FOE LEADERS DESPAIR OF TAKING YPRES NOW

Warn the People That Post is Not of Primary Importance, and That its Capture Will Not be Pressed; Situation Favorable to Allies

LONDON, May 3.—(via Reuter's).—It is noteworthy that with the lull in the fighting since the German defeat at Ypres, all German talk of the "Kaiser's Battle" has vanished.

Sir William Robertson's warning that the war is likely to last for a long time yet is commented upon in London as timely.

The Times refers to a dispatch from Washington stating that diplomats anticipate a peace move, but that no offer of mediation, even from the Pope, will be considered.

On the northern front there was active artillery fighting, especially near Givenchy, the forest of De Nieppe and Loos, and south of Ypres.

The artillery has been active on both sides during the night between Givenchy and the Forest of De Nieppe, in the neighborhood of Loos and south of Ypres.

DUBLIN, May 3.—Relations established recently between the Nationalists and Sinn Feiners by the conscription question, have been subject to severe strain during the past few days, through the determination of the Sinn Feiners to nominate Arthur Griffiths, vice-president of the Sinn Fein organization to the vacant parliamentary seat in East Canada against Mr. O'Hanlon, Nationalist.

Intense feeling has been aroused, and it threatens awkward consequences. John Dillon, Nationalist leader, has joined the local bishops in an appeal for a compromise, and said that the Irish party could not agree to abandon the seat to the Sinn Feiners.

Grave Uneasiness in Germany Over News From East; Oppression Practised on Conquered Territories Broods Spirit of Unrest Among Russ People

Germany and Austria-Hungary apparently are meeting with difficulties in expressing the peoples of the occupied Russian territories and as a result there is grave uneasiness in Germany.

FOCH SUPREME IN AUTHORITY ON WEST FRONT

French General is Commander-in-Chief of all Allied Armies

IS FULL OF OPTIMISM

Resumption of Enemy Drive on Channel Ports is Imminent

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, May 3.—The military authority of General Foch as the result of the Italian adhesion, has been extended to all the western fronts and the general now becomes commander-in-chief of all the Allied armies in the west, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

Situation in Review. Flanders and Picardy and the Arras salient, between, continue quiet and the Germans have given no sign of where the next blow will be or when it will come.

General Foch is very optimistic; that's all I can tell you," was the premier's reply.

The German offensive is not yet over, but the view of military authorities is that the enemy is expected to make further attempts to reach the channel.

The Supreme War Council has completed a two days' session with a meeting at Abbeville, northwest of Amiens.

In Flanders there is no activity except by the artillery, while on the British portion of the Western Front a German raid near Hebuterne north of Albert, has been repulsed.

Elsewhere on the western front, in northern Italy and in Macedonia, there has been little activity.

Assurance that action will be taken during the present session of parliament, has been received by Mayor MacBride from W. F. Cockshutt, in reply to the letter which His Worship wrote early this week to the local member, urging support of the project.

Mr. Cockshutt states that when the supplementary estimates are brought before the House, he and other members from this district of Ontario will undertake to see that provision is made for improvements to the harbor slip. It is not anticipated that anything like the $400,000 required can be appropriated, but Mr. Cockshutt expects that $25,000 or $70,000, the sum necessary to improve the slip alone, will be obtainable.

He explains that the first estimates were printed before the matter was taken up, but that it will receive hearty support from the members interested, at an early date. He promises to do all in his power to further the project, and Mayor MacBride this morning expressed his appreciation of Mr. Cockshutt's cooperation.

All the next day I thought of little else but how I had failed in impressing Bob with my ideas; and of WHY I had failed; and what I should do next.

THE SITUATION.

The barefaced manner in which the Huns are continuing to seize what they will in Russia despite the peace treaty, becomes still further exemplified by the announcement from Berlin that Sebastopol has been taken. The name will recall the great struggle in the Crimea in 1854 when the lives of 127,000 men were sacrificed before the fortress was secured.

On the Somme front all the indications are for a fierce renewal of the conflict which has been in abeyance for the last few days. The enemy artillery has developed great activity and this in the usual course of events would seem to foretell infantry work on a large scale.

UNCLE SAM ON THE JOB.
The Kaiser and his advisers made light of American entry into the war. In the first place Bernstorff and his myriads of agents worked their machinations in the States without let or hindrance, and it was believed at Berlin that the large Teuton element in the population would be a guarantee against any action by the authorities.

Even during dinner, which is served punctually at 8.30 o'clock, other papers of state importance reach Buckingham palace, and these require to be gone before the King may retire.

When His Majesty is away from London—and always it is his effort to be in London throughout an air raid—messengers follow him daily with despatches to be read, and papers to be signed. Even during these hours he is intended to be his periods of recreation at Windsor or Sandringham, where he enjoys what little relaxation he is able to secure, the same routine frequently breaks into his day.

King George has never sought to become the instructor of generals in war tactics, of statesmen in politics, of scholars in learning, or of merchants and manufacturers in industry. For this reason it is possible that the work which His Majesty has accomplished during the war may seem small.

MAY DAY QUIET IN ITALY.
Rome, Wednesday, May 2.—May Day passed in tranquillity throughout Italy. Many workmen, especially those employed by the smaller companies remained at their work.

MARCH AGAINST REBELS.
Amoy, China, May 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Heavy reinforcements of government troops are moving toward the Fukien-Kwang Tung border, concentrating chiefly at Tung Shan and Chaoan. An offensive operation against the southern rebels is imminent.

