UNCLE SAM'S TROUBLES.

Troops Wanted to Suppress an Indian Outbreak. DENVER, Colo., May 21.—A special to the News from Lander, Wyo., reports an Indian outbreak imminent on the Shoshone reservation. Six hundred Arapahoes have defied the authority of the agent, Capt. Nickerson, who refused them permission to hold their annual sun dance and denied them passes. Trouble has been brewing for some time from other causes, such as the late orders giving them rations, but twice a month instead of weekly as heretofore, and the failure of the government to issue seed grain for sowing. Captain Nickerson has applied to the Indian department for United States troops to maintain his authority and fearful that a clash may occur at any moment. The Shoshones have not yet joined in the revolt.

A LOVE-SICK BOY.

DELHI, May 21.—Irving Marx of Andres, a schoolboy about 15 years old, shot himself with a revolver yesterday. The bullet struck the breast, lodging in his shoulder. His condition is regarded as serious. He was in love with a girl at school, but her parents discouraged his attentions. Marx and the girl had been walking together by the river. Relatives took her away from him and he shot himself.

SUM OF $80,000 STOLEN.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—A package containing $80,000 in currency consigned by registered mail by the National Bank of Commerce to a bank in Great Bend, Kansas, has disappeared and detectives are working on the theory that it was stolen by some one connected with the postal service.

WAS IT SUICIDE?

E. A. Bridges, a Bangor traveler, disappeared from the hotel Morneau, at Fort Kent, Me., a week ago last Sunday night. He left his money in the hotel, along with a letter for his wife, and told the landlady if he should go away and not return to send his baggage to Bangor. It was feared that Bridges had committed suicide, and this appears to be confirmed by the fact that his body was found in the river last Saturday night at Grand Isle, a little below Edinborough. The body came ashore at the same spot as that of Shea, who was drowned in the river above that point some three years ago. No information is at hand further than that the body has been recovered.

INDIANTOWN NOTES.

New Map of the River—Prediction and Rats Coming Down. The May Queen brought down a very fair catch yesterday. Among her cargo were eight cats and a lot of small stock. Her captain reports that all the wharves at which they call are uncovered with the exception of the Range wharf at the head of Grand Lake, which has about a foot of water still on it. McLean's wharf, in Cumberland Bay, where there is nearly eighteen inches of water. Steamer's tug Admiral today brought down a large amount of logs from Springfield for Randolph and Baker, Hayward Brothers, and Stetson, Cutler & Co. The Hampstead today had a big freight, including a fine heavy draught horse brought down from Oak Point by B. F. Hurling for William Spence of the Strait Shore. James Stagg is erecting a new dwelling house on the Pokok hill, a short distance from the Beefsteak club house taken over from Cape Breton coal and is being unloaded at D. D. Glasser's warehouse for the use of their boats. Alex. Paterson, who has been for some time engaged in operating a portable mill at Washademoak, has bought out a mill at Grand Falls, and will leave in the morning for that place, accompanied by the gang of men who have previously been working with him. He expects to handle about five million feet of lumber this season. Frederick Purdy, one of the most enterprising farmers of Jemseg, has potatoes which are now two inches above ground. Oats are also showing through in different places. The map which is being issued by Robert Orchard, of the Star line will shortly be finished. This plan of the St. John river and tributaries is a thing that is greatly needed, and all who have seen the proof state that it is a fine piece of work, and perfectly correct in every detail. John N. Paterson, of Washademoak, came to the city yesterday on his way to Grand Falls. The tugboat Lily Glacier is on her way down the river with a large raft of logs for Randolph and Baker, Hayward Brothers and W. H. Murray. The woodboat Mintz came down from the reach last evening with a load of dry hardwood for Purdy and Green. It is being unloaded at the bedroom. Reddick's tug Joseph is lying in the bedroom, where she is being thoroughly cleaned and receiving a fresh coat of paint.

FOSSILLIZED TREES IN KENT.

