

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Fiscal Years 2002/2003, 2003/2004 and 2004/2005
(as of March 12th, 2004)

Projects by Theme

- A- Protection of Civilians
- B- Peace Support Operations
- C- Conflict Prevention and Resolution
- D- Governance and Accountability
- E- Public Safety
- F- Policy Research and Communications

Projects by Geographic Area

- G- Africa
- H- Asia
- I - Europe and the Former Soviet Union (FSU)
- J- Latin America and the Caribbean
- K- Middle East
- L- Global
- M- Canada

Dept. of
 Min. Geo. & Surveying
 MAR 1 2007
 Return to Regional Library
 Referral & Information Services

17987174

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- | | |
|---|--|
| 03-216 Bilateral and Plurilateral Human Rights Symposium
 Canada, Norway and China: Human Rights, Humanitarian Affairs, International Women's Equality Division In April 1997, Minister Axworthy announced that Canada would expand its bilateral package of initiatives to foster greater respect for human rights in China. One of the activities announced in the package was a Canada-China Human Rights Plurilateral Symposium. Support from the Human Security Program will be used to cover direct conference costs as well as travel costs for participants from developing countries. | $50,000
 Approved |
| 03-136 Workshops on Cross-Regional Analysis of Gender, Armed Conflict, Peace Processes, and Reconstruction
 Feinstein International Famine Center, Tufts University, Medford, MA This project in Northern Uganda, South Sudan and Afghanistan will bring together research teams to develop a three-year, cross-regional, comparative study on the gender dimensions of peace processes, peace accords, and disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration (DDR) processes. | $49,854
 Approved |
| 03-281 Workshop on HIV/AIDS, Human Security, and Canadian Foreign Policy
 The North South Institute While the developmental and international health dimensions of HIV/AIDS have received a great deal of attention, the impact of the pandemic on foreign policy is only recently gaining attention. The North South Institute aims to fill this gap by conducting a two-day workshop to examine the foreign policy dimensions of HIV/AIDS, with a specific focus on human security. | $49,672.5
 On-going |
| 03-238 Women, Peace and Security Cross-Canada Roundtables
 YWCA of Canada The YMCA and the Canadian Committee on Women, Peace and Security will conduct a series of roundtable meetings across the country to engage Canadians in issues related to women, peace and security. Through these discussions the Committee aims to empower local groups to develop concrete strategies for the implementation of Security Council Resolution 1325. | $49,950
 On-going |
| 03-212 Impunity: Workshop on Best Practices to Combat Impunity
 United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (UN OHCHR), Geneva, Switzerland The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) engaged an expert to prepare an independent study on best practices to combat impunity. The study will be submitted to the UN Commission on Human Rights in March 2004. | $25,080
 On-going |
| 03-201 Experts Meeting on Mandate of Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women
 Office of the UN Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women A workshop of ten international experts will discuss the mandate of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women, its causes and consequences. The discussion will seek to identify priority areas for advancing the Special Rapporteur's mandate by preparing a very strategic and focussed plan of action for the next three years. | $30,000
 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- | | |
|--|---|
| 03-191 "New Approaches to Asylum: Reconciling Individual Rights and State Interests"
 A Special Issue of Refuge, Canada's Periodical on Refugees
 Centre for Refugee Studies, York University The Centre for Refugee Studies, York University will publish a Special Issue of Refuge exploring the theme: New Approaches to Asylum: Reconciling Individual Rights and State Interests. This issue will aim to stimulate discussion among human security scholars and policy makers. | $19,500

On-going |
| 03-165 Meeting of National Commissions for the Implementation of International Humanitarian Law in America
 International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) with the cooperation of the Organization of American States (OAS) The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) will gather the 14 inter-ministerial commissions of implementation of international humanitarian law active in the Americas, including Peru, as well as OAS member States interested in establishing such commission, for a critical discussion on their functioning and role as advisory bodies to their respective governments. | $15,000

On-going |
| 03-164 Children's Rights Project
 Early Childhood Resource Centre (ECRC) Jerusalem The Early Childhood Resource Centre will undertake a project to raise awareness of the importance of children's rights in the Palestinian Territories. This initiative aims to strengthen the early childhood development sector through the provision of high-quality materials on the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child and training to promote children's rights in the West Bank. | $52,500

On-going |
| 03-157 Impunity: Independent Expert's Study for OHCHR
 United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, Geneva, Switzerland The study, which will include recommendations for appropriate follow-up will be submitted to the Commission at its sixtieth session in 2004. The independent expert will liaise with the OHCHR Secretariat and will conduct electronic consultations with international government organizations, non-governmental organizations and other interlocutors in various geographic areas to support international efforts. | $42,000

On-going |
| 03-150 Legal Internet Library pertaining to Human Rights aspects of life in Israeli Occupied Territories.
 HaMoked: Center for the Defence of the Individual HaMoked, an Israeli human rights organization, will establish a legal and human rights internet data base for use by those engaged in the defense of human rights in the West Bank, the Gaza Strip and East Jerusalem. | $110,000

On-going |
| 03-138 The Responsibility to Protect: Building an NGO Role
 The World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy This project is intended to contribute to the development of stronger norms to ensure that the international community responds earlier and more effectively to emerging situations involving the potential for large scale loss of life; and to generate debate about these issues among civil society actors, and increase their capacity to play a role in encouraging effective international response. | $45,000

On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- 03-111 Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict: Humanitarian Challenges in Latin America $161,200
UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), Policy Development and Studies Branch (POC Unit) On-going
- This workshop will focus on countries in Latin America with the aim to engage them on the humanitarian challenges relating to the protection of civilians in situations of armed conflict and regional strategies for addressing them.
- 03-109 Developing a Strategic Vision and Action Plan for Advancing LGBT Human Rights Internationally $80,000
ARC (Allied Rainbow Communities) International On-going
- ARC International will bring together leaders within and outside of existing international organizations to build an international network of organizations and individuals committed to monitoring Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered (LGBT) human rights, identifying mechanisms for strengthening protection against these abuses, and to work together to develop and maintain international human rights standards for LGBT people. Eventually, it is hoped that this network will help shape the discussion at the 2004 Commission on Human Rights to advance LGBT human rights internationally.
- 03-085 Fighting Impunity in Venezuela - (A Step Against Impunity) $35,000
COFAVIC On-going
- The Comité de Familiares Víctimas de los Sucesos de Febrero y Marzo de 1989 (COFAVIC) will sensitize key sectors of the society about the protection and promotion of human rights and encourage communities to adopt the principles and obligations of human rights and democratic values.
- 03-049 Strengthening Protection of Women Migrant Workers in a Globalized World - Training the Trainers $80,000
Canadian Human Rights Foundation On-going
- The Canadian Human Rights Foundation in partnership with the Asia-Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development in Thailand, the Asian Migrant Centre in Hong Kong and the Ateneo Human Rights Centre in the Philippines will develop a specialized training for trainers manual and workshop for participants from South, Southeast and East Asia. The purpose of the manual and workshop is to create greater awareness about the plight of women migrant workers.
- 03-038 Reach Out $169,000
International Federation of Red Cross Societies On-going
- Aimed at improving the rights and well-being of refugees, the Reach Out project will continue to provide training to non-governmental organizations', Red Cross/Red Crescent and other international and local humanitarian agencies field staff and incite these actors to assess their ability to protect refugees and to identify shortcomings, missed opportunities, and areas for future joint action.
- 03-026 Searching for Justice: Comprehensive Action in the Face of Atrocities $70,000
York University On-going
- Experts and practitioners will share their experiences and identify lessons learned and best practices in terms of remedies for genocide, war crimes and crimes against humanity. The conference will also investigate ways to achieve better justice for the victims of these crimes.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| 03-025 East Timor's Special Panels for Serious Crimes | $114,897 |
| American University Washington, College of Law War Crimes Research Office | On-going |
| The Special Panels are responsible for prosecuting the perpetrators of grave violations of international and national law committed in East Timor. This research and training initiative will enhance the effectiveness of this institution by directly providing legal research services, as well as legal research training for the judges and staff of the Panels. | |
| 02-197 The United Nations Human Rights Treaty Information Service | $50,000 |
| York University, Principal Investigator Professor Anne Bayefsky | On-going |
| This project will create and maintain a comprehensive and user-friendly information base about UN international human rights treaties and develop an online advocacy tool for the attainment of rights by individuals in all parts of the world. | |
| 02-178 Building Bridges to Marginalized Youth in Central Eurasia: Conflict Prevention through Alternatives to Extremism | $147,780 |
| Street Kids International (SKI) | On-going |
| This project will foster effective policy debate among government authorities, civil society leaders and international donors regarding the needs of marginalized youth. It will pave the way for a multiyear program within the youth service sectors of Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan, and promote the inclusion of youth in the long-term development of civil society in their countries. | |
| 02-142 The Magazine Project (Searching for the Truth) | $57,600 |
| The Documentation Center of Cambodia | On-going |
| The Documentation Center of Cambodia continued and expanded publication of Searching for the Truth, a magazine aimed at creating a forum for public engagement and debate on issues related to the Khmer Rouge era with particular emphasis on missing persons. | |
| 02-129 Psycho-social support to war affected children through creative activity workshops | $30,970 |
| War Child Netherlands - Sudan Office | On-going |
| This project helps war-affected children to cope with their sometimes-traumatic experiences by applying creative activities with therapeutic components. | |
| 02-097 Global IDP Project | $210,000 |
| Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) | On-going |
| Launched by the Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) the project focuses on the protection needs of the world's internally displaced by making accurate information available through the Internet and publications. The Global IDP project also offers field-based training workshops on the UN Guiding Principles on Internal Displacement. | |
| 02-052 Repatriation and Social Reintegration of Honduran Street Children | $200,000 |
| International Organization for Migration and Covenant House (IOM) (Casa Alianza) | On-going |
| A pilot project that aims to repatriate and reintegrate Honduran street children who have been trafficked to Canada and the United States. The main objective of the project is to contribute to the protection of the human rights of Honduran street children living in Vancouver and children at risk of falling victim to trafficking. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- 01-105 Brookings-SAIS Project on Internal Displacement $480,000
The Brookings Institution and The School of Advanced International Studies
On-going
This project supports efforts to identify ways to improve protection and assistance to the world's forcibly displaced. Country missions and dialogues with governments of affected countries will be conducted, as will research into emerging new areas.
- 01-060 Watchlist on Children and Armed Conflict $252,000
Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children and World Vision
On-going
World Vision Canada and the Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children will set up an international NGO network which will monitor conflict areas, report on specific cases and do the appropriate follow-up.
- 03-106 Canadian Government Pamphlet to Prevent People Trafficking - Printing $18,975
Department of Justice
Completed
Printing and production costs of 18,000 copies of this pamphlet. These, along with and existing 30,000 pamphlets, will be shipped to foreign missions and local community groups. The pamphlet will be available in 14 different languages and in PDF format as well.
- 03-024 Best Practices in Combating Trafficking of Minors in the Baltic Sea Region $10,196.63
Council of Baltic Sea States/Children's Unit
Completed
This conference addressed issues of victim assistance and rehabilitation, prevention, anti-trafficking legislation, interdiction efforts and demand reduction. This gathering brought together working-level government officials and NGO representatives to analyse each issue. Human Security Program funds were used to ensure Russian and Baltic participation.
- 03-008 Promotion and Implementation of the Robben Island Guidelines to Prevent Torture in Africa $76,885
Association for the Prevention of Torture (APT)
Completed
The Association for the Prevention of Torture (APT) published and distributed a booklet containing the Robben Island Guidelines; participated in two sessions of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) for 2003; and attended a two-day consultation and planning meeting of members of the Follow-up Committee to draw up an effective three-year program of activities for the promotion and the implementation of the Guidelines. Finally, the APT began the process of regular reporting to the African Commission, under the new agenda item on prevention of torture, based on the Robben Island Guidelines.
- 02-203 Canadian Government Pamphlet to Prevent People Trafficking - Translation $17,513
Gilmore Printing
Completed
With the aim of helping countries to prevent and suppress the trafficking of human beings, a Government of Canada Pamphlet was created to be used by Canadian missions to protect Canadian citizens abroad and by other governments to protect their own citizens. It is also to be used as a basis for regional meetings on enhancing trafficking prevention cooperation.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- 02-163 Academic and Research Support for Canada's Follow-up Efforts on The Responsibility to Protect $24,700
The Ralph Bunche Institute of International Studies, the Graduate Centre, City University of New York Completed
- An important element of Canada's follow-up efforts on advancing the Report of the International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty includes the discussion and dissemination of the report in the main academic fora. This project builds on the vital contribution made by the academic community to the report by monitoring the agendas of various conferences, encouraging/arranging discussion of the Responsibility to Protect, and promoting the participation of subject matter experts, including former ICISS commissioners.
- 02-155 Human Rights Training of Journalists in Ghana and Côte d'Ivoire $40,475.34
Journalists for Human Rights (JHR) Completed
- Journalists for Human Rights focused on building the capacity of journalists by transferring knowledge about human rights from Canadian experts to African journalists and journalism institutions through training programs. JHR also worked to ensure that African journalists have a forum for expressing their views about human rights through the creation of monthly newspaper supplements about human rights issues.
- 02-147 Symposium on Humanitarian Law and International Relations $22,500
The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) - Delegation in Syria Completed
- The ICRC brought Syrian Government officials, diplomats, academics, legal professionals and civil society representatives together for a two day symposium on 'International Humanitarian Law and International Relations' with an aim to promote understanding of the necessity of national measures to enforce the legal protection of civilians.
- 02-139 Women, Peace and Security $44,034
Julie Shouldice / Jodie McGrath Completed
- A Government Coordinator was employed to assist the Chair and the subcommittee Chairs in the strategic direction of their work, and ensure that their positions, proposals, and messaging remained in line with those of the government.
- 02-136 Human Rights Educational Project $50,000
The International Institute Beit Berl Completed
- This project brought together Arab-Israeli, Jewish-Israeli and Palestinian students for a series of inter-community dialogue activities in a non-political and non-threatening setting. The aim was to facilitate an on-going dialogue to overcome negative stereotypes and attitudes, and work toward the achievement of a joint human rights declaration to be presented at the Knesset and the Palestinian Legislative Council.
- 02-121 Annual Parliamentary Forum of Parliamentarians for Global Action: ICISS $100,000
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) Completed
- This event, held in Ottawa, November 4-6, 2002, brought together Parliamentarians from around the world for three days of discussions and consultations. Highlights of the event included a special session devoted specifically to the role of Parliamentarians in promoting States' responsibility to protect.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- 02-120 Seminar on Women and Society $26,300
Etana Press Completed
- Two two-day seminars to explore the issue of women's rights in the Arab world. These discussions resulted in the compilation of recommendations and proposals targeting governments and civil society in the region.
- 02-107 Protection of Civilians Workshops (OCHA) $230,000
Institute for Security Studies (ISS) Completed
- Part of a series of regional workshops, organised by Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) and the South African Institute for Security Studies, the meeting focused on the practical application of Security Council resolutions, and the issue of protecting civilians in armed conflict more broadly. The workshops targeted government officials, parliamentarians, academic institutions and NGOs in southern Africa.
- 02-099 Children's Forum $150,000
United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) Completed
- A three day Children's Forum for members of governmental and accredited NGO delegations under the age of 18, who attended the Special Session of the General Assembly on Children.
- 02-095 Youth Mine Action Ambassador Program (YMAP) $75,000
Canadian Red Cross (CRC), Mines Action Canada (MAC) and Mine Action Team (ILX) Completed
- Support to Youth Mine Action Ambassador Program (YMAAP) to build public support for involvement in Canadian initiatives around the Ottawa Convention banning antipersonnel landmines. YMAAP programming included activities such as presenting interactive exhibits on Canada's efforts in mine action at major regional exhibitions and events.
- 02-075 Facilitating the Human Rights and Citizenship Rights of Afro Peruvians $15,000
MATCH International Completed
- A public education campaign raising awareness among the Peruvian authorities and population of the situation of African-Peruvians, particularly women.
- 02-071 State-Building: Operationalizing "The Responsibility to Protect" in the United Nations System $60,000
International Peace Academy Completed
- The project explored how the UN's involvement in state-building missions (e.g. Kosovo, East Timor, Afghanistan) is contributing to the transformation of accepted norms of state sovereignty, a fundamental issue tacked in The Responsibility to Protect.
- 02-058 International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty (ICISS) Follow-up $652,000
DFAIT/AGDC ICISS Secretariat Completed
- Based on the ICISS Report, this "follow-up phase" continued to work toward an international consensus by UN members on the responsibility to protect.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 02-050 Promoting Migrant Rights in Dominican Republic
International Organization for Migration (IOM) | $100,000
Completed |
| This project is the first phase of a wider International Organisation for Migration (IOM) strategy to strengthen government and civil society structures dealing with migration in the country, thereby ensuring improved migration management and respect of migrant and citizen rights. | |
| 02-033 Young People's Involvement in the 2002 UN special Session on Children
Save the Children Canada (SCC) | $26,806
Completed |
| Save the Children Canada organized the involvement of Canadian youth in the Special Session. The youth were part of the official Canadian delegation and participated in dialogue and discussions including the drafting of a new global agenda for children. | |
| 02-031 Legal Protection for Journalists and Media Ethics
Centre for Defending Freedom of Journalists (CDFJ) | $71,062.5
Completed |
| The Centre for Defending the Freedom of Journalists (CDFJ) sought to empower Arab and Jordanian journalists facing legal challenges to their reporting, through a series of workshops. Addressed the issue of legal protection from both the perspective of journalists as well as lawyers involved in media cases. | |
| 02-013 Child to Child Peace and Conflict Resolution
Fellowship for African Relief (FAR) | $48,922.31
Completed |
| Fellowship for African Relief (FAR) helped develop and build a culture of peace among children in internally displaced camps and schools in Sudan through the use of Child-to-Child peace and conflict resolution. | |
| 01-198 Afghanistan/Pakistan Project
International Crisis Group (ICG) | $72,000
Completed |
| This project supported the preparation of three field reports on Afghanistan and Kashmir. The aim of these reports is to provide policy makers with timely analysis of issues related to conflict and peacebuilding in Afghanistan, Pakistan and India, and to offer detailed policy recommendations. | |
| 01-045 Human Rights and Armed Forces of Paraguay
Inter American Institute of Human Rights (IIDH) | $80,000
Completed |
| This Inter American Institute of Human Rights (IIDH) in Costa Rica initiative aided the ongoing democratization of Paraguay by developing and implementing a specialized educational framework in order to instill a culture of respect for human rights in the armed forces. | |
| 01-035 Youth Advisory Council
UN: Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict | $50,000
Completed |
| The Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General on Children and Armed Conflict set-up a Youth Advisory Council where children are able to share their experiences, to support and learn from one another, and to act as advocates for the millions of young people who suffer from the effects of war. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Protection of Civilians

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| 01-033 Sudan Psycho social Centre for Children | $59,278.42 |
| Enfants du Monde - Droits de L'Homme (EMDH) | Completed |
| Enfants du Monde's Psycho-Social Centre for Children has provided on-going training programs for community centre staff, who serve over 200 vulnerable, displaced and previously imprisoned children. The staff received training in areas of psycho-social recovery, basic health, reintegration issues, children's protection, human rights, the rights of the child, and inter-ethnic relationships. | |
| 00-069 Appui à la recherche pour le compte de l'ouvrage L'Action humanitaire internationale du Canada | $30,000 |
| Université de Laval | Completed |
| Two professionals from Laval University and the Pearson Centre published a book entitled "Canadian International Humanitarian Action". It analyzes the depth of the multiplication and complexity of actions linked to Canada's humanitarian action, as well as the promotion of Canadian know-how and commitment in the area of humanitarian action. | |
| 00-016 Trafficking in Human Beings in West Africa | $100,000 |
| The United Nations Centre for International Crime Prevention (CICP) | Completed |
| The aims of the project were to increase existing levels of information on trafficking, strengthen institutional capacity and facilitate data collection on missing persons. The formulation of policies and practical recommendations resulted in stronger joint action against transnational organized criminal groups involved in the trafficking of human beings. It also contributed to a better cooperation among key agencies in the countries of origin, transit and destination. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Peace Support Operations

- 03-272 Field Advisor to Support National Preparations for DDR, Sudan $174,705
United Nations Development Program - UNDP Approved
- This project will fund the deployment of a Canadian DDR expert to the UNDP for the period of one year. The Canadian expert will assist in the development of key preparatory activities required for: effective multi-agency support to DDR; enhanced national capacities to plan for and implement DDR programs; and, reintegration, reconciliation and community-based weapons reduction.
- 03-246 Canada-UK Policy Options Paper on the Consolidation of Peace in Africa $40,000
Centre for International Studies, University of Oxford Approved
- This project (through research and consultative roundtables involving scholars and practitioners) will result in the development of a policy options paper evaluating existing arrangements for the consolidation of peace in Africa and offer recommendations as to how relevant international institutional arrangements might be strengthened.
- 03-276 Executive Seminar in Peace Operations $48,000
Pearson Peacekeeping Centre On-going
- This project will fund the delivery of a Peace Operations Course to students at the Inter-America Defence College (IADC) in Washington D.C. from February 9-20, 2004. The goal of the course is to enhance operational effectiveness of participants who will consider and plan for participation in modern complex peace operations.
- 03-200 Strengthening the Governance Mechanisms for the AU/ECOWAS Standby Forces $18,100
Multi-National Standby High Readiness Brigade for UN Operations (SHIRBRIG) On-going
- The goal of this project is to assist two African senior officials in establishing similar governing mechanisms for the proposed African standby brigades at the regional and sub-regional level through their attendance at the 20th meeting of the Steering Committee to be held in Copenhagen, Denmark.
- 03-073 Canadian Forces Verification of Russian Ammunition and Military Equipment being withdrawn from Moldova $40,000
Department of National Defence On-going
- The Department of National Defence will deploy expert members of its Verification Agency to lead a Canadian-Belgian NATO inspection team to observe the return to Russian territory of Russian military weapons, ammunitions and equipment from former military bases in the region of Transdnistria, Moldova.
- 03-063 African Secondment to the SHIRBRIG $76,000
SHIRBRIG On-going
- The Planning Element (PLANELM) of SHIRBRIG will provide "on the job" training for an African officer for five months, from August 2003 to December 2003. The candidate will learn or enhance his/her knowledge to plan and mount peacekeeping operations. This knowledge could be used to assist the candidates' home country to become a SHIRBRIG nation or to help facilitate the creation of another Standby High Readiness Brigade.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Peace Support Operations

