ANY DYSPEPTIC CAN GET WELL

By Taking "Fruit-a-tives"
Says Capt. Swan

Life is very miserable to those who suffer with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Biliousness. This letter from Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) tells how to get quick relief
from Stomach Trouble.
PORT BUCKWELL, ONT., May 8th, 1913.
"A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat.
That was what was wrong with me.
Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken "Fruita-tives" and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that "Fruita-tives" have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking
"Fruit-a-tives" according to directions,
any person with Dyspepsia will get benefit."

at 50c. a box 6 for $2.50, or trial size

Methodist Church.

REV. W. G. HOWSON, MINISTER
Though next Sunday is Conference
Sunday, the pastor expects to occupy his own pulpit. His subjects are as follows:—Morning, "That word 'therefore' again"; evening, "A street por-tension a thousand years before the time of Christ." Good music. Bright services. All welcome.

"MAN IS FILLED WITH MISERY."
This is not true of all men. The well, sound of lung, clear of eye, alert and buoyant with health, are not miserable, whatever may be their social condition. To be well is to be happy, and we can all be well by getting and keeping our bodies in a healthful state.
Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will help all to do this.

Robert Thompson property at Melbourne.

at the front to those who have shown unusual gallantry.

A ben got into the First Baptist church at Fremont, Neb., and laid an egg on the collection plate.

Miss Christina McKay, one of the early settlers of Dunwich, died at Dutton on Monday, aged 82 years.

A number of farmers near Blenheim are culling the roads in front of their homes to overcome the dust nuisance.

Wardsville council have granted $40 towards the fund being raised for the purchase of suits for the band in that village.

A hobo told Chicago judges that the city could not be prosperous, as cigar ends now thrown away are shorter than usual.

Even if the Billy Sunday campaign
cost Philadelphia $150,000, it added 50,000 persons to the membership of the churches.

Robert Kerr, of Kincaidine, was yesterday fined $50 at Walkerton for running an auto while under the influence of liquor.

In North Middlesex many fruit trees
are badly affected with caterpillars, and the wire worm has also been at work in the grain crops.

Postman Turner, of Chatham, tells of ten chickens being hatched from thirteen eggs that had been stored away last fall in salt water.

Eating 16 pills given to him by his sister, who thought they were candy, Joseph Porto, not 2 years old, of Toronto, died in terrible agony.

Young Enterprise:—The sum of $54 has been subscribed by our local merchants towards defraying the expense of oiling Broadway as against $42 subscribed last year.

John Grigg, for many years a resident of Mount Brydges, died at the home of his daughter in Hallock, Minn., on May 13th, after a prolonged illness, at the age of 83 years.

There is a division of opinion in Kingsville as to the value of a summer half holiday, some of the merchants believing that it injures trade,
and as a result the early closing movement has been discarded entirely.

Fred Billings, the Strathroy youth arrested at Houston, Texas, and brought back on the charge of stealing $1,100 from his employers, Howland & Co., private bankers, was before the police court Wednesday and remanded for a week.

Some Kent county farmers have sent a large supply of potatoes to hand that they are cooking what they do not need and feeding them to the hogs. The farmers find it impossible to market them, although they are of a superior quality, being free from rot or scab.

Alexander Kerr, reeve of Dunwich township, died suddenly from apoplexy on Thursday morning at his home near Iona Station. Mr. Kerr was in his customary good health
when he went to the field as usual with his team, where he was found shortly afterwards by his wife.

The barns and outbuildings of the Munsey Institute were destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon, supposedly caused by one of the boy inmates.
All the live stock was saved excepting a registered stallion. The institute is a school and farm for Indian boys and has at present about 125 students.

The Moss Branch of the Red Cross Society are asking for donations of the following Hospital Supplies for the front:—Pillow slips, 18" 30" sheets, 60" 90"; and towels, huckaback or Turkish, and ready laundered. All donations to be sent in before June 10
to any member of the committee,
Mary E. Campbell, secretary.

A heavy frost on Wednesday night
of last week did considerable damage to early vegetable and flower gardens and tender foliage generally was blighted. Farmers report much damage to early fruit, particularly strawberries which gave promise of a heavy yield. Field crops did not suffer to any extent and the prospects are still good for an abundant harvest.

The war is costing Canada $200,000 a day and in a short time the total will be a quarter of a million daily. The $50,000,000 originally voted has been spent and the second appropriation of $100,000,000 is now being used. The expenditures, figuring in the above, are for the maintenance of troops at home and abroad, the purchase of arms
and equipment and the cost of transport.

Additions to the Canadian casualty list bring the total number of wounded and missing up to 5,847. The Canadian division is still in the fighting in the vicinity of Ypres. Of the total, 988 have been killed, 3,002 wounded,
and still 1,217 are missing. The lists of casualties since the battle of Lange-mark include no fewer than 47 Canadian officers, 11 of whom are killed and 36 wounded.

Eighteen people were injured, some quite seriously, when Grand Trunk passenger train No. 126, southbound,
crossed the tracks on the London,
Huron and Bruce branch of the line
near Ilderton, twelve miles from London at ten o'clock Monday morning.
The accident is thought to have been due to a broken rail. The entire train left the rails, the smoking car and coach plunging down a twenty-foot embankment.

Th' auto may replace th' hoss, but it's a cinch it'll never develop anything
as picturesque an' crooked as the average hoss trader.
It's a long, long way to civilization.

Semi-Jubilee Celebration.

Arrangements have been completed for the big Presbyterian semi-jubilee to be held June 13th to 20th. Services will be held both Sundays at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., at which former pastors and ministers brought up in the congregation will take part.
The afternoon meetings will be of special interest to all friends of the Sunday School and work among young people. A large number of invitations have been sent to former members and very large gatherings are expected not only for the Sunday services but at the reunion picnic to be held in the Agricultural Park on Wednesday, June 16th. Among those who will be present and take part are Dr.
Douglas Currie, Rev. James Wilson,
Rev. A. A. Graham, principal of Boys'
College, Moosejaw; Rev. Neil D.
Keith, principal of Alberta Ladies' College; Rev. C. C. Strachan, of Yorkton. A special committee have been placed in charge of the picnic and they assure us that it will be the event of the season. Among the attractions will be an excellent Highland Pipers' band; special music by Miss Finlay-son, of Toronto, assisted by local chorus; Peter McArthur, in a reminiscent sketch; addresses by the visiting ministers; games and amusements,
including a free auto ride for all children. J. C. Elliott, M. P. P., will act as chairman. Dinner will be served on the grounds from twelve to half-past two.
An illustrated and attractive historical sketch is being prepared to mark the occasion.

Continuation of Ross Prize.

Ross Lethbridge, the winner of the prize in the Glencoe district for the year 1914, has received communication from Mr. D. C. Ross, M. P., stating that he purposed to continue the award as formerly given by his father and that the looks would be forthcoming. Ross was a pupil of S. S. No.
8, Ekfrid, and is now attending Glencoe High School.

News From Home.

When the evening shade is fallin'
at the close of the day,
An' a feller rests from labor, smokin'
at his pipe of clay:

There's nothing does a man so much
good, he fortune up and down,
As that little country paper from his Old Home Town.

It ain't a thing of beauty and its print
is not always clean,
But it straightens out his temper
when a feller's feelin' mean:
It takes the wrinkles off his face an'
brushes off the frown.
That little country paper from his
Old Home Town.

It tells of all the parties and the balls
of Pumpkin Row,
'Bout who spent Sunday with who's girl, and how the crop'll grow.

An' how it keeps a fellow posted who's
up and who is down,
That little country paper from his
Old Home Town.

Now I like to read the dailies and the story papers too,
And at times the yellow novels and some other trash—don't you?
But when I want some other readin'
that'll brush away a frown,
I want that little paper from my Old Home Town.

Property Commissioner, have started a "Back to the Land" movement, and experienced hands and others inexperienced, also boys who are willing to go out and learn to become farmers.

Write the Bureau if you are interested.

