Which Was The Heir?

CHAPTER VI. (Continued.) WHILE she worked, or strolled about with her hands in her pockets, she often watched him, without his being aware of it, and the difference between him and the other man was more strongly impressed upon her day by day.

DAVIS' MENTHOL SALVE advertisement. Text: 'Draws the first out of a burned or blistered skin; heals chafing, chapped hands and similar troubles while you sleep; relieves sore feet, cures rheumatic twinges or stiffness; good for any trouble which can be reached from the outside. Keep it in the house. All Druggists, 25 cents a box. Accept no substitute. DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO., Montreal.'

affected cheerfulness; but she watched him from the cottage window with a vague sense of uneasiness. He had often had fits of silence and abstraction, when he would sit beside the fire with his head in his hand and his thoughts evidently far away; but she had never before known him to go off in this way.

SCROFULA advertisement. Text: 'Scrofula disfigures and causes life-long misery. Children become strong and lively when given small doses of Scott's Emulsion every day. The starved body is fed; the swollen glands healed, and the tainted blood vitalized. Good food, fresh air and Scott's Emulsion conquer scrofula and many other blood diseases.'

'Shouldn't be surprised if that was the case with Geoff,' said Warner, with a yawn. 'You can't tell what he's been and done; he's the sort of chap to do anything if his monkey was up—not that he's easily riled, I'll say that for him. Then, he's a gentleman; and I've noticed that a good many of the gentlemen are over here for some reason or other that they never tell. Shouldn't be surprised if there was a kind of mystery about it.'

Abbey's Effervescent Salt advertisement. Text: 'Sweetens the Stomach and, best of all, it makes you yourself feel sweet. Abbey's Effervescent Salt. SOLD EVERYWHERE.'

Cottie went up to the hut and busied herself about the rooms; but every now and then she paused in her work, and standing motionless, gave herself up to thought: of course she was thinking of Geoff.

Had Eczema In Both Legs advertisement. Text: 'Remarkable cure of Chronic Eczema by use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. You could scarcely imagine a more severe test of this ointment than the cure of Mrs. Clark recorded here. For twenty years she suffered all the tortures of this terrible disease and tried in vain the prescriptions of doctors and the cures commonly recommended.'

She woke with a start. The morning had come, and the sun was streaming through the window, and Geoffrey was not there. She went about her household duties with a heavy heart, for she was smitten by the fear that he might not come back at all.

But she dashed them away quickly: it would never do to let him see that she was fretting; she must seem cheerful, as if she had not noticed that anything was the matter; and she began to sing as she boiled the kettle and teased the damper.

HEALTH, WEALTH, AND WORK. So long as Nature's laws require that mankind shall work, the necessity of keeping one's self in health and strength is of first importance. Many people believe that men of great wealth do nothing. That is a mistaken idea. They may not work with hammers or shovels, but they work with their nerves, brains and muscles. Scores of millionaires have worked themselves into nervous prostration in their efforts to control, to avoid, to win, to lose, to gamble, to play, to amuse, to amuse others, to amuse themselves.

Breakfast is just ready. He put the gun in a corner and threw some birds on the table, then sank into a chair. Glancing at him, she saw that he was pale and haggard; there was dark shadows under his eyes, she knew, as well as if he had told her, that he had been tramping all night. He drank a cup of tea and ate a mouthful or two; but he soon pushed his plate away and sat gazing at the fire moodily.

What was that you were singing when I came in? 'Was I singing?' she asked, cheerfully. 'Oh, I don't know. Something I'd picked up from one of them in Paradise Camp. Was this it?'

After a second of shyness, against which she fought for his sake, she began to sing "Kathleen Mavourneen." Now, the old song is a very touching one at the best of times, and I know many men who cannot listen to it without a lump rising in their throats. Cottie's voice was young and fresh and wonderfully sweet, though, of course, absolutely untrained; she sang as the lark sings, quite naturally; and as the clear voice rose softly and seemed to fill—but not overpoweringly so—the tiny room, it stole into the man's heart and soothed while it harrowed him with the pathos of its mournful melody and sad, despairing words. His head

No Man is Stronger than His Stomach

Dr. Bovel's Herb Tablets advertisement. Text: 'A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach. Each with its own special indication, from some other disease of the stomach, from its association with other organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength, when a man doesn't sleep well, his an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, indigestion, flatulence, gas, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength. Such a man should use DR. BOVEL'S HERB TABLETS. They cure diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. They enrich the blood, invigorate the liver, strengthen the stomach, purify the system, and give the HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY. They can be had from all Druggists or sent by post for 25 cents per box. If your dealer can't supply you order direct from us by mail. We prepay postage on all orders. BOVEL MFG. CO., St. John's, Nfld. or Montreal, Can.'

sank lower for a minute, then he rose and walked out; but as he did so, he said: 'You've got a good pipe, Ronnie. I remember that old song. You sang it very well. It's good to hear it again.'

The colour flew to her face, her eyes sparkled, and she drew a long breath: she had found something that would do him good, give him pleasure. The moment his back was turned she got his pipe and tobacco and put them on the table, and when he came back his eye fell upon them and he lit up and began to smoke.

Blessed tobacco! They call you a weed, but surely of all the flowers sent by heaven for the delectation and solace of man, you are the most beautiful and worthy of his reverent love! As he smoked, and sat listening to her as she hummed while she tidied up, the black cloud gradually lifted from his brow, the weight slid from his heart.

HOW CAN WE COUNTER-ACT THE INCREASED COST OF LIVING?

A second's reasoning will supply the answer. Beef and pork are dear and getting dearer all the time, and the cost is out of proportion with their food-value.

EAT MORE BREAD.

