D., according to a confession here by Henry Laver, the confession attributed to Laver is a record of cold-blooded atrocities rare in the annals of crime.

After the seven members of the family and the chore boy had been killed, Laver went to the barn, covered the two bodies with hay and dragged Wolf into the shed and buried it under a pile of hay. He then went into the kitchen, opened the cellar door and threw the bodies of Mrs. Wolf, three children and that of the boy. Moulton said he had previously advanced $340,000 toward the purchase. The checks were dated in advance. He had intended to transfer the money to cover the checks.

Moulton said the deal collapsed when the United States government refused to transfer the ships to Canadian registry and that Mr. Morse released him from his obligation and he in turn gave Mr. Morse a release.

SAY LEVY ON WAR WEALTH IS PRACTICABLE

Report of British Parliamentary Committee

One Plan Estimated to Yield Billion Pounds—Public Opinion Is Much Divided.

London, May 14—That a special levy for revenue purposes on wealth accumulated in Great Britain as a result of the war, is administratively practicable is the decision of a parliamentary committee appointed in February to consider this question.

While deciding that the levy is practicable, the committee declines to express an opinion whether it would be advisable to impose it, thus throwing the onus of the decision on the government and parliament.

Several plans devised by experts for effecting the levy were submitted by the committee, which considers one by the board of inland revenue the best. This plan estimates a yield of £500,000,000 sterling.

The chancellor of the exchequer often has declared in favor of a levy, though he is opposed to the general levy on capital which the laborites desire. Public opinion is much divided on the whole question.

A DIAMOND MEDAL FOR CADDIE

Toronto, May 14—A special despatch to the Globe from New York says: A diamond medal is something that is usually associated with a big golf championship of some sort, but the White Marsh Valley Country Club has offered to give such a medal to the caddy whose conduct on the course is the most meritorious during the season.

Besides this, a gold medal will be given for second choice and a silver medal for third place, while a cup will be presented to the winner of the caddy championship of the club.

This is going the United States Golf Association one better. The national body sent out a suggestion to its member clubs recently to the effect that they should award a medal to the caddy who helps toward caddy efficiency.

JOINT MEETING WHEN SIR ARTHUR CURRIE HERE

The two Canadian clubs will hold in St. John for Sir Arthur Currie such a meeting as was held for Lord Jellicoe. It will be in the Imperial Hotel at the end of this month. Sir Arthur is expected to arrive at the noon hour and the civic and military authorities will extend courtesies during the afternoon and evening, so that the visit of the distinguished soldier may be made as pleasant as possible.

The stock market was active and firm at the outset of today's session, although overnight news bearing upon increasing financial conditions was again unfavorably interpreted.

Dealings were usually light during the morning, but most gains were retained in and in several instances they were materially extended. Bethlehem Steel was regarded as vulnerable, however, because of its new financing and lost one and a half points, but kindred issues denoted further support. Oils and motors also strengthened appreciably and standard as well as minor rails rose one to one and a half points.

Call money was liberally supplied at eight per cent, but was speedily absorbed in anticipation of higher rates over the week-end. The strength of German remittances featured the foreign exchange market, marks rising to 210, their highest quotation in months. Liquidation of Liberty bonds and Victory notes continues at new records.

During the evening dancing was enjoyed and refreshments served.

French, viceroys of Ireland, and Andrew Bonar Law, government leader, and the cabinet council on Wednesday on the new policy for Ireland. It had been hastily assumed that Mr. Law's very non-committal statement in the house of commons on Wednesday meant the adoption of a stronger policy, but there are many indications that it would be equally safe to assume that the proposed change is in the direction of conciliation.

TOLD OF DANGER OF POPULARITY

To Be Well Spoken of Frequently the Reward of Inertia—Dr. Cutten's Views.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)

"There is no better way of judging a person than by the enemies he makes," said the Rev. George Barton Cutten, Ph. D., D. D., president of Acadia University, N. S., in the course of the successful sermon preached to the graduating class of McMaster University at Walmer Road Baptist church last night.

Dr. Cutten, who chose as his text part of the 26th verse of the sixth chapter of St. Luke's gospel, "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you," showed that though there is no particular virtue in being disagreeable, to be well spoken of is the reward of inertia, or is the penalty of success.

"A person cannot be honest and agree with everyone all the time," he went on, urging the students to be honest with themselves and with their fellow men.

Dr. Cutten, in speaking of the educational methods of the day, referred to the "absolute stagnation" in the public schools, where all the children go through the same mould. Later, when the boys and girls enter universities, the same thing applies. Their parents, as a rule, choose the lectures, careers, etc., for their children, and help them to make a failure of it all. The same with religion, people are not allowed to live their religious life in their own way.

While making a strong plea for original thinking, Dr. Cutten stated that he did not see that it would be possible, even if Original thinking should develop tolerance. Dr. Cutten pointed out that Baptists have always stood for liberty of conscience, thought and action.

Need of Independence.

There is a time in the life of everyone when he has to tread the wine press alone, and the hope of the country politically, morally and socially, is to have men think the thing out for themselves. "If you are going to lift up the crowd to the level of Christ, you have to be near that level yourselves," Dr. Cutten said.

He declared that though the most democratic of men, he believed in titles, "they are crystallized public opinion," he stated, "and it is a good thing to have the good opinion of those whose opinion is worth while, and to have the good opinion of God." But he added that it is a good deal better to be free than to be near that level yourselves," Dr. Cutten said.

Scripture reading was given by Professor Farmer, the invocation by Chancellor McCrimmon, who presided, and prayers by the Rev. John MacNeill and the Rev. S. S. Bates. The choir contributed a beautiful anthem, and several hymns were sung.

The annual meeting of the Civic Employers' Union was held last evening in the Oddfellows' Hall with the president, J. McCarthy, in the chair. After the usual routine business had been transacted and the reports of the different officers read and adopted, the election of officers took place and resulted in all the old officers except the vice-president and the sergeant-at-arms, being returned to office.

The following are the officers for the coming year: President, J. McCarthy; vice-president, Garnet Ward; financial secretary, R. F. Goodrich; treasurer, E. Marshall; recording secretary, J. C. Whittaker; sergeant-at-arms, George Jackson.

FUSS OVER 71 CENTS MAY COST HIM MORE THAN $800

Ontario Farmer Finds Law Is an Expensive Undertaking.

Meaford, May 14—Here's a how-do!

Farmer Orr of Fairmount says he paid seventy-one cents too much taxes to the township of Ephraim, so he sued for recovery, and in court told the judge that already it had cost him $89.67 to try to get it. But it's going to cost him more, for the judge dismissed the case with costs against him, and everyone knows what that means.

But that isn't all. He is said to have circulated a petition for a town audit. The audit was made at a cost of $800. Now he faces the probability of suit by the township council to recover the $800 paid for the audit. And Farmer Orr did not get his seventy-one cents.

RIVOLI COMPANY DRAWS FULL HOUSE

Change of Bill Draws Capacity Audience to Queen Square Theatre — Musical Comedy Proves Popular.

Another stellar success was scored last night by the Rivoli Musical Comedy and Comic Opera Company, when an audience which taxed the capacity of the Queen Square theatre, greeted with sustained applause the many sparkling musical gems of that comedy "All Fall In". The comedy, which contains many popular local hits and really humorous repartee, is marked by several of the latest successes of the prevailing Broadway shows. The plot deals with the disposition of two millions of dollars to an heir of an estate who has never fallen under the lure of the demon love and "Well Settle Down" is sustained through two acts and three scenes.

Among the musical hits of the production are the duet "I'd Be Happy Anywhere With You," by Miss Bell Flower and H. Grady Miller; "I'm a Dancing Teacher," by Harold Goude; "Rolling Down to Rio," a swinging southern melody that develops all the richness and charm of Mr. Miller's robust baritone; "They Always Follow me Around," by William Quimby and chorus; Mr. Quimby's voice, a rich, clear and resonant tenor, was heard in several other numbers with Miss Elizabeth Teter, including "When I Discovered You" and "Well Settle Down" in a One Horse Town." The audience did not seem to get enough of the California Four, though this harmonious quartet was heard in "Kitty Kelly" and "Tickle Toe." This ensemble includes some talented vocalists and Arthur K. Munde, the producer of the show, is being complimented by his friends on the Class of clean, wholesome comedies which are being staged.

PLAYGROUNDS

The city council yesterday heard an appeal on behalf of a community playground for the north end of the city. The former council was generous in response to the appeal of the Playgrounds Association in behalf of the supervised grounds, those of the Improvement Leagues, and the recreation area at the entrance to Rockwood Park.

PLANT A GARDEN.

People from the country districts say the cropping season is late. The soil is still cold and damp, and in most cases only some oats and a few potatoes have as yet been planted.

(Copyright by George Matthew Adams.)

TIRED OF IT.

I've grown so tired of striking that work looks good to me; though I've had little liking, of late, for industry. The war got me unwell, unfit for honest toil, and, like a paltry mated, I reared and pawed the soil.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

YONGE STREET.

Thousands of tourists each year pass through Yonge street, Toronto, one of the main business thoroughfares of the capital of Ontario. It is named after a man who never saw the street, in fact never saw any part of the dominion.

ZEPP FACTORY FOR THE STATES?

