VOL. II.

HARTLAND, N. B., SATURDAY AUGUST 27, 1898.

No. 29

THE fondness some advertisers have of throwing bouquets at themselves is remarkable.

Instead of getting down to business, and telling people what they want to know, they waste their valuable space by pointing the finger of pride at themselves.

"Look at us," they say, "We are the people," "We are honest," "We are so busy, we can't find time to eat." "We lie awake nights studying up nice things for the dear people." "We sold 15 cars goods in 13 days, 5 hours and 17 minutes by the clock; what do you think of that?" "Just stick to us; we are a good thing." "We never deceive anybody!" "We are the truly good." "Our store is a palace; a veritable fairy-land, a paradise of enchantment, and we can prove it. Whoop!"

All of which strongly moves all sensible people to exclaim, "Rats!"

The undersigned simply says:
Call and examine Goods and get prices. If you are doing as well elsewhere, then you are getting a good trade. If not, then buy from us.

DISTRICT MEETING.

And S. S. Convention at Florenceville.

The Financial District Meeting of the Methodist Church for the Woodstock District, met at Florenceville, Wednesday, Aug. 24th, at 2:30 p. m. All the ministers of the District and a number of laymen answered to their names.

After a devotional service the Chairman proceeded at once to business. The estimates for salary on the different circuits were quite satisfactory. Arrangements were made for the successful carrying out of missionary, sustentation and educational meetings within the bounds of the District. Other matters of importance pertaining to the work were brought up and discussed.

In the evening a Sunday School Convention was held in the church and was well attended.

Thrilling addresses were given by Revds. Clements and Parkins, and Mr. Smith M. P. P. of Woodstock. The Rev. Mr. Fiske, (Presbyterian), who attended the World's S. S. Convention in London, being in the audience, was called upon for a short report of said Convention. The report although brief was very interesting and instructive.

The addresses were interspersed with excellent music by the choir.

The question box contained many questions, and were answered by Revds. Estey and Marr.

The session of Thursday morning was one of unusual interest and benefit to all, especially that part of it which dealt with the Spiritual aspect of the work on the different circuits throughout the District. Reports in this regard were received and methods for the deepening of the Spiritual life were suggested and discussed.

A strong resolution favoring the pushing forward of the Prohibition movement was unanimously adopted.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Florenceville people for their kind hospitality.

Fire at Centreville.

The Liberal-Conservatives.

Meet in Burt's Hall and Organize.

There was a meeting of the local Liberal-Conservatives in Burt's Hall on Monday evening for the purposing of parish organization. D. H. Keswick called the meeting to order and A. W. Rideout was elected to the chair. W. E. Thistle was made secretary for the evening. There was considerable speaking, the chief being J. K. Fleming, D. H. Keswick and others. Organization and officers as follows: A. F. Campbell, chairman; W. E. Thistle, secretary; D. H. Keswick, G. R. Burt S. N. Nevers, Darius Nixon, George Tedlie, Executive committee; D. H. Keswick, G. R. Burt, Darius Nixon, R. W. Richardson, J. E. McCollom, J. F. Richardson delegates to County Convention with D. D. Porter, J. H. Dickinson and C. J. Connelly as substitutes.

Perth Picnic.

The Forester's picnic that was to have been held at Perth on Wednesday was postponed until Thursday on account of dark weather. An event of this kind that has been postponed is never as successful as though held on the day first appointed. However there was a goodly number present. Various sports were indulged in, and Pond's merry-go-round raked in most of the small change. The chief feature of the day, however, was a base ball game between the Indians of Tobique Point and the Fort Fairfield team. Full particulars will be given next week.

What Does it all Mean.

During the past week government engineers have been surveying for a new bridge across the river at Andover. The people of Andover and Perth say the old bridge is unsafe, and for public safety will soon need to be re-built or else closed up. It is generally desired that the new bridge be built some distance above the old site. From Andover the government engineer came down to Florenceville, where he met Messrs. Smith and McCain. Mr. Emmerson has been expected to arrive in Hartland for two weeks back, but he has failed to show up as yet.

PERSONAL NEWS.

