Citizens Are Stirred By Thrilling Contests At The Arena
LABOR GOVERNMENT FACES DEFEAT

SKATE MEET OFFICIALS WIN PRAISE

Races Wonderfully Well Handled, is General Comment Today.

WAS A GREAT NIGHT

Half and Three-quarters Promise Sturdy Senior Competition Tonight.

St. John bubbled over again this morning with enthusiasm over the fine series of skating events forming the first instalment of the International Indoor Championships at the Arena. On all sides were heard words of praise of the various skaters who took part in the different items of the programme; of the keen competition which developed during their progress; of the crisp businesslike manner in which the races were run off in short, of the whole affair.

Charlie Gorman was given clear and decisive demonstration of the fact that he was appreciated by St. John. His every appearance on the ice was the cue for cheers and the more cheery, and his speedy finishes—most of them in the van of the field—were greeted with prolonged roars of applause.

And so St. John is keyed up for another night's sport of the hair-raising variety tonight—and still another tomorrow night. The crowd came away pleased from last night's contest and enjoyment; they want more. And they are going to get it in full measure. It was Great.

There were several features in connection with the running off of the first instalment of the events in the International Speed Skating Championships at the Arena last evening, which were most favorably commented on by the spectators.

Aside from the keen competition which entered into every event, the races proved very satisfying for those who sat for more than two hours to witness them. It was keen, clean rivalry all the way through, with no incident to mar the sportsmanship which sports of this kind tend to develop. True there were a few spills but in every case they resulted from pure accident and left no distasteful feeling behind them. There was some difficulty in getting the starters away in the final of the 220 senior, but it was due entirely to the keenness of the participants to gain the advantage of the start in the short dash around the ice, resulting in several false starts.

Great Work of Officials.

But the one thing that stuck out most prominently and gave the people who watched the greatest amount of satisfaction was the snappy manner in which the different events were run off. As one heat was started, the contestants were out and ready to start the next. In fact, so quickly did one event follow the other, that it was only with difficulty that the official announcer, William Case, could keep the spectators informed of the results. To W. E. String, the clerk of the course, and his assistants, T. K. Sweeney and Noel Jenkins, a great share of the honor for the success of this feature of the meet is due.

Announcer, Too.

The work of Mr. Case, as announcer, was also of the highest order. In spite of the rapidity of the happenings, he kept the crowd well informed of what the results were, some times announcing as many as four or five heats in quick succession, but all the time his information was clear and well delivered.

The soldier patients at the Lanchoester Hospital are to be guests at the races in the Arena tomorrow night the big closing with the 440 yards and three mile events the outstanding features of a great wind-up programme.

A Word About Seats.

People who have bought seats in the reserved sections naturally expect to find them unoccupied when they arrive even if they are a little late. On account of the magnitude of their work the committee in charge ask the patrons of the races to remember that the

BRITISH TO DEBATE ON FINANCES

MacDonald Faces Gravest Parliamentary Crisis of His Career.

CABINET MAY FALL

Conservatives are Insistent Upon Forcing Rate on Poor Law System.

BY LLOYD ALLEN (British United Press.)

London, Feb. 26.—Premier MacDonald today faced the gravest parliamentary crisis of his administration. The House of Commons before adjournment tonight may witness the defeat of the Labor government on an issue which normally would cause resignation.

The House will debate the "Poplar" finances, a subject upon which both Liberals and Conservatives are moving resolutions of virtual censure of Minister of Health Wheatley.

Wheatley, a pronounced "Red," assumed responsibility for the over-expenditure of the councilors of Poplar for poor relief. The cabinet since put its "O.K." upon Wheatley's action.

Over expenditure for poor does is a subject upon which the Conservatives feel particularly strong. But the Liberals also wish to get the credit for any successful parliamentary assault upon MacDonald.

CHARGE LOOSE ADMINISTRATION

Shortage of $100,000 Alleged Against the Drury Administration.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—The Evening Telegram says in its news columns today:

Defalcations that may aggregate $100,000 are expected to be revealed by officials of the Ontario Government as a result of inquiries now in progress into spending and collecting departments, attributed to following the loose administration of the Drury Government. Some of the irregularities already have been brought to light and others are soon to be made public.

"It was intimated today that in certain instances prosecutions may follow on an almost wholesale scale, as the result of the audit."

Criminal Proceedings? It is intimated—although this specific information does not come from the head of the department—that Hon. C. G. Price, Provincial Treasurer, is likely to institute criminal proceedings following revelations made in his department.

"Lands and forests department is stated to be involved in the scandal. The audit is now underway in that department, and some staff changes are anticipated to result."

"Slipshod methods of allowing certain expenditures to be made by department officials, a loose system that is now in the process of being remedied, is held to be largely responsible for the appointment and undoubted defalcations."

"Amongst the startling things that the Government audit is bringing to light, is the fact that several motor-car agents, appointed by the late Government for the issuance of motor markers in 1923, have as yet failed to make complete returns to the Government of monies collected by them."

Premier Admits Charges. Toronto, Feb. 25.—Hon. Manning B. Aitken, Premier of Ontario, today admitted in the Legislature today that the Government about a newspaper article claiming that an audit had revealed defalcations in Government departments. The Premier said that unfortunately there had been defalcations and that several of the defendants had disappeared. Hon. W. F. Haney contended that the House should get the information before the press. The Premier said that there been a leak which had embarrassed the Government on at least one occasion. However, he thought that the main facts of the newspaper story were well known, as the Premier had mentioned these facts in his budget speech.

HOME BANK FAILURE EXTENDS TIME TO POST FORFEIT

Commission Will be Named to Try to Decide Responsibility.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—The personnel of a commission which will investigate the recent failure of the Home Bank of Canada had not been decided tonight. By an order-in-council issued today, the Government rules that under the Public Inquiries Act a probe will be conducted into the status of the Home Bank in the years 1915, 1916 and 1918, when the then Minister of Finance is said to have failed to recognize representations made to him by responsible citizens concerning the financial standing of the bank. Representations have been made by a committee of depositors in the Home Bank that it could avail itself of its right to search into the assets and conduct of the Home Bank in 1915, 1916 or 1918, continued operations of a chartered bank would probably have been forbidden.

The shareholders contended that suspension of the bank at that time would have resulted in a winding-up with very little loss to depositors. But permitted to operate until August, 1923, the Home Bank piled up responsibilities to its depositors which it could not face on its suspension at that date, the shareholders' petition says. On the assumption that the Government of the day refrained from questioning the solvency of the Home Bank because such interference might have undermined public confidence during war time, the shareholders claim that the country as a whole should bear the loss rather than the depositors of the bank.

Depositors' Petition. The petition of the depositors was backed by a committee representing all depositors and shareholders of the Home Bank in Canada, headed by W. T. H. Lee, of Toronto, which recently waited on the cabinet in Ottawa to urge that the Dominion Government introduce in Parliament special legislation to indemnify depositors against loss and shareholders against the double liability which they are threatened.

The Government's order-in-council states that the Government does not necessarily recognize the shareholders' and depositors' claims.

CLIMBS TO CHAIR IN UNIVERSITY. Those people who are endeavoring to shut out immigrants from Poland might gain some illuminating information by reading the story of Stephen P. Mizwa. The current issue of the American Magazine.

Stephen Mizwa landed in America from Poland 13 years ago. He was the son of an impoverished Polish peasant who had eight children living. He could speak no English. He only knew of one place in America, Northampton, Mass., where some Polish compatriots were working. He landed in Northampton without a dollar.

The young Pole immediately got work in a basket factory at $5.00 a week. He lived on $3 a week and saved the rest. He also enrolled in the night school to learn English. It took him nearly three years to perfect himself in English, and all this time he worked for $5.00 a week. Every night was devoted to study.

Finally the basket factory burned and the young Pole was forced to temperary jobs of bricklaying, working in a cotton mill and casual jobs. Summers he toiled on the tobacco farms of the Connecticut Valley.

Then, although he was 20 years old, he started to fit himself for college in a preparatory school. He did odd jobs about town to pay expenses. In three years more he was able to enter Amherst. To pay expenses while in college he washed dishes in a boarding house, heved rugs and mowed lawns. During vacation he worked as an attendant in the insane hospital at Northampton.

He graduated from Amherst in 1919 with honors and with the Phi Beta Kappa Key. He also won a post-graduate scholarship at Harvard.

He got his Master of Arts degree at Harvard and made such hit there that when Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, wanted an instructor in economics, the Harvard authorities named the young Pole. Drake soon gave him a professorship, just 11 years after he had been in America a friendless and penniless Polish boy.

Next fall he is to re-enter Harvard to get his Ph. D. degree.