Director-General on His Way to New York to Negotiate Transfer.

Berlin, May 14.—Alled pressure to forbid Germany to construct any aerial craft whatsoever, together with Germany's fear that the government may be forced to obey such a permanent injunction, they make America the home of the Zeppelins and Schuette-Lans air cruisers.

NATHAN STRAUS WOULD DIE POOR

Says Rich Man Fails in His Duty to the World.

New York, May 14.—An ambition to die poor because "it is a disgrace for a man to die rich" was expressed by Nathan Straus, seventy-two years old, retired millionaire philanthropist.

Swearing Reforms in Ontario Schools Urged by Marshall

(Toronto Globe.)

Swearing reforms in Ontario's educational system were urged by Thomas Marshall, Liberal member for Lincoln, in a speech in the legislature last night. Briefly, the suggestions made by Mr. Marshall in his speech are as follows:

AN APPLE MATTER.

In the light of the fact that apples imported from the Western States are being sold in the city, the following may be of interest.

INSPECTORIAL SYSTEM

That the present system of high school inspectors be abolished, and that this work devolve upon an enlarged teaching staff in the faculties of education.

WHY MOTHERS TRY TO KEEP BOYS BABIES.

Almost every mother keeps her boy in "knee pants" just as long as she can; she hates to see him becoming a man, for she feels that he is getting away from her.

At a conference in Hamilton a few days ago some remarks were made concerning playgrounds and the Toronto Globe reports:

"Miss A. Ethel Hodd's of St. Christopher House, Toronto, spoke very convincingly on behalf of recreation. The chief educational institution of the ancient Greeks was the playground, she said. They achieved great mental development, but their manhood failed because it neglected the moral and spiritual side. Canada's danger lay in neglecting the physical side. If this were brought to anything like the efficiency of our educational system, it would involve a striking outlay for medical care and recreation. What a heaven would be the same free basis as educational, but she urged on to her recreational theme, enumerating the agencies at work in this direction, parks, playgrounds, rinks, settlements and various other organizations and institutions, and showing them to be only a drop in the bucket of the ideal of free recreation.

The annual report of the Protestant Orphans' Home is a record of notable expansion and enlarged usefulness.

This, however, is only the beginning, and a committee has been appointed to investigate the larger scheme of a great institution centralized and fully equipped. A great provincial Home is the goal, and the movement begun when the temporary additional Home in West St. John was added to the parent institution will go steadily on till the larger aim is accomplished.

Sir Robert Borden has resumed his duties at Ottawa but there is still no intimation as to his intentions regarding the permanent leadership.

It is rumored that he will carry on for a few months and then decide, but this will hardly satisfy all of his followers. The trend of Unionism appears to be more and more toward Conservative policy, and there may be some Liberal-Unionist defections on the tariff issue, although there seems to be some disposition to try to keep the Union ship afloat as long as possible before it is finally scuttled and sunk.

The honors conferred upon Sir Arthur Currie will heighten the interest in his visit to St. John, although it is of his magnificent war-record the people of Canada think first when the name of the commander of the Canadian Army Corps is mentioned.

It is designed by the Canadian clubs to have for him in St. John such a meeting as that for Lord Jellicoe, but in addition the civic and military authorities will do all possible to make his visit to St. John a very pleasant one.

The warning of Magistrate Adams in regard to violations of the speed law by motorists on the Bathurst road should have a good effect, but there should be no relaxation of their vigilance by the officers.

There should be no such state of affairs as would warrant the remark that the highway is unsafe for pedestrians, and only rigid law enforcement can bring about a condition of safety.

Magistrate James Gardner of Glasgow says prohibition will soon come to Scotland, and he finds the evidence in recent plebiscites of working-men. He believes the measure would carry by a vote of two to one.

When Scotland accomplishes the reform England will not be very far behind.

Members of housing commissions from other towns go to Moncton to get ideas and inspiration.

Which goes to show that Moncton is a live city, with something worth while to display to its neighbors.

The scarcity of fertilizer is one of the farmer's problems this year. It may adversely affect the potato crop. Plant a garden.

A Cry of Alarm.

Le Soleil, in re-echoing a cry of alarm that has gone out from the press in Toronto as the desertion of the rural districts and the resultant decrease in agricultural production, says: "What is happening in Ontario is being repeated in the province of Quebec. We make conditions of life in the cities attractive to the rural population and apparently fail to realize that the eventual result must be disastrous to everybody. It would be opportune if manufacturers, commercial men and workmen were to unite and examine the situation as it actually exists and seek means to face it. If we wait too long we shall pay dearly in the result to our blindness."

LITTLE BOY BLUE.

The little toy dog is covered with dust, But sturdy and staunch he stands; And the little toy soldier is red with rust, And his musket moulds in his hands.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Another Labor Problem. Wife—Could you spare an old suit of clothes for the poor man who's making the garden? Hubby (wildly)—Great cats! Who-man, does his bill amount to that much already?

What Counts.

"The amount of money a fellow's father has doesn't seem to cut much figure here."

Trials of the Aspirate.

Mrs. Stuart Menzie tells a story of a cleric, famed alike as a hard rider to hounds and a profound scholar, who was agrangng to perform a christening ceremony.

Harassed.

"Doc, you must do something about this red nose of mine."

Comes in Regularly.

"Alimony, my child, is something that is considered by many women as an improvement on a husband."

The New Perfection Oil Cook Stove

It is easy to operate, economical in use, and gives a steady, powerful heat.

HIS WIFE'S MASSEUSE OWNED THE LIMOUSINE

AN APPLE MATTER.

In the light of the fact that apples imported from the Western States are being sold in the city, the following may be of interest.

INSPECTORIAL SYSTEM

That the present system of high school inspectors be abolished, and that this work devolve upon an enlarged teaching staff in the faculties of education.

WHY MOTHERS TRY TO KEEP BOYS BABIES.

Almost every mother keeps her boy in "knee pants" just as long as she can; she hates to see him becoming a man, for she feels that he is getting away from her.

Wretched housing conditions are found in every Canadian city. It should not be so in this comparatively new country, and especially should the civic authorities prevent any additions to the class of houses that are not designed for the health and comfort of the inmates.

China is said to be on the eve of a great industrial and commercial development.

The American Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce says: "In the matter of cotton manufacturing, to take only one instance, whereas, twenty years ago, there was not a single cotton mill in all China, today there are some 1,250,000 spindles and some 5,000 power looms, producing annually 250,000,000 pounds of yarn and some 60,000,000 yards of cloth. China's foreign trade, at the present time, is at least five times greater than it was thirty years ago."

An advance in the price of bread is another reminder of the need of economy.

It is amazing how small a dollar is when one goes to the market or the store—and it is still growing smaller. Whether it be bread, meat, potatoes, butter, sugar, clothing or footwear, the household purse quickly grows thin and unresponsive. And yet money is lavishly spent. This cannot go on indefinitely, and they are wise who look to the future.

The people of the provinces will welcome the announcement that St. John is to have an eight-days exhibition early in September—the first in six years.

RECENT WEDDINGS
A quiet wedding took place at the main Street Baptist church, parsonage, on Wednesday evening, when Rev. S. Poole united in marriage Edward A. O'Brien of Salisbury, and Nellie M. Shamon, Queens county. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will make their home in Salisbury.

RECENT DEATHS
Justin Edwards Dutton, vice-president of the Houghton & Dutton Co., owners of one of the largest department stores of Boston, died of pneumonia and heart trouble, on Tuesday at his home in Melrose Highland (Mass.). Mr. Dutton was born in Hillsboro (N. H.).

E. S. Matheson, formerly town engineer of Amherst, died at Pictou on Wednesday. Miss K. McK. Matheson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., in St. John, s a daughter.

The death of James G. Dykeman occurred at the home of his daughter, Lower Jerneg, Queens County, on Monday last. He was in the seventy-ninth year of his age. Surviving him are three sons and one daughter.

The death of Miss Eulalia Hawks occurred at her home in Chipman on Sunday after a prolonged illness. She was only twenty years of age. The funeral was held from her late residence, Rev. D. Price conducting the service.

HAS GRADUATED.
Miss Elsie M. Mahony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mahony, West St. John, was among the recent graduates from the Worcester Memorial Hospital. She is also a graduate in the contagious diseases course at the Boston City Hospital.

Daniel F. McAuley of Clinton, talking with the members of an automobile party getting ready for a ride, said that whenever he carried an umbrella in doubtful weather it never rained. They were a little worried about the weather and asked him if he would carry his umbrella all that afternoon, and to make sure of it every one chipped in $1. So Mr. McAuley got $7 for carrying his umbrella around with him from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m., and it did not rain a drop.

Jacqueline Van Til Tells of War Work

Describes Days in Brussels
With English Heroine—
Aided Soldiers to Escape—
Martyr Nurse's Last Letter.

(New York Evening Post.)
Jacqueline Van Til explains that she is not quite certain of her English, acquired in that casual manner which is a mystery to the average American, but to the best of her ability she is ready to describe her experiences as a nurse under Edith Cavell during the tempestuous days which ended in Miss Cavell's imprisonment and execution and which held a similar fate over the hands of nurses who were faithful to the cause. One instinctively places Miss Van Til against a happier background than that which existed in Brussels during those first days of the war—until she begins to talk.