A contemporary reports that an interesting discovery has been made in the course of sinking the shaft for the Kent coal works at Dover, when a seam of fossilized coniferae was passed through. The seam followed the strata which contained bitumen. Some unusually large and beautiful specimens have been secured, and will be sent to the British Museum. In some cases the specimens secured show with remarkable distinctness the structure of the tree, with even the grain and the knots.

BRIEFS BY WIRE.

The Pill of Today's Despatches to the Star. The Honolulu legislature has passed a vote of want of confidence in Gov. Dole. The vote was 13 to 11. Sir John Edmund Comyness, admiral of the British fleet from 1862 to 1883, is dead. He was born in 1828. The will of Mrs. Eliza Wingate of Boston contains a bequest of $5,000 to establish a scholarship at the Bangor Theological seminary. General Fitzgibbon, who has been ill for several weeks at his home in Morristown, N. J., died this morning aged 89 years. A St. Paul despatch says ex-Senator Fettingrue will probably be president of the Great Northern railway, and that J. J. Hill will make his home in New York. The engagement of Lady Mary Rockville, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould at Lakewood, N. J., in 1892, to Hamilton Dent is announced in London. Plans are being made by the officers of the Pere Marquette line, says a Milwaukee despatch, to furnish all the vessels of that line, seven in number, with a system of wireless telegraphy, to enable communication with the vessels while on the lake. John N. King, manager of a large flour mill plant at Lewiston, Idaho, is under arrest, charged with the murder of his partner, Charles E. Thatch, two years ago. King swore at the time that the deed was done by two masked men. The Anchor line steamer California arrived at New York today from Naples with 1,169 Italian steerage passengers and was detained at quarantine because smallpox had broken out among the passengers. One patient has developed the disease and three others are suspected. John Glover, an ex-congressman from St. Louis, is reported to have met his death in the floods near Lovin, Colo., on Sunday last. A horse and a mule were found in that vicinity today, and it is thought to have belonged to Glover, who is missing.

DETROIT, Mich., May 21.—At a meeting of manufacturers' last night, which was attended by 23 representatives of the largest manufacturing concerns of the city, it was unanimously voted that those present should not sign the agreement presented by the machinists. AN ADVENTUROUS VOYAGE.

CHICAGO, May 21.—A special to the Chronicle from El Paso, Tex., says: Representatives of the United States and Mexican boundary commission have just embarked on a voyage down the Rio Grande in three boats to make observations and a more complete survey of the river. It will require three months to make the trip, and for a distance of six hundred miles all communication with the outside world will be cut off. The voyage is considered an extremely hazardous one, as in many places the river consists of dangerous rapids, and but little is known of its windings, where it traverses the grand canyon.

Nos. 1 and 2 Cos. Scots boys brigade, Capt. Buchanan in command, were inspected last evening in St. Stephen's church school room by Lieut.-Col. Dunbar, who highly praised them. The two companies under Capt. Farren and Lieutenant Breen, with the colors in the centre, under command of Lieutenant Cassidy, the whole being under command of Capt. Buchanan, were drawn up in line at the order at 8 o'clock. Instructor Doce, Sergt.-Major Dolg and Sergt. Armour acted as major, adjutant and sergeant-major, respectively, whilst Pipe Major Cullbank handled the bagpipes in admirable style. The prizes were presented by Colonel Dunbar and Mayor Daniel. The Parks cup was won by Col. Sergeant Douglas McArthur, who also received the silver medal for the best non-commissioned officer. Col. Sgt. John King won a dressing case; Roy Davidson a silver cup; Sgt. Alex. Wilson, a silver medal; Harry Patterson and Douglas Leavitt, books. Sgt. WORTH THE DIFFERENCE.

(Boston Record.) In S. L. Powers's story at the Middlesex Bar association dinner the lawyer tried the case for the complainant. She sued a middle-aged gentleman for breach of promise. He married another girl. The jury returned, and the defendant also went his way. The jury found for the plaintiff in $800 damages.

