ECONOMY applied with a Paint Brush

THE great national duty to-day is to "conserve." It's a duty you owe yourself as well as your country. A duty just as applicable to a house or building, as it is to the things you eat and wear. Buildings, in fact, show so tremendous an increase in cost, that the importance of keeping them protected is apparent to all who know how steel, wood, and the cheapest protection you can give a building is the kind you apply with a brush—PAINT.

B-H ENGLISH PAINT 70% Pure White Lead (Standard Genuine B. B.) 30% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Paint

The kind we guarantee to possess as its important base, the above correct formula. This formula, printed on every can, and guaranteed over our President's signature, commits us to the standard. High in cost as white lead has become, we must use it in the same proportion as heretofore. To use less of it, would necessitate the removal of the protective from our roofs and to do that would injure the reputation that these paints have acquired by reason of their superior ingredients. It is by using pure white lead and pure white zinc in such liberal quantities that we have been able to produce a paint that truly excels in covering capacity—and that stands the severe "weather test" of Canada in a way that speaks true economy for all who use it.

How He Won His Victoria Cross.

How current William Grimshalden, of the King's Own Scottish Borderers, though armed only with one trench captured thirty six German machine guns and a trench mortar, and thereby won the Victoria Cross. It is told in an official narrative.

On the course of an attack, Grimshalden's platoon moved to the right and captured four trench mortars and instructed them to open as rapid a fire as possible on the block house, the assaulting one of our trench mortar batteries, which was also concentrating on the same target.

The ground between him and the block house was open and entirely devoid of cover. In spite of this he made his way across it in a series of rushes, followed closely by his small band of riflemen.

Under a hail of bullets from the enemy machine guns, and armed with only one hand grenade, he worked his way round to the entrance at the rear of the block house. With his solitary weapon he suddenly appeared in the midst of the enemy, and persuaded each gun team in turn to lay down its arms.

So it happened that thirty six German, with their six machine guns and a trench mortar, surrendered to one British soldier and a bomb. By his bravery and initiative he was thus responsible for the capture of this stronghold with its defences, and at the same time prevented what threatened to become a critical situation.

Don't Be Dyspeptic.

The dyspeptic has thought only of the stomach when the real source of trouble is in the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills thoroughly cleanse and purify the digestive and excretory system and in this way put the organs of digestion into splendid working condition. Little patient urging on these organs when sluggish will restore the habit of healthful digestion.

Grow Sunflowers.

The production of sunflowers is being encouraged in England. The Ministry of Food Production Department has issued instructions how to grow sunflowers and advises all persons to grow them, explaining that the seed is rich in oil and makes an excellent chicken food.

Substitutes for Wheat.

In order to save wheat it is important housewives should use substitutes for wheat flour whenever possible. For gravies and dusting flour, barley or rye may be used entirely for wheat rye bread, graham, whole wheat, etc. 100% or 100% of barley or rye flour may be substituted for wheat flour in brown bread 35 per cent; in oat cake, roll dough, doughnuts, dark sheet cake, 4 1/2 cup cake, dark cookies, 15 to 25 per cent; in pie crust, muffins, griddle cake, dumplings, noodles and puddings 15 to 25 per cent; in tea biscuits, waffles, fritters, 20 per cent; and in fried cakes, crackers, 25 to 35 per cent.

A Long Journey.

After two years in the mud and trenches of France, Thomas Atkinson got his leave at last, and made what he considered the best use of his holiday by getting married. On his journey back to Southampton, he received the telegram his marriage certificate in evidence for his return railway pass. The official, who chanced to be a Scot, studied it carefully, and then said: "Well, mon, you've got a ticket for a long sea-journey, but not on the South Western Railway."

Potato Growing Made Easy

So great was the demand for the recently issued bulletin on Potato Cultivation, written and edited by the Dominion Horticulturist, that a popular edition of 16 pages has been prepared and can be had free by addressing the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. As an aid to the potato grower, especially to the less experienced and the beginner, this bulletin, which is numbered 90, should prove invaluable. To obtain preparation of the soil the subsequent planting and cultivation of the potato, the protection from insects and diseases and the digging and storing. A list is given of varieties recommended for different districts in every province.

