NOW AWAIT WORD
OF ACCEPTANCE
BY JAPANESE

Other Nations Say Yes to Harding's Call.

Speculation as to Whether Conferences Will be Held in Washington or London
—Some Support for Each City.

London, July 13.—Three of the principal Allied nations, Great Britain, France and Italy, have officially signified their acceptance of President Harding's invitation for a conference on limitation of armaments, while China has indicated her readiness to participate in a conference relative to Far Eastern questions. Japan is the only one of the Allies which has not placed herself on record as being ready to take part, but her acceptance is expected.

It is thought that the meeting at Washington will be attended by some of the most prominent statesmen of the world. Advice from Paris are that the commission for reduction of armaments appointed by the League of Nations will probably hold only a brief session in that city on Saturday. Renewed speculation as to whether the conference is to be held in London or Washington is understood to favor an immediate adjournment, although such action would be upon the initiative of the council of the league.

It seems probable, however, that President Harding's proposal for a conference on steps toward disarmament will be the dominant feature of Saturday's meeting.

London or Washington.

London, July 13.—(Canadian Associated Press, by Gratian O'Leary, staff correspondent Canadian Press)—The question as to whether the Pacific conference is to be held in London or Washington is understood to depend upon the attitude of President Harding. The British foreign office and most of the dominion premiers are urging in favor of London, but as the invitation came from President Harding and as he suggested Washington, there is no desire here to go beyond a mere suggestion of London.

The British press is sharply divided on the question, the Westminster Gazette maintaining that it would be folly to hold the Pacific conference before the question of disarmament was settled, and the Times, which is bitterly anti-Lloyd George, is savagely asserting that Premier Lloyd George and Lord Curzon, foreign secretary, are united in opposing Great Britain in the U. S.

Premier Meighen is pressing to have the matter decided as soon as possible as he is anxious to return to Canada at once. He is strongly inclined to favor Washington, particularly as the capital of the U. S. would be more suitable to his own convenience, although he recognizes there are strong arguments on the side of London.

The Canadian premier, whose fight for the Far East conference and against the Japanese alliance has brought him a curious measure of support from prominent Liberal statesmen and newspapers, has today the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Eighty Club, a famous Liberal organization founded in the eighties to support Gladstone.

Paris, July 13.—Whether Premier Briand will attend the Washington conference will depend largely on the caliber of men who will represent the other nations invited, said the opinion expressed in official circles last night. If Lloyd George represents Great Britain, it was said, it is likely that Mr. Briand will represent France. No decision will be made until the invitation actually is received.

Something for Friday.

The Right Hon. H. H. Asquith proposed the premier's health. Among those present were Lord Buckmaster, Sir Charles Hobhouse, Viscount Haldane, J. A. Redden, editor of the Westminster Gazette; Right Hon. Charles Masterman, Sir John Simon and other salient personalities of official Liberalism. On Friday Mr. Meighen will receive the freedom of the city, when it is expected he will make an important pronouncement.

SEND BACK
BONUS BILL

Goes to Finance Committee of Congress for Further Consideration.

Washington, July 13.—The soldier bonus bill, probably will be recommitted today to the finance committee for further consideration. The vote will be upon a motion of the committee, offered after President Harding's appeal in person to the senate yesterday that action on the bill be deferred because of the condition of the treasury.

When Senator Penrose offered his motion for recommitment yesterday, opposition, principally on the part of Democratic senators, prevented a vote, but it was said a vote probably would be reached today with recommitment assured by a wide majority.

MONTRAL STOCK MARKET.

Montreal, July 13.—The opening of the local stock exchange this morning was very quiet. Albitz was a quarter point weaker at 25 1/4; Brassil was down a half at 25 1/4; Laurentide was unchanged at 7 1/4.

BRUSSELS STREET
CASE RESUMED

Sergt. Detective Power Testifies About Crowd in Street Car Incident — Comment from Bench.

Another hearing was given in the police court this morning in the case of Simon Gurin, charged with being a member of a disorderly crowd, sergeant-Detective Power gave evidence and was cross-examined by Mr. McCutcheon, counsel for the accused. The case was adjourned until next Tuesday at 10.30.

This case arose out of the street car disturbances in Brussels street on Sunday, June 22, 1929, when a crowd of about 300 persons, he saw the policemen asking the crowd to move back, but not attempting to make any arrests.

At the time Biddiscombe seized the accused car was in motion, and he did not see step until it reached the corner of Richmond street. The accused was standing near the car track when he saw him. He pulled the accused's hand out of his pocket and then found the stone there, though the stone did not come out when he removed the accused's hand. He did not see the accused make effort to throw the stone and did not hear shouting at the time of the car and the accused.

A. J. BALFOUR
ON THE LEAGUE

London, July 13.—A. J. Balfour, lord president of the council, speaking on the League of Nations before the Imperial Conference on July 8, his speech, however, not being given out for publication until after yesterday's meeting of the conference, said:

"If the League of Nations were to dissolve, a new peace treaty would have to be framed and new machinery would have to be devised for carrying out the duties which the league has been entrusted. The most serious differences between the league as it is and as it exists in the absence of the United States and Russia."

Chicago, July 13.—Babe Ruth had seven more home runs when the Yankees faced St. Louis today than he did at the end of the game in which he played on July 13, 1920. Babe's two homers yesterday brought his total for the season to thirty-four, while it was one year ago today that he made number twenty-seven of his 1920 string of fifty-four homers.

Ruth's home run off Kerr in the White Sox game on Monday in the first inning since June, 1920, seemed to serve as an impetus to the Yankees and they made two circuit smashes of Davis, the Brown pitcher.

The White Sox pitchers all have admitted that they were trying to get through the season without letting the Bambino knock them out of the lot, but after Monday's game Kerr had no excuse to offer and did not attribute the honor to the "slivvy" ball.

New York, July 13.—Arriving from England on the S. S. Olympic today were many notables of the sporting world, including Wm. T. Tilden of Philadelphia, world's singles tennis champion; Zen Shimizu of Japanese tennis star, and the Oxford and Cambridge track teams.

Frederickson Races.

Frederickson, N. B., July 13.—The Fredericksburg Race Association has made a formal application to the Fredericksburg exhibition management for the use of forty stalls on the grounds adjoining the race track for taking care of the overflow of horses that will be here for the circuit races on July 19, 20 and 21. The stalls are in all for 110 horses and their rigging must be provided, and horses to be taken to the stalls by the exhibitors, 2.00-3.00, except a surcharge.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Horstmann, "I was thinking last night about the advantages of education. It enables you to have wider interests. You are less moved by trivial things. You are a citizen of the world."

"Yes, sir," said Hiram, "I am glad to see that you are right here in St. John. Some folks in mind are not in the world."

