Over 30 Feet Long!

Nearly 1200 Ratepayers Sign The Bridge Petition.

The Delegation will Leave on Monday.

The excitement this week is in the circulating of petitions to the House of Assembly. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday several men volunteered to drive around the surrounding districts and secure names. Those who came forward to assist in the good work were Dan Brooks, Lev. McConochie, W Durkee, W. R. Gillin, Joe Thornton, Hartland: H. P. Stevens, Randolph Eidout and Joseph McGee, Somerville; W. W. Ross, Simonds. The districts canvassed included Bath, Bristol, Florenceville, Glassville, Gordonsville, Lansdowne, Mount Pleasant, Carlisle, Rockland, Ashland, Riverbank, Peel, Upper Brighton and Lower Brighton, Newburgh; Pembroke, etc. on the east side of the river; and Simonds, Connell, Somerville, Victoria, Lower Wakefield, Waterville, Rose-dale, Lakeville, St. Thomas, Creek Settlement, Palmer Settlement, Third Tier, Williamstown, etc. on the west side.

On Thursday when the petitions were brought in they combined together making a roll of paper over 30 feet long, and with nearly 1200 names. The delegates, Messrs. Curtis, McCormack and Shaw, will go to Frederieton on Monday. Until they return the people in above districts will be in a tremor of excitement and expectation.

There are yet many who have not signed the petition. All who desire to do so should call at Estey & Curtis', where the petition now lies.

Brakeman Killed.

A very sad accident happened at Benton last Saturday morning, which resulted in the death of Wm. McCue of Houlton, a brakeman on the freight train between Vanceboro and Woodstock. When the train was entering Benton station McCue jumped off the engine to the platform. He slipped and fell under the train. A wheel passed over him and he was caught under the truck, dragged for about 100 yards and died in two hours.

An Unique Industry.

Besides his big lumber business A. H. Sawyer is carrying on in a quiet way, a rather small but unique industry. It is the shipping of small cedars, fir and spruce saplings to Boston for manufacturing fancy rustic seats, summer houses and fences. Mr. Sawyer has four car-loads of this stuff ready for shipment.

Keswick has the largest assortment of candy, chocolates and cigars in town.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

A sad case has come into the history of Charlotte County, and one that has brought sorrow into several respectable families. Annie Maxwell, charged with the crime of wilfully neglecting to procure aid and assistance for her new born baby, whereby the child died at Grand Manan on February 9th, was brought to St. Andrews by Constable John Dalgzell and is now in jail with her mother, Mrs. William Kendrick, who is also held to answer for the life of the child. Both will be tried at the May term of the circuit court.

The Streets.

It is said there is more stir on the village streets this season than ever before. There is a constant jam of teams during the past week. On account of the great amount of snow the drive-ways are very narrow and in some places in a dangerous condition. One day last week four sleighs up set in front of the ADVERTISER office on account of a big drift not having been properly leveled. The country roads

Farmer's Meeting.

Will be held at Bath, Phillips' Hall, on Tuesday, 15th March next, at 2 o'clock p. m., to discuss better methods of farming and any matters of general interest to agriculturists. The establishment of a cheese factory at or near Bath Station, to be a subject for special consideration. The farmers of Wicklow and Aberdeen are especially requested to attend. Ladies and children are also invited.

The Cars Bother Him.

EDITOR OF ADVERTISER:—Is there any way of compelling the railway people to leave the crossings clear when loading and unloading freight? For several days I and others have been compelled to wait from 20 to 40 minutes before being able to cross; and I understand that sometimes cars stand on the crossing an hour and more. Cannot his be stopped?

PILES.
DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

MR. THOS. DOLPHIN, TARA, ONT., says: "I had itching Piles for about ten or twelve years, and tried every thing I could hear or read of, and found that nothing did me any good. Mr. Hilburn, the druggist, gave me a sample box of Chase's Ointment, and from the first application I found relief. I then purchased one box and that one cured me so that I have not been afflicted since, and that is over a year ago."

