BRITISH House of Commons Rejects Resolution of Pacifists—French Recapture More Front Trenches From Germans in Aisne Region—Disaffection in Russian Army Forces Further Retirement in Galicia—Russo-Rumanian Advance on Suchitza River Continues.

PEACE MOTION FAILS TO GAIN BRITISH VOTES

Commons Defeats Resolution of Ramsay MacDonald by Big Majority.

NINETEEN FOR MOVE Asquith and Bonar Law Answer Pacifists—Allies Have Resources.

London, July 26.—The house of commons, after employing the whole evening session in a discussion of a peace resolution moved by James Ramsay MacDonald, Socialist and Labor member, defeated it by a vote of 148 to 19.

The smallness of the numbers in the house is an indication of the little interest shown by parliament in the hope of a useful peace movement at the present juncture, and the conviction was voiced in an important statement by Herbert H. Asquith, the former premier, that nothing was to be hoped for from the present temper of the German Reichstag and people.

Mr. MacDonald, as shown by the vote, found very few supporters. George James Wardle, in behalf of the Labor party, declined to have anything to do with this pacifist resolution.

The speech of Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader in the house, dealt largely with the Russian crisis. He said that all the nations engaged were staggering under the blow, but the resources of the allies were sufficient to make it absolutely certain that unless their hearts failed them, they must secure the results for which they entered the war.

Blames Britain. Philip Snowden, Socialist, said the debate disclosed that the British Government, more than other belligerents, was standing in the way of an early settlement. He protested against the blood being shed to restore Alsace-Lorraine to France.

A little group of pacifists instituted a peace debate in the house of commons. The speaker, Mr. MacDonald, said that the peace resolution was not supported by the majority of the house.

TO END PROFITTEERING Lord Rhondda Announces System of Distribution Under License.

London, July 26.—Lord Rhondda, the food controller, outlining today the policy he intends to follow to regulate food prices and eliminate profiteering, said that he intended to fix the prices of commodities of prime necessity over which he could obtain effective control at all stages, from the producer to the consumer.

Where profits were made illegally, Lord Rhondda said that he would press for imprisonment in all cases of sufficient gravity. He proposed to eliminate profiteering by fixing prices on the basis of pre-war profits.

COALITION IS URGED BY LIBERAL EDITORS

Non-Partisan War Cabinet to Mobilize Man Power and Resources Only Solution, Say Representatives of Liberal Newspapers of Ontario.

Declaration that a coalition cabinet is the only logical course for carrying out a "win-the-war" policy was made in a resolution passed at a meeting of editors and publishers of Ontario newspapers held in the Ontario Club yesterday afternoon to discuss the political situation.

(1) Canada's task is to organize her man power and resources for the winning of the war, including compulsory military service, conscription of wealth, progressive income tax, increased food production, control of profiteering, nationalization of munition plants, national and personal thrift and economy, etc.

(2) It is essential that our troops be backed up by the needed reinforcement, and that the Liberal party in Ontario should stand squarely for compulsory military service, and that no candidate should be supported who will not support this.

(3) Sir R. Borden and his government have proved themselves unequal to these tasks. No other purely party government at the present time could deal with them. A war cabinet and government representing both parties and the strong forces of the nation for the winning of the war is therefore necessary.

Wants the alien enemies disfranchised and warned the government that any dilly-dallying with this question might lose them the soldier vote. Currie's startling charge.

A passing reference to Mr. Currie's Assiniboia, brought that gentleman to his feet with the statement that there were Germans in his riding who were supporting him notwithstanding his vote on the conscription bill and that many of them were represented by someone at the front.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux protested against Mr. Turritt's loyalty being questioned as that gentleman's only son was recently killed in action. Col. Currie, however, stuck to his guns and made the sensational charge that the effort to promote a union government was an attempt to wreck the Conservative party and to make the German-Austrian vote supreme in Canadian politics.