Inquiry Into Charges in Que-

Frederickton, July 13.—(Special)—New forest fires were reported this morning in the province. It is impossible to state definitely whether or not they are serious. Calls for additional aid were received from Millstream last night, and the report received at the same time from the inspector in charge was that the fire in the parish of Millstream was still considered serious. The fire which is burning between the Millstream and Spruce Lake on the Shore Line Railways is also still considered serious.

A fire has broken out on the south side of Second Et River Lake and fifty men were sent in last evening. There is a serious fire in the parish of Millstream, Kings county, near Thorne's Brook. FIRST MEETING
RE IRISH PEACE
THURSDAY AT 4.30

Lloyd George and De Valera at 10 Downing Street.

Truce Observed, Except in Belfast—Earl of Bandon,
Who was Kidnapped, is Returned to His Home—A Speech by Ulster Premier.

London, July 13.—Final preparations for the meeting of Eamonn De Valera, Irish Republican leader, and Premier Lloyd George, here tomorrow, were being made by the government and the Irish delegation today. The first conference will be held in the cabinet room at No. 10 Downing street, at 4.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but the procedure to be followed had not been announced early today.

British officials who have been closely associated with the negotiations during the recent past were said today to be prepared to join in discussions with the Sinn Fein delegation headed by Mr. De Valera and it was thought possible that Gen. J. C. Smuts, premier of South Africa, would play a very definite role in the negotiations. General Smuts has been considered the man chiefly responsible for the rapid developments of peace moves in Ireland, and late last night it was said he might act as temporary chairman of the coming conference.

Reports from Ireland indicate the truce arranged, which became effective at noon on last Monday, was being observed. The observance of "Orange's day" in Belfast yesterday was not attended by any violence, and it would appear that both sides in the bitter strife in the Emerald Isle were resolved not to embarrass their leaders in arranging a possible peace.

SPEECH BY SIR
JAMES CRAIG.

Belfast, July 13.—Sir James, speaking at Finaghy yesterday, gave his reasons for accepting the invitation of Lloyd George.

"First," he declared, "if we did not go to the conference, we would be represented behind our backs. We would have nobody to say a word for us. Second, we are a small community on the face of the earth, and foreign countries, as well as our own dominions would misconstrue Ulster if she stopped her trade with the rest of the world. She would be condemned in her absence and told you would not go to the conference; therefore, you must be ruled out of court."

"Third, it gets into the minds, even of some of our friends, that we have someone to give away. While I and my colleagues are there, there will be nothing to give away. Therefore while it is distasteful to many of us we are going to flinch from what we consider our duty to the well being of our own people in the North."

Another reason given by the Ulster premier was that it would have "created a bad impression if we did not accept the prime minister's invitation after the king's speech on Ulster soil."

Sir James said he had tested the minds and feelings of people worth knowing during his recent visit to London and that they believe the Ulster parliament to be sacrosanct in the eyes of those who brought it about. That is something gained, he added.

Pointing out that the whole situation has changed since July 22, Sir James declared:

"I am no longer James Craig, except to my friends but to those who would tamper with Ulster rights I am prime minister of Northern Ireland. The way of peace is in our own hands and their own hands only. The way of peace is impossible without these murderers first coming to their senses and stopping murder. All the onus lies upon them."

EARL OF BANDON IS BROUGHT HOME.

Cork, July 13.—The Earl of Bandon, who was kidnapped by Sinn Feiners early on the morning of June 21, was brought back to Bantry last night by his captors. The aged earl, for whose safety there had been some concern at various times, was unharmed.

Message From De Valera.

London, July 13.—In a message issued to the English people on his arrival here yesterday, Eamonn De Valera said:—"There is no reason why the people of these two islands should continue at enmity. It is simply a question of recognizing justice as a necessary foundation for peace."

Those returning from the scene of the fire are exhausted, and efforts are being made to fill their places. There is quite a strong breeze from the south west.

NEW LOW PRICE LEVEL ON TAILOR MADE CLOTHES

Of particular interest to the man who has his clothes custom-made is the news that there is a considerable drop in price. Although many have been looking for a drop in this trade nevertheless, as yet there is no valid reason for it. This present reduction is to be found only at Oak Hall where they have bunched their $80 to $75 suits at the one low price of $49 for this week only, simply as an inducement to stimulate trade and keep their workroom organization up to strength.

Some of the employees will move to St. John and continue in the service and the remainder will sever their connection with the department.

The expedition followed the little Salmon River, crossed the divide into the south fork of the McMillan, followed it to its source, the Rockies, where they found the new pass, and on the other side came out following the new river, a tributary of the Crave river. This river flows into the Mackenzie only a few miles from Fort Norman.

MAKING HISTORY.

The world is on the eve of great events. New hope has been born in the hearts of men by the announcement that a great conference on the limitation of armaments, and another on what seemed to be threatening problems on the Pacific, are to be held. For a time it seemed that the nations were slipping back into the old regime of the balance of power, with its possibilities of future wars. Many pessimistic articles were written, and there were those who did not hesitate to say that the war had been fought in vain, so far as the ending of wars was concerned. It would be too much to hope that national ambitions and jealousies had been entirely overcome, or that the pathway to permanent peace is strewn with roses; but when the British Empire and the United States which are least actuated of all nations by such motives, show a desire to get together and bring others together in real co-operation to remove the barriers to peace and good will, the world may well indulge hopes which but a few years ago would have been deemed extravagant and not to be fulfilled. Then there is Ireland. To bring permanent peace to that distracted country would be an achievement that would cement the Empire in a wonderful way and give the greatest possible satisfaction to the great mass of the American people. Their views and feelings are well expressed in the New York Evening Post, which says:

"Upon Lloyd George, Edmond de Valera and Sir James Craig lies a responsibility which it is not too much to describe as awful. If they rise to their duty and their opportunity history will give them a dazzling place in its records. On Monday, 'hostilities' according to the hostilities between two peoples united by fate and sundry by unhappy chance over 700 years. The hearts and minds of a great part of humanity are fixed upon Ireland, and the hopes of the world are that Ireland may at last emerge out of the shadows into the light. The outside judgments which have given right to Sinn Fein or have given right to Ulster are superficial. Beneath such specific judgments has been the feeling of commiseration for an unhappy people caught in the toils of circumstance. The sword of sincerity and courage can slash across these bonds and make actual what the great mass of public opinion has felt to be desirable—united and self-ruling Ireland within the security of the British Empire. It can be that hopes now so high pitched will again be frustrated. It must not be."

Looking farther afield, it cannot be denied that a conference on the Pacific will prevent misunderstandings between the nations whose interests come into contact there. Gen. Smuts has said that the theatre of world interest is moving to the Pacific. That is the vision of a world-statesman, who looks out upon the world as from a watch-tower, and notes with a rare prescience the trend of human events.