There is more nourishment in a shilling's worth of bread than a shilling's worth of beef or pork. But the problem is not done with yet. The shilling's worth of bread is not always the same value. Bread made from contains more nourishment than any other, because it contains the greatest amount of gluten, the health-giving nutriment of wheat.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

It doesn't take any more time to do a thing now than it does to do it three weeks from now. Promptness is a very big element in the value of a favor.

There is a person who is always glad to do any favor for his friends but who is so tardy about attending to it that he often halves or even entirely does away with the value of his kind act.

Are YOU that person?

"Yes, she wrote a very nice piece for the church paper," I heard someone say of a girl who had been asked to contribute an article towards a church entertainment program, "but she was so tardy about getting it done that she upset the publication of the whole thing. Next year we are going to ask a girl who may not write such a clever article but who, we are sure, will get it done on time."

When anyone asks you to do anything for him, if you possibly can go and do it straightway you will make your kindness twice as worth while.

There was one girl at college whom I would rather have on a committee with me than any of the rest. It was not that Eleanor had any more ideas than the others. It was not that she was any more clever than they. It was simply that if you asked her to do anything she did not wait until the last possible moment, but did it at once.

I remember on one occasion when she was on a dance committee which decided that each of its members should squeeze a dozen lemons for the punch.

The dance was not to take place for two weeks, but the day after the committee made that decision Eleanor appeared on the scene of action with her lemon juice and sugar in a preserve jar.

When I marvelled at her promptness she explained:

"It is off my mind and yours. It didn't take me any more time than it would have at the last moment, and I won't have to waste any time dreading it."

A queer old philosopher of a man once pointed to his house and said to me, "If it weren't for one man that house wouldn't be built yet. I wanted to build a house and I wanted a man to help me. Several men came to me asking for work and I asked them when they could come to work, and they said 'To-morrow.' But there is no such day as to-morrow, so I didn't employ any of them. Then one day a man came, and when I asked him when he could come to work he said 'To-day,' and that's how the house got built."

That is the kind of spirit we need more of.

The girl who brought me the lemon juice within twenty-four hours of my request for it was the kind of girl who could carry a message to Garcia.

And the people who promise favor readily but put off their obligations until the latest possible moment attend to them of necessity, hastily and insufficiently, and only after having been reminded of them are the people who could never be trusted to "carry a message to Garcia."

Which kind are YOU?

Ruth Cameron

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

It Makes Weak Women Strong. It Makes Sick Women Well.

Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drugs. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

If a range has become red from overheating or rust, before applying stove blacking, rub the surface well with vinegar and allow it to dry. Blacken when the stove is slightly warm, not hot.

In washing curtains, add an ounce of gum arabic, dissolved and strained, to a gallon of starch water. This gives a crispness to the curtains, quite like the dressing they have when newly bought.

To clean and tighten cane chairs, soak them well with hot water and use soap if necessary. Dry them in the open air and when thoroughly dry they will be as tight as when new, and perfectly clean.

Faded spots on wood, caused by heat or light, can be removed by rubbing with linseed oil or sweet oil mixed with an eighth part of alcohol. Old linen or flannel rags are best to use for this purpose.

Before using raisins or currants in a cake, wash them, put into a wire basket, and plunge for an instant into boiling water. If this is done the day before they are used, they will be plump and sweeter.

When frying in deep fat, never put too much food into the frying basket at once, else the heat of the fat will be reduced in the outer surfaces, instead of becoming crisp and dry, will absorb the grease.

To remove a dent from a table or a cabinet, cover it with four thicknesses of paper that has been wet and then set a very hot iron on the surface for a few seconds. The steam will raise the compressed wood layers.

An easy way to fill preserve jars is to use a gravy boat. The handle makes it easy to dip into the boiling kettle of fruit, and the long neck fits into either pint or quart jars and prevents any spilling of the juice.

If meat, when cooking, has to be turned, be careful not to pierce it with a fork. Boiled or stewed meats should be seasoned after removing from the fire.

For finger marks on white painted doors, there is nothing finer than just whitening and water, rubbed on with a soft cotton rag, avoiding the use of soap, for the whitening will remove the dirt and not injure the texture of the paint.

After naphtha-cleaning gloves, laces and ribbons at home, they may be placed directly upon a steam radiator and will be found to dry in half the time usually required, while the odor will disappear in less than an hour's time.

MISS CURZON-HOWE DEAD.

A young lady of the city had a letter by Monday's mail informing her that Miss Howe, the 15 year old daughter of Admiral Curzon-Howe, had died at Valetta, Malta, of typhoid fever. The disease is very prevalent in Malta and many deaths have occurred there. Admiral Curzon-Howe is well and favorably known here and will be deeply sympathized with in his bereavement.

Weak Lungs

Ask your doctor to name the best family medicine for coughs, colds, bronchitis, weak lungs. Follow his advice. It soothes. It heals. Just the help nature needs.

Seventy years of experience with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral have given us great confidence in it. We strongly recommend it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, weak throats, and weak lungs. It prevents. It protects. It soothes. It heals. Just the help nature needs.

Our Montreal Letter.

The New City Council Inaugurated.—The Abolition of Committees Graft, a Thing of the Past.—The Present Month a Very Severe One for Storms and Frost.—The Lenten Services.—The Ice Palace a Failure.—A Warning About Typhoid.—Citizens Attack Tenant Law.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

February a Cold Month.

February is proving the real winter month of the season, snow storms and very severe frost seem to be the programme. A couple of days we had the thermometer down to 10 and 15 degrees below zero. The civic treasury has not spent very much on the removal of snow this winter, but from present indications the dollars will have to leave that department, and go into the pockets of thousands of poor men who make a living by shovelling snow.

Famous Lenten Preachers.

