FIRST FRUITS OF GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Boston Man Killed on His Sweetheart's Doorstep.

Alarming List of Dead and Wounded in Chicago—This Kind of Freedom is Expensive.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 4.—One man dead, boy fatally wounded, two other men shot and a boy hurt by a cannon cracker, were early contributions of victims to the Fourth of July celebration in Chicago.

Charles N. Strelow, 19 years old was shot and killed by one of four undoubtedly men, all of whom escaped.
Strelow, who was with several friends, had fired one shot from a revolver, when four men who said they were detectives, demanded that the party submit to a search. Strelow resisted and ran, and one of the four shot him dead.

Harry Hind, six years old, probably was fatally hurt by Katie Hugs, 15 years old, who playfully pointed an old revolver at him. The reason was discharged and the boy fell with a wound in his breast.

Charles Bengert, 20 years old, was struck in the right knee by a bullet fired by Patrolman Lewis, who was trying to disperse a crowd which had objected to the arrest of a boy for placing torpedoes on the street car tracks.
After the shooting a crowd of 200 persons attempted to assault the policeman, who was forced to return to the station.

Wm. J. O'Brien, 27 years old, was struck in the left foot by a stray bullet.
Bert Butler, 15 years old, was injured severely by a cannon cracker which exploded in his hand prematurely.
BOSTON, July 4.—Though the sale of explosives has been greatly restricted by city ordinances and state statutes the celebration of Independence Day in greater Boston lost none of its customary fervor.

Early in the day Wm. Brown was not in the temple by some unknown person who was firing a revolver in violation of the law. Brown was sitting on the steps of a house in the west end with his fiancée. She at first thought he had fainted, but, seeing blood flowing from his temple, she quickly summoned aid and he was carried to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where it was found that a bullet from a revolver had pierced his head. He died shortly afterward.

Brown was twenty years old, and lived in Cambridge.

HENLEY REGATTA OPENED.

HENLEY, July 4.—Brilliant weather, a great attendance ashore and afloat and fair rowing conditions marked the opening of Great Britain's annual water festival. Outside the grand challenge cup in which the Vespers of Philadelphia, and the Belgian crew were competing there was little interest in the regatta. The racing started with the first heat of the grand challenge cup in which the Leanders, who were the British pin all their hopes of retaining the trophy in England, won practically as they liked from Jesus College, Cambridge.
The first heats were decided as follows: Leander beat Jesus College, Cambridge, by a length and three quarters. Time 7 mins. 26 secs.
The Belgian crew beat the Thames Rowing Club easily, time 7 mins. 16 secs.
The Vespers beat Christ College, Cambridge, by a length. Time 7 minutes 12 seconds.

MORE EVIDENCE IN TOBIN TRIAL.

The case of the King v John Tobin was continued today before Judge His Honor Judge McLeod. John Magee an inmate of the county jail, gave evidence that he did not carry a note from Tobin to the police station. He robbery. It is alleged by the prosecution that such a note did pass between the two, the contents of which if admitted into evidence would be damaging to Tobin. The other witnesses examined were D. L. Hutchinson, Thomas Nixon, William Nixon, their evidence was substantially the same as at the former trial.
In circuit court yesterday afternoon at the retrial of King vs John Tobin, George A. Blair was called to the stand, and said he knew Tobin very well and was positive he saw him on Charlotte street on the night in question. Eldon Akerley of Queens county testified he was with Mr. Blair on that evening and remembered Blair remarking about the two men who had just passed. These are new witnesses for the crown. The following other witnesses were examined, George Whiteneck, Lottie Jackson, Albert Holm, Lucy Cook, Henry W. Robinson, Bernard Holm, Chas. Carr, Henry Pierce, Thomas Crawford, William Quinn and Detective Killeen.

DIRECTOR CUSHING'S RESIGNATION.

Director Cushing of the public works department stated to the Star this morning that he had nothing further to say in regard to his resignation which he had handed to the chairman of the board of works. His request for an increase in salary having been practically turned down, it being finally referred back by the council to the board of works. Mr. Cushing is prepared to quit the job.
Some of the aldermen seen today are of the opinion that if the director cannot get along on $1500 a year he should move.

The Street Railway Company had a gang of men at work today taking up the rails, unused since the new loop was opened, on Carmichael street between Princess and Duke streets.

MUTINY SPREADING TO RUSSIAN ARMY.

Regiment Revolts and Kills Officers—Another Ship Mutinies

--- Kniaz Potemkine Again Threatens Odessa.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—The minister of marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Krug.
"The crew of the transport Prout when leaving Budrove Bay mutinied against the captain and other officers. Second Lieutenant Nestoroff and boatswain Kosiloff were killed.
"The Prout has arrived at Sebastopol and the crew now is repentant.
The officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts. The Prout has been ordered to anchor at Kameheval Bay and an enquiry into the affair has been opened."

SOLDIERS REVOLT.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—At Kient the first mobilisation trouble has taken place. The reservists attacked and wounded several policemen and plundered the liquor shops. Jews are avoiding service by flight.
More serious in its way, however, was the refusal of the disciplinary battalion in Korea to obey orders. They attacked their captain and killed their colonel. The latter, even when mortally wounded by bayonets, marched his soldiers to barracks and then sank dying.

