CONVERT THE SECURITIES
OF POWER AND TRACTION COMPANIES BUT SQUEEZE OUT WATER

How Public Ownership Could Be Realized in a Day and Cheap Power, Cheap Fares and Better Equipment Brought About.

GOOD FOR ACTUAL INVESTORS
IF NOT FOR THE EXPLOITERS

The World yesterday had an interview with a gentleman who is well posted in the various electric companies and combinations that have their headquarters in Toronto, and whose securities at the present moment are in a rather bad way.

He made some rather startling suggestions in the way of financial considerations, as he called it, which he contended were altogether in the interest of those who held the securities of these companies that they might not be in the interest of those who are trying to manipulate the companies in question.

In a word, his idea was to try and save the people who have actually put money into these enterprises, so that they would get some kind of re-sured return for their investment, altho he was not prepared to guarantee that anything would come out of it for those who had exploited the propositions in the way of bonus or watered stock. For instance, take the Toronto Railway Co., whose stock is now below par; he would have the Ontario legislature authorize the City of Toronto to have a commission appointed to ascertain the actual investment that had been made in that project out of the proceeds of the stock, and board issue—what they say five million on watered stock had been put in the concern—and to issue 4 per cent bonds to the extent of half the amount of stock and to convert the existing bonds into 4 per cent. bonds of the City of Toronto, and to compel the present holders of the stock to accept these bonds in exchange for what shares and bonds they now hold.

At the present time most of this stock and most of the bonds are at a 6 per cent. basis. Nearly $1000 a day of the income of the Toronto Railway Co. is diverted to pay dividends on five millions of shares. He would have the money ever put into the proposition. As a consequence, it is to this misdirection of a thousand dollars a day that he is pointing, and that the contract or to the requirements of the city. As a matter of fact, they cannot get any more money for the improvement of the road or its extension.

He would also apply the same system of a conversion to the securities of the Toronto Electric Light Co., and to have the actual investment in that concern ascertained and the proceeds of the bonds and to the owners of these two concerns: "We want to treat you right and what we can help you in the matter." Thus 4 per cent. bonds of the City of Toronto would take the place of the present stock issue and the present bonds issue of the street railway and electric light company, and this would require no financing whatever or any borrowing of money; and would reduce the present charges on all these securities by almost one-half. This saving could immediately be applied to the improvement of the road, to guaranteeing any additional stock issue for extending the system, to increasing the equipment, and to other things that are necessary to the end of that period without any outstanding securities against the two propositions.

And the gentleman who spoke to The World had a still more radical opinion, and that was the Province of Ontario should issue bonds to an amount sufficient to replace the securities that have been issued in connection with the Electric Light Development Co., and its subsidiary transmission line proposition. None of the water in these two stocks would be taken care of beyond a reasonable allowance for the risk and enterprise in floating the scheme. These bonds would be guaranteed 4 per cent. negotiable for the bondholders.
The present securities are not readily placed. They are said to be in the vaults of some of the banks.

On this basis the gentleman said that public ownership would at once be applied to the street railway system of Toronto, and the province would have a distributing plant and a generating plant in Ontario for giving the whole of Ontario cheap energy, light and power. This scheme he further said was based, as before mentioned, on the idea of conversions instead of a flotation of new securities on a market which would not absorb them; in other words, the present holders would have to accept the new issues and they ought to be glad to get them, inasmuch as they would be guaranteed by a rich city like Toronto and a rich province like Ontario.
Furthermore, if Toronto had public ownership of her street railway and distribution of electric energy, it would be, by long odds, the best competitor for the distribution of provincial power, and once Toronto controlled its own street railway and power supply it would be ready at a moment to change its gauge to the standard gauge and let in the radicals, and even the steam railway, and to give the electric cars in place of the big trams

REFUSED MEAL
FIRES AT COOK

Caught Hiding in Lane
After a Long
Chase.

Having been refused a meal by the cook at the New York lunch, 225 1-2 Yonge-street, Henry Cotterill, English, a former employe, living at 28 Alice-street, at 1.15 this morning, shot at Manol Erosee, proprietor of the restaurant.

He was arrested after a strenuous chase by P. C. Allan (40), after Cotterill had hidden behind the porch in Downey's-lane, sev'ral blocks away.

Cotterill walked into the rear restaurant at 12.20 this morning. He asked Demosthenes Erosee, a brother of the proprietor, for a meal and being refused, he went outside. He heard a shot and he ran. He called to Manol Erosee and the latter went out and did so, and when he was within a few feet of Cotterill, the latter whipped out a revolver and fired.

