Electrification of Ontario's Railways Report Says G.T.R. Nationalization Called For at Hydro Annual Meeting

SIR ADAM ADVOCATES IMMEDIATE BUILDING OF ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Hydro-Electric Association Affirms Faith in Public Ownership and Denounces Pandering to Private Corporations.

"Who are the Bolsheviks of finance?" asked Sir Adam Beck, during the course of a speech yesterday before the members of the Hydro-Electric Railway Association of Ontario, who were in annual meeting at the city hall.

Altho Sir Adam spoke late in the afternoon of the facts he struck against private corporations was the dominant factor in the earlier proceedings of the association.

J. W. Lyon of Guelph, president of the association, said "I have seen the great centre which set the pace in the matter of public ownership. He reviewed the fight and Hydro victories in Hamilton and Guelph, and said that if the latter battle was only a skirmish so far as the powers at Montreal were concerned, they were quite ready to fight for the right."

"Every ratepayer is a stockholder in the radial railways," he declared, "and he should know the value of his investment in the matter of public ownership."

Secretary T. J. Hannigan said it was little good their meeting and passing resolutions if they did not act on them. It was time they quit making excuses for not making progress.

BOOTLEGGERS SHIP STILLS INTO CITY

Blocked by the police in their efforts to smuggle whiskey to Toronto from Montreal, bootleggers, the police say, are endeavoring to ship stills in and manufacture "moonshine" right here. Several stills have been seized during the last week, but according to one of the inland revenue officers who was at West Dundas street station last night the stills seized yesterday on Cinton street by plainclothesmen Ward and Clarkson is the most complete one ever taken possession of here by the police.

Caught at Shed. Last evening a motor car drove to the sheds and the cases were put on, and after the three men had driven a short distance the plainclothesmen pounced upon them. Jacob Greenberg, Charles Teftuppan and Charles Bruner, all living at 5 Cinton street, were arrested, and will appear this morning in police court, charged with a breach of the inland revenue act. The copper boiler in the still outfit would hold 40 gallons. That the prisoners intended labeling their own goods with the best Scotch was evident by the bottle labels and caps seized in the shipment by the police.

FORCE G.T.R. IN TWO WEEKS TO ACCEPT FEDERAL OFFER

Special to The Toronto World. Ottawa, Sept. 4.—Chairman Smithers of the Grand Trunk will be forced within the next fortnight to accept the offer of the government for the system. There is default in the principal and interest of certain bonds of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the nature of the guarantee is such that dividends that have heretofore been paid on certain issues cannot be paid out of earnings and the shareholders' prospects will, therefore, grow less promising as the defaults increase.

ROYAL VISIT AND FINE WEATHER CONTRIBUTE TO UNPARALLELED FIGURES AT THE CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILROAD EXHIBITION

Attendance yesterday 81,000. Total date last year 54,000. Same date last year 1,011,000. Total last year 753,000. All attendance records at the Canadian National Exhibition have been broken since this year, and with a couple of days still to go the million mark has been exceeded. That this result would be attained before the gates closed last night was a foregone conclusion at an early period of the day. The perfect weather settled it. A crowd of goodly dimensions was moving around all day, and it was absolutely certain all along that the million was going to be overtopped, only 70,000 being required to do this. Much gratification was expressed at the exhibition, which has been contributed to by the royal visit, the fine weather and the inimitable efforts of the Exhibition management to provide first-rate attractions.

SUDDEN DECLINE IN CORN PRICES WILL INVESTIGATE LIFE'S NECESSARIES

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The board of commerce is forthwith to investigate profits on necessities of life. According to a ruling of the board today, the special office of the inquiry shall be to accumulate evidence for the purpose of ascertaining what allowance in each case for a locality shall be deemed to be fair profits and to fix a date after which the taking of profits in excess of a rate to be determined shall be deemed unfair, under the laws, orders or regulations.

FLAWS GOVERNMENT FOR DELAYING CURB OF FOOD PROFITEERS

Sinclair Tells Commons No Real Action Yet—Borden Admits Slow Action.

Canadian Press Dispatch. Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The debate on the address already shows signs of weariness. It followed a somewhat perfunctory course during the afternoon sitting of the house today, and at 6 o'clock there was adjournment till the next day. Profiteering and the cost of living, however, came in for some sharp mention. The acting leader of the opposition said that July and August had passed without anything being done under the board of commerce act. With all the investigations of the last three and a half years, Mr. McKenna thought the government should have been ready to reduce the cost of necessities without delay.

Mr. Sinclair also made the charge that the government was running the country into debt at the rate of $50,000 an hour; and waste at the present time was "like a sin against the Holy Ghost."

PRESIDENT OPENS GREAT CAMPAIGN FOR PEACE TREATY

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 4.—In the first speech of his transcontinental tour, President Wilson here today, urged the American people to exert their influence for acceptance by the United States Senate of the peace treaty signed with Germany, and predicted that the senate would ratify the treaty. "When a treaty is accepted," he said, "the men in khaki will never have to cross the seas again, and I say 'when it is accepted' because it will be accepted."

J. T. GUNN DEFENDS STRIKERS' ACTION

Tells Trades and Labor Council, Men Had No Other Alternative.

DEAF TO O. B. U.

Local Labor Men Refuse to Hear One Big Union's Representative.

"Matter of releasing on bail brothers now held here in provincial jail placed in hands of labor of Canada. Joint meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, Central Labor Council, O.B.U. and defence committee unanimously decided to request all to hold protest meeting Sunday next and take a holiday on Aug. 11 if the brothers are not then out; please take steps to put this into effect, and advise all possible."

This telegram, signed by James Law, secretary of the defence committee of Winnipeg, was the cause of heated discussion at the meeting of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council, held at the Labor Temple last night.

W. J. Hevey was of the strong opinion that no good could come out of general strike on the 17th, and that the case of the Winnipeg strike leaders would not be advanced by such an action. "We have protested without result, and by resorting to such an action we could obtain more than we have done," he declared. Mr. Hevey withdrew his motion to the effect that the telegram be placed on the files, in favor of an amendment that it be placed in the hands of the defence committee for their consideration.

Stand criticized by a number of delegates, among them being Louis Bruthwaite, who declared that enough could be stirred up in Ontario to secure the release of the Winnipeg leaders. He condemned the government for their action, which he declared was not British fair play, and drew a picture of the situation in Winnipeg, and the resolution to the effect that the telegram placed in the hands of the defence committee was passed with a majority of one vote.

A communication was also read from Local 2412 of the Carpenters' Union, asking that the One Big Union representative be allowed to address the meeting. As this would mean the rescinding of the action of the previous meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, representative, was not given the platform. This communication was nevertheless roundly discussed with a majority of delegates signifying their approval of allowing the representative to address the meeting.

Workers Not Responsible. Submitting a sheet of letters to bear out his statement that the electric workers were in no way responsible for the strike of that industry on Wednesday, James T. Gunn declared that he did not see the need of the men responsible for the tie-up and incident, the public were put as a result of the action. "Flaming deliberately evaded me on every occasion that I approached him and he now wants me to take the goat. The men were stalled continually, so that their only course was to issue an ultimatum after all other means had failed. That was their position and in my heart I sympathized with them," Mr. Gunn read for the benefit of the meeting no less than six letters from the executive of the Trades Council to the Toronto Street Railway Company, begging for an interview with the company to discuss the situation. The letters, which were dated intermittently from May 11, on July 3, and Mr. Gunn, the conciliation board was approved by the deputy minister of labor, and it was not until Aug. 3 that the company appointed a representative to that board.