ing the real writer of the documents on the strength of which, so far as appeared, Dreyfus had been condemned. Major Esterhazy was also tried by a secret court-martial and solemnly acquitted, but the evidence adduced for and against him was strictly kept from the public. Zola has been tried for libel, but the court has throughout the case been more like an extravaganza for having sold army plans to a foreign officer of artillery named Dreyfus in power—presumably Germany. For this Dreyfus was drummed out of the army in the most ignominious manner of its justice, was at stake. Every witness for the prosecution was encouraged to harangue the mob and the jury about himself or about anything irrelevant. The order maintained in court except for the repression of the defence, was that of the bar-room. The liken- cation with Dreyfus or he with them, Dreyfus, however, was a Jew, with a German name, and needed nothing else to prove him guilty to the masses of the French. These had, indeed, no other evidence, except the fact that an absolutely secret tribunal had found him guilty. The history of secret tribunals in France has not been such as to make that a proof of guilt. Judged by the past, it proved only that it was convenient to the court that Dreyfus should be accounted guilty. There soon arose vigorous protest against the secrecy of the tribunal on the part of the independent and anti-government press, which took the shape of a demand that the Dreyfus case should be reopened and tried in public. This was sharply refused by the government, and the news- paper protest was responded to by hy- sterical diatribes in the government press denouncing Germans and Jews, and proclaiming that the press of the country was in the hands of the Jews, and that the critics of the government were traitors in the pay of a Jewish syndicate who wished to upset the re- public. An active propaganda excited the students of the Latin quarter and other specially inflammable elements of the population not only of Paris but of all parts of the French empire to shout 'Up with the army and down with the Jews—two cries very irrelevant to the question in hand, but when put together suggestive of a foul conspiracy on the part of a hated race to ruin France, and both calculated to excite the prejudices against the Jews. Lawlessness need of it is constant and urgent. To lose it is to lose power to overcome. Without it Joshua would have been but poorly equipped for the great task thrust upon him after the death of Moses. No doubt he was dismayed when he saw against the Jews. Blasphemous as the comparison may seem, it has been im- lead Israel into the promised land. They had been rescued from slavery in Egypt, brought to the borders of Canaan and were ready to enter upon the inheritance promised to Abraham and his seed.—Independent.

High Lights.
 They also serve who only stand and kick.
 When two are company three might as well be a hundred
 Worth makes the man but he picks out his clothes himself.
 Man always meets trouble half way and then stands on the corner expecting happiness to come along.

Reflections of a Bachelor.
 Probably the happiest years of a man's life were the seven years Rachel's father made him wait for her.
 As soon as a man hears all the other women begin to abuse a girl he thinks he would like to meet her to find out why they are all so down on her.
 Jonah probably wondered for a long time whether he'd better tell his wife the truth or get up some other story.
 When an old bachelor has any opinions at all about love, all the women begin to wonder whether he thinks so because he is an old bachelor or whether he is an old bachelor because he begins to wonder whether he thinks so. A secret of good courage. Every Christian worker needs to have fights his country's battles than to the soldier of Christ who wages warfare against the evils of the world. The need of it is constant and urgent. To lose it is to lose power to overcome. Without it Joshua would have been but poorly equipped for the great task thrust upon him after the death of Moses. No doubt he was dismayed when he saw against the Jews. Blasphemous as the comparison may seem, it has been im- lead Israel into the promised land. They had been rescued from slavery in Egypt, brought to the borders of Canaan and were ready to enter upon the inheritance promised to Abraham and his seed.—Independent.

ZOLA.
 The Zola trial, which has ended in a sentence as tyrannous as all the proceedings were glaringly unjust, has nevertheless proved far more humiliating and against him was strictly kept from the public. Zola has been tried for libel, but the court has throughout the case been more like an extravaganza for having sold army plans to a foreign officer of artillery named Dreyfus in power—presumably Germany. For this Dreyfus was drummed out of the army in the most ignominious manner of its justice, was at stake. Every witness for the prosecution was encouraged to harangue the mob and the jury about himself or about anything irrelevant. The order maintained in court except for the repression of the defence, was that of the bar-room. The liken- cation with Dreyfus or he with them, Dreyfus, however, was a Jew, with a German name, and needed nothing else to prove him guilty to the masses of the French. These had, indeed, no other evidence, except the fact that an absolutely secret tribunal had found him guilty. The history of secret tribunals in France has not been such as to make that a proof of guilt. Judged by the past, it proved only that it was convenient to the court that Dreyfus should be accounted guilty. There soon arose vigorous protest against the secrecy of the tribunal on the part of the independent and anti-government press, which took the shape of a demand that the Dreyfus case should be reopened and tried in public. BRISTOL

Ansley Lockhart and Charles Lockhart will start on Wednesday for Vancouver.

