CONVICT.

With thee go with this man... I remember Dr. Haver standing an admirable discourse with these brief words...

PROTESTANT & EVANGELICAL WITNESS.

SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1861.

UPON THIS ROCK.

On this celebrated passage we find four views. By the "Rock," some suppose, is meant Peter's faith or confession...

And we have reason to believe many really pious individuals... who have been misled by the false prophecies...

We have received a letter from Rev. James Waddell... who states that he had seen the two young men...

The Rev. George M. Grant, Missionary of the Church of Scotland... arrived here yesterday morning in the West...

A Juvenile Missionary Meeting will be held (D. V.) at the Temperance Hall... on Tuesday evening next...

James McCallum acknowledges the receipt of the sum of £50 0d... from the Prince Town Congregation...

Brackley Point, May 3, 1861.

We thankfully acknowledge the receipt from the publisher, James Burns, Ballinacree, of a copy of a pamphlet...

SCIENCE OF THE BIBLE.—An examination of the Dogmatism... taught by Miss Harvie, was held on the 7th inst. in the hall...

(For the Protestants.)

It is a fact that we do not sufficiently feel the extent of the blessings...

We do not suppose our worthy object of remark was intended... by any other party than the Protestants...

SECRET DEPARTMENT.

It is reported in Paris that Prince Napoleon is about to leave for London... to discuss negotiations with the Duke d'Almeida...

The Emperor's private secretary has also published a circular... which is directed to the consuls of the Empire...

The important debate in the Italian Parliament... on the recognition of the Southern Army, was continued on the 24th...

Garibaldi was not satisfied with these declarations... and he has written to the Emperor...

The Chamber finally adopted, by a vote of 167 against 107... the following order, proposed by M. de Falloux...

The Chamber has decided that the Government will actively employ itself... with the armaments for the defence of the coast...
