

A Love Affair

CHAPTER II.

Fenton went into the next room. "Good night," he said to Constance. "You will not let me stay, Miss Graham? I wish you would. These scoundrels are in the neighborhood, they say, and—"

"My father will not consent to go," she replied, quietly. "But there is no reason why you should remain, Mr. Fenton."

"And can you think of no reason why I should not leave you?" he said, his voice growing more hurried and losing its usual calmness.

"Get up, if you please, Mr. Fenton," she said, and her voice was like ice, hard and cold as steel.

"What gang is this you expect to-night, Dan?" he asked, looking at her with a look of intense interest.

"No one knows his name or anything about him. They say he's anything but a bad sort, and that he keeps his fellows in order as well as he can."

"You are a minute—a moment—to realize it. You will not accept of my love? You will not be my wife? Is that what you mean?"

"If not now, then in the coming time I will win you! I can wait! Work and wait!"

"One more word. Don't rob me of my hope. Give me the chance that time makes for me. I love you now as never, I think, man loved before."

"You are mad," she said, coldly, and with a look of scorn she drew her skirt beyond the reach of his hands.

"The old man waved his hand in the air, and both saw that he held the piece of rock. Rock no longer, but a soft, shapeless mass."

"Yes, you are mad," she said, coldly, and with a look of scorn she drew her skirt beyond the reach of his hands.

"The old man waved his hand in the air, and both saw that he held the piece of rock. Rock no longer, but a soft, shapeless mass."

fully, and as he did so the sound of a sharp and rapid knocking at the outer door broke the silence.

"Constance motioned to Fenton, and he went into the larger room, and with his hand upon his revolver, said:

"Who is there?" "It is me, Fenton—Dan."

"Fenton unlocked and unbarred the door, and a middle-aged man, with the unmistakable appearance of a squatter, entered. It was the owner of the nearest farm, the man to whom Fenton had gone for the acid."

"What is the matter, Dan?" said Fenton. "The old man looked round cautiously, then drew near to Fenton, and said in a low, agitated voice:

"Can Miss Graham hear us?" Fenton shook his head. "No, she is in the next room with the doctor; he is ill. What is the matter?"

"The rangers!" whispered Dan. "They're close at hand. One of our men got scent of their intentions. They mean mischief to-night. My place is to be attacked, and then the doctor's. We're prepared for them, but knowing how weak they are here, and there being a lady, I thought I'd run down and bring Miss Constance and the doctor up my place. We'll take care of 'em, and you can bear a hand in the scrimmage."

Fenton nodded, and seemed lost in thought for a moment; then he said: "What gang is this you expect to-night, Dan?"

"The old gang," he replied. "The one there has been so much talk about, the one that's led by that harum-scarum young Englishman?"

"Englishman? Is he known, then?" asked Fenton, hurriedly.

Dan shook his head. "No one knows his name or anything about him. They say he's anything but a bad sort, and that he keeps his fellows in order as well as he can."

"You are a minute—a moment—to realize it. You will not accept of my love? You will not be my wife? Is that what you mean?"

"If not now, then in the coming time I will win you! I can wait! Work and wait!"

"One more word. Don't rob me of my hope. Give me the chance that time makes for me. I love you now as never, I think, man loved before."

"You are mad," she said, coldly, and with a look of scorn she drew her skirt beyond the reach of his hands.

port on the road. But there is no harm done. They have lost their horses and learned a lesson; that is all.

Constance made no reply, but the doctor's voice answered: "Yes, yes; let us go."

"You shall," said the ranger. "The wagon and horses are at your disposal, sir; it is the least we can do to make amends for the inconvenience we have caused you and our rough intrusion."

Fenton and Dan conferred together for a moment or two; then Fenton said in a low voice to Constance: "You will go?"

"Yes," she motioned with her lips rather than said. "Make the wagon comfortable."

"Do not be alarmed," he said, quietly. "You are safe—I think safer—than with an escort of diggers."

Constance, with her father on her arm, went out into the night. The wagon, with a fine team of horses, stood at the door. The ranger held out his hand to assist her, but she shrunk back.

He hit his lip, but without a word helped the doctor in and arranged a rug for him. "Good-night," he said.

CARROT PUDDING. Scrape, cook and mash four medium-sized carrots, add nine tablespoons of flour, four tablespoons of brown sugar, two tablespoons of chopped nut, one-half cup of chopped nuts, one cup of seeded raisins, one cup of currants, one-half cup of candied or fresh orange and lemon peel (the candied is preferable), one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of allspice, one-quarter cup of brandy and one teaspoon of soda dissolved in a little water. Put this in a well-buttered mold and boil it five hours, then bake 15 in a hot oven half an hour. Serve hot with a hard or hard sauce.

Another Failure. Tempted by the warm rain the angle-worm wriggled out of the ground and started across the cement sidewalk. When it was about half way over it there came a sudden change in the weather and the worm froze fast to the wall.

ICE CREAM CAKE. For the cake there will be required half a cup of butter, one and a half cups sugar, two cups of flour, half a cup of milk, the whites of five eggs, two level teaspoons of baking powder and half a teaspoon of vanilla. Beat the butter to a cream and gradually beat in the sugar and then the vanilla, now add the milk, also the whites of eggs beat to a stiff froth, then stir in the flour and the baking powder mixed together. Pour this batter into shallow cake pans that have well greased, and bake in a moderate oven for 25 minutes, when cool, ice.

RECIPES

RAISED SPLIT ROLLS. In the evening, perhaps just after dinner, take one cup of hot potato which has been pressed through a coarse sieve—the potato may be either boiled, steamed or baked—and mix it with two tablespoons of lard and the same of butter—both soft, but not melted. Now add one-quarter of a yeast cake softened in one-half cup of tepid milk, and one tablespoon of sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, and one egg yolk well beaten. Stir well and sift in one and one-half cups of flour. Beat again and add egg white beaten stiff, and place bowl in a warm place until morning. Then double in bulk; then add enough flour to knead, but just as little flour as possible. About 10 o'clock roll out very thin, less than one-quarter of an inch, cut with finger biscuit cutter, place on well-buttered tin and brush each with melted butter, cover and set in very cool place until morning. Then put the biscuit in a warm place to rise. When double in bulk again—this will take about half an hour—bake about 15 minutes in a rather hot oven. The secret of their success is to roll them very, very thin.

NOISETTES OF LAMB. For one entree prepare eight noisettes from the back ribs of a lamb as follows: If bought from the butcher the ribs bones ought to be sawed off, leaving the cutlet bones about three inches long. Having got the pieces thus described, bone off, without touching the tender fillet, trim away the fat, sinew neatly down to the lean fillet, and flatten slightly with a chopper. Put the bones and trimmings clover leaf to brown in the oven, with a minced onion, thyme, parsley and pepper; then add a teaspoonful of flour and when brown pour in a pint of water, or better, of good stock. Let this boil down until you get the required quantity. Pass through a fine colander and keep warm. As for the jardiniere, cut into very small dice an ordinary sized carrot and turnip, and boil in salted water. When done add to this the same quantity of plain boiled peas and French beans, diced. Strain well and season with a pinch of fresh butter, a pinch of sugar and salt. Fry the noisettes in a pan with a little fat, dish them neatly in a wreath form, put the vegetables in the middle, and pour the sauce around.

DELICIOUS BUTTERSCOTCH. One cup of molasses, one cup of sugar, one and one-half cups of butter, boil until it thickly crisps when dropped in cold water. Pour out in a large buttered tin and when nearly cool mark off into squares. The fact that so much butter is used gives it a particularly delicious flavor.

POTATO ROSES. This is a very attractive way of serving potatoes at a luncheon: Select round potatoes, and after peeling to the core, which should be cut as large as a lead pencil. Use a very narrow bladed penknife to keep from breaking the continuous peel. Place in ice cold water for a little while, drain and fry in boiling fat as you would Saratoga chips. The form a perfect rose, and set on the green leaves of young celery make a beautiful yellow rose.

GIBLET STUFFING. Cook the gizzard, heart and liver, until tender, drain off the liquor into a bowl and chop the giblets fine. There should be at least two and a half cups of the liquor. Split 15 large soda crackers and scatter them, using at least one-fourth of a tablespoon of butter to each half cracker. Arrange these in a deep platter and pour over them the hot liquor or stock. As soon as the crackers have absorbed all of the liquor, add the chopped giblets and fill the turkey with this dressing. Season highly with pepper and salt.

PLANKED BEEFSTEAK. Lay the steak on a hot oak plank which has been well buttered. Season with pepper, salt and butter and bake in the oven or before an open fire, basting frequently, until properly done.

Why Liquid Catarrh Remedies Fail. They go direct to the stomach, have very little effect on the linings of the nose and throat, and entirely fail to cure. Only by cleansing the air passages by relieving the inflammation and killing the germs is cure possible. No combination of Antiseptics is so successful as Catarrhoxone. In breathing it, you send the richest pine balsams right to the seat of the disease. Irritating phlegm is cleared out, hoarseness, coughing and hacking are cured. For a permanent cure for catarrh, nothing equals Catarrhoxone, 25 cents and $1 at all druggists.

NATURE'S SECOND THOUGHT. Quaint Developments During Course of Organic Evolution.

In the course of organic evolution very many strange and quaint developments present themselves from time to time, not only in the history of a race or genus, but within a narrow compass of the life of a single individual member of such race or genus. Nature changes her plans, in fact, to meet contingencies that occur unexpectedly. Probably few who have any acquaintance with marine fish, writes W. J. Murray in Harper's Magazine, have failed to notice something strange about the appearance of what are called flatfish, known as the flounder family (or in zoology as Pleuronectidae), embracing the turbot, plaice, brill, sole, halibut, flounder, dab, etc. The conformation of the head and of the anterior portion of the body in the adult stages is characterized by a striated and asymmetrical appearance. In this respect the flatfish differ from all other members of their zoological class.

The question naturally suggests itself why this particularly grotesque and should be so different from all other fish, which, as a rule, are remarkable for their symmetrical and graceful appearance. And the answer is very simple. The flatfish, instead of swimming in an upright or vertical position, like all other fish, has for some reason or another taken to the unnatural habit of swimming on its side. It may be on either side, right or left. This enables it to take up what appears to be the laziest position of lying flat on the bottom of the sea, where it can move about freely in search of food as small marine animals, mollusks, worms, etc. The young fish swims erect in the ordinary manner for some time, but it early shows a tendency to become lopsided, and gradually falls over on one side—usually the left, but not invariably so by any means.

The eye on the under side, just so soon as the tendency is shown to fall over on that side, commences gradually to move round to the other side or uppermost side, and finally takes its place beside the other eye.

This process is strangely brought about through the twisting of a portion of the bones of the head, which gives the latter a decidedly deformed and unnatural appearance. The ventral fins become useless and degenerate. Unpaired fins are developed, the undulatory motion of which enables the fish to swim with ease, and even rapidly in the new and horizontal position assumed.

Overruled. "Papa, I want to go and play baseball this afternoon." "O, you do, do you? What's your position? Shortstop?" "Nope, I play in the left garden."

"So? Well, my son, you can stay at home this afternoon and work in the right garden."

Apprehensive. Fellow Statesman—"Senator, that speech of yours in favor of the income tax was one of the strongest arguments I ever heard."

Eloquent Senator (with some uneasiness)—"You don't think it changed any votes, do you?" Mr. George Eaton, Brockville's oldest citizen and formerly collector of customs, is dead.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1906.

PUGSLEY'S LITTLE SURPRISE.

The New Brunswick Government thought it had furnished a deadly weapon to the Dominion Opposition when it sent out the report of its partisan commission, reflecting on Hon. Mr. Pugsley. Had the report been an honest one, the New Brunswick Government should have followed its appearance without waste of time with the prosecution of Mr. Pugsley. But it did not make any move to do so, contenting itself with prompting the Ottawa slandering to attacks. Now Hon. Mr. Pugsley has taken action in the courts himself to have a judicial examination and accounting of the entire transaction. That does not look like the course of a man conscious of guilt and dreading an inquiry. Mean-time Foster and the muckrakers whom he leads strive to snatch a little dirty party capital while they may, before the courts show the baselessness of their scandal, by indulging in abuse of the Minister in the Commons! We do not wonder that Mr. R. L. Borden has frequently absented himself from the House when his followers were engaged in attempts to destroy the reputation of opponents by such despicable means. No decent man with the slightest sense of justice or regard for the opinion of the honest public would be found assisting in such work.