03-021	Faire la paix - concepts et pratiques de la consolidation de la paix - Presses de l'Université Laval	$30,000
	Équipe éditoriale: Faire la paix - Concepts et pratiques de la consolidation de la paix Yvan CONOIR, Centre Pearson pour le maintien de la paix / Gérard VERNA, Université Laval Funding will be provided to publish a book that will examine the evolution of the concept of peacebuilding during the last ten years both from a Canadian and international perspective. Articles will focus on the experiences and initiatives of Canadian practitioners involved in peacebuilding, as well as an overview of CIDA's and DFAIT's peacebuilding programs.	On-going
03-002	CANADEM Core Funding CANADEM	$499,990.39
	CANADEM is roster of Canadian experts available for deployment to international operations. CANADEM will continue to identify skilled and experienced Canadians for international human-security oriented field missions.	On-going
02-199	Deployment of a Canadian Forces Officer as the Military Advisor to the Special Representative to the Secretary General for West Africa DND and DFAIT	$40,000
	Senior Military Liaison Officer to the UN Special Representative of the Secretary-General (SRSG) for West Africa will assist the SRSG with the implementation of the October 2002 International Court of Justice ruling on the Bakassi border dispute between Nigeria and Cameroon. He will also provide military advice in developing confidence building measures, and recommendations for possible military observers or peacekeepers.	On-going
03-119	Peace Operations Capacity-Building for South America Pearson Peacekeeping Centre	$28,122.85
	Twelve Latin American participants attended the course 'The Humanitarian Challenge: Refugees and Displaced Populations', offered by the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre.	Completed
03-108	Partners in Peacekeeping: Logistics Support Issues of the United Nations and Troop Contributing Countries International Peace Academy (IPA)	$25,142
	The International Peace Academy and the United Nations Department of Peacekeeping Operations organised a seminar entitled 'Partners in Peacekeeping: Logistics Support Issues of the United Nations and Troop Contributing Countries (TCCs)'. The aim of this seminar was to strengthen the partnership between the UN and TCCs in order to improve operational readiness and strengthen the ability of African TCCs to provide effective peacekeeping logistics support.	Completed
03-107	Symposium on Confidence and Cooperation in South Asian Waters Pendragon Applied Research	$30,023.61
	Dalhousie University hosted two meetings with naval personnel from India and Pakistan aimed at building confidence and establishing concrete measures to prevent incidents at sea in disputed South Asia waters.	Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Peace Support Operations

- | | | |
|---------------|--|--------------------|
| 03-100 | Capacity Building for Middle East Peace: Middle East Participants in the Peace Operations Summer Institute (POSI) | $25,577.74 |
| | POSI - Acadia University, the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) and the Royal Military College of Canada (RMC) | Completed |
| | A total of five participants from the Middle East were brought to the Peace Operations Summer Institute (POSI) in Wolfville, Nova Scotia from June 8 -20 to build the capacity of the respective individuals to contribute effectively to peace support operations. | |
| 03-076 | IRAQ Assessment Mission | $69,125.54 |
| | Canadian Justice and Corrections Associated Experts | Completed |
| | The coalition Office of Reconstruction and Humanitarian Affairs (ORHA) is taking the lead role in Iraqi reconstruction activities. Canada deployed experts from justice and corrections to the ORHA security sector assessment mission, for its duration. | |
| 03-040 | Israeli-Palestinian Seminar on International Presence | $50,000 |
| | The Economic Cooperation Foundation (ECF) | Completed |
| | Akin to our appreciated approach to the Refugee issue, Canada has been working with Israeli and Palestinian partners to develop mutually-agreed upon and operationally feasible approaches to an international presence in the Middle East. Such a mechanism is increasingly seen as a necessary component for stabilisation of the situation and forward movement towards a peace agreement. | |
| 02-198 | Program for Briefing and Debriefing special Representatives and Envoys of the Secretary General | $100,000 |
| | United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) | Completed |
| | The Program for Briefing and Debriefing Special Representatives and Envoys of the UN Secretary General (SRSG) prepared SRSGs more systematically for their duties on peace missions and to preserve and pass on valuable lessons and experience shared by previous SRSGs to refine and enhance UN peace operations. | |
| 02-185 | Hemispheric Peace Operations Scholarship Programme | $26,487.23 |
| | Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) | Completed |
| | Seven Latin American participants attended the course The Hard Road Home: Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR) in Peace Operations, offered by the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre. | |
| 02-179 | Support to the Second High Level Meeting on the Special Security Concerns of Small Island States. | $45,000 |
| | Organization of American States (OAS) | Completed |
| | Support for a Second High Level Meeting to ensure that island states arrive at the Special Conference on Security in Mexico, May 2003, with a common position on security issues. The objectives of the conference included: producing a declaration on the security concerns of small island states, formulating recommendations to the Special Conference in May, and the adoption of a security management model. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Peace Support Operations

02-069 Expert Deployment Capacity Building Pearson Peacekeeping Centre	$43,000 Completed
Funding was provided for consultations with national and international stakeholders on best practices and recommendations for an integrated Canadian Expert Deployment Mechanism.
02-068 Sierra Leone Special Court (Planning Mission) RCMP	$100,000 Completed
The Sierra Leone Special Court will try "those who bear the greatest responsibility" for committing crimes against humanity, war crimes and serious violations of Sierra Leonean law. It will apply to crimes committed from November 30, 1996 onward. This Court is the world's first ever "hybrid" criminal tribunal, applying both international and domestic laws, and employing both international and domestic staff and judges.
02-066 CANADEM Core Funding Canadian Resource Bank for Democracy and Human Rights (CANADEM)	$500,000 Completed
Support to CANADEM, a successful and cost-effective roster of Canadian experts available for deployment to international peace support operations.
02-016 Nuba Mountains Pearson Peacekeeping Centre	$213,260 Completed
The project supported the deployment of trainers from the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) to Sudan to begin induction training of Sudanese and international verifiers/monitors of the international cease fire verification mission.
01-228 Afghanistan Surge Capacity CANADEM	$23,300 Completed
CANADEM assembled expert lists of Afghan-Canadians (in partnership with South Asia Partnership) and Canadian regional and substantive experts (human rights, civil affairs, gender advisors, rule of law, etc.)
01-097 The Impact on Human Security of HIV/AIDS in South Asian Militaries Centre for South Asian Studies, King's College, University of London	$50,000 Completed
This project examined the critical effects of HIV/AIDS on the armed forces in South Asia - Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka - and the concomitant impact on the civilian populations.

3

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 03-133 Women, Peace and Security Roundtables -Sri Lanka: A Storm in the Teacup $50,000
South Asia Partnership Canada Approved
- A series of Roundtables will be held across Canada in Vancouver, Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa inviting female participants from Sinhala, Tamil and Muslim communities to express their perspectives and opinions about women's role in the Sri Lanka peace process. The Roundtables will create an opportunity for these women living in Canada to participate in consultations regarding the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 in Sri Lanka.
- 03-005 Gender Perspectives on Small Arms Proliferation $60,000
United Nations University (UNU); University of Cape Town (UCT); Small Arms Survey Approved
- This project will focus on mainstreaming gender perspectives into academic, policy and UN-specific discussions on small arms reduction. The information generated by this project will be compiled in a book-length manuscript, aimed at academics, activists and policy-makers.
- 03-244 University of Alberta's International Week 2004 $20,000
International Centre, University of Alberta International, University of Alberta On-going
- The Week consists of over 50 events sponsored by student groups, University centres, governmental and non-governmental organizations. Events will focus on issues of conflict, human security and peacebuilding in a globalized and unipolar world.
- 03-220 Workshop for Increased Advocacy for Peace and Justice in Northern Uganda, $6,780
Human Rights and Peace Centre (HURIPEC) in Partnership with Liu Institute, University of British Columbia On-going
- The Coalition for Peace and Justice in Northern Uganda will organize three local-level public dialogues in Northern Uganda to discuss Human Rights Reports and develop advocacy strategies; implement a national conference to identify advocacy strategies; organize an international delegation of six representatives from Northern Uganda to visit and meet with the Commonwealth, the Government of Canada, the United Nations, and US Congress to advocate for recommendations stemming from research and participatory input at local dialogues and the national conferences; and finally produce and disseminate two papers.
- 03-190 Research on Reintegration of Ex-combatants and Land Issues in Angola $60,970
Development Workshop - Angola On-going
- Development Workshop will conduct a field study of six communities in Huambo Province to determine how demobilized soldiers and their families gain access to land, the mechanisms through which land is allocated and difficulties in establishing rights to land within the context of demobilization and reintegration. The results of the research will be disseminated through policy proposals, an official report and a public forum.
- 03-189 Conflict Resolution, Radio Listening Groups, West Darfur State in Sudan $18,028.15
Al Massar Charity Organization for Nomads Development and Environmental Conservation (MONEC) On-going
- The aim of the project is to deliver independent information to the public in Darfur through radio broadcasts. The project proposes to broadcast 72 radio programs over a 9-month period on the topics of conflict resolution, small arms proliferation, human rights and gender and conflict to a mixed audience in west Darfur.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 03-188 Les femmes, des instruments de paix: Collectif sur la paix la militarisation $50,000
Marche mondiale des femmes / World March of Women / Marcha Mundial de las Mujeres On-going
- La Marche mondiale des femmes propose de réunir le Collectif à une reprise pour planifier les interventions de la Marche mondiale des femmes; identifier les propositions à mettre de l'avant pour assurer une application de la résolution 1325 du Conseil de sécurité de l'ONU; et assurer la participation des femmes dans les processus de paix au niveau local et sur la scène internationale.
- 03-181 Federalism in Sri Lanka $100,000
The Forum of Federations On-going
- The Forum of Federations and South Asia Partnership Canada are working with the negotiating parties and the Sri Lankan community in Canada to support and encourage good governance. Critical areas of focus include: accountability, transparency, the sharing of resources and decision-making, and the promotion of the role of women in this process.
- 03-178 Citizens of the World Project $50,000
United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) On-going
- UNRWA will utilize 'popular theater methodology' in its peace education efforts to develop within Palestinian children in refugee camps in Syria a self-awareness as valuable contributors to the global community rather than limiting their identification as mere participants or victims of the Arab-Israeli conflict.
- 03-175 The Human Security Network and Small Arms: Consolidating and Agenda for Action II $200,000
The Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (HDC) and Human Security Network On-going
- This process will culminate in a publication "Putting People First: Human Security Perspectives on Small Arms Availability," which will call for people-centred measures including public health interventions, restraint in arms transfers, community-based policing and increased attention to gender-based violence.
- 03-163 Canadian Conflict Prevention Initiative $49,950
Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee/Peacefund Canada On-going
- The CPCC is creating the Canadian Conflict Prevention Initiative. This will include the formation of a North American Steering Group, a North American Preparatory Meeting, and a Canadian Conflict Prevention survey. This initiative will develop Canadian civil society capacity to work with partners regionally and globally to enhance conflict prevention practices.
- 03-162 A World Without Arms: Disarmament Education Programme Lesson Units on Small Arms and Light Weapons and Human Security $39,236
United Nations Association in Canada (UNA-Canada) On-going
- UNA-Canada is developing a Disarmament Education Project intended for secondary school grades. This project will focus on the development of teaching resources on the human security aspects of small arms and light weapons, landmines, weapons of mass destruction. The goal is to increase the level of knowledge and engagement among students across Canada on issues of disarmament, non-proliferation and human security.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 03-151 Women Facilitators Course: Empowering Leaders of Dialogue and Coexistence $109,240
The Jewish-Arab Center for Peace at Givat Haviva On-going
The Jewish-Arab Center for Peace at Givat Haviva will conduct an eighteen month course to advance the social, political and cultural involvement of 24 Israeli women from the Jewish, Druze, Muslim and Christian communities in an effort to promote Jewish-Arab co-existence.
- 03-144 A Baseline Assessment of Existing Codes and Guidelines Addressing Business and Conflict $25,000
International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD) and International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED) On-going
The project will focus on identifying the range of emerging non legally-binding norms (expressed through voluntary codes/guidelines and management tools/systems) that address the role of businesses in conflict, and their linkages to third party accountability mechanisms outside the businesses themselves.
- 03-120 Joint UNDP-DPA Initiative on Building National Capacity for Conflict Prevention $500,000
Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery, United Nations Development Programme; United Nations Department of Political Affairs (UNDP) On-going
The Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) will assist UN Country Teams and national actors (governments and civil society) in 6 crisis countries in building their capacity for the peaceful settlement of potentially violent disputes, and to further ensure that conflict prevention is integrated into UN programming mechanisms on the ground.
- 03-105 Building Human Security in the Horn of Africa: Confronting the Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW) Challenge $200,000
Project Ploughshares/The Africa Peace Forum (APFO) On-going
This follow-up project aims to engage governments and civil society at the national and regional levels, in support of the implementation of the Nairobi Declaration on small arms (endorsed by the states in the Horn of Africa and the Great Lakes Region in March 2000). Through research and engagement with all relevant stakeholders (i.e. informed dialogue) in the Horn of Africa region, the project will draw out lessons from implementation experience, and begin to develop a human security approach to the problem within the region.
- 03-104 Community Policing, Enhancing Safety and Reducing the Proliferation of Small Arms in Kenya $50,000
SaferWorld On-going
Saferworld aims to launch community-based policing project in Kenya to increase community safety and reduce the proliferation and misuse of small arms by transforming the culture of the Kenya Police and building trust between the police and local communities. The project's main components are developing a new national policy on community-based policing; training and capacity-building for police officers and civil society representatives; implementing community-based policing at two pilot sites; public education and media awareness-raising; institution-building; and strategic management.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

03-101 Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific Canada Membership Committee (CSCAP-Canada) Centre of International Relations, University of British Columbia Funding for Canada's participation in the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific (CSCAP) network for the period 1 June 2003 to 31 March 2005.	$196,785 On-going
03-098 Focusing the Demand Agenda: Research on Crucial Steps to Lessen Small Arms Demand Quaker United Nations Office, Geneva The Quaker United Nation Office, Geneva, aims to encourage more international support for the demand agenda of the small arms issue by undertaking a two-year process to define and publicize the most crucial aspects of the demand side. The central product of this program will be a new comprehensive publication that consolidates research findings and, in turn, serves as the basis for the promotion of new international policy on demand issues.	$149,500 On-going
03-097 Aiming for Prevention: International Health Campaign on Small Arms and War Prevention Physicians for Global Survival, Canada (PGS) and International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW) This Campaign will organize health professionals concerned with the prevention of death and injuries from small arms, and will add an informed public health perspective to the debate on small arms policy and programs. Activities will include raising awareness and foster dialogue among and between the medical and public health communities through educational materials, forums, web dialogues and other facilitated communications; obtaining statements and commitments of support from medical agencies and Health Ministries, and contributing fact-based advocacy to government policy forums and collaborate with NGOs in this area, most notably the International Action Network on Small Arms.	$110,000 On-going
03-080 Women, Security and South Asia: Developing Strategy for Regions of Conflict South Asia Partnership - SAP Canada South Asia Partnership will bring together selected South Asian activists, advocates, academics, journalist and conflict survivors in Colombo, Sri Lanka in February 2004 for a 3-day consultation to discuss issues of concern, to share experiences, and draft a common 'Plan of Action' for peace and security in the region.	$80,000 On-going
03-077 Strengthening the Institutional and Organizational Capacities of the Women Centres in Southern Sudan Sudanese Women Empowerment for Peace (SUWEP) To enhance the capacity of women in civil society to participate effectively in the peace process, SUWEP proposes to strengthen the regional women's centres through networking, capacity building and awareness raising. Specific activities include training facilitators in Nairobi to conduct a peace and civic education awareness raising campaign among women; creating a resource manual; conducting regional workshops; and organizing work parties to maintain the women's centres.	$50,000 On-going
03-074 Wider Horizons Programme International Fund for Ireland Twenty-two weeks of vocational and conflict resolution training in Ireland followed by a ten week internship in Canada for disadvantaged youth between the ages of 18 and 28 living in Ireland.	$667,000 On-going

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 03-072 Peace, Security, and Governance in Africa's Great Lakes Region
International Peace Academy (IPA) IPA, along with African partner institutions and the UN Office for the Great Lakes, organized a seminar in December 2003 and is organizing a follow-up meeting in June 2004 on implementing a security mechanism in the region. The seminar focussed on a broad range of security and governance issues in the Great Lakes region including the interconnected conflicts in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda, and Burundi, as well as the progress of the International Criminal Tribunal on Rwanda. | $100,000
On-going |
| 03-069 Office of the General Secretariat in the Adjacency Zone Between Belize and Guatemala
General Secretariat, Organization of American States The Organization of American States (OAS) created an Office of the General Secretariat in the Adjacency Zone. The Office's principal function will be to monitor both parties' compliance to a series of confidence-building measures designed to lower tensions and manage the situation in the Adjacency Zone, particularly in regard to settlers in the Zone. | $50,000
On-going |
| 03-062 ICG African Internship Scheme
International Crisis Group (ICG) To build new capacity, three to six participants will be recruited from post-graduate programs at African universities. They will be offered three or six month placements at one of ICG's main African field offices in Freetown or Nairobi, and will be assigned to one of three ICG field projects covering West Africa, Central Africa and the Horn of Africa. | $59,768
On-going |
| 03-061 Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Project
International Crisis Group (ICG) The Project is intended to provide the parties to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the wider international community with fresh, independent field-based analysis of the main obstacles to a resolution of the current conflict, and opportunities for reviving and advancing the peace process. | $74,000
On-going |
| 03-058 Towards an OAS Common Principles on Transfers of Small Arms and Light Weapons
Project Ploughshares (jointly with the Arias Foundation - Costa Rica, Viva Rio - Brazil and the Women's Institute for Alternative Development - Trinidad and Tobago) Project Ploughshares (jointly with the Arias Foundation, Costa Rica; Viva Rio, Brazil; and the Women's Institute for Alternative Development, Trinidad and Tobago) promoted the establishment of a hemispheric-level instrument setting out some basic common principles regarding the transfer of small arms and light weapons, in accordance with states' existing responsibilities under international law. | $75,000
On-going |
| "The Role of the Private Sector in Zones of Conflict" - Latin America Regional Conference
United Nations Global Compact As a result of the Global Compact Policy Dialogue on "The Role of the Private Sector in Zones of Conflict", a series of regional conferences have been organized to promote the objectives and activities of the Global Compact and to encourage dialogue and co-operation between business, labour, civil society and UN Agencies at the local level. The November 2003 Colombia conference is expected to raise the awareness of company managers to conflict mitigation strategies and develop recommendations for local practitioners in Colombia. | $75,000
On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 03-033 Peace on Air: Media Training in Somalia $78,010
HornAfrik Media Development Center On-going
- The HornAfrik Media Development Centre will train Somali radio and television broadcasters to produce interactive programs designed to raise awareness and increase dialogue in Somalia. This six-month project will train 20 Somali artists and broadcasters from a range of clans for two months, produce 12 dramas on issues relevant to peace and conflict to be aired on both television and radio, and facilitate 12 post-broadcast call-in shows to discuss the issues raised in the dramas.
- 03-031 Towards dialogue between Civil Society and Government in Kyrgyzstan $37,500
Institute of War and Peace Reporting, Bishkek Office On-going
- This pilot initiative will aim to build the capacity of members of the Kyrgyz Parliament, senior governmental officials, journalists, and civil society activists to implement peaceful skills and techniques of dialogue, debate and advocacy. A series of training workshops and roundtable discussions will be held across the country over a six-month period. A monthly newsletter entitled Dialogue will be published which will address and analyze key issues discussed during the roundtables. The project will culminate with a national conference on the theme: "Authority and Civil Society: New Challenges".
- 03-030 Global Human Rights Cities Program $78,000
PDHRE: People's Movement for Human Rights Education On-going
- Funding will allow seminars and workshops to be held at Regional Learning Institutions for Human Rights Education (RLIHE) of which there are four globally, with one each in Africa, Asia Pacific, South Asia and Latin America. Community leaders from government and civil society in each of the regions will participate in the training program. A human rights framework will also be developed and tested to measure social and economic justice.
- 03-015 Indian Federalism and Its Impact on the Regional Peace $50,000
Alternatives On-going
- Alternatives is bringing together influential grassroots organizations in an effort to create a space for Indian civil society institutions and government agencies to begin improving understanding and encouraging the evolving political scenario in India.
- 03-009 'Today is Not Tomorrow' Radio Serial Drama in Liberia $100,000
Search for Common Ground and European Centre for Common Ground On-going
- Search for Common Ground proposes to create and broadcast 24 episodes of a radio program entitled, 'Today is not tomorrow' that addresses conflict resolution by producing intra-communal and intra-family dramas.
- 02-206 Accompaniment & Human Rights Capacity Building of the Indigenous Populations of the $100,000
Defensoria del Pueblo of Colombia - The Office of the Ombudsman On-going
- The Colombian Office of the Ombudsman aims at reducing the incidence of displacement among indigenous people in five Colombian provinces as well as at increasing awareness of human rights and international humanitarian law within indigenous communities.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 02-192 Conference entitled "Diversity and Islam - Bridging the Gap" $58,000
Women Engaging in Bridge Building (WEBB) On-going
Support to conference aiming to strengthen the understanding of Canadians of the diversity of Islam and the role this diversity plays in building bridges of understanding and tolerance between Islam and all religions worldwide.
- 02-182 Sesame Stories in the Middle East $150,000
Sesame Workshop On-going
Sesame Workshop and its local partners are developing educational materials and a community outreach program. Designed for use in a variety of educational settings, including the home, these materials will include 'tolerance kits', teachers' guides, home videos, posters and storybooks. The educational materials will help reinforce and extend the goals of the series beyond the television viewing experience.
- 02-161 Women and Peace Building in Solomon Islands $87,950
CUSO (Canadian University Services Organization) On-going
Canadian University Services Organization (CUSO) will develop a Women for Peace program that will prepare women as peacemakers and active participants in national peace building processes.
- 02-156 Human Security and International Diamond Trade in Africa, Phase III $200,000
Partnership Africa Canada (PAC) On-going
This project includes establishing an advisory committee for PAC's 'Diamond Integrity Protection Project' (DIPP) and recruiting and training a group of individuals able to participate in missions to monitor national control mechanisms in Africa.
- 02-154 Investing in Peace: Promoting Responsible Business Practices in Zones of Human Insecurity $59,450
International Institute for Sustainable Development On-going
In partnership with Canadian Companies, research was conducted culminating in the development of a draft peace and conflict impact assessment (PCIA) methodology for the extractive sector (like mining companies etc.).
- 02-135 Biting the Bullet: Briefings on Civilian Possession of Small Arms and Arms Embargoes $120,000
International Alert (joint project between BASIC, Saferworld and the University of Bradford) On-going
This project produced two policy briefings in the Biting the Bullet II series. The briefings focussed on the implications for human security with regards to two issues that were inadequately addressed in the Programme of Action: civilian possession of small arms and arms embargoes.
- 02-134 Making People Safer: A Study on Small Arms and Global Health $70,000
World Health Organization (WHO) On-going
The study completed a systematic review and characterisation of the distribution of direct and indirect health effects arising from misuse of small arms, developed a more informed understanding of the determinants of armed violence, and assessed different types of interventions and their relationships in terms of reduction of violent death or injury.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 02-133 Electoral Probity and Conflict Management in Nigeria $72,608
Concerned Professionals On-going
- This project provided an opportunity for stakeholders involved in the electoral process to discuss how to prevent political violence during the elections. Stakeholders included the Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC), political parties, the National Orientation Agency, police, justice sector, civil society organizations and the electorate.
- 02-127 Small Arms and Light Weapons Ammunition Destruction Project for Albania $100,000
NAMSA (NATO Maintenance and Supply Agency) On-going
- With support from Canada's Human Security Program, as well other European and North American nations, the NATO Maintenance and Supply Agency (NAMSA) will destroy or convert 20 different types of ammunition, totaling 81 million items and more than 11,000 tons. The project will also establish a well-equipped centre for demilitarization in Albania and, potentially, for the whole Balkans region.
- 02-113 Application of Forensic Anthropology as a Research tool for the Public Ministry. $26,000
Foundation of Forensic Anthropologists of Guatemala and Department of Technical Cooperation of the Public Ministry. On-going
- Support for a handbook of standard procedures to be followed for forensic anthropological research was created for Guatemalan Public Ministry staff. This handbook will help in investigations involving the recovery of remains and assist in the corresponding criminal follow-up by the Guatemalan government.
- 02-046 Searching for Peace in Asia and the Pacific $50,000
European Centre for Conflict Prevention (ECCP) On-going
- This project aims to collect and distribute information about the causes and reasons behind violent conflicts in Asia Pacific. This project will also support and promote the role of civil society in peacebuilding through networking and information sharing.
- 02-040 Assessing the Humanitarian Implications of Sanctions $110,000
Office for the Co-ordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) On-going
- The project will use existing studies and reports relating to the humanitarian impact of sanctions to review existing assessment techniques and indicators with the aim of developing a standardized sanctions assessment methodology. After consultation with governments and non-governmental representatives, the results will be presented in the form a Sanctions Assessment Handbook. This handbook will help guide the UN Security Council Sanctions Committees in their work.
- 02-034 Waging Peace: Improving Canadian Peacebuilding Capacities $250,000
Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC) On-going
- The CPCC provides the basis for greater NGO-Government of Canada cooperation in peacebuilding policy development and implementation. The CPCC used this support for activities such as the Annual Peacebuilding Consultations, NGO-Government dialogues, seminars and meetings, and specialized working groups on human security.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

