

ULSTER'S PLANS ARE LAID FOR A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

Understood Constitution Drafted Yesterday

LOYALTY TO CROWN AFFIRMED

Enthusiasm High at Meeting of Unionists to Prepare Plans for Independent Administration in Event of Success of Home Rule Movement.

London, Sept. 24.—The fateful Monday has passed. The Ulster secret commission met in dead secrecy. The waiting world is still kept waiting without the expected draft of Ulster's provisional constitution to take effect on the morrow of the King's signature to the Home Rule bill. Ministers and Nationalists scoffingly describe yesterday's events as "another Ulster let-down," but those best able to penetrate the secrets of Sir Edward Carson and the Earl of Londonderry say that Ulster's provisional constitution is fully drafted and provides a government for the whole of Ulster, not merely for those counties which the Nationalists classify as Northeast Ulster. Ulster is regarded as one and indivisible, and in passionate words Sir Edward Carson yesterday repudiated the idea that Ulster be treated separately.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than being a part of the United Kingdom."

It is understood that the new constitution is prefaced by a declaration of loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlines the machinery of government. No disclosure has been made as to the nature of that machinery yet, however. Not a single dissentient voice was raised at yesterday's council of four hundred delegates elected by associations from all parts of the province.

The most dramatic moment came when, in a quivering voice, Sir Edward Carson said: "This covenant, pledging Ulstermen to resist, is the gravest matter that has ever come before me. The more I consider it, the more I am convinced that this covenant is right."

"And because I believe it is right, at all events, am prepared to go on to the end."

This declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and round after round of cheers gave the pledge. Sir Edward Carson added, turning towards F. E. Smith: "In the march to the end, wherever it leads I shall have behind me all that is best and truest. Not merely in Ireland, but in the United Kingdom."

F. E. Smith, amid a roar of cheers, asked if the Prime Minister of Ireland, the moderator of the Presbyterian Church and the head of the Methodist community were flippant adventurers, or men who would enjoy a malignant pleasure in seeking bloodshed.

The ministerial journals quote approvingly William O'Brien's proposal that Canadian party leaders, Liberal and Conservative, should arbitrate as to the guarantees which ought to satisfy Ulster.

GENERAL ELECTION IN ENGLAND SOON, IS PREDICTION NOW

Leading Conservative Daily Confidently States Polling Will Take Place About Christmas.

London, Sept. 24.—The Yorkshire Post, the leading Conservative daily in the provinces, affirms confidently today that there will be a general election almost immediately. It states that the only real point of difference of opinion is whether it will be before or after Christmas.

"It is not impossible," the Post says, "that we are on the eve of a Liberal split regarding Home Rule, which may not seem that of 1896, but will be very serious."

TRIBUTES TO SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT

AMONG SURVIVORS OF THE OLD GUARD

Late Liberal Leader in Senate Respected by Men of Both Parties.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 24.—The death of the Right Hon. Sir Richard Cartwright, the Liberal leader in the Senate, moves another historic figure from parliamentary life. He was one of MacKenzie's old guard, and one of the few remaining of the so-called cabinet of all the talents formed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1896. Speaking of the death of the veteran statesman, Mr. Borden today paid a strong tribute to the departed parliamentarian.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said of his old colleague: "I have lost in Sir Richard one of my oldest personal friends. I was associated with him for more than thirty years. As leader of the party my relations with him were at all times most cordial. If there arose between us differences of opinion it was never difficult to satisfactorily adjust them. Sir Richard was a very strong man, but those only who were intimately associated with him know his chivalrous nature. He was a patriot, a thorough gentleman and a charming man."

The Hon. J. A. Loughheed, as Conservative leader in the upper chamber, was closely associated with Sir Richard Cartwright as government leader, and also leader of the Liberal opposition.

"No man," he said today, "could have been more courteous, kindly or considerate. No one better observed the amenities of debate or set a higher example of parliamentary decorum or in the conduct of public business on the floor of the house. As a debater, and as an orator of the old school of clear thought and chaste language, he had few, if any, peers. He was, with the exception of Sir Charles Tupper, the last survivor of the old guard, and his name must always bulk large in Canadian history. He was a typical gentleman of the old school, a statesman rather than a politician."

The government will be represented at the funeral in the King's Hall, the Hon. Mr. Loughheed. The government sent a wreath of flowers, which the Senate also sent a wreath to Kingston.

It is probable that Hon. Isaac Dandurand, former speaker of the Senate, will succeed Sir Richard Cartwright as opposition leader in the upper house. There are now eight vacancies which will be filled in all probability before the meeting of parliament.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 24.—The funeral of the late Sir Richard Cartwright will take place from the family residence, "The Maples," at Cartwright's Point, on Thursday afternoon to St. Mark's Anglican Church, where Rev. O. G. Dobbs, of Brockville, a cousin of Sir Richard, will conduct the service. The interment will be made in Cataract Cemetery.

BALKAN NATIONS HAVE NOTHING TO GAIN FROM A WAR

Servia Informed by Three Powers that Hostilities are Unnecessary—Still Gathering Supplies of Food.

Belgrade, Servia, Sept. 24.—No benefit could be obtained by the Balkan nations from a war with Turkey, according to a declaration said to have been made by the diplomatic representatives of Great Britain, France and Russia during a call on the Servian foreign office today. The Stampa is the authority for the report of the foreign diplomats' action, and adds that the three powers, at the same time expressed their intention of inducing Turkey to introduce early reforms in Macedonia. In spite of official denials that there is any prospect of hostilities, the Servian war office continues to purchase large quantities of food supplies.

SAYS GRAIN CROP WON'T BE SERIOUS

FARMERS SATISFIED WITH THE PROSPECTS

Difficulties Not As Great As Some Fear Says C. P. R. President.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, returned from his annual inspection trip to the west today. Everybody in the west appears satisfied, said the C. P. R. president, "and there is no reason they should not be, for the farmers of the west are the richest agricultural people in the world. The grain crop will be a bountiful one, but the wet weather is retarding the harvest, delaying the movement of the crop, and this will mean a very short shipping season. We made ample preparations for the harvest before it was ready, and under existing conditions we can only do the best we can."

I do not anticipate the difficulties some of our friends are predicting regarding the movement of the crop. Of course, there will be a tremendous rush—I trust we will always have that—but with a reasonable degree of patience everything will work out all right in the end."

Asked about the suggestion of the Grain Growers' Guide that rates via the south should be secured, Sir Thomas replied: "We have heard so many must be an extraordinary concession in the grain trade, that we have become rather accustomed to it. You represent legitimate self-interest. The questions that originate from the world, are largely industrial. Contrary to what you say, the interest in establishing rules of the game, that will obtain in your dealings, the main cause of friction and controversy will have been removed."