Last Sunday in a small country town the people gathered for worship as usual. The clergyman who officiated was a stranger to the congregation. He had a good story to tell of how the Gospel of Christ was proving itself a great asset of our race in this present time of great need, and by way of illustration, he told the story of the work of the Y. M. C. A. for our boys in summer camps and winter barracks and naval posts in Canada and in Britain; also the work that is being done in France from the separat town right up to the front trenches. Then he expressed the hope that his hearers would not see this very practical form of Christianity go by through lack of men to do their very best work.

The service closed, and our farmer-waiter at the door to speak to the man who had made that appeal. They all wanted to make their contributions right away to assist in this work. The preacher could only protest that he had not any authority whatever to receive contributions,—"The canvas will be made on the 7th, 8th and 9th of May, and you will be asked to make your contribution then." The amounts pressed upon him by the men were $2.00 and this is only one illustration of what may be expected in every section of our province when the canvassers come out next fall to solicit for the Y. M. C. A. work overseas. Let every one help.

Retreat from a letter received by Rev. R. P. Dixon, from Pte. Reginald Black, who is now in France:

"At present I am at the Canadian Corps Headquarters driving a Cadillac touring car for the A. D. C. S. and find the work most interesting in every way.

The Chaplain services operate superbly, moving picture shows, Canteens, coffee stalls, etc., besides giving the boys, too, all kinds of athletic goods in the way of baseball and cricket outfits, tennis, chess, football, sweaters, etc., also writing paper and other things too numerous to mention. All this is supported by the profits from the canteens and not by donations.

All this saves an enormous amount for the boys and keeps them in the best of spirits, which is as necessary as guns and ammunition.

They conduct services in all parts where Canadian troops are stationed and have chaplains for all denominations. Taken altogether it is a very fine organization and almost everything necessary for the welfare of the troops.

Have not seen many I know as yet although I did see Eric D'Almeida driving a car but did not have a chance to speak to him.

Victory the Only Way to Peace.

The whole outlook in the World War is so apt to be changed, if not entirely reversed overnight, that a weekly journal cannot easily attempt any reasonable survey of the situation. Generally when what, in these particulars, it has to offer them reaches its readers, intervening events have rendered it no longer intelligible, or, at any rate, of little value. At the moment of writing, the great German drive seems to have spent much of its force, and the Allied line, though forced back, is still unbroken. The Traction losses are reported as being appalling, vast columns of men have been flung into the hands of the British guns with reckless abandon and indescribable disregard for human life.

Notwithstanding this awful sacrifice the Germans have not broken through. But whatever losses the British and French have suffered in the smashing attacks that have been delivered by the German forces, there have been already enormous moral compensations. For one thing the air is again clear and German militarism is once more revealed in all its hideous aspects. All pretence has been stripped away and the Germany that exists to-day is seen to be a true Germany that threw down the gauntlet to civilization in 1914. It is more apparent than ever that the monster of autocracy will yield to nothing except superior force, and there will be no peace until Prussianism is beaten by the might of arms. Nothing will be gained by negotiation or by compromise. Nothing can be expected until the military pressure on which Prussianism rests is destroyed. It may take two or three years, but if there is ever a peace better than a truce, the Allies must make up their mind to hit the thing through, cost what it may.

A Builder of Health.

Nothing can be of greater assistance in building up the system than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for this food—pure vitamins, rich blood, and nourishes and restores the body, a rated nerve cells—gradually and naturally the body and mind regain vigor and energy, and you feel again the joy of living which comes only to people in good health.

An elderly farmer hitched his team to a telephone post.

"Here," exclaimed the policeman, "you can't hitch there!"

"Can't hitch!" shouted the irate farmer. "Well, why have you a sign up. Fine for hitching!"—Presbyterian Standard.

The Burden of Anxiety falls on the Women

ALMOST everybody is living under a tense nervous strain during these trying times, but the burden rests particularly heavy on the women in the home. Whatever their employment about the house, the mind has much time to dwell on the dreadful things that might happen.

There is nothing so wearing on the nerves as worry and anxiety. Nerve force is consumed at an enormous rate, and as the nerve cells become starved and depleted you find yourself unable to rest or sleep. You soon get so you can only see the dark side, and become down-hearted and discouraged.

Headaches, neuralgic pains, indigestion and failure of the vital organs to properly perform their functions are among the symptoms which tell of exhausted nerves and low vitality.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help you if you will only give it a chance. We know this from long experience with this great food cure. We have proven it by evidence published in this paper from time to time. It only remains for you to put it to the test.