In addition the contributor will receive a coupon which will entitle to a proportionate number of chances on one of three valuable prizes which will be drawn for the second evening. Another feature of this booth will be a guessing contest in which the first one who guesses the correct name of the new church will receive a $5 gold piece. Digging your grave?

Bernhardt had her own coffin ready to receive her mortal remains, and she kept it covered with flowers until the day of her death. Thousands of persons are digging their own graves with their teeth by eating indigestible foods. Every particle of Shredded Wheat Biscuit is digested and converted into good muscle, bone and brain. ### No remedy can cure all ailments of the human body, but an immense number of people suffer from aches, pains and diseases which their real trouble is lack of iron in the blood.

It is in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron your food merely passes through you without doing you any good; you don't get the strength out of it. ### There Seemed No Happiness Ahead of Her

Do you feel depressed? Are you easily irritated? Are your nerves all on edge? Do trifling happenings bother you? Have you a feeling that something dreadful is going to happen? These symptoms are not uncommon as many people have them. They are the signs which tell you that you are run down, and need something to enrich your blood, quiet your nerves and tone up your system. Carnol will do this quickly and effectively. It has done it for Mrs. Elizabeth King, as well as thousands of other people and it will do it for you. Here's what Mrs. King says:

"This is to certify that I was for several years troubled with a run-down state of health. I was depressed, nervous, weak. Frequently I suffered from severe headaches caused by loss of appetite. I had no inclination to do anything. I was becoming more and more despondent every day. There seemed no happiness ahead of me. My friend told me to try Carnol as she was sure it would help me. I purchased a few bottles and before I had finished taking the first bottle I felt like a different woman. It affords me the greatest pleasure to recommend it to any one who is in a run-down state of health. I found it more successful than any other tonic."—Mrs. Elizabeth King, 117 Cedar Street, Halifax, N.S. 20-9

BEECHAM'S PILLS

It would be necessary also to determine how many stores the vessels purchased and how much coal they had to supply with.

The average tonnage of a grain carrier is from 2,800 to 3,000 tons, providing she were not fitted up, and her bunkers and larder were empty, would spend about $2,000 for coal, $2,500 for $22,000 for fitting up for grain, and $1,700 for port charges and stevedoring, which includes wages. Then the crew would probably spend several hundred dollars in port.

WHEAT DIVERSION COST CITY $200,000

This is What St. John Might Have Got if Grain Came Here.

The figures published in The Evening Times-Star recently showing that during the three months ended on Jan. 31 the Canadian National Railways delivered at Portland, Me., 6,831,294 bushels of grain for transatlantic shipment as against 454,168 to St. John in the same period have caused considerable discussion here as to what the Portland grain traffic would mean to St. John in the C. N. R. would mean to St. John in the C. N. R. While it is impossible to arrive at an exact calculation, it is estimated that, were the 6,831,294 bushels delivered here, it would mean probably a distribution of $200,000 at this port.

To reach the exact amount would, for various reasons, entail an enormous mass of work, including the searching of books and marine records at the two ports. In the first place, it would be necessary to determine the exact average tonnage of all the vessels which loaded grain at Portland in the months of November, December and January, whether they carried full or partial cargoes and whether they were fitted up for grain carrying when they arrived at Portland.

A 2,800-ton steamer can be loaded with grain in two days and two nights. There are four dry gangs and four night gangs, each consisting of 15 men and a foreman. The wages are 65 cents an hour, day and night.

The Evening Times-Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 26, 1924

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd. J. D. McKenna, President.

THE FRENCH IN NEW BRUNSWICK

One of the most interesting facts in connection with New Brunswick is the relative increase in citizens of French extraction. This is due to two causes. One is the higher birth rate among our French fellow citizens, and the other is a movement from Quebec into the northern portion of this province.

As an illustration of the relative birth rate, that in Madawaska, which is practically all French, is over forty per thousand. In Kings County, wholly English, it is about twenty-one per thousand. From last year's figures a comparison was made by Dr. Melvin, chief medical officer, between a wholly French, a partly French and English, and a wholly English county. These were Madawaska, Westmorland and Kings. Madawaska showed a rate above forty, Westmorland a little more than thirty, and Kings a little more than twenty.

There is nothing in history more remarkable than the increase of the relatively few thousands of French people who were in Canada at the time of the conquest to the more than three millions now in the Dominion and the eastern states. They have not been absorbed, but have retained their language and racial characteristics to a marked degree.

The Acadians and settlers from Quebec in this province are thirty-five thousand in number. Their representatives are found in every profession, in the Legislature and on the bench, and today an Acadian is the Premier of the province. In a minority today, they are moving steadily forward to the time when they will constitute the larger element in the population.

HEALTH DEPARTMENTS

New Brunswick is still the only province or state in the British Empire which has a Minister of Health who devotes his time to the one department. There are now some other Ministers of Health, but in their case two portfolios are combined.

New Brunswick's every reason to be well satisfied with her public health act, which is regarded as a model, and has attracted attention all over the continent. Whatever cause for criticism there may have been at any time, the reduced death-rate, the control of epidemics, and the fact that the Rockefeller Foundation has thought enough of our adventure in public health to offer what, if fully taken advantage of, will amount to more than $200,000 for its promotion, must convince every citizen that we are on the right track.

Everywhere greater attention is being given to public health measures, and this province has yet to do much in extending the public health nursing service, dealing with mental deficiency, and carrying on a more effective campaign for social hygiene and against tuberculosis. We are, however, on the right track, and popular sentiment in favor of organized effort to prevent and combat disease is constantly increasing as the fruits of intelligent action are observed.

Press Comment

MODERN CAVE MAN.

A Topika, Kan., lover who saw his fiancée making goo-goo eyes at another man handed her a wallop in the nose that put her down for the count. He's evidently determined to make her act like a lady or find out why.

NEW WORLDS TO CONQUER.

The value of sport is not in winning. It is in participating. That this confusion should confound our athletic games when it confounds almost everything else we do is by no means strange. But it is well to remember that the value of any activity lies more in the process—which means growth—than in the result—which means success, unless it is made merely the starting point of fresh effort.

"DR." PRICE BEGINS HIS PRACTICE.

Mr. Drury states that Hon. Mr. Price by his alarming statement on the provincial deficit is like a doctor describing the serious state of a patient "in order to get credit for performing a miracle." There are, of course, tricks in all trades. A story is told of villagers giving a farewell dinner to a youth who having graduated in medicine was going away to start practice. Among the eulogistic and admiring speeches was one from the landlord of the local hotel in which the dinner was held. "It's easy to succeed as a doctor," he said. "The first patient you get," he went on, "addressing the youthful guest of the evening 'look him in the eye, feel his pulse, look serious. Then shake your head and say he is going to die. Then all you got to do is to see that he does die, and your reputation will be made.'"

THAT ST. JOHN INVENTION.

Reports from St. John indicating a new and valuable discovery of a method for hardening copper wire additional weight to the contention that facilities for smelting and refining our native minerals must be established at Sackville in Vancouver. It is reported that Columbia miners intend to yield their profits to British Columbia people. This discovery, purporting to make copper at least as hard as steel, will, if proved successful, increase the demand for copper in world markets tremendously.

Not only will it increase the demand for copper, but it will increase the profits that one ton of copper can reasonably be expected to yield by at least 50 per cent. Whether that increased profit potential in British Columbia copper will go to British Columbia industry or to foreign industry will depend upon the rapidity with which facilities for refining and smelting the metal can be established here.

PROGRESSIVES, LIBERALS AND TORIES.

"Progressives, get behind the Liberals. If you don't the Tories are going back at the next election and where will you be then?" This is the slogan of a cry which is being re-echoed throughout Canada at the present time.

The Grits, of course, take to it with great gusto, and so long as they are the only people who join in the shouting, little attention need be paid to it. But one or two trusted friends of the Progressives, who recently gave expression to a similar view. There are many good arguments against this specious advice. We have pointed out a few of them in these columns from time to time; we shall have occasion to mention them in the future, but here and now we do not intend to go very deep into the matter. We want to see one point do we wish to touch. The possibility of Arthur Meighen becoming prime minister of Canada is viewed by those busy advisers of the Progressives as a calamity to be avoided at all costs.

DENBY'S RETIREMENT.

Although Secretary of the Navy Denby quits the Cabinet of President Coolidge under fire, he and his friends can have the satisfaction, scant though it may be, of knowing that the country does not feel that his honor has been impugned, or his integrity as a man even suspected. The view of his offending is taken from a different angle entirely. Mr. Denby was not dishonest, but he was negligent. On his own admission he did not know exactly what was going on between Secretary Fall and the Sinclair and Doherty interests. He called the transactions "technicalities," and in his easy-going, good-natured way, he let Fall "get away with it," as the slang phrase is. He made a serious blunder, too, by stating the other day that everything he did was perfectly correct, and that he would do the same thing over again, were circumstances similar. That was good for several additional votes against him in the Senate. But, poor as his judgment has been, he is not smirched as former Secretary Fall is by the revelation of money transactions with the very men who received the governmental favors in oil lands.