The stuffed representation of Napoleon's famous charger, Vixier, having worn out its third tail since its master's death, has recently been supplied with a fourth flowing appendage for the benefit of visitors to Paris. Vixier, except for its tail, is the "authentic"
war horse ridden by Napoleon. After the animal's death the skin was stuffed and placed among the Napoleonic collection in the Invalides museum, and it became one of the objects which attract most of the attention of visitors.
Of the three tails that have already disappeared at the hands of sightseers,
despite the vigilance of the guardians,
it is believed that at least two are in America in small detachments.

From the ice-box to the coal bin
Is but a nimble jump;
But to keep them both a-go'in'
Is what makes a feller hump.

Masonic Service.

Lorne Lodge, A. F. & A. M., attended divine service at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, when an excellent discourse was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. G. Howson, on "Freemasonry: its origin, history and interpretations." Several of the Masonic brethren from neighboring lodges were present and joined in the prayer, there being in all an attendance of about 75 of the fraternity.
The church was filled to its capacity
with an interested congregation.
Splendid music was furnished by the choir of the church.

The speaker chose for his text the words "Let there be light, and there was light." In their first utterance these words no doubt had reference to the dispersion of physical darkness,
but they have also been used in a much larger and symbolic sense. The question "What is Freemasonry?" was briefly answered, when the speaker
referred to the long age of this order,
and why it is called Ancient Freemasonry.

He showed that was no doubt a new fact to many of his hearers, that Freemasonry was in its beginnings religious; that these religious assemblies were conducted in secret, the priests of those days believing that their religion could be kept pure by confining it to a system of secret knowledge, guarded by the most rigid and sacred rites. But in spite of their best endeavor corruptions and superstitions crept in, and religion lapsed into idolatry and paganism.

The history of Freemasonry was dwelt upon, and it was shown to be a valuable history indeed, running like a thread of gold through all the ories sacred and secular, and in all lands and times has found its place
and power.

The speaker showed that the statement that Freemasonry is anti-christian was as false as false could be.
He would like to have spoken of the secret of this order, to have answered
the question why ladies are not admitted, and to have spoken of the age of the lambskin apron as a badge. The patriotism and loyalty of this order cannot be questioned, and its hatred
of war is most emphatic and pronounced.

Freemasonry throws much light upon Bible passages, and several were mentioned as having reference to ancient Masonry, but which have been lifted by the sacred writers out of their Masonic environment and used in the religious sense.

The close of the address contained a reference to the Eternal City, which is built according to Masonic principles in the form of a perfect cube, the length and the breadth and the height of it an equal.

The presentation of this subject was unique, and full of information to all.

Receiving Worthy Support.

The Western University of London has another good piece of news to announce in the increase of its grant by the City Council of London from $10, 000 to $15,000 for the coming year. It is expected that this, along with the increased revenue in view from other sources, will enable the University to attain the full standing of other Universities in respect to the recognition of all its degrees. There have already been negotiations with the Department of Education at Toronto with this practically assured as the result.

The recent financial progress of the University has been most gratifying.
The income for the Arts Department for the year 1913-14 was $8,800. For the year 1914-15 just closing it will be about $19,000 while the income for 1915-16 will be not less than $30,000 for the Arts Department, and about $75, 000 for all the departments of the University.

As a result of this five new members are being added to the staff of the Arts Department, including men of recognized prominence and scholarship. A good gymnasium has been secured and a physical director is being appointed who is widely known in athletic circles. New laboratories in physics and biology are to be inaugurated this fall which will supplement those of other departments in a very satisfactory manner.

The magnificent addition to the resources of Western Ontario's University, which is only the beginning of still greater things, will provide for the needs of the many students of this whole section of the Province, without taking them so far from home and encountering heavier expenses. There are already signs of increasing interest in the various Collegiate Institutes and High Schools which will turn a large number of students in the next few years towards the Western, where the authorities are determined to build up a university of the highest grade.

Albert Gates is erecting a fine large barn on his farm in Ekfrid to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.
The raising was held on Friday afternoon, when a large crowd of neighbors gathered to lend their assistance in putting up the frame, which was prepared by Contractors Dan McCallum and Dugald Black. John Little and William Butler captained the sides, and the race developed considerable enthusiasm, though neither side could claim victory over the other. Mrs.
Gates provided an excellent dinner at tables set on the lawn, assisted by the ladies of the neighborhood. A slight misfortune happened when the beams of the barn had been raised and the plates were being put in place. Mr.
Butler missed his footing and fell from quite a height, cutting a wound in his forehead, which fortunately was not serious.

Try these and you surely will pronounce them excellent.

Corn Bread with Baking Powder.—1 tablespoon butter and 2 tablespoons sugar beaten together; add 1 egg (well beaten), two-thirds cup of corn meal, half cup wheat flour, two tablespoons baking powder, pinch salt, half cup sweet milk. Desserting of a trial.

White Sponge Cake.—Five eggs (whites only) beaten very stiff, two cups sugar, beat eggs and sugar twenty minutes; one cup boiling milk (fresh), two cups flour sifted five times, two teaspoons baking powder, flavor to taste. Bake from 30 to 40 minutes in moderate oven. I have such fine luck with this recipe that I seldom make an angel food any more; it's such a fine substitute.

French Omelet.—Break three eggs in basin, take a tablespoon of cream and one level teaspoon butter (melted). Whip together until they froth well. Put two teaspoonsful butter in frying pan, let it get real hot; pour mixture in, turn when browned nice. Lift and serve on parsley. Parsley and cold ham minced well, and added to the egg before cooking makes a very agreeable omelet.

Loaf Cake.—1½ cups white sugar, half cup butter, half cup grated chocolate, teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, allspice and nutmeg. Mix all these together. Then add two eggs (beaten lightly), one-third cup baking syrup, one cup good clear coffee, 2½ cups flour, half teaspoon soda, one teaspoon baking powder, one pound currants (cleaned), cut to suit taste. Flour the nut meats and currants. This sounds like a strange mixture, but I have made it for the past 23 years and I still think it fine, especially for a picnic cake or social, for 'tis such a generous size and stays moist so nicely.

English Cream Pie.—One cup sour cream, one cup raisins (soaked and chopped), one egg, two dessert spoons vinegar, one dessert spoon flour, half teaspoon sugar. Reserve white of egg for frosting. Cook mixture, and bake crust separately. If one likes nutmeg, a dash could be added to mixture.

Jello in Orange Cups.—Have you ever tried making orange jello and putting it in orange baskets? Cut off a portion of orange at stem end, scoop orange pulp out, and fill the basket about half full of jello; then heap whipped cream upon the jello until it stands up prettily, then stick a candied cherry on top. Use the pulp of course, to make the jello.

Spice Cake.—Half cup butter, half cup brown sugar, half cup molasses, one teaspoon soda, one cup sour milk, two cups flour, one tablespoon each lemon, vanilla, cinnamon and ginger; half teaspoon each cloves and allspice; one cup each raisins, currants and nuts.

Cream Cookies.—One and two-thirds cups sugar; two-thirds cup lard (and butter); one cup sour cream (1-4); two eggs; three teaspoons baking powder; one level teaspoon soda; a little salt, lemon, and lastly flour.

Pickled Beans.—Scald in salted water about 20 minutes, beans which have been split from end to end sideways. Put in strong brine to keep.

Tomato Relish.—Chop one peck pared ripe tomatoes; drain; add to pulp about six chopped onions, three or four red peppers which have had seeds removed; then add one ounce cinnamon, 2 ounces white mustard, two pounds brown sugar, half cup salt, one teaspoon pepper, a little celery seed and mix well. Can without cooking.

Useful Hints.

All cooking utensils should be washed with soda immediately after they have been used, which will remove every trace of grease.

When making an omelet it is best to thin down the eggs with a few tablespoons of hot water instead of milk. This makes a more tender omelet.

Before using dish-cloths to greasy articles remove from the latter as much grease as possible with crushed paper. This will greatly help to preserve the good condition of kitchen cloths.