FIGHT WITH ALLIES.
Paris, May 2.—Eighteen thousand soldiers of Roumanian origin, who were captured by the Italians while fighting under the Austrian flag have asked permission to go to the front against Austria.

JAILED FOR IDLENESS.
Ottawa, May 2.—Edmund Langevin, aged 45, a resident of the city, was prosecuted in the police court for idleness, under the order-in-council of April 8th, and in default of payment of a fine of $100, sent down to serve six months in jail.

AUSTRALIANS IN U.S.
New York, May 2.—Thrilled by the marching of returned veterans from the American forces in France and blue devils (chasseurs Alpins) of the French army, New Yorkers were treated to a new spectacle today when 400 Australian soldiers en route to European battlefields paraded in behalf of the liberty loan.

RELIEVE SATURDAY RUSH.
Local merchants are of the opinion that the plan formulated by the buildings and grounds committee of the city council, to have the market open every day in the week, will tend to reduce the bulk of Saturday business, by spreading it more equally over the other five days of the week.

COLLISION.
A cyclist and an automobile figured in a collision at the corner of Dalhousie and Queen streets at noon today. The former was thrown off his wheel, but recovered and rode off without injury, almost before the motorist could bring his car to a stop to ascertain the damage done.

DARING ROBBERY IN TORONTO BANK

Desperadoes Entered Office at Noon, And Secured $1,200.00

KING GEORGE AND THE WAR

It is no small "bit" that King George V. is doing in the war. At regular intervals during the past three and a half years he has paid visits to the fighting fronts and has always insisted on getting close to the firing lines so that he might learn the actual conditions at first-hand.

W.M.S. MET.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Wellington Street Methodist Church was held at the parsonage. The amount raised during the year, $231.00 including $25.00 for the support of a child in Chinese school.

The death occurred last night in the General Hospital of John Muradian, 12 Main street. The deceased, whose home has been in Brantford for the last nineteen years, was one of the best-known Armenians in the city, and was highly respected by all who knew him.

POLICE COURT.

Arthur Flaherty, charged in the police court this morning with the theft of a cycle, was remanded till Monday. Flaherty, Alfred Poole and Lewis White, were charged with trespassing on the G.T.R. property. White was allowed to go, he being an employee of the company, and the others were fined $5 and costs.

NEW FIREMAN.

Michael Dowling, a former member of the police force, was added to the strength of the fire department this morning, making the third new man secured since Easter.

OPEN MARKET ALL THE WEEK

Every Day Will be Market Day During the Summer Months

CHANGES ADOPTED

Every day market day" will be the city's slogan during the months of June, July, August, September, October and November, in accordance with the decision reached by the Buildings and Grounds Committee last night. The market will be open six o'clock in the morning all days of the week. Vendors now occupying stands will be allowed to reserve their places on payment of a fee of twenty-five cents to the market clerk, and in consideration of this, their positions will be reserved for them until eight o'clock. If they are not claimed by this time, they may be awarded by the market clerk to others for the day. Merchants will now be allowed to buy on the market at any time after six o'clock in the morning.

The changes above enumerated were decided upon as a means of helping the farmer in production work. Heretofore, it was necessary to come to the city on Friday afternoon or evening to reserve a space on the market, and under the new system this time will be saved. The policy of an open market six days a week will make marketing easier for the average housewife, and will lessen the effects of bad weather on market days.

The revenue derived from the additional fees to be charged will be devoted solely to improving the market and providing better overhead accommodation for vendors, whose investment will thus be made a paying one for them in every sense of the word. "The market depends on the farmers," observed one member of the committee, "and it is up to them to help in improving conditions." The committee at the same time determined to place the market on the most substantial footing possible.

The I.H.S. Class of Alexandra S. School, which is composed of eighteen young ladies, with Mrs. S. Oke, a vocal duet by the Misses Mallett and Heath, accompanied by Mrs. George Cromar, reading by Miss Lillian Hines, instrumental selections by the Misses Ena Bailey, Norma Shefferson, Amy Lyle, and Master E. Broom, vocal solos by the Misses Helen Ross and Alberta Williams. Coffee and cakes were served by the young ladies. A pleasing feature of the evening was the informal gift of a bouquet of roses from the class to their teacher. The affair proved most successful. The proceeds amounted to thirty-five dollars and will be devoted to the Basement Fund.

JAPAN MAY GET OIL FROM MEXICO

Possibility of Supply There Considered by Committee of Diet

Tokio, March 26.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The possibility of the Japanese Government securing oil from Mexico came up before the committee on the Industrial Mobilization of the Japanese Diet just before adjournment of that body.

Admiral Kato, the Minister of Marine, said that the government was making investigations with regard to the oil fields in Mexico, but that for diplomatic reasons he could not go into details. The government was also considering the advisability of prospecting for oil in Formosa.

Dr. Takahashi, of the House of Peers, suggested that Japan should make endeavors to dig wells in Mexico without bothering about the views of the United States and Viscount Kiyoshige inquired added that so long as the United States does not scruple about extending her influence in Siberia, Japan had no reason for refraining from activity in Mexico.

Admiral Kato again said he could not discuss the matter. The oil question arises from the fact that the Japanese navy has insufficient quantities of heavy oil for use in war-time and that it will be necessary to construct storage tanks as well as to purchase supplies abroad.

"Ride a Bicycle" and "Time to Buy a bicycle" are the slogans which are being used by members of the bicycle trade throughout Canada this spring in a movement to encourage cycling for health, pleasure, utility and economy.