Erosee ducked and the bullet missed him. Cotterill wheeled and ran down the lane turning the Yonge-street. Erosee, with his brother, pursued. Cotterill ran north to Albert-street, to James-street, up to Louisa-street and along to Downey's-lane.

The Erosee boys feared to follow in the darkness. Here P.C. Allan caught up. He bravely went on into the lane and found Cotterill crouching in the shadow of the porch of a cottage 50 yards up the lane.

The revolver, a .32 calibre Smith & Wesson, with one chamber discharged, was in his hand. He had no other weapon. He was charged with shooting with intent to kill.

Cotterill has been a year in Canada.
He had considerable English money in gold, beside $7.50 in Canadian money.
He is a married man.

He was perfectly sober when arrested. He had left the employe of the luncheon room three weeks ago.

BROCKVILLE WIN
ENTHUSES THE PREMIER

Significant as Was the Victory of 1904—A Straight Opinion on Government.

PREMIER WHITNEY
TO MR. DONOVAN
'We congratulate you heartily and welcome the constituency to the ranks of the party of good government where we believe it stay will be long.
I hope you will consent to second the address in reply to the speech from the throne at the coming session.'

The Brockville election, observed Hon. Mr. Whitney yesterday afternoon, is the most remarkable expression of the public mind, that, having regard to the present situation and to present conditions, has taken place in this province in the course of many years.

For an entire generation, Brockville has sent straight-out Grits to the legislature; the boundaries, moreover, of the constituency have been from time to time changed in order to make it safe, and the Liberal party has had in its contests command of an unlimited amount of money from local sources.

"Hon. Mr. Graham, with the prestige of a cabinet minister, opened the campaign and took a very warm interest in the contest which ensued, and he even went so far as to declare that he would resign his Ottawa position rather than see the seat of Brockville lost to the Ontario opposition. The new leader, Mr. MacKay, also came down, and these two gentlemen—oh, by the way, I had nearly forgotten to mention, Mr. Derbyshire, who gave some assistance—went up and down the constituency vigorously denouncing the Ontario Government."

"Mr. Donovan bravely took up the fight" alone, the government feeling confident that the people would pronounce a favorable verdict on the record and on their policy. "And this they most assuredly did."

"Paying no attention whatever to the statements of the new leader or his policy, the people of Brockville declared in a way that will not soon be forgotten, that they approved of what the Ontario Government has done, as well as of what it proposes to do.

And relatively speaking, this deliverance on the part of this important constituency is quite as notable an event as the result of the last general election in this province, and it cannot fall to have a tremendous effect everywhere, while the recent abandonment of the provincial political field by Mr. Graham was a clear admission that little was to be expected from the provincial outlook. Moreover, this landslide, covering completely out of sight of the twaddle that Mr. MacKay offered as a policy, simply leaves no room for further remark.

The government, I may say, in conclusion, looks upon the action of the electors of Brockville with thankful appreciation, and will assuredly be stimulated by it to further efforts in the interests of the people of this province.

"As to the charges, made by Mr.

ENGINEER IS GOILTY
NEGLECTED HIS DUTY

Grand Jury, However, Disposed to Place Real Blame on Railway—Time-Table Forced the Train Crew to Ignore Company's Rules.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 8.—(Special).— Murray Stephens, former Wabash engineer, was found guilty on two counts of wilful negligence of duty at the assizes here this evening, in failing to stop his train on approaching the diamond crossing east of the city.

Two lives were lost and several injured Aug. 24 in the collision, which resulted between C.P.R. Wabash trains at that time.

Ask Mercy for Engineer.

The grand jury have confidence that Stephens is not personally to blame, but that the railway company is to blame, and they are therefore petitioning for mercy.

The company's timetable, they point out, shows that from New Sarnia is 5.1-4 miles from St. Thomas and that there are two stops—at the Pere Marquette crossing and the C.P.R. diamond—and that without these stops it takes ten minutes to make the run. The timetable allows ten minutes to make the run, so that the railway makes their engineers violate the rules.

The Engineer's Statement.
The engineer, in a statement submitted to-day, said that he never knew of a case in 13 years where a passenger train came to a full stop at this crossing. "On the fatal day," he declares, "I saw the home signal was set in my favor and I never stopped to look for anything coming. I was running then at about a mile a minute, slipping right thru to make up my mind."

