Decision on Cause of The Onawa Wreck

Misunderstanding of Order by Freight Conductor and Engineer

Maine Public Utilities' Pronouncement on Collision
That Caused Loss of 24 Lives—Recommends
That C. P. R. Install Automatic Block System
Between Mattawamkeag and Boundary.

(Special to The Times.)
August 10, Me., April 9.—The Maine Public Utilities Commission, in a decision rendered today, declares the primary cause of the wreck on the Canadian Pacific railroad at Onawa station on Dec. 20 last, when the first section of freight train No. 78 collided with the third section of east-bound passenger train No. 80, was a misunderstanding of the order by the freight conductor, J. A. Manuel and Engineer William G. Bagley of train No. 78, received at Onawa.

"But other circumstances appear in the case which tend to explain, although they do not excuse, the conduct of these men. Apparently every effort of the crew of the first section of train No. 78 and a large part of their energy was directed to the attempt to make their destination at Greenville Junction within the limit of the sixteen-hour law. The system of operation on this railroad, which is now under the exclusive control of train dispatchers, can be proved only by the installation of the automatic block signal system. The human element in any system is liable to err, although the fatal combination of circumstances which apparently caused this particular accident is not likely to occur again.

"But other failures might occur and other fatal accidents might result in the operation of this system, which depends so largely for its efficiency upon the men who are apparently to be held responsible for the elimination of human error and misunderstanding, and would greatly increase the safety of the operation of this railroad.

The commission recommends that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company install automatic block signals over its railroad in the State of Maine between Mattawamkeag and Boundary, such installation to be begun this present season, and a proposed amount constructed each year until finished, the work to be finally completed on or before Dec. 1, 1923. The Canadian Pacific Railroad Company may notify this commission on or before June 1, 1920, whether it accepts or rejects the recommendation.

ALEX GIBSON OF MARYSVILLE DEAD

Succumbs to Pneumonia at Home in Marysville.

Son of Lumber and Cotton King and Himself Prominent in Public Life—A Son Gave His Life in the War.

(Special to Times.)
Frederick, April 9.—Alexander Gibson, 52, died at 10 o'clock this morning at his home in Marysville, aged sixty-eight years. His father was the late, formerly Miss Reid of Marysville, one son, Harry, in British Columbia, and one daughter, Mary, at home. He was twice married. His son is by the first marriage. Another son by the second marriage, John T. Gibson, was killed during the war while overseas with the Royal Flying Corps. There also survive one brother, James, of Nashua, and three sisters, Mrs. John McConnell of Marysville, Mrs. Charles H. Hall of Fredericton and Mrs. Frank Merritt of Moncton.

Mr. Gibson was born at Lepreau, Charlotte county, a son of Alex. Gibson. The latter, after lumbering some time in Charlotte county, removed to the town of Marysville, which he named after his wife. His son accompanied him and for many years was associated with him in the lumbering, railway and cotton manufacturing enterprises which were carried on at Marysville and on the Nashua and Miramichi rivers.

Mr. Gibson was mayor of Marysville for upwards of twenty years. In 1899 he was nominated in the Liberal interest in York county for the New Brunswick legislature and was elected at the head of the winning ticket. In the year following he resigned upon being nominated as Liberal candidate for York in the Canadian House of Commons. He defeated the Conservative candidate, the late Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod, in that year but resigned his seat on a protest and in the year following was elected majority. In 1904, after representing York county at Ottawa three years, he was nominated as Liberal candidate and was defeated by a small majority by O. S. Crockett, now judge of the court of king's bench of New Brunswick. He then retired from active participation in politics.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, Mr. Gibson died of pneumonia, with which he had been ill some weeks.

ROUMANIANS ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Laborer Dead in Bunk House, Bullet in Brain

Head Smashed With Hardwood Club—Quebec Trial Will Be Lengthy—True Bill in Mail Robbery Case.

(Canadian Press.)
Quebec, April 9.—His law smelt with a hardwood club, and with a bullet in his brain, Toter Kostinein, a laborer in a lumber camp at Kenogami, operated by Price Bros., was found lying dead in a bunk-house on July 27, 1919, and yesterday Mike Debeke and George Mowbray stood before a jury at the criminal assizes, charged with the crime of murder.

The trial will be a long one, as all the evidence has to be translated twice, from French into English and then from English to Roumanian, the tongue spoken by the two accused.

The jury is a French-speaking one, and the Roumanian interpreter does not speak French, so that the evidence given in English is translated into French for the jury and then into Roumanian, and that which is given in French has to be translated into English for the benefit of the interpreter so that he may put it into Roumanian for the accused. Owing to the time required for the interpretation of the evidence, only four witnesses were heard yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon the grand jury presented true bills in the cases of King vs. Ed Groudin, indicted for causing bodily harm, and the King vs. George Topping, J. E. Levesque and J. B. Proteau charged with holding up and robbing the mail car on the Intercolonial train near Harlow.

SEES NO HOPE OF IMPROVEMENT IN COAL PRICES

(Special to Times.)
Toronto, April 9.—The coal situation never was so bad as at present, according to Geo. H. Cushing, managing director of the American Wholesale Coal Dealers' Association, who addressed the Toronto Wholesale Coal Dealers' Association here yesterday. He said there is a shortage of 10,000,000 tons of bituminous coal in the United States; inadequate transportation facilities had caused the shortage, and what was needed was more motive power rather than more railway cars.

U. S. CUTTERS TO AID OF SHIP IN ST.
LAWRENCE GULF

(Special to Times.)
Boston, April 9.—The coast guard cutters Osipiec, from this district, and Senoile, on duty off the Newfoundland coast, were ordered last night to the assistance of the steamer Myrtle, 3,741 tons, reported disabled in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

The Myrtle left Avonmouth for New York on March 21, and in a wireless message, intercepted here yesterday, reported her boilers disabled, fuel supply low and water gone. She gave her position as latitude 48.05 north, longitude 64.04 west.

Jamaica Plans a Tariff
Preference For Canada

West Indies in Effort to Deflect to Us Large Portion of Trade With United States.

Kingston, Ja., April 9.—A proposal was submitted in the legislative council yesterday for representation of Jamaica at a conference to be held at Ottawa next month to consider trade relations and transport facilities between the Dominion of Canada and the British West Indies.

The entire West Indies will be represented at the conference and an effort will be made to deflect a large portion of the West Indies trade with the United States to Canada. To this end a special tariff law will be formulated, the Jamaica government giving preference on Canadian goods coming here.

CALL FOR A PLEBISCITE ON LIQUOR MATTER

Request Presented to N. B. Legislature by Council of Temperance Alliance.

(Canadian Press.)
Ottawa, April 9.—In committee on the franchise bill in the commons last evening, A. R. McMaster of Bromo asked if the government had considered the introduction of compulsory franchise penalizing voters who refused to go to the polls, if necessary to the extent of a fine. Hon. Mr. Galt replied that the government had considered the subject, but had not yet seen its way to the introduction of such radical legislation.

H. B. Morphy of Perth said that a clause forbidding the chartering of any vehicle by a candidate to convey him to a polling booth should be counted out. Offenses under this regulation he said, were numerous, but so trivial that they were not deemed offenses at all.

Hon. Mr. Fielding and S. W. Jacobs of George Etienne Cartier, supported the clause as being necessary to prevent a tendency that would arise if it were not, for wealthy men to charter all the available conveyances to the detriment of the less wealthy candidate.

WEST WANTS MORE
BRANCH RAILWAYS

Will Inland and Coastwise Vessels Come Under Railway Commission?

(Special to Times.)
Ottawa, April 9.—On Thursday, April 15, the railway committee will have its initial meeting. This year western business will occupy the main place in its programme and at the second meeting on Tuesday, April 20, there will be delegations from western Canada to urge building of some branch lines on which construction has been stopped or delayed during the war, and to protest against the diversion by the C. P. R. of former intended terminus at Battleford.

It is not expected that J. E. Armstrong will place the boats of Canadian inland waters and coastwise trade under control of the railway commission, as Mr. Armstrong, who is chairman of the committee desires to have the question fought out on the floor of the house. The Northern Steamship Lines, Ltd., the Canada Navigation Company, and the other members of the committee so far, apparently are satisfied as they had supposed.

Among the members, however, there is a strong section which will object to any emancipation of the proposed amendments, and some of them, prominent among them being Dr. Beland, speak of demanding the total elimination of the sale of medicines and drugs in which opiates form a part, except on a doctor's order.

The Harrison Narcotic Act in the United States permits the sale of such drugs when the opiates form an insignificant part of the medicine, say, one-quarter of one per cent, but even this concession is objected to by some of the medical members of the House. Some Quebec members say that great harm has been done among children by such preparations.

(Special to Times.)
Ottawa, April 9.—Druggists and other vendors of patent medicines from all over Canada are concentrating in Ottawa lately to "lobby" against certain amendments incorporated in the opium and drug act introduced by Hon. Mr. Powell. A deputation met Hon. Mr. Rowell and other ministers this week, and after some discussion left the city, apparently satisfied as they had supposed.

NEW SERIES OF
TRANS ON C. P. R.

Important Announcement Made in Montreal—Two Days to and From St. John.

(Special to Times.)
Montreal, April 8.—Starting on May 2 the C. P. R. will inaugurate a new series of trains from Montreal to St. John, the whole of Canada, which will be a marked improvement on anything done by the company for the last five years. The new service will be resumed with a time of ninety-two hours between Montreal and St. John, and will also start on May 2 from Vancouver to Montreal. Between Montreal and St. John a new three-hour train will be put on daily except Sundays and between Montreal and Quebec the usual summer service will start on May 2. On June 6 a new train, the "Frontenac Limited," will be put on for Quebec. The two trains a day service between Montreal and St. John, N. B. will be continued. The C. P. R. will be continued, said yesterday that other changes were also in view.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "let us run over to Europe and straighten things out. Look at Ireland. Look at Germany. Look at Turkey. Look at Russia. Look at Denmark. What you ever hear or read of such a bunch of incompetents as there are over there? Couldn't settle the trouble in any one of those countries in a week. And here I have to sit day after day and read the stuff that comes over the wire telling about riots and murders and strikes and attempted revolutions. What they need is common sense. Let's go over."

"Mister," said Hiram, "I started in one time to break up a row between the Moschorn an' Saddleback yellers. I knowed what they wanted was common sense. What I wanted in a little while was stickin' plaster an' somebody to haul me home. If I was out here I wouldn't buy no ticket for Europe just now. I'd think it over a few days—yes, sir."

"That chaps is threatened," said the reporter. "How can we sit idly by and see the world go wrong?"

"You don't need no," said Hiram. "You kin get a job right here. I hear that prohibition law ain't carried out any too well in St. John. Wasn't somebody sayin' yesterday you orto hev some playgrounds? Where's the juvenile courts that you say? 'Brighten the corner the a lot of things you could do right around here. Then fellers over in Europe ain't got no city council for St. John. That's up to the people here. You take my advice—learn the song they say, 'Brighten the corner where you are' an' put off goin' to Europe till you got somethin' right here that's worth a look a nooze. When he felt hungry, he said, he hove to and cooked his meals. Just before reaching his port he ran into a gale which crippled his gear and necessitated his calling for help.

YESTERDAY IN PARLIAMENT

(Canadian Press.)
Ottawa, April 9.—Yesterday in the House of Commons, the third reading was given to a bill to amend the Canada Shipping Act, and also to one confirming an agreement between the Dominion government and the city of Ottawa. Second reading was given to bills providing for minor amendments to the customs and dominion lands acts. First reading was given to a bill authorizing the government to fix a scale of charges for steamship inspection, and to a bill providing for compulsory inspection of pickled fish.