THE MIDDLE-AGED GENTLEMAN.

The lawyer met the middle-aged gentleman a few minutes later in the lobby of an adjacent hotel. "Squire," said the latter, "how did the jury decide?" "Against you," was the answer. "I don't think they would do that," said the middle-aged gentleman musily. "What's the damages?" "That ain't so bad!" he exclaimed, on being told. "Squire, there's that much difference between the two women!"

KLONDIKE McDONALD

Made a Knight of St. Gregory By the Pope. TACOMA, May 21.—At Dawson two weeks ago Alexander McDonald, king of the Klondike, was made a Knight of St. Gregory, by authority of a special letter from the pope. The presentation was made by Rev. Father Genereau, who secured that signal honor for the Klondike gold miner after long correspondence with Rome, in the course of which he pointed out Mr. McDonald's generous benefactions. Only two other Canadians have thus been honored. They are former British Minister Mercier and former Governor Chapleau of Quebec.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 21, 1913.

OUR OUTING DEPARTMENT.

The Star proposes to devote some attention to the various trout fishing resorts about the city and through the province. The subject is one which is of interest to a great many people in the summer season, and not much has been said about it except in a desultory way. This paper will be very glad if those familiar with good fishing resorts will co-operate in the effort to place before our readers information respecting such lakes and streams, and any news along that line. The tourist association is endeavoring to gather intelligence respecting places where summer visitors can enjoy themselves, and to many a little good fishing would be a great attraction. There are in this city many gentlemen who are practical anglers, and who know a great deal that is beyond the knowledge of any but the practical sportsman, and to them the Star especially appeals. There is no reason why this paper should not have an interesting outing department that would be of practical value along the same line as the work of the tourist association. Any suggestions or communications on the subject will be gladly received.

In another column of today's issue is an article that will be of interest to all sportsmen and will convey to them some idea of the sort of material that will be suitable for our Outing Department. In a series of articles of this sort will be of more than momentary interest, and therefore deserving of the co-operation of those who know.

BEAVER LAKE.

Nine miles from St. John, on the old Black River road, lies Beaver Lake, the property of the Beaver Lake Fishing Club. The lake is over a mile long, nearly half a mile wide some points and has an arm that is quite a lake in itself. The lake is situated in what are known as The Barrens. Its waters are of a peculiar color, something like that which gave a neighboring stream the name of Brandy Brook; but it is claimed that no finer trout are found in New Brunswick, so far as quality goes, than those caught in Beaver lake. There are islands in the lake, some covered with vegetation, some bare rocks. Just where the arm joins the lake there is an overhanging rock, under which one may seek shelter from the rain. At another place on the shore there is quite a high bluff of rock. In other places the shore is covered in an even, some weighing over a pound. The water is clear, and it is the natural aspect of the lake is diversified and attractive.

Out up to a pound and more are found in Beaver lake. A member of the club, who went out recently, caught an 8 lb. trout, weighing over a pound. The club has a rule that no party can take over five dozen in any one day, and this limit has been reached quite a number of times. Of course there are off days on this lake, as on other lakes, but it yields great support to its members in the course of a season.

Beaver Brook runs from the lake to the Misepoo stream, and thence flows to the Bay of Fundy.

There is a road direct to Beaver lake, and the club have a good boat on the water. The club has ten horses. Often several parties are there on the same day. As it is so near the city it is chiefly a day resort, and it is not usual for members to remain overnight at the club house.

The Beaver Lake Fishing Club was organized in 1877 by the following gentlemen:—Samuel Hayward, Stephen J. King, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, W. E. Collier, W. F. Harrison, Hon. Geo. E. King, Geo. A. Barker, L. R. Harrison, R. B. Macpherson, W. H. Hall, Chas. H. Scamman, H. De Troop, W. H. Busby, Edward T. Kennedy, S. S. De Forest, Geo. L. Slipp, Hon. David McLellan, Geo. S. Fisher, J. R. Stone, Dudne Brewster, James C. Robertson, James E. Ford, J. Morris, Robinson, W. H. Thorne, W. H. Humphrey, John H. Parke, Geo. F. Smith, F. E. Barke, W. V. Peters, J. R. Armstrong.