Lent has brought some famous preachers for the big churches here. Notre Dame gets Rev. Father Pinsard of the Fathers of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri. His first sermon on Sunday, Feb. 13th, drew a crowd of 15,000. He is equal to the best of the preachers heard in the big church during the Sundays of Lent. At St. Patrick's the Rev. Fathers O'Neil, O.P., and Walsh, G. P., of the Dominican Order of St. Saviour's Priory, Dublin, Ireland, will preach and give a mission. At the Church of the Gesu Rev. Father Campbell, S. J., an eloquent divine from New York City will preach every Sunday evening on controversial subjects.

At St. Ann's Church the Redemptorist Fathers from Saratoga, N. Y., will preach a retreat. At St. Mary's Church, Rev. Fathers Naish, S. J., and Connolly, S. J., will preach a mission. At St. James Cathedral the Professors of St. Therese College and some of the city clergy will occupy the pulpit. At St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Henri, Rev. Fathers Gunning, C. S. R., and O'Donohoe, C. S. R., Redemptorist Missionaries from the Mission House, near Boston, will open a two weeks' mission.

The Ice Palace a Failure.

Owing to the mild weather in January the ice palace could not be built according to the original plans. When the towers were completed one of them collapsed, and the contractors had to change their plans. The original programme also suffered a set back owing to the civic elections. No half holiday was proclaimed and there was no procession nor a famous display inside the palace as was at first suggested. There were very few visitors from outside places, and the promoters stand to lose heavily by the many drawbacks. The ice is not allowed to be sold so it will have to be carted away and dumped in the river.

The Typhoid Scare.

Since its inauguration at the time when the typhoid epidemic was at its height, the Emergency Hospital has cared for one hundred and twenty cases of typhoid, and thirteen cases of other diseases, diagnosed at first as typhoid, and later developing into intestinal grippe or some relative disease. The death rate has been 5 per cent. on a general average. There is no congestion at present, and the hospital is able at present to accommodate all applications for admission.

The statement has been issued by Dr. Patch, the superintendent. Dr. Patch says that because the typhoid fever died away in February it does not follow that it will not pay an unwelcome return visit. He blames the water supply wholly for the continued recurrence of the disease.

The Sterilization Plant.

The new sterilization plant was installed a few days ago at the headquarters, and is giving every satisfaction. The water now appears much clearer, being free from muddy sediment and a yellow color.

The Tenant Law.

The tenant law here is a rather severe one as it gives too much power to the landlord and leaves the tenant with none on his side. The Herald is waging war on the injustice of the law and asks the citizens to fight to have it changed. The labour unions are going to fight it and ask that monthly leases be signed not yearly ones. A complete revision of the rental system is demanded. The City Council and the Quebec Legislature will be petitioned in the matter.

The Veto Issue Pushed to the Front.

The intelligence contained in our latest cable message would seem to warrant the view that the Asquith Government may weather the storm for a time at least. They have apparently reconsidered the policy of delaying the Veto question, under the threat made by Mr. Redmond, the leader of the Nationalists, and intend to push it to the front immediately. This issue will unite the three groups of Liberals, Nationalists, and Laborites, and tend to weld them together to keep the Asquith Administration in power. A postponement of this issue would displease the Nationalists, the Laborites, and the radical section of the Liberal party. The Nationalists are prepared to support the Budget on this understanding. Otherwise they will oppose it, and this would mean disaster to the Government and may involve the Nationalists themselves in the same ruin.

The Veto Question really involves two distinct and separate principles: One, that a new statute shall provide that a Finance Bill shall become law by passing the House of Commons alone; in other words that there shall be no need to send a Budget to the House of Lords to give it the force of law; and (2) that in regard to other legislation that the House of Lords shall be able to hold such legislation up only temporarily and not perpetually as at present; in other words that the Veto of the House of Lords shall prevail merely for a time to force a House of Commons to reconsider certain legislation; but that the Lords shall not have the power to veto a particular kind of legislation like Home Rule for ever.

Tried to Suicide.

Shortly after 11 o'clock last night as Const. Furlong and Field were doing their beat on Water Street West they heard a commotion and cries coming from the neighbourhood of Bishop & Sons wharf, and running to the premises saw a young man, a resident of the higher levels, struggling with another, on the wharf, who proved to be his father. The son had risen from his bed, and running from his house was heard to say that he would commit suicide. His father followed and overtook him on the wharf, holding him until the timely arrival of the officers who took him in charge and brought him to the police station. It is believed that the young man's brain is affected and his father asserted that he had before this attempted self-destruction. He will be examined by a doctor to-day as to his sanity.

Gas Distended
His Stomach

"My last wish will be," writes Harry P. Pollard, a well-known boot and shoe traveller of Hartford, "that everyone with a bad stomach may learn as I did, before it is too late, that Nerviline is the one remedy to cure. Why, I was in mighty bad shape, my digestion was all wrong, and every night I would awaken with a start and find my heart jumping like a threshing machine. This was caused by gas on my stomach pressing against my heart. When I started to use Nerviline I got better mighty fast. It is certainly a grand remedy for the travelling man, keeps your stomach in order, cures cramps, prevents lumbago or rheumatism, breaks up chest colds and sore throat—in fact there hasn't been an ache or pain inside or outside for the past two years that I haven't cured with Nerviline. Do you wonder why I recommend it?"

For general household use Nerviline has no equal; it will cure the aches and ailments of the entire family—refuse anything but Nerviline, 25c. per bottle, five for $1.00, at all dealers. Or The Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

The Government Crisis

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Feb. 22.
Commenting on the unexpected collapse in the House of Commons yesterday of the debate at the conclusion of Mr. Redmond's speech, the Unionist morning papers predict that the new Parliament will be so short lived as to be practically still-born. The Morning Post bids Mr. Balfour be prepared to take office at any minute. The Telegraph says: "After this astonishing prelude it would be folly even to conjecture what may happen next. The fiasco is more complete than any Unionist had dared to conceive. The Liberal papers maintain a brave show, but they have difficulty in concealing their disappointment and depression. The Radical Morning Leader says: 'When the House of Commons adjourned it was clear that the life of the Government hung on a thread and that the decision to prolong it or not would be a matter of hours. The Daily News complains bitterly of Premier Asquith's ambiguity in the matter of guarantees, and declares the situation is perilous.'