A bill to amend the civil service insurance act was introduced.

Third reading was given to a bill to carry into effect the peace treaty with Bulgaria.

A resolution providing for commencement of Wednesday evening sittings on April 21 was carried.

Further consideration was given to the less contentious clauses of the franchise bill.

In the senate a bill to provide for divorce was given to a bill authorizing the government to fix a scale of charges for steamship inspection, and to a bill providing for compulsory inspection of pickled fish.

CAPTAIN AND CREW IN ONE

Skipper Tells a Tale of "Pro-fittering Sailors"

Navigating Schooner Himself, Is Compelled to Call for Help of Coast Guardsmen off Barnegat.

(Special to Times.)
Atlantic City, N. J., April 9.—Distress signals flown by the two-masted schooner Marion Curtis, off Barnegat, late last night, brought coast guardsmen rushing to her rescue. They were accompanied by Captain Constance Bowen, who was alone on deck.

"Where's your crew?" asked the coast guard, suspecting there had been a mutiny aboard.

"Didn't have any," the skipper replied. "I navigated her myself."

Then the astonished rescuers heard a tale of "pro-fittering sailors." Captain Bowen said that when he left Mirapah, Conn., more than three days ago, he was unable to recruit a crew except at wages which would have eaten the profits of his voyage. He had aboard 12,000 oysters consigned to Atlantic City.

The skipper declared that when he felt sleep on his lonely voyage he anchored his craft and took a snooze. When he felt hungry, he said, he hove to and cooked his meals. Just before reaching his port he ran into a gale which crippled his gear and necessitated his calling for help.

A GOVERNMENT
CAUCUS TODAY

Believed It Has to Do With the Franchise Act—Meighen's Amendment.

(Special to Times.)
Ottawa, April 9.—At a caucus called for this morning the government supporters were to have laid before them certain questions on which the government desires to know the sentiments of its followers. It is a mysterious call, members professing not to know where they were called, but it was expected by many of them that proposed amendments to the franchise act so as to remove inequalities recently pointed out by W. D. Euler, member for Waterloo North, as shutting out citizenship which had been citizens for decades under the old law would be presented.

There are still members who would rigidly adhere to war-time distinctions, and who would rule out all deserters under the M. S. A. and all "slackers" though how slackerhood should be determined is not stated. There is even talk that some minds have been busying themselves on the problem of how to amend the franchise act so as to "lets" as possible on the ground that it is easier to keep them from getting into the caucus than to get them out after they are once here. New York state's experience being quoted.

P. E. I. LEGISLATURE

Statement of Government Policy—Request for Conference of Maritime Premiers.

(Special to Times.)
Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 9.—Debate on the address is still under way in the provincial legislature. Premier Bell yesterday outlined the government's policy which in brief is to impose additional taxation to supplement an inadequate revenue; to increase school teachers' salaries; and to take advantage of the federal grant for highways.

The opposition moved an amendment setting out that claims of the province against Canada for a share in school lands granted prairie provinces should first be pressed before additional taxation is levied.

The premier gave notice of a resolution that a conference of the maritime province premiers be called to press for the settlement of claims against Canada with respect to school lands and certain subsidies paid western provinces in lieu of lands in compensation for lands given Ontario and Quebec for enlargement of boundaries.

THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

Home and a number of other cases were investigated.
 At a special meeting of Local Union 819 United Brotherhood of Carpenters held last evening, in their rooms in Union street, with the vice-president, Mansford Day, in the chair, F. A. Campbell, president of the Trades and Labor Council, was unanimously endorsed as candidate for commissioner and the organization tendered its moral and financial support. Peter C. Sharkey addressed the meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the Children's Home last night the president, A. M. Belding, in the chair. The agent gave particulars of a very pathetic case involving a family of ten children concerning which action will be taken. The society has a number of children ready to place in foster homes and it was decided to seek homes for them immediately.
 Mrs. David McLellan and Mrs. F. C. Bonnell were named visitors for the ensuing month. Two cases were brought to the attention of the meeting, the one in Kings county, the other in Boston. The agent reported that he had advised the parties as to the proper action to be taken.
 The usual monthly report of the agent, Rev. Mr. Scott, showed that since the last meeting he had made fifty-three visits. Forty letters and post cards had been written and mailed. One little girl had been committed by the commissioners of the society, Rev. W. M. Duke and Rev. R. A. Armstrong. One child had been placed in another institution. At the present time there are thirty children in the Children's Home, 68 Garden street. One woman and her four-year-old child was placed in the Municipal

ST. LUKE'S RECTOR GETS MORE SALARY

The organizing meeting of the vestry of St. Luke's church took place last evening in the school room of the church. The following committees were appointed: Business, James Gault,

Harry Finch, Charles Cunningham and L. W. Lowry; finance, H. U. Miller, W. A. Smith, G. D. Martin and Joseph Daley; music, G. B. Taylor, W. A. Steiger, W. L. Sealey and G. A. Hilyard; H. W. Brownfield was re-appointed choir master, Miss Bessie Irvine, organist; W. W. Sarle, sexton and Joseph Henry, organist ad. Following the vestry meeting the different committees met and planned a vigorous campaign along the church lines, which will be started at once. It was voted to increase the salary of the rector by $300 and that of his assistant, Rev. E. P. Wright, by $200.

The governor of Jamaica, in his opening speech to the legislative council, on March 18, recommended an increase in the specific duties on goods imported from elsewhere than countries of the British Empire, leaving a preference to imports of Empire origin. He also recommended for consideration limitation of the Jamaican free list to articles imported from within the Empire.

SOCIETY OF MUSIC

The St. John Society of Music at a most enthusiastic meeting in the retail merchants rooms in Gernain street last night, made preliminary arrangements for its grand final concert of the season. It was decided that the Imperial Theatre should be the place for the concert, and that some good outside artist should assist the local talent. The chorus of the society is to make its first appearance at this concert. It has been training very painstakingly under the direction of J. S. Ford and will be sure to receive what it undoubtedly will deserve, a splendid reception.

"COLONEL BOGEY"

"THE CONTEMPTIBLES"

"His Master's Voice" Record 216134—$1.00

Here are two marches by Miro's Military Band that are sure to awaken memories of stirring days. "Colonel Bogey" is the march they played the drafts away with, from England to France—it will surely remind you of the days when you were "over there." "The Contemptibles" is the march named for that "contemptible little army" which held back the savage hordes and saved the day for civilization. These numbers will make you square your shoulders and "quick march—eyes front!"

Miss Anna Martha Murdoch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murdoch, was united in marriage in Hartland on April 3 to Wendell Berton Nixon, son of Richmond Nixon of Lower Brighton. Rev. T. S. Crisp performed the ceremony.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Perkins, Centreville, on April 7, their daughter, Miss Jean Ingelow Perkins was united in marriage to Courtney Leonard Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan of Sussex. Rev. L. Johnson Baird performed the ceremony.

RECENT DEATHS

Sussex, N.B., April 8.—Lewis P. Bradley, son of Thomas Bradley, of this town, died in the hospital at Chatham on Wednesday afternoon after a brief illness of pneumonia. He served in the Canadian forces overseas and was invalided home on account of wounds received in one of the battles on the western front. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock from his father's residence, Main street, Sussex. The body will be taken to St. Francis church where high mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father McDermott. Interment will be made in Ward's Creek cemetery.

Bishop Joseph S. Key of the Methodist Episcopal church, died on Tuesday at his home in Sherman (Texas). He was born on July 18, 1829, was ordained a minister in 1848, and has been a pastor since 1886. He went to Texas in 1889.

Mrs. James MacDonald, aged forty-four years, died at the Miramichi hospital, Newcastle, on April 6, after a lingering illness. She leaves her husband, five sons, three brothers and one sister.

The death of John Sinclair, formerly of Douglastown, N. B., took place in California on April 4.

Mrs. Robert Charlton, formerly of Lower Millstream, died at Durham, England, recently. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Good, of Lower Millstream, three sisters and three brothers.

A Splendid Hair Grower and Wonderful Beautifier

Here is good news for all men and women whose hair is faded, dry, streaked and scraggly—is falling out badly and whose scalps are covered with dandruff and itch like mad.

Your druggist can now supply you with the genuine Parisian sage (liquid form), which is guaranteed to quickly and safely abolish every sign of dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair and promote a new growth, or money refunded.

Thousands can testify to the excellent results from its use, some who feared becoming hairless now glory in their abundant hair, while others who suffered for years with dandruff and itching head got a clean, healthy scalp after just a few days' use of this simple home treatment.

No matter whether bothered with falling hair, matted, stringy hair, dandruff or itching scalp, try Parisian sage—you will not be disappointed. It's a scientific preparation that supplies hair needs.

The first application should make your hair and scalp look and feel 100 per cent better. If you want thick, lustrous hair and lots of it, by all means use Parisian sage. Don't delay—begin tonight. A little attention now helps insure abundant hair for years to come.

ADVOCATES A BROAD POLICY OF DEVELOPMENT

Hon. L. A. Dugal Heard by Legislature — Budget Debate Continues — Mr. Carson on St. John Water Supply.

Fredericton, April 8.—A policy for the development of the province from within, rather than by the expansion of its geographical boundaries, was advocated in the legislature today by Hon. L. A. Dugal, minister without portfolio, in a thoughtful and eloquent speech. Owing to the difficulty which he experienced in delivering an address in English, Hon. Mr. Dugal was accorded the privilege of speaking in French, and although the majority of the members made no pretense to being able to understand him, he was accorded an attentive hearing. The charm of his voice, his gestures, and the eloquence which made its effect felt even through an unfamiliar language was sufficient to hold the interest of the members and the spectators in the gallery.

Urging careful consideration of the proposals for maritime union before action was taken, Hon. Mr. Dugal called on the people of the province to extend their influence rather by internal development, by stimulating the immigration of men capable of tilling the farm lands and opening up the virgin soil, by developing the natural resources of the province and by the cultivation of that greatest of natural resources, the minds of the younger generation by an advanced system of education. He suggested as one of the first steps to be taken the establishment of a colonization branch for the purpose of securing new settlers.

When Hon. Mr. Dugal referred to the attitude of Mr. Potts on the bilingual question, the members chuckled, for they caught the name even if they did not understand the reference. Mr. Potts showed signs of uneasiness and as the mirth of the House became more manifest, he rose to inquire if the honorable member was referring to him. Hon. Mr. Dugal explained (in English) that he had just been saying that if Mr. Potts would visit Quebec and Montreal and mingle with the French-speaking people his views would be broadened and his prejudice would subside. The explanation was received with applause and laughter.

An Able Speech.
An excellent speech was given upon the resumption of the debate in the afternoon by Mr. Borodage of Kent. He told briefly of some of the things the present government had done to make the province a better place in which to live, mentioning the improved roads, the repaired bridges, the establishment of flour mills, the plans for distributing crushed limestone and the establishment of creameries. He urged increased salaries for school teachers to prevent the exodus caused by the higher pay offered elsewhere.

A Silence Broken.
A silence which has continued since he was elected to the House in 1912 was broken by Mr. Carson of St. John county, today, when he made his first speech on the floor of the House. Some one remarked that if this was his maiden speech it had had time to grow to "spinstery." That may be so, but the "spinstery" effort was of sufficient vigor to attract and hold the attention of the House. One of his frank statements was that while he was paying eight dollars a thousand stoppage he would not do so unless he saw a chance to make eight dollars out of it. He admitted that the roads in St. John county had been improved, but declared that even there he had been unable to find any permanent pavement. As a reflection on the health department he charged that the water supply of the city of St. John was seriously polluted. His final statement was that the members of his side of the House had been approached in an effort to change their allegiance or make way for government candidates after the last election.