You may wonder why people are so enthusiastic in recommending this treatment for the nerves. But you will understand after you have experienced the benefits that are to be obtained by its use.

You will find yourself resting and sleeping better, appetite and digestion will improve and you will know again the joy of good health.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAY 3, 1918.

The Y. M. C. A. of Canada is about to ask friends of boys overseas to make a contribution of $2,500,000 to enable the 'Y' to do yet more effective service for the boys who are fighting the battles of empire. The cause is a good one and is heartily endorsed by chaplains, commanders and officers of all ranks, as well as by the men in their commands—but the 'Y' would make its appeal to men on leave and to men who have 'done their bit' and have been granted an honorable discharge. You have been 'across.' You have seen the work the 'Y' is doing. Can you endorse this work? Do you approve of a forward move in this work? Will you encourage your father or your chum to contribute to this cause? Your testimony will weigh more with persons who know you, than long addresses by men whom they do not know. If you have been helped by the 'Y' overseas, tell it to others; tell it in your home and to your friends; tell it in the moving picture halls and wherever you have an opportunity. This will tend greatly to strengthen the appeal the 'Y' is about to make and you will be doing something while at home to advance the cause overseas.

Death's Harvest

We omitted in our issue to record the death of Mr. Ralph Berns Crawley, which occurred on Friday morning, April 19th. Mr. Crawley was 64 years of age and a son of the late Dr. Crawley. In his early days he joined a survey party in the west and did pioneer work in connection with the C. P. R. After spending some years at his home in Wolfville Mr. Crawley went to British Columbia where he spent some years, returning last spring after the death of his sister, Mrs. Sawyer.

The death of an aged and highly esteemed citizen, Mr. Reuben P. Reid, occurred at his home in Lower Wolfville yesterday morning. Mr. Reid, who was a lifelong resident of the place, reached the ripe age of 85 years. For many years he represented Ward 8 to the Municipal Council and filled a number of important positions. He is survived by a widow and six children, Mr. W. A. Reid, of this town, being a son. Mrs. Reid is absent in the United States. Mr. Reid was only ill a few hours, having been unusually well this winter.

Mr. T. Edwin Benjamin passed away on Tuesday of this week, aged 76 years. He was for many years a resident of Wolfville and highly esteemed. Deceased was a native of Gaspereau, a son of the late Irad Benjamin. He fought in the United States civil war and afterward taught school for a number of years. He was a man of good education and fine intelligence. He leaves a widow, A. brother, Mr. N. O. Benjamin, of Gaspereau, surviving him.

The death of Marion A., relict of the late Robert Westcott, of Gaspereau, occurred on Tuesday. She was 88 years of age.

A Soldier's Letter.

Mr. W. C. Archibald recently received the following letter from his son in France:

France, April 4th.

DEAR FATHER,—A line to tell you we are still around and fighting the Germans. Received several letters from you recently. Your letters do much to keep me in good spirits and help forget the hardships of my garrison. I have written little lately owing to our constant activity. As the papers tell you, the Canadians are a busy body of men. Expect these are a bit anxious for the people at home. They can have the comforting and reassuring thought that we out here are confident that we can defeat the recent Hun offensives and eventually come off the victor. I mentioned in my last note that I had received the furlough papers, but have not used them as they would not turn the trick. I guess the best thing is to stick it and trust in my previous good luck to return once again to the homeland. We have lost a good many chaps recently and I have had many narrow shaves, but I still manage to dodge the pieces. Many are confident that the end is drawing near but I can hardly see it. The French have certainly put up a magnificent fight and nowhere have I seen among people greater patriotism. The French are wonderful and their willingness to undergo unlimited hardships and suffering is unparalleled.

You mentioned in your last note about meeting a chap called Gray. I know several chaps by that name but

How Canada's Greatest Shoe House Supplies the Nation's Footwear

CONSIDER the amount of time and the infinite care you take when buying footwear to suit your own taste in regard to style, size, etc. Multiply your own individual needs by millions and you will get an idea of the immense task which confronts the makers of Canada's footwear, and the size of the organization it is necessary to maintain for that purpose.

The buying of a single pair of shoes is an event that occupies a person but a few moments two or three times a year—but to meet the accumulated demand of a nation's individuals, it requires the whole resources of a gigantic industry. Ames Holden McCready are truly "Shoemakers to the Nation." It is a title justified by their size and the importance of their business.