J. E. Bowser of Victoria was here yesterday.

Hugh Peppers, of Marysville, called on old associates here on Thursday.

Prof. W. F. Watson of Greenville, S. C., arrived this week to spend his vacation with his parents here.

Yesterday Donald Mutheson arrived home from Washington Co., Me., where he has been at work several months.

Mrs. W. W. Estey, of Central Kes-Ridge arrived on Wednesday and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Currie.

J. W. Lawson of South Knowlesville was in the village yesterday to meet his daughter, Miss Hattie, who has been the past year in Lewiston, Me.

Will Kay of Waterville was in Hartland yesterday, the first time since last season. He has been in very poor health for several years, but is not looking as ill as one might expect him to be by reason of his long confinement.

Avondale.

Avondale is rapidly coming to the front, and is ranking among the first villages of the county. It has a well equipped woodworking factory run by James E. Barter & Co., and a well stocked country store conducted by S. G. Barter who also runs the cheese factory, which the farmers of that section find a paying institution. Clark's grist mill is famed for the good quality of flour and meal it turns out, and at present is undergoing thorough repairs at the hands of H. M. & H. P. Stevens. Geo. F. Burpee has a well equipped lumber mill consisting of rotary saw, lath and shingle machines, planer, etc., and does a large business in the manufacture of cheese boxes.

A new Baptist church has just been dedicated, and it is really a credit to the place.

Quite a number of new houses have been recently built, among which are nice residences by Geo. F. Burpee, Frank Stoddard, Geo. Rockwell and Mr. Kennedy, and John McCready is adding to his outbuildings.

Avondale is surrounded by a populous and prosperous farming community; about fifteen miles from Woodstock, and only seven miles from Hartland. The inhabitants are greatly interested in the Hartland bridge that does not exist, and with the other thriving villages, of Lakeville, Waterville, Simonds, Williamstown, Victoria St. Thomas, etc., bemoan their unjust ostracism from the railroad and market.

Cause and Effect.

The students of a certain big medical college of this city, says the Philadelphia Record, are enjoying a good joke at the expense of one of their professors. The case in question was that of a young man suffering from nervous trouble who was introduced to the clinic.

In some diseases of the nervous system there is an interference of the blood supply to the smaller blood-vessels of the skin. A common symptom, for instance, is a blue spot in the finger tips. The subject before the clinic on this occasion seemed to the physician to afford an excellent illustration of this condition.

'Look at this young man's hands,' he said. 'Do you notice anything peculiar about them?'

The students went closer to investigate, but no one ventured an opinion that anything unusual was to be seen.

'What?' went on the professor. 'Can't you see the condition of the patient's blood indicated there in the blue color of his hands? That proves—'

But at this point the patient's mother, who was sitting near by, interrupted.

'Why, doctor,' said she, 'that is blue dye. He works in a tannery.'

The students laughed, and the professor laughed, too, but he suddenly changed the subject.

For anything in stoves or tinware or other kitchen furnishings, go straight to the Hartland Hardware Store. They carry everything in the hardware line, and are always glad to show goods, and give time to good men.

Summary of the War.

(New York Herald.)

War between the United States and Spain began April 21, 1898, that date being named in an act of Congress passed on April 25, declaring that a state of war existed. Spain declared a declaration of war on April 24. Hostilities ended with the signing of protocol by the secretary of state of the United States and M. Cambon, the French ambassador, acting for Spain, on August 12, 1898. The war lasted 114 days. The principal events preceding and during the war and the dates on which they occurred are as follows:

February 15—The United States battleship Maine was blown up in the harbor of Havana. According to the report of the court of inquiry appointed by the United States the explosion was due to an external mine.

April 20—President McKinley authorized by congress to intervene in Cuba, using the United States military and naval forces, sent an ultimatum to Spain. The Spanish minister at once left Washington, and the next day the United States minister left Madrid.

April 22—A proclamation was issued by the president blockading the principal ports of Cuba.

April 23—President McKinley issued a call for 125,000 volunteers to serve for two years.

April 27—The batteries of Matanzas, Cuba, were shelled by Admiral Sampson's flagship the New York, with the monitor Puritan and the cruiser Cincinnati.

