Coalition Gov't In Germany

News of the Retirement of Scheidemann as Premier Caused No Surprise in Paris Peace Conference Circles.

HERR NOSKE HEADS THE NEW CABINET

His Selection, if True, is a Surprising Factor as He Had Been Regarded as Opposed to Signing the Treaty

Paris, June 20.—News of the retirement of Philipp Scheidemann as premier, and of the reformation of the coalition government in Germany, came as no surprise in peace conference circles as it had been known for some time that Scheidemann, Count von Brockdorff-Rantau and several other cabinet members were so thoroughly committed by past utterances to not signing the treaty that a new cabinet and, perhaps, a new president might have to be installed before the treaty is signed, unless it is modified materially.

It is expected in peace conference circles that the new German government will make a request for additional time in which to reply.

The retirement of von Brockdorff-Rantau and Herr Geiselsberg, and probably that of Furrberg from the cabinet is anticipated. Matthias Erzberger, presumably will take the place of Geiselsberg as the Centrist leader in the cabinet.

The selection of Herr Noske to head the new cabinet, if true, is a surprising factor, as he had been regarded as an opponent of signing. It is known, however, that there has been a considerable shift in the attitude of various politicians, parties, and newspapers lately and experts here on the German situation think that Noske, as the "strong man" of the administration, may, perhaps, bring a favorable change in the German government.

The greatest difficulty is to realize how Herr Noske, the chief opponent of force toward the Independent Socialists and the Spartacists, can work with the Independents, who, at present, are the strongest advocates of signing the treaty.

It is possible, however, that Herr Haase, leader of the Independent Socialists and his party, will place the necessity of peace for Germany above their hatred and distrust of the minister of national defence. The possibility must, however, be borne in mind that Minister Noske may have been called to head the government as the strongest man in a moment of national crisis, not necessarily to sign unpopular conditions of peace, but to constitute an administration capable of finding out to the coming storm.

Official.
Bulletin—Berlin, June 20. (By The A. P.)—The cabinet resigned at 2 o'clock this morning. President Ebert will retain his office temporarily.

STRIKE OF COTTON SPINNERS EXPECTED AT LANCASHIRE

Operatives Have Been Unable to Reach an Agreement with Employers and Over 500,000 Are Expected to Quit Work.

London, June 20.—Lancashire tomorrow is likely to see the start of the cotton spinners' strike involving 300,000 operatives. A number of conferences have been held at Manchester and in London during the past fortnight and Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, minister of labor, has made strong efforts to avert the strike, which will be for a 4 1/2 hour week and 30 per cent advance in wages.

The employers offer a 48 hour week and 15 per cent increase. A final conference at Manchester today failed to agree and the operatives' strike notices expire at noon tomorrow. Unless an eleventh hour settlement is reached, or the operatives consent to postpone their notices, it is believed that there will soon be 500,000 workers on strike.

After the conference at Manchester today it was officially announced that the employers had offered a 48 hour week with a 25 per cent advance in wages, and that the operatives were prepared to accept a 4 1/2 hour week and a 25 per cent advance, but that neither side would yield further.

Count Bernstorff Named Minister of Foreign Affairs

Paris, June 20.—An unconfirmed report received here from the Army Intelligence Bureau at Coblenz says Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador to the United States, has been named as Minister of Foreign Affairs and that he will come to Versailles to sign the Peace Treaty.

LIVELY DOINGS BEFORE COST OF LIVING COMM.

Toronto Editor Giving Evidence Enters Into Very Energetic Denunciation of the Commission's "Amateur" Methods.

HAD TO CALL IN A POLICEMAN

Press Accused of Featuring the Sensational in Their Headlines, But Being Accurate in the Text Given Out.

Ottawa, June 20.—Proceedings before the cost of living committee this morning were such as are rarely paralleled before a committee of Parliament. John H. Robinson, editor of the Toronto Telegram, had been called in regard to certain editorials he had written on the work of the committee, and from beginning to end it was one long cross-fire of altercation. Mr. Robinson had not taken the oath many minutes before he had a sharp tilt with Mr. Devlin. A little later he and Mr. Nesbitt were both standing and gesticulating at each other.

"Sit down," Mr. Nesbitt shouted "You have the vote of a hall."

"You have less brains than a donkey," retorted Mr. Robinson. "I won't sit down."

"You have no sense of dignity," Mr. Nesbitt shouted in reply.

The chairman interposed and suggested a policeman. The committee decided to send for the sergeant-at-arms. Eventually, the sergeant-at-arms, wearing his sword, gravely walked up to the committee table, but he only stayed a few minutes. A policeman came into the room to take his place and followed the proceedings with an amused smile.

When questioned by Mr. Devlin, Mr. Robinson protested that if he had written anything libellous, either civilly or criminal, he was responsible to the courts.

"I am not going to be put on trial before this committee," he called out, "for that article."

Mr. Devlin—"We want to get the facts. You are an incident before the committee."

"And you are an epoch," Mr. Robinson called back.

Mr. Devlin proceeded with a series of questions relating to the editorial on the examination of Mr. Fox, of the William Davies Company, by the committee.

"This is an extreme way of putting it," was the reply.

"My point was that Mr. Fox was much cleverer than you and that he did not present the whole situation."

Mr. Fox, continued the witness, did give to the committee the fact that he was the head of the biggest chain of retail stores in the Dominion, and could have made a full disclosure of the whole committee.

