HE JUST AND PEAR NOT.

Speak thou the truth. Let others fence, And trim their words for pay ; In pleasant sunshine of pretence Let others bask their day.

Guard thou the fact ; though clouds of night Down on thy watch tower stoop; Tho' thou shouldst see thy heart's delight

Face thou the wind. Though safer seem In shelter to abide, We were not made to sit and dream; The safe must first be tried.

Show thou thy light. If conscience gleam, Set not the bushel down; The smallest spark may send his beam O'er hamlet, tower and town.

Woe, wee to him on safty bent, Who creeps from age to youth, Failing to grasp his life's intent, Because he fears the truth.

And, as thought, thy speech;
What thou hast not by suffering bought