April 29—The Spanish fleet, commanded by Admiral Cervera, consisting of the Cristobal Colon, the Almirante Oquendo, the Maria Teresa and the Vizcaya, and the Furor, Terror and Pluton, left the Cape Verde Islands for Cuba.

May 1—Rear Admiral Dewey commanding the United States Asiatic squadron, destroyed the entire Spanish fleet in the Philippines without losing a man.

May 11—The Wilmington, Winslow and Hudson engaged the Spanish batteries at Cardenas. Ensign Bagley and four of the Winslow's crew were killed. Major General Wesley Merritt was ordered to the Philippines as military governor.

May 12—A United States fleet, commanded by Rear Admiral Sampson, bombarded the fortifications of San Juan, Porto Rico.

May 19—Admiral Cervera's fleet reached Santiago de Cuba, and a few days later was "bottled up" there by the "flying squadron" of Commodore Schley.

May 25—President McKinley called for 75,000 more volunteers. Twenty-five hundred United States troops sailed from San Francisco for Manila, several thousand more following later.

May 31—The Massachusetts, Iowa and New Orleans bombarded the fortifications at the mouth of the Santiago harbor. They were bombarded again several times after Admiral Sampson took command of the fleet.

June 3—Assistant Naval Constructor Hobson with several men ran the collier Merrimac into Santiago harbor and sank her in the channel, under the fire of the Spanish forts. Hobson and his men were taken prisoners.

June 10—Six hundred marines were landed at Limanera, Guantanamo bay, where sharp skirmishing continued for several days, several Americans being killed.

June 12—The Fifth Army Corps, commanded by Brigadier General Shafter, sailed from Tampa on twenty-nine transports for Santiago, arriving off there on June 20.

June 13—President McKinley signed the War Revenue bill, providing for the raising of revenue by a stamp tax and providing for a popular bond loan.

June 17—A Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera left Cadiz for the Philippines, but returned after passing through the Suez Canal.

June 22—General Shafter's troops began disembarking at Baiquiri and Siboney, near Santiago.

June 24—Roosevelt's Rough Riders were attacked while advancing toward Santiago, sixteen Americans were killed and forty more wounded before the Spaniards were repulsed.

July 1—General Lawton took El Caney, near Santiago, and General Kent, commanding the First division of the Fifth Army Corps, Ninth, Tenth, Thirteenth, Sixteenth and Twenty-fourth Infantry, and the Seventy-first New York Volunteers, took San Juan Hill after heavy fighting. Official reports gave the American losses 231 killed and 1,364 wounded and missing.

July 3—Admiral Cervera's squadron made a dash out of Santiago harbor, and every vessel was sunk or disabled by the American fleet. General Shafter demanded the surrender of Santiago. The seizure of Guam, in the Ladrones Islands, by the Charleston, was reported.

July 7—President McKinley signed resolutions passed by the senate annexing the Hawaiian Islands to the United States, and the Philadelphia was ordered to raise the American flag.

July 17—General Foral, in command of the Spanish troops at Santiago, General Linares being wounded, surrounded his forces and the eastern portion of the province of Santiago de Cuba to General Shafter.

July 20—General Leonard R Wood, formerly colonel of the First Volunteer cavalry, was appointed military governor of Santiago.

July 25—United States troops, under General Nelson A. Miles, landed at Guanica, Porto Rico, the town having surrendered to the Gloucester after a few shots.

July 26—Through the French ambassador the government of Spain asked President McKinley upon what terms he would consent to peace.

July 28—Ponce, the second largest city in Porto Rico, surrendered to General Miles and he was received by the residents with joyful acclamations. Capture of several other towns, with little or no fighting followed.

July 30—President McKinley's statement of the terms on which he would agree to end the war was given to the French ambassador. The president demanded the independence of Cuba, cession of Porto Rico and one of the Ladrones to the United States and the retention of Manila by the United States pending the final disposition of the Philippines by a joint commission.

July 31—United States troops engaged the Spaniards at Malate, near Manila, in the Philippines, and repulsed them, with some loss on both sides.