A delegate from the Boot & Shoe Union inquired of the speaker why the strike had been called at the inconvenient hour of 5 o'clock, which question was received by loud boozing from those present. Mr. Gunn in answer to the question stated that the reason for the hour chosen was that at that time they could secure the most complete walkout. Herbert Louis replied with the statement that it should be advisable that men should strike when the time was most favorable. The meeting endorsed the action of the electrical employees. James Burke, Herbert Louis and R. C. Brown were elected to represent the council at the convention of the Ontario section of the Canadian Labor Party, to be held in November.

FIVE INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

Ford Car Hits Motor Truck and Overturns It.

An auto accident, in which five persons were injured, occurred on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway near Oakville, about 10.30 yesterday morning. Two cars, a Ford truck, containing ten people, and a Ford touring car, driven by J. A. Clarkson of Brantford, were traveling toward Toronto. It is alleged that Clarkson attempted to pass the truck, driven by Homer Carpenter, Fruitlands, but in doing so struck the left side of the heavier vehicle, causing it to overturn. All the occupants of the truck were thrown out and several sustained cuts and bruises, although only one, Mrs. William Lee, was seriously hurt. Carpenter was taking his friends to the Exhibition when the accident occurred, but this trip is now postponed.

The injured are Mrs. William Lee, who is suffering from concussion; Homer Carpenter, cut and bruised; Mrs. Broughton, Mrs. Saseady, Mrs. Carpenter and Hugh Parker, cut and bruised. Dr. Joyce attended the injured, who were, with the exception of Mrs. Lee, able to proceed to their homes. Major and Mrs. W. F. Eaton opened their house to the victims of the accident, and after Mrs. Lee had been treated by Dr. Joyce gave a car to convey the injured woman to the Hamilton General Hospital.

Neither car was much damaged by the collision and Clarkson was allowed to continue his journey to Toronto.

LESLIE PLAYGROUNDS EXHIBIT AT C. N. E.

The children of Leslie Grove playground gave a fine program of musical dells, dances and sketches in fancy costume at the supervised play-ground section, Canadian National Exhibition, yesterday afternoon under the directions of their supervisors, A. Galbraith and Miss E. M. Bunker. The program consisted of 17 numbers and each item was cleverly executed. Special features were the characterization of "Fair Marguerita," by Lois O'Sullivan, and "Black Knight," by the dance and the Dutch dance in costume. Other items which deserve special mention were the solo and chorus singing and the blind boxing by the junior boys.

ELEVATOR SHAFT BURNT.

Owing to a tinsmith's pot overturning and setting fire to the elevator shaft, damage to the extent of $200 was done at the Sheet Metal Products Company's plant, 199 River street, shortly after 7 p.m. yesterday.

Mary Martin of 211 Langley avenue was seriously injured when she was knocked down by a motor cycle driven by N. S. English, 166 Gillard avenue, early yesterday afternoon. Miss Martin was taken to St. Michael's Hospital where her injuries were attended to.

FIRE REELS PROMPT.

An outbreak of fire from some unknown cause at the residence of Mrs. Henderson, 2780 East Dundas street, last evening caused damage to the amount of $80. The fire reels were promptly on the scene.

LEASIDE

Under the directions of the municipal authorities of Leaside, workmen are present employed fixing the roads and grading and leveling the drive, Airside road and other main thoroughfares in preparation for the buildings which are shortly to be erected.

Work is well advanced on the north side of Merton street, at the foot of Mount Pleasant road, where the works department are raising and leveling the roadway with earth from the adjoining Glebe Manor estate. There are a dozen teams employed and through traffic for wheeled vehicles is still open between Yonge street and Leaside.

It is stated that the rise in the road at this point will be not less than six or seven feet.

NEWMARKET

EARLSCOURT LOCAL POLITICIANS HASTEN ORGANIZATION

Local politicians in the Earlscourt district are somewhat disturbed by the rumor of a likely provincial election next month. The party will organize at once to get ready for the fight. At the present time leading politicians of the district are on a fishing trip up north but had they been aware of the possibility of a near election they would have deferred their visit until later.

HON. GEORGE S. HENRY DONATES SILVER CUP

Hon. George S. Henry, minister of agriculture, has donated a handsome silver cup to the fall fair, which will be added to the vegetable exhibit. Some 50 silver cups are now available for prizes, which aggregate in money value over one thousand dollars.

Crowds of Earlscourt people were watching the men erecting the first tent in the fair grounds yesterday, which measures 80 by 200 feet. This, with another tent, will be used for the poultry section, which is now approaching eleven hundred entries.

DESIGNER MAKES MODEL OF S. A. HALL

George Wills of Harvie avenue has recently finished a model of the Salvation Army hall on St. Clair avenue, which will be on exhibit at the fall fair. Wills, who is an experienced designer, says the model will be an exact replica of the present building, which was built about ten years ago. The committee of the building fund will put forth special efforts to add to the total during the four days of the fair. W. H. Jeeves, I.O.O.F., is chairman of the committee.

G.W.V.A. DANCE.

The entertainment committee of the Earlscourt branch of the G.W.V.A. opened the fall and winter season with a dance and euchre last night at Belmont Hall, which was well attended by returned men, their wives and sweethearts. The Veterans band furnished the music. Comrades Jim Suckley and Joe Wines were in charge and the ladies auxiliary presided over the refreshment buffet.

BUILDS ON RESERVATION

Residents on Day avenue, Earlscourt, are complaining against the city building inspector for permitting the owner of land on the avenue to erect a building on the 10-foot reservation space in front of the house, an act prohibited in the city by-law. Calls for this space to be left free of any building. The other owners threaten to take their grievance to the city hall for adjustment.

BLIND HERO TO OPEN STORE

Regt.-Sergt.-Major Wilfrid Farrell, C.E.F., 14th Batt., who lost the sight of both eyes in action at Cambrai, will shortly open a tobacconist store at 128 Danforth avenue. Mr. Farrell, who is a pupil of St. Dunstan's establishment for the blind, was recently invested by the Prince of Wales with the D.C.M.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING

In connection with the Danforth Poultry Association the regular monthly meeting has been postponed to next Monday evening, owing to the Canadian National Exhibition.

The gathering will take place at Player's Hall, Danforth avenue, and Frank Kennedy will deliver a lecture on the care of poultry. W. Howard, president, will preside.

Watches That Are Known the 'World Over' for Their Accuracy, Excellence of Workmanship and Nicety of Finish

Watches for the Man Who Wants Satisfaction—Cost What it Will

A is the Howard Carvel, a 12-size extra thin 14k gold model. The case is of special design, flat and compact. The movement has 17 selected ruby and sapphire jewels, and is beautifully finished throughout. Price, $70.00.

E—A sound of finality in the name—'Omega'—suggests that the maker felt that this was the last word in watch-making. And who should gainsay him? The 'Omega' has a 21-jewel movement, is adjusted to temperature and five different positions. Its dial is of fancy gilt and silver with Arabic numerals, and the case gold-filled. The price is $40.00.

C is the 'streamline model' Elgin Watch, is of slender yet substantial build. Its case is of 14k gold, and the plain back asks invitingly for a monogram. The movement is 17-jewel, the dial silver finished, and adjustment has been made to temperature and five positions. $75.00 is the price of this watch.