It is a fair, even-handed, noble adjustment of things that while there is infection in disease and sorrow there is nothing in the world so irresistibly contagious as laughter and good humor.

Keep white paper on each shelf of the refrigerator. It gives a clean appearance, and keeps things from dropping on the shelf below.

Before using milk for custard heat it thoroughly, then cool it, and use it in the ordinary way. The custard will not become watery. Don't forget to add a pinch of salt, as it improves the flavor. If the custard is to be put in a pie mix one teaspoonful of flour with the dry sugar before adding the milk and eggs. This takes the place of one egg, and the custard is just as rich.

It is not hard to stop the hair from falling out and promote its growth if the right means are used. There is no hope for the scalp where the hair roots are dead and the scalp is shiny. However, to those who have not reached this condition immediate steps should be taken to stop it before it is too late. Here is a simple recipe which you can make at home that will stop the hair from falling out, promote its growth, and eradicate scalp eruptions and scalp humors. To a half-pint of water add one ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orel Compound, and a quarter of an ounce of glycerine and apply to the hair, rubbing with the fingertips two or three times a week. These ingredients can be obtained at any chemist's at very little cost and mixed at home. This recipe not only promotes the growth of hair, but darkens streaked, faded grey hair, and makes it soft and glossy.

Where rain water cannot be obtained, ordinary water should be stood out of doors for some hours before use.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, JUNE 6.

Lesson X. Nathan Rebukes David. —2 Sam. 11. 1 to 12. 7a.

G.T.—Psa. 51. 10.

I. David Hears of Uriah's Death (Verses 22-25).

Verse 22. All that Joab had sent him for—David wrote a letter to Joab telling him to put Uriah, the husband of Bath-sheba (whom David coveted), in the thick of the fight so that he would be slain (verses 14-16). Joab, when he saw the fortified city of the enemy, knew that they would shoot from the wall. He took pains, therefore, to send Uriah close to the wall (verse 17). But he knew this was not good strategy. He knew also that David, hearing of the command to approach the city walls, might forget his desire to have Uriah killed and, as a skilled warrior, think only of the lack of good sense in Joab in endangering needlessly a part of his army. Joab, therefore, is careful to charge the messenger to reply to David, should the latter become angry at Joab's lack of military foresight, by saying, "Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also." David's leaders were ready to do his bidding and co-operate with his basest passion.

25. Let not this thing displease thee—Joab was right in thinking that his military blunders would cause David to be angry with him. But when told that Uriah was dead, David's anger was appeased and he counseled the messenger to make Joab feel at ease.

II. The Little Ewe Lamb (Verses 26 to 12. 7a).

26. She made lamentation for her husband—The time of mourning for a father was seven days (Gen. 50. 10); for a king, also seven days (1 Sam. 31. 13). At least thirty days were sometimes observed (Num. 20. 29; Deut. 34. 8). No particular time was set for the mourning of widows. Probably the rule was seven days, the customary time.

27. When the mourning was past—Bath-sheba's mourning was purely formal, the customary ceremonial time. As soon as this was accomplished, she went to David's home and became his wife.

Chapter 12. I. Jehovah sent Nathan unto David—A year passed before David is rebuked. David's contrition is marked in Psa. 51 and 32.

Said unto him—The prophet asked David's judgment. He uses a parable in order to put a concrete case before the king. This was a usual mode of approach to the settling of a question. (See 2 Sam. 14. 4-7; 1 Kings 20. 35-41; also Judg. 9. 7-15; 2 Kings 14. 9; Isa. 5. 1, 2).

2. The rich man—He is so described as to bring his selfishness into bold relief. The parable makes no suggestion of the crime of David. The rich man's transgression was far less than that of David. The story is related, however, so as to make David flare up at the unrighteousness of even a lesser sin.

3. David's anger was greatly kindled—David manifested anger both on other occasions. (See 1 Sam. 25. 13, 22, 33).

Is worthy to die—The Hebrew reads "is a son of death." This phrase is especially emphatic and frequently used in the Hebrew. (See 1 Sam. 20. 31; 26. 16; 2 Sam. 19. 28; 1 Kings 2. 26).

4. Fourfold—The legal requirement. (See Exod. 22. 1; Luke 19. 8).

7. Thou art the man—The consciousness that they were God's messengers inspired the prophets with fearless courage. Samuel rebuked Saul for his disobedience; the prophet from Judah reproved

Jeroboam for his idolatry; Elijah pronounced sentence on Ahab for the murder of Naboth; Isaiah chided Ahab for his faithlessness; John the Baptist condemned Herod for his adultery. (See 1 Sam. 15. 13-23; 1 Kings 13. 1-10; 2 Kings 21. 17-29; Isa. 7. 3-9; Matt. 14. 4; Mark 6. 18; Luke 3. 19).

THOUGHTS ON EDUCATION.

Duties of Members of School Boards.

Mr. H. P. Moore, J.P., editor and publisher of the Acton Free Press, gave an address, excellently conceived and practical in matter, before the Ontario Educational Association in Toronto, in April, 1914. On the above subject that was considered worthy of publication in the annual report. He said that school trustees should have the vision of a prophet to forecast the future of this growing Canada and to plan for the interests of the Canadians both of to-day and tomorrow, and placed upon school trustees the responsibility for the success of the rising generation. Trustees are charged with the high duty of providing children and youth with convenient and efficient means of obtaining an adequate education, and that up to a certain age that they embrace the opportunities provided.

Few persons, we fancy, have held school trustees responsible for the success of the public and high schools to the degree that Mr. Moore does. Indeed, we doubt if many boards of trustees consider that they have very much to do with the educational progress and general success of their schools. Trustees have placed upon them the claims, largely the responsibility of determining the character of the school and the influence it shall exert upon the scholars and the community. The object of the public school is to improve the human race physically, to develop it mentally, and to strengthen it socially and morally. Healthful environment is the foundation of education, the course of study the superstructure. Trustees are wholly responsible for the foundation and, in a fair degree, for the superstructure. They may select eligible and spacious sites and provide comfortable, well-lighted, thoroughly ventilated buildings. Fresh air is the cheapest thing on earth. Bad air kills 40 per cent. of the race and contributes largely to illnesses of the rest. They should provide trees, flowers, grassy playgrounds and pure water.

Perhaps the greatest and most responsible task of school boards is selection and treatment of teachers. Teachers as a rule are cultured, Christian men and women, honorable in their relations with trustees, schools and parents, but there are exceptions, and these latter cause trustees much worry. Not many trustees, presumably, concern themselves much with school room work, but they should satisfy themselves that such elements of true education as self-reliance, fortitude, self-control, endurance, and self-sacrifice are being taught, and that correct discipline is maintained and that the children are being educated according to correct standards of usefulness—the hand to work, the head to plan and contrive, and the heart to govern and control—so that the highest type of manhood and womanhood may be developed. Trustees should advise the Education Department if it fails to prescribe and arrange properly balanced courses of study, and unite to demand such modifications and readjustments as they deem necessary. Surely, as practical men, they face to face with the business difficulties and affairs of life, trustees may very properly suggest and demand, if need be, that sufficient attention be given to the proper training of the children.

School boards, especially of rural sections, have duties to the community—in making the school house a more common meeting place for activities of the section. Town and cities are centres of organization, but the rural population must always be the bone and sinew of any country, and the schoolhouse should be the place for training not only from ages 5 to 14, but on up through young manhood and womanhood. Most of us remember, back in the 60's, 70's, or 80's, when the country school house answered many more purposes than it does to-day. Therein were held the singing school, debating society, evening writing school, spelling matches, lectures and debates with champions of nearby schools, with all the attendant excitement; occasionally a dramatic entertainment. Always the school house was a meeting place for young and old, and always the opportunity for beginnings of courtships and matings for the countryside. Paid for and supported by public tax, the building was properly used for community purposes, resulting in a closer general acquaintance throughout the section, freer interchange of friendships, of opinions, and of intellectual stimulus. The social results were large. Grownups married and went West to help develop that country, or to the cities and towns, where they took foremost positions. They made their mark and fortunes because of the all-round development, produced through the associations, debates, lectures and other activities engaged in in the old red schoolhouse.