During the discussion of the bill in committee, the fact developed that a number of Germans and Austrians in the west had been naturalized and had received patents for their homesteads during the war. They were men who had made their homesteads in the west.

JUSTICE DUFF IN UNION CABINET? Government Said to Be Considering Experiment of Unusual Character.

Ottawa, July 26.—That an experiment of an unusual character in statesman-making is in contemplation by the government, is the information given to The World. The inclusion of Mr. Justice Duff, of the supreme court of the Pacific province, was the subject of a report in the Liberalism of Ontario at least.

Ottawa, July 26.—The government has requested the premiers of the different provinces to make arrangements for a suitable celebration of the third anniversary of the declaration of righteous war, and a rededication of the energies of the Canadian people to a vigorous prosecution of the war, until an honorable peace is secured.

RUSSIANS KEEP ON RETREATING BEFORE ENEMY

Iron Discipline Will Compel Disloyal Troops to Fight Enemy.

WILL SHOOT TRAITORS Victory in Rumania Improves With Latest Details.

London, July 27.—The Russian Government's policy of "blood and iron" is to be carried out along lines which bodes ill for the seditious troops along the eastern front, and those persons within the country who are trying to nullify the good work that has followed in the wake of the revolution.

Capital punishment, abolished with the advent of the new government, again has been put into force on the demand of the military commanders at the front, who will now be able to assemble field courts-martial and put to death summarily traitors in the army.

Prior to the acquiescence of the government, Korniloff is reported to have taken the drastic step of having a division of fleeing cowards of the seventh army shot to pieces by their faithful former brothers-in-arms.

Meanwhile, tightening of the reins of repression, the Russian troops everywhere in Galicia, from the region around Tarnopol southward to the south-western Bukovina border, are continuing to give way with relatively little fighting, before the Germans and Austro-Hungarians.

The withdrawal of the Russians in the latter regions apparently paves the way for the re-entrance of Bukovina, which, if accomplished, possibly would make less stable the Russo-Rumanian line running thru Moldavia to where the Danube bends eastward for its last race into the Black Sea.

Notable Success. In addition to breaching the German lines south of the Carpathians the Russians and Rumanians made large captures of men and guns. To (Concluded on Page 5, Column 3).

FOE LOSES HEAVILY EAST OF HURTEBISE

Hun Infantry Repeatedly Assaults Only for Trifling Gain.

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, July 26.—(By the Associated Press).—The Germans, in a persistent effort to recapture at least some part of the Chemin des Dames, transferred their attention today to the region of Hurtebise, on which they launched a strong attack, supported by heavy artillery concentration. The infantry assaulted again and again, but despite the heavy masses thrown into the action, they were unable to secure any advantage other than entrance into a small section of advanced French trenches to the south of Allies.

their ranks were rapidly depleted. Details of the attack on the Californie and Casemates plateaux, in which the Germans suffered the most complete defeat in the first half of the week, show that some of the Prussian regiments lost fifty per cent of their effectives. They employed more than 100 batteries during the bombardment.

MONTREAL MAN DIES OF HEAT.

Montreal, July 26.—James Donnelly, aged 46 years, 161 Nazareth street, died tonight from the heat and Arthur Montpetit whose address is unknown, was in a serious condition in the General Hospital late tonight as the result of a collapse from the heat. After five days of hot weather the mercury today hit the high spot in the thermometer, 92 degrees.

U. S. SOLDIER DROWNED.

North Sydney, N.S., July 26.—Pte. John P. McKinnon of the 8th was drowned at the breakwater this afternoon, while bathing with some comrades. McKinnon jumped over the end of the breakwater into deep water, and, being unable to swim, went to the bottom and was drowned before his companions could do anything to save him. The body was recovered.

Greater Toronto's Three Legs and Pioneers' Way.

Toronto is growing three new legs like the life of Man.

1. The Bloor street viaduct, a great new bridge and street to the east, tapping the old Kingston road in Scarborough a mile and a half beyond the York townline; also the old Danforth road near the same point.