But behind the charms of her manner, the delicate beauty of her features, there is a spark of that same spirit that carried her miles through darkness and danger to lead the soldiers of France and England on toward the frontier; that gave her courage to face the German officers when they came in to search the clinic and to make trouble; coolness and poise sufficient to outwit those same officers time and again. As for her English—it had a flavor of the Latin tongue, which made it all the more pleasing and it was used effectively enough to hold the listener under a spell which lasted many minutes, and to send the scenes in the lobby of the Vanderbilt hotel vanishing away into the mists.

"It was in 1910 that I went to the 'Teole Bede d'Inhrimere' Diplomes in Brussels," she said. "When the war came we scarcely realized it at first. The armies of the Germans went on and on, toward Paris, and behind them there were homes destroyed, dead and wounded soldiers lying in the streets and in the in-frenziedness—suffering everywhere. We used to go out at night to take them food and to care for them and bring them to the clinic. We never thought of the danger of it then but only that we must do all we could—the hospitals in Brussels were not very good, and there were hundreds of wounded, in the streets and everywhere."

Memories of Miss Cavell.

Miss Van Til told of the orders issued by the Germans that no allied soldiers should have aid and she told of how these orders were ignored by the directress, whose devotion made her blind to danger and to the limits of human endurance and gave her an almost superhuman power, beneath a cold and unemotional exterior that only those who knew her best could penetrate. This rather frail Englishwoman of forty-five, her hair already streaked with grey, would walk for hours during the night, always on guard and prepared to meet any emergency, and in the morning "you could never know that she had done something so wonderful—she was too well, too English to ever show what she was really like underneath."

"She found out about the secret organization of the Prince and Princess de Croix," Miss Van Til continued, "and she said that this would give us our chance to serve." There were a few breaks in the English—words which refused to come quickly enough—as this young French nurse gave a fast-moving picture of the events which followed the alliance between Miss Cavell's clinic and the secret system which was at work in Brussels. The words were not necessary, for the speaker was back in the days when the letter "Z" meant "Help this soldier get to the Dutch frontier," and in her eyes and every motion were the quick changes from fear to courage, from panic to confidence, that she was describing.

Gaston Quin Luc.
"It was on June 8, 1915," she continued, lapsing into French now and then, "that the Frenchman Gaston Quin Luc asked me to direct him to the clinic. He was badly dressed and starving, but he didn't look like a good man—his face was like a spy, and I could see the German, Fynkoff, waiting not far away. I sent him the wrong way, and I told Miss Cavell, but she only smiled and said I could see spies everywhere—she was afraid of nothing." She told how the faithless Frenchman was finally admitted to the clinic, which he betrayed; how he was "very, very attractive," and how he attempted to flirt with the nurses, who would have had no objection to the good-looking soldier except that they were "afraid of Miss Cavell, because she was quite severe with them." It was through the servants in the clinic that he obtained the information he was looking for—given with no wrong intent, but in ignorance of the danger—and from patriotic but indiscreet townspeople. In one cafe particularly, Miss Van Til said, "he gave the people a great deal of wine." "That would make them talk too much," she added naively, and all the time the Germans were there taking notes.

her letter, written on the eve of her execution. The page who came to summon Miss Van Til to the telephone seemed strangely out of place. He recalled there was much more she could have said regarding her own imprisonment and release and her present plans. She is French by birth. Her mother was an English woman and her father a Hollander. She will soon be an American, for she has already taken up work in this country, but first, by lecturing and by writing, she is going to raise the money which will establish an Edith Cavell Memorial Hospital in New York City.

Other bakers in the city have made no definite statement as to an advance in price. Should the advance go into effect it will probably mean an increased price to the consumer of one cent per loaf.

A class of fifty candidates went through the shrine last evening and were made full fledged members of the Luxor Temple, A. A. C. N. M. S. The degree was under the direction of Potentate H. R. IN A RUSSIAN PRISON
New York, May 14—After spending five years in a Russian prison, Rev. John Spanbauer of Bohemia, a K. of C. chaplain with the A. E. F., in Siberia, has returned to the United States arriving in San Francisco on Monday.

With him came K. of C. Secs. James A. Murray and M. E. Foy, the former of whom operated the "box car bus," famous with our soldiers in Siberia.

It was a Buffalo man, Garry McGarry, K. of C. supervisor in Siberia, who rescued Father Spanbauer from his wretched confinement. The priest was a chaplain with the Austrian army, constrained to service by the Austrian government.

He was the sole religious minister to a prison camp of 70,000 men when McGarry found him. McGarry arranged to have him transferred to the American service, where he was needed. Father Spanbauer worked with the Knights of Columbus for more than a year and is now returning to Bohemia by way of the United States.

BRITISH CONSUL WITH CARRANZA

Arrangements for Attempt to Rescue Him

Advices Are That Rebels Have Won First Phase of Battle That Has Been Going on for Four Days.

Mexican rebel forces have apparently won the first phase of the battle against troops still loyal to President Carranza, which have been fighting in desperate battle north of San Marcos, state of Puebla, for the last four days. Advices from Vera Cruz indicate a break in the Carranza lines and an effort on the part of the president's men to break through the rebel lines and march northward. The struggle is still continuing and new rebel reinforcements are reported to have reached the scene, arriving from the south.

An international incident may be foreshadowed by the fact that W. A. Body, British consul for Vera Cruz, is in the camp of President Carranza. Advices give no details as to the reason for his presence there, but it seems probable he accompanied the president in his flight from Mexico City.

AGAIN TRY TO KILL TURKISH GRAND VIZIER

The despatch declares a vast unionist association has been discovered in Constantinople.

$50-NOBENEFIT

This money might have been saved by Mr. Z. D'Amuro of 722 Papineau Ave., Montreal, had he only known of Zam-Buk sooner. Writing to the proprietors of Zam-Buk, a short time ago, he said:

"For over a year I suffered with eczema which nothing seemed able to cure. I had treatment from three doctors, which cost me $50, but none of them were able to cure me. I suffered intensely from the irritation and pain, and I thought I should never get relief, until one day a friend told me about Zam-Buk and I started using it right away. From the very first application I felt better. Zam-Buk relieved the irritation and seemed to cool and soothe the sores. Gradually the sores began to heal and, with perseverance, Zam-Buk completely rid me of the disease."

"I would like to be able to tell all sufferers from eczema to stop experimenting with useless remedies and use Zam-Buk. By using this balm in the first place they would save themselves needless suffering and expense."

Zam-Buk should be in every home, not only for skin troubles, boils, rashes, pimples, abscesses and ulcers, but also for cuts, burns, and scalds, for which it is indispensable. Get a box to-day. It will keep indefinitely and still retain its strength and purity. All dealers, 50c. box.

CLAIMS AUTHORSHIP OF "TIPPERARY"

Mrs. Jay of Washington, Declares Music Is Hers and Sues for Profits.

New York, May 14—"It's a long, long way to Tipperary," which inspired hundreds of thousands of British Tommies as they went into battle singing the well-known song flowed from the pen—at least the music of it did—of Mrs. Alice Smythe B. Jay, of Yakima, Wash., and was first sung Feb. 26, 1909, in that city by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, according to testimony given by Mrs. Jay in the Supreme Court here.

Mrs. Jay is suing the Chappell Co. Ltd., a British publishing house, demanding an accounting of all profits from the war song.

The feature of the suit was testimony given by a violinist, O. A. Asche, after swearing his fiddle would play the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, sat in the witness chair and played the "Booster Chorus," written by Mrs. Jay for her home city in 1909. Then he rendered the Tipperary battle song, repeating each twice over, and many who listened declared they detected no difference in the music of the war song and the "Booster Chorus."

VITAL STATISTICS OF NOVA SCOTIA

Last Year 867 Died of Tuberculosis — Death Rate is 17.9 a Thousand — Influenza Record.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
Statistical reports, as a rule, do not appeal to the general public, but the report on the vital statistics of Nova Scotia for the past financial year, compiled and prepared by the deputy registrar-general, A. J. Campbell, touches the lives of the people so closely that it is worthy of general study. In that respect it is one of the most important reports issued by the government. Dealing first with the population, the report points out that during the progress of the war no deduction was made in the estimate of population by reason of enlistments for service overseas. Accordingly, although during 1919 the repatriation of our soldiers was practically completed, the population estimate was not thereby increased. So far as the total population of the province is concerned the registrar has added our natural increase to the population figures arrived at for the previous year. This gives us a population of 514,484, consisting of 261,795 males and 252,689 females, which shows that men outnumber women in Nova Scotia by 9,106.

The report shows that 12,508 births were recorded during the year. The birth rate of the province per 1,000 of population is 24.8. Among the towns, Sydney Mines had the highest birth rate, 38.9, and Annapolis Royal the lowest, with 9.6. The births in the towns numbered 4,898, as compared with 6,615 in the country districts.

Three thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight marriages were solemnized during the year; 2,894 of these were performed by license, and 691 after the proclamation of banns. The marriage rate of the province per 1,000 of population is 7.0.