Are there not good reasons for reverting to these old-time experiences? We need to preserve the original democratic social ideas and to provide attractively for the interests of those who have so many common needs and aspirations. Should not school trustees take the initiative and make available again the country school for community needs? School authorities should be the active spirits in providing and controlling such use of the school properties in their charge. The increased use of the school building for community interests is the recognition of a human need, and the effort to supply that need. Thus it will be recognized that the duties of school trustees are many and varied, oftentimes vexatious and exacting, but are withal important and honorable, and if well, and faithfully fulfilled, mean more to the community than almost any other public office in the gift of the people of the section, for they will always support the efforts of inspector, teacher, and parents to advance the interests and improve the conditions of the schools. It will readily be seen from these considerations that the very best men in the section should be selected for school trustees.

Cats will never re-enter a garden if, from a concealed place, they are treated to a syringing of paraffin.

Death An Integral Part of Life

In Our Ignorance of Dissolution We Assume It to be Something Terrible.

"Fear not the sentence of death; this is the sentence from the Lord over all flesh. And why dost thou refuse, when it is the good pleasure of the Most High?"—Ecclesiastes, xlii., 3-4.

The fear of death is undoubtedly at bottom an instinct—an inversion of that most powerful of all instincts, self-preservation. This instinct, like other instincts, could be conquered and fear of death thus banished from our hearts were it not that we ourselves complicate the situation by projecting into the future, about which we know nothing, all manner of vain imaginings. The fear of death thus becomes not so much a natural inheritance as an arbitrary creation. We tremble at thought of the pain which we suppose to be attached to the process of dissolution, we shrink from thought of the inert body, the open grave, the lonely cemetery, with which we, as living spirits, can have no concern; above all we are haunted, like children in a darkened room, by the uncertainty which enshrouds this whole mystery of dying. In our ignorance of death we assume it to be something terrible and thus ourselves conjure up the spectre which affrights us.

If we sit down in calmness of mind, however, and look at death as it is, what do we see? First of all is the fact that we are face to face here with a universal phenomenon—a cosmic process like gravitation. Life is made up of a succession of episodes, and one among these is death. Such a universal occurrence cannot be regarded as an accident, a penalty, a climax, or even an end. On the contrary, it must be regarded as only one of the many changes which life undergoes as it moves from stage to stage of its development—one of the many transitions in form which distinguish an animate from an inanimate object. To single it out as something which has a

POULTRY

Disposing of Eggs.

1. Study carefully the rules for the production and marketing of new-laid eggs.

2. Remember that only the strict observance of these simple rules will bring the highest prices and improve the quality of eggs generally.

3. Be careful to stamp the eggs on the large end only.

4. In stamping do not bear too heavily upon the ink pad when inking the stamp nor on the egg when stamping.

5. Never wet the ink pad, if it becomes dry speak to the collector and he will re-ink the pad for you.

6. If the stamp becomes detached from the wooden handle, it can be readily repaired with a good mullage.

7. Do not allow the children to stamp the eggs until you have taught them to do so properly, by allowing them to practise on the eggs to be used at home.

8. On wet mornings it is a good plan to throw down a little clean straw on the floor of the poultry house. The number of dirty eggs can be materially lessened if the hens scratch in the straw before going to the nests to lay.

9. Do not stamp the very small or the very dirty eggs. They may be packed separately and marketed as a second grade through the egg circle.

10. Be a good co-operator by always being prepared and ready for the collector when he calls.

11. Do everything in your power to support your egg circle. Remember that you are a vital unit in it and that it is necessary for each member to be loyal to the association to enable it to succeed.

12. Remember that the reputation of your circle depends upon quality.

13. Strive to make your circle the best in the Dominion.

These new organdie blouses, fresh from Paris, are white or pale pink in color. The smartest have no trimming, and their only decoration is fine vertical tucks in spaced clusters. Their style lies in their collars, which are of organdie, cut high in the back and descending to a V in front.

Pink crepe de Chine camisoles are for wear under these sheer blouses. These corset covers are plain and rather fitted. The Valenciennes or shadow lace outlines the armhole and low round or pointed neck edge.

Many of the crepe de Chine camisoles have a little added sleeve of lace just long enough to conceal the sleeve protector or to veil the under arm a bit. This short sleeve is often slashed on the outside of the arm and the lace rounded up to the shoulder. This gives a more graceful effect through the outside blouse.

The new white organdie blouses often have a bias band of pale indigo blue or reddish pink. It is not much more than half or three-quarter inch width and is fastened often to the blouse edge, collar and cuffs. Sometimes the two tones are used together, one overlaying the other.

One or two of these new washable models do not open in front, but quite a bid to one side, the opening being hidden yet accentuated by a bias band of the colored tulle or organdie.

The double ruffle on the blouse in front is noted on several new models; it is a shaped ruffle, widening from nothing at the waist line to shoulder width at the top. It is closely pleated, only falling into jabot folds after one has snipped out the invisible stitches that hold it so the pleats will stay almost horizontal.

Colored linen waists are of either the light indigo blue or the reddish pink. If pink they have blue folds; if blue, pink folds are used.

A Fish Story. Auld Jock Forsyth, when in Perthshire, was told about a monster trout in a loch near at hand. Dressing a huge fly he hooked the fish, and after a terrible fight safely landed the monster. "What weight might it be?" asked a friend. "Weel, ye ken," said Jock, "the folks had nae weights yonder that could weigh any mair than a pun' or twa, but you may guess his weight when I tell ye that after I took him out the loch fell a foot."

The Truth At Last. A San Francisco clergyman recently at the close of his sermon announced that in the course of the week he expected to go on a mission to the heathen. One of the parishioners exclaimed, "Why, my dear doctor, you have never told us one word of this before. It leaves us unprepared, what shall we do?" "Brother," said the minister, solemnly, "I shall not leave town."

Fashion Hints

Latest Skirt Notes.

Double skirts are the newest thing that the fashion has to offer. You cannot well call these voluminous outer skirts tunics any longer; they have become too long, too full and too shirtlike.

There are two sorts. In one of the new types of double skirts the underskirt is quite tight and the outer, very full, is opened down the entire front. This opening reveals the tight underskirt as the outer skirt flies out and away at every movement of the wearer, its fullness often ballooning prettily. Because of the tight underskirt, the skirt does not look inflated as in other full skirts. This makes it a very becoming model for very stout figures. Sometimes the outer skirt is gathered, sometimes it is laid in pleats at the waistline; again it is hung from a yoke.

Outer and under skirts are often of the same material, but the prettiest models are where full lace outer skirts are posed over lighter taffeta underskirts wearing gown models. In morning frocks plain linen composes an underskirt, with a striped one the outer.

For slimmer women the underskirt is often made nearly as full as the outer. An oddity in such double skirts is one where the front part of the skirt is apparently an inner and the back part an outer skirt.

Another entirely different kind of double skirt is the one that is as long as the underskirt, but is caught up into a sort of puffed panier about the hips, revealing several inches of the inner skirt. This puff is not necessarily an even one. It is often caught up with a careless grace in one-sided fashion, and sometimes discloses two or three skirts dropping below each other in tiers. Of course in this case the underskirts are attached to one drop skirt only.

The Food Value of Milk

Prof. M. J. Roseman, professor of preventative medicine and hygiene, Harvard Medical School, is recognized as America's foremost pure milk authority and author of "The Milk Question," etc. Writing in "Safe Milk," published by City Dairy Co., Toronto, Professor Roseman says:

"Milk is one of the cheapest foods on the market. It is also one of the best. It is best because it is so easily digested, and because it is one of the most nourishing of all our standard articles of diet.