Organizations of bicycle boosters have been formed in a number of the leading cities of the country to demonstrate the various advantages of wheeling. The bicycle will be brought to the attention of the general public in every possible manner, including the staging of the second annual Bicycle Week, March 31 to April 7, as the official opening of the 1917 season.

It is confidently believed that 100,000 new bicycles will be sold in the Dominion this year, while in the United States, with its greater home market, the bicycle authorities anticipate the sale of one million bicycles.

The bicycle is earning more and more staunch supporters every day, but the wheel has not come back as a means for a fad or craze, it is pointed out. One reason for this is that there is no tendency to adopt the bicycle for furious or reckless riding while the day of freak performances is over. The old club days will probably never be revived, but the bicycle is now being looked upon as a simple and practical vehicle with which one may obtain exercise and business benefit with very low cost.

One big indication that the bicycle is coming back to stay is that the society leaders of the United States have been using the bicycle a great deal in the Florida summer resorts during the past three winters. If the bicycle had been classed as a whim of fashion or as a fad, it would have been discarded the second season. The women and men of the exclusive set at Palm Beach and other winter resorts have been making good use of the bicycle, although many of them have several automobiles at their disposal constantly.

"If more people rode bicycles, it would be better for the country. I am glad to see the bicycle coming back," declared Dr. W. M. Robertson of Toronto, recently. Dr. Robertson explained that he had ridden a bicycle for a great many years. All last winter there were only four days when he did not use his wheel. He has made it a practice of riding a bicycle at least five miles every day, except when weather conditions are severe.

"The cyclist enjoys a poetry of motion that none other can appreciate or obtain," continued Dr. Robertson. The street car, according to Dr. Robertson, is filled with foul and disease-laden atmosphere, while those who ride in automobiles get a certain amount of exhilaration, but little or no real exercise.

Dr. Robertson has ridden a bicycle for a great many years. In the so-called olden days of cycling, he rode many centuries and he has many medals for his performances. Before moving to Toronto, Dr. Robertson was a resident of Stratford, and there is not one part of Western Ontario through which he has not cycled.

Dr. P. E. Doolittle is another medical practitioner of Toronto who is a strong advocate of bicycling as a means for health and pleasure. Dr. Doolittle has toured tens of thousands of miles on his wheel, and he is now known as a man of boundless energy and activity. Dr. Doolittle was one of the first movers in Ontario for good roads, and it was as a cyclist many years ago, that he came out with a plan of campaign to secure improved highways. Later he continued this work as head of the Toronto Automobile Club, and when he helped to organize the Ontario Motor League, his road activities increased.

Dr. Doolittle, by the way, was the inventor of the back-pedaling internal-expanding rear hub brake which was as revolutionary in affect upon the bicycle as the invention of the pneumatic tire by J. B. Dunlop.

ESTIMATES FOR COUNTY ROADS

$35,175.00 Will be Expended During 1918—County Council Met

TOLL ROAD QUESTION

Yesterday afternoon a special meeting of the Brant County Council was held to discuss the estimates for the expenditure on the County highways for this year.

Road Superintendent McVicar's estimate of expenditure to be made on the County roads' system was: Road Construction $11,040.00; Bridge Construction 5,000.00; Machinery 3,700.00; Superintendence 2,300.00; Maintenance and repair 13,135.00; Making a total estimated expenditure of $35,175.00.

Superintendent McVicar's estimate shows: $90.00 maintenance $12,135.00 culverts $600, bridges $5,000.00; construction $4,850.00; salary and office expenditure $2,360.00; crusher, $2500; engine, $700; repairs, $500; suburban roads $15,500.

By-law No 360 authorizing the expenditure of $35,175.00 on the county highways was passed unanimously.

Deputy Reeve E. W. Greenwood, reported on the toll roads question, giving the situation up to date. He believed the city council had changed their attitude in this regard, and they are to again consider the matter next Monday.

Representatives were present from the Brantford-Paris toll-road. They believed that they should have a decided answer as at present the future of the road hangs in the balance. Repairs were necessary and if the company were to put these on now and make the sale later at the price now asked, money would be lost.

The special committee assured the representatives that immediate action in the matter would be taken. A special meeting of the council will be held next week to make a final decision in the matter.

SEBASTOPOL IS TAKEN BY HUNS, BERLIN REPORTS

Famous Russian Black Sea Fortress Falls Without a Fight

GIVES GERMANS BASE Siege of This Place During the Crimean War Cost 127,000 Men

Berlin, May 2.—German forces have occupied Sebastopol, the great Russian fortress in the Crimea.

The occupation of Sebastopol, announced officially in Berlin, gives to the Germans possession of the base of the Russian Black Sea fleet and fortress, which is rich in historical associations.

The fortifications of the city, consisting of a chain of great redoubts, was constructed by Nicholas I.

The siege of Sebastopol, in the Crimean war, takes its place in the memorable military annals of modern times.

During the summer of 1854 the English and French undertook an expedition to reduce the fortress, and were joined by the Sardinians and the Turks.

The present city arose from the ashes of the town ruined during the siege. It has a few notable buildings, including two fine cathedrals.

PRODUCTION PARADES M. A. Barnstead, organizing secretary of the National Committee on Food Resources of Nova Scotia has sent the following, which was composed by Mr. George E. Graham.

Forward to the land with a right willing hand, So we'll help defeat the Hun.

Now we've got him on the run. Over there, over there, over there, Send the food, send the food, over there.

For our brave boys need it, our brave boys need it, The calls are coming everywhere.

So observe and preserve, Save the food, save the food, and conserve.