Another member who made his debut in debate today was Mr. Allan of Northumberland, and in doing so he showed that he had not refrained from public speech because he was not able to talk effectively. Mr. Allan spoke vigorously and clearly and set his views before the house in a telling way. Interruptions did not worry him and his first speech in debate was the subject of congratulation from those who heard him. He urged upon the government greater efforts to have the Canspact and Gulf Shore Railway taken over by the C. N. R. and the missing link to New castle constructed. He also made plea for united action for the upbuilding of the province. Evidently the opposition members have recognized that they are gaining little glory by the continuance of the debate, and when Mr. Allan concluded there was no volunteer from the opposite side of the house, and after giving them full opportunity to continue if they wished to do so, Hon. Mr. Veniot moved the adjournment of the debate.

Crushed Limestone.
Among the bills taken up by the house in committee of the whole was that to provide for the manufacture and distribution of crushed limestone for agricultural purposes. Hon. Mr. Tweeddale explained the purpose of the bill and the plan which will be followed. He told the house that the government had purchased from Mr. Adams, a rich deposit of lime at Brookville, St. John county, paying $10,000 for twelve acres. The government had arranged to install a grinder and crusher and contracted with responsible persons for the operation of the plant, the latter persons having agreed to supply the additional equipment needed, to operate the plant which will have a capacity of 1,000 tons a day, and to deliver the product at any place on the C. N. R. or C. P. R. within the province at five dollars a ton. In return they will pay the province a royalty of twenty-five cents a ton until the quarry and the plant are paid for, after which they will pay five cents a ton.

In explanation of the need for government activity in this line, Hon. Mr. Tweeddale said that lime secured from private concerns was now costing the farmer from seven dollars to eleven dollars a ton and the plants now operating could not meet the present demand. After three hours spent in committee work, during which there was an extended discussion of the bill to amend the elections act, the House adjourned at 11:40 o'clock.

Mr. Magee moved that the order for second reading of the bills relating to the town of Sackville be rescinded and that they be referred back to the committee on standing rules. Mr. Burchill presented the report of the committee on standing rules. Mr. Leblanc presented the report of the municipalities committee. Mr. Crockett introduced a bill relating to the city of Fredericton and the John Palmer Company, Limited. Mr. Leblanc introduced a bill relating to the town of Dalhousie.

Hon. Mr. Roberts introduced a bill relating to the assessing and levying of taxes in the city of St. John. Mr. Crockett introduced a bill to amend the act relating to the registration and qualification of dentists. Hon. Mr. Tweeddale introduced a bill to incorporate the Fraser Paper Company, Limited. Hon. Mr. Murray submitted the first annual report of the vocational education board.

Hon. Mr. Byrne moved that the order for third reading of the bill to amend the county courts act be discharged in order to permit of amalgamation with another bill. The house went into committee with Mr. Leger, Westmorland, in the chair and agreed to a bill amending the act to enable soldiers to vote in civic and municipal elections. The act provides that soldiers may vote on certificates which will be issued to them by the city or municipal clerk on the production of their discharge papers. The committee also agreed to bills relating to the manufacture of spruce and pulp wood of crown lands to provide for the manufactured limestone to be used by the farmers as fertilizer, to amend the housing act and to provide for soldiers' memorials. Progress was reported on a bill to amend the election act.

Hon. Mr. Foster announced that His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor would visit the house at 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and assent to several bills. Adjourned at 11:40 p.m.

REPORT OF THE VOCATIONAL BOARD
Fredericton, N. B., April 8.—The first annual report of the New Brunswick Vocational Board, which was tabled in the legislature today is an interesting record of substantial results secured within the first year of operation. Perhaps of even greater interest are the recommendations made and the outlines of the plans of the board for the future.

The vocational board recommends the following in order to hasten the organization of schools in New Brunswick: That authority be given to re-investigate localities for outlay on capital accounts for vocational education. Twenty-five per cent of the dominion grant may be used for this purpose. It is felt the province should at least make possible the expenditure of this amount making the vocational education equipment soon to be disposed of by the soldiers' civil-establishment department of Canada available for educational purposes on favorable terms.

That increased aid be given on the salaries of vocational teachers out of dominion grants available. The programme to meet the situation must be as varied as the needs and so elastic and adaptable as to have some connected relationship to all the different conditions in which the people are placed. It will have to do particularly with adolescent boys and girls, but it will offer opportunity to all.

As a beginning toward working out such a programme the vocational board will encourage the establishment of the following:
Pre-vocational schools; day vocational schools; part time schools; evening vocational schools; itinerant schools; a correspondence school.

For Boys and Girls.
It is well known that boys and girls leave school in alarming numbers between the ages of twelve and fourteen years. They are too young to undertake vocational training; therefore pre-vocational work of a practical, interesting nature should be given to hold them in school to give them a useful developmental experience and enable them to select the most suitable vocations.

The ninety per cent who drop out of school when they have either completed grade VIII, or attained the age of fourteen years, must be given a vocational high school course. The board therefore very strongly favors day vocational schools organized on the following basis: That all boys and girls fourteen years of age and capable of profiting by the instruction shall be admitted. That the school day shall be six hours in length. That fifty per cent of the school time shall be devoted to practical work on a productive basis, in the vocation selected; twenty-five per cent to the technical and scientific phases of said vocation, and the remainder to such citizenship subjects as English, French, history, music, civics, health, and the fundamentals of business.

Part Time Schools.
Part time schools are schools attended by adolescence or other workers for a certain portion of each day, week, month

DENT'S GLOVES

Two centuries of leadership in the glove industry of the world justify the general belief that it's good taste and good sense to insist on DENT'S or year, during working hours. Technical and citizenship subjects only are given.

The board approves of the organization of evening schools under the vocational act. These are classes to give opportunity for self-improvement to workers during their leisure hours. Usually they deal with the technical aspects of the day work of the student, though this need not always be the case.

Some phases of vocational education require so much equipment and technical knowledge in their presentation as to place them beyond the reach of small communities through any of the above instrumentalities. To meet this difficulty the board favors the organization of itinerant schools, which will carry the equipment and technical knowledge from place to place, giving short, intensive courses in each locality desiring the same. A beginning will be made this year by organizing such a school for motor mechanics.

Correspondence Courses.
As soon as possible it is the intention of the vocational board to make technical training available through correspondence courses.

By means of the above six kinds of schools the vocational board has outlined the beginning of a programme to make practical instruction of less than college grades, available to all the people of the province who need it. In order to round out a complete system the board is of the opinion that a technical school for higher than secondary grades should later be established. When a broad and sure foundation has been laid in our secondary vocational schools, and large numbers of boys and girls have passed up through them, opportunity should be given to go forward to higher technical courses. An institution for this purpose should be located in one of our largest industrial centres, and tied up very closely with industry. It might be that the maritime provinces could unite in the establishment of such an institution.

GERMAIN STREET IMPROVEMENT
There was a good attendance last evening at the board of trade rooms at the annual meeting of the Germain Street Improvement Association. Col. E. F. Sturdee, vice-president, was in the chair. The accounts for the past year were passed and reports presented. As to the state of the grass and trees, it is feared many of the latter were injured by the ice storm in February. The state of the pavement, walks and curb was brought up and it was resolved to ask the public works department to make the necessary repairs at once. The officers elected are: President, L. G. Crosby; vice-president, E. T. Sturdee; managing committee, John Bullock, R. B. Emerson, H. B. Robinson and L. J. Seidenslecker, with V. S. Crosby, secretary-treasurer.

CANADA'S DEBTS.
Ottawa, April 8.—By a return tabled in the house of commons yesterday it is shown that Canada has borrowed through the Dominion government $2,881,191,292 since 1911, and that of this $2,416,031,088.28 was still outstanding on March 28 last. Of this the government issued 129,800,000 in London up to May 1, 1915. These loans are still outstanding.

WAR EXPENDITURE.
Ottawa, April 8.—War expenditure during the fiscal year ending March 31 totalled $343,544,091 as compared with $347,824,974 in the year previous. This is the war expenditure charged against capital and does not include pensions.

The City Booster

For Good Streets
Good Citizenship

No. 5 "OUR CITY FIRST" April 9, 1920

STOP RAVING—GET DOWN TO PAVING

THE RAVING of those opposed to the abutters' plan proves nothing—except that they want the whole city to pay for the special benefits they derive.

THE BURDEN of taxation in St. John now rests more heavily upon income than upon real estate. To attempt to pave St. John under general taxation would put such a load upon income that the salaried man would be swamped.

REAL ESTATE, which derives the special benefit, can better pay an added tax than income which is now loaded to the limit.

IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED that in case of thoroughfares the City under the Paving Act cares for the excess cost over what a purely residential street would cost. The abutter has only to pay his third of a residential street pavement.

FURTHER, until an agreement has been reached with the N. B. Power Company, the City will take care of the street area covered by the street railway tracks.

Halifax Abutters Pay 50 Per Cent. of Paving Cost.

PROPERLY PAVED STREETS mean a clean city—a healthy city, less medical and hospital expenses, more money for civic improvements, attractive residences and increased population. Increased population means progress. And that is what St. John wants.

Buffalo Abutters Pay the Whole Cost of New Pavement

"GENTLEMEN of the jury," declaimed the lawyer, "if the train had been running as slow as it should have been run, if the bell had been rung as it ought to have been rung, or if a whistle had been blown as it ought to have been blown, none of which was did, the cow would not have been injured when she was killed."

Quite true! And if there had been no opposition to the paving act, and if men didn't want to pay for the benefits they receive, and if the proper civic spirit could be aroused, St. John wouldn't be disturbed over the street prospect.

Cleveland Abutters Pay 98 Per Cent.

"LET ME SAY," remarks a writer in Boston Saturday Evening Post, "I believe that run-down streets do much to start a slum section, for with dirty, muddy, ill-kept streets to live on and play on, what is there for these less fortunate folks to live up to? What the modern city really needs is a broader conception of its street problem."

Toronto Abutters Pay the Whole Cost of Paving

IN THE POORER SECTIONS of Milwaukee, O., the city pays for the labor and the crushed stone, and the abutting property owner pays for the tax and the chips used in front of his property to the middle of the street. This works out to cost the city about 25 cents a square yard and the property owner about the same.

Vancouver Abutters Pay about Three-fifths paving cost

FOR WORKMEN'S BENEFIT. Hamilton, Ont., is one of the most progressive cities in Canada with many thriving industries and well-paved streets. The abutting property owners pay 80 per cent. of the cost of street paving. That keeps the general tax rate down and makes it easy for the working-men who form a large part of the population.

What Other Progressive Cities Do, St. John Should Do

ST. JOHN HAS THE POWER to do things when it makes up its mind to do them, but St. John with all its ability cannot be expected to do what almost every go-ahead city on this continent has failed to do, viz., to properly pave its streets under general assessment. Men who advocate such a method are only thinking of their own front door and their own pocket. They are not thinking of the ultimate result upon the city's future.