LONDON, Feb. 22.
Without any actual change in the parliamentary situation the outlook to-night was more hopeful for the Government. It seems that certain Ministers met the new Parliament on Monday without having taken care either to seek the views of the various groups forming the Government majority or to satisfy themselves, and the surprise with which the Nationalists and Laborites learned they had misapprehended Premier Asquith's speech with reference to securing guarantees for dealing with the House of Lords was in a great measure responsible for the acute crisis. Both the Nationalists and Labor parties, however, are aware that they have little to gain by throwing out the Government, which would lead to dissolution and to the probable victory of the Conservatives at the next general elections. Hence the Extremists to-day displayed a more conciliatory spirit. The Cabinet held a long council to draft the veto resolution and to discuss the general situation. The result of their deliberations was a speech by Winston Spencer Churchill, President of the Board of Trade, which he delivered in the House of Commons, announcing the determination of the Government to stand or fall by the Veto Bill. This determination, to some degree satisfying the irreconcilables who, it should be remembered, in no way agree among themselves, the Laborites being as yet undecided as to whether they are against the Budget. Any direct operation between these two parties with the express intention of defeating the Government is extremely probable. In fact meetings of the Labor party have shown there is a strong feeling against any action likely to defeat the ministry, while the Nationalists would very unlikely go beyond abstaining from voting for the Budget. Indeed, at a meeting to-day, the Nationalists decided not to take any action for the present, which would embarrass the Government. Negotiations are going on between the different parties with a view to averting a crisis until the Budget is adopted and some progress has been made with the veto resolution.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—Arthur Fraser Walter, who at one time was chief proprietor of the London Times, and more recently Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company which purchased the paper, died to-night at his home in Wokington. He had been ill for some time.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—Three boys were shot and probably fatally injured, while several received less serious wounds, to-day in riots following the resumption of the service by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. The shooting occurred in attacks on cars in the northern section, Market Street, the principal business thoroughfare in the heart of the city, was the scene of disturbance during the entire day. Cars were stoned and two people were roughly handled by a mob of several thousand persons.

GLASGOW, Feb. 22.—Lord Curzon has resigned the rectorship of Glasgow University. Last week the University students held a meeting and adopted a resolution of censure against his installation ceremony in favor of his political engagements. Lord Curzon then sent a letter of explanation, whereupon the students met again and for the second time voted for censure.

Festival of Empire.

A meeting of the citizens interested in the Festival of the Empire was held last night in the Board of Trade Rooms to outline a programme for the event. Mr. J. J. Outerbridge presided. Mr. W. G. Gosling, the Secretary, explained the nature of the intended exhibition. A court for the Newfoundland exhibits had been provided at the Crystal Palace where all works of art peculiar to our country would be displayed. The space allowed to show our exhibits was 70 feet square with an alcove of 25 feet on each side. Lord Northcliffe would exhibit Newfoundland lumber, paper and pulp. There would be specimens of sportsman's camp trophies of the chase, mineral specimens, Newfoundland scenery, portraits of our Governors, Judges and Statesmen, records, books and curios. The expense of the undertaking would be $15,000 of which the Government would give $10,000.

The following committee were appointed:—Minerals.—J. P. Howley, Sir E. P. Morris and W. Canning.
Books.—M. W. Furlong, K. C., and W. G. Gosling.
Music.—Geo. Shea and Charles Huton.

Photographs.—C. O'N. Conroy, W. G. Gosling, H. Fraser, W. N. Gray, Bradshaw and C. F. Ayre.

Lecture on Trinity

The T. A. Hall was filled last night on the occasion of the delivery of a lecture on Trinity by Rev. Canon Smith. The lecture was, needless to say, deeply interesting, and was listened to with the closest attention from start to finish. The lecturer was introduced by Mr. W. J. Ellis, President, who acted as Chairman, and was accompanied to the platform by the officers of the Society. No man probably in the country has treasured the memories of the old customs of hymn-gone days better than Canon Smith. At the conclusion a hearty vote of thanks tendered by the Chairman and seconded by Mr. L. Griffin was carried unanimously.

Broke Her Leg.

Yesterday afternoon a young woman named Mason, living with Mr. J. Hayes at King's Bridge, while sliding over the "King's Pinch" could not stop the slide quickly enough and it crashed into the iron railing at the bridge with such force that the left leg was broken in three places. Suffering intense pain she was conveyed home where Drs. Macpherson and Tait were called, and noting the serious character of her illness sent her to the Hospital in the ambulance.

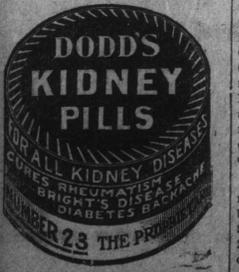

Legislative Council.

Yesterday the Railway Bill was put through Committee. Hon. D. J. Greene was in the chair. Hon. J. Harris and Hon. J. Angel made speeches in favor of the arrangement. The Mineral Bill was also put through Committee. Hons. Angel, Bishop, Greene, Gibbs, Robinson and Job took part in the debate on it. The Beaver Bill also made some progress in Committee. The Coal Boring Bill was read a second time. The House then adjourned till Thursday at 4.30 p.m.

College Hockey.

The postponed match between the Feildians and St. Bon's will take place at the Prince's Rink to-night. The ice was not in condition to go on with the game last night. The following are the players:—
Feildians—Strang, Jeffries, Collier, Tait, Simms, Pinsent and White.
St. Bon's—Walsh, Power, Meehan, Walsh, O'Dea, Shortall and Vail.
Feildians vs. ST. BONS, in the Prince's Rink to-night at 7.30 p.m.—Feb 23, 11.
MEETING TO-NIGHT.—The B.I.S. Literary and Amusement Committee will meet to-night to elect their officers.

