ENGINEER HART

Tells of the Terrible Railway Accident at Detroit.

Train Running Twelve Miles an Hour When it Struck the Crowd.

DETROIT, Mich., May 4.—Engineer Thomas E. Hart, of the Pan-American flyer on the Grand Trunk, which ran through a crowd on a crossing last night and caused the death of at least seven persons and the injury of more than a score, said: "The place where the accident occurred is not a regular stopping point for incoming passenger trains, and unless the engineer receives notice before reaching the crossing or has the signal turned against him he runs through without stopping. We were running down on time last night, and when we neared Canfield avenue I noticed the headlight of the Lake Shore train standing at Canfield avenue, but as this is a common occurrence, I paid no attention to it. The light from the other engine was shining in my eyes, and it was impossible for me to see the crowd on the track until I passed the other engine. "When I first noticed the crowd the engine was scattered all over the track, after blowing the whistle, I applied the brakes, but could not stop my train in time to prevent running into them. "We were running about twelve miles an hour, the usual speed at that place. It was fortunate that I escaped with my life, as there were many in the crowd who became excited and threatened to take my life. They threw bricks and stones through the cab windows and I was finally forced to send for the police for protection. Several of the crowd came into the cab with me. From the side of the crowd and the rate of speed the train was running it is a miracle that there were not more killed."

LONDON OBJECTS

To the Americanization of Its Underground Tube Railways.

LONDON, May 4.—The Yerkes-Speyer scheme for consolidating all the underground tube railways of London is meeting with considerable opposition. The newspaper press, against the "Americanism" and monopoly, and urge parliament not to submit thereto. The parliamentary committee of the London county council will submit its report to the council tomorrow. This report will insist upon a further investigation of the consolidation scheme, which the committee contends will raise the fares and otherwise operate to the disadvantage of the travelling public.

A GRAVE PROBLEM SOLVED.

(New York Times.) George Ehret, the brewer, is retaining the amended excise law. Said the saloon keeper: "I have a customer, a big, heavy German, whose brain moves as slowly as his ponderous body. Every night he comes into my place about half-past seven and sits at a table until about ten o'clock, drinking beer. The night after the excise amendment was passed he came in as usual. I waited on him myself. "Well," said I, as I placed his first beer before him, 'they have raised the price of a liquor license at last.' "So?" said he. "Yes; and next year you will have to do with less beer. We saloon keepers will be compelled to serve smaller glasses." "At this he looked displeased, though he said nothing just then. I went about my business attending to other customers, but kept an eye on the German and could see that he was thinking hard. He would mutter and shake his head, and once I heard him swearing in an undertone. Suddenly his face brightened and a smile crossed his fat cheeks. He called me. "You say dot excise law vil make me do mit less beer, already? he inquired. "Certainly," I replied. The glasses will be smaller. When I pay half as much again as I am paying now for a license I cannot afford to give my patrons such large glasses." "Ach," he grunted. "I vos too tam smart for dose velvet vor make laws. I haf thought id out. If der glasses are smaller, I drink more of them. Dot vos all. Ein beer."

DYNAMITED A CHURCH

Because Negro Preachers are Waging War on "Policy".

CHICAGO, May 4.—The war which the negro preachers of Chicago are waging on policy has culminated in an attempt to dynamite the institutional church at 3825 Dearborn street last night. A negro mass meeting to arouse public sentiment against the evil which the game is said to work among the colored people, had been held in the church and the congregation had been dismissed but a few minutes when the dynamite was exploded. The few persons who remained in the building were injured. The explosion broke all the windows of the church and blew a large hole in the south wall. The shock was felt several blocks away. Threats have frequently been made against the pastor who is leading the anti-policy crusade.

MILLIONS LOST.

Most Destructive Flood in History of Klondike.

Enormous Damage Done and Great Excitement Among the Miners.

TAOUMA, Wash., May 4.—The most destructive flood in the history of the Klondike, flooding cuts opened for summer work, inundating road houses along the way, creeping into piles of pay dirt heaped up from the winter's work and spreading devastation in its path for many miles. Extensive machinery and equipment, costing thousands of dollars, has been destroyed by the rush of water, and the injury to sluices will reach big money. The flood is caused by fast melting snow and ice from the El Dorado glacier having filled the bed of the creek to an unusual depth.

Main street at Grand Forks is under water, and the flood is creeping into the stores and houses of the town. The inhabitants are preparing to move to higher ground. Dumps containing an aggregate of $1,000,000 in gold, silver, etc., have been undermined and washed away. Recovery is practically impossible. There seems to be no abatement in the flow of water, and great excitement prevails among the miners along the creek.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS.

"The figures of the operations of the Independent Order of Foresters for 1902 have been issued. They show that the institution is gaining not only very rapidly in numerical strength, but in the actual accumulation of assets. The first set of figures show the actual net increase in membership during the year 1902 to have been 13,233. That is to say, after all lapses, deaths, etc., have been deducted, the average age of the membership is 19 years, 10 months and 11 days. The number of new members initiated in 1902 was over 100 per month greater than the number initiated during 1901.

The death rate during 1902 in the Order is given as 6.60 per thousand, or a fraction less than the year before, a rate much below that of most of the life insurance companies. The average age of the membership is a little over thirty-six years. The Supreme Executive say that they reject a larger percentage upon the medical test than any other society or company and that this put the Order in a position to insure.

The accumulated funds increased during 1902 by $967,233.65—almost $1,000,000. While these figures indicate a betterment in assets of 18.19 per cent, the increase in assurance amounting during the year was only 4.53 per cent. Relatively, therefore, the policyholders were in a better position at the close of the year than they were when the year began. The increase in the Ward in the above were 1902 over 1901 was 8.37 per cent, while the demands upon that income for the purpose of meeting claims was only 1 per cent, greater in 1901 than in 1902.

A BOOM AT SYDNEY.