Central Europe and the Near East may still present their problems, and Russia continue for a time to menace civilization; but it is within the power of the allied nations who won the war to control the destinies of coming generations. That their leaders may rise to the height of their opportunity is the desire and the hope of those for whom they speak.

PRESIDENT HARDING.

An American writer who is an admirer of President Harding expresses the view that he has measured up remarkably well in his four months in office. Instead of being dominated by men which proved that he appreciates and proposes to exercise his prerogative. He has surrounded himself with a strong cabinet, with whom he works in harmony. The appointments he has made to office, such as that of Mr. Taft to the chief justiceship, have given general satisfaction. Now he has taken the initiative in calling a conference of nations on the limitation of armaments, and won the highest tributes of respect and good feeling from the leaders of the public opinion in Britain, France and other nations who will be parties to the epoch-making deliberations in Washington. Moreover, Mr. Harding has steadily refused to be drawn into any action that would disturb the cordial relations between the United States and Great Britain. If he has not yet got on solid ground in regard to the League of Nations he appears to be moving in that direction. In short, he appears to be a bigger man than he was given credit for, and his career will be followed with a new interest, remembering always the political character of the people who make up the citizenship of his country. The world-outlook is certainly much brighter since he demonstrated his ability to get along without being the pawns of a faction in the senate; and since he recognized as he has now done the obligation of his country to join others in the effort to ensure world-peace. He has not been without enlightenment from the great industrial, commercial and financial interests of the country on the importance of a tranquil and busy Europe to a prosperous America; and his latest act indicates that he proposes to put the knowledge to good use.

HARBOR COMMISSION.

The Globe intimates that those who oppose the St. John harbor commission act are moved by political or selfish motives. Being unable to argue the case, the Globe abuses the plaintiff's attorney. This is an old dodge, but it will not do. Those who urge that the harbor commission act is rejected do so because they believe the harbor should be the city's most highly prized possession. The Globe asks why the government wants harbor commission in St. John if not to develop the port. Is the Globe really ignorant of the genesis of the harbor commission scheme? The citizens of St. John never asked for it, nor were they consulted at the beginning. To attribute the scheme to government anxiety to help St. John is to put the credit of the people to quite too severe a test. If the government had had any such desire it would at least have offered as much for the harbor as its own engineer said it was worth. It would also have included soil rights as a matter for compensation; and it would have put in the act some guarantee that something would be done besides placing enormous burdens upon the revenue of the harbor. It has done none of these things, and Mr. Ballantyne emphasized the government's policy by declaring in parliament that hereafter it would look to harbors to provide interest and sinking fund charges out of revenue.

We are told that harbor commission will be discussed at the Seaman's Institute this evening. Mr. Ballantyne is in England. Mr. Wigmore has returned to Ottawa without saying a word. He came down it was heralded abroad that he was the bearer of a message from Mr. Ballantyne. That message has not been given to the public, nor has Mr. Wigmore himself said a word in public. He has returned to Ottawa without enlightening his constituents as to the wonderful things Mr. Ballantyne years to do for them.

Those who listen to any public discussion of harbor commission should understand that neither Mr. Ballantyne nor Mr. Wigmore will be long in office, but that if the iniquitous harbor commission act is adopted it binds the city for the future. Nor should any citizen be influenced by reference to the harbor of Montreal. That city is a centre of financial and political influence and gets what it wants. We know by bitter experience to what extent St. John gets what it wants, and should have, and the harbor commission act does not even promise anything. It should be rejected.

Every newspaper man in these provinces who has been engaged as a writer for any length of time has learned with sincere regret of the death of Mr. W. R. McCarry, of the Halifax Herald. Not only by all of them had met him at one time or another, and were attracted by his genial nature. He had devoted his life to the profession, and there was no more zealous member. Those who knew most about his work as a staff writer and correspondent wondered how one man could do so much, and keep up the pace year after year. His services were very highly valued by the late Senator Dennis. Mr. McCarry was a progressive citizen as well as a clever journalist, and heartily supported movements for the benefit of the city of Halifax.

We are told that straits in the Arctic are being named after prominent politicians. Some of them are undoubtedly in great straits at the present time. Will there be a Wigmore Channel?

Will the paving of North Wharf be charged up against harbor account? That wharf is a public street. Under harbor commission the city would pay for its upkeep, or get another street.

Has the expenditure on North Road wharf been deducted from the statement issued by the mayor? That is a ferry charge, and under harbor commission the city would still have to provide a ferry.

It was necessary for the London police to rescue Mr. De Valera, minus his hat, from his own friends. Even the police would appreciate the humor of that situation.

Sir Frederick Stupart looks for a break in the weather shortly. We all do—but our weather eye is becoming somewhat strained by long and anxious use.

While the question of water pollution is being investigated by the experts, the thing to do is to play safe and boil the water.

October 10 is the date of the plebiscite on liquor importation into this province. There can be no doubt of the result if the people go to the polls.

Todd E. owned by Howard Essary and driven by Boutillier, took first place in the Class C. pace.

BALLADE OF ECSTASY.

Ended fiscal woe:
Done financial care:
Now I'm free to go
On my vacation here:
Now I'll treat my fair
To a giddy time again—
I can pay her share:
Sodas are a dime again!

Life's been drab and slow,
I could hardly dare
What a richer beau
Offered free air
Has been answered, I'm again
Off to fountains where
Sodas are a dime again!

Let the syrup flow!
Soda fix and flare!
Heave the ice cream hot!
Make it starchy, now!
Here's your check—prepare
Beakers, sweet as rhyme, again!
All the glass will be
Sodas are a dime again!

LEUVONI.
Princess, bind your hair:
You and I will climb again!
Gone the old despair:
Sodas are a dime again!

LIGHTER VEIN.
Not a Post Office.
A man went into a bookshop and said to the man behind the counter, "I want the letters of Charles Lamb, please."
"Post office across the street, Mr. Lamb," said the assistant, briskly and politely.

George C. Clancy, professor of rhetoric at Beloit College, has the reputation of looking in rather sharp repartee in his class-rooms. One of his pupils, a star at football but not at rhetoric, had spent most of the hour in looking at his watch, yawning and sighing. At the close of the lecture Professor Clancy said: "Mr. Smith, why have you looked at your watch every few minutes during the last hour?" Smith replied that he had kept looking at his watch to assure himself that it was still running. "I suppose," retorted the professor, "that you have been sighing every few minutes to assure yourself that you are still breathing."

"What is the name of that handsome young woman?"
"Mrs. 222 Miss," replied the guard.
"How funny! But, of course, that is not his real name, that's just his pen name."