Crown Prosecutor.
Crown Prosecutor Davidson in prosecuting the case to the jury explained that every railway man who neglects his duty endangers life, life, under the statute, guilty of a criminal act. It does not matter whether any one is injured or not, as long as an employee neglects to perform a duty that endangers life he is guilty of an indictable offence.

The crown prosecutor proceeded to explain the facts in regard to the collision, and explained to the jury the location and character of the diamond crossing where the collision occurred. He explained the duty of the engineer to stop at all level crossings, and as well that there was a distance semaphore crossing and the Pere Marquette set against the defendant's train, but that the train did not stop. The C.P.R. train came, so the evidence said, to a full stop before attempting to cross the Wabash track. The law says that no train can pass over a level crossing without receiving a signal from a competent person. Another clause of the code provides that no train shall pass over a level crossing until the train is first brought to a full stop.

Stephens was released on $2000 bail and will be sentenced to-morrow.

FIREMEN MAKE A SPEEDY RUN

Working on Blaze Before Tenant Knew
There Was One.

A boy was severely burned and suffered hundred dollar damage engaged by a fire which broke out in the Toronto Feather and Down Company premises in the third storey of 74 and West King-street at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The blaze was caused by feathers being blown into the flame of a gas-stove for a pressing iron in the workroom, where seven girls were engaged upon the manufacture of quilts and pillows. The girls were usually irritable and rushed from the room, making their way to the street by way of a stair. There is no fire escape from the building other than a rope.

James Bulk, manager of the company, heard the girls leaving the workroom, screaming "fire" and telephoned a still alarm. He praised the fire department highly for the speed with which they got on the spot. So quickly did the Hay and Lombard sections arrive that the first intimation of the fire, which burst thru the windows, was by those in the premises of the Alexander Gemmill Shoe Co., whose premises are immediately below the feather company, was when the water from the fire hose began to leak thru the floor.

Gordon Walls, a lad employed by the feather company, sought to reach the street, when he heard the cry of fire.
He slipped severely burn on the hands and face in passing thru the flames. He is 14 years of age and lives at 19 Hayden-street. His injuries were serious at St. Michael's Hospital.
The damage to the feather company's stock is $700, while water damaged the Gemmill stock to the extent of $40. The building, which is owned by Joseph McCausland, was damaged in the sum of $600. All losses are fully covered by insurance.

PORTABLE GAS LIGHTS.

Automobilists Millennium Coming.
The inventor of the Siche Gas Machine, on account of the many enquiries received at the office of the Siche Gas Company, Limited, 31 York-street, Toronto, for a small portable gas apparatus, weighing only a few pounds, has for some time past been experimenting with a new waterless apparatus. This has been perfected, and in its finished state is probably the smallest and simplest gas apparatus on record. A machine 6.5 inches diameter and 11 inches high, having absolutely no moving parts, no valves, gaskets, or other contrivances, and no storage made of tightly out of galvanized iron, solder and gas pipe, with no tools but a soldering gun, tin-smith's snips, turners and die containing no mechanism of any kind whatever, ran a four-light lantern branch for 2 hours 46 minutes, giving a perfectly steady light, and handled a single burner (3-4 feet) with equal steadiness for hours. We understand it is the inventor's plan to put this apparatus on the market at once, in various sizes, from pound capacity up to ten pounds, and to be used for autos, boats, launches, hunters' tents, contractors' lights, etc.

BE SURE ABOUT IT.

It is business to have a guarantee with a fur-lined overcoat, and there is no guarantee more desirable than that of Dineen's, who have an unequalled "special" now at sixty-five dollars. The shell is of fine English heavy cloth lined with muskrat lining, outer collar an inside, -or shawl collar if desired, and it is the finest value offered anywhere.
Some may prefer the Persian lamb collar and trimmings, and can be suited to the tastes of the owner. The price is somewhat lower prices. The friendly purchaser should call in his own interest at Yonge and Temperance-street.
It's foolish to take chances on Buys etc. A table lamp is also contemplated, a fur-lined overcoat.

COMPANY WON'T
BUT THE TOWN
INSISTS

Refusal of the Street Railway to Raise Dundas St. Tracks May End in Disorder.

There's to be war between the municipality of Toronto Junction and the Toronto Street Railway, unless General Manager Fleming abandons his present obstructionist tactics.

