

Common Council Meeting Yesterday

Decided to Buy Both Shamrock and Armstrong & Bruce Properties — Enter Into Agreement With C. N. R. for Laying Tracks on Water Street—Other Business Transacted.

The City Council yesterday decided to buy both the Shamrock and Armstrong & Bruce properties and lease the latter to the North End Improvement League for development as a playground for the North End; entered into an agreement with the C. N. R. for the laying of the two new tracks on Water street, and to further consider the Harbor Commission Act at a special session to be held at eleven o'clock this morning.

A communication from the Trades and Labor Council asking that James L. Sugrue be appointed to the Board of Hospital Commissioners was read and received. Mayor Schofield said he had been informed by a gentleman that the intended to make application for appointment on this board, and the matter would be taken up after his application had been received.

Commissioner Thornton asked if it was the purpose of the council to fill the vacancy on the Board of Hospital Commissioners. Mayor Schofield explained that he had been informed late in the afternoon that a gentleman was to make application for the position and the matter would be deferred to give him an opportunity to file it with the common clerk.

It was decided to take up Harbor Commission Act in special session Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock. Council then adjourned.

The Commissioner of Finance and Public Affairs reported payments for the month of June amounting to $121,879.98; and recommended payment of the following departmental accounts for the month of June last, namely: Treasury Department, $792.43; Harbours, etc., Department, $3361.11; Public Safety Department, $2,524.19; Public Works Department, $3,774.49; Water and Sewerage Department, $2,095.50. Adopted.

The report of the committee of the whole, as already published, was adopted, with the exception of that section relating to the erection of an additional bathing house at Indiantown. Commissioner Thornton objecting to the amount being taken out of general revenue. Commissioner Bullock withdrew the recommendation.

W. E. Lane wrote again about damage done to his property on Wright street, claiming the city was liable. Referred to the Commissioner of Public Works.

A communication was read from the Trades and Labor Council calling the attention of the Council to their recommendation that James L. Sugrue be appointed to the Board of Hospital Commissioners, and stating that any other appointment would not be satisfactory to the body. Received.

On motion of Commissioner Thornton, the Atlantic Sales and Motor Co. were granted permission to install a 500-gallon gasoline tank at 78 Portland street.

The agreement between the city and C. N. R. for the laying of tracks on Water street was read. It provides for a yearly rental of $300, for the planking of the entire area from the sheds to the eastern side of the tracks and the removal of snow, the keeping in repair of the planking, that the tracks shall be laid at an elevation provided by the city engineer, that the street shall be kept in good condition, that all cars shall be moved at the will and pleasure of the commissioner of harbors or his deputy and may be terminated by either party on three months' notice. On motion of Commissioner Bullock it was approved and ordered executed.

Mayor Schofield reported and recommended the purchase of both the Shamrock and Armstrong and Bruce properties, the former at $7,000 and the latter at $10,000; the first contains 33,485 square feet and the latter is 670 by 390 feet. That the Armstrong and Bruce lot be leased to the North End Improvement League at a nominal rental for the purpose of developing a playground for that portion of the city. He pointed out that the Shamrock grounds was needed for the purpose of extending Metal Street and the lower end had a large amount of rock which could be used for street making. Mayor Schofield suggested that when the rifle range was purchased by the city they would then have a fine site for an exhibition grounds.

The report was received and the recommendation for purchase adopted. Commissioner Frink called attention to the need for a public incinerator and claimed it was the duty of the mayor to move in the matter. A resolution to have such was already on the council minutes and it was time something was done. Mayor Schofield promised to look into the matter and report. He also called attention to the fact that the effort of R. W. Wigmore, M. P., to have an amount of money voted for the extension of the Negrotown Breakwater had failed and urged action on harbor commission.

The commissioner of water and sewerage was authorized to purchase terra cotta pipe to the amount of $1,000.

James Mills, a fourteen-year-old messenger boy had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon. He was coming out of Prince William street on his bicycle and attempted to cut across in front of an auto, driven by Henry Machum, which was coming down King street. and attempted to pull up. The car struck the rear portion of the bicycle and threw young Mills to the ground. Fortunately he escaped injury, except for slight bruises on his left leg, but the bicycle was completely wrecked. Young Mills lives at 39 Bachelor street, and will be remembered as the messenger boy who was injured at the corner of Germain and King streets about a month ago.