"Do you suggest, Mr. Hocken asked, that when Mr. Fox declined to answer the questions that he perjured himself?"

"I don't say he perjured himself," Mr. Robinson replied. "I say he was not asked questions to carry him further."

Mr. Devlin—"Do you know as a matter of fact whether he could say so or not?"

"No, it is your business to find out."

There was a further fact, Mr. Robinson proceeded, as to the butter fat percentage in butter as it reaches the creamery. He thought it was the duty of the committee to find the percentage of butter fat as it went into the creamery and the percentage as it came out.

Mr. Robinson claimed that the committee had not investigated margarine. Margarine was made in England for 12 cents, he said, and sold for 16. He had been informed that it was a better article. He was questioned as to his knowledge given before the committee prior to the writing of the editorial. Mr. Robinson said he did not have the

"Remain Faithful To Allies"

Orlando's Advice to the Chamber of Deputies Turned the Tide Against the Premier and Resulted in Adverse Vote.

AROUSING THE ANGER OF THE DEPUTIES

Tumultuous Scenes Followed With Cries of "The Allies Have Never Been Faithful to Us; Why Be Faithful to Them?"

Rome, June 19.—"Remain faithful to our duties toward the Allies," was a passage in the address of Premier Orlando today which turned the tide against the premier and resulted in the adverse vote which had its sequel in the resignation of the Orlando cabinet on Thursday.

The premier's words aroused the anger and hostility of the deputies, several shouting across the chamber at the government bench from which the premier was speaking. There was a great tumult and cries "The Allies have never been faithful to us; why should we be faithful to them?"

Signor Orlando's fatal utterance so stirred the deputies that the remainder of the speech received but little attention, the Intransigent Socialists, led by Deputy Modigliano, being especially violent while the discontent of the others was voiced by Francesco Nitti, former minister of the treasury.

Rome, Thursday, June 19.—After Premier Orlando had announced his resignation Deputy Turati proposed that the Chamber proceed to discuss the electoral reform bill, which aims to substitute the system of electing one representative for each electoral district for that by which deputies are elected at large from the provinces.

The proposal to adopt this measure was adopted.

The Chamber also approved the proposal made by Deputy Rosadi for a discussion of the vote of credit on Saturday, after which the sitting will be declared raised, Premier Orlando and his ministers remaining at their posts for ordinary administrative purposes.

NINE CANADIANS WERE ARRESTED AT WOODCOTE CAMP

Have Been Taken to London Charged With Participating in Riots at Epsom.

London, June 20.—(By C. A. P.)—It is reported that nine Canadians, some with baggage, have been arrested at Woodcote Camp in connection with the Epsom rioting and have been taken to London. Also that five hundred troops have been sent to Epsom where all is now quiet.

The Canadian Red Cross has voted $1,000 for the family of the police sergeant who was killed.

The Times, while making allowances for the misunderstandings on reparations, which ought to be explained, says the report is current that the men are convalescents whom the Canadian Government has refused to repatriate until their illness is cured, and the authorities ought to know what is being said.

The Epsom council has issued a statement to the press most strongly repudiating the Canadian official explanation that the riot was the result of the attitude of the civilians towards Canadians, and protesting against such an explanation being published before any judicial inquiry has been commenced.

CALGARY STRIKE FADING AWAY

Sympathizers Are Dwindling and Industry is Getting Back to Normal.

Calgary, June 20.—The local sympathetic strike has now dwindled to less than 1,500 men, including the postal workers, Canadian Pacific railway shopmen and metal trades workers. Return of building trades workers yesterday depleted the ranks of the strikers considerably. Metal trades employers are offering places for machinists, blacksmiths and moulders at 80 cents an hour and a 4 1/2 hour week.

Mathias Erzberger Will Ask Freedom For Ex-Emperor

Paris, June 20.—The Temps understands that Mathias Erzberger, if he takes power in Germany, will ask two modifications of the Peace Treaty. The first will be the toning down of the clauses concerning responsibility for the war so as to spare German susceptibilities, and the second, abandonment of prosecution of the former Emperor.

CONFLICTING REPORTS AS TO GERMAN MINDS

From the Various Rumors There is But Little Upon Which to Form Any Definite Opinion as to What Will Happen.

BELIEF NEW CABINET WILL SIGN TREATY

Little Has Yet Come Out of the Italian Tangle to Effect the Workings of the Peace Conference.

New York, June 20.—The Associated Press tonight issues the following:

Latest advices from Berlin are to the effect that the German cabinet has resigned, but that, temporarily, President Ebert is to retain office.

It was also indicated at the meeting that the strike committee has under consideration the cutting off of electricity and gas.

The One Big Union question was presented by the present German cabinet, and it was announced that Secretary Victor Ridgley, the permits of all the local brewers to work were revoked, and it is likely that Vancouver will experience another "dry" spell today, the second since the inception of the strike.

SERBIA IS FREED OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR CAUSE OF WAR

Maximilian Harden Publishes a Statement Condemning Von Hottel on His Position in the Controversy.

Berlin, June 20. (French Wireless)—An official telegram from the Vienna foreign office, exonerating Serbia of responsibility for the Serrajevo murder, has been published by Maximilian Harden in the Berliner Zukunft as a part of the mass of evidence to show Germany's responsibility for the war.