The town is paving Dundas-street, necessitating the raising of the car tracks. But the company decline to raise the tracks, evidently holding out for concessions of some sort.

At last night's council meeting a resolution was passed, instructing Contractor Dill to commence raising the tracks on Dundas-street Thursday morning.

Another resolution was passed notifying the Toronto Railway Co. that the work would commence, and asking that Manager Fleming reply to the resolution by this evening, and another to the Toronto Suburban Railway, notifying them of the council's decision, and intimating that the tracks of the Suburban company on Dundas-street, west of the car tracks, be run up as the contractor sees fit to do so.

If Mr. Fleming does not agree to the decision of the council, he may order all the Dundas cars to quit at Hazel-berside and have no service to the Junction at all.

The resolutions of the council passed last night had the approval of the town solitor.

Accepts Pastorate of Prominent Church in England.
Rev. J. D. Freeman, until a few months ago pastor of Bloor-street Baptist Church, has accepted an invitation to the pastorate of Belvoir-street Church, Leicester, England. This is one of the oldest Baptist churches in England and with it are associated the names of the famous missionary, William Terry, and that of Robert Hall, the great Baptist preacher. Rev. Mr.
Freeman, who has been in Britain for some time, occupied the pulpit at Hazel-berside and again in September. Mr. Freeman is now on his way to England.

I SAY I NEVER SAID IT.
Hon. G. P. Graham Will Not Resign
Just Yet.

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—(Special).—Hon. G.
P. Graham, minister of railways and canals, was asked to-night by The World if he intended to fulfil his promise to resign his portfolio if Brockville went Tory.

"This is the first I have heard of such a promise," replied Mr. Graham. "The story is current," said The World.

"All I have got to say," returned the minister of railways, "is that I have never made such a statement or said anything verging upon it."

DEFECTIVE MATERIALS.

Coroner's Jury Finds Fault With Materials Supplied.
That James Rigby came to his death in the collapse of a scaffold at the house in course of construction in Admiral-road on Sept. 30, 1907, thru defective character of the materials used under the instructions of the foreman," was the verdict returned by Coroner Rowe's jury at the city hall last night.

Coroner Elliott's jury yesterday viewed the remains of William Simpson at the Western Hospital, who was killed by a falling work boom at the Ogdess School on Monday.

The inquest will hold on the 17th.

SMALL BOY'S BRAVADO.

William Ennis, 15 years old, 184 Lip by Acting Detective Robert Moffat charged with attempting to secure money by menace from J. P. Sam, a Chinese laundryman at 752 Spadina avenue. The lad called at the laundry on Monday and informed John China man that he was a clerk in the city hall, and that Detective Wallace was his father and that unless $10 was paid forthwith dire results would follow. The Celestial complained at No. 3 station.

Altho one of our youthful readers has violated the rule about writing on both sides of the paper, and so forced us to copy part of his letter, yet we overlooked it for this once, and print his communication: 84 Bond-street, Toronto, Oct. 7, 1907. Dear Sir,—In this morning's World, I saw that you wished to get a letter from me about my little fox terrier, and you may be sure I will be very glad to tell you about him. Well, the other day, he got outside our gate, and some bad boys picked him up and took him home with them. After it grew dark I wondered where he could be, and so I went out and called and whistled, but he did not come back. So the next morning we advertised in your paper for him, and got him back safe yesterday morning, and the next time I write you a letter I think I will try the competition of "What I Know About Rabbits." Please answer soon. I am, yours truly, Montague Sanderson.

I wish to become a member of The Toronto World Humane League. Name Address

WATERED STOCK VALUES.

Whenever a demand is made for the elimination of the watered part of the capital of public-service corporations, or for its disregard in fixing the terms on which any community may redeem its franchises, the cry is at once raised that vested rights are endangered and innocent shareholders wronged. It is taken for granted that it is the bounden duty of the public not only to contribute in fares and rates the amount necessary to pay dividends on the water, but to bear the brunt of the loss consequent on its introduction. But this convenient rule for the protection of high financiers and of the victims on whom their paper stocks have been unloaded, is applied to no other field save that which concerns public rights. Investors in other enterprises that are over-capitalized, and, in consequence, fall to make good, have to accept the responsibility for their lack of judgment or failure to make due enquiry regarding the relationship between the legitimate capital expended on the concern they propose to enter, and its nominal capitalization. An individual who asserts his just rights is not liable for losses that arise from their vindication, and the public should be in no worse position.