The effectiveness in Poland has again commenced. Police agents have been attacked with bombs, and in several places there have been collisions between the troops and the populace.

At Kalitz five men were killed.
Moscow is comparatively quiet as yet, but there is much nervousness over the ugly attitude of the workmen.
About half of all the trades have again struck, and it is feared the strike will spread. Cossacks had to use knives at Putloff yesterday afternoon and grave trouble is not unlikely.

The Official Messenger, this morning publishes a three column account of the disorders at Odessa and the mutiny on the Kniaz Potemkine. It gives a new version of the origin of the mutiny, showing that an officer fired and killed the sailor Omitchuk only when the mutineers were advancing with loaded guns and when the rest of the crew had refused to obey orders to shoot. The officers were then hunted down and killed singly. Those jumping overboard were shot in the water with rifles and quick firing guns. Thirty loyal sailors were also shot. The mutineers fired at a torpedo boat and forced its crew to join them. Other details are given, but they have mostly been covered by the despatches.

ODESSA AGAL THREATENED.
LONDON, July 4.—A despatch to the Evening Standard from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkine has been sighted 25 miles off that port.

JAPS REPORT RUSSIAN ATTACKS REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

TOKIO, July 4.—The following official announcement was made today from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Korea: "At dawn July 2 four hundred of the enemy's cavalry, with artillery, approached Nonsmokoh, thirteen miles northeast of Kihpin.
Our force engaged and repulsed them for the purpose of cutting off the enemy's retreat. Engaged the enemy's cavalry at noon fourteen miles north of Yuyong. Our detachment also struck and scattered the enemy's cavalry, retreating from Loremarli." The detachment, which received today says: "At eight o'clock in the morning of July 1, 600 of the enemy's cavalry advanced toward the Pinnu river, thirteen miles northeast of Kihpin.
We repulsed them. One hundred and fifty of the enemy's cavalry and mounted infantry, with eighteen guns, simultaneously attacked Shishiku, eight miles northeast of Pinnu river. The engagement lasted until July 2, when the enemy was repulsed. The enemy's casualties were over four hundred.

Ours were ninety."

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—With the completion of arrangements for the Washington peace meeting President Roosevelt has resumed his efforts to bring about an armistice. No light is shown upon the exact status of the negotiations or the character of the communications passing between the Russian and Japanese governments at Washington. The matter is an exceedingly delicate one, but the outlook for success nevertheless, from all information obtainable, is not unpromising if Japan is ready to sheath the sword until the Washington meeting develops whether a basis for peace is possible.
Russia's consent seems assured.

POLICE COURT.

Man Who Drew Knife on Mill St. Now Charged With Theft—Girl's Insult Well Punished.

Acting Magistrate Henderson took a seat higher than is usual this morning, but did so with a grace born only of dignity, legal knowledge and a keen sense of justice.

Wm. Howes, charged with wandering on Prince William street without giving a satisfactory account of himself, was remanded.

Thomas Donohue was sent to the alms house for three months for being without visible means of subsistence.

Jas. Wilson, who was given in charge by Capt. W. Fardel, of the schooner Rebecca W. Hurdell, for being drunk and disorderly on the ship, was allowed to go back with the captain this morning, at the latter's request.

Harry Walsh, who gave Officer Finley a warm time on Mill street yesterday, was remanded. A warrant reached the central station this morning charging Walsh with stealing a watch from D. H. McNutt, of the Central Hotel, Sussex. It was stated in court this morning that Constable McLeod is on his way down from Sussex for Walsh, and on his arrival here Walsh will be handed over to him for the Sussex authorities to deal with. The prisoner is the man who, whilst under military law in camp at Sussex, secured an officer and was put into the military prison there and deprived of his efficiency pay. Walsh is a very well educated man.

Duncan Burns probably wishes now he had been more sure about the identity of his lady friends before glopping them. Last night he says he thought he saw a particular friend of his—a Miss Boyce—going down King street, and running after the lady he stopped her by catching hold of her arm. The lady in question turned out not to be Miss Boyce, but Miss Buchanan, a daughter of Col. Buchanan, Burns however, would insist on following and

LEGAL SQUABBLE OVER EJECTMENT.

H. Ramsey has occupied the premises at 159 Mill street as a billiard and pool cigar store for some time, but yesterday was turned out on the street, tables, fixtures, stock and all. Matters were interesting for a time and a nice legal row is in the air.
The building is owned by the Hazen estate, for which Weldon & McLean are representatives. W. A. Stepler secured a lease of the building and sub-let the premises occupied by Ramsey to a Chinaman for a laundry. Mr.
Ramsey contended his lease had not expired and refused to move; hence the ejectment process. Ramsey was carried out by Constable McLeod.

The latest turn in affairs is that the ejectment was made in the name of Weldon & McLean and not in the name of the Hazen estate.

WEDDING AT MONCTON.

(Special to the Star.)
MONCTON, N. B., July 4.—The marriage took place here at twelve o'clock today of August McLeod of Sydney to Miss Alberta, second daughter of W.
H. Faulkner. The ceremony was performed at the residence of G. C. Allen, I. C. R. baggage agent, Bedford street and was performed by Rev. S.
T. Ted. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will reside at Sydney.