02-007 Peace Journalism Peace Action, Training and Research Institute of Romania (PATRIR) The Peace Journalism Program is an intensive training program to explore the role of the media in war, conflict and peace. Thirty-five junior and senior journalists, investigative reporters, news anchors and news desk editors from South Eastern Europe will benefit from this training.	$20,216 On-going
01-212 Small Arms Survey Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva The Small Arms Survey serves as the principal international source of neutral information on small arms, including producers, stockpiles, licit and illicit transfers, and direct and indirect effects. The survey also provides information on measures to cope with the small arms problem at the national, bilateral, regional and multilateral levels.	$375,000 On-going
01-010 Regional Human Security Centre (RHSC) The Jordan Institute of Diplomacy (JID) The Regional Human Security Centre is the first centre of its kind in the Middle East. The Centre works in collaboration with regional and international partners to address major human security issues in the Middle East.	$685,500 On-going
03-179 International Symposium for Women Leaders on 'Women's Voice in Conflict Resolution and Peace Building' The Golda Meir Mount Carmel International Training Center (MCTC) The Mount Carmel Training Centre organized an international symposium, bringing together 50-60 prominent women leaders from around the world to explore new and innovative approaches and methodologies to increase the role of women in the promotion of peacebuilding and conflict prevention in their home countries and regions.	$20,000 Completed
03-095 Building Multilateral Peace and Security Partnerships: Advancing the International Agenda on Small Arms and Light Weapons The Quaker United Nations Office-Geneva; UN Institute for Disarmament Research; Programme in Strategic and International Security Studies of the Graduate Institute of International Studies) Through the "Geneva Process" (an ongoing, cross-regional dialogue process), the project aims to strengthen steps in the implementation of the 2001 Program of Action on the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects. The lens for the project as a whole will be the Review of Progress Conference to take place in 2006, with the aim of shaping and deepening the agenda of work on small arms beyond that critical meeting.	$30,000 Completed
03-075 Third CISEPO Deans Meeting (a regional meeting of Arab and Israel Deans of Medicine and Health Sciences) Canadian International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) The aim of the meeting was to further Arab/Israeli commitments to the promotion of peaceful interactions and the joint development of regional benefits through cooperation in the medical field. Participants were presented with the opportunity to develop joint projects in the health sector.	$39,743.07 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 03-039 Appui financier à l'organisation de l'Atelier National sur la sécurité Humaine au Mali $11,878
Ministère des Affaires Etrangères et de la Coopération Internationale du Mali Completed
- This workshop served the dual purpose of increasing the understanding Malian officials of human security issues in Mali, as well as preparing Mali to assume the Chair of the Human Security Network (HSN).
- 02-196 Jordanian-Israel: "Legal Mediation" $30,783
The International Institute at Beit Berl College (Israel) Completed
- This project provided Israeli and Jordanian participants with an introduction to conflict resolution through a three-week training course. Workshops and seminars covered topics such as mediation and negotiation with the goals of promoting coexistence, and acquirement of tools such as the ability to look at the other's point of view and a better understanding of the human security needs of both sides of the Arab-Israeli conflict.
- 02-187 Peacebuilders Initiative (Phase II) $21,000
YouCAN! Completed
- YouCAN! brought 14 Youth Initiators (youth leaders in the area of peaceful conflict resolution) from Colombia to Canada. These youth attended YouCAN!'s Second National Youth Conference on Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution and then received further training on these issues from YouCAN!.
- 02-175 The Truman Forum for Public Debate: Arabs and Jews in Israel - Evaluation and Future Activities $49,522
The Harry S. Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace at Hebrew University, Jerusalem Completed
- The Harry S. Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem held a series of panel discussions in which leading Jewish and Arab public figures, researchers and intellectuals engaged in the field of Jewish-Arab relations within Israel presented their assessments on the subject, and their visions and recommendations for the future.
- 02-171 UNITAR-IPA Fellowship Program in Peacemaking and Preventive Diplomacy $50,000
United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) Completed
- UNITAR's annual Fellowship Program in Peacemaking and Preventive Diplomacy was intended to strengthen the conflict prevention and resolution capacities of senior and middle level UN staff, Foreign Ministry officials from around the world and leaders from regional organizations.
- 02-159 Alternative Dispute Resolution as a Peacebuilding Tool $31,050
Canadian Bar Association and Ethiopian Bar Association Completed
- The Canadian Bar Association assisted in strengthening Ethiopia's governance system by partnering with the Ethiopian Bar Association to facilitate a workshop on Alternative Dispute Resolution techniques for legal sectors.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- | | |
|--|--|
| 02-152 UNITAR Regional Training Program to Enhance the Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Capacities of Indigenous Peoples' Representatives - Asia Pacific United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) The UNITAR Regional Training Program to Enhance the Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Capacities of Indigenous Peoples' Representatives offers advanced training in problem-solving methods of negotiation to representatives of indigenous people in the Asia Pacific region. | $50,000 Completed |
| 02-145 Peacebuilders Initiative YouCAN! Youth Canada Association YouCAN! brought 14 Youth Initiators (youth leaders in the area of peaceful conflict resolution) from Colombia to Canada. These youth attended YouCAN!'s Second National Youth Conference on Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution and then received further training on these issues from YouCAN!. | $21,000 Completed |
| 02-141 International Conference on the Termination of War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic All-Russian Public Movement "For Human Rights on behalf of the Russian National Committee for the Termination of War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic Support for an effort by the All-Russian Public Movement for Human Rights that brought together high-level Russian civil society and government representatives for an International Peace Conference on the Termination of the War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic. | $40,000 Completed |
| 02-137 The Role of International Intervention in a Permanent Status Agreement between Israel and the Palestinians Economic Cooperation Foundation (ECF) On 29-30 September, the Canadian Embassy in Tel Aviv and the Economic Cooperation Foundation co-hosted a workshop on possible modes of international involvement in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Participants included Israeli academics and opinion makers from all sides of the political spectrum, several active Israeli Defence Forces officers, as well as DFAIT and DND officials, and was chaired by IDD. | $94,000 Completed |
| 02-125 The Human Security Network and Small Arms: Consolidating and Agenda for Action Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (CHD) This project aimed to consolidate the efforts of the Human Security Network to address the complex phenomena of small arms proliferation by engaging Network members in a dialogue, with the goal of developing priorities for countering the threats to human security caused by the proliferation, use and abuse of small arms and light weapons. | $80,000 Completed |
| 02-119 TV Documentary Series on Palestinian-Israeli Final Status Issues Search for Common Ground A five-hour documentary series that examines the respective interests and positions of Israelis and Palestinians on the core issues of the conflict. The series looks at the following issues: refugees, Jerusalem, water, settlements and borders. The Program explores how negotiators on both sides might reach agreements that each community could live with. | $150,000 Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 02-105 McGill Conference on "Pluralism, Religion, and Public Policy" $10,000
McGill University and the Center for Cultural Renewal (Ottawa) Completed
- This conference contributed to the education of those who work on analysing and resolving threats to human security, especially those which arise from disagreements that have a religious component.
- 02-101 Program in Support of Peace Process in Sri Lanka $83,732
Forum of Federations Completed
- Technical expertise in the area of decentralised governance was provided with the aim of strengthening the peace process. The project was also useful in identifying key areas where Canada could further support and encourage good governance in Sri Lanka.
- 02-093 Conference on "Everybody's Responsibility" $25,000
Peaceful Schools International (PSI) - Northern Ireland Completed
- Peaceful Schools International (PSI) held a peacebuilding conference in Northern Ireland. The conference entitled "Peaceful Schools: Everybody's Responsibility" is designed to reach out to Northern Ireland and Republic of Ireland society and help make their schools and communities safer and free from violence.
- 02-086 53 Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs $150,000
Council of the Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs Completed
- Support for the 53rd Annual Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs, entitled "Advancing Human Security: The Role of Science, Technology and Politics."
- 02-084 Civil Society Support in the Mano River Delta $37,500
Centre for Democratic Empowerment (CEDE) Completed
- The Centre for Democratic Empowerment (CEDE) is addressing the sub-regional dimensions of the Mano River Delta conflict by strengthening collaboration among civil society organizations of the Mano River countries and encouraging dialogue between civil society organizations and governments on issues surrounding peace building in the region.
- 02-077 Fourth Planning Meeting of the MEHA Steering Committee $29,000
Canada International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) Completed
- Canada International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) is working with the Middle East Association for Managing Hearing Loss (MEHA) to treat hearing disabilities, which afflict a large number of Arab and Israeli youth. By promoting cooperation between Canadian experts and their Middle Eastern counterparts, MEHA provides an example of people-to-people dialogue, which is essential in preventing conflict.
- 02-032 Managing Shared Waters $100,000
Pollution Probe Completed
- Participants discussed the challenges around shared waters using the Great Lakes and international case studies as examples. Resource kits were distributed containing tools to address issues around prevention of resource conflict.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- 02-020 Economic Agendas in Civil Wars Research Project (Phase III) $100,000
International Peace Academy (IPA) Completed
The International Peace Academy, in collaboration with various other institutions, established an international consortium to investigate "Economic Agendas in Civil Wars".
- 02-019 Symposium on Confidence & Cooperation in South Asian Waters $23,107
Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, Dalhousie University Completed
Funding from the HSP was provided to enable the participation of 3 Canadian experts in the Symposium held in April/May 2002. The symposium aimed to build maritime confidence and cooperation between India and Pakistan, particularly in respect to maritime border disputes and incidents at sea (INCSEA).
- 02-012 Support for the Special Advisor to the UNSG on Colombia (James Lemoyne) $100,000
United Nations Completed
In support of the peacebuilding activities of the Acting Special Adviser to the United Nations Secretary-General on Colombia. These efforts are focussed on pursuing a negotiated settlement to the conflict and coordinating UN-system activities.
- 01-234 Andean Regional Program $47,795
Conflict Prevention and Peace Forum Completed
Support to facilitate contacts between local institutions and UN agencies as well as representatives from foreign governments anxious to support the conflict prevention process. Held consultations and proposed actions to reduce the tensions in the region, and support local and regional peace initiatives.
- 01-231 Weapons Collection, Management and Destruction Programme $300,000
UNDP/Bureau for Conflict and Recovery (BCPR) Completed
Support to a United Nations Development Program (UNDP) initiative to reduce the impact of small arms by integrating weapon reduction plans with economic development programs. Specifically, Canadian funding supported the collection, management and destruction of small arms in the Balkans and Niger.
- 01-204 Afghanistan Reconstruction Project $200,000
Centre on International Cooperation Completed
The Center on International Cooperation at New York University established working groups on legal affairs and women's affairs as part of the Afghanistan Reconstruction Project, at the request of the office of the Special Representative of the Secretary General for Afghanistan (SRSG) Lakhdar Brahimi, to identify priority reconstruction projects for the country.
- 01-186 Copenhagen Group - Arab -Israeli Peace Conference $32,190
Israeli Branch of the International Alliance for Arab Israeli Peace Completed
Established in 1997, following a meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark, this high-level Middle Eastern dialogue group brought together Egyptians, Jordanians, Palestinians and Israelis in an effort to promote peace between Israel and its Arab neighbours.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 01-179 Horn of Africa Initiatives
WSP International | $50,000
Completed |
| Support for a meeting in March 2002 in Nairobi, Kenya, between citizens of both countries in the hope of encouraging a constructive, post-conflict discussion. Participants included intellectuals, teachers, representatives of civil society, and elders from Ethiopia and Eritrea. | |
| 01-153 Civil Society Support for the Establishment of National Focal Points
Project Ploughshares/Africa Peace Forum (APFO) | $115,220
Completed |
| Project Ploughshares and the African Peace Forum (APFO) worked with local civil society institutions in Uganda, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Eritrea, and Rwanda to organise workshops that brought together government officials, law enforcement agencies, and members of civil society to develop their understanding of the UN Program of Action and the Nairobi Declaration Agenda for Action and encouraged these parties to, in turn, continue to compel their respective governments to establish National Focal Points on small arms. | |
| 01-101 Peacebuilding Project Chechnya-Russia
Centre for Conflict Management, Norway | $84,555
Completed |
| This project enhanced an already-established dialogue between Chechen and Russian civil societies by bringing together key resource people from both Chechnya and Russia in order to foster better relationships, empower local capacities for peace and produce concrete, achievable peacebuilding activities. | |
| 01-073 Advocating Against Small Arms Proliferation in the MERCOSUR Sub-region
Project Ploughshares - Viva Rio | $20,000
Completed |
| This project conducted research to compare legislation and institutional mechanisms for small arms control in the MERCOSUR countries. It is anticipated that this project will lead to modifications of existing legislation in MERCOSUR countries, thereby promoting a broader degree of confidence and security within the region, as per the Plan of Action of the Summit of the Americas. | |
| 01-072 Crisis in Central Asia - Oil Politics and Economic Perspectives
Alternatives | $50,000
Completed |
| The project brought together NGO practitioners and academics to promote a better understanding of the situation in South and Central Asia, to discuss the risks and potential outcomes of the war in Afghanistan, and particularly the issue of oil and economic development. | |
| 01-065 Conflict Transformation Workshops in Flores and West Timor, Indonesia
Peace Bridges International, Indonesia and East Timor Project | $15,000
Completed |
| Peace Brigades International (PBI) conducted four, four-day workshops on conflict and conflict resolution in Flores and West Timor. | |
| 01-057 Peace Education/Anti-Incitement Programming for Israel/Palestinian Youth
Justice Solutions Ltd. | $92,700
Completed |
| In collaboration with local partners, Justice Solutions is developing practical anti-incitement and peace education tools for Palestinian and Israeli youth as well as other vulnerable groups such as women and refugees. These tools will be designed to compliment existing education programs and curricula, with an emphasis on promoting mutual respect and tolerance. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Conflict Prevention and Resolution

01-015 Economic Agendas in Civil Wars Economic Research Consortium

$100,000

The International Peace Academy (IPA)

Completed

The International Peace Academy (IPA) established an international consortium to investigate economic agendas in civil wars. IPA researchers studied the economic agendas of groups involved in conflict and focussed on how globalization changed the economy of civil war.

D

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- | | | |
|---------------|--|----------------------------------|
| 03-270 | Technical Assistance for Lusophone African States in the Process of Ratification and Domestic Implementation of Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court -ICC
Rights & Democracy

Rights and Democracy will provide technical assistance for Lusophone African States on the process of ratification and domestic implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC). | $50,000

Approved |
| 03-253 | ICC Clerkship and Visiting Professionals Program
International Criminal Court, Hague, Netherlands

The purpose of the project is to meet the short and long term challenges, and correspond to the evolving needs of the International Criminal Court as identified by all the organs of the Court. For an effective and efficient Court, it is of the utmost importance that sound and knowledgeable national capacities are in place, enabling the Court to fulfill its mandate entrusted to it by States Parties. | $35,000

Approved |
| 03-228 | Human Rights and Public Participation for National Indonesian Police in Jakarta and Aceh
Indonesia Police Watch

This project will provide training sessions in human rights and conflict resolution with the Indonesian National Police. The project is designed to strengthen and improve the understanding and implementation of human rights and good governance among police working in Aceh. | $80,000

Approved |
| 03-093 | Human Rights and Reform of the The National Police Force of Peru (PNP)
The Ombudsman's Office

This project would provide human rights training for the police from various regions across Peru, with a focus on areas which have a high level of alleged human rights abuses as well as border areas which have a level of migratory traffic. | $90,000

Approved |
| 03-278 | OAS -Carter Center joint Mission for the Verification of Signatures - Venezuela 2003-04
Organization of American States (OAS) - Unit for the Promotion of Democracy

The OAS will send a team composed of specialists in systems analysis and legal affairs, plus a core group of OAS staff members and special advisors. The Mission will be present all stages of verification and validation of petitions and signatures. | $25,000

On-going |
| 03-274 | CLO-Police Service Commission Partnership to Improve External Oversight of the Police Abuses in Nigeria
Civil Liberties Organization

The aim of this project is to train the PSC to be more effective in their investigations of alleged abuses and to educate the general public about the PSC. Funding will be used to train the PSC staff in investigative techniques both in classroom setting and in the field. A handbook to accompany the training sessions will also be developed. | $50,000

On-going |
| 03-273 | Modernization of Bolivia's Military: Diversity and Representation
Canadian Forces Leadership Institute (CFLI) in Bolivia; Department of National Defence (DND)

CFLI and the Bolivian military college will jointly prepare a curriculum for a preparatory year in order to standardize entry knowledge among indigenous recruits and the entry officer corps. A second component of the project will be an education campaign within the Bolivian forces focusing on equal and responsible citizenship in the military. | $110,000

On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 03-271 Afghanistan Corrections Planning Mission 2004 $13,000
Correctional Service of Canada On-going
- The planning mission will result in a report which will form the basis of a submission to CIDA for longer term funding to assist in the reform and restructuring of the corrections sector in Afghanistan.
- 03-269 Democracy and Justice Observatory (Observatorio Judicial y Democrático) in Venezuela $49,800
Asociacion Civil Consorcio Justicia On-going
- The NGO will work with other organizations, both nationally and regionally, to develop recommendations aimed at improving the transparency and accountability of the judiciary system. Funding will also be used to develop advocacy and training activities oriented towards citizens, community leaders, the media people and judicial authorities to ensure a future role of citizens in the monitoring of the judicial system.
- 03-247 Prohibited Practices in Economies of Conflict: Towards Defining Illicit Commodities $150,000
Fafo Institute for Applied International Studies On-going
- Building upon the investigative, analytical and regulatory research conducted to date, the project will seek to identify specific activities that are or should be prohibited in the production or marketing of commodities.
- 03-235 Sana'a Inter-Governmental Regional Conference on the Promotion of the Rule Of Law: The International Criminal Court, Human Rights And Democracy $50,000
No Peace Without Justice On-going
- NPWJ is planning to hold a three-day intergovernmental conference in Sana'a, Yemen, in January 2004. This will bring together officials from Arab and neighboring African and Middle East countries.
- 03-234 "The ICC and Enlarging the Scope of International Humanitarian Law" in Damascus, Syria $15,000
International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) On-going
- On 13-14 December 2003, the ICRC held a symposium in Damascus, Syria on significant issues in international humanitarian law and the role of the International Criminal Court. Participants in the program included officials of the Syrian government, lawyers, academics, journalists, diplomats and students.
- 03-229 Civil Society Initiative to Support the Establishment of Cross-Border Customs Advising Centers and Student Legal Clinics in the Ferghana Valley $122,000
The Eurasia Foundation On-going
- This project will fund the establishment of two cross-border legal advising centers at high-traffic junctions on the Uzbek-Kyrgyz and Tajik-Kyrgyz borders.
- 03-210 Peacebuilding Support for Iraq $77,546
International Council for Adult Education - Peacefund Canada for the Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC and the National Council on Canada-Arab Relations (NCCAR) On-going
- A conference and workshop organized by the Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC) and the National Council on Canada Arab Relations (NCCAR) to identify key issues in relation to potential Canadian technical support for an Iraqi-led transition to democracy.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- | | | |
|---------------|--|-------------------------------|
| 03-204 | Civil Society Consultations on the Hemispheric Security Review and Governance
Latin American Faculty for Social Sciences (FLACSO) | $50,000
On-going |
| | FLACSO - Chile will organize an international conference to follow-up on the Special Conference and the Special Summit, to be held in Santiago in March, 2004. The conference will bring together government actors, civil society, and academics to discuss the implications of the recent conferences and advance future initiatives. | |
| 03-203 | Support for a Strategic Reappraisal of the Regional Security System of the Eastern Caribbean
Regional Security System | $75,000
On-going |
| | The Regional Security System (RSS) is a treaty-based multilateral organization in the Eastern Caribbean, which facilitates joint and combined responses to key threats including narcotics trafficking and natural disasters. The two main elements of this project include: the provision of a senior Canadian expert as Chair of a multinational Review Team undertaking a strategic reappraisal of the mandate, configuration and operations of the RSS; and support for education and outreach to assure public engagement in the review process. | |
| 03-195 | Legal Education Project
University of Toronto | $25,000
On-going |
| | A series of two week courses will be developed on administrative law and elements of criminal procedure, civil procedure, and comparative constitutional law for a legal education program for prospective Palestinian lawyers. The course will be delivered by Canadian lawyers in conjunction with partners at the Al-Quds University Law School. | |
| 03-194 | Promoting Human Rights and The Rule of Law Through The Judiciary: Training Palestinian Judges (phase II)
University of Windsor, Faculty of Law | $32,970
On-going |
| | The Faculties of Law of the University of Windsor and the University of Toronto will engage in legal sector capacity building efforts in the Palestinian Territories, through a judicial sector assessment mission and the provision of a two-week course on constitutional, procedural and administrative law at Al Quds University. | |
| 03-192 | National Workshop on the Implementation of the Rome Statute in Sierra Leone (Phase I)
Legal Reform Initiative (LRI) | $23,754.6
On-going |
| | This project assisted Legal Reform Initiative to hold a workshop in December 2003 in Sierra Leone where national and international experts prepared concrete recommendations for the development of domestic legislation to implement the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC). | |
| 03-184 | Regional Forums for Civilian-Military Relations
PARTICIPA | $30,000
On-going |
| | This initiative aims to facilitate inclusive discussion on defence policy and contribute to national reconciliation through a series of workshops throughout Guatemala from October to March 2003. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