It may be a revelation to many Canadians to know that to supply them with proper footwear, this firm maintains huge factories each with many acres of floor space, and hundreds of intricate, almost human, machines—facilities and equipment sufficient to turn out 8,000 pairs of shoes every working day.

It requires a small army of work-people, clerks and warehousemen, in addition to executives, buyers and travellers.

It requires much study and thought to plan styles and models of Men's, Women's and Children's shoes in their various grades and styles.

In order to secure the best results in the production of various kinds and grades, it is also necessary to specialize.

For example: Ames Holden McCready factories are separated into three distinct factory units, each a complete factory in itself.

One unit of our factories is devoted entirely to the manufacture of high grade footwear for Women and Children. Consider the great variety of styles in women's footwear, including high-top boots, oxfords and pumps.

Consider the many different patterns and lasts, the varieties and shades of leather and finish—then you will see what a great number of models are required to meet the widely different needs of Canadian women in the cities and towns and also in the country districts.

Another factory unit is devoted to making only the better grades and styles of Men's Shoes—shoes for professional men, lawyers, doctors, and all business men, whose occupations permit the use of fine leathers such as calf and kid.

The third unit specializes in sturdy types of shoes for heavy wear and rough usage. Shoes for farmers, lumbermen, miners, trainmen, and workpeople who require a heavier and more solidly-constructed boot.

In addition to the work of manufacture—the requirements of distribution are also tremendous. A manufacturer must not only make his goods economically and well—but he must deliver them—DISTRIBUTE them. Therefore, in addition to a force of 60 travellers constantly visiting the retail trade from coast to coast, Ames Holden McCready maintain, in the centres of population throughout Canada, immense stocks of boots and shoes ready for immediate shipment to the retailers in each section.

These warehouses are located in the following cities:
St. John Toronto Montreal
Winnipeg Edmonton Vancouver

Years of experience has taught us the kind and styles of boots which are required in each locality. No matter in what part of Canada you reside, no matter what particular kind of shoe you require, your retail dealer can produce it for you without loss of time.

And that is the reason why you will find, even in the outlying districts, that dealers selling Ames Holden McCready goods are up-to-date with stocks that are fresh and new, and which reflect the latest shapes and styles.

When you see the A. H. M. trade mark on a shoe, you know that not only is that mark an endorsement by the largest shoe concern in Canada, but that being the product of a highly organized industry, the shoe you are buying represents the utmost in value, style and wearing qualities which can be obtained at the price.

The Scout Band gave a very enjoyable program from the stand at the Town Hall on Saturday evening and everybody was loud in praise of the music furnished. There was a good number on the streets which presented a busy appearance. During the summer these concerts are to be a regular feature and will prove a real attraction to the town.

Wanted, at once, good maid understanding cooking. Good wages. Apply Box 375, Wolfville.

Lieut. Stuart Graham, son of Edson Graham, writes that he is now an aviator, engaged in Canadian patrol work being stationed at Catterville, near Plymouth. He thinks the air course is a pretty stiff proposition, but got through his probation, and is now a regular pilot. He has been on duty for a period of seven days and instead of going back to the billets for a few days rest were sent to dog-outs on a short way behind the line. Here our duties were to go out on working parties at night and during the day to keep continually on the alert in our dug-outs, like so many rats. The little holes, like so many Y rats, the little holes, were long tunnels running parallel with one another under the bank of the Canal. The main passages were about 50 yards long; about seven feet wide and perhaps eight or nine feet high. The floor, walls and ceilings were of plain earth, except where it was necessary to use timber to prevent the sides from falling in.

On either side, just leaving space enough in the centre to wiggle through, were 2 lines of wooden benches, one above the other. The frames of these were of rough boards, the springs of chicken wire and at times an old blanket of a few empty sand-bags. Flood the whole of these delightful lodgings with inkly blackness, inhabit them with millions of lice and rats and you have somewhat of an idea of our happy home.

Each evening, as soon as it became sufficiently dark, we emerged from our bungalow, were formed into working parties and marched to different parts of the line. The duties of these parties were filling sand-bags, repelling trenches, using profane language, carrying ammunition, rations, or in fact doing anything that was unpleasant. Just before dawn break we would go to our rat holes, be issued with 2 hats much talked about consisting of raw, grimy cloth—bunkies, wet clothes and sleep until noon.