Nine thousand two hundred deaths occurred during the fiscal year. The death rate of Nova Scotia is 17.9 per 1,000 of population. Among the towns the highest rate was in Digby, 31.6, and the lowest in Parrsboro, 6.7. 1,409 persons died under one year, an increase of 117 as compared with the preceding year. Five persons, one man and four women, were over 100 years of age.

Deaths among religious bodies were as follows: Roman Catholics, 3,240; Presbyterian, 1,644; Church of England, 1,450; Baptist, 1,308; Methodist, 860; Congregationalist, 40; Lutheran, 182. Other denominations 185, while 221 deaths were registered without this information.

The report states that 867 persons died from tuberculosis in its various forms during the past year—412 males and 455 females. This is an increase of seven as compared with the preceding year. Of these persons 778 died of tuberculosis of the lungs—369 males and 409 females. This is an increase of 175 as compared with the previous year. The period covered by this report includes the months of October, November and December of 1918. Those were the months in which the influenza epidemic reached its height in Nova Scotia. During those months the victims of influenza in this province numbered 1,295. While in October of 1918 the number of deaths from this disease was 471, in January of 1919 the number of fatal cases had fallen to 156. The total number of deaths from influenza was 1,769, consisting of 947 males and 822 females. Of these persons 138 were under one year. The largest number of deaths, however, 815, occurred between the ages of twenty and thirty-nine years.

GASOLINE GOING UP.

(Bangor Commercial.)
There is another little advance in the wholesale price of gasoline, making a lift of 22 per cent. during the present year. The advance may be a necessary one or it may be predicated upon the fact that there is about a 25 per cent. annual increase in the consumption of gasoline, leading the magnates of the trade to the belief that a little profiteering is possible without shrinking the demand.

We do not know which suggestion is the correct one, but if the experts of the United States Geological Survey are correct in their estimates, the oil fields of this country are rapidly becoming exhausted. It is also suggested that at present about two-thirds of the supply of the world is being drawn from the United States causing the supply in this country to continually diminish while some other countries are husbanding their product and building for the future.

A NEW PAPER.

Montreal, May 13—A new French morning paper, Le Matin, will make its appearance in this city on May 31, Dr. Gaston Mallet, who will be its proprietor, announced today. Dr. Mallet is the founder of L'Aurifere, a French weekly with which he is severing all connections, an avowal that the new-daily will be independent of political parties and will reflect only his personal views, with an attempt to bring about a better understanding between labor and capital.

MANY THEORIES ON THE MURDER OF COLOSIMO

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Chicago, May 13.—From a bewildering number of theories as to his motive for the murder of "Big Jim" Colosimo in his cafe on Tuesday afternoon, the detectives working on the case were searching tonight for Frank Razzano, said by the police to be a sworn enemy of the acknowledged leader of the "underworld."

Arthur Rockhill, of New York, staying at a hotel several blocks from the Colosimo restaurant, gave the information which led to the search for Razzano. Rockhill said he was approached by an Italian with a revolver in his hand who said: "I got that dagger, the dirty big stick." Another Italian came running up and warned Rockhill to "keep his mouth shut," told the man with the weapon to put it in his pocket and then hurried him away. This took place near the hotel at about the hour the restaurant keeper was shot.

SIDE LIGHTS ON AFFAIRS IN MOTHERLAND

A political writer in the Westminster sets says: "I have been talking with the Labor leaders who have taken part in recent by-elections, and I find that Labor is not only failing to hold the ground won in the middle of the year, but is actually losing ground in the constituencies. It is true that in certain cases the Labor poll is likely to increase, and that, through the split in the Labor ranks, the party which is losing may even win seats; but on the whole there is a decided reaction, and it is clearly recognized that there is nothing to justify the hopes of sweeping victory indulged in by the Labor leaders a few months ago. There is doubt about the responsibility for the change. It is put down to the fears used among electors by the revolutionary talk of some of the extremists on the Labor side, and some of the more moderate of the Labor men are ready to admit that the loss of Labor will be the result of the Independent Liberals. Apart from the wavering elements in the electorate, there is the undoubted fact that extremists are gradually capturing local labor parties and identifying party with a policy that is frightfully away moderate trade unionists, as well as the ordinary electors who are inclined to trust the extremists."

per writes: "A new method of levying toll upon the house-hunter is becoming very general just at present. When the scarcity of houses began to be felt, attempts were made to approximate the demand to the supply by the introduction of the premium. The premium was quite open and unabashed. It varied greatly in amount. Sometimes it was as low as 250. Sometimes it was as high as 2500. There are no limits, except those fixed by the greed of the seller and the credulity of the buyer. The only merit of this system was that it was at least an open method of extracting money from the helpless, and the victims had the consolation that they went into the business with their eyes open. The method that is being generally employed now is much more insidious. The premium is abolished. In its place has been substituted the compulsory buying of the furniture left behind in the house by the old tenant or owner. The sum varies. There is no maximum, but there seems to be an unwritten minimum. This is usually in the neighborhood of 2500."

Major Gen. Woodward, in explaining the aims of the British Legion, writes to the Times: "It therefore becomes imperative necessary that the sober-minded elements in the community—those beyond all question form the majority of the people—should assert themselves in their own defence, and this they cannot do in their present unorganized condition. To remedy this state of things the British Legion proposes to organize and mobilize them in a practical fashion, not in an aggressive but in a purely defensive attitude. Naturally, the extremists will seek to misrepresent such action as a attack on labor, claiming as capable as any of us of realizing what vast issues are at stake at the present time. Labor is sound at the core, as every thinker realizes today, and the necessity for protecting his home and guaranteeing the necessary subsistence for himself, his wife, and his little ones means as much, if not more, to the working man as to any other person in the country. No; the trade unionist must not be received. The British Legion will not seek to interfere with the legitimate right of the trade unions to strike. It will simply work for the proper recognition of every section of the community while opposing the application of any form of sectional tyranny as such."

Lecturing at the Royal Institution on "Recent Advances in X-ray Work," Major G. W. C. Kaye described the development of the Coolidge tube, which has a highly rarefied vacuum and a tungsten spiral as cathode. This, he said, had revolutionized X-ray research and would probably become the main instrument of the radiological work of the world. One of these tubes was shown together with X-ray photographs taken by its means with one-hundredth of a second exposure. These were contrasted with the early examples of radio photography, which in 1896 required an exposure of twenty minutes. All radiography of the future the lecturer remarked, would be simple impulse flash work, "practically snapshots."

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS ARE ACTIVE IN MAINE

and girls' clubs was 4660. Of the eight projects, canning led with 1234 members participating. It is expected that because of the importance of keeping the home larder supplied against high prices and shortage of foodstuffs, canning will again be the leading project in club work.

Garden clubs came second, with an enrollment of 115, and the other clubs followed in this order: Cooking and housekeeping, 683; pig, 581; poultry, 441; sweet corn, 292; potato, 255; flint corn, 60. This year a new project, sewing, has been added.

Not a few of the Maine clubs have learned the wisdom of keeping up a continuous organization, with full-year programmes of meetings and activities, thereby winning the standard charter issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. This plan saves the bother of re-organizing each spring, conserves the time and energy of the state, county and local field workers and farm bureau executives and avoids extra expense in agricultural extension service.

SAFE IN PORT.

Quebec, May 13.—The steam barge Atikokan and the barge Thunder Bay were safe in port at their docks in Louise Basin tonight, after running aground at Madam Island on Wednesday night.

From those on board the vessel it was learned that the Atikokan after losing her rudder, had a narrow escape from being rammed by the Thunder Bay, which it was towing when the Atikokan suddenly came to a dead stop as it struck ground, only prompt action on the part of the Thunder Bay's pilot averted a collision.

A survey of both vessels will be made. The Atikokan was en route to Sydney when she grounded.

Ottawa, May 13.—Civil Service examinations for book-keepers, stenographers, postal employees, immigration inspectors, etc., will be held July 6, 7 and 8, next, in Fredericton, Chatham, St. John and Moncton (N.B.); Charlottetown and Summerside (P.E.I.); and Kentville, Halifax, Yarmouth and Sydney (N.S.).

Two more contributions to the funds for prizes to be given for the Olympic trials were received at the mayor's office, bringing the total up to $40. The new donations were $10 each from the Marr Millinery Co. and John O'Regan.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hillier were pleasantly surprised on Wednesday evening, when friends gathered at their home, 81 Millidge avenue, and tendered them a novelty shower. Many useful gifts were received and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

TO HEALTH BOARD.
J. King Kelley, K. C., county secretary, said this morning that among the matters taken up yesterday at a meeting of the county hospital board was the escape of nauseating odors said to come from the fertilizer plant at Little River. It was decided to take the matter up with the board of health.

GET PATENT.
J. H. Gregg and T. J. McDonald, two local young men, have secured a patent on an invention for taking wrinkles out of neckties. The patent was taken through on April 28 and they were recently notified regarding its acceptance. The new patent is constructed of flexible wire. The young inventors are endeavoring to get a couple of large corporations to take over the patent.

HICKS-ALLABY.
On Monday afternoon, May 10th at the Highfield street Baptist parsonage, Moncton, Miss Ada M. Allaby was united in marriage to Byron Hicks. The bride is from Salt Springs, Kings Co. and has been employed as school teacher at Ammon, Westmorland county. The groom's home is at Gladstone, where the happy couple will reside.