Father to Sonny, coming home in bed-lag condition:—"Great Scott! how do you look!"
"Yes, pa, I fell in a mud hole."
"And with your new pants on, too?"
"Yes, I didn't have time to take them off."

"He was very naughty," replied his wife. "I sent him to bed for swearing."
"Swearing?"
"Yes, he said 'I'll teach him to swear' and he rushed upstairs. For some minutes the indignant parental voice resounded through the house, and then Jimmy's mother called:

TORONTO, MILKMAN HURLED TO DEATH
Swift-Running Auto Crashes Into Wagon—Three Others Injured.

Toronto, July 13.—Early Sunday morning a high-powered "ambush car," traveling at a speed estimated by an observer as from fifty to sixty miles an hour, crashed into a milk wagon, owned by the Kavenagh family, and driven by Norman O'Brien, hurling the unfortunate man to his death and smashing the wagon to splinters.

Three of the occupants of the auto are in the hospital with more or less serious injuries. One of them, Harold, a former St. John University football player, had a bad gash on the forehead. The hospital authorities said that his skull was not fractured.

The other two men have severe cuts on the face and other minor injuries. The driver placed the driver of the car under arrest and also held the other occupants as material witnesses.

SOIL SURVEY OF SASKATCHEWAN

(Canadian Press Limited.)
Regina, July 13.—In co-operation with the department of agriculture, Professor Iov Hansen and two assistants of the College of Agriculture are conducting a soil survey of Saskatchewan as recommended by the Federal Government in its report to the government. Active work is now being carried on in a block of four municipalities in Cypress constituency.

The intention is eventually to have a complete survey of the whole province which will reveal all the data in regard to soil conditions that are essential to a determination of the most profitable type of farming to be carried out in each district. A second and perhaps other surveying parties will probably be put into the field next year, as it is realized that the immensity of the undertaking will require years to complete the survey.

When a sufficient number of representative districts had been covered they will be managed and the information secured in regard to them will be made public.

HEIR TO $350,000.

Retired Saratoga Policeman Gets Word of an Uncle's Will.

Troy, N. Y., July 13.—Edward A. Conklin, former chief of the Broadway police, Saratoga Springs, is to receive an estate of $350,000 on the death of his uncle, Mulford P. Conklin of San Francisco, according to a letter he received from the latter, whom he has not seen since boyhood.

Mulford Conklin went west sixty years ago and as a prospector, miner and mining promoter amassed a fortune. He was never married. Writing on his eighty-fifth birthday, he tells his nephew, his only surviving relative, that he has made a will bequeathing him his estate. He writes:
"I feel of what I am giving you is $350,000."
Asked what use he intended to make of this fortune when he received it, Edward Conklin, who is well past middle life, declared: "Well, it will do a lot of good. I will share some of it with friends who have had to work hard all their life, as I have, to make a living."

New York, July 13.—Mrs. Margaret Hazleton, sixty-eight years old, met death in an unusual way at Coney Island early on Sunday. Two bathers, who chance to decide on another dip before retiring, rescued her, but she had sufficed to severely from submersion that she died soon after under the ministrations of physicians.

CARUSO CABLES HIS DENIAL

He Will Show at Proper Time That He Has Not Lost His Voice

CARUSO.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—Bruna Zirato, secretary to Enrico Caruso, has received a cablegram from the famous Italian tenor denying reports that his voice had been permanently impaired by his recent illness. The reports were based upon Caruso's alleged refusal to sing at a concert given on board ship, Mr. Zirato said.

Caruso's message said in part: "Officials of steamer Wilson never asked me to sing and if they had I should have refused, as it is not my habit to amuse people under the excuse of a patriotic occasion. When I want to show I have not lost my voice I will do so at the proper time and place."

In their third match they defeated the Maritime Province pair, W. N. Rice and L. MacDonald, only dropping six games in the two matches. Men's open singles.

Letson, New York, beat McDonald, New Glasgow, 7-5, 6-3.
Levy, California, beat Rice, Sydney, 6-2, 6-2.
MacDonald beat Senior, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

The case against Mrs. Laura T. Leonard, charged with selling milk without a license came up yesterday afternoon in the police court. The magistrate struck a fine of $10.

CAMPAIGN TO REPEAL VOLSTEAD ACT OPENS

New York Anti-Prohibition League Announces Its Plan of Action.

New York, July 13.—The New York Anti-Prohibition League, Inc., with offices in the World Building, announces that it has started its campaign for the repeal of the Volstead act. Similar organizations have been formed in every state in the Union. National headquarters will be established in Washington, where the league expects the final fight to be made.

In this city each borough will have a president or manager. Leaders are being appointed in each of the sixty-three assembly districts of the city and they in turn will name captains for each election district. Similar organizations are to be formed in other cities and towns of the state before the next primaries, when each candidate for office will be asked to declare his stand, "wet" or "dry."

Pamphlets were sent out by the league outlining its policy. Rules of the league include:
"The league is non-partisan and non-sectarian."
"Both men and women are eligible to membership."
"Dues are $1 a year."
"No officer shall be salaried."
"Money will be spent to foster legislation, advertising and printing."

After stating that the New York Anti-Prohibition League intends to work for the repeal of the "tyrannical Volstead act," the pamphlet continues: "The league favors legislation which will, under the 'concurrent clauses,' permit each state, through a vote of its citizens, to determine what enforcement shall be effective within the borders of the state."
It was announced that hundreds have already joined the organization. The league stresses on the point that it is a people's organization. Brewers and other manufacturers of liquorous and contributions if they desire, but under no circumstances are they to have a voice in the league's work, it was said.

GATES FOR CEMETERY.

LONDON, June 21.—(By Mail.)—The family of Lord Redesdale have presented to the Imperial War Graves Commission a pair of wrought iron gates of seventeenth century design, to be erected at Vlamertinghe Military Cemetery, near Ypres, in memory of Major the Hon. C. B. O. Mitford, D. S. O., 10th Hussars, eldest son of the late Redesdale. Major Mitford was killed in action in 1915 and was buried in this cemetery.

These gates will form the main entrance to this well-known cemetery, which is situated just behind Vlamertinghe road. It contains 1,171 graves of soldiers, dating from 1914-1919, when this cemetery was closed and the New Military Cemetery was begun about half a mile to the south.

WESTERNERS NOT ANXIOUS TO LAY IN COAL SUPPLY

Edmonton, July 13.—Reduced freight rates on coal have not stimulated the shipment of Alberta coal during the slack mid-summer months, proving no inducement to "Mr. Householder" to get his winter supply in early, the reduction being received with no more enthusiasm than a man would receive a gift of a straw hat in winter time.