Permits Issued for the Erection of Fifty Buildings.

The Sydney Daily Post says: Since January 1st, permits have been granted for the erection of fifty buildings in the town of Sydney. The total outlay of money expended in the construction of these buildings, only a few of which remain uncompleted, amounts to $1,000,000, an average cost per building, exclusive of one which is to cost in the vicinity of $40,000, of nearly $2,000. Nine of the buildings cost $3,000 and over, and four $4,000 and over.

The above figures do not include the Sydney Presbyterian church, work on the construction of which begins in June and which is to cost in the vicinity of $40,000.

A large number of the dwellings included in the above were erected in the last few months in the year, the number of buildings constructed and the large amount of money expended in their erection, the remaining nine months should prove a banner season in the history of building operations in Sydney.

HOUSE-CLEANING ITEM.

Mrs. Jones had hired two men to help her with her house-cleaning. "These picture frames," she told them, "should be cleaned." "Yes," answered one of the men, "and if you could let us get some whiskey, why, it's the finest thing to clean them with." "Oh," she answered, "if whiskey will clean them, I will send down a bottle of it I have upstairs, and you may try it."

The men washed the frames with soap and water, and, of course, drank the whiskey. When Mrs. Jones saw the frames bright and glistening she remarked: "And so whiskey cleaned those frames." "Yes," said one of the men, "it was the whiskey that did it."

"And just to think," remarked the other, "I came very near throwing that whiskey away. I bathed poor Fido with it before he died, you know."

VERY SHOCKING.

Young housekeeper—Please send me two pounds of butter, a dozen eggs, and a box of seeded raisins.

Grocer—Anything else, ma'am?

Young housekeeper—Why, yes; you might send two pounds of those electric currents I hear so much about. I'd like to try them in the fruit cake and see if they are any better than the old kind.

MANILA, May 4.—O. G. Milne, postmaster of Taoloban, Island of Loyto, who was recently convicted of misappropriation of government funds has been sentenced to seven years imprisonment.

THE TURK PROTESTS

Against the Massing of Foreign Warships at Salonica.

LONDON, May 4.—Owing to the existing censorship it is still impossible to obtain reliable news from Salonica. The reports of a general massacre there probably are exaggerated, but the statements that several hundred were killed emanated from various points, including Constantinople, and it is alleged also that Turkey has decided to send an ultimatum to Bulgaria. Two Italian warships have arrived at Salonica and the ports, fearing that foreign troops might land, has requested Austria to withdraw her squadron.

It is reported from Uskob, European Turkey, that the Turks are holding meetings in the mosques and discussing a general massacre of the Christian population in the event of dynamic outrages, which, according to the prisoners arrested at Salonica, have been planned to occur at Constantinople and Uskob. Albanians have plundered several villages near Prizren, Turkey. The Turkish troops have made no attempt to hinder them.

CAPE BRETON INDUSTRIES.

Output of Coal and Steel Companies For April.

(Sydney Post.)

The output of pig iron and steel by the Dominion Iron & Steel Company for the month of April was as follows:

Tons.
Pig Iron ..... 17,000
Steel ..... 12,000

The output of iron is an increase of 5,000 tons over that of March, while the output of steel is 2,000 tons less due to some trouble with the lime kilns. This trouble has now been remedied and General Manager Baker anticipates a greatly increased output for May.

The tenth and last furnace of the open hearth furnaces will be lighted about the 15th of the month, by which the full open hearth plant of the company will be in operation.

GLACE BAY, May 1.—The total output of the collieries of the Dominion Coal Company for the month of April has been highly satisfactory in view of the several drawbacks the company had to contend with. It was as follows:

Tons.
Dominion No. 2 ..... 74,238
Dominion No. 3 ..... 40,913
Caledonia ..... 60,899
Reserve ..... 63,873
International ..... 25,140

Total ..... 269,073

This shows an increase over the output of the corresponding month of last year of 21,628 tons. It will be noticed that Dominion No. 2 forged its way to the front this month, and increased its own output of last month by about 19,000 tons. It is expected that this mine will now continue to increase its output at the same rate until the full capacity is reached.

SYDNEY MINES, May 1.—The output of coal from the collieries of the N. S. & C. Co. for the month of April amounted to 31,000 tons, as follows: Sydney No. 1, 21,500; Sydney No. 2, 8,500; Sydney No. 3, 1,000. Total to 30th April from the three collieries, 31,000 tons. It is expected that the output for the month of May will be 31,000 tons, an increase of 5,000 tons over the corresponding period of 1902.

FAVORABLE OF COURSE

HONOLULU, May 4.—John U. Smith, of Seattle, former United States commissioner of Skaguay, has important evidence on the Klondike boundary dispute. His testimony is favorable to American interests and U. S. district attorney Breckens is taking Mr. Smith's deposition. He has been instructed to do so by cable from Washington.

JOHN BROWN'S BODY.

Place Where He Sleeps Near Lake Placid.

Half way between the Mohawk River and Canadian line, in Essex county, New York, but in a dozen lowering peaks of the Adirondacks, are the living place and sleeping place of "Old John Brown." The living place is the home from which Brown went out to fight in Kansas, and the sleeping place is a grave beside a giant granite boulder—the place in which he laid his body after his execution at Charleston, in 1859. Thirty-seven years after his death, when the horror of his martyr had been forgotten, Kate Field and a dozen friends bought the old Brown farm, at North Elba, and turned it over to the state as a public charge. It is near Lake Placid, and the other resorts of the northern Adirondacks.

Frequently during the summer seasons in want of amusement go over to the place and rest for a few minutes in the low-roofed, two-story house. Everyone knows the story of John Brown's repeated business failures, his visions, in which a "voice" had been in his ears, his part in the slavery war in Kansas, and his attack on the arsenal at Harper's Ferry. All these things he would have weighed, and it has given an honored place to him who was such an anarchist only fifty years ago.—John O. Collins in Four-Track News.