So we'll help win the cause of freedom, And we'll plant, save and send, till it's over, over there.

TOLD OF RED TRIANGLE OVERSEAS

Capt. Calisle Bore a Message From the Men Overseas

Capt. Carlisle, a former chaplain with the English forces in France, gave an admirable and instructive talk last night at Victoria Hall on "The Red Triangle." Although in no way connected with the Y.M.C.A. the captain was well posted on its work in England and in France.

Particularly of Folkestone and East Sandling Camp where the Canadian soldiers are did the captain speak. His sketches of the work in the capabilities, who told eloquently coupled with a pleasing personality held the audience throughout the evening.

Mr. W. S. Brewster as chairman opened the evening after "God Save Our Queen" had been sung, was a brief statement of the wants of the Red Triangle. The money raised will be devoted to the Y.M.C.A. "over there" and to work among prisoners in Germany.

Introducing Capt. Carlisle, the chairman paid a tribute to his capabilities, who though not a Y.M.C.A. worker had seen a great deal of the organization work at the front.

"In France two symbols are dear to the hearts of our boys—the Red Cross and the Red Triangle," declared Capt. Carlisle.

It had been the pleasure of Capt. Carlisle to meet many Brantford boys in England and France. "Over there" and to work among prisoners in Germany.

An essential loneliness weighs down the spirit of the boys. There are three great temptations for these fellows who are "fed up" with the monotonous life.

The Y. M. C. A. is not a substitute for the church nor is it a rival of the church. It acts for the church. The spirit of the wounded men is wonderful—it is the spirit of the chivalrous ancestors.

They are not "white hope" angels. They are not "blackguards!" They are not "white hope" angels. They are not "blackguards!"

They are only asked for our money to keep our soldiers fit. Our boys have been asked for their lives—many have made the supreme sacrifice.

The hearty applause given Captain Carlisle well showed that the audience had fully appreciated the instructive talk.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS Eat Less Meat if Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache, dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatism, leg-aches, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

New York Team Finds Easiest Opposition Where Strongest was Expected

Philadelphia, May 2.—Falling to make a run for the third successive game, Philadelphia allowed New York to make a clean-up of the series to-day, 6 to 0. The Giants knocked Mains out of the box in the fifth inning. Hogg, who succeeded Mains, held the Giants to three hits. New York released Pitcher George Smith to Cincinnati. The score: R. H. E. Old-Time Swiftest. Chicago, May 2.—The Cubs overcame a five-run lead to-day and in a batting see defeated Cincinnati in the first game of the series here, 12 to 8. The visitors hit Walker hard in the second inning and he was replaced by Carter, who, although hit hard, managed to hold down the score. Paskert's home run, which sent Mann in ahead of him, clinched the game in the fourth inning. The score: R. H. E. Cincinnati . . . 005011010—8 11 2 Chicago . . . 00523101x—12 16 2 Regan, Conley and Wingo; Walker, Carter and Killifer.

Mamaux, who has been placed in class 1A by his local draft board, has not yet been called for service. Mamaux came to Brooklyn from Pittsburgh through the deal which sent Stengel and Cutshaw to the Pirates, and was said to have a contract with the Brooklyn club which called for $5,000 a year.

KALLO SUBDUES WHITE SOX AND TIGERS BUMP FABER

Joe Wood Makes Good in Outfield and at Bat for Cleveland

Detroit, May 2.—After Chicago had piled up a four-run lead and driven Pitcher James from the box with none out in the first inning, Detroit, with a recruit pitcher in the box, bunched hits off Faber and Danforth and won the opening game of the series, 9 to 6. Kallo, although wild, was effective in the pitches and received good support, particularly from Vitt at third base. Fifteen bases on balls figured in the game. The score: R. H. E. Chicago . . . 401000001—6 10 3 Detroit . . . 03102120x—9 11 1 Faber, Danforth, Wolfgang and Schalk; James, Kallo and Spencer. Bagby Wins Own Game. St. Louis, May 2.—St. Louis out-hit Cleveland to-day, but the latter team had better success in bunching hits and won, 3 to 2. Joe Wood, playing in the outfield for Cleveland, took a leading part for the visitors. In the seventh inning, with the score tied, he doubled, was sacrificed to third and scored on a single by Bagby. Tris Speaker, who suffered an attack of ptomaine poisoning last night, recovered in time to get into the game in the seventh inning. The score: R. H. E. Leonard Wins Easily. Boston, May 2.—Boston took the odd game of the series from Washington, 8 to 1, to-day. Shaw and Dumont were hit hard and the visitors made five errors. Hooper made three doubles and Melins singled three times in as many times at bat, also keeping his season's fielding record clean. The score: R. H. E. Washington . . . 001000000—1 5 3 Boston . . . 302000000—8 11 0 Shaw, Dumont, Craft and Almsmith; Leonard and Agnew.