37th. MEETING OF C. OF E. SYNOD.

First Business Session Held This Morning.

Diocesan Mission Deficits Occupy Considerable Attention—Amendments to the Constitution—Reports Presented.

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton commenced this morning at 10.15 in the school room of Trinity church. There were about thirty of the clergymen of the diocese on hand and twenty-four laymen.

The seats in the schoolroom were arranged for the session of the diocese.
A platform has been erected at the south side of the room and the seats are arranged in a semi-circle. The platform at the east end of the room will not be used.

At 8 o'clock this morning holy communion was celebrated in Trinity church by Bishop Kingston, assisted by Archdeacon Neale, of Woodstock, and Archdeacon Forsyth, of Chatham.
The meeting this morning opened with prayer and the calling of the roll by the secretary, Canon Newnam, of St. Stephen.

The bishop then read his address to the synod. His lordship's address was quite short and brought up no business of special importance. He spoke feelingly of the four clergy of the diocese who had passed away since the last session. He referred first to Rev. Mr.
Spike who labored so many years at Musquash and other charges and always won the affectionate regard of those who met him; Rev. J. de Soyres had also passed from among them.
The bishop spoke about the work he had done as curate, rector and professor and his great energy in all his labors. Rev. D. I. Wetmore had lately passed away at an advanced age, at

SHOCKING MURDER AT STELLARTON, N. S.

Revolver Shot Ends Quarrel Over a Girl.

John McKenzie of New Glasgow Shot His Rival in Cold Blood and Calmly Went to Bed.

(Special to the Star.)
HALIFAX, July 4.—A shocking murder was committed at Stellarton, Picton county about midnight.

It appears that John McKnight, of New Glasgow, was in company with John Ferguson, who is a fireman on the I. C. R. The two men were on Main street when a quarrel ensued over a girl named Flynn, for whose affections the two were vying. McKnight, without a word of warning, suddenly produced a revolver and shot Ferguson dead on the spot.

After committing the awful deed Mc-Kenzie went to his home and without turning a hair got into bed and was soon in a deep sleep, from which he was awakened by the police shortly before daybreak this morning.

Jealousy is thought to be the cause of the crime.

NEW MODERATOR FOR

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

A meeting of the Presbytery of St.
John took place this morning in St.
Andrew's church. The session lasted from ten till after twelve o'clock and was continued again this afternoon at 2.30. A committee meeting was held at two o'clock this afternoon before the regular session.

The representatives to the General Assembly made their report this morning.

Rev. Mr. Anderson was appointed moderator in place of Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Milltown, whose term has expired.

The call of the church at Richmond to the Rev. Mr. Polley, of Waterford, was discussed.

FUNERAL OF FATHER AND SON.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30 of the two victims of the sad drowning accident off Carter's Point on Dominion day. A service was held at E. Lawson Smith's late residence, 119 Leinster street, which was conducted by Rev. Dr. Sprague. Both Mr. Smith and his little son, George Eric, were buried in the same grave at Fernhill cemetery, a large number of sympathetic friends being present at the interment.

A magnificent array of flowers and wreaths were sent as a mark of esteem and sympathy.

A WISE GIFT.

Leaving John D. Rockefeller's personal character and his methods of making money out of the question—they have no place in this comment—there can be but one opinion of the wisdom of his latest benefaction.
Recognizing the great usefulness of the small college in the work of education, he has donated ten millions of dollars in such a way as to provide an annual income of $600,000 to be used in perpetuity for the assistance of these institutions. This is to be administered by a board which is to be allowed great freedom in its management of the fund from whose benefits no institution which has proved its usefulness is barred.

The value of such a gift is incalculable. The small colleges are the most important factor in the educational problem of today, providing, as they do, knowledge and training for thousands to whom the great universities are impossible, and this half million a year judiciously distributed will guarantee the permanency of these institutions, increase their power and make their influence for good much greater. With Carnegie's recent gift to make it easier for them to get good teachers and Rockefeller's fund to assist them in improving their facilities in the way of building apparatus, etc., the attention of the college president of the near future will be less distracted by financial worries than it is now and his energies will be left free to be devoted to problems which more intimately concern the intellectual and moral welfare of the young men under his hands.

It will take more than the talent which is supposed to cling to ill-gettoned wealth to prevent money so bestowed from accomplishing great public good.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP IN NEW YORK.

New York will probably be the next great city to try the municipal ownership policy. Dissatisfied with the prices exact by the companies which have the privilege of lighting the city, Mayor McEllan recently appointed a commission to provide plans for a municipal electric lighting plant and as compared with the price now paid to the corporations. Their report, just handed in declares that the city can produce its own lights for $64.07 per year, less than half the price paid now which is $146, and incandescent lights for five and one-half cents an hour instead of ten cents.