PRESENTATION TO DR. GEO. F. MATTHEW.

Dr. Geo. F. Matthew, of H. M. customers, was at noon today presented with a handsome gold headed cane. The presentation was made in the Long room by the collector, W. A. Lockhart, in the presence of the custom house staff and a few outsiders. Mr. Lockhart made a short address, referring to Dr. Matthew's fifty years' connection with the customs service. The cane bears the inscription: "Presented to Geo. F. Matthew by the collector and inside staff of St. John customs department, 1853-1903.

AT THE PARK.

Rockwood Park will in all probability prove this year a more popular resort than ever. Yesterday many hundreds of persons visited it and enjoyed an afternoon among the pleasant walks and shady paths.

Ops-improvement might be made and frequent remarks were heard concerning it. The path leading up the hill from the West side of the little bridge at the lake is quite dangerous and an iron railing placed along the outside of the path would be much appreciated by those who are at all nervous.

The moose are not to be seen this year, as they have both gone to the happy hunting grounds. One died in midwinter and the other a short time afterwards.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Labor troubles are increasing in Canada, and in Montreal it has been found necessary to call out the militia to protect non-union workmen. The right to strike of course involves the right to work, and the right to join a union involves the right to stay out of one. The man who claims the right to quit work cannot in justice dispute another man's right to begin. This is admitted by labor leaders, and one looks in vain in any of their published addresses for a declaration that it is right to intimidate or attack other workmen. The trouble is that the leaders cannot allow any control the force which they launch against capital, and acts are committed which arouse men's passions and hinder rather than help the cause of labor. If ten men quit work and twenty men are seeking it, and willing to accept it, the twenty, if they are equally good citizens, obviously have some rights as well as the ten, while there are also the rights of the employer to be considered. Whatever is done, therefore, must be done in an orderly way, if it is to have the sympathy of the public. And without that sympathy it cannot succeed.

There is, of course, another side to the question as it has developed in the United States, though happily not yet to any extent in Canada. There can be no doubt at all that some employers of labor in that country have taken advantage of the influx of ignorant immigrants from the south of Europe, to keep wages miserably low and so swell their own profits. These foreigners may be seen herded together in many New England factory towns, living on almost nothing, and sending their earnings away to bring out more of their kind. Observing this, it cannot be wondered that the intelligent American workman grows impatient, and comes to regard the capitalist with no friendly eye. But even in this case the remedy does not lie in intimidation or acts of violence. More restrictive immigration laws must be secured, and through the agency of the ballot box alone can this be accomplished. It will be well for Canada to have this phase of the subject in mind, for much as the country may need settlers it can get along much better without the class that is at the bottom of a great deal of the crime and the unrest in the neighboring republic.

THE KING'S TOUR.

While too much significance must not be attached to a popular demonstration in so mercenary a community as that of Paris, it is yet a very gratifying circumstance that King Edward has been received with so great and so general an expression of welcome. Popular feeling in Britain and France has not been cordial for some years past, and at times relations have been subjected to a considerable strain. Nothing could be more gracious than the tact of the king, and whether at home or abroad he possesses the happy faculty of arousing the most kindly feelings towards his own people. His visit to Paris, therefore, will have a good effect, for the welcome extended to him will appeal to the kinder instincts of the English people and there will be less of ungracious comment in the press on both sides of the channel.

His majesty's visit to the Pope was resented by some persons in England, but he evidently realizes, as did his mother, that the ruler over an empire which embraces so many different religions ought not, as king, however tenaciously he holds his own personal views, to make so notable a discrimination as would be involved in a visit to Rome without a call upon the venerable pontiff.

Interest in the Gamey enquiry has somewhat subsided since the member for Manitoulin made that journey to Buffalo. Of course feeling still runs high in Ontario, and the papers devote a great deal of space to the evidence. In whatever light Mr. Gamey may appear when the enquiry is closed it does not appear possible that the government can come out of it without great loss of prestige. The affair ought to result in the defeat of the government.

Another lot of crazy Douks are on the march. The announcement comes at the same time as a despatch from Ottawa praising the "vigorous immigration policy" of the government. A vigorous deportation policy would be much to the purpose just now, if any part of the world could be found that would accept the riff-raff Mr. St. John's policy has brought into Canada.

FIRE AT ST. MARTIN'S.

The house owned by Robert T. Smith and occupied by himself and family and Rev. Abel Washburn, at St. Martin's, was destroyed by fire together with two barns and wood house early Thursday morning last. Wm. Fletcher also lost his barn and his house was on fire several times. Robert T. Smith was insured in the Western for $500. Wm. Fletcher was not insured.

RECENT DEATHS.

Wm. Furchase, watchmaker, died yesterday afternoon, aged 75 years. When a young man of twenty-one he left his home in Penzance, Cornwall, Eng., and with his bride set out westward. Mrs. Furchase was Miss Annie Rogers, of St. Mary's, Sully Islands. She passed away on Jan. 2 of this year after an illness of more than three years. Since before the big fire of 1877, Mr. and Mrs. Furchase lived at Exmouth street and there they died, his end coming at 1.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He never fully recovered from a fall which winter in which he injured his shoulder. Mr. Furchase was a watchmaker by trade and this work he took up when he landed at Exmouth. There he remained a year before he went for the proprietor of the Sheffield house, Market square. Here he remained for a time and in 1833 established himself in business. His place was in German street for the years, but for the past thirty-five years he had conducted his business at Dock street. He was for nearly thirty years a faithful attendant at Exmouth street Methodist church.

Edward Furchase, of Boston, is the only surviving brother. Mr. Furchase leaves a family of three sons and one daughter to mourn their loss. The sons are William R. and Edward of this city, and Alfred, of Paterson, N. J. The daughter is Mrs. Ellen A. Bell of this city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from 33 Exmouth street.