President Roosevelt said some sensible things bearing on this point in the course of his address delivered at Memphis, Tenn., to the delegates attending the inland waterways convention. Touching on railroad regulation and the necessity of supervising the issue of securities, he remarked that in any movement for this object, and for cutting out all abuses connected therewith, there will at times be suffering, in which, unfortunately, many innocent people will be involved. "But," he proceeded, "such suffering of the innocent is unavoidable in every great movement of life. Able and unscrupulous men are sure to deceive certain innocent outsiders and persuade them to invest in ventures under conditions which render loss certain when the force of the law is asserted. I am exceedingly sorry," said the president, "for these innocent people, but it is not possible, because of them, to refuse to proceed against the men who have victimized them." He illustrated his point by referring to the passing of counterfeit money and the losses sustained by the people who accept it in payment of goods supplied and services rendered. But the government had no alternative, save to stop the circulation of the counterfeit money, the those possessing it were innocent. Just the same thing, he said, is true when it comes to entering the law against business men of great wealth who have violated it. "The responsibility for the suffering of those innocent outsiders lies, not with us who put a stop to the wrong and punish the wrongdoers, but with those wrongdoers who mislead their victims."

li-service corporation on the continent, with the logical result of inefficient service, insufficient plant and equipment, exhaustion of credit and excessive rates and charges. Every device known to the captains of high finance has been adopted for the purpose of diverting the money and property of the people into their own pockets. They it is that have deceived innocent outsiders and persuaded them to invest in ventures under conditions which rendered loss certain when the force of the law is asserted. If the public demand for a straight deal from the corporations that hold its franchises has affected stock values the responsibility rests with those whose manipulations cannot stand the light of day.

ARE WE UNGRATEFUL?

Mr. Wright, M.P. for Muskoka, complained in his speech at Gravenhurst that men in public life suffered from ingratitude and ingratitude. He said people seldom praised a public servant for the good that he did, but hastened to criticize any misconduct or even errors of judgment. P. W. Ellis of Toronto, who followed, and who always speaks to the point, suggested that our public men should be judged, not only with justice, but also with generosity. Mr. Wright, it is true, dwelt rather upon the debt due from the public to municipal councillors, and the like, who perform a great deal of hard work without pay, but he still insisted upon the old-fashioned idea that members of parliament, as such, had a claim upon the gratitude of their countrymen. It might be ungracious to single out Mr. Wright, but he may be accepted as the average member. He is a man of fair ability, reasonably attentive to his duties, and faithful to his party. What particular debt is the country under to Mr. Wright, or to many others of whom it may be said that they vote with their party and do not neglect their duties as members of the house?

The ordinary man goes to parliament, because he wants to; he stays there, because he enjoys it. He receives a salary which should be satisfactory, because the members fix it themselves. Unless he dares something for the cause of the people he cannot reasonably expect any popular demonstration over his performance of routine duty. Then, too, in private life, there are men every day taking chances, doing work without pay, and, by labor and sacrifice, making life more tolerable for their fellowmen. Nearly every freeman in this land has his hero or his heroine.

Perhaps there is not enough gratitude going around, but members of parliament are not the only, or even the most deserving, ones that are bereft.

BROCKVILLE.

The lesson of the Brockville by-election is the value of putting up in 1905, but he was victorious in 1907. His election may cause some cessation of merit over the recent walk-over by Mr. Graham and Mr. Pugsley. True, Mr. Donovon's chances may have been improved by the Conservatives making no contest against Mr. Graham. To some extent Mr. Donovon's election may have been a personal victory. It was undoubtedly a tribute to the Whitney government. Should we go further and attempt to argue from it too much, the question might well arise, "Why were not the federal by-elections contested?"

THE NORTH.

Orrilla, Bracebridge and Gravenhurst are doing a great service by their courageous experiments in municipal ownership. The first two are very successful, and Gravenhurst starts under even more favorable circumstances than her neighbors. There must be no little public spirit in a town of 2500 when it equips a municipal plant, generates electricity and transmits it for eight miles, thus furnishing power at 10 per horse-power to its citizens.

LURE OF THE $300.

