NOTHING TO WORRY OVER IN LOCAL INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK

Harvester Firm at Hamilton Cuts Down Work Hours.
 But Brantford Industries are Said to be Alright.

A report came over the wire yesterday that the International Harvester Company of Hamilton had announced a cut down in the hours of work, the 2,500 employees of that big concern being down on five days a week. The reason assigned for the reduction was on account of conditions in the Canadian West. The Courier this morning made inquiries as to the outlook of the business of the big local agricultural implement concern. Mr. Franklin Smith, of the Massey-Harris Company, announced that if men and machinery were available, the Massey-Harris Company could work nights and keep it up until midsummer. The company at present is working under unusual stress. At the Toronto end, the Massey-Harris officials stated that there was no intention of their part to shorten the work-day of their employees because of the western situation. "The fact is," said one official, "we are increasing our staff to meet the demand made on us for machines."
 Enquiry at the big plow factories revealed the fact, however, that conditions in the west were not good, and that the outlook was uncertain. From an authoritative source, the Courier secured the information that collections were poor, and nothing definite could be announced as to the industrial outlook. It is not considered likely, however, that there will be any lay-off of employees.

One Minute Interviews

Assessor Ludlow—"Property values on Market street in the last couple of years have practically doubled. The increase is seen in prices from actual transfers filed recorded."

James Swaisland, Street Railway Conductor—"Some people persist in using green tickets (eight reds for a quarter) when such are only good during certain hours. I always have my watch keeping good time."

Secretary Frank, Water Commission—"We expect Mr. Willis Chipman, expert engineer, in the city this week to go into the advisability of installing Hydro-Electric at the pumping station. Electrical works, of course, would have to be installed."

THE COURIER IS AGAIN A WINNER

The Courier has always contended that Brantford market could not be moved, as it was such by a perpetual deed of trust. It has pointed out that some buildings placed thereon by lease in 1850 had to be removed by order of the court.
 At the Council meeting of the Board of Trade the full finding was recorded, in which the Chancellor of that day says, among other things, that the property in question "was dedicated to the public as a market place" and cannot be used otherwise.
 So the Courier wins again.

DEPUTATION HEARD MONDAY

Property Owners of Bellview Ask for Greatly Needed Improvements

The Township Council met yesterday in Township Clerk Smith's office with Reeve Kendrick in the chair. Present were the Reeve, First Deputy Reeve McCann, 2nd Deputy Reeve Jennings, Councilors, Greenwood and McCann.
 In the afternoon the communications and other matters came up for discussion. A deputation consisting of Messrs. J. W. Robertson, E. Bilbo, Lawry, Henderson and McEwen, waited on the Council representing the interests of Parkdale and Bellview. The deputation asked:
 (1) That Statute labor tax collected in School Section 23, be all expensed in fixing up the roads of said section under the supervision of the present commission.
 (2) That the cost of a breakwater and raising the dyke be put on 2 year debentures.
 (3) That the cost of concrete sidewalks be paid on local improve basis, the township to pay one-half, the owner the other half, the terms to be twenty year debentures.
 (4) That nine arc lights of 2,000 candle power be placed at the following corners: 1. Corner Tecumseh and Aberdeen. (2) Baldwin and Cockshutt road. (3) Walker and Cockshutt road. (4) Mintern and Tom Streets. (5) Crandall and Mohawk. (6) Wallace and Gordon. (7) Walter and Welby; 8. Dover and Baldwin; 9. Mintern and Ruth.
 The estimated cost of the above: Breakwater and dyke, $200 per year for 20 years; sidewalks, $5,000; $100 per annum; lights $450; total $1,050.
 The Council were quite favorably to the above recommendations, and while the above improvements may not all be accomplished at once, they will doubtless be in the near future.
 It was moved by J. A. Seace, seconded by R. Greenwood, that leave be given to introduce a by-law for the purpose of naming a concession road between the second and third concessions, and that By-law 646 for that purpose be read.
 By-law 646 of the Corporation of the Township of Brantford, to fix name of concession road between second and third concession was carried.

The Ball Gets Rolling.
 The start of the affair was innocent enough. Mr. Louis Stander appeared before the Council, to complain of certain remarks made at the last council meeting relative to his emoluments as interpreter at the police court. He was at the outset told by Ald. Hollinrake that certain statements which had been credited to himself had been accurately reported. Ald. Hollinrake remarked that what he had said was that Mr. Stander was responsible for a lot of cases which came into the police court.
 "Well, that's all the same," submitted the foreign missionary. He hinted that his work was among foreigners, he was a missionary and made a report yearly of his work to the board. He found employment for hundreds, and if one man could be found from whom he took money in this regard he would give dollar for cent. Ninety per cent. of the cases in the police court he knew nothing about, but he was called from his home at all hours of the night in connection with bail proceedings and he got no money. He would have been glad if such statements had been made outside of the council so that he could have had a chance to defend himself. As far as his police court income was concerned he would be glad to get out of it.