The death of Patrick Quinn took place on Saturday evening at his residence, 123 Erin street, after an illness lasting about three years, during eighteen months of which he was confined to bed. Mr. Quinn was a native of Donegal, Ireland, and was born in 1831. He came to St. John in 1848 and engaged in the junk business. He was a freeman of the city. Three years ago he was stricken with paralysis of the brain, from which he never recovered. He leaves a wife, three sons and four daughters. A brother of the deceased is living in Scotland. Mr. Quinn was known to practically every one who knew him. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

THE MANGAN INQUEST.

Many Witnesses Heard on Saturday—Will Resume Today.

The inquiry into the cause of the death of John Mangan was begun before Coroner Berryman at Musquash on Saturday morning. Henry Devine, brother of Peter Devine, the accused man, testified that Mangan had forced a quarrel upon him about four o'clock in the afternoon, and he knocked Mangan down. Later, he met his brother, Mangan came to him the second time, and he told him about it, and later, when Peter jumped on him the second time, he met him. They tumbled over and went together. The witness could not say whether Peter hit Mangan or not. There was an old trouble between the witness and John Mangan. It occurred fourteen years ago, when they had a quarrel. Mangan was quarrelsome when drunk, and a dangerous man. Mangan considered the fall of Mangan and his brother over the bank to be an accident.

Dr. Corbett, Joseph Crawford, Dr. Macaulay, Albert Moody, Wm. Chitlock, John Clark, George Thompson, Geo. Steyvers, George C. Hill, Anderson, James M. Anderson, and David H. Anderson gave evidence. The eye-witnesses to the event agreed that Mangan and Peter Devine went over the bank together, but the coroner remarked during the enquiry that it seemed all the people had forgotten all about what happened.

The enquiry was adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon.

KING'S VISIT TO POPE.

(Brooklyn Eagle.) The meeting of the king of England with the pope is interesting if not politically significant. No other protestant sovereign of England has ever, actually or unofficially, presented at the Vatican. That fact alone made the occasion of yesterday something more than an opportunity for the interchange of pleasant courtesies. It made it an occasion for contrasting the differences of creed are no longer mutual. It is a fact that each recognizes the right of the other to be, and to be let alone. Leo XIII is not unconvinced of the fact that the catholic church enjoys a larger liberty in protestant England than it does in catholic France or Italy. Edward VII is aware that the head of the catholic church has on more than one occasion visited the English government in sustaining law and order within its realm in districts where the authority of the catholic church was usually, though not nominally, higher than that of the protestant crown. In all probability pope and king will never meet again.

An early repetition of the royal tour is unlikely and the pope being a very old man will scarcely live more than a few years longer. But the memory of yesterday's meeting will remain as a pleasant recollection to both participants and as an incident of which history will necessarily take note.

THE LOG DRIVES.

Already between 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 feet of logs have run into the booms at Douglas and Sugar Island. The logs came principally from the Tobique, Allegash and Grand Rivers and belong to Elyard Bros., Estey, Cunliffe Bros., Sweeney, and Fraser & Son. None from the Northwest Branch, where Kiburn operates, have yet put in appearance. R. A. Estey has been advised that his Tobique drives, amounting to about 4,000,000, are in safe water, and his Rockway drive is coming along well. It is believed that all the Tobique drives will be out this week.

Week of Celebration Services Closed Yesterday.

Impressive Sermons by the Bishop of Ontario in the Morning and the Rector in the Evening.

The week of special services in celebration of St. John's church jubilee closed yesterday. In the morning his lordship Dr. W. Mills, Bishop of Ontario, preached a strong and scholarly sermon...

The text of the bishop's sermon was Deut. viii. 2: "Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee." His address was a moving exposition of the goodness of God's purpose toward His people through all time.

In introducing he sketched the circumstances under which the words of Moses had been spoken to the children of Israel after their long and weary journey through the wilderness. His wish was to impress upon his people knowledge that all their experience, the toils and dangers and the blessings they had gone through had all been a part of God's education, fitting them for the positions they were to occupy.

The preacher wished his hearers to note that these words had been spoken to the people of God. As God dealt with His people of old so He did today. The past was a mirror in which could be seen His purposes for the present. His wish was to build them, to establish their characters, to make them more like Himself. Life was not a temporary thing with a mere physical basis. It was an expression of the plan and purpose which God was developing day by day.

The life of a man, he said, was a way that must be traversed. It might not seem to the individual to be the easiest and shortest way, but it was of God's appointment and when rightly looked upon, the path will have been the best. It could only be truly judged by retrospect, which in a proper spirit and with a knowledge of God as a personal directing being could not but strengthen the faith and make surer the trust of the looker back.

God's purpose with His people of today as with the Israelites was oftentimes to lead them in ways that would humble them, removing the pride that kept them from Him, to make them holier, truer and more like Himself, thus preparing them for the home He had already prepared. Not with worldly thoughts and hampered by worldly conditions could they enter into that rest. To those so entering it would be no rest at all.

So with the idea of knowing what God had done for them, he asked the congregation to look back and remember the way He had led them during the past fifty years. During that time they had had two rectors. The first, whom the speaker had personally known, was a true servant of God, whose sole aim had been to know Christ and Him crucified. Those who sat under his ministry could often feel that he came to them with messages direct from the Father. The congregation of St. John's Church should also be proud that they had been able to secure and retain the services of a man of such standing and scholarship, with such recognized ability in the old land as the present rector. When they recalled these things and considered the beautiful church in which they worshipped, so worthy of being a temple of God's people, the heart of everyone should be filled with joy and every mouth with hymns.

"So we should greatly rejoice when we remember the way God hath led us," he said. "We have been redeemed from a bondage worse than Egypt. We have been freed from chains more galling by the awful price of the life of the Son of God. He has redeemed us that we may be trained to be worthy of so great a redemption. Every experience that comes to us is not of chance, no accident, but of God's own leading. So today I leave the text with you, 'thou shalt remember the way which the Lord thy God led thee.'"