03-183 International Criminal Bar - Outreach Initiative International Criminal Bar The Montreal-based International Criminal Defence Attorneys Association is conducting an international program of education and outreach on the ICC and the newly-created International Criminal Bar (ICB). The project will be conducted by expert representatives of the ICB in order to ensure global promotion of the ICB and the inclusiveness and diversity of the ICB and counsel appearing before the ICC.	$60,000 On-going
03-177 Conference on Assessing the Impact of International War Crimes Trials: An Interdisciplinary Appraisal University of Texas School of Law School Foundation, Austin, Texas The University of Texas Law School will hold a conference in November 2003 to consider issues of international justice in the context of the International Criminal Court. The conference will adopt an interdisciplinary approach, involving lawyers, sociologists, psychologists, political scientists and historians. It will also include representatives of the international tribunals, government officials, non-governmental organizations and individuals who have been directly affected by the atrocities that are the subject of trials.	$12,562.56 On-going
03-174 Supporting Human Resource Needs of the Human Security Network through the provision of two Young Professionals International (YPI) Participants Project Ploughshares Support for two Young Professionals to assist the Government of Mali in developing and delivering the 2003-04 Human Security Network (HSN) program. One intern will work with the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR) and focus on small arms issues, while also providing support to the Malian mission in Geneva (as Geneva is the focal point for much HSN work). The second participant will work directly within the Mali Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation in Bamako, and would remain there until the Ministerial Meeting in May 2004.	$21,500 On-going
03-172 Electoral Observation Mission (EOM) - General Elections, Guatemala, 2003 Organization of America States (OAS) The OAS will organize a "Forum on Citizen Participation and the Secrecy of the Vote" to support the consolidation of democracy and the voting process in Guatemala, and to stimulate popular participation in the upcoming elections. In addition, this project will produce a final report of the activities conducted by the EOM during the 2003 General Elections.	$52,000 On-going
03-160 Strengthening the Security - Development Nexus: Conflict, Peace & Development in the 21st Century International Peace Academy A thematic workshop on security sector reform will be organized to look at three areas where security and development actors are beginning to work in tandem - security sector, rule of law and governance.	$49,909 On-going
03-155 Corporate Options: Constructive Engagement in Conflict Zones (Corporate Engagement Project -CEP) (Phase II) The Collaborative for Development Action (CDA), Collaborative Learning Projects The objective of CEP is to work with corporations to examine their experiences in order to provide managers with clear ideas about how their work with communities relates to the broader socio-political environment.	$80,000 On-going

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

03-153 Mexico's Human Rights National Forum United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights - Mexican Office The Mexican Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights will be carrying out regional seminars with local human rights activists and civil society organizations to elaborate a Diagnosis on the Human Rights Situation in Mexico that will serve as a basis for the design and adoption of a National Program on Human Rights.	$50,000 On-going
03-142 ICCLR and the ICC Campaign: Country Specific Assistance International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The project, which is to be conducted by the International Centre for Criminal Law and Criminal Justice Policy, will focus on: 1. Conducting country specific technical assistance on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute in the under-represented Caribbean and Pacific regions (focusing on Jamaica and Samoa); and 2. Conducting follow-up country specific technical assistance in a country where ICCLR has begun providing technical assistance, namely Gabon.	$82,580 On-going
03-141 The First Year of the Functioning of the ICC : Preparation and Implementation World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of: The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court is running a series of projects between June 2002-June 2004 designed to increase the number of ratifications of the Rome Statute of the ICC, particularly in under-represented regions like Asia and the Middle East; ensure the development of strong implementing legislation in all ratifying countries; ensure that the appropriate mechanisms are in place for the Court to begin functioning as early and as effectively as possible; and promote the ICC within the United States.	$80,000 On-going
03-140 Just Act! Canadian Youth for International Justice: An International Criminal Court Youth Program War Child Canada The Project will permit War Child Canada to disseminate promotional and educational information on the ICC to Canadian teachers, students and young people and to deliver a youth conference on the ICC (just Act! 2004).	$92,900 On-going
03-129 Inter-Parliamentary Forum of the Americas (FIPA) Canadian Parliamentary Centre The Canadian Parliamentary Centre offers support for the preparation of the Third FIPA Plenary Meeting, to be held in early 2004, which will provide parliamentarians with an opportunity to debate and discuss issues of relevance to citizens of the Americas and help to build solid democratic institutions. Funds will ensure the sustainability of the organization over the year 2004.	$75,000 On-going
03-128 Three-year Program of Activities of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP) Unit for the Promotion of Democracy, Organization of American States (UPD-OAS) The OAS will organize the Third Annual Meeting of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties, which will take place in Colombia, on November 23-25, 2003. Participants will exchange best practices on campaign and political party financing, party modernization, and challenges faced by the parties to build democratic governance.	$50,000 On-going

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 03-099 Constitutional Options for Post-War Iraq $17,638.5
The Forum of Federations On-going
- The Forum of Federations, an organization working specifically in this field, proposes to conduct an exploratory study on the prospects for devolved or multilevel governance in Iraq. The work would encompass Iraq's institutional evolution, the feasibility of a decentralized model, as well as a discussion of specific areas in which Canada could play a role.
- 03-092 Civil Society Consultations on the Elaboration of the Defence White Paper in Peru $44,486
Instituto de Estudios Políticos y Estratégicos (IDEPE) On-going
- The funding will allow the Institute of Political and Strategic Studies (IDEPE) to facilitate consultations involving the Ministry of Defence and civil society organizations in various regions of Peru on a draft Defence White Paper. The initiative aims to build civil-military relations and broaden the participation and influence of civil society in defence policy through civil-military consultations in several regions of the country from October 2003 and July 2004.
- 03-091 Tripartite (Canada-US-UK) Strategic Review of the Jamaican Defence Force $40,000
Department of National Defence (DND) On-going
- The provision of a team of up to three DND officers would work with colleagues from the US and UK departments of defence to conduct a strategic defence and security review of the Jamaica Defence Force (JDF). This strategic review would reassess Jamaica's security interests and defence needs and consider how the roles, missions and capabilities of the JDF should be adjusted to meet the new security realities. Central to this review would be a recommendation as to the size and shape of the force.
- 03-070 Economic Agendas in Civil Wars $50,000
International Peace Academy (IPA) On-going
- The International Peace Academy (IPA) established an international consortium to investigate economic agendas in civil wars. IPA researchers studied the economic agendas of groups involved in conflict and focussed on how globalization changed the economy of civil war.
- 03-068 Negotiation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption - Assistance to Least Developed Countries (LDCs) $49,000
United Nations Office for Drugs and Crime (UNODC), Centre for International Crime Prevention, Vienna, Austria On-going
- Delegates from the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), Senegal, Madagascar, Haiti and Argentina will have the opportunity to participate in the Ad Hoc Committee to ensure that the views of least developed countries (LDCs) are represented at the sessions.
- 03-067 Beijing Symposium: Comparative Study of International Criminal Law and the Rome Statute $14,000
Chinese Society of International Law in cooperation with Criminal Law Center and the Association for Advanced Legal Learning On-going
- The Chinese Society of International Law are holding a conference in Beijing in October 2003 to bring together national, regional and international ICC activists and experts with government officials to promote the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute by China.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

03-051 Second Annual Central American Workshop for the International Criminal Court (ICC) Legal Aid Office of the Archbishop of San Salvador Representing the Salvadoran Coalition for the International Criminal Court The Legal Aid Office of the Archbishop of San Salvador, representing the Salvadoran Coalition for the International Criminal Court (SCICC), organized a regional workshop for representatives of civil society from the countries of Central America, on strategies to affect the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.	$7,400 On-going
03-046 Teaching Peace Through Justice: The International Criminal Court and the Evolution of Human Rights Phoenix Community Works Foundation (Implementing Agent for Peace Through Justice) The Project is being run by Phoenix Community Works Foundation, on behalf of Peace Through Justice. The agency will involve produce and disseminate Learning Tools for senior high school and first-year university students on the International Criminal Court and issues of peace and justice.	$10,000 On-going
03-045 A Regional Campaign towards more Ratifications and Effective Implementation of the International Criminal Court in Asia Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA) NGO Coalition for an International Criminal court (CICC) in Asia FORUM ASIA is undertaking a one-year project to increase capacity for the ratification and effective implementation of the Rome Statute by countries in Asia.	$50,000 On-going
03-041 Business for Middle East Stability Centre for Innovation in Corporate Responsibility (CICR) The initiative was first launched in 2002 to explore the accountability of business in Middle East conflicts and aimed to identify opportunities for collective action that could leverage corporate resources and international experiences. In this second phase, the CICR will work towards the development and implementation of specific projects.	$50,000 On-going
03-035 IACC Youth Forum Transparency International (TI) The 11th International Anti-Corruption Conference (IACC) Youth Forum which brought together up to 200 youth in Seoul, South Korea in May 2003. The Forum aims to raise awareness among youth on improving governance in their countries, and to add new momentum to the existing anti-corruption movement.	$49,868 On-going
03-029 Good Governance and Institutionalization of Dialogue and Consensus for Peru's Social Development Organization of the American States (OAS) The Unit for the Promotion of Democracy (UPD) of the Organization of American states (OAS) is working at strengthening the institutional capacity of the newly elected regional governments and at promoting dialogue and consensus building with the national government.	$100,000 On-going
03-012 Support to the Fifth International Conference of New or Restored Democracies Government of Mongolia/United Nations Development Program (UNDP) The fifth ICNRD will take place in Mongolia in June 2003. Participation in the Conference will include representatives from national governments, legislatures and civil society involved in promotion of democracy and good governance.	$125,000 On-going

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 02-173 Towards a National Program of Arm Control in Guatemala $50,000
IEPADES - Instituto de Enseñanza para el Desarrollo Sostenible On-going
- The Instituto de Enseñanza para el Desarrollo Sostenible (IEPADES) worked with government representatives and civil society groups involved in small arms issues to prepare the transfer of the Department of Control on Arms and Ammunitions, under the Ministry of Defence, to civilian control.
- 02-098 Americas Network of National Human Rights Institutions: Consolidation $100,000
Canadian Human Rights Commission (CHRC) On-going
- The Americas Network, a group representing the National Human Rights Institutions of the Americas will seek to address challenges such as increasing the effectiveness of its members and reinforce the Network's organizational strengths.
- 02-085 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) - Sierra Leone $400,000
United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) On-going
- Key to the process of building peace in Sierra Leone is discovering the truth of the decade-long civil war and encouraging reconciliation through the work of the TRC. The goals of the TRC are to address impunity, break the cycle of violence, provide a forum for both the victims and perpetrators of human rights violations to tell their story, and get a clear picture of the past in order to facilitate genuine healing and reconciliation.
- 02-082 Building a Canadian Media and Elections Response Mechanism $350,900
The Institute for Media, Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS) On-going
- Development of a unique Canadian Media and Elections Response Centre that will build the capacity of the media in countries in transition to democracy to objectively cover elections.
- 02-076 Follow-up Mechanism to the Inter-American Convention against Corruption $150,000
Organization of American States (OAS) On-going
- First round of evaluations of the follow up mechanism to the Inter-American Convention against Corruption.
- 02-043 Strategic Studies Sponsorship to Support Mexican Foreign and Defence Policy Development $15,000
Department of National Defence On-going
- This project will introduce Mexican military officials to Canada's approach to the role of the military in international peace and security. With the support of the Human Security Program, two Mexican military officers will attend advanced military training courses - the Advanced Military Studies Courses (AMSC) and the National Security Studies Course (NSSC) in Toronto.
- 01-016 For the Record: The United Nations Human Rights System (FTR) $900,000
Human Rights Internet (HRI) On-going
- The United Nations Human Rights System, called For The Record (FTR), is a bilingual electronic annual report made available on-line through the Human Rights Internet (HRI) homepage, as well as on CD-ROM. The e-publication has been produced since 1997 and covers human rights developments at the intergovernmental level annually, on both a country by country basis and thematically.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 03-143 "Africa and the International Criminal Court" - Regional ICC Orientation Conference for National Judges $25,000
Africa Legal Aid Completed
A range of international experts from government, academia and civil society delivered an intensive two-day orientation on the principle of "complementarity" upon which the ICC is based, and on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute.
- 03-139 Cambodian Election Results Gathering and Distribution Project $45,100
Consultants Arnold Amber, Clive Valentine, Gary McCarthy Completed
Expertise and training to National Election Commission (NEC) staff on methods to disseminate preliminary election results quickly and accurately.
- 03-084 Journalisme et démocratie en Haïti $88,000
Réseau Liberté Completed
Réseau Liberté organized two workshops in Haiti on journalism and democracy. These workshops addressed the press' role in a democracy, the ethic of journalism, and the respect of human rights, with a particular emphasis on the right to information, the freedom of expression, and the journalists' rights and obligations.
- 03-032 Conference on Media Freedoms $48,000
Arab Archives Institute for Research and Studies Completed
The project was designed to gather experts, media professionals, policy-makers and legislators from the Arab region in a conference to discuss studies on media freedoms that are carried out by the Arab Archives Institute.
- 03-018 ICC: Implementation in Central and Southeastern Europe $15,000
International Criminal Law Society in cooperation with the European Office of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (ICICC); the Center for Legal Resources, Bucharest, and the German Foundation for International Legal Cooperation (RZ) Bonn Completed
The conference focused primarily on ICC implementation, bringing ICC experts from the region together to present their countries' draft implementation laws and discuss issues of the national implementation of the Rome Statute.
- 03-017 International Criminal Court: Training of Key National Personnel $25,000
University of Nottingham, Human Rights Law Centre Completed
The project was run by the University of Nottingham in June 2003 and was designed to provide a training course for those whose professional work at the national level calls for knowledge and understanding of the ICC regime. The course successfully considered in depth the legal issues that arise in connection with the ratification, implementation and operation of the ICC regime.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

03-010	Second Session of the Consultative Assembly of Parliamentarians for the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the Rule of Law	$50,000
	Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA)	Completed
	In September 2003, a second session of the Consultative Assembly of Parliamentarians for the International Criminal Court was held in New York, following the second session of the ICC Assembly of States Parties. The second session of the Consultative Assembly was preceded by two strategy meetings involving key international actors and MPs, and provided a venue in which to enhance the global level of understanding and support for the ICC among parliamentarians from all regions of the world.
03-001	The Future and Human Security in Central America: Civil-Society/Government Discussion Forum	$50,000
	Regional Coordinator for Economic and Social Research (CRIES)	Completed
	The Regional Coordinator for Economic and Social Research (CRIES) organized a forum will in Guatemala City in order to provide government and civil society representatives with an the opportunity to discuss the redefinition of the Democratic Security Framework Agreement of Central America (TMSDCA).
02-210	Promoting and Advancing Sustainable Democracy Worldwide	$50,000
	The International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (IIDEA)	Completed
	The International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (IIDEA) convened a meeting, Foundations of Democracy: Building Electoral Participation, in New Delhi, India from 5 to 8 March 2003. Member-states and several electoral commissions were in attendance.
02-208	Orientation Seminar for the Judges of the International Criminal Court	$25,000
	International Criminal Court	Completed
	An orientation seminar for newly-elected Judges to the International Criminal Court (ICC). The seminar was attended by the 18 judges of the ICC, including Canadian, Philippe Kirsch, who is the President of the Court.
02-207	Séminaire de validation de l'avant-projet de loi de mise en oeuvre du Statut de Rome au Sénégal	$20,000
	Le Ministère de la Justice du Sénégal (Direction des Affaires Criminelles et des Grâces) en collaboration avec L'Organisation Nationale des Droits de la Personne	Completed
	The aim of this workshop was for government officials, local and international ICC experts to consult on Senegal's draft legislation to implement its obligations under the Rome Statute. A final draft ICC implementing law was produced. This event followed an ICC conference for Senegalese government officials held in October 2001, also sponsored by the Human Security Program.
02-195	Preparatory Academic Meeting for Special Conference on Security in the Americas	$49,090
	FLACSO - Chile	Completed
	This meeting helped civil society groups to become engaged in and make a substantive contribution to the strengthening of hemispheric security through participation in the upcoming Special Conference on Security in the Americas.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

02-169 II Plenary Meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Forum of the Americas (FIPA) Canadian Parliamentary Centre Support for FIPA Second Plenary Meeting in February 2003. The plenary meeting provided parliamentarians with an opportunity to debate and discuss issues of relevance to citizens of the Americas and help to build solid democratic institutions.	$48,160 Completed
02-164 Comparative Study on Victims and Witnesses Units of International Tribunals and Truth and Reconciliation Liu Centre for Global Issues, University of British Columbia Ensuring that the interests of victims and witnesses are adequately addressed during the ICC's proceedings will be fundamental to its effective functioning. The comparative study undertaken by the Liu Institute for Global Issues will provide the ICC with a valuable resource for the operation of its Victims and Witnesses Unit.	$10,000 Completed
02-162 Take the Stand! An International Criminal Court Youth Program War Child Canada Support for a youth program that included the production and distribution of lesson plans on the ICC for use in Canadian schools. The program culminated in an ICC conference in Ottawa for students from across the country.	$92,738 Completed
02-153 Appeal for the Adoption of the Draft Implementation Law of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) Lawyers Committee for Human Rights (LCHR) and Ministry of Justice of the DRC The project was designed to revise the Ministry of Justice's draft law for the implementation of the Rome Statute and build capacity for its adoption. The project included sessions between Parliamentarians, government officials, civil society, and local and international ICC experts. The final version of the ICC implementation law was presented to the Minister of Justice.	$20,000 Completed
02-146 Let's Share Information about the International Criminal Court (ICC) Sisterhood is Global Institute/Jordan (SIGI/J) The Sisterhood is Global Institute in Amman, Jordan is undertaking a public awareness campaign on the International Criminal Court (ICC) in the Middle East. The campaign has two primary elements, including: the promotion and maintenance of a global Arabic-language website on the ICC; and the delivery of training sessions on the ICC for regional professionals.	$30,000 Completed
02-131 ICC Follow up conference in Cambodia Center for Restorative Justice in Asia (CRJA) The event brought government officials from twelve Southeast Asian countries together with international experts on the ICC to identify the means by which each country could ratify/accede to and implement the Rome Statute.	$15,500 Completed
02-118 ICC Public Awareness Program World Federalist of Canada (CNICC) Support for a Public Awareness Campaign being administered by the Canadian Network for the International Criminal Court. It involved the production and distribution of communications materials on issues and current events related to the ICC.	$12,000 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| 02-110 The Responsibility to Protect: Developing the Framework for an NGO Role
The World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy (WFM-IGP)

Laying the foundation for an effective NGO role at an early stage will be a critical component of Canada's long-term efforts to promote the Responsibility to Protect. This project encouraged a process of consultation and engagement of NGOs for the North and South, leading towards the eventual establishment of an NGO network in support of the Responsibility to Protect. | $24,178
Completed |
| 02-108 From Entry into Force to a Functioning ICC
World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of: The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court

The Global Campaign of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) undertook initiatives to increase the number of ratifications of the Rome Statute, ensure the development of strong implementing legislation by States Parties and promote the creation of appropriate mechanisms for the prompt establishment of an effective ICC. | $80,000
Completed |
| 02-106 PEN Canada/International PEN Writers in Prison Committee (WIPC) Freedom of Expression and Impunity Campaign
PEN Canada

Campaign against impunity in the Americas because of the high prevalence of impunity for perpetrators of crimes against journalists and writers. | $49,850
Completed |
| 02-102 Justice Assessment Mission
The International Cooperation Group (Department of Justice in Canada)

Recognising that the problems affecting Afghanistan's justice sector are complex and cut across different institutions, the International Cooperation Group at the Department of Justice undertook a mission to assess what is needed to strengthen Afghanistan's justice system, and where Canadian technical expertise can have the greatest impact. | $50,000
Completed |
| 02-094 Afghan Women's Governance and Leadership Training roundtables
YWCA of Canada

A series of roundtable discussions on peace and security took place where Afghan women debated how best to help women participate as full and equal agents in the reconstruction of Afghanistan. Recommendations were distributed to government officials in both Canada and Afghanistan. | $49,600
Completed |
| 02-081 Consultations on Gender and the ICC
Women's Caucus for Gender Justice