HIGH SCHOOL GETS SHIELD

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 24.—The Strathcona-Nelson Shields were formally presented in Aberdeen High School this evening to the president of a large gathering of pupils and citizens. In the absence of Governor Wood, E. C. Colquhoun, vice president of the school board, presided and an interesting program was carried out. On motion of Senator McSweeney, seconded by F. A. McCully, Rev. G. A. Lawson and Principal Oulton, a vote of thanks was passed to the Strathcona-Nelson Shields.

There was a large fashionable gathering in Trinity church, Dorchester, at the wedding of Miss Macleod, daughter of R. W. Hewson, K. C. barister, of Moncton and Mrs. Hewson, which was choral. The church was beautifully decorated and the ceremony was performed under a large bridal arch at the chancel entrance.

The bride was attended by little Miss Hickman, daughter of C. S. Hickman, of Dorchester and Marjorie Reid, daughter of Mrs. D. Pottinger of Moncton as flower girls, while the groom was supported by Dr. Muir, of Truro.

There were many guests from a distance including Governor and Mrs. Wood, Judge Landry, Judge and Mrs. Borden, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Pottinger, Moncton, and others.

PREMIER IS GLAD TO BE HOME AGAIN

Delighted with the West, But the New Brunswicker Need Not Be Envious, He Says.

NOTHING TO EQUAL ST. JOHN VALLEY

Province Would Make Same Progress as Others if People Oosters.

Hartford, N. B., Sept. 24.—Hon. J. K. Fleming, Premier of New Brunswick, returned today from his trip to the Pacific coast, refreshed and rested in appearance and looking the picture of health.

"I feel much better as the result of my trip across Canada and back again," said the Premier to friends who greeted him as he stepped off the train. "And," he added, "I am glad to be back in New Brunswick again."

En route from the Pacific coast, where he went to attend the Dominion Forestry Convention at Victoria, B. C., Premier Fleming stopped off at Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg, Toronto and Montreal. At Saskatoon he addressed the Canadian Club and at Winnipeg he witnessed the great Odessa parade in which upwards of 10,000 men with twenty-eight bands took part.

Speaking of the Forestry convention Premier Fleming said it was a large and interesting one, the papers had been prepared with great thought and care on all sides there was evidence of a stronger feeling of the need of taking proper care of the forest wealth of the Dominion.

"I was delighted with the Western coast," he concluded, "and its country, and the Premier, and its people, enterprise and great development; but the man who is well situated in New Brunswick need not be envious of the West. If we can get our people to stop knocking their own country, get them to become boosters and put their shoulders to the wheel, New Brunswick will be making as much headway and our progress will be just as great as it is in the West."

"I didn't see anything in the whole West," he concluded, "that was quite as delightful as the St. John Valley, the Miramichi or the Restigouche Valley."

BRITAIN OBJECTS TO PROPOSAL FOR NEW CHINESE LOAN

Foreign Supervision Over Expenditure of Money is Necessary is Attitude of the British Government.

London, Sept. 24.—A statement published here to the effect that nothing was said by the British government to the negotiators of the new Chinese loan in the nature of a prohibition of the loan, is denied. It is learned that on the first intimation to the foreign office of the negotiations bearing on this loan the promoters were informed that if they proceeded with it they would be acting in direct opposition to the wishes and policy of the government, which would be compelled to protest to the Chinese government against the transaction.

A statement on this subject given out by the foreign office makes reference to the instructions which the government recently gave to the British minister at Peking, Sir John N. Jordan, to oppose the loan. The United States and Great Britain cooperated in this opposition, objection to the loan being based on the belief that foreign supervision was necessary over the expenditure of loans granted to China.

ULSTER SEES QUIET DAY IN THE CAMPAIGN

SOMETHING LIKE MILITARY STAFF

Organization of Anti-Home Rule Rulers Has a Warlike Aspect.

Belfast, Sept. 24.—From an oratorical viewpoint today has been comparatively quiet in the Ulster campaign. Sir Edward Carson and Frederick E. Smith, the chief leaders, both resting and reserving themselves for the strenuous events in the coming few days.

Baron Willoughby De Broke, who was a strong supporter of the "no surrender" policy during the debate on the veto bill in the House of Lords was the moving spirit of the demonstration at Drumore, which had all the features of previous meetings—a guard of honor for the principal speaker, a torchlight procession and the usual activity is displayed in the preparations for the great day, Sept. 28, when it is expected some half million persons will sign the covenant to oppose home rule to the end. The organizers resemble a military general staff. There is a council to give directions, and many staff and subordinate officers to execute them. There are generals of division and brigade commanders in the different districts.

IRISH AMERICANS CONTRIBUTE TO HOME RULE CAUSE

$21,000 Donated by League in Session at Philadelphia to Aid in Movement—Message from Cardinal.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—Hundreds of delegates who hope this will be the last time they will have to meet to advocate home rule in Ireland, attended the opening session here today of the biennial convention of the United Irish League of America. The Nationalists of Ireland have sent the message through Wm. H. K. Redmond, member of the British Parliament, that the Irish Parliament abolished in 1800 will probably be restored to them within the next two years. The delegates were enthusiastic over last night's public meeting, when more than $21,000 was donated to the home rule movement.

Letters were read from Cardinal Gibbons and Albert W. Gilchrist, governor of Florida. The cardinal in his letter said he congratulated the league on the abolition of "that false and century old slander contained in the English Coronation Oath taken by many British sovereigns."

MINISTER INVITED TO OPEN ELEVATOR IN THE METROPOLIS

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Hon. J. D. Hazen has been invited to open the new elevator at Montreal, on the afternoon of Oct. 2. After the ceremony the minister will be preceded by the Government steamer Lady Grey to Sorol where he will be tendered a banquet by the Workmen's Conservative Association of Richelieu and Sorel. Mr. Hazen will then proceed on the annual visit of inspection of the St. Lawrence channel, the trip extending as far as Crase Island, about 40 miles below Quebec. This will be the first inspection Mr. Hazen has made of this work.

President Currie in The Opening Address

DEALS WITH NAVAL QUESTION

Speaks of Necessity of Canada Assuming Share of Defence Burden—Not Wider Markets but Access to Home Markets is Needed.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Never in history has Ottawa witnessed a more important assembly than the forty-first annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which opened in the Chateau Laurier this morning. The association has a membership of three thousand manufacturers in all parts of the Dominion, representing capital of four hundred million dollars.

