BUSY POLICE COURT.

Two Pioneers in Serious Trouble—
House of Ill-Fame Raided—Inmates Heavily Fined.

Five women and eight men faced His Honor Police Magistrate Ritchie when he opened his court this morning. Frederick Secord was the first victim. Secord was charged with drunkenness and using profane language and expressing a desire to fight while in a railway car returning from the Bishop's picnic last evening. He admitted the drunkenness but did not think the other charges could be true. The officer that made the arrest soon settled that point, as he swore that Secord wanted to beat him. He was fined $8 or two months hard labor for drunkenness and remanded on the other charges, his honor remarking that there was a specific provision in the law covering such cases, namely conduct of this kind in railway trains, and if Secord found himself in a long term he hoped it would be a warning to others.

Charles Hayward was charged with furious driving and obscene language. It seems that Hayward and one James McCafferty, who was also indicted, started out the road with a hired team about ten o'clock. According to the officers who made the arrest both men were very drunk and used hard language. McCafferty got out of the rig at the Marsh Bridge and was arrested by Officer Conway, and a little later the rig was found tied to a post on Erin street. Hayward was found a yard away by and was locked up. His honor fined him $8 or thirty days with hard labor for the drunkenness, and remanded him on the other charges till further investigation could be made by the police.

Three common drunks were fined the usual amount. Mary Walsh, an elderly woman, who was arrested for drunkenness, was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd for two months, or perhaps longer, as his honor remarked.

Albert E. Ashford was charged by A. P. Hazen with lying and lurking in the doorway of his residence on Prince William street, and he had nothing to say about it. He was given a long lecture.

Laura Byron went to the picnic yesterday and got very drunk in fact so drunk that she smashed car windows and made all kinds of trouble while coming in. Upon reaching the depot she was arrested by Deputy Chief Jenkins and acting detective Sergeant. She was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. These hot summer months is the time you can strike what you want at much lower prices than you could other times. Just pop into our store and have a chat with us. We have some wonderfully low prices on all our up-to-date Clothing.

Gallant Defenders Repulse Attack
But Lose 6,000 Men --- 2,500
Russians Killed in Manchurian Battles---Jap Cruiser Reported Sunk.

CHIEF POO, Aug. 3.—A m.-a. desperate three days' assault on the inner defense on the northern and eastern sides of Port Arthur has failed. A Russian states that the earth trembled under the terrific cannonade which began July 28, and ended during the night of July 28, when the battle ceased. A Chinese report received here on a separate junk confirms the Russian statement that the Russian killed and wounded during the assault numbered between five and six thousand. The Japanese in their repeated assaults against the eastern forts on the hills through barbed wire entanglements and over mines displayed fanatical bravery. They were mowed down by the hail of shells and bullets and the explosion of mines under their feet. Their losses are estimated at 20,000. The Russian declares that the Russians held all the eastern forts leading to Golden Hill and that the Japanese, shattered and exhausted, retired to the eastward.

As related by the passengers on the two junks, the Japanese advance which began from K'-shu before daybreak, July 28, was directed against Kikwan, Kinkitum, Kinkishan and Kinkishan. The Russian outposts were driven back. In the meantime Admiral Togo shelled the forts at long range but the return fire of the forts kept his ships at a safe distance, rendering the co-operation of the Russian fleet unnecessary.

On the morning of July 27, the Russian fleet steamed out, keeping under the guns of the Golden Hill guns. The Russian vessels did not fire on the Japanese and they soon returned to the anchorage.

The assault on the northern side of the city occurred on July 27th. The Japanese post at Shinghi Ying but were repulsed. The junks were within hearing distance for three days after leaving the coast, no more firing was heard. The Russian hospitals at Port Arthur are said to be swamped. The Russians are said to be lying in houses and shops, the owners having been evicted with the exception of one who acts as caretaker for each place.

JAP WARSHIP REPORTED SUNK.

ROME, Aug. 3.—The Giornale d'Italia today published in an extra edition a despatch from Tokyo stating that the Japanese cruiser Kasuga (formerly the Argentine warship Rivadavia and purchased in Italy) has been sunk. The announcement caused a great sensation.