INDUSTRIES ARE BUSY IN STANLEY

Stanley, Feb. 25.—(Special)—The town presents an every day scene of activity. The Nashua mill is running cutting chiefly hard wood lumber. The Morris Lumber Company is loading 2,000,000 of hardwood to be conveyed to their mill at Mavis. J. Douglas is loading pulp wood and the Tay Creek mill is sending its laths into Stanley for shipment.

GOOD BUSINESS.

In advocating the admission of Germany into the League of Nations Ramsay MacDonald is carrying on the policy of his predecessors. The British position is at bottom based upon a conception of practical self-interest. Germany as a member of a League would have commercial rights in the mandated territories accorded only to the member nation. She would have no trouble competing her low wage scale would help, and she has always dealt effectively with backward peoples. Her manufacturers would find an outlet for Africa and Asia Minor, and Great Britain would not have to fear "dumping." Germany would thus be enabled to pay for British goods and British value and her favorite market opened once more.

A LABOR GOVERNMENT

Apart from a revolution nothing more extraordinary or unique in the political history of Great Britain could have occurred than the inauguration of a Labor Government at Westminster. The one thing that has reconciled the older parties to the advent of the new regime and created a general disposition to give it a chance is the moderation and the high character of its leaders. Even those who are radical socialists in the Labor party, but the party is not dominated by these. The destiny of the nation is probably as much in the hands of men like Ramsay MacDonald, John Robert Clynes, Viscount Haldane, Arthur Henderson and their colleagues as in those of other political leaders. In any case the new administration cannot introduce any radical measures without the consent of the older parties, and the issue of a defunct on issues deemed inimical to the best interests of the nation. The remarkable feature of the first Labor Government was the presence of men who are not manual workers or even trade unionists. Of the twenty members, not half a dozen are wage-earners or have laborer's hands for a living. Chelmsford, Buxton and Trevelyan belong to aristocratic families. Lord Haldane and Lord Parmoor, the former once a Liberal and the latter once a Conservative, are great jurists and experts on constitutional law. Colonel Wedgwood is a famous captain of industry. Sidney Olivier is a distinguished colonial administrator and a protégé of Joseph Chamberlain. Sidney Webb is a writer on economics. Philip Snowden was himself, the son of a poor farmer, has earned money for years only by his pen. Even those who have great political experience, like Ramsay MacDonald, General Henry Slesser, though he has never been in parliament, has specialized on trade union law.

IMMIGRANT BOYS.

From the latest annual report of the department of immigration and colonization at Ottawa it appears that in the last official year the number of children received in Canada was 1,184, and that the department had 17,000 applications from people in the various provinces and overseas who were seeking admission to the department. As of the end of the year only 7 per cent of the demand for such children could be supplied. G. Bogue Smart in this report, says: "We can now count hundreds of boys and young men throughout the agricultural districts of the Dominion whose progress and established prospects supply the highest possible testimony as to the value and success of the work of the various migrating organizations."

This, of course, is true enough. Many a successful man came to this country as a juvenile immigrant and started in as a "home" boy on a farm. But it is equally true that many a boy has been placed in harsh and uncharitable hands and has been worked for all he was worth until the day of deliverance came. The general feeling at this time is that the Province of Ontario should accept the responsibility—and not only accept it, but assert it—of supervising the welfare of boys and young men throughout the country and the township, that infant persons shall not be given imported orphans to enslave. When it occurs the neighbors may hate to interfere—it may be unwise. But the community should feel its responsibility, and a provincial organization with a local foothold could maintain a supervision that would be effective in those infrequent cases where it is really called for.

THE CHAIN.

Life fashions every man a chain. Whereon he strings his beads, Some may be gifts from others, some Are his own deeds.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Had Some Effect Mary—"Did you take father apart and speak to him?" John—"Not exactly, but he almost fell to pieces when I spoke to him."

His Painful Duty.

In the court house of an Eastern city is a melancholy attendant who, when asked to direct people to the bureau of marriage licenses, inquires lugubriously: "Do you insist?" "Well, yes." "Third door to the right."

Hard to Please.

"Boys," said the master, impressively, addressing the Fifth Form, "if I stand with my back to the sun at mid-day, what have I on my right hand? And truthful James, from a far corner of the class-room, logically answered, "Fingers." And yet he got into trouble over it. Some folk are never satisfied.

Too Close.

A negro went into a bank down South to get a check cashed. He stood in line a long time and finally his turn came. Just as he got to the window the teller put up a sign: "The Bank is Busted." The Negro—"What do you mean, the bank is busted?" Teller—"Well, it is, that's all; it's busted—didn't you ever hear of a bank being busted?" The Negro—"Yes; but I never had one bust right in my face before."

ARE TO CONSIDER PROVINCIAL ISSUES

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—(Special)—There will be a conference here on Monday next between the Provincial and Federal authorities, when representatives of the provinces will confer with Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister, and Charles Camsell, Deputy Minister of Mines, on ways and means for the more closely co-ordinating the Provincial and Federal Department of Mines in order to eliminate some overlapping and effect some economies. Hon. C. W. Robinson, of New Brunswick, will be one of those present. Further proposals for bringing coal from Alberta and the Maritime Provinces to Ontario will also be considered.

Our Fashion Departments

Early Spring Fashions Summon

Here newest spring garments await you now—Coats, Suits and Frocks that will win your praise and delight the minute you see them. These early first arrivals have note after note of newness. There are handsome models to be found now that you may find it hard to duplicate later.

YOUR INSPECTION CORDIALLY INVITED.

Fashions First Word In Frocks

Springtime, New Frock Time! And there are street and afternoon dresses to satisfy a hundred fancies and practically every figure. Slim and straight is the order of the season, while tunics, tiers, side fastenings, embroideries and braidings work magic to make these frocks interesting. There are woollens, silk crepes and knitted materials; as well as the finer fabrics used for formal and semi-formal wear.

New Thoughts On Spring Suits

Some of the most fascinating models have straight dress and long-line coat to match. Dress sleeves are often fashioned from brightly embroidered silk crepe, forming a smart contrast to suit material. For misses and small women the "boyish suit" is ideal; this has plain short coat and jaunty tailored skirt. Women who prefer conservative suit styles will find our stocks have amply provided for their needs as well. Colors, styles and fabrics all mark these late arrivals as style-right.

Coats Suitable to Spring Occasions

Spring coats, like frocks and suits, are straight and slim and convey an air of distinction to the wearer. Some are made from stunning, soft woollen fabrics in plaids, stripes and plain colors and are decidedly English looking in cut and material. Others are in fine, light weight twilled fabrics; or the popular velvety Marvella, and Bolivia cloths. Our present stocks emphasize the variety of types to be fashionable for spring and summer months.

DEATHS

David Lloyd Evans, farmer of Barnesville, died in the General Public Hospital on Sunday evening. He was 69 years of age and on first coming to this country from Wales conducted a meat business in Union street. However, failing health forced him to give up his business in St. John, and he moved to Barnesville, where he vigorously took up farming. Despite failing health, he was known as a hard worker. He was actively engaged with the business of his farm up to a few days ago, when he was compelled to seek immediate medical attention. He leaves his wife and one son, the latter at present engaged in lumbering operations in the province, besides several children who reside in the Old Country.

Mrs. Lois Selfridge.

London, Feb. 26—Mrs. Lois Selfridge, aged 80, mother of Harry Gordon Selfridge, a big London department store manager, died yesterday at the home of her son here. She went to the U. S. in November for a visit. She was taken ill last month in Washington, and Mr. Selfridge left hurriedly for the U. S. to be with her. She recovered sufficiently to be able to sail with him from New York, arriving at Southampton Saturday.

TWO ARE KILLED AT GLACE BAY MINE

Sydney, N. S., Feb. 26—The lives of two miners, John Babb, a native of Carbonar, Nfld., and Daniel McDonald, Louisburg, both married, were snuffed out without a moment's warning at Victory Mine No. 24, Glace Bay, this afternoon, when shortly after the men entered the pit to begin night shift a heavy piece of rock fell from the roof, crushing them and causing instant death.