Paving by General Taxation Is An Injustice

"FOSTERS BOLSHEVISM." "Economist" in Toronto Saturday Night, Sept. 6, 1919, discussing street improvement, said:—"Where the municipality pays for these improvements ALL IS WRONG. If the owners are placed in a position, by reason of wrongful taxation, to retain these increased values given by the improvements instead of paying the bill for the improvements, A GRAVE INJUSTICE RESULTS. Unfortunately, where the improvements are paid for out of general taxation, the tax falls on the whole community, thus relieving the owner of the lot or lots from paying more than a per capita share, THOUGH HE RECEIVES THE ENTIRE FINANCIAL ADVANTAGE. BY ADOPTING LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAXATION, JUSTICE IS CARRIED OUT as between different individuals in the community. As an opposition to local improvement taxation, it is A POOR ARGUMENT to say it is not the way we have been doing in the past; that owners of lots on other streets already paved got off scot free while under local improvement taxation, owners of streets that were to be paved would have to pay for them. To accept such an argument WOULD PUT AN END TO ALL IMPROVEMENT AND ADVANCE. As soon as a better method is discovered, it should be corrected. Not to do so is to FOSTER BOLSHEVISM AND LABOR UNREST AND CREATE CHAOTIC CONDITIONS."

To the Electors of the City of St. John: LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—Having been nominated for the office of Commissioner in the coming Civic Elections, I respectfully solicit your votes and support.

On the question of taxing abutters for paving, my view has not been changed by the alterations made in the proposed Act. I believe as firmly as ever that it would be in the best interests of this city to continue to pave the streets at the general expense.

Regarding daylight saving and shorter working hours for clerks in stores, two matters which have been before the Common Council, all efforts are being made to effect a settlement by agreement in each case and I hope that, in a give and take spirit, both matters will be settled in this way.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE FREDERICK FISHER.

TO THE ELECTORS: Ladies and Gentlemen.—Upon solicitation of many friends, I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Commissioner in the forthcoming civic election. If favored with your support, I promise to devote my full energy to forwarding the interests of the City with a view to making St. John a better place to live in.

Sincerely,

JASPER, THEN JASS AND FINALLY JAZZ

The secret is out at last: The origin of the word "Jazz" has been discovered. Writing in the London Daily Express, the discoverer leads up to his sensational deduction by first saying apologetically that "we are not responsible for the vernacular of our brothers on the western continent," but since Jazz is now as much of a household word in merry old England as in America, he proceeds to explain.

"One would not call the colored work in the southern United States 'jazzy.' That is too harsh a word. It is hot there and he might be indifferent to working, but never lazy. A negro likes work. But there is a germ in the south known as the 'hook-worm,' which affects all true southerners—some unkind employers call it 'hook-worm,' which has a close connection with the infinitive "to lose."

"Now, the white employer has many thousands of negroes working for him and consequently many overseers; so not being able to remember the names of all his foremen he generally names each one 'Jasper'—a term of higher esteem when used in connection with work, I understand.

"Through the very human love of abbreviations, Jasper became Jass, and as the overseer's principal means of getting work out of his underlings is through harsh and abusive tongue, he was often requested to coin new names. The southern drawl makes 'Jass' sound like 'Jazz,' and there we have the word itself.

"And jazz music, no matter what classic-loving critics may say about it, at least inspires energy—hence the derivation."

WILL REPLACE CROSSES.

Permanent Memorials Over Soldiers' Graves in France.

London, March 26.—(By mail)—The Imperial War Graves' Commission announces that when the temporary wooden crosses that mark the graves of officers and men abroad are replaced by permanent memorials, it will not be possible to preserve beyond a certain time those that are not required by the relatives.

Next-of-kin who wish these wooden crosses to be sent to them are therefore requested to apply to the secretary, Imperial War Graves' Commission, Winchester House, St. James' square, S.W.1, before Sept. 1, stating the address to which the cross is to be sent and giving the usual particulars regarding the soldier on whose grave it is erected. It will be a convenience if the name of the cemetery is also given. A note will be made of these wishes, and the wooden cross will be sent in due course. This will, of course, not take place for some time, so next-of-kin should keep the secretary informed of any change of address.

STAGE IS BARRED TO ALL JAP NOBLES

Old Social Prejudice Against Actors Survives in Mikado's Kingdom.

Tokio, April 8.—The Mikado has forbidden all young Japanese lords from associating themselves with the stage, dramatic or vaudeville.

The Japanese imperial household department takes a paternal interest in the peers, and sees that they deport themselves in a manner befitting their exalted position.

Recently it called to order a number of the young lords who had formed a dramatic society, and proposed to act in a number of plays composed by themselves.

The performance was prohibited and the young lordings were severely rebuked. Later, however, it came out that the society had returned to be suppressed, and its members were acting their plays before very private and select audiences.

About the same time Count Futaba, a university man, and formerly a high official in the provincial government, wrote a play for presentation on the stage of the principal theatre in Tokio.

When the news reached the household department it addressed a severe rebuke to the noble dramatist and ordered him to cancel the arrangement for its production. The objection, as we explained, was not to the play itself, but to the idea of a Japanese patrician having anything to do with the stage.

The old social prejudice against actors survives in full force in certain circles in Japan.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS MEET

Fredericton, April 8.—The annual meeting of the New Brunswick municipal officers' association was opened in the mayor's office today. Louis Robichaud, B.A., L.L.B., secretary of Kent county, was elected chairman. John A. Fowle, town treasurer of Chatham, vice-chairman; Agnes O. Glenn, secretary-treasurer of York county, secretary; and G. O. D. Otty, K.C., secretary-treasurer of Kings county; J. King Kelley, K.C., secretary St. John county; D. A. Adamson, secretary-treasurer Sunbury county; J. E. T. Linden, town treasurer of Newcastle; and J. L. Thorne, county treasurer of St. John were elected to executive board.

The association decided to memorialize the government to fix a minimum salary for officials. It was resolved to have municipalities act amended so that hereafter officials shall be bonded only by fidelity companies at the cost of the municipality. Private bonds are to be abolished.

Get Out Your Idle Flashlight

SEARCH your cupboard drawers; rummage through that space by the cellar stairway; perhaps you'll find it in the sewing machine, atop the medicine chest, on the highest pantry shelf or on your work-bench in the basement.

Wherever it is, get it out—take it down—have it filled—take it home—PUT IT TO WORK!

Remember how useful your Daylo was when you first bought it? You need it worse now than you did then. Tonight, perhaps, its use may prevent a fire, save a life. You can't afford to take chances, when all that your Daylo needs may be a new battery.

This is Daylo Battery Week. The idea is to put every idle Daylo and flashlight back on the job of making it easier, safer and surer to go into and look into dark or dimly lighted places. Dealers everywhere have just received a new supply of Eveready Tungsten Batteries—jammed and crammed full of power and pep, fresh as daisies and with a long life of useful service before every battery.

Eveready Tungsten Batteries fit all flashlights. They better every flashlight into which they're put—make it more useful—because they're the most power-full, longest-lasting, peppiest batteries made. Twenty years' experience in making and perfecting flashlight batteries show in the quality of every Eveready Tungsten Battery.

Business houses don't scrap a typewriter because it needs a new ribbon. Don't you lose the valuable services of your Daylo just because it needs a battery. Get it out—take it down—have it filled—take it home—PUT IT TO WORK!

STEEL STEAMER LAUNCHED AT NEW GLASGOW

The Canadian Miner the Finest Yet Built in Scotia Yards—Large Gathering See Launching.

Halifax Chronicle. New Glasgow, April 4.—There was a large gathering along the East River banks and in the shipyards of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company on Saturday morning to witness the launching of the steel steamship Canadian Miner, the sixth of Scotia built to slide down the ways into the East River. Saturday's launching was a full form affair. The ship was gaily decorated with flags and bunting, and from a colored cart the bow was suspended a real bottle of "extra dry." A motion picture camera was at hand to record the event. The unloading was in every way successful. There was no miscalculation or misapprehension, the affair was timed to the lot. Precisely at ten o'clock the last lock was withdrawn and the large ship with increasing speed instantly rushed to the water. Mrs. McMillan, wife of Superintendent McMillan, holding in her arms her winsome daughter of two years, dashed the bedecked bottle at the great steel bow, the mother and daughter sharing the honor of sponsor.

Finest Ship Yet Built. The Canadian Miner is rated the finest ship yet built at the Scotia yards. The men of the yard have become more proficient in the art and in many ways the appointments of this vessel are superior. Levy McMillan came in for warm congratulations on the success of the launching and the excellence of the ship.

One of the pleased men of the occasion was Colonel Thomas Cantley, to whose energy and foresight was due the introduction of steel shipbuilding in Pictou county. He stood on the bridge of the Canadian Miner as it was launched, and said the proud satisfaction of seeing his wish and prophecy fulfilled in that man's own hands was as strong as those built here. Interested in the Scotia yards were James Paige, a former Pictonian, and superintendent of the Halifax shipyards; Dr. Wilson of the plate mill staff of the Dominion Steel, Sydney, and O. T. ones, Lloyd's inspector. This was Mr. Paige's first visit to the Scotia yards and he expressed amazement at the simplicity of the plant and equipment used in connection with the building operations, and he was one of the first to offer Superintendent McMillan congratulations on his success.

Swift Bolters Also. An interesting industrial feature of the launching was that immediately the Canadian Miner came to rest, she was warped into a dock and the bolters lowered into the hull. On the boilers in large letters was the legend, "Made right here," telling in no uncertain sound that the men of the Scotia shipyard were not only able to build the ship, but also could build the power units to drive her. The interior wood work was also done by the men in the yard, and the boiler rooms finished in light oak, is very fine. The Canadian Miner is 298 feet over all and 28,800 tons register.

No. 7 of the Scotia built is rapidly nearing completion, and the keel for the eighth will be laid on the way from which the Miner was launched. The romie is that four other steamers and steam yachts will be built in the yard according to present orders.

OPEN BRANCH IN HAMILTON, ONT.

A. McKim, Ltd., Advertising Agency, Again Extends Organization—B. B. Stewart in Charge of New Office.

The opening of a new office in the Home Bank building in Hamilton (Ont.), will enable A. McKim, Ltd., advertising agency, to keep pace with the rapid advance being made by manufacturing interests in that city.

With the offices at Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and London, England, the new office will render a complete advertising service, under the management of B. B. Stewart.

Mr. Stewart, who has been with A. McKim, Ltd., at Toronto for eight years, was born and educated at Hamilton, and is known there as the eldest son of the late A. D. Stewart, one time Chief of Police and later Mayor of Hamilton.

By tireless energy he got close to the heart of the subject and then he began to experiment. The result was the creation of a torpedo boat, the Brian Boy, which is controlled, as naval experts have stated in written words, by wireless mechanism.

Like nearly all Irishmen, Mr. Corrigan is temperamental. One friend of his thus described him and his work: "He can tell a story of a murder with a laugh in it and a joke with a sob in it. He will forgive as quickly as he will fight and worry over the wounds of another as if they were his own. He is always ready to give more than he receives in the way of friendship and his slender purse is the victim of any one who cares to attack it. He never willfully wrote a lie or injured a friend, or sought to twist the news to represent anything but the facts."

GOV. ALLEN'S PLAN ATTRACTS INTEREST

Three States Consider Kansas Labor Laws—Matter of Denial of Right to Strike.

The recent speeches of Governor Henry H. Allen of Kansas before the legislatures of New York and New Jersey, by means of legislation restricting the League for Industrial Rights and other bodies in the East are attracting widespread attention. The substance of those speeches has been a summary of the attainment of industrial peace in Kansas by means of legislation restricting the League of individuals to strike in industries "affected with a public interest."