This telegram dated July 12, 1914, stated plainly that the Serbian government against which no responsibility can be produced, has no responsibility for the murder.

This document, Herr Harden said, was cancelled, and ten days later the ultimatum to Serbia was presented, in addition he said, seven days before it was drafted the Potsdam war council already had arranged a plan of action in anticipation of Russia's intervention.

"Von Bethmann-Hollweg may have forgotten it," Herr Harden says, but this decision was taken and registered on July sixth, before the Kaiser left for the north, and he, who had to choose between war and peace, had already chosen war. A hundred million individuals were thus deceived."

AVIATORS RECEIVE THE PRIZE MONEY

London, June 20.—Capt. John Alcock and Lieut. Arthur W. Brown, the aviators who made the first non-stop flight from North America to Ireland, were entertained at a luncheon at the Hotel Savoy today by the Daily Mail at which the trans-Atlantic prize of 10,000 pounds, offered by the newspaper, was presented to the aviators. Those attending the dinner included members of the British cabinet and others.

It was announced later that King George had conferred the Order of Knight of the British Empire on both Captain Alcock and Lieut. Brown.

Vancouver Strike Not Settled

Trades and Labor Council Say That No Date Would Be Set to go Back to Work by the Committee.

APPARENT UNREST AMONG WORKERS

And Many of Those Who Have Been on Strike Are Tiring and "Dribbling" Back to Their Jobs.

Vancouver, B. C., June 20.—That the Vancouver strike situation is no nearer a settlement was evidenced at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night when it was announced that no date would be set to go back to work by the strike committee, it being made clear that this would be done only by a vote of the unions.

Unrest among the workless has become apparent in the last few days, culminating last night at the Labor Temple in the statement that men were "dribbling" back to work.

The strike leaders are not yet satisfied to call off the strike until further tie-ups are completed was noted.

"This strike will be called off only when all the things we struck for have been gained," declared Delegate Edwards, as spokesman for the strikers, and chairman of the strike committee.

It was also indicated at the meeting that the strike committee has under consideration the cutting off of electricity and gas.

The One Big Union question was presented by the present German cabinet, and it was announced that Secretary Victor Ridgley, the permits of all the local brewers to work were revoked, and it is likely that Vancouver will experience another "dry" spell today, the second since the inception of the strike.

DIVORCE REFORM CONSIDERED BY PARLIAMENT

Backed by Sir Robert Borden a Step Forward Was Made in the Way of Establishing a Divorce Court.

Ottawa, June 20.—Backed by the influence of Sir Robert Borden, a long step forward was made in the way of divorce reform today when a second reading was given to a bill providing for the establishment of a divorce court by a vote of 68 to 35. The bill, which was fathered by Mr. W. E. Nickle, Kingston, provides for the establishment of provincial divorce courts, and the unification of the law in provinces where there are courts already established, namely, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia. The vote was an interesting one and was not on party lines. Both leaders, Sir Robert and D. D. MacKenzie, voted for the bill. Mr. MacKenzie, however, only found two supporters, his chief whip, James Robb and Isaac Pettibone, the Quaker member for South Renfrew. The French-Canadian members all voted against the bill, although none of them spoke on the bill, and there was a small opposition attendance. The westerners, with three exceptions, voted for divorce reform. Those who voted against the bill were Dr. Finlay, the Unionist member for Jasper and the Independent Liberal, Liberal members, Dr. Molloy and W. H. White, Victoria.

The chief objections to the bill were raised by government supporters, and A. E. Phipp of Ottawa, seconded by James Melsaac, Kings, P. E. I., who moved the six months' hoist. A number of Ontario members voted against the bill, including Col. James Arthur, Parry Sound; John Best, Dufferin; James Bowman, North Huron; W. F. Cockshutt, Brantford; Thomas Foster, East York; A. E. Phipp, Ottawa and Dr. McGibbon, Muskoka.

Mr. Nickle gave a historic resume of divorces travelling all the way back to the reformation. He pointed out that there had been 57 applications this year, and 48 had so far been granted. The number of divorces was becoming so numerous that it was impossible for any member to seriously consider them. The senate divorce committee could not give the cases proper and judicial consideration. The cost was too great and was unfair to a poor man. Necessities of the country demanded some reform. Facts should be faced as they were. Conditions in Canada were not a theory. It had been emphasized by the return of the soldiers, many of whom found their wives had been unfaithful in their absence. On the other hand many women had been deserted. Mr. Phipp opposed the bill on the ground that it was not a great increase in divorces in Canada. There would be thousands of divorce cases.

"If you make divorce easy," he declared, "nine-tenths of the litigation before the courts in the next ten years will be divorce cases."

Sir Robert strongly supported the proposal. The question to be decided was whether it was better to have such an important question as a divorce settled by a committee of the senate, with its faulty procedure, or under the safeguards provided by properly constituted court. Sir Robert explained that in Nova Scotia, where there has been a divorce court since before confederation, every precaution is taken to see that proper evidence is submitted before a divorce is granted. This is done by the appointment of a King's proctor whose duty it is to see that only bona fide applications are proceeded with. He had no desire to make divorce easy, but he thought the present method discriminatory. A western applicant has the expense of bringing witnesses all the way from that province.