2. A new pavement with new double street car tracks from the present terminal at Farmham avenue (above the C. P. R. tracks) up to the bound of the city at York Mills, where it will pick up the good road on Canada's greatest thoroughfare, Yonge street.

3. The next leg (yet to be designed and financed), the paving and carrying tracks on Bloor street west from High Park westward across the Humber by a high level viaduct, and then continued due west to where it will strike Dundas street at or near Summerville; with a secondary leg running southwesterly from the west end of the Humber viaduct until it strikes the Lake Shore road in the neighborhood of Long Branch.

Of course, in the meantime, this third leg can find its way to Dundas street and the Lake Shore road by the continuation of Bloor street, which crosses the Humber a quarter of a mile north by the new stone bridge promoted by Hum Smith. But at the earliest possible moment this crossing should be by a high level bridge on an exact line of Bloor street and heading straight for Dundas street, as outlined above, with a diversion in the direction of the Lake Shore road.

These are the Three Legs that are to make a new and greater Toronto.

The first one of these, the Bloor street viaduct, is almost completed and could be opened before Christmas, provided Mayor Church and others at the city hall got busy on the job.

The second of these three legs is Yonge street, and this could be ready by Christmas if Mayor Church and other officials are trying to buy out the Metropolitan within the city limits, get busy and fixed the price.

The third leg concerns West Toronto, and is only now being presented to the public by The World. The World proposes to take it up and present it to those who believe in a greater Toronto. In short, what The World proposes to do is to join up Kingston road to the east, and Dundas street and Lake Shore road to the west and southeast by a high level bridge at the Humber on a line with Bloor street; and make Dundas street and the other streets mentioned all in living touch, and intersecting Yonge street at the corner of Bloor where the Three Legs will meet!

And until The World gets a better name it proposes to call the east and west leg, including Danforth and Bloor, the Pioneers' Way, and have it given that name at a public christening when the three legs are completed, provided a better name cannot be suggested by some able citizen.

Kingston road, Dundas street and the Lake Shore road in the old days were connected by Queen street and old Niagara street, and by Dundas crossing the Humber at Lambton Mills. But there never was any unity in the scheme. The World proposes to have them "all lined up" to use the words of the landmarks, and have them connected with high level bridges, high-class pavements, etc.

And The World especially invites all the old landmarks to see Mr. John Ross Robertson bestow his benediction and assistance on so worthy a memorial to the old pioneers of this great Province of Ontario, who in long days knew only the old stage roads that ran by Kingston road, Queen street, Dundas street and the Lake Shore road.

The Russo-Rumanian success in the south Carpathians resulted in the capture of 47 guns besides breaking the enemy's front. Owing to the breaking of the Russian Galician front, it may be impossible for the allies to develop their offensive in the mountains and turn it into a great victory. The actions on the Russian northern front have become intense artillery duels. It may be surmised that before launching any more attacks in that region, the Russian commanders, taking the east Galician lesson to heart, are restoring a firm discipline to their army.

If the Morning Post's despatch from Petrograd is correct, the Germans in eastern Galicia have not only regained a considerable section of valuable heavy artillery. The enemy, however, does not claim the taking of many guns, but merely the occupation of ground vacated by the Russians. If that is true, it will be said of Lloyd George as it was said of William Pitt, that he was damned by his foreign policy. It was Britain that supplied the premier responsible for the taking of risks in what now appears as a gamble on the stability of an undisciplined army with many unendingly unstable by the open tolerance of political and enemy propaganda. It will take some time, however, to prepare the minds of the occurrences in eastern Galicia. Early reports of an accident are often grossly exaggerated.