Aug. 9—The French ambassador presented to President McKinley's Spain's reply, accepting the terms of peace.

Aug. 12—Protocols agreeing as to the preliminaries for a treaty of peace were signed by Secretary Day and the French ambassador. United States military and naval commanders were ordered to cease hostilities. The blockades of Cuba, Porto Rico and Manila were lifted and the war was ended.

Pronounced Incurable by Doctors, but made Strong and Well by Paine's Celery Compound.

WELLS & RICHARDSON Co.,
GENTLEMAN:—Having been given up to die some time ago by some of the best doctors of the United States, I came to Canada last autumn terribly ill, and had lost all hope. Suffering agonies from inflammatory rheumatism, I was strongly urged to use Paine's Celery Compound. I gave it a trial as recommended and the first bottle did me so much good I continued with the medicine until I had used seven bottles, when I found myself perfectly cured; indeed, I never felt better in all my life than at present. I use every possible means to tell others of Paine's Celery Compound, and will always recommend it to those troubled with rheumatism. Yours very truly,

FRED H. STEVENS, - Editor & Publisher.
HARTLAND, Carleton Co., N. B.

HARTLAND, N. B., AUGUST 27, 1898.

The Woodstock canning factory is paying finely. It is an immense success both in point of excellency and saleability of product. This season they could have sold the whole of their output to one firm. Hartland should have a canning factory. It could well support one without overdoing the business or conflicting with Woodstocks interests. The capital required is not larger than might be easily secured. The return on the investment is good; and the industry would be the making of the town.

* * *

On account of its manifest greed the town of Woodstock is being retaliated upon. They put a tax on everything they can think of, and their last victim was the fire insurance companies, which they have assessed upon the business done within their corporation. Accordingly the underwriters have issued notice that on and after Sept. 1st an additional rate of five cents per $100 insured will be collected on all rates taken or renewed. How much does the town gain by this?

* * *

The necessity for providing some means for lighting the streets of the village was never more manifest than last Sunday night. People coming from church found much difficulty in getting along safely. Until electric lighting can be accomplished a very good substitution can be found in kerosene. A good light at Taylor's corner and another near the churches would answer very well, and the expense would be a mere trifle.

* * *

The "Railway News" would like to know if commercial men who visit the Woodstock exhibition this fall will be expected to ante up their tax as usual, and if the money will go into the exhibition fund or to the town.

To Tax the Big Stores.

Alderman Gallery is the head of a movement against the big departmental stores which is to be sprung upon the City Council at the next meeting if the occasion arises. Ald. Gallery was all ready to bring the matter up at the meeting yesterday, but there was no opportunity. He explained this morning that he had been led to take action by the proprietors of store property in his ward, particularly along Notre Dame street. He had in his hand a little document showing the amount paid in taxes by departmental stores in 1897. The five biggest stores, according to the memorandum, paid for water rates $2176, and for business taxes $3562. Ald. Gallery claims that there are 563 vacant stores in the city, and he blames the departmental stores for it.

He has been prosecuting enquiries from every part of the United States and Canada. The difficulty existed everywhere and in many places remedies had been provided. He proposed to introduce into the Council a resolution providing for powers to impose special taxes on departmental stores similar to those set forth in the act relating to trade and commerce in the State of New York. In this act all articles of commerce are classified in natural groups. To conduct business in any one group, a special tax of one dollar a year is imposed; for any second group, $100; for a third, $5,000; for a fourth, $10,000; for a fifth, $20,000; for a sixth, $40,000; for a seventh $80,000; for an eighth and every group thereafter, $100,000 per annum.

Carried Over Fences by a Hurricane.

Marysville, York Co., Aug. 22.—A terrible hurricane passed over this part of York Co. on Wednesday last. On the farm of James McConnaghey a horse rake with iron wheels was blown against a fence and broken in atoms, and while Mr. McConnaghey with his son was ploughing in the field the latter was picked up and carried over several fences, giving the lad a severe shaking up.

