The Place of Pardon. There is a spot to me more dear. Than native vale or mountain. A spot for which affection's tear Springs grateful from its fountain; 'Tis not where kindred souls already Though that is a mast be men. But where I first my Saviour found. And felt my sine forgiven.

Hard was my toil to reach the shore. Long tossed upon the ocean; Above me was the thunder's roar, Beneath, the waves commotion : Darkly the pall of night was thrown Around me, pale with terror ; In that dark hour how did my groan Ascend for years of error!

Sinking and panting as for breath, I knew not help was near me; And cried, "O. save me Lord from death, Immortal Saviour, hear me," Then, quick as thought I felt him mine. My Saviour stood before me, I saw his brightness round me shine. And shouted, "Glory Glory!"

O sacred hour! O hallowed spot! Where love Divine first found no Wherever falls my distant lot. My heart shall linger round thee And when from earth I rise to soar Up to my home in heaven, Down will I cast my eyes once more,

Home and Heaven. BY JONES VERY.

With the same letter, heaven and home begin, And the words dwell together in the mind; For they who would a home in heaven win Must first a heaven in home begin to find. He happy here, yet with a humble soul, That looks for perfect happiness in heaven; For what thou hast is earnest of the whole Which to the faithful shall at last be given. As once the patriarch, in a vision blest, Saw the swift angels hastening to and fro, And the lone spot whereon he lay to rest Became to him the gate of heaven below; So may to thee, when life itself is done. Thy home on earth and heaven above be one - Monthly Religious Magazine.

Our Idol.

BY WILLIAM HUNTLEY. Close the door lightly, bridle the breath. Our little earth-angel is talking with death Gently he woes her, she wishes to stay; His arms are about her-he bears her away

Music comes floating down from the dome, Angels are chanting the sweet welcome home. Come, stricken weeper, come to the bed! Gaze on the sleeper-our idol is dead!

Smooth out the ringlets, close the blue eye, No wonder such beauty was claimed in the sky Cross the hands gently o'er the white breast, So like a wild spirit strayed from the blest; Bear her out softly, this idol of ours,