Those who have heard Governor Allen have been greatly impressed and have in many instances advocated similar legislation in their own districts. Three bills paralleling the Kansas measures are now before the New York State Legislature. The New Jersey Legislature is similarly stirring itself. A measure now before the Massachusetts Legislature makes compulsory the arbitration of certain labor disputes. Other Eastern states are responding to the influence.

The Kansas enactments make mandatory. That employees and employers submit their differences to a tribunal for arbitration. That the manager of any industry "affected with a public interest" desiring to suspend operations must first have his reasons approved by the tribunal.

WHERE LIFE IS LONGEST. Which is the healthiest place in the world? If the index is the death-rate, as it presumably must be, we have to go to the unlikely neighborhood of the Antarctic to find it. In the last colonial report from the Falkland Islands the death rate for 1917 and 1918 was 5.34 per thousand. During ten years the death rate in England and Wales did not drop below 13.8 and was as high as 17.6.

Her Idea of Business. "Sorry, madam, but your account is already overdrawn." "Well, what of it, young man? Haven't I a right to do what I like with my own account?"—Life.

Letters testamentary have been granted to Mrs. W. H. Lunn, executor under the will of the late Benjamin Watters, who leaves real estate to the value of $100. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter is executor.

LEAVES PROFESSIONAL LIFE

Mrs. W. H. Lunn will, tomorrow evening, say farewell to the Lyric Theatre, where she has given pleasure to many thousands and added materially to the merit of the performance by her artistic piano playing. She has been there eight years and now gives up the professional life for that of the home. She takes with her the best of good wishes of many friends.

THE SCANDINAVIAN

The P. O. lined Scandinavian, which arrived yesterday morning, did not dock until 7:30 o'clock this morning. She was held outside the island until room could be made for her at No. 8 berth, Sand Point. She had 548 cabin and 887 steerage passengers.

TRAFFIC CASES

Frank Donnelly was reported by Police Officer Colwell driving his automobile on April 5 with a 1919 license instead of a 1920 license. He said the license had been applied for but had not then arrived, although on April 6, the policeman said, he had the new tags. A fine of $50 was imposed.

Daniel Doherty was charged with driving an automobile with a 1919 license, but he said it was not his car but his brother's. He was allowed to go.

THE FIRST MAYFLOWERS

For years past, about this season of the year, while yet there is snow in the woods and ice in the streams, Thomas E. Dyer has brought to the Times a bunch of Mayflowers, partially in bloom. Dyer called today with his 1920 offering of April bud and bloom. He found it on a sunny hillside not far from the city, where the snow disappears early and the delicate buds thrust themselves forth to gladden the eye of the lover nature. To get there Mr. Dyer was compelled to wade through much snow, but he was amply rewarded for his weariness of limb. He thinks the flowers indicate a fairly early spring season.

INVESTIGATION UNDER OATH TO BE HELD SOON

Matter of Alleged Timber Stealing From City Lands to Be Gone Into.

With regard to the alleged cutting of timber on city lands in the vicinity of Loch Lomond and other points, Commissioner Jones said this morning that he had visited the city lands yesterday and was gathering further information on the matter. He said that he would refer the matter to the city solicitor on his return to the city and that an investigation under oath will be held in the near future.

TWO TRADE COMMISSIONERS HERE TODAY

Two overseas trade commissioners are in St. John today interviewing manufacturers and suppliers regarding trade with the British Isles. J. V. McKenzie will go aboard the Empress of France tomorrow morning on his way to Glasgow, where he has been appointed trade commissioner. Norman Johnston, trade commissioner at Bristol for the dominion, will leave tonight for Montreal. Both have been taking up trade conditions with the shippers between here and Sydney during the last week and report a keen interest in the British trade. They are desirous of meeting St. John exporters at the board of trade rooms.

CASE OVER CASE

OF CANADIAN CLUB

Ten Bottles Found in Man's House—Two in a Barber Shop.

In the police court today John McDonald was charged with stealing a case of "Canadian Club" whiskey, valued at $18, property of Jacob E. Zatzman, 939 Main street, yesterday afternoon. Sergeant Rankine told of going to the residence of the accused and finding him there with another man. When asked where he had put Zatzman's liquor, he said he pointed to a case in a room in a said case containing ten bottles, which Zatzman identified as belonging to him. The sergeant said he then asked him where he would get them if he would go with him. The sergeant accompanied him to the barber shop of Edmund J. Langis and behind the sink in a back shop two bottles were found. The broken case was found in the woodshed. The accused was desirous of settling the case with Mr. Zatzman, but this he could not do. Policeman Lindsay corroborated the evidence given by the sergeant.

Joseph E. Zatzman said that he received a shipment of fifteen cases of liquor yesterday afternoon by Dominion Express and his man was carrying it upstairs into his residence, and on coming back for another case he found that one was missing. The accused was sent up for trial.

As a result of this case Inspector McAlish charged Edmund J. Langis with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling. This case was taken up this afternoon.

A case against William McNulty, charged with cutting and stabbing Wm. J. Colahan on last Saturday night with intent to do bodily harm, and a case against John Cullinan, charged with assaulting and beating Colahan on the same date, were postponed until next Tuesday afternoon for witnesses. McNulty was admitted to bail in $2,000, while Cullinan was refused bail and remanded. W. M. Ryan appeared for the defence.

A case against James Elliott, charged with being drunk and also with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling, was resumed. Inspector C. H. Kerr corroborated the evidence of Inspectors McAlish and Merryfield yesterday. The accused was fined $50.

William Williamson was charged with stealing a bag of flour from the store of Steves Bros. in Erin street. Detective Biddiscombe gave evidence. At the request of W. M. Ryan, counsel for the accused, the case was postponed until this afternoon.

HEALTH BOARD CHAIRMAN SPEAKS OF WATER MATTER

In the legislature in Fredericton yesterday reference was made by T. B. Carson, member for St. John county, to the public health act and the water supply of this city. John Kelly, chairman of the board of health, when spoken to regarding these matters, this morning said that the citizens of St. John are rest assured they were getting good water. Tests had shown it to be entirely satisfactory. There were certain things which had to be contended with, of course, but every effort was made by the board to eliminate them, and progress had been made in this respect. He was convinced that from the result of the tests there was absolutely no danger to the people of St. John from the water supply.

As to the public health act, Mr. Kelly said that it was working satisfactorily in St. John. So far as expense was concerned, when one considered the benefits which came from it the additional was not so very much. There had been a little opposition at first by some but as the act was becoming better understood the opposition had greatly lessened.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IS HELD IN NORTON

The annual meeting of the district Sunday school convention of Hampton parish took place at the Norton Presbyterian church on April 5 with Rev. George Sears, pastor of the Norton church, in the chair. Reports from the Sunday schools showed that they ranged from fifty to 100 per cent efficiency, the Hampton Methodist Sunday school showing 100 per cent efficiency.

The following schools reported: The Norton Station Union, River Bank, Central Norton, Hampton Village and Hampton Station Baptist and Hampton Station Methodist.

Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church, Hampton, gave an inspiring address on the value of the Old Testament Sunday school lessons for the next six months. This was followed by a debate on the best methods to induce adults to continue Bible study. The central thought was have the home altar read and this would meet the rising need.

At the evening session Rev. W. A. Ross, general secretary, was unable to be present, having been called home on account of illness. Rev. J. J. Graham, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Hampton, gave an address. A resolution was passed to the effect that the conference place on record its determination to do its utmost to forward the cause of temperance in the coming referendum.

ADDRESS TO K. C. ON IRELAND

A very interesting address on Ireland was given last evening in the rooms of the Knights of Columbus, Colburn street, by Richard O'Brien. It was followed with much pleasure by a large gathering of members. Mr. O'Brien gave a comprehensive review of the Irish situation, showing marked familiarity with the subject. He received a hearty vote of thanks, moved by Joseph Harrington and seconded by Hon. R. J. Ritchie. The lecturer, M. T. Morris, was in the chair and tendered the thanks of the audience.

An entertaining musical and literary programme was given after the address, the gathering taking the form of an Irish night smoker. J. L. Mulhally presided at the piano, songs were given by Mr. Morris, D. J. Higgins and James Daley, readings by E. J. Henneberry and C. A. Collins, Jr., and an address by John McGowan. W. M. Ryan, grand knight, before closing the meeting, added to the words of appreciation previously expressed towards the address of Mr. O'Brien and also thanked those participating in the remainder of the programme.

Character in Men's Clothes

We know from thirty odd years' actual experience in the clothing game in St. John just what the men of this city demand, and we've provided accordingly.

There's the snappy advanced style for the young men—more subdued styles for the conservative dresser.

But more important still—Scovil's Clothes are based on the solid principles of quality, service, value, dignity and refinement—all these combined make up the character of Scovil's Clothes for Men.

Our Chief Item of Merchandise is--Service

Due perhaps to the present abnormal relation of demand to supply we occasionally hear of an independent attitude being assumed by manufacturers and merchants toward the public they serve.

Let it be known that the attitude of EVERETT'S—now and at all times—is one of sincere service to all the public.

Whether prices be high or low—merchandise plentiful or scarce—demand great or small—we believe our responsibility to the public remains the same.

You very properly expect to find here not only the most desirable selections in correct home furnishings—not only values that will bear critical comparison—you expect to find a uniformity of courtesy, and a dependable, competent helpfulness in the practical working out of your home beautifying plans.

This spirit of service which characterizes EVERETT'S is not a material thing, and is not subject to limitation.

To render service enriches us in experience and in your good will. It cannot impoverish.

And so we repeat our oft expressed invitation to come here for helpfulness in working out any home furnishing plans you may have in mind. You will be cordially received and graciously served.

FILL THE GULLY UNDER BRIDGE AT MUNICIPAL HOME

Councillor Donevan at Fredericton With Proposal

Sees Hon. Mr. Veniot About It - Improve Traffic Conditions - Plan for Material From the Courtenay Bay Works.

(Special to Times)

Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—A rather ambitious plan for the improvement of traffic conditions at the bridge near the municipal home in East St. John is being promoted by Councillor Jeremiah Donevan who is here to take up the matter with the minister of public works. The bridge over the gully at this point is said to be too narrow to meet the requirements of the steadily increasing traffic, and another reason is found in the desire of residents and those doing business in East St. John to assist in preparing for the extension of the street railway line to Little River. The plan advocated by the councillor calls for a solid fill for the gully to take the place of the present bridge and also provide room for the car tracks. The drainage through the gully would be cared for by culverts.

To secure the material for the fill he has been negotiating with the Bedford Construction Company and has discussed with the management a plan for running a spur line from their works and using the surplus material from their excavations, including a large quantity of clay useless for other purposes, for filling at the present bridge site.

The manager has informed him that with the aid of a steam shovel the work will be completed in three or four days and the terms suggested are regarded as satisfactory to the councillor. As an additional benefit to traffic, Mr. Donevan has suggested that the fill be carried up to a level about six feet higher than the present bridge level, thus removing the heavy grades on the road on either side. This plan is being considered by the engineers.

Mr. Donevan interviewed the minister of public works in order to bring to the aid of that department in carrying out these plans and was given a most sympathetic hearing.

Decision on Tuesday In Power Company Case

Battle Reaches Its Final Stage

St. John Citizens' Committee Before Corporations Committee in Fredericton This Morning - Company Representatives Present.

Fredericton, April 9.—The long battle between the City of St. John and the N. B. Power Co. is practically at an end. The report of the corporations committee of the legislature, which gave final consideration to the bill in private session will determine which side has won or whether the honors are divided.