As the afternoon progressed, it was found impossible for the Bishop of Ontario to preach, and the rector took his place. The church was again well filled, and the music of an equally high order, Wesley's great anthem, "Blessed be the God and Father," being magnificently rendered.

The rector began by saying that his presence in the pulpit confirmed the fears which most of them must have entertained that morning, as they listened to the heroic effort which the Bishop had made, in spite of sore throat and severe rheumatism to convey to them his loving message of God's love. He could at least give them the partial consolation that the Bishop hoped to be with them at the parochial reunion on Monday evening. The rector took as his text Psalm xxviii. 1, 2: "Except the Lord build the house, the laborer is but loss that build it. Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

Three notes of conduct, patriotism, family love, and the fear of God, were present here, and are eminently the attributes of those Jews who rose to the full attitude of Old Testament religion. Called almost without notice to preach to them, he had turned over the pages of the parochial record which served all events in their church life for the last 15 years. He had been struck, as often before, by the frequent and sad bereavements which surely no other parish had suffered. He passed in rapid review the long list of names, one and all entwined in affectionate and respectful recollection. In 1888 the venerable and beloved figure of his predecessor was taken from them. Then followed a mournful sequence, sometimes indescribably pathetic, as in the death of young Percy Hamilton and Elizabeth Eastwick, sometimes of those ripe in age and dignity, such as the late Churchwarden Daniel, of striking and

WOODSTOCK NEWS.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., May 3.—Wm. F. Dibble died this morning about ten o'clock. About ten days ago he was attacked with paralysis. For a brief period between that time and today he revived a little and it was thought he might partially recover. Yesterday, however, the symptoms of the approaching end became marked and he gradually sank into unconsciousness and passed peacefully away. He would have reached his 93rd birthday had he lived two more months. The greater part of his active life, Mr. Dibble lived in Woodstock, and for half a century his name and figure were all familiar to the people of the town and county. About twenty-five years ago he established the hardware firm of W. F. Dibble & Son, now grown into large proportions and managed by his son J. T. A. Dibble. Mr. Dibble was an active Free Mason in his day, having been one of the charter members of Woodstock Lodge, and having filled all the high offices in the order. In political sentiments he was a conservative, and in religion a member of the Church of England. He was at church on Easter Sunday and up to that time, under the weather very severe, frequently attended both morning and evening services on Sunday. He had been church warden and vestryman. Some years ago when the infirmities of age came on he retired altogether to private life, although he remained remarkably strong in body and vigorous in intellect, so much so that it was often remarked that he did fair to reach the century limit. He was an active, strong personality, and his name will long be remembered in Woodstock as that of an upright and successful business man and an honorable citizen.

Mr. Dibble was twice married. His first wife was Miss Barker, by whom his two surviving children, George Y. Dibble of Fredericton and J. T. A. Dibble of Woodstock, were born. His second wife was Miss Clements, who died a few years ago. The funeral will be at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon from St. Luke's Church. The Masonic body, of which deceased was long an active member, will attend in full regalia. As soon as the Salvation Army vacates the Town hall the improvements on the building will be begun, the appropriation therefor having been passed by the council. Repairs are being made in and about St. Luke's Church. The interior will be repainted and generally improved before the meeting of the synod here in July. Arrangements are being made for the entertainment of the clergy, who will attend the synod, at private homes of church people.

VISITED THE POPE.

ROME, May 3.—Emperor William received this morning the pope, who was greeted by bright and sunny weather, in contrast to the clouds of yesterday. He held a long conference with Chancellor Von Buelow, looked over the despatches concerning the situation in Macedonia, and gave instructions to be sent to Berlin and Constantinople. When Emperor William left the legation to drive to the Vatican, fifteen carriages were required for the use of the Emperor and his suite.

When Pope Leo was advised of the arrival of his guests the door was thrown open and the Pontiff appeared. He was dressed in white, with the exception of a small cape of red velvet, trimmed with ermine. The Emperor advanced alone, making a profound bow. The Pontiff inquired in French as to the Emperor's health. Emperor William, after presenting his two sons, Prince Wilhelm and Prince Heinrich, to the Pope, led him to the latter's private study. The audience lasted forty minutes. At the end of this time the Princes were summoned and spoke to the Pontiff. The imperial party then paid a brief visit to Cardinal Ruffillo.

Upon his three previous visits to the Vatican Emperor William returned direct to the Quirinal. This was not liked by the Vatican, and today Emperor Wilhelm returned from the Vatican with a brief visit to Cardinal Ruffillo.

NEW LABOR HALL. The trades and labor unions will in future meet in their rooms at Berryman's building, corner Charlotte and Prince streets. St. John will have in these the finest labor rooms in Canada, which is something the labor men are very proud of. This evening the painters, tinmiths and plumbers meet. The hall will be held simultaneously, as there are five large rooms with capacity for seating from 100 to 500 men each. From this out trade unionism should boom in St. John.

The retail clerks will be called together shortly to form up. This will bring into the movement a lot of bright, intelligent young men who will be quite an acquisition to the trade and labor movement.

ST. JOHN AMATEUR MINSTRELS.

St. John always takes kindly to amateur minstrels and those who so thoroughly enjoy these performances have great fun in them. At the Opera House on May 18 and 19 the St. John Amateur Minstrels occupy the boards. The rehearsals are most encouraging and two rattling good performances will be given. Harry Ervin, who has been prominently connected with previous amateur performances, is personally superintending the rehearsals, in fact all the arrangements have been in his hands. No pains have been spared to make the undertaking successful.

NEW DIVISION ORGANIZED.

A public meeting under the auspices of the Grand Division, S. of T., was held in the Orange Hall, Fairview, Saturday night. Rev. Mr. Kirby occupied the chair, and addresses were given by the Rev. Mr. Hamilton, G. W. P., Col. Armstrong, G. S., and Rev. Mr. Dykeman after the public meeting. The division No. 457, was organized, and officers were elected and installed.