Canadian Parliament Sleepy To-Day---Obstructionists Are Doing Their Level Best

Laurier Party Endeavoring to Thwart Passage of Naval Bill, and House of Commons Sits All Night---They Are Still At It, and May Be For Weeks.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 4.—The Commons did not recess for luncheon today, but will probably rise for two hours from 6 to 8 to-night. There are still no indications of any change in the temper of the House, and the expectation is for a continuous sitting until Saturday night, with a resumption of the indefinite battle on Monday. The House is simply being entertained to time-killing speeches. Sleeping accommodation for members is being improvised in the various rooms.
 (Courier Leased Wire).
 OTTAWA, March 4.—Parliamentary events of last night and this morning indicate that the crucial struggle on the navy bill has been entered upon and that the opposition is determined to go beyond all precedent in a fight to force the government to the country. The sitting of the House which began yesterday afternoon is expected to last day and night without a break for days and perhaps weeks unless physical endurance gives out. The opposition is dead set in its intention to exert the wearing down process and the government equally determined to see the struggle through to a finish. The situation shows all signs of an historic political contest.
 The first real sign of the marshalling of forces came in the early hours of this morning when Sir Wilfrid Laurier moved his amendment and the front bench forces of the opposition took their places. On the Government side they were headed by Hon. J. D. Hazen, as leader, supported by Hon. George H. Peley, Hon. Martin Burrell, Hon. Bruno Nantel and such stalwarts as Middleboro, Edwards, Frupp and Boyce.
 At the breakfast hour the first watch was replaced by a fresh relay and so it continued all forenoon, the government always on the alert with speakers to hold the fort until a majority could be mustered in the event of a snap division being attempted. In support of his amendment in the Commons, this morning the appropriation of $35,000,000 to be used for the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service in co-operation with and close relation to the Imperial navy, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he saw with the approaching abrogation of the treaty with Japan an imminent danger to Canada on the Pacific Coast. It was there that the Canadian naval service was to be developed, and it was there that Mr. Borden declared that the money was not being given to Britain, but was to be expended upon the construction of ships to aid in the general defence of the Empire. The vessel had completely ignored the Admiralty's memorandum. Every Liberal had voted for clause 2 of his bill. Mr. Borden deprecated the idea that Canada required a fleet on the Pacific Coast. The Admiralty could send one of its lesser warships to the defence of that coast if necessary and could retain its largest ships in the decisive theatre, the North Sea.
 At three o'clock Hon. Rodolph Lemeux took up the discussion. He quoted an editorial from the Ottawa Citizen, headed "Fright and Finance," which coincided with Mr. Monck's views as to the incentive to this frenzied war preparation. He reminded the House that this was from the organ of the Government in the capital of the country.
 He declared himself in favor of the Anglo-Saxon principle of self-government. He was followed by Hon. Mr. Emmerson.
 Mr. Emmerson was followed by Mr. MacKenzie of Cape Breton, Mr. W. M. German of Welland and Dr. Clark of Red Deer, who is now speaking. Mr. MacKenzie moved a second amendment to the effect that "this sum be expended in Canada in accordance with the suggestion of the British Admiralty, submitted to the Imperial conference in 1909."

Council Forum Versus Pulpit--Vigorous Defence Put Forth By Ald. Spence re Police Matters

Remarks of Rev. A. E. Lavell Were Not Received Sympathetically by Chairman of Finance Committee--Hottest Session in Months at Council

It was some session! When Ald. John H. Spence turned the guns of defence loose at the City Council meeting last night in regard to criticism directed at certain aldermen who opposed increased police protection expenditures on what was said to be motives, more or less discreditable, the entire council sat up expectantly. The expectations were fulfilled. It is seldom that the City Council proceedings are characterized by such a bombardment as the defence battery manipulated by Ald. Spence gave forth. The attack from the pulpit from the Brant Ave. church recently, Ald. Spence declared was without justice to those attacked. The pulpit was made to resemble a coward's castle when used for such a purpose, as those under fire had no chance to reply. Personally he proposed to use his own "forward's castle" to reply without mincing matters, which was his right by virtue of his aldermanic seat and because he was one of the representatives elected by the people.
 And Ald. Spence thereupon proceeded to reply and mince matters he didn't. Mayor Hartman also followed things up, and endorsed the utterances of the finance chairman in their entirety.
The Ball Gets Rolling.
 The start of the affair was innocent enough. Mr. Louis Stander appeared before the Council, to complain of certain remarks made at the last council meeting relative to his emoluments as interpreter at the police court. He was at the outset told by Ald. Hollinrake that certain statements which had been credited to himself had been accurately reported. Ald. Hollinrake remarked that what he had said was that Mr. Stander was responsible for a lot of cases which came into the police court.
 "Well, that's all the same," submitted the foreign missionary. He hinted that his work was among foreigners, he was a missionary and made a report yearly of his work to the board. He found employment for hundreds, and if one man could be found from whom he took money in this regard he would give dollar for cent. Ninety per cent. of the cases in the police court he knew nothing about, but he was called from his home at all hours of the night in connection with bail proceedings and he got no money. He would have been glad if such statements had been made outside of the council so that he could have had a chance to defend himself. As far as his police court income was concerned he would be glad to get out of it.

Some More Volley Fire.
 It was a disgusting disgraceful proceeding, said Ald. Spence, for a member of the pulpit to vilify and utter slanderous language regarding his fellowman. That might seem strong language, and Ald. Spence said he did not want it to go any farther than to the individual to whom it was directed. He had the greatest respect for the Methodist church, among whose members he claimed many of his best friends. But this one individual had to far forgotten himself to hurl insinuations against men of this community.
And Then Some More.
 Ald. Spence asked what was Mr. Lavell's standing. In 1913, he found that Mr. Lavell would contribute the munificent sum of $7.20 towards the upkeep of Brantford. Out of that the sum of 42 cents would go towards the maintenance of the City Hall. He had only been in the city two or three months, and he had no right to insult.