The plant provided in the plans is designed to supply power sufficient to maintain 15,000 arc lamps and 300,000 incandescent lamps and 200,000 candle power incandescent lights. The estimated cost of the building, with equipment, is $7,567,000, and the total annual operating and maintenance charges are estimated at $1,225,000.
A plant of sufficient size has been provided to enable the city to light the streets, parks and parkways, as well as all of its public buildings, with electricity to the entire exclusion of gas if it should decide to do so. The report says:-

"The total cost of supplying the service contemplated in this report at the rates charged the city by the Edison company, would be $5,784,000; the operation of this plant would therefore effect an annual saving of $1,811,000, equal to approximately twenty per cent of the investment required.
While the present idea is only to provide the lighting required by the municipality itself, if the experiment is tried and proves successful, the citizens will undoubtedly demand an extension of the service to provide for private lighting also.

The appointment of Senator Lodge to the high position in the American cabinet vacated by the death of John Hay would be a public calamity. Senator Lodge is a violent anti-Britisher, a jingo of the irresponsible type—altogether the antithesis of the sagacious and discreet diplomat who has just died.
With him in charge of the foreign policy of the United States, look out for squalls.

The Transcript quotes the glowing reports of the wealth of the Temis-caming district to contradict the charge that the Grand Trunk Pacific north of Ontario runs through an unproductive country. Unhappily the Temiscaming region so commended is not on the route of the transcontinental but on the line of the connecting road by which the Grand Trunk Pacific freight may be sent to Portland, Maine.—Sun.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE PARK.

Those who have not seen the vaudeville show at Seaside Park are certainly missing a treat, as it is without doubt a good one. The performances are given every afternoon and evening at 4 and 8 p. m., and the exceedingly low admission does not prevent anyone from attending.

WITH ADVERTISERS.

The many patrons of the late sale at the Montreal Clothing Store will be pleased to learn that the sale is to be continued until the balance of the bankrupt stock is sold. And bargains greater than ever still prevail.

THE MINSTRELS OF PEACE.
In the hurry and the worry, where the shadows seldom stray, For Life's sake, let the birds sing!—We need a song of peace!
The shadow on the brow of us—the shadow on the sod—
Let the birds, in bowers of blossoms, sing the souls of us to God!

Oh, we need that sweeter singing when God's stars forget to gleam!— Hear the world's bounds from Life's quiet—that are dying for a dream!
And the melodies that know not any note of grief and pain—Sweet as dreams of little children—dear as sunlight after rain.

O the hurry and the worry of the stormy field and town—Let the birds sing, till dark Winter shake the song-thrilled blossoms down!
And we'll dream the storm is over—
As wave-beat ships, sea-weary, seek the shelter of the shore.
—Frank L. Stanton.

AN ARTISTIC TRIUMPH.

Henrietta Crossman Scores One of the Greatest Artistic Successes in St. John Theatre History.

Never in the history of the Opera House did that building hold a more thoroughly delighted and well satisfied audience than last evening when Henrietta Crossman, one of the leading actresses on the American stage made made up for in the sympathetic enjoyment and appreciation demonstrated not so much by loud hand clapping as by the perfect stillness and quiet that even reached the usually noisy gods.
It was an audience that appreciated.

Miss Crossman has surrounded herself with a small but excellent company, the play presented calling for a small cast. All stage fittings and scenery are carried by the excellent and the stage settings are excellent.
The evening's entertainment consists of two plays, one the well known comedy Madeline and the other a two act tragedy entitled Madeline by Mrs. W. K. Clifford. It is difficult to say in which play Miss Crossman appeared in the evening.

The comedy or the tragedy, it was a severe test on her versatile powers but a most enjoyable one.
When the curtain fell on the last act the audience remained seated and three curtain calls followed.

Miss Crossman's performance in the Opera House again this evening.

PROMINENT CAMPBELLTON MAN

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., July 3.—A sensational arrest was made in this county on Friday last and though the facts have been kept very quiet, the story is now out. John Stohard, for nineteen years bookkeeper for A. & R.
Loggie, the big business man, was arrested charged with embezzlement from his employers at Dalhousie, and is now out on bail for preliminary hearing next Friday.

The story is lifted out of the commonplace by the prominence of the accused and the fact that a Montreal detective sharp work was the means which led to the arrest.

It is said that between certain recent dates something more than $2000 in cash and securities belonging to W. K. Stohard, Roy Moffatt, and his preliminary examination was set for Friday next.
When the case comes up for examination it is expected that something of a sensation even more than has already been caused by the arrest. The accused is married and has several children. He has occupied a good place in the community.

VALUE OF "OZONE."

The value of "Ozone" (it is really lighted oxygen) is well known to medical science. It kills the germs of internal disorders. If taken in concentrated form and that means "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) it ensures a speedy cure for asthma, bronchitis, Bright's disease, kidney trouble, malaria and rheumatism. This stringent remedy needs with it a tonic laxative to secure the best results. Your druggist will give you sixteen ounces of "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" for fifty cents and if you insist on the coupon kind will guarantee a free package of "Ozone King." The Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont.

It is understood that Detective

Mr. Power offered no inducement nor held out any threat to the woman, but she made the statement to him of her own wishes and in the presence of the

Murray Warner, son of J. R. Warner of this city, arrived in St. John yesterday morning from Shanghai, China.
Mr. Warner left this city about seven years ago, and for the past six years has been located in Shanghai. The steamer Manchuria, in which he sailed, came via Honolulu and San Francisco, and made the trip in just thirty days, which is an unusually fast run.
The trip for the whole of the distance, Mr. Warner says, was a most delightful one.