Gifts to Women Who Use Jiffy Jell

Jiffy-Jell users should write to the makers for a list of aluminum molds. Molds, spoons and measuring cups are supplied to users free. Jiffy-Jell is the one dessert which has the fruit flavors in vials. A bottle of condensed fruit-juice essence comes in the package. So a Jiffy-Jell dessert is a real-fruit dainty. The flavor is not artificial. The sweetening is sugar, not saccharine. Women who once try it will always get it. Your grocer has ten flavors. Try pineapple and loganberry first.

The man said something when he remarked, "A garden patch is just as good a sign of thrift as any other kind of a patch."

Folks delight in Brown Sugar goodies

At the fragrant memory of old-time dishes, what eager lips are smacked! It is taste that lingers longest in the mind. Sweet and luscious to the palate, is the appeal of LANTIC Brown Sugar. Sweet from the actual amount of pure sugar it contains—luscious from other constituents of the cane juice left in it, bodies which represent the "bouquet" of the cane juice. For tea and coffee and ordinary preserving purposes, where a conflict of flavors is to be avoided—LANTIC Fine Granulated, of course. But where rich flavor is desirable, LANTIC Brown gives to baking and desserts the characteristic molasses taste which is a big improvement. It makes good dishes great! Spices and LANTIC Brown are on the friendliest terms. Spiced cookies, and cup cakes, and all sweet pickles or spiced fruits are better when made with Brown Sugar. All dishes containing raisins, dates, figs or currants develop a new deliciousness from the use of LANTIC Brown. Be a little different. Add LANTIC lusciousness to your baking!

Racing Honors Go To New Brunswick

Second Day's Racing at Houlton Draws 12,000 People—New Brunswick Day With a Vengeance.

Special to The Standard. Houlton, July 6.—It was certainly New Brunswick day at the second day of the Main-New Brunswick Short Ship Circuit races here. There were over 12,000 persons in attendance, several thousand being from the bordering province. It was a gala day for the N. B. visitors. Everything was done for their entertainment, and their horses carried off the premier honors in the three scheduled events. The free-for-all was a corker. Fern Hal, the star of Dr. McAllister's stable, Sussex, easily won the three heats, the fastest being done in 2:10 1/2. Oro Fin, the star of Woodstock, was a disappointment to his admirers, having to be content with fifth place. Victoria, another stand-by of Dr. McAllister's, won the 2:19 class in straight heats.

WILL THIRTEEN BE LUCKY FOR SIR THOMAS LIPTON? Has His Coat Off and a Yacht to Lift America's Cup Which Experts Have Labeled Dangerous.

By ARTHUR F. ALDRIDGE. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. John Bull and Uncle Sam will in a few days compete once more for possession of the American's cup and two yachts, the Shamrock IV, representing the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, and the Resolute, representing the New York Yacht Club, the defenders, will sail a series of races over courses off Sandy Hook for this famous old trophy. Sir Thomas Lipton, Bart., is the representative of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, and he has brought his yacht Shamrock IV across the ocean to compete in these races. According to the conditions, the cup will go to the club whose representative wins three races. The series being run out of five. This cup has first been won in this country for 69 years, having been won in 1851 in a regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron by the schooner yacht America. It was owned by Commodore J. C. Stevens and four other members of the New York Yacht Club. Some years later these yachtsmen, to promote interest in yachting and friendly relations with other countries, decided the cup to be open to all nations. The challenge trophy and since then foreign yachtsmen, British and Canadian, have tried twelve times to win it away, but American skill, American grit and American speed have kept the cup on this side of the Atlantic.