AN OUTRAGE EXPOSED.

The London election cases in which Whitney secured the recording of a conviction in a York County Court against O'Gorman, Malloy, Wiley and Reid, and of which so much political capital was made, have been before the Court of Appeal, and have been set aside. These cases, as the public will bear in mind, bore every appearance of a political persecution—a "put-up job." The defendants contended that the trial should have taken place in London. Not one of the prisoners resided in York County, yet, by a gross stretch of arbitrary power, the accused persons were dragged from London, and obliged, at great expense and disadvantage, to defend themselves in a Toronto court. This was affected by alleging a conspiracy in Toronto, and in having a preliminary examination before the Police Magistrate of that city. Efforts were made by the defendants to secure a change of venue in the effort to get a free and unprejudiced trial; but they were unsuccessful.

Mr. Justice Garrow asserts the prisoners' clear right to trial in the County of Middlesex where their offence was alleged to have been committed, and he says that right was interfered with by the Crown, which introduced an alleged Toronto connection which turned out to be utterly foundationless in fact. He finds absolutely nothing in Pritchett's evidence to connect the accused with that person's confessed overt act. Nothing remains but his own statement and the Judge declares that the charge wholly failed. Mr. Justice Maclaren agrees with his colleague in quashing the conviction, and expresses himself strongly as to the duty of the court when it discovered that the matter was not properly within its jurisdiction. He significantly says that if the course adopted in this case—doubtless for partisan ends—were to be upheld, "the criminal law might become an engine of oppression and injustice."

The end of the London persecution is marked by the finding of the Court of Appeal that not only was the Government's action in dragging the accused into a Toronto court for trial reprehensible and illegal, and tending to be subversive of justice, but that the evidence (Pritchett's) was not such as should have warranted a conviction. Hon. Mr. Foy evidently feels keenly the humiliation of the Court of Appeals judgment, and he is quoted in the Globe as protesting his good faith in the entire matter. The less said about it now, for Mr. Foy's peace of mind, the better. The judgment should mark the end of a performance which is far from reflecting credit upon the Attorney-General's Department, or tending to respect for, and confidence in, Ontario administration of justice. It would be a pity if the public should have reason to believe that our administration of criminal justice is prostituted to partisan ends.

A DISGRACE TO CIVILIZATION

The public is daily shocked by horrible stories of massacre coming from Asia Minor. Some of these gruesome tales bear internal evidences of falsity, or, at least, of gross exaggeration; but after making large allowance there would appear to be too great reason to fear that there have been terrible slaughters of Armenian Christians by the Moslem population. It is to be feared that much of this slaughter has been with the tacit approval, if not carried out by the help of, the Turkish officials and soldiery. In some instances it appears that religious or racial quarrels led to outbreaks which were made the excuse by fanatical Moslems for wholesale murder. Adana, where 40,000 people are reported to have been slaughtered, is a city of 45,000, the capital of the province of that name. Marash is in the province of Aleppo, and is reputed to have a population of 52,000. A recent report says that every man in it was killed, only women, girls, and boys under ten having been left alive. Hadjin has been almost wiped out, and of the fate of its 12,000 inhabitants we are left to guess. There is reason to believe that the carnival of bloodshed, although it may have been greatly exaggerated, has been a foul blot on twentieth century civilization; and that even Turkey defers to the sentiment of the world and hastens troops to put an end to the outrages. A British war vessel has also been dispatched to Deiriyul, and it may have some influence in restoring order. If the new Turkish regime should prove incapable of affording protection to the Armenian Christians it would seem to be the duty of the great Powers to join in putting an end to the massacre of Christians as a Mohammedan amusement.

NAVIES—THEIR FUTURE.

The information that a French Committee of Naval Inquiry has been startled by learning on the authority of Rear Admiral Adam that the entire naval reserve force of war vessels are almost absolutely useless for fighting purposes—are in fact as so many "painted ships upon a painted ocean"—is not of a character to kindle enthusiasm in France. Italy is being told by her naval experts that her navy is sadly behind, and that a large part of it ought to be "written off," as out of date and useless. Great Britain, which every few years has a scare of the kind, is alarmed lest her peerless naval force is not being kept up to a condition of efficiency and strength exceeding the two-power standard. Germany is not doing much grumbling at her own navy—is in fact being used abroad as the bogaboo to extract more millions from the peoples of other countries for their navies; but it is far from being satisfied with its navy or its practical utility as compared with the showing which it makes on paper. Well-informed naval critics say that at least 50 per cent. of the German naval strength is merely make-believe, and that many of the vessels should have been broken up years ago. A recent report written in considering a German despatch upon the United Kingdom was confronted with the problem of the 200,000 tons of transport shipping required. Germany has no readily available naval transport ships, and it would take weeks to collect the motley aggregation of craft of all sorts necessary to move a large number of men. And such delay would be fatal to any scheme intended to succeed by surprise.

The evolution of naval warfare renders the triumph of naval invention and construction in warships obsolete in a few years. What will happen if aerial navigation should be brought to such a degree of success as to enable airships to be so accurately steered as to make possible the dropping of high-power explosives upon the fleets? We have no wireless telegraphy. Who is to say that one of these days some enterprising electrician will not discount naval power by the invention of a device to direct against war vessels such powerful currents of electricity as will instantly blot them out by exploding every magazine and everything explosive which they carry? The game of naval invention is not yet played out; the resources of civilization are not yet exhausted.

After Hon. Mr. Pugsley's scathing exposure of the disgraceful conduct of that New Brunswick Commission in an attempt to blacken his reputation, Premier Hazen and his commissioners should crawl into a hole and draw the hole in after them. If there is one honorable man among the opposition members who has been misled into this work of slander, he should be prompt to set himself right by denouncing the infamy.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Be thankful that you are not an Armenian subject of the Turk.

Hazen's New Brunswick slander commission is now on its defence. What excuse does it make for its turpitude?

Mr. Joseph Martin was not elected in Stratford on Avon, but he obtained considerable advertising out of the election.

That Montreal municipal investigation discloses a fine lot of evidence in favor of municipal ownership, doesn't it?

Now let the public forget the murder inquiry for a while. The Crown may be trusted to carry on the search for the criminal.

Patten is again manipulating the Chicago wheat pit. It is probable that it will require all his skill in order to prevent a rumous slump in prices.

Some day the patience of civilization will be stretched to the limit, and then, perhaps, the open season for the massacring of Armenians will be shortened.

The city officials can learn something to the advantage of the ratepayers by careful study of the Street Railway Company's operations on James street these days.

Hon. Mr. Foy, Attorney-General, says the Kinrade murder inquiry will go on. That, at least, is satisfactory. No effort should be spared in order to clear up the mystery.

from the situation is that the basins should be cleaned frequently to keep the water pure and sweet.

The Shah has decided to grant Persia a constitution. Only a short time ago he announced that the country was not ripe for such. Whatever led him to change his opinion, his action may prove conducive to his health and happiness.

Kimball, the Leamington Chief of Police, has been found guilty of manslaughter in shooting William Healey, a prisoner, while he was running away. This is another reminder of the necessity for caution in the use of firearms by officers.

It is said that evidence has been secured as to the hiding place of Abdul Hamid's board. If it has not, the Turks know some effective methods of obtaining it. And it is not likely that they will hesitate to use them, if a few millions are to be thus obtained.

The Dominion Railway Commission has made an order reducing the charge for changing the destination of cars in transit, which has hitherto been from $3 to $8 a car, to $3 a car. The shippers say that the change will be of much benefit to them.

The Mail and Empire, in discussing the new British budget, asks: "Why not tax German goods, for example, and thus make the producers of these articles contribute to the cost of Dreadnoughts?" Nations do not tax one another save by power of the sword. The Tory organ might discover that Germany would have an objection to paying any tax which a foreign nation might impose upon her.

Now that Hon. Mr. Pugsley, after waiting in vain for the New Brunswick Government to follow up its slanderous report by prosecuting him, has himself appealed to the courts for an accounting of the whole matter, we are prepared to learn that the Toronto News, with its customary fairness (3) will treat Hon. Mr. Pugsley's course as certain evidence that he is a very monster of depravity.

After Hon. Mr. Pugsley's scathing exposure of the disgraceful conduct of that New Brunswick Commission in an attempt to blacken his reputation, Premier Hazen and his commissioners should crawl into a hole and draw the hole in after them. If there is one honorable man among the opposition members who has been misled into this work of slander, he should be prompt to set himself right by denouncing the infamy.

France intends to take vigorous action to assert the power of the Government to deal with rebellious state employees. It is certainly an anomalous condition of affairs that exists in France. Men move Heaven and earth to get jobs into the Government, and having got them, combine to defy the Government and compel it to give way to their every demand. Such a state of affairs is not to be tolerated by any free people, and it would not be astonishing if France moved in the direction of treating such conduct as a crime in the nature of mutiny. Government jobs are usually fat enough to produce plenty of applicants.

"Did Behind the Rule of Order—Premier Did Not Want Pugsley Case Discussed," is the display heading of a Spectator Ottawa despatch. The body of the despatch tells about Mr. Crothers, M. P., a member of the Opposition, and says he "spoke at some length" on it, and added: "The speaker stated that Mr. Crothers was out of order, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Pugsley invited him to go ahead," and he did so. The despatch concluded with "The discussion will take all day." So not only the Premier, but Mr. Pugsley also, were ready to set aside the rules of the House to let the eager slanderers unload their venom glands.

Our contemporary the Spectator frankly accepts our suggestion as to the abolition of trafficking between private parties in liquor licenses as being of a non-partisan nature, and admits that such an arrangement has much to commend it, could it be made to operate successfully. It is found to be capable of practical success in some places, and we think it could be readily introduced here. We are not concerned with the question of the reform being introduced by Grit or Tory; the effect is what we are after. Liberal and Conservative Governments have maintained the system proposed to be improved. We shall not hesitate to welcome improvement from Whitney as frankly as we ensure what we believe to be his mistakes.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

Big Time at Annual Conference of Charities at Buffalo.

One of the big conventions of the year will be the 36th annual conference of charities, which opens in Buffalo on June 5th, and continues for a week. It is expected that 1,500 persons will attend from all parts of the United States and, owing to the meeting being so close to the Canadian border, the officials hope for a large representation from Canada. All who can make it convenient to attend will be made welcome. Among the speakers will be the leading philanthropic workers of the continent, and every phase of social and philanthropic work will be discussed. Anyone who wishes to make a study of social service will gain here in one week more information than they could gain from books in a year. In addition to the various addresses and discussions there will be an exhibit of congestion in cities, tenement and slum life, a model playground, and the various printed forms and literature used by societies in carrying on their work. Any Canadians who wish to attend should notify Mr. J. J. Kelso, Toronto.

CUR EXCHANGES

TEA TABLE GOSSIP. (Brantford Courier.) It's Hamilton back to village pump gossip once more.

OUR REPUTATION. (Kingston Whig.) Hamilton preserves its reputation as the place of many notorious crimes.

HAVE YOU MET TEM? (Belleville Intelligencer.) Among those we could get along without, there's the festive soldier boy who blows a bugle along about 1 a. m. He never would be missed.

WHY CHILDREN STRAY. (St. Catharines Star-Journal.) It has to be sorrowfully admitted that much of the deplorable youthful depravity so prevalent is less the fault of the children, says the Windsor Record, than the parents. No restraint is placed on the movements of the children. They are allowed to roam the streets nights at their own pleasure, and there they form evil associations that lead to ruin.

DEAD ONES. (Toronto Telegram.) At that Joe Martin is not half as dead as the Toronto News and other journals that are gleefully celebrating his 'tenth consecutive political demise.

PLANT TREES. (Dundas Banner.) Arbor Day ought to be observed not only by every school in Ontario but by many others who could profitably plant a tree on farm or town lot.