It is apparent, freight officials state, that people will not store their winter's supply of coal in the summer months. Attractive prices seem to offer little incentive, people everywhere being of the opinion that money in hand at this time is worth more than coal in the basement. Shipment of coal at the present time, they point out, would not only keep the mines working toward the limit of the capacity, but would also assist the railways and relieve much of the congestion that is bound to be the outcome of this lack of coal buying.

DOUBLE-CROSSED FEMALE RAFFLES MAKES CONFESSION

Posed as Governess and Stole $50,000 Worth of Jewellery for Her Lover - Married Another Woman and Fled to Canada.

New York, July 13.—Finding that she had been scorned and tricked by the man for whom she stole jewelry worth more than $50,000 while she posed as a governess in the homes of wealthy New York brokers, Jean Cunningham, twenty-two years old, confessed to the police that she systematically robbed her employers and turned the loot over to her lover.

She told the police that for all the jewelry stolen by her in New York, Philadelphia and Astbury Park, N. J., she had received only $100, which had been doled out to her by the man for whom she stole.

When asked what she had done with the diamonds and other valuables stolen by her, she said she had sold them to a jeweller in New York, who had given her $100 for them.

She said she had married her lover, a man named James, and had fled to Canada with him. MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Favorable responses are understood to have been received today from all but one of the powers to which the United States suggested a conference on reduction of armaments and related questions. An encounter took place recently between United States officers and liquor smugglers at Whiting, directly across from Grand Manan. Liquor was being landed into cars from the boat when the officers appeared on the scene. All but one of the men fled for the woods. The officers opened fire and one man, T. Cameron, was struck in the hip. He, together with John Cannon of Eastport, was arrested, and a large quantity of liquor was seized.
Several persons were injured yesterday as a result of a battle between strike breakers and persons sympathizing with the strike of the employees of the Berlin mills of the International Paper Co., at Berlin, N. THE CELEBRATION OF "THE GLORIOUS TWELFTH"

About five thousand Orangemen visited Moncton yesterday to attend the annual celebration of the battle of the Boyne. Orangemen were present from St. John, Fredericton, Sackville, Petticodiac, Sackville and many other points. A long procession headed by the provincial grand master, S. B. Bustin, of St. John, marched through the principal streets of the city attended by several bands. At a meeting following the procession several resolutions were passed expressing unwavering allegiance to the principles of the Orange association, extending sympathy to their brethren in Ireland in their fight against the Sinn Fein; against separate schools; against bi-lingualism except in the province of Quebec; and against the Self-determination for Ireland League.

Members of the Board of Health, accompanied by city officials, inspected the lakes from which the city draws its water supply yesterday afternoon. The party included Chairman John Kelly, George Blake, Mrs. R. J. Hooper, W. H. Golding, Secretary T. M. Burns and Dr. W. Warwick of the health board; Commissioner John B. Jones and Superintendent S. A. Sewell of the water department, and Dr. H. J. Abramson, provincial pathologist. The party found that the sluice-way on the stream that flows from Loch Lomond into the reservoir was exposed, thus affording opportunity for pollution. All along the roadway stretches of the big lake, lumber shacks, cottages with privies near the shore, evidence of cattle wading in the water, and tracks denoting the watering and bathing of horses were discernible.

TWO FROZEN IN TYROL

Berne, July 13.—The first fatalities of the mountain-climbing season in Northern Austria Tyrol were reported today, when news came that a party of nine persons had been caught by a snow storm at a high elevation and forced to spend the night there, two of them being frozen to death and the others having their hands and feet frozen.
A rescue party brought the dead and the injured survivors to a nearby village the following morning.
W. G. FITZGERALD DEAD.
London, Ont., July 13.—Wm. G. Fitzgerald, aged forty-seven, actuary of the Northern Life Assurance Company, and one of the best known financial men in the province, died unexpectedly at his home here last night. He was born in Toronto and was the eldest son of the late Wm. Fitzgerald, for many years superintendent of the insurance at Ottawa.

THE SEAL INDUSTRY

Large Catch by Indians Expected This Year—Half a Million Dollars for Canada.
Victoria, B. C., July 13.—Fur-sealing has come back, and on the west coast of Vancouver Island alone the Indians this summer will probably capture two thousand fur seals. Probable sealing in British Columbia and Alaskan waters, at one time was woven around with all the romance of adventure, wealth and international strife. The through greed and indiscriminate methods of slaughter practised by the sealers and a lack of international understanding upon the question of conservation, the industry is all but dead.
Last year the waters of the west coast of Washington produced twelve hundred animals. Officials in charge of the industry and its control claim that the North Pacific herd, which once contained as many as 2,600,000 animals, is bound to increase rapidly. There is every probability that as many as one hundred thousand animals may be taken each year, made up wholly of surplus males selected with reference to their economic value, and Canada may ultimately be expected to receive half a million dollars annually from this trade.

EPIDEMIC OF SUICIDE

Rome, June 28.—(A. P., by Mail)—A wave of love tragedies is sweeping through Italy. Not a day passes without a suicide or murder, generally because of jealousy. Several cases have been noted lately where girls have attempted to end their lives when they discovered that their sweet hearts were married men.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1921

On To Calgary and The Women's Council

And so we reached Toronto at half past seven in the morning (though that inland city registered daylight time, or "Day's time as one man rather expressly named it, (womankind not guilty) and found Toronto in the midst of celebrating the glorious 1st of July. The station was densely packed with holiday seekers. The delegate realised forthwith that another month had made its advent, and that some miles stretched between her and the home Mecca. However, thoughts were quickly transformed, for there was a friend to meet her, who had not lacked courage on a hot summer morning to make her way on crowded street-cars to the station to meet that one stranger from the National Council. Packed valises, bulging with more than one more wardrobe were swung against our hurrying forms in our haste to reach the street, while family groups with weary kiddies anxiously waited to wave to us, and still we kept on moving, not only from necessity like "Joe" but in our eagerness to arrive where an appetizing breakfast was awaiting the expected guest.

Good byes had been said to Mr. Manning of Moncton who, still indefatigable after the heat and dust of our long journey from Winnipeg, was to travel on an hour's time to Windsor, Ont., from where after a little visit he would return to Moncton. A bright woman, an interesting traveler, and one who to have instilled a regret at parting.

Picture a gay breakfast party, after which came the diversion of the telephone, which links up the guest and the waiting hostess so conveniently—and we let memory's side sweep us away from other days when a too constant ringing came when the back-door bell and the front door bell all clanged together, and an irate housewife would "bless that everlasting telephone."

We saw a big labor parade pass the house, almost endless, and whenever we rined to the windows those teams, rages and horses were still plodding in slow procession. At noon, lunch—and it was a luncheon, for you must not mistake the last syllable to discriminate between a lunch and luncheon; as the first means a meal for twenty-five cents, and the other in today's expected parlance assumes a greater importance, and the price may mean any change from $2 to $5.