"Milk contains all of the ingredients needed to nourish the body. It contains these ingredients in just the right proportion which experience and science show should be contained in a well-balanced ration. Thus, it contains:

Albumin, like white of egg . . . 1.5%
Sugar, like cane sugar . . . 7%
Fat, like butter . . . 3 to 4%
Salt, like common table salt . . . 0.2%
Water . . . 87%

"The albumin furnishes the materials which build up the body and keep it in repair. The fat and sugar provide fuel to keep the body warm and furnish it with power needed to do its work. The water and salt are necessary for life. Milk also contains antitoxins, useful cells and other substances that are of great importance, especially to the infant. It must be plain, then, that milk is an enormously complex substance—it is both food and drink. The infant thrives on milk alone, and the adult can live for months with nothing else.

"Milk may be served in a number of different ways, as custards, puddings, sauces, cream, ice cream, cheese, etc. It has been figured out by Government experts that 16% consists of milk or milk products. This figure is an evidence of the very important place milk has on the family dining table as well as on the family purse.

"When compared with other articles, the food value of milk normally contains a large proportion of water—87%. When, however, the portions ordinarily served at meals are considered, the high worth of milk is clearly shown. Thus, the food value of a glass of milk is approximately equal to two large eggs, a large serving of lean meat, two moderate sized potatoes, five tablespoonsful of good cereal, three tablespoonsful of boiled rice, or two slices of bread.

"One quart of milk is about equal in food value to one of the following: two lbs. of salt codfish, three lbs. of fresh codfish, two lbs. of chicken, four lbs. of beef, five lbs. of turnips, one-sixth lb. of butter, one-third lb. of wheat flour, one-third lb. of cheese, three-quarter lb. of lean round beef, eight eggs, two lbs. of potatoes, six lbs. of spinach, seven lbs. of lettuce, four lbs. of cabbage.

"Milk varies somewhat in composition, especially in amount of butter fat (cream) it contains. Certain cows furnish richer milk than others, therefore, it is customary in good dairy practice to mix the milk of several cows immediately after it is drawn. In this way the consumer is assured a more uniform product from day to day.

"In the household, milk should always be kept cold, clean, and covered."

THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1915.

Whether you make money or lose it, never sell your divine heritage, your good name, for a mess of pottage. Whatever you do, be larger than your vocation; never let it be said of you that you succeeded in your vocation but failed as a man.

Householders who take pride in improving their property and maintaining good lawns are frequently annoyed by delivery boys and others who take short cuts from one house to another until they have a path worn in the grass, or drive rigs on the boulevard, destroying by wheel tracks a beauty spot that has cost much time and trouble to make.

Many of the party political papers are giving their readers the nightmare by publishing the campaign cartoons and canned editorial dope that was handed out by their bosses when a general election was all but decided upon. And it matters not which party may be in power the country will have to pay for this "public opinion" in the way of subsidies to these party papers amounting to millions of dollars.

On a Grand Trunk train, a few days ago, a German-American, traveller for a Cincinnati firm of manufacturers, surprised his seat companion by the vehemence with which he declared that he hoped Germany would be beaten in the conflict. "It sounds strange to hear such sentiments expressed by a man of German origin?" was remarked. "Perhaps it does," was the reply, "and in all probability I had never been in Germany, I should not feel the way I do, but I have had an opportunity of witnessing the effects of Prussian officialdom—have been a victim of the system in fact—and I say the sooner Prussia is crushed the sooner will the people of Germany enjoy real freedom as we understand the term in America." He went on to say that he had three sons and that he hoped, in the event of the United States being drawn into the war, they all would fight against Germany.

A baseball club in a neighboring village has been making profuse apologies to patrons of a recent entertainment given under its auspices by a concert company from the city. The concert did not measure up to its recommendations by a long way. Some day local organizations will wake up to the fact that they are being badly bunked when they undertake for the small end of the probable profits to boost and finance a show that has not confidence in its own merits to succeed.

The world is getting used to the miracles of wireless telegraphy, and will soon be learning much more about the wireless telephone. Officials of the Lackawanna Railroad last month sent messages by wireless telephone sixty-three miles through a mountainous region; not a mere exchange of greetings, but definite orders for the movement of trains. Signor Marconi says that the British warships in the North Sea can keep in telephonic communication with the shore as long as they are within a radius of a hundred miles.

The Detroit Free Press says:—"All partisanship aside, it is impossible to read of the exploits of Canadian troops in Belgium without experiencing a glow of pride, not because the men of the Dominion were fighting on this side or that in the battle but because they were representing the valor and gallantry of the New World and because they upheld the reputation of American bravery and nerve and intelligence in a way which brought out expressions of admiration from everyone who observed them. The sons of our neighbors across the border bore themselves well and manfully; they even taught Europe something about alertness and resourcefulness in time of emergency."

Frenchman — "You are a funny people, you English. You take strong whiskey; you put water in to make it weak; you put sugar in to make it sweet; you put lemon in to make it sour; then you say 'here's to you,' and drink it yourself."

Miller's Worm Powders are not surpassed by any other preparation as a vermifuge or worm destroyer. Indeed, there are few preparations that have the merit that it has to recommend it. Mothers, aware of its excellence, seek its aid at the first indication of the presence of worms in their children, knowing that it is a perfectly trustworthy medicine that will give immediate and lasting relief.

H.M.S. MAJESTIC TORPEDOED

Like the Triumph, She Was Submerged While Supporting Land Forces on Gallipoli Peninsular

A despatch from London says: The British battleship Majestic, Capt. H. F. G. Talbot, was torpedoed and sunk by an enemy submarine while the battleship was supporting the allied land forces on the Gallipoli Peninsula. Nearly all the officers and men were saved.

It is supposed that the submarine that sank the Majestic was the same that sent the British battleship Triumph to the bottom on Tuesday last.

The Majestic was completed in 1895, and was the oldest battleship on the active list of the navy. She was one of nine vessels known as the Majestic class. Her displacement was 14,000 tons, length 380 feet, speed 17 knots, and she carried four 12-inch, twelve 6-inch and sixteen 12-pounder guns of old pattern, with five torpedo tubes. Her nominal complement was 757 officers and men.

The sinking of the Majestic is said to have occurred off Seddul Bahr, at the southern point of the Gallipoli Peninsula. This statement is made in a Constantinople despatch received by way of Berlin.

A despatch to the Times from its Mudros correspondent says that 460 men of the crew of the battleship Triumph, which was sunk Tuesday in the Gulf of Saros, were saved. The officers and crew on board the Triumph in peace times numbered about 700 men.

SUBMARINE VISITS ARSENAL

Torpedoes a Transport in Harbor and Sinks Ammunition and Supply Ships in Sea of Marmora

A despatch from London says: "The submarine E-11, Lieut.-Commander Martin E. Nasmith, has sunk in the Sea of Marmora a vessel containing a great quantity of ammunition, comprising charges for heavy howitzers, several gun mountings and a six-inch gun. She also chased a supply ship with a heavy cargo of stores and torpedoed her alongside a pier at Rodosto. A small store ship was also chased and run ashore.

The submarine E-11 entered Constantinople and discharged a torpedo at a transport alongside the arsenal. The torpedo was heard to explode."

SHIP BLOWN UP, 325 MEN KILLED

Crew of 250 and 75 Workers Perish on Former C.P.R. Boat at Sheerness.

A despatch from London says: The Princess Irene, a British military ship, was literally blown to atoms with at least 325 men aboard as she lay at anchor in Sheerness harbor Friday morning. The explosion apparently was internal, its origin being marked by complete mystery. Only one man has survived, a stoker, named David Willis, who was picked up badly injured.

It is understood that all but three of her crew of 250 men were aboard the steamer, as well as 75 dockyard men carrying out repairs. The Daily Mail asserts that in addition to the 75 shipwrights there were on board 100 workmen from Chatham, as well as 240 members of the crew, which would give a total of 418 persons on the steamer at the time she was blown up.

The disaster has immediately recalled the fate of the British battleship Bulwark, which was mysteriously blown up on November 29 at practically the identical spot in which rested the Princess Irene, with the loss of some 730 officers and men. The destruction of the Bulwark was never explained. There were rumors at the time that a German submarine had slipped into Sheerness harbor and launched a torpedo at the warship, subsequently stealing away without detection. It has since seemed more probable, however, that the Bulwark was blown up by an internal explosion—the inference being, of course, that a spy accomplished the work.