Here is where the Y. M. C. A. came in. It was not advisable, in fact forbidden, to show our heads outside the holes in daylight. Fritz might get suspicious and send over a shower of hate. But at one and only one time was a little larger—perhaps twice as wide—where the Y. M. C. A. held away. Here we could get tallow candles with which to illuminate our appointments, reading matter, writing material, chocolate, tobacco and a few other such delicacies, to say nothing of a gramophone with an assortment of records. Last Friday evening Mr. Chas. J. Wood gave a talk to the boys on the Y. M. C. A. Here and Give' Campaign. In a letter just received from him he states that, judging by present indications, Wolfville will lead all the Valley towns in this part of the work 'We'll done, boys! I'm up to you to see that his expectations are realized. Let every boy sign up a pledge card.

The Boy Scouts. All Scouts who report to take part in the Tournament with Hantsport, Windsor, etc., on the 24th, are requested to meet on the Campus this evening at 7 o'clock to make up the issue for the different events.

A. V. RAND'S. The Loyal Temperance Legion children invited their superintendent, Miss Beam, to a picnic where they presented a large photo of their Legion accompanied by an appropriate speech given by Clair McKenna, the president, which expressed their love and appreciation for Miss Beam. Also their sorrow in losing such a valuable superintendent. After satisfying their appetites with picnic lunch, chess and best wishes were showered on Miss Beam with God speed for a safe journey.

What the Y. M. C. A. is Doing

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ACADIAN: Dear Sir:—In connection with the Y. M. C. A. campaign, which takes place May 21st, 28th and 31st, a few remarks from 'over there' might be of interest to your readers. I have in mind one of the many instances where the Y. M. C. A. played a prominent part. It was in the Ypres campaign in the spring of 1916. We had been occupying the front line for a period of seven days and instead of going back to the billets for a few days rest were sent to dog-outs on a short way behind the line. Here our duties were to go out on working parties at night and during the day to keep continually on the alert in our dug-outs, like so many Y rats. An Interesting Anniversary

At St. John's church last Sunday the rector announced that he had partly arranged for the following services in connection with the centenary of the church, whose consecration took place on June 10th, 1818. On Sunday there will be four services, 8 a. m., 11 a. m., 3 (or 4) p. m., and 7 p. m., when it is hoped to have the Archbishop and the two rectors of Kentville and Cornwallis. On Monday, the actual date of the consecration, there will be two services, at 8 and 11 a. m., when it is expected the Very Rev. Dean Lewis, of Halifax, will preach. In the evening a reception will be held when the rector will read a short outline of the history of the parish and addresses will be given by the ministers of the town. The rector hopes to expand this paper into an illustrated booklet later on. The first Anglican service in the old parish of Horton was held in 1762. This is of course a rough sketch and full particulars will be given in due course.

Watch the Corners.

When you wake up in the morning of a dark and cheerless day
And feel inclined to grumble, pout or frown,
Just glance into your mirror and you will quickly see
It's just because the corners of your mouth turn down.
Then take this simple rhyme
Remember it in time,
It's always dreary weather in countries or towns.
When you wake and find the corners of your mouth turned down.
When you wake up in the morning full of bright and happy thoughts
And begin to count the blessings in your cup,
Then glance into your mirror and you will quickly see
It's all because the corners of your mouth turn up.
Then take this little rhyme,
Remember all the time,
There's joy plenty in this world to fill life's cup.
If you'll only keep the corners of your mouth turned up.
—The Sabbath Visitor

It Had Not Gone.