In the early afternoon the ferry boats presented a very difficult proposition, a solid phalanx of anticipatory passengers on the waiting ferries. It was worth while to see how Toronto celebrated a holiday, and as the incoming boats and the different calls sent the boats in different directions one was able to discern by the calm observation, and from the directing hand of each boat's uniformed officer, the right boat to choose. On an upper deck, for these ferries have such advantageous places to see all over the expense of blue water, the family groups were interesting, the children delightful, even though their mouths were sticky from the last remaining glories of the modern candy sucker, and hands were becoming less clean from the rolling.

Did you ever notice the perpetual motion of the little hand, what a strenuous worker it is, and how soon the dust and all other delightful stickiness combine to accumulate, too soon an early allotment of the peevish peck of dirt. Surely we do get that historical peck in a hurry when childhood's hour is so sweet, and the end of the road not yet in sight.

Young men and sweethearts, in a world of their own and grave folk who also do look askance sometimes on the world's public love-making; kiddies everywhere; always a mother, a father and kiddie, sometimes in the wholesale enumeration; some with baskets, some with bundles, from which the long suffering string is threatened; children, and the owners gay, chattering school boys; some with bathing suits, some with towels, and all of the world's paraphernalia for pleasure and real sport, when the day is fine the sight of warm and from somewhere across that stretch of blue lake comes freshness and gladness and sweetness of a people's park.

We were over to the other side in about fifteen minutes; and the crowd surging down the gang plank, up the wharf, and through the enclosure which protected too eager holiday seekers from an unexpected bath. Lake Ontario in its islands a very beautiful wooded bathing place for Toronto people. They appreciate three islands, bridged across which, flowing softly along on nearly a level with the road-side almost present the appearance of a little Venice.

Think of over 10,000 people who reside on islands all summer, not including the floating population that come and go through every day of the week. These islands are owned by the City of Toronto, and on opposite side of Island Centre, where some have summer year lease, the same as Banff. At the farther end of the island is a Coney Island, with all the attractions the most "blue Coney Islands" could desire. On the beach the kiddies were paddling, and the voices of the holiday makers were one long echo of delight.

With my hostess, Mrs. McIvor, who had come to take me to her summer abode, the delighted St. John woman, walked across the soft green sward, away from the gay holiday makers, under great shady trees, past the open place where a cricket game was the centre of keen excitement, while Mrs. McIvor gleefully encouraged the runner to take another goal; past tables, with convenient encircling benches for the alfresco tea later for some happy families; past the foot ball game and the would be professional base ballists of junior years—in fact every kind of ball playing played by all ages, irrespective of being played by all ages, irrespective

Helps to keep the teeth white and sound

—an Adams product, particularly prepared—

Along farther, where the sounds of merriment came less distinctly, we crossed a picturesque bridge, followed a road along the slowly moving waters of a lagoon, and along which passed canoes, gaily cushioned, and of course the attractive summer girl in white, and the lax, debonair collegian. We knew he was a college boy, no mistaking that Hall mark. Now come motor boats, and a stray punt—that a gay world it is to be sure; and the trees stretching down their branches to catch a glimpse of their reflected foliage in the clear waters, which somehow is instinctively mixed up with the image of the pretty girl and the laughing youth.

Into a tennis court, and near by a tennis court, while the stalwart son of my hostess came forward in greeting, returned officer in the Imperial army, who suffered from wounds and gas, but is fitted now to take a big piece in the world's work. Tennis in full swing, and under a grove of convenient trees we idly watch the game from the comfort of long reclining chairs, quite welcome to the traveller after steady entertainment since seven-thirty in the morning.

Many of St. John Council will recall with pleasure the name of Mrs. Melvor, editor of the Women's Century, and National convener in council work for the energetic-committee on household economics. We had passed many happy hours near one another in the past at Calgary, and were both glad of the opportunity of discussing many vital subjects of National pronouncement. The invitation to come to her had been pleasing anticipated on that long journey through from Calgary, and the fresh winds of the waiting afternoon played delightfully through the branches of the trees, while the voices of a little girl, my host came in broken accents through our earnest conversation. Catching her eye, I smiled impulsively. Childhood is always contagious in its smiles and joys, to those who have lived close to its little intimate circle of love and free-masonry.

But alas! let me continue—sadly she drew her small stature up to a dignified height, and looked me reprovingly in the eyes—"We don't know each other"—upon which my host promptly supplied the missing links of propriety, relieved startled minds, and restored one's sense of a terrible faux pas. This surely was the coming woman, heralded unexpectedly, but emphatically. Later, when the introductions had adjusted her own conventional mind, she demanded one of my rings. It seems here had suffered from too prolonged a wearing in the palm of the hand and had been lost, no one knew where. She was surprised at my polite regrets, so climbing on my host's knee she made a dignified inquiry for his. Upon acknowledging his inability to produce a ring, she loftily tossed her head and condescended: "You poor thing," and looked askance when we laughed. It was all so funny, such a little maid. Longing eyes of possession had been cast from time to time at my umbrella, and after close examination she relieved my mind by the broad statement: "I like my umbrella better." Later, she sauntered by us with her proud possession held at correct angles over right shoulder, and Queen Elizabeth could not have been more haughty and unapproachable. We beheld a decrepit rain protector, seemingly quite inadequate for any heavy onslaughts of Pluvius, and whose departing glories had held disparagingly on to the battered ribs to give this pleasure to one little maid. Mentally a prayer of thankfulness was breathed for the sole proprietary rights, owned and controlled so proudly by the "Umbrella Child."

Lo! the Sand Man was coming on swift wings as she lay with her head against the host's broad shoulder and closed her eyes. Too much excitement and tireless feet combined were hushing her softly to unresisting slumber. Little

TRY TO COMBAT ELEPHANTIASIS

Plucky Canadian Physician in Samoa Has Taken Inoculation—Germs Carried by Mosquitoes.

Vancouver, July 13.—In order to study the terribly tropical disease of elephantiasis, an unnamed Canadian physician in Samoa has just had himself inoculated by bites of mosquitoes that had fed on him after suffering from the malady. Captain David Ritchie, of the Canadian-Australian freighter Wairarua, told on arrival here of his talk with the plucky Canadian scientist who has dedicated his life to find a cure.

elephantiasis. Science has striven for many years to find the remedy, but to no effect. It has been learned that the germs are carried by mosquitoes, and that inoculation occurs when a mosquito feeds on its victim. The disease-carrying pests are confined to those that have first fed off an elephantiasis sufferer and transmission of germs can only take place on the twenty-first day after the insect has bitten the diseased person. The life of many mosquitoes is not that long, still there are enough whose span of existence permits them to carry the deadly germ. The doctor told Captain Ritchie that he would be better able to study the progress of the malarial if he were suffering from it himself. He could watch every phase of development and would thus be in better position to find a cure. It takes from nine to ten months to develop. If the scientist cannot solve the problem he has set before himself he will eventually offer the terrible end that comes to all elephantiasis victims.

