Mr. CHABOT.

BILL.

An Act to regulate the Trade of Stevedore at the Port of Quebec.

WHEREAS the magnitude and increasing importance of the Canada Timber Trade render it expedient that Legislative provision should be made in order to ensure the better qualification of persons exercising the trade of Stevedore or Shipstower at the Port of Quebec, and the more secure and advantageous loading of the cargoes of ships at the said Port, and in order to prevent persons unskilled in the said trade of Stevedore from practising the same, to the great injury and damage of such cargoes, and the endangering of the lives of Her Majesty's subjects: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Preamble.

15 And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the Council of the Quebec Board of Trade, within twenty-one days after the passing of this Act, at a meeting to be called for that purpose, to constitute and appoint in that City, thirteen persons from and out of those exercising the Trade of Stevedore in the said City of Quebec, and most skilled and practically acquainted with the same, to be and to be called 25 "The Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores," whose duty it shall be to examine and test the skill and qualification of all applicants to be admitted and licensed as Stevedores under the provisions of this Act: And all vacancies thereafter occurring in the said Board by death, resignation, permanent absence from the said City or otherwise, shall from time to time be filled from and out of 35 such licensed Stevedores, by votes given by ballot at a general meeting to be called to

Board of examiners appointed.

that effect, by public notice to be forthwith given by the Chairman of the said Board, in the public Newspapers in the said City, and the person having a majority of votes at the said meeting shall become a member of the said Board upon his complying with the requirements of this Act in that behalf; and at such meeting it shall be competent to all the members of the said Board for the time being to vote at the said election with the exception of the Chairman thereof, who shall only vote upon an equal division of the persons present.

Public notice
of first meeting of Board.

II. And be it enacted, That within ten days after the announcement by the said Council of the said Board of Trade in the Canada Gazette, of the appointment of the said "Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores," public notice shall be given by the member thereof whose name occurs first on the list, in two of the public Newspapers published in the said City of Quebec, one in the English and the other in the French Language, of the time and place at which the said Board shall thereafter assemble for the purposes of the present Act, which shall be within ten days after the publication of such notice; and upon the day so appointed and thereafter from time to time as circumstances may require, and pursuant to adjournment or public notice to that effect by the Chairman, the said Board shall meet to test the skill, capacity and qualifications of all applicants to be licensed as Stevedores and for all and every the purposes of this Act; and five of the members of the said Board, or any majority of the members thereof for the time being, shall be a quorum for holding any meeting of the said Board; and the decision of any majority of the members present at any such meeting shall be held to be the decision of the said Board, exclusive of the Chairman thereof, who shall only vote in the case of an equal division of the members present; and each member of the said Board before acting as such shall take the oath contained in the Schedule A. hereunto annexed, to be administered by one of the Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench for the District of Quebec, or before any Circuit Judge in and for the said District.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores, at the first meeting thereof by to elect ballot, from and out of the members of the said Board, a fit and proper person to be Superintendent of Stevedores for the Port of Quebec, and Chairman of the said Board, and to discharge the duties hereinafter assigned to him, which selection shall be subject to the approval of the Governor of this Province, and shall be forthwith reported for that purpose; and the person so selected, after signification of such approval, shall with two responsible sureties execute a Bond to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in the penal sum of pounds currency, each, for the faithful discharge of his duties as Superintendent and Chairman of the said Board, which Bond shall enure to the benefit of all parties who may be damnified by the misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance of the said Superintendent and Chairman, and who shall have a remedy therefor upon such Bond, by suit or action against the said Superintendent and Chairman and his sureties, before a Court of competent jurisdiction; and the said Superintendent and Chairman shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before one of the Justices of the said Court of Queen's Bench, or one of the said Circuit Judges, the oath contained in the Schedule B. hereunto annexed.

Superintendent of Stevedores and Chairman appointed.

IV. And be it enacted, That within—calendar month—after the first meeting of the said Board, it shall be lawful for them to recommend to be licensed as Stevedores, all persons applying for the same, upon the said Licenses to Stevedores exercising the Trade before the passing of this Act.