Only nineteen British members of parliament voted for a peace resolution in the debate that it failed to draw a large attendance. Boris Law said in dealing with the Russian crisis that all the nations engaged were staggering, and that the resources of the allies were sufficient to make it abortive, and that, unless activity in the east, they would be able to secure their peace for which they entered the war. The struggle had reached a point where it was a question of staying power, and in this he had absolute confidence in the allies. If anything could delay peace it would be any sign of

The British official communication, dealing with events in Flanders, has nothing special to report beyond the fact that a thick mist on Wednesday prevented much activity in the east, and that German machine fire was brought down. The Germans report a slight slackening in the artillery

The infantry fighting on the French front gave place mostly to intense artillery duels. The French recaptured some lost ground at several points on the front between the Hurtebise plateau and a point south of Allies.

HAMILTON NEWS

Hamilton, July 26.—A conference between the board of control and the soldiers' insurance commission was held yesterday. There were also present a large number of prominent representatives of various patriotic associations of the city. Livingston Watson, on behalf of the board, spoke at length on the question. He thought Hamilton should do as the County of Wentworth had done—pay every claim in full and discontinue the present policy of paying claims on the instalment plan. His views were endorsed by Messrs. Halloran, representing the Trades and Labor Council, ex-City Controller Morris and Charles Aitchison. W. J. H. Halloran, representing the board, said the system adopted by the commission was the best, especially in the interests of the soldiers' children. Mayor Bookie announced at this juncture that the only Hamilton men who will not be protected by civic insurance during the war will be those who will be forced to serve because of conscription. The meeting concluded with the adoption of a resolution that the board should not take any further action having been taken.

Del. J. Goodman of this city is expected home today from Montreal, where he went to bring back Benjamin Halloran, superintendent of the W. E. Sanford Manufacturing Company, who was arrested in that city at the residence of John Elbowe and John McBryne & Brandon yesterday morning. He was arrested in a car on the Toronto-Hamilton highway, occupied by C. J. Bowles and W. E. McMillan, and who are being held in a court for unexplained damages for personal injuries and for the loss of the car.

TWO KILLED IN RACE RIOTS IN CHESTER, PA.

Chester, Pa., July 26.—Two men, a white man and a negro, were killed in race riots which broke out here tonight by another riotous comparative quiet. About twenty others being injured and scores of persons were arrested.

One of tonight's dead is Joseph McCann, white, 27, who is said to have been a leader in the mob. Several negroes were dragged from street cars and beaten into insensibility. One was fired by negroes from the windows of their homes and several white men and boys were injured.

Shortly after McCann was killed a squad of the National Guard was rushed to the scene. Augmented by the local force and a large squad of state police they drove the rioters from the colored section with drawn revolvers and pointed rifles. The negroes' section was roped off after quiet was restored and a heavy guard thrown around it. Mayor McDowell announced at midnight that he had the situation under control.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAYS' EVENTS REVIEWED

THE Russian army continues weak in morale, especially those troops in the region of Trembowla, where they permitted the enemy to advance again north and south of that point. Owing to the ineffective composition of their units and the state of their morale, Russian general headquarters reports, their counter-attacks brought them no definite results. The enemy also developed his stroke southward along the eastern bank of the Sereth River and occupied three towns south of Tarnopol. The Russian troops then began to retire eastward from the Sereth River.

The condition of the Russian army thus remains unsatisfactory. Certain units are still continuing voluntarily to leave their positions and they do not carry out the military tasks entrusted to them. The only bright spot in the dark picture is the fact that other units are devotedly carrying their duty towards their country. Capital punishment on the demand of General Korniloff, will be the penalty for disobedience to orders. Meanwhile, south of the Danube, the Russians have had to evacuate certain passes in the Carpathians and to fall back towards Bukovina in order not to get out of line with the refractory troops on the front north of the Dniester.

The Russo-Rumanian success in the south Carpathians resulted in the capture of 47 guns besides breaking the enemy's front. Owing to the breaking of the Russian Galician front, it may be impossible for the allies to develop their offensive in the mountains and turn it into a great victory. Major John Percival Mackenzie showed very fine judgment and ability in handling his battalion during an attack on a strongly defended position. He was successful in capturing the objective and the success of which was largely due to his quick grasp of every situation. Later he made three personal reconnaissances to advanced positions under intense hostile fire.