Resume of Old Country Sports

The great asset of nerve control is perhaps not so well appreciated in the sporting world as it might be. Golfers have endeavored to appreciate the benefits of being able to command one's feelings and forget the disappointment which is natural after missing a putt of two feet, or even worse, losing a hole because of being set a stump. The final of the Amateur Golf Championship at Muirfield between C. J. Tolley, the long hitting Oxford man, and Robert Gardner, of America, have been a real test of nerve control. Almost every good judge of the game favored the prospects of the visitor, who has had a longer experience of important golf and is a past champion of his own country. Moreover, he has been used to other conditions in his college days, when he wore the Yale Blue and won the intercollegiate polo vault championship and created a new record. There were few who thought Tolley might out-drive his rival to get him pressing, but it was also recognized that Tolley had gained his place in the final mainly because he had restrained his drive and by the use of a spoon kept on the fairway. He brought out his driver in the final and often out-distanced Gardner off the tee, but, on the other hand, he made some poor shots. When Gardner gained a lead of two holes early in the final, he was as though he would have an easy task. He hardly played so well as in some of the earlier matches, however, and was perhaps feeling the long strain. Tolley came back to the front in the later stages, and when he stood three up with five to play, every one thought he was quite safe. A sent putt upset him and the American was prompt to see his chance, so that the lead was reduced to one hole with two to play. Gardner hit a lovely tee shot at the seventeenth, and here it was that Tolley showed the sort of mental strength which enabled him to win the M. C. when serving in the Tank Corps. He filled his pipe and lighted up before driving and retained it in his hand when making an effort which sent his ball thirty yards past his rival's. This must have inspired him, and even when he was left to get down a three yards putt for a half, he tackled his task with confidence and succeeded. It was a fine recovery, just when his lead looked to be slipping clean away, though Gardner did take the next hole, so squared the match.

The Fighting Spirit

The 'I did not raise my boy to be a soldier' spirit is not popular in England, where the fighting spirit is more admired than many admit. Thus all can appreciate the splendid play Miss Wethered rose to the occasion and beat Miss C. Leitch in the final of the championship for Open Ladies' Championship was 6 up when the last nine holes were commenced, and the Oxford 'Varsity' golf captain started to play like one inspired. Her second shots with the iron clubs were wonderful in their accuracy and she won four holes in succession. Miss Leitch made another effort at this stage, but the younger player was playing wonderful golf, she finally prevailed by 2 and 1. It was a remarkable case of transformation and the young lady who has gained such high honors came in for well-deserved congratulations.

The score: Toronto, 4 (112900000—3 8 1); New York, 3 (11290000—4 8 0). Winters, Benton and Gonzales; Peterson and Devine, Sandberg.

Everything had been arranged, the Shamrock IV, was on her way to this port, the defending yachts were completed to the honor of meeting the Shamrock when she came into New York and to all international sports. Now after six years the match race is to be sailed on a conclusion. The Shamrock IV, after repair in a yard in South Brooklyn, was launched, taken to City Island, thoroughly overhauled and refitted at Jacob's yard. There she was visited by yachting enthusiasts and media men, the subject of praise and of criticism. She is not a handsome vessel. Charles Nicholson, her designer and builder, made no attempt at beauty. His object was to build the fastest yacht with the limitations of 135 feet length on the water line possible and as a result the bow is blunted like the end of a cucumber and her after overhang is cut off square. Her keel is very long compared with the keel of the American yachts, but this length has enabled Mr. Nicholson to keep the lead keel much lower than on either the Resolute or Vantile and this lead serving as the weight on a lever enables the yacht to carry an enormous driving power, sail spread. A yacht is really a lever for the purposes of illustration. The water line is the fulcrum, the lead the weight and the sail spread the power. In model the Shamrock IV, is what in this country we term of the scow type. Her sections resemble very much a champagne glass. Her hull is like a huge canoe with sixty tons of lead hung well below the water line, and that form of hull is the fastest that is known. Types Are Dissimilar. The Resolute, the defending yacht built by Herreshoff, is as different as possible from the Shamrock IV. That yacht is very small compared with the Shamrock IV. Her midship section is V-shaped, her keel is short and her lead much higher than on the challenger. Her masts are moderate and every line of her form indicates speed. It is this marked difference in the models of the two yachts that makes the coming contest so interesting to yachtsmen, and the fact that it is an international race for a trophy, long held here, furnishes the interest to the general public. Herreshoff has built a vessel of moderate form and power. Nicholson has gone to the very limit in the other direction and has turned out a boat in which he has bid for power in every direction in which it

CONCERNING PRICES.

It is stated that Canada is being flooded with American shoes, out of surplus stocks which the manufacturers there had accumulated for export to Europe.

As a result of this, the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Company has issued a statement regarding the sheep raising industry.

With the foregoing facts before him, the average man will not unreasonably wonder why the prices of clothing and shoes do not "take a tumble".

LEAK IN THE MAIN

The Water and Sewerage Department yesterday morning began repairs to a leak in the 24-inch main on the Gysby Settlement road. The cause, Commissioner Jones said, was the giving way of pipe wedges in a joint. Employees of the department state that the wedges give out from time to time and that all joints should be leaded. The break occurred Monday night and before the water was shut off at 7:30 yesterday morning, the Provincial Hospital, residents of Fairville and the pulp mill were notified.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL.