About 200 delegates arrived this morning and an additional 300 or 400 are expected before this evening. There are delegates from as far West as Prince Rupert and as far East as Cape Breton, every kind of industry imaginable being represented at the convention. They are employers of an army totalling approximately 250,000 men.

On behalf of the Ottawa Valley branch of the association W. H. Rowley, chairman of the local committee, and general manager of the E. E. Eddy Company, welcomed the delegates to Ottawa and formally introduced Mayor Charles Hopewell.

Mayor Hopewell's speech, Mayor Hopewell first thanked Nathaniel Currie, president of the association and the members for making him an honorary member of the C. M. A. His Worship made a passing reference to the high cost of living or the cost of high living.

"I never talk politics," said the Mayor, "but there is a kind of protection that I like to advocate and that is the protection of the natural resources of our country."

Proceeding, he commented on the advantage of employers and employees getting closer together in a bond of better understanding. A closer relationship between the two would mean a more intelligent whole.

In conclusion Mayor Hopewell emphasized the supreme value of making honest goods.

"Honesty and truth cannot be divorced by any man. They are what God has joined together, and no man, nor firm, nor nation, can put them asunder." It was on this principle that British firms made their reputation, he concluded.

President's Address

The address of President Nathaniel Currie, presented at the afternoon session, was distinctly the feature of the opening day of the convention. He dealt in a masterly way with such important matters as trade extension, labor and compensation, transportation reciprocity and Imperial Defence and reviewed the growth of Canada's industrial side as shown by the returns of the last census. During the past year from every Province had come news of pronounced activity and the outlook for the Dominion was particularly bright.

MONSTER DRIER TO IMPROVE GRAIN FOR MARKET PURPOSES

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 24.—The Grain Commission has succeeded in obtaining for service at Port Arthur a huge floating drier from Buffalo, the only thing of its kind on the continent. The drier, negotiations in regard to which were opened some time ago, is now at Port Arthur. With its aid a great deal of the wet grain which accumulated in the West will be improved for the market.

Mrs. Joe Parent, Campbellton, N.H., writes: "During the hot season last summer I had a bad case of diarrhoea, tried several medicines with no benefit. At last I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. The first bottle nearly cured me, and the second did it. I was so satisfied with the medicine that I made up my mind never to be without a bottle of it in the house in case of emergency."

CAPE BRETON TO FOREFRONT IN INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS

(Sydney Record)

W. S. Fisher of St. John, a member of the firm of Emerson and Fisher, has been visiting Sydney and district. In an interview he said: "I had not been in Sydney for ten years, but I had heard so much of the growth of that part of the country that I thought I would like to see it. My expectations were more than realized. It is a great pleasure to see the country develop as it has in Cape Breton. Looking back fifteen or twenty years, on my early trips to Sydney, the contrast between then and now is very marked. I am told that there is distributed in wages in Sydney over $1,000,000 a month. This goes to show how this part of Canada is coming to the front and that its trade and industrial life are prospering.

"I was at New Waterford. Four years ago there were only four families, today they claim a population of 400, and the place is rapidly growing. One hundred houses are being built at the present time. The Dominion Coal company are aiming to make it a model town with well laid out streets, and superior water and sewerage. The place reminds one of some of the western boom towns, though I think it has gone better than the best. I can recall no town in the West that has made progress as rapid.

"This only strengthens the idea I always entertained, that there is no lack of opportunity in the East for young men. The natural resources of the Maritime Provinces are equal to those in the West and more varied. We have here the elements of wealth and climate and quality of people. What we want is to realize more fully the advantages we possess.

ACCEPTS NOMINATION. A Correction.

Facts About McClary's "Sunshine" Furnace

—The Understudy of the Sun—

The Fire-pot of the "Sunshine" is made of Semi-Steel—that of the ordinary furnace is made of Grey Iron. Here's the difference—Destructive sulphur fumes penetrate Grey Iron easily because it is porous. Semi-steel is not porous—it is a close-grained material with a smooth surface secretly processed by McClary's. Gas fumes cannot penetrate Semi-Steel therefore it lasts longer. The "Sunshine" Fire-pot is built in two sections joined together with our famous cup joint. The shape of this joint, combined with a layer of McClary's asbestos cement, makes it absolutely gas, smoke and dust-proof.

Clearly, the "Sunshine" is the premier furnace as far as the Fire-pot is concerned.

The Grates of the "Sunshine" Furnace have three sides each. Plainly, they have three times the endurance of one-sided grates. Every time you rock down the ashes of the "Sunshine" you can expose a fresh side of the grate to the fierce heat of the fire—lengthen the life of the grates.

And the short, strong teeth of "Sunshine" grates simply grind up clinkers. The "Sunshine" Furnace is the best as far as grate construction goes.

Shaking an ordinary furnace is hard, back-breaking labor. You don't need to shake the "Sunshine"—you simply rock.

FIRE LOSSES IN N. B. HAVE BEEN LIGHT SO FAR THIS YEAR

Underwriter Says Good Luck, Not Good Management, is Responsible—Building By-Laws Out of Date.

"So far this year the loss by fire in New Brunswick has been very small as compared with similar periods in other years," said a local fire underwriter to The Standard yesterday. "Most of the companies doing business in this province have been exceedingly fortunate in respect to their risks here, though in Nova Scotia there have been quite a number of big fires with considerable losses to the insurance companies. I don't know that our people are taking greater precautions. I rather think it is a matter of good luck.

"Over in Nova Scotia the public authorities are more alive to the dangers of fire than they are in this province. In St. John, for instance, our building by-laws are about thirty years old, and no provision is made for the inspection of electric lighting wires. The firms which make a business of putting in electric wiring do their work in a proper manner, but some householders put in their wiring themselves or have it done by some body who has no qualifications for the work. In Halifax before wiring can be put in any building a plan of the building and wiring has to be submitted to an inspector, and before electrical current is turned on the inspector has to examine the wiring and certify that the work has been done in a proper manner. The insurance companies penalize proprietors of buildings who do not have the wiring done in a proper manner when insurance is asked for, but charging higher premiums is not very satisfactory to the underwriters, since they cannot thereby abolish the neighborhood risks of defective wiring."

WORKS OLD SCHEME IN LOCAL STORE

A rather bold and slick stranger was about the city Monday working the old scheme of making a purchase and presenting a cheque for a lesser amount than the purchase came to and receiving the balance in cash. He called at the local store of John K. Storey on Union street on Monday and purchased a two dollar hat and a pair of shoes. He presented a cheque to Mrs. Storey. Mrs. Storey informed the stranger that she did not accept cheques in payment for goods sold and that she would then let the hat with her and let the store, saying that he would go to the bank and get the cheque cashed. He did not return.