MAYOR'S GUESTS AT LUNCH.
Mayor Schofield invited the city commissioners, representatives of the Canadian Club and of the Canadian Unity League to meet Horace J. Gagne, K. C. of Montreal, at luncheon at the Union Club at one o'clock today. Mr. Gagne is president of the Canadian Unity League, and has also been secretary of the Civic Improvement League of Montreal.

VISITED PLAYGROUNDS SITE.
The site suggested by the North End Improvement League as the most suitable for a community playground and athletic park in that section of the city, and which the city council was asked to purchase yesterday, was visited by Mayor Schofield and Commissioners Frink and Thornton last evening. The mayor said this morning that he considered the proposed site a most ideal one and his opinion was shared by the other commissioners.

GOLDEN CHAIN CLUB.
The Golden Chain Club, a branch of the Baptist Young People's Union, and composed of girls in their "teens" gave a concert in the Victoria street Baptist church last evening. More than $100 was realized and this will be donated towards the new church building. The club has pledged $400 towards this fund and their initial effort last evening towards realizing this amount augurs well for them reaching their objective. Mrs. S. A. Williams, president of the club, was in the chair, and the following programme was carried out: Chorus, "Canada My Home"; reading by Miss Verta Roberts; dialogue, "Answering the phone," Miss Ethel Hudson; vocal solo, by Miss Durkee; dialogue, "The Old Maid," by Miss Iva Campbell; selections by the Excelsior Orchestra; piano duet, by the Misses London and Van Horn; reading, by Gladys McLaughlin; reading by George Wallace; dialogue, "May Queen," by Miss Hazel Ricker. Rev. G. D. Hudson tendered the members of the club a hearty vote of thanks.

Interesting Comparison of Purchase and Sale Prices of King Street Main — Commendation from King Street Firm on Expediency of the Work.

In a letter to Commissioner Jones, of the water and sewerage department, this morning, W. H. Thorne & Co. remarked that the "expediency with which the new water main in King street and Prince William streets is being laid is most commendable."

The crossing street crossing was closed this morning, but the city workmen are following so closely behind the contractors who are doing the trenching that it was expected that the work at the crossing would be completed and traffic resumed some time this afternoon. Tenders for the purchase of the old main were opened by the commission at noon and that of J. A. Barry for $35 a ton was accepted. Mr. Barry was acting for Frank Garson.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning the magistrate ordered a commitment made out against Frank Doucette, who was found guilty of attempting to steal from the C. P. R. and he will be sent to Dorchester penitentiary for two years. Doucette was allowed out on suspended sentence a few months ago on a similar charge.

Thomas Emms, who was before the court yesterday afternoon on charge of stealing a pair of boots from William Bannister and a watch, the property of Herbert Markham, both of the County Hospital, East St. John, was not arraigned this morning but his case will come up for a hearing on Tuesday.

Florence Best, charged with bigamy, was before the court but the case was postponed until Tuesday afternoon when the evidence will be adduced. She was remanded to jail.

Frank Minichie, charged with threatening his wife, was allowed to go on getting two sureties to bind him over to keep the peace. Sergeant O'Neill and Inspector McAnish agreed to act as sureties.

William Evans, who went to the police station last evening for protection, was brought before the court and remanded for investigation.

A case against Campbell Cormier, charged with stealing a wrist watch, a fraternity pin and a small sum of money, the value of all not exceeding $10, was remanded. The lad declared he did not steal the articles. No evidence was offered for the prosecution and the accused was remanded until Tuesday when the case will be taken up.

There were no arrests for drunkenness last night.

BANQUET OF BAPTIST Y. P. OF FAIRVILLE

The young people of the Fairville Baptist church closed their indoor activities last evening with a pleasant social gathering and sumptuous banquet. The season has been very pleasant and helpful one in connection with the various branches of work carried on and both girls and boys are very active in carrying out the C. S. E. T. and C. I. G. T. programmes. They are now making extensive preparations for their summer programme, which will be all kinds of sport—camping, picnics and games.

The programme last evening was one long to be remembered by all present, and the success of it all was due very largely to the kind assistance of members of the ladies' aid, to B. Coupe, A. M. Gregg, Mr. Long, Mr. Reicker, Mr. Parsons, Miss Fenerty, Mr. Rupert and Rev. A. S. Bishop.

C. B. Black was chairman. The programme was: Devotional exercises; Rev. A. S. Bishop; Singing "Grace," by all; big sing-song while clearing tables, led by A. Gregg; opening remarks by chairman; address, H. C. G. Reicker, on the intellectual programme; song, R. J. Rupert; address, Percy Long, on the physical programme; one-act drama, Messrs. Howard, Campbell and Lawson; address, Rev. A. S. Bishop, devotional programme.

A vote of thanks to the ladies who served and to all who took part was passed. All joined hands and sang Auld Lang Syne and then the National Anthem. G. G. Estey is president of the Y. P. Society.

ECONOMIC EFFECTS OF PROHIBITION

Waterville, Ohio, May 14—"For more than twenty-four hours at one period last week," says the American Issue, "there was not an arrest for any cause in the capital city of Columbus, Ohio. That city of more than a quarter million people was strictly on its good behavior. Nothing like it ever happened in the 'good old days' of the saloons. It is such a record as this which makes a stronger impression upon the citizen than all the noise of the liquor camp. Is there any wonder sane men do not have any notion of going back to the saloon days with their train of evils?"

Workhouse to Quit Business.

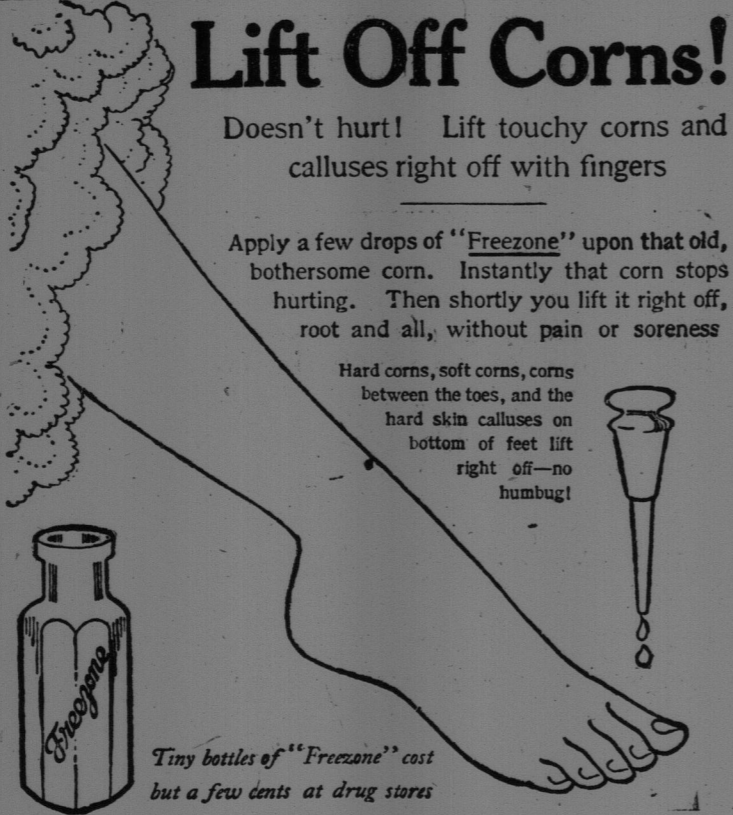

Cincinnati, May 14—Abolishment of the saloon has operated to economic advantage in this city, as elsewhere. Though the federal prohibition amendment has been in effect less than four months there are already indications of a general re-orientation in governmental departments more or less affected by withdrawal of the sale of liquor. The latest announcement in this direction comes from the officials in charge of the Cincinnati workhouse, who plan to close the doors of the women's division of this institution on May 15. If there are any inmates at that time they will be transferred to the county jail. With three inmates, the present number, and five matrons, it is held to be a waste of public funds to keep the place open. The number of male prisoners has been so reduced it is expected that the workhouse will be entirely closed in the fall when the crops of the small farm connected with it have been harvested. In the meanwhile the inmates not needed on the farm will be transferred to the county jail. St. Louis, May 14—Dominated by the saloon for many years, East St. Louis, Illinois, often found its police court and jail facilities strained to the utmost to care for the demands resulting from the sale of intoxicating liquor. Race riots that occurred there a few years ago were held to have been incited largely by liquor. Since war-time prohibition went into effect, followed by operation of the federal prohibition amendment, there has been a decided change, not the least important of which has been the economic benefits observed. Only recently it was recorded that the East St. Louis city jail contained but one occupant, an alleged deserter from the United States army.

MACLEAN'S MAY 15TH.

There is an arresting article in the May 13 issue of Maclean's under the title of "Land Power—and Canada." In it Miss Agnes Lait deals with the new conception of the importance of land power in the future that is grinding international relations and making Canada a pivotal point in the empire.

The question of the government system in locating trade opportunities and in creating foreign markets for Canadian goods is taken up by F. C. T. O'Hara, deputy minister for trade and commerce.

"Spreading the Drug Habit" is the fourth article in the crusade which Mrs. Murphy is conducting against the appalling increase in the pernicious use of drugs in Canada.