St. John, N. B., July 6th, 1920.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

Allow me the privilege of replying to the letters of Rev. Wm. Harrison and Rev. H. A. Goodwin in the "Standard" of July 2nd. Both these gentlemen have treated me with the courtesy and kindness which I thoroughly appreciate. I am sorry that we do not see "eye to eye" in the question of the Prohibition Act and the sale of light wines and beer. I do not question the honesty, unselfishness or on the carefulness of the consideration given to the question which results in the Prohibition Act as we now know it. All I have endeavored to do has been to make public my own opinion and conviction. I have refrained from asking anyone to accept or to act upon my views. I refrained for a long time from giving publicity to my views, hoping that some one would come forward to show that a great deal can be done against the Prohibition Act and in favor of light wines and beer. It was because the whole question was being brought before the people in a one-sided way and with "boldness upon the honesty, sanity, patriotism and unselfishness of those who might hold opposite views and vote against the Act" that I ventured my opinion and published my letter of June 30th. Let me point out to Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Harrison and others, that it is not the principle of Prohibition to which I am opposed, but it is to the present Prohibition Act, as administered for the purpose of promoting Temperance. This I have made clear, as clear as any English can express it. Mr. Harrison cites the verdict given by Bishop Richardson of this diocese, and both gentlemen speak of the Bishop's knowledge of conditions throughout the whole province. This knowledge led his Lordship to record his opinion that the Prohibition Act as administered had proved a "magnificent success"—Has it? That is the question. If it has in your judgment proved a magnificent success in the promotion of Temperance, then it is your bounden duty as an honest patriotic citizen of the Province to vote for its continuance. In the name of God and all good men and women I say vote for the "Act" if in your judgment it is promoting Temperance. But my opinion, my honest, sincere opinion begotten of an unusually wide and intimate knowledge of men and their habits and characters, is that this Prohibition Act as administered for the promotion of Temperance in our Province, has proved a most lamentable failure.

Therefore, I must on July 10th, vote against the Act. Thinking as I do, even Mr. Hutchinson would not have me do otherwise. It is as a constant and ardent worker in the cause of true Temperance that I feel obliged to oppose the Act. Canon Kuhring's reference to the stand taken by the General Synod hardly applies. That was during the war as a war measure. I would at that time have supported it. It was something to be tried. Since that time it has been tried and so far as this province goes, in my judgment, has proved a failure. With regard to light wines and beer, I confess to amazement when I read that 443 Ontario doctors out of 484 had declared beer drinking to be injurious. Two ideas I have grown up with: One, that Canada as a nation is a beer drinking nation and the second is that England is the greatest nation in the world today. Her beer drinking has not prevented her from writing her name large on the pages of World History. When I read during the war I was I thought the English men, women and children were on the whole a mighty looking lot.

However, I am not wishing to advise people to drink ale, porter or wine. I am only advising that those who want to drink something stronger than water, tea, or coffee might be given the opportunity of getting beer or light wine. This has not been tried in our Province. Why not give it a fair trial? If our people show that they are not to be trusted with it, then by all means cut it out and try something else. The 443 Ontario doctors will forgive me if I say that I think they are mistaken. It is probably the second thought which will be their mistake. Regarding light wine, is this injurious? I remember a story of one who turned water into wine, for social drinking. I remember in the same connection that in the days and for centuries before drunkenness was and had been one of the greatest social sins of the day, God forbid that I should advocate that which is physically injurious or morally ruinous. The work for temperance is not for it may be. On July 10th I will D. V. vote against the present Prohibition Act and for light wines and beer.

I have not referred to Canon Kuhring's experience on the front. He tells of the deplorable effects of beer upon the men stationed on the island of Lemnos. This beer was introduced there to satisfy the impotency of Englishmen amongst the troops. It speaks ill for military discipline and for the potency of the best English beer (when men were supposed to have that one glass) that many arrests had to be made, crimes increased, and men became intoxicated by the beer. Canon Kuhring says that the Chaplains overseas never spent a cent on providing intoxicants, beer or wine for the men they loved. "Why?" he asks and then answers, "because it was forbidden, etc." What need for the "etc." for surely the Chaplains would always set an example of obedience to orders. In my own five and a half years service in a Padre I never felt to my lot to supply the troops with beer, wine or beer. I never knew it to be a Padre's duty.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor for the space for this letter and thanking the gentlemen who helped in checking my views, for covering their brick bats with the velvet of Christian courtesy and kindness, I am, Yours faithfully, E. BERTRAM HOOPER.