Social Notes Of Interest

Mrs. H. A. K. Drury, of Winnipeg, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, "Carleton House," Germain street, left last evening for her home after a pleasant visit with former friends. Mrs. Drury was the occasion for several delightful functions during her short stay. Owing to recent bereavement, the functions were very informal and given only to make it possible for Mrs. Drury to meet all her friends, as her visit was of such short duration. On leaving she was given many good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fairweather, of Sussex, have been visiting in Montreal, the guests of Mrs. John Scott, and have returned home.

Miss Helen Marr entertained on Friday and Saturday afternoons at bridge, the event on Saturday being to honor Miss Ethel Daniels, who is a guest in the city. The function was given at the residence of Miss Mary's mother, Mrs. H. G. Marr, Germain street.

Mrs. Roble Cunningham, formerly Miss Gertrude O'Brien, of Fredericton, who has been residing in England for several years, has returned to the city and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. J. Neale, of 89 Lansdowne avenue, and Mrs. Neale's. Mrs. Cunningham will visit in Fredericton and other parts of New Brunswick, having come to her former home for the betterment of her health.

Mrs. A. M. Welling was hostess at four tables of bridge on Saturday afternoon. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Ralph Ganong and Mrs. Ronald Stammers. Those who assisted at the tea hour were Miss Mildred and Miss Marjorie James. Those present for bridge were Mrs. W. P. Roberts, Miss Frances Alward, Mrs. Annie Melick, Mrs. Ronald Stammers, Miss Tressa Smith, Miss Rita McDade, Miss Marion Powers, Mrs. L. W. Nickerson, Miss Dorothy Sutton, Miss Edith McKel, Mrs. Ralph Ganong, Mrs. John Barton, Miss Margaret Barker, Mrs. William Steen, Mrs. Charles Cameron and Mrs. A. E. Ralston. The guests coming in for the tea hour were Mrs. Millie Miss Mildred Parker, Miss Lillian Triton, Mrs. Roy Shanklin, Miss Margaret Williams, Mrs. W. E. Sutton and Miss Olive Golding. Yellow candles made a pretty lighting effect with a tasteful arrangement of yellow daffodils and freesias.

Mrs. M. A. Malone, 82 Lansdowne avenue, entertained Friday evening at a bridge of five tables in honor of Mrs. Roble Cunningham, who has recently returned from London, England. Refreshments were served, and music and dancing enjoyed after the game. The prize winners were Mrs. Howard Gallant and Mr. Frank Byron. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Neale, Mrs. Herbert Flaherty, Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Mary Doherty, Miss Sue Byron, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. ## SHOES FOR SPRING!

They'll Be Duller in Tone, But Will Carry Many Colors of Animal and Vegetable Kingdoms

THREE SHOE STYLES FOR THE COMING SEASON.

By MARIAN HALE.

New York—The shoes that protrude from the straight skirt of the trim tailleur this spring will be duller than those of last season. They will be low-heeled, buckled, sensible looking, yet very smart.

Besides the dull patent kid and suede to which we are more or less accustomed, there will be novelties in the way of lizard and alligator skins, both for the entire shoes and for trimmings.

flowers and the function was greatly enjoyed. Much pleasure was expressed at the return of Mrs. Cunningham.

Miss Ada Bayard entertained very informally at a small bridge yesterday afternoon for several of her friends.

Mrs. John Gillis entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon and will be a hostess again this afternoon at bridge.

Mrs. J. B. M. Baxter left yesterday afternoon for Montreal, where she will meet Hon. Dr. Baxter today. Dr. and Mrs. Baxter will proceed to Ottawa to be present at the opening of Parliament.

Dr. Murray MacLaren, C. M. G., M. P., Mrs. MacLaren and Miss Elsie MacLaren left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, where they will remain for the session, which opens on Thursday.

Mrs. Percy Hall, of Sydney, Cape Breton, returned to her home yesterday, after a pleasant visit here with her mother, Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis, and her sister, Miss Ethel Jarvis. Mrs. Hall was delightfully entertained.

The official colors have names from the animal and vegetable kingdoms to which we are more or less accustomed. For instance, alligator, crocodile, field, chamelon, lock rabbit, tortoise, straps, rivets and buckles, giving it a delightfully fancy feeling.

Combinations of suede and bright leathers are most noticeable. Perforations and strapings are handled this season with much more restraint and consequently with more taste than they have been for some time. And the vamp has reached that state where it is neither long nor short, but practically conforms to the foot.

With these models designed for street and sport wear a stocking of heavy silk, or a combination of silk and wool is recommended, with no ornamentation save clocking.

A most attractive scarf of orange colored crepe de chine is bordered with lighter orange and black crepe.

discussed measures for procuring prompt relief for the sufferers. It was decided to hold a general shower for all of those who were burned out in the Community Club hall on Friday night. Friday afternoon women of the community will spend at a quilting party at the hall helping to get a supply of bedding for the families in distress. Nothing definite was decided in regard to the entertainment to be given in the city but it was expected that this plan would be carried through later.

A. E. Boyle, the president, was in the chair and the meeting was very largely attended. Hearty thanks were received from Mrs. W. Mason, for whose benefit a pie social had been held last week. The telephones of members who undertook to arrange for the distribution of gifts to the fire sufferers were given as Main 120-11 and Main 4849-21. The shower of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sheehan will take place on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brophy.

Clark, Mrs. Harry Kierstead and Miss Marion Stevens. Those present were Mrs. A. B. Kierstead, Mrs. C. D. Black, Mrs. M. E. Ross, Mrs. Robert McMann, Mrs. M. Currie, Mrs. Benjamin Godsoe, Mrs. Carl Cunningham, Mrs. J. Gallant, Mrs. William Szymat, Mrs. Fred McCluskey and Mrs. Allan Thorne.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Fairville Baptist church held a sliding party last night on McClure's hill and afterwards returned to the church where a committee of girls served refreshments.

It was social night at the Epworth League of the Fairville Methodist church last night. Harry Sweet, the president, led the opening devotions and Miss Hazel Kelly, convenor of the social department, was in charge of the programme which consisted of music, games and contests. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served with Miss Vivian McColgan, Miss Hazel Kelly and Miss Lottie Kelly in charge.

PREPARING FOR SURVEY.

The cards to be used for the survey of the city to discover the number of widows with two or more dependent children are now being prepared. Mrs. E. A. Young, convenor of the committee appointed by the Local Council of Women to supervise the survey, said last night that it was intended to call a special meeting of the Council to arrange for the workers for the survey. She thought that the survey could be completed in one or two days if there sufficient volunteers. She advocated having those who were familiar with any special district to undertake the work in the district. The survey is being conducted to obtain data for the Provincial Commission on Mothers' allowances.

The Film Combated

Why not keep those prettier teeth?

Your dentist, when he cleans teeth, removes the dingy film. Then teeth look whiter, cleaner. Why not keep them so?

Millions of people now daily fight that film. They use a new-type tooth paste. Now, wherever you look, you see teeth glistening from clouds.

How teeth lose their beauty

You feel on your teeth a viscous film. Under old-way brushing, much of it clings and stays. Food stains, etc., discolor it, then it forms dingy coats to cloud the luster of the teeth.

Film also causes most tooth troubles. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

That is why tooth troubles come to so many, despite the daily care.

Modern science has discovered

Protect the Enamel

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatan which contains harsh grit.

PLAN MORE RELIEF FOR FIRE VICTIMS

Red Cross Receiving Contributions — Community Club to Have Shower

A few gifts were received by the fire sufferers at Glen Falls yesterday and arrangements were completed yesterday for the reception and transportation of further gifts. Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, provincial secretary of the Red Cross Society, said that any contributions could be left at the Red Cross depot and Councillor G. H. Simpson, Glen Falls, undertook to arrange for the transportation of these gifts. The transportation problem has caused some regrettable delay in the taking of relief supplies to the families and they are still relying upon the kindness of neighbors for some of the necessities of life.

The Community Club of Glen Falls held a special meeting last night and discussed measures for procuring prompt relief for the sufferers. It was decided to hold a general shower for all of those who were burned out in the Community Club hall on Friday night. Friday afternoon women of the community will spend at a quilting party at the hall helping to get a supply of bedding for the families in distress. Nothing definite was decided in regard to the entertainment to be given in the city but it was expected that this plan would be carried through later.

A. E. Boyle, the president, was in the chair and the meeting was very largely attended. Hearty thanks were received from Mrs. W. Mason, for whose benefit a pie social had been held last week. The telephones of members who undertook to arrange for the distribution of gifts to the fire sufferers were given as Main 120-11 and Main 4849-21. The shower of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sheehan will take place on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brophy.