B is the Hamilton. It is an American-made watch, combining all the latest improvements, with perfection of finish. The case is 14k gold, and it has a 17-jewel movement and white enamel dial with Roman numerals. This is another thin model, and is priced at $76.00.

D—Designed for the formal evening occasion, though sufficiently simple for everyday use, this superb Waltham watch is a very thin model, with 18k gold case, engraved bezel and gilt dial. It has a 19-jewel Riverside movement, and is adjusted to temperature and five positions. The price is $157.50.

F—This Zodiac is a practical and yet unusually attractive watch in decagon case. It is made in two sizes, 12 and 16, is gold-filled, and has a 17-jewel movement. Absolutely unperturbed by extreme heat or cold, this watch has a plain case and white enamel dial, with either Roman or Arabic numerals. The price is $23.00.

"The Canadians Saved the Day"

That Was the Official Report of St. Julien, Where the Canadian Troops Made Their Famous Stand in April, 1915

An important oil painting of this stirring incident in Canada's history will be on view during the next week in the Oriental Rug Section. Mr. Edward R. Glen is the artist, and the picture itself is a heroic conception and full of life and action.

MORALE EXCELLENT ON MURMANSK FRONT

Improved by Fine Weather and General Activity Against Bolsheviki.

Reuter Cable. London, Sept. 4.—Some interesting details have been received by Reuter regarding the present situation of the Murmansk expeditionary forces from a British officer who recently returned from North Russia for demobilization.

The troops are now, he says, in excellent spirits, and the splendid summer weather which is so much appreciated after the dreary arctic winter, combined with the general activity consequent upon military operations against the Bolsheviki, has had a very encouraging effect upon the morale of the whole force.

Four Yorkshire battalions which were sent out last autumn, have been relieved by battalions of the King's Middlesex and King's Royal Rifles, while the marine battalion, which did such service in the earlier days, has been replaced by another battalion of the same corps.

The general state of affairs in North Russia appears more satisfactory than last year, while the railway services on the Murmansk front have been greatly improved by the importation of a number of engines.

Summary vengeance exacted by the British upon members of a British officer whose body was found, shot and frozen stiff, in a ditch at Murmansk last year, while the railway services on the Murmansk front have been greatly improved by the importation of a number of engines.

Three men who confessed to the crime were condemned to death. The actual execution was carried out by a joint Russian and British firing party by the light of electric torches.

The bodies were subsequently buried in graves which had been blasted out of the frozen ground.

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 4.—H.M.S. Renown arrived in the harbor early this morning. She will take on fuel oil before proceeding on her southern trip.

CANADIAN OFFICERS ARRIVE IN NEW YORK

New York, Sept. 4.—Canadian officers returning from duty overseas formed the majority of the passengers of the White Star liner Celtic, which arrived here today from Liverpool. The Celtic carried 230 cabin passengers, 31 second class and 52 steerage passengers.

Among the cabin passengers was St. E. W. Hume-Williams, a representative of the British government, who is visiting this country in official business. There were also several British press consultants on board who are to take up their posts here.

ARCHANGEL TROOPS RECEIVE MEDALS

CLEMENCEAU WANTS NO FUSS AND FRILLS

Wishes to Enter French Academy Quietly Like One of the Family.

Paris, Sept. 4.—The French Academy is in a quandary. Premier Clemenceau refuses to take part in any official reception when he takes his seat for the first time under the dome of the academy. This is absolutely unprecedented. M. Clemenceau desires to merely walk in and sit down and be one of the family without any of the usual ado.

There was a time when M. Clemenceau desired to enter the French Academy crowned upon his ambitions then and the old premier is quite aware that it was the successful minister of war, the old "Père la Victoire," that the academicians sought to number among them, rather than the author of "La Meise Sociale" and "Le Grand Pan." Several remarks, caustic as only M. Clemenceau can make them, are reported to have been uttered by the premier concerning some of his future colleagues, and the premier himself has said that he will waive all attendance fees, which is interpreted as meaning that he will seldom attend.

Several of the immortals are busily engaged in trying to make the premier reconsider his decision, but the premier has a will of his own. He has proved that.

Premier of Egypt is Bombed

London, Sept. 4.—A bomb was thrown at Hussein Rusdi Pasha, Premier of Egypt, at Alexandria, on Tuesday, according to an Alexandria despatch received here. The bomb was concealed in a basket of grapes, but did not injure the premier.

NO BREAD CARDS FOR PARIS

Paris, Sept. 4.—Reports have been current during the past few days that the government intended bringing bread cards into use again. To meet these rumors, the food ministry today issued a denial that any such intention existed.

ACTORS' BENEFIT FOR TANNER ORPHANS

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Striking actors engaged in the benefit performance at the Auditorium this week announced today that next Sunday afternoon's proceeds should be donated to the three orphaned Tanner children, whose parents were killed by a train at Hubbard Woods on Monday evening. Mrs. Tanner's foot caught while crossing the tracks, and her husband, William Fitch Tanner, unable to save her from a fast railroad train, died with her clasped in his arms.

The list of stars who will take part includes the names of Tom Wise, Lilian Tucker, William Courtney, Ada Meade, Gert Mitchell, Blanche Ring and the Howard Brothers.

OVER A THOUSAND WERE EXECUTED

Physician Testifies to Cruelties of Bolsheviki in Capture of Yekaterinoslav.

Constantinople, via London, Sept. 4.—More than 1,000 persons were executed by the Bolsheviki before they evacuated the city of Yekaterinoslav, in southern Russia, according to a despatch received here from that city giving an account of the massacres by a physician who was the principal medical expert present at the opening of the pits into which the bodies of these victims had been thrown after their execution. This physician, Dr. Robins, declares the victims' heads had been crushed with hammers and their bodies badly mutilated.

Many of them, he says, were found with broken legs and ribs, caused by blows with sledge hammers, specimens of which were found in the vicinity.

The physician tells of the case of one officer who missed being struck by the firing squad's bullets, and escaped the Bolsheviki, who came along bayoneting the wounded, by simulating death.

The Bolsheviki organizations in the city had been headed by a workman named Vallavika, and various Chinese, the report adds, and the principal pests of the Soviet administration under them were in the hands of young men and women. Wholesale pillaging is declared to have occurred in the town before its evacuation.

CONFIRMS STORIES OF ATROCITIES

Officer, Summoned From Russia to Britain, Tells of Bolshevik Regime.

London, Sept. 4.—Commander John Ward arrived in London yesterday, having been summoned from Russia by the war office for a consultation.

In an interview he stated that the horrors of Bolsheviki rule had been far from exaggerated. It was, he said, indeed doubtful as to whether the story of the atrocities in Russia had yet been told.

The secret of the prolonged regime of the Bolsheviki was simply terrorism. Everyone in Russia acted under fear of denunciation and of a horrible death. Besides there was no food, clothing or other necessities of life for those refusing to profess Bolsheviki views.

Again the Bolsheviki controlled the rich manufacturing districts and all attacks on them had to be made from the sparsely populated areas hence it was important that General Denikin should be supplied with munitions, as should be Kolchak.

The Bolsheviki forces, states Commander Ward, have practically unlimited supplies of munitions as only a small portion of the munitions supplied Russia by the allies before the revolution fell into the hands of the Germans. Commander Ward said that he believed that the Bolsheviki had sufficient munitions for ten years.