Food Stuffs Not Soon to Be Lowered

Representative of Grain Exchange Tells Cost of Living Commission There is No Hope of Immediate Reduction.

PRICE OF WHEAT PRECLUDES REDUCTION

So Long as Price of Wheat Was Continued to be Fixed in Canada There is No Chance to Benefit the People.

OTAWA, ONT., JUNE 20.—

Charles Birkett, secretary of the Fort William and Port Arthur Grain Exchange, told the Cost of Living Committee of the Commons, this afternoon, that no reduction in the cost of foodstuffs need be expected until wheat was reduced in price. He said that wheat at $2.24 at Fort William did not make bread very dear to the individual because it was estimated that one person used about one barrel per year; but there were also bran and shorts to be considered, and the price of wheat was reflected on oats and barley, so that meat, milk, eggs, etc., all reflected it.

The witness said that if the price of wheat continued to be fixed in Canada, 17 1/2 per cent of the people would benefit, but if it was put on a competitive basis, 82 1/2 per cent would benefit. It would also put the grain dealers back again into business.

He declared that if the Canadian Government fixed the price, Canada would either not sell her wheat, or the Government would have to buy the difference, and he did not think that the Canadian Government should fix the price of wheat any more than it should fix the price of copper or any other product.

With wheat reduced to $1.50, which he anticipated as the result of an open market, the price of a loaf would be brought down about one cent.

W. S. Edwards, of the Justice Department, explained to the committee what had been done regarding the notification of the Labor Department to take action in connection with the alleged combine of bakers at Halifax.

FORMER EMPEROR ENTERTAINED MORE VISITORS FRIDAY

"Bill" Still Continues to Saw Trees and is Cutting One Into Inch Discs Which He Imports and Distributes to Friends.

Amerongen, Thursday, June 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—There was a further addition to William Hohenzollern's visitors last night, when Friedrich von Berg, formerly chief of the civil cabinet of the one-time monarch, dined at the von Betzke castle. Today there was seen a continual running of motor cars from and to the castle.

This morning the former Emperor engaged in his usual task of sawing trees, of which he yesterday completed his five thousandth. This last tree has been cut into one-inch discs, many of which have been distributed among Herr Hohenzollern's attendants and visitors. The tree was six inches in diameter and each disc was marked in the former ruler's own handwriting with his initials and the date.

After the sawing was finished, just before lunch today, the former Emperor, von Berg, von Gontard, Dr. Krieger, of the German Foreign Office, and Herr von Ezzbek were observed in animated conversation in the grounds of the castle, but nothing could be gleaned as to the subject of the conversation.

Mrs. H. Hornbeam Heard From Again

Says Hiram is the Super-Pessimist—Got Everybody to Stop Drinking Except the Patrons of the Bootleggers.

"Hiram is the super-pessimist," said Mrs. Hornbeam. "Having got everybody to stop drinking except the patrons of the bootleggers, he now wants them to stop eating, which is prohibition in the programme of the Bolshevik, according to my friend that New Times reporter. Hiram also wants to make us women carry on all the industries in our homes like we used to do in the past, which shows he has the Bolshevik notion that factory industry is bad for men, which maybe it is, because in the old days when women did all the work all men had to do was hunt, fight and sit down. With Brother Foster telling the returned soldiers that having won the war it is now up to them to get busy and settle the problems which have arisen from the unconditional surrender of the stay-at-homes to the profiteers, and Hiram telling us we must hark back to the old days of making a living 'in all flabbergasted. I reckon when Hiram's ancestors were climbing out of the tropic pools, the language of the period signified: Let us beat it back into the pool, there isn't air enough up here for everybody."
"And all the little radical reptiles said it was the fault of the profiteers who crawled ashore at sunrise and gobbled up the supply of air. And all the little conservatives said it served them right anyway, they should stop in the warm pools where it was evidently nature's intention that they should be content in the state of life they found themselves. And there were other ugly reptiles that said: Why not crawl up higher, maybe the air is easier to breathe up there. But these were voted Utopians and there was great debate. But the ugly Utopians kept crawling farther up the beach and the exercise developed these breathing apparatus, and they found out at last that there was plenty of air.
"Well, civilization is getting its head above water—the dismal sea of competitive commodity production, troubled by mysterious social storms, in which mankind has floundered ever since we fell away from the simple communist system of production which Hiram admires so much and under which women carried on most of the industrial arts. Nevertheless the efficiency of that system was not to be compared to the modern system of factory production for the commodity market, though the latter by unregulated competition produces the phenomenon, so mysterious to the average citizen, of over production while the great mass of the people are suffering for what has become the necessities of life. Conscious regulation of these new organs of pro-

Sunday School Workers' Program

Two Co-operative Summer Schools of Methods Will be Held at Wolfville and Sackville During July and August.