HOW COULD WE? (St. Catharines Standard.) How could we know if things were carried on in a fair manner, if the reporters were excluded from inquests and other courts?

TALKING THROUGH HIS HAT. (Grimsby Independent.) The soup tureen hats are very popular in Hamilton—the teamsters are using them for feed boxes now—They make splendid roofings for a horse to eat out of.

THE "NAKED" TRUTH. (Georgetown Herald.) Hamilton newspapermen are quite wrapped up in a little discussion on the nude art, and seeing that a newspaper likes to encourage the naked truth, it is quite natural the editors encourage art instruction.

THE STORY HOUR. (Woodstock Sentinel-Review.) The formation of a Children's Story Hour to be held once a week in the Library building in connection with the children's department of the library, is an illustration of the modern notion with regard to the utilization of public libraries as educational institutions.

GETTING OFF BACKWARDS. (Toronto Star.) A woman gets off a street car backwards because she has grasped the rail with her right hand she cannot get off any other way. Instinctively she trusts her right hand, and not her left. A man's muscular experiences render one hand as trustworthy as the other, but not so with a woman. The remedy is a simple one: run the street cars on the other track and it will be impossible for a woman to get off backwards.

DAN AS A HIGHER CRITIC. (Toronto World.) Mr. Dan D. Mann, who, to the advantage of a railway magazine, has added that of three or four of articles in leading European and American reviews, is now completing a critical examination of the first eleven chapters of Genesis. He is not at all in accord with the Hon. Samuel Blake. Probably he has in view a D. D. at the end of his name as well. The University of Heidelberg, of which he is a visitor, should see that he gets it.

JIMMIE BAUM. (Toronto Mail and Empire.) The time must have hung heavy on the hands of "Jimmie" Baum while he was waiting to be called to testify in the Hamilton inquest. It is to be hoped he has lost nothing but the time. Against that loss is to be set a gain in the estimation in which he is held by readers of Canadian newspapers. His manifest candor and manliness under examination have made a favorable impression that may stand him in good stead some day.

ATTACK ON PUGSLEY. (Toronto Globe.) The outstanding feature of yesterday's debate in Parliament was Hon. Dr. Pugsley's demonstration that there never was a serious public document issued in the history of the Dominion containing so many and so flagrant errors as the report of the commission which investigated the affairs of the New Brunswick Central Railway. The document had already been discredited by the discovery that sums which should have been stated as $420,000 and $500,000 appear in the report as $420,000 and $500,000 respectively.

THE BISHOP'S HOPE. (Huron Times.) A celebrated Anglican divine, the late Bishop of Rochester, who had been sitting for some months, decided to consult Sir Frederick Treves, the noted surgeon. After a careful examination, Sir Fred said: "Your Lordship must go to Vienna, or some winter resort on the Riviera, or 'impossible,' replied the Bishop, 'quite impossible. I have too much work to get through.'"

"Well," said the doctor, "you must make your choice. It is either Algeria or here." "Dear me!" exclaimed the bishop, with a sigh, "Then I presume is must be Algeria."

WINDSOR MAN ENDS HIS LIFE. Windsor, Ont., May 5.—Worn out by long months of severe suffering from rheumatism, and determined to end his pain, Joseph Allan, 56 years of age, drank the contents of a two-ounce bottle of chloroform about 9:30 o'clock this morning, and died in the Hotel Dieu a half hour later.

FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1906 SHEA'S MayManton Patterns All 10c A Splendid Showing of Misses' and Children's Dresses Hundreds of Dainty Dresses for Misses and Children—just new and put in stock—both white and colored. PURITY OF OUR WATER. Stoutly Maintained by Members of the Committee. Sub-Committee to Deal With Moving Picture Shows. Fowler Canadian Company to Pay Regular Water Charges. The meeting of the Fire and Water Committee last night was quiet and peaceful until Ald. Morris brought up the matter of the condition of the water in the filtering basins, which he characterized as filthy, and said should be inspected at once. He said the water from the creek, that comes through baryarits, filtered through the sand and ran into the basins. Chairman Clark explained that the cause of the water being in such a condition as it was on Tuesday, when Ald. Morris saw it, was on account of the storm. Water had to be let in from the lake, when it was all rolled up, to prevent it from being lowered below the pipe, and as a result the water in the basins was not very clean looking. Ald. Morris said what he thought was necessary was that the medical health officer inspect the basins when they were all stirred up and that his opinion be given as to whether it is dangerous or not. "It is not necessary that water should be clean looking to be good water. I have seen clear water that was filled with germs," said Ald. Morris. Chairman Clark said it had been tested a number of times, and has always been found in good condition. Ald. Morris asked which they would rather drink, muddy water or clear, and Ald. Morris answered that he would rather drink the muddy if the clear was full of germs. Chairman Clark said he did not see why the matter should be discussed when the water had been declared to be in good condition, and was as good as any in the country. He said he was surprised that Ald. Morris would bring up such a thing after it had been tested so many times and declared healthy. Ald. Morris replied that he had been misunderstood in the matter, and that all he wished for was to have the medical health officer make an inspection. He had seen that germs filter through the sand, and if that was so the water from the creek would be dangerous, as it would likely contain germs. It was explained to him that if the water filtered through the sand it would be pure, as had been proven by former investigations. Ald. Clark said the investigations in former years had proven the water to be in good condition, and that there would be no more investigations into the matter, as the experts' reports were reliable. One of the former investigations cost $1,000, and as long as Dr. Roberts is satisfied he did not see why the matter should receive any further attention. Chief Ten Eyck reported that by letting the Bell Telephone Company attend to the fire alarm system wires on Main street, between James and MacNab street, on John street, between King William and Main streets, and at the corner of Main and Catherine streets, the city could do away with thirteen poles in the central part of the city. The terms of the Telephone Company will be asked for providing a conduit in its underground system. The question of putting the whole city water underground was left over until the present franchise of the company expires, when the city will make arrangements. The sub-committee reported progress in regard to the typewriter for Chief Ten Eyck. Mr. Malcolmson appeared before the committee to explain an application to put on the sand-sucker wheels would result in a saving. It was arranged that the chairman have a talk with him on the matter and the result be submitted at the next meeting. Action was deferred in regard to the economizer for the Beach Pumping Station. Mr. Farner was present and explained that the saving in fuel would be considerable as without the economizer 1,200 lbs. more fuel would be burnt every shift, and there are two shifts daily. The cost of repairing the economizer would be $1,410 and at that rate it would pay for itself in a year. To Massage the Face.

The purpose of facial massage is to increase the surface circulation and so stimulate and refresh muscles and tissues.
Before beginning the process wash the face thoroughly with warm water, so that it is thoroughly clean.
The hands should then be rubbed with alcohol or a good toilet water, to cool the fingers and harden the tips.
Always massage upward. The tendency of the face is to droop.
Dip the finger tips in some good cream, and rub the face gently but carefully, so that the cream is rubbed into every part.
Wrinkles should be rubbed in the opposite direction.

If the lines of the forehead are deeply marked, beat them lightly with the finger tips.
Shut the eyes and rub the lids softly from side to side, with a gentle upward sweep.
Rub the cheeks upward from the corners of the mouth, using the backs of the hands occasionally to rest the fingers.
In rubbing beneath the chin the strokes should be stronger and more firm where there is a tendency to flesh than where there is not.
It will be found most convenient to sit before a mirror, so that the movements may be made more effective.
The bell ringer owes his position to pull.

VON BUELOW.

Report That German Chancellor is to Resign His Job.

Berlin, May 6.—The Nieuw Gasellschaftliche Correspondent, which has excellent official resources of official information, announces that Chancellor Von Buelow intends to resign before the Whitauite recess unless the financial reform plans of the government are adopted. The Emperor will return here on May 23, and the Chancellor will have an audience with him as soon as possible after that date, in order to hand in his resignation, which he will insist must be accepted.
Prince Von Buelow's decision it is understood, grows out of the action of the Finance Committee of the Reichstag, which a few days ago voted in favor of taxing the accrued values of real estate between one sale and another, as a substitute for the government's proposal of increased death duties and showed opposition in other ways to the government tax plans.

Thorold Lad Arrested Charged With Stealing.

To Extend Collegiate—Motor Bus Line—Extension of N. S. & I. R.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)
St. Catharines, Ont., May 6.—Krank C. Coyle, of Thorold, foster son of George W. Hay, is in the toils at Welland. He was taken into custody last night by the Chief of Police of Welland on a charge of stealing. He is said to have at the time in his possession a horse and rig belonging to a Cayuga man who laid the information against him. He is said also to have taken $150 and a quantity of clothing from a man named Knott, residing at Fonthill, and a whip and blanket from the Summit House, Thorold. He returned a couple of months ago from Mimico, where he had served a term in the Industrial School. A month ago he ran away with $300 bank deposit entrusted to him by Mr. Hay, and when he came back the money was all gone.

The Collegiate Institute Board have decided to add another room to the school and another teacher to the staff to relieve the congestion in the school complained of by High School Inspector J. A. Houston. Isaac Normandy, promoter of a motor bus line to Niagara-on-the-Lake and Queenston, it was reported to the Board of Trade last night, would have the line in operation by June first. He is desirous also of securing a franchise for the building of an electric line over that route as soon as possible.
The Board appointed committees to confer with N. S. & T. R. authorities with reference to extending their line from Fonthill to Ridgeville and Fenwick and with the D. W. & B. Company, regarding building to St. Catharines.

Brantford, May 6.—The American Radiator Company this week purchased from the Cookshutt Plow Company the premises that the company had occupied for the last three years in this city. The consideration which was fixed by optional rights, secured several years ago, was $25,000, and a contract has been let for enclosing the buildings and putting them in adaptable shape for a large output. Several other places were dickered for the firm, but the purchase of the location here at the foot of the South Market street bridge means that the industry is permanently established in Brantford.

ONE ON THE DOCTORS.

Madame J. Rioux, St. Moise, Que., says: "Fruit-a-tives cured me of severe Liver Disease. Neither doctors nor any other remedy did me any good, but Fruit-a-tives promptly cured."
"Fruit-a-tives" always cure Liver Trouble, Biliousness and Constipation because they are directly on the liver. They stimulate the secretion of bile, which decreases the quantity of blood in the liver, and thus relieves the Congestion or Biliousness. With plenty of Bile to move the bowels, there is an end to the Constipation.
"Fruit-a-tives" are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a disordered liver.

"Fruit-a-tives" are the juices of apples, oranges, lemons and prunes—prepared by a newly discovered process, and combined with valuable tonics and antiseptics. They are, without doubt, the most popular remedy in Canada to-day.
50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box 25c. If you can't get "Fruit-a-tives" in your neighborhood, these wonderful tablets will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by addressing Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LONDON CONSPIRACY

Connection of Alleged Bribers Questioned in Toronto.
Charges Cropped Up After Famous Hyman-Gray By-Election.

London, May 6.—The conviction registered by Judge Winchester in Toronto in the fall of 1907, against Messrs. John O'Gorman, George M. Reid, Daniel Wiley, William Mulloy and Edgar L. Sifton, in the celebrated London election conspiracy case, was quashed by the Court of Appeal in Toronto.
The first of this case was heard in the fall of 1906, when the defendants were charged with conspiracy on the evidence of "Jerry" Collins.
All the defendants were found guilty before Judge Winchester in November, 1907, with the exception of Edgar L. Sifton, against whom the charge was withdrawn, and who gave "Jerry" evidence. The conviction has now been quashed, and the last has apparently been heard of the case.
There are charges of perjury against Mr. Thomas Lewis and Mr. John O'Mara, cropping out of this case, but it is thought that these will be dropped now that the major charge has been disposed of.
The history of this celebrated case dates back to the Dominion general election of 1904, when Hon. C. S. Hyman was opposed by Mr. William Gray. The defendants were charged with conspiracy to bribe the electors, then again in the Provincial elections of 1905, when Hon. Adam Beck and Mr. F. G. Rumball were the candidates, it is charged that the four men conspired to bribe the electors and in the by-election of 1906 the same charge is entered.
The defendants were sent for trial by the police magistrate of Toronto to the assizes, which were held in that city. Before being brought up for trial at the assizes the alleged conspirators elected trial before the county judge.
In November, 1907, their trial took place before Judge Winchester, Messrs. Lynch-Staunton, K. C., and J. C. Judd, K. C., prosecuting for the Crown, and Messrs. E. B. F. Johnston, K. C., and J. M. McEvoy defended.
Judge Winchester found them guilty of conspiracy to bribe, but reserved sentence and bailed them to appear for sentence when called on. In the meantime he received the submission to the court of appeal the question whether he had any jurisdiction to try the case.
This point was raised by Mr. Johnston before the evidence had been taken, and Mr. Staunton then offered to go to the assizes, then in session, and try the defendants. Mr. Johnston decided to go ahead before Judge Winchester. After evidence had been taken, the question of jurisdiction was again referred.