The sitting of the committee was delayed by another committee which was occupying their room and it was not until towards one o'clock when the committee got around to the power bill. C. S. Peters, A. H. Wetmore and G. E. Barbour, the members of the citizens committee which had endeavored to arrive at a basis of agreement between the company and the city, were called before the committee and explained some of the features of the report which they had submitted and answered questions regarding the method by which the bill arrived at their findings. F. R. Taylor and H. P. Robinson, for the company were admitted to hear this committee but no discussion was permitted by the committee representatives. These gentlemen withdrew soon after one o'clock and after a few minutes discussion the committee adjourned until Tuesday morning next when it is expected that their decision will be made.

This was a busy morning for the committee. The standing rules committee began the day at 9:30; the law practice and agricultural committee met at 10, and the corporations committee followed. Owing to the other demands upon their time, the members of the public accounts committee were unable to get together for their meeting.

A strong endorsement of the government's plan for supplying line to the farmers was given by both government and opposition members of the agricultural committee which met for the first time this session at the residence of Mr. Mercurio of Sunbury as chairman. Members of the Municipal Officers' Association which was held yesterday sought an interview with the government this morning, but as they had not been in a position to attend, they were all engaged in committee work, the conference did not take place.

CITY MARSHAL ROBERTS DEAD IN FREDERICTON

Fredericton, April 9.—James Roberts, city marshal, died this morning, aged sixty-nine, following paralysis which occurred several months ago. He was a native of Queens county but came to Fredericton in his youth and joined the police force, and was well known as a detective. He is survived by his wife, five sons and three daughters. The sons are Charles, LeBaron, George, Wilfred and John, all of Fredericton, and the daughters are Evelyn and Bessie, at home, and Mrs. John H. Connolly of Campbellton. Mr. Roberts was a brother of the late James W. Roberts of Fredericton and brother, and Mrs. Grace Donovan of Calais, Maine, is a sister.

GIVEN TWO YEARS

Harold Smith Sentenced - Other Cases Before Judge Armstrong.

In the county court this morning before His Honor Judge Armstrong, Harold Smith, found guilty in November of stealing lead pipe from the city, again appeared before the court. He had been allowed out on suspended sentence on condition of good behavior, but following arrests on drunkenness charge, the charge was again brought against him. He was sentenced to two years with hard labor.

WAR GAME AT THE ARMOY

Several officers and others interested in military manoeuvres attended a war game at the Armoiy last night and the Blue force, led by Colonel W. H. Harrison, the "blues" and Lieut. Colonel A. J. Markham, the "reds." The manoeuvres were held in the Armoiy, and were so arranged as to make it possible for anything to be accomplished in the way of military instruction in the art of modern warfare. With this situation before the mind, the referees were called to know just what the outcome would be, so were unable to give any decision and the game was called "drawn." However, it was an instructive lesson for all who took part, and it showed on the part of those acting some clever work in the art of modern warfare.

THE STAR

Regular Week-End Show of Drama and Ludicrous Comedies.

The fourteenth chapter of "The Great Gatsby" is the chief attraction in this week-end programme at the Star Theatre. YOUTH'S DEATH WINDSOR FEARFUL

Windsor, N. S., April 9.—A coroner's jury investigating the death of Oliver Akce at the plant of the Nova Scotia Underwear Company, here yesterday, has returned a verdict that he died while operating the elevator. Standing on the side of the elevator, presumably adjusting the elevator for the purpose of loading, his head became caught between the elevator and the head of the elevator door, while the elevator was in motion, completely severing the upper part of the head from the body and causing instant death.

NURSE INDICTED

GREAT COTTON VENTURE

London, April 9.—A large venture in cotton growing, requiring capital of many millions of pounds, is to be put before the Lancashire cotton interests, says a despatch to the London Times from Manchester.

SUGAR PRICES IN VARIOUS CITIES

Winnipeg, April 9.—(Canadian Press) Retail sugar prices have mounted in western Canada since price restrictions were removed a short time ago. Quotations gathered from western cities show that Vancouver has the cheapest sugar supply at eighteen to twenty cents, according to quantity, and that Calgary and Edmonton pay the highest prices for granulated sugar, merchants asking as much as twenty-two cents and twenty cents to twenty-two cents respectively. Winnipeg, Regina and Moose Jaw, twenty to twenty-one cents, and Saskatoon, nineteen and a half, and Lethbridge twenty-one.

HERE'S A BUMP FOR THE NON-VOTERS

The Plain Truth About the Effect of Indifference on Polling Day.

(From Saturday Evening Post.)
When a business man was asked if he voted in the last election, he replied: "I take no interest in our rotten politics. What's the use?"

If one can put that question about voting, there really isn't any use. Only a fool would ask it, and there are too many fools voting as it is.

These what's-the-users are in themselves—rotten politics. Besides, one of them, a member of the ruling gang, is a rather admirable character. Politics is his first business, and he is shrewd enough to know it. Politics is the non-voter's first business, too, and he is as shrewd as not to see it.

It is men like these what's-the-users, both young and old, well educated, well circumstanced and well placed, who year after year return the gangs to city hall, the grafters to legislature, and the demagogues to the senate, not by voting for them, but by not voting at all.

Skilled professional politicians and bungling professional reformers finally achieve about the same net result—efficient government and waste of the public money. Grafting gang-government and bungling "good" government both produce a red ink balance. Politics has been picking the same pocket in the same way for a hundred years; government has been losing money through the same hole, and we are still carrying our roll in the same handy hip pocket instead of close to the chest. Good intentions without good sense and practical experience are of no more use in a city hall than they are in a bank. They may even line the road to grafting paving contracts. There is always a chance to land the professional gangster in jail, but there is no way to reform the professional reformer.

The professional politician makes a business—a personally profitable one—out of politics; the professional reformer makes a mess out of it. Besides, he talks more. Hope of good government does not lie with either, but both are worthy of respect beside the what's-the-user—especially the gangster. He never asks "what's the use?" He values his vote so highly that if he is offered the chance he will vote twice. He can give the answer to "What's the use?" to a decimal point, and that is something the majority of those who vote against him cannot do. Voting is the master key that opens the door to the what's-the-user's factory, office and safe. That is the use and the gangster uses it for precisely that purpose.

Non-voters and men who vote conscientiously at the wrong time and without paying any attention to the right preliminaries are the no more use in the loudest about food and class legislation, unsentimental and confiscatory taxation, incompetence, waste and graft. In their private business they look ahead, study fundamental conditions, plan, organize, hire and fire with a ruthless regard for results. They take infinite pains in selecting and training men, demanding loyalty, honesty and devotion to the firm from their subordinates. But in their public business they are without grasp, planless, disgruntled, clock-watchers, loafers on the job, having to go hat in hand to the dominant gang to beg as a favor something that should be theirs as a right.

That men who are really desirous of having impartial and honest government should tolerate the present system is a piece of incredible stupidity. It is undoubtedly due to their failure to apprehend government itself as simply a vast business machine, as an integral part of their own business, and that the problems with which it has to deal are purely economic, including war itself. Once this fact is clearly grasped and the action and reaction of all government and laws on private life and business are fully understood, there will be no what's-the-users.

Politics is not only a full partner in every home and in every business, but it holds the controlling interest. Rotten politics and rotten business are interchangeable terms, and they make for rotten homes.

Take the income tax. The man who does not have to pay it directly takes the attitude of "Sneak it to them. They're rich and can stand it." But they do not stand it. All this direct taxation is re-apportioned indirectly, so that every consumer gets his full quota. No matter upon whom they are directly levied, everyone must pay his proportionate share of them in the end. Rich and poor alike are trimmed by them.

Against it all works back to the government. Have you put men in charge of the raising and spending of taxes whom you would trust to head departments in your private business, formulating its policies, limiting its possibilities, deciding your attitude toward labor, and taking money from your safe to

ONTARIO AND THE LIQUOR QUESTION

Opportunity for Legislation to Clear Obstructions for Final Verdict by People.

(Toronto Globe.)
The legislature has the opportunity to clear away all obstructions to a definite final verdict by the people of Ontario on the liquor issue.

A bill introduced by Mr. McCreary, the U. F. O. member for North Lanark, asks the house to petition the federal government to grant a referendum, under the recent amendment to the Canada Temperance act, on the question of prohibiting the importation of liquor into Ontario for purposes which are illegal within the province. Contingent upon the adoption of this bill, Mr. Sandy of South Victoria will bring in a measure to prevent what is known as "short-circuiting"—the delivery of liquor to Ontario consumers direct from Ontario breweries and distilleries, on orders from another province. Mr. Sandy's bill is intended to meet the objections of a group of prohibitionists in Ontario who say that the prevention of importation would be useless so long as Ontario consumers could get supplies of liquor by sending orders to Montreal to be transmitted to Ontario liquor manufacturers for execution.

The federal amendment to the Canada Temperance act, known as Bill No. 26, adopted last November, provides for a referendum upon request of the legislative assembly of any province. A majority vote of the electors of Ontario will cause the governor-in-council to put prohibition into force as follows:

"(a) No person shall import, send, take, or transport into such province any intoxicating liquor;
"(b) No person shall, either directly or indirectly, manufacture or sell, or contract or agree to manufacture or sell, any intoxicating liquor to be unlawfully imported, sent, taken, or transported into such province."
These prohibitions will not, of course, apply to the importation, sale, or transportation of any intoxicating liquor for sacramental, medicinal, industrial or commercial uses. In its original form Bill No. 26 provided for the prohibition of the manufacture of liquor as well as of the importation. The minister of justice, upon the first reading on Oct. 7, declared that the measure was introduced "for the purpose of making it possible for a province to have absolute prohibition either of importation or manufacture or both, but in order that it should have either, the people of that province, by plebiscite upon these particular questions, must have voted in favor of the prohibition of one or the other—the manufacture or the importation—or of both if they so desire." When he moved the second reading on Nov. 8, the clause prohibiting manufacture had been deleted, his explanation being that under other federal legislation it was within the power of any province, without invoking a plebiscite, to prohibit the manufacture of liquor for the purpose of being used in any way in violation of the law of the province. The minister also proposed further amendments and struck from the original bill sub-clauses which would have prohibited "short-circuiting" in "cause" liquor to be delivered in a prohibition province. The minister said the change was made because the original clause dealt with "the prohibition of sale within the province itself." He added: "That is dealt with by provincial legislation, and we do not desire to supersede or interfere with it." It would have been more accurate to say it could be dealt with by provincial legislation, and it is legislation for this purpose that is proposed in the bill to be introduced by Mr. Sandy.

Under the federal statute the passage of the resolution embodied in the McCreary bill would be followed by the proclamation of a referendum within three months after the receipt of a copy of the resolution by the secretary of state. Assuming that the bill will pass

Six Battleships, Several Light Cruisers, Some Torpedo Boat Destroyers and Submarines.

London, April 9.—The surrender of the remainder of German warships under the terms of the treaty of Versailles started on Wednesday when the battleships Nassau and Ostfriesland arrived at the Firth of Forth, in tow of German naval vessels. The Nassau, which has been allocated to Japan, is of the dreadnaught class displacing 18,000 tons. The Ostfriesland, allocated to the United States, is also of the dreadnaught class, displacing 22,000 tons.

The Baden, a new battleship of 28,000 tons, which the Germans tried to scuttle in Scapa Flow, is now in British hands, and has been permanently allocated to Great Britain.

The arrival of the Nassau and Ostfriesland marks the first delivery of German naval vessels since the Scapa Flow incident. The opinion was expressed at the British admiralty that the delivery of the remainder of the German vessels which are to be surrendered will now proceed speedily, as there is satisfaction that Germany intends to carry out this provision of the treaty without further quibbling.

