PAPER CHASING. (Ottawa Citizen.) Paper chasing is to be introduced by the smart set at Ottawa as a pleasant Saturday afternoon diversion. In Toronto it has become more or less in vogue for a number of years. There are quite a few running clubs in this city, and one of the features is this exhilarating sport. Paper chasing consists of the hare going out ahead with bags of paper. They are generally selected from the swiftest runner. These lay the scent with the paper and the hound follows. The chase generally extends over a distance of twelve miles and is just about as hard work as any one need undertake. The course when arranged is generally laid out so that a hound may commence the home stretch. The sport is good and the exercise beneficial. ABOUT THE LIPTON FLEET. Shamrock III will leave for this de about the middle of June. Steam yacht Erin has been throughly overhauled and fitted with the Forest system of wireless telegraphy. The first Shamrock was painted white. The latest cup challenger has a new underbody with green topsides. The only aluminum used in Shamrock III is on the deck. The beams are apt near enough to allow the employment of very thin plating. This is covered by a thin layer of wood fiber. Shamrock III will carry very few recreational fittings. A number of hammock limes, a range of lockers made of the thickest possible wood, and a single galley are all that will be screened off to make two separate rooms for the officers. It is expected that the fittings will not weigh more than a few hundred pounds. BASE BALL. The Star has received from A. J. Reach Co., of Philadelphia, the Base Ball Guide for 1903. It is a booklet over three hundred pages, and contains much that is valuable for leaders of the game. DEATH OF HENRY BLAIR. There occurred on March 29th, at a long and painful illness, the death of Henry Blair, one of Stanley's most highly esteemed and respected residents. He had been in failing health for the past two years but he bore his great suffering with the most wonderful patience. Mr. Blair was born in St. Mary's Ferry, and was 63 years of age. He leaves four brothers—Samuel, Job and Mary—and one sister—Gallea, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss. Mr. Blair was a life long and devoted member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral took place in his late home in Stanley, and was very largely attended. Rev. J. G. A. Colquhoun, minister of the church, officiated at a house and grave. A NEW BISHOP. ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 28.—A cablegram received by Archbishop Main from Cardinalotti, secretary to the Propaganda at Rome, says the pope has confirmed the nomination by the congregation of bishops of Bishop J. Glennon as coadjutor to Bishop Hagan at Kansas City.

LABOR TROUBLES. A Strike That May Involve 200,000 Men.

There Are Now 17,000 Operatives Idle in the City of Lowell.

NEW YORK, March 30.—According to officers of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, there is a possibility that the strike of structural iron workers against the American Bridge Co. may eventually cause the idleness of 200,000 persons. President Buchanan and Secretary Johnson of the association, in addressing a meeting of the Central Federated Union, said: "We will fight until we win. We have the work of the company tied up as far as Canada, and work has come from California that the unions here have fallen in line. There is a possibility of 200,000 people being involved if the strikes are continued. This we do not want."

LOCK-OUT AT LOWELL. LOWELL, March 30.—The textile unions of this city having decided to go on strike today for an increase of ten per cent in wages, the agents of the big cotton mills on Saturday decided to forestall them by shutting down the mills for an indefinite period. This was done, when speed went down at noon, fully seventeen thousand operatives were idle. The shut down is the greatest blow in the industrial history of Lowell. The weekly pay roll in the mills affected is $138,000, and the average pay about $7.50, which includes the small pay of unskilled labor and minors. The unions say that if the mills had not been closed they would have gone on strike today. It is feared that trouble will result from the lockout. With a long mill holiday, the lockout yesterday was a busy one for union labor in this city, halls being in use by one or another of the many organizations. Interest centered in the Textile council, which for hours was in session at labor headquarters working out plans for controlling the army of textile operatives enlisted under its banner for a ten per cent. increase of wages. Labor men declare that the shut down has done more to strengthen the union cause than any other incident and that fully eighty per cent of all the operatives have joined the unions. This figure is believed to be high, for early last week the Textile council did not claim to have more than 10,000 members. The 30,000 operatives in unions, and the mill agents maintain that ten per cent was a more likely figure. On Saturday and yesterday hundreds of new members were admitted to the unions, urged on probably by promises of strike benefits. In this connection President Conroy and members of the Textile council who are at the head of the local unions, say that all operatives who have joined in the issue will be cared for. While the shut down went into effect on Saturday at noon there will be many people at work today, these being chiefly the finishing room hands, the machinists, section hands and rollers, for the mill agents intend to put property in their charge in good condition for a long period of idleness, to make necessary repairs and to prepare the plant for the coming season. After the Textile council meeting yesterday President Conroy stated that plans were perfected for a "long seige," indicating that he believed the shut down would not be one of a few weeks. He also said that he had been asked to furnish thirty or forty weavers to a mill outside the state and he would send married weavers there. The use of labor halls has been given without cost to the Textile council and these places will be fitted up with reading rooms. Fourteen meetings are called for today and speakers from out of town are expected at several of them, representative Joseph Jackson of Fall River and other agents of national unions being announced. There was considerable talk among operatives that on Friday an offer of seven per cent. increase was offered as a compromise, but one of the mill agents, who is a member of the council, said it was not so, and further added that there was no possibility of the increase.