DISTRICT R. T.

Will Visit Oakville and Provide Programme on Friday.

At the monthly meeting of the Hamilton District Council, R. T. of T., last evening, arrangements were completed for the visit to Oakville on Friday evening of this week. The party will go by special car on the Radial Railway, and provide the programme, the Oakville people otherwise furnishing the entertainment. The building occupied by the Oakville Royal Templars is the oldest temperance hall in Canada, and has just been refitted after use as a temporary hospital. Arrangements were also made in connection with the Temperance Campaign Committee at Niagara Falls on June 19. The literary feature of the evening was an address by T. J. Shanks on Christian Socialism, which he defined as simply the application of the Golden Rule to the affairs of every day life, the working out of which in industry and commerce he freely illustrated. W. Barrett was present, and endeavored to uphold Socialism of another type.

DON'T SHOOT.

Ex-Constable Found Guilty of Killing Fleeing Prisoner. Conviction For Manslaughter Against E. J. Kimball.

Chatham, Ont., May 5.—The jury in the case of Elliott J. Kimball, the Leamington ex-constable, who on July 28 last shot and killed W. J. Healey, while he was escaping arrest, to-night, after two and a half hours' deliberation, brought in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, the charge on which he was arraigned, with a recommendation to mercy. He will be sentenced to-morrow.

The evidence adduced during the trial was practically the same as that brought out at the first trial last October. It was admitted that Kimball shot Healey, and it was merely a question of whether it was an accident or whether the prisoner was or was not guilty of negligence in the handling of firearms. The Crown relied upon the evidence of certain statements made by the prisoner after the shooting, when he said: "He was getting away, and no constable likes to go after a man and be fooled"; also that "He was too hasty, and made a mistake, and would have to suffer the consequences," and other similar statements, which the prisoner is alleged to have made to people in Tibury after the shooting.

The defence was that the shooting was purely accidental. During the examination of Chief Constable Smith, of Tibury, His Lordship made some pointed remarks. Smith said that the articles found on the prisoner were the same as carried by all constables. Mr. H. D. Smith, when asked whether he carried a billy, replied: "No, but I carry a club that I can do as much damage with."

His Lordship—Do you carry a loaded gun? Witness—Yes. His Lordship—What for? Witness—For my own protection. I do not always carry a gun, but I sometimes do.

His Lordship—Do you carry it to win prisoners who are getting away? Witness—No. His Lordship—Well, you had better get that out of your head if you do. What right have you to carry a gun? Witness—It is in the constables' guide book. The Town Clerk also said I had a right to carry one.

His Lordship pointed out that a policeman had no right to shoot an escaping prisoner. He has the right to carry weapons to defend himself, but he is not warranted in killing a man. He has no right to use violence for defence, or to subdue and prevent a man from breaking away, but he has no right to shoot at a prisoner once he gets away. No policeman is warranted in killing another man, unless he undoubtedly and certainly that it is necessary to save his own life or the life of someone else whom it is his duty to protect.

AN IROQUOIS CHIEF. Prince of Wales Accepts Office Offered Him.

Brantford, May 5.—There was a notable demonstration at the meeting of the chiefs of the Six Nations Indians at the Oshawken council house yesterday, when a letter was read from the Prince of Wales, accepting a chiefship in Turtle Clan of the Six Nations and expressing the belief that should the occasion arise the Indians would be found loyally serving the interests of the Crown. During the reading of the letter the chiefs stood with bared heads.

BRITISH SHOTS WIN. International Small Bore Rifle Match is Decided.

Australia, the other contestant, has not yet been heard from.

BRITISH CAPITAL

WILL NOT BE DRIVEN FROM ENGLAND SAYS MR. ASQUITH.

Closure Ends the Debate—Socialist Leader Says Future Budgets Will Levy Still Greater Taxes on the Idle Rich.

London, May 5.—The debate on the budget in the House of Commons was concluded somewhat abruptly by the Government moving closure. The resolution gave the Government a majority of 107, which was so greatly below the average that the Unionists cheered tumultuously, and shouted "Resign!" The Socialists and Laborites gave the Government their general support.

RIGHT HON. MR. ASQUITH.

although as Mr. Snowden, one of their most eloquent speakers, declared, the proposals did not go far enough to please them.

"If we have any influence on future budgets," said Mr. Snowden, "this is not the extent of the taxation that will be laid on unearned incomes. It is not the last tribute the idle class will be called upon to pay for dealing with the problem of poverty. Our object is to make the rich poorer and the poor richer. There is no way under heaven to make the poor richer than by making somebody else poorer."

Premier Asquith, winding up the debate for the Government, rebuffed Mr. Balfour's contention that capital would be driven out of the country.

"Where is it going to fly to?" asked the Premier. "It may traverse the whole civilized world, but wherever it goes it will find itself confronted by a Finance Minister as necessitous as Mr. Lloyd-George. It would not find rest in Germany, France or the United States.

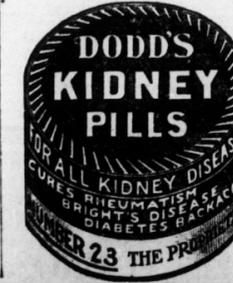

In the last named country they are engaged in rigging up a new tariff and have a deficit far more formidable than anything we have to face here. The truth is, there is not a civilized country in the world which does not find itself at this moment under stress of taking its place in the race of armaments, in providing for social reform, in developing new resources and discovering new means of taxation. There is no country in the world where, when all the proposals of this budget have been carried into law, capital will be less exposed to chances of spoliation or insecurity than in this free trade country."

The town of Westley, N. B., near Nelson, was wiped out by fire on Wednesday. The Yale-Columbia Lumber Company lost a $50,000 mill and $50,000 worth of lumber.

Coroner Inglis intimated that witnesses in the Hicks case were driven from town by the reviling they received from counsel. He also intimated that police interrogation of suspects (sweat-box) was a necessary aid to the discovery of criminals.

NAVAL DEFENCE.

Col. G. T. Denison Urges Canada's Immediate Action.

Canada Should Contribute to Support of Royal Naval College.

Toronto, May 6.—While approving of the resolution passed by the Dominion Parliament with regard to Imperial naval defence, the British Empire League in Canada at its annual meeting last evening in St. George's Hall urged that the Government should take steps speedily to give effect to it. A resolution was also passed expressing appreciation of the action of New Zealand. Col. G. T. Denison in his Presidential address dealt at some length with the naval situation. He deprecated the policy of the establishment of a Canadian fleet of small vessels, holding that the war of the future would be fought on the sea between battleships of large size. He urged, therefore, that Canada should at least contribute a Dreadnought to the Imperial navy.

Premier Whitney moved the following resolution: "That the British Empire League of Canada wishes to express its gratification that the Canadian Parliament has unanimously declared it to be the duty of Canada to assist the empire in naval defence, and hopes that steps will speedily be taken to give effect to such declaration." The resolution, which was seconded by Mr. Alex. McNeill, ex-M. P., and supported by Mr. W. K. George, was carried unanimously.

The main portion of Col. G. T. Denison's Presidential address dealt with the relations of Great Britain and Germany, and the question of naval defence. Germany is preparing for this great struggle without any concealment. It is not only the ambition of the Emperor that is the cause of this. The idea has seized the imagination of the people, who have formed many leagues of enormous numbers everywhere, and who are clamorous for an overpowering fleet. The rapid growth of his navy is marvellous. About three years ago she had only two slips on which Dreadnoughts could be built, but now she has seventeen, and within the last three years the Krupp have increased their works enormously and have added 38,000 men to their staff of employees. While this has been going on in Germany, thousands of skilled workmen from our English dockyards and arsenals have been turned adrift to seek employment elsewhere, and probably among our enemies. Another ominous fact is the statement that Austria is about to build eight Dreadnoughts.

WITNESSES ABUSED. One Reason Why Evidence is Hard to Get.

Winnipeg, May 5.—The jury found at midnight that Louise Pearl James was murdered by a person or persons unknown. Nothing sensational was evolved in the evidence. The feature was the Coroner's charge, who, when pointing out that only the one person who committed the murder was able to say what happened, declared that only by interrogation and pointing out manifest inaccuracies could the truth be arrived at. Further, he said that counsel were permitted to browbeat and cast slurs on witnesses unchecked by the bench, to such an extent that people were very unwilling to undergo the ordeal of the witness box.

Coroner Inglis intimated that witnesses in the Hicks case were driven from town by the reviling they received from counsel. He also intimated that police interrogation of suspects (sweat-box) was a necessary aid to the discovery of criminals.

DANGERS OF NEGLECTING A SORE.

NEVER neglect a cut or sore, however trivial it may appear. Mrs. B. E. Bedwell, of 337, Front-street, Toronto, Ontario, writes: "I had a small sore on the second finger of my left hand. She thought it would get right unaided, but it didn't. Instead, blood-poisoning set in. She says: 'I then tried poultices and an ordinary salve. These, however, did not have the desired effect, and as the finger began to fester, I had to call in a doctor, who lanced it. Despite his care, however, it again festered, and the ointments, liniments, and other preparations which the doctor gave me seemed absolutely unable to bring about any relief. We were told of cases similar to my own in which Zam-Buk had effected a cure when everything else had failed, and we, therefore, decided to give Zam-Buk a trial. It only needed a few days to show the wisdom of this step. The blood-poisoning and inflammation were reduced, and the pain became less acute. In under three weeks from first commencing with Zam-Buk the finger was quite sound again.'" she has arrived safely at her home in Stoughton, Manitoba.

There has been a variety of snow, rain, hail, mud, wind and all combined during the past week. Variety is the spice of life.

Zam-Buk SAVED HIS HAND! WHEN TORN BY TROLLEY ROPE.

WORKING men and women throughout the Dominion find that Zam-Buk is the greatest boon they can have as a healer of accidental cuts, burns, and bruises, as well as skin diseases.

Mr. H. G. Parhase, conductor on the Toronto Street Railway, tells how this great herbal balm benefited him when he met with his accident.

The trolley pole of his coat slipped off the live wire, and the rope was caught in the standard. Parhase held on to the rope until his hand was pulled up to the top of the car. There it was held, and the rope, pulled through his fingers by the force of the moving car, tore and lacerated to a shocking extent three fingers, tearing several pieces of flesh completely away. Zam-Buk was applied, and eased the pain very quickly. Writing to this effect, Mr. Parhase says:

"I had previously had experience of the healing power of Zam-Buk, and the way it soothes cuts and injuries. I, therefore, bound the fingers in Zam-Buk, and it was most gratifying to find in which this balm soothed the pain. Two days after the accident the wounds were closed, and new skin was beginning to form over the top. Each day I dressed the wounds with Zam-Buk, and I am now back again at work with the hand as sound as ever. To look at it you would never know it had been so terribly torn and lacerated.

"I do not think there is anything to equal Zam-Buk as a healer of skin injuries and diseases."

WHAT YOU SHOULD USE ZAM-BUK FOR. Zam-Buk cures pimples, skin-irritations, burns, cuts, piles, festering ulcers and sores, blood-poisoning, salt shains, pruritic skin eruptions, bad legs, discolored ankles, old wounds, scrofula, and all skin-diseases. All Druggists and Stores sell at 50c. box, three for $1.25, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

was found to be in an advanced state, the operation was successful, and the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

When the Nerves get out of Tune

And nervous prostration or partial paralysis brings you to a bed of helplessness. You can remember the case described here and revitalize the wasted nervous system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is so easy to neglect derangements of the nerves until something serious happens.