It will be noted that these were all well known citizens, and that quite a number of them have since passed away.

The present members of the club are as follows:—Herbert J. Fleming, W. F. T. Harrison, W. F. Hatheway, James Collins, Joseph Finley, W. S. Hare, G. A. Kinby, E. H. Hall, Chas. H. Scamman, J. De Troop, W. H. Busby, Edward T. Kennedy, S. S. De Forest, Geo. L. Slipp, Hon. David McLellan, Geo. S. Fisher, J. R. Stone, Dudne Brewster, James C. Robertson, James E. Ford, J. Morris, Robinson, W. H. Thorne, W. H. Humphrey, John H. Parke, Geo. F. Smith, F. E. Barke, W. V. Peters, J. R. Armstrong.

The officers of the club are:—W. H. Thorne, president; A. W. Lovett, vice president; G. Fred Fisher, secretary; additional directors, J. De Troop, G. S. Fisher, Joseph Finley, and Struan Robertson.

There are half a dozen boats on the lake.

What are called the Eastern Lakes, not far from Beaver, are also good fishing waters. So are Ball's Lakes, which is controlled by a club, and is about two miles from Beaver lake, and Milligan's Lake, in which there is free fishing. These three lakes form a sort of chain, though not connected, in an excellent fishing region. There are ponds on Brandy Brook which are crossed on the way to Beaver lake, in which there is good, free fishing.

When you need a good cup of tea you need Red Rose.

YORK ELECTION CASE.

When Alex. Gibson, Sr., was served with a subpoena to give evidence at the York election trial he flung the sixty cents into the Washademoak water. Add Farrell, of Fredericton, threw his two into the same body of water. Judge Gregory has made an order in this case requiring the petitioner to deliver particulars to all persons alleged to have been bribed, treated or unduly influenced, and on all persons treating, bringing or extending undue influence connected with said particulars to be delivered on or before Wednesday next.

THE BATTLE LINE.

Str. Plata, from Miramichi, will discharge at Sharpness.

Str. Leucara arrived at Bathurst yesterday morning from Manchester. She made the run out in 12 days.

OUTING.

(The Star will be glad to receive communications for this column, relating to fishing resorts, fishing parties, fishermen's luck, and that sort of thing.)

This is the season when the man who is caught with a fishing rod under his arm is proud of himself. There are good fishing waters in New Brunswick, and the Star proposes to give its readers an interesting column devoted to this sport.

About a year ago, V. J. Hickey of Bonaventure, St. John, and Manager McCaffrey of the Dufferin advised him to try the fishing in Loch Leonard, Mr. Hickey did so. Yesterday he and E. C. Bradbury and John H. Macdonald, also of Bonaventure, left the Dufferin together to go out and spend a few days—perhaps nearly half a mile wide some points and has an arm that is quite a lake in itself. The lake is situated in what are known as The Barrens. Its waters are of a peculiar color, something like that which gave a neighboring stream the name of Brandy Brook; but it is claimed that no finer trout are found in New Brunswick, so far as quality goes, than those caught in Beaver lake. Beaver Brook runs from the lake to the Misepoo stream, and thence flows to the Bay of Fundy.

There is a road direct to Beaver lake, and the club have a good boat on the water. The club has ten horses. Often several parties are there on the same day. As it is so near the city it is chiefly a day resort, and it is not usual for members to remain overnight at the club house.