The Consultations were attended by activists from a variety of countries, including developing nations. The Consultations included strategy sessions on how the participants could address obstacles and challenges for promoting the ICC in their home countries. The participants also attended the final session of the ICC Preparatory Commission to ensure the continued mainstreaming of gender issues during the establishment of the Court. | $70,000
Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 02-079 Annual Parliamentary Forum of Parliamentarians for Global Action: - ICC $50,000
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) Completed
- The Assembly brought together approximately 100 Parliamentarians representing 53 countries. The Assembly addressed the role of Parliamentarians in ensuring cooperation with the Court and a Special Session was held as Canada's first follow-up to the International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty's report: The Responsibility to Protect.
- 02-078 Support to the Commonwealth Special Envoy for Cameroon $50,000
Commonwealth Secretariat Completed
- The Commonwealth Secretary General has nominated Mrs. Christine Stewart as Special Envoy to Cameroon to promote the fundamental political values of the organization as stated in the Harare Declaration, in particular a commitment by the members to the rule of law, human rights, democracy, just and honest government and independence of the judiciary.
- 02-065 Women for Society Campaign $50,000
Association for Culture, Education and Communication (ACEC) Completed
- The Women for Society Campaign worked to restore womens' confidence in the democratic process. The campaign increased female voter turnout and womens' participation in elections.
- 02-064 Second Latin America and Caribbean Consultation on Human Rights Defenders $15,000
Fundacion Rigoberta Menchu Tum (Rigoberta Menchu Tum Foundation-Guatemala) Completed
- Funds supported the participation of a representative for Hina Jilani, the Special Representative for Human Rights Defenders, the Rapporteur from the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, and the special advisor on Latin America to the UN High Commissioner on Human Rights at the second Latin American and Caribbean Consultation on Human Rights Defenders.
- 02-063 International Humanitarian Law (IHL) Course for Latin America $50,000
The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), Regional Delegation (Mexico) Completed
- The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) held a training course on International Humanitarian Law (IHL) in July 2002, for participants from 19 Latin American countries.
- 02-062 Elections in Slovakia (It Matters to Us) $50,000
Obcianske oko (Civic Eye) Completed
- Slovakian civic organisations launched pre-election campaigns to increase voter turnout. One called 'It Matters to Us', targeted young, middle-aged and first-time voters through the print, radio and television media. Working with NGOs and local celebrities, the campaign aims to increase voter participation.
- 02-057 Supporting conflict-sensitive media competencies and media peacebuilding potentials in Sri Lanka. $50,000
The Institute for Media, Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS) Completed
- Through workshops and consultations with local editors and journalists, the project imparted participants with the necessary skills to report on the Sri Lankan ceasefire and peace process with greater accuracy and impartiality. Ultimately, this resulted in a better-informed public and a more positive reaction to the negotiations.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 02-053 Global Model for a multicultural state
Canadian Multicultural Education Foundation (CMEF) | $30,000
Completed |
| Support for a two-day pre-conference seminar which took place before the conference in order to prepare the guests participants for full participation in the conference. The aim of the pre-conference was to highlight relevant Canadian experience for peaceful and constructive collaboration across diversity. | |
| 02-051 Symposium on Lebanon and the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC)
International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) | $9,000
Completed |
| The event aimed at promoting the importance of the ICC in ensuring international justice. This seminar informed Middle Eastern judges, lawyers and government officials both about the character of the ICC as well as the legislation that would be required for ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute. | |
| 02-048 Dissemination of human rights and women's rights principles among police forces
Child Rights Watch (CRW) | $22,040.38
Completed |
| This project aimed to integrate human rights principles into the agenda of police forces in the state of Khartoum by training ninety police officers about women's rights and human rights. This training raised awareness and promoted the integration of the human rights principles into police work and legal procedures. | |
| 02-045 Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP)
Unit for the Promotion of Democracy, Organization of American States (UPD/OAS) | $150,000
Completed |
| This Second Meeting of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP) addressed human security issues of democracy, corruption and good governance. | |
| 02-039 IRIN Outreach Radio Project - Somali Service
Integrated Regional Information Networks (IRIN) - UNDP | $40,000
Completed |
| The Integrated Regional Information Networks (IRIN) Outreach Radio Project in Somalia was set up in January 2001 to provide impartial news and information to the victims of the humanitarian crises in Somalia and to provide these victims with a better understanding of the activities and objectives of the humanitarian community. | |
| 02-036 The Quebec City Summit: One Year Later: Roundtable discussion on achievements and challenges surrounding the implementation of he third Summit of the Americas Plan of
DFAIT, the Canadian Foundation for the Americas (FOCAL) and the Inter-American Dialogue | $1,500
Completed |
| Roundtable discussion, held in Washington, helped to foster a deeper dialogue on the achievements and challenges surrounding the implementation of the Third Summit of the Americas' Plan of Action. | |
| 02-035 Annual Report on Judicial Systems in the Americas
Justice Studies Center of the Americas (CEJA) | $77,000
Completed |
| Preparation of an annual report on the Latin American justice systems to improve the quality and accessibility of information on the region's justice sector. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- 02-021 ICC Country Assistance and Document Production (phase III) $199,000
International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) Completed
- The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) provided technical legal assistance to Cambodia, Gabon, Lesotho, Tanzania and Thailand to ratify and implement the Rome Statute. The ICCLR also produced manuals regarding the ICC, including a second addition of the Manual on the Ratification and Implementation of the Rome Statute.
- 02-015 ICC Mongolia Meeting $37,000
World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of the NGO Coalition for an International Criminal Court Completed
- The Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) coordinated a national conference in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, in order to produce recommendations and draft provisions for the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute by Mongolia.
- 02-009 The Americas Conference on Corporate Social Responsibility $100,000
Inter-American Development Bank and the Organization of American States - Working Group on Probity and Public Ethics Completed
- This conference deepened dialogue on corporate social responsibility among governments, business, labour groups and non-governmental organizations in the hemisphere.
- 02-006 Basic Investigators Course $100,000
Institute for International Criminal Investigations (IICI) Completed
- The project used existing studies and reports relating to the humanitarian impact of sanctions to review existing assessment techniques and indicators with the aim of developing a standardized sanctions assessment methodology. After consultation with governments and non-governmental representatives, the results were presented in the form a Sanctions Assessment Handbook. This handbook will help guide the UN Security Council Sanctions Committees in their work.
- 02-004 ICC Francophonie Meeting $30,000
Agence intergouvernemental de la Francophonie Completed
- This regional seminar on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute for La Francophonie's included ten African member states from the Indian Ocean region and North Africa.
- 02-003 ICC Implementation Project in Nigeria $5,000
Nigerian Coalition for the International Criminal Court (NCICC) Completed
- The Human Security Program sponsored the "ICC Implementation Project in Nigeria", held November 11-16, 2002 and organized by the Nigerian Coalition on the International Criminal Court (NCICC). The event included a workshop for government officials, a roundtable with parliamentarians, a symposium for legal professionals, the academia and students, and an advocacy workshop for civil society.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

02-002 ICC Defence Bar	$31,500
International Criminal Defence Attorneys Association (ICDAA)	Completed
This conference, held in Montreal, was attended by representatives from 68 international, regional and national Bars and associations of counsel, as well as individual legal practitioners and NGO representatives. Participants passed a resolution to establish the International Criminal Bar (ICB) for the ICC and the first meeting of the General Assembly of the ICB was held in Berlin in March.
01-232 Develop and Implement an Assistance Strategy for Sri Lanka	$20,916.27
The Forum of Federations	Completed
This exploratory mission allowed the Forum of Federations to assess how best it can implement projects and activities relating to technical assistance on the practice of federal and/or decentralized governance, in support of the peace process.
01-203 Inter-American Democratic Charter	$43,763.85
University of British Columbia	Completed
Support for a conference that examined the dilemmas and options facing international efforts to defend democracy and its institutions in the Americas. The conference brought together policy makers, academics, students and members of civil society.
01-180 ICC Youth Campaign	$80,000
War Child Canada	Completed
Warchild Canada launched an information campaign to make Canadian youth more aware of the ICC and of international justice issues. The campaign included online chats, live workshops and presentations to educate youth about the ICC. On March 1-3, 2002, Warchild held the Youth Conference on International Justice and Accountability in Ottawa. The conference brought together 50 high school and university students from across the country to address issues surrounding the ICC, such as crimes against humanity, armed conflicts and the protection of children, terrorism, and the role of civil society and youth.
01-098 Regional Seminar for West Africa on the International Criminal Court	$30,000
International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)	Completed
A regional workshop on the International Criminal Court which was results-oriented, with efforts made to ensure that tangible and enduring results in West Africa stem from the event.
01-091 Hemispheric Sponsorship Project	$220,460.16
Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC)	Completed
The Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) offered training to 160 selected personnel, mostly civilians, from 33 countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, as part of Canada's overall engagement on peacekeeping and hemispheric security.
01-041 Khartoum Monitor - Spreading the Word	$40,000
Khartoum Monitor Daily	Completed
The Khartoum Monitor increased its distribution to the cities of Wau, Bentiu and Malakal in the South. The paper added an extra page where issues such as the civil war, human rights, women's health, and war affected children were discussed. The Monitor also developed a website to inform the Sudanese Diaspora.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Governance and Accountability

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 01-028 International Criminal Court Technical Assistance Program: Phase II
International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR)

The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) launched the second phase of a project aimed at producing information materials explaining the Statute, its future rules of procedure and the way in which each country must modify its laws to ensure conformity with the Statute. | $65,000
Completed |
| 01-017 IMPACS International Media and Peacebuilding Center
Institute for Media Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS)

The Institute for Media Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS) launched the International Media and Peace Building Centre and an interactive website. The Centre provides a one-stop information point for people working in media and peacebuilding to network, share expertise, and discuss policy development around the issues of media, democracy and good governance. | $120,000
Completed |
| 01-002 Network of National Institutions of the Protection of Human Rights of the Americas
Canadian Human Rights Commission

The Canadian Human Rights Commission, in cooperation with the National Human Rights Commission of Mexico, hosted a meeting of National Institutions (NIs) in Mexico City with the objective of establishing a regional network. In its concluding Statement, signed by six NIs, it was resolved to create the Network of National Institutions for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights of the Americas. | $127,000
Completed |
| 00-053H Mechanism for Inter-American Convention Against Corruption
Organization of the American States

The Organization of American States (OAS) organized a conference to develop the basic elements of a follow-up Mechanism to the Convention, including its purposes, basic principles, characteristics and structure. | $50,000
Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- 03-290 Workshop on the Protection of Human Rights While Countering Terrorism in the OSCE Region $50,000
Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Office for Democratic Institutions and Human rights (OSCE/ODIHR) Approved
The OSCE will host a two day working-level workshop to bring together legislative drafters, practitioners and counter-terrorism experts in the region to discuss practical means by which states can protect human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism.
- 03-263 Drug Treatment Court Training for Bermuda, Trinidad and Tobago, and Barbados $31,400
Toronto Drug Treatment Court (TDTC) in partnership with the Department of Justice, Federal Prosecution Service, Ontario Region, and the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH) Approved
The Toronto Drug Treatment Court (TDTC) will organize training sessions in Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados, and Bermuda to provide these countries with training and assistance on the development and implementation of Drug Treatment Courts.
- 03-260 Strengthening Maritime and Port Security in the Caribbean $50,000
International Maritime Organization (IMO) Approved
Funding will be used to supplement IMO Maritime Security Trust fund and Transport Canada funding to organize a workshop and seminar for Caribbean maritime administrations in order to provide experience to assess, establish or enhance appropriate measures to strengthen maritime security on board ships and ashore.
- 03-295 Philippines Financial Intelligence Unit IT Development Project $50,000
The Financial Transactions and Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) On-going
The Financial Transactions and Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) will carry out a technical assistance workshop in Ottawa in March 2004 to prepare selected developing countries to more effectively and efficiently receive, store, and analyze transaction files received from reporting institutions in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing.
- 03-277 Strengthening Maritime and Port Security in APEC Economies $50,000
International Maritime Organization (IMO) On-going
The International Maritime Organization will assist APEC Economies' maritime security agencies to strengthen their port security systems to meet international security standards. Working with Transport Canada, the IMO will deliver a workshop and training session to carry out needs assessments, provide guidance material for creating a national template, and to guide in the project planning for the implementation of the International Ship and Port Facility Security (ISPS) Code.
- 03-262 Regional Airport Drug Enforcement Workshop $50,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) – Drug Branch On-going
The RCMP will organize a five-day workshop in the Dominican Republic on Regional Airport Drug Enforcement targeting investigators from the Caribbean and Latin America, in an effort to develop a comprehensive regional approach to addressing the export/import of illicit drugs.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 03-261 UNODC -Computer-Based Training (CBT) for Anti-Money Laundering in Senegal
United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) | $50,000
On-going |
| UNODC will organize a computer-based interactive training workshop in Senegal on Anti-Money Laundering. The objective of the training is to increase the awareness, knowledge and skills for anti-money laundering activities among law enforcement officials and other stakeholders in the private and public sector in Senegal. | |
| 03-259 Meeting of Cyber security Experts of the Americas to launch the Strategy to Implement a Hemispheric Watch and Warning Network
Inter-American Committee on Terrorism (CICTE) of the Organization of American States (OAS) | $63,150
On-going |
| CICTE will hold a meeting in Ottawa of cyber-security experts to help elaborate and implement a strategy for the establishment of a hemispheric Watch and Warning Network in the Americas. This Network will enable national Computer Security Incident Response Teams (SERTS) to work together to better deal with real-time threats to computer networks and critical infrastructure from malicious acts and accidents. | |
| 03-258 Workshop on Protecting Human Rights While Countering Terrorism - in the Americas
Inter-American Commission on Juridical and Political Affairs (CAJP) in cooperation with the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and the Inter-American Committee Against Terrorism (CICTE) - | $15,376.2
On-going |
| The OAS will convene a two-day workshop bringing together legislative drafters, practitioners and counter-terrorism experts from the OAS region, to discuss practical means by which to ensure that appropriate human rights safeguards are incorporated into all counter-terrorism legislation, policies and programs. | |
| 03-257 Aviation Security Awareness Training Program in the Latin America and Caribbean Regions
Transport Canada, International Relations Branch | $90,000
On-going |
| The International Civil Aviation Organization, working with Transport Canada, will provide 13 workshops and 2 seminars to be delivered by officials from aviation administrations of Member States. The objective of the workshops and seminars is to prepare ICAO Member States in Latin America and the Caribbean for the ICAO Aviation Security (AVSEC) Audits. | |
| 03-256 Customs Case Management and Occurrence Reporting Training to Pakistan Customs Officials
Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Canada Customs and Revenue Agency | $41,500
On-going |
| The RCMP and CCRA will bring together Pakistani Customs officials for a training initiative on: managing cases of cross-border crime and terrorism more efficiently and effectively; and recording occurrences of customs concerns or infiltration in ways that do not compromise the rights and privacy of Pakistani citizens. | |
| 03-255 Technical Experts Workshop on Managing MANPADS Threat to Aviation Security at Airports
Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe - OSCE (Action Against Terrorism Unit) | $50,000
On-going |
| Experts in civil aviation security and counter-terrorism will meet with international MANPADS experts to discuss countermeasures that might be undertaken by airport and security authorities to mitigate man portable air defence systems (MANPADS) threats to civil aviation. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- 03-241 Undercover Operations and Integrity :Regional Workshop for Southeast Asian Countries $70,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) On-going
- The workshop will be aimed at law enforcement officials in a position to develop and implement an undercover program within their country or agency and will be focused on program support, legislation, and policy, human rights protection, transparency and integrity.
- 03-236 Dissemination of Information on the Risks and Consequences of Trafficking in the Dominican Republic $40,480
International Organization for Migration (IOM) On-going
- In 2003, the IOM office in the Dominican Republic prepared, with the assistance of Radio Netherlands Training Center in Costa Rica, a radio series, which dramatizes 10 real-life stories related to people trafficking. With support from the Human Security Program, the IOM will disseminate the radio stories through 85 radio stations all over the country for a 3-month period, and in educational sessions in 90 secondary schools.
- 03-233 RCMP Undercover Training Program $40,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission - CICAD/RCMP/CCSA On-going
- The project will consist of a 4-5 day workshop on the RCMP undercover program. The workshop will be aimed at law enforcement officials in a position to develop and implement an undercover program within their country or agency.
- 03-232 Integrating Health and Enforcement $25,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse control Commission -CICAD/RCMP/CCSA On-going
- CCSA facilitated a two-day workshop in Barbados in January 2004 to CICAD members of the English speaking Caribbean region. The purpose of the workshop was to introduce the Health, Education and Enforcement in Partnership approach, illuminating the potential and steps for developing multi-sectoral partnerships in the region.
- 03-231 Cross-Border Crime Regional Forum (CBCF) $25,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission -CICAD/RCMP/CCSA On-going
- The OAS will undertake to use the HSP contribution to improve understanding within the OAS of the annual Cross-Border Crime Forum (CBCF), which was established to improve Canada-U.S. cooperation as well as improve information sharing within, and between the law enforcement and justice communities.
- 03-227 Participation of Turkish Police Officers in RCMP Undercover Course $14,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police - RCMP-GRC On-going
- The two trainers will work with the RCMP to learn their methods of undercover investigations. The course will also cover legal aspects of citizen protection, and the ethics and appropriateness of undercover operations. Upon their return to Turkey, the trainers will design and conduct courses for other police officers using the RCMP model.
- 03-187 Intelligence Analysis Training in the Americas $40,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) On-going
- The workshops will provide intelligence analysis training to Central American and Caribbean countries.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- 03-186A UNPDC Strengthening the Legal Regime Against Terrorism $63,342
UN Office on Drugs and Crime/Centre for International Prevention UNODC/CICP CICTE On-going Inter-American Committee on Terrorism
- The objective of this project is to promote the ratification and implementation of international counter-terrorism instruments through the development of legislative guidelines and implementation kits and legal advisory services.
- 03-186B CICTE Strengthening the Legal Regime Against Terrorism $61,415
CICTE Inter-American Committee on Terrorism On-going
- The project aims at assisting requesting countries in taking concrete steps towards the ratification and implementation of the existing international instruments related to the prevention and suppression of terrorism.
- 03-159 Study of the Links Between Terrorism and Other Organized Crimes $20,000
International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy, University of British Columbia On-going
- A survey of open sources dealing with the links between crime and terrorism for the benefit for the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, Member States, and the UN Office on Drugs and Crime Terrorism Prevention Branch.
- 03-158 Developing Internet tools in Support of the Norms Against the Use of Disease as a Weapon $55,598
BioWeapons Prevention Project (BWPP) On-going
- The BWPP will enhance its website and create a public discussion forum to increase information exchange, raise awareness and contribute to strengthening the norm against using disease as a weapon.
- 03-122 Secure E-Mail System purchase and training for OAS Member States - Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters $100,000
Department of Justice Canada, with support from the OAS Technical Secretariat for Legal Cooperation Mechanisms On-going
- To permit central authorities established under the various treaties for mutual legal assistance in criminal matters and/or those acting as central authorities in the member states of the Organization of the American States (OAS) to communicate through a secure e-mail system.
- 03-121 Intergovernmental Expert Group on United Nations standards and Norms in Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice $50,000
Justice Canada, the Government of Austria (tentative) and the Centre for International Crime Prevention of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime On-going
- The Department of Justice will bring together criminal justice experts from key developing countries to exchange expertise on how to best implement the UN agreed norms and standards, and prepare proposals to be considered by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its 13th session.
- 03-089 Source Witness Protection $40,000
The Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission - CICAD/RCMP/CCSA On-going
- The project will consist of a 4 day workshop on witness protection with the RCMP. It will review the main components of an effective witness protection program and will focus on program support, legislation, policy.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- | | |
|---|---|
| 03-088 Terrorism and Trans-national Crime: Evolving Challenges to Security and Policing
University of New Brunswick, Centre for Conflict Studies The Centre for Conflict Studies of the University of New Brunswick will bring law enforcement officers from key developing countries including Peru to an international conference to examine the impact of evolving forms of terrorism and trans-national crime on domestic and international security and policing. | $42,500
On-going |
| 02-188 RCMP Witness Protection Program (Mexico)
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) The first phase of the project consists of a three-day seminar organised by the RCMP. A six-day training course followed in Spring 2003. This program will not only help combat transnational organized crime, it will also improve collaboration between law enforcement agencies globally and ensure greater public safety in the region. | $65,000
On-going |
| 03-117 APEC Smart Border Symposium
Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters To "internationalize" the Smart Border Declaration and Plan of Action as a model, the Symposium is aimed at highlighting the benefits of using innovative technology solutions to increase security yet facilitate trade and building the capacity of developing APEC economies to put similar arrangements in place. | $100,000
Completed |
| 02-213 CSCAP Regional Counter-Terrorism Workshop, Vientiane, Laos
Centre for International Relations , University of British Columbia In bringing together specialists and academics working in the area of counter-terrorism, the Conference allowed participating states to share their own experiences with counter-terrorism and strengthen regional security dialogue and cooperation. | $19,824.59
Completed |
| 02-204 CFATF/GAFISUD Typologies Exercise
CFATF Secretariat Representatives from Caribbean countries, who would not be able to participate otherwise, attended this two-day Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Typologies Exercise. | $26,294
Completed |
| 02-183 Protection Against Nuclear Terrorism Program
International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) - the Agency Specific activities were carried out in response to concerns regarding the security and safety of nuclear materials and installations. These included: training in the preparation for inspections of physical protection at nuclear facilities and training in the development and maintenance of physical protection regulations. | $150,000
Completed |
| 02-150 Guide to the Legislative Reforms Required to Implement the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime
International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy developed a "Guide to the Legislative Reforms Required to Implement the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime". This guide is a tool for policy makers, legislators, and legislative drafters in countries preparing for the ratification of the Convention or already taking steps to ensure its full implementation. | $50,000
Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 02-128 Commonwealth Regional Workshops on Implementing UNSCR 1373 with ICC component
Commonwealth Secretariat This multi-phased project provided assistance in the implementing of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373 in commonwealth countries. Four regional workshops helped develop effective counter-terrorism legislation and administrative measures, and law enforcement practice. A complimentary component of the project provided legal assistance to countries on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court. | $125,000
Completed |
| 02-083 Virtual Clearinghouse on Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs
Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse (CCSA) The Clearinghouse is an internet-based initiative to improve global policy and practice by identifying and linking credible and accurate sources of information regarding alcohol, tobacco and other drugs published on the internet, and sharing this information and knowledge with civil society, government and private sector organizations and institutions. | $126,000
Completed |
| 02-059 Strategic Roundtable: Regional and Global Implications of the Anti-Terrorism Campaign: Early Warning and Peacebuilding Perspectives
Forum on Early Warning and Early Response (FEWER) A roundtable took place with the aim of increasing information sharing between local organizations, states and international organizations on key anti-terrorism policy issues. The roundtable helped map the potential regional effects of the anti-terrorism campaign. | $22,500
Completed |
| 02-026 Strengthening Aviation & Airport Security in the Eastern Caribbean
The Directorate of Civil Aviation of the OECS This project provided the OECS Directorate of Civil Aviation, through Transport Canada, with assistance in airport security training and technical expertise to develop rational and affordable airport security plans. | $87,000
Completed |
| 02-022 Counter Terrorism in The Caucus and Central Asia
Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) Supported efforts to bring countries in the Caucasus and Central Asia under the umbrella of the twelve UN counter-terrorism treaties, as well as the UN Convention on Trans-national Organized Crime and its Protocols. | $28,425
Completed |
| 02-001 Typologies meeting on terrorism financing and economic citizenship, Trinidad and Tobago
The Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF) Workshop sessions organised by the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force Secretariat on counter terrorist financing in April 2002 in Trinidad and Tobago. | $22,500
Completed |
| 01-235 Development of the OAS/CICTE counter-terrorism website network
OAS/CICTE The Inter-American Committee Against Terrorism (CICTE) of the Organization of American States (OAS) created and maintains an inter-American data exchange network among competent authorities and specialized experts, as well as an information exchange in areas related to counter-terrorism. | $13,000
Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Public Safety

01-183 Parliamentary Session on Counter Terrorism Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA)	$75,000 Completed
The Special Parliamentary Session on Counter-Terrorism, held in Stockholm, Sweden, brought together legislators from around the world to discuss strategies for dealing with the threat of further terrorism and to explore ways of preventing such activities in the future.
01-117 Youth Links/InterJeunes The Historica Foundation of Canada	$75,000 Completed
Historica developed a new education module that leads students through a series of web-based activities that offer them Canadian educational context within which to learn about and reflect upon terrorism.
01-040 Anti Narcotics Training in Vietnam Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)	$85,657 Completed
The project involved a four-day needs assessment study in Vietnam by RCMP officers with expertise in drug enforcement, followed by two five-day training sessions for local police in Ho Chi Minh and Hanoi. Four RCMP officers instructed 80 Vietnamese officers on police techniques including arrest and search procedures, legal searches, collection of evidence, and surveillance.
00-075 Research into Drug Abuse in Colombia (Rumbos) Organizacion de Estados Iberoamericanos ("OEI")	$50,000 Completed
RUMBOS, the Presidential anti-narcotics and drug rehabilitation agency of Colombia, conducted two studies to explore areas of research in drug prevention and rehabilitation in the Colombia context.
00-063 Empowering Youth Against Drugs Demand Reduction Bureau, Office of the Narcotics Control Board (ONCB) - Thailand	$109,000 Completed
Thailand's Narcotics Control Board provided training for youth leaders in alternative drug abuse prevention and is supporting youth activities against drug abuse in schools and communities.