Political Intelligence

The Globe takes a philosophical view of the result of the elections in Brockville. It was the expected that happened. Mr. Graham held the constituency largely through personal popularity, and Mr. Donovon had the advantage of being a supporter of a government which has still one session to run. The Globe encourages the new Liberal leader by saying the spirited campaign he fought and the effective speeches he delivered amply justified the choice of his fellow members. It advises the Liberals of Brockville to go to it and regain the constituency, and adds:

"The Whitney government has already made more than a few of the blunders that are worse than crimes, and it will continue to make them. It is the duty no less than the privilege of the Liberals to take full advantage of all the errors committed as well as the scandals perpetrated by their opponents."

in its news columns The Globe credits the defeated candidate with the hands of the liquor licenses for coercion on the liquor licensees for the Brockville Asylum and elsewhere and by the direct promise to spend $75,000 on the asylum immediately after the government had been returned. Notwithstanding the reported disaffection among local Conservatives on account of the unfair distribution of patronage, the government made amends therefor by handing out to the disaffected merchants and others a share of the plum, during the fortnight preceding the election. Others brought them into the fold. Others looking for similar favors were also not forgotten.

The Premier and Mr. Hanna denied the allegations of Mr. Lewis in interviews yesterday. Mr. Whitney said: "There has been no by-election in this province for a generation, the result of which has such significance. We let our records go before the people on its merits alone, and subject to the attacks of Hon. Mr. Graham, who declares that he will resign rather than have to go back and resign to the opposition, as well as the remarkable utterances of the new leader, called 'our' by Mr. Lewis, I am willing to make all possible allowances for him. I think he has erred. The people of Brockville know that the election was the first free election there since Mr. Fraser was their representative."

"Of course," said Mr. Hanna, "there is no foundation for Mr. Lewis' statement. No promises have been made, no orders for goods given. The ordinary routine of the business of the asylum has not been altered to the extent of $1 by reason of the pending election. Mr. Lewis has been a bit careless in his interview, but in the chapter covering the general election in Brockville in 1905, instead of on the clean page of yesterday's contest."

Toronto News: Brockville marks the Whitney government's first decisive victory in a by-election. It is difficult to get at the reasons for Mr. Donovon's success. Mr. Graham enjoys great personal popularity, but the division, so great that he even survived the convulsion of 1905, and possibly the fact that Mr. Graham, on entering the Dominion government, returned the seat to the Conservatives, and the advantage in personal popularity while the Liberal party have been deprived by the sudden change in the provincial leadership. It is no reflection on Mr. Hanna to say that he is practically unknown in Eastern Ontario, and that he must prove his mettle in the legislature and in the country before he can enjoy the prestige and exercise the authority of leadership. There is no reason to think that the result in Brockville has any general significance any more than the by-elections in East Hamilton, Dufferin and Kingston. It is certain that the Whitney government has the general confidence of the province, and there is no doubt that in a general election some of the old Liberal strongholds which were captured by the Conservatives in 1905 would return to their natural allegiance. The Liberal party in Ontario has never been so weak since confederation as it is to-day, and it is not impossible that the next election will show that the opposition in the legislature is stronger than it is in the country. In the federal government. But the resignation of Mr. Graham and the change of leadership almost on the eve of battle must affect the results of the next provincial contest.

Evening Telegram: The corporations want Hon. Adam Beck out of politics. Ontario wants Mr. Beck to stay right where he is. "More than once in our rough island story" "The path of duty was the way."

The path of duty for Hon. Adam Beck begins and ends in the Queen's Park, Toronto, with no extension towards Parliament Hill. If Mr. R. L. Borden should be the means of withdrawing Hon. Adam Beck from Ontario politics, that one phase of the Borden policy would do public ownership more harm than the whole Borden platform would ever do it good.

If Hon. Adam Beck should consent to be withdrawn with his work in Ontario not well begun, he would ruin his future, and be useless to himself and Mr. Borden at Ottawa or anywhere else.

Captain T. Berville Thomas of The Camrose Mail has announced himself as a candidate for parliament to succeed Dr. McInyre of Strathcona. The captain may be described as an independent progressive Conservative. Under the caption, "Some Things Farmers should remember," The Mail, addressing the farmers, says: "Unless you tramp under your feet politics and put your country before your party and use your influence and your votes in the way of the farmers, you will always be the under dog."

wholesale warehouses in the principal cities of England and Scotland, and the farmer gets the full price of his product, less the commission. They have no multi-millionaire packers or railroad stockholders, because the people own them and their wealth is more evenly distributed.

There are many who believe that a contenting forces will fight under the respective banners of Hanna and Beck. This may be, and many think that it is, impossible. Should there be a contest, however, it is a fair surmise that the gallant doctor will "fight mit Beck."