SHOE DRESSINGS

No matter how thoroughly good your Shoes may be,
is an easy matter to ruin them by using or allowing boot-black to use a polish or dressing of inferior qualty. Shoe polishes made to sell at a large profit are responsible for the ruin of thousands of pairs of shoes. They contain mixtures injurious to leather.
To protect our customers and ourselves, we sell only the very best of Shoe Dressings that we know are a right in every respect. Good Dressings act as a for leather. It gives to leather what the process tanning takes from it, makes it soft and pliable and adds to its durability. If you purchase your St Dressings here, your Shoes will never be injured.

At the last meeting of the board a number of resolutions were passed and were recommended by the board to be adopted by the synod. Section C, of these resolutions read as follows:
"That the sum of $150 be placed at the disposal of the committee on the education of the children of the clergy to be by them disposed of for the assistance of sons of clergymen in this diocese being educated at Rotherham College for boys and the Collegiate School, at Winchester."

W. M. Jarvis this morning suggested that the word "children" be substituted for the word "sons." It was also suggested that the first part of the section should read, "That from time to time a sum of money to be determined by the board be placed at the disposal," etc. An amendment covering these suggestions was moved by F. J. G.
Knowlton and seconded by W. M. Jar-

The Wings of the Morning

By LOUIS TRACY
Copyright, 1903, by Edward J. Clode

To survey the work at the better to determine whether it was better to resume operations in the morning from inside the excavation or from the ledge. Owing to the difficulty of constructing a vertical upward shaft, and the danger of a sudden fall of heavy material he decided in favor of the latter course, although it entailed lifting the refuse out of the hole. To save time, therefore, he carried his mining tools into the open, placed in position the cheval de frise, long since constructed for the defense of the entrance, and poured water over the remains of the fire.
This was his final care each night before stretching his weary limbs on his couch of branches. It caused delay in the morning, but he neglected no precaution, and there was a possible chance of the Dyaks falling to discover the eagle's nest if they were persuaded by other indications that the island was deserted.
He entered the hut and was in the act of pulling off his boots when a distant shot rang sharply through the air. It was magnified tenfold by the intense silence. For a few seconds, that seemed to be minutes, he listened, cherishing the quick thought that perhaps a turtle, wandering far beyond accustomed limits, had disturbed one of the spring gun communications on the sands. A spattering volley, which his trained ear recognized as the firing of a muzzle loader, sounded the death knell of his last hope.
The Dyaks had landed! Coming silently and mysteriously in the dead of night, they were themselves the victims of a stratagem they designed to employ. Instead of taking the occupants of Rainbow Island unaware they were startled at being greeted by a shot the moment they landed. The alarm was given at once, and the Dyaks, finding their anticipated weapons point blank at the trees, thus giving warning enough to make the seven sleepers.
Iris, fully dressed, was out in a moment.
"They have come!" she whispered.
"Yes," was the cheery answer, for Jenks' face to face with a Dyak was a very different man from Jenks wrestling with the insidious attacks of Cupid. "Up the ladder, my dear! They will not be here for half an hour if they kick up such a row at the first difficulty. Still, we will take no risks. Cast down those spare lines when you reach the top and haul away when I say 'Ready!' You will find everything to hand up there."
He held the bottom of the ladder to steady it for the girl's climb. Soon her voice fell, like a message from a star: "All right! Please join me soon!"
The coiled up ropes dropped along the face of the rock. Clothes, pick, hatchet, hammer, saw, and other useful odds and ends were swung away into the darkness, for the moon was yet did not illumine the crag. The Dyak started into Belle Vue castle and kicked their heavy beds about the foot. Then he slung all the rifles, now five in number, over his shoulders and mounted the rope ladder, which, with the spare coils, he drew up and coiled with careful method.

He vanished without another word. She next saw him in the moonlight near the well. He was rustling among the shrubs, and he returned to the rock with something white in his arms, which he seemingly deposited at the mouth of the cave. He went back to the well and carried another similar burden. Then he ran toward the house. The doorway was not visible from the ledge, and she passed a few horrible moments until a low hiss beneath caught her ear. She could tell by the creak of the rope ladder that he was ascending. At last he reached her side, and she murmured, with a gasp: "Don't go away again. I cannot stand it!"
He thought it best to soothe her agitation by arousing interest. Still hauling in the ladder with one hand, he held out the other, on which luminous wisps were writhing like glowworms' ghosts.
"You are responsible," he said. "You gave me an excellent idea, and I was obliged to carry it out."
"What have you done?"
"Arranged a fearsome bogey in the cave."
"But how?"
"It was not exactly a pleasant operation, but the only laws of necessity are those which must be broken."
She understood that he did not wish her to question him further. Perhaps curiosity, now that he was safe, might have vanquished her terror and led to another demand for enlightenment, but at that instant the sound of an angry voice and the crunching of coral away to the left drove all else from her mind.
"They are coming by way of the beach, after all," whispered Jenks.
He was mistaken in a sense. Another outbreak of intermittent firing among the trees on the north side of the ledge showed that some at least of the Dyaks were advancing by their former route. The appearance of the Dyak chief on the flat belt of shingle, with his right arm along across his breast, accompanied by not more than half a dozen followers, showed that a few hardy spirits had dared to pass the valley of death, with all its nameless terrors.
They advanced cautiously enough, as though dreading a surprise. The chief carried a bright parang in his left hand; the others were armed with guns, their swords being thrust through belts. Creeping forward as tiptoe, though their distant companions were making a tremendous row, they looked a murderous gang as they peered across the open space, now brilliantly illuminated by the moon.