New Athletic Club.
 A new athletic club has been formed in connection with the 25th-Brant Dragoons for the purpose of putting teams in the different lines of sport during the coming summer. A good strong football team will be entered in the city league. The officers chosen were: President, Lieut. Hall; vice-president, R. S. M. Roberts; secretary-treasurer, S. Senog. It is the intention of the club to hold a grand military concert in the Y.W.C.A. the latter part of this month.
St. Jude's A.Y.P.A.
 A very interesting evening was spent in St. Jude's school room yesterday evening, when Mr. D. L. Wright, director of the Academy of Music gave an address on music. He chose for his subject "The Song," dealing with the chief composers of America and the continent. Mr. Wright was ably assisted by the Misses M. O'Grady, E. Senn and O. Burr, who in turn sang songs of the various composers to illustrate their respective styles of composition.

DIVISION COURT CASE OF INTEREST
 An interesting case was tried in the Division Court yesterday, in which Dr. Porter was the plaintiff against C. Cummings, a farmer of Brantford Township. Damages were claimed on the grounds that the plaintiff had been exposed to rabies through the negligence of the defendant. Dr. Porter, it will be remembered, had to go to Toronto a year ago and take the Pasteur treatment. He claimed $60 damages. The case rested on the point as to whether the defendant Cummings had told Dr. Porter that the cow which he had been called upon to treat had been quarantined. Cummings insisted that he had notified Dr. Porter, but the judge accepted the veterinarian's version. A verdict for $55 was given. Mr. W. M. Charlton appeared for Dr. Porter and Mr. M. W. McEwen for Mr. Cummings.

NEGLIGENCE IS CHARGED

Victims in Wabash Wreck Yesterday Make Complaint

HAMILTON, Ont., March 4.—Charges of negligence and poor treatment of the victims of the Wabash wreck at Cayuga yesterday morning were made to-day by people who figured in it. P. H. Hamilton, of Baltimore, one of those who were badly hurt, claimed that before Cayuga was reached there was trouble with the flanges under one of the coaches. He said that a stop was made to repair this and the train crew, instead of putting this coach on the rear of the train, left it near the front, where it was sure to cause a serious accident if the flange gave way. Mr. Hamilton claims that instead of only twenty people being hurt that fully fifty were more or less injured.
 "The wreck," he said, "occurred just within a short distance of the trestle. Had it taken place there, I guess none would have been left to tell the story. The coaches turned completely over twice. The hero of the occasion was Evans, the colored porter. His face was split open, but he worked like a trojan to help the passengers."
 Mr. Hamilton told a stirring story of the hardship the passengers endured until farmers went to their assistance.

Many Families Still Living in Same Domicile.
 Property transfers in Brantford during the month of February showed an appreciable increase in number as compared with February a year ago. Last month there were 51 transfers, as compared with 40 a year ago. The assessment department yesterday received the returns from the Registry Office in order to make the necessary changes on the assessment books. The local assessors are beginning to encounter the same difficulties as other civic assessors complain of, namely the practice of parties to real estate deals having the same registered at the nominal purchase price of $1. This, of course, is in order to keep the price secret between the parties and to prevent the assessors from getting a line on the value as shown in an actual purchase.
 From what can be learned there is nothing to fear either in the real estate or building outlook here this year. The Courier was informed by a local dealer that there were not over 50 vacant houses in the city. The assessors state from their knowledge of actual conditions that there are more than 300 families residing in one domicile in Brantford at the present time. They are living "doubled up." The opinion was expressed that there are by no means enough houses in the city, and that things will have to adjust themselves in due course. With labor admittedly scarce, there is bound to be an influx of people here this year, and both real estate and building will receive an added impetus. Viewed all round Brantford is bound to have another big year.

WILSON MADE THE BIG BOSS

Inauguration Proceedings in Washington Capital To-Day
 WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Woodrow Wilson became president of the United States to-day amid imposing ceremonies and tumultuous scenes of popular greeting. Standing at the historic east front of the capitol he took the constitutional oath of office and in his brief inaugural address made a fervid appeal to all patriotic men for counsel and aid.
 "This is not a day of triumph," he declared. "It is a day of declaration. Here muster, not the forces of party but the forces of humanity. Men's hearts wait upon us; men's lives hang in the balance; men's hopes call upon us to say what we will do. Who shall live up to the great trust who dares fail to try? I summon all honest men, all patriotic, all forward looking men to my side. God helping me, I will not fail them, if they will but counsel and sustain me."
 Vice-President Marshall had been inaugurated in the Senate chamber only shortly before and at the conclusion of President Wilson's inaugural address, the party hurried back to the White House, ahead of the inaugural procession, where Mr. Taft said good-bye to President Wilson and prepared to leave at once for Augusta, Ga. President Wilson shortly afterward took his place to review the procession.
 The speech of President Wilson appears in full on page 10 of this issue.
 A burst of cheering greeted the President's declaration. "Our work at the work of restoration," and it swelled into cheers and hats were thrown in the air when he said, "I stifle my cuts—no air from our proper part in the commerce of the world, violates the justness of taxation and makes the government a facile instrument in the hands of the private interests."
 From time to time as the president spoke the sun peeped from behind the clouds and shed a feeble light on the scene. A moment later the crowd voiced its approval in cheers at his declaration that "justice and only justice shall always be our motto."
 William J. Bryan was the first man to shake hands with the President. He then shook hands with Mr. Taft.

NEW DISCOVERY QUICKLY CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses Are Taken.

If you are bothered with backache or rheumatism, have disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with—or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon, no matter what else may have failed to cure you.

It is a positive fact that the new discovery Croxone, promptly overcomes such diseases. It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for ridding the cause and curing the troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder; and puts the kidneys and urinary organs in a clean, strong healthy condition.

More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate long standing cases, while it cures the most severe forms of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism in a surprisingly short time.