(By F. S. Scudder.)
At six in the morning I awoke to the sound of the pouring rain. I realized that it was Sunday morning and that at nine o'clock I was due at my class in the Japanese Sunday school. Winded to exhaustion by a specially strenuous week and with bones fairly aching, I selfishly wished the rain would continue thus for an hour or two; for then the district around the Sunday school would be flooded, and I could stay at home for a morning's rest. The district was flooded, but the force of habit was upon me, and I went; but not alone, for many came wading, barefooted, through the flooded streets, and of my own class of boys at least a half had come.
It happened that morning, as it often happens when the windows of heaven are opened, that a copious blessing was poured out, as the prophet once foretold. See Mal. 3:10. It was poured out in this fashion:
For one thing, the superintendent brought a kind of tidings that gladdened the hearts of plodding teachers. He said: "Last night I had an unusual visitor. A man whom I had never seen before called and said he had come to express his thanks for what his children had learned at this Sunday school. 'I have always been a heavy drinker,' said he, 'and have trained my children to drink sake, even sweetening it to their taste when they could not drink it otherwise. I have taught these to bring and serve it to me, and drink with me. One night when I called for my sake, my child refused to bring it, saying that in Sunday school they teach that it is wrong to drink sake and wrong to give it to any one else to drink. I was indeed startled that my child should refuse; and, if any one else had done so, I would have angrily compelled obedience; but the refusal of my own child touched my heart and made me see my folly. So I have come to tell you that I have quit drinking, and have quit drinking in my house for weeks. 'But, more than that, our next-door neighbor is a heavier drinker than I was, and my child went to his house and tried to persuade him to give it up. For this I have come to think you, that you have taught such courage and virtue to my children.' Whether this child was a boy or a girl, or of what age, the superintendent did not mention; and, when the boys and girls went filling out the morning, I cannot describe the reverent awe that I felt for the child, since I felt for childhood as, looking each pupil squarely in the face, I wondered which of them it was. Every face was potentially the face of this little hero or heroine we had heard about. And as for me, the thought that I had a class to teach and that for a rainy morning's rest I had been willing to sacrifice that privilege, struck full home to my own heart the reproof of that courageous little child.

Nor was this the only blessing poured out from the windows that morning. Our lesson was on Solomon's Wise Choice. It was a boy's choice; and, when he made it, little did he realize what far-reaching influence it would have; but from that day to this every one who has known of that boy and of his choice has been consciously or unconsciously challenged to a decision that same decision or a reason why.
Such is the influence of every boy or girl. The choice may not be to become an audience or written in history, but every one who comes in contact with you is influenced by the choice or decision which dominates your life.—C. E. World."

Banish Pimples and Eruptions.

IN THE SPRING MOST PEOPLE NEED A TONIC MEDICINE.
One of the surest signs that the blood is out of order is the pimples, unsightly eruptions and eczema that come frequently with the change from winter to spring. These prove that the long indoor life of winter has had its effect upon the blood, and that a tonic medicine is needed to put it right. Indeed there are few people who do not need a tonic at this season. Bad blood does not merely erupt itself in disfiguring eruptions. To this condition is due attacks of rheumatism and lumbago; the sharp stabbing pains of sciatica and neuralgia, poor appetite and a desire to avoid exertion. You cannot cure these troubles by the use of purgative medicines—you need a tonic, and a tonic only, and among all medicines there is none can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their tonic, life-giving, nerve-restoring powers. Every dose of this medicine makes new, rich blood which drives out impurities, stimulates every organ and brings a feeling of new health and energy to weak, tired, ailing men, women and children. If you are out of sorts give this medicine a trial and see how quickly it will restore the appetite, revive drooping spirits, and fill your veins with new, health-giving blood.
You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Cure for Pimples

A London, England, newspaper gives currency to a rumor that at the palace occupied by the German embassy at Rome previous to Italy's entrance into the war was recently taken over a magnificent coronation chair was found hidden therein. It was conjectured that the Kaiser had this built for the time when he should be crowned as World Emperor at Rome.