MET GERMANS WITH BAYONETS

Enemy's Attack Was Paralyzed and He Was Forced Into the Open and Suffered Heavy Losses

A despatch from London says: "Canadian and Indian troops successfully repulsed at the point of the bayonet a vigorous German attack near Richebourg. Having destroyed the British wire defences by means of a terrific artillery fire, the enemy launched a strong attack and succeeded, despite severe losses suffered in the open, in reaching our trenches here," says a Central News message.

"They were met with an inferno of rifle and machine gun fire before which they wavered, then the Canadians and Indians leaped from the trenches and met the German reserves with the bayonet as the latter swarmed up to strengthen the thinned first line. The colonials, fighting with terrific vigor, simply paralyzed the attack of the enemy, who were pursued into the open. Our losses were heavy, but the defeat suffered by the Germans was severe both morally and materially. The progress made justifies the belief that the German hold on the region of La Bassée will very soon become untenable and necessitate a withdrawal to a new line of defence.

Sergeant O'Leary, V.C., Killed

A despatch from Dublin says: Relatives of Sergt. Michael O'Leary of the Irish Guards, who has been hailed as "the bravest man in the British army," because of his feat in capturing unaided a German position at Cuinchy, were notified

Thursday that he had been killed in battle.

For his valor at Cuinchy, O'Leary, who was 24 years old, was awarded the Victoria Cross and promoted from corporal to sergeant. He formerly served in the North-West Mounted Police.

AUSTRIANS FLEE IN DISORDER

Rapidity of Italian Advance Has Paralyzed the Enemy.

A despatch from London says: With the occupation of the town of Grado, on the Gulf of Trieste, the Italian front in the advance over the eastern frontier into Austrian territory, now forms a continuous line of about 40 miles, stretching from Caporetto, on the left flank, to the sea. The farthest advance into Austrian territory is at Montefalcone, on the railway to Trieste, the Italians being thus within 22 miles of that port.

The Daily Chronicle correspondent says: I hear that the Austrians are in full retreat along the whole of their defensive line, burning houses, stores, crops and forage and destroying roads and bridges, in fact, laying waste entire provinces.

The Italian forces which invaded Tyrol from the southern frontier of that region have advanced as far as the mouth of the Chiese River in Lake Idro, occupying all the rugged terrain between the lake and Lake Garda, to the east. There have been artillery engagements at the Tonale Pass, where very strong Austrian forts bar the progress of the Italians, and on the Asiago plateau, on the eastern frontier of Tyrol, toward which the invaders proceeded up Val Sugana.

Italian gunboats on Lake Garda gave effective support to the troops operating on the eastern shore of the lake, enabling them to occupy several strategic points around Monte Baldo, of which an important peak, Monte Altissimo, 5,630 feet high, was captured yesterday. The objective of these troops is Mori, on the railroad connecting Riva and Arco with Rovereto and Trento, thus cutting off from the rear the Austrian garrison at Riva and the Austrian forces at the mouth of the Adige.

DROVE GERMANS OUT OF ABLAIN

French Troops Win a Decided Success in the Region of Arras.

A despatch from Paris says: French troops have won decided successes in the region of Arras lately, and have secured possession of a greater part of Ablain. In addition they have driven the Germans from their strongly fortified positions in the cemetery near Ablain and have advanced for some distance beyond it.

During this fighting, says the War Office report, the German losses were very heavy. Nothing is said as to the price in lives at which the French made their progress. It will be remembered that Carency was occupied by the allied troops several days ago, who were subsequently forced to retire by the violence of the German counter-attacks.

Otherwise in this sector, where the principal fighting of the last few days has occurred, the French have taken some of the German trenches southwest of Souchez at Chateau Tardieu.

A French aerial squadron, composed of 18 aeroplanes, each one carrying 110 pounds of projectiles, bombarded a chemical factory at Ludwigshafen, on the Rhine, opposite Mannheim.

Fire broke out in several of the factory buildings as a result of this bombardment. This factory is one of the most important manufacturing establishments in all Germany. The French aviators were in the air for six hours, and covered more than 400 kilometres (240 miles). This expedition against an important German establishment was the French reply to the attempts of German aviators on the City of Paris.

KING VICTOR AT THE FRONT

First Citizen of Italy Will Remain Among His Fighting Troops Until Victory is Assured

A despatch from Rome says: King Victor Emmanuel has assumed supreme command of the army and navy. He left incognito for the front. Only his Ministers, who were confidentially informed of the intended departure of the King, bade him farewell.

The Messaggero, in paying a tribute to the King, says:

"The first citizen of Italy has left the capital to go to the front and be among his fighting troops. To him, who to-day set foot for the first time on Italian land, which until a few days ago was yet disunited from the Mother Country; to him, who in this moment is the symbol of the union and concord among all Italians, goes our augural salutation, in the hope for the highest success to the Italian arms.

"For Victor Emmanuel has been reserved the highest fortune that ever a sovereign could enjoy; that he will see complete, under his crown, national unity.

"To Victor Emmanuel go the grateful and solemn greetings of the entire Italian people."

CANADIAN VESSEL SUNK BY PIRATES

Steamer Morwenna Was in the Passenger Trade on the St. Lawrence.

A despatch from London says: The Canadian steamer Morwenna was torpedoed and shelled by a German submarine off the Welsh coast. One member of her crew was killed. The others, including three wounded, have been landed at Cardiff by the Belgian trawler Jaqueline. The Morwenna was bound from Cardiff for Sydney, N.S., in ballast.

The Morwenna hailed from Montreal, and was owned by the Black Diamond Line. Since early this year she has been under charter to the Red Cross Line. She was built at Dundee in 1904, and before the war was a well-known passenger boat on the St. Lawrence, plying between Montreal, the Gulf ports and St. John's, in the summer. She was 290 feet long and commanded by Captain Holmes.

The members of the crew of the Morwenna say that after the vessel was torpedoed they lowered their boats, one of which had not entirely been freed from its tackle, when a shell from the submarine blew off the head of one of its occupants and wounded three other men.

The skipper of the Jaqueline says when he saw the submarine attack the Morwenna he started the Jaqueline full steam ahead, intending to ram the submarine. The underwater boat, however, evaded the trawler and fired many shells at her, but all of them missed their mark.

The Danish steamer Betty, 1,267 net tons, was torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea. Her crew was rescued. The Betty was a freighter in the trans-Atlantic trade.

CANADIAN FLAG IN ABBEY

Artillery Banner Hangs Among Ancient and Famous Trophies.

For the first time in history a Canadian flag flutters amid the banners of old in Westminster Abbey. One day recently the colors of the Twenty-second Battery of the Canadian Field Artillery were received by the Dean and carried into Henry the Seventh's Chapel. The flag was originally presented by the Veterans of Kingston, Ontario. The preservation of a Canadian flag among the historical trophies in the Abbey will be an interesting reminiscence of the great war.

Flags of the Allies Displayed in Paris

A despatch from Paris says: The flags of the European powers allied against Germany—France, Italy, Great Britain, Russia, Belgium and Serbia—were, by order of the French Government, displayed in groups over many of the public buildings and monuments of Paris. Among the edifices thus decorated are the residence of the President of the republic, the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, and all the Ministries.

There are two Galicia in Europe. One forms a part of Austria, while the other is a province in Spain.

NO ALUM

ward part of the ship about nine o'clock at night. In these regions at this time of the year it is still light at nine o'clock, but whether the flag could be distinguished even if flying is something which must be cleared up later.

The Nebraska had her name in giant letters on both sides, however, and being an American ship, she doubtless carried her ship's lights, which vessels of belligerent countries nowadays do not do, which would suggest to a submarine commander her innocence. Besides that the vessel was in ballast, and if it was clear enough for a submarine to fire straight to the mark it must have been clear enough to discern the ship riding well out of the water.

The torpedoing of the Nebraskan arouses the intensest interest. It was freely said that this was the answer to the American note.