SUCCESSFUL ENTRANTS IN SINGING CONTEST

Yesterday afternoon, at the horticultural building there were more successful contestants at the singing contest than on any day to date. This contest, it will be recalled, is a movement in the world of music which it is hoped will evolve in the near future into an annual festival of music unsurpassed anywhere in Canada, and which, it is anticipated, will be held in a building, preferably on the C.N.E. grounds. Two well-known men were the judges of the day, Mr. Dick Slater and Mr. Willan. It was Mr. Willan who told the gathering at the contest yesterday afternoon that he was very agreeably surprised at the fine quality of voice noted among the singers, and this has been the theme of practically every judge since the contest opened.

Yesterday's contest was the last of the series, and this afternoon will witness the final trial for honors. For this year, the contest is the most interesting of any contest yet, and will comprise amateurs of notable merit. The five winners of the contest yesterday were: The Misses Gertrude, Edith, and Dorothy; Dorothy Loughhead, Jean Alexander, 899 Dovecourt road; Daley Bird, Fort William; Catherine Robson, 870 Inglewood road, N. L. Street, 32 1/2 Balmora; Shirley Smith, Barrie; Margaret Stafford, Grimsby; Margaret Fuller, 770 Pape avenue, and Mrs. A. O. Neenan, 21 Cartwright avenue; Andrew Cuthbert, Exhibition Camp.

The lucky contestants in today's final of the series in which the winners of each day will compete with each other for the scholarship are the Misses Ullah B. Kennedy, London; Winnifred Thomas, Kippendave avenue; Edith Carter, Sarah Gordon, Dorothy Loughhead, Jean Alexander, 899 Dovecourt road; Daley Bird, Fort William; Catherine Robson, 870 Inglewood road, N. L. Street, 32 1/2 Balmora; Shirley Smith, Barrie; Margaret Stafford, Grimsby; Margaret Fuller, 770 Pape avenue, and Mrs. A. O. Neenan, 21 Cartwright avenue; Andrew Cuthbert, Exhibition Camp.

SIR ADAM SEEKS ELECTRIC LINES

long as municipalities were solvent and there was no reason on earth why the government should not pass an order-in-council authorizing the construction of the various proposed lines, unless, of course, they foresaw a calamity for the municipalities. Mr. May J. J. Carter of Guelph complained that the annual report of the campaign in Guelph was "unexcused." If that was a fact he could not tell them, but he was a good man, more "unexcused" than any other man in the association got a handle on. Anything he could do to further the Hydro line was not for the sake of the Hydro line, but for the sake of the municipalities. Controller Maguire was up in arms at this statement, and declared he would not give up hope and intelligent body of business men could submit such a by-law as was submitted in Guelph. The city of Toronto had no part in it, but he was not the fault of Sir Adam Beck. He had been knocking at the door all the time, and he was not the fault of Ontario would not be in the proud position commercially she was today. In conclusion, the controller declared that he would sit in parliament for the sole benefit of private corporations.

WILL INVESTIGATE RE VOTERS' LIST

The board of control and the board of education held a conference yesterday, and adopted the by-law providing the funds for this year's building program will be submitted to the council at the special meeting next Thursday. The amount is $500,000. It is the mayor's hope that the board would complete their housecleaning, and that they would carry out a statement on new sites and buildings contemplated for the following year. It was submitted by a council, so that the people could vote on them in January.

THE NEW TRINITY COLLEGE

This is a reproduction of an architect's drawing of the new Trinity College that is to be erected in Queen's Park, immediately north of Wycliffe College. When finished, it will be one of the most beautiful of our educational buildings. The style of architecture closely follows that of Trinity College, Wycliffe College, thus preserving the associations of Trinity's famous past. No announcement is made as to when actual construction will be begun.

OLD TRINITY TRADITIONS IN MODERN BUILDINGS

Plans for New Trinity College Follow Closely Familiar Architectural Beauties of Old Establishment. Happy memories that cling to every stone; cherished associations that people the "quads" with phantoms of old-time friends; familiar architectural beauties of the old building; all these things will be preserved in the new Trinity College. The old order changes, and while the traditions and ideals of the college will remain, exigencies of the times and federation with the University of Toronto compel the removal of the old building. The new building, to be erected in Queen's Park, will be a reproduction of the old Trinity College, thus preserving the associations of Trinity's famous past.

SHOOT THE HOSTAGES IN GROUPS OF THREE

Evidence at Trial of Bavarian Communist Leaders in Munich.

Munich, Sept. 4.—At the trial of Bavarian communist leaders on the charge of having murdered hostages taken during the uprisings of February last, the defendants, G. Sell, testified that he was a member of the shooting squad and boasted that he had "shot out a heart" countless von Westarp, the prime of Thurn and Taxis and a student refused to turn the backs on the firing squad and were shot facing the guns. The witness declared that the victims when not instantly killed were shot a second time. The firing squad was said to consist of the last hostages were executed. Pesselmann, the artist, when confronted with a watch and chain belonging to one of the murdered heroes, said he had bought them at a pawn broker's. He declared that Seidl and Sickerhofer were the only guilty ones on trial, the others guilty of "crimes being still at liberty and carrying on a Spartan propaganda. Gsell testified that Hausmann called off the names of the men who were to be executed and then ordered that the hostages be stood up in groups of three. They were given an opportunity to send messages to relatives and friends. Countess von Westarp, according to this witness, wrote a long letter to the back of a soldier, taking about 20 minutes. One of the soldiers became impatient and forced her to move along. "Plenty of wine and cigars" were served to the Red Guards in the gymnasium that night," he said.

MINE MANAGERS ISSUE STATEMENT

No Raise for Men, But Protection Against Silver Market Drop.

Cobalt, Sept. 4.—The mine managers issued this morning a statement of their position following their conference with the local workers' committee. The statement offers a 50 cent per shift raise in the rate with a bonus based on 80-cent silver instead of 60-cent silver as at present. There is thus no raise in wages, but the men would be protected against a drop in the silver market. The managers say they do not consider eight hours work more than a day's work underground. They declare they have suffered much from inflation underground since the war. There is no good reason, they declare, to change the nine-hour day for six-face men. Sunday labor is necessary in some instances, but men so engaged will be given day off during the week on application and work will be eliminated where possible.

MAYOR DECIDES TO SEEK RE-ELECTION

It is stated in well-informed circles at the city hall that Mayor Church has definitely decided to run again for the chair. Several names have already been named to oppose him and a spirited campaign is likely. The names of Controller Maguire and Commissioner Chambers being frequently mentioned in city hall gossip as probable opponents, but neither is so far made a definite announcement as Captain J. E. Thompson, a former controller, who has recently returned from service overseas, and is also mentioned as a possible candidate. But this is not all, and if every name now being mentioned as a possible aspirant comes forward the Toronto ratepayer will have a bewildering array to select from. Dame Gossip also mentions the names of Controller Maguire and Controller Robbins. The future board of control may be selected from the list of names which includes Ald. Ball, Ald. Hillis and Ald. Ramsden.

MAYOR NOT NOTIFIED.

The city has spent nearly $1,000,000 on the fall fair, and is only to receive $50,000 from the provincial authorities are keeping open the old jail and keeping inmates there. The city has a commission which is far from being a proper place, there is lots of accommodation at the fair.

MAYOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO BELGIAN PEOPLE

Reve Van du Put, a Belgian flying Corps officer, was introduced to the board of control by Mayor Church yesterday. In extending a welcome on behalf of Canada that they all admired the Belgian people. "They are too far away to know all they did or suffered, we never hear them say they won the war. We admire the Belgian people and their record will remain before for all time." In very broken English the officer thanked the mayor for his good wishes. He said there were many thousands of Canadians in Flanders who would always be kept in great respect by the people who could vote on them in January.

RECOMMEND EXTENDING C. N. E. GRAND STAND

The grand stand at the Exhibition is too small, according to Mayor Church yesterday. He has recommended that the grand stand at the Exhibition be extended. It is only accommodated about 16,000 people and he moved that the city architect extend the grand stand. The report on the feasibility of rebuilding it in a U-shape when it would accommodate 75,000 people. It could also be used for sport purposes as well as for exhibition purposes. The motion was adopted.

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited, P. J. Maclean, Managing Director.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 5.

Hydro-Electric Proceedings.

Yesterday's meeting of the Hydro-Electric Railway Association brought forward a question that stands in the very forefront of all provincial issues, and is all the more urgent because it appeals to the whole community and is entirely non-political.

Premier Hearst in his recent speech at Brantford may have been inaccurately reported, but he is credited with statements regarding the large sums the government and the province had invested in the Hydro-Electric enterprises.

The Hydro-Electric Railway Association is organized on the same plan. It is possible that a misunderstanding of this fact has led men like the mayor of Guelph to talk about the Hydro system as if it were some outside matter, operated in the interest of outside parties.

The formal request by the association yesterday for an order-in-council to be passed by the government to enable the immediate beginning of work on radial construction was in line with the independent character of the movement and the supervisory interest which the government maintains in connection with the guarantee of the Hydro bonds.

A pledge from candidates of every political stripe is to be exacted, it was proposed, for support of the Hydro policies. For the development of the province there is nothing to compare with the cheap transportation and express service thus to be afforded and the accompanying great reduction in the cost of the distribution of power.

The Greatest Show on Earth.

Strangers to the city who visit the Exhibition for the first time are struck by the permanent character of the buildings, and even those who have known Toronto but have been absent for eight or ten years are astonished by the progress that has been made. The annual additions and improvements that are made are scarcely perceptible to those who are year after year, but after the lapse of years the augmentations are seen to be impressive.

There is no improvement that has added more to the pleasure of visitors to the fair than the permanent pavements. Not only does it keep down dust, but showers and even heavy rain leaves no ill effects within a few minutes of the rain stopping. As a result visitors can enjoy themselves in any weather, for it is possible to spend days under cover at the Exhibition with merely a few steps from one building to another.

The water front is another beautiful feature of the grounds. In the lovely weather which has been the rule this year the view has been enchanting. The lake itself, with its white sails or furrowing swift motorboats, is always a study, but the sweep of the island to the east or the vast curve of Hamber bay to the west, is as charming a lake scene as Ontario has to show.

SUGGEST PRINCE AS GOV.-GENERAL

Vancouver Paper Would Have Future Kings Stay in Dominions.

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—The Vancouver World makes the suggestion against the visit of the Prince of Wales to Canada that in view of ceremonial visits overseas by the heir to the throne, in future it should be the established custom for him to spend a year as governor-general in each of the Dominions.

HONORING THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Answering a letter marked "urgent," we do not think that there is any need for anyone to get into an uproar over the news that his worship the mayor suggested to the board of control on Wednesday that the song "God Save the Prince of Wales," be sung after the national anthem, or that it be played after, in all theatres and music halls.

First of all, the "music halls" are somewhat scarce, and we rather think that his worship must have been thinking of some old London when he pulled that one.

As for playing anything other than the national anthem at the close of the various amusements, it would, of course, be folly, simply because the public would not "stand" for it.

Anyone, including Tommy Church himself, who goes to theatres, knows how impatiently most of the audience listens to "God Save the King."

Well, just because the King's son has been a visitor in this city, and because he won the hearts of the masses, is no reason for thinking that those same masses would have any more than one national song at the close of every entertainment they go to.

In making that statement we realize fully that we are putting ourselves in the position to be argued with, or to be censured. At the same time let all those who would thus take a crack at us would out loose from their mock-modesty and be brave enough to vote, in the event of a referendum, to be the thoughts of their neighbors, they would have just the same idea in the matter as we have.

Toronto's citizens have been credited with being all kinds of marvelous people, when they are really and truly human beings, and we have no doubt that the natives of the city would enjoy any such arrangement.

Theatre men all over the city will tell you that it is harder work to get the patrons to stand still while the national anthem is played than it is to get them into the houses in the first place.

Therefore, would it not be ridiculous, and indeed somewhat of an insult to his royal highness, to pass such a bylaw whereby it would be necessary for orchestras to play the song dedicated to him, when every person in the audience dreaded the thought of it? Is it not better to discontinue a thing entirely than to allow it to be used and greeted as the national anthem often is, and by the majority of the people?

Like you, Mister Returned and Sick Soldier, we think that Thomas L. Church should show his loyalty and patriotism in his own way, and allow all other citizens to do likewise. As you say, men without legs, either one or two, are not able to keep bobbing their heads out of the water, as it is necessary to do while these closing scenes are being played. Meanwhile do not annoy yourself because it is quite likely that you have been the last of the suggestion, bright and all as it was.

THE DAY AT OTTAWA

By TOM KING

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—There was rather a curious session of the house this afternoon. For one thing it became manifest that Sir Robert Borden and Judge D. D. McKenzie were a friendly understanding in respect to the speedy ratification of the peace treaty. The prime minister on the orders of the day announced that the resolution ratifying the treaty would be taken up on Monday and disposed of by Thursday night.

No one doubts that the treaty will be ratified, but there had been every indication that the Liberals intended to discuss it at great length and probably develop strong opposition. The agreement by which the ratification was to be rushed thru after three days' discussion, was one reached at a private conference between the leader of the government and the acting leader of the opposition.

The announcement of this agreement seemed to have a depressing effect on the market. The members seemed the possibility of an early prorogation, and opposition members, especially from Quebec, saw their chance cut off for making a tactical speech on Canadian autonomy and the league of nations. Some of the government supporters at least want the session prolonged, or at least the ratification of the treaty, respecting the avowed purpose of the government to form a new political party. They will be able to discuss this at the Unionist caucus on Tuesday next, but some of them would like to express their views on the floor of the house. The Liberals, on the other hand, are anxious to score a real point against the government on the peace treaty debate.

They were quick to state the other day with the various amendments, it would, of course, be folly, simply because the public would not "stand" for it. Anyone, including Tommy Church himself, who goes to theatres, knows how impatiently most of the audience listens to "God Save the King."

Quite apologetically, therefore the house took up the debate upon the address, during the course of which speeches were delivered by Judge McKenzie, Sir Robert Borden and John H. Sinclair of Nova Scotia. The speeches by the two leaders were devoid of interest; Judge McKenzie's was dull, relieved only by a flash of humor; the prime minister's speech was not relevant at all. Mr. McKenzie waxed facetious on the recent cabinet changes. He said that Sir Thomas White, an able financier, had resigned as minister of finance because he could no longer carry on. He in turn was called a "scoundrel" by the opposition, and the house adjourned for the day at 6 o'clock.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

A block of land known as part of "The Pines" property, on the Lakeshore road, immediately west and adjoining New Toronto, has been sold to the City Estates of Canada Limited at about $100,000. The transaction was negotiated by Robins Limited.