Board being satisfied either from personal examination, or otherwise, that such applicants have publicly practised the trade of Stevedore, during at least two seasons of navigation previous to the passing of this Act, 5 and also of their fitness and capacity to exercise the said trade of Stevedore, and not afterwards, except in the manner hereinafter specified; provided that due notice thereof be given by the said Superintendent of Stevedores and Chairman, simultaneously with the notice of the first meeting of the said Board hereinbefore directed to be given; And provided always that it shall be lawful for the said Board, at any time within two years after 15 the said first meeting thereof, in the event of the illness or the absence from this Province, of any person or persons who may at and before the time of the passing of this Act, have publicly exercised during the seasons 20 of navigation, the trade of Stevedore as aforesaid, at the said Port of Quebec, upon application of such person or persons within the period aforesaid, to recommend him or them to be licensed as such Stevedore or 25 Stevedores as aforesaid, upon the said Board being satisfied, by personal examination or otherwise, of his or their fitness to exercise the said trade, without such person or persons being obliged to serve any further ap- 30 prenticeship thereto.

the Trade at the passing of this Act.

V. And be it enacted, That within one calendar month after public notice by the said Board to that effect, it shall be lawful for all persons then or previously engaged in 35 the trade or occupation of shipstowing, and not practising as Stevedores, and who may be desirous of qualifying themselves thereafter as such, to enter their names as apprentices, with some licensed Stevedore, 40 who shall enquire into the time, (without regard to continuity,) during which such persons may have followed such occupation, and after the expiration of a period equal to one calendar month, during the season of naviga- 45

tion in the River Saint Lawrence, shall certify to the said Board, what further period of apprenticeship, (without interruption unless of the said seasons of navigation,) will be necessary to entitle such person to apply for a license to practise as a Stevedore; and the certificate of such licensed Stevedore shall be conclusive in the premises, subject nevertheless, to be revised and altered by the said Board, upon good cause shewn, and each licensed Stevedore, upon the expiration of the first mentioned period of one month, shall return to the said Board a list of all such apprentices, specifying the required time for each to complete his apprenticeship.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the first meeting of the said Board, all persons desirous of acquiring the trade of Stevedore, and obtaining a license to practise as such, and not entitled to avail themselves of the provisions hereinbefore mentioned, shall be held to enter into and perform an apprenticeship of five consecutive years or seasons of navigation, with some licensed Stevedore, and at the expiration of that period, to undergo an examination by the said Board, previously to their obtaining a certificate of qualification; Provided nevertheless that it shall be in the discretion of the said Board, in the event of the interruption of the continuity of the said apprenticeship of five years or seasons of navigation, upon good cause shewn, and if they think fit so to do, to examine any apprentice so circumstanced, and to order that he shall serve such further apprenticeship as may be by the said Board deemed reasonable in order to complete his apprenticeship, without forfeiture of the period or periods already performed.

of Stevedores to all persons duly qualified to practise the trade of a Stevedore, upon the production of a certificate of fitness and qualification from the said Board of Examiners, provided that each applicant shall execute a Bond with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the said Superintendent, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors in the penal sum of currency, each, to be taken and acknowledged before the said Superintendent, and in his absence or illness before one of the Justices of the said Court of Queen's Bench or one of the Circuit Judges for the said District of Quebec, upon view of such certificate of qualification and of a certificate under the hand of the said Superintendent, or in his absence of the Chairman ad interim of the said Board, of the sufficiency of such suerties, which Bond shall enure to the benefit of all parties damnified by the misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance of such Stevedore, and who shall have a remedy therefor upon such Bond by suit or action against the said Stevedore and suréties before a Court of competent jurisdiction: and every such licensed Stevedore shall, before exercising his said trade, take and subscribe before any one of the said Justices of the said Court of Queen's Bench or Circuit Judges the oath contained in Schedule D, hereunto annexed.

Penalty upon persons exercising the trade of Stevedore without a license.

VIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the expiration of the said period of one month next after the day of the first meeting of the said Board as aforesaid, any person who shall stow or commence the stowing of the cargo of any ship or vessel in the capacity of Stevedore or Shipstower, or who shall have bargained or contracted for the stowing of any such cargo in such capacity, or who shall directly or indirectly practice the trade of Stevedore or Shipstower, without being thereto duly licensed, shall upon being duly convicted thereof incur a penalty not exceeding currency ; and any master, and upon Ship-masters, &c., employing persons not licensed.

owner or consignee or other person having the control of any such ship or vessel, who shall employ any person not being a licensed 5 Stevedore to stow the cargo of the said ship or vessel or any portion thereof, shall, upon being duly convicted thereof, incur a like penalty ; Provided always that nothing in this Act contained shall restrict any Master of a 10 vessel, Shipowner, Agent or other person as to the choice of a Stevedore having a legal capacity to stow or contract for the stowing of any vessel.

IX. And be it enacted, that it shall be List of licensed Steve-dores.
15 the duty of the said Superintendent of Stevedores to cause a list of all licensed Stevedores to be suspended in some conspicuous place in the office of the said Board ;
and it shall be the duty of every licensed 20 Stevedore immediately upon his having contracted for the stowing of any vessel, to report the same together with the name of such vessel, to the said Superintendent, who shall keep a list of all Stevedores so employ-25 ed, to which, as well as to the said list of licensed Stevedores, all persons desiring the same shall have reference : And in the event at any one time of all the licensed Steve-dores at the Port of Quebec in a condition to 30 prosecute their trade being reported as engaged in stowing ships, it shall be competent it that case to any licensed Stevedore already engaged, to undertake the stowing of any vessel for which no disengaged Stevedore can 35 be procured, and to commence the stowing thereof by one of his most skilful apprentices, but which apprentice shall be removed at the instance of and replaced by, the licensed Stevedore who shall first report himself as 40 disengaged at the office of the said Board ; and the work performed by any such apprentice shall be estimated by the said Superintendent, and the value thereof shall accrue to the licensed Stevedore whose apprentice he 45 may be. If all the Stevedores are engaged, an apprentice
may stow.

Dispute in relation to stowing how settled.

X. And be it enacted, That if any dispute or difficulty shall arise between the Master, Agent or other person interested in the stowing of the cargo of any ship or vessel, and the Stevedore hired and engaged to stow the same, in regard to the proper stowing of such cargo or in regard to any other matter or thing connected therewith, it shall be competent to the said Master, Agent, or other person so interested therein, and to the said Stevedore, by application to the said Superintendent, in writing, to demand an enquiry into the said difficulty, or a survey of the work performed, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Superintendent to name and appoint any one of the Members of the Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores as Arbitrator on behalf of such Stevedore, to repair along with a Shipmaster or other competent person to be appointed as Arbitrator on the part of the said Master, Agent or other person, in order to investigate such dispute or difficulty, and to hold such survey; and such Arbitrators shall make such order in the premises for the remedying of the evil complained of, by suspending for a limited time such Stevedore, or otherwise, as to them may seem just and reasonable, and the reasonable expenses consequent upon such Arbitration shall be borne by that one of the said parties against whom the said Arbitrators shall decree the same, or by both in such proportions as the said Arbitrators may award; Provided always, that in the event of any difference of opinion arising between the said Arbitrators in relation to the said enquiry or survey, they shall call in as umpire the said Superintendent to decide the same, and that no such Stevedore shall be suspended unless the determination of the said Arbitrators to that effect be duly reported to the said Board and concurred in by them; And provided also, that it shall at all times be competent to the said Superintendent, upon his being there-to required by any of the parties interested therein, to repair on board of any vessel engaged in shipping her cargo and to inspect the same, and thereupon to report his doings to the said Board if he should deem the same necessary.

Superintendent may inspect the ship.

5 XI. And be it enacted, That in the event of the illness, absence, death or disqualification of the said Superintendent and Chairman, it shall be lawful for the said Board at any meeting thereof, to elect by ballot any 10 member of the said Board, to discharge ad interim all and every the duties of such Superintendent and Chairman during such illness or absence, or until another Superintendent and Chairman shall be appointed by the 15 Board, in manner aforesaid; and further that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Member of the said Board, being thereto duly licensed (the said Superintendent or Superintendent ad interim excepted) from 20 exercising the trade of Stevedore: Provided always, that any Member of the said Board appointed Superintendent ad interim shall be entitled to receive during the period he shall be in office, the same salary or emolu-
 25 ments allowed by this Act to the said Superintendent, upon his complying with each and every of the requirements of this Act in relation to the appointment of the said Superintendent.