Canada Food Board Says

Willful waste of any food or food products or waste resulting from carelessness or from imperfect storage facilities has been made illegal and subject to penalties by Order of the Canada Food Board. By the terms of this order responsibility is laid upon private citizens to see that no food is lost by being kept too long or kept in improper conditions. If a private citizen has reason to believe that a cold storage warehouse, store, restaurant or hotel is wasting food in any way, he has now the opportunity of making a complaint to the municipal authorities with the knowledge that the law is behind him. At a time like this, when food is so scarce in the world and so high in price, even in Canada where comparative abundance still prevails, it is the positive duty of the private citizen to uphold the law against waste and to carry out the full spirit of the law in his own household and in his own daily routine.
In the past it has been the habit of many people to complain bitterly about lack of regulations in regard to waste and to lay responsibility upon the Dominion Government. The constant remark was, "Why does not the Government do something?" The cold storage in some far off city like Winnipeg would develop some imperfection and some thousands of pounds of food would be spoiled, when immediately would arise the question, "Why doesn't the government do something?" The fact that local initiative might do something was slow to occur to many good people. The new order against waste makes it abundantly clear that the Government has "done something." It has, in fact, done all it could without creating special and expensive machinery to do more. It has followed the principle of local enforcement and the decentralization of authority. It has provided stiff fines for those who break the law against waste of food and it has provided that prosecutions be undertaken by local officers. Thus, if the municipal inspector or any municipal officer discovers waste in a local cold storage warehouse, he lays the charge before a police magistrate or two justices of the peace and, securing a conviction, secures one-half the fine for his municipality. Similarly in the case of a provincial officer securing a conviction. The penalties are 14 days imprisonment, the fines being limited to amounts between $100 and $1,000 with the alternative of a prison term up to three months. In circumstances war-time, and wastefulness by neglect is a crime, both fine and imprisonment may be imposed.
Further, if local authorities learn that food is being held when it should be sold for fear of spoiling, they have only to notify the Canada Food Board. The Board is in its turn authorized to notify the officer that the goods must be immediately sold and in default of obedience, the Board itself may step in and seize the goods and sell them.
Most people in the country realize that there is a great war raging and that people on whom the world depends are in danger of starvation. Some few apparently do not. "My new law will do much to teach them.

Why He Objected.

A ship had fouled a floating mine in the dark, with disastrous results. Both were promptly hoisted, and crew and passengers proceeded quietly to their appointed stations. Meanwhile the captain on the bridge was sending up rockets and burning blue lights, in order to attract the attention of any vessels that might chance to be in the vicinity. Suddenly he caught sight of a tall, thin and austere passenger standing at the top of the stairs leading to the bridge.
"What are you doing here?" said the captain angrily. "Your place is in the boat, and if you do not go immediately they will not wait for you."
"I have come," he said, "to protest against this unseemly conduct on your part. We are now facing death, and this is the time to rejoice. Is this the occasion to ignite fireworks?"

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.
Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my household work. I had the best doctor in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. Birney, Black River Falls, Wis.
It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Birney that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Canada-Wide Appeal
In thousands of cases, writes an officer, "it was that first hot cup of coffee that dragged the man back to life and sanity."
The tremendous helpfulness of the Y.M.C.A. as an aid to the "morale," or fighting spirit, of the soldiers is everywhere praised. No wonder the Germans make every effort to smash the Y.M.C.A. huts out of existence.
The Y.M.C.A. is everywhere. You first met the helpful, manly Y.M.C.A. worker in camp, then on train and boat, at camp in England and in France, close to the firing line. Often he risks his life to reach you in the trenches. He has won the warmest praise from military authorities, statesmen—the King! Have you a precious boy at the front? You cannot be "over there" to guide him away from the fiercest temptations of camp and city. You can't comfort him in his supreme hour of trial. Your parcels to him are necessarily few. But the Y.M.C.A., thank God, is "over there," doing where you cannot go—doing the very things you long to do—going it for you and for him.
Will you help? This vast organization of helpfulness needs at least $2,250,000 from Canada for 1918. For your boy's sake be GENEROUS!!

Boys!

Here's your chance to do a fine stroke in the big war! Help the Y.M.C.A. to help your big brothers overseas by joining in the "Earn and Give Campaign"

Earn and Give Campaign

Seventy thousand Canadian older boys are invited to earn and give at least Ten Dollars ($10) to the Red Triangle Fund. Often means $30,000 in all! Splendid! Five thousand dollars will be used for boys' work in India and China; another $5,000 for the National Boys' Work of Canada, and $50,000 to help big brothers in Khaki. Ask your local Y.M.C.A. representative for information and pledge card. When you have subscribed one or more units of Ten Dollars, you will receive a beautifully engraved certificate.

A western settler went to the agent and purchased a music stool, taking it home with him in his trap. In a few days, however, he brought it back and demanded the money paid, as the stool was no good at all. The shopkeeper examined it and said it was in perfect order, and that it should not be thrown on his hands.
"Well," said the settler, "I took it home carefully and I gave it a try, and never a tone could come out of it. It is no more a music stool than the four-legged washing machine stool the music puts her tub on."
"Wagon of Canada—the kitchen is yours, fort. Food will win or lose the war."
"He—I would, marry the best woman in the world if she wanted to see."
"She—Of course, you wouldn't. The best woman in the world would not have you."
"Talk is cheap."
"Not when you tell a politician your opinion of him and have to pay ten dollars and costs."