Red Rose Tea

Because it is Reliable.
Some one has said: "A single fact is worth a shipload of argument."
A few facts: I introduced this tea to the public about ten years ago. In that short time the business has grown to such proportions that we now occupy the largest Tea warehouse in Canada.
This enormous business has been built up without extensive advertising.
The merchants who commenced handling Red Rose Tea ten years ago are the most enthusiastic in its praises to-day.
The merchants who sell it, the people who drink it, have found that it could be relied on.
The brand, "Red Rose Tea," is accepted everywhere as a guarantee of the highest quality, and those who drink it are its best advertisers.
Ask some of your friends about it.

INTERESTING SHAM FIGHT.
The 2nd regiment held a sham battle last night near the Barrack Green before a large number of spectators, although the fog rather interfered with their view. The attacking force were supposed to have marched towards the city from the northwest, crossed the Marsh bridge and driven the defenders through the city to the Ballast wharf, where some of the defenders made their escape down the harbor in boats. The attacking force, consisting of companies A, C, E, F and G, under the command of Major Churchill and the defenders D, B, and H, under Major Magee. The decision, Lieut. Col. Edwards was that it was a draw battle.

RECENT DEATHS.

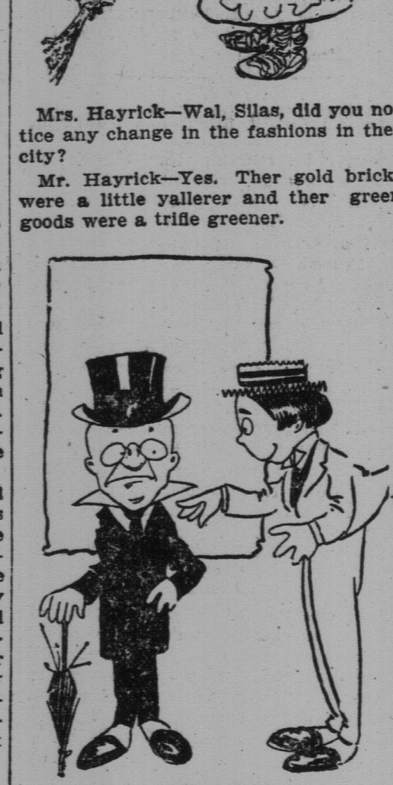

The death of Mrs. Janet MacIntyre, widow of Robert MacIntyre, took place yesterday morning at an advanced age after a short illness. Deceased was a native of Dumfriesshire, Scotland, but was a resident of St. John for a long time, and had a large circle of relatives and friends who will mourn her death. She is survived by three daughters—Mrs. H. S. Daly and Miss MacIntyre, St. John, and Mrs. John MacIntyre, Portland, Oregon; and also by four sons—John P. and Adam P. St. John; Robert A., Halifax, and Alfred E., Quebec.
At two o'clock yesterday morning, after a somewhat lengthy illness, the death took place of Daniel Sheehan, in the 70th year of his age, at his residence, Mill street. Mr. Sheehan had been a resident of St. John for many years, and is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. The sons all reside in St. John, while the daughters are Mrs. J. McCarthy of Ottawa, and Miss Katherine, at home.

Miss Mollie Cunningham, second daughter of the late Robert Cunningham, died Saturday afternoon after a lengthy illness, at her mother's residence, 140 Sherbrooke street. The family has the sympathy of many friends. It is only about six weeks since a younger daughter died. Besides her mother, four brothers and one sister survive. The funeral took place yesterday morning at 8:45 o'clock to St. Peter's church, where at 9 o'clock Rev. Edward Scully, C. S. S. R., celebrated High Mass of Requiem. Burial was made in the old Catholic cemetery. Relatives were pallbearers.
James A. Charlton, son of John Charlton, died at his home last night. Mr. Charlton leaves a wife, who is the youngest daughter of the late Archibald Sinclair, a mother, four sisters and two brothers. One of the sisters is Mrs. Arthur Abbot. The others are in Pennsylvania, Boston and Lowell, and are unmarried. The one brother, Rev. W. Benson and the other one, William, is connected with the M. R. A. establishment in this city. Notice of the funeral later.

PRESENTATION AT WESTFIELD.

The rectory at Westfield was the scene of a pleasant surprise party on the evening of Wednesday, June 25th, it being the wedding anniversary of the Rev. W. Benson and Mrs. Bell. The parishioners of St. James' took this opportunity of conveying their congratulations to the rector and his wife and also of presenting to Mrs. Bell a gift of $25 in gold, as a token of their appreciation of her services as organist as well as of their affectionate esteem and personal regard.