ST. PETERSBURG JUBILANT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3, 1 p. m. —The first Russian report of the operations at Port Arthur has just been received from the consul of Russia at Chao Poo, dated today. It says a general attack was begun Saturday, with the Japanese in considerable force. There were two days of bombardment of unprecedented violence. The Japanese at the time of sending this despatch, the consul adds, had everywhere been repulsed with great loss.

The Japanese casualties possibly reached 20,000, but the Russian losses were insignificant. The consul further reports that the Russian have an abundance of ammunition. The exact date of the events reported in this telegram is not clear, as the method of transmission is not disclosed. It is possible that it was by wireless message reporting events which have occurred since last Saturday. The message may have gone by junk to Che Poo, in which case it refers to events of a week ago and practically covers the report mentioned in the Associated Press despatches from Che Poo. In each case the reports say the Russians met with considerable exultation of the pessimistic rumors spread abroad from foreign sources last week. It seems apparent that the Japanese advance against General Kuropatkin was timed to occur simultaneously with the assault upon Port Arthur.

RUSSIAN DEFEATED, HEAVY LOSS.

TOKIO, Aug. 3.—The Japanese defeated the Russians at Tomucheng (Simoucheng) and drove them toward Hai Cheng in a sharp fight which began last Saturday and ended on Sunday. The Russians left 1,500 dead on the field and lost six guns. The Russians occupied a range of high hills north of Tomucheng (Simoucheng) which were strongly defended with covered trenches, a fortress and covered emplacements which consumed months in constructing. The Japanese were gradually reinforced and their artillery was increased twenty-one guns. The Japanese, who were also reinforced, renewed the attack at three o'clock in the afternoon and drove the Russians northward. The Japanese right, exposed to a severe artillery fire, was forced to halt. The Russian army was reinforced and during the night the Russians withdrew toward Hai Cheng. General Kuropatkin has telegraphed that in the two days' fighting at Yangtzu-ling and Yushulitx, his losses were six officers killed, sixteen officers wounded and nine hundred and fifty men killed and wounded.

LIAO YANG, Aug. 2.—(Delayed in transmission).—The Russian attempt to push back a numerously superior force of Japanese from Kuchiatzu, on July 31, resulted in an admitted Russian loss of one thousand men.

RUSSIAN EVACUATE MAI CHING.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—General Kuropatkin's armies are now concentrating upon Liao Yang, falling back respectively upon Anshanshan, Lianlianshan and Anping as predicted by the despatches of the Associated Press. These three points form a ring of closely knit defenses around Liao Yang and enable General Kuropatkin to risk a general engagement. The only cause for anxiety is Anping, and General Kuropatkin's words that he hoped the troops would hold that place indicate misgivings. The Japanese evidently realized the advantage of attacking this point and directed their strongest advance along the Salatsai Liao Yang line. A brief telegram from Gen. Kuropatkin received this morning reports the evacuation of Hai Cheng and declares the Japanese did not continue the attack toward Liao Yang, Aug. 2, adding that they evidently were unable to follow up their advantage of the previous day owing to the stubborn resistance of the Russians, coupled with the tropical heat.

The general says the soldiers threw away their coats and equipments and there were a great number of deaths from sunstroke. He does not specify the casualties of the battle and makes no mention of the loss of guns.

JAP WARSHIP REPORTED SUNK.

PLEHVE'S ASSASSIN CONFESES.

Says He Was a School Teacher—
Police Find He Had Three Accomplices.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The assassin of Minister of the Interior Von Plehve is said to have made a partial confession, in which he declared that at one time he was school teacher in a rural district and was greatly interested in the Zemstvo, for the curtailment of whose powers he blamed the dead minister. He still absolutely refuses to disclose his name. A watch is kept on him day and night, not only in order to prevent his doing himself bodily harm, but in the belief that he may betray himself in his sleep. Thus far, however, he has only muttered two words in his sleep, namely "Peter and Natalia," evidently the names of a comrade and sweetheart. The police have discovered that a third accomplice was implicated in the plot and that he was stationed on a quay on the Neva, where one of the imperial yachts was moored, on a chance that the minister might go to Petrof that day by water.

MICHAEL FORGET FOUND.

Old Soldier, Thought to be Drowned, Turns Up at the Almshouse.