There is also a generous supply of fiction in this issue, including a golf story by C. W. Stephens and the concluding instalment of Basil King's great novel, "The Thread of Flame." Then there is another large slice of that delightfully humorous Wodehouse story, "The Little Warrior," which it is felt sure will be a tremendously popular feature. It is an issue to be enjoyed.

Masters of the Road

Superb AND Supreme

¶ The measure of mileage you expect to get from an automobile tire is exactly the measure we are prepared to give you in Dunlop Cord Tires.

¶ Dunlop Tires are thoroughly "thought out" in the Scientific Research Department, then they are thoroughly "tried out" on the road. You, as a tire buyer, get the Final Result.

¶ The new ideas we have evolved from world-wide collaboration with Dunlop Master Tire Builders have worked wonders in tire construction.

¶ Every other make of tire has suffered in comparison with Dunlop in a test of endurance; and that means foreign-made tires as well as Canadian-made.

¶ A tough tread, sturdy walls, largest air-chamber, unsurpassable anti-skid features, are some of the reasons why Dunlop Cord Tires are so much in evidence these days.

¶ And just as Dunlop Cord Tires, wherever you go, are being awarded the palm as "1920's best," so, right across Canada, our 1920 sales figures are registering the definite approval of motorists in decidedly unusual increases.

¶ When you buy Dunlop Tires you buy from the world's greatest rubber organization, whether the comparison is in technical knowledge, area of plants, financial resources, etc.

¶ Our new million-and-a-half-dollar factory is now nearing completion. It will be exclusively devoted to the manufacture of Dunlop Cord Tires—"Traction," "Ribbed."

ter of a large orphanage movement, the provincial home on a large scale which it was proposed to establish as covering the whole provincial needs in this regard. He asked that the work of the committee which had been formed a year ago to further this project should be continued and vigorous measures be taken to achieve the desired end. His views were heartily approved of. Judge Forbes, J. King Kelly, W. Golding and several ladies present as well as the officials all speaking in its favor. Judge Forbes then moved that last year's committee be relieved of its duties and a new committee appointed and following enthusiastic speeches by many of the prominent citizens present the committee was appointed and the splendid project was forwarded another important step on its way to realization. The members appointed to the committee of extension were W. S. Fisher, D. C. Clark, W. M. Campbell and J. King Kelly.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

At the monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society, held in the home of the society in Garden street, last night, the report of the agent, Rev. George Scott, was presented and disposed of in the usual way. It was very lengthy and showed quite a lot of work done. Two children have been placed in prospective foster homes since last month. During the month seventy-two visits were made and eighty-three letters and post cards written. Letters were sent to all the foster homes in which children have been placed inquiring as to their condition and prospects. Several replies have been received. In two cases the little ones had not been attending school as owing to the lack of teachers in the province, there had been no school during this term. One or two had had colds during the winter but all are now in good health, and happily placed. In answer to the advertisement in the morning and semi-weekly papers for foster homes for the children, fourteen applications were received.

CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH

By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.

MAYOR URGES UNITED ACTION ON DAYLIGHT TIME

"Last year there was a lot of kicking against the city council because it did not take a definite attitude with regard to daylight saving," declared Mayor Schofield yesterday. "The city council," before retiring, passed a resolution to the effect that daylight saving time would become effective with the city employees from May 22 to September 11, and received a resolution from the Retail Merchants Association this afternoon, showing that they have adopted the same period as daylight saving time for the members and employees. This clears up the question for this year to a great extent, but I wish all who have any ideas as to all of adopting daylight saving time would do so when the city and the retail merchants do, thus doing away so far as possible with the unsatisfactory state of affairs which prevailed last year."

A painful accident occurred yesterday at Nauwigewauk when a young man named Williams had his left hand almost severed at the wrist by the edging machine in McDonald's mill. The victim of the accident was brought to the city on the train arriving at 8:30 p.m., and rushed to the General Public Hospital, where it was found necessary to perform an operation and amputate the injured member. At an early hour this morning the patient was resting quite comfortably and did not appear to suffer much from the shock.

ANNUAL MEETING OF PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME

The sixty-sixth annual meeting of the Protestant Orphans' Home was held last night in the board of trade rooms with the president, T. H. Estabrooks, in the chair. All of the great extension of the work during the year was reviewed with satisfaction and plans were made for furthering a scheme of still wider usefulness as a provincial organization. Dr. W. S. Morrison, chairman of the standing committee on management, gave the first report, referring to the choice of the Martello Hotel as a suitable building for the annex to the Britannia street home; its formal opening on December 3, children having been admitted on July 31. Statistics in the report told of fifteen children admitted to the Britannia street home in which at the present time there are twenty-one boys and twenty-two girls with one boy in the hospital awaiting admittance on doctors' certificate and one girl having a permit already issued. The management of the matron, Miss Frost, was praised. The report then dealt with the West Side home which had been a source of responsibility. In the five months of its existence it had received forty-nine children, sixteen of them infants; four infants and eight other children afterwards being returned to the custody of their parents and leaving thirty-seven at present in the home, a total of eighty-two in the two homes. Strict medical examination was credited as in a great measure responsible for the good health of the children. Personal thanks were extended to members of the committee, Mrs. David MacLellan, Mrs. F. W. Murray, Mrs. J. E. Stord and Miss Mabel Sydney Smith, who had visited homes in investigating cases. The report closed with recommendations as to the duty of the standing committee; that applications for the admission of illegitimate children be received only on condition that they become wards of the institution which would be entitled to find private foster homes for the children as it was felt that when the mother retained a claim on the child the best interests and the effectiveness of the institution were impaired. The report finally recommended that as the orphanage was a Protestant institution no Roman Catholic child should be admitted unless the parents or guardians renounced all claim to them and allowed them to become wards of the institution.

Report of Secretary.
The report of the secretary, Mrs. MacLellan, referred to the fact that when the last report was written it had contained the following sentence: "At present we have forty-five children and until further accommodations is made we must refuse all applications." It went on to tell how in the year just past after deliberation the Martello Hotel building had been rented and opened as an annex so that at the present time the orphanage was providing for eighty-one children, twelve being infants and several applications were being considered. Praise was given the president and directorate for initiative and optimism which had made the undertaking a success. Reference was made to the generosity of the public and it was suggested that the public should visit the orphanage more frequently to appreciate all that was being done.

Mrs. MacLellan spoke of having first taken an active interest in the orphanage twenty-three years ago, of the great opportunity which orphanage afforded for benevolent work and of the part the young people of the city were taking today in supplying toys, etc., to the children. She spoke of James Manchester being the foremost of the visitors at the formal opening, his hospitality to the inmates of the orphanage being well known. Regret at the resignation of Mrs. Laid was expressed and Miss Frost, the matron, was highly commended as was Miss Dawes, Mrs. Land's successor Miss Gertrude Powers the trained nurse. The report told of the excellent health of the children and of their good progress in studies under the tuition of Miss Van Wart, of treats given them and of kindness shown them by interested individuals and societies. In the absence of the treasurer, H. C. Rankine, W. H. Golding of the finance committee, was called upon to give an account of the special effort made to raise money for the Carleton annex and he described the method employed, giving details of the most successful work of that committee in canvassing for funds. Mrs. David MacLellan, convener for the furnishing committee, told of the various donations received from organizations in the province and city and from individuals.

THE SAVATION ARMY ASKS THE PRACTICAL SUPPORT OF EVERY THINKING MAN

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE ROTARY CLUB, ST. JOHN

ARE YOU?

Are You Willing

To forget what you have done for other people; and to remember what other people have done for you? To ignore what the world owes you, and to think what you owe to the world? To put your rights in the background, your duties in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground? To see that your fellowmen are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy? To close your book of complaints and look around you for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness?

THEN YOU ARE READY FOR SELF-DENIAL.

Are You Willing

To stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends LOVE YOU, and ask yourself whether you LOVE THEM ENOUGH? To bear in mind the things that other people have to bear on their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you? To trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you? To make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open?

Are you willing to do these things, even for a little while?

THEN YOU ARE READY FOR SELF-DENIAL.

Are You Willing

To believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred and twenty years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal Love?

THEN YOU ARE READY FOR SELF-DENIAL.

(With acknowledgments to Dr. Henry Van Dyke.)

DOWNWARD TREND IN PRICES NOTED

General Reductions in Big Dry Goods Houses and Large Sale of Silks Reported—Cancellation of Orders on Cloth Mills.