Between four and five o'clock in the afternoon a man who is fairly well dressed and about 27 years of age, entered the store of the Marr Millinery on the corner of the street and inquired for Miss Alberta Patten, both in "Hill street" and asked to be shown some ladies' hats. After looking over a few he at last picked out one which he purchased for two dollars and tendered the lady clerk a cheque on the Bank of Nova Scotia for $18.40. He received $14.40 in change and taking the money and hat he immediately left the store.

Yesterday morning when the cheque was presented to the bank for payment it was found to be worthless. The cheque was in the name of H. W. Black. The police were notified and are now scouring the city in an endeavor to locate the young man, but up to a late hour last night he had not been found and it is thought that he has left town.

On Monday afternoon a prominent young man found two cheques on the street. The cheques were for $100.00 and $50.00, but were in the same handwriting, but were signed with different names and were drawn on different banks. He took the cheques to the bank and was found to be worthless. It is thought that perhaps these two cheques were stolen from the mysterious buyer had ready to work, but had lost or thrown away.

A telegram was received by The Standard last night to the effect that William Watt was arrested there while attempting to break into the Royal Bank of Chatham. Watt is the man who passed bogus cheques some time ago and is the man who victimized H. G. Marr in this city for the amount of $1,000.00, on Monday afternoon.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM BEING INVESTIGATED

City Commissioners Hold Long Conference with Chief of Assessors—Hope to Improve System.

The city commissioners are looking into the matter of the city assessment, and problems connected therewith. Yesterday they had a two-hour conference with Arthur Sharp, chairman of the Board of Assessors, and went into the whole situation, as far as they could go.

They came to no conclusion of any matter so far as could be learned, but discussed the relation of the assessment to property values, and inquired as to what the assessors were doing in the way of enlarging the assessment with a view to getting more money.

They also took up the questions involved in the city's relation to the county, in respect to the payments for the maintenance of county institutions, and considered the possibility of reducing the percentage paid by the city taxpayers.

They also considered what might be their needs in the way of money next year, and considered various ways of raising it.

The new charter empowers the commissioners to appoint a commission on the assessment law of the city and such commission shall prepare and submit to the council a draft of a new assessment law or amendments to the existing law. Whether the council will amend the assessment act or not will depend on the result of their investigations into the present system.

SALVATION ARMY BUILDING ENTERED

The charge of breaking and entering the building of the Canadian Cereal and Milling Company, Ltd., on Dock street, Sunday afternoon, is preferred against Albert Park, a 24 year old Englishman, who came up for hearing in the police court on Friday morning.

In addition to the Dock street break Park will also be charged with breaking and entering the Salvation Army headquarters on Prince William street and the Salvation Army Metropolitan Water street and stealing money. It is said that Park entered the Salvation Army building by climbing up a steam pipe on the northern side of the building. Park claims that climbing up the pipe and making the entrance was not very difficult.

BIG DEPARTMENTAL STORE FOR ST. JOHN?

Remored Largest Concern of Sort in the East is Projected for this City—Property Changes.

There have been a large number of real estate transactions noted during the past few months, and it is rumored that there are to be a number of other big ones to be made known in the near future. It was said about this city yesterday that a department store on a large scale was to be the next thing to be made known to the public. For some time past real estate agents have been looking over the property on the block on Union street from Sydney to Carmarthen street and it was learned from good authority last night, that a big Upper Canadian company who have been looking over the site, are probable purchasers, and if they secure this large portion of property, it is their intention to tear down the present buildings and erect one that will be taken up with the largest departmental concern in the east.

ACTRESS ROBBED IN THE SAME HOTEL

Cloran Hay has returned home from St. Louis, where he has been attending the Rexall convention as a representative of C. R. Watson, of St. John. His mother, Mrs. A. S. Hay, accompanied him on his trip. While Mr. Hay was in St. Louis, the hotel at which the actress Miss Barrymore was stopping was entered by burglars who succeeded in getting away with a considerable quantity of jewelry belonging to the guests, the actress included. While the bold burglar party were engaged in their nefarious enterprise they disturbed the slumbers of the actress, who raised the alarm and gave chase in a beautiful pair of pink bloomers. The burglars, however, got off with their booty, and all Miss Barrymore got out of her chase in pink bloomers was a little advertisement.

LABOR SITUATION.

Reverting to matters more directly concerning the manufacturers, Mr. Curry touched very briefly upon the labor situation and the friendly relation that on the whole they had been able to maintain with those in their employ.

"The great need of Canada today is, as I see it, not wider markets, but an equipment and a service that will enable us better to supply the demands of the home market. In other words, what we want is transportation, more transportation and better transportation."

"The railways are striving manfully to meet the situation, millions upon millions are being poured into improvements that we sometimes forget to give them credit for. But relief cannot be had in a day by any means."

"Canadian ports will never enjoy a development commensurate with the growth and prosperity of the rest of the Dominion so long as they are saddled with the insurance incubus. Already they have suffered irreparable injury because business that has been permanently diverted to United States ports, and if the remedy is not sooner delayed it may give our competitors an advantage from which we can never recover."

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1912.

PARLIAMENT AND THE EMERGENCY.

In his speeches since his return to Canada, Mr. Borden has made no reference to the German menace and has not departed from his original statement that no intimation as to the Government's policy on Naval Defence would be made public before the meeting of Parliament. In his speech at Montreal last Saturday, however, the Prime Minister threw more light upon the situation than on any previous occasion. There can no longer be any doubt that as the result of the conference with the British Government Mr. Borden considers the situation demands that the question of Canada's co-operation should be considered at the earliest possible moment. To face the emergency Parliament is now summoned to meet two months earlier than the date decided upon last June, before the conferences were held.

In his speech at Montreal Mr. Borden clearly expressed his opinion on the need for some immediate action. He said:

"I went to the United Kingdom, having in mind what I had said to the people of Canada in November, 1911, when the question of our attitude towards Imperial Defence was raised. We promised at that time that if the time came when the question became grave, and we were in power, we would endeavor to find out the situation, and if the answers to these questions by the naval experts of the Admiralty were such as to demand the co-operation of this country, I would appeal to Parliament for effective aid, and if Parliament did not give immediate and effective aid, I would appeal to the people of the country."