Michael Forget, the old soldier, whose friends for a time thought that he had been drowned is well if not happy. Michael had been drinking hard for several days and being anxious to solve up decided on the Alma House as a hiding place and shelter against all temptations, and so, unknown to his son or friends, very early on Thursday morning he secured a permit to enter the Alma House from one of the commissioners and was also given a ferry ticket and so equipped he left his home on the west side and quietly secluded himself behind the big stone walls of the house across the flats.

When it was rumored about that Michael had been drowned his son was notified of his whereabouts. Michael's trouble just now is that he wants to get out, but it has been decided to keep him there for some time longer.

LOTS OF RASPBERRIES.

This Year's Crop Almost a Record Breaker.

Farmers who come to the city market from all sections of the province report an unusually large raspberry crop. The bushes, they say, are literally weighed down with berries.

This morning raspberries constituted the principal article for sale in the market. They were mostly displayed in pails ticketed at from 25c. to 75c., according to size.

Already raspberries have been shipped to the United States in large quantities. Yesterday an express company handled a shipment of 400 kegs going to Boston, which is one of the largest shipments on record.

Forming a contrast to the raspberry crop this year is the blueberry crop, which has proved very light so far.

Miss Nina Case leaves tonight for Rotherham, where she will spend a few weeks.

John Lunney left on the Boston train this morning to visit relatives in Massachusetts.

A NOTABLE EXPERIMENT.
Beneficial as the competitive grading system of the public schools has proved in many respects, there are disadvantages which leading educa-tionalists have been working for years to remove. The strongest charge made against the system as at present carried out in our schools is based on the fact that in every grade there are a few clever pupils who set the pace for the class to the injury of the slower children, who either over-tax themselves trying to keep up or drop so far behind that they are apt to lose hope and ambition.

A remedy for this has been found by Superintendent John Kennedy, of the schools at Batavia, N. Y. Acting upon his urgent advice, the school board placed in one room, as an experiment, an extra teacher whose office it was not to hear recitations, but to give personal counsel and aid to any pupil falling behind in his class. It was to be purely a work of sympathy, requiring a person of fine tact. The result of the experiment was so marked in both pupils and teachers that what is called the Batavia Experiment is now spreading through the better class of schools in the whole United States.
Commenting on the value of the experiment, the New York Independent points out that under this system the recitation teacher is stimulated to do less nagging, while released from goading. The pupils, on the other hand, are relieved from trying to go beyond their strength and ability.
Superintendent Kennedy says:
"Schools may be administered to death; they may be ministered to life." The president of the board says:
"This method of meeting our problem is not only a revelation; it is a revolution. It is of more than local importance." The effect on the health of the children was marked as that of their scholarship. Children found it no longer necessary to take books home for night study—indeed, were forbidden to do so. A mother, rejoicing over a boy restored to health and intellectual vigor, declared it to be "the case of Christianity." As many as six times the number of pupils remain to graduate from the high school.
This seems to be due in part to the fact that school life is more attractive, and in part to the better health of the pupils. Perhaps there is nothing new in the idea of this experiment, but there is something new in the method. It is a realization of the Pestalozzian idea, that each pupil has a right to be personally educated for what he can best achieve. It is apparently a solution of one of the most ancient problems of our life. We cannot afford to break down our young people in the process of preparing them for citizenship.

ELECTION SIGNS.
Le Soliel, of Quebec, is persisting in its attempts to convince its readers that every attack on the Liberal government is made because Sir Wilfrid Laurier is a Frenchman.
"The name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier," it says in a recent issue, "was blazed at the Dundonald demonstration in Toronto. This is an act of fanaticism which every French-Canadian who has a heart in his body should resent. These stupid fanatics cannot realize that one of ours should be able to preside over the destinies of this country. If it is the Dundonald incident which furnished a new occasion for the renewed outburst of hate towards the French of Quebec, these fanatics found it all right when Quebec supported Sir John A. Macdonald, but it is different when in its natural pride Quebec ranged itself en masse under the banner of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Has not Sir Wilfrid revealed himself as great a statesman as the old Conservative leader?"
It certainly looks as if the elections were pretty near.

The Moncton Transcript says that if Moncton were run on the same selfish plan as St. John, papers from this city would not be allowed at the G.
city would not be allowed at the G.
city would not be allowed at the G.
city would not be allowed at the G.