Corbett's Father a Murderer.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 16.—R. J. Corbett, father of James J. Corbett, the heavyweight pugilist, this morning shot and killed his wife and then turned the weapon upon himself with fatal effect. It is believed that the murderer was demented. He had been in extremely poor health for some time. Death was instantaneous in both cases.

Aaron McMullin is nursing a very painful finger upon which he has a felon. Dr. Fstey opened the diseased part last Saturday and improvement has since been noticed.

On Thursday, Sept. 1st, there will be a donation for Rev. A. G. Downey, at his residence, Somerville. All the churches of his former pastorate are requested to respond.

On Thursday a special train consisting of three private cars, containing Sir William Van Horn, H. P. Timmerman and D. W. Newcombe passed over this division of the C. P. R.

There was a social party at the residence of Norman Shaw on Thursday, given by his daughters. There were about a dozen guests present and the affair proved most enjoyable.

D. H. Keswick was at St. Leonard's last week preparing for his next season's cut. H. D. Keswick's store is closed up and his goods shipped to St. Leonard's, where he will at once open up.

Mrs. Watters living at Williamstown was the victim of a thunder-bolt during last week's severe storm. She was paralyzed several days but recovered. Further particulars have not been available.

William Yule, express agent on the C. P. R. train between Presque Isle, and St. Stephen, N. B., had an increase to his family circle a few weeks ago. His face has borne a broad smile ever since.

On Aug 17th. at the residence of Alex. Matheson, Upper Kincardine, Alex. Du- was married to Miss Matheson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. C. Pringle. There was a large attendance of guests. The work on the Restigouche & Western road is proceeding rapidly. Already Malcolm & Ross have the first two miles cleared and grading is being pushed forward within one half mile of the town and also near the Tobique Brook bridge.—Enterprise.

Frank Tinker, C. P. R. agent, Presque Isle, Me., for the last three weeks has been the proudest and one of the happiest men in the state of Maine. His wife presented him with a son and heir. The weight was 12 lbs.—Railway News.

There will be an open air temperance meeting, Monday, Sept. 5th, on the platform of Thornton's Hotel. There will be speakers from abroad who will thoroughly discuss the question of the day. The plebescite campaign speeches interspersed with good music.—Per order Com.

A small sized calamity has struck Hartland in that an accident occurred to the icehouse of D. Morgan & Son, whereby their stock was ruined. Stephen McMullin's supply is also exhausted, and thus the people must go without until winter, when Jack Frost will glut the market.

There was a meeting of the Hose company on Thursday night for the election of a chief in place of H. D. Keswick, resigned. Arnold Porter was unanimously elected chief; Chas. Rideout was promoted to the office of first foreman; Harry Dickinson was elected 2nd foreman.

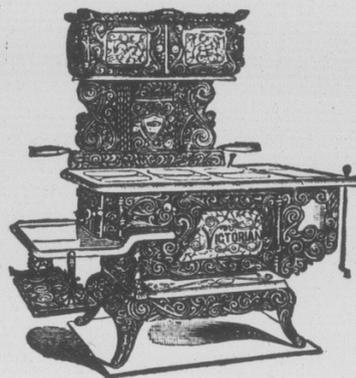

A terrible accident occurred at Welsh's mill at Foreston on Saturday. Samuel, youngest son of Asa Bell, lost his life by falling on the circular saw of a shingle machine. The upper part of his head was completely sawn through, and instantaneous death followed. He was 21 years of age. The funeral was held on Thursday.

Walter Campbell, a young man aged 20 years, died very suddenly at Arthur-ette, Tobique, on Monday. He was known to have organic heart disease but death came while the young man was apparently in the best of health. While in the act of pouring out a glass of water he fell forward on the table—dead! The funeral, held on Wednesday, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Puddington.

A cow belonging to Widow Craig of Perth Centre was struck and killed by the Tobique Valley train on Wednesday evening. It was thrown over an embankment, a perpendicular fall of full twenty feet. Its throat was cut and the animal properly bled, so that the carcass made good beef; but it was the widow's only cow. That portion of the T. V. R. has neither fences nor cattle guards, and as the cows run loose at Perth, it is a wonder more are not killed.