"We would readily and gladly have delayed the opening of Parliament until the month of January next, as indeed we had determined before my visit to England. I consider, however, that Parliament should not be kept waiting for the report of my visit, therefore we intend and expect that Parliament shall be summoned for some date in the month of November next. I am not at all sure that some of those who are endeavoring to utter certain jibes at the present time will be so ready with these jibes when we are face to face with them in the Parliament of Canada."

Mr. Borden is no alarmist. He is not given to exaggeration. No other inference can be drawn from his statement than that the information received from the Admiralty is a call to the Dominion to assist in meeting the emergency which has arisen without delay. There is a world of significance in Mr. Borden's timely warning to those who in their ignorance of the situation would place politics before patriotism and loyalty to the Mother Country. When confronted with the cold hard facts they will not out a sorry figure in Parliament. Obstruction when all the facts are disclosed can justly be met by an appeal to the people. The result of the election a year ago when the country supported Mr. Borden's platform and policy does not leave the ultimate issue in doubt.

THE ORIGIN OF LIFE.

An address by Professor E. A. Schaefer on "The Origin of Life" at the meeting of the British Association, early this month, has given rise to much interesting discussion by followers of the two schools of thought on this eternal problem. What is life? It is a question which everyone asks, and one for which no philosopher has yet found a satisfactory answer. No one knows what life is, and in the opinion of many thinkers we never shall. Professor Schaefer, who occupies the chair of Physiology at Edinburgh University, believes that the laws of life and its manifestations are to be explained by the laws of chemistry and of mechanics. The other school of thought, the vitalists, believe that life is a principle co-existent with matter and incapable of ultimate explanation or resolution. The strength of their position lies in the fact that no research has ever indicated the slightest possibility of the production of life where no life was before.

Professor Schaefer's views, as summarized by a writer in the London Daily Graphic, may be briefly stated. In reply to the vitalists, we give a letter by Miss Marie Corelli which appeared later in the same publication. The ground taken by this well known and popular author will appeal strongly to the average reader in the defence she makes that humanity must acknowledge a Greater Power, a Supreme Being, who is the sole Cause and Effect of a perfect scheme of creation.

Professor Schaefer's method of stating his case is this: He analyzes the simplest form of life-stuff that we know. Thus analyzed it yields nothing more mysterious than carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen, phosphorus, sodium, calcium, potassium—all commonplace elements. Then he examines the operations of life. "The chemical attractions which some substances have for another will produce movements similar to those of life. If a metal like platinum, for instance, be torn up into particles so small that they approach the size of molecules, then these particles of colloidal platinum will not only become endowed with rapid movement, but they will effect surprising chemical changes in liquids wherein they are placed. That action resembles "life forces," and especially does it resemble that of the bodies called enzymes, which seem to help living cells to live and act and transform themselves. There are a number of other actions and reactions known to chemical and physical science which are explained on mechanical or electrical or chemical grounds, and which are almost exactly like those observed in the manifestations of life and of living things."

Professor Schaefer's position is that if we could completely examine these manifestations, if we could pry into them with mental as well as material microscopes so powerful that nothing was concealed, we should perceive that all were to be accounted for by purely physical and chemical reasons. There would be no mysterious principle of life. The principles of life would be the same as those which govern the movements of all atoms and molecules. Living matter is only a specified form of non-living matter, created by the fortuitous association in fortuitous combinations of the elements, and representing only a step onwards in the evolution of the elements themselves.

This is the mechanistic position. Miss Marie Corelli's views, from the vitalists' standpoint, are well and eloquently expressed. She presents questions to the scientist which admit of no answer, and with a woman's intuitive perception places her finger on the weak spot—"assumption." Her letter follows.

I have read with deep interest the report of Professor Schaefer's address on "The Origin of Life," but I confess I am unable to see that he has advanced our knowledge so greatly as to prove that we should "set aside as devoid of scientific foundation the idea of immediate supernatural intervention in the first production of life—a round-about way of saying that we have no "scientific foundation" for any belief in God.

Some of his statements surely challenge question—for example, he goes on to observe after the sentence just quoted above—"we are not only justified in believing but compelled to believe that living matter must have owed its origin to a process of gradual evolution." Granted that this is so, may we not assume Evolution from what? What Cause started the process? It cannot have begun from un-intelligent "Nothing!" And as Evolution points to a guiding Force which regulates its movements with mathematical accuracy and beauty, does it not seem that there is both a Cause for Evolution and a Purpose in Evolution?

The learned professor tells us that: "The elements comprising living substances are few in number. Those which are constantly present are carbon, hydrogen, oxygen and nitrogen. With these, in the more diffuse living material which we know as protoplasm, phosphorus is always associated." Very well; but who brought these materials into being? From whence come hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, nitrogen, phosphorus, and the rest? Hear again the professor—"Assuming the evolution of living matter to have occurred—there we see that we must assume—our instructor does not help us to discover how it occurred"—and in the foot suggested, namely, as a mass of colloidal slime possessing the property of assimilation, and therefore of growth, reproduction would follow as a matter of course."

Certainly, but what we want to know from the Professor is: Where did the "mass of colloidal slime" begin? Why did it begin at all? Why, from "a mass of colloidal slime" originating out of blank "Nothingness" should not only this tiny planet be produced, but millions and trillions of planets and solar systems whose marvels we can but dimly guess at? Can the distinguished Professor Schaefer tell us this? If he cannot, we stand just where we were before, humbly and fervently acknowledging a Greater Power than ourselves, a Supreme Being, who is the sole Cause and Effect of a perfect scheme of creation. And we call this Divine Intelligence a "supernatural intervention," because it is above Nature, while creating and supporting all natural phenomena. It may be, as the Professor tells us, that this majestic Universe is the result of "a mass of colloidal slime," but till we can learn where the "colloidal slime" comes from, and how it has evolved from "slime" into this cosmos, we may surely still believe in that "Supernatural Intervention" of wisdom, power and love, whom we call "Our Father which art in Heaven."—Yours faithfully,

MARIE CORELLI,
Mason Croft, Stratford-on-Avon.

FUDGE!

The Times, which is without a rival in peanut politics, is now raising objections to the number of banquets tendered to the Ministers on their home coming. It says: "The Tories of Sorel are to banquet Mr. Hazen. The chief business of the members of this precious Government appears to be to keep up the banquet record. Incidentally the people of Sorel want something."

All that has happened is that Mr. Hazen is making his first annual visit of inspection to the St. Lawrence Canal, and the Workmen's Conservative Association of Richelieu and Sorel are giving him a hearty welcome. We have no recollection that Hon. William Pugsley ever declined, on principle, to be guest of honor at a political banquet, when he had the chance.

Current Comment

A Point to Remember.