THE WEST SIDE AND FAIRVILLE MEETINGS

The Ladies' Aid of the Carleton Methodist church met last night in the church hall and engaged in quilting and apron making. Those present were Mrs. J. Sharpe, Mrs. F. T. Bertram, Mrs. W. H. Rowley, Mrs. F. Henderson, Mrs. C. White, Mrs. W. D. Williams, Mrs. William Haslam, Mrs. E. Runson, Mrs. F. Whippley, Mrs. Samuel Nichols, Mrs. C. Murray, Mrs. E. Tippet, Mrs. George Kirkpatrick, Miss Emma Parks and Miss C. Carson.

The Ladies' Aid of the Fairville Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. W. J. Stevens, Prospect street, last night and spent the evening in quilting and sewing. Refreshments were served by Mrs. C. T. Clark, Mrs. Harry Kierstead and Miss Marion Stevens. Those present were Mrs. A. B. Kierstead, Mrs. C. D. Black, Mrs. M. E. Ross, Mrs. Robert McMann, Mrs. M. Currie, Mrs. Benjamin Godsoe, Mrs. Carl Cunningham, Mrs. J. Gallant, Mrs. William Szymat, Mrs. Fred McCluskey and Mrs. Allan Thorne.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Fairville Baptist church held a sliding party last night on McClure's hill and afterwards returned to the church where a committee of girls served refreshments.

It was social night at the Epworth League of the Fairville Methodist church last night. Harry Sweet, the president, led the opening devotions and Miss Hazel Kelly, convenor of the social department, was in charge of the programme which consisted of music, games and contests. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served with Miss Vivian McColgan, Miss Hazel Kelly and Miss Lottie Kelly in charge.

PREPARING FOR SURVEY.

The cards to be used for the survey of the city to discover the number of widows with two or more dependent children are now being prepared. Mrs. E. A. Young, convenor of the committee appointed by the Local Council of Women to supervise the survey, said last night that it was intended to call a special meeting of the Council to arrange for the workers for the survey. She thought that the survey could be completed in one or two days if there sufficient volunteers. She advocated having those who were familiar with any special district to undertake the work in the district. The survey is being conducted to obtain data for the Provincial Commission on Mothers' allowances.

UPS AND DOWNS EVENLY DIVIDED

Price-Movements in Wall Street Were Conflicting This Morning.

New York, Feb. 26.—Conflicting price movements took place at the opening of today's stock market with gains and losses about evenly divided in initial sales. Heaviness again cropped out in the copper group. American Smelting dropped nearly a point. American Can, American Locomotive, and Houston Oil made substantial fractional gains in the early trading.

Non Report.
New York, Feb. 26.—The morning trade was unusually quiet. Bear traders encountered substantial support when they attempted to depress the market with the result that they abandoned their efforts in those quarters and the general list stiffened perceptibly before noon. Short selling continued, however, in certain specialties. Central Leather common dropping 1/4 and the preferred 1/8, the latter trading at 1/8, a new low record for the year. Coca Cola also touched a new low at 69, an overnight drop of 1/2 point. Strength of the motor and independent steel shares was one of the morning features. Studebaker, Chrysler, Stromberg, Carburetor, Stewart Warner, Speedometer, Mack Truck, Sloss, Sheffield, Crucible and Gulf Steel, the selling 1/4 to 1/8 above yesterday's close. Virginia Carbons, Chemical, and American Locomotive to 1/4 and International Business Machines to 1/4. Trading in the rails was seen a bit sluggish.

Montreal Market.
Montreal, Feb. 26.—Bradford was again the chief feature of trading at the opening of the Montreal stock market today. This issue came out with an overnight loss of 1/2 to 5/8. The balance of the market was active and slightly easier. Other issues traded included: ANHEIL, Besco 2nd Pfd, 16; Canada Car Pfd, 90; Power, 155 1/2; and Breweries, 53 1/2.

Stocks to 12 noon.

"GOOD CHEER" IN WORD AND DEED

King's Daughters Give Delightful Programme in Provincial Hospital.

The members of the Good Cheer Circle of the King's Daughters paid a visit to the Provincial Hospital last evening and a delightful programme which they presented to the patients gave ample evidence that the name of their circle was justified. The following were the items of the programme: Piano recital, Misses Isabel Jamieson and Phyllis MacGowan; vocal solos, Misses Jessie Jamieson and Phyllis MacGowan; Clyde Parsons, readings, Miss Alice Vanwart and Mrs. G. A. Horton; violin solo, Mrs. H. McNiel. Then followed a number of old-time choruses and the National Anthem. The members of the circle took over a quantity of home-made candy which was passed around during the evening.

Keep Catarrh Away With Vicks

"Finest Thing I Ever Used," Says New Brunswick Lady.

Vicks is good for common colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, croup, tonsillitis, grippe and all inflammations of the nose, throat or lungs. The ingredients, Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Turpentine, Thyme, and Juniper Tar, make Vicks equally effective for inflammations of the skin, such as cuts, burns, sores, bruises and skin itching.

Mrs. Thomas Brown of Sandy Point Road, St. John, New Brunswick, says: "Vicks VapoRub is the finest thing I have ever used. I had catarrh of the throat for years and nothing seemed to do me any good. I read about Vicks and bought a jar at the drug store. I was relieved at once, but I kept on using Vicks. I now feel quite well."

Vicks is a safe that acts like a plaster and a vapor lamp at the same time. It is absorbed and inhaled. A valuable family remedy kept on hand in millions of homes. Vicks is used constantly for all the daily ills and hurts of all the family.

VALUE OF HEALTH WORK IS SHOWN

Smallpox Cases From Lumber Camp Are Quickly Dealt With.

The value of a well organized public health department was strikingly illustrated in this province within the last few weeks.

Dr. Desmond, district health officer, discovered a case of smallpox in Moncton and had the man, who was en route to Prince Edward Island, isolated and the contacts vaccinated.

He found that the man had come from a lumber camp near Summit, in the interior of the province. He notified Mr. Melvin, chief medical officer, who at once sent Dr. Wade, health officer for that district, to the lumber camp. Dr. Wade found one man who had a vacant but converted into an isolation room. He also found that a large number had not been vaccinated, and promptly attended to their case. They had been vaccinated before

ABBHEY'S "For Constant Health"

Are you still in good form when your day's work is done? Does your vitality last? Does your family get the same cheery greeting when you get home as your office received in the morning? Take a glass of Abbey's every morning, and keep your good spirits and vitality the whole day long.

There had been a possibility of four outbreaks at different places in this province, but the health department was on the job.

While at Plaster Rock, Dr. Wade sought to trace the origin of the disease. He found that a woman had had the disease but did not call a doctor, and that her son had gone to the lumber camp. He had been vaccinated and did not take the disease himself, but apparently carried it to the camp. His mother does a great deal of washing for lumbermen, and the assumption is that she got the disease from the clothes of some man who either had had the disease or carried it in his clothes. The lumber company on being communicated with by the department undertook to have their own doctor attend the case in quarantine in a hut and also to send a male nurse. Dr. Wade warned the railway authorities not to permit anybody from the camps to board the train at the station or permit anyone to go to the camps without due warning.

DROPPED $10,000 IN STOCK FLIERS

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Jacques Kwawwass, whose daughters, Emma and Celina, are charged with conspiracy to defraud the creditors of the Real American Cap Company, of which Kwawwass was proprietor, lost about $10,000 in stock market operations, although he had arranged to pay an expert in stocks on margin $2,000 for advice. This was brought out in evidence when hearing of the case was resumed here today. His company failed last October and since then Kwawwass's whereabouts have been unknown.

COMBATTING WHITE PLAGUE IN QUEBEC

Quebec, Feb. 25.—Whether it may be possible for the province to benefit from the offer from Lord Atholstan to provide half a million dollars toward stamping out tuberculosis is not a reason for holding up government legislation looking toward suppression of the plague, was the intimation of Premier Taschereau made in the legislative assembly today when Hon. Mr. Davids' measure providing for the expenditure of $100,000 a year for five years, was given a third reading.

IS NOT TO MARRY EARL'S DAUGHTER

A COMMUNITY ASSET.
The time has now come for St. John to show that it realizes the value of such a hotel as the Admiral Beatty Corporation offers to provide if supported in their appeal for community co-operation. The investor will find the prospectus an attractive proposition from the purely financial standpoint, but a modern hotel means much more to St. John than a financial speculation of prime interest to the investor looking for a direct return on his money. The fact that the Admiral Beatty is to be one of a chain of hotels under the capable management of the United Hotels Company is the assurance that in its construction, equipment and operation it will fully meet the demands of present-day requirements. The United Hotels Company interests itself in the project is a fact which challenges the confidence, both of the investing and the travelling public. Aside, however, from its investment value, the hotel proposition has an interest for St. John which should win for it the support of all those who are in a position to make a practical contribution to community endeavor. A modern hotel in a city is an asset of far greater value than the dollars and cents return which it may earn on the money invested. The indirect value is incalculable, but it will be visualized in a larger volume of money-spending travel, and that means a larger volume of trade for those who have commodities to sell. Directly for its own operation and maintenance, the hotel will put into circulation an enormous amount of money, while the day by day outlay of those who it brings to the city must reach an even larger sum. These things merchants, large and small, may fairly regard as reasons for an investment to make sure of the construction of the Admiral Beatty Hotel. A modern hotel St. John has long been calling for. A modern hotel is now possible if those who have developed the enterprise are given the encouragement and support which the project demands as an enterprise in the best interests of the community.