There remain six battleships, several light cruisers and some forty or fifty torpedo boat destroyers and some submarines to be delivered. In addition, it has been agreed that fifty-four German submarines will be sold for the benefit of the Allies.

Locks Better.

Dusseldorf, April 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The diminishing disorders, the progress of the dissolution of the Red army and the fulfilment of other clauses of the peace treaty seemingly indicate that there will be a return to reasonable satisfactory conditions throughout this part of the Ruhr region by Saturday noon, the time set for the return to normal by the authorities. The desire of the executive committee of the workmen, particularly in Dusseldorf, to retain some of the power they have had for four weeks, appears to be the only political difficulty.

Winnipeg, April 9.—(By Canadian Press)—"No woman who wears the high heeled shoes that are being foisted upon the female public today can retain her vitality, figure and personal magnetism," declared Miss Edna E. Lowe, physical culture expert of Chicago, at the closing session of the Manitoba Educational Association yesterday. Her assertion was greeted with prolonged applause by the audience of 800 teachers, mostly men.

Simpler living, "getting back to nature," was advocated by Miss Lowe as the surest way of counteracting "nerves" from which the present day world in general, and the teaching profession in particular is suffering in over-doses.

Promoting Poverty

Right at the heart of the city's progress and prosperity strikes the new Paving Bill sent to the legislature by the common council and which should be killed by the vote of the people on Monday for the following reasons:

- 1. It is Wrong in Principle: Streets used by the people of the city as a whole should be maintained by the people as a whole as are the schools, fire, police and other public services.
- 2. It Departs from Precedent: Already eight miles of permanent pavement have been laid and charged to general assessment, and why should a group of property owners in these streets seek to impose the burden of paving remaining streets of the city on the abutters in these streets.
- 3. It Impedes Progress: Home building and expansion of industrial properties will be penalized by the special abutter's tax which is to be imposed at will of the common council on any street of the city.

- 4. It is Unworkable in Practice: Widows and the small property owners whose main income is derived from rentals, will find it impossible to make their property pay the increased tax of at least $600 to $1,000 on a 40-foot frontage and the city will be obliged to take over these properties or distribute the cost over the remainder of the street, making the burden unbearable.
- 5. It Increases Rentals Out of All Reason: When the special tax is applied, the landlord must look to the tenant, and on an average house it must mean an extra $75 to $100 a year. And this is in addition to what must be added to the constantly increasing scale of prices and rentals.
- 6. It is Inequitable in the Extreme: Under the proposed bill the owner of a house worth $2,000 would have to pay as much per foot frontage as owner of the most valuable house on the street. Therefore the law is unfair to the poor man and favors the rich, while under general assessment every man pays in accordance with his means.
- 7. It is Altogether Unnecessary: The present Local Improvement By-law makes ample provision for abutters sharing in the cost of paving residential streets.

VOILE BLOUSES

Friday and Saturday Only

$2.65

$1.59

Beautiful Voile Blouses that represent a special purchase which has just come to hand. If these had been bought in the regular way they would have to be sold for a much higher price. As it is we are able to offer them at less than today's wholesale. Different styles and many different designs are represented.

A charming lot of Voile Blouses that have become slightly soiled from handling and for this reason alone we are now offering them at a price which is considerably less than the original cost. There are only a few at this price but they are truly a wonderful bargain for early morning shoppers.

Voile Blouses up to $9.00 in price, that have become slightly soiled, are all offered at substantial reductions.

This Is Your Week-End Opportunity to Economize—There Are Not More Than 100 in Each Lot So It Behooves You to Be on Hand Early.

VIMY

April 9

(Contributed by Municipal Chapter I. O. D. E.)

The name, the date bids us pause in the midst of Easter joys and festivities. Three years have passed since that memorable time when the Canadian army faced the heights, and on the evening of April 9 replaced the Prussian eagle with their country's Maple Leaf. Bloodshed, carnage, death, stalked in the train of the victors, and many a dauntless spirit went out to a boche bullet on that implacable hill, and on that ridge still sleep all that is mortal of those immortal sons of Canada who gave their young lives for country and empire. On that historic ground a proud, triumphant country has decorated in benediction their lonely graves, and perhaps in time to come a rescued country will perpetuate their "in memoriam."

And the living victors—what of them? No monument of stone or even the living canvas of the painter is worthy to perpetuate that valorous deed of April 9, 1917.

The official name "Canadian Expeditionary Force" now passes into history. Will the spirit of gratitude and indebtedness pass with it? The I. O. D. E. in their efforts to guard against the demobilization of our obligation have organized a half-million dollar educational fund for the benefit of the children of our dead or disabled soldiers, but they realize that this does not in any way cancel their great indebtedness. It is only a nation's love for chivalrous men that can rightly recompense. And that love must be handed down to our children and theirs, so that they in turn may transmit it to future generations who also will send it sounding

GROCERS IN TROUBLE

OVER CHARGE FOR EGGS

Cleveland, April 9—Members of a grocery firm in this city have been bound over to the federal grand jury on a charge of selling eggs at seventy-nine cents a dozen, nine cents more, it is alleged, than the price set by the fair price committee.

GREATER ST. JOHN

To the Editor of The Times:
Sir,—In the forward progressive spirit which animates our citizens for a greater St. John we must not lose sight of a most important matter closely associated with the subject under discussion, that of developing our boys and girls into good citizenship.
If we fail to accomplish little in regard to the problem of living quarters for the families growing up we can at least place at their disposal places for recreation and physical development. In days gone by we all know how important our city ranked in the athletic world. We were the proud possessors of two baseball teams. Hockey and football and aquatic sports were outstanding features. The present plan of an up-to-date field for good clean sport will be a lasting benefit for the community but what of the winter sports? We seem to have no place to hold hockey matches could be held and have ourselves in line with the upper Canadian leagues.
Apart from the larger things connected with this important matter let me devote a word to the smaller ones, or rather small in the matter of construction but large in results—the community centres. Last year through the efforts of many interested in the younger folks and the able devotion of your valuable daily much good work was realized. South end has made a good start and possesses a fine playground which is proving a great success. The same can be said of Calvary and the east end, but what about north end? Here we have probably the largest residential section connected with the city, well organized in church and social work but no playground for the children. It was my pleasure to speak with Mr. Stevens last week who is deeply interested in the development of the young folks, and he showed me a splendid plan devised by himself and drawn by the city engineer. This plan, if carried out, would give north end one of the best recreation centres in the city. It includes everything needed for an up-to-date playground, also a baseball diamond. The land lies back of St. Luke's church in the Laundowne avenue section and a short distance from St. Peter's and Elm street schools, beautifully situated for the purpose desired.
The crux of the whole scheme is to purchase the land. Here, I think, is where our directors at city hall could do something which would stand out as a shining example of the right devotion to the rising generation of boys and girls. Money is well spent when you place at the disposal of the children of the north end a field such as the one herein described. The interest it will draw will be too great to reckon. The young boys and girls of the north end are well worth training. Once upon a time we were proud of the fine baseball players who came from that great centre. Let us have some more of them.
Let city hall make haste, now that the season has come and acquire this land. The worthy citizens of north end will do the rest. This accomplished, we shall have a great start in the right direction. Remember that stone and brick, gutters and railways are not the only material for the construction of a Greater St. John. Good citizenship is the chief asset. We can only accomplish this by training our boys and girls in the method of clean sport.
Yours very truly,
C. B. WILLIAMS,
29 Paddock street.

WEST SIDE SUPPER.

The ladies of the Carleton Methodist church held a successful pleasant and novel supper in the school room of the church last night when under the title of the Carleton Caters Catering Company they conducted a supper at which every dish was given a name that commenced with the letter "C". The guests were not only delighted with the good things provided but were much entertained by the individual names of the good things. More than 200 were served with supper, and the proceeds are expected to total a large sum which is to go toward the organ motor fund. The committee in charge was as follows: Mrs. I. O. Beatty, Mrs. A. Martinson, Mrs. C. J. Barrett and Mrs. A. Martinson.

A largely attended meeting of sugar workers was held last evening in their hall, Waterloo street. L. Stevens, the president, was in the chair, and several speakers addressed the meeting on matters of interest to labor. Discussion of the wage question took place and also of working conditions.

New Combination In Quality Fabrics At Very Rare Old Fashioned Prices Which Take You Back To The Good Old Days Before The War

THERE is no necessity for you to exceed your convenience in your clothes expenditure this Spring! Our stock of fine fabrics offer wide selection at Standardized Prices you can easily pay.

The high prices prevailing of late have caused many men to believe that they were faced with the alternative of either paying upwards of $65 for a suit or overcoat, or accepting clothes of a distinctly mediocre character.

We invite men who believe such expenditures are necessary to inspect our stock of Spring fabrics, where they will find fine materials priced as low as $17 for a Suit or Overcoat Tailored-to-Measure—fabrics of real character and individuality.

Bear in mind also that the workmanship on our Tailored-to-Measure garments satisfy the most fastidious, and that we guarantee fit.

In placing your order with us you effect a considerable financial saving.

Suits and Overcoats Tailored-To-Your-Measure

YOU have been told that clothes prices would be high this Spring—but do you know how high they are? Get this information from any source you choose and then determine whether or not you can afford to pay them. You can afford to pay our Standardized Prices, which are in reality old-fashioned prices that take you back to the good old times before the war.

We base our Standardized Prices on the assumption that the demand for E. & S. Woollen Co.'s Tailored-to-Measure garments will be greater than ever before, otherwise our prices would not be possible. If you think we are exaggerating, do a little "shopping around," and you will find we have stated the situation truthfully.

WEST INDIES CUSTOMERS WANT RAPID DELIVERY. Suggestions regarding export practice of Canadian firms interested in business with the British West Indies are contained in a communication from the manager of a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada in Trinidad. He says: "If the Canadian manufacturer expects to compete with the Americans in this market, he must give closer attention to the filling the orders received from the Indies as soon as possible. Our stores here adopt the 'hand-to-mouth' policy, and do not order large stocks ahead, on account of the fact that foodstuffs are apt to spoil very rapidly, and it is, therefore, necessary that any orders they may commit to northern exporters must have immediate attention." Captain J. T. Walsh of Montreal, in the city registered at the Royal.

As four or five clubs have changed managers during the off-season. During the past winter the only change made in the middle of the fifth round and then the championship of Canada from the hands of Eugene Brosseau, of Montreal, to those of Mike McGigue, of New York, in one of the most scientific bouts ever staged here.

McGigue won by a clean knockout in the middle of the fifth round after having rushed Brosseau into a corner and then with carefully calculated lefts to the head finished his man with a short right cross which crumpled Eugene and brought him crashing to the mat.

The fifth round brought both men from their corners apparently fresh and ready to carry on for a long time. McGigue led off with his old straight left to the head to which the champion replied with a hard right to the body. Mike turned Brosseau around with his right hand in a slow easy manner and then with a sudden rush drove the French lad to a corner and rocked his head with a short right cross, which took all the effectiveness out of Brosseau in a second. The sturdy legs of the champion sagged for an instant, then the old instinct of self-preservation asserted itself and he came out by main force and tried to land his right on McGigue's. McGigue rushed in once more, tearing at Brosseau as he lagged against the ropes with short lefts that swung the champion's head about like a pivoted ball. Then standing in close, the Irish boy brought his right out from the shoulder. There was a flash as the glove zipped across the few inches between R and Brosseau's jaw and the man from La Prairie sagged and crashed out on the mat for the first time in his career.