(Victoria Colonist.)
Mr. Walter Long, M. P., made one very striking observation in the course of his speech, which illuminated us in a flash one of the great vital facts of Empire, which we in Canada should take to heart when called upon to consider what part we should play in Imperial Defence. This was, that while the Empire was wide and mighty and the people in the overseas possessions busily engaged in enterprises which seemed to them all-sufficient, they were enabled to do this unaided by those envoys of their opportunities and their resources because—and only because—of the protecting arm of Great Britain.

Minimum Wage.

(Brandon Expositor.)
The trades union congress recently held in Great Britain, representing 2,000,000 workers, resolved to demand legislation securing a minimum wage of 30 shillings, or about $7.50 a week. The agitation for a minimum rate of pay is an old one, but does not seem to make as much headway as its seeming reasonableness would lead one to expect. Possibly the effect of such legislation upon the employment of the aged and infirm, and of female labor, affords an explanation.

Sicking 'Em on the Senate.

(Montreal Herald.)
Sir James Whitney might start something by telling the militant suffragettes, who have been passed on to him by Mr. Borden's body guard, that the Senate is really the party to blame as indeed it is, theoretically, because it is believed to be unwilling to let Mr. Borden pass a Dominion franchise law. If the leaders get out their hatchets for the Senators there would be some lively stepping.

A Drastic Remedy.

(Hamilton Herald.)
An imprisoned suffragette who refuses to take food should be assumed to be mentally unbalanced and confined in a lunatic asylum until she comes to her senses. It is not uncommon for lunatics to refuse food and they must be forcibly fed. It is better to have the forcible feeding done by asylum attendants who are accustomed to it than by prison officials.

Fine Job for the Duke.

(Toronto Saturday Night.)
The Duke is really the only candidate in sight for the post of King of Canada, when the Nationalists have succeeded in making this a French country. Once enthroned at Ottawa, His Royal Highness could send Admiral Bouchard at the head of an autonomous navy and General Lavergne in command of his Zouaves to recapture the throne of France.

The Way of a Man.

(Canadian Courier.)
A man may slam the front door when he goes out early in the evening, but the chances are that he won't when he returns later—much later.

"CLOSED SHOP" AIM INDORSED IN ACTION BY UNION DELEGATS

Newport, Wales, Sept. 27.—The vote in favor of the continuance of the workmen's right to settle trade disputes by means of the strike, and the vote in favor of independent political action, and against syndicalism, was followed on the last day of the trade congress by the carriage of a resolution, by 302,000 to 575,000 card votes to the effect that trade unionists should refuse to work with non-unionists. This resolution was brought forward by the London carmen and read as follows:

"That in the interests of trades unionists, and in order to securing the full benefits of awards and agreements fought for and obtained by trade unionists, this congress is of opinion that the time has arrived when trade unionists should refuse to work with non-unionists. As a condition, one of the delegates of the Railway Clerks' Association, speaking to the motion, declared that the principle of forcing a man to be a trade unionist was not one by conviction would be fatal to the trade union movement. In spite of many speeches against the resolution it was passed, largely by the vote of the Miners' Union delegates, who voted for the strike in most trades, for there is scarcely one in which non-unionists are not working side by side with members of unions. Mr. Davis, of the Birmingham Society, Birmingham, to be their chairman in succession to Will Thorne. Mr. Davis, it will be remembered, was one of the two trade unionists who was elected to represent the trade unions at the Corporation of King George in Westminster, Abbey. The congress, it was announced, will be held next year in Manchester."

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

King-Pyne.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when Rev. A. W. Moskash, D.D., united in marriage Miss Mary Louise Pyne and Joseph F. King, both of this city. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attractively gowned in a Canard blue chiffon costume with white beaver hat trimmed with ostrich plumes, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Louise King, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a tan colored costume with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The groom was supported by J. Edmund Legeur.

The Winnipeg Telegram of September 18th says: This afternoon in St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Cahill performed the ceremony, uniting in marriage Miss Marie Barrack, daughter of Mrs. J. Maxwell Barrack, and Frank J. Sutton, barrister of this city, formerly of Moncton, N. B. A. K. Dysart gave the bride away. She was attired in a becoming gown of ivory satin, en train, which was draped with white tulle. A front panel on the skirt was formed of pearl and crystal embroidery, her tulle veil being secured to her hair with Juliet cap, outlined with orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and sweet peas.

In St. George's church, West End, yesterday afternoon at 7 o'clock, an interesting nuptial event was solemnized by Rev. W. H. Sampson, when Miss Eleanor Annie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McLeod, was united in marriage to Milton E. Perkins, son of Wm. H. Perkins, and leader of the 62nd Regiment Band. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in duchesse satin with chiffon trimmings and wore a bridal veil, with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Miss E. Maude Reid was bridesmaid and was gowned in grey voile over grey silk with a white picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Edgar Christopher, while Wm. Lanyon and Fred E. Reid acted as ushers.

MONCTON WATER WORKS.

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 24.—Owing to the scarcity of men and unfavorable conditions the prospects do not look bright for completing Moncton's new water system this year. McLaughlin & Co. have been engaged by the city to complete the heavy and continuous rain and the inability to get men has added to the trouble. The same conditions also apply to C. E. Fish, contractor, for the main pipe line. So far about two miles of pipe has been constructed and there remains little more than a mile to be done. It is estimated that, on account of the heavy rain fall it will be necessary to suspend the work of the two critical cases this afternoon and will take up the civil cases tomorrow.

The case of Everett Crabbe, of Brighton, charged with stealing one henlock and six spruce logs which went adrift from the mill of the Sapiro Company of Hartland. The Grand Jury did not have sufficient evidence to put him on trial and the witness was discharged.

In the case of John Cassidy for assault upon Albert McLaughlin, both of Richmond the Grand Jury brought in a verdict of guilty on the first count with a recommendation to mercy. The judge sentenced him to six months with hard labor in the common jail, a lenient sentence owing to the fact that McLaughlin carried a loaded gun when he went to meet Cassidy, and also owing to the trouble between the families over land matters for some years.

Aunt Sally's Advice

To Beauty Seekers

Lydia says: "I've tried most everything for my freckles, but can't lose them. What do you suggest?" Best answer to Stella: "The treatment suggested I've never known to fail in any case of freckles or other cutaneous blemish."

F. J. K. asks: "Is there anything better than massage to remove wrinkles?" Too much massage may aggravate a wrinkled condition, tending to soften and loosen the tissue. I advise having the face in an artistic lotion made by dissolving a ounce of powdered sassafras in a half-pint with rose. This is remarkably effective.

