CHATHAM, OCTOBER 2, 1879. The Price of Flour.

Flour is a very important article of consumption, produced in Ontario and causing a constant flow of cash from the Maritime Provinces to the West.

"Everything in its Place." "We do not think it probable, or to be desired, that lumbering will again form such an important factor in New Brunswick as it has done in the past, and to the exclusion or neglect of other equally important industries."

Not Altogether Wrong. The Daily News, of St. John, which was Liberal-Conservative in its politics all of last week says:

Fifty Per Cent. Increase of Duties. Sir John Macdonald's friend, Mr. John Boyd, of St. John, before the elections, that he had never proposed any increase, but only a re-adjustment, of taxation.

shakes the sphere. His wisdom is unsearchable—his sagacity beyond all estimate. He stands forth, and the country is bathed in sunshine.

That made Canada prosperous during the first six or seven years of Confederation? Sir John A. Macdonald. Nothing more. Nothing less. Nothing else.

And did the country survive the naughty doings of the "unhappy combination"? With a mighty volubility. "With a mighty volubility."

A New Work by the Bishop of Fredericton. In the midst of a laborious life, the Bishop of Fredericton, who is also Bishop of Canada, has found time to prepare for press a little work entitled, "The Book of Job, translated from the Hebrew Text, with an Introduction, a Summary of each chapter and Brief Notes, an Explanation of Obscure Passages, and a Glossary of the Words."

But when the weight of time brings its re-venge, and second thoughts set right the rash and hasty conclusions of impulsive popular opinion. To think that Canada should ever have dreamed that Sir Hugh Allan had not liberality and patriotism sufficient to subscribe $300,000, more or less, to an election fund without expecting a recompense, except in the placid confidence and peace arising from having done his duty to his country, was too bad.

But the longest lane has a turning. Everything comes right to the good man if he has only patience. Gold on the Washawak. Some time ago Mr. Hugh Eggar, a lumberer in the employ of Alex. Upon the strength of this, and of information obtained from other sources, Mr. Gibson concluded to ascertain whether there was any gold in the stream, and made some discoveries of value, going to prove that the real article was there, sure enough, but in what quantities remains to be tested.

PERSONAL.—Wm. Swin, Esq., ex-M.P. was in town yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Mackenzie of Richibucto was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. J. Coyne, of Chatham, and formerly of the Intercolonial Railway, is Professor of Telegraphy at Memramook College.

Rev. Messrs. Armstrong and Jones of Kent, Rev. Mr. Flavel of Bay du Vin and Rev. Mr. Barber of Newcastle were in Chatham on Friday last.

A New Tractor has been established on Grand St. Chatham, by Mr. Hugh P. Marquis. He is an industrious young man and we trust his enterprise will be rewarded with abundant success.

THE FORTINERS raised by Mr. Thomas Vanstone at his model market farm, Chatham. Two of nearly equal size were shown to us on Thursday last, one of which nearly turned the scale at a pound and half.

Two lads—very small—named Charles and John, John McEneaney, were arrested last evening on the charge of stealing some $12 from Mr. John Springs. They are now in the Police Station.

Mr. LAYTON is so informed that Mr. Hays of Douglastown is to be again nominated by his friends as one of the Candidates for Newcastle. We, therefore, regret that, on what must have been erroneous information, we stated last week that he was not to again offer.

THE STEVENSON COX MYSTERY.—Walter Hibbelly book, giving all the particulars of the singular manly murder in connection with Esther Cox, "The Amber Mystery" is on sale at the Miramichi Bookstore, Chatham, at twenty cents per copy, for which price it will be mailed, post paid, to any address in Canada or the United States.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, James Lyons, while preparing to load a saw at Hamilton's mill wharf, fell from a deal pile into the water, a distance of from eighteen to twenty feet. He was severely injured about the head and chest, and had both wrists broken.

THE LAW.—Mr. John M. O'Brien of Bathurst, a graduate of the N.B. University, has commenced the study of the Law in the office of Wm. Wilkinson, Esq., of Chatham.

Mr. J. R. Costigan, son of John Costigan Esq., M.P., who has completed his studies in the same office, is about to proceed to Fredericton for examination as an Attorney-at-Law.