"Did you hear about the terrible fright Bobby got on the day of his wedding?" "No; but I was at the church and saw her."

Vegetables, Fruits, and Honey. Bulletin No. 184, on "The Uses of Vegetables, Fruits, and Honey," has just been issued in revised form by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, for distribution to the members of the Women's Institutes, although anyone desiring a copy will receive one free upon application. It is packed with information of a most useful and valuable nature to women who desire to be successful housekeepers. The uses of vegetables are given a very wide treatment, and some of the recipes under this heading will surprise as well as delight the thrifty and tasteful woman who reads them. Instructions on cooking, salad making, and dressings are fully given, attention being well divided between the plain and fancy dishes. It is the same with fruits. Hints on handling fruits raw, cooked or in combination form and as canned or jellied, are many, and some of the receipts are among the very best. Housewives may also learn much that will be new to them regarding the culinary uses of honey, especially in cake-making. Any woman with this bulletin at hand can at any time of the year bring forth out of her domestic treasure things new and old for both the hungry and the dainty.

A COMPLETE WRECK

From the After Effects of Pneumonia Followed by Diphtheria

Frequently the after effects of illness are more serious than the original trouble. This was the case with Mrs. James B. Moir, Mutana, Sask. Mrs. Moir says: "Some years ago, while we were still living in Nova Scotia, I was taken down with a severe attack of pneumonia. I had sufficiently recovered to be around, but had not been able to get out when I was attacked with diphtheria. In my weakened state it took a terrible hold on me, and neither my friends nor neighbors thought I would recover. I did, however, pull through, but was a physical wreck. The muscles of my throat were paralyzed, so that even a cup of water would flow back through my nostrils unless they were held closed. My voice was almost inaudible, and my eyes so badly affected that I feared I was going to lose my eyesight. I could only walk with assistance, and it looked as though I would be a helpless cripple. Medicine was used but did not help me. Then a neighbor advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which began taking them but had the utmost difficulty in swallowing them owing to the condition of my throat. However, after a couple of boxes had been used I found it easier to take them, which was a sign they were helping me, and I felt greatly cheered. I do not know how many boxes I took, but I continued their use until I was as well as ever, much to the surprise of all who knew me, as all thought I could not get better. Since then I have several times taken the Pills when run down, and have always been greatly benefited by them."

For the after effects of fevers and all wasting diseases there is no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They enrich the blood, build up the nervous system, restore the appetite and bring back complete health and strength. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Same Teeth. Among some recruits waiting to be passed by the doctor for a Tyne-side battalion was a miner from a local colliery, a fine strapping youth, who had a good many had been examined it came to Georgie's turn, and everyone present thought him a likely recruit. The doctor, after looking at Georgie's teeth remarked sadly:

"I'm sorry, my lad, I cannot pass you; your teeth are too bad."

"Well, if this isn't a lick," replied Georgie. "Ye passed the same teeth yesterday with Bill Smith and we both borrowed them."

Topsy Turvy. "Automobiles are paradoxical machines."

"In what way?"

"You have to get under them to overlook them."

First Long Step Towards Recovery

IS TO FIND IF YOUR SYMPTOMS ARE OF KIDNEY DISEASE.

Kent County Lady Did This—Then She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Was Cured.

Upper Boutouche, Kent Co., N. B., May 31st (Special).—Miss Genevieve Bastarache, an estimable lady living near here, is telling her friends of the benefit she has received from Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am indeed happy to be able to state that I have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills," Miss Bastarache says in an interview.

"I was often so feeble I could not work. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I had headaches and cramps in the muscles."

Backache and was always tired and nervous.

"I was in this miserable condition when I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I had not taken two boxes till I felt better, and three boxes cured me."

Miss Bastarache made a long step towards recovery when she discovered that her symptoms were of Kidney Disease. She then had only to use the old reliable Kidney remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, to find a cure. Are your symptoms those of Kidney Disease?

HORSES BOUGHT FOR WAR. European Nations Now Drawing at the Rate of 420,000 a Year.

Though not a year has gone by since the shipment of horses to the European nations was suspended, approximately 250,000 have already been purchased in America. They are now going out at the rate of about 35,000 a month, or 420,000 a year, with no sign of a let up until the war ends, so that anybody can readily see what may happen if the struggle goes on until one side or the other stops from exhaustion. The possibility that we may lose 1,000,000 horses as a result of the conflict is thus rapidly becoming a probability, for everybody seems to be agreed that England, France and Germany must buy a very large number of horses after the war ends to replace those taken from their own people for military purposes.

The record shows that more than 105,000 horses were exported during the first three months of 1915. Later exports are not yet ascertained, but are estimated at 35,000 head a month. The total exports last year were, in round numbers, 32,000 head, as compared with 29,000 head in 1913. Practically all of the horses shipped to Europe last year were purchased for military purposes.

France, England, Italy, Switzerland, Roumania and perhaps other countries, have been among the buyers. It is estimated that they have paid something like $50,000,000 for the horses purchased last year. The fact that the total exports last year were, in round numbers, 32,000 head, as compared with 29,000 head in 1913. Practically all of the horses shipped to Europe last year were purchased for military purposes.

When and How to Eat. Most people eat too frequently, taking four or five or even six meals in the day. Three are ample (writes Dr. A. B. Olsen in Good Health), and there is little doubt but that the vast majority of people would find two meals a day still more satisfactory from the standpoint of health and efficiency. There should be an interval of about five hours between meals so as to give the digestive organs ample opportunity to do their work, and have a brief rest between meals. This is particularly true of the stomach, which should not be kept in a state of constant activity and dilatation during all the waking hours and part of the time allotted to sleep. No food of any kind should be taken between meals. The common habit of taking sweets, cakes, pastries and fruit at any and all times is not conducive to good digestion and sooner or later brings trouble. Adults as well as children very often give way to this habit, but always suffer in consequence sooner or later. Nothing but water or lemonade or some similar drink should be taken between meals. Rapid eating is another common means of encouraging dyspepsia, and would be impossible if people took pains to masticate their food as nature intended. To eat to repletion is a mistake.

The Idea. Many are the changes that have been wrung on the stolen-umbrella joke, and a fresh one has been printed in the Tatler.

On the notice board in an Ipswich reading room there recently appeared the following appeal:

"Will the gentleman who took a horn-handled umbrella from the stand on Wednesday kindly return it to the librarian!" Some one wrote beneath in pencil, "Certainly not; weather still unsettled."

Dad Could Tell. "Where," said the land agent, addressing an audience of possible purchasers, "where else on the face of the globe will you find in one place copper, tin, iron, cotton, hemp, grain, game—"

A voice replied: "In the pockets of a young son."

Head Bookkeeper Must Be Reliable. The chief bookkeeper in a large business house in one of the Western cities speaks of the harm tea and coffee did for him:

"My wife and I drank our first cup of Postum a little over two years ago, and we have used it ever since, to the entire exclusion of tea and coffee. It happened in this way:

"I had an attack of pneumonia, which left me with dyspepsia, or neuralgia of the stomach. My 'cup of cheer' had always been tea or coffee, but I became convinced, after a time, that they aggravated my stomach trouble. I happened to mention the matter to my grocer one day and he suggested that I give Postum a trial.

"Next day it came and we liked it so much that we will never change back; for I am a well man to-day and have used no medicine."

"My work as chief bookkeeper in our Co.'s branch house here is of a very confining nature. During my tea and coffee drinking days I was subject to nervousness and the 'blues' in addition to my sick spells. These have left me since I began using Postum and I can conscientiously recommend it to those whose work confines them to long hours of severe mental exertion."

Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup. "There's a Reason" for Postum.—sold by Grocers.

YOUR SKIN NEEDS FOOD

Is your skin harsh and dry? Are there signs of approaching wrinkles? Are you getting worried about the possible loss of your youthful beauty? Cleopatra of old Egypt fed their skin with a preparation of Oriental oils, the secret of which has been so jealously guarded by succeeding generations that it has only recently come to light.