ARE RETARDED BY DEFECTIVE EYES

6,000,000 of School Age in U.S. Seriously Handicapped, Says Council.

Millions of school children are handicapped in their studies by defective eyes, it is stated in a report embodying the results of a survey by the Eyesight Conservation Council of America of statutory provisions in the United States and Territories for testing the sight of pupils.

"Thousands of children," says the report, "are suffering from eyestrain, and large numbers are forced to discontinue their endeavors to acquire an education because of this same physical defect. It has been conclusively proven that poor eyesight is an important associate cause of backwardness, stupidity, apparent laziness and truancy."

The report estimated that at this time the number of children enrolled in the elementary and secondary schools of the United States exceeds 24,000,000, or more than 20 per cent of the population. More than 60 per cent of this number are said to have substantial eye defects.

"Even simple visual tests" the report continues, "reveal 25 per cent with manifest defects and symptoms of eye strain. Many are contending with vision so defective that mental development is seriously retarded and comfort, health and even safety are jeopardized. Fully 6,000,000 of our school children are at a disadvantage in their efforts to gain an education."

Conclusions set forth in the report, applying to the country as a whole, say there is a wide diversity in the provisions and regulations. It was found that statutory provisions for the examination of the eyes of school children have not been adopted generally by State Legislatures, and that only 20 States have statutes providing for eye tests. There are only two other States that have board regulations which take the place of statutes, and in most instances general physical examination laws are not interpreted to include eye tests.

Programme Recommended.
A programme is recommended for state educational departments, local school authorities, educators and teachers. Every State Board of Education is urged to bring about the observance of an eyesight conservation day. A model law is not required, according to the investigators.

Honors in Great Skating Classic.

Charles Gorman, National and International champion, and Joe Moore of New York divided honors at the International Indoor Skating Championships, which started in the Arena last night. The local pride won the 220 yards with a sensational burst of speed, and was leading on the last lap of the mile when he was overtaken by Tommy Tebo and A. Oland, who finished in second and third positions respectively. The 10 year old youngsters, who participated in but one event, and that in but one heat, the final, proved very adept on the blades, and gave the fans quite a thrill in the 220 yards. Louis Mullin of St. John, won the race, R. Stack and A. Colwell, finishing in second and third positions. Point Winners.

One Mile Race.
In the mile race the heats were fast and interesting. Gorman did not exert himself in his heat. He only kept with the bunch of qualifiers for the semi-finals. He finished third in his first heat. In the semi-finals he limbered up and broke the tape ahead of Garnett with a lead of close to three feet. Donovan and Moore took their time in the semi-final heat, Moore coming in second but qualifying for the final. The race came to a thrilling final of the one mile race. Moore, Donovan, Garnett, Reed, Gorman and Allen composed the line up. The last prize went to Reed. The other skaters seemed quite satisfied to allow him this honor practically unopposed. Reed, Donovan, Moore, Allen, Gorman and Garnett next formed the order of procession as lap after lap rolled up until the tenth, when Moore jumped into the lead. Then the pace quickened. Moore, who was still skating in fifth position, stretched those wonderful legs of his. He crouched a pace and then shot after Moore. Donovan caught the spirit of the race and pursued his opponents.

Three Keep Skaters kept this position to lap twelve. Then Gorman closed the smart gap between him and Moore. Donovan kept pace and held his own. The crowd settled back almost breathless. Lap thirteen saw the three men taking the corners at the fourteenth, the last lap and Gorman slowly pulled past Moore. Exactly half way around the last lap Gorman slipped, slightly. It was enough to give Moore the chance he had waited for during those gruelling fourteen laps and he slipped ahead of Gorman. Donovan also seized the opportunity to pass the champion. Gorman recovered his balance and tore after his fleeing opponents, inch by inch he gained as he neared the tape. It was too near, and Moore snapped the yarn as Donovan stuck to his heels with Gorman but a few inches behind him.

A slight diversion from the grind of fast skating was caused by the excellent exhibition of fancy skating presented by very talented performers. The act by Reynolds and Le Maire, in which they opened with an interpretation of Gorman's performance, drew the crowd, was loudly applauded. Bobby Hearn of New York, was up to his old stunts and following his elimination in the senior mile, took on the lion's share of entertaining the crowd which he did greatly to the amusement of the whole gathering. Joe Moore, who two years ago at Lily Lake kept the fans in an uproar, through his stunts, had a hand in the fun also.

Junior Events.
Of the Junior events, the final of the 220 yards, in the 12 year class was the sensation of the evening. In the trial heats, the performance of Frankie Logan of St. John and Jackie Marr of Toronto, in their respective heats, gave promise of a great race for honors in the final. When the race was called the crowd was on its toes in anticipation, and their hopes were fulfilled. With the crack of the pistol, Frankie and Jackie were away with flying starts. Logan took the lead, and although Marr did his best he could not cut down the slight margin. The last lapped almost neck and neck on the first lap. As they turned into the stretch Marr began to creep up, and Logan in a grand effort to win, pulled his stride and neck, while Marr piled on top of him. Marr was up like a flash, but Richard Lee who had trailed along in third position, had crossed the tape. Marr however took third.

J. O'Neil Farrell, Chicago, Junior International Champion, and Willie Logan of St. John, runner up, were the stars of the evening. Farrell won both his races, the 880 and 440 yards, while Logan, took a third and a second, as also did Snodgrass of St. John, Smythe of Moncton.

The only other outside skater who showed up at all in the Junior events was Smythe of Moncton. The West-Island county boy, who only passed his fourteenth birthday last week, led the field in the final of the 440 yards.

GRAND PRIX AT MILAN

Milan, Italy, Feb. 26.—The King of Spain has entered Ruban, winner of the Grand Prix de Madrid in 1922, for the Milan Grand Prix, to be run here June 22. The Italian entries already have reached sixty-five. The race is for 800,000 lire, the promoters offering this big purse in an effort to find an Italian thoroughbred equal to the great horses that have been produced abroad. Frederico Tosi, the great Italian breeder, has five entries from his stables. Entries continued to pour in this afternoon, forty-three being received from France, two from Great Britain, twelve from Hungary, while Belgium, Germany and Spain also were represented. It is announced that Town Guard of England is among the entries, and it is rumored, but not confirmed, that Papyrus, the English Derby winner, will be entered.

DEMPSEY IS EAGER TO DEFEND CROWN

World's Champion in New York—Had Interview
With Coolidge.

Enthusiastic over the distinction of having an audience with President Coolidge last week, Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, has returned to this city, prepared for a fight or a continuation of his vaudeville tour, but with a decided preference for his own trade. Dempsey it is known that he is not averse to another trip to Europe, either, in the event that fight plans for the coming outdoor season do not materialize. The titleholder was as happy as a child with a new toy over his meeting with the nation's Chief Executive in Washington and kept repeating the pleasure he felt over the few minutes he had with President Coolidge. "It was one of the greatest events of my life," said the champion, "I wouldn't have missed it for $50,000. It's something I'll never forget. Another thing, I think the President likes boxing. At any rate, he impressed me that way during the few minutes we were together."

Dempsey's plans for the immediate future are uncertain. He seldom knows in advance what he will do, and right now he is more undecided as to the future than ever before. He leaves all details of his public, money-raising activity to Kearns, doing his manager's bidding whenever a fight is arranged or a vaudeville or exhibition tour is scheduled. Kearns, while more familiar with negotiations and proposition which are made the champion, nevertheless asserted he was as undecided as Dempsey with regard to the champion's future activity. Neither, however, made any secret of the fact that Dempsey is eager to defend his title. He seldom knows in interest as to the contender. Dempsey's eagerness to be working at his trade amounts almost to impatience. By nature he is active, of necessity he is a theatrical attraction, but by preference he is a fighter, and he wants to be following the activity at which he is supreme without long periods of interruption, according to his own assertion. Kearns is negotiating for at least two bouts for Dempsey this year. It is possible that three matches will be closed if developments are favorable but it is reasonably certain that he will have to wait in two bouts, and both of them return engagements.

Kearns is dicker with Promoter Tex Rickard for a bout between Dempsey and the fastest of the game, Kelly Victoria played a one all overtime game here last night in a scheduled inter-league game.