New York, May 14—Reports continue to come in from different parts of the country confirming the downward trend in the cost of wearing apparel, and a despatch from Buenos Aires records an "amazingly" rapid spread of the overall movement in Argentina. One of Chicago's wholesale firms announced the sale of 3,000,000 yards of silk at reductions of 50 cents to $2 per yard. The president of the company told a representative of the Christian Science Monitor that business men do not like high prices, contrary to popular belief, as they restrict consumption and cause unsound financial conditions. "We look for this sale, which is one of the largest of its kind on record, to have a widespread effect on the silk market and in other lines of merchandise as well, as they are all related," he said. Following the lead of the John Wanamaker stores here and in Philadelphia, half a dozen of the largest stores in Trenton, N. J., have made reductions of from 20 to 25 per cent on their stocks. It is reported, and one of the biggest department stores has cut everything 20 per cent. In Richmond, Va., J. B. Moore & Co., one of the largest and most exclusive dry goods houses, announced a 20 per cent reduction in every department yesterday. A prominent woolen manufacturer in Boston stated that he was more concerned over the cancellation of orders from clothing manufacturers and jobbers than over the strike situation, commenting on reports that the textile industry is menaced by a slump in the market, and a falling off in the demand for woolen and cotton fabrics beyond all previous records. "The cancellation for the week ending May 1 represented a week's production at the mills," he said, "and they are coming in at a greater rate than they did after the armistice. I thought at first the lateness of spring this year was the cause, but I find they are cancelling orders for fall deliveries as well." Another manufacturer said that although the worsted mills are seriously affected, notably those making fancy and finished goods, there will be a tendency toward a reduction in prices as a result. Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

PALE ANAEMIC CHILDREN NEED VINOL

It Makes Puny, Thin, Ailing Children Strong, Robust and Rosy

Physicians Recommend it and Druggists Guarantee it.

Rapidly growing children need a great deal of vitality. They not only grow fast but play hard and work hard at school and often are tired, thin, pale, worn and listless when they should be strong, robust and rosy. If mothers could only realize how VINOL will build up strength for thin, pale, delicate, ailing children, create a hearty appetite, sound flesh and muscle tissue, rich, red blood, and make them strong, robust and rosy, they would not rest until they had started their little ones taking it. It is the medicinal, body building extractives of fresh cods' livers, aided by beef peptone and tonic iron, trace of the oldest and most successful tonics known to medicine, that act so quickly in VINOL, and you know what you are giving your little ones. If VINOL fails to benefit them, your druggist will return your money.

SOME GRAPHIC TROPHIES OF THE GREAT WAR

More Than 10,000 Exhibits in the Imperial War Museum at Crystal Palace, London.

London, April 27—(Correspondence of Associated Press)—Sign posts bearing the inscriptions "Hell-fire Corner," "Piccadilly" and "Haig Avenue," erected by British troops just behind the front lines in France, are among the more than 10,000 exhibits being assembled at Crystal Palace, London, to form the Imperial War Museum. It will be opened by the king in June and will continue for four years. Exhibits innumerable have been gathered from every land where the war cost its toll to show the common effort of the empire during the great conflict. Shortly after the signing of the armistice the memorable signposts mentioned were found discarded as lumber. In addition to those bearing "street" names, which, to many of the men who knew them best, had meant so many direction posts to avenues of agony, there was found the rallying trench sign of Verdun with its "no thoroughfare." They were all rescued and are now to be preserved as relics of posterity. There will be on display the gun that fired the first British shot in the war— from the docks of destroyer Lance at the mine layer Koenig Louise; the E battery gun that opened the military hostilities; the anti-aircraft pom-pom which, mounted at Gresham College, fired the first shot ever directed at a foreign foe from London since the days of the Romans—the occasion being the Zeppelin

How Old Are You By Your Hair?

You may be thirty in years, but if you are bald-headed, gray, or your hair is dry, brittle, scraggly and ugly-looking, people will surely take you to be many years older. When your hair becomes faded, dry, streaked and scraggly, when it falls out badly and new hair cannot grow, the roots should be immediately vitalized and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage (liquid form) which you can get at all good drug and toilet counters. It's guaranteed to abolish all dandruff—stop scalp itch and falling hair and promote a new growth of money re-furnished. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively and appear much heavier than it really is. A massage with Parisian sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, and delicately perfumed—antiseptic liquid free from dangerous ingredients and guaranteed not to change the natural color of the hair. If you want good looking hair and plenty of it by all means use Parisian sage—a little attention now helps insure beautiful hair for years to come.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Only Tablets Marked "Bayer" are Aspirin

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all. Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada. Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer" Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monocarbonyl diethylhydrazide. SAYS HE'S NEVER SEEN ITS EQUAL Halifax Man Now Has no Use For Crutches Since Tanlac Has Relieved Him of Rheumatism.

Some of the older residents in St. John remember William Weatherdon, who left here about twenty-five years ago, and went to live in Halifax, Nova Scotia. He still resides there at 118 Agricola street, and recently made the following statement which will be read with great interest: "I feel I ought to let everybody know how Tanlac has relieved me of rheumatism, for I doubt if anyone has suffered more from it than I have during the last ten years. I used to ache all over with a steady, throbbing pain that drove me almost frantic. At times I couldn't bend my arms sufficiently to get my coat on and it was only with great pain and difficulty that I could stoop over. My feet swelled up so that I was only able to get around the house with the help of a crutch. My hands got all out of shape and I couldn't use them and at night my whole body ached so I couldn't sleep a wink and often would just sit in my armchair before the fire the whole night through. "That was the state I was in when I started taking Tanlac and when I went to say that the way the medicine helped me was simply wonderful. I've taken seven bottles of it altogether, and the rheumatism seems to have left my system entirely. Today I haven't got an ache or a pain in my body, and all the stiffness and the swelling has left my joints. I no longer need crutches to get about and although I'm working every day, exposed to all kinds of weather, the rheumatism never gives me a moment's trouble. Never in my life have I known a medicine do what Tanlac has done for me, and I strongly recommend it to all who suffer as I did." Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Evans; C. V. Pearson, Grand-Island; and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Advt.)

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crushed, aching, swollen, corn-plagued, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

Laurel, Miss. — "Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had headaches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. You are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman." —Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

OIL PROPERTIES AND WORKINGS IN ENGLAND
(Canadian Press Despatch.)
London, May 13.—Mr. Bonar Law announced in the house of commons today that the government had reached a decision as to the royalties on oil deposits in Great Britain. A bill had been drafted, it was not proposed to permit fresh selected interests of landowners where oil was discovered.
On the passing of the government of Ireland bill into law the Irish representatives in the house of commons will receive salaries out of the Imperial funds. The home secretary said there were no Soviets in the British Isles. He could not give the membership of societies actively preaching the Soviet ideas in Great Britain, but they included many aliens and money support for their propaganda was coming from foreign sources. The house took the report stage of a new and more drastic profiteering bill.

In the National League, Grover Alexander won his sixth straight game of the season, when Chicago defeated Brooklyn.
St. Louis broke Boston's winning streak by putting St. Louis in the lead in the fifth inning, when he scored twice.
Cincinnati was shut out by the Giants yesterday. Benton was strong with runners on bases, while Fisher for the champions was wild in the first inning and Luque was hit hard in the last two rounds.
Summary of results:—

Brooklyn 1, Chicago 2.
Boston 3, St. Louis 6.
New York 6, Cincinnati 0.
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh, wet grounds.

Spectacular Player Hurt.
Pittsburgh, May 14—Meadows, pitcher of the Philadelphia National League baseball club, was injured yesterday, when he was struck by a foul tip during batting practice.
Attending physicians said that while Meadows' face it did not penetrate the eye ball. The accident will probably keep him out of the game for two weeks.
Catcher "Nig" Clarke Released.
Pittsburgh, May 14—The management of the Pittsburgh National League baseball club announced last night that catcher J. J. "Nig" Clarke, had been given his unconditional release.
Fort Howe Game.
In a fast and exciting game last evening on the Fort Howe diamond the Fort Howe Trimmers defeated the Fort Howe Tigers by the score of five to two. The game went five innings and was interesting throughout. The battery for the winners was W. McNulty and E. LeClair while that for the losers was M. Sargent and C. Murphy. Johnny Demo was an impartial referee.

A Knock-out.
Norwich, Conn., May 14—George Pro of New Haven last night knocked out Benny Doyle of New London in the twelfth round of their scheduled twelve round bout before the Pastime A. C. of this city.

In the semi-final Mickey Travers of New Haven outpointed Teddy Davis of Hartford in six rounds. Jack Ross of New Haven outpointed Red Rankine of Norwich in the preliminary.
Dundee and Jackson.
Newark, N. J., May 14—Johnny Dundee and Willie Jackson, lightweights, will meet in a twelve-round bout here tonight. It will be the fifth bout between the boxers, but the first to go beyond eight rounds.

McTigue Gets Decision.
Halifax, N. S., May 13—Mike McTigue had the hardest bout since he has been in Halifax at the G. W. V. A. tourney at the Armouries tonight, when he met Joe Egan, the Boston middleweight, who holds a decision over Mike O'Dowd. McTigue got the decision on his work in the last round when he faced the issue, and with a right and left to the face he had Egan in a bad way for a moment, but outside of that it was such an even bout that at the finish a draw would have been a verdict that would have satisfied the majority of the 1,500 spectators. It was an interesting bout between two scientific boxers. McTigue scored principally with his left jab, which he landed on the face many times, but Egan escaped many of them by his clever dodging and did good work in his fighting. Most of the rounds were even, there were some in which McTigue excelled, in the others Egan had the advantage, but with both clever men anxious to obtain the decision over each other there was an unusual amount of clinching. Tom Foley, who has refereed for all the important bouts here lately with satisfactory awarded the decision to McTigue.
Wild Wins.
Philadelphia, May 13—Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, knocked out Battling Murray, of Philadelphia, in the second round of a scheduled eight round bout here tonight.