Plenty of Pitchers. New York, May 2.—Philadelphia defeated New York in an uphill game here to-day, the score being 7 to 5. Philadelphia, Chicago, Scott; Washington, Yindling. Jim Scott a Captain Of the twirlers in Uncle Sam's service, Jim Scott, of the White Sox, has risen highest, as he emerged from a training camp last summer with the rank of captain. Eppa Rixey, of the Phillies, and Leon Cadore are the only other pitchers to win commissions; Rixey is a lieutenant in the gas and flame brigade, and Cadore is a second lieutenant in the infantry. Eppa always had a hankering for chemistry, and his knowledge of that science enabled him to win shoulder straps. It was necessary to replace many of these men with minor leaguers, while regular pitchers probably will be worked harder this season than ever before. The Brooklyn staff seems to be the only one dented badly. Uncle Sam took all of Connie Mack's pitchers, but he seems to have bobbed up with the best staff he has had since he broke up his old championship team. The Boston National staff looks about the weakest in the game, but Stallings wrecked this himself. He traded his two pitchers, Tyler and Barnes, while Dick Rudolph is on a holdout, leaving him only a few second-stringers, like Hughes, Hearne, Ragan, Crum and Canavan. Many Batting Feats Many batting feats of big batting feats. While several pitchers have come close to pitching no-hit games, Schneider, Mays and Taugin pitched one-hit affairs, on the whole batting has been heavy. Both the Yankees and Giants are battering all opponents and individual batting averages are mounting up high. The two old sluggers, Doyle and Baker, are batting as though they intended to break all past batting records. Batting averages have steadily dropped in the major leagues during the last five years, but this season there should be a strong upward trend. The big leagues have scoured the minors for talent, and numerous twirlers of the type of Hearne, Hogg, Main and Griner have been resurrected. Naturally such pitchers will prove much more hittable than men like Alexander, Pfeffer and Toney. These three men have been about the most effective pitchers in the National league during the last three years. All of them were hard workers, faced all opposing teams from six to eight times a season. It is easy to figure that teams no longer forced to bat against such pitchers should show a vast improvement in team batting. Interesting Comparisons The work of several players who switched from one league to the other last winter is affording some interesting comparisons. The play of Leo Magee and Earl Hamilton, who finished last season with the ill-fated Browns, is especially interesting. Hamilton failed to win a game in the American league during the entire 1917 season, and he already has turned in three victories for the Pittsburgh club. Earl was a free agent when Pittsburgh picked him up. A club needing pitchers as badly as the Yankees waived on him without a question. Hamilton at one time was one of the best left-handers in the American league, but was a careless youth and never amounted to much after he drove an automobile over a high embankment while on a joy ride. This spring he seems to be back in his old form and appears to be a great asset for Dreyfuss. Then the case of Leo Magee is even more interesting. Lee seemed absolutely done last season. American league players who knew Magee said he was through, without a question. Continued on page 11.

Sporting Comment

(By Shortstop.) Uncle Sam seems to have solved the betting problem of the major leagues. Your uncle down in Washington concluded the big leagues were top heavy with pitching talent, so he executed a neat little raid on the twirling corps of the circuits of Messrs. Tener and Johnson, and swore the captured pitchers into his own service. By taking thirty-six men from the various big league staffs Uncle Sam has made the hitting much easier for the survivors. Of the thirty-six, 21 are from the American league and 15 from the National.

REFORMED ROGUES WHOMADE GALLANT FRENCH SOLDIERS

Apaches of Paris Redeem Their Part on Field of Battle ARE PATRIOTS ALL Former Enemies of Society Fight Side by Side With Upright Men

That the Frenchman who has long been numbered among the enemies of society can, at his country's call, show as much heroism and as fine a quality of chivalry as his brother who has never sidestepped from the narrow path of rectitude, is the conclusion arrived at by Paul Ayres Rockwell, staff correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, who tells of the exploits of that battalion of men who are wiping out their crimes against the laws of France by heroic fighting for their country.

Rascals, assassins, if you will, but hard fighters, though difficult to handle when not engaged in warfare. Rockwell writes: "Henry de France tells the Excelsior a touching story of the Battalion d'Afrique, that heroic corps of beardless youths who made mistakes in civilian life, but are wiping clean the slate of the past by fighting and dying gallantly for their country. I like this story so well, because it is so true to life, that I translate it here.

"This calm and gentle man, whose young face, smoothly shaved as the visage of a priest, smiles from under snow-white hair; this man, who is a chief, nevertheless, of the fiercest troops, the most terrible to lead that are, spoke of them with pride, a sort of pride of a father.

"Yes; rascals, robbers, assassins, outcasts," he said. "It is a battalion of accursed ones, but a hard-fighting battalion, I assure you. It is difficult to manage them when they are at repose, for when they are not occupied they commit the thousand stupidities. Thus they almost never have a rest. But under fire there are no finer troops in the world, and I love these men, whom I know how to make listen to me."

"The officer, Commandant H—, pointed out the groups. "Look at their faces. Are they bad looking? The uniform, fortunately, sets these heads out a little. But in what state they come back each time from the combat! One would say they have a homesickness to be badly dressed. What's the difference? They have the pride of their poverty. One can depend upon them."

"Listen. This is the latest adventure of the third company. I find it singularly symbolic of the state of mind of these men, and I guarantee the story's authenticity: "This company was in line at forty meters from the German trenches. Often, as you know, the enemy finds it pleasing to put in line troops of the kind that he has before him: dragoons against dragoons, chasseurs against chasseurs, troupes d'elite against troupes d'elite.

"One morning we relieved the Alpines. It was not long before the enemy found out who was facing him, and my men were not delayed in seeing appear above the enemy trenches, so near, placards with insulting inscriptions written in French:

"Beware of pickpockets!" "And other friendly remarks of this kind exasperated my lads. Therefore, we had a devilish trouble in holding them back, and each night they slept out and prowled around the wire entanglement of the Germans, who dodged showing themselves.

"A new placard notified us: "You will soon have some one to talk to."

"Three days later, surely enough, information was given us that we had facing us a battalion of the guard.

"Acclamations greeted this news. For one time the enemy had sought to pair off his troops with ours.