Two co-operative "Summer Schools of Methods" for the Sunday School workers of the Maritime Provinces will be held this year, the first at Wolfville from July 30 to August 6, and the second at Sackville from August 7 to August 14. The programme at each will be identical and persons interested in Sunday Schools who desire to take advantage of the school may attend either one. Arrangements have been made for the housing and feeding of those attending the schools and for recreation. The Canadian Girls in Training programme, D. D. Toronto, general secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies; Rev. W. A. Rose, M. A., Moncton, general secretary Maritime Sunday School Association; Rev. Frank Langford, B. A., Toronto, general secretary of the Methodist board of religious education; Rev. Waldo C. Macchum, B. A., general secretary Maritime Baptist board of religious education; Mrs. S. H. Wares, Moncton, superintendent children's division of the Maritime Sunday School Association; Miss Olive Ziegler, Toronto, girls' work secretary of the Methodist board of education; and Rev. W. H. Barracough, of Moncton, who will give a special mission study course at Sackville only.

duction, however, may reconcile the interests of the individual which are now at war with those of society. By State Control, not always of a highly intelligent character, England in the midst of a great war found it possible to feed and clothe her work-glasses on the whole better than she did in the piping times of peace.
"And only by continuing and extending the process of the social regulation of production can man hope to exorcise the social demons which commodity production for an impersonal market let loose upon the earth. Thereby may he overcome the mysterious social power which has thwarted his plans, and made so far his victories over nature often instruments of his own oppression; thereby may he become the master of nature and his own fate, and so pass definitely out of the animal kingdom."

Lt.-Col. Powell En Route Home

Popular Officer With Eighteen Other Men of Siberian Unit Left Vancouver Yesterday for St. John.

Charles Robinson, secretary of the New Brunswick Returned Soldiers' Commission, yesterday received word that the steamer Montevideo had arrived at Vancouver, having on board a number of men of the Siberian expedition, and that the men for Military District No. 7 had left yesterday for their homes.
Among those who are on their way is Lt.-Col. A. A. H. Powell, depot commander of the Siberian Expeditionary Force. Lt. Powell will be given a hearty reception on reaching St. John, where he made many friends while attached to headquarters staff. He is a veteran of the South African war and on the outbreak of the present war was sent from Halifax, where he was attached to the permanent force at A. A. G., to this city where he filled the same position.
At different times he made applications for a transfer to the overseas forces, but his splendid executive ability was needed at home and the military authorities refused his request time and again. Finally he prevailed on them to grant his application for overseas service, and he was made Depot Commander of the Canadian Siberian Force, an office for which he was eminently fitted.
The others who are listed for this district are:
Pte. Banfield, G. L.
Pte. Bourgeois, A. G.
Pte. Doucet, A.
Pte. Gorlovsky, J.
Pte. Mulvaney, A. J., Jamaica Plain, Boston, Mass.

Bonds Are The Only Things That Are Cheap These Days

Prices of everything, as you know, are up. Bonds - Government, City and Municipal bonds are the only things that are cheap - and they are not as cheap as they were - and a lot cheaper than they will be when normal conditions come back again.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS CAUSE IRREGULAR STOCK MARKET

Trading Throughout the Day Was Characterized by Extreme Caution, Although Money Was Easy.

New York, June 20.-So far as today's stock market could be said to have any direct propelling force or definite factor, greater interest was evinced in the trend of events across the water than in domestic developments.

Reports of the resignation of the German cabinet were in circulation before the opening and are believed to have accounted for the early irregularity, but this condition was of brief duration, the list hardening on every important quarter before the end of the first hour.

Trading during the forenoon and mid-session was characterized, however, by a degree of caution, although the continued ease of money, that is to say, call loans, which opened at six per cent, later falling to five, offered renewed encouragement to the long account.

Although the turnover fell far short of the larger totals of recent weeks, dealings were unusually broad, embracing a greater variety of sales, also steels, equipments and specialties, notably the food group.

Oils and motors and kindred accessories were less responsive to early moderate accumulation, but buying of these issues became more extensive in the very active final hour, when shipments also charged forward.

Investment rails were only moderately strong, interest and activity in transportation centering around mines or shares, particularly Texas and Pacific, which made a gross advance of nine points to the highest level since reorganization.

Other outstanding features included Texas Company, at an advance of 12 points, American International, United Fruit, U.S. Rubber, General Motors and half a score of unclassified specialties at gains of 2 to over 6 points, final quotations mostly approximating the day's maximums.

Sales amounted to 1,300,000 shares. Foreign bonds failed to reflect political changes abroad and domestic issues, including the Liberty division, were barely steady. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,600,000.

Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

Spanish River was also active, it closed at about yesterday's closing. In the unlisted department Trans. Power was the feature, the stock selling up to 20, a new high on this movement. It was well bought during both sessions.

Amongst the bank stocks, Royal was higher at 215 1/2 and the other banks unchanged.

In the War Loans fractional net declines were shown in the 1927 and 1927 issues. The 1923's were unchanged at 102.

ADVISES SET PRICE FOR WHEAT

The prisoner was brought before Police Magistrate Sanders, D. S. O., this morning and was briefly informed that he would be held pending the arrival of an officer from Winnipeg.

"Do you know what the charge is against you?" inquired the police magistrate of Pritchard.

Manly Strength Self-Help Book Free

It matters not who, any man, young or elderly, needing more vital strength, who is not quite the man he should be, who feels himself weakened as a result of past practices and excesses, can, beyond the shadow of a doubt, hope for self-restoration of his lost or weakened powers if he is willing to make a fair, square effort along certain perfectly natural lines (of which he can easily learn), and will lead that sort of a decent existence which Nature demands that all of us SHALL lead, if we are to prove up to the normal standard of vigor and manly capacity, as we see it exemplified in the best men of the world today.