The Beaver Lake Fishing Club was organized in 1877 by the following gentlemen:—Samuel Hayward, Stephen J. King, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, W. E. Collier, W. F. Harrison, Hon. Geo. E. King, Geo. A. Barker, L. R. Harrison, R. B. Macpherson, W. H. Hall, Chas. H. Scamman, H. De Troop, W. H. Busby, Edward T. Kennedy, S. S. De Forest, Geo. L. Slipp, Hon. David McLellan, Geo. S. Fisher, J. R. Stone, Dudne Brewster, James C. Robertson, James E. Ford, J. Morris, Robinson, W. H. Thorne, W. H. Humphrey, John H. Parke, Geo. F. Smith, F. E. Barke, W. V. Peters, J. R. Armstrong.

It will be noted that these were all well known citizens, and that quite a number of them have since passed away.

The present members of the club are as follows:—Herbert J. Fleming, W. F. T. Harrison, W. F. Hatheway, James Collins, Joseph Finley, W. S. Hare, G. A. Kinby, E. H. Hall, Chas. H. Scamman, J. De Troop, W. H. Busby, Edward T. Kennedy, S. S. De Forest, Geo. L. Slipp, Hon. David McLellan, Geo. S. Fisher, J. R. Stone, Dudne Brewster, James C. Robertson, James E. Ford, J. Morris, Robinson, W. H. Thorne, W. H. Humphrey, John H. Parke, Geo. F. Smith, F. E. Barke, W. V. Peters, J. R. Armstrong.

The officers of the club are:—W. H. Thorne, president; A. W. Lovett, vice president; G. Fred Fisher, secretary; additional directors, J. De Troop, G. S. Fisher, Joseph Finley, and Struan Robertson.

There are half a dozen boats on the lake.

What are called the Eastern Lakes, not far from Beaver, are also good fishing waters. So are Ball's Lakes, which is controlled by a club, and is about two miles from Beaver lake, and Milligan's Lake, in which there is free fishing. These three lakes form a sort of chain, though not connected, in an excellent fishing region. There are ponds on Brandy Brook which are crossed on the way to Beaver lake, in which there is good, free fishing.

When you need a good cup of tea you need Red Rose.

YORK ELECTION CASE.

When Alex. Gibson, Sr., was served with a subpoena to give evidence at the York election trial he flung the sixty cents into the Washademoak water. Add Farrell, of Fredericton, threw his two into the same body of water. Judge Gregory has made an order in this case requiring the petitioner to deliver particulars to all persons alleged to have been bribed, treated or unduly influenced, and on all persons treating, bringing or extending undue influence connected with said particulars to be delivered on or before Wednesday next.

THE BATTLE LINE.

Str. Plata, from Miramichi, will discharge at Sharpness.

Str. Leucara arrived at Bathurst yesterday morning from Manchester. She made the run out in 12 days.

PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, May 20.—The resolution providing for a seasonal indemnity of $1,500 passed; the vote being almost equal.

The claim of the Gilbert Dredging Co. in connection with the Cornwall canal was denounced by Clancy as an outrage. The auditor general, backed by the opinion of Z. A. Lash, formerly deputy minister of justice, refused to pay the claim.

Mr. Blair condemned the conduct of the auditor general as meddlesome, and considered that that official had over-stepped his bounds in interfering with the department. He submitted that it was absolutely impossible to carry on the government of the country if Mr. Macdougall was to be allowed to balk the payment of bills.

Mr. Borden of Halifax strongly defended the auditor general. He could not understand the language used by the minister of railways. When the auditor general was confirmed in his stand by such an eminent authority as Mr. Lash, it became any member of the government to further private interests.

Mr. Belcourt, M. P., who championed the claim and was solicitor for the claimants, was denounced by Mr. Bennett for allowing himself to use his position to further private interests.

In the house tonight the Couture appropriation at Levis came up. Mr. Bennett related the story of the deal. The house had been led to believe that no land had been taken over. An order of the railway department was sent down and agreed with Couture at $1 per foot. Subsequently Fitzpatrick submitted that this plan was too high a price. Subsequently Dobell was sent to negotiate for the property, and then the price was raised to $1.40 per foot. Then Fitzpatrick switched around and wrote to Couture, stating that the price should be $1.50 per foot as cheap for the site. But Couture was not satisfied with this, and engaged the services of Attorney General Fugate of St. John, with the result that the case had gone to the exchequer court backed by Fitzpatrick's opinion, and the result would be that the owner of the land would get $2 and upwards. The country will in this case be called upon to pay $18,000 per acre.

