ADMISSION.

The regular time of admission to the Academy is the beginning of each Term and on November 1st. Students may enter at any time if they are able to join the regular classes and do satisfactory work in them. It is desired that pupils present themselves at the opening of the Terms for classification, as it is difficult to do those justice who come after the opening. Testimonial of good moral character, from some responsible person, will be required from those with whom the teachers are not personally acquainted. Pupils coming from other Schools must present certificates of honorable dismissal.

HORTON COLLEGIATE ACADEMY.

CLASSIFICATION.

At the opening of each Term an effort is made to classify the pupils to the best advantage.

The daily marks are combined with the results of frequent written and oral examinations and the scholarship thus determined. Unexcused absences from class are reckoned as failures.

There are three grades of scholarship:—

FIRST GRADE,—Those whose average is from 6.5 to 10.

SECOND GRADE,—“ “ “ 4.5 to 6.5

THIRD GRADE,—“ “ “ below 4.5

Students of the Junior Year who, on the year's work, have obtained First Grade are allowed to advance to the Middle Year, those of the Second Grade are allowed to join the Middle Year on probation for one term, and in case they do not improve their standing they are put back into the next Junior Year. Students of the Third Grade are required to go over the year's work again. The same principle is applied in the case of students of the Middle Year being advanced to the Senior Year.

By vote of the Faculty of Acadia College, First Grade Students of the Senior Year from Horton Collegiate Academy, provided their marks on no subject fall below 4.5, are admitted to College as full matriculants, without examination, on presentation of certificate from the principal of the Academy.

Students of the Second Grade are admitted on probation for one term; if during that time they improve their standing, they are then fully admitted. Students must have been in the Academy at least three months to get the benefit of this arrangement.

SUPERVISION.

The Teacher resides in the Young men's boarding hall. Students occupying rooms there are under his care and supervision. The advantages such enjoy over those rooming elsewhere are apparent to anyone on a little reflection.

SOCIETIES.

The Horton Collegiate Academy Lyceum, a Society under the management of the students of the Academy, meets weekly for literary exercises.

The Acadia Missionary Society, open to all students of the Institution, meets monthly, when missionary intelligence from various parts of the world is communicated, essays read, and matters of interest relating to missions discussed.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

The Library of Acadia College is accessible, under proper restrictions, to the students of the Academy.

The Reading Room, under the control of the students of Acadia College, well supplied with foreign and domestic periodicals and news papers, is open to the students of the Academy, on payment of a small fee or by subscribing to the College paper, the Acadia Athenæum.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INFLUENCES.

This Academy, from its foundation in 1828, has had a moral and religious record, unsurpassed by any school of like character on this Continent.

It is not probable that young men coming into contact with the influences to be met with here have become demoralized. The conditions are such that unless vicious habits are already formed, the student is elevated and ennobled. Many who come here thoughtless and irreligious have their purposes changed for life. On Sabbath morning and Wednesday evening there are prayer meetings conducted by the students of the College and Academy. These meetings have proved a spiritual benefit to those attending them.

BUILDINGS.

The dormitory for young men was built about five years ago. The rooms are comfortable, and the corridors are warmed by hot air furnace. The rooms are furnished with bedstead, mattress, table, chairs, book-case, wash-stand and stove. Students are expected to provide their own bedding, towels, lamp, glass, etc.,

HORTON COLLEGIATE ACADEMY.

meets weekly for whatever they may deem necessary to complete the furnishing of the rooms.

Students of the Institution are provided for in its Dining Hall, board is provided for students of both the College and Academy.

This building is supplied with water on each flat, conducted through iron pipes from a thoroughly built and well protected reservoir about half a mile distant.

The building known as the "Old Boarding House" contains rooms for about twenty students, besides affording accommodation for the Janitor and for an Office.

The recitation rooms for the male Academy, and for some classes in Acadia Seminary, are in the New College building. These rooms are modern in their construction, and well adapted to the purposes for which they were designed.

The boarding departments of both Horton Academy and Acadia Seminary are managed by the Executive Committee of the Governors of Acadia College. No personal or private interests are subserved. The design is to keep prices as low as possible.

FINANCES.

By prudent management anything is saved it is a gain to the Institution. This being the case, it is clearly the duty of every Baptist parent sending sons or daughters to the Institution to aid them in it, and thus assist an enterprise in the financial prosperity of which all participate. Considering the healthfulness of the locality, the delightful situation, the charming natural scenery, the tasteful ornamentation of the grounds, the newness and completeness of the buildings—all of which have an educational and refining influence—this seat of learning is unrivalled in the Province, and cannot fail to command a larger patronage than ever before.

Students are provided with five years of education, and are warmed by the sun, and sheltered by the shade, instead of the cold and dampness of the winter.

Students are provided with a complete outfit, including a cap, glass, etc., and a full set of books.

Payment of Bills.

Bills will be rendered about Oct. 10th, Feb. 10th and May 1st and prompt payment is expected. The current expenses are large including purchases, salaries and interest on liabilities so that ready payment is a necessity that the Managing Committee must meet their engagements.

No deduction in tuition or rent bills will be made for absence during the first two or last two weeks of a Term.

Students who have paid in advance, but who may be called away from the Institution by sickness or other necessary cause will have the money refunded to them pro rata for time of absence.