Referee Foley began counting while McGigue walked to the opposite corner without the sign of a heave in his chest. On the count of nine Eugene trest gamely to rise but toppled when he had got to his knees and rolled over on the mat.

Up to this evening neither man had ever been defeated. In the preliminary Dick Hunt of Halifax quit in the first round and the decision was given to Johnny McIntyre, a Glace Bay lightweight.

Wells Won.
London, April 8.—Bombardier Wells the English heavy weight tonight knocked out Eddie McGiverty, of Oshkosh (Wis.), in the sixteenth round of a twenty-round bout at the Holborn Stadium.

AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION MEETING
Will Endeavor to Clear Up Unsettled Situation in Maritime Provinces.
St. John, N. B., April 8.

Sir,—I am herewith enclosing a copy of a letter which has been sent to all the known athletic clubs in the maritime provinces.

Will you kindly go over this and give as much publicity as possible to the fact that the association wishes to hold this meeting to clear up the unsettled situation existing at the present time, so that everything can be on a proper basis when the baseball season starts.

Your kindness in this matter will greatly oblige.

Yours very truly,
F. J. POUQUET,
Secretary.

St. John, N. B., April 8, 1920.

Dear Sir—

As you are aware the amateur sport in the maritime provinces has not been what it should have been during the past winter.

An effort was made by the Maritime Province Branch of the A. A. U. of C. to handle the situation and to keep sport clean. A number of clubs promised to back the association at the annual meeting held last November, but when the hockey season got in full swing they failed to do so.

The big difficulty, of course, was the playing of some of the old professionals, who, according to the rules of amateur sports, should have been eliminated. The association cannot live if the clubs which form it will not support it. Something has to be done in the matter and to arrange this we propose holding a meeting on or about April 27 at Sackville, Amherst or Truro, at which we want to have a representative from each and every club in the maritime provinces. Will you take the matter up with your club and let us know on or before April 15 if your club can send a delegate to this meeting and also state at which town you would prefer the meeting held. We want to make it as convenient as possible for everybody and the meeting will be held at the town getting the largest number of votes from clubs guaranteeing to send delegates.

The sport situation in the maritime provinces is in a serious condition at the present time and unless all the clubs are willing to work together for the good of amateur sports, we will find ourselves out of all big competitions. We have developed men who have held their own with the best in the country and can do so again, but the sport must be properly handled or our athletes will not be permitted to take part in the competitions. This must be arranged

WATER ROUTE RESUMES ITS SWAY AT BATHURST

Extra Dredge Will Operate This Year—Sixty Per Cent. of Lumber Product to Leave in Ships.

Bathurst Northern Light.) An announcement has just been received from O. Turgeon, the parliamentary representative of this county in the dominion house, that it is the intention of the government to send a dipper dredge here this coming season to cooperate with the suction dredge already being used in the work of deepening and widening the channel of Bathurst harbor in order to hasten the completion of the work and have the channel in shape for the tremendously increased shipping activities that are expected, not merely this year, but during the coming years.

This interesting announcement synchronizing as it does with the statement of Angus McLean of the Bathurst Lumber Company that about sixty per cent of their product this year will be shipped out by the water route, is doubly significant.

It means a return, or something approaching a return, to pre-war conditions along the waterfront of Bathurst, and behind that fact there is the other and perhaps more important consideration that it means a reopening of old markets, lost during the war, and a consequent increase in production on every hand to meet the increasing demand.

Mr. McLean is a tremendous optimist, not merely about the future development of Bathurst, but about the latest scheme of things over which so many people are today striking pessimistic chords.

On his return from a visit to his camps the other day, a visit rendered brief by the sudden break up of the roads, he informed us that what he had been convinced him of the fact that we are on the way back to normal conditions, that in fact we are almost there, and that the great war handed over to us in legitimate business directly connected with munitions or other war purposes has now reached the point where its effectiveness is in the last stage of its life.

Running to Full Capacity.

"As an evidence of my opinion we are prepared this year to run our plant to the full capacity. There will be steady and continuous work for every mill, and I figure that the production will reach a high mark. I will not go on record at this time and say that I expect a banner year, but I fully expect a good year for all of us. This year of all years in the town of Bathurst holds forth an opportunity to get down to real progressive business, the basis of all industrial prosperity. There must be no more of the old community should take a vigorous hand in making things go and producing right up to the limit. We intend to do it, it should not be done by everybody. This is the time to make the best of our chances. Things are settling down everywhere, and the part we as a town may play in the future depends upon what we make of the present opportunity.

Speaking with strict reference to his trip around the camps, on which tour he was accompanied by John Lordon, Mr. McLean stated that the work in the woods for this year was finished.

Naturally he did not desire to go into details of the "cut" but he expressed himself as entirely satisfied, although he pointed out that the early "break" would have the effect of leaving a great many of the logs cut and yarded in the woods. Owing to the fact that there was practically no snow until about the middle of January, that is, sufficient snow to conduct hauling operations satisfactorily, there was a much larger amount cut and yarded than usual, and this, coupled with the unexpectedly early break in the weather, meant that the extra logs could not be hauled. In fact, down to practically sixty days instead of about the ninety that is customary, situation this year, not merely for himself but for the other large operators in the district. Another important factor, however, was the heavy snow storms that made the month of February notorious in these parts.

Fifteen Per Cent Loss. These conditions, he said, prevailed generally throughout the province and he figured that about fifteen per cent of the logs cut would be left on the yards. In spite of that, however, he claimed that they would have all the timber they would require to keep the mills operating at full blast throughout the year, and he was figuring on having a very active season indeed. There was nothing to fear in the shape of a shortage of employment or a reduction in wages for the active season indeed.

As already indicated, Mr. McLean was able to visit only a few of his camps, but he enumerated for our benefit the camps actually working this year, and they are as follows: Ten on the Big River, one on Bass River, three on the Teteouche exclusive of the contractors who employ about 250 men, and striking an average of about seventy-five men per camp you find that this corporation has an army of well over 1,000 men in the woods. And that is only on this side for, as Mr. McLean explained, there are at least 500 more men employed in the company's camps over in Quebec.

Referring to the announcement which he had received from Mr. Turgeon regarding the dredging operations in the harbor for this year, Mr. McLean said that it was impossible at this time to estimate the importance of this work in its relation to the development of the town and the surrounding country. Already vessels of considerable size can enter the harbor and haul up at the various wharves for loading and unloading purposes, but it was clearly the intention of the authorities to put the channel in such a condition that the shipping traffic could be tremendously increased in the future. His own plans for shipping by water at least sixty per cent of the product of the mills this year was no more than a hint of what the future might hold in this regard.

While up in the woods, Mr. McLean took a number of photographs of camp scenes illustrative of the lumbering industry as it is carried on in the province, and it is our intention, in cooperation with him to run a series of articles

Millers Declare It Would Have Maintained Production by Taking Proffered U. S. Flour Orders.

(Toronto Telegram.) "It's up to the Wheat Board," this is summarized the opinions of millers and flour dealers given the Telegram this morning respecting the request of millers for a 45c per barrel increase in the price of flour. The situation is explained by Mr. Peck, of the Maple Leaf Milling Co., as follows: "All exports of flour must be made through the Wheat Board, the millers not being allowed to direct. As far as the United States is concerned the Board sold only in limited quantities. We had inquiries for larger quantities than they were sold, but we could not take the business as it offered us direct. The board did not sell anything like the quantities for which we had requests. So Prices Go Up. "If the Wheat Board had sold all the flour possible to the States the result would have been that our mills would have been able to continue operating and we could have continued selling flour at our normal price."

COUNTESS ISELIN APPEALS TO WOMEN

Says Need for Service Did Not End With War.

New York women already have forgotten their greatest lesson of the war service, according to Countess Georgine Iselin, daughter of the late Adrian Iselin, banker, and upon whom Pope Pius XI bestowed the title of Countess in 1912. Countess Iselin is president of the Association of Catholic Charities, one of the largest organizations for relief in New York city. The work of the association calls for a great deal of volunteer service on the part of women.

"New York women are back on Fifth Avenue dress parade and at the bridge table," Countess Iselin said recently. "While the war was on we were delighted to know that all we had to do was whisper that we had room for one or two more workers and there were scores of applicants. It looked as though women had waked to the call of humanity."

"But there isn't any war now, and the women are just like the telephone system, 'busy' or they do not answer. "We had a big problem to meet during the war, and the women met it because they saw it. The boys had gone from their homes, and the women were face to face with the problem. It is just as big a problem now, but America is not realizing it. Humanity's needs are greater, but women do not see those needs. They are not their own homes, as the war problems were. "The spathy of women toward such a fundamental duty as the relief of distressed is beyond my understanding. I cannot explain it, but I am reluctantly being forced to believe it is a pure selfishness."

"It is an odd fact that the women who apparently are really the busiest are those who are giving us the most time for our welfare work. The indifference toward to believe it is a pure selfishness."

"If our women would give us just one hour a week and give us a pledge of that amount of service that we could rely upon, all our difficulties would vanish. And certainly one hour out of 168 is not asking too much. "There is no reason why every woman cannot help. It does not require a course of instructions. All a woman need know is something about social service. And there is a place for every woman. We have hospital work, nursery work and almost everything that comes from the government. The indifference toward to believe it is a pure selfishness."

"It is a solemn obligation upon all Catholics to 'Love thy neighbor as thyself.'"

STATE-AIDED SPORT.

Sweden does not possess a ministry of sport, but it has long been the only country in which the practice of athletics among adults is state-aided. The Swedish National Union of Athletics receives an annual subsidy of 20,000 crowns from the government. All who attain a certain standard in athletics receive gold, silver or bronze badges from the union. In order to encourage the continuance of training in later life these badges are bestowed according to age as well as proficiency. The gold badge can be secured only by men over 32 who can swim 200 metres, take a long jump of five metres, put the weight 16 metres, and run 10 kilometres in 15 minutes. This performance has to be repeated annually in order to retain the gold badge.

NEW INTEREST OF CHINESE WOMEN IN BABY WELFARE

(By Georgia W. Leffingwell, Ph. D.) China is playing a new role as the home of "shelter babies." Shattering the age-old traditions of the Land of the Lotus, a baby welfare exhibit was staged recently at Ningpo by the Baptist mission. Such an interest in the welfare of the coming generation was unprecedented in China. Nothing like it had ever been known in Ningpo within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and it was the topic of the day throughout the city. It was discussed in the shops and on the streets and in the temple courts with their crowds of idlers. Women everywhere gathered in little groups and speculated curiously on this new idea from America—the idea of actually studying babies.

Of course, everybody wanted to visit the exhibit. Staid bankers and substantial business men came to see, stayed to approve and finally went home to bring their wives back with them. One dignified graybeard, a prominent native physician, was so impressed that he requested all the nurses practicing in the city to attend. More than 1,000 people thronged the building. Posters, charts, books and exhibits offered up-to-date instruction in baby love and there were demonstrations on proper methods of feeding. In a "play pen" suitable playthings were displayed for his majesty the baby. At another booth patterns for useful and hygienic baby clothes were sold at the nominal price of one cent each. The most popular booth of all demonstrated "How to Give Baby a Bath." Crowds circled around to watch the process, while the "subjects," like the babies the world over cooed and gurgled and yelped when the soap got in their eyes.

The importance of interesting the younger girls as well as the older people in the exhibit was recognized. Every China is playing a new role as the home of "shelter babies." Shattering the age-old traditions of the Land of the Lotus, a baby welfare exhibit was staged recently at Ningpo by the Baptist mission.