We say happens because many persons do not think they are really sick until they are laid low by nervous prostration or some form of paralysis. They overlook the headaches, the nervous indigestion, the irritability and nervousness, the loss of sleep and energy and ambition. They forget that for weeks or months life has been more or less of a drag.

Then went the nervous collapse comes it takes patient and persistent treatment to get you on your feet again. The nerve cells must be gradually built up and a little more energy added to the system each day than is expended.

Get in the sunshine, breathe the fresh air, rest and use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and you will get well, but you must be patient and persistent.

Mr. Wm. Graham, Atwood, Ont., writes: "My wife had been ill for some time with nervous prostration and two of the best doctors we could get failed to help her. She gradually became worse and worse, could not sleep and lost energy and interest in life. She was giving up in despair when a friend advised a treat of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"From the first box of this preparation my wife used we noticed improvement and now she is completely cured and as well as she ever was, eats well, sleeps well and feels fully restored. I am satisfied that my wife owes her life to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

DEATH SENTENCE.

ROUGHMOND TO BE HANGED FOR MURDER OF MRS. PEAKE.

Trial of a Revolting Case at the Stratford Assizes—Mr. Justice Riddell Tells Prisoner He Would Probably Have Been Lynched.

Stratford, May 5.—At the Assizes here today the jury found Frank Roughmond guilty of murder, and Judge Riddell sentenced him to be hanged on Monday, June 28. In passing sentence the Judge stated that the crime was one of the most horrible in the criminal annals of Canada. He doubted if he knew of any in his own experience so horrible. Had the prisoner committed such a crime over the border he would have received but short shrift, but in Canada the lynch law was frowned upon. It was, therefore, to the credit of the farmers who found the prisoner, that they handed him over to the proper authorities, where, whether black or white, he would receive a fair trial. Roughmond was visibly affected as sentence was pronounced, though he left the prisoner's box with a steady step.

Frank Roughmond, a negro, on Sept. 30, 1905, was arrested charged with the murder of Mrs. Wm. Peake, a lady aged about 66 years, who resided on the farm with her husband and family in Downie township. The family were in the fields at work. About 3:30 a son of the deceased came to the house to get a drink and found his mother lying dead in the cellar with the negro lying, apparently sleeping, close at hand. Neighbors were notified, and in short order Roughmond was bound with ropes and subsequently handed over to the police. When captured the negro's hands were covered with blood, and his clothing as well was bespattered.

Are Your Children Nervous, Weak?

Nervousness, just like weakness, is a family predisposition. We inherit tendencies to disease just as we inherit physical resemblances. The strain of study, social duties, work at home—all these tend to make nervous troubles among children. No wonder that St. Vitus Dance, Epilepsy, and constant headaches have become alarmingly common. Pale, nervous, listless young people are met everywhere.

MR. PUGSLEY ON HIS DEFENCE

Makes Complete Exposure of Charges Against Him.

Compound of Errors, Inconsistencies and Falsehoods.

Masterly Address in Which He Appeals to the House.

Ottawa, May 5.—In one of the most masterly speeches ever delivered in the House of Commons, Hon. William Pugsley vindicated himself from the charges contained in the report of the New Brunswick Royal Commission, and left the document with scarcely a paragraph upon which any fair-minded man can place the slightest reliance. His deliverance was more than a vindication; it was the most complete and scathing exposure of a supposedly judicial pronouncement that Parliament had ever been called upon to consider. The Daniel who came to judgment was not the Minister of Public Works, but the commission itself, and never has the dignity and honor of a court been more ruthlessly and effectively assailed.

MR. CROTHERS OPENS ATTACK.
The attack upon Mr. Pugsley was opened by Mr. Crothers, K. C., member for West Elgin, who had been deputed by the Opposition to prepare, with the aid of Mr. Powell, counsel for the commission, the case against the Minister of Public Works, but though he had every facility afforded him for substantiating or defending the findings of the commission, he surprised all who had anticipated a scathing arraignment, supported by indisputable facts, by contenting himself with reading portions of the report and the commission's findings.

MR. PUGSLEY'S REPLY.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley was loudly cheered by the Liberals when he rose to reply. He began by expressing regret that matters relating to the cost of the new line during construction, and limited to the month of January, 1904, and another item beginning upon July 1, 1905, and closing upon March 31, 1908, which two items amount in themselves to the total interest of $57,000 more than the total interest which they allow. When I tell you that they leave out of this account every dollar of interest upon the total expenditure between January 1, 1904, and July 1, 1905, a period of eighteen months, and when I tell you further that they absolutely leave out of their calculation every dollar of interest upon the $180,000 which was paid for the Central Railway, upon the $75,000 for improvements, upon the loss in operating, extending over a number of years, and upon other amounts, I think you will accept my statement that this report is utterly unworthy of the consideration of any man who desires to see justice done to a public man.

WORK OF PARTISANS.

The report, so far as being a judicial report, had been prepared by a partisan counsel, who had advised these commissioners in regard to it, and he thought it would have been a more fair and dignified course for the member for West Elgin to have read the evidence, if he had read that evidence and if he believed in the truth of these findings, the main course for him would have been to open up the report and to charge against him, on the floor of the House, and before they were subdued the premises of H. H. Fuller & Co., hardware dealers; E. W. Fraser, flour and feed dealers; Donovan & Brennan, plumbers; J. Simon, junk dealer; G. M. Stephens, clothing, and the Eureka Hotel, were consumed or badly damaged.

STORMY MEETING.

Situation in South Africa is Still Regarded as Critical.

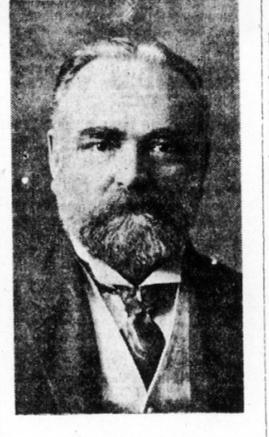

London, May 5.—A Bloemfontein despatch to the Times says: The wildest rumors are current, in consequence of the early adjournment of the federation convention and the subsequent meeting of the Transvaal delegates, that the two parties in the convention have reached the breaking point, and that General Botha and his colleagues are contemplating an immediate departure. Fortunately, these appear to be untrue. The convention meets at the usual hour tomorrow. Matters, however, are still critical, and the spirit of mutual confidence and good-fellowship which prevailed at Cape Town and Durban is conspicuously lacking.

Prof. Chas. A. Puhlow, of Cornell University, has been offered a place on the Royal Commission, which is to investigate the sources of Canada's milk supply.

of the commissioners, and showed that they did not care whether they did justice or not. As further proof of the motives which inspired the commission, their counsel, Mr. Pugsley referred to the fact that Mr. Dunlap, a Montreal accountant, was engaged by the commission to go into the accounts, and that his statement, purporting to show a deficit of $184,000 in connection with the Central Railway, was published a few days before the general election, with the object of damaging him in the eyes of the people and influencing the election. Fortunately he was able to show that that statement was absolutely erroneous and that certain facts had been withheld from Mr. Dunlap. Moreover, that statement was published more than two months before his own examination before the commission.

DID NOT WANT FACTS.
The commissioners, in their manner of conducting the inquiry, did not act as if they wanted the evidence. They did not, as was their duty, invite the President of the company or the directors to file an account of their receipts and disbursements from the beginning to the end. "I can point," said Mr. Pugsley, "to as many as twenty statements in this report which are false upon their face."

A CASE IN POINT.
As one instance he referred to the statement that they had found a note for $10,000 discounted on November 19, 1902, at the People's Bank, Fredericton, and marked "E. L. T.", but that they could not trace what had become of the proceeds. That note was under the signature of Senator Thomson, and the commissioners knew that, and yet they never called the attention of Senator Thomson to it, nor did they ask for an explanation from anybody. If they had asked Senator Thomson they would have found that the note was given by the New Brunswick Railway & Coal Company to Hon. F. P. Thomson and Mr. Whitehead, was endorsed by the directors of the People's Bank, and had received the proceeds, which were placed with the James Barnes Construction Company and put into the construction of the railway, and yet there appeared in the report no mention of the note, and the fact that there was entered into between the New Brunswick Government and the Central Railway for the construction of fifteen miles, and that $75,000 was assigned to Hon. F. P. Thomson.

HON. MR. PUGSLEY.

ANOTHER FALSE STATEMENT.

Another statement in the report that was either knowingly or recklessly false, was that the Provincial Government had, prior to Aug. 1, 1903, without authority or justification, guaranteed the whole of the three per cent. bonds of the company to the extent of $250,000. As a matter of fact the guarantee at that date was only $128,500, and for this there was full legislative authority. And the commissioners had evidence available to them to show the error made in the report.

"This," said Mr. Pugsley, "is a typical, if not a typical error, of the House to show from the official stenographic reports of the New Brunswick Legislature that he or his colleagues had ever made a single misrepresentation or error in the statements given to the bond issue, cost of construction, etc., of the railway, yet the commission made the statement that the reports to the Legislature had been falsified, without first going to the trouble of searching the records to see if such a charge was justified."

Then, as now, members of the Provincial Government were not debarred from practising their profession. Ministerial salaries were small, "I had receipts and expenditures almost balancing," (Liberal) expenditures.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT'S INERTIA.

Concluding, Mr. Pugsley said: "I have endeavored to figure out the interest omitted by the commissioners on a moderate basis, and I am satisfied that if the commissioners had gone to the trouble of ascertaining what the interest paid actually was they would have found it to be larger than the amounts I have submitted. I submit with all confidence to this House, and to the people, that that new rolling stock to the amount of $83,000 had been purchased, making a total of new rolling stock of $78,500.

AFRAID OF THE TRUTH.

Proceeding, he said that, as a matter of fact, it was in the evidence that the stock was handed to Judge Trueman and held in trust for the company, but so afraid were the commissioners to find out the truth that they never called upon one of Judge Trueman's executors to see whether the stock was in their hands or not. Personally he had no doubt that the stock would be shown to be where it had been placed. As for the $40,000 worth of bonds referred to as the balance of the $180,000 paid for the New Brunswick Railway & Coal Company, he said that the fact was that these bonds were handed to Judge Trueman to perfect the title to the railway. Again the commissioners stated that large sums of money, amounting to $190,873, were spent on improvements on the Central Railway, and the conclusion is sought to be drawn that the road could not have been originally worth as much as was given for it. Yet in another part of their report they stated that $23,779 of this amount was spent on absolutely new rolling stock.

BAD BOOKKEEPING CHARGE.

Worse still, the commissioners reported that there had been an absolute want of bookkeeping. In one part they spoke of the books of the James Barnes Construction Company having been destroyed, while in another they stated that Mr. Shannon had had the benefit of the books of the James Barnes Company and all the information that could be obtained. In another place they admitted that the books and accounts in connection with the operation of the railway were kept at the company's office, and that they were well kept. As a matter of fact Mr. Evans, chief engineer of the company, furnished to the company from month to month a detailed statement of the cost of the works, and a copy of that statement he produced.

ALL GOOD TORIES.

Touching on the personnel of the commission, Mr. Pugsley said that care had been taken to select the best good, solid Tories and a few counsel. He then commented on the refusal of the Hazen Government to furnish a statement in detail of the interest when asked in the Legislature, and showed that the statement of the commissioner that Mr. Evans, chief engineer of the company, had made a false report as to the cost of the road was absolutely unfounded. He read Mr. Evans' report, which stated the cost to be $74,547, and yet the commissioners represented that Mr. Evans had put the cost at $140,000.

As an illustration of how little reliance was to be placed on the opinions of the commissioners, he cited the case of the road which was not worth more than $11,000. They had not taken the trouble to get the opinion of an engineer, but had inspected the road, themselves, and that was their estimate, although the company had the advice of an eminent engineer that it was worth at least $21,000 per mile.

BONDS HONESTLY HANDLED.