Premier Laurier declined any knowledge of the matter. He did not consider that there was any justification for the charge made that he had anything to do with the case.

Mr. Bennett, answering, called the attention of the house to the fact that it was not he who used Laurier's name, but Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick.

The consideration of the public works estimates followed. An address to provide seven extra rooms was provided for.

Hon. Mr. Tarte submitted plans of the proposed Victoria memorial museum to cost $300,000.

There is a proposal to add an arboreal, excise and supreme court chambers, and fisheries exhibit, in which case the cost will be largely increased.

The grants for the maritime province buildings passed without opposition.

PARLIAMENT TODAY.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 21.—In the house this morning the lead, bounty, and solutions came up, and Mr. Bourassa, in view of granting a bounty for lead ore, asked for the same consideration for next year for phosphates.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that the only reason for giving assistance to lead was in order to meet the hostile American tariff.

The lead bounties were approved. Payments will be made after July 1st, 1913.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

FREDERICTON JUNCTION.
May 21st, 1913.

The Star, St. John, N. B.

The Telegraph of this morning contained an item—that Philip Kelly was dealt with before Col. Alexander for an assault, alleged to have been committed on the 18th of April last.

I committed no assault on Mrs. Francis Coleman, neither was it proven against me.

I did take the boards off a fence that she had erected that morning on my mother's land; but I used no such words as stated, viz:—That if she did not get out of the way I would kick her brains out; neither did Mrs. Coleman swear I did not. While three other witnesses swore that such words were ever used.

Please give this space to your valuable paper and oblige.

When it can be said that in England there are only three public statues to women, it would seem as if volumes could and should be written of their accomplishments and achievements of these three. Of one of them at least, it would take forty volumes of the size of the Encyclopedia Britannica to tell her good and homely deeds.

Dorothy Pathon she was, and Sister Dora she became—in one day any how many were benefited by her. Two who did work that no other man or woman would do, in a town visited by an epidemic of smallpox, and at all times through her life after, she bore the burden that bore her as a schoolmistress she dealt out to the sick and friendless wherever and whenever they had need of her, in order to do so learning anatomy and

BEAVER LAKE.

Nine miles from St. John, on the old Black River road, lies Beaver Lake, the property of the Beaver Lake Fishing Club. The lake is over a mile long, nearly half a mile wide some points and has an arm that is quite a lake in itself. The lake is situated in what are known as The Barrens. Its waters are of a peculiar color, something like that which gave a neighboring stream the name of Brandy Brook; but it is claimed that no finer trout are found in New Brunswick, so far as quality goes, than those caught in Beaver lake. There are islands in the lake, some covered with vegetation, some bare rocks. Just where the arm joins the lake there is an overhanging rock, under which one may seek shelter from the rain. At another place on the shore there is quite a high bluff of rock. In other places the shore is covered in an even, some weighing over a pound. The water is clear, and it is the natural aspect of the lake is diversified and attractive.

Out up to a pound and more are found in Beaver lake. A member of the club, who went out recently, caught an 8 lb. trout, weighing over a pound. The club has a rule that no party can take over five dozen in any one day, and this limit has been reached quite a number of times. Of course there are off days on this lake, as on other lakes, but it yields great support to its members in the course of a season.

Beaver Brook runs from the lake to the Misepoo stream, and thence flows to the Bay of Fundy.

There is a road direct to Beaver lake, and the club have a good boat on the water. The club has ten horses. Often several parties are there on the same day. As it is so near the city it is chiefly a day resort, and it is not usual for members to remain overnight at the club house.

THE R. K. Y. CLUB.