Stella writes: "My complexion is horribly muddy. What shall I do for it?" Get an ounce of mercuric iodine at your druggist's. Apply this nightly like you'd use cold cream, washing it off mornings. This will cause the offensive cuticle gradually to make away, by a process of gentle absorption, for the clear, velvet, healthy, rosy skin underneath.—Woman's Realm.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 24.—A widespread rain area which yesterday covered the Middle Atlantic states has since spread into Ontario and Western Quebec. In the Maritime Provinces the weather has been fine, with moderate temperatures, while in the west it has been fair and cool with heavy frosts in most parts.

Table with weather forecasts for various cities including Kamloops, Calgary, Battleford, Moosejaw, Qu'Appelle, Winnipeg, Port Arthur, Pary Sound, London, Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, and Halifax.

AROUND THE CITY

Has No License. Detective Killen has reported Simon Jacobson, 37 North street, for doing a junk business in the city without a license.

New Business. A new establishment has been started in the North End when some days ago Carl Wessinger opened an automobile machine shop on Main street. Mr. Wessinger has been repairing autos and acting as chauffeur for some years.

A Fierce Encounter. William Short and William Collins, two young men, had an altercation on the north side of King square yesterday afternoon and finally got into a fist fight. Policeman Crawford, who happened to be near at the time in plain clothes, placed the two under arrest.

Lord Milner's Movements. While nothing definite is known here as to Lord Milner's movements, he is expected to leave the city next week. On Thursday he addresses a meeting of the Canadian Club at Halifax, and will leave there on Friday. He will visit several towns in western Nova Scotia and may reach St. John on Monday.

New Physical Director. C. D. Howard, who has been engaged as physical director of the local Y. M. C. A. is expected to arrive in the city at noon today. Mr. Howard comes from Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and is well recognized, having had fifteen years experience. For the past three years he has been supervisor of the public playgrounds at Portsmouth.

Musical Event. The music-loving public of this city will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Dorothy M. Douthwaite, of Sheffield, England, will in future make her home in this city. Mrs. Douthwaite is a lady of rare vocal talent, and has been a pupil of some of the leading vocal instructors in the old country. At the request of some of the leaders in musical circles she has consented to sing at the organ recital to be given in the Baptist church, Fairville on Thursday evening.

Public Utilities Commission. Colonel D. McLeod Vince and F. P. Robinson, of the Public Utilities Commission, arrived in the city last evening to attend the monthly meeting of the commission which will be held this morning at half past ten. Colonel Vince when interviewed said that the commission would take up the application of the St. John Street Railway relative to allowing that company to reduce the price on electric power used for industrial purposes.

Youthful Vandals. Yesterday morning two boys, Fred Glynn, aged 10, and Ray McCarty, aged 11 years, were arrested by Detective Killen and charged with breaking and entering the Calvin Presbyterian church, on Carleton street on the afternoon of the 19th inst., and destroying a number of articles in the church, as well as being guilty of other disgraceful acts. The boys were taken before Magistrate Ritchie and allowed to go home with their parents who are to take the boys to court on Saturday morning next. The boys are charged among other things, with breaking a pane of glass, scattering tea and sugar and envelopes about the floor, breaking electric light globes, breaking a lock on a door, breaking a contribution box and pouring a bottle of ink about.

DRANK TOO DEEPLY AND TALKED TOO MUCH

Livingstone's Discussion of Things in General Rudely Interrupted by Minion of the Law.

That the brand of liquor sold in the North End is of the enervating variety was proven beyond a doubt yesterday when one Livingstone, after taking several and then some more pokes at the demon rum entered Clarke's bar on Murray street where he started a long and earnest dissertation on the passing events of the day, which, sad to relate, was rudely interrupted when some unfeeling person sent for the police, with the result that the said Livingstone was ejected from the premises.

Being in a pleasant state of mind, however, Livingstone refused to be eased by the majesty of the law, and after the said majesty had disappeared around the corner he once more returned to the bar, but did not stay as the policeman persisted in putting him out. Livingstone nothing daunted came back for more during the afternoon and again during the evening, after which some friends took a hand in the game and saw him safely to bed.

NEW BRUNSWICK THE LAND OF COMFORTABLE HOMES

The Provincial Government has published a revised and enlarged edition of the booklet, entitled "The Land of Comfortable Homes, and has made arrangements for a large distribution in Great Britain and Ireland. The new booklet contains a fine map of the Province and a large number of illustrations, showing farm scenes in the Province. It is printed on high grade paper, and is a very creditable production, and should do much to serve the purpose of giving the Province desirable publicity in the Old Country.

The present Government is exhibiting a great deal of enterprise in the matter of advertising the Province, having arranged for the exhibition of moving pictures of the Province in the Old Country, as well as for the distribution of the new booklet. The frontispiece of the book is a fine view of a sheep farm in the Province. Interesting descriptions are given of the conditions surrounding the farming industry generally, and the illustrations afford a fairly comprehensive picture of life in the rural communities. Animal husbandry, cattle raising, dairy, pork raising, poultry raising, apple growing, small fruit raising, market gardening, are all dealt with, and there is some account of the market conditions and facilities reaching markets. A portion of the book is devoted to information about the soil and climate in various sections, and some attention is given to the opportunities for farm laborers and women workers.

As an appendix a number of letters from Old Country people, men and women, who have come to the Province in the last two years, are printed. In each case the writer has had ample time to size up the country from the standpoint of an Old Country man, and their remarks are exceedingly interesting. The following is an extract from a letter written by A. T. Abbott, formerly near Bournemouth, England, who bought a valuable farm at Sackville, N. B.

"I may say that I am very much pleased and satisfied with New Brunswick. I find the people are a really nice lot, willing to be friendly and sociable, and to do everything in their power for a newcomer. I also find that there is a British settler should not do well here. This part is a good agricultural district, and labor has been very scarce. Since living in New Brunswick I have found nothing contradictory to what was told me by Mr. Bowder and other officials.