Major Walter Ramsay Critchley took part in an attack and displayed great skill and courage in capturing and consolidating the position.

Major John Poyntz French, in spite of most difficult conditions, succeeded in capturing the objective and displaying a splendid example of courage and initiative.

CRISIS DEVELOPING IN COAL PROBLEM

Supply for Upper Lake Ports Far Below Normal of Former Years.
By a Staff Reporter.
Ottawa, July 26.—The most critical situation in reference to imported bituminous coal is in connection with the supply of upper lake ports, which is far below the normal of previous years, said Mr. McGrath, fuel controller, today. "This is equally true of coal for the American northwest via the great lakes. Inland navigation ceases in a few months, and then the load will be thrown upon the railways. In view of our rigorous winter climate, this load will be more than they can handle. The only solution seems to be the allotting of a heavier percentage of cars from the United States to carry coal from the mines to lake ports. I know the matter is having the most serious attention of the railroad war committee in that country."

When asked as to the attitude of Washington officials towards the supply of coal for Canada, Mr. McGrath replied that he had the utmost confidence in the fairness of our neighbors.
New Era Dawns.
"A new era has dawned for the United States and Canada. Of course, I do not press any unreasonable requests upon Washington. At the present moment, however, I have a few reasonable ones to make to the people of Canada. Let me enunciate a sound doctrine. A country cannot be at war, especially in the present conditions, with its people doing considerable deprivations. We are on the home stretch now, and this is the time for every man and woman to "play the game," to submit to inconveniences, to climb into upper berths on railways and be glad that they are available; even to wait on train services on alternate days in order to reduce coal consumption and allow greater opportunity to deal with the essential freight traffic of the country. If the railway companies will get together with Sir Henry Drayton and cut deep into existing services, arranging for and pooling of railway effort, I will be prepared to make the public understand the necessity of it without much loss of time.

Restrictions Probable.
"Every user of fuel, great and small, should conserve it in every possible way. This is a time when saving fuel means getting it. If this war drags on very many months longer I may be called on to place restrictions on the use of all sorts of fuel, including coal, wood, gasoline, and even natural gas. Let me especially emphasize this, that the conserve of coal should make it his ambition to be able to say that during the continuance of this war every coal car consigned to him was unloaded in the shortest possible time, even if it should be necessary for the head of the firm to get out and shovel coal after dark. To do that in war time, especially when we are on the last lap of the fight, would be the most striking evidence of sound citizenship. By thus rendering available a greater supply of coal cars we would be materially assisted in getting the maximum amount from the mines, and thereby allowing our industries to keep going during these strenuous times."

But in addition to any voluntary recruits we must also have the Military Service Act not of the man in which this grave issue of compulsory service was presented to the country, wise as I believe it would have been to consult with labor agriculture and other interests vitally affected, before the proposal was submitted to parliament, firmly as I believe it should have been presented by a national government rather than a party government.

Toronto's Greatest Haberdashery Sale

I know some of my friends in this county and elsewhere do not agree with the conclusions I have reached. I deeply regret that I am compelled to differ from them; but few, if any of them, have seen what I have seen of the conditions of the front or know what I know of the fierceness of the struggle and of the patient and cheerful courage of our men, buoyed up in the confidence that Canada was behind them, I would be untrue to these gallant men and to my own convictions as to Canada's chief duty if I did not support compulsory military service now that a bill has been introduced and passed in parliament, and appeal to my fellow citizens to recognize their obligations to the state and cheerfully to accept and loyally support compulsory service.

But Canada must not stop with a compulsory military service measure. Men at the front feel that the most that while they are giving their all for Canada and for liberty, men at home are making huge profits out of the war.