You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle at any first class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Mr. Danny McLean of Stayner, formerly of the "Waterons Engine Works office staff, and once a well-known member of the Brantford lacrosse club, is a welcome visitor in town. Mr. McLean, who left Brantford on account of his health, looks well.

Amongst the party of Lake Erie and Northern engineers who started for work with headquarters at Port Dover, this morning, were the Messrs T. A. and W. G. Palmer, Bertram Waterous, Donald Waterous, W. L. Sanders, J. Blakney, and W. Creasor. They will make a survey of the harbor.

A special train carrying between two hundred and two hundred and fifty of the Elgar Choir people of Hamilton, passed through here yesterday, via T. H. and B. en route for Detroit, where last night they gave a concert to an appreciative audience, returning to Hamilton again this morning.

Another very generous donation to the Tuberculosis hospital is the gift of twenty-five or thirty feather pillows from the Moyle-Tranquility branch of the Women's Institute. Seven beautiful large ones having already been received and the balance to follow in due time. Brantford and Paris branches have also signified their intention to assist in a very material manner.

At the conclusion of Saturday's meeting of the Literary Club in connection with the Y.W.C.A., the members were delightfully entertained by Mrs. James Cockburn and Miss Bella Watt at afternoon tea in the Club Rooms of the association—a hospitality originated by Mrs. Lloyd Harris the beginning of the season and since then extended by various members.

Teachers' Association Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Brantford teachers took place yesterday at the Ryerson school. They were given an address of welcome by one of the pupils of the school.

The new president, Miss Hollinrake filled the chair in a very efficient manner. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Miss E. Healey, after which the regular business was proceeded with.

Miss Pelling, Miss Hegman and Mr. Dickson were appointed delegates to the annual meeting of the O. E. A., Toronto.

Mr. Ryerson, chairman of the School Board was present and gave a short address, assuring the teachers of the good-will of the Board.

Miss Perly gave a very interesting paper on "Canadian poets and authors."

The teachers responded to the roll call by quotations from Canadian poets.

Solos were rendered by Miss Hurley and one of the school boys in very pleasing style and an instrumental solo by Miss Rowe which was much enjoyed.

All then proceeded to the kindergarten room, where after a guessing contest, a dainty lunch was served by several of the little school girls, who were prettily attired in white.

The Ryerson teachers are to be congratulated upon the splendid manner in which they entertained the association.

LAUGHTER LINES.

A minister in a Highland parish found on arriving at church one Sunday that only "worshipper" had braved the elements. Mounting the pulpit-stairs the minister looked down on John, who was more noted for his gruff out-spokenness than his piety and said:

"Will I give you the sermon in Gaelic or in English?"

A Bargain Crush.

Louisville Courier-Journal: Some suffragettes in proud array Were having a parade one day. A drygoods store hung out this sign—

$2 silks, $1.00.

What is the age of the earth? An answer to this question, which has baffled human intellect since the beginning of thought, was attempted in a lecture given recently before the Paris Astronomical Society by M. Jean Bosler, one of the most distinguished scientists of Europe. After running over the older methods of attacking the problem, based on the evidence of sediment in river beds and saltiness of the sea, and showing that the results of these dated the origin of the globe not less than one hundred million years ago, M. Bosler made statements of the greatest scientific importance based on the evidence of radio-activity in rocks.

He pointed out that if uranium for instance, gives out helium at a speed which can be determined, the presence of these two elements in the same rock gives the latter's age as soon as the relative quality of each is measured. Investigating along these lines, it has been calculated that a specimen of primary igneous rock examined in the Paris laboratories originated as far back as 710,000,000 years ago.

Another series of investigations which has been utilized in attacking the problem is connected with the microscope colored circles found imbedded in primitive granites and other rocks. These, which have for a long while received no explanation, prove to be the efflorescence of the "alpha" rays from minute specks of zirconium, and it is certain that millions of centuries have elapsed while the rays have been penetrating the surrounding rock. Altogether, the lecturer declared, we should be wrong in regarding the world as less than a thousand million years old.

In conclusion, M. Bosler dwelt on the light which these facts throw on the origin of the sun. If the solar heat is only due, as has been thought for the last twenty years, to the concentration of its mass, the sun cannot be more than twenty million years old. But since this would make it an infant, compared with the earth, its energy must have some other origin. But what? Whether

Trying to Locate.
A small circus, which travels under the name of Wortham & Allen, is endeavoring to locate in Brantford for a week this summer, but as the big carnival week with the Ferris United Shows is booked here for July 7-12, it is not likely that arrangements of any kind will be offered to get the circus.

Denies It.
Ald. J. H. Minshall denies that he ever made any charges against Mr. Lewis Stander, as reported in the Council proceedings two weeks ago. Apparently the Ward Two representative was made to say something some other fellow said and Mr. Stander was accordingly heard from last night.

Devotional Exercises.
Starting yesterday, under instructions from the Department of Education, the morning and afternoon sessions of the various classes at the Collegiate Institute are opened and closed with prayer and a short bible reading. Catholic students are allowed to absent themselves from these exercises if they so desire.

Black Fox Industry.
A promoter was in the city yesterday selling shares in a black fox ranch in Prince Edward Island—the industry which reads like a fairy story, but which has been returning dividends in some cases of forty and more per cent. A pair of black foxes readily sell for $10,000. He placed quite a number of shares here. The black fox craze threatens to cut Cobalt Cobalt in the camp's palmy days of some eight or nine years ago.

Liquor Restriction.
A leading Brantford hotelkeeper in conversation with a Courier man today, stated that after thoroughly considering the question he was not so very much opposed after all to the proposed Ontario legislation to restrict the bars to a business of twelve hours, viz: from 8 o'clock in the morning till 8 o'clock in the evening. He did object however, to a law calling for them to close at noon on Saturday. This he thought was altogether too arbitrary.