F

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Research and Communications

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| 03-103 Human Security Report - Phase Two | $450,000 |
| Human Security Centre, Liu Institute for Global Issues, University of British Columbia | On-going |
| The Centre for Human Security at the University of British Columbia will produce an annual Human Security Report. Inspired by UNDP's Human Development Report, The Human Security Report will address the widely acknowledged need for an annual report mapping the incidence, consequences, causes and policy responses to global violence – criminal as well as political. | |
| 03-066 Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) - Phase Two | $720,000 |
| University of British Columbia: Centre for International Relations (CIR) in the Liu Centre for the Study of Global Issues. | On-going |
| The CCHS will continue to promote Canadian research and analysis through initiatives such as the Human Security Fellowship research program which will help place Canada on the cutting edge of human security research. The CCHS will also continue to publish the Human Security Bulletin, a widely recognised publication which is distributed to over 2000 individuals and organisations. | |
| 01-236 Human Security Report - Phase One | $81,996.15 |
| Liu Centre / University of British Columbia | Completed |
| Data was collected in preparation for the production of an annual "Human Security Report." The report maps the incidence and intensity of global violence, reviews the latest research findings on the causes and consequences of political and criminal violence and discusses policy responses. | |
| 01-048 Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) - Phase One | $718,941.03 |
| University of British Columbia | Completed |
| The Canadian Consortium for Human Security, which is under the responsibility of UBC's Institute of International Relations and which includes Victoria University, Royal Roads University and the Université du Québec à Montréal, will develop a comprehensive research on the international dimensions of human security, encourage a regular interaction between members of the civil society, and act as a civil society's credible partner in the dialogue with the Government of Canada. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- 03-272 Field Advisor to Support National Preparations for DDR, Sudan $174,705
United Nations Development Program - UNDP Approved
- This project will fund the deployment of a Canadian DDR expert to the UNDP for the period of one year. The Canadian expert will assist in the development of key preparatory activities required for: effective multi-agency support to DDR; enhanced national capacities to plan for and implement DDR programs; and, reintegration, reconciliation and community-based weapons reduction.
- 03-270 Technical Assistance for Lusophone African States in the Process of Ratification and Domestic Implementation of Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court -ICC $50,000
Rights & Democracy Approved
- Rights and Democracy will provide technical assistance for Lusophone African States on the process of ratification and domestic implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC).
- 03-246 Canada-UK Policy Options Paper on the Consolidation of Peace in Africa $40,000
Centre for International Studies, University of Oxford Approved
- This project (through research and consultative roundtables involving scholars and practitioners) will result in the development of a policy options paper evaluating existing arrangements for the consolidation of peace in Africa and offer recommendations as to how relevant international institutional arrangements might be strengthened.
- 03-136 Workshops on Cross-Regional Analysis of Gender, Armed Conflict, Peace Processes, and Reconstruction $49,854
Feinstein International Famine Center, Tufts University, Medford, MA Approved
- This project in Northern Uganda, South Sudan and Afghanistan will bring together research teams to develop a three-year, cross-regional, comparative study on the gender dimensions of peace processes, peace accords, and disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration (DDR) processes.
- 03-274 CLO-Police Service Commission Partnership to Improve External Oversight of the Police Abuses in Nigeria $50,000
Civil Liberties Organization On-going
- The aim of this project is to train the PSC to be more effective in their investigations of alleged abuses and to educate the general public about the PSC. Funding will be used to train the PSC staff in investigative techniques both in classroom setting and in the field. A handbook to accompany the training sessions will also be developed.
- 03-261 UNODC -Computer-Based Training (CBT) for Anti-Money Laundering in Senegal $50,000
United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) On-going
- UNODC will organize a computer-based interactive training workshop in Senegal on Anti-Money Laundering. The objective of the training is to increase the awareness, knowledge and skills for anti-money laundering activities among law enforcement officials and other stakeholders in the private and public sector in Senegal.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- | | | |
|---------------|---|--------------------------------|
| 03-220 | Workshop for Increased Advocacy for Peace and Justice in Northern Uganda,
Human Rights and Peace Centre (HURIPEC) in Partnership with Liu Institute, University of British Columbia | $6,780
On-going |
| | The Coalition for Peace and Justice in Northern Uganda will organize three local-level public dialogues in Northern Uganda to discuss Human Rights Reports and develop advocacy strategies; implement a national conference to identify advocacy strategies; organize an international delegation of six representatives from Northern Uganda to visit and meet with the Commonwealth, the Government of Canada, the United Nations, and US Congress to advocate for recommendations stemming from research and participatory input at local dialogues and the national conferences; and finally produce and disseminate two papers. | |
| 03-200 | Strengthening the Governance Mechanisms for the AU/ECOWAS Standby Forces
Multi-National Standby High Readiness Brigade for UN Operations (SHIRBRIG) | $18,100
On-going |
| | The goal of this project is to assist two African senior officials in establishing similar governing mechanisms for the proposed African standby brigades at the regional and sub-regional level through their attendance at the 20th meeting of the Steering Committee to be held in Copenhagen, Denmark. | |
| 03-192 | National Workshop on the Implementation of the Rome Statute in Sierra Leone (Phase I)
Legal Reform Initiative (LRI) | $23,754.6
On-going |
| | This project assisted Legal Reform Initiative to hold a workshop in December 2003 in Sierra Leone where national and international experts prepared concrete recommendations for the development of domestic legislation to implement the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC). | |
| 03-190 | Research on Reintegration of Ex-combatants and Land Issues in Angola
Development Workshop - Angola | $60,970
On-going |
| | Development Workshop will conduct a field study of six communities in Huambo Province to determine how demobilized soldiers and their families gain access to land, the mechanisms through which land is allocated and difficulties in establishing rights to land within the context of demobilization and reintegration. The results of the research will be disseminated through policy proposals, an official report and a public forum. | |
| 03-189 | Conflict Resolution, Radio Listening Groups, West Darfur State in Sudan
Al Massar Charity Organization for Nomads Development and Environmental Conservation (MONEC) | $18,028.15
On-going |
| | The aim of the project is to deliver independent information to the public in Darfur through radio broadcasts. The project proposes to broadcast 72 radio programs over a 9-month period on the topics of conflict resolution, small arms proliferation, human rights and gender and conflict to a mixed audience in west Darfur. | |
| 03-188 | Les femmes, des instruments de paix: Collectif sur la paix la militarisation
Marche mondiale des femmes / World March of Women / Marcha Mundial de las Mujeres | $50,000
On-going |
| | La Marche mondiale des femmes propose de réunir le Collectif à une reprise pour planifier les interventions de la Marche mondiale des femmes; identifier les propositions à mettre de l'avant pour assurer une application de la résolution 1325 du Conseil de sécurité de l'ONU; et assurer la participation des femmes dans les processus de paix au niveau local et sur la scène internationale. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- | | | |
|---------------|---|------------------|
| 03-174 | Supporting Human Resource Needs of the Human Security Network through the provision of two Young Professionals International (YPI) Participants | $21,500 |
| | Project Ploughshares | On-going |
| | Support for two Young Professionals to assist the Government of Mali in developing and delivering the 2003-04 Human Security Network (HSN) program. One intern will work with the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR) and focus on small arms issues, while also providing support to the Malian mission in Geneva (as Geneva is the focal point for much HSN work). The second participant will work directly within the Mali Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation in Bamako, and would remain there until the Ministerial Meeting in May 2004. | |
| 03-105 | Building Human Security in the Horn of Africa: Confronting the Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW) Challenge | $200,000 |
| | Project Ploughshares/The Africa Peace Forum (APFO) | On-going |
| | This follow-up project aims to engage governments and civil society at the national and regional levels, in support of the implementation of the Nairobi Declaration on small arms (endorsed by the states in the Horn of Africa and the Great Lakes Region in March 2000). Through research and engagement with all relevant stakeholders (i.e. informed dialogue) in the Horn of Africa region, the project will draw out lessons from implementation experience, and begin to develop a human security approach to the problem within the region. | |
| 03-104 | Community Policing, Enhancing Safety and Reducing the Proliferation of Small Arms in Kenya | $50,000 |
| | SaferWorld | On-going |
| | Saferworld aims to launch community-based policing project in Kenya to increase community safety and reduce the proliferation and misuse of small arms by transforming the culture of the Kenya Police and building trust between the police and local communities. The project's main components are developing a new national policy on community-based policing; training and capacity-building for police officers and civil society representatives; implementing community-based policing at two pilot sites; public education and media awareness-raising; institution-building; and strategic management. | |
| 03-077 | Strengthening the Institutional and Organizational Capacities of the Women Centres in Southern Sudan | $50,000 |
| | Sudanese Women Empowerment for Peace (SUWEP) | On-going |
| | To enhance the capacity of women in civil society to participate effectively in the peace process, SUWEP proposes to strengthen the regional women's centres through networking, capacity building and awareness raising. Specific activities include training facilitators in Nairobi to conduct a peace and civic education awareness raising campaign among women; creating a resource manual; conducting regional workshops; and organizing work parties to maintain the women's centres. | |
| 03-072 | Peace, Security, and Governance in Africa's Great Lakes Region | $100,000 |
| | International Peace Academy (IPA) | On-going |
| | IPA, along with African partner institutions and the UN Office for the Great Lakes, organized a seminar in December 2003 and is organizing a follow-up meeting in June 2004 on implementing a security mechanism in the region. The seminar focussed on a broad range of security and governance issues in the Great Lakes region including the interconnected conflicts in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda, and Burundi, as well as the progress of the International Criminal Tribunal on Rwanda. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

03-063 African Secondment to the SHIRBRIG SHIRBRIG	$76,000 On-going
The Planning Element (PLANELM) of SHIRBRIG will provide "on the job" training for an African officer for five months, from August 2003 to December 2003. The candidate will learn or enhance his/her knowledge to plan and mount peacekeeping operations. This knowledge could be used to assist the candidates' home country to become a SHIRBRIG nation or to help facilitate the creation of another Standby High Readiness Brigade.
03-062 ICG African Internship Scheme International Crisis Group (ICG)	$59,768 On-going
To build new capacity, three to six participants will be recruited from post-graduate programs at African universities. They will be offered three or six month placements at one of ICG's main African field offices in Freetown or Nairobi, and will be assigned to one of three ICG field projects covering West Africa, Central Africa and the Horn of Africa.
03-033 Peace on Air: Media Training in Somalia HornAfrik Media Development Center	$78,010 On-going
The HornAfrik Media Development Centre will train Somali radio and television broadcasters to produce interactive programs designed to raise awareness and increase dialogue in Somalia. This six-month project will train 20 Somali artists and broadcasters from a range of clans for two months, produce 12 dramas on issues relevant to peace and conflict to be aired on both television and radio, and facilitate 12 post-broadcast call-in shows to discuss the issues raised in the dramas.
03-009 'Today is Not Tomorrow' Radio Serial Drama in Liberia Search for Common Ground and European Centre for Common Ground	$100,000 On-going
Search for Common Ground proposes to create and broadcast 24 episodes of a radio program entitled, 'Today is not tomorrow' that addresses conflict resolution by producing intra-communal and intra-family dramas.
02-199 Deployment of a Canadian Forces Officer as the Military Advisor to the Special Representative to the Secretary General for West Africa DND and DFAIT	$40,000 On-going
Senior Military Liaison Officer to the UN Special Representative of the Secretary-General (SRSG) for West Africa will assist the SRSG with the implementation of the October 2002 International Court of Justice ruling on the Bakassi border dispute between Nigeria and Cameroon. He will also provide military advice in developing confidence building measures, and recommendations for possible military observers or peacekeepers.
02-156 Human Security and International Diamond Trade in Africa, Phase III Partnership Africa Canada (PAC)	$200,000 On-going
This project includes establishing an advisory committee for PAC's 'Diamond Integrity Protection Project' (DIPP) and recruiting and training a group of individuals able to participate in missions to monitor national control mechanisms in Africa.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- | | |
|--|---|
| 02-133 Electoral Probity and Conflict Management in Nigeria
 Concerned Professionals This project provided an opportunity for stakeholders involved in the electoral process to discuss how to prevent political violence during the elections. Stakeholders included the Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC), political parties, the National Orientation Agency, police, justice sector, civil society organizations and the electorate. | $72,608
 On-going |
| 02-129 Psycho-social support to war affected children through creative activity workshops
 War Child Netherlands - Sudan Office This project helps war-affected children to cope with their sometimes-traumatic experiences by applying creative activities with therapeutic components. | $30,970
 On-going |
| 02-085 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) - Sierra Leone
 United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) Key to the process of building peace in Sierra Leone is discovering the truth of the decade-long civil war and encouraging reconciliation through the work of the TRC. The goals of the TRC are to address impunity, break the cycle of violence, provide a forum for both the victims and perpetrators of human rights violations to tell their story, and get a clear picture of the past in order to facilitate genuine healing and reconciliation. | $400,000
 On-going |
| 03-143 "Africa and the International Criminal Court" - Regional ICC Orientation Conference for National Judges
 Africa Legal Aid A range of international experts from government, academia and civil society delivered an intensive two-day orientation on the principle of "complementarity" upon which the ICC is based, and on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute. | $25,000
 Completed |
| 03-108 Partners in Peacekeeping: Logistics Support Issues of the United Nations and Troop Contributing Countries
 International Peace Academy (IPA) The International Peace Academy and the United Nations Department of Peacekeeping Operations organised a seminar entitled 'Partners in Peacekeeping: Logistics Support Issues of the United Nations and Troop Contributing Countries (TCCs)'. The aim of this seminar was to strengthen the partnership between the UN and TCCs in order to improve operational readiness and strengthen the ability of African TCCs to provide effective peacekeeping logistics support. | $25,142
 Completed |
| 03-039 Appui financier à l'organisation de l'Atelier National sur la sécurité Humaine au Mali
 Ministère des Affaires Etrangères et de la Coopération Internationale du Mali This workshop served the dual purpose of increasing the understanding Malian officials of human security issues in Mali, as well as preparing Mali to assume the Chair of the Human Security Network (HSN). | $11,878
 Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- 03-008 Promotion and Implementation of the Robben Island Guidelines to Prevent Torture in Africa $76,885
Association for the Prevention of Torture (APT) Completed
- The Association for the Prevention of Torture (APT) published and distributed a booklet containing the Robben Island Guidelines; participated in two sessions of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) for 2003; and attended a two-day consultation and planning meeting of members of the Follow-up Committee to draw up an effective three-year program of activities for the promotion and the implementation of the Guidelines. Finally, the APT began the process of regular reporting to the African Commission, under the new agenda item on prevention of torture, based on the Robben Island Guidelines.
- 02-207 Séminaire de validation de l'avant-projet de loi de mise en oeuvre du Statut de Rome au Sénégal $20,000
Le Ministère de la Justice du Sénégal (Direction des Affaires Criminelles et des Grâces) en collaboration avec L'Organisation Nationale des Droits de la Personne Completed
- The aim of this workshop was for government officials, local and international ICC experts to consult on Senegal's draft legislation to implement its obligations under the Rome Statute. A final draft ICC implementing law was produced. This event followed an ICC conference for Senegalese government officials held in October 2001, also sponsored by the Human Security Program.
- 02-159 Alternative Dispute Resolution as a Peacebuilding Tool $31,050
Canadian Bar Association and Ethiopian Bar Association Completed
- The Canadian Bar Association assisted in strengthening Ethiopia's governance system by partnering with the Ethiopian Bar Association to facilitate a workshop on Alternative Dispute Resolution techniques for legal sectors.
- 02-155 Human Rights Training of Journalists in Ghana and Côte d'Ivoire $40,475.34
Journalists for Human Rights (JHR) Completed
- Journalists for Human Rights focused on building the capacity of journalists by transferring knowledge about human rights from Canadian experts to African journalists and journalism institutions through training programs. JHR also worked to ensure that African journalists have a forum for expressing their views about human rights through the creation of monthly newspaper supplements about human rights issues.
- 02-153 Appeal for the Adoption of the Draft Implementation Law of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) $20,000
Lawyers Committee for Human Rights (LCHR) and Ministry of Justice of the DRC Completed
- The project was designed to revise the Ministry of Justice's draft law for the implementation of the Rome Statute and build capacity for its adoption. The project included sessions between Parliamentarians, government officials, civil society, and local and international ICC experts. The final version of the ICC implementation law was presented to the Minister of Justice.
- 02-107 Protection of Civilians Workshops (OCHA) $230,000
Institute for Security Studies (ISS) Completed
- Part of a series of regional workshops, organised by Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) and the South African Institute for Security Studies, the meeting focused on the practical application of Security Council resolutions, and the issue of protecting civilians in armed conflict more broadly. The workshops targeted government officials, parliamentarians, academic institutions and NGOs in southern Africa.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

- 02-084 Civil Society Support in the Mano River Delta $37,500
Centre for Democratic Empowerment (CEDE) Completed
- The Centre for Democratic Empowerment (CEDE) is addressing the sub-regional dimensions of the Mano River Delta conflict by strengthening collaboration among civil society organizations of the Mano River countries and encouraging dialogue between civil society organizations and governments on issues surrounding peace building in the region.
- 02-078 Support to the Commonwealth Special Envoy for Cameroon $50,000
Commonwealth Secretariat Completed
- The Commonwealth Secretary General has nominated Mrs. Christine Stewart as Special Envoy to Cameroon to promote the fundamental political values of the organization as stated in the Harare Declaration, in particular a commitment by the members to the rule of law, human rights, democracy, just and honest government and independence of the judiciary.
- 02-068 Sierra Leone Special Court (Planning Mission) $100,000
RCMP Completed
- The Sierra Leone Special Court will try "those who bear the greatest responsibility" for committing crimes against humanity, war crimes and serious violations of Sierra Leonean law. It will apply to crimes committed from November 30, 1996 onward. This Court is the world's first ever "hybrid" criminal tribunal, applying both international and domestic laws, and employing both international and domestic staff and judges.
- 02-048 Dissemination of human rights and women's rights principles among police forces $22,040.38
Child Rights Watch (CRW) Completed
- This project aimed to integrate human rights principles into the agenda of police forces in the state of Khartoum by training ninety police officers about women's rights and human rights. This training raised awareness and promoted the integration of the human rights principles into police work and legal procedures.
- 02-039 IRIN Outreach Radio Project - Somali Service $40,000
Integrated Regional Information Networks (IRIN) - UNDP Completed
- The Integrated Regional Information Networks (IRIN) Outreach Radio Project in Somalia was set up in January 2001 to provide impartial news and information to the victims of the humanitarian crises in Somalia and to provide these victims with a better understanding of the activities and objectives of the humanitarian community.
- 02-016 Nuba Mountains $213,260
Pearson Peacekeeping Centre Completed
- The project supported the deployment of trainers from the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) to Sudan to begin induction training of Sudanese and international verifiers/monitors of the international cease fire verification mission.
- 02-013 Child to Child Peace and Conflict Resolution $48,922.31
Fellowship for African Relief (FAR) Completed
- Fellowship for African Relief (FAR) helped develop and build a culture of peace among children in internally displaced camps and schools in Sudan through the use of Child-to-Child peace and conflict resolution.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

02-004 ICC Francophonie Meeting	$30,000
Agence intergouvernementale de la Francophonie	Completed
This regional seminar on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute for La Francophonie's included ten African member states from the Indian Ocean region and North Africa.
02-003 ICC Implementation Project in Nigeria	$5,000
Nigerian Coalition for the International Criminal Court (NCICC)	Completed
The Human Security Program sponsored the "ICC Implementation Project in Nigeria", held November 11-16, 2002 and organized by the Nigerian Coalition on the International Criminal Court (NCICC). The event included a workshop for government officials, a roundtable with parliamentarians, a symposium for legal professionals, the academia and students, and an advocacy workshop for civil society.
01-179 Horn of Africa Initiatives	$50,000
WSP International	Completed
Support for a meeting in March 2002 in Nairobi, Kenya, between citizens of both countries in the hope of encouraging a constructive, post-conflict discussion. Participants included intellectuals, teachers, representatives of civil society, and elders from Ethiopia and Eritrea.
01-153 Civil Society Support for the Establishment of National Focal Points	$115,220
Project Ploughshares/Africa Peace Forum (APFO)	Completed
Project Ploughshares and the African Peace Forum (APFO) worked with local civil society institutions in Uganda, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Eritrea, and Rwanda to organise workshops that brought together government officials, law enforcement agencies, and members of civil society to develop their understanding of the UN Program of Action and the Nairobi Declaration Agenda for Action and encouraged these parties to, in turn, continue to compel their respective governments to establish National Focal Points on small arms.
01-098 Regional Seminar for West Africa on the International Criminal Court	$30,000
International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)	Completed
A regional workshop on the International Criminal Court which was results-oriented, with efforts made to ensure that tangible and enduring results in West Africa stem from the event.
01-041 Khartoum Monitor - Spreading the Word	$40,000
Khartoum Monitor Daily	Completed
The Khartoum Monitor increased its distribution to the cities of Wau, Bentiu and Malakal in the South. The paper added an extra page where issues such as the civil war, human rights, women's health, and war affected children were discussed. The Monitor also developed a website to inform the Sudanese Diaspora.
01-033 Sudan Psycho social Centre for Children	$59,278.42
Enfants du Monde - Droits de L'Homme (EMDH)	Completed
Enfants du Monde's Psycho-Social Centre for Children has provided on-going training programs for community centre staff, who serve over 200 vulnerable, displaced and previously imprisoned children. The staff received training in areas of psycho-social recovery, basic health, reintegration issues, children's protection, human rights, the rights of the child, and inter-ethnic relationships.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Africa

00-016 Trafficking in Human Beings in West Africa

$100,000

The United Nations Centre for International Crime Prevention (CICP)

Completed

The aims of the project were to increase existing levels of information on trafficking, strengthen institutional capacity and facilitate data collection on missing persons. The formulation of policies and practical recommendations resulted in stronger joint action against transnational organized criminal groups involved in the trafficking of human beings. It also contributed to a better cooperation among key agencies in the countries of origin, transit and destination.