MAKING LONG VOYAGE.—The brig, Grace, Capt. John Jackman, is making a long passage from this port to Halifax. She is now out 22 days and evidently has met adverse and stormy weather. She is a staunch little vessel, laden with fish, and has an experienced captain and hardy crew, and no fears as to her safety are entertained.

Lecture to I. O. O. F.

Last night at the Oddfellow's Hall, Atlantic Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., Rev. Mr. Thackeray lectured for the members on "The Key to a Successful Life." He was introduced by the chairman, Mr. E. G. Williams. The lecture was a very interesting one. He gave many examples of men who though starting from lowly stations in life had attained world fame and prominence. At the conclusion of the lecture a collection was taken up for the widows and orphans fund of Atlantic Lodge. A handsome sum was realized. Mr. E. Spurrell proposed a vote of thanks, in the course of his remarks he alluded to Thomas Widely who founded the Society 91 years ago. Mr. E. White seconded the motion which was carried by acclamation. Next Tuesday Rev. Mr. Thackeray will lecture to the Masonic body. No doubt a rare literary treat is in store for them.

Surely Settles Upset Stomachs.

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia vanish in five minutes.
Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Dipepsin and realize not only immediate but lasting relief. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.
If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.
Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Dipepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.
Pape's Dipepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.
Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drugstore.
These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Interesting Debate.

"Is Newfoundland capable of agricultural development to the extent of supplying her own needs?" was the subject of debate at the C. A. A. rooms last night. The affirmative was taken by Messrs. G. Bradley, W. J. Milley, and A. Ross, and the negative was upheld by Messrs. A. E. Parkins, N. Burt and J. Rowsell. At the conclusion of the arguments Mr. H. Young, the chairman, put the question and a majority of 13 was found on the affirmative side. Messrs. Pincock, Grimes, Mews, Young, Curtis, of the C.A.A. and Messrs. Wyatt and Scott from George St. Y.M.A., and Mr. Bowden, from Gower Street Church also added the weight of their arguments to those of the regular speakers. The Daylight Bill will be discussed next Tuesday.

RECEIVED AN OVATION.—Last night at 8.30 a couple who had just been married walked up Brazil's Square followed by a crowd of about 200, mostly young men and boys, who cheered them to the echo.

Gower Street Church.

The Evangelistic Service at Gower Street Church last night, the second meeting of the series, was largely attended. The singing by the full choir under the direction of Mr. Pratt who presided at the organ, was most inspiring. Rev. Mr. Dunn had charge of the service. "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" being rendered, Rev. J. K. Curtis read in prayer. Rev. Mr. Dunn then read from the 10th chap of the Acts, Peter's visit to Cornelius. He elucidated the verses in a very helpful manner. After the singing of other hymns Rev. Dr. Curtis delivered the sermon on the occasion. He dwelt on the fact that the visit of St. Peter to Caesarea showed that his mission was to save the Gentiles as well as the Jews. He found a ready and willing reception at their hands. St. Peter was a prepared preacher with the memories of the sufferings and works of our Lord fresh in his mind. He could tell them in vivid language of the life of the Master. At the conclusion of his touching address Rev. Dr. Curtis appealed to the young men to "dare to be a Daniel." Conformable to his invitation three young men accepted the invitation and came forward. Services will be continued at 8 to-night.

Rosalind Arrives.

The s.s. Rosalind, Capt. Smith, arrived here at 5 p.m. yesterday from New York via Halifax. The ship left the former port at 10 o'clock Wednesday night last and arrived at Halifax at 4 a.m. Saturday. On the run there she had fine weather with a stiff southerly wind. She left Halifax at 6.30 a.m. Sunday and had it very frosty on leaving, though after a few hours it became mild with a W.S.W. wind. Monday evening it blew a gale from the S.W. with a heavy sea, and at midnight the ship was compelled to heave to between Cape Race and Cape Pine for 4 hours. It rained hard during that time and the heavy sea running constantly kept the ship's decks awash. Early yesterday morning it became more moderate and the ship was headed for port, making a quick run down. The ship has a full cargo, equal to 16,000 barrels, and her passengers were Mrs. M. Meyers, J. L. Lawrence, Mrs. K. Templeton, Miss Molly O'Dwyer, J. McNeil, R. Jackson, R. W. Dodd, C. A. Jerrett and 3 steerage, including a Chinaman, who was taken charge of by the Customs people.

Sighted a Spar Buoy.

Capt. Wiltshire, of the schooner Mildred reports passing a large spar buoy on his recent voyage from Brazil. It was painted red with a large "C" in black upon it, and the figure 2 in the same colour. It was met in latitude 39.50 N., longitude 56.20 W., on last Thursday.

Now Cured of Rheumatism

Cost him $100.00 for medicines which failed.—Cured by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.
Mr. James Clark, Maidstone, Sack., writes: "I suffered for four years with rheumatism in my shoulders and could not lift my arms above the head. I tried nearly all the advertised remedies but none of them gave me relief. It cost me at least $100.00 for medicines before I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
"With the use of this medicine, I soon found relief. I followed up this treatment for six months and was then quite free from rheumatism. While using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I also used Dr. Chase's Backache Plaster when so stiff that I could scarcely bend. They always found the weak spot and gave relief while the internal treatment was bringing about a thorough cure."
The success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has been phenomenal. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes will be sent free on request.

Firemen's Union Meet.