Life's Funny Side.

Mrs. Hayrick—Wal, Silas, did you notice any change in the fashions in their city?
Mr. Hayrick—Yes. Ther gold bricks were a little yellower and their green goods were a trifle greener.

A DIFFERENCE.

The Professor—Wisdom is better than riches.
The Joker—You refer to your own wisdom and other people's riches, no doubt.

The article below was taken from the Halifax Herald:
"J. C. Rockwell's 'In the Sunny South' company gave a very pleasing performance at the Academy of Music last night to a good house. The company is composed of talented singers and dancers, and some clever comedians which kept the audience in roars of laughter. It is a worthy successor to 'A Trip to Cooctown,' which met with such success some time ago. The entertainment will be repeated for the balance of the week with a matinee on Saturday."
This company will appear at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday, and Saturday matinee, July 7 and 8. Seats on sale Thursday.

$5,000 EDUCATIONALISTS MEET.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 3.—Delegates to the number of upwards of 35,000 from all the union assembled here today to attend the 44th annual convention of the National Educational Association, which will continue for five days. Some years ago J. F. Ferguson, of Adelaide street, swallowed a chicken bone, which refused to be coughed up, and had to be removed by an operation. Two weeks ago Mr. Ferguson underwent another operation for an abscess which had formed beneath the old wound. The operation, which was performed by Drs. McIntyre and Wm. Christie, Jr., was entirely successful, and Mr. Ferguson hopes to be around again before long.

N. B. MEN WITH TOM LAWSON.

H. V. McInerney returned from a short visit to New Brunswick this morning. Mr. McInerney is an intimate friend of E. A. McSweeney, W. Lawson's confidential man, and while in Boston had an opportunity of visiting Lawson's offices, which are said to be the finest in America. Magnificent bronzes, numerous beautiful pieces of furniture, rare oil paintings, and the richest of mahogany furniture are some of the attractions in the down town apartments of the noted author of "Frenzied Finance."

Mr. Lawson himself is seldom to be found in there, however, having resigned full charge of these offices to the Montreal boy who has the good fortune to be his right hand man and to whom Mr. Lawson trusts his business. It is noteworthy that Mr. Lawson's head stenographer is also a New Brunswick boy, a Mr. Everett of St. John.

There is always a great deal to do in Mr. Lawson's office, but just now the staff is especially busy. On Wednesday Lawson starts on a Western tour, passing by the way, through Montreal. He has received some eight hundred invitations to speak in various places, but has accepted only six. Speaking is yet an experiment with him, he having never made a speech in his life.

RHODES SCHOLAR HOME FROM OXFORD.

Chester A. Martin, the U. N. B. Rhodes scholar, arrived home today in splendid health and full of energy after his winter's sojourn and study at Oxford. He came by the Calvin Austin from Boston, having reached New York a couple of days ago by the White Star line. Accompanying Mr. Martin from Boston were Dr. F. H. Morse, Mrs. Morse, O. M. Maxwell and Miss Annie Baker of 5 Beacon street, who are today, the guests of H. C. Martin, German street. The party accompanied by the returned scholar will leave Thursday morning on a ten days' automobile trip through Nova Scotia.

DOUBLE WEDDING THIS EVENING.

This evening at eight o'clock, at Garnett Settlement, a double wedding will take place when Miss Pearl N. Garnett will be united in marriage to Walter W. Gray, and Miss Lillie A. Garnett will become Mrs. Sydney Jones. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Garnett. Both couples were the recipients of many beautiful presents. They will reside in St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Jones at 3 Winter street, and Mr. and Mrs. Gray at 43 Winter street.

MANY TOURISTS.

The I. C. R. depot was crowded this morning and both the trains for the East were crowded to their utmost capacity even the extra cars provided not proving sufficient to accommodate all with seats. The large number that arrived here on the S. S. Calvin Austin in addition to what the trains brought in caused the big crowd and rush this morning. The cars were so crowded that it was almost impossible to pass along the isles for where people were not standing the space was taken up with hand baggage of all kinds.

CALVIN AUSTIN IN FATAL COLLISION.

One Man Drowned, Another Seriously Injured.

Ran Into and Sunk a Small Schooner Yacht —Survivors Were Brought Here Today.

The Calvin Austin arrived this morning with a large number of passengers on board, including 125 Oddfellows from the State of Massachusetts.

The schooner was not without its exciting incidents, for a small schooner, the Chromo, was run into in a fog and sunk, one of the crew of five being drowned and another receiving serious injuries.

Leaving Boston about 12.30 yesterday the Calvin Austin ran into a dense fog, and just before one o'clock, when off Deer Island light, and whilst going at half speed, Captain Pike's attention was aroused by hearing a whistle. Before anything could be done the Calvin Austin had struck the schooner Chromo, and had completely destroyed her in two.