The Moncton Transcript attacks the Star for insinuating that the men who live and pay taxes in St. John should have the first claim on work within this city and for protesting against the importation by Mr. Emmerson of a number of his constituents to the injury of local laborers who need the work. The Transcript on the other hand, praises Mr. Emmerson for following the Star's suggestion and removing those workmen. It's a pity that two leading Liberal papers can't agree even on a small matter like this.

Kingston, Ont., is the latest Canadian city to fall in with the municipal ownership movement. The city has acquired the property and franchises of the Light, Heat and Power Company of that place, and will henceforth run its own light and street cars.
The price paid was $170,373.

INNOCENT, BUT READY TO DIE.
Condemned Wife Murderer's
Solemn Declaration.

Interview with Wm. S. Robinson, Who is to be Hanged in Kentville, Sept. 12th.

The Acadia Orchardist, of Wolfville, N. S., publishes a long interview with Wm. S. Robinson, who is to be hanged at Kentville, N. S., on September 12th, for the murder of his wife.
The condemned man declares in the most solemn manner that he is innocent and that he will maintain his innocence to the last. The interview in part, is as follows:

"You are in a terrible position," said the reporter. "I am looking at a man that must soon pass into eternity and all will be over, in the face of that, do you still cling to the story you have repeated?"
In ornate words the prisoner replied: "If I were to die this moment on the scaffold I would tell the same story, for it is a true one. If I told anything else it would be a lie."
Do you expect a reprieve?
"No, I do not expect one. I want one.
I wish the judge had sentenced me to die at once. I don't want to live with this terrible crime over me, I expect to meet the spirit of my wife in happiness on the unseen shore. I am not afraid to die. I will die, I will be judicially hanged."

Why did you make the remark about "come all to the necktie party?"
"Well, I don't know. I saw something that would bring the unsaved ones to see me hanged. I want them all there." Then you intend to make a speech on the gallows?
"I do. I intend to make a long address, an appeal for all to shun the evil ways that I fell into."
Will you weaken before going to the gallows?
"No, I expect to be borne up by God's help, he will give me strength to the last and I will address the audience. I want to occupy his place for a large portion of this sitting. He looks pale and emaciated after his strenuous labors of the last five months and needs a long rest."

FREDERICTON NEWS.
FREDERICTON, Aug. 2.—Quite a lot of water is reported up river, and the corporation drive is making good progress. Mr. Morrison, who is cleaning up from Grand Falls, is near Woodstock at present, and hopes to reach the boom limits within a few days.
The new directors of the Trotting Park Association met last evening at the office of Recorder Collier, and elected the following officers: President, A.
B. Kitchen; secy, treas., T. J. Colter; asst. secy, Hugh Calder; track committee, Leif C. Plair (chairman), D.
McCatherine, T. J. Colter and A. B.
Kitchen. It was decided to withdraw from the eastern circuit to hold an independent meeting on Labor day.
There will be three events, but the classes have not yet been decided upon, but will be arranged at another meeting to be held on Thursday. The association also decided to petition the City Council for relief from taxes.
The Dream anchored at Fredericton today and anchored opposite the city for several hours. The pretty yacht had on board a number of St. John's well known society people, who for the first time have been cruising along the river. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Simon Jones, Jr., Miss Lana Macdonald, Miss M. Harrison, Jas. Harrison and Alex. McMillan. At noon a start was made for Grand Lakes.

Chas. E. Babbitt of the Bank of N.
W. A. in this city, his friends will request to learn, has been compelled to resign his position on account of continued ill health.

A FIERCE ENCOUNTER.
Tobique Man Comes Out Ahead in a Fight with a Bull.

(Fredericton Herald.)
A young man named William Johnson, who resides at Burnt Land Brook, on the Tobique, had quite an exciting battle with an infuriated bull one day last week, and acquitted himself in a manner that would have done credit to a Mexican bull fighter. It seems that he went to the pasture field to drive home the cows, and was set upon by the bull, which was pastured in the same field.
He was struck by the animal and knocked down, but fortunately escaped without serious injury. Watching a favorable opportunity he sprang to his feet and tried to get away, but the enraged animal was too quick for him and sent him to the earth in a second time. Most men would be inclined to lose their presence of mind in an encounter like this, but not so with Mr. Johnson. Knowing that it would be impossible to reach the nearest fence, he concluded to try another plan. Picking up a stone which chanced to be near, he sprang to his feet and drove it at the bull with all his force. It struck the animal squarely upon the forehead and fell it to the ground. Whipping out his knife Mr. Johnson sprang upon the fallen monster and despatched it by cutting its throat. He emerged from the encounter with not so much as a scratch.