H

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

- | | |
|--|--|
| 03-228 Human Rights and Public Participation for National Indonesian Police in Jakarta and Aceh Indonesia Police Watch This project will provide training sessions in human rights and conflict resolution with the Indonesian National Police. The project is designed to strengthen and improve the understanding and implementation of human rights and good governance among police working in Aceh. | $80,000 Approved |
| 03-216 Bilateral and Plurilateral Human Rights Symposium Canada, Norway and China: Human Rights, Humanitarian Affairs, International Women's Equality Division In April 1997, Minister Axworthy announced that Canada would expand its bilateral package of initiatives to foster greater respect for human rights in China. One of the activities announced in the package was a Canada-China Human Rights Plurilateral Symposium. Support from the Human Security Program will be used to cover direct conference costs as well as travel costs for participants from developing countries | $50,000 Approved |
| 03-136 Workshops on Cross-Regional Analysis of Gender, Armed Conflict, Peace Processes, and Reconstruction Feinstein International Famine Center, Tufts University, Medford, MA This project in Northern Uganda, South Sudan and Afghanistan will bring together research teams to develop a three-year, cross-regional, comparative study on the gender dimensions of peace processes, peace accords, and disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration (DDR) processes. | $49,854 Approved |
| 03-133 Women, Peace and Security Roundtables -Sri Lanka: A Storm in the Teacup South Asia Partnership Canada A series of Roundtables will be held across Canada in Vancouver, Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa inviting female participants from Sinhala, Tamil and Muslim communities to express their perspectives and opinions about women's role in the Sri Lanka peace process. The Roundtables will create an opportunity for these women living in Canada to participate in consultations regarding the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 in Sri Lanka. | $50,000 Approved |
| 03-295 Philippines Financial Intelligence Unit IT Development Project The Financial Transactions and Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) The Financial Transactions and Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) will carry out a technical assistance workshop in Ottawa in March 2004 to prepare selected developing countries to more effectively and efficiently receive, store, and analyze transaction files received from reporting institutions in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing. | $50,000 On-going |
| 03-271 Afghanistan Corrections Planning Mission 2004 Correctional Service of Canada The planning mission will result in a report which will form the basis of a submission to CIDA for longer term funding to assist in the reform and restructuring of the corrections sector in Afghanistan. | $13,000 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

- | | | |
|---------------|---|------------------|
| 03-256 | Customs Case Management and Occurrence Reporting Training to Pakistan Customs Officials | $41,500 |
| | Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Canada Customs and Revenue Agency | On-going |
| | The RCMP and CCRA will bring together Pakistani Customs officials for a training initiative on: managing cases of cross-border crime and terrorism more efficiently and effectively; and recording occurrences of customs concerns or infiltration in ways that do not compromise the rights and privacy of Pakistani citizens. | |
| 03-241 | Undercover Operations and Integrity :Regional Workshop for Southeast Asian Countries | $70,000 |
| | Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) | On-going |
| | The workshop will be aimed at law enforcement officials in a position to develop and implement an undercover program within their country or agency and will be focused on program support, legislation, and policy, human rights protection, transparency and integrity. | |
| 03-181 | Federalism in Sri Lanka | $100,000 |
| | The Forum of Federations | On-going |
| | The Forum of Federations and South Asia Partnership Canada are working with the negotiating parties and the Sri Lankan community in Canada to support and encourage good governance. Critical areas of focus include: accountability, transparency, the sharing of resources and decision-making, and the promotion of the role of women in this process. | |
| 03-101 | Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific Canada Membership Committee (CSCAP-Canada) | $196,785 |
| | Centre of International Relations, University of British Columbia | On-going |
| | Funding for Canada's participation in the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific (CSCAP) network for the period 1 June 2003 to 31 March 2005. | |
| 03-080 | Women, Security and South Asia: Developing Strategy for Regions of Conflict | $80,000 |
| | South Asia Partnership - SAP Canada | On-going |
| | South Asia Partnership will bring together selected South Asian activists, advocates, academics, journalist and conflict survivors in Colombo, Sri Lanka in February 2004 for a 3-day consultation to discuss issues of concern, to share experiences, and draft a common 'Plan of Action' for peace and security in the region. | |
| 03-067 | Beijing Symposium: Comparative Study of International Criminal Law and the Rome Statute | $14,000 |
| | Chinese Society of International Law in cooperation with Criminal Law Center and the Association for Advanced Legal Learning | On-going |
| | The Chinese Society of International Law are holding a conference in Beijing in October 2003 to bring together national, regional and international ICC activists and experts with government officials to promote the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute by China. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

- | | |
|--|---|
| 03-049 Strengthening Protection of Women Migrant Workers in a Globalized World - Training the Trainers Canadian Human Rights Foundation The Canadian Human Rights Foundation in partnership with the Asia-Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development in Thailand, the Asian Migrant Centre in Hong Kong and the Ateneo Human Rights Centre in the Philippines will develop a specialized training for trainers manual and workshop for participants from South, Southeast and East Asia. The purpose of the manual and workshop is to create greater awareness about the plight of women migrant workers. | $80,000 On-going |
| 03-045 A Regional Campaign towards more Ratifications and Effective Implementation of the International Criminal Court in Asia Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA) NGO Coalition for an International Criminal court (CICC) in Asia FORUM ASIA is undertaking a one-year project to increase capacity for the ratification and effective implementation of the Rome Statute by countries in Asia. | $50,000 On-going |
| 03-035 IACC Youth Forum Transparency International (TI) The 11th International Anti-Corruption Conference (IACC) Youth Forum which brought together up to 200 youth in Seoul, South Korea in May 2003. The Forum aims to raise awareness among youth on improving governance in their countries, and to add new momentum to the existing anti-corruption movement. | $49,868 On-going |
| 03-025 East Timor's Special Panels for Serious Crimes American University Washington, College of Law War Crimes Research Office The Special Panels are responsible for prosecuting the perpetrators of grave violations of international and national law committed in East Timor. This research and training initiative will enhance the effectiveness of this institution by directly providing legal research services, as well as legal research training for the judges and staff of the Panels. | $114,897 On-going |
| 03-015 Indian Federalism and Its Impact on the Regional Peace Alternatives Alternatives is bringing together influential grassroots organizations in an effort to create a space for Indian civil society institutions and government agencies to begin improving understanding and encouraging the evolving political scenario in India. | $50,000 On-going |
| 03-012 Support to the Fifth International Conference of New or Restored Democracies Government of Mongolia/United Nations Development Program (UNDP) The fifth ICNRD will take place in Mongolia in June 2003. Participation in the Conference will include representatives from national governments, legislatures and civil society involved in promotion of democracy and good governance. | $125,000 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

02-178 Building Bridges to Marginalized Youth in Central Eurasia: Conflict Prevention through Alternatives to Extremism	$147,780
Street Kids International (SKI)	On-going
This project will foster effective policy debate among government authorities, civil society leaders and international donors regarding the needs of marginalized youth. It will pave the way for a multiyear program within the youth service sectors of Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan, and promote the inclusion of youth in the long-term development of civil society in their countries.
02-161 Women and Peace Building in Solomon Islands	$87,950
CUSO (Canadian University Services Organization)	On-going
Canadian University Services Organization (CUSO) will develop a Women for Peace program that will prepare women as peacemakers and active participants in national peace building processes.
02-142 The Magazine Project (Searching for the Truth)	$57,600
The Documentation Center of Cambodia	On-going
The Documentation Center of Cambodia continued and expanded publication of Searching for the Truth, a magazine aimed at creating a forum for public engagement and debate on issues related to the Khmer Rouge era with particular emphasis on missing persons.
02-046 Searching for Peace in Asia and the Pacific	$50,000
European Centre for Conflict Prevention (ECCP)	On-going
This project aims to collect and distribute information about the causes and reasons behind violent conflicts in Asia Pacific. This project will also support and promote the role of civil society in peacebuilding through networking and information sharing.
03-139 Cambodian Election Results Gathering and Distribution Project	$45,100
Consultants Arnold Amber, Clive Valentine, Gary McCarthy	Completed
Expertise and training to National Election Commission (NEC) staff on methods to disseminate preliminary election results quickly and accurately.
03-107 Symposium on Confidence and Cooperation in South Asian Waters	$30,023.61
Pendragon Applied Research	Completed
Dalhousie University hosted two meetings with naval personnel from India and Pakistan aimed at building confidence and establishing concrete measures to prevent incidents at sea in disputed South Asia waters.
02-213 CSCAP Regional Counter-Terrorism Workshop, Vientiane, Laos	$19,824.59
Centre for International Relations , University of British Columbia	Completed
In bringing together specialists and academics working in the area of counter-terrorism, the Conference allowed participating states to share their own experiences with counter-terrorism and strengthen regional security dialogue and cooperation.
02-131 ICC Follow up conference in Cambodia	$15,500
Center for Restorative Justice in Asia (CRJA)	Completed
The event brought government officials from twelve Southeast Asian countries together with international experts on the ICC to identify the means by which each country could ratify/accede to and implement the Rome Statute.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

02-102 Justice Assessment Mission The International Cooperation Group (Department of Justice in Canada) Recognising that the problems affecting Afghanistan's justice sector are complex and cut across different institutions, the International Cooperation Group at the Department of Justice undertook a mission to assess what is needed to strengthen Afghanistan's justice system, and where Canadian technical expertise can have the greatest impact.	$50,000 Completed
02-101 Program in Support of Peace Process in Sri Lanka Forum of Federations Technical expertise in the area of decentralised governance was provided with the aim of strengthening the peace process. The project was also useful in identifying key areas where Canada could further support and encourage good governance in Sri Lanka.	$83,732 Completed
02-094 Afghan Women's Governance and Leadership Training roundtables YWCA of Canada A series of roundtable discussions on peace and security took place where Afghan women debated how best to help women participate as full and equal agents in the reconstruction of Afghanistan. Recommendations were distributed to government officials in both Canada and Afghanistan.	$49,600 Completed
02-057 Supporting conflict-sensitive media competencies and media peacebuilding potentials in Sri Lanka. The Institute for Media, Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS) Through workshops and consultations with local editors and journalists, the project imparted participants with the necessary skills to report on the Sri Lankan ceasefire and peace process with greater accuracy and impartiality. Ultimately, this resulted in a better-informed public and a more positive reaction to the negotiations.	$50,000 Completed
02-022 Counter Terrorism in The Caucus and Central Asia Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) Supported efforts to bring countries in the Caucasus and Central Asia under the umbrella of the twelve UN counter-terrorism treaties, as well as the UN Convention on Trans-national Organized Crime and its Protocols.	$28,425 Completed
02-019 Symposium on Confidence & Cooperation in South Asian Waters Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, Dalhousie University Funding from the HSP was provided to enable the participation of 3 Canadian experts in the Symposium held in April/May 2002. The symposium aimed to build maritime confidence and cooperation between India and Pakistan, particularly in respect to maritime border disputes and incidents at sea (INCSEA).	$23,107 Completed
02-015 ICC Mongolia Meeting World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of the NGO Coalition for an International Criminal Court The Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) coordinated a national conference in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, in order to produce recommendations and draft provisions for the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute by Mongolia.	$37,000 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

01-232	Develop and Implement an Assistance Strategy for Sri Lanka The Forum of Federations	$20,916.27 Completed
	This exploratory mission allowed the Forum of Federations to assess how best it can implement projects and activities relating to technical assistance on the practice of federal and/or decentralized governance, in support of the peace process.
01-228	Afghanistan Surge Capacity CANADEM	$23,300 Completed
	CANADEM assembled expert lists of Afghan-Canadians (in partnership with South Asia Partnership) and Canadian regional and substantive experts (human rights, civil affairs, gender advisors, rule of law, etc.)
01-204	Afghanistan Reconstruction Project Centre on International Cooperation	$200,000 Completed
	The Center on International Cooperation at New York University established working groups on legal affairs and women's affairs as part of the Afghanistan Reconstruction Project, at the request of the office of the Special Representative of the Secretary General for Afghanistan (SRSG) Lakhdar Brahimi, to identify priority reconstruction projects for the country.
01-198	Afghanistan/Pakistan Project International Crisis Group (ICG)	$72,000 Completed
	This project supported the preparation of three field reports on Afghanistan and Kashmir. The aim of these reports is to provide policy makers with timely analysis of issues related to conflict and peacebuilding in Afghanistan, Pakistan and India, and to offer detailed policy recommendations.
01-097	The Impact on Human Security of HIV/AIDS in South Asian Militaries Centre for South Asian Studies, King's College, University of London	$50,000 Completed
	This project examined the critical effects of HIV/AIDS on the armed forces in South Asia - Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka - and the concomitant impact on the civilian populations.
01-072	Crisis in Central Asia - Oil Politics and Economic Perspectives Alternatives	$50,000 Completed
	The project brought together NGO practitioners and academics to promote a better understanding of the situation in South and Central Asia, to discuss the risks and potential outcomes of the war in Afghanistan, and particularly the issue of oil and economic development.
01-065	Conflict Transformation Workshops in Flores and West Timor, Indonesia Peace Bridges International, Indonesia and East Timor Project	$15,000 Completed
	Peace Brigades International (PBI) conducted four, four-day workshops on conflict and conflict resolution in Flores and West Timor.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Asia

01-040 Anti Narcotics Training in Vietnam

Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)

$85,657

Completed

The project involved a four-day needs assessment study in Vietnam by RCMP officers with expertise in drug enforcement, followed by two five-day training sessions for local police in Ho Chi Minh and Hanoi. Four RCMP officers instructed 80 Vietnamese officers on police techniques including arrest and search procedures, legal searches, collection of evidence, and surveillance.

00-063 Empowering Youth Against Drugs

Demand Reduction Bureau, Office of the Narcotics Control Board (ONCB) - Thailand

$109,000

Completed

Thailand's Narcotics Control Board provided training for youth leaders in alternative drug abuse prevention and is supporting youth activities against drug abuse in schools and communities.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Europe and Former Soviet Union (FSU)

- 03-290 Workshop on the Protection of Human Rights While Countering Terrorism in the OSCE Region $50,000
Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Office for Democratic Institutions and Human rights (OSCE/ODIHR) Approved
The OSCE will host a two day working-level workshop to bring together legislative drafters, practitioners and counter-terrorism experts in the region to discuss practical means by which states can protect human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism.
- 03-255 Technical Experts Workshop on Managing MANPADS Threat to Aviation Security at Airports $50,000
Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe - OSCE (Action Against Terrorism Unit) On-going
Experts in civil aviation security and counter-terrorism will meet with international MANPADS experts to discuss countermeasures that might be undertaken by airport and security authorities to mitigate man portable air defence systems (MANPADS) threats to civil aviation.
- 03-229 Civil Society Initiative to Support the Establishment of Cross-Border Customs Advising Centers and Student Legal Clinics in the Ferghana Valley $122,000
The Eurasia Foundation On-going
This project will fund the establishment of two cross-border legal advising centers at high-traffic junctions on the Uzbek-Kyrgyz and Tajik-Kyrgyz borders.
- 03-227 Participation of Turkish Police Officers in RCMP Undercover Course $14,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police - RCMP-GRC On-going
The two trainers will work with the RCMP to learn their methods of undercover investigations. The course will also cover legal aspects of citizen protection, and the ethics and appropriateness of undercover operations. Upon their return to Turkey, the trainers will design and conduct courses for other police officers using the RCMP model.
- 03-031 Towards dialogue between Civil Society and Government in Kyrgyzstan $37,500
Institute of War and Peace Reporting, Bishkek Office On-going
This pilot initiative will aim to build the capacity of members of the Kyrgyz Parliament, senior governmental officials, journalists, and civil society activists to implement peaceful skills and techniques of dialogue, debate and advocacy. A series of training workshops and roundtable discussions will be held across the country over a six-month period. A monthly newsletter entitled Dialogue will be published which will address and analyze key issues discussed during the roundtables. The project will culminate with a national conference on the theme: "Authority and Civil Society: New Challenges".
- 02-127 Small Arms and Light Weapons Ammunition Destruction Project for Albania $100,000
NAMSA (NATO Maintenance and Supply Agency) On-going
With support from Canada's Human Security Program, as well other European and North American nations, the NATO Maintenance and Supply Agency (NAMSA) will destroy or convert 20 different types of ammunition, totaling 81 million items and more than 11,000 tons. The project will also establish a well-equipped centre for demilitarization in Albania and, potentially, for the whole Balkans region.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Europe and Former Soviet Union (FSU)

02-007 Peace Journalism Peace Action, Training and Research Institute of Romania (PATRIR) The Peace Journalism Program is an intensive training program to explore the role of the media in war, conflict and peace. Thirty-five junior and senior journalists, investigative reporters, news anchors and news desk editors from South Eastern Europe will benefit from this training.	$20,216 On-going
03-024 Best Practices in Combating Trafficking of Minors in the Baltic Sea Region Council of Baltic Sea States/Children's Unit This conference addressed issues of victim assistance and rehabilitation, prevention, anti-trafficking legislation, interdiction efforts and demand reduction. This gathering brought together working-level government officials and NGO representatives to analyse each issue. Human Security Program funds were used to ensure Russian and Baltic participation.	$10,196.63 Completed
03-018 ICC: Implementation in Central and Southeastern Europe International Criminal Law Society in cooperation with the European Office of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (ICICC); the Center for Legal Resources, Bucharest, and the German Foundation for International Legal Cooperation (RZ) Bonn The conference focused primarily on ICC implementation, bringing ICC experts from the region together to present their countries' draft implementation laws and discuss issues of the national implementation of the Rome Statute.	$15,000 Completed
02-208 Orientation Seminar for the Judges of the International Criminal Court International Criminal Court An orientation seminar for newly-elected Judges to the International Criminal Court (ICC). The seminar was attended by the 18 judges of the ICC, including Canadian, Philippe Kirsch, who is the President of the Court.	$25,000 Completed
02-141 International Conference on the Termination of War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic All-Russian Public Movement "For Human Rights on behalf of the Russian National Committee for the Termination of War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic Support for an effort by the All-Russian Public Movement for Human Rights that brought together high-level Russian civil society and government representatives for an International Peace Conference on the Termination of the War and Restoration of Peace in the Chechen Republic.	$40,000 Completed
02-065 Women for Society Campaign Association for Culture, Education and Communication (ACEC) The Women for Society Campaign worked to restore womens' confidence in the democratic process. The campaign increased female voter turnout and womens' participation in elections.	$50,000 Completed
02-062 Elections in Slovakia (It Matters to Us) Obcianske oko (Civic Eye) Slovakian civic organisations launched pre-election campaigns to increase voter turnout. One called 'It Matters to Us', targeted young, middle-aged and first-time voters through the print, radio and television media. Working with NGOs and local celebrities, the campaign aims to increase voter participation.	$50,000 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Europe and Former Soviet Union (FSU)

02-017 Peace Festival: Building A Culture and Vision for Peace in Europe

Peace Action, Training and Research Institute of Romania (PATRIR)

$10,500

Completed

"A Festival for Peace: Building a Culture and Vision for Peace in Europe" was a six-day youth conference in Cluj, set up to explore means by which young people can contribute to resolving the conflicts of the future in a peaceful and constructive way.