Steel, pfd., opened down 1/4, and Southern Pacific ran off 1/4 on early transactions. New York Central fell 1/4, and Penna. and U. S. Steel lost 1/4. On the other hand Manhattan rose 3/4, St. Louis and San Francisco 1/4, and Canada Southern 1/4. There was a general yielding tendency after the opening.

Crews, general secretary of Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues asking for a night to be set apart at the coming conference for the presentation of the matters of this department; and Wednesday was thought to be probably the best night for that service. A communication from the C. P. R. asking for the names of Epworth League presidents was ordered to be attended to by the secretary. On motion the billeting committee of the conference was called to meet in the Centenary church vestry on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. Church confederation matters were introduced and discussed during the remainder of the evening. Rev. W. W. Lodge, addressed the meeting regarding the circuit and showed that while the losses by death and removal have been very heavy yet the circuit is holding its own and will make its liabilities at the close of the conference year. The meeting adjourned with the benediction by Rev. C. W. Hamilton.

THE KING'S MUSICIAN SELDOM LAUGHED. Sir Alexander Mackenzie vouches that the only time he ever saw Sir Michael Costa (the composer) laugh was when he was laughing at the rehearsal of his "Lord of Burleigh." Dates of festival March 31st and April 1st. Plans now open at Opera House.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND. To Extend its Labors in the Canadian West.

One of the first things that Archbishop Machray, of Manitoba, is likely to do when his health is fully recovered, it is said, is to call together the members of the standing committee and the house of bishops for the purpose of electing a bishop for Saskatchewan. This step is made necessary owing to the large immigration expected in this district. The Canadian Churchman says that "in view of the fact that the 'American invasion' is being markedly felt in Saskatchewan, it is hoped that a Canadian clergyman will be selected. Six clergymen will shortly be appointed to missions in the west by the Anglican church. Their efforts will be supplemented by 23 students, who will be sent out about the first of May. Eleven of these will probably be from St. John's, six from Wycliffe and six from the Diocesan Theological college, Montreal."

ON THE RIVER. The Ice Started Today at Fredericton and is Running Out.

The frost of the last two evenings formed quite a lot of new ice on the river and rendered firmer the old ice which was almost ready to run out. Reports from Fredericton today state that the jam up there is now more solid and may not come out for a couple of weeks. The water has fallen three feet since Friday. At Indian-town the water is also falling though not very rapidly. Quite a lot of ice, about an inch in thickness, is running past. It was reported today that the Springfield had gone some distance up the reach along the western shore where the ice had been blown aside, and that she was blocked by the ice drifting back. The D. D. Glaser & Son tugs, the Admiral, Hero, Lilly Glaser and Fred Glaser started up river on Sunday and were reported as having passed through Gagetown Creek. They went up the western shore of the reach. The Admiral and Hero will string the booms and will probably be assisted by the tug Dirigo.

Remember C. K. Cameron & Co's millinery opening tomorrow.

Later, FREDERICTON, March 30.—The ice in the river started to run at two o'clock this afternoon, and it is expected to run out tonight. It is going very quickly.

In the fourth round it is claimed Ferguson bit a hole out of O'Brien's scalp and so the referee stopped the fight there and then. Haggerty Murphy, the New York featherweight, outpointed Marty McCue of Brooklyn in 10 rounds at the Tammany Social and Athletic Club, and was given the award at the Irish of that district.

Edinburgh This Morning. Lord Rosslyn's Tribute—Stirring Verses Written in His Honor.

EDINBURGH, March 30.—The body of Major General Sir Hector Macdonald, who killed himself at the Regina Hotel, in Paris, on Wednesday last, was buried in Dean cemetery here shortly after the arrival of the London train at six o'clock this morning. About 300 persons were present. The people uncovered as the cortege passed through the streets. "The most surprised persons in the world at the news that charges were to be made against General Macdonald were his friends," said Earl of Rosslyn. "However, if it be true that he has committed suicide, it is just what would be expected of a man of his mold. I knew General Macdonald, and in common with all Englishmen admired and respected him. There was never a word to be said against the big, stout soldier so far as I ever heard. He was most popular. His bravery was proved and unquestioned, and his native ability had lifted him from the ranks, and the fact that he had risen was the only thing ever used against him in some quarters."