Mr. Richard Adams, who was in nearly four years in New York has also become a Student under Mr. Wilkinson.

CHATHAM DENARIY.—The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Chatham met in the Parish of Dalry on Wednesday and Thursday 27th and 28th ult., there were present the Revs. A. F. Hills, Rector of Derby and Forsyth, H. F. Barber of Newcastle, D. Forsyth, R. D. of Chatham, W. B. Armstrong, of Widdifield, E. P. Flavel of Bay des Verts, T. W. Jones of Richibucto.

On Wednesday evening a Missionary meeting was to have been held in St. Peter's, Derby, but unfortunately the weather was unfavorable. However, a few of the parishioners met at the appointment in the Clergy hall instead of the Missionary meeting. Evensong was held, all present enjoying the services completely. On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, there was Morning Prayer with the celebration of the Holy Communion, and sermon by the Rev. W. B. Armstrong.

The various local Union Societies met at the Rectory, and after routine business, Chapter III, lat. Tim. was read in the original and discussed. Afterwards the clergy were hospitably entertained at tea at the house of F. Crocker, Esq., and at half past 7 p. m. there was evening service at St. Peter's with a sermon by the Rev. J. W. Jones.

We are glad to notice several manifest tokens of progressive work in the Church in the Parishes of Derby and Blackville. Some of the most interesting improvements will follow at an early day.

The next meeting of the Denary will be held in Newcastle in January next. Subsequent to the meeting of the Clergy at Derby, the Rev. Messrs Armstrong and Jones visited the Parishes of Newcastle and Chatham. In St. Mary's Chapel, Chatham, on Friday evening, the 26th there was evening prayer and a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Jones. After the service Mr. Armstrong proceeded to Richibucto on Saturday evening. This ended a pleasant and profitable reunion of the clergy.

A Road Case.—In Justice Griffin's Court on Monday last there was a case of some importance before a jury composed of Messrs. John Russell, W. C. Stothard, David Stothard, John Scott, Jr. and Wm. Hay, Jr. The matter was brought before the Court by Road Commissioners McLaughlin and Peterson, at the instance of Mr. George Tracer, who desired to have a private road opened from Queen Street through the property of Mr. Duncan Davidson to his (Mr. Tracer's) land, which fronts on Wellington road. A plan got up by the old Land Company of Chatham, was submitted, showing that said company had intended to leave a street at the place indicated. Mr. Tracer claimed that Mr. Davidson would not be entitled to any damages if a public street were opened there (Mr. Tracer) had desired the private road. The jury, realizing that the application was urged for a public road rather than a private road, and that Mr. Tracer had frontage on Wellington street, decided that a private road through Mr. Davidson's property was not necessary and expressed their opinion that if a public road were opened it should extend from Queen Street through to the next street eastward.

Drowned.—Last Monday afternoon about four o'clock Mr. John O'Neill, in company with his brother, Peter, attempted to cross the Miramichi at the South-west Boom in a very small row boat, striking a snag, capsized, throwing both into the water. John O'Neill, who was a very active man on logs, was, however, unable to swim, but he struggled in the water for some time, and was nearly reached by two men who put on logs to the rescue. He went down, however, before they could carry out their humane intention, and was drowned. Peter managed to cling to the log, until rescued. The deceased was steadily in the employ of Messrs. Fairley since last summer, and was highly valued by them. Latterly he had been looking after their logs at the Boom, and had about closed the season's labour there. Before starting he was advised not to cross the river in the frail craft from which he met his death, but he seemed determined to go. He was only about 24 years old and had been married but some five months. The blow is a sad heavy one, therefore, for the young widow as well as the family and near friends who had reason to esteem deceased very highly.

Notes from the Westcoasts.

RECTORSHIP, Sept. 22. CHURCH MATTERS.—Rev. Thomas Nicholson's congregation, at New Mills, is getting up a fine new church near the site of the old one. It is estimated at $2,500. The other branches of his congregation at River Charles and Jaquet River have their churches just about finished.

Both of them are neat and commodious edifices. At Dalhousie the Presbyterians have the foundation of a new church laid and the work of framing it is going steadily on. It will, when finished, probably be the finest church in the county.