An occasional application to the face not only feeds the skin and keeps it in the healthiest condition, but it leaves the face much easier to shave. Experience alone proves how much easier.

It is the trade mark name by which this preparation is known and sold by all druggists, wholesale and retail. Unit Mfg. Co., Ltd., 478 Roncesvalles Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Disobedient Children. A systematically disobedient child must be a great trial to its mother, and no one can wonder if she loses patience with it. A child who will not obey is very difficult to train. It is either sullen and sulky, or it flatly refuses to do what it is told. In either case it is useless to try to reason with it—a young child cannot understand a word of the long stream of explanation that flows from its mother's lips. The best thing is to tell the little rebel to do what you wish, "because mother says so." As it grows older it may be reasoned with, and it will understand your words. No parent would tell its child to do impossible or even difficult things; this would be unreasonable and very wrong. Neither should mother or father nag at the child; this will do more harm than good, as the poor little mortal becomes bewildered, and then nervous and frightened. Make it happy while you gently enforce obedience. When you have overcome its obstinate fit a warm kiss and word of approval will not be out of place.

Few men are envied because of their wisdom; many because of their wealth.

Definition of Home. The golden setting, in which the brightest jewel is "mother." A world of strife shut out, a world of love shut in. Home is the blossom of which heaven is the fruit. The only spot on earth where the faults and failings of fallen humanity are hidden under the mantle of charity. The place where the great are sometimes small and the small often great. The father's kingdom, the children's paradise, the mother's world. The jewel casket, containing the most precious of all jewels—domestic happiness. Home is the central telegraph office of human love into which run innumerable wires of affection, many of which, though extending thousands of miles, are never disconnected from the one great terminus.

Diplomatic. "Darling," whispered the ardent suitor, "I lay my fortune at your feet." "Your fortune?" she replied in surprise; "I didn't know you had one." "Well, it isn't much of a fortune, but it will look large beside those tiny feet."

A little learning is seldom as dangerous as a little ignorance.

Husband and Wife Plan Together.

Yes indeed, I do read the woman's department in your paper, as well as the rest of it, and all; writes a correspondent. Anything that can possibly help out in our particular problems is read with interest.

I consider the advs. as instructive as the rest of the paper in their way, and they have introduced me to some of the best articles I have ever used. I am always looking for improvements in everything, and my dependence on your advertising is absolute. My husband and I always go into the minutest details of whatever is to be bought inside and outside the house together. Personally, the articles on convenient kitchens, how to make them so, and better ways of doing work interest me most. As far as my acquaintance goes, the important need of the kitchens of farmers' wives of to-day is a little time and thought in rearranging them so as to do away with miles of steps. The convenient kitchen is the exception rather than the rule, even in many homes that are equipped with labor-saving devices and many luxuries.

Death Nearly Claimed. New Brunswick Lady Was Restored to Her Anxious Family When Hope Had Gone.

St. John, N.B., Dec. 15th.—At one time it was feared that Mrs. J. Grant, of 3 White St., would succumb to the deadly ravages of advanced kidney trouble. "My first attacks of backache and kidney trouble began years ago. For six years that dull gnawing pain has been present. When I exerted myself it was terribly intensified. If I caught cold the pain was unbearable. I used most everything, but nothing gave that certain grateful relief that came from Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Instead of being bowed down with pain, to-day I am strong, enjoy splendid appetite, sleep soundly. Lost properties have been instilled into my blood—cheeks are rosy with color, and I thank that day that I heard of so grand a medicine as Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

Every woman should use these pills regularly because good health pays, and it's good vigorous health that comes to all who use Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills.

Monotonous. "Black specks dance before my eyes, doctor," complained the society patient.

"That is very annoying and monotonous."

"Yes; they never have any new dances."

Mrs. Docherty: "Anything fresh about the war this morning?" Mrs. Malone: "Nothing much," replied Mrs. Malone. "The position is practically stalemate along the whole front." #### Wardsville Wardsville, May 28.—The annual district meeting of the West Middlesex Women's Institute was held in the Music Hall yesterday afternoon, when fully 100 delegates from the different branches were present. Mrs. H. A. Wilson, president of the local branch, delivered a very happy and cordial address of welcome to the visitors and referred to the splendid results accomplished by the society in the community. The district president, Mrs. Mervin, of Mount Brydges, presided with ability and called upon the various representatives, who responded as follows:—Strathroy, Mrs. Douglas; Napier, Mrs. John Hughes; Keweenaw, Mrs. De Gex; Appin, Mrs. Lotan; Mount Brydges, Miss Miriam Kincaid; Newbury, Mrs. Hammett; Middlemiss, Miss Campbell; Gen Oak, Mrs. Fisher; Wardsville, Mrs. John Belton. The reports were very encouraging and received with considerable enthusiasm. Officers for the ensuing year are:—Mrs. (Dr.) Wilson, of Wardsville, president; Mrs. Douglas, of Strathroy, vice-president; and Mrs. Brunt, of Mount Brydges, secretary-treasurer.

The bazaar and concert held in the town hall, on Victoria Day, in connection with the anniversary of the Ladies' Aid was a great success. From the standpoint of receipts, which amounted to $100, it was the most successful of any bazaar held in six years. During the afternoon the ladies sold groceries, dress-goods, fancy-goods, cooking and refreshments. At 4 o'clock the local high school boys played a game of baseball with the Newbury nine, in which the visitors triumphed. In the evening a crowded hall greeted the well-known entertainer, Owen A. Smiley, of Toronto. Good music was provided by local talent.

Many visitors were entertained in Wardsville homes during the recent holiday, among whom were:—Dr. Harry Wilson, of Toronto, with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson; Dr. Leo Glenn, of Detroit, with his brother, Dr. O. J. Glenn; Mrs. Love and Mrs. Bowles, of Aylmer, with Mr. and Mrs. Love, of the Royal Bank; Mr. Gilboa, of Guelph, John H. Brimmon; Mr. F. and Mrs. O. Heath, of Nelles' Corners, with Mr. John Heath; Mr. John Stevely, of London, with Mr. Wm. Sheppard; Mrs. Mac Elliott and children of Dorchester with Mrs. McVicar; W. Jackson, of St. Thomas, with his mother, Mrs. Jackson; Mrs. J. W. Matthews, of Brownsville, with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Downswell.

property of G. Snelgrove. Mr. Snelgrove and family will take up their residence in Goderich.

All Night with Asthma. Everyone knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victim awake the whole night long. Morning finds him wholly unfit for a day of business, and yet business must be carried on. All this night suffering and lack of rest can be avoided by the prompt use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

MIDDLEMISS.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute of Middlemiss was held at the home of Mrs. M. Gentleman on Thursday, May 27th. After the opening exercises roll call was responded to by a few lines on "The Harm of Fault-finding," after which a paper on "Home-making" was given by Mrs. J. M. Nabbs. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

The annual picnic of the institute will be held in Middlemiss the afternoon of June 5th.

THE FLAGGING ENERGIES REVIVED.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parzelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare power, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

Appin

Appin, May 29.—The Women's Institute at its monthly meeting on Thursday decided to send another consignment of jam, maple syrup, marmalade, etc., to the Red Cross for use in military hospitals. #### CAIRO.

Victoria Day passed off pleasantly. The ladies' basket ball team enjoyed a festival in Macaulay's grove, and the young men played baseball during the afternoon.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. R. L. Burr is seriously ill, from a paralytic stroke. Some hope of her recovery is entertained by her friends.

The council met on Saturday, and were favored with a large delegation from the town of Bothwell, representing the municipal and board of trade of that town, who eloquently and forcibly urged the co-operation of the municipality in the work of improving the Bothwell-Florence road by graveling same, intimating their intention of expending a thousand dollars along that line, should the adjoining municipalities and counties of Lambton and Kent supplement by a similar amount each. The council, after considering the matter in its various aspects, replied that the question of drainage and placing the roadway in a proper condition for graveling would receive their serious consideration.

Mrs. J. L. Smith, of Detroit, arrived Saturday evening with the intention of making a brief visit among her many friends.