P. S.—Since writing the above I notice that a person in Fredericton John J. Colter by name of whose existence I have not before heard, in a letter to the Standard today, and in his endeavor to support the Prohibition Act and denounce light wine and beer, stoops to statements, some of which are very nearly of the nature, a personal attack. My first statement is true. I was brought up in England. My father a fine type of a British officer; my mother a Canadian girl, born in Fredericton, and a 37 years of age, but have been a Canadian for 45 years. 2. I condemn intemperance, not only in sermons, but in practice. 3. The returned men whom I have seen resorting to various substitutes in order to get something with a "kick" in it, did not get this craving from the rum ration at the Front; and these men after all, form but a small proportion of those who have gone wrong in this way. 4. I am absolutely and positively serious when I say that "bootleggers" and "profters" from the liquor traffic will vote for the Prohibition Act. 5. I show my love for the soldiers to the best of my ability. They rather than Mr. Colter, may best judge as to whether mine is a poor way or not. 6. I was condemned publicly from the Methodist pulpit in Fredericton on the question of dancing, in the proceeds of which I gratefully accepted for my "Sick and Wounded Soldiers' Fund"; but I had no more to do with getting it up than I had in compiling Mr. Colter's letter—though I am not opposed to dancing. What a pity it is that the question before us on July 10th cannot be discussed without resorting to untruthful statements and dishonest propaganda! E. B. H.

The Editor of Standard:— Sir,—Referring to the action of Rev. Mr. Kuhring on the question of Prohibition, etc., at the meeting of G. W. V. A. reported in the press this morning (July 5), and also the remarks of the President, G. W. V. A. In the first place the vote was as follows: viz, Present, 28. For light wines and beer, 27. No vote was taken against, but Mr. Kuhring held before the vote was completed.

The complaint about it not being a representative meeting is mere piffle, as at the annual meeting only 33 members were present when important business was transacted and Mr. Kuhring was placed on the executive. He never made any kick then. Mr. Kuhring acts like the little boy who said, "If you don't have it my way I vote for it." Now Mr. Editor, it has been stated that a man who drinks alcoholic liquors cannot judge for himself, and could not give an unbiased opinion on the question at issue. I am a total abstainer of 25 years standing, and have held office in several temperance organizations. I am opposed to drunkenness whether in high social circles or in the workman's homes, but I maintain that the Prohibition law is unfair in itself, inasmuch that some people can get all the liquor they want and others cannot even get a good glass of beer. I am voting for light wines and beer because I would rather see men drink than hide behind corners consuming lemon extract, raw alcohol, and other beverages with too much kick.

At the Valcartier the canteen was prohibited with the result men went in all directions to get rum and whisky. The troops got beer in England and France, and very little drunkenness resulted. If we can have Prohibition which will stop the manufacture and importation so that all people will be treated alike, lots of obstainers like myself will vote for it, but if it is to be handled at all, nothing but nationalization of the drink traffic will solve the question.

Mr. Hooper's stand on the drink question is a sensible one and Mr. Kuhring at all would do well to consider the matter from all points instead of attacking a man with many of us know has been doing a great work amongst the troops. Yours faithfully, F. HYATT, W. St. John, Fredericton, N. B., July 5th, 1920.

Editor St. John Standard, St. John, N. B. Dear Sir,—I note in a recent issue of an Ontario newspaper that the Uplifters in that province are making use of women of the streets as stool pigeons to entrap supposed violators of the Ontario Temperance Act. Would the advocates of teetotalism in this province defend that sort of thing?

When will we awake to the danger of the enactment of any legislation on any subject, at the behest of extremists? To my way of thinking, the fact of some men in Holy Orders taking an active part in the teetotal movement is tantamount to admitting that the Christian Churches are a failure. TEMPERANCE AS IN HOLY WRIT.

Matter of Nomination for a Woman on the Board of Hospital Commissioners Again Brought Before the Members—Questions Asked Resulting in Considerable Discussion—Vote of Sympathy Passed to Mrs. David McLellan in Her Illness—Reports Received and Thanks Extended to Those for Assistance.