Inspector Meagher was in Bristol on Monday and made a call at our schools.

Rev G A Giberson preached in the Free Baptist church on Sunday morning last. He intends holding some special meetings commencing Thursday evening next.

Dr Somerville is able to be around again after his recent illness.

Mrs A P Boyer who has been seriously ill for some time is recovering.

James Davis Woodstock is visiting friends in the village.

Tylney Rogers met with quite a serious accident a few days ago and is now confined to his room from its affects. Dr Atkinson is attending him.

Alva Phillips, the popular clerk in his father's store has gone west.

On Friday last Mr and Mrs D S Jones were driving on the Lockhart Mill road, and in passing another team, their sleigh upset in the deep snow, and they were thrown out. Their horse got loose from the sleigh and ran away but luckily did no damage.

SOMERVILLE.

Mrs Frank E McGee is spending a part of the winter with her father-in-law.

One of our young men is talking of going to British Columbia. May success follow him.

Mrs C A and Mr J H Simonson spent a few days with their daughter and sister, Mrs H P Stevens.

H P Stevens has been quite ill for several days, being threatened with congestion of the lungs.

The people here are greatly enthused over the Bridge question and are expecting big things from the delegation.

WEST SIDE NOTES.

The roads on the West Side under the influence of a hot March sun are fast becoming sloppy and bad for travel.

S R Boyer accompanied by Mrs Boyer and Miss Alice spent last Sunday in Victoria.

Miss Ethel Boyer, Hartland, was a visitor in Victoria during the week.

H P Birmingham made a business trip to the Upper Province this week.

E Puddington and family are away on an extensive pleasure trip.

R W Shaw is rusticated in Aroostook Co Mrs Shaw and Baby Earl are with him.

Mr M Giberson St Stephen was in Victoria one day this week.

The special meetings referred to in my last notes, are progressing far beyond first anticipations, and the Spirit still prevails. The Baptists commenced a series of meetings in their church Sunday. The Rev's. Blakney, Currie and Carpenter are in charge.

Several of Mrs. Norman Hoyt's friends repaired to the Hoyt home on Tuesday in answer to an invitation to a Combination Party. A beautiful quilt occupied the ladies' attention during the afternoon, and in the evening the poor old Krokino board was dragged out. Where does the combination come in? Those present were: Mesdams De Witt, Shaw, Birmingham. Shaw and Miss Annie Hoyt. Messrs H. W. Birmingham. E. M. Shaw and H P. Birmingham.

NICODEMUS.

"What is a sanguine disposition, Uncle Christopher?"

"Sanguine disposition. Well, it's your mother, Bobby—thinking she can pound a picture nail into the wall with a banana."

J. T. G. Carr has just received his first spring shipment of hats and caps for men and boys. New York and English styles.

P. O. Box 17.

Where are those blue-ruin shriekers who declared that oats would never again go above 22 cents? Last season and early this winter the hard times wail was heard among the farmers and traders on every hand. Where are they now? Whining about the price of hay, likely enough!

At a recent farmer's meeting it was decided that there was good money in oats at 30 cents; and that the man who would sell hay was literally selling his farm piecemeal. So the man that grumbles at the price of hay ought not sell it at all. Feed your hay to stock. Sell cattle. There's money in it! Good pig pork is worth 6½ cents a pound in the round, and the price is going up every day. Where is the farseeing farmer that spring has half a dozen good pigs to slaughter?

* * *

What will it all avail? One more delegation to interview the House of Assembly; one more big petition. Where is the Bridge? If there is an election this year it is pretty near completed. If no election until '99 nothing definite will be given out until a year from next summer. But one thing is sure. If it doesn't come sometime Mr. Dibblee and the ADVERTISER will flop!

A. W. Hay is doing a splendid business at Lower Woodstock. His pork and beef packing establishment is a success, and will eventually develop into a large business. As it is the farmers around the lower part of the county feel a benefit from Mr. Hay's industry.

Shaw & Dibblee say their two tin pails for 22 cents are genuine hand made pails, and that they are not in the same class as the cheap factory made tumble down stuff.

W. N. Raymond of Middle Simonds has marketed 102 tons of pressed hay. His farm adjoins the one advertised for sale by his brother Randolph Raymond.