The Firemen's Union met in the British Hall last night, about 200 members being present, including several from the outports. The meeting was held to make arrangements for the coming seal fishery. It was determined that the rate of wages and the conditions under which the men will ship are to be the same as last year, but they intend asking for more help in the stokeholds. According to the new rules ships which carried five men last season must take six this spring, and men will only be expected under ordinary conditions to stand not more than four hours watch. Several other matters were discussed. The matters referred to will be communicated to the owners of the sealing ships and the engineers.

Waterwitch Arrives.

The brig, Waterwitch, Capt. Horwood, arrived here at 8.30 last night after a run of 45 days from Bahia. She had fine weather since leaving Brazil up to Monday last, and at times it was so calm that the ship had not enough wind to fill the sails. Monday night, when off Cape St. Mary's, it blew a hurricane from the S.E., and the vessel had to lay to for hours, but she suffered no accident. Going down to Brazil she had very stormy weather for a while, and the jibboom and foretopmast went by the board and she received other slight damages. Repairs were not effected there but will be given her in this port.

Told a Sad Story.

Last night a resident of the West End told Sergt. Byrne a sad story on Water Street and one which the officer knew to be correct. The man who is a hardworking laborer stated that he is almost driven to distraction owing to his wife's intemperate habits. She has three children and the unfortunate man says they are systematically neglected while the woman is always more or less intoxicated. He has himself been driven to drink owing to this unfortunate domestic trouble. Last night he wandered down on an uptown wharf and, fearing that he contemplated suicide, an officer followed, took him off the place and saw that he proceeded home.

FOUND A LOCKET.

A small gold locket with a lady's photo enclosed, was picked up near the Railway Station yesterday. The owner can get it at the ticket office.
Mrs. Ellen Murphy died suddenly at her late residence, Petty Harbor, last night. She ate her dinner as usual and appeared to be in her customary good health. Shortly before 6 o'clock she complained of feeling unwell and went to her bedroom. Shortly after her daughter-in-law went to the room and was shocked to find her dead. She leaves a son and four daughters.

DIED.

On February 16th, at the Hahnemann Hospital, New York, Mary P. Ryan, daughter of the late Magistrate Ryan of Ferryland. Interment at Chicago.
Last evening, after a short illness, Ellen, beloved wife of the late Peter Murphy, aged 62 years, leaving 1 son and 1 daughter to mourn their sad loss. Funeral on Friday, at 2.30 p.m., from her son's residence, Old Petty Harbor Road.

In the Days of Old!

More Interesting Facts Regarding the Seal Fishery.

Naturalists describe no less than fifteen species of seals. The most plentiful and which pass along the coast of Newfoundland with field ice are the harps, or half moon seals. About the latter part of the month of February these seals whelp, and in the northern sea deposit millions of their young on the glittering surface of the frozen deep. At this period they are covered with a coat of white fur slightly tinged with yellow. I have seen these beautiful "white-coats" lying six and eight on a pan of ice resembling so many lambs enjoying the solar rays. These animals grow very rapidly, and in about three weeks after their birth begin to cast their white coats. They are now easily caught, being killed with a slight stroke across the nose with a bat or gaff. They are then in prime condition, the fat being in greater quantity and containing purer oil than at a later period of their growth. It appears to be necessary to their existence that they should pass a considerable time in repose on the ice, and during this state of helplessness we see the goodness of Providence in providing these amphibious creatures with a thick coat of fur and also a super-abundant supply of fat as a defence from the chilling effects of the cold ice and northern blasts. Sometimes, however, numbers of them are found frozen in the ice. These "cats" are highly prized by the seal hunters as the skin, when dressed, makes excellent caps for them to wear while engaged in this perilous and dangerous voyage. At one year old these seals are called "bedlamers." The female is without the dark spots on the back which form the harp, and the male does not receive this mark until two years old. The total number of seals cut up in St. John's in the spring of 1859 is as follows:—

"Mary" at Spaniard's Bay

A Pleasant Time Spent at the Home of Aunt Julia -- They all See More Than They Did.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir,—I suppose you will be surprised to get a letter from me from Spaniard's Bay, but Tom decided to spend a few days in the country rabbit catching, and I came up here to spend a few days with Julia. She spent ten days with me, but if I stay here four or five days it will be all I can afford to do. I like the free and easy way the people in these out-ports live and associate with each other. To give you an idea, last night we had quite a crowd in. Aunt Julia said, "It was because I was up here, my sakes when they all got in, there was Uncle Nath, Uncle Moses Andrew and Uncle Eleazar (and they are keen on politics), Aunt Diana and Aunt Sue, besides a number of others I cannot remember now. The men were tired after the day in the woods, and I heard some of them saying the hauling was very heavy, but as it is frosty now with a little light snow, they said it would "grease" the path. I suppose snow would be no good to grease the pan to fry brewis. Uncle Turtle told a story, and even the women put away their work to listen. I kept my knitting needle going, but I kept my ears open, and that's what I did, and I promise you I can see more now than when I came here.

Well, my laws didn't we have a good time, and when Julia trotted out the jar of berry juice and all hands had a good hot cup. Uncle Turtle probed the health of Uncle Eli, and all hands stood up, joined hands and sang:—
 "He's a jolly good fellow,
 He'll get there again when he'll try,
 He's only off on a holiday,
 There is not any green in his eye."
 Yours, etc.,
 MARY.