Illness, &c. of Superintendent.

30 XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Superintendent to have an office in a central and convenient place for the transaction of the business of the said Board and its Officers, which office shall be kept 35 open by him on every day, Sundays excepted, from the hour of six in the morning until the hour of six in the evening during the season of Navigation, and during ordinary office hours at other seasons of the year, and the 40 reasonable expenses of such office shall be paid out of the moneys at the disposal of the said Board under the provisions of this Act.

neglect to pay
the same.

XIII. And whereas it is expedient and desirable to provide a fund to defray the necessary expenses of the said Board, and also for the relief of sick or disabled Stevedores and their wives and children, who may stand in need of the same; Be it therefore enacted, That every licensed Stevedore shall be held and bound within ten days after the clearance at the Custom House of any vessel in which he may have been employed as a Stevedore, to pay into the hands of the said Superintendent, at the rate of 5 for every pound by him received, or which he may be entitled to receive for stowing the cargo of such ship as aforesaid; and in every 10 case in which any Stevedore shall have contracted to stow any such ship and bear the expenses of labourers, timber-towers or other subordinate persons employed therein, without specifying any particular sum for the 20 personal services of such Stevedore apart from the other expenses incurred therein, the said Stevedore shall be held and bound, within the period aforesaid, to pay into the hands of the said Superintendent, for every ship so 25 stowed by him of and under the burthen of one hundred and fifty tons, the sum of currency, and for every vessel over one hundred and fifty tons and under two hundred tons the sum of 30 currency, and so on in the ratio of currency for every increase of fifty tons; and every such Stevedore failing to pay the said several sums into the hands of the said 35 Superintendent within the period aforesaid, shall be liable to pay double the said rates for every period of ten days during which he shall have failed to comply with this provision; and all the moneys accruing 40 from the said rates and increased rates shall be at the disposal of the said Board for the purposes of this Act, and may be recovered from all persons in default to pay the same, by suit or action in the name of the Super- 45 intendent or Superintendent ad interim, before any Court of competent jurisdiction; and every Stevedore in default to pay the same during one calendar month, shall be liable, in the discretion of the said Board, to be reported to the Governor as such defaulter, and to be suspended as a licensed Stevedore, until the amount due by him, and all the expenses incurred by reason of such default shall have been duly paid.

- 10 XIV. And be it enacted, That the said Superintendent and Chairman shall be entitled to receive from and out of the funds aforesaid, the sum of _____ annually as a remuneration for his services as such 15 Superintendent and Chairman; And the balance remaining undistributed after payment of the necessary and unavoidable contingencies and expenses of the said Board, shall be appropriated for the relief of sick
 20 and disabled Stevedores, and their wives and children, under the provision hereinafter next mentioned : And the said Superintendent shall be held annually on or before the first day of January to transmit in duplicate
 25 to the Governor, and for the use of the Legislature, a detailed statement of all moneys paid and received by the said Board under the provisions of this Act, and a detailed account of the manner in which the same shall 30 have been distributed ; and all the funds received under this Act shall be deposited weekly in one of the Banks in the said City of Quebec, and shall be drawn therefrom by checks or drafts signed by the Superintendent and Chairman of the said Board, for 35 the purposes of this Act.

Salary of Superintendent.

Accounts to be laid before the Legislature.

- XV. And be it enacted, That in order to give effect to the said provisions for the relief of sick persons and disabled Stevedores 40 and their wives and children, it shall be lawful for the said Board to make and enact such By-Laws as to them may seem fit and proper for the regulation thereof, to come into force as soon as they shall have been sanc-

By-Laws.

tioned by one of the Justices of the said Court of Queen's Bench, and which By-Laws may be thereafter altered, amended or abrogated from time to time by the said Board, upon such alteration, amendment or abrogation being in like manner sanctioned by one of the said Justices. 5