"In face of the vagabonds, the poverty-stricken, the undesirable, was the fine flower of the Teuton nobility. We were going to laugh. "After several days of calm an inscription appeared above the German trench in red letters, very readable, upon a white board. It bore this stinging phrase:

"We have before us the scum of France. It is not with rifles that we will come to seek you; it will be with lashes."

"My men shrugged their shoulders. But they were nervous. I felt that another provocation of that kind was going to be dearly paid for.

"All the night, from one part to another, the trench engines did not cease firing. Vengeance does not wait long, with the "Joyeux."

"At dawn, suddenly a human form emerged from in front and stood erect in the midst of the wires, with a strange temerity.

"My soldiers did not fire. They wished to see what was coming, to see well.

"It was an officer of the guard, very young, with the face of an adolescent.

silent for an instant. He was living again those poignant moments. "From a neighboring trench," he began once more, "I had witnessed the affair, and I ran over in haste, not having any doubt as to the violent fashion in which my men would avenge themselves for the insult. The occasion was too good. An officer of the guard! "But in what frightful manner were they going to finish him? "Then I saw this strange spectacle, unexpected unforgettable, of which I guarantee to you upon my honor, the authenticity. "The German officer was stretched out, very pale, upon a blanket, in a shelter. "And, bent over him, before an entire circle of comrades, silently, the "Joyeux" were bandaging his wounds. "They were bandaging him with a gentleness, as though he were a child."

CHARGE INTERNED ALIEN WITH MURDER

German in U. S. Accused of Killing Wealthy Chicago Widow

By Courier Leased Wire
Concord, N.C., May 2.—Otto Schumann, an interned enemy alien, is charged in a warrant just issued here with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King, a wealthy Chicago widow, for whose killing at Blackwelder Spring, near here, last August, Gaston B. Means was tried by a jury and acquitted. The warrant was issued on an affidavit by M. N. Caldwell, city prosecuting attorney, who alleges that Schumann shot the woman while trying to kill Means to prevent him from furnishing the American Government information as to the methods Germany had employed to get copper and rubber from the United States before this country entered the war. Means had been an agent for the German Government in such transactions and when he severed his connections with Germany he told her agents that he proposed to lay what information he had before his own Government. According to the affidavit, Schumann "at the direction of German interests," followed Means from New York to North Carolina and trailed him in and near Concord. On the night of the killing, Mr. Caldwell said, Schumann followed Mrs. King and Means to the Spring on a motorcycle. He was seen to leave there by two unnamed witnesses after the latter had heard a shot.

QUEBEC SEEING NEW LIGHT NOW

Liberty a Collective Responsibility Rather Than Individual Right

By Courier Leased Wire
Montreal, May 2.—Le Soleil of Quebec, speaking of conscription, says: "We have fought as it was our right and as our sincere conception of duty inspired us, in order to prevent the carrying out of what we considered a bad policy to adopt in this country, yet to-day we are in the presence of the inevitable. All we have to do is to do our duty, and all our duty, so let us do it with credit. An example has just been magnificently given by our Quebec youths and already the gallant patriotism of these young French-Canadians has provoked around us well merited expressions of gratitude. They are the custodians of the future and of our race and if the sacrificed to assure the salvation of yet in their double capacity as Catholics and French-Canadians are they not imbued with the splendor of the sacrifice? The whirlwind which for so long a time we hoped to escape, caught us in its eddies and perhaps we ceded too long to the error that we could escape it. If it be true that liberty is not an individual right, but rather a collective responsibility, we should understand that in this formidable conflict which fills Europe with blood, our individual liberty should be sacrificed to assure the salvation of that collective liberty which is the real object of the strife."

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

By Courier Leased Wire
Chatham, Ont., May 2.—An unidentified man was killed and his body was terribly mutilated last night at 10 o'clock by a westbound express on the C.P.R. tracks, one mile east of Chatham. Blood found on the engine when the train reached the city led to investigation and the finding of the remains. The only mark of identification was "E. D. S." on the shirt band.

LEGISLATE AGAINST I.W.W.

AVIATORS MEET DEATH.

By Courier Leased Wire
Beausville, Ont., May 2.—As the result of an airplane accident at Royal Air Force Camp here, this morning when two machines collided in the air, Cadet J. F. Eussen son of William Eussen, Ellentfield, Ontario, Scotland, and Cadet R. W. R. Litchfield, son of H. L. Litchfield, of 1147 Hilda street, Victoria, B.C., were both killed.

THE CRISIS!

JUST an ordinary cup of coffee! Surely nothing could be more commonplace to you. But—

To wounded, broken and exhausted Canadian men staggering out of a furnace of shells, at Vimy Ridge, with nerves torn to pieces, that little refreshment in the moment of crisis—who can measure its significance? For it may mean life itself!

Canada-Wide Appeal

Here is an officer's picture of the need: "I wish you and the people supplying free hot drinks could see the men coming in after a big action. They would look like grotesque scarecrows if you couldn't see the pathos of it. Their shoulders and heads sag forward and they slouch slowly along with never a glance to left or right. The strangest thing about them is their faces. If the tension is not broken the brain may snap. I certainly believe that in thousands of cases it was that first hot coffee that dragged the man back to life and sanity."

Is there a man, woman or boy in all Canada to whom these heroes would appeal in vain? Will you help the Y.M.C.A. supply the coffee and the thousand and one other needs of body, mind and spirit "over there?"

Can proud Canadians send a more heartening, more practical message to Canadian heroes now amid the perils of the greatest battle in history than this: "that the Canadian people responded to the Call of the Y.M.C.A. with magnificent, abundant whole-hearted Generosity!" Will YOU Help?

