LOCAL AND PROVINCE

ACCIDENTS—A horse attached to Geo. H. Gopel's express wagon fell Government street, near Trout brook, the other day...

Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21 1887. From The Daily Colonist, Jan. 20, 1887.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

THE HORSE attached to the Dominion Express Co's express wagon ran away twice yesterday but, fortunately, no damage was done.

WILL RETURN.—It is rumored that several of the Chinamen who were expelled from Vancouver will return in a day or two under the protection of the provincial police.

CHRISTMAS COKE, who visited this city some time ago with his circus troupe, has sold out the business and will enter private life.

APPOINTMENT.—The last issue of the Canada Gazette contains the appointment of Lieut. P. Woodcock, V. R., as captain of the Victoria Rifle Company, vice Capt. R. E. Green, resigned.

POLICE NOTES.—Two Chinamen were arrested yesterday morning and taken to the station charged with cutting down trees on J. D. Pemberton's property. Two others are implicated but escaped.

A FISHY CUSTOMER ARRESTED.—Officer Lynch last night arrested a man named Tom, who was seen in the company of a person of a drunken man while in a cabin. Until the man sobers up the circumstances of the robbery will not be known.

ARTIST.—Miss White shows a couple of landscapes painted in the short space of time in which she has been taking lessons. With further experience she will doubtless attain excellence as an artist.

ROBERT.—The Chinese cook employed by Rev. D. Fraser, Pandora street, left without warning, and it was discovered that two valuable silver spoons and a silver tureen were missing from the quarters, and the company included a cabinet minister and a dozen ladies and gentlemen.

GRAND NAVAL NIGHT.—The amateur night concert of the Victoria Musical Society gave a select performance at the Concordia Hall to-morrow evening. The laughing face of "Bobby A. L." will be produced to the satisfaction of the "Word of Honor." The hall will be beautifully decorated and all who attend may expect to receive a complimentary glass of beer.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.—A very interesting meeting of the mock parliament was held last evening in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. A spirited debate took place over a bill to regulate the liquor trade and the question on being put to a vote of the house, was carried off by a narrow majority.

THE VANCOUVER WHARF.—The following is a rough estimate of the damage done to the wharf by the fire: Rebuilding, $50,000; putting up water pipes, $300; water damage, $1,300. Total loss, $51,600. A meeting of the committee will be held at once to determine what further steps shall be taken in the matter.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Christmas tree entertainment, given in St. John's church schoolroom on Tuesday evening, proved most interesting and enjoyable. A large and crowded, and the children were one and all made happy by the many presents that were distributed.

REPORTED VANCOUVER FAIR.—The Leland house, Vancouver, is in difficulties. Liabilities are stated to be $10,000, with nominal assets of $2,000. Mr. J. S. Leland holds a bill of sale for the furniture and fixtures, and the mortgage on the building, which is a large one.

BRITISH COLUMBIA EXHIBITS.—It turns out that the magnificent vegetables from British Columbia, the sender of which was Mr. W. H. Barker, market gardener, Moberly House, B. C. Some of these specimens were really of mammoth size.

POLICE COURT.—Wm. Setts, on remand, was charged with assault on a woman named Hugh O'Hagan under false pretenses, reserved his defence and was committed to the next morning.

RESCUED FROM A BROTHEL.—On Tuesday afternoon information was received by the police that there was young Chinese girl in one of the Figard street brothel. Officer Lindsay was detailed for the purpose of recovering the girl.

KILLED BY A YOUNG GIRL.—Last Friday night Emma Frischkorn shot and killed Peter Gunderson, a Col umbia river fisherman, near Clifton, twenty miles above Astoria.

FRANKLIN SPROULES' "CHECK."—On Tuesday, Jan. 12.—Franklin Sproules, of the firm of Sproules, who is a brother of Sproules who was hanged in British Columbia, purposes bringing an action against the government to recover $100,000 as compensation for what he claims to be an unjustifiable execution.

AT LOW FIGURES.—The price paid for the steamship "Albatross" by the British Columbia Navigation Company is $240,000.