There is an immense amount of grain cut and out in the unfavorable weather. There is much rust, and but for this there would be a splendid crop. Oats have fallen off 2 cents, therefore are worth but 23 cents. There is little local demand. Some farmers are not yet through haying. Several carloads of hay are being shipped from Florenceville. While there is a lot of hay, it is possible that real first class may bring a very good price as there is much poor hay housed. Hartland merchants pay fifteen cents for butter; while in St. John the best dairy product brings but 12 to 14 cents. Eggs, 8 cents.

At Good settlement it destroyed the two barns and dwelling house of Ransom Rideout, together with all his hay, some farming machinery and old grain. Help at hand succeeded in saving his household furniture. Unfortunately for him he had no insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Rideout were at the time attending camp meetings at Littleton, Me.—Sun.

Canada's International Exhibition,
St. John N. B.

In all departments and classes where premiums are offered, entries will close on Monday, August 29th, fourteen days before the opening of the Exhibition. Entries received after that date, will pay increased fees. The application of this rule will be general throughout all the departments, being necessary to enable the Board to know in advance what exhibits to expect, and on account of the difficulty and increased cost of putting Late Entries through the books. Entry blanks, properly ruled, for entries will be found in the Prize List. Additional forms will be furnished on application.

The Association is now erecting a new and large poultry building, on lots recently purchased by them—accommodation for 1500 birds. Exhibitors are requested to make their coops as neatly as possible—60 inches in length and height, and 24 inches in depth from front to rear. The poultry department will not be neglected; last year over 1000 birds were entered for competition, the show of this year will be surpassed at this exhibition. The premium books calls for all the standard varieties of poultry, water fowl, and pet stock. This is a most interesting department, and will be so attractively arranged as to enable visitors to see and examine everything in the poultry line.

The following expert judges have been selected for service at Canada's International Sixth Annual Fair, to be held in St. John, N. B., Sept. 13th to 23rd, in the following departments: horses, Dr. Geo. M. Twitchell, Augusta, Maine; beef breeds of cattle, J. C. Snell, Snellgrove, Ont.; dairy breeds of cattle, Robt. Reesor, Locust Hill, Ont.; sheep and swine, J. C. Snell, Snellgrove, Ont.; poultry, Dr. Geo. Twitchell, Augusta, Me.; fruit, D. H. Knowlton, Farmington, Maine; dairy product, A. W. Woodard, Quebec; judges of grains, agricultural and horticultural products, honey and apiarian supplies, flowers, will be announced later. The score card system will be used as far as possible.

Where to Carry Stamps.

"Business men have various ways of carrying their postage stamps," said the stamp clerk the other morning while sitting in his chair at the stamp window in the general postoffice. "A good many men who post their letters here always has one or more stamps about them. Some of them carry their stamp cases, but the economical man carries his stamps under the band of his hat or in his pockets.

"The other day a young man called for 'five twos,' and, putting one on a letter which he had to mail, he took out his watch and opening the back of it slipped the remaining stamps into the case. They don't stick to the cover, and that is about the best way one can carry stamps if he has a watch." New York Sun.

Dollars in Diamond Dyes.

In scores of small country towns and villages in Canada enterprising men and women are adding to their yearly income by the work of dyeing for friends and neighbors around them who have not the time to do the work themselves.

These town and village dyers without exception use the Diamond Dyes in preference to all others, because they give the most brilliant, pure and unfading colors to all varieties of materials.

Hundreds of orders from these country dyers are filled every week by the manufactures of Diamond Dyes. There are great possibilities for such work in all small parishes and the statements just made may influence many who are seeking for a plan to increase their revenue. There are good dollars in Diamond Dyes.

AN INVOCATION.

Father, I'm very far from Thee;
The way is dark; I cannot see;
Stretch forth Thy hand and succor me,
And guide my feet.

Stay by me till the night be gone,
And shadows flee before the dawn;
Still hold my hand, and lead me on
Into the light.

How oft, when clouds obscured my sight,
And shut from view sweet Heaven's light,
I feared, and cried out in my fright:
"Keep by me, Lord!"

Yet thou wert never far from me,
Did I but lift my eyes and see.
Why should I have a doubt of Thee,
O blessed One!