Permits Issued.
A permit has been issued at the City Engineer's office to Brewster and Company, for the repairing of damages done to the place of business caused by the recent fire. The cost of repairing the store will run in the neighborhood of $1,500.

OBSTRUCTION IS STILL THE GAME

OTTAWA, March 4—The time-wasting tactics which so far have been the only fulfillment of the promise that the Opposition would fight the Naval Aid Bill...

The House went back into Committee on the Naval Bill last night, and took up the second clause, appropriating the thirty-five millions.

The House settled down for a night of this sort of thing, the Government in the determination that some progress should be made, and the Opposition disposed to delay the passage of appropriation.

Whatever the outcome of the first day, the prospect of getting the bill through the committee inside of a week or ten days is still fairly bright.

Mr. Verclive, the Liberal-Labor member for Maisonneuve, objected to the statement in a Conservative newspaper that his sub-amendment to the naval resolution calling for a plebiscite on the defence question had been inspired by Mr. Henri Bourassa.

ROUTINE AT CITY COUNCIL

Reports of Interest Submitted at Last Night's Session—Some Discussion.

The main feature of the routine work of the city council last evening was the insistence of Ald. J. H. Spence that a juvenile court in Brantford, under the auspices of the Children's Aid Society, would prove a good thing.

The Board of Works report was submitted as follows: That the letter of the City Engineer to the City Clerk of Feb. 24th, Mohawk street, roadway between the Waterous Engine Works Co. and the T. H. & B. Railway station, and roadway at the G. T. R. Ry station, be referred to the city clerk with instructions to collect amounts due city, and that those streets and roadways be added to the next street watering by-law.

That the request of the city teamsters for an increased rate of pay of 5 cents per hour be granted, they to furnish good horses and dump wagons.

That the following communications be referred to the City Solicitor: E. R. Read, of Dec. 11th, 1912, re. F. J. Hartley; J. W. Bowby, of Jan. 24th, re. Harding; Geo. Cowell of Jan. 16th, and Feb. 5th; Brantford Transfer Co., of Jan. 30th; Brewster and Hevd of Feb. 1st, re. Roy Murray.

The report was carried. Finance Committee Ald. Spence submitted the following report of the finance committee which, after some discussion, was carried:

It Builds up the System

It is not only disagreeable, but positively alarming, when you feel thinner and weaker from day to day. This indicates that the digestive system is failing to supply the nourishment required to maintain health and strength.

You must resort to other means of restoring strength, and in this connection there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to form new rich blood, revitalize the wasted nerves and restore to the digestive system its natural functions.

Mr. Fred Carstens, Farmer, Laird, Sask., writes: "I was very thin and nervous, and as I was continually growing worse, decided to give Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a trial. I would suffer from headaches and indigestion, was easily worried and excited and felt generally run down. The benefit obtained from this food cure has been very marked, and I recommend it with the greatest confidence to persons who are thin, weak and nervous."

Brantford Red Sox Will Open at Ottawa May 15th.

Canadian League Season Starts May 7th With Ottawa on the Road for Three Series—No Word From Jimmy Louden.

Says the Ottawa Free Press: "The first appearance of the Canadian League champions on home dirt will be May 15, when Amby Kane's fast Brantford Red Sox will be here to open up the baseball season locally. Prior to that date, however, the Senators will be in action for seven games, gradually working their way east. Ottawa opens at Brantford on May 7th, and will play all three series on the road before hitting the Capital. Just at present it looks as if the spring training process will take place at Fort Wayne, Indiana. Chatham hasn't a skinned diamond and Shaughnessy says it is useless to work an infield over a grass diamond and get them in shape. He figures his opening dates on the road will be stiff engagements and wants to break from the barrier in the pink. If Fort Wayne is decided upon the candidates will use the Central League Park there, which is one of the finest on the continent. There is a great deal of discussion around town about the probability of Shaughnessy being in charge of the local club this season. The Fort Wayne and Ottawa Clubs have not yet closed the deal for the big fellow and quite a few fans are preparing to wager Shag will be missing when the bell rings. His presence here would mean a great boost to the

GIANT CATCHER RAISES MULES

Arthur Wilson, the Giants' second catcher—a man who would be the first backstop were it not for the solid substance Big Injun Meyers—has embarked on a new business—that is, new for a ball player. Together with his brother, he has purchased a mule ranch in New Mexico, and now rides hard on his long eared charges. Mr Wilson brands as erroneous the general idea that he thought the mules so that he could take lessons in kicking. While it is true that he has named eight of the mules, Klem, Johnstone, Ortl, Iason, Brennan, Rigler, Emshie and Finerman, Arthur asserts that nothing personal was intended—he merely wished to name the creatures after dear friends whom he respects and admires above all others. The sturdy catcher, when not ball playing or muling, resides in Decatur, Ill., where he has sundry business interests and a large red automobile. He is popular in Decatur, where he first broke into professional ball.

SPORTING COMMENT

By FREE LANCE

It has come to our ears recently that a very estimable lady of Brantford, and a pillar in one of the local churches, objects to baseball because she says there is gambling attached to the game. Right here we want to say that the game is greatly misunderstood by the very people who should understand it most. Taking the suggestion to the very place where one might think adequate proof is the big cities of the United States, what do we find? If an attendant at a ball game at the Polo grounds, in New York endeavours to make a bet what happens? He is taken by the shoulder and put out of the grounds. It is the same all over the circuit. The author ventures the opinion that there was more gambling in the old days on one of the big lacrosse games in Brantford than there has been on organized baseball during the entire two years of its existence here. We don't blame the estimable lady for her opinion. In fact, baseball when it comes to the elevening and a home player wins the game with a home run, isn't by any means a thimble party. It is vociferous, believe us! But it is not the false excitement resulting from gambling. It is civic pride and the real Canadian spirit of winning under fair conditions which asserts itself in the loud acclamations from everyone in the grand stand. Oh! what's the use, bring on the weather.