Go to Watson's Hartland, for a fine parlor suit cheap, also a large stock of spring roller window shades for 25 cts. and upwards.

We publish in this issue a condensed yet comprehensive account of the Drefus affair that has been a chief newspaper topic for some weeks.

Keith & Plummer offers Carleton County pure leaf lard in 5 lb. and 20 lb. packages.

A C. E. pin found on the street may be had by the owner's asking for it of the TISER man.

If you want a choice cup of coffee go to Keith & Plummer's just received a fresh lot.

F. B. Meagher inspected the three village schools yesterday.

Off for Vancouver.

Thos. McCrae, one of our popular young men leaves to day for Vancouver. He was presented with an address and a handsome grip by his fellow members of the A. O. H., the presentation being made by president I. E. Sheagreen.

Mayor Hay was present, and in his own behalf presented Mr. McCrae with a handsome trunk. John Gallagher accompanied him on his western trip.

John Lee leaves also for Vancouver and he was given a send off supper by the Knights of Pythias at Lee's last night—Dispatch.

Death.

Mrs. William Melville who was stricken ill some days ago died on Monday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dow Estey, Main St. The funeral was held at Rockland on Wednesday where interment took place. The cause of the death is ascribed to hema-plegia.

Annual Dinner.

The Annual dinner of the 67th Batt will be held in this village next Thursday 17. There will be present the staff officers and a few invited guests. This is quite an event for our town.

A driving party consisting of Misses Long, Keswick, Pass and Messrs Campbell, Rideout and Durkee made a nice trip to Woodstock on Tuesday evening, and after refreshments at the Vendome the party returned.

Freight train No. 56 running south has been followed by Colwell's train from the T. V. R. for several days, the latter hauling a surplus of export freight consisting principally of railway ties from Aroostook and Madawaska.

Farmers in Woodstock are all talking wheat, the new roller mill at Fort Fairfield is the cause of it. They are convinced that they can raise just as good wheat as the western farmer, and get as good flour from the western mills.

On Saturday a party from Woodstock drove up and spent the afternoon with Hartland friends taking tea at the Commercial. There were Misses Kate Phillips, Flo Phillips, L. Aughterton, M. Aughterton, Margaret Brewer, Mabel Phillips, Maude Phillips, Annie Allen, and Mr. Robert Phillips.

The local government has authorized Hon. C. H. Labilloyis commissioner of agriculture, to grant bonuses to flour mills that may be erected in the province. He is also authorized to purchase seed wheat to sell at low cost to farmers. Mr. Labilloyis is allowed $5000 a year for this work.

The Free Christian Baptists petition to have the word "Christian" dropped out of their title has been granted. The proper name now is "The Free Baptist General Conference of New Brunswick." This inactment is in direct opposition to the petition of the "Orserites" which prays for incorporation of that body as the "Free Baptist Denomination." These people now seek incorporation as "The Primitive Baptist Denomination."

On Monday evening a memorial service was held in the R. B. church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Mrs G. M. Shaw conducted the meeting. The "White Ribbon Choir" furnished music. The first speaker was J. T. G. Carr, who gave a very pleasant and interesting talk on her life and work. Mrs. G. R. Burt read a description of the funeral, and further remarks were made by Jas. Dysart. Miss Williard's picture, draped, rested on an easel at the front of the church.

REFORMED BAPTISTS.

The Reformed Baptist Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1., embracing about 21 churches convened at the Reformed Baptist church here on Thursday evening the 3rd and continued till Sunday evening the 6th. There were delegates from most of the churches in the district which embraces York and Carleton Counties. At the business meeting on Saturday Rev. J. H. Coy was elected president, S. Hayden Shaw of Hartland, secretary, G. R. Burtt of Millville, treasurer, and W. B. Wiggins, Highway Agent. There were no written reports of the state of the churches but the delegates gave verbal reports, showing that the churches were prosperous, maintaining their Sunday and week day services, and Sunday schools with Normal Classes and Home Departments. In two of the churches there were at present a gracious revival in progress, preventing the pastors from attending the Quarterly Meeting.

The ministers present were Elders John Gravinor, G. T. Hartley, J. H. Coy, W. H. Sherwood, B. Colpitts and W. B. Wiggins and licentiate Thos. Kierstead.

There was a delegate from Calais church in another district who gave a very interesting account of the organization and wonderful progress made in a short time and of a prosperous Sunday school of over 160 members.