A lively session of the Local Council of Women was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Powell, at which the matter of the nomination for a woman on the Board of Hospital Commissioners was again brought before the members. Mrs. H. Atherton Smith presided and many interesting reports of the Committees in connection with the National Council meetings were heard.

Mrs. J. Verne McLellan asked, as a question of privilege, that she might be heard regarding her nomination by the St. John Local Council of Women for the position on the Board of Hospital Commissioners, why the nomination of the Council had been withheld from the Mayor and Council until after a communication had been sent from the Women's Hospital Aid? Why the three names of these voted upon had been sent in to the Mayor? and why, in the communication from the Local Council of Women it was not stated that her (Mrs. McLellan's) nomination was unanimous.

She regretted that there had been any dissatisfaction over the matter and felt that all should work in harmony.

Pitiful Scene In King Square

Woman With Child in Hard Circumstances Seeing so Many Happy Become Hysterical—Cared for by Ladies and Police—Gives Real Story of Sadness.

The hysterical weeping of a woman giving her name as Mrs. Harriet Ellis of Harcourt, Kent county, attracted the attention of large numbers of passers-by yesterday afternoon. The woman had clasped tightly to her breast a curly-haired little girl about two years old. As soon as she could be comforted she was taken by the ambulance to the Hamilton Hotel, Mill street, where the woman said she had been living.

The story she told to Police Constable Currier who went with her to a pitiful one. It seems that she had been living in the States for about fifteen years. In January she was called to her home in Kent County on account of the sickness of her mother. With her little two year old girl she set out on May 30th to rejoin her brother in Lynn, Mass. They got on as far as Vancouver when the U. S. immigration officials refused to allow her to proceed further. She came back to the city and stayed for some weeks with a woman living on Prescott street. The woman with whom she had been stopping wanted to adopt the little girl but the mother would not part with her child. Later mother and child moved to the Hamilton Hotel where they have been boarding ever since. She had written to her brother in Lynn, who communicated with the immigration officials. They promised to look into the matter, but so far nothing has been done. The woman said that she had been working in the States for years and could obtain work as soon as she went back, and there is no danger of her becoming a public charge. She had about sixty dollars when she came to the city but that sum has been sadly depleted and now she is almost destitute.

The saddest part of the affair is that the woman's trunk with all her clothes as well as her child's has been lost and she has no clothes except what she is now wearing. She said that she had to put the little girl to bed while she washed her clothes. She had to keep any money she had to pay her board and could not afford to buy any clothes.

It was sunny and warm yesterday afternoon that she thought she would take her little girl up to the King Square for an airing. Everything looked so clean and fresh and everybody around her, young and old, so happy and carefree that she could not help contrasting it with her own unhappy lot. The contemplation of it was too much for the poor woman and she broke down.

The woman gave her religion as Presbyterian and the matter will very likely be brought to the attention of the welfare workers of that church in the city.

For nearly an hour yesterday afternoon the unfortunate woman wept bitterly, and feeling her position keenly refused to tell her troubles to men and women as well as the police who asked her what was the matter. A large crowd that gathered around the woman was dispersed by Sergeant Scott and Constable Currier. Finally two kind-hearted ladies comforted the woman and escorted her and the child to a bench near the Young monument and away from the curious crowd. As a result of this kindness Mrs. Ellis told the ladies part of her trouble and they will do all they can to assist her.

The Moderation Committee Met

Those in Favor of Beers and Wines Heard Addresses Last Night and Chairmen of Ward Workers Were Appointed.

A meeting of those in favor of Beers and Wines was held last evening in the Oddfellows' Building where the organization of the committees was completed. Charles Stevens was the chairman and before proceeding with the business of the meeting he spoke of the encouragement that the Moderation Committee was receiving. It was not confined to any one section of the city but came from all parts and was most gratifying. Many prominent men, whose names would be rather a surprise to the other people, had pledged their support. Many obstacles had been placed in their path and he mentioned that one of the daily papers which received its support from the working people, refused to put in an announcement of a meeting. He was absolutely sure that if the "wet vote"—as it is called—is got out to the polls on July 10th beers and wines would carry.

The meeting then resolved into a business session and the chairmen of the workers for the different wards were appointed. On motion these chairmen were added to the executive. The committee has obtained the use of a street car for this evening and it will go over the whole route. The car will be decorated with streamers and banners and a band will be on board furnishing music.