The Royal Kennebecensis Yacht club decided last evening to build a new club house. They had a balance on hand of $650, and $1,500 additional has been subscribed. This year's surplus, it is estimated, will be $600, which would make in all $2,150. John Duffy's tender for building the club house for $2,241 has been accepted. Mr. Duffy also removes the old club house.

The plans show a very handsome building with ground floor 44 feet by 45 feet, with a 14 foot verandah on the two sides overlooking the river.

Underneath the building will be ample accommodation for all the boats and dinghies of the club, while a trullo will be built out to the pier lately finished.

On the ground floor will be the main room 20 feet by 40 feet, with two smaller rooms in rear. A large open fireplace in the model room will make it cheerful on cool days. On the second floor will be a large dining room, with a kitchen in its rear; also three smaller rooms and a number of lockers for clothes, etc. On the north-west corner a tower, with accommodation 13 feet square, will overlook the whole river, and will be used at night as a light house for the yachts, while further accommodation will be given by small parlors, 15 feet by 8 feet, opening off the dining room on the second floor.

The present house will be removed over to the eastern fence, and will be used principally as a storehouse. The amendments relieving the club secretary of his duties as secretary of the sailing committee were carried, and at a subsequent meeting of that committee Frank J. Likely was elected its secretary.

F. A. Reed was elected a member, the total now being 127, and the 200 mark, long looked for, is now in easy reach.

The special committee appointed to consider Mayor Daniels' inaugural address will meet tomorrow afternoon.

Last Thursday morning Herbert Elliott Clarke and Miss Helen Beardsley of Woodstock were married. They will make their home at Jamaica Plains, Mass.

This evening there will be a delightful children's concert in the City hall, Carleton, under the direction of Miss Mary Ballie, and under the auspices of the Carleton Vocal Society. It should draw a large house.

Messrs. Morrell and Sutherland have an attractive "ad" on page three of this paper, telling of some special ready-to-wear garments that will be in demand for the 24th.

It is expected that the Douglas avenue improvements will be finished about the first of September. Supt. Martin has his men working from the bridge end in towards the city.

The steamer Maggie Miller will make special trips between Millidgeville and Baywater on the 24th. The trip from the city to Baywater by this route is one of the most charming ones in the vicinity of St. John.

James Gorman, who lives at the corner of Westworth and Britannia streets, has been reported for allowing two cows to wander at large and trespass on the grounds of the Home for Incurables on the 20th of May.

W. A. Coles has taken the large building in rear of J. E. Wilson's tin shop, where he has better facilities for attending to the shoeing of horses, jobbing and general repair work.

The shop is reached by Wilson's alley, off Sydney Street.

Ed. R. Mawson and his company opened their engagement at the Opera house last evening. The play, In the Days of Nell Gwynn, was put on. The house was crowded to the doors, and Mr. Mawson personally received a great ovation.

The doors of Melroy's tailor shop on Canterbury street and of Phillip Carter's store, and the window of James Carpenter's meat shop on Mill street, were found open and secured by the police last night.

At the close of the prayer meeting in Germain Street Baptist church last evening a social was held under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. A pleasant hour was spent and refreshments served by the social committee. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were both present, and were most cordially welcomed.

Fire broke out last evening in the house of Alfred Lordy at Boggs' Crossing, near Grand Bay. It started in a bed room. Mrs. Lordy ran out and gave the alarm, and Wm. McJunkin and Fred Mullaly, who were passing, went in and succeeded in putting out the fire without serious damage, except to the furniture.

The steamer Northumberland had an odd experience coming into Point du Chene harbor yesterday. A low-lying fog so obscured everything that she could not pick up the buoy, and had to use her lead continually. The hot sun shining down on the still icy waters of the gulf produced the fog, and though the upper air was clear the steamer was enveloped in thick mist.

A large number of the relatives and friends from the city of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chamberlain of Robesay, went up last evening to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain's marriage. They were presented by Rev. Mr. Daniels, on behalf of those present, with an address and a purse of gold.