TORONTO RUGBY AND ATHLETIC CLUB WINS O. H. A. SENIOR HONORS

St. Michaels Were Beaten Last Night, Losing Out on the Round by 10-8—London Beat Berlin.

TORONTO, March 4.—To Toronto Rugby and Athletic Association go the honors of winning this year's senior O.H.A. championship, but St. Michael's the runners-up, while being beaten on the ground by 10 to 8 showed conclusively last night that they were as good as the T. R. and A. A. when they defeated the champions by 6 to 3 in a regular battle royal, where the issue was in doubt until the final whistle blew. St. Michael's with their customary burst of speed and scoring ability in the early part of the game, had three of the five goals back on the ground in the first sixteen minutes but it took them 41 minutes to tally the other three, the final score being made by St. Michael's with three minutes to go. St. Michael's had a made on the T. R. and A. A. last night, so far as the number of shots and A. A. were very unequal in their shooting, as on nine different occasions during the match, three of which were in the first half. T. R. and A. A. forwards were right inside the defence and on top of Thompson, but they either shot wide or were blocked by him. St. Michael's also had chances in the second half, but not so many as T. R. and A. A., although Addison made brilliant saves by going out to meet the shot and deflecting the shot when a score seemed imminent. Addison was bombarded more throughout the evening than Thompson, but both were in rare form, and it was due to their goal that the score on both sides was not larger. With Lafamme back in the game St. Michael's went on the ice with a lot of confidence, and for a time it looked as if they might overcome the five goal margin, especially after they had scored the first three goals of the evening. However, three goals was the most they could forge ahead, and at one stage it looked as if they wouldn't have this margin, let alone win, for with eight minutes to play they only led 4 to 3. Thus it can be seen that the T. R. and A. A. were not in much danger of losing the championship as four goals in eight minutes looked an impossible task, especially up against such a strong defence as T. R. and A. A. The latter did not show the team work last night that they displayed in the first contest, the players, especially in the first half, resorting to individualism, with flashes of combination, the latter efforts taking them three times inside St. Michael's defence, to meet an unlicked ending. They performed much better the second half, and kept up their record of not being outscored by any team in the last half this season.

RING NEEDS MORE MEN OF WILLIE RITCHIE TYPE

As well as being a champion of the lightweight kind, Willie Ritchie is about as fine a little gentleman as ever took up the Queensbury game for livelihood. None of that old swagger so prominent with the average prize ring exponent is noticeable in the manner of Ritchie. Instead a gladsome smile and good humor linger in its place. It is just like one person remarked who had seen and talked to Ritchie: "I don't believe he realizes he is champion of the whole world." Willie is just the sort of a gentleman one can meet every day in the professional walks of life, from a always are endeavoring to drive the bears but few remarks of the prize ring, rarely talks about his vocation, but always is willing to tell of some humorous incident in his young life. Were there more like Ritchie the sport would not be harassed on all sides by reformers who practically always are endeavoring to drive the game out of existence. Ritchie's rise to the pinnacle of greatness in the world of fistiana has been a remarkable one, yet the wonderful success he attained hasn't gone to his head and caused him to ignore the rules of nature by carousing in the bright lights where the sparkling nectar and long hours prevail. Ritchie's foremost dissipation is eating, and in that he drives his manager, Billy Nolan, nearly to distraction. Willie has the appetite of a country lad you see, pictured on advertisements in the street cars. He's got a way of fooling Nolan too. Willie likes to sit down to a dinner of five or six courses and pretend that he thinks each one is the last one, and neither than leave some, finishes it. When the next course is served he does the same stunt.

May Sign With St. Thomas. ST. THOMAS, March 3.—Frank Ambusteer, crack batter of Philadelphia, has offered his services to the St. Thomas Baseball Club, and also those of an unnamed pitcher. This battery has performed together in the Virginia and Tri-State Leagues, and are willing to perform for the Saints providing they are granted sufficient salaries. Manager George Ort has the matter in hand.

PETERBORO, March 4.—Harry Brant, who played shortstop for the White Caps and has been a hold-out, returned his signed contract yesterday. Outfielders Beard and Swartz, Pitchers Tracey and Hanson, Catcher Shea and First Baseman Barthold, who will be manager, have also signed.

With the pick of last season's players and the new material being secured by Manager Barthold, the local directors anticipate being well up in the league race.

HAL CHASE LOST HIS PET GLOVE

Highlanders' Crack First Baseman Meets Disaster

Something which may result in nothing short of a calamity befel Hal Chase, the Yankee first baseman, before he sailed for Bermuda last week. On the way to the boat Chase lost his suit case and nothing has been heard of it since. On his way to Pier 42 Chase made a few stops along the way to say good-bye to friends. Somehow and somewhere Hal left his suit case behind him, and therein are many valuable and rare objects of baseball art. In the case was Hal's baseball suit, which he expected to wear to-morrow morning when he gets his first workout. As there are no extra suits in the party Chase will have to wait until the other members of the club go to Bermuda next Saturday. Another big loss was Chase's glove. A ball player doesn't think any more things of his gold. He usually guards it as he does his right eye. For ball tossers are superstitious, and once they get used to a glove they think that they cannot play with any other. So unless Chase's suitcase is found and shipped to Bermuda Hal will have to break in a new mitt, an incident which is likely to make him sorrowful for the rest of the summer.