The pleasant hour with Mrs. Pope will not soon be forgotten, and of itself form another treasured link with those memories of the Art Association, whose friendship is so unstinted and unrestrained.

WILL NOT AFFECT WHEAT PRICES

New American Tariff, However, Will Hit Meat Industry Hard, According to Grain Growers' Secretary.

Regina, Sask., July 12.—Wheat prices in this district will not be affected by the new American tariff, except insofar as this interference with free shipment to the United States may be exploited by market manipulators, according to an opinion expressed by J. B. Macdonald, central secretary for the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, in a recent interview.

"So long as the United States requires Western Canadian hard wheat for milling with her own winter wheat, it would seem that her own people will have to pay the import duty on it, besides its competitive world value. The United States millers will be under a handicap in competing with Canadian wheat, when it is considered that imported wheat is used for blending in making flour for export to Europe," Mr. Macdonald said.

WARM GREETING IN LONDON FOR MR. DE VALERA

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, July 12.—Eamon De Valera and the other Irish republican leaders who are to participate in the conference with the Prime Minister Lloyd George here on Thursday arrived in London from Dublin this evening. They received a tumultuous reception at Euston station.

The arriving Irish delegates were met by a crowd of several hundred enthusiastic officers and members of the Irish Self-Determination League, headed by Art O'Brien and his wife, who are to superintend the entertainment of the delegation while it is in London. Defeating cheers resounded the moment De Valera stepped from his compartment, his admirers crowding and pushing forward in a mass in their eagerness to grasp his hand. Eventually a squad of police rescued him from the attentions of his enthusiastic friends and escorted him to his motor car in company with Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien.

Something of a record for domestic service has been established by Maggie Collins of Grand Rapids, Mich., who for forty-four years has worked for the same family and in the same house.

are a medium of investment especially attractive to those having a sum of money on which they are prepared to allow the interest to accumulate. We issue these Bonds for $100, or any multiple thereof. They bear interest at 5% per cent per annum, COMPOUNDED HALF-YEARLY, and the following table shows the amounts required to purchase Bonds for specified sums payable at the end of five years:

$ 76.24 will purchase a Bond for	$100
152.48 will purchase a Bond for	$200
381.20 will purchase a Bond for	$500
762.40 will purchase a Bond for	$1000

Money invested to return simple interest at 5% per cent per annum, payable half yearly, will double itself in a little over 18 years, whereas if invested to return the same rate compounded half yearly it will double itself in less than 10 years.

We particularly recommend these Bonds to those not in need of an immediate return on their investment or to anyone wishing to provide an amount for a specific purpose at some future date.

Any further information desired will be gladly furnished on request.

ENGINEER MURDERED HIS TRAIN RUNS WILD

Explosion Ends Four-Mile Dash of Freight and Injures Fireman—Texas Rangers Called.

El Paso, Texas, July 13.—Engineer William Bohman of Sanderson, Texas, was murdered and thrown from his train near Alpine, Texas, according to advices received at the local office of the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio Railway.

After four miles of uncontrolled speeding the boiler of the engine of the freight train blew up, seriously injuring the fireman, Charles Robertson of Valentine, Texas.

The train was wrecked ten miles west of Alpine.

Bohman's body was found four miles from the site of the explosion, and advices from Alpine stated that Bohman was struck while his fireman was busy raising steam for a grade, the fireman not noticing the engineer was missing and the locomotive unattended.

The explosion blew the boiler and engine about thirty feet and the cab about 200 yards.

A Texas Ranger has been ordered to investigate the death of Engineer Bohman and the injury of Fireman Robertson.

A. J. Gen. Barton of Texas announced that this action was taken on request of Southern Pacific Railroad officials, who said that the foul play was responsible for the explosion.

The Ebb and Flow of Commerce

History is forever repeating itself. Just as sure as night follows day, so do periods of prosperity follow periods of depression. Many high grade securities are being sold at prices previously unheard of. Never has this generation seen so many opportunities for genuine investment security bargains.

The man who has an available surplus of money should not let it lie idle in a bank. He should invest it in the purchase of a few shares of the securities mentioned below.

Our Partial Payment Plan is an easy method whereby the small investor may share in the exceptional opportunities offered by today's low price levels.

Don't Judge a Carbon Remover

by the Black Smoke which comes out through the Exhaust.

Many Carbon Removers Contain a fustil oil which causes smoke.

D. B. Carbon Remover Contains No Oil or Grease.

The process of removing Carbon with D. B. Carbon Remover is similar to the way Peroxide works on a wound. A demonstration on a park plug will show you the effect it has on carbon and the way it works in the cylinder.

THE TEST: Take out No. 1 spark plug (be sure it is warm, not hot). Fill with D-B Carbon Remover. Watch results.

D-B Carbon Remover is the new scientific way of removing Carbon. The chemical action separates the carbon from the metal in such a way that it is pulverized at the first explosion, and passes out through the exhaust.

D-B CARBON REMOVER has no effect on oil; is a help in starting; won't hurt metal, and is GUARANTEED NOT TO INJURE THE MOTOR IN ANY WAY.

AT RENFORTH

Renforth is one of the prettiest and most convenient suburban resorts. Seen from the river the village nestles along the shore and among the trees on the hillside and is very attractive in appearance. There are now good streets, and several new cottages have been added this year. There is an excellent train service throughout the year, and quite a number of families now live there in winter.

Last evening a party out in a boat saw a group of girls bathing beside the little wharf below the pavilion while the Renforth crew were getting out their shell for a practise, and strollers were seen here and there along the beach. At the tennis courts the three courts were in use. The suburban dwellers greatly enjoy their evenings at this pleasant resort. There is lively anticipation of the coming aquatic sports.

IN THE COURTS

Before Mr. Justice Crockett this morning hearing was begun in the case of H. L. Hanlon vs four young men, an action for damages arising from an automobile accident some time ago near Titusville, Kings County. The claim amounts to about $200. The defendants have a counter claim to about the same amount. G. H. V. Belyea, N. C. appears for the plaintiffs, K. J. MacRae, D. W. B. Wallace, K. C., and W. S. Scott for the defence.

The matter of the King vs Seely in which the town of Shediac is concerned ex parte was set down for hearing.

This is an appeal from a conviction of Magistrate Queen of Shediac in an automobile case in which he imposed a fine of $10 for speeding against Seely. J. F. H. Teed is appearing for the appellant and J. A. Barry for the town of Shediac.

In the chancery court before Chief Justice Sir Douglas Hazen the case of The Snowball Co. Ltd., vs Sullivan was continued.