Harry Hopkins, who spent three years in the Canadian west, writes as follows: Hartland, New Brunswick, June 17th, 1912. Mr. A. Bowder, 37 Southampton Street, London. Dear Sir,

"Perhaps you remember me writing to you about two years ago asking for particulars of New Brunswick. Well, Sir, thank you for your kind letter, and I am very pleased to say that the Province of New Brunswick has turned out to be all that your letter told me it was, and even better, and I must thank you for the letter of introduction to Mr. Wilmoit, Immigration Officer. Mr. Wilmoit treated my wife and myself with the greatest kindness, and through him we were able to start work the day after we landed in Canada, and now I must tell you how I have got on. First of all, I started work in a saw mill at $1.50 (6s.) a day, and then I went to work on a farm at $1 (4s.) a day and board, and then I started making cement blocks at $2 (10s.) a day, and I have been at that work for 18 months, and as I pay $3 (12s.) a week board, I have saved up quite a lot of money and I intend to buy a farm shortly, so you see I am getting on all right. What New Brunswick wants in good men that are not afraid of work, and do not mind what they do as long as it is honest; there is an opening for me. I do not know why such a lot of people go West, for there are better chances in New Brunswick, and the land is cheaper, and, I think, better."

Landed With Sixty Cents. F. Pring, who landed in New Brunswick last spring with 60 cents in his pockets writes: "I can assure you it was the best day's work I ever did when I came to New Brunswick. I only wish a few more from the Old Country knew the opportunities there are for men who are willing to work. "Again thanking you very much for your kindness."

I remain, yours truly, (Signed) F. PRING. Mr. Pring's employer advanced the money to bring his wife and family out, which sum has all been repaid. To A. B. Wilmoit, Esq., Superintendent of Immigration, 4 Church Street, St. John, N. B. Dear Mr. Wilmoit,

"Having met with the greatest kindness and consideration from the family with which you placed me, I felt I must write and thank you for the trouble you had taken in bringing me to placing me so comfortably. I am greatly pleased with the Province, and think there is a real opening for me for farmers in New Brunswick, good land, and as far as I have seen, good prices for farm produce. Any man coming out here with a desire to work, in my opinion, do as well as they can in the West, as a man is sure to get a fair round at a pretty fair wage and far more comfort than they get in the West. Anyhow, New Brunswick is good enough for me. With kindest regards and again thanking you."

(Signed) CHAS. S. FAIRWEATHER. Let us recently received by the provincial superintendent of immigration from A. Bowder, the provincial representative in Great Britain, state that next month a number of English farmers who have considerable capital to invest are coming out to New Brunswick and will make a tour of the province and look into the farming opportunities with a view to settling here. Some of the members of this party will bring over their sons, and will probably arrange to have them stop over for the winter.

Mr. Bowder reports an increasing interest on the part of English farmers in good circumstances in the chances open to them and more particularly to their sons in New Brunswick. At the present time Mr. Bowder is making a tour of Yorkshire and the northern counties of England in a motor car which has been placed at his disposal by the immigration department of the Dominion government. The motor car is provided with samples of nearly all kinds of farm produce raised in New Brunswick and well supplied with illustrated pamphlets, photographs, etc., showing conditions in this province. So far Mr. Bowder's tour has been a great success, the car with its exhibits attracting great attention in rural communities, and leading to a great demand for literature about the province.

Many New Buildings. Quite a number of new dwelling houses and stores have been erected in Carleton, this summer, and others are now in process of construction. But in spite of the new buildings put up, it is said the supply of dwelling houses is not equal to the demand, owing to the fact that the large amount of work in progress here just now has brought in many workmen. When the winter port season opens, and hundreds more come here to work on the ships and in the freight sheds, it is expected that the housing accommodation of Carleton will be taxed to the utmost. Last winter large numbers of the winter port workers found it difficult to secure accommodation with private families, and this winter there will be a bigger tax on the accommodation as there will be about 150 more employed on the new elevator through the winter, and work will be continued as far as possible upon the new wharves. Next summer it is said 300 or more men will be employed on the elevator, and a much larger force of men than at present will be needed in connection with the construction of the new wharves.

There's No Risk Whatever. Of injury to either the fabric or colors when sending a garment here to be Dry Cleaned, for ours is a careful, hand performed process, done by our full and experienced workers. Try Ungar, 25 Waterloo street.

PREDIGMENT OF A VISITOR FROM BOSTON

A young man hailing from Boston arrived in the city yesterday morning and was a rather amusing experience. He had arranged to leave Boston on the Eastern line steamer Monday morning with his wife, intending to spend a week in St. John and Nova Scotia and accordingly the couple left home in plenty of time to catch the boat, but as is sometimes the case the wife had a little necessary shopping to do before she went to the boat, and her husband, thinking that he would make a couple of calls before boat time, so they separated intending to meet at the steamer dock later on.

But the dress suit case containing the lady's clothing and other articles was heavier than that containing her husband's clothing, so it was agreed that she shall carry the case and he the lightest, while his wife carried her heavy coat and dress suit case. The lady got through shopping in time and was at the dock when it was time to leave for St. John, but when the cry of "All ashore who are going ashore" was heard, she looked anxiously to see her husband come on board, and as he did not put in an appearance she thought the boat had perhaps met with an accident, so she hastened from the ship and made her way to their home.

The boat swung clear of the dock, and had just left the pier and was steaming down Boston harbor when the husband put in appearance on the dock perspiring after carrying his wife's heavy coat and suit case. He was just too late to get on board the boat, which had been delayed by a large barge warren becoming stalled on the street car tracks and delaying the car just as it was about to start.

He thought that his wife was on board the steamer and anxiously looking for him, so he hastened to a telegraph office and sent a wireless message stating that he had unfortunately missed the boat and would go to St. John by train.

After spending a few hours about Boston he took the express and arrived here yesterday morning and was a great surprise when he found that his wife had not arrived by boat. He was naturally worried over the matter, and sent a telegram to his wife asking if there were any tidings of his missing spouse and was relieved yesterday afternoon to receive an answer that she had not been kidnapped but was at home wondering what had become of him. It was certainly a mix-up, and as he had her clothing with him and she had his belongings, he found that there was nothing in the suit which he could wear about the city without being arrested for masquerading, and he was forced to buy some money in a King street dry goods establishment to procure articles which would be suitable for him to wear.

His wife is not to be done out of her trip east, however, and has wired her husband to remain in St. John and she will come immediately to join him, and both are happy to know that the other is unharmed and safe.

Chemical Extinguishers. The value of a few dollars. Two men were seated at a restaurant table discussing fire: "I bought a fire extinguisher once; paid something like fourteen dollars for it. In less than three months that extinguisher became worth Ten Thousand Dollars. It saved my whole plant," one of them said.

In a terse way he had told a remarkable story. However, the story was not unique. Many other property owners with chemical protection have had a similar experience. The Vulcan is the latest and best word in fire extinguishers. It will subdue all classes of incipient fires met with in actual experience. The Vulcan is the safest and most effective extinguisher for use on gasoline and electrical fires.

Included in the list of approved fire appliances issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Call, write or telephone for full information. FRANK R.