FOR BABY'S SKIN TROUBLE.
There are times in the life of nearly every child when Dr. Chase's Ointment proves itself a blessing. The tender skin chafes and is irritated by the clothing. Often times baby eczema develops from this very cause. In a dozen ways Dr. Chase's Ointment can be used to soothe and heal the skin and prevent suffering of the little one. No treatment is so well suited for this purpose and none so entirely satisfactory.

ness in raising his favourite dish, and after six months all he raised was eleven hundred and twenty-three dollars. Uncle Turtle told us that this great big little man then put on his white vest and puffing out his little stomach, with his thumbs in the sleeve holes of his vest he said, "Now, my work is done." But the best of the story is to come. He descended so low as to ask a Spaniard's Bay man to get up a petition requesting him to go back to his old position. Ye gods and little fishes (trout if ye like) what a gall he had to be sure, said Uncle Nath. I wonder what he thinks we are. He was not long fixing up the poor, that he told us he was going to do so much for. Don't forget John Pynn's bridge, said I; found this Uncle Turtle said hurrah for the Harbor-Grace woman. I had to tell them how a poor man and a hard-working man had his name dragged through the papers because he got $4 or $5 for putting a bridge across the drain to his home. They are all men up here except the women, and they are too good men to be bamboozled by a man who left his position to "help" the poor, and found the best subject for his pity under his own coat.

CHILD LIFE.

Its Beauty and Development, and Also Its Right.

BY I. C. MORRIS.

The world is full of beauty, and perfection is stamped upon all creation. In all things we see regularity and order, and whether we apply this statement to animate or inanimate creation the conditions are the same. Order and beauty are ever desirable, and he who governs his life by order will not go far astray, while he who loves beauty is certainly viewing life in its truer interpretation. While every department of nature displays beauty in a greater or lesser degree, there are nevertheless certain phases of it which do so in an especial manner. Thus it is that in the kingdom of flowers we find a world of beauty, and in the realm of home we have the same element; for flowers and children are part of earth's most beautiful heritage. Children are loved and admired by all classes of people, and whether it be in the hut of the savage, or the domicile of civilization, the child holds a place within the heart, and exerts an influence in the life, that no other stage of life could do. Childhood itself is a great trust, and it should be studied much more than it is, both mentally and physically. When the great Master of All was asked the question as to what should be great in His Kingdom, He answered the query by setting a child in the midst; and when at another time those same questioners would have turned the children away from Him, He reproved them by saying: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me." In Him they found a friend, and His attitude towards them and his words in their favour at once placed children and childhood upon a pedestal of favour and honour; and this principle has since found a ready response in the life and affection of universal Christianity. Of all stages of life childhood is the most important, for truly it is the plastic period, when the life and character may be moulded, and impressions made, which may tell for right or wrong in later years. Childhood is largely the age of confidence and implicit trust, for who that has studied the "questionings" of a child, and who that has looked into its confiding eyes, has not been led to wonder at its queries, and to feel the better of its confidence. Who can look into the eyes of a child without feeling a desire of being better, or without feeling that he has wandered from that simple life, which in faith and trust represents the child.

Childhood is not only a period of confidence and trust, but it also should be a period of freedom from undue mental strain; and this brings us to the question of education, and it reminds us that educational institutions are overstepping the mark, and are cramming the undeveloped faculties of childhood. It is not possible that young minds can retain so many branches of knowledge as are now being given them to learn. It was never meant that children who have not reached their teens should pore at night over lessons and problems which are too great for their mental development. We are certainly making a mistake here, and the result is being seen in the number of young persons, of both sexes, who are the victims of impaired sight. The child of to-day is studying branches of education that should not be taken up until they are fourteen or fifteen years of age. This practice is crushing the individuality out of them, and while it may give them a smattering of general knowledge, it fails to implant a more standard training. It certainly endangers the health of the body, while it is an undue strain upon the undeveloped mental faculties.

We do not mean this in any sense of fault finding whatever, we only state it as an opinion based upon close observation, and we state it for what it may be worth. As we have said in the beginning, in all nature we see order and development, so we hold the same should apply to child life. Children are the flowers of the home and the future of the nation; and of all the blessings that may fall to their lot, that of health is one of the best. If they go forth in life with a clear brain, a steady nerve, a quick perception, and a good common education, they will be better prepared for the battle, than if they did so with certificates and degrees, but with weakened vigour, with impaired sight, and shattered nerve. All cannot take upon a pedestal of favour and honour; and this principle has since found a ready response in the life and affection of universal Christianity. Of all stages of life childhood is the most important, for truly it is the plastic period, when the life and character may be moulded, and impressions made, which may tell for right or wrong in later years. Childhood is largely the age of confidence and implicit trust, for who that has studied the "questionings" of a child, and who that has looked into its confiding eyes, has not been led to wonder at its queries, and to feel the better of its confidence. Who can look into the eyes of a child without feeling a desire of being better, or without feeling that he has wandered from that simple life, which in faith and trust represents the child.

Childhood is not only a period of confidence and trust, but it also should be a period of freedom from undue mental strain; and this brings us to the question of education, and it reminds us that educational institutions are overstepping the mark, and are cramming the undeveloped faculties of childhood. It is not possible that young minds can retain so many branches of knowledge as are now being given them to learn. It was never meant that children who have not reached their teens should pore at night over lessons and problems which are too great for their mental development. We are certainly making a mistake here, and the result is being seen in the number of young persons, of both sexes, who are the victims of impaired sight. The child of to-day is studying branches of education that should not be taken up until they are fourteen or fifteen years of age. This practice is crushing the individuality out of them, and while it may give them a smattering of general knowledge, it fails to implant a more standard training. It certainly endangers the health of the body, while it is an undue strain upon the undeveloped mental faculties.

IN MEMORIAM.

JOHN F. O'REILLY.

Death is inevitable. Every day we see some one going to the churchyard from which he springs. The grim reaper respects neither age nor youth, or beauty. He lived so many years and died in the melancholy sum of everybody's history. It is the history of the beloved one whose death we chronicle to-day. The Angel of Death has laid his icy hand on another cherished ornament of the home. He has called a loved one to that land far beyond the clouds and beyond the tomb. This time the victim is John F. O'Reilly, eldest son of Albert W. O'Reilly, Water Street West.