VON BERNSTORFF SLICKEST AND MOST POLISHED OF CRIMINALS

Wm. J. Flynn, of U. S. Secret Service, Bares Some Workings of German Spy System in the United States — Some of Minor Attaches Spied as Waiters at Dinners on Unsuspecting U. S. Cabinet Ministers — Lieut. Faye Another Clever One.

William J. Flynn, who has retired from the leadership of the United States Secret Service in California, and talked recently to the Los Angeles Times, about some things which it is now safe to talk about. His name is pregnant with romance of international intrigue, haloes by thrilling adventures with desperate counterfeiter and the matching of wits with the keenest brains of the underworld.

Flynn has resigned from the service; he has had no official connection with the U. S. Government since the first of this year, though he is about to re-establish one, but his services to the United States were never bigger or of more value than to-day. If, as a stranger, you ask what brings him to the Pacific Coast, he will tell you that he was simply paying a visit to his son, Ensign W. W. Flynn, of the United States navy, now stationed at San Francisco. But if you are in his confidence he might tell you of some of the things that he has accomplished since his "retirement," particularly since his departure from New York a few weeks ago.

Foe of German Spies. Probably no one in the entire country is better versed in the workings and ramifications of the German espionage system than he and to him is given the credit for gathering together the convincing evidence which resulted in the virtual expulsion of Dr. Dernburg and Count von Bernstorff.

He it was who ferreted out and disclosed the activities of Lieutenant Robert Faye, convicted German reservist, who, while posing as an Englishman, gained the confidence of the society leaders and financial heads of New York City, and was discovered while about to fasten the most diabolical internal machine which has ever come under the observation of the explosive squad of the New York Police Department to the rudder of a trans-atlantic liner.

The operations of Wolf von Irel, German agent who fought the agents of the Department of Justice when they placed him under arrest in his Wall Street office, claiming that it was inviolate as being a part of the German Embassy, was another of the famous cases in which Mr. Flynn played a leading part.

After the French Government had furnished the United States with proof of Bolo Pasha's activities, while in the United States, Mr. Flynn followed up the threads and linked together the seeming unrelationship of various mysterious occurrences which enabled the U. S. Government to send to France concrete evidence of France's capital traitor and which later caused him to face a firing squad of French soldiers.

Anything like a complete account of the experiences with German agents which has been crammed into the career of Mr. Flynn himself would fill a book. He is himself a chary of information on the subject. He received an offer from a publishing house in New York City of $18,000 to write a story of German intrigue in the United States, but turned it down.

Typical Detective. Mr. Flynn personifies the fictional detective. Heavy of jaw, but not obese; of massive frame, with a large, round nose set on a pair of Frank Goych shoulders, Mr. Flynn looks you in the eye and immediately you begin to take a mental inventory of your past life. Yet when he laughs, his face lights up and you readily see the humor of Irish parentage in his eyes.

Twenty-one years in the United States Secret Service, observing the seamstress side of life as perhaps no one else has ever done, has not caused him to become soured or a disbeliever in the good of the average man. Neither has it caused him to lose his interest in the ordinary everyday pleasures of life.

Of his experience in the tracing of German propaganda in the United States he is willing to give details of anything that had already been divulged by the Government, but that he could not mention anything that was now being done to offset and round up people suspected of pro-German sentiments.

Fake German Bazaars. "To begin with, I want to mention something which few people know about—the many bazaars which were organized for entering the war, in the name of the 'German Red Cross,'" he said.

"We know absolutely that not a single penny of this money, which amounted to several million dollars, was ever sent to Germany to relieve the sufferings of wounded German soldiers. Every cent was turned over to Count von Bernstorff, and instead of remitting it to Germany, he used it to further German propaganda against the Allies in this country. While he was enjoying the hospitality and benefits of the United States he was doing all he could to incriminate us by means which ranged from subtle conversations by his male and female henchmen to blowing up munitions plants by his dynamite."

"Everybody connected with the bazaars is now under surveillance of the Intelligence Bureau of this Government. When I left Washington I had a list of 15,000 names of people which were classified into three divisions in the order of their dangerousness. Every one of these will have to convince this Government that they are not innocently or actively still engaged in the furthering of the German espionage system."

As to Bernstorff. "Bernstorff was the slickest individual we ever had to deal with. His titled name and polished manner, fluent, suave appearance, deceived hundreds of people in Washington, but no one has ever come under my observation who is a worse criminal, absolutely devoid of ordinary humane ideas."

"He had an unlimited drawing account from his government, and the extent and ramifications of the spy system he built up will probably never be known. He had at his beck and call many titled men and women in Washington, who innocently assisted him, and it is a known fact that several minor attaches of his embassy served as waiters at several dinners given by our Cabinet officers. What they learned at these dinners did us untold harm. This occupation of waiting on the public is one of the most fruitful lines which the German spy system has at its disposal."

"Any occupation which brings strangers under the observation of public servants such as waiters and hotel help, is full of the guests of Wilhelmstrasse. There are 16,000 waiters in this country who belong to an organization with headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, and which is a part and parcel of the Kaiser's spy system. Try it out yourself. When you are being waited on in some first-class hotel by a man who you think is a German, start an argument about the war. Mention a few flippant facts about the moving troops or something and see if this man will separate himself from your table. He won't, you can bet your life on that."

Next to von Bernstorff, Mr. Flynn said the most dangerous individual he had to deal with was Lieutenant Robert Faye, who was convicted of attempts to blow up trans-atlantic shipping, but escaped from the Federal prison at Atlanta by a clever ruse.