This is a subdivision that was put on the market about seven years ago and is situated between the highway and the lake shore. Of the original 12,000 feet frontage about 6,000 feet had been retained and the balance sold to the purchasers have erected houses. The balance has now been sold en bloc to one client. The vendors are an old company syndicate operating thru Robins Limited.

New Toronto properties are moving very rapidly, Robins Limited report 95,000 feet of floor space was put up about twelve years ago, and the general building and labor shortage improves. York Street Building Sold. The premises at 75 York street, which have been sold by Fred Crompton of the Crompton Corset Company to David Lavine of the Excelsior Tailoring Co., are valued at $50,000. The purchaser is a short distance below King, on the west side, and includes a four-story brick building and basement. Forler & Co. acted as the agent in the sale.

This firm has also sold for John Italian the brick detached house at 139 East Bloor street, for about $15,000. The purchaser is Dr. Henry Clendinning. This lot has a frontage of 50 feet on Bloor with a depth of 150 feet.

Yonge Street Lease Closed. The deal whereby a New York catering firm leases the old Fairweather building on Yonge street, for a period of 20 years, has been closed. Fred Crompton, of the Crompton Corset Company, is the owner. The lessee will pay a yearly rental of $30,000 as well as the taxes.

New Mansie and School. The Church of England parish of St. Leonard's has purchased five lots in Waverley Park subdivision as a site for a new primary school for Rev. Chas. Cargue. The site faces on Wanless avenue, and is situated within 200 feet of Yonge street. The lot is owned by Robins Limited. The Canadian General Electric Company is erecting a new building adjoining their present premises on King street, immediately west of Simcoe. This building will be 100 feet long and 200 feet deep, and will have six stories and a basement. The material will be white tapestry brick and concrete. More space is needed for the company's wholesale supply department. Their original building, giving 95,000 feet of floor space, was put up about twelve years ago, and the general building and labor shortage improves.

West King Street Building. The World hears that a five-story building will be erected on the north-east corner of King and Spadina streets, at a cost of about $75,000, to be laid out for a motor car show rooms on the ground floor and manufacturing space above. This space is occupied for many years by the British Hotel, which passed out with the coming of prohibition. The lot is owned by Lawrence Solman.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR HOME WON BY RURAL COMPETITOR

(Continued From Page 1.) Thank every member for his or her efforts, outside of the rewards that are to be distributed. Every member, large or small, helped to make this the most successful subscription campaign that has ever been conducted by a Canadian newspaper. Those whose results were comparatively small, nevertheless did their part, and it all helped to swell the total.

The World also wants to express its appreciation to the thousands of new subscribers who are now a part of the rapidly-growing family of World readers. Every one of them is welcomed to the family group, and the management of The World promises them a bigger and better newspaper than ever before, as well as prompt service that will warrant their continuing readers long after their subscriptions have expired.

An explanation to any who might not have followed the "Salesmanship Club" method of securing this increase. It was decided that no one was in better position to sell the paper than its own readers, for they most naturally believed in its policies, and believed in it as a newspaper well worth the subscription price. Who would be better able to secure other readers?

It was agreed that the readers of The World were the best available for the FINAL STANDING OF CONTINGENTS OF "SALESMANSHIP CLUB" CAMPAIGN.

BRITISH PORTS ARE CONGESTED

Confusion in Delivery Created and World's Shipping Service is Lessened.

London, Sept. 4.—Great Britain's greatest economic problem is a congestion of the shipping service, says the monthly report of the American Chamber of Commerce. The chamber's experts point out that the congestion has created confusion in delivery, while the delay in unloading and the turning back of ships from British ports, lessens the world's shipping service. The government is trying to revive coastal shipping in order to clear the ports and relieve the overburdened railroads. Although Great Britain removed the import restriction on Sept. 1, the government will prohibit dumping, the report says, while exports will be stimulated by the granting of a credit of $130,000,000 to promote trade with disorganized Europe.

The monthly imports of foodstuffs and raw material are still 800,000 tons less than in 1913, but the average cost of imported food, mostly from the United States, has risen from $3 a ton in 1913 to $315 last July, and imported raw material from $40 to $125 a ton.

FLAYS GOVERNMENT FOR DELAYING CURB

by thirty thousand names. Did the government intend to take any action?

Maj.-Gen. Mewburn said he had no personal knowledge of the matter, but he proposed to call upon Mr. McKenna, who had made the statement, to give information whereby an investigation could take place. Mr. McKenna was not prepared to substantiate his statements, the matter would have to be dealt with in the proper way.

Feife McMillan Charges.

Sir Robert Borden added that he had conferred with Gen. Ross, the paymaster-general and asked him for information on the subject. Gen. Ross had replied that there was no foundation for Mr. McKenna's statements.

Sir Sam Hughes remarked that as he had felt the statements to be a reflection on his own term as minister of militia, he too, had conferred with Gen. Ross. Although satisfied there was no foundation for the statements, Sir Sam said he would like an investigation to be held.

In answer to a question by Hon. Jacques Bureau, Sir Robert Borden said that the conclusion on the order paper regarding the peace treaty was not there as the basis for a money bill, but merely to give the house the opportunity of expressing approval or disapproval of the treaty. If legislation was required in connection with the treaty, it would be introduced later.

Did Canadians Protest?

Mr. Arthur Trahan asked the prime minister whether the Canadian delegates at the peace conference had protested against article 10 of the league of nations covenant. He did this, he said, in view of the fact that Sir Robert had stated in his speech on Tuesday that the Canadian delegates had taken exception to certain provisions of the treaty.

The prime minister replied that he had nothing to add to his speech on the subject.

Mr. Trahan pressed this question. Finally the speaker told him that it was not one which could be answered on the orders of the day, and should wait until the treaty was being discussed.

McKenzie Discusses Treaty.

Resuming the debate on the address, D. D. McKenzie, acting leader of the opposition, dealing with the references to the peace treaty, said Canada was given standing, internationally, such as she had never had before. We were now dealing directly with outside powers without regard to any consultation with the mother country.

At the last sitting of parliament, Mr. McKenzie said, he had been hurriedly passed creating a board of commerce to deal with the high cost of living. He felt there was reason to complain because the board had not moved as rapidly and effectively as parliament and people had a right to expect. July and August had passed and September had been reached and nothing was done by virtue of that act. Only a few days ago a court had been constituted by the appointment of a third member.

Mr. McKenzie thought that at the various probes and investigations of the last three and half years the government "which appears somewhat impervious to information would have been ready to seize all the truth and reduce the cost of necessities without delay.

Food Price Relief.

One member of the committee, however, had hied to Washington, there to "truck and trade with the Yankees" and find out how they had controlled the increase in prices. Now they found the board going back to questionnaires and if the same number of commissions were to follow previous questionnaires, then the people might starve to death before they are given relief by this government or by this committee.

Mr. McKenzie quoted a Detroit dispatch showing reductions in food prices across the border and said that instead of reductions there had been increases for the same articles in Canada.

He urged the government if it found the prices continuing high in Canada and low in the United States to remove the duties and give the people here the advantage of competition from across the border.

The leader of the opposition declared that the present government was much stronger in making promises than in carrying them thru.

Pities Sir H. Drayton.