Mr. Mahaffy, the local member for Muskoka, made rather a thoughtful speech commending municipal ownership. Municipal ownership has made its way and indeed can best succeed when divorced from party politics, yet the member for Muskoka went out of his way to declare that there was no room in this country for the public man who did not belong to one or the other of the two great political parties. He cited Dalton McCarthy as having failed in life through assuming the role of an independent, and prophesied failure for some nameless member of the other party, who assumed to be independent.

The member whom Mr. Mahaffy had in mind, it is fair to say, was probably not Alphonse Verville, the labor member for Maisonneuve, but his speech recalled a colloquy which occurred the other day on a C.P.R. train between R. L. Borden and Mr. Verville. Mr. Verville was asserting that there would be members of the labor party in the next house, from Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London and other places.

"I think," he continued, "that Mr. Borden made a big mistake when he said, at the Monument National, that there was no room in this country for more than two parties."

"Not room for more than two great parties," said Mr. Borden, by way of correction.

A HAPPY SEND OFF.

A stranger who happened into the editorial rooms of The World last night might have supposed that the building was on fire or that a general strike was imminent. There were men in shirt sleeves who had hurried down from the composing room; reporters, who had rushed in between assignments, daven, unexpectedly back at night; clerks from the business office, circulation managers and advertising men, and W. H. Greenwood, managing director, as spokesman for the staff. They were men of the world, and they were in a state of excitement. At his desk, hard at work as usual, sat W. Percy Bretz, news editor, and the fact that he was absorbed in the work before him indicated that there could be no fire under way in the World office or anywhere else in Toronto.

Nor was any strike imminent. It was a social gathering which had for its object an expression from The World staff of friendship, congratulations and best wishes for "our Percy" and the pretty girl with whom Mr. Ethel Barnes, who to-day is to become Mrs. Percy Bretz.

Last Saturday night the newspaperman of Toronto tendered a bride to the belle of the city. W. Percy Bretz, news editor, and his wife, who have been married for some time, were the guests of honor. The bride-elect is no stranger to The World, and, as for this groom, well, he is pretty nearly as well known to the readers of The World as a mere boy and having won his spurs by hard service in the ranks.

Percy can scarcely be more loyal and devoted to his wife, than he has been to The World, and the best wishes of The World and of the newspapermen of Toronto will follow Mr. and Mrs. Bretz and wish them all the happiness and good luck that true friendship can anticipate.

Standard Rotary Shuttle

Machine That Sews Faster, Better With Less Noise Than Any Know Of.

And if a machine does all these things, it naturally follows it is the BEST—the manufacturer claims it as such, and here are our reasons for believing it to tower above every sewing machine made:

It is LASTING; the case is selected from the highest grade of oak—the wheels, treadle, frame and so forth, are stringently tested; in fact, every working part has been made by most skilled mechanics, and passed upon by experts before it leaves the factory.

THE STANDARD ROTARY SAVES TIME—because the rotary shuttle runs round and round continuously, unlike the "vibratory" shuttle, that goes six inches back and forth in making one stitch; think what that means in time saved.

IT RUNS EASIER, MAKES LESS NOISE, indeed it is practically noiseless, and that means everything for the nerves, health and comfort of the family.

It will do EVERY KIND OF STITCHING other machines do, and MANY THEY CAN'T DO—and do it with half the trouble, too, for the fittings are so perfectly simple that they are adjusted in almost a second, requiring no screwing or fixing with tools.

We couldn't begin to tell you the very many advantages of this great machine. It has taken twenty-five years to bring it to its present state of perfection, and all their advantages are covered and patented by many patents.

It's not a CHEAP machine in any way—it's well fitted, made of best material—a source of pleasure and economy, and will outwear any ordinary machine, and cost less at the end.

We invite you to call on our Fourth Floor and examine this machine. Notice how, by simply raising the lift, the machine appears in a perfectly upright position; have a salesman show you all its workings.

One thing we have satisfied ourselves of—the Standard Rotary Shuttle Machine is the best, most economical, will give better service and satisfaction than any sewing machine built anywhere to-day.

There are no middlemen—you buy direct from us and we buy direct from maker. Every cent that usually goes to salesmen, agents and selling expenses is saved on this machine—it's marked at drygoods profit and KEPT there, and you'll appreciate these facts much better when you see the very high grade of the STANDARD. You know what you'd pay for an ordinary machine. Now come and see the STANDARD.

It's worth its price—every cent of it—$35 to $45.