How Faye Worked. "Faye came to this country on a forged passport from England. He posed as a wounded officer, and was received in the best circles in New York City. Through Bernstorff he was given introductions to people who held Allied munitions contracts and were members of firms who were shipping goods to Europe. There is no doubt but what he secured considerable information without arousing suspicion. He later went to Hoboken and rented a garage, which he used as a ruse to hide his real intentions. Faye was an expert on explosives, and had contrived an idea whereby an infernal machine could be fastened to the rudder of a ship. The turning of the rudder while the ship was at sea would wind up the mechanism until it set off a percussion cap. This machine contained what is commonly called TNE (trinitrotoluol), the most powerful explosive known. It was through his purchase of this explosive that he was found out. He had a friend to whom he confided his scheme. This friend knew a man in New York with a German name who handled this explosive, and Faye was introduced to him. To show that all men with German names are not agents of the Kaiser, this man immediately renounced the purchase to us. We followed up the lead and found Faye in his New Jersey garage, with several of these infernal machines ready to be fixed to some ships then lying in New York Harbor."

Ninety pounds of this stuff set off 100 feet from a battleship would blow it to smithereens. What would it have done to a thin-shelled ocean liner?"

"Faye was convicted and sent to Atlanta prison. He escaped through a clever ruse. He was known to be an expert electrician. He forged the name of a warder to a pass, and, carrying a few tools, he simply walked out. We traced him to Mexico and know that he is now in that country. Mexico is the haven of hundreds of people badly wanted by this Government."

Mr. Flynn showed how the German Government had attempted to use the U. S. Government as a cat's paw before it declared war on the Central Powers. He classified their workings into six groups.

"They first started by circulating seemingly harmless literature setting forth the honesty of the German cause," he said. "Failing in this, they attempted to purchase legislation. In regard to this plan I want to say that the recent exposure of an attempt to bribe Congress with German money is mostly hot air. They would have tried it if they thought they could have got away with it, but it was too big a job."

MODIFY FISHING LAWS. By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, D.C., May 2.—To increase the output of fish caught in American waters, the food administration today announced regulations abrogating or modifying restrictive salt water fishing laws. The regulations apply to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, the Gulf of Mexico and Hawaii and Porto Rico and they provide that all salt water fish which can be marketed otherwise than at an actual loss to the fishermen must be available for human consumption.

While licensed fishermen will be required to comply with all State laws which do not conflict with the federal regulations, most of the broad local restrictions will be lifted, the food administration announced.

PAPER WORKERS STRIKE. By Courier Leased Wire. Watertown, N.Y., May 2.—About 2,000 employees of plants in this city of the International Paper Company, the De Grasse Paper Company and the St. Regis Paper Company walked out yesterday to enforce demands for higher wages. Representatives of the companies declare they disregarded an agreement reached at Washington Tuesday between the executives of the Sixth Paper Manufacturers Association and the Federal Trade Commission that they should remain at work under the old scale of wages until July 1.

BLAZE ABOARD STEAMER. By Courier Leased Wire. An Atlantic Port, May 2.—Two men lost their lives and another is in a serious condition at a hospital as the result of a fire aboard the Bay steamer New Shoreham at the pier here today. Nine others on board escaped or were rescued.

SHAH BUYS BONDS. By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, May 2.—The Shah of Persia has applied for $100,000 of Liberty bonds. The request reached the State Department to-day from Minister Caldwell at Teheran.

FARMERS PROTEST. By Courier Leased Wire. Stratford, Ont., May 2.—Upwards of five hundred farmers from all parts of Perth county stormed a county council meeting this morning presenting a petition asking the council to protest against taking farmers' sons under the new order-in-council. A number of citizens were in the crowd and lively exchanges took place between them and the farmers. Some farmers urged exemption until after the harvest and others total exemption. The council will take some action along the line asked but the form of resolution will be decided on at the afternoon session.

PROPAGANDA PICTURES. By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, May 2.—A selection of the pictures prepared by Sir George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, for publicity propaganda in the British Empire and the United States, were screened at the Regent Theatre yesterday before the cabinet ministers, members of the Senate and House of Commons.

LUMBER MILL BURNED. By Courier Leased Wire. North Tonawanda, N.Y., May 2.—W. G. Palmer and Company's lumber mill, employed exclusively for more than a year in making ammunition boxes, burned to-day. There were indications of incendiaryism, the police said. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

CANNOT PROHIBIT EXPORTS. By Courier Leased Wire. London, May 2.—The interim report of the committee on trade after the war, of which Baron Balfour of Burleigh is chairman, says: "Any general prohibition of exports to present enemy countries after the war would be impracticable and inexpedient."

TAXES BOOM BONDS. By Courier Leased Wire. Montreal, May 2.—The chief effect of the budget announcements regarding new taxation as noted in the street was some increased inquiry for victory bonds. As the meaning of the heavily increased scale of taxation on large incomes sinks in it is expected that something approaching a boom will develop in the victories and the unconverted bonds of the earlier war loans, because of their entire exemption from all federal taxation.

TWO AIRMEN KILLED. By Courier Leased Wire. Fort Worth, Texas, May 2.—Falling 150 feet in a straight nose drive this morning, Lieut. James S. Ennis, Jr., of New York City and Cadet Paul Herriott of Oakland, Cal., were killed. The accident happened at Hicks, just an hour before General Greble and staff of Camp Bowie arrived to witness some "stunt" flying.