LOCAL NEWS.

Robert McIntosh, Germain street, west end, was kicked by a horse yesterday at Blue Rock, but was not very badly hurt.

Some residents of Renfrew, having a statistical turn of mind, announces that there are now twenty-four houses in Renfrew, and that the population at the end of July was 115.

Dr. W. L. Ellis of the west end has almost completely recovered from the injury to his finger from which he suffered for several weeks. This injury was caused while cutting wood in his yard.

St. Matthew's Presbyterian church choir held its annual picnic yesterday.
About 300 left on the Elaine at 1:30 in the afternoon for Watters' Landing, and returned early in the evening on the Majestic.

At Chubb's corner yesterday T. T.
Lantulum sold 6 shares of Bank of New Brunswick stock at 150 per cent.
premium. Mr. Lantulum also sold 5-600 shares of Bear Gulch mining stock.
Bidding was commenced at 5 cents and the stock was knocked down at 10 per share.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—The house today made creditable progress in finishing up the business of the session. It pre-terminated out through its bill regarding fishing for whales in Canada. There were 25 applications, 17 being from Nova Scotia and one from New Brunswick, but none to cover the Hudson Bay waters.
The discussion of the militia bill was continued at night, when it was held over for the third reading, after which Emmerson put the house in committee on the bill to take over the Ottawa railway as part of the intercolonial system, explaining the transaction and the reasons therefor, at considerable length. He had the floor almost up to midnight.
Mr. Hargart scathingly attacked the transaction as a job in the interest of one section of New Brunswick. It was a road that did not earn $1,000 per mile a year. Why he asked should Ontario be taxed to pay for such a road that would not become a profitable feeder to the I.C. R.?
Mr. Smith of Westwheat, Ontario, opposed the purchase of the road at any cost.

Borden of Halifax, presiding Emmerson to say that the deal was in the line of government ownership of I. C.
R. feeding lines in the maritime province.
Mr. Emmerson said the only other application was for the New Brunswick Shore Line and in reply to Dr.
Daniel of St. John, remarked that this road was owned by Russell Sage of the I.C. R. The resolution passed and the house rose at 12:40 a. m.

Dr. Daniel arrived today and took his seat for the balance of the session.
Laurier has so far recovered from last night's indisposition as to be able to occupy his place for a large portion of today's sitting. He looks pale and emaciated after his strenuous labors
of the last five months and needs a long rest.

The car did not stop at Meadow-step off but fell. She was at once taken to her home and the conductor

How Norton Young Man Met His Death in Connecticut.

Further particulars of the drowning of Gilbert H. Hatfield, formerly of Norton, N. B., at Hampton, Connecticut, on July 28th, have been received. The young man went to spend the night with a party of canoeists at Lake Poconaug, East Hampton. The party were in bathing at the time, Mr. Hatfield in deeper water than land a corpse, but came to the surface again evidently with great effort. He did not cry out, but appeared to be endeavoring to keep above water. He again sank, however, and was shortly afterwards brought to land a corpse. His and taking off threw a gloom over the community, as he was very popular. His funeral was one of the largest ever held in Hampton, Conn.

EXECUTOR CHARGED WITH FRAUD

The Heirs of Paul Daley Accuse Harry Daley of Filing Improper Accounts.

In the probate court today argument is being heard in the case of the estate of the late Paul Daley. This case has been before the court some time and is an endeavor on the part of certain claimants under the will to make Harry Daley, the executor, answerable for certain monies. A. W. Macrae, for the claimants, moved this morning that the executor's account be set aside, vesting his motion on the following grounds: That the executor's account on the credit side is incomplete and does not show clearly the situation of the estate; that certain deposits in the Dominion Savings Bank and the Bank of Montreal, amounting about $2,000 should be placed to the credit of the estate so that the claimants could share in its distribution; that property sold to the executor's wife for $800, a price alleged to be about a third of the value of the property, should be decreed as set in the hands of the executor and the sale annulled. It was contended also for the claimants that certain items on the debit side of the executor's account should be struck out. It is asked that the executor be personally charged with all costs.