So mindful when the sparrows fall,
Thou hearest when Thy children call;
Thou seest, and Thou knowest all
That we most need.

Help me to trust, what'er betide,
Thee only, Lord; and none beside;
When fears assail, then may I hide
Beneath Thy wing.

Should doubt my spirit e'er consign
To dark despair, in close confine,
There is no other hand save Thine
Can pluck me thence.

Oft have I tried to pierce the gloom
That hangs 'twixt Heaven and the tomb—
Its depths so vast my thoughts consume
And wearies me.

Whether, when Death shall claim its prize,
And this frail mortal body dies,
It shall again from dust arise,
I may not know.

Or if, when countless eons train,
And suns and constellations wane,
Shall naught but Thee alone remain,
I can not tell.

But this I know: when life is done,
The conflict o'er, the victory won,
We shall behold Thy glorious Son
Upon His Throne.

'T were best to leave it all with Thee,
Nor seek to learn the mystery
Of things unseen, O Deity,
For it is Thine.

With all his wisdom what is man,
That he should strive Thy works to scan?
His logic ends where it began—
In vanity.

Father, I'm thine; I cannot die,
E'en though I lay this body by;
My soul will soar to Thee on high,
And live for aye.

When sinks Life's sun within the west,
O, take me up, and let me rest
My weary head upon Thy breast
And bear me home.

Then Paradise! O, Paradise!
Such rapturous scenes shall greet my eyes;
And from my lips a song shall rise
In praise to Thee.

W. HERBERT LUGRIN.

TRUE.

One step won't take you very far—
You've got to keep on walking;
One word won't tell folks what you are—
You've got to keep on talking;
One inch won't make you very tall—
You've got to keep on growing;
One little 'ad' won't do it all—
You've got to keep 'em going.

An Amazing Fraud.

In many papers recently there have been accounts of a great discovery which was nothing more nor less than how to extract gold from sea water. As every one knows there must necessarily be a little of every thing in sea water. If we follow the course of a drop of water from the time it forms in the shape of rain until it reaches the ocean, we will see that it comes in contact with a vast variety of substances, and from each it must take away an infinitesimal portion, so that when it reaches the sea it bears with it a trace of its contact with all the solids on land which have come in its way. It follows that of all the rain drops that have ever fallen some must have come in contact with gold or some thing in combination with gold, and that in the thousands of years during which rain has fallen upon the earth a very considerable quantity of gold must have found its way into the sea. Chemical tests have been made owning that the amount of gold held in solution in the sea may perhaps be estimated at a fabulous number of millions of dollars in value. This was the basis upon which a New York clergyman went to work, and like the whale which swallowed Jonah, he forthwith took a great profit out of water. In the first place he secured a place on a pier in an isolated place, built a little house upon it, rigged up a windlass and chain with a box on the end of it, put in an electre battery and then one night invited some gentlemen of means to witness his experiment. So that there might be no chance of collusion, the visitors were asked to bring an assortment of chemicals with them and some quicksilver. They then went into the shed and with their own hands put the chemicals into the box. They then put in the quicksilver. Then they lowered the box into the water, and the parson turned on the electric current. After waiting for a time the box was withdrawn, and to the delight of the visitors was found to contain an amalgam of mercury with some metal. With this they hid themselves to an analyst, who told them that there was nearly $5 worth of gold in the amalgam. This was enough, and the parson raked in the shekels necessary to inaugurate the enterprise on a large scale.

But as has been often said, a secret is something which is not enough for one, but too much for two, and the parson had taken a friend into his scheme, with whom he quarrelled over the distribution of the spoils, and the friend has given away the whole snap. The part played by the friend was to don a suit of diver's armor, with an air chamber on the shoulders, and walk down under the water. When the box came down he simply emptied out the quicksilver and put in some amalgam. Could there be anything simpler, except the men who put in their money on the faith of such an experiment? It does not follow that no one will discover how to extract gold from sea water, but no one need sell out any mining shares for fear that any process yet made known will glut the market with the yellow metal extracted from the keeping of Father Neptune.—Victoria Colonist.