The angel of political death, said Mr. McKenzie, had recently touched several members on the government side of the house. The former minister of finance, finally realizing that he could do nothing else, had made the famous jump whereby railway engineers sometimes saved their lives on speeding trains. He had jumped off Mr. McKenzie thought that Sir Thomas White's successor, Sir Henry

Drayton, would find the financial cupboard as bare as that of the fabled

Another hardship, Mr. McKenzie added that he greatly admired the former minister of public works. He thought that Mr. Carvell, being tired of his portfolio, had cleverly talked Sir Henry Drayton into accepting a cabinet position, and then taken up the one vacated by Mr. Carvell. He said, he resigned because he was dissatisfied with the lack of enterprise and accomplishment of the government.

Premier Replies.

Sir Robert Borden, in replying to Mr. McKenzie, admitted that it would have been better if the board of commerce had been constituted earlier. Unfortunately it had been impossible to obtain the services of Judge Robson, a man eminently qualified for the position, without delay. Finally Judge Robson had decided to accept the position, and then Mr. W. F. O'Connor had been induced to act. The government was now consulting with these two gentlemen as to the third appointee, and in the meantime Mr. P. A. Adams, deputy minister of labor, who had great experience along necessary lines, was acting.

With regard to the government's effort to combat the high cost of living, Sir Robert said that, some time ago, power had been given to every man in the country to deal with profiteering.

Denies the "Slogan."

The slogan "no truck or trade with the Yankees" which Mr. McKenzie had referred, the premier thought was largely a product of his vivid imagination. Sir Robert said he had never used such an expression and did not know that any other prominent Conservative had done so during the 1911 campaign.

Opposition members interjected that it was the slogan of the election at that time and Mr. Robb asked if the premier meant to read the Montreal version of the party for having shouted the slogan prominently during the election.

The board of commerce, continued Sir Robert, had already taken some steps to bring relief. At their session in Montreal they had dealt with the sugar situation. The problems of domestic supply and the price were before the board, and he felt that there would be a definite result from their action.

In regard to ministers leaving the government, Sir Robert thought most of the reasons for their departure as given by Mr. McKenzie, only went to demonstrate that gentlemen's far-reaching imagination. Sir Thomas White had for some time been anxious to retire from public life and had only continued in office at the urgent request of the premier. When he did resign it was not because of any breach. The late minister of public works, Mr. Carvell, had undertaken new duties as to which the premier felt he would bring his energy, devotion and sense of duty in a manner which would please all the people.

In regard to Sir Thomas White's successor it was true that he had not had any great financial experience, but Sir Robert pointed out that Sir Thomas White, previous to his taking over the portfolio, had not any great amount, neither had Mr. Fielding when he had accepted the post in the Liberal administration.

In concluding, Sir Robert said that while there was need of haste in the negotiation of the peace treaty, there would still be a great task remaining after that had been done. While Canadians might have different ideas as to what the purpose of best serving the needs of their country, which must come first with everyone.

Rape from Sinclair.

Mr. J. H. Sinclair, of Guelph, Ontario, after reference to the splendid welcome to the Prince of Wales, said that while the session had been called to ratify the peace treaty he felt that anything that could be done here would be largely of a sentimental character.

Was it any wonder, asked Mr. Sinclair, that the present government found the pathway of peace more thorny than that of war? The people had been groaning for three years under the burden of advancing prices, but the profiteer was never more arrogant than at the present moment. The board of commerce was twin sister to the defunct Canada Food

Board, and its threats had no more effect upon the

A voice: "They were all knighted." "Canada is the only country in which the profiteers have had a free hand to fleece the people," said Mr. Sinclair. "The United States voted a million dollars to prosecute profiteers; in Canada, parliament was asked to vote $25,000 as salaries for the board of commerce, but not a dollar for prosecutions."

Shift Responsibility.

"The food board has shifted the responsibility to provinces and municipalities, and the refusal of the department of justice to undertake prosecutions has given the public the opinion that the government was shielding the profiteers. Everybody knew," Mr. Sinclair said, "that there were trusts, and commissions might as well be appointed to see if there was anything wrong with the kiss of Judas or the judgment of Pilate."

Mr. Sinclair charged the government with profiteering on its railways. "The government bought codfish at four cents a pound from the fishermen at 40 cents a pound, and sold for 65 cents on its dining cars a portion which cost the government two cents. In other words, the government profit 40 cents for a ten-pound codfish, cooked it and sold it for $13. 'If the board of commerce is in earnest,' Mr. Sinclair declared, 'or if the board of justice really wants to bring a prosecution for profiteering, I suggest that the first offender is the minister of railways.'"

At this there was a roar of laughter, in which Dr. Reid joined.

Fast Debt Rate.

The government preached economy, but was running into debt at the rate of $1,000 a day, continued Mr. Sinclair. "Why," Mr. Sinclair proceeded, "it takes Sir George Foster an hour to have his breakfast and to say his prayers, the country is $100,000 worse off."

Mr. Sinclair concluded that a waste of public money at the present time was like sin against the Holy Ghost, could not and should not be forgiven.

H. A. Macdonald referred briefly to certain provisions of the peace treaty. He expressed the view that the aim of the league of nations, namely, to secure a permanent peace, was a splendid one.

J. E. D'Anjou expressed regret that at the two last sessions of parliament, the mover and seconder of the address had spoken in English. The Prince of Wales, he said, spoke excellent French, and this should be a lesson to members from the province of Ontario.

At the conclusion of Mr. D'Anjou's speech, Dr. McLean moved the adjournment of the debate.

REVOLVER SHOTS LED TO ARRESTS

Police Capture Five Young Alleged Burglars and Much Loot.

Firing of shots from a revolver at a tree on the Island last evening resulted in the arrest of five young boys on charges of house and shopbreaking. When arrested the boys had about ten valuable cameras, twelve packets of cigarettes, flash-lights and other goods on them. They are alleged to have broken into the home of Ernest Watts, 11 Cherokee avenue, on the Island at the Holy Ghost quantity of articles and a money box. The latter was hidden by the youthful burglar under Watts' house. One of the lads told Policeman McLarty, who later recovered it.

They are also alleged to have broken into the Canadian Asbestos Company, 211 East King street, by means of a ring of lath and skeleton keys on them. They gave their names and addresses to the police as: Alfred Smith, 513 Ashdale avenue; Alex. McIntyre, Walpole avenue; George Smith, 1100 Avenue; John Smith, Ashdale avenue; and Ernest Flaster, Morley avenue.

the only persons he owed a report to "are you and the other citizens of the United States." He said such a report was necessary, because he had read many speeches about the treaty and was unable to gather from them much of what the treaty contained.

No Wish to Crush Germany.

He said the treaty undertook to punish Germany, but that there was no thought to overwhelmingly crush Germany. The reparations demanded of Germany, he said, was no greater than Germany could pay. The president said he was "astonished" by the many of the statements made about the treaty. He was convinced they had been made by men who had not read it, or who had failed to comprehend its meaning.

The league of nations, he declared, was formed in fulfillment of the promise that the United States was fighting this war to "end business of that sort" forever. Not to establish the league of nations, he said, would have been unfaithful to those who had died. Besides, the president said, the treaty "tears away" the chains of oppression and gives small nationalities the right to live their own lives. That was the American position, he said, and he was glad to fight for it.

International Labor Clause.

The president praised the treaty provision providing for an international labor organization, which will hold its first meeting in Washington next month. He declared the meeting would be held whether the treaty had been ratified by the senate by that time or not.

The labor question, Mr. Wilson said, provided what should have been provided long ago. It fulfilled the tardy realization of statesmen, he said, that there could be no good government or peace unless the people themselves were satisfied.