RECENT DEATHS.
Mary, the three-year-old daughter of Patrick Heffernan, of this city, died yesterday. This is the second child Mr. and Mrs. Heffernan have lost within a few months.

Augusta, daughter of John Orie, of Annapolis, died on Sunday night, aged 25 years.

HERE'S A WONDER.
Crowds gathered last evening on the north side of the old burying ground to see some examples of the wonderful freaks of nature. On an old tombstone erected in the memory of John Williams, who died September 13th, at the age of 87 years, is an almost perfect likeness of a woman's head and shoulders. On another tombstone in the same plot, standing just a few feet away from the first, is a picture of a man's head, plain in every respect as possible as the first. These pictures are formed by the shadows of the stones and are the cause of much wonder from observers. Probably the Star's ghost has been getting in some of its fine work.

POLICE COURT.

A Colored Family's Troubles—Two Men Given Another Chance.

Fred H. C. Miles has a yacht lying above high water mark in the Market slip, Carleton, for which he has been reported parties claiming that the yacht is encumbering the slip. It was ordered to be removed.

The Chinamen from the United States who were to appear today, if there were any further evidence against them, came up and stated most emphatically "Kia hung chow, me no see he wah yan tse menon ah." They were quite right, and the explanation seemed satisfactory to the court.

Clara Robinson, colored, entered a claim for the possession of her daughter, which, she stated, was being kept by Mamma Hogan, of Carleton. Her story is that a long time ago, when the girl was a year old, herself and husband were going to Boston, and not being anxious to have any encumbrances, agreed that the infant should be given to Mrs. Hogan.

Her story is that a long time ago, when the girl was a year old, herself and husband were going to Boston, and not being anxious to have any encumbrances, agreed that the infant should be given to Mrs. Hogan.

John McGee and John Mitchell, who were remanded yesterday on the charge of drunkenness and begging from people on Union street, came up again today. Further evidence was given in regard to McGee stopping people and hugging them. The magistrate gave both prisoners some good advice, pointing out to them to what a state liquor had brought them. McGee had caused his old mother a great deal of trouble, and is fast becoming useless. Both prisoners are strong, able men, and can work as well as anyone.

The magistrate stated that he did not wish to shut them in jail for the whole summer, during which they might be earning some money, and felt inclined to give them another chance. He fined them each fifty dollars or four months in jail with hard labor, and provided they promised not only not to drink, but to keep away from places where liquor is sold, the punishment will be allowed to stand. Both men appeared very repentant, and promised faithfully to do as required. They were dismissed.

HARKINS AND BONTEILLE.

Have Had Phenomenal Season—Fredricton This Week—St. John Next Week.

W. S. Harkins, happy and hearty, is in town today, and has made arrangements for the appearance of his company, with Miss Yeates Bonastelle as leading lady, at the Mechanics' Institute next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, with Wednesday matinee.

It goes without saying that a great welcome will be given Miss Bonastelle, than whom no more popular actress comes to St. John. She is supported by a strong company, and they have been meeting with great success. They were, eight weeks in Halifax, will return there on June 10th, will open at Sydney on July 1st for an unlimited season, and are booked to return to Halifax in October. Their season in Newfoundland and P. E. Island was a phenomenally successful one. Miss Bonastelle made a great impression and many warm friends wherever she appeared.

This week the company will appear in Fredericton, opening tomorrow evening, and playing the balance of the week, giving a matinee on Victoria day.

On Monday evening next they will open at the Mechanics' Institute with Sudermann's great play Magda, which created a veritable sensation and was the greatest success of their Halifax engagement. Magda was written for the celebrated Italian actress, Eleonora Duse, translated into French for Sara Bernhardt, and into English for Olga Netherof. It is in this version that Miss Bonastelle will appear in St. John.

Mr. Harkins has hired the institute himself, and will attend personally to all arrangements for the comfort of patrons.