With reference to the handling of the bonds, with regard to which the commissioners made insinuations, he had to enable the bond which came into his hands was hypothecated as security for the needs of the company, and that the proceeds of the notes were placed to the credit of the company and checked out by the secretary, with the exception of one or two instances, when the company being hard up, the proceeds were used to enable the James Barnes Construction Company to pay their men. He characterized the statements made in the report with reference to his connection with the New Brunswick Real Estate Company, as misleading and unfair, and contrary to the evidence, and showed that in regard to the dates when the bonds were guaranteed the commissioners were in error.

A CORRECT STATEMENT.

As a final repudiation of the charge of the commissioners that there was a shortage in the disbursements upon the Central Railway, compared with the receipts, Mr. Pugsley submitted a statement in which he included all the items conceded by the commissioners themselves as having been paid, and added a number which they had entirely ignored. This did not include advances, which were included in the audit of Mr. Sharpe, which added, would give a total of $972,033, or $14,000 more than the total receipts. If they deducted $14,000 from the salaries, as part of the amount remitted by Mr. Sharpe, they had receipts and expenditures almost balancing. (Liberal) expenditures.

FULL OF ERRORS.

As a further evidence of the unreliability of the report Mr. Pugsley called attention to the statement in connection with the fifteen-mile section that the Province had obtained only a few cheap sidings and a quantity of rolling stock valued at between $20,000 and $30,000. In another part of the report, however, it was stated

THOMAS C. WATKINS HAMILTON ONTARIO

When these commissioners issued their report they ought to have been satisfied that the interest was absolutely accurate. They recommended that the directors of the company, and more especially the ex-officio directors, Mr. Tweedie and myself, should be called on to render an account of these receipts and expenditures. I have always been ready to render an account of my dealings with this company, and I would have been glad if, instead of transferring the matter to this forum and taking up the time of this Parliament, the Provincial Government had taken the steps to carry out the recommendations of the commissioners and have an accounting. But the Legislature has protracted, and no action was taken. I have waited since the end of March for some action to be taken on the part of the Provincial Government to have the recommendations of the commissioners carried out, and some steps taken for an accounting. They have not chosen to take any steps to that end, although the law has been present Attorney-General and Provincial Secretary are ex-officio directors of the company, and are entitled to call upon me and every other director for an accounting. They have taken no steps to do so, and why? Because if they had brought the action in the present Court, they would have known that probably the objection would be raised in this Parliament that the matter was sub judice, and therefore could not be brought up here, and they would be farther away than ever from their cherished design of driving me from the Government.

MR. PUGSLEY TAKES ACTION.

"They have not done so, and I have taken the only course open to me. I yesterday instructed my solicitor, the Legislature having prorogued, only a few days ago, to issue a summons in the Supreme Court of Equity in New Brunswick, making the New Brunswick Coal & Railway Company and other defendants parties to the proceedings, so as to bring all the parties before the court for the purpose of taking an accounting as to the receipts and expenditures made by that company, and for the purpose of having a decree made as to the state of its accounts. Having taken that course, it seems to me that I have done all I properly can do, and what it is right and proper I should do. Let me say this, that while I may not be perhaps as careful as I ought to be, particularly in reference to my own affairs, and although in reference to those loans that were made to the company, I ought perhaps to have taken a receipt or a promissory note from the company, yet I want to say that the man has yet to live who can stand up and say that I ever wronged any individual or the public in respect to a single dollar. I have always been prepared for the Legislature of New Brunswick, where I spent many years, and before the people of the Province who know me, to meet any charges which might have ever been made or can be made against me.

APPEALS TO THE HOUSE.

"In this Parliament I have a comparative stranger, but I am endeavored to present the facts of the case. I have endeavored to point out the errors, inconsistencies, falsehoods and inaccuracies of the gross kind, evidence of the greatest partisanship in this report. I think I can acquit my conscience of having done anything but what I should do in presenting the whole case to this House. In conclusion, I submit myself to the judgment of this House. I recognize that I could not remain a member of this House or a member of this Government if I ceased to have the respect and regard of my fellow-members. I feel that I could be no longer worthy to sit here of I had been guilty of an act unworthy of a public man. I desire, therefore, to leave my case to the judgment of this House, and in order that the members on both sides may feel free to discuss the case and comment upon it I would ask the liberty to retire while the discussion is going on and until the House comes to a conclusion upon it." (Loud Liberal cheers, amid which Mr. Pugsley walked from the chamber.)

MR. CROCKETT SUPPORTS REPORT.

Mr. Crockett, who rose at 11 o'clock to attempt the rehabilitation of the now thoroughly discredited report of the commission, declared that he was sorry the Minister had withdrawn from the Chamber, as he wished to propound to him certain pertinent questions. There was, said Mr. Crockett, not a single finding of the commission not borne out by the evidence, and the charges that there was a total misappropriation of $134,000 still held good. The company was, he maintained, solely the child of the Minister of Public Works, who managed the whole enterprise and associated with himself the chief members of the Provincial Liberal machine. Mr. Crockett went on in considerable length into the evidence with regard to the bookkeeping methods of the company, and declared that the charge of carelessness in accounting was clearly substantiated. Mr. Crockett noted that the first alleged error in the commission's report disclosed by Mr. Pugsley was in reference to the disposal of a note for $10,000 discounted at the bank by Hon. F. P. Thomson. The explanation of the Minister was that this $10,000 had gone to pay the Barnes Construction Company for work in connection with the construction of the railway.

"I challenge the Minister or the member for Carleton to show that this money is credited to the railway company in the books of the Barnes Construction Company," said Mr. Crockett.

"I accept the challenge," said Mr. Carvell. "He was proceeding to point out the credit entry of $10,000 under the date of February, 1903, when Mr. Crockett objected that this challenge referred only to the date the note was discounted—namely, November, 1902."

Mr. Carvell said he would give Mr. Crockett his answer in due course.

"Similarly," continued Mr. Crockett, "nearly every statement made by the Minister of Public Works this afternoon is open to contradiction from the evidence."

Although Sir Thos. Shaughnessy stated a few days ago that the C. P. In addition to the order for 35 locomotives placed by the C. O. which was announced last week, the company has engagement for 15 more.

Bigamist Sent Down—Children Wanted to Kiss "Daddy."

Toronto, Ont., May 6.—William Virgin, of Toronto, who pleaded guilty to bigamy, was to-day sentenced to 23 months in the Central Prison. Virgin is only 28 years of age, and both wives live in Toronto. He only lived with his second wife a short time. A pathetic feature of the sentence is that some $2,000 of the attempts of Virgin's children by his first wife to get into the dock to get a kiss from "Daddy," whom they greeted with affectionate cries as soon as he made his appearance.

Gossip and Comment

A Marathon trust is buying Pat Powers, the New York speed and ball merchant, just now.

About the Marathons to be run in Montreal on May 24 Pat says nothing except that the promoters of neither race will get any men under contract to him.

The management of Maple Leaf Park is not overlooking the lovers of outdoor sport in the effort to give Hamilton one of the finest summer parks on the continent.

The baseball diamond will be made one of the finest in the city, and it is likely that one of the best city leagues will play there during the summer.

The half-mile track will also be put in good shape, and the Hamilton Driving Club will hold weekly matinees at the park, as it did last year, and special trotting races may be held during the season.

Regarding the opening of the Eastern League season in Toronto to-day, the Telegram says:

But one day more and the usual crowd of spectators will push and shove their way to the ferry boats and on to Hamilton's Point, there to witness the downfall of Baltimore, if at all possible.

And can you not see the look of chagrin and astonishment upon the face of the "loot-taker" governor, as they say in the United States of America, when he becomes hep to the fact that he will have to take orders from Joseph Downey, M. P. E. as used to be, by a single look, cause the member for Wellington to fade away when positions were reversed and His Honor sat on the government side of the House, before he got his present situation, everything being as it is.

His Honor thinks it no idle dream to say he not only knows the game of politics quite as well as the pride of the Royal City, but also the technique of baseball, having studied the game in Hamilton in the time of Pete Wood and as far back as the days when the mountaineers considered Frank Elmore the finest first baseman that ever represented that burg.

President Potter of the Buffalo team, received a telegram from Hunter Hill, saying that he had forwarded a cheque for $250, the sum which Hill was bought for the Hamilton club.

It is rather suspected from the fact that the telegram is from Hill himself that he bought himself. Hill is no pauper ball player, but he probably would not have given $1,250 for himself.

Federation is Likely to Make Peace.

Another Baseball War Imminent.

Toronto, May 6.—President Merrick occupied the chair at the meeting of the Board of Governors of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union at the King Edward Hotel last night.

The articles of affiliation with the British Columbia A. A. U. and the Australasia A. A. U. were approved, thus extending the scope of the C. A. A. U.

The following new records were accepted by the C. A. A. U.: 3-mile walk, 22 min. 32 sec., made by Geo. Goulding, at annual championships of Y. M. C. A.

Running broad jump, 23 feet 8 1/2 in., made by C. D. Bricker, at Olympic trials.

Shooting 12 lb. shot, 51 ft. 5 1/2 in., made by J. H. Gillies, at Vancouver, in December, 1908.

Those present at the meeting were: President Merrick, in the chair; Deputy Chief Stark, Controller J. J. Ward, J. C. Lithgow, Halifax; Dr. Bruce Macdonald, Francis Nelson, Burton Darling, Sergt.-Major H. R. Nicholls, E. H. Watson, F. R. Sinks, H. W. Parsons, Thos. Brownlee, Capt. T. A. E. World.

The president will appoint a committee to supervise the selection of a team to be sent to Winnipeg for the Dominion championships in July.

The articles of affiliation with the British Columbia Amateur Athletic Association were approved, and the officers authorized to sign and return them.

The affiliation with the Australasian Amateur A. U. was reported completed, and that with the A. A. U. of England still in progress.

The controversy with the Garrison A. A. U. was disposed of amicably by endorsing the action of the president in the matter and restoring the G. A. A. U. to good standing.

It was stated some time ago from Toronto that the C. A. A. U. was not dealing with the Federation, which it declined to recognize, but with the M. A. A. U.

King's Platers Galloped Yesterday.

Toronto, May 6.—With a good track and the most enjoyable weather for weeks, there was a great air of business about Woodbine yesterday.

The best mile of the day was done before many of the clocks were on the track. This was by Al Powell, with the stable of Nat Ray.

Fort Garry showed Desert Star the way home for a mile done in 1:47 1/2, though the Cook Plater carried the Fort Hunter colt out at the first turn.

Chicago, May 6.—Another baseball war appears possible to close followers of the game. This belief is given color by the announcement of the national commission that the revised national agreement, as framed up to suit the American Association and the Eastern League, has been abrogated.

The Daily News recites the action of last winter which gave these two leagues a special rating with the privilege of drafting from class A and other minor leagues.

Now comes the announcement from Cincinnati that these two organizations have failed in their part of the agreement, and the whole thing is off, leaving all minor leagues in the same position that they occupied last year—the American Association and the Eastern League falling back to the A classification.

BACK TO OLD AGREEMENT. Cincinnati, O., May 6.—In speaking of the rumored baseball war yesterday, President Chairman August Hermann, of the national commission, said:

There was no ulterior motive in abrogating the agreement as revised last January that gave several concessions to the American Association and the Eastern League.

Some agreement had to be used and as the date set for the signing of the revised agreement had passed, there was nothing else to do but to go back to the old agreement.

"We might have done this without saying anything about it, but the announcement that the revised agreement would not go into effect as per the schedule was simply to enlighten all of those concerned who might have thought that this agreement was in effect."

ONE IN THE EASTERN. Only one game was played in the Eastern League yesterday. That was at Baltimore, and the Baltimore had the game well in hand until the eighth inning when Pearson weakened.

NATIONAL LEAGUE SCORES. Chicago 5, Cincinnati 2. Pittsburgh 6, St. Louis 5. Brooklyn 8, Philadelphia 3.

Stony McGlynn, whom St. Louis Nationals turned loose as a dead one, has won four straight games for Milwaukee, all four being shut-outs. Wood celebrated Tuesday night. He downed the Tigers, which is always a signal for some of the red light stuff. By the way, it appears that good left-handers should bother Jennings more than ever.