AGRICULTURE.—The Westcoast Agricultural Society held its annual cattle show lately, as usual, at three places, namely Black Point, Black Lands and Dalhousie on successive days. The prizes were taken this method of distributing the prizes among the members throughout the county, in preference to having their shows in one place. Some good stock was shown. This is one of the oldest and best societies in the Province and under judicious management has done a great deal for the farmers of Westcoast County in introducing improved stock and seeds.

LUMBER.—Although the lumber trade is so dull, considerable quantities of deals, etc., have been shipped from this county this summer. J. D. Sowerby of Campbellton, has shipped two cargoes from his mill at Oak Bay, P. Q., and Mr. Farrar of the same place two more. The Messrs. Moffatt, Dalhousie, have shipped some nine or ten cargoes. Alex. Morton, of Benjamin River, has shipped several more vessels; George Dutch, of New Mills, three vessels; John McNeil, Louisbourg, six, and J. M. Doyle, Jaquet River, two or three. These parties all own mills and operate them themselves.

If the wood trade in the Westcoast should revive, the lumbering and mill operations. No part of the Province has such a large area of lumber lands intact as there are on the Westcoast and its tributaries. This must come, at no distant day, a great source of wealth.

Concert at Dalhousie.—An obliging Dalhousie correspondent writes as follows:—A highly entertaining and successful concert was given here on the 18th inst., by the Choir of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, and the crowded house gave sufficient evidence that a treat was expected. The programme was as follows:—

Duet—By Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. J. Barberie. Song—By Mr. Smith (Curate) "The Englishman." Selection from Pinafore. Song—By Master Campbell "The Tar's Farewell."

Duet—By Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. J. Barberie. Play—"The Hoyden," in 2 acts. The character of Hoyden by Miss Wilkinson was deservedly applauded.

Song—By Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. Barberie. Duet—By Miss Emma Phillips on Piano, accompanied by J. S. Morse Esq., on Violin. This was the first and last of the evening and was repeatedly encored.

Song—By Master Bobby Haddow accompanied by Miss Bessie Haddow on Piano "The Sailor's Farewell." Song—By Havelock Smith "Trot, Trot, My Pony."

Duet—By Miss E. Phillips on Piano and J. S. Morse Esq., on Violin. "Out all round." Play—"Out all round" by Mrs. Roberts, Miss Minnie Johnson and others. These characters in this play acquitted themselves remarkably well.

Song—By Miss Wilkinson, "Jane's Bridal" and by calling out the audience displayed good taste. Song—By Bobby Haddow, "Grandmother's cat" was loudly applauded. Selection from Pinafore.

The concert was then closed by singing "God save the Queen." Everyone present seemed well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

W. C. T. U.—At a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. held in Fredericton, Wednesday, 10th September, it was resolved to take steps for the formation of a Provincial Union. The various local Unions were invited to send Delegates to assist in its formation.

There are any who have not been communicated with, they will confer a favour by responding to this invitation, which is extended to all ladies interested in temperance work. Provision has been made for the entertainment of Delegates during the two days session, 8th and 9th Oct., and arrangements made with Trains and Steamers for reduced fares.

The New Manager of the Bank of Montreal.—The election of Mr. Charles F. Smithers to the first financial position in Canada, that of General Manager of the Bank of Montreal, is a matter upon which that staunch monetary institution may be congratulated. Mr. Smithers is one of the ablest financiers in America.

He is a man of splendid executive ability, keen business habits and wide catholic attainments. He will bring to the Bank, in his new capacity, a prestige which will send its stock up to a higher premium than it has hitherto enjoyed, and the greatest confidence will be at once restored.

Mr. Smithers began his banking career in Scotland some thirty-four years ago, and entered the service of the Bank of British North America, at an early age. In 1858 he left that institution to accept the position of Inspector of the Bank of Montreal, which he held until 1863, when he relinquished it to take the post of Manager of the Montreal Agency of the London and Colonial Bank. When the Canadian branch of that concern was withdrawn in 1868, Mr. Smithers re-entered the service of the Bank of Montreal, and has since continued to hold until the present time. Mr. Smithers will begin his new duties some time in October.—Quebec Chronicle.