Jan what I believe you yourself should do or should do where more manly strength may be desired is told in a perfectly plain, commonsense, practical, every-day sort of way through the medium of a little 72-page illustrated book of advice that I publish and am now sending free, sealed, by mail, to men all over the world who write for it. This little compendium of self-help has, I hope, been of more lasting benefit to my fellow men than any similar publication of its kind before used. Over one million copies have been distributed since my first announcement that they would be sent free of charge. Therefore, reader, please use the coupon below, which entitles you to this wonderful little free book, a copy of which will go to you in a perfectly plain, sealed envelope by return mail. Remember there is absolutely nothing offered for sale in the whole booklet, excepting in that part which speaks of my little invention, the Sanden Vitalizer, and you are not expected to get one of those appliances unless you make up your mind it is what you want. The book is absolutely independent of all else, and is a free gift in every sense of the word. It carries with it no obligation on your part of any kind whatsoever. Please send your name and address. SANDEN, Author.

Real, sturdy, vigorous manhood never counted for more than it does today. If you are strong, vital, manly, the whole world appreciates you; if you are a weakling-well, it is a dark time, this age of ours, for the one who must stand aside. To my mind a vigorous, strong-minded, manly man is one of the greatest inspirations in the world, because the very force of his character and manhood makes itself felt wherever he goes or wherever he may be. What he does he does well, and his reward is in proportion to the strength and sturdiness of his character.

With special attachments, the Vitalizer is also used for rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder, nerves and blood while you sleep. Men everywhere have said it takes that nervous weakness or pain out of the small of the back in short order-sometimes from first night's use, and that often strength and manly vigor is restored in 60 to 90 days.

USE FREE COUPON. The A. F. Sanden Co., 140 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont. Dear Sirs,-Without obligation on my part, please send me by return mail, in perfectly plain sealed envelope, your free 72-page illustrated book of self-help and advice for men.

VETERANS' MEETING

Great war veterans attended the meeting held in the City Hall, West Side, last night, for the purpose of forming a local branch of the Great War Veterans Association.

A committee composed of Messrs. Colwell, Pitt, Joyce and Smith was appointed to secure a suitable place for the next meeting, which will be held Friday night.

Rumors are current that there may be a tie-up of the services controlled by the New Brunswick Power Company, the employees of which are looking for more money to meet the cost of living. The company is said to be unable or unwilling to pay the scale of wages which the men want, though prepared to make an advance on the old rates. The men are said to be waiting on the result of the moves there before taking definite action. Whether they will accept the company's proposition, or demand more, is still unknown. At the present time most of the employees of the company are affiliated with the one union, and are said to be pulling together.

Both the company and the men are said to be anxious to avoid a strike and when approached last for a strike and asked if there was anything to the rumor one of the employees stated that he had nothing to say on the matter, and he would not deny or confirm the statements which have been made.

Employment For Returned Soldiers

Problem of Securing Work for Those Who Enlisted as Boys is Proving One of Great Difficulty.

The problem of finding employment for returned soldiers who joined up as boys and got through the war without incurring physical disabilities is proving one of great difficulty, according to officials of the local branch of the Dominion Employment Service.

"Soldiers who were partially disabled have a better opportunity than these young men who joined the army before they had any training for civil life," said George Hennessey yesterday to a reporter. "They were just boys when they joined up, but after carrying a rifle for three or four years they are men and think and feel like men. Naturally they want a man's job, but it is very difficult to find them a job that will pay them a man's wage. They have been serving as soldiers during the last years of the war in normal circumstances have been learning a trade or fitting themselves in some way for the business of life. They have been given what is generally recognized as the most important years of their life to their country's service, and now they find themselves worse off than if they had been disabled, for the disabled man can get a re-training for civil life, or an opportunity to fit himself or a new occupation. This is not fair to the young men who came through the war without injury, except to its prospects in life. What is being done for the disabled men should also be done for the young men who have lost not a limb or finger, but three or four of the years of their lives, which those who stayed at home have profited by to increase their earning power."

"If there was a proper system of technical education in St. John it would not be a very difficult or expensive matter to provide these young men with the opportunities of training which they need, but with all the talk of reconstruction and helping the returned man to settle himself in civil life here nothing has been done, and there appears to be opposition to anything of any value being done."

Mr. Hennessey said the work of settling returned men in new jobs was getting along better than they had expected in view of the low wages which were being offered in many lines, compared with the cost of living. Even young men showed an unexpected willingness to settle down, but there were now 1,500 or more men in the city for whom there were no jobs in present prospect, and soldiers were arriving home every day. If the federal government went ahead with the proposed harbor improvement and the provincial government undertook some needed public works, and the county built the new court house and the hospital building which was said to be needed, and the city set along with the many needed public improvements he anticipated no difficulty in finding jobs for all the returned men.

"If the public authorities showed some confidence in the future of this part of the world I think it would have a stimulating effect all round," said Mr. Hennessey. "Talking with employers who are looking for men I find that they lack a certain confidence in going ahead with new enterprises or expanding their businesses. If the city would go ahead with needed public improvements I believe a lot of men who are now holding back would start building houses, which would have a good effect on the labor market, and help to remove one of the chief causes of discontent—the unsatisfactory housing conditions."