The following verses, penned during the South African war, when Sir Hector Macdonald was at the front, indicate the esteem in which he was held: He's a lion hearted Scot, Fighting Mac! And he'll make the running hot, Fighting Mac! Paul will have enough to do, When he comes to bid you, And your Highland hudies true, Fighting Mac!

You're a proper sort of man, Fighting Mac! As you proved in the Sudan, Fighting Mac! They're waiting for you now, With a shadow on their brow, Since the Magersfontein row, Fighting Mac!

Your brigade has had a loss, Fighting Mac! And the men are mighty cross, Fighting Mac! For the hero Vaucluse fell, (Who had blundered, time will tell, But they'd follow you to—well, Fighting Mac!

There's a shelling in the North, Fighting Mac! Whence to glory you went forth, Fighting Mac! And they're watching you afar, At the banking front of war, Trusting to your lucky star, Fighting Mac!

For your broad breast have a care, Fighting Mac! And the why you'll beware, Fighting Mac! For we cannot yet halloo! Till the moon we've travelled through, But we expect a lot from you, Fighting Mac!

COMMERCIAL EDUCATION. Halifax Teachers Want More of it in the Schools. (Halifax Echo.)

A meeting of the Halifax teachers was held at the County Academy building on Friday afternoon to further discuss the question of Commercial Education in the public schools as outlined in Chairman Macdonald's address when he took office. Principal Trefrey of Morris street school read an interesting paper entitled "How to make the County Academy building into a Commercial Education in Public Schools." His remarks were applied particularly to the high school grades. He said that the high school curriculum provided courses in English language, mathematics, science, history, but there was no course appealing directly to the boy having a business career in view. Business colleges were in many cases doing the work which the high schools should do. There had been a great demand of late for courses of this kind in Germany and the United States, and provision had been made for them in the latter country. The direct effect of the business technical education of the German schools being their graduates in the subjects of composition, arithmetic and geography, bookkeeping, penmanship and possibly also typewriting and stenography. He thought the work should be less efficient than that of the highest class commercial college, and he laid stress on the educational as well as practical advantages of a course in this nature. He insisted that the course should not be any less thorough and rigid than any of the other high school courses. Principal Trefrey showed what was accomplished in many of the best schools in the United States having such a course.

Principal Miller of Dartmouth gave a short address on the same subject in which he emphasized the necessity of fluency in speaking and writing in English, speed and accuracy in elementary arithmetic, and plain writing. The subject was then discussed by Inspector Creighton, Mr. Schurman, Principals O'Hearn, Butler, Messrs. Logan, Morton and others. The sentiment of the meeting seemed to be in favor of the need of such a course.

TO THAW DYNAMITE.

Supt. Clayton Describes a Safe and Easy Method.

The Star, after the recent fatal dynamite accident at Fernhill, published two articles, one by Col. Markham and one by J. G. McNulty, of Halifax, on the proper handling of frozen dynamite. The article by Mr. McNulty suggested a method of thawing frozen dynamite which has been adopted and improved by J. P. Clayton, superintendent of Fernhill Cemetery, with eminently satisfactory results. As the subject is one of great importance, the Star has interviewed Supt. Clayton and gives herewith his description of the new method, which he has named the Clayton-Peacock Safety Plan.

Find Mr. Clayton, "an ordinary packing case 3 feet 1 inch x 4 feet, without bottom, cut an opening 9 in. square and 9 in. below cover, at one end of the case, and fit a door to it. Build a box 5 in. square inside measure, and 4 feet long, and open at one end, this is nailed on the inside of the case and in line with the opening. In this we place a small salt box containing 10 lbs. of salt. The heat is obtained from horse manure well packed in and under the inner box until the case is full. This will supply heat for a month at a temperature of 100 degrees.

The salt box and inner box is nailed on each side, the case can very quickly be emptied by raising with these handles, and conveyed to any new station."

Supt. Clayton says that if the above description is not clear enough he will be very glad to give fuller information. He has prepared drawings of the box. As so much dynamite is now used the new method is of great value.

NO C. P. R. WORK THIS YEAR.

The C. P. R. appropriations for the coming season's work have been passed by the board of directors, and the work is left out in the cold. The only expenditures to be made at this terminus are for an additional stall in the round-house and a stand pipe for water in the Bay Shore yard.

The present railway facilities are more than sufficient for all the business that can be handled with the present harbor accommodations, and the C. P. R. will do nothing more until some move is made in regard to extending the wharf accommodation. When this is done another section will be added to the Bay Shore yard and further improvements will be made.