AMUSEMENTS

"Brewster's Millions," with Edward Abeles and the original company, returns to the Grand next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, seats for which go on sale Saturday morning. One becomes interested in reading a book, and the characters at times seem as living, breathing friends. It is, therefore, easy to understand how, after having followed the adventures of a popular hero or heroine of fiction and having been taken into the confidence of these persons, that one should have a desire to meet them face to face. In renewing the acquaintance of old friends made over from cold type into flesh and blood, one feels a satisfaction not easily described. It is perhaps not too much to say that George Barr McCutcheon's story, "Brewster's Millions," has had as many readers as any American work of fiction recently published. It is therefore natural that the combined armies of fiction readers and theatre-goers will look forward to the appearance of Edward Abeles here again with much pleasure. Frederic Thompson's name is a sufficient warrant for the public confidence in the matter of complete pictorial surroundings and an acting company of the first class.

"AN ENGLISHMAN'S HOME."
No play in recent years has caused more talk than the Grand Theatre's drama, "An Englishman's Home," which has been almost the sole topic of conversation in London for the last three months; in fact, ever since the night of its first production in that city. It will be seen at the Grand here the week after next. Charles Frohman will send the same company which played this remarkable piece for eight weeks at the Criterion Theatre in New York. The organization is almost entirely English in its make up, and the production of the play is an exact duplication of the English one.

FENBERG STOCK COMPANY.
At the Grand last night the Fenberg Stock Company presented Owen Davis' new western drama, "The King and Queen of Gamblers." The play is a thrilling one, and there are some real clever situations in it. It was well presented by the capable company. Last night the bill will be "The Millionaire's Revenge," and to-morrow night "The Hawk and the Dove" will be presented.

SHEA'S NEW THEATRE.
Toronto, May 6.—The first sod for the building of the new Shea's Theatre on the southeast corner of Richmond and Victoria streets was turned this afternoon by the Hengler Sisters, who are the headliners at Shea's this week. The new building will be erected at a cost of about $200,000, and will be probably the largest theatre in the city. It will be built of red and terra cotta pressed brick.

WAR ON LABOR

Statement of Labor Educational Association in Circular.

The seventh annual meeting of the Labor Educational Association of Ontario will be held at Berlin on Victoria Day. Notices of the meeting, signed by Chas. G. Bird, president, and Otto H. Zimmer, secretary, Berlin, are being sent to the various unions, requesting them to appoint delegates. Following is an extract from the circular letter: "The past year has been a strenuous one in the history of organized labor. The industrial depression has emboldened unscrupulous employers to make war upon our movement, and it was never more essential that we should get together than at the present moment. Our association has had to recognize the fact that during the past year it was almost impossible to arouse the various organized centres to action. A large number of union men have been unemployed, and in many cases heavy calls have been made on the local unions to carry on expensive battles to maintain conditions previously won. As was to be expected, our association has felt the effect of the depression, but we are happy to state that it has accomplished a valuable educational work."

DUNDAS HAS DOG BY-LAW

And About Two-Thirds of the Owners Pay No Taxes.

Dundas, May 6.—The adjourned meeting of the Town Council was held last evening. Mayor Lawrason, Reeve Lawrason and Councillors Bertram, Pennington, Lunn, Moss and Mount were present. The question of keeping dogs within the corporation was the first matter taken up, and it was decided to leave the preparation of a by-law regarding the keeping of dogs within the corporation to the Mayor. Deputy Reeve and Councillors Pennington and Lunn.

The usual grant of $150 to the 77th Band was voted on condition that twelve concerts be given during the season, the Mayor to decide where the concerts shall be held.

A communication from the citizens, suggesting that a charge be permitted at two band concerts to be held in the park during the season, the proceeds to be applied towards finishing the log cabin in the park, was not acted upon. On motion of Councillors Moss and Pennington, the H. & D. Railway will be notified that the town is desirous of proceeding with the work on the canal in accordance with the award made by Engineer Jennings. Arrangements will be made for a meeting between the Property Committee and the company to arrange details of the work.

The dog by-law, introduced on Monday night, was considered in committee of the whole and passed its final stages. Its principal provisions are that a license of $2 shall be paid for each dog and $3 for each bitch. Breeders and dealers shall pay an annual license of $5. Any dog found running at large shall be impounded, and if not redeemed in 48 hours shall be sold or destroyed.

Another by-law was passed appointing John S. Fry to enforce obedience to the above by-law.

James Wright, jun., was appointed keeper of the dog pound under the provisions of the dog by-law.

The President thanked Mr. MacEachern and hoped to have him with the League again before he left the city.

TOO MANY HOLIDAYS.

St. Petersburg, May 6.—Contending that Russia suffers from too many holidays, the Council of Empire has entrusted to a special committee a bill which would eliminate 28 of the annual holidays. There are at present 91 public holidays in Russia, including Sundays. Many of the holidays fall upon days in the season when work in the field has to be suspended, and this, it is claimed, is why agriculturalists are so backward in this country.

SMUGGLED OPIUM.

San Francisco, May 6.—Details of a plot to outfit the Federal officials of this port and to evade the statute which forbids the importation of opium into the State of California, has come to the knowledge of the local surveyor.

READ CAREFULLY

And Note Every Condition

Contestants are required to make a list of different cities or towns with a population of 500 or over in the Dominion of Canada, using for letters to make names of cities or towns any of the letters in the reading matter within the heavy black-bordered square opposite.

EXAMPLE: Take any city or town of 500 or over (Hamilton for example), find an H, and cross it out, then find an A and cross that out, then an M, and I, L, T, O, N. This uses up eight of the letters of the square, and you cannot use these letters again. Take another city or town and proceed in the same manner. Continue this until you have made as many cities and towns as you can.

Cities or towns of the same name can be used only once. Do not use abbreviations. Arrange your list neatly and write on one side of paper only. Arrange your lists by provinces. Give total number of letters used from square. BE SURE AND NUMBER YOUR LISTS OF TOWN AND CITIES.

Each contestant must fill out coupon completely and pin on outside of list, also write full name and home address on first page of list.

Read the above carefully—Make note of every condition. Then make out your list of Cities and Towns. Start on your work for one of the big rewards to-day. Each answer as received at our store will be carefully numbered, the numbers running consecutively, so in case of a tie the first answer received will have the preference.

WARNING To forestall any false statements that we have raised our regular prices for this contest, we will offer $1,000 in cash to any person who can show such statement to be true.

Parties entering the contest will do so with the understanding that it is of no material interest to us who get the prizes, as this is purely advertising on our part.

ONLY ONE MEMBER OF A FAMILY CAN SEND IN A LIST

Read this Coupon carefully and write plainly. Pin this on the outside of your list, as none will be accepted without coupon attached.

I submit herewith my list, containing towns and cities subject to all terms and conditions of the contest, and I hereby agree to abide by the decision of the Judges.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED.

U. S. Missionary Places Number at Twenty-Three Thousand.

Armenians Fought Fiercely to Protect Themselves and Families.

Government Connived at It—British Warship For Protection.

Adana, Asiatic Turkey, April 28, via Constantinople, May 6.—The Rev. Stephen R. Trowbridge, a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, estimates the number of Armenians killed in the province of Adana since the outbreak of the anti-Christian rioting at 23,000. Continuing the missionary said today:

"The surviving Armenians in the entire province are largely women and children. They amount to about 25,000 souls and are to-day without homes or anything. A most pitiable and wretched multitude is passing up and down the streets of Adana like a lost people. They keep flocking to the big factory yard where a dose of flour is given out by the relief committee. Crowds of broken-hearted women and children are coming in from the country to even greater misery in the city."

Mr. Trowbridge has written a further account of the events at Adana, in which he says: "The Armenians did not die without resisting and the fury of the Turks increased in proportion as the Armenians succeeded in slaying Mohammedans. For two days preceding the outbreak there had been a bitter feud between Moslems and Christians. In one vineyard shooting was begun and hatred was aroused on April 10th. An Armenian who had been beaten shot one of his opponents dead and wounded two others. This man escaped to Mersina and took passage on a vessel."

"The Turks in Adana then assumed a menacing attitude, which greatly alarmed the Moslem killed in the vineyard was purposely dragged to an open square and left there exposed by the Turks as a fanatical challenge."

"Subsequently events have shown clearly that the Adana Government acquiesced, if it did not actually participate, in the cruel and indiscriminate assaults which were thereupon made by fire, rifle and sword upon the entire Armenian community. Two Christian prisoners who escaped from government headquarters say that horses came in at intervals from outlying towns and villages and reported to the military authorities as follows: "Hamidieh is finished," or "Osminieh is finished," meaning that the Armenian population of these places had been put to the sword. The military officers received this information as a matter of course."

Continuing Mr. Trowbridge relates how he had reached the governor of Adana by a dash across the city carrying a Turkish flag and accompanied by two Turks.

"The Governor was running about in dismay," Mr. Trowbridge says, "and could scarcely give a coherent answer to my questions and demands. I told him of the murder of Henry Maurer and D. M. Rogers, American missionaries. His answer was: 'We can't be responsible.' To this I replied: 'You must be responsible; we have no other force to rely on except the Government. You have completely abandoned us through this crisis.'"

"On his way back to the mission house Mr. Trowbridge observed that all the shops on the central square of Adana, both Christian and Moslem, had been looted."

"Armenians begging refuge at Government headquarters were killed in the market place. Villagers who brought prisoners to the Government headquarters were asked: 'Why did you not finish these rascals in these villages; why have you brought them here?'"

It is Mr. Trowbridge's opinion that a plot was on foot to destroy the 30,000 Armenians in Adana Province.

BRITISH BATTLESHIP TRIUMPH. Beirut, Asiatic Turkey, May 6.—The situation at Suedia, where a number of Armenians have been massacred, has been relieved as a result of the presence and exertions of the captain of the British battleship Triumph and the British consulate at Alexandria, who went down the coast on board the Triumph.

The two officials visited Caladonia and Casius, and found those towns inhabitable charnel houses. There are over 1,600 helpless and destitute women in a village on the sea coast near Kessab.

EVERY MAN KILLED. Marsh, May 6.—A letter received by passenger from Harri says that every man there has been killed. Only women, girls and boys under ten have been left alive. The churches and houses were plundered and most of them were burned. The letter, which is from the widow of a clergyman, says:

"We have nothing to eat or wear. We are living on grass like animals. Worse than this, the Moslems are trying to force the women and girls to become Mohammedans. Already some of the women have been carried away."

APPEAL ALLOWED. In the Court of Appeal yesterday, Mr. J. L. Counsel appeared to oppose the motion of Mr. G. Campbell in the case of the Long Lumber Company vs. Tennant, from the order of the County Court of Wentworth made in chambers on March 10th, 1909. The court allowed the appeal with costs and ordered the trial unless otherwise ordered by the trial judge.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

P. C. Gibbs and family are enjoying two weeks of holidays with John Lyle, town clerk of Bowmanville.

Mr. J. Wesley Swan, official photographer of the Grand Trunk Railway system, is registered at the Hotel Royal.

The many friends of Miss Mae Cheni, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, will be glad to hear that she is recovering.

A Grand Trunk Railway System circular announces that Mr. J. D. McLennan has been appointed auditor of freight accounts, vice Mr. Wm. Clark, assigned to other duties.

Miss Jessie M. Armstrong, who takes the part of Pitti-Sing in "The Mikado," although suffering with a severe attack of laryngitis, will take her part in the performance this evening.

Mrs. Carpenter, Winona, was seized with an attack of convulsions in the Terminal Station this morning. The ambulance was called and she was taken to the City Hospital where she quickly revived.

Through an error it was announced yesterday that only dollar seats could be reserved for "The Mikado" at Bennett's Theatre. The 50 and 75-cent seats can also be reserved.

A number of men working on the excavation for Wright's warehouse on Park street north, had a close call this morning. One of Yates' walls, loaded with stone, upset at the edge of the cellar.

The exhibition of work of the Ontario Society of Artists, which was to have opened here on Friday evening under the auspices of the Art League, has been postponed, the O. S. A. being unable to send the exhibit at this time.

Mr. A. H. Heming, of Morgan's ticket office, and Mr. John Merriman, of the P. R. ticket office, have gone to Montreal to attend the banquet to be given on the steamship Laurentian by the White Star Co. this evening. Mr. Heming will visit Boston and New York before returning.

A flat-car that is being used in the construction work of the Street Railway, was jumped the track on James street north where the pavement has been removed yesterday. The car was used for carrying gravel and ties, but luckily at the time was empty, and by being drawn back to higher ground was easily put on the track again.

THE MIKADO.

Final Rehearsal Went Splendidly and Everything Ready.

The full dress rehearsal for "The Mikado" passed off well last night. The orchestra is excellent, too. The boxes are all taken for the three nights, and only a few good seats are left in the parquet. On Saturday night several of the boxes will be occupied by the foot-lights. Arthur Garthwaite will sing "Mr. Tiger," composed by Martin G. Worth and music by Dr. Harris, and all the chorus will join in. The arrangements have been very systematically made and everything planned by Mrs. Crerar.

The Municipal Chapter had charge of the finances, St. Elizabeth, of the costumes; St. Cecilia of the music; Caxton, of the press, printing and advertising; Paardoburg of the decorations; and St. Hilda of the chaperones for rehearsals. Each one has done its work faithfully and well, and to-night will bring a grand success.

A GOOD COLT

Run Over by Fire Wagon and Had to be Shot.

The fire department was called to put out a small blaze yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock in a frame dwelling, 122 Ray street south, tenanted by A. Hack-bush. The damage was slight.

Two colts owned by Mr. A. B. Baxter got loose and ran on ahead of one of the fire wagons, while on the way. A boy standing near by waved his arms, and one of the horses, becoming frightened, reared and fell, the wagon passing right over its hind leg and breaking it. Dr. Groves was called, but the colt had to be shot.

ABOUT PHONES.

Independent Lines Can Get Access to All Railway Stations.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Ont., May 6.—An important general order was made by the Railway Commission this morning giving independent telephone companies access to all railway stations. It was ruled that in spite of any agreement for the exclusive use of a railway station between the Bell Telephone Company and a railway, any independent telephone company shall have the right to have an instrument placed in any railway station. The order was given in the Sherbrooke case, and has now been made general.

AUTO STRUCK MOTORMAN.

Last night an automobile going north on James street ran into a street railway motorman who had just stepped off his car to enter the office at Gore street. It was purely accidental, and no one was to blame. Although the motorman was thrown down he was not badly hurt, escaping with a sprained wrist and a few bruises. The auto was passing the car as the motorman stepped from behind it and the driver could not see him until it was too late to stop. The motorman was able to resume work after having his wrist bound up.

Pianos and Organs Cheap.

We have a large selection of very fine square pianos, to be sold cheap, on terms of 75 cents per week. Good organs, cheap at 50 cents per week. Come in and see them. 127 King east. Opposite Terminal Station.

FINE DRESSES AND COSTS.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, Ont., May 6.—Robert Campbell Hamilton, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, was fined $75 and costs at the Police Court to-day on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday last. The liquor was dispensed in the bath room, according to the police. A Provisional constable found liquor at two places in the country yesterday as a result of a raid. Prosecution, it is said, will be entered.

DARK LANTERN INVESTIGATION.

and the officer might be suffering an injustice as a result; he said that there were officials appointed to attend to the enforcing of the regulations.

"And those who are appointed to attend to it are public servants too!" suggested the reporter.

"And they are attending to it," was the reply.

When asked if it was true that the commissioners intended to hold all their sessions in camera after this, the Mayor said that where any charges were made, and it would assist in getting information if the meetings were behind closed doors, they would be private. This rested with the people making the charges. Many people, he said, were afraid to say anything because their names would appear in print. The action of the commissioners yesterday in investigating the case, he said he hoped would be an invitation to the public to lay any complaints before the board.

"I wish," said the Mayor to-day, "that some of the people who come to the city pleading for charity would take a lesson from the case of a respectable woman, over seventy years of age, whose only income is $3 a week earned by her daughter. This keeps them both and very often the mother goes short of food. She owns a couple of little houses, and pays her taxes regularly. The case came to our attention when notices were sent out by the Board of Works department asking all property owners where the roads are about to be paved to make water or sewer connections at once. This woman thought it was compulsory for her to do so, and came to the city to ask that the order might not be enforced in her case. She told us the circumstances under which she was living, and that she was too proud to appeal for charity. There is certainly a lesson there for some of the people who ask charity from the city."

Chairman Allan announced to-day that the Board of Works, with the assistance of the manufacturers who will be benefitted, has arranged to fix up Lottridge street. This is in such bad shape that cartage companies refuse to haul freight over it. The Hendrie Cartage Company has offered to haul the stone free of charge if the city will supply it. This is satisfactory to the Board of Works, and the work will be begun at once.

The work of installing the air pressure system on the mountain side for pumping water to the top of the hill promises to prove a much more expensive job than was expected. Work has been going on for two weeks, and very little progress has been made on account of the nature of the soil and the heavy slides. Every time a rain storm comes it causes a slide, which fills up the excavation. City Engineer Barrow says that with two weeks of fair weather these difficulties can be overcome.

City Treasurer Leckie's statement from the first of the year to date, giving the expenditure of the various departments, shows small overruns in the smallpox hospital account and also for the new east end fire station. The statement in detail is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Department Name and Amount. Includes Administration of Criminal Justice, Board of Works, Board of Health, Board of Health Smallpox, Cemetery, City Hall, Charity, Fire Department, Hospital, House of Refuge, Harbor, Interest, Jail, Markets, Miscellaneous, Police Department, Printing and Advertising, General Salaries, General Sewer Construction, Sewage Disposal, Waterworks, Waterworks Expense, Weigh Scales, Package Claims, Industrial Commission, Eastern Areas Sewer, Western and East, East End Fire Station, Smallpox Hospital, Special Paying Fund.

Complaints are being received at the City Hall that the street railway is taking up too much of the street in reconstructing the roadbed on James street and that people have to walk almost two blocks before they can cross the street. The company is remodeling this to-day and placing a number of board walks at short distances.

The Finance Committee this afternoon will consider the by-law for the issue of debentures for the purchase of a hospital site; receive the report of the sub-committee on the Kramer-Irwin costs; consider an offer from the Cataract to repurchase and illuminate Gore Park and extension, also the city hall sign, and fix the date for Civic Holiday.

City Engineer Barrow is moving out of his old office to-day. He will have an office in the committee room at the northwest corner of the building for the balance of the year. The new engineer will be here on Monday.

There is very little business for the Internal Management Committee of the Board of Education to deal with to-night. The Building Committee, and Technical Sub-Committee will also meet to-night.

The City Council will meet to-morrow night to pass the Cataract contract, the Hospital and Board of Control by-laws on to the people.

Building permits were issued this morning to A. W. Peene for alterations to 130 Wentworth street south, for Geo. J. Guy, to cost $300, and to J. L. Scheller, for two frame houses on Pictou street, between Ferguson and Avenue and Wellington street, to cost $1,000.

CROWN HAS GIVEN ITS INSTRUCTIONS.

any such information? It is incredible that she would not."

NO QUARREL SAYS COUNSEL. "The officials were endeavoring to lead up to the fact that a quarrel had occurred between Florence and Ethel; what do you know about that?"

"They called every witness they had; they kept nothing back. There was no quarrel. They had to see that they were going to call. He was supposed to be going to say that on that morning there was a quarrel in the house. The Crown attorney investigated that and I investigated that, and there was no truth in it; what the boy, who is a man of forty, did say, was that as long as he had been delivering stuff to that house that he never heard an unpleasant word in the family."

"As to the impost itself, the next worst thing to the crime of murder is the character of a man, who might better lay a person in his grave or her grave than to send him through life with a cloud over his character, with a blasted reputation. It is one of the duties of the Crown to try to prevent such a thing as that. I think that the Crown should be restrained just as much as should the individual."

"I thoroughly disapprove of such methods as were used in this enquiry. The coroner's court is not only an ancient court, but it is a fishlight court—the old courts lighted with fish-oil torches in olden days. All the ancient courts were barbarous, and they have had to be carefully pruned as time goes on till now you don't recognize any of them as compared with their original form."

"The method that should be used when such a tremendously important matter as this has to be investigated, is not by the coroner and his jury, but by the United States grand jury scheme. In that case the witnesses go before the specially called grand jurors, who are sworn to secrecy, and they hear the evidence. If it tells heavily against any person, an indictment is returned against that person and then he is brought up for trial. His trial takes place in a properly constituted court governed by the strict rules of evidence. The judge in this court is a man trained in the law, of good judgment and of experience. A coroner is untrained in the matter of law and the statutes. He does not know the law, what his own rights are, and he does not know what are the rights of the person against whom suspicion may be directed."

"The secret method of the grand jury is good for justice, because if a man knows that what he tells will be divulged to his family, and to his private life, that if he is asked to answer in public he will simply refuse to do, and thus balk the ends of justice."

"I have probed deep into the occurrence at the Kinrade home three months ago, and I believe it occurred as Florence Kinrade said, and to his private life, that if he is asked to answer in public he will simply refuse to do, and thus balk the ends of justice."

"What has been the effect of all this procedure on Florence Kinrade?"

"The examination of character, by her, and her family do not repeat to her, naturally, much of the surmises and guesses of the public."

FACTS OF THE CASE.

Here are some facts about the case: Date of murder—February 25th, 1909. Date of verdict—May 4th, 1909. Length of coroner's enquiry—68 days. Actual sessions of inquest—15. Total time of sessions—54 hours. Witnesses examined—32. Probable cost to crown, so far—$6,500.

Lawyers engaged on the case—At inquest, 4; at Osgoode Hall, 4; total, 8. Detectives engaged—From 7 to 10. Doctors engaged in post-mortem, mental examination, etc.—10 or 12. Policemen and constables guarding the entrances to the courtroom and keeping order—12. Newspapers represented by staff and local correspondents—15.

Witnesses present—50. Wiregrams sent by telegraph companies in newspaper despatches—About 800,000. Telegraph tolls on this copy—About $2,500.

Jury's finding—An open verdict, with a request for further investigation. Effect on law—A probable change in legislation regarding coroners. Effect on public opinion—A feeling that the last has been heard of the famous Kinrade case so far as court proceedings are concerned.

NON-UNION MEN BROUGHT IT ON.

think the row would have happened if King had not stopped the defendant and asked him for a match. King was standing in front of the restaurant in which he boarded, and would have had no trouble in getting matches there. It looked a little suspicious, the Magistrate thought. He did not think that Johnston had any right to influence them against going back to their work in the foundries. The Magistrate, however, said he was more in sympathy with men who worked, even if they were non-union men, than with those who did not, and assured the men that they could rely upon justice if they were in any way threatened by people because they were working in non-union shops. The case was dismissed.

Rather a mixed-up case was that of Charles Wilds. Samuel McTearley charged him with stealing a whip. Wilds pleaded not guilty and yet admitted that the whip belonged to the plaintiff. McTearley said he missed his whip about a week ago and a couple of days after saw it on Wilds' wagon. When he asked for it Wilds refused to give it up, and the warrant was made out. Wilds said that the whip was given to him by a teamster by the name of Crossley. Crossley said that this was right and that he had found it. The Magistrate was open to conviction, and said that he could give the defendant the benefit of the doubt, even though Wilds might well be found guilty of stealing the whip, he said. He impressed upon him, however, the seriousness of such an offense.

Peter McCullough had no place to sleep last night, so he went to the police station and asked for a night's lodging. He got it, and this morning the Magistrate charged Peter $2 for his bed. The defendant said that on the day of the alleged assault Flynn went home in a very disheveled and nervous condition to have something to eat, but he refused and wanted $1 to go and see the doctor, saying that he was sick. She did not give it to him, and he picked up a lamp and threw it at her, hitting her on the head, she said. P. C. Campbell testified to making the arrest. Flynn was sent up for trial.

Thomas E. Stewart, of Toronto, was arrested last night for being drunk. He was let out on $5 bail, and as he did not appear at the court this morning, was fined that amount.

James Burns was fined $2 for being drunk.