Why Can't I Get To Sleep?
Thousands of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refreshing sleep.
Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quieted except by the pernicious use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and the only way you can get relief is to sit up in bed.
To all who suffer in this way Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer an inestimable boon. They bring back the much-needed night's rest by improving the tone of the nerves, strengthening the heart, enriching the blood, and making the whole organization act in harmony—then you sleep as peacefully as a child.
Mrs. Jas. Latimer, 33 Leinster street, St. John, N. B. writes: "At night I could not sleep. I had to sit up in bed, my heart beat so fast, and when I walked up stairs I would get all out of breath. A friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after using two boxes, I can sleep all night and am not out of breath after walking."

THE SOMBRE DAYS WHEN THE SPECTRE OF FAMINE STALKED THE LAND ARE FADING AWAY

It is to be Hoped That Measures Will be Taken to Preserve the Record of the Sacrificial and Strenuous Labors by Which That Menace Was Averted by the People on This Side of the Atlantic.

London, June 15.—(Special Correspondence of Canadian Associated Press.)—With returning plenty, those sombre days when the spectre of famine stalked the land are already fading from our consciousness, like the memory of a hideous dream. It is to be hoped, however, that measures will be taken to preserve the record of the sacrificial and strenuous labors by which that menace was averted, and notably those put forth by our kinsmen overseas.

In this respect some interesting and striking facts were divulged by the Food Controller in the course of an interview. Mr. Roberts explained that compulsory rationing was not adopted in Canada, the system being regarded as unsuitable to local conditions. Canada has a few highly populated towns and a very scattered agricultural community.

The method adopted, said he, "was the regulation of the sale of food by dealers who were licensed to the number of over 78,000 and voluntary conservation by consumers. Canada increased its extraction of flour from wheat and conducted a campaign whereby all sections of the population were made to realize that economy in the consumption of food directly assisted the prosecution of the war."

"Canada is the nearest part of the British Empire and one ship engaged in the Canadian trade was a useful asset engaged on the longer route to Argentina and three or four on the Australasian and Indian routes. The measures adopted in Canada to increase production and conserve food, combined with the fact that the British Government was able to keep the sea routes clear, made it possible for Great Britain and her allies to overcome what was their greatest enemy, insufficiency of food."

"In 1918 the situation was very critical and food became as important a problem as that of munitions. For example, in December, 1917, France held supplies of wheat and flour sufficient only to meet the needs of its civilian population for about three days. It has been my privilege to become acquainted with the measures adopted by Canada, particularly during the last two years of the war, and I know the difficulties that had to be encountered and the remarkable efficiency achieved. Production was thoroughly organized, and having regard to its enormous territory, its diverse conditions of climate, the few crowded towns and the sparse settlements, the achievements of Canada in furnishing food supplies at the gravest period of the war, have won for the Dominion an admission of deep obligation and profound appreciation."

In support of his statements, Mr. Roberts showed me some remarkable figures. The exports of Canadian foodstuffs to the Allies rose from about 27,000,000 pounds in 1914-15 to $142,000,000 pounds in 1917-18. Like England, Canada adopted the system of meatless days, orders being issued under which beef, veal and pork were permitted to be served in public eating places at regular times only, but were fully prohibited on Wednesdays and Fridays.

"How was the production of food supplies stimulated?" "The export of foodstuffs was prohibited," said Mr. Roberts, "and facilities were adopted for the importation of special foods by the Food Board and the Dominion Board of Agriculture, working through the Provincial Departments of Agriculture, and everything possible was done to encourage the raising of farm stuffs. The great packing-house firms were also brought under control. Their profits were regulated by a special Order in Council. Moreover, everybody who slaughtered live stock was brought under a licensing system."

We have heard from time to time of Canadian fish diet and the special provision made for the Dominion troops. In answer to a question on this subject, Mr. Roberts said: "This, perhaps, was the most interesting feature of Canadian food control. From July, 1917, propaganda was carried on with a view to stimulating fish consumption, resulting in a large increase in fish diet and consequent saving for export of meat. New fisheries were established and vessel trawlers were engaged. The Atlantic steam trawling fleet was increased from three to five vessels. Fish was popularized and became a staple food. Over 1,700 wholesale fish dealers and 2,600 retailers were brought under license. October 31, 1918 was inaugurated as a national fish day. Montreal and Toronto consumed 377,400 lbs. of fish and it was estimated that roughly 2 1/2 million lbs. were used on that day alone in the Dominion. This policy, while saving large quantities of meat for shipment overseas, has resulted in the development of one of Canada's greatest natural resources."

Another instance of the readiness and effectiveness of Canadian assistance, Mr. Roberts added, was in respect to butter. When the stock of butter in Great Britain fell abnormally and it was impossible to maintain the small weekly ration of one ounce a head, the Food Ministry was able to secure the whole butter output of Canadian creameries for six weeks, which meant the addition of 6 1/2 million lbs. to our available supplies.

Asked what measures were taken in Canada to check profiteering, Mr. Roberts said: "Canada being essentially an exporting country prices are generally controlled by the export market. In the earlier part of the war each allied nation brought separately and thereby were competitors for food in the Canadian and other markets. This policy resulted inevitably in a tremendous rise in prices. Ultimately therefore, the machinery for joint purchases was established, with the wholehearted co-operation of the Canadian Government."