AMATEUR BASE BALL MEETING.

A full meeting of the St. John Amateur Base Ball League will be held tonight in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, at which all left-over business will be transacted and complete plans effected for the season's work. Those belonging to the different teams in the league are requested to be present. The officers will be installed at tonight's session.

MINSTRELS TONIGHT.

The attraction at York Theatre tonight will be Harrison Bros.' big minstrel show, which is advertised as one of the best entertainments of its kind on the road. The company consists of 25 performers, including brilliant comedians, clever dancers, a fine orchestra and a good band that will parade today at noon. Popular prices prevail, and a good evening of music and fun is promised.

THE OTTAWA JOURNAL.

A Free Trade Liberal Paper Has a Fling at the Government. (Ottawa Journal.)

The Journal has come in for some criticism from liberal papers because in comments upon Mr. Fielding's budget speech, the Journal expressed the view that the speech and the budget indicated an adoption by the cabinet of the principle of protection. "The budget speech," said the Montreal Herald, the leading liberal organ in the province of Quebec: "Leads the Ottawa Journal to assume that the liberal administration has formally abandoned the principle of a low tariff. May it not with greater fairness be said, on the contrary, that the government has displayed unison in the demand for higher duties?"

Certainly with fairness may it be said that the government displayed firmness in refusing to yield to a considerable demand for more higher duties. If the Journal did not give the cabinet credit for that, the Journal fell short of its duty, by taking several steps in the opposite direction. The tariff which distinctly declared the correctness of the protective theory, a thing which the liberal party never before did. Chief was the promise of a duty of 32 per cent. upon steel rails, in order to promote the duty of the correctness of the protective theory. The Liberals never officially admitted the truth of the protective idea before. They contended that whatever might seem to be the immediate or superficial effect, the ultimate and bottom effect was still, now, let no one imagine that the Journal, in saying that the Liberal party used to be formally opposed to protection, has stated what was not on record. Let us reproduce here in full the value of the plank of the liberal platform formulated at the great liberal convention in Ottawa in 1893. It was the first and chief plank in the platform. Let us quote our note particularly the closing paragraph:

I.—TARIFF REFORM.

Moved by Hon. W. Laurier, Seconded by W. Patterson, M. P.: We, the liberal party of Canada, in our platform of 1893, declared that the custom tariff should be based not on protection, but upon requirements of public service. The existing tariff founded upon an unsound principle and used as a means of protection, has been by the government as a corrupting agency wherewith to keep themselves in office, has developed monopolies, trusts and combinations, and has retarded the value of farm and other landed property. It has oppressed the masses to the enrichment of a few.

It has checked immigration, it has retarded the progress of the country, it has impeded commerce, it has discriminated against Great Britain. In these and in many other ways it has occasioned great public and private injury, all of which evils must continue to grow in intensity so long as the present tariff system remains in force. That the vital interests of Canada demand the removal of this obstacle to our country's progress by the adoption of a free trade policy, which will not do injury to any class, will promote domestic and foreign trade, and accelerate the return to prosperity to our country.

TO FIND JESUS.

OTTAWA, May 3.—The latest band of Donkhor pilgrims to take the road to find Jesus consists of about five hundred men from Red Berry Lake settlement, near Battledore. They did not take part in the former pilgrimage, but have been disaffected for some months. At the interior department it is stated that they will not be permitted to continue the journey, as were the former pilgrims. The N. W. M. P. will be immediately instructed to send them back to their villages.

Martin got his gun and fired, shooting his four-year-old son through the back of the head. The boy had a brown velvet hood on, which the last stray, struck.

N. B. LEGISLATURE.

FREDERICTON, May 2.—The house met at three o'clock.

Mr. Robertson moved for the suspension of rule 19 to permit of the introduction of a bill relating to the Portland Rolling Mills Co. He introduced a bill to fix the assessment on the Portland Rolling Mills Co. Hon. Mr. Tweedie introduced a bill amending the elections act of 1899 and relating to the general elections of 1903 in the county of Madawaska. Hon. Mr. Pugsley explained that a change was proposed in reference to the county of Kings, whereby the electors living in the parish of Westfield on the east side of the river may go to Baywater to vote.

Referring to Mr. Hason, Hon. Mr. Pugsley said: "Gustavus E. Hason was removed from his position on the board of liquor license commissioners in the town of Campbellton upon the recommendation of the members for the county of Restigouche, John Dawson and Lawrence LaPointe were also removed from the board of license commissioners for the county upon the recommendation of the members for the county. In respect to Gustavus E. Hason and John Dawson the charge was that they had been guilty of partisan conduct in the recent election, and also that Mr. Hason was unfit to perform the duties of his office. With regard to Mr. LaPointe the charge was made that he had failed to attend meetings of the board and was unfit for the discharge of the duties pertaining to his office. The house went into committee on bills. Hon. Mr. Pugsley committed a bill respecting the liabilities of employers for injuries to workmen. He explained the same as at present in respect to the liability between employer and employees in regard to domestic servants, farm laborers, gardeners, fruit growers, mining, quarrying and lumbering. The term 'employer' does not apply to the employees of saw mills. In respect to the classes specified it was thought well to leave the law as it is. The law is tentative in its character, and it is desired to extend its operation at any time if desired. There was a strong feeling among the employers engaged in mining and quarrying against a bill of this character, and as we are endeavoring to encourage the introduction of capital for the purpose of developing our mines it was thought well to leave miners out of the operation of the law for the present.