WHIM AGAIN LANDED
HIM BEHIND BARS

Havana, Feb. 25.—Batling Siki, French Senegalaise boxer, arrived in Havana recently for a series of exhibition bouts. He came over from Key West, where he had missed a previous bout by reason of getting in jail on charges of creating a disturbance. It was Siki's sudden impulse to sue suits for two rather scantily clad Negro West negroes that caused the disturbance, according to George Lawton, a promoter, who with manager Levey, accompanied the French negro. A crowd of other negroes followed and a policeman, who could not break up the gathering, too Siki in tow, but no charges were filed and after a few hours he was released.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM THE WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

PENNYLESS IMMIGRANT TO CROESUS OF FILM WORLD—CARL LAEMMLE

Founder of Universal Celebrates 18th Anniversary in Pictures.

(By Jack Jungmeyer) Hollywood, Feb. 26.—This (February) is Carl Laemmle month on the otion picture calendar, so designated because it marks his eighteenth anniversary in films and his fortieth in movies.

Universal Pictures Corporation thus honors its founder and active president, Laemmle has long been a dominant figure of the screen world because he personifies the fighting independence which in early days molded the trend of pictures.

Once Errand Boy; Now Millionaire

An odd lighting man he is. Little, compact, shrewd, genial and generous. Not belligerent, but dynamic and tenacious, so that while he doesn't pick a quarrel, once it is forced upon him he meets it doggedly. A man in whom deals are not mere words but something to be sweated over in the business world, even if never fully realized.

"Why Worry," the title of Harold Lloyd's Pathemore production to live in, gives a splendid idea of just the type of picture it is.

IRISH ROMANCE IS ATTRACTIVE PLAY

"Isle o' Dreams" Pleases a Lare Audience at the Opera House.

"THE ISLE O' DREAMS," an Irish play in four acts, presented at the Opera House by the F. James Carroll Players; staged and directed by John Gordon; music by Paul Broderick; scenic artist, R. C. Benjamin; musical by Opera House Orchestra under direction of T. H. Roberts.

Old Ireland, with its quaintness, folk-love and rich humor, formed the background for the delightful bill which was the attraction at the Opera House last evening and in the capable hands of the F. James Carroll Players, "The Isle o' Dreams" was given a presentation which delighted the packed house which witnessed its initial production.

Haughty queen to the last, Miss Preston developed an excellent role in a good manner. Her Irish dialect was convincing and her mannerisms gave her role that naturalness so necessary for such a part.

The stage settings were worthy of more than passing note. The second scene, a hillside overlooking the water was a masterpiece of outdoor stage artistry and was very realistic, while the last act—a scene aboard an old-time vessel, was something out of the ordinary and gained the approval of the audience.

Emilie Johnson, mother of Emory Johnson, the producer, and the author of his greatest successes including "The Third Alarm," "In the Name of the Law," "Westbound Limited" and "The Mailman," has written more than one hundred stories for the screen. Her latest is "Swords and Plowshares," directed by her son, Johnnie Walker, and Mary Barr are the stars.

BLUEBEARD FILM IS A FINE SATIRE

Gloria Swanson Does Fine Work in Society Drama at Imperial.

Although the counter-attractions were of the most formidable kind last night Imperial Theatre was overly well patronized when the sumptuous Paramount society production "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" received its premiere screening in this city.

The story is that of a beautiful daughter of French nobility whose father is impoverished and wishes to marry her off to a man of wealth. His wish becomes reality when a rich American meets and falls in love with her. She also loves him.

Then it is learned that the American is a "youthful Bluebeard" and has been married seven times. One wife, it is learned, died. The other six he divorced. Miss Swanson as the eighth wife is shocked by the cold-blooded business arrangement made of her marriage and determines she will not be like the other wives, divorced.

So she becomes his wife in name only and exasperates him to continual outbursts of temper. But she also awakens his love and the real manhood in him. As a final touch, she causes herself to be found in a compromising position with another man. Her husband is jealous and both realize he really loves her. She agrees to give him a divorce but he, realizing what she means to him, does not want it.

Instead, he goes to her humbly, her sweatheart. Mrs. Swanson's leading man in "Bluebeard's 8th Wife" is Huntley Gordon, a popular player. Paul Weigel, Frank R. Butler, Robert Agnew and Irene Dalton are in the cast. The same programme is to be presented tonight. Tomorrow afternoon the Imperial is to be devoted to a highly interesting Style Show with the local firm will collaborate with the Natural Shoe Corporation of Upper Canada and in the evening and all day Thursday the Rotary Minstrels will put on their annual minstrel show, which promises to be a corker—a burnt corker, in fact.

FIRES OCCUR IN 3 N. SHORE TOWNS

The North Shore suffered from three blazes yesterday, Bathurst, Newcastle and Lower Derby being visited by the fire fiend. In the Bathurst blaze the brick building of Burns & Melanson was badly damaged and a lot of stock destroyed. The damage is estimated at about $10,000. At Newcastle there was a slight blaze in the Harkins Academy, and in Columbia, the three-year-old pace has been renewed on a plan which will make it worth $10,000. Kalamazoo has closed what should be a $25,000 event for 2.08 pacers and is now offering a three-year-old trot that will call for $10,000. These are the leading announcements which have been made by the Grand Circuit tracks to date. Others as liberal may be expected in the next few weeks.

Camera Work finished on the third of F. B. O. series, "The Telephone Girl," featuring Alberta Vaughn.

Last year eight of the fairs in North Carolina organized what was known as the North Carolina Grand Circuit. Each of them offered a number of $1,000 purses for meetings in October and November, when the Northern tracks are idle. They received a large entry and the events resulted in such splendid contests and fast times that this circuit will repeat in 1924.

Purses offered by the Bay State Circuit for its eleventh series will be larger than ever before. Avon will have a group of $2,000 events and Windsor will have two $10,000 events on its programme Fourth of July week. At the other points one-third will be added to the old rates and the purses kept up to the former standard or increased. This series of meetings runs from the middle of June to the last of August.

The Orange County Circuit in New York State will duplicate last year's showing for the three-day meetings at Endicot, Monroe, Goshen and Middletown. In this circuit all of the events will be of the exception of a few at Monroe and Middletown are worth $2,000. A free-for-all trot will be the feature race this year.

The Ohio Short Shin Circuit and the Lake Erie Circuit will be the leaders among the circuit. The only announcement made from them thus far in the matter of purses is that for the new Cranwood Park June and July meetings at Cleveland. They will amount to $25,000, the feature being a $10,000 mon. Cam for the 2.10 pacers, which will be worth $10,000.

In Maine and the Maritime Provinces, where some of the enthusiastic promoters sit up nights trying to find a pacer that can trim John R. Braden, the associations in Aroostook County and New Brunswick have also announced that they will renew their $12,000 event in 1924. Last year, when Carworth won, it was for the free-for-all trotters. Conditions for this year will be announced a little later.

Brookton has arranged to repeat its $40,000 programme for five days of racing the first week in October. The associations at Bangor, Waterville, Lewiston and Rochester also have signified their intention to give more money than they did last season, when each of the fairs had better racing than at any time in their history. The average for all of the races at Brookton was below 2:11 and at Bangor and Lewiston below 2:14.

The Virginia fairs have not yet announced their race programme for this year. The Del-Mar-Via-Pen Circuit will repeat last year's offerings and at a few points will increase the value of the purses.

$1,000 Events Are Fixtures. In the Western New York Fair Circuit, Batavia, Lockport, Hamburg and Dunkirk will join with the new track at Niagara Falls and each will give $1,000 events on the same plan as the fixtures, which have been promoted by the Buffalo Road Drivers for a number of years.

The Vermont Racing Circuit which has its first bid for public favor in 1923 has been reorganized. It will give nine meetings between June 16 and Aug. 11 at White River Junction, Morrisville, Rutland, St. Albans, Brattleboro, Barton, St. Johnsbury and Woodstock. These dates will carry the racing up to the Vermont fairs in line with the Canadian fairs in the St. Lawrence Valley Circuit.

The racing season in 1924 promises to be very busy from the last week in May until the Southern Fairs close in November. There is more money to be raced for and more opportunities to race. This will give all kinds of horses a chance, from the 2:30 performer to the free-for-all star.

MEADAM NOT TO BE TOWN. J. B. Hawthorne, High Sheriff of York, conducted the election on the question of town incorporation at Meadham on Saturday. The voters decided against incorporation by a vote of 163 against 85 for. The 250 votes were about one-third of the total qualified vote.