Loud shouting was heard, and Captain Pike immediately stopped his vessel, and had a life boat lowered under the supervision of Capt. W. H. Allen. On reaching the scene of the wreck four men were found in the water and picked up, one of whom, Chas. A. Robbins, of 148 Broadway, Somerville, was being held up by a companion, having been seriously injured in the collision. By the time the doomed schooner had disappeared altogether, and after satisfying themselves that there were no shipwrecked sailors around, the rescue crew returned to the Calvin Austin. After being placed on board that steamer it was found that the man Robbins was suffering from a broken rib, and everything possible was done for him by Dr. F. A. Morse and Emily Stuart, of Boston. The others who were rescued were:

Geo. Black, 14 New street, E. Boston. Harry Carleton, 500 Main street, Charlestown.

E. S. Hall, Don street, West Somerville.

The rescued men stated that another man, Fred Toomey, of Saratoga street, E. Boston, was caught in the rigging of the Chromo at the time of the collision, and not being able to free himself, had gone down with the vessel.

They stated in answer to Captain Pike, that they had no boat, compass or fog horn on board the Chromo, and the only thing they could do to attract the attention of the Calvin Austin was to whistle on their flings.

Councillor Hon. John W. Long, who is one of the prominent officials of the Oddfellows' excursion, and who was on board the Calvin Austin at the time of the collision, told the Star this morning that too much praise could not be given to the rescue crew for the promptness shown in rescuing the unfortunate men, and also to Captain Pike for the careful, splendid way he handled the Calvin Austin at the time of the accident, and for the kind consideration shown to the shipwrecked mariners after they were brought aboard his ship. He hailed the pilot boat America, but seeing the condition of the rescue crew, thought it advisable to let them remain on his boat until they had thoroughly recovered from their awful experience. Undered from this awful experience received three of the men soon recovered, and this morning were none the worse for their ordeal. The other man, Robbins, was thoroughly examined by the doctors this morning, who came to the conclusion that it would not endanger him to be sent back to his home, so consequently Robbins and the other three men will be taken back to Boston tonight on the Calvin Austin. The Chromo was a small, 10 ton vessel built in Gloucester in 1878, and was 22 feet long 10.4 feet wide and 5 feet deep.

TOOK THE RIGHT COURSE.

That a person can walk into an institution in this city today and secure a guarantee of a good position is a fact worth knowing. Watson F. DeMille, of Sussex, graduated as a bookkeeper some time ago in one of the oldest business colleges—waited long for a position—could not secure one. Three months ago he presented himself at the Currie Business University, Ltd., took a one-week's trial at the bookkeeping course—pronounced it far superior to the one he had taken—purchased a position at $300 to $350 per year. Yesterday the situation department offered him a position in Kent County, which he accepted.

This position, which is worth $700 per year, is being vacated by a Currie Business University student, who has secured a better one, proving that the efforts of the situation department never relax until the student is earning an independent salary of $300 to $400.

Two young ladies were also sent from this school yesterday, one as bookkeeper, the other as stenographer, to take the place of students from other schools who were incompetent.

TEAMSTER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Samuel Cook, a teamster, received a bad shaking up this morning and had a narrow escape from severe if not fatal injuries. He was driving along Mill street early in the forenoon when a street car bumped into the end of his sloop. Mr. Cook was knocked off his seat and fell heavily to the bottom of the sloop. He was picked up and carried into Cosman's blacksmith shop and after a short time was able to drive away. The matter will be reported to the police.

THIS EVENING.

Dr. Jas. Hanny came down from Fredericton this morning.

A. Gordon Rennie was a passenger from the West today.

Mrs. Duncan Smith came home today from St. Stephen.

Frederick C. Frink, of Thurlow, Sussex, Eng., is a guest of his brother, R. W. W. Frink. Mr. Frink has not been in St. John for nineteen years.

Col. and Mrs. Sharp, of the Salvation Army, returned last evening from Windsor.

VISITING ODDFELLOWS.

Large Band of Massachusetts Brothers Arrived on the Calvin Austin Today—Programme of Entertainment.

This morning a happy band of 125 Odd Fellows from various lodges in Massachusetts landed here by the Calvin Austin, for the purpose of seeing the beauties of the surrounding country and also to strengthen the friendly relations between American and Canadian brothers. Most of the members were accompanied by ladies, and as they walked up Prince William street looked supremely happy in the warm sunshine of a beautiful July morning. The arrangements for the excursion are in the hands of Councillor Hon. John W. Long and LeBaron R. Thompson, the travelling agent for the Eastern Steamship Company. The former, who is well known in Lancaster, was specially mentioned by those taking the trip this morning, for the kind treatment shown to the Cambridge Odd Fellows.

To day will be spent in seeing the points of interest in the locality, while for tomorrow a special trip by boat to Fredericton has been arranged. It is hoped that many local Odd Fellows as possible will accompany their American brothers on this trip. They will leave Fredericton tomorrow evening at 8.30 by special train. Thursday will be spent in a series of local picnics, whilst Friday is the day on which a special session will be held for purpose of working degrees. On Saturday evening the Odd Fellows return to their homes by the Calvin Austin.

On landing this morning each member of the party was handed a handsome clasp and ribbon to be worn on the breast. On the ribbon is stamped in gold lettering: "O. O. F., St. John, N. B., July 4th, 1905. Greetings to our American brothers."