I hold in my hands a letter from one of our distinguished officers at the front who has been there ever since the outbreak of the war. What does he say? "Sometimes I feel that in spite of all the individual heroism and self-sacrifice shown by Canadians there is little sign yet of a real awakening. I wonder who number the most those killed in battle or those who have made money out of the war—I speak only of Canada. The impression, inadequate as I am sure, but not without some justification—gathered by nearly every man I have talked to who has been home to Canada on leave, is that people there are more interested in the money to be made out of the war than anything else."

WOOS GOOD HEALTH AT ATLANTIC CITY

Sir William McNaught's Arrival is Announced in New York Herald.

The New York Herald published a news item dated from Atlantic City, N.J., Monday, reading as follows: "Quietly and without even a vague announcement regarding his destination, Sir William McNaught, after he had raised a war battalion in Canada left Toronto a few days ago. A Herald reporter found him last evening at the Marlborough-Blenheim. Sir William has passed through a severe illness due to overwork in his efforts to gather recruits for the battalion which his efforts enabled Toronto to send to the front. For a time his recovery was a matter of grave doubt. By advice of physicians Sir William came here by easy stages."

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist. As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain that they are absolutely healthy and normal, the real trouble, that which causes the acid and difficulty, is acid in the stomach, usually due to or aggravated by delicate lining of the stomach, and food fermentation caused by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 90 per cent. of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by immediately after eating from one to two teaspoons of bisphosphate of magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisphosphate of magnesia, as I have found other forms worthless in this peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

PEACE MOTION HAS LITTLE SUPPORT

...this afternoon by introducing a resolution declaring that the German Reichstag resolution favoring peace by an understanding expressed the principles for which Great Britain stood through and called on the government, in conjunction with the allies, to restate their peace terms accordingly.

...The resolution was moved by James Ramsay MacDonald, Socialist and labor member for Leicester, and was supported by Charles P. Trevelyan, Liberal; Hastings B. Lees-Smith, Liberal; Philip Snowden, Socialist, and Arthur A. Ponsonby, Liberal.

...Mr. MacDonald agreed that his resolution expressed the hope that a small minority, but he contended that this minority was ever growing. Stockholm had borne its fruit; the allied conference would bear more; and the international conference would bear still more fruit.

...Former Premier Asquith thought that the previous peace resolutions were of importance to the Reichstag resolution than it really deserved. They seemed to have forgotten the circumstances under which it was passed.

...He welcomed the news that a conference would be held early in the autumn on the invitation of the Russian Government. Nothing but good could come of a plain re-statement of the allied aims in a good cause.

...The allies are fighting for nothing but freedom and nothing short of freedom. That is the policy of this war and the unprecedented aggression of free peoples.

...They mean," continued the former premier, "that the allied nations now include an overwhelming majority of the free peoples of the world. The allies are fighting for nothing but freedom and nothing short of freedom.

...A Petrograd despatch via British Admiralty, per Wireless Press, says: The official communication from general headquarters tonight reads: "In the direction of Vilna there has been an artillery duel. In the region of Smolva and Krevo the enemy's fire was more intense. East of Tarnopol, under enemy pressure, our troops retired to the Gnidzozno and Gdanska Rivers."

...Northwest of Trembowla on Wednesday, superior German forces attacked and penetrated our positions on the River Gzina in the region of Loszow. Efforts to restore the situation were unsuccessful.

...On Wednesday evening our troops began to retire from the Serezh area. Certain units are continuing to leave their positions voluntarily without carrying out the military tasks they had been entrusted with.

...The text of today's German official statement reads: "Eastern theatre—Front of Prince Leopold army group of Gen. von Eichhorn: South of Smolovour our concentrated artillery fire has partly closed up the breach in our lines made by the Russians. The enemy was compelled to retreat, and almost all of our former position again is in our possession."

...The supplementary official statement from German general headquarters issued this evening says: "Further German success in eastern Galicia compelled the Russians to abandon their Carpathian front as far as the Kiriakaba sector."

OVERTIME VICTORY FOR THE YANKEES

Defeat White Sox in Fourteen Innings — Red Sox Take Two.