Section 3 is important. It relates to injuries caused by defective machinery, or by reason of neglect on the part of our superintendents or foremen, whose orders the laborer is bound to obey. As the law is now the employer has no right of action because of the negligence on the part of superintendents or foremen, because the employer can set up the defence of fellow servant. Under this bill, however, it is just as liable as if he himself had been guilty of negligence. Railway companies are made liable for injuries sustained by conductors by reason of the negligence of the engineers or the firemen, by reason of the negligence of anyone employed on the train. There is a section relating to ship laborers which makes the employer liable for injury caused by negligence of the man in charge of the machinery used in the loading and discharge of cargo. Under the law as it is at present there is no liability for negligence of that kind. It was thought desirable to extend the liability in this class of labor, and it is not likely that it will be a hardship, because accident companies issue blank policies in the case of ship laborers, and in this way the employer is protected. The bill removed absolutely the defense of common employment. It contains a number of saving clauses and provides for the amount of compensation which shall not exceed $1,000. The bill does not take away the right of action in any case, but it merely waives a right of action, in case of injuries, shall be valid unless adequate consideration has been given for such contract apart altogether from the wages. It is the intention of the government to press the measure at this session, and they will be glad to receive any suggestions as to the details of it.

The bill was reported with leave to sit again. The house went into committee on the bill respecting the licensing of extra provincial corporations. Mr. Hason—Will this act apply to corporations already doing business in the province? Hon. Mr. Pugsley—It is intended to apply to all foreign corporations, but those now doing business in the province will not have to pay license under it until the 1st of November next.

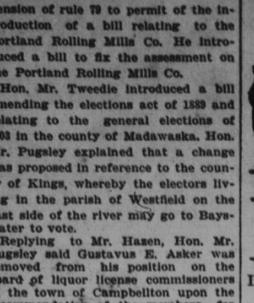

Mr. Hason—it strikes me that there is an element of unfairness in this, as many of these corporations have come into the province without expecting to be taxed. The attorney general is understood that next session a bill would be passed to tax all corporations. This would be simply a form of direct taxation, and I cannot see that it would be just. Why should a firm which becomes a corporation be taxed any more than one which continues simply as a partnership. I wish to put myself on record as being opposed to any legislation of this kind which is simply a new form of direct taxation.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley—it is not yet decided by the government to tax all corporations, but they are considering it. It would be nothing unfair in charging them a small fee, considering the advantages they enjoy and the freedom of their members from personal liability. I do not at present announce this as the policy of the government. Progress was reported with leave to sit again. The house in committee agreed to the bill to amend the act to incorporate the Bath Village. This bill declares the act of last session to be in force, notwithstanding that the two-thirds vote required by that act was not obtained, and it legalizes all the acts of the commissioners under that act.

MONTREAL STRIKERS.

MONTREAL, May 3.—An attempt to settle the longshoremen's strike was made this afternoon. A conference was held between representatives of the stevedores and shipping agents and the officers of the international union. As far as wages, hours, etc., went an arrangement was quickly effected, but when it came to recognition of the union, defined in this case that none of the union men shall be employed upon the wharves, the shipping men flatly refused to make the concession. On the other hand, the union officials stated that they considered this the only point of importance in the fight. The conference broke up in the union officials being notified that if the men were not back at work by three o'clock tomorrow afternoon the steamship men would at once cable to England instructions to the company to send a batch of one thousand men, with a second thousand to follow the next week. Some of these men have already sailed, and some are now at work in the harbor. The union officials were notified that these men had been engaged for the season, and that even if the union men returned to work these men would not be discharged to make room for them.

HORRIBLE R. R. ACCIDENT.

DETROIT, Mich., May 3.—A day of merrymaking and celebration by 1,500 Polish excursionists from Toledo was brought to a close by a frightful catastrophe at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre street at 8:30 o'clock this evening, in which at least seven of the excursionists were killed. The excursionists left the train at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets this morning, and were met by a number of local Poles and Polish societies, who escorted the visitors to St. Joseph's church. An entertainment was held later at Harmonia hall.

About 8 o'clock the visitors began to gather again at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets to take their train on the Lake Shore back to Toledo. Both the Lake Shore and Grand Trunk trains ran out from the Brush street station on Dequindre street. Four policemen stood at the corner of Canfield street and endeavored to keep the excursionists from crowding through the gates onto the tracks. Despite their efforts hundreds crawled under or over the gates and walked down the dark tracks to await the arrival of their train, which could be seen coming slowly up from the station. Probably one thousand persons were scattered along the tracks for two blocks waiting to board the Lake Shore excursion train and secure seats. It was only a few blocks down the track, creeping carefully along, came the Grand Trunk Chicago and New York express, known as the Pan-American flyer. It ploughed through the mass of people, throwing them to both sides, until the track bruised and maimed, and grinding a number of them under the wheels.

Patrolman Fred T. Schuita, John Zynda, a prominent local Pole, and numbers of others who were at the scene of the catastrophe, where for two blocks the track was covered with mangled and dying people. Four of the dead were killed outright and the others died after being taken to the hospital. Every ambulance in the city was called to the scene and the injured were soon under the care of surgeons in the hospitals.

CUT WAGES.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 3.—The Dominion Steel Co. has offered a cut of 25 cents a day in wages paid to carpenters employed on their plant. As carpenters belonging to the union have made a demand for an increase, to go into effect 1st of June, it is likely no action will be taken by them in this connection until that date. The P. W. A. lodge of steel company employees, numbering 1200 members, is said to be in sympathy with the carpenters. The company proposes to make a general reduction in wages extending to every department connected with the works. The steel company have been all along paying very high wages, fully as high and in many cases higher than in many industrial centres of the United States.

A QUAKER STORY.

John G. Whittier, the Quaker poet, once describing the usages of the Quakers in regard to "speaking in meetings" said that sometimes the voluntary remarks were not quite to the edification of the meeting. It once happened that a certain George C. grew rather wearisome in his exhortations, and his prudent brethren, after solemn consultation, passed the following resolution: "It is the sense of this meeting that George C. be advised to remain silent until such time as the Lord shall speak through him more to our satisfaction and profit."

HE WAS VERY DRY.

