to inform us of the fact and the name of the dealer who supplied same. The following local retailers can now supply the genuine article.