The services were mostly religious, including three daily, with a large attendance on Sunday.—Dispatch.

The Scott Act.

A change regarding the working of the Scott Act was made at the last week's meeting of the town council of Woodstock. Acting on the ground of a decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, and the advice of counsel. At the meeting referred to, a motion was passed by a vote of four to two, calling upon the Police Magistrate to pay all fines collected within the town to the town treasurer in future. A committee was appointed to look after the enforcement of the act. This having been done the question of the inspectorship comes up. At the session of the County Council in January Rev. B. Colpitts was appointed by a vote, in which the town representatives shared, at a salary of $350 per annum. The question is now asked, does Mr. Colpitts continue inspector under the new departure? It is rumored that Mr. Colpitts will make a formal application for the inspectorship for the town.

Lumbering on the Tobique

Gleaner: Nearly all of the operators on the Tobique have completed their work for the season. The estimated cut on this river is 27,000,000 feet as follows:

Hale.....	12,000,000
McNair.....	5,000,000
Estey.....	3,000,000
Baird.....	2,000,000
Upham.....	2,000,000
Beveridge.....	2,000,000

It is also estimated that the cut on the Upper St. John this year will total 100,000,000.

Don't forget about the cheap sale of lamps at Keswick's.

VICTORIA CIRCUIT COURT.

Victoria circuit was held last week Judge Hanning presiding. Two grand and petit juries were summoned. The sheriff being of kin to the defendant, Griffith, in one of the criminal indictments, a coroner's jury was required to be in attendance as well for that matter. There was no civil business and the following indictments were presented:

Queen vs. Griffith—Interfering with railway and shooting.

Queen vs. Russel—Stealing.

Queen vs. Asa Hartsgrove and Thomas Snyder—Robbery.

Queen vs. Fred Snyder—Robbery.

The coroner's grand jury threw out the bills in the Griffith case. In the other cases true bills were found. In Queen vs. Russell the defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two months jail.

The case of Queen vs. Hartsgrove and Snyder resulted in a verdict of not guilty on the principal charge of robbery, but Hartsgrove was convicted of assault and was sent to jail for six months. This is the case of the party of men who on their way up the Tobique to the woods last November, it was alleged, assaulted and robbed two Arab peddlers. The second against Snyder, arising out of the same affair, was not pressed. S. B. Appleby prosecuted and Thos. Lawson defended the cases.

What is It?

Ask Estey & Curtis.

He Never Will Get Over It.

When life and its trials, rebuffs and denials
Its torments and troubles are o'er
When safely we've passed into Eden at last
Some man will leave open the door.
The angels correct him it will not affect him
He'll stop and look wild and say, Hey!
Then hold the door wide as he passes inside
And come in leave it that way.
He'll come in so slowly that torments unholy
Might swarm in like leaves on a bough
And if at him you scream, he'll stand in a dream
And say Who? Me? Well what is it now?
Oh, patient Saint Peter, no duty discreet
Is given to angels than when You stand at the portal of man-ions immortal
And shut the door after the men.

Bacon Hog.

The cry is for bacon hog instead of a lard hog. The bacon hog is the one that has plenty of streaks of lean meat alternating with the layers of fat. This is the kind of hog demanded for export and the one whose flesh is is healthiest to eat at home. The popular American breeds of swine, having been corn fed for generations, run to much to fat.
One way to get more lean meat into them is to feed it in by mixing more nitrogenous or muscle making material into their rations. Such lean meat food is wheat bran and middlings, alfalfa, clover and the various peas and beans raised for live stock. Another way to get lean meat into the American hog is to breed it into him. Professor Thomas Shaw recommends crossing with the sows of our American fat hog breeds
males of the Tamworth or the improved Yorkshire breeds. The Tamworth and improved Yorkshires are longer bodied rougher and leaner than our Berkshire and Poland-Chinas. Professor Shaw says he has tried this cross for years with entirely satisfactory results when the cross was judiciously made. The first cross gives exactly the right thing.

A Womanly Woman.

The highest ambition of a thoroughly womanly woman when she becomes a wife will be to make her home so homelike and attractive to her husband that he will find his greatest happiness there.
You will never hear her complain of this as being a narrow sphere for a woman's life and energies, for she is wise enough to know it is anything but an easy task she has undertaken, and also that the influences for good of such a home are not confined within the four walls that form its visible limits, but affect in some degree all who enter it, and that they will extend onward for generations.—Exchange.