But Got all the Moisture He Needed, and More.

There was considerable excitement about the South Market wharf for a few minutes Saturday afternoon while an unfortunate seaman was being rescued from the briny deep, into which he had accidentally fallen.

The party in question is one of the crew of the schooner Hattie, now loading at the slip. He met many jolly companions about town Saturday morning and early afternoon, and when he climbed aboard his vessel later in the day he had "that tired feeling," to such an extent that immediately he decided to go to sleep. It was a good, sensible idea, and was well carried out, with the exception that he selected an uncomfortable spot. To any one who has even seen the photograph of a schooner the rail is the last place likely to be chosen, as a substitute for a hammock, although it is easier to get on a rail than into a hammock. This was a fair recollection immediately he lay down, but the hatch steps were steep, so the rail was selected for the nap. How long the party in question kept his balance he does not know, but he has a faint recollection of some one calling out "all 'em up again," his reply and the query as to the chaser "soda or water?"

The one certain fact concerning that drink is that he took water and if he had taken a little more he would have had a coroner sitting on him now.

Into the drink he went with a thud. Just then a boy emerged from the cabin in an alarming state, looked overboard. There was his shipmate floundering around like a baby porpoise on his trial trip. The cabin boy called for help and John Treacart and Alex. Patterson went to the rescue and were just in time, catching the iron ring man's hands as he was disappearing beneath the water.

THE RECORD SHOULD BE BROKEN.

The palm held by the old St. John Amateur Minstrel Club for the most successful record of a light opera in local ranks is in the hands of the club. Within the next three weeks another amateur effort will be made, but the performers will not be men; there will not be even a female in the cast, but the sex impersonations will be there just the same. Nothing is more delightful to hear than a strong chorus of boyish voices, particularly when the voices are carefully trained.

For the last six weeks the students of the Rotheray College for boys have been under the musical care of their staff instructor Prof. Geo. Collinson, the same gentleman who produced H. M. S. Pinero, Iolanthe and other light opera successes by local talent, and when the boys appear in the sparkling work, The Goshawk, at the Opera House on the 14, 15, and 16 of this month they will furnish a most surprising surprise to the audience in the chorus, remarkable clarity in the work, large orchestra and some novel productions.

A PITT STREET ROMANCE.

William Forbes evidently loves Annie Taylor, but this did not prevent him from giving her a beating a few weeks ago. For this he was sentenced to a term in jail and on Friday, as his fine had not been paid, a commitment issued against him, Sergt. Campbell went down to get the man, but wily Willie locked the doors of his house, situated on the corner of Pitt and Britain streets and would not let the officer come in.

Forbes was afraid that he was wanted for living with Mrs. Taylor, and he peevishly announced that Annie was not in the house. She had been, but on the approach of the officer William put a rope around his own waist and lowered her, half-dressed, from the window to the yard. She scaled the fence and got away. Forbes was arrested and sent to jail on the old charge.

On Saturday evening an old man by the name of Thomas Kelly, who built both I. C. R. and C. P. This morning after informing the court that time would tell he was sent into jail pending an examination into his sanity.

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

Another Fruitless Discussion of the Boy Problem.

At the regular meeting of the Evangelical Alliance today, Rev. Dr. Fotheringham presided, and there were present, Revs. Dr. Wilson, David Long, J. C. B. Appel, and Miles Trafton. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Rev. J. C. B. Appel thought there were not enough present to do any business. He was not sure that there was a quorum.

Rev. T. F. Fotheringham thought that certain business had been hanging fire for quite a long time. Rev. Dr. Wilson said that he had a letter from a gentleman in Moncton asking what had been done in regard to the boy question. He spoke of the action being taken by the ministerial association of Moncton with reference to compulsory education. His intention in bringing the matter before the alliance was that support might be given to the Moncton brethren. There had been some talk on the question here in Moncton people had evidently done more than talk, they had taken some definite action. This opened the whole question which had been thrashed out with no result long ago, and Revs. Messrs. Long, Trafton and Fotheringham spoke on the subject. The only result was a motion to adjourn, which was unanimously carried.

Fun will reign supreme at the Opera House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11, 12, 13, when Gus Hoyt's comedy business. The play will present Chas. H. Hoyt's first great success, "A Bunch of Keys," in a brand new dress 1903 model, and geared up to 100. Everything this season is said to be absolutely new except the name. The songs, dances, and specialties are all new, bright and sparkling as the rosy morn and Manager Bothner with his little hatchet and grubbing hoe has literally obliterated the "chestnut tree." IN THE MARKET.

The country market presented a desolate appearance this morning. In a word there was nothing there. One forlorn looking gentleman was being manning the loss of a ten dollar bill that he accidentally dropped in a stall on Saturday evening. Enquiries, however, gave him visions of satisfaction, as certain parties were seen to pick the bill up. He says he will get his money or know the reason why.

MRS. FIELDING ENTERTAINS.

(Ottawa Journal, Thursday).

Mrs. Fielding entertained yesterday at the third large tea which has been given this week and it proved quite as enjoyable as the preceding two. The hostess, who wore a beautiful black sequin gown, received her guests in her usual gracious manner, and was assisted by Miss Fielding in a very becoming cream gown and Miss Florence Fielding who wore a dainty gown of pale green crepe de chine trimmed with pink chiffon and applique. The drawing room was adorned with bowls of crimson roses and the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. W. H. Burns and Mrs. Grierson, was charmingly arranged with crimson carnations and white roses on either side of a silver candelabra shaded with red. Misses Fielding were assisted in looking after their guests by Miss Blair, Miss Annie Fraser and Miss Edith Sparks. The guests included all the members and seasonal visitors in town as well as Lady Laurier, Lady Kirkpatrick, Miss Borden, Lady Cartwright, Miss Cartwright, Mrs. R. L. Borden, Miss St. Pierre, Miss Forget, Miss Tarte and others.