Horse Notes

That people want racing is shown by the activity in legislative circles. There is talk of Cleveland trying a two weeks' meeting in the grand circuit. Baron Wilkes, now 31 years old, is nearing the end, having failed very much this winter. Harry Gray has been promised a number of horses which he will train on the half-mile track at Toledo. The American Horse Breeders' futurity will be raced at the Buckingham Park (Salena) meeting again this year. One of the recent recruits to the Snow stable at Hornell, N.Y., is the pacer, Flaget, 2:21, by Onward Silver. Canadians are getting tired of the fussing of the trotting associations and propose to have one of their own before long. Benny Boy, 2:17 1/2 and John Gates, 2:19 1/4 are recent additions to the Murphy stable at Poughkeepsie, which numbers 45 head. The stable which Haxis James will campaign in the grand circuit is supposed to be on the way from Pleasanton to Memphis. At the rate he has been buying mares in the last six months, Mr. Billings will have a pretty fair breeding establishment in a few years. For some reason unknown to the average mortal the new half-mile track at North Randall was refused dates by the Lake Circuit. Continued on Page Nine

Lady Marjorie's Love

"Wait a year or so," she said slowly, in a tone of thoughtful consideration. "But that I gather is only if his brother succeeds in getting some post for him. That is what you said is it not?"

"Yes."

"And if he does not succeed the delay will be longer, I conclude, will it not?"

"I suppose so, Fenella. I suppose it must be. You know as much as I do. I have said you all the said."

She said wearily, spiritlessly, the flame died out of her cheeks. She had expected a sneer, and had been stung up, combative, ready to fire, but the Countess's tone was quite free from anything of that kind.

"We will put it at the best and say a year," she proceeded calmly. "It is rather a long time, considering already, but if you are willing to wait, and Mr. Bligh says that to do so is unavoidable—it closes that aspect of the matter. But as I consider myself in some sense responsible for you, I should like to know what you intend to do in the interval."

"To do," echoed the girl. She was standing and had lifted Jack, but now she let him slip through her arms to the ground, and turned her startled eyes towards her stepmother. "To do, Fenella?"

"My dear, surely it is a natural question to ask!" The Countess, having some feeling, was not comfortable as she met the bewildered wonder of her stepdaughter's eyes. But she had never for a moment intended to be saddled with either the companion-ship or the support of her husband's daughter once she quitted Castle Marling, and she was not quick enough to falter in her resolution now merely because the girl had big eyes and a pale little face and looked scared. She rallied and settled herself in her chair.

Marjorie stood and looked at her as still as a stone. The prospect of poverty did not terrify her; its results had not so far been forced upon her; penniless, all the attributes of wealth had surrounded her; it had been vague, intangible. But now it seemed that the whole world gaped a terrible void; homeless, homeless, she shrank back as far from the black mouth of a chasm, shuddering and abashed. She had said to Loftus that

ARE YOU AS WELL AS A YEAR AGO?

Ask yourself the important question whether you are as strong as you were a year ago, as bodily fit as you should be. Many a reader has you confessed "No." Some weakening ailments had during the past year laid hold of the system, unfitting you for the duties of life and seriously clouding the outlook of the coming days.

Inaugural Speech

Of President Wilson Delivered at Washington to-day—Full Text of a Brief But Well Thought Out and Significant Address.

(Courier Leased Wire). WASHINGTON, March 4.—The inaugural speech as delivered by Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States to-day was as follows: There has been a change of government. It began two years ago when, the House of Representatives became Democratic by a decisive majority. It has now been completed. The Senate about to assemble will be Democratic. The offices of President and Vice-President have been put into the hands of Democrats. What does the change mean? That is the question that is uppermost in our minds to-day.

More Than Party Success. It means much more than the mere success of a party. The success of a party means little except when the nation is using that party for a large and definite purpose. No one can mistake the purpose for which the nation now seeks to use the Democratic party. It seeks to use it to interpret a change in its own plans and point of view. Some old things which we had begun to feel familiar, and which had begun to creep into the very habit of our thought and of our lives, have altered their aspect as we have latterly looked critically upon them, with fresh, awakened eyes; have dropped their disguises and have shown themselves alien and sinister.

Life Is Very Great. We see in many things that life is very great. It is incomparably great in its material aspects, in its body of wealth, in the diversity and sweep of its energy, in the industries which have been conceived and built up by the genius of individual men and the limitless enterprise of groups of men. It is great, also, very great, in its moral force. No where else in the world have noble men and women exhibited in more striking forms the beauty and energy of sympathy and helpfulness and counsel in their efforts to rectify wrong, alleviate suffering, and set the weak in the way of strength and hope.

Evil With the Good. But the evil has come with the good; and much fine gold has been corroded. With riches has come inexcusable waste. We have squandered a great part of what we might have used, and have not stopped to conserve the exceeding bounty of nature, without which our genius and enterprise would have been worthless and impotent, according to the careful, shamefully prodigal as well as admirably efficient. We have been proud of our industrial achievements, but we have not hitherto stopped thoughtfully enough to count the human cost, the cost of lives snuffed out, of energies overtaxed and broken, the fearful physical and spiritual cost to the men and women and children upon whom the dead weight and burden of it all has fallen pitilessly the years through. The groans and agony of it all had not yet reached our ears, the solemn, moving undertone of our life, coming up out of the mines and factories and out of every home where the struggle had its intimate and familiar seat. With the great government went many deep secret things which we too long delayed to look into and scrutinize with candid, fearless eyes. The great government we loved has too often been made use of for private and selfish purposes, and those who used it had forgotten the people.