By the discussion of labor conditions the world over, and by similar provisions like those to regulate the opium trade and extend the Red Cross, Mr. Wilson said, the treaty "draws the noble impulses of the world together and makes a team of them."

He appealed to his hearers to exert their influence for acceptance of the treaty and added: "Don't let men pull it down; don't let them misrepresent it."

TO MAKE WAR IMPROBABLE.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—President Wilson told a crowd of general thought the league of nations would make all wars impossible, but that he expected to make war "violently improbable." The economic and arbitration sections of the covenant, he asserted, would "strip war on the skirts," and make it only a "last resort."

Opponents of the league of nations, he said, had discussed only three out of 26 articles of the covenant. The articles which would make war improbable had been overlooked. The president said his speaking trip was partly to point out how "absolutely ignorant" of the treaty were those who opposed the league. "If they read the English language as I do," the president said he wanted to forget and wanted the people to forget that he was a politician, he said, "I am a Democrat."

At this the crowd cheered and there was another outbreak of cheering when Mr. Wilson declared that he had no "doubt" what the verdict of the people would be.

Some delegates, he said, came to the Paris conference with causes which were not considered properly within the scope of the peace conference. In that connection he pointed out that under article II, any threat of war could be the minister of justice, he said, "and the league, we can mind other people's business."

There was a roar of an oppressed people anywhere, he said, that could not get attention for its case under the league. He did not mention the word "oppressed" by name, but many of his hearers remarked that they thought he spoke of the case of Ireland.

Referring to the Shantung settlement the president pointed out that Japan repeatedly had promised to return the peninsula to China. He did not go into the subject at length, but mentioned it in emphasizing that the covenant would refuse to recognize the validity of secret treaties. The president, he said, could look the mothers of the country in the face, because he had kept his promise to do all he could to prevent any more "this league," he said, "is the only conceivable arrangement which will prevent our sending our men abroad again very soon."

Calling on opponents of the league of nations to present a "better program" for peace, he declared it is a case of "put up or shut up." He said if he were to be would rather be shot than be stood up for the judgment of mankind.

Explaining how the treaty freed many small people, the president said that Poland for example had been given "a unity and content of life and an independence she can maintain, without aid from the great powers."

NO PADDING OF PAY, SAYS GEN. J. G. ROSS

Paymaster-General Absolutely Denies the J. M. McMillan Charges. Ottawa, Sept. 4.—In a despatch from Woodstock, Ont., several days ago was the following paragraph: "Mr. McMillan, in a lengthy speech, criticized the militia and civil service departments of the government. He claimed that the soldiers' paymaster had been padding with the names of 32,000 soldiers who never enlisted, at a cost of $30,000,000 to the government."

The McMillan quoted was J. M. McMillan, of Seaford, who is prominent in the U. F. O.

Brig-Gen. J. G. Ross, paymaster-general of the overseas forces, is in Ottawa, and he was asked today for a statement, replying to this charge.

"I cannot understand how it is possible that any man should make such a statement, as there is absolutely no truth in it," said General Ross. "The system in use overseas of making payments to soldiers is not carried on by means of pay sheets as intimated, but by periodical payrolls, which are sent to the respective ledger accounts and checked daily by a staff of auditors entirely independent of the department of the paymaster-general. The bases of these ledger accounts are the original rolls which accompany units or men arriving in England, and these men are actually mustered in person, to check the rolls, by representatives of the paymaster-general and the record office."

Gen. Ross further pointed out that frequent checks were made by means of duty orders, and frequent reference to the record office to verify that only those entitled to legally draw pay and allowances, were in the receipt of same.

MURDER SUSPECT CHASED IN PLANE

Western Aviator Aids in Capture of Alberta Desperado. Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 4.—John Campbell, leader of the suspected murderer of Constable Nixon of the city police force on Saturday morning, when the constable was shot while on duty on the streets, was captured yesterday afternoon.

On Tuesday afternoon, Capt. Wilfred May, late of the E.A.F., in company with Detective James Campbell of the city police department, departed from their office in Edmonton in an airplane. This journey was effected on the instructions from Chief Hill, who had been informed that a man had been shot by an unknown assailant at Edson on Monday evening, and he at once came to the conclusion that the shooting was in all probability done by the same desperado.

The trip, stated Capt. May, was the most hazardous one in his flying experience.

FEDERAL PROHIBITION ACTION UNDECIDED. Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The attitude of the government in regard to prohibition, it is authoritatively stated, has not yet been definitely determined, although it is regarded as probable that a measure will be brought down. The rejection of the government bill by the senate last session has left the prohibition order-in-council in force, but the order-in-council will expire on the proclamation of peace.

AGREE TO POSTPONE PEACE TREATY DEBATE. Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The debate on the peace treaty in the house goes over till Monday. When Sir Robert Borden made his statement on the treaty in the house yesterday representations were made by opposition members that they had not had time to study the treaty. At the opposition caucus yesterday the point was further discussed. This morning D. D. McKenzie, house leader of the opposition, had a conference with the prime minister and it was decided to hold the debate over as indicated.

BY DELAY, KITCHENER MAY LOSE 200 HOUSES. Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Ont., Sept. 4.—Indignation is running high in Kitchener over the action of Ald. Bowman and Ald. Her in not completing the quorum at last night's council meeting called for the purpose of passing the new by-law. Rumors from reputable sources have been circulating through the city today to the effect that the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company will withdraw its offer to build 200 houses in Kitchener and will transfer the offer to Waterloo.

RENNER THINKS ALLIES LENIENT TO AUSTRIA. Paris, Sept. 4.—Before leaving for Vienna Tuesday after receiving the final draft of the Austrian peace treaty, Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian delegation, said in an interview published today that the communications made to the Austrians by the peace conference showed that the allies understood perfectly well the economic situation of Austria and had adopted a benevolent attitude in this connection. He thought, however, that Austria in her reply should express protest against the "soft" territorial clauses in the treaty.

Patrols Guard Streets to Prevent Rising of Spartacans and Communists. Geneva, Sept. 4.—A Constabulary despatch says that the Communists have occupied the principal buildings in Munich. Strong patrols have been guarding the streets since Monday as an attempt by Communists and Spartacans to overthrow the government was feared. The Communists have been carrying out an active propaganda recently, and have secretly enrolled a considerable force aided by the monarchists.

Propeller Trouble Prevents Trip of the Dalhousie City. St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 4.—Trouble with the propeller of the steamer Dalhousie City prevented that boat from making her usual trip from Port Dalhousie to Toronto this morning. It has been impossible to place her on the dry dock, which is already full and an effort will be made to have repairs made by tomorrow. The Dalhousie City is not then ready the company expects to have another boat in the service.

I'LL GET HIM YET! Ptarols Guard Streets to Prevent Rising of Spartacans and Communists.

Denikine Despatches Confirm The Occupation of Kiev. London, Sept. 4.—Confirmation of the occupation of Kiev by the forces of General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in southwestern Russia, has been received by the war office. General Denikine's troops took the town after two days of heavy fighting.

PASSENGER AIRPLANE DAMAGED. Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 4.—The Lawson passenger airplane, which left Buffalo at 8 o'clock this morning, was damaged in making a landing at 8:15 a.m. by one of the eight men and one woman, newspaper plans, except for the crew of five. The plane was damaged in making a landing at 8:15 a.m. by one of the eight men and one woman, newspaper plans, except for the crew of five.