"The Canadian Food Board, by means of Orders in Council based upon the investigations of a Fair Price Commission, was able to stabilize prices and regulate profits, and unquestionably to effect substantial economies. Thus, with the assistance of the Canadian Government, three modes of control were exercised: (1) Allied Government representatives made direct purchases and made arrangements for the allotments and shipments for allied countries. (2) All dealers were licensed and their transactions regulated by orders issued by the Food Board. (3) Imports and exports were regulated so as to allow of the largest possible purchases by the Allied Governments."

"Although this shows that the Canadian Government did not hesitate to apply compulsory powers where necessary, it is interesting to observe that a great part of the splendid results ensued from propaganda appeals to patriotism of the people. Producers were thereby stimulated to greater effort and consumers were induced to adopt voluntary rationing and so increase the surpluses available for export."

Mr. Roberts had an interesting story to tell of the soldiers of the Soil, and organization for securing youthful labor for farms. It was carried out under the direction of the Food Board who cooperated with the Provincial Departments of Agriculture. In the nine provinces no fewer than 22,386 boys between the ages of 16 and 19 were enrolled, of whom 20,421 were actually placed on farms. In addition, 14,800 boys were enrolled in the Province of Quebec by the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

"In connection with labor," said Mr. Roberts, "every conceivable method for securing it was canvassed. An Order in Council was passed making it compulsory for every able-bodied person between 16 and 60 to be usefully employed. This was known as the Anti-Laziness Law and of course was instrumental in directing much labor to farms and so assisting food production."

"Altogether," said Mr. Roberts in conclusion, "the record of the Food Board, though its machinery was necessarily hastily improvised, shows wonderful results which contributed substantially to lay the spectre of privation in Great Britain, and so assisted in preserving the morale of our people and their determination to persist in a victorious prosecution of the war until the enemy was compelled to acknowledge defeat."

"My Right Hon. Friend, Mr. J. R. Clynes, who preceded me as Food Controller, conveyed to Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian Prime Minister, our acknowledgments of the splendid assistance rendered and our appreciation of the spirit in which it was given. I would only add that since I have been Food Controller, I have made myself acquainted with the efforts of Canada and I affirm that if they were known to all our people they would develop a profound understanding of the meaning of Empire, and if properly recorded would show to future generations that Canadians were as quick as the home people to perceive the tremendous dramatic and moral issues involved in the war, and to realize that no sacrifice was too great to uphold the purposes for which it was undertaken."

DEATH OF CURATES AFTER WAR PROBLEM IN BRITISH CHURCH

Salaries Paid by Many Parishes Declared to be Inadequate to Attract Candidates into Ministry.

England is experiencing a great dearth of curates. In one diocese there are said to be 400 parishes without curates. Explaining the cause, a well known vicar said to "The Manchester Guardian": "The greatest cause of the present shortage of curates is that nobody has been prepared for ordination, owing to the war, for the last few years, and a number of the chaplains have not yet returned from the army. But apart from that there has been a shortage of curates dating back several years before the war, partly for the reason that curates do not get a living wage, and this is especially hard upon the curates who get married. If the Church wants to be hon-

THE MINISTER OF LABOR appears to be fully alive to the injustice that is being done to the people of Canada by profiteers. In a recent speech in Parliament, he said:—

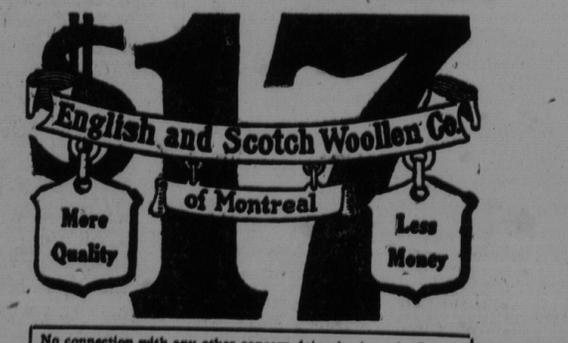

"With reference to the cost of living . . . I point out that the unrest that exists in Canada today is not only real, but is inevitable by reason of the abnormal conditions which prevail, and by reason of the fact that the purchasing power of the average workman's earnings is today much less than it was four years ago. . . . the searchlight of truth must be turned upon these matters, otherwise we shall continue to drift in the direction in which we have been going and conditions will grow worse instead of better."

"Ready-Made" Clothes are being charged to the consumer 100% to 150% increase above the manufacturers' price, according to statements made by the Minister of Labor, himself. And, as he asserts, matters are steadily growing worse. Senator Turriff in the Senate on Monday also drew attention to the abnormal profit being made by certain concerns. He said:—"As long as such profiteering is permitted there will be unrest."

est it should offer a salary not merely sufficient to keep a young man and attract him into the ministry, but sufficient to maintain him throughout his career, increasing as time goes on and as his responsibilities increase. It is not that we want to put it on a mercenary basis, but it is not right to offer men less than would provide a suitable maintenance. Again, a parent won't encourage his sons to take up a profession—in fact, he will discourage them from taking up a profession in which they have no prospect. "About twenty years ago the salary of a curate varied from $600 to $900. Immediately before the war it probably varied from $750 to $1,000. As to vicars who are getting under $1,500 a year, and they are contemplating extending it. What the curate gets largely depends on what can be raised locally. I don't say that a young man on his ordination need have a great salary, but nobody who has been five years in orders ought to get less than $1,000, which is little enough so long as prices remain as they are, and it should be at least $1,250 for what may be called a man of experience.