Provision in case of insufficiency or surplus of funds.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in the event of the funds accruing to the said Board under the provisions of this Act, being inadequate to defray the expenses thereof, and to afford a reasonable and sufficient sum for the relief of sick and disabled Stevedores, their wives and children as aforesaid, it shall be competent to the said Board, at a meeting to be by them held for that purpose between the first and tenth days of December in each year, to increase the said rates payable by Stevedores to such an amount as the said Board may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and in the event of the balance remaining at the disposal of the said Board, after payment of its reasonable expenses, being by them deemed greater than may be reasonably required for the relief of such sick and disabled Stevedores, their wives and children as aforesaid, it shall be competent to the said Board in manner aforesaid, to diminish the said rates in such proportion as they may deem expedient; Provided always, that the resolution of the said Board, increasing or diminishing the said rates shall be forthwith reported to the Governor of this Province, and that it shall be lawful to the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of this Province, within three months after the making and reporting of such resolution, to disallow and annul such increase or diminution and that it shall at all times be lawful for the said Governor by and with the advice and consent aforesaid, to reduce all the rates payable by the said licensed Stevedores, under the provisions of this Act or any Resolution of the said Board made by authority hereof. 45

Proviso.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every person who shall wilfully infringe any of the provisions of this Act, or shall wilfully neglect to perform the duty or duties required of him under the provisions thereof, (except where otherwise provided for) shall incur a penalty not exceeding                      pounds.

Penalty for infractions of this Act.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That all the penalties imposed by this Act may be prosecuted and recovered, with costs, before two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the District wherein the offence shall have been committed, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, other than the informer, or on the confession of the party accused, subject to the provisions contained in the Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Lower Canada, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and intituled, "An Act to regulate the manner in which Justices of the Peace are annually to account for Fines and Penalties by them imposed and levied pursuant to law, and for other purposes," and may be levied by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender; and in the event of a want of sufficient effects, the said defendant or defendants so convicted, may be committed to the common gaol of the said District for a period not exceeding three months, unless such penalty and costs be sooner paid; and every defendant in whose favour judgment shall be rendered upon such prosecution, shall, in the discretion of the said Justices, have his costs against the prosecutor and the like remedy and remedies for the recovery thereof; and one moiety of such penalties shall be forthwith paid over to the said Superintendent and Chairman and shall form part of the fund for the relief of sick and disabled Stevedores, their wives and children, and the other moiety shall belong to the informer or party suing for the same.

How penalties under this Act may be recovered.

Forfeitures
when to be sued for.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all the forfeitures by this Act imposed shall be sued for within twelve months after the fact committed or the cause of action arisen, and not afterwards, either in Term time before any 5 of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of original jurisdiction, or before any other Court having jurisdiction to the amount of such forfeiture within the District wherein the fact shall have been committed, or the cause of 10 action shall have arisen, or the same shall have accrued, or in vacation before any Justice of such Court, in a summary manner, and shall also be recoverable with costs in the same manner as debts of the same value or 15 amount are recoverable in this Province by bill, suit, plaint or information.

Time within which certain actions may be brought.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any action or suit shall be commenced against any person or persons for any thing done or 20 omitted to be done in pursuance of this Act, such suit or action shall be commenced within twelve calendar months next after the offence committed and not afterwards; and the defendant or defendants in such suit or 25 action may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence, at any trial to be held thereupon, and that the same was done or omitted to be done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act, and 30 if it shall appear so to have been done or omitted to be done, then judgment shall be given or a verdict found for the said defendant or defendants, and if the plaintiff shall be non-suited, or shall discontinue his action 35 after the defendant or defendants shall have appeared, or if judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant may and shall recover costs and have a like remedy for the same as defendants in other cases 40 have by law.

Governor in Council authorized to do certain acts.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if the said Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores to be constituted under this Act, shall at any time refuse or neglect to comply with any of the requirements of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, upon complaint to that effect by any person or persons interested therein, to make any appointment or to do any other act, matter or thing which the said Quebec Board of Examiners for Stevedores ought to have made or done.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the term <sup>Interpretation clause.</sup> "Governor," wherever the same occurs in this Act, shall be held to comprehend the person administering the Government of this Province for the time being; and the terms "ship and vessel" shall embrace every ship or vessel of whatever kind or class, of and exceeding the burthen of one hundred and fifty tons, trading to or from this Province or to or from any parts beyond the limits thereof.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and have force upon from and after the <sup>Commencement of Act.</sup> day of 25 in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty
