RAY vs. Consirt.—Upon the opening of the Supreme Court, at Annapolis, the libel case of Ray vs. Corbitt was called for trial, standing the first upon the docket. As Judge James, who presided, had previously intimated that he thought there would not be sufficient time in the week at the disposal of the court to try it, the parties therefore would not have a special term for the disposal of the cause. The Judge thereupon granted an order for an extra term of the Supreme Court, to be held on the 29th of November next. This cause as it retains its position at the head of the docket, will probably be disposed of.

To attempt to convey the meaning of emphasis, I will take an example from the best book of illustration in the world, the Bible. 'And there came a traveller unto the rich man and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come unto him; '(2 Sam. xii. 4). A careful student will at once mark the obviously emphatic words, viz., 'traveller,' 'rich,' 'spared,' 'own' (twice), 'poor,' and 'lamb'; but unless she is very careful she most important word in the whole verse. In the matter of emphasis, expression, and intonation, oral teaching is needful when it can be had, and the opportunity of following though not with servile imitation, the best models you can hear.

Sheep are very helpful to the farmer in one important respect. With the average weed destroyers, sheep are far in advance of cattle. They act as a guard, both offensive and defensive and so persistent are they in the destruction of this enemy of the farmer's peace and pocket, that no ordinary farm weed can possibly stand their attack, and in this way they are a great helpmate to man in his business of subduing the earth. in his business of subduing the earth. They not only destroy weeds, but they make return to the soil in the form of concentrated manure, the elements of which it has been robbed. Sheep are also so constituted that seasons of great drouth and scarcity of food and water do not so seriously affect them as they do cattle.