INJURED ON KING STREET. While walking down King street about 6:30 yesterday afternoon Mrs. Percy E. Mawhinney of 223 Guilford street, West Side, slipped on the pavement in front of W. H. Thorne & Co's store and in falling suffered some injury to her back. She was taken to her home in John C. Chesley's car.

Chief of Police Finley

Fredericton Chief Knows What He is Talking About—He Says "Vote Against Light Wines and Beers," and Has it in Mind Too as a Good Business Proposition.

In a letter to Mr. Donald Fraser, Chief of Police Finley, who, because of a lifetime given to police duties, is in a position to compare present and pre-prohibition days, comes out strongly in favor of the Prohibition Law and against light wines and beers, and his opinion should have considerable weight in this Province with those who are trying to decide honestly what is the best way to vote. Mr. Finley's letter, a very convincing document, concludes as follows: "I am satisfied that we need the Prohibition Law now as we never did before in all our lives, and before the judgment bar of God we will be held accountable for our vote. We cannot afford to lose what we have gained, and only too late will we realize the loss, should the law be repealed, and light wines and beers substituted. What will it be—PEACE, CONTENTMENT and PROSPERITY with prohibition, or misery and war with open bars? Mark a cross in the first and last spaces of the ballot, vote early, and remember that the ballot should be marked by and if taxpayers, that fact alone represents registration.

How To Vote Saturday. For Prohibited Prohibition Act. For Sale of Light Wines and Beers under Government Control. Against Sale of Light Wines and Beers.

To get Prohibition it is absolutely necessary to mark a cross in both first and last spaces of the ballot, as per the accompanying cut. Every voter who comes to the polls Saturday will have a ballot presented to him (or her), and the man or woman who is anxious to vote for Prohibition should have it intelligibly fixed in his or her mind that if the ballot is spoiled the vote is lost. It is so simple to remember that the ballot must be marked by a plain cross in the right hand portion of the first and last spaces just as so plainly marked above. Keep this in mind, vote early, and encourage all your friends to come to the polls.

Board of Health Meeting Yesterday

Interesting Account Given of Child Welfare Work Conducted by Victorian Order During Last Month's Milk Shortage—Other Business.

Considerable routine business was transacted at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health which was held in the board's rooms on Princess street yesterday afternoon with the chairman, John Kelly, presiding.

In their report on child welfare work the Victorian Order of Nurses gave an interesting account of the work accomplished during last month's milk shortage. Owing to the Board of Health's prompt action in obtaining milk for the little ones in the city, the nurses, assisted by the Y. A. D.'s, were enabled to distribute some 200 quarts of milk to the mothers of infant and young children, as well as to invalids. Those who benefited by the supply expressed their gratitude in no uncertain terms.

Included in the report of the Victorian Order was the acknowledgement of a pair of scales provided by the board for the well baby clinic which has been established in the Order's home on Carleton street.

A report was also received from the nurse of the St. John Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, as well as from the other officials of the local board. A number of bills were ordered paid and several requests for permits of different kinds received.

American Money And American Literature

"Slip-Up" in Campaign Methods of Prohibitionists—Distributes Literature in New Brunswick Intended for Black Population in South.

An aspect of the Prohibition question which must be considered seriously in voting on July 10 is the matter of the origin of the movement. There is every indication that Prohibition in its present form is but another manifestation of the "Americanization" policy of our aggressive Southern neighbors. Literature distributed in New Brunswick has been reported in the United States and the prohibition writers draw their lessons almost entirely from the very "great and good" men across the line. It would also be interesting to know how much "Rockefeller" money is behind the present widespread propaganda and how much is being spent in New Brunswick. In one of the Prohibition circulars which flood the province, one speaker is made to say, "When the babe says his 'inky, curly head' against Mother's bread and Surety this was printed for consumption among the black population of the South and not for the intelligent voters of New Brunswick."

Definite and final Prohibition in New Brunswick would be a step away from British ideals and British connection. Can the crude fanaticism of a new world population improve upon the mellowed customs which have been associated with British national life from time immemorial? We cannot expect any larger measure of British immigration, which it was constantly predicted and devoutly hoped would follow the war, if such an un-British law is perpetuated in New Brunswick. Already instances have been reported in the daily press of Englishmen returning from Canada in disgust when they learned of the unreasonable provisions of the prohibitory laws now in force.