At New York (American)—New York Yankees in a sensational four-inning game here, 4 to 3. The Yanks filled the bases with one out in the fourth on singles by Baumann and Papp, and a fielder's choice. Baker's sacrifice fly brought in Baumann with the winning run. Collop pitched a masterful game and did not give a back on balls in thirteen innings. Score: R.H.E. New York, 4; White Sox, 3.

At Boston—Boston won two games from St. Louis yesterday, the opening game, 11 to 2, and the second, 3 to 2. Poor pitching and wretched fielding gave Boston its chance in the first game, in which Ruth had easy sailing. In the second encounter Sox pitcher was bombarded with base hits and gave way to Rogers, who did not prove any puzzle to Boston.

At Philadelphia—Detroit broke even with Philadelphia, the former winning the first game, 5 to 2, and Philadelphia the second, 4 to 2. Cobb, who arrived at the park late, and after Daus was announced as Detroit's centre-fielder, made two hits in the opening contest, and one single in four times up in the ninth.

REDS GAIN A FULL GAME ON NEW YORK

Defeat Phillies While Cubs Are Downing the Giants—Doak in Form.

At Chicago (National)—Vaught kept New York's hits well scattered yesterday, while Chicago bunched hits off Teeau and with the aid of some erratic fielding easily won the first game of the series, 7 to 1. The league leaders were saved from a shut-out when they bunched two hits with a stolen base in between. Score: R.H.E. Chicago, 7; New York, 1.

At Cincinnati—The locals hit Rizor almost at will and had a 4-0 lead before Oeschger relieved him, the score being 5 to 2. Schneider, on the other hand, pitched an excellent game and was never in real danger after his team-mates had established a four-run lead in the second and third innings. Score: R.H.E. Cincinnati, 4; Rizor, 0.

At St. Louis—Doak held Boston to two hits and St. Louis shut out the visitors, 3 to 0. A baseball, autographed by Fred Wilson, brought $151 at auction. Score: R.H.E. St. Louis, 3; Boston, 0.

The Greatest Clearance Event in the History of This Store

From a purely financial standpoint it would be impossible for us to sell these lines at a penny less than our regular prices. But having kept our stock up to high-water mark until now, drastic price reductions are the only method we know to bring about that complete clearance which our long established policy demands we make before another season arrives.

If you have not already made your selection we suggest that you come in today, as the response to our "ads." has kept the store crowded. Remember, you are not being offered unknown makes or "job lots" bought for sale purposes, but on the contrary, we are placing before you high-grade, dependable garments in seasonable styles and patterns; lines that we have been selling all season at regular prices. Note the generous reductions we have made and come early that you may share in the distribution.

Remember, these are broken lots, the remainder of our own complete new and high-grade clothing, with reductions from former prices according to our usual semi-annual custom.

Simpson's August Home Furnishing Sale

The Second Day of the Big Annual Sale Comes on Bargain Friday

The second day of our August Home Furnishing Sale, which, of course, means many advantages to thrifty people, and Friday Bargain Day, which means some extra special bargains, and both come today--and here is the list of the good things to select from. If you need home furnishings do not defer buying for any reason whatever. If you are a home-owner and would rather not pay all cash

The Home-lovers' Club Will Arrange Convenient Terms of Payment

This offer should not be confused with the ordinary time-payment proposition.

Simpson's is a cash house--and home-owners to whom the privilege of deferred payments is extended by the Home-lovers' Club buy at cash prices just as if they were paying all cash.

We have only one price--it is the same to everybody--and there is no extra charge by means of interest or by any other means for the convenience of deferred payments to Home-lovers' Club members.

The Home-lovers' Club is now reopened and will receive a limited number of new applications.

This is to enable numerous perfectly responsible people of moderate means to take advantage of the special opportunities afforded by our August Home Furnishing Sale.

Consult the secretary of the Home-lovers' Club for further information. His office is on the fourth floor.