WILL OBJECT TO JITNEY SERVICE

P. W. Thomson Announces Protest to Come When Car Lines Running Normally.

Objection will be made by the N. B. Power Company to the granting of a license for a jitney service in the city as soon as the street car service is operating at normal, so Percy W. Thomson, the company's general manager, said this morning. He said that the power company would pay this year into the city treasury about $120,000, including taxes and a proportion of the cost of paving in Douglas avenue and Brussels street, and the company's ability to earn this amount would be lessened by the introduction of a jitney service. He said that the company did not object to the operation of motor cars while the street car service was disrupted, but it certainly would protest as soon as the normal street car service was resumed.

The same five cars which were on the main lines yesterday were out again this morning. Mr. Thomson said that it was his intention to add to this number from time to time. Next weeks he expected to have the number of cars doubled and to add proportionately the following weeks. He said that the company would maintain the staff at any time by bringing in outside men who were available in large numbers, but he wanted to give local men a chance to get the jobs.

The gas house staff, he said, was now about completed with a permanent crew and two expert electrical men had been put on the power house crew today. He expected that the entire staff of all departments would be filled by the end of the week.

A petition signed by some ninety to 100 names of residents of Glen Falls, which was addressed to Mayor Schfield, has been forwarded to the power company. Mr. Thomson said that as soon as the Glen Falls residents were ready to assure him that they would give a car service loyal support and protection he would put cars on that line. He said that a car was put on that route on Sunday, but there seemed to be a disposition to interfere with its operation, so it was withdrawn.

A meeting of the former employees was held this morning, but no official reported afterwards that only routine business was transacted.

The union men have not made any arrangements for a parade in the near future, the union officials said today.

PICNIC OF THE CHURCH OF THE ASSUMPTION

The annual picnic of the Church of the Assumption is being held today on the church grounds, Dufferin Row, West St. John. The City Cornet band was in attendance this afternoon and will also play this evening. The grounds were artistically decorated and presented an attractive appearance. Dinner was served from four until eight o'clock. A large and energetic committee was in charge of a large number of games and amusements of various kinds and throughout the day all were generously patronized.

This afternoon races were held in which children as well as the "grown-ups" participated, and the events were all thoroughly enjoyed. There will be a special musical programme this evening and additional attractions. The spacious grounds were ideal for the function and the large throng of pleasure seekers were afforded an opportunity of enjoying themselves to their heart's content.

BELYEA ASKED TO ROW AT DULUTH

Invited to Meet Hoover, Western Champion.

Cannot Accept Because of Other Arrangements Already Made - Busy Time Ahead for Hilton.

St. John is certainly coming into its own again in the nautical world, at least so far as nautical sport is concerned, for this forenoon Hilton Belyea received a telegram from the Secretary of the Duluth Boat Club of Duluth, Mich., inviting him to meet the western champion, Walter Hoover, at the big Northwestern Regatta July 23rd, a week from next Saturday.

Of course Hilton cannot reasonably be expected to accept this invitation and through John C. Chesley has so notified the Duluth people by wire. He thanked them for their courteous communication but explained that his engagements in the Canadian National Regatta at St. Catharines, Ont., the last of this month and the even more important events at the International Regatta at Buffalo, the first week in August will naturally prevent his going west.

Who Walter Hoover really is and what his record amounts to, local followers of boat racing are not sure. Some have heard of him in a general way, but it is assumed he must be the defender of the Western American—that is, the mid-west—championship, and hearing of Belyea's prowess in the eastern leadership he wants a chance to retrieve it for Uncle Sam. However, just at this juncture it is impossible for Hilton to meet the man with the illustrious name, and he is sorry, too, that it cannot be arranged.

Most people do not realize what Belyea has got to do to make ready for the big championships in which he is entered as the star performer. He has to keep in perfect physical condition, persevere at rowing practice, busy himself as to business in order to avoid the loss of time spent in conditioning, and after his brother Harry finishes his new boat has to get used to it.

The rowing world of this continent and the knowing ones across seas are keeping a close watch on the St. John man because of his almost phenomenal showing at Boston, when he started a boat length behind and finished six lengths ahead of the second man, and that in the company of national champions. So it looks as if the attraction at the forthcoming regatta in Ontario and Buffalo, will be this "mysterious dark horse," as one sporting writer in Boston dubbed Belyea.

The committee of citizens who have the raising of Belyea's training and travel expenses in hand feel sure the response to this appeal will be quick and unstinted. St. John never had a better opportunity to land world-honors and no lack of funds should compromise the chances. The case of Gorman, the skater-who he had on the St. John city—showed that St. John can rise to such occasions. Let this "rise" be before the defender leaves home, not after he has delivered the goods.

DO NOT MAKE ST. JOHN AN EXPENSIVE PORT

An old sea captain gives this word to those who think harbor commission a cure-all for lack of business at the port of St. John.

"Years ago, probably too long ago, for the gentlemen now talking harbor commission to remember, St. John was once offered a harbor commission act, much more favorable than the present act. In those days there were a large number of ship and schooner owners here beside the brokers and agents vitally interested in the port. Their judgment was against harbor commission, their judgment prevailed, and it was defeated at the polls.

"Since the defeat of the last act much dredging has been done and several wharves built by the government, and still the city owns its harbor. This is much better than an expensive commission with its large staff and larger salaries, the yearly cost of which would more than keep our west sides wharves in repair.

"Commission, even if it builds wharves and does not bring business. That must come from the government railways. The government railways control their own wharves at Halifax, Portland, Me., and Vancouver. Why should St. John be left out?"

"Beware of an expensive port, controlled at Ottawa, that will drive business away."

JULY BRIDES

Gray-Cunningham

A wedding of interest to many St. John people took place on Saturday, July 9 in St. Mary's church, Dorchester, Mass., when Miss Rita M. Cunningham was united in marriage to William R. Gray. Miss Cunningham is a daughter of Mrs. G. W. Cunningham, 271 Charlotte street, this city. The ceremony took place at 7:30 p. m. and was performed by Rev. H. E. Edensborg, brother-in-law of the groom. Only immediate relatives were present. A reception followed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Esterberg in Watertown, Mass. Mrs. Esterberg is a sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Gray, after a motor trip through the Berkshires, will make their home in Arlington, Mass. Mr. Gray is a grandson of Mrs. Jane Gray, Paradise street.

TRAFFIC CASES

Roy Henderson and David McKay were in the police court on the charge of exceeding the speed limit in Main street on Sunday evening. They were to have appeared yesterday but did not do so. Policeman Howard who made the report was not present this morning and the magistrate wished to put the case over until such time as he could be present but the two accused pleaded guilty and paid fines of $5 each to save another appearance in court and consequent loss of time.