At Last a Vision. At last a vision has been vouchsafed us of our life as a whole. We see the bad with the good, the debased and decadent with the sound and vital. With this vision we approach new affairs. Our duty is to cleanse, to reconsider, to restore, to correct the evil, without impairing the good; to purify and humanize every process of our common life without weakening or sentimentalizing it. There has been something crude and heartless and unfeeling in our haste into success and in our pride. Our thought has been "Let every man look out for himself, let every generation look out for itself, while we reared giant machinery which made it impossible that any but those who stood at the levers of control should have a chance to look out for themselves. We had not forgotten our morals. We remembered well enough that we had set up a policy which was meant to serve the humblest as well as the most powerful, with an eye single to the standards of justice and fair play, and remembered it with pride. But we were very heedless and in a hurry to be great.

Things to be Altered. We have itemized with some degree of particularity the things that ought to be altered and here are some of the chief items: A tariff which cuts us off from our proper part in the commerce of the world, violates the just principles of taxation, and makes the government a facile instrument in the hands of private interests; a banking and currency system based upon the necessity of the government to sell its bonds fifty years ago and perfectly adapted to concentrating cash and restricting credits; an industrial system which take it on all its sides, financial as well as administrative, holds capital in leading strings, restricts the liberties and limits the opportunities of labor, and exploits without renewing or conserving the natural resources of the country; a body of agricultural activities never yet given the efficiency of great business undertakings or served as it should be through the instrumentality of science taken directly to the farm, or afforded the facilities of credit best suited to its practical needs; watercourses undeveloped, waste places unrecaptured, forests unattended, fast disappearing, without plan or prospect of renewal, unregarded waste heaps at every mine. We have studied, as perhaps no other nation has, the most effective means of production, but we have not studied cost or economy as we should either as organizers of industry, as statesmen, or as individuals.

Individual Right. These are some of the things we ought to do, and not leave the others undone, the old-fashioned, never-to-be-neglected, fundamental safeguarding of property and of individual right. This is the high enterprise of the new day; to lift everything that concerns our life as a nation to the light that shines from the hearthfire of every man's conscience and vision of the right. It is inconceivable that we should do this as partisans; it is inconceivable that we should do it in ignorance of the facts as they are or in blind haste. We shall restore, not destroy. We shall deal with our economic system as it is and as it may be modified, not as it might be if we had a clean sheet of paper, to write upon; and step by step we shall make it what it should be, in the spirit of those who question their own wisdom and seek counsel and knowledge, not shallow self-satisfaction or the excitement of excursions whither they cannot tell. Justice, and only justice, shall always be our motto.

The Nation Stirred. And yet it will be no cool process of mere science. The nation has been deeply stirred, stirred by a solemn passion, stirred by the knowledge of wrong, of ideals lost, of government too often debauched and made an instrument of evil. The feelings with which we face this new age of right and opportunity sweep across our heart-strings like some air out of God's own presence, where justice and mercy are reconciled, and the judge and the brother are one. We know our task to be no mere task of politics, but a task which shall search the need of our people, whether we be able to understand our time and the need of our people, whether we be indeed their spokesmen and interpreters, whether we have the pure heart to comprehend and the rectified will to choose our high course of action.

From a Man Who Knows. From the Magdalen Islands, away down among the fogs of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, comes a letter from a man who knows that Dr. Chase's Ointment is not only a relief but also a positive cure for protruding piles. Too many make the mistake of stopping this treatment when relief is obtained, when by persistence, they could be entirely cured. Mr. Joseph Meuse, Grand Entry, Madaalen Islands, writes: "After using Dr. Chase's Ointment as a treatment for piles I must say that it did not only relieve me but has effected a cure. I had protruding piles for a number of years. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me and I have had no return of the ailment. You may publish this statement, so that it may be the means of helping other sufferers."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Health of the Nation. We have studied and perfected the means by which government may be put at the service of humanity, in safeguarding the health of the nation, the health of its men and its women and its children, as well as their rights in the struggle for existence. This is no sentimental duty. The firm basis of government is justice, not pity. These are matters of justice. There can be no equality or opportunity, the first essential of justice in the body politic, if men and women and children be not shielded in their lives, their very vitality, from the consequences of great industrial and social processes which they cannot alter, control, or singly cope with.

TWENTY YEARS.

Makes a great difference in most women. They are troubled with "nerves", they suffer from backaches, headaches, sleeplessness, a sensation of irritability or twitching, hot flashes, dizzy spells, or many other symptoms of female weakness. The local disorder and inflammation should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and the irregularity and weakness of the female system corrected and strengthened with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The strain upon the young woman or the woman of middle age—upon the nerve and blood forming structures may be too great for her strength. This is the time to take this restorative tonic and strength-giving nerve and regulator. For over forty years sold by druggists for women's peculiar weaknesses and distressing ailments. The one remedy so perfect in composition and so good in curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. The one remedy which absolutely contains neither alcohol nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

Mrs. Scott.

Following letter selected at random from a large number of similar ones and cited merely to illustrate these remarks: "In the winter of 1906, I became greatly run down and irregular. I wrote Mrs. Henry Scott, of Swan Creek, Mich., Route 1, Box 48, a slowly but surely grew worse, and, at last, resolved to apply to the doctor. I was in bed eleven weeks, and got no better. The doctor said I would have to have an operation, but to that I would not listen. My husband purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I started to take this remedy I could not walk across the floor, but after I had taken three bottles I could feel myself gaining, so I dropped the doctor and took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Only for this I would have been dead. I really believe it saved my life. I feel better now than in twenty years."