MAYOR MEDERIC MARTIN VICTOR Montreal, Feb. 25—Mayor Mederic Martin is qualified under the city charter to hold the office of first magistrate of Montreal, as his principal place of residence is in Logan street, according to a majority judgment of the court of appeals today. The appeal of E. W. Villeneuve, former city controller, from a judgment of the Superior Court which refused to unseat the mayor on the grounds that he was no longer qualified to hold office by reason of his residence being outside the city limits, is accordingly refused. Mrs. Wallace Reid is considering a semi-official offer to tour England and France in conjunction with the showing of her film, "Human Wreckage."

MORE MONEY FOR HARNESS RACING

Circuit Meets Will Have Larger Purses for Trotters and Pacers.

New York, Feb. 26.—Reports from recent circuit meetings show that in 1924 the trotters and pacers will race for more money than ever before in the history of the light harness turf. A majority of the tracks are adding to their offerings to get a better class of horses and faster racing at their fairs and race meetings.

At Cleveland for the first Grand Circuit meeting, the Edwards Purse for pacers has been increased from $8,000 to $8,000. At Columbus, the three-year-old pace has been renewed on a plan which will make it worth $10,000. Kalamazoo has closed what should be a $25,000 event for 2.08 pacers and is now offering a three-year-old trot that will call for $10,000. These are the leading announcements which have been made by the Grand Circuit tracks to date. Others as liberal may be expected in the next few weeks.

Last year eight of the fairs in North Carolina organized what was known as the North Carolina Grand Circuit. Each of them offered a number of $1,000 purses for meetings in October and November, when the Northern tracks are idle. They received a large entry and the events resulted in such splendid contests and fast times that this circuit will repeat in 1924.

Purses offered by the Bay State Circuit for its eleventh series will be larger than ever before. Avon will have a group of $2,000 events and Windsor will have two $10,000 events on its programme Fourth of July week. At the other points one-third will be added to the old rates and the purses kept up to the former standard or increased. This series of meetings runs from the middle of June to the last of August.

The Orange County Circuit in New York State will duplicate last year's showing for the three-day meetings at Endicot, Monroe, Goshen and Middletown. In this circuit all of the events will be of the exception of a few at Monroe and Middletown are worth $2,000. A free-for-all trot will be the feature race this year.

The Ohio Short Shin Circuit and the Lake Erie Circuit will be the leaders among the circuit. The only announcement made from them thus far in the matter of purses is that for the new Cranwood Park June and July meetings at Cleveland. They will amount to $25,000, the feature being a $10,000 mon. Cam for the 2.10 pacers, which will be worth $10,000.

In Maine and the Maritime Provinces, where some of the enthusiastic promoters sit up nights trying to find a pacer that can trim John R. Braden, the associations in Aroostook County and New Brunswick have also announced that they will renew their $12,000 event in 1924. Last year, when Carworth won, it was for the free-for-all trotters. Conditions for this year will be announced a little later.

Brookton has arranged to repeat its $40,000 programme for five days of racing the first week in October. The associations at Bangor, Waterville, Lewiston and Rochester also have signified their intention to give more money than they did last season, when each of the fairs had better racing than at any time in their history. The average for all of the races at Brookton was below 2:11 and at Bangor and Lewiston below 2:14.

The Virginia fairs have not yet announced their race programme for this year. The Del-Mar-Via-Pen Circuit will repeat last year's offerings and at a few points will increase the value of the purses.

$1,000 Events Are Fixtures. In the Western New York Fair Circuit, Batavia, Lockport, Hamburg and Dunkirk will join with the new track at Niagara Falls and each will give $1,000 events on the same plan as the fixtures, which have been promoted by the Buffalo Road Drivers for a number of years.

The Vermont Racing Circuit which has its first bid for public favor in 1923 has been reorganized. It will give nine meetings between June 16 and Aug. 11 at White River Junction, Morrisville, Rutland, St. Albans, Brattleboro, Barton, St. Johnsbury and Woodstock. These dates will carry the racing up to the Vermont fairs in line with the Canadian fairs in the St. Lawrence Valley Circuit.

The racing season in 1924 promises to be very busy from the last week in May until the Southern Fairs close in November. There is more money to be raced for and more opportunities to race. This will give all kinds of horses a chance, from the 2:30 performer to the free-for-all star.

MEADAM NOT TO BE TOWN. J. B. Hawthorne, High Sheriff of York, conducted the election on the question of town incorporation at Meadham on Saturday. The voters decided against incorporation by a vote of 163 against 85 for. The 250 votes were about one-third of the total qualified vote.

HOTEL PICTURE IS A WORK OF ART

A large oil painting of the new Admiral Beatty Hotel by Frederick T. Daws of London, Eng., graces the window of one of the M. R. A. Ltd. buildings, King street, and is attracting much attention. As a painting it is a distinct work of art and as a subject of local pride it is inspiring.

It was but a few days before Mr. Daws left for the New York dog show that he consented to paint the Admiral Beatty picture. He had been visiting here for a few months, but his stay quite overstay his time. Therefore he rushed the job along day and night and when he left town the oil was still wet. Nevertheless the picture of the new hotel, as laid down finally by the architects, is strikingly imposing and its draughtsmen say the artist has caught the spirit of the completed hostelry to a nicety.

Grey pencilled sketches by architects are never very inspiring in their monotone and stiff regularity but when clothed with the warm colors of the building convey a vivid idea of the finished structure. This is what Mr. Daws has done with the Admiral Beatty picture. Before starting it he visited the Dufferin corner several afternoons to get the true lighting effects and to watch the trend of traffic.

With its ground floors in benedict stone—a light grey material—and the six upper stories in cream terra cotta brick, ornamented in black iron, trimmed with floral window-boxes, furnished with a rich curtaining scheme, the whole surmounted by a flanking Union Jack in vivid display, the new hotel stands out a grand sight, dwarfing as it were such neighboring buildings as Imperial Theatre of four stories, Trinity rectory and others.

Mr. Daws has caught a little glint of St. John life that makes the picture all the more real. He has peeped natural everyday pedestrian life into his foreground, as passing down Charlotte street. There is a touch of King square greenward, a leafy tree, some up-to-date models of cars, and the hotel and parked on the square side. Mr. Daws has made a study of cloud conditions as well and the very atmosphere of the painting is typically St. John.

As a contribution to local pictorialization the work of the visiting artist is valuable. Whether it will eventually reach the gallant British sea-dog after whom the hotel is to be named, or stay at home here as a tasty touch to the new hotel's furnishings, will be no matter of which to be ashamed. It seems fortunate the commission fell into the hands of a notable painter, though more by accident than by choice, for the result is a real work of art.

GRANDFATHER OF SKATERS DIES

Wm. H. Logan, Highly Respected North End Resident, Passes Away.

Into the excitement and enthusiasm surrounding the fine showing made by two young local skaters, Willie and Francis Logan, at the Arena last night, was injected this morning a note of sadness, when it was announced that their grandfather, William H. Logan, a highly respected resident of St. John, had passed away. Death came this morning after he had been in failing health for more than a year.

Mr. Logan was a native of St. John and was 88 years of age. In 1880 he removed to Gondola Point, where he entered the shipbuilding business with his father, James T. Logan. After remaining there for about 20 years, he returned to St. John, taking up his residence in the North End, where he spent the rest of his life.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Clara Daley, eight sons, one daughter and two sisters. Fred W. Logan, a former international skating champion, whose sons are now distinguishing themselves, is one of the sons. The others are James T., Walter S., Harry O., Lindsay P., Aubrey D. and Gordon R., all of St. John, and Rollie L. of Hamilton, Ont. The daughter is Mrs. George Tower of St. John, and the sisters are Mrs. Charles Saunders and Mrs. Richard B. Stackhouse, both of this city. There are four grand-children, including the two lads who are now attaining prominence on the steel blades.

The late Mr. Logan had been a member of the Main street Baptist church since he was 12 years old, and had a large circle of friends, who will regret to hear of his death. The funeral will take place on Thursday, burial taking place at Gondola Point.

As Hiram Sees It

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam was diligently feeding himself with tablets. "Ah!" said "The Times reporter, "you have a cold." Hiram shook his head. "A sweet tooth," ventured the reporter. Again Hiram shook his head. "You are not talkative today," said the reporter. "A hoarse wheeze came from the lips of Hiram. "Ah!" said the reporter, "I have it now. "You were out yesterday to cheer for Charlie Gorman." Hiram grinned broadly and nodded vigorously. "Well, you lost your voice in a good cause," said the reporter. Hiram eager nodded again and made frantic signs with his hands. "I quite agree with you," said the reporter, "but our deaf and dumb reporter has gone to interview the civic candidates on their platforms. I'll see you tomorrow." "Who? Who? Who?" said Hiram. And that ended the conversation.