H. A. McKeown, in reply, contended that Harry Daley, as executor, has acted properly and can in no way be made personally answerable for the monies. Mr. McKeown has with him J. J. Porter.

J. Gregory, K. C., of Fredericton, is also being heard for the claimants.

FAMOUS YACHT DESIGNER

G. H. Duggan, the Designer of the Cibou, in the City.

G. H. Duggan, of Sydney, arrived in the city this morning. Mr. Duggan is the designer of the celebrated yacht Cibou that captured the Coronation Cup here several years ago, and which last season successfully defended the cup against the St. John yacht Glen-carin IV.

Mr. Duggan says that he has had little time since his removal from Montreal to Sydney to give to yachting and consequently has not turned out anything new.

At the time of the last race for the America's Cup will be remembered that there was considerable newspaper talk about the organization of a syndicate to build a boat to challenge for the cup which Sir Thomas Lipton for the third time failed to lift. While there was lots of talk and discussion over various details of the proposed scheme, all interested were agreed that Mr. Duggan should design the yacht. It was no doubt a compliment to that gentleman it was but a just one as the success of Mr. Duggan's yachts have met with in the international races entitle him to the distinction of being the foremost yacht designer in Canada and as far as small craft go the peer of any man in the world. Heretofore not excepted.

TREASURE DEAD RAT

Mrs. Shaffer, of Main Street, Makes Complaint Against Edgar Frater.

Mrs. Shaffer, of 610 Main street, is a very healthy woman, and until last evening her nerves were as good as those of any woman enjoying good health, but since then she has suffered greatly and when she applied to Police Clerk Henderson this morning for release she was certainly in anything but a normal condition and showed evidence of having spent a restless night. Mrs. Shaffer had with her a written statement of what had occurred which she handed to Mr. Henderson and later verbally related.

The immediate cause of all her trouble is a dead rat and the instructions which she gave to her maid, Edgar Frater, who is said to reside at 14 Acadia street. Mrs. Shaffer has a natural aversion to live rats, but when it came to dropping a dead one on her shoulder while she is eating, and she have it fall on her plate was too much for her nerves, hence the collapse. In the written complaint Mrs. Shaffer says that the "right" almost killed.

Friars will be asked to explain his conduct.

BASEBALL DISAGREEMENT

H. L. Coombs, the secretary of the City Base Ball League, says that the reports in the morning papers to the effect that the executive have not acted fairly toward the Portlands as far as the arrangement of games is concerned is hardly correct. The Portlands claim that some of the games should be played on the Shanrock grounds and according to the statement in the morning papers, refused to play tonight's game. Mr. Coombs says that this evening's game was scheduled for the Victoria grounds between the Clippers and Franklins, and that on Saturday evening the Portlands and Clippers will meet on the Shanrock grounds.

After the game tonight a meeting of the executive will be held, when the question of grounds will be fully gone into.

MIXED UP CASE IN FAIRVILLE.

W. C. Garret May Take Action for False Imprisonment.

A case came before Justice Masson in Fairville this morning which promises to develop interestingly in the near future. Yesterday, W. C. Garret, a baker employed with McLennan Bros., who is said to have been drinking heavily for some time, was discharged on that account and because he spoiled several batches of bread. Last evening he returned to the store and demanded $25 which he said was due him. Mr. McLennan refused to pay and Garret, exclaiming "I'll get something, anyway," seized a showcase full of pastry and started for the door. A scuffle followed, as a result of which Garret left without his pastry and proceeded to Justice Masson's house to make complaint.

Meanwhile the Messrs. McLennan informed Policeman Lawson of what had transpired and the officer proceeded to Justice Masson's house and arrested Garret, lodging him in jail for the night.

This morning it was brought to the attention of the parties concerned that the policeman, not having seen Garret violating the law in any way and not having any warrant, had no right to make the arrest. As a result Garret was allowed to go and is threatening to proceed against the policeman and McLennan Bros. for false arrest and imprisonment.