THE TURF.
Racing After Dark.
The New York Times says: Horse racing after dark has become popular at Manila and draws large crowds to the electrically lighted tracks. Sometimes the last event is not finished until after 11:30 o'clock p. m. From 9 o'clock a. m. until 11 p. m. on the first Sunday of every month and on all legal holidays, except during the rainy season from June to October, racing meets are held here. The entrants are native ponies from 47 to 53 inches in height, except for a few horses imported from Australia. Some of the ponies are so small that the jockeys' legs must be strapped up to prevent their feet dragging on the ground.
"Rita" a pony that was discovered hauling a carrometa or native cab here and was purchased by his present owner for $250, is credited with having won $20,000 in purses on the track during the last year. Purses range from $125 to $1,000 for the big special races.

BABE RUTH ON BATTING SPREE
Made Two Circuit Drives and Three - Bagger in Game Against White Sox.
New York, May 11—Flagrant profaning in home runs by Babe Ruth brought the Yankees-Chicago White Sox game at the Polo Grounds to the attention of the federal officials and 15,000 other authorities today. The Knickerbockers won a fine old slugging match, 6 to 5, in which there were so many tremendous drives that Henry Fabian, the ground-keeper, threw up his hands and elled: "Stop them; they are trying to break up my ball park!"

Ruth was on a big batting spree. In the first inning, with Pipp on first, Babe pelted the ball into the right field bleachers. Only one other player, Davey Robertson, the ex-Giant, who plugged a homer into the same ballway in 1917, ever performed this feat. It was a rare smash by a rarer smasher. In the third Ruth jammed a three-bagger to center field fence, which would have been a circuit slap, only Hap Felsch was playing deep for it. Again in the fifth Ruth socked the ball into the upper grandstand for another circuit jaunt. Then Babe came to the bat again in the seventh and Dick Kerr gave him a pass. A

SICK HEADACHES CONSTIPATION
If you have suffered from constipation for years, tried doctors and all the remedies you ever heard of read of, without getting relief, if you have been subject to all the miseries associated with constipation, such as sick and bilious headaches, biliousness, specks floating before the eyes, water brash, heartburn, jaundice and the painful, troublesome, internal, bleeding or protruding piles, etc., wouldn't you consider it a blessing to be able to keep the bowels in a good healthy condition and prevent disease getting a foothold on your system.
Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are indicated just for this purpose; their regular use relieving the worst cases of constipation.
Mrs. Malcolm McDermid, Cranston Station, N. S., writes:—"I have been sick for a number of years with sick headaches and constipation. I tried all kinds of doctor's medicine, but none did me any good. I tried Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and after using four vials I am completely cured and would heartily recommend them to all sufferers."
Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEART SO BAD WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE
Miss Eva F. Yatenan, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls wherever I was that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me, and I advise any one troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

ONLY SURVIVOR OF JESSE JAMES' OUTLAW GANG

Jim Cummings, a Feeble Old Man, Peddles Book of Memoirs for Living—Some Interesting Incidents.

Toronto Mail and Empire.) "Kit" Dalton, one of the last of the old Quantrell band, died a few days ago. This leaves a solitary survivor of the Jesse James gang—Jim Cummings, now a feeble old man who makes a living by peddling his book of memoirs at a Missouri watering place. Dalton wrote a book some years ago, in which he purported to give an account of his career, but naturally enough he stopped short of making any admissions that would have branded him as a criminal, or rather he stopped just short of offering evidence that might have convicted him had he been brought to trial. Nobody ever had the slightest doubt, however, that he was with the James boys and the Youngers and with less well-known bandits when they made their names famous in the southern and western states a generation ago. It will be recalled that some twenty-five years ago in this city there was a band of criminals known as the "Dalton Infiltrators." They held up Ammon Davis, the jeweler, and also pulled off a robbery with the Home Bank as victim. The career of the original Daltons, therefore, was sufficiently blood-stained and desperate to inspire imitators. One of Quantrell's Guerrillas. Like most of the famous bandits of the seventies, Dalton was a member of Quantrell's guerrillas. They fought for the south as long as it was possible to fight, and after that carried on a sort of irregular warfare that speedily degenerated into outlawry. These men had some excuse for the life they led. Recognized as belligerents, they considered that they were justified in carrying on the fight against the victors by taking their property if they did not take their lives. Dalton was one of the most daring of Quantrell's band. He was slight of build and weighed only 120 pounds, but no man was big enough to make him back down if he had a gun in his hand, and he proved quite as successful in his occupation as though he had been a foot taller and weighed another hundred pounds. After the death of Quantrell at Wakefield's barn, in Kentucky, Dalton became associated with the James boys and the Youngers and remained with them for years. When Missouri became too hot for him, he went to Texas, where he worked as cowboy for a time. But the old lure of sticking up a train became too strong to resist and he cast his lot with Sam Bass, a native of Indiana, who was introducing the latest fashions in holdups into the Lone Star State. In his book, "Under the Black Flag," Dalton refers to their first exploits, the robbing of a stage on the Austin and

San Antonio line, in these words: "I was with Sam Bass shortly after a thrilling incident, and have every reason to believe the proceeds from the Austin and San Antonio stage robbery were divided into four equal shares, something like this: The dividend being $2,000, and the divisor four, the quotient would necessarily be $500, or, in better mathematical form, $2,000 divided by four equals Sam Bass, Joe Collins, Jim Bill Jackson, and a gentleman of small stature recently arrived from Missouri." Shortly afterward there followed a more important robbery in which the plunder was distributed, according to Dalton, among "Sam Bass, Jim and Joe Collins and another gentleman who was a warm personal friend of mine." Reading these admissions, the inference is clear that Sam Bass and Joe Collins were undeniable train robbers. Subsequently Jim Bass and the Collins boys were shot to pieces and the Boswell of the party made his escape to somewhere else. The Old Bandits. By some means not explained, Dalton was able to return to his native Memphis and live there more or less respected and greatly admired for thirty years. He remained a picturesque member of the diminishing band of Quantrell's who have held annual reunions for nearly half a century. It is not on record that he ever publicly repented. Such action might have interfered with the sale of his book, which in some sections of the United States vied with the output of Harold Bell Wright in popularity. Dalton used to travel the country and sell his books at fairs, and when he died he had no right to complain that literature was an unprofitable profession. Recent movements, too, have tended to make the banditry of Dalton and his colleagues almost respectable. They risked their lives every time they staged a hold-up and in their leisure hours they refrained from touring the country denouncing their fellow citizens who made profits. They shot only when they felt it necessary to shoot, and probably when they reviewed their careers—those of them who had time to make any review in the circumstances of their taking off—they marvelled at their own moderation. Last of the Old-Timers. The old-fashioned bandit business went into liquidation in the United States after the shooting of Jesse James and the surrender of Brother Frank in 1882. A few years later a modernized form was revived by Jack Kennedy, known as the "Quail Hunter," from the circumstance that one night when fully outfitted and otherwise organized for a holdup he was challenged and explained that he was out to hunt quail. Kennedy was a little smoother than the James boys. Whereas they used to pile a railroad track with obstructions, stop the train and start shooting at random to terrify the passengers, Kennedy, as an ex-automotive driver, introduced the fashion of cutting off the baggage and express cars and running them some distance down the line where they could be pillaged in greater comfort. Kennedy, too, used to elaborately disguise himself. His chief failing was a fondness for something when it moved itself aright, a weakness as abhorrent to the James boys as to Rev. Sunday. Kennedy talked too much and eventually his flow of conversation carried him into the penitentiary.

WENT PREACHING ON HORSEBACK

S. F. Huestis, a Native of Cumberland County and a Graduate of Mount Allison Has Had Interesting Career as a Minister.

(Toronto Star.) Blessed with a memory that still retains fresh the pictures of incidents of sixty years ago when astride his horse he traveled regularly among the members of his far-flung ministerial circuit, Rev. S. F. Huestis is today enjoying excellent health following a six weeks' illness which was the result of a critical operation. He is among the oldest living members of the Methodist ministry and until a few years ago took an active part in the work of the church. He is still a faithful member of the Toronto Ministerial Association. In an interview with the Star, Dr. Huestis vividly recalled the days when the "itinerant" minister of the gospel had to ride over a forty or fifty mile circuit in the pursuit of his duties. In the early fifties when Dr. Huestis took charge of his first circuit at Port Good and Ship Harbor, Cape Breton Island, his work took him among the fisher folk and farmers and his first meeting places generally were the houses of his parishioners. For music the pastors of those days depended on the roar of the surf or in the inland districts where the country was wooded, conducted the services to the whisper of the pines above the roofs of the cabins. The term of Methodist "itinerant" minister then was strictly three years, so that until 1880, when he was appointed publisher and business manager of the Methodist Book Room, Halifax, Dr. Huestis covered a large section of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Cape Breton. Early in his ministerial career he was one of four ministers who had charge of the Methodist circuits in the county of Carleton, New Brunswick. Some of his journeys, all of which were made on horseback, winter and summer, took him forty or fifty miles from his starting point. He is the son of Joshua Huestis of U. E. Loyalist stock, his father for many years being magistrate and postmaster at Wallace, Cumberland county, N. S. He will celebrate on May 8 next his eighty-sixth birthday. His two sons, A. E. and A. M. Huestis, reside in Toronto. His Alma Mater is Mount Allison University.