REGULAR DIVIDEND ON I.P. NO HELP TO THE MARKET Prices Sag Almost All Day at New York—Toronto Stocks Are Quiet.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 8. The pathetic state of the Toronto stock market was unchanged in today's business. Market sentiment was unchanged and the most of the transactions in which actual stock was represented were sales from outside holders.

Rock Island earnings for fiscal year almost as great as last year and showing for most three months breaks all records. Smaller demand for stocks in the loan crowd.

Analysis of Chesapeake and Ohio reports shows 5.40 per cent. earned on common. Southern Railway voting trust expires Oct. 15.

Rio Tinto dividend reduced for the half year 2s 6d. Twenty-six roads for fourth week of Sept. show average gross increase 8.67 per cent.

Sub treasury gained $284,000 from the banks yesterday, and since Friday $489,000. Northern Pacific declared regular quarterly dividend of 1-84 per cent.

LONDON—It is reported that an international Russian loan to the amount of 130,000,000 roubles has been arranged to be brought out in Paris next spring.

LONDON—Rumors of a failure in Amsterdam are unconfirmed. Operations at that center have been generally quiet. M. K. T. Erie and Soo Railway issues, causing a heavy tone.

No improvement is to be noted in the stock markets. Consols have declined 1-4. Americans are generally reactionary. The reduction in the Rio Tinto dividend for the half year was not as great as many observers had feared.

Joseph says: The market, while narrow and very largely professional, is shaping to do better. There is no rushing thing, for the reason that the speculation cannot at this juncture be forced. Moderate improvement, however, will be seen. A bumper corn crop, estimated at 2,500,000 bush., is now assured.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Bullish speculation in the stock market is generally confined to the high-grade issues, particularly rails. The entire active list, aside from a few on the low priced stocks, were liquidation has not yet been completed, shows a tendency to reach for the extreme upper trading limits. Northern Pacific was particularly able to reach a little higher and will probably be strong to-day, the stock is offering now around 123 and 124.

Finding no support in Chesapeake & Ohio, and sentiment being heavier following the annual statement, the bears made a vigorous attack on this stock in the second hour, causing a sudden drop of nearly two points. The fact that the net earnings of the road for the year ending June 30 fell off $58,000, or about 5 per cent., notwithstanding an increase in gross of nearly $1,200,000, or about 4 per cent., was sufficient to put a quietus on the hopes of the optimists that a dividend of larger proportions might be declared any time soon. As a matter of fact, the surplus, after deducting charges, taxes and other expenses and charging off $2,700,000 for equipment trust payments, amounted to barely over 1 per cent. on the common stock.

A director of the Northern Pacific Railway Co. who was seen here this morning and asked in regard to the prospect of an extra dividend, said: "I don't know why the street should have expected an extra dividend on Northern Pacific at this time. I do not think such is imminent."

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—George E. Drummond, former president of the board of trade and Canadian Manufacturers' Association, was today appointed to the board of directors of the Molsons Bank, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lieut.-Col. Henshaw.

On Wall Street, Charles Head & Co. to R. R. Bondgar: The extreme dullness in the stock market was broken to-day by a spurt of activity in Northern Pacific, which was the centre of attraction during the morning hours.

Atchison earned 15.01 on common stock this year. Analysis of Chesapeake and Ohio reports shows 5.40 per cent. earned on common.

Southern Railway voting trust expires Oct. 15. Rio Tinto dividend reduced for the half year 2s 6d.

Twenty-six roads for fourth week of Sept. show average gross increase 8.67 per cent. Sub treasury gained $284,000 from the banks yesterday, and since Friday $489,000.

Northern Pacific declared regular quarterly dividend of 1-84 per cent. payable Nov. 1; books close Oct. 12, reopen Nov. 2.

Manager Royce of the Toronto Suburban Railway Co. presented his application for running rights from To-beth-street to Swansea via Elizabeth-street, to College-street, and down Ellis-avenue, to the waterfront.

Dr. W. G. L. Spaulding was the first speaker and stated that the company wished to put the best street in the district well constructed and lighted.

Mr. Major says that he had canvassed the people in Swansea in the railway company's interest and that he desired to get the road thru, but the people of Swansea, the railway company should not consider the Toronto Junction plan.

Mr. Ellis and Reeve Henry had a wordy duel for a few minutes, when Mr. Ellis asserted that Ellis-avenue was constructed by the railway company on that street out of private funds.