The deceased had just completed his eighteenth year. He was of a happy and cheerful disposition and during his but too short career made many friends who will "sigh for the touch of a vanished hand, for the sound of a voice that is still."
 He was educated by the Christian Brothers, at the Holy Cross Schools. On his leaving school in the fall of 1908, the deceased began the battle of life as druggist at Mr. T. Kavanaugh's, Water Street. Here he endeavoured to do all things well. Faithfully he worked until last June when the "dread disease" of which he was the victim began to make inroads on his not over robust constitution. The best medical skill was obtained. It was of no avail. Slowly but surely he began to decline, but strengthened by faith he bore his illness patiently and cheerfully. His spirit left the prison of the body at 7 a.m. on Monday and winged its flight to its Creator from Whom it came.

His heart was pure, his thoughts noble. He was ever sincere, obliging, innocent and forgiving. His gentle manner showed forth his beauty of soul. Gratitude to those who laboured to instil into him virtue and knowledge, and loyalty to his Alma Mater, were not the least conspicuous of his traits of character. Had he lived much would be expected from the springtime of life. God's ways are not the ways of men. He severed this Bud which he saw could not bloom on earth and planted it in the everlasting Garden where it shall flourish for ever. The home is lonely without the eldest, the chair is vacant but he was wont to fill the room, in which he passed many hours of rest and often sweet communion with his God, in silent, his footsteps no longer heard in the hall. Still there is a consolation to the afflicted parents, one sister, and loving brothers, that he spirit lives on, that the Great Creator desired that this faithful worker in His vineyard should be at his hire ere he had borne the sad of his day. Death is not an end, at a beginning; a gain rather than a loss; a meeting, than a parting.

The death messenger whispers "Go, from earth." The Maker replies: "Come to Me." Death ends our woes. The kind grave shuts up the mournful scene. The departed spirit whispers in the ear:—
 "Grieve not for me, death happens unto all.
 My lot to-day, to-morrow you may fall."

PURE AS GATHERED.

Half and 1 lb. Packages.
 3, 6, and 10 lb. Tins.

Placentia Notes.

Mr. R. Phippard of the City Store, left for the city by Saturday's train on a vacation. Mr. E. P. Fitzgibbon is relieving him.

The S. S. Portia was here at 10 p.m. on Saturday going west.

The S. S. Argyle arrived from the west on Saturday bringing mails and passengers. She sails again after arrival of train to-day (Monday) for the Bay.

The S. S. Home arrived from Port aux Basques on Sunday morning bringing a large cargo of freight and quite a number of passengers, among whom there being Mr. J. Dee and Capt. J. Lewis.

We are sorry to hear of the injuries sustained by Mr. W. B. Fitzgerald. About a week ago while he was stepping from the ferry boat he slipped and fell, fracturing his left lung. His injuries although not very serious will confine him to his home for some time. But we hope it will not be many days before he will be around among us again. He is now in the city undergoing treatment.

Since last writing we were paid a visit by our well known friend Jack Frost, and in consequence all the ponds and lakes are entirely frozen over; we also had a heavy fall of snow, and this with the heavy frost makes great sleighing. A great number of people enjoyed Sunday sleighing.

The town Gut was entirely full of slob ice Sunday, and in consequence not many crossed during the day.

The subject that the members of the Debating Club of the S. S. A. took for discourse was: "Should the Development of Mines bring more wealth to the Colony than that of Agriculture?" The Affirmative side was nobly upheld by Messrs. J. Fitzgibbon (leader), J. Bindon, R. Keat and P. Kemp. While Messrs. T. Murphy (leader), E. Greene, J. Verran and T. Collins strongly supported the Negative side. A series of strong and convincing arguments were placed before the audience by both sides. Mr. Murphy who was leading the advocates of Agriculture, and Mr. Fitzgibbon who was leading for Mines, delivered strong and able speeches, and were well supported by the other speakers who acquitted themselves creditably. Some very good points were brought forth by the different speakers, especially by Mr. Bindon who, I can safely say, delivered the most convincing speech of all. On the chairman putting the question to vote it was found that the Negative won by a very large majority.

The chairman, Mr. W. F. O'Reilly, announced that the debates would cease for the present, as the committee wanted the hall to practise a play for St. Patrick's Day.

Capt. J. Lewis and Mr. J. Dee who were present, joined the orators, and in eloquent and masterly speeches addressed the audience. They spoke lengthily on the debate, remarking that they were glad to be present at such an interesting subject in Old Placentia.

Metal to Replace Aluminium.
A new light metal to supersede aluminium has been invented by a German scientist. It is called "electron," and is described as a magnesium alloy of silver-white color, which can be cast, wrought and polished and rapidly oxidizes. It is said to be considerably stronger and lighter than aluminium. The new metal is expected to be of great utility in the construction of airplanes, automobiles and scientific instruments.

Published by Authority

On recommendation of the Tuberculosis Commission, and under the provisions of Section 27, Cap. 46, Consolidated Statutes (Second Series), His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following Regulations respecting the Burial of Persons in St. John's:—
1. From and after the 15th day of February, 1910, no Sexton or other person or persons having charge of the Church of England, Roman Catholic, General Protestant or Salvation Army Cemeteries or burial places of St. John's, shall permit the burial of any person without first having received a burial permit, signed by the Registrar General of Births, Marriages and Deaths, under a penalty of Ten Dollars, or in default, Thirty days' imprisonment for each offence.
2. The Registrar General of Births, Marriages and Deaths shall not issue any burial permit without first having received a certificate, on a form to be issued by him, and signed by a registered Medical Practitioner, certifying to the death of the person for whom burial is required, and setting forth as far as is known the cause of death.
NOTE.—The Registrar General has supplied all Medical Practitioners with forms of Death Certificate. In the case of persons who have died without medical attendance, because of inability to pay for such services, the relatives or friends will apply to the Magistrate or Clerk of the Peace, who will arrange with a Medical Practitioner to issue the necessary certificate of death.