Wants to Remodel Society.

The roads have bin so bad I aint bin able to rite nothin for bout a month. Fact I did rite but the matter got stale afor I cood get it in to the office. "Ab" said he had to carry the mail on horse back and cood not be loaded down with manuscript. It near broke my heart for I thot I'd made a hit. My subject was the "Stat of Main" and other yankee wor ships and I ended up with "Say, Uncle Sam, you'd better get some un to run em for you till you learn how," but them divers had got to work afore I could get my article on the market and explained how the explosion was in the magazin, or the engine boiler what run the dynimo, exploded, or somebody dropped a clock bomb into her, or some Spainard exploded a torpedo under her, or she was struck with a thunder bolt, or something like that, was the matter and they dont seem just sure what. I think the some thing blew her up what run the other two ships aground—that is foolin with things they don't know much bout.

Me and ma has been wantin to get in to some of the union meetins ever since they begun but as ma don't snow shoe much late years we had to wait till the roads got broke out. We came in early Sunday mornin and tended all the services. Ma "likes to get her soul fed up on fresh celestial fare" as Carleton puts it. Pa's not so anxious to get to these gatherins as he is to have ma go. I think he knows she is the one that is hardest to keep converted and revivals always make ma humbler, meeker and more agreeable for several weeks. The services was good and the preachin fine. Ma and me went up to see the F. C. B. immerse two girls in the river after morning service. Ma thinks this is not quite the thing to do, she ses they wood keep until warm weather if the necessary change had been wrought. Of course she has the probashun ideas. Ma came from the evening Baptist service morn disgusted. She and me got good seats near the door, bout half way back and afore the the minister got preachin I had a hole near looked through me by females who knew there was to be a baptism and wood not sit down further back where there was empty seats until they tried to look some man out of countenance who had a seat. They usually found some fellow who would internally curse their forwardness and give up his seat. I held mine until one old woman who paraded up the ile across the front of the house and down our ile to where I sat. I was angry then to think I had not given it to te maiden who tried to draw my attention but who I pretended not to see but then the wimin there take such politenesses as a matter of course and only sometime smile, or say 'chanks.' I like Moody and Sankey's way. They said a man had as good a right to a seat as a woman and the ushers would not allow a man to give up his seat. But say, that want wot made Ma so mad. It was after the preacher had said, "Now, brothers and sisters and christian friends kindly remain seated while we observe the ordnance of baptism" for the congregation eng masse to jump up on their feet and rush forward. I guess most of em never saw a font in a church afore. It was a disgustin sight to see men and wimmin old and young hoppin over pew back like school children. If it had been a dime shop or a theater or a horse race they would not dare act so disorderly. I tho' first maybe ma war cross cause she couldn't climb over the seats and see the seremony herself but I knew I was rong for when I ris to git a place among the rabble she sez, sez she, "dont disgrace yourself and your ma, we will show them we know samthin if we be from Clovervale. Now, Tiser, if after the next baptism you find that this article has any influence on the highly civilized citizens of that thrivin, boomin village of Hartland let me no and I'll undertake to rei. o'el society agin.

TIM.

Dust Baths for Fowls.

All animals have a natural tendency to cleanliness. The hog, the common type of filth, is not by any means as dirty as we would suppose if given an opportunity to be clesn, and in this he needs only as much assistance from man as a horse demands: the result will prove his natural tendency to cleanliness. The hen has an aversion to bathing in water. Her substitute is the dust bath which answers the same purpose for cleansing her feathers. A dust bath is very essential to the health of all fowls. In winter when the outside ground is frozen hard a substitute should be provided in the shape of a box filled with dry sand mixed with coal ashes or road dust.

Watch your hens on a bright sunny day in winter and see how they enjoy this bath. They pick the dust into their feathers, roll first on one side and then on the other and seem to sift the dry dirt into every part of their feathered coat. It cleanses them and frees them from their mortal enemy, the lice. One would suppose that hen lice were very clean themselves since they have such a dread of dirt, and it is true they cannot exist where dirt or dust abounds.

The dust bath is therefore very necessary for the health and happiness of your fowls. It should be placed where the sun can shine into it. This makes it attractive, and your hens will soon avail themselves of it—Poultry Culture.