01-101 Peacebuilding Project Chechnya-Russia

Centre for Conflict Management, Norway

$84,555

Completed

This project enhanced an already-established dialogue between Chechen and Russian civil societies by bringing together key resource people from both Chechnya and Russia in order to foster better relationships, empower local capacities for peace and produce concrete, achievable peacebuilding activities.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 03-263 Drug Treatment Court Training for Bermuda, Trinidad and Tobago, and Barbados
 Toronto Drug Treatment Court (TDTC) in partnership with the Department of Justice, Federal Prosecution Service, Ontario Region, and the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH) The Toronto Drug Treatment Court (TDTC) will organize training sessions in Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados, and Bermuda to provide these countries with training and assistance on the development and implementation of Drug Treatment Courts. | $31,400
Approved |
| 03-260 Strengthening Maritime and Port Security in the Caribbean
 International Maritime Organization (IMO) Funding will be used to supplement IMO Maritime Security Trust fund and Transport Canada funding to organize a workshop and seminar for Caribbean maritime administrations in order to provide experience to assess, establish or enhance appropriate measures to strengthen maritime security on board ships and ashore. | $50,000
Approved |
| 03-093 Human Rights and Reform of the The National Police Force of Peru (PNP)
 The Ombudsman's Office This project would provide human rights training for the police from various regions across Peru, with a focus on areas which have a high level of alleged human rights abuses as well as border areas which have a level of migratory traffic. | $90,000
Approved |
| 03-278 OAS -Carter Center joint Mission for the Verification of Signatures - Venezuela 2003-04
 Organization of American States (OAS) - Unit for the Promotion of Democracy The OAS will send a team composed of specialists in systems analysis and legal affairs, plus a core group of OAS staff members and special advisors. The Mission will be present all stages of verification and validation of petitions and signatures. | $25,000
On-going |
| 03-276 Executive Seminar in Peace Operations
 Pearson Peacekeeping Centre This project will fund the delivery of a Peace Operations Course to students at the Inter-America Defence College (IADC) in Washington D.C. from February 9-20, 2004. The goal of the course is to enhance operational effectiveness of participants who will consider and plan for participation in modern complex peace operations. | $48,000
On-going |
| 03-273 Modernization of Bolivia's Military: Diversity and Representation
 Canadian Forces Leadership Institute (CFLI) in Bolivia; Department of National Defence (DND) CFLI and the Bolivian military college will jointly prepare a curriculum for a preparatory year in order to standardize entry knowledge among indigenous recruits and the entry officer corps. A second component of the project will be an education campaign within the Bolivian forces focusing on equal and responsible citizenship in the military. | $110,000
On-going |
| 03-269 Democracy and Justice Observatory (Observatorio Judicial y Democrático) in Venezuela
 Asociacion Civil Consorcio Justicia The NGO will work with other organizations, both nationally and regionally, to develop recommendations aimed at improving the transparency and accountability of the judiciary system. Funding will also be used to develop advocacy and training activities oriented towards citizens, community leaders, the media people and judicial authorities to ensure a future role of citizens in the monitoring of the judicial system. | $49,800
On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- 03-262 Regional Airport Drug Enforcement Workshop $50,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) – Drug Branch On-going
- The RCMP will organize a five-day workshop in the Dominican Republic on Regional Airport Drug Enforcement targeting investigators from the Caribbean and Latin America, in an effort to develop a comprehensive regional approach to addressing the export/import of illicit drugs.
- 03-259 Meeting of Cyber security Experts of the Americas to launch the Strategy to Implement a Hemispheric Watch and Warning Network $63,150
Inter-American Committee on Terrorism (CICTE) of the Organization of American States (OAS) On-going
- CICTE will hold a meeting in Ottawa of cyber-security experts to help elaborate and implement a strategy for the establishment of a hemispheric Watch and Warning Network in the Americas. This Network will enable national Computer Security Incident Response Teams (SERTS) to work together to better deal with real-time threats to computer networks and critical infrastructure from malicious acts and accidents.
- 03-258 Workshop on Protecting Human Rights While Countering Terrorism - in the Americas $15,376.2
Inter-American Commission on Juridical and Political Affairs (CAJP) in cooperation with the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and the Inter-American Committee Against Terrorism (CICTE) - On-going
- The OAS will convene a two-day workshop bringing together legislative drafters, practitioners and counter-terrorism experts from the OAS region, to discuss practical means by which to ensure that appropriate human rights safeguards are incorporated into all counter-terrorism legislation, policies and programs.
- 03-257 Aviation Security Awareness Training Program in the Latin America and Caribbean Regions $90,000
Transport Canada, International Relations Branch On-going
- The International Civil Aviation Organization, working with Transport Canada, will provide 13 workshops and 2 seminars to be delivered by officials from aviation administrations of Member States. The objective of the workshops and seminars is to prepare ICAO Member States in Latin America and the Caribbean for the ICAO Aviation Security (AVSEC) Audits.
- 03-236 Dissemination of Information on the Risks and Consequences of Trafficking in the Dominican Republic $40,480
International Organization for Migration (IOM) On-going
- In 2003, the IOM office in the Dominican Republic prepared, with the assistance of Radio Netherlands Training Center in Costa Rica, a radio series, which dramatizes 10 real-life stories related to people trafficking. With support from the Human Security Program, the IOM will disseminate the radio stories through 85 radio stations all over the country for a 3-month period, and in educational sessions in 90 secondary schools.
- 03-233 RCMP Undercover Training Program $40,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission - CICAD/RCMP/CCSA On-going
- The project will consist of a 4-5 day workshop on the RCMP undercover program. The workshop will be aimed at law enforcement officials in a position to develop and implement an undercover program within their country or agency.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

03-232 Integrating Health and Enforcement	$25,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse control Commission -CICAD/RCMP/CCSA	On-going
CCSA facilitated a two-day workshop in Barbados in January 2004 to CICAD members of the English speaking Caribbean region. The purpose of the workshop was to introduce the Health, Education and Enforcement in Partnership approach, illuminating the potential and steps for developing multi-sectoral partnerships in the region.
03-231 Cross-Border Crime Regional Forum (CBCF)	$25,000
Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission -CICAD/RCMP/CCSA	On-going
The OAS will undertake to use the HSP contribution to improve understanding within the OAS of the annual Cross-Border Crime Forum (CBCF), which was established to improve Canada-U.S. cooperation as well as improve information sharing within, and between the law enforcement and justice communities.
03-204 Civil Society Consultations on the Hemispheric Security Review and Governance	$50,000
Latin American Faculty for Social Sciences (FLACSO)	On-going
FLACSO - Chile will organize an international conference to follow-up on the Special Conference and the Special Summit, to be held in Santiago in March, 2004. The conference will bring together government actors, civil society, and academics to discuss the implications of the recent conferences and advance future initiatives.
03-203 Support for a Strategic Reappraisal of the Regional Security System of the Eastern Caribbean	$75,000
Regional Security System	On-going
The Regional Security System (RSS) is a treaty-based multilateral organization in the Eastern Caribbean, which facilitates joint and combined responses to key threats including narcotics trafficking and natural disasters. The two main elements of this project include: the provision of a senior Canadian expert as Chair of a multinational Review Team undertaking a strategic reappraisal of the mandate, configuration and operations of the RSS; and support for education and outreach to assure public engagement in the review process.
03-187 Intelligence Analysis Training in the Americas	$40,000
Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)	On-going
The workshops will provide intelligence analysis training to Central American and Caribbean countries.
03-186A UNPDC Strengthening the Legal Regime Against Terrorism	$63,342
UN Office on Drugs and Crime/Centre for International Prevention UNODC/CICP CICTE Inter-American Committee on Terrorism	On-going
The objective of this project is to promote the ratification and implementation of international counter-terrorism instruments through the development of legislative guidelines and implementation kits and legal advisory services.
03-186B CICTE Strengthening the Legal Regime Against Terrorism	$61,415
CICTE Inter-American Committee on Terrorism	On-going
The project aims at assisting requesting countries in taking concrete steps towards the ratification and implementation of the existing international instruments related to the prevention and suppression of terrorism.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|--|--|
| 03-184 Regional Forums for the Civilian-Military Relations, National Reconciliation and Support for the Definition of Defense Policies PARTICIPA This initiative aims to facilitate inclusive discussion on defence policy and contribute to national reconciliation through a series of workshops throughout Guatemala from October to March 2003. | $30,000 On-going |
| 03-172 Electoral Observation Mission (EOM) - General Elections, Guatemala, 2003 Organization of America States (OAS) The OAS will organize a "Forum on Citizen Participation and the Secrecy of the Vote" to support the consolidation of democracy and the voting process in Guatemala, and to stimulate popular participation in the upcoming elections. In addition, this project will produce a final report of the activities conducted by the EOM during the 2003 General Elections. | $52,000 On-going |
| 03-165 Meeting of National Commissions for the Implementation of International Humanitarian Law in America International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) with the cooperation of the Organization of American States (OAS) The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) will gather the 14 inter-ministerial commissions of implementation of international humanitarian law active in the Americas, including Peru, as well as OAS member States interested in establishing such commission, for a critical discussion on their functioning and role as advisory bodies to their respective governments. | $15,000 On-going |
| 03-153 Mexico's Human Rights National Forum United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights - Mexican Office The Mexican Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights will be carrying out regional seminars with local human rights activists and civil society organizations to elaborate a Diagnosis on the Human Rights Situation in Mexico that will serve as a basis for the design and adoption of a National Program on Human Rights. | $50,000 On-going |
| 03-129 Inter-Parliamentary Forum of the Americas (FIPA) Canadian Parliamentary Centre The Canadian Parliamentary Centre offers support for the preparation of the Third FIPA Plenary Meeting, to be held in early 2004, which will provide parliamentarians with an opportunity to debate and discuss issues of relevance to citizens of the Americas and help to build solid democratic institutions. Funds will ensure the sustainability of the organization over the year 2004. | $75,000 On-going |
| 03-128 Three-year Program of Activities of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP) Unit for the Promotion of Democracy, Organization of American States (UPD-OAS) The OAS will organize the Third Annual Meeting of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties, which will take place in Colombia, on November 23-25, 2003. Participants will exchange best practices on campaign and political party financing, party modernization, and challenges faced by the parties to build democratic governance. | $50,000 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| 03-122 Secure E-Mail System purchase and training for OAS Member States - Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters | $100,000 |
| Department of Justice Canada, with support from the OAS Technical Secretariat for Legal Cooperation Mechanisms | |
| On-going | |
| To permit central authorities established under the various treaties for mutual legal assistance in criminal matters and/or those acting as central authorities in the member states of the Organization of the American States (OAS) to communicate through a secure e-mail system. | |
| | |
| 03-092 Civil Society Consultations on the Elaboration of the Defence White Paper in Peru | $44,486 |
| Instituto de Estudios Políticos y Estratégicos (IDEPE) | |
| On-going | |
| The funding will allow the Institute of Political and Strategic Studies (IDEPE) to facilitate consultations involving the Ministry of Defence and civil society organizations in various regions of Peru on a draft Defence White Paper. The initiative aims to build civil-military relations and broaden the participation and influence of civil society in defence policy through civil-military consultations in several regions of the country from October 2003 and July 2004. | |
| | |
| 03-091 Tripartite (Canada-US-UK) Strategic Review of the Jamaican Defence Force | $40,000 |
| Department of National Defence (DND) | |
| On-going | |
| The provision of a team of up to three DND officers would work with colleagues from the US and UK departments of defence to conduct a strategic defence and security review of the Jamaica Defence Force (JDF). This strategic review would reassess Jamaica's security interests and defence needs and consider how the roles, missions and capabilities of the JDF should be adjusted to meet the new security realities. Central to this review would be a recommendation as to the size and shape of the force. | |
| | |
| 03-089 Source Witness Protection | $40,000 |
| The Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission - CICAD/RCMP/CCSA | |
| On-going | |
| The project will consist of a 4 day workshop on witness protection with the RCMP. It will review the main components of an effective witness protection program and will focus on program support, legislation, policy. | |
| | |
| 03-088 Terrorism and Trans-national Crime: Evolving Challenges to Security and Policing | $42,500 |
| University of New Brunswick, Centre for Conflict Studies | |
| On-going | |
| The Centre for Conflict Studies of the University of New Brunswick will bring law enforcement officers from key developing countries including Peru to an international conference to examine the impact of evolving forms of terrorism and trans-national crime on domestic and international security and policing. | |
| | |
| 03-085 Fighting Impunity in Venezuela - (A Step Against Impunity) | $35,000 |
| COFAVIC | |
| On-going | |
| The Comité de Familiares Víctimas de los Sucesos e Febrero y Marzo de 1989 (COFAVIC) will sensitize key sectors of the society about the protection and promotion of human rights and encourage communities to adopt the principles and obligations of human rights and democratic values. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | | |
|---------------|---|------------------------------|
| 03-069 | Office of the General Secretariat in the Adjacency Zone Between Belize and Guatemala
General Secretariat, Organization of American States | $50,000
On-going |
| | The Organization of American States (OAS) created an Office of the General Secretariat in the Adjacency Zone. The Office's principal function will be to monitor both parties' compliance to a series of confidence-building measures designed to lower tensions and manage the situation in the Adjacency Zone, particularly in regard to settlers in the Zone. | |
| 03-058 | Towards an OAS Common Principles on Transfers of Small Arms and Light Weapons
Project Ploughshares (jointly with the Arias Foundation - Costa Rica, Viva Rio - Brazil and the Women's Institute for Alternative Development - Trinidad and Tobago) | $75,000
On-going |
| | Project Ploughshares (jointly with the Arias Foundation, Costa Rica; Viva Rio, Brazil; and the Women's Institute for Alternative Development, Trinidad and Tobago) promoted the establishment of a hemispheric-level instrument setting out some basic common principles regarding the transfer of small arms and light weapons, in accordance with states' existing responsibilities under international law. | |
| 03-051 | Second Annual Central American Workshop for the International Criminal Court (ICC)
Legal Aid Office of the Archbishop of San Salvador Representing the Salvadoran Coalition for the International Criminal Court | $7,400
On-going |
| | The Legal Aid Office of the Archbishop of San Salvador, representing the Salvadoran Coalition for the International Criminal Court (SCICC), organized a regional workshop for representatives of civil society from the countries of Central America, on strategies to affect the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court. | |
| 03-034 | "The Role of the Private Sector in Zones of Conflict" - Latin America Regional Conference
United Nations Global Compact | $75,000
On-going |
| | As a result of the Global Compact Policy Dialogue on "The Role of the Private Sector in Zones of Conflict", a series of regional conferences have been organized to promote the objectives and activities of the Global Compact and to encourage dialogue and co-operation between business, labour, civil society and UN Agencies at the local level. The November 2003 Colombia conference is expected to raise the awareness of company managers to conflict mitigation strategies and develop recommendations for local practitioners in Colombia. | |
| 03-029 | Good Governance and Institutionalization of Dialogue and Consensus for Peru's Social Development
Organization of the American States (OAS) | $100,000
On-going |
| | The Unit for the Promotion of Democracy (UPD) of the Organization of American states (OAS) is working at strengthening the institutional capacity of the newly elected regional governments and at promoting dialogue and consensus building with the national government. | |
| 02-206 | Accompaniment & Human Rights Capacity Building of the Indigenous Populations of the
Defensoria del Pueblo of Colombia - The Office of the Ombudsman | $100,000
On-going |
| | The Colombian Office of the Ombudsman aims at reducing the incidence of displacement among indigenous people in five Colombian provinces as well as at increasing awareness of human rights and international humanitarian law within indigenous communities. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|---|---|
| 02-188 RCMP Witness Protection Program (Mexico)
 Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) The first phase of the project consists of a three-day seminar organised by the RCMP. A six-day training course followed in Spring 2003. This program will not only help combat transnational organized crime, it will also improve collaboration between law enforcement agencies globally and ensure greater public safety in the region. | $65,000
 On-going |
| 02-173 Towards a National Program of Arm Control in Guatemala
 IEPADES - Instituto de Enseñanza para el Desarrollo Sostenible The Instituto de Enseñanza para el Desarrollo Sostenible (IEPADES) worked with government representatives and civil society groups involved in small arms issues to prepare the transfer of the Department of Control on Arms and Ammunitions, under the Ministry of Defence, to civilian control. | $50,000
 On-going |
| 02-113 Application of Forensic Anthropology as a Research tool for the Public Ministry.
 Foundation of Forensic Anthropologists of Guatemala and Department of Technical Cooperation of the Public Ministry. Support for a handbook of standard procedures to be followed for forensic anthropological research was created for Guatemalan Public Ministry staff. This handbook will help in investigations involving the recovery of remains and assist in the corresponding criminal follow-up by the Guatemalan government. | $26,000
 On-going |
| 02-098 Americas Network of National Human Rights Institutions: Consolidation
 Canadian Human Rights Commission (CHRC) The Americas Network, a group representing the National Human Rights Institutions of the Americas will seek to address challenges such as increasing the effectiveness of its members and reinforce the Network's organizational strengths. | $100,000
 On-going |
| 02-076 Follow-up Mechanism to the Inter-American Convention against Corruption
 Organization of American States (OAS) First round of evaluations of the follow up mechanism to the Inter-American Convention against Corruption. | $150,000
 On-going |
| 02-052 Repatriation and Social Reintegration of Honduran Street Children
 International Organization for Migration and Covenant House (IOM) (Casa Alianza) A pilot project that aims to repatriate and reintegrate Honduran street children who have been trafficked to Canada and the United States. The main objective of the project is to contribute to the protection of the human rights of Honduran street children living in Vancouver and children at risk of falling victim to trafficking. | $200,000
 On-going |
| 02-043 Strategic Studies Sponsorship to Support Mexican Foreign and Defence Policy Development
 Department of National Defence This project will introduce Mexican military officials to Canada's approach to the role of the military in international peace and security. With the support of the Human Security Program, two Mexican military officers will attend advanced military training courses - the Advanced Military Studies Courses (AMSC) and the National Security Studies Course (NSSC) in Toronto. | $15,000
 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

03-119	Peace Operations Capacity-Building for South America	$28,122.85
	Pearson Peacekeeping Centre	Completed
	Twelve Latin American participants attended the course 'The Humanitarian Challenge: Refugees and Displaced Populations', offered by the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre.
03-001	The Future and Human Security in Central America: Civil-Society/Government Discussion Forum	$50,000
	Regional Coordinator for Economic and Social Research (CRIES)	Completed
	The Regional Coordinator for Economic and Social Research (CRIES) organized a forum will in Guatemala City in order to provide government and civil society representatives with an the opportunity to discuss the redefinition of the Democratic Security Framework Agreement of Central America (TMSDCA).
02-204	CFATF/GAFISUD Typologies Exercise	$26,294
	CFATF Secretariat	Completed
	Representatives from Caribbean countries, who would not be able to participate otherwise, attended this two-day Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Typologies Exercise.
02-195	Preparatory Academic Meeting for Special Conference on Security in the Americas	$49,090
	FLACSO - Chile	Completed
	This meeting helped civil society groups to become engaged in and make a substantive contribution to the strengthening of hemispheric security through participation in the upcoming Special Conference on Security in the Americas.
02-187	Peacebuilders Initiative (Phase II)	$21,000
	YouCAN!	Completed
	YouCAN! brought 14 Youth Initiators (youth leaders in the area of peaceful conflict resolution) from Colombia to Canada. These youth attended YouCAN!'s Second National Youth Conference on Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution and then received further training on these issues from YouCAN!.
02-185	Hemispheric Peace Operations Scholarship Programme	$26,487.23
	Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC)	Completed
	Seven Latin American participants attended the course The Hard Road Home: Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR) in Peace Operations, offered by the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre.
02-181	Conference on the Responsibility to Protect: Defining a role for Central and South America	$100,000
	The Arias Foundation for Peace and Human Progress	Completed
	The objective of this regional conference held in Costa Rica was to raise awareness of the findings of the Responsibility to Protect, analyze the legal, political and operational elements of the report, and to build consensus around a Central and South American role in their implementation at the national, regional and international levels.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|---|---|
| 02-179 Support to the Second High Level Meeting on the Special Security Concerns of Small Island States. Organization of American States (OAS) Support for a Second High Level Meeting to ensure that island states arrive at the Special Conference on Security in Mexico, May 2003, with a common position on security issues. The objectives of the conference included: producing a declaration on the security concerns of small island states, formulating recommendations to the Special Conference in May, and the adoption of a security management model. | $45,000 Completed |
| 02-169 II Plenary Meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Forum of the Americas (FIPA) Canadian Parliamentary Centre Support for FIPA Second Plenary Meeting in February 2003. The plenary meeting provided parliamentarians with an opportunity to debate and discuss issues of relevance to citizens of the Americas and help to build solid democratic institutions. | $48,160 Completed |
| 02-145 Peacebuilders Initiative YouCAN! Youth Canada Association YouCAN! brought 14 Youth Initiators (youth leaders in the area of peaceful conflict resolution) from Colombia to Canada. These youth attended YouCAN!'s Second National Youth Conference on Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution and then received further training on these issues from YouCAN!. | $21,000 Completed |
| 02-106 PEN Canada/International PEN Writers in Prison Committee (WiPC) Freedom of Expression and Impunity Campaign PEN Canada Campaign against impunity in the Americas because of the high prevalence of impunity for perpetrators of crimes against journalists and writers. | $49,850 Completed |
| 02-075 Facilitating the Human Rights and Citizenship Rights of Afro Peruvians MATCH International A public education campaign raising awareness among the Peruvian authorities and population of the situation of African-Peruvians, particularly women. | $15,000 Completed |
| 02-064 Second Latin America and Caribbean Consultation on Human Rights Defenders Fundacion Rigoberta Menchu Tum (Rigoberta Menchu Tum Foundation-Guatemala) Funds supported the participation of a representative for Hina Jilani, the Special Representative for Human Rights Defenders, the Rapporteur from the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, and the special advisor on Latin America to the UN High Commissioner on Human Rights at the second Latin American and Caribbean Consultation on Human Rights Defenders. | $15,000 Completed |
| 02-063 International Humanitarian Law (IHL) Course for Latin America The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), Regional Delegation (Mexico) The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) held a training course on International Humanitarian Law (IHL) in July 2002, for participants from 19 Latin American countries. | $50,000 Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| 02-050 Promoting Migrant Rights in Dominican Republic
International Organization for Migration (IOM) This project is the first phase of a wider International Organisation for Migration (IOM) strategy to strengthen government and civil society structures dealing with migration in the country, thereby ensuring improved migration management and respect of migrant and citizen rights. | $100,000
Completed |
| 02-045 Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP)
Unit for the Promotion of Democracy, Organization of American States (UPD/OAS) This Second Meeting of the Inter-American Forum on Political Parties (IAFPP) addressed human security issues of democracy, corruption and good governance. | $150,000
Completed |
| 02-035 Annual Report on Judicial Systems in the Americas
Justice Studies Center of the Americas (CEJA) Preparation of an annual report on the Latin American justice systems to improve the quality and accessibility of information on the region's justice sector. | $77,000
Completed |
| 02-026 Strengthening Aviation & Airport Security in the Eastern Caribbean
The Directorate of Civil Aviation of the OECS This project provided the OECS Directorate of Civil Aviation, through Transport Canada, with assistance in airport security training and technical expertise to develop rational and affordable airport security plans. | $87,000
Completed |
| 02-012 Support for the Special Advisor to the UNSG on Colombia (James Lemoyne)
United Nations In support of the peacebuilding activities of the Acting Special Adviser to the United Nations Secretary-General on Colombia. These efforts are focussed on pursuing a negotiated settlement to the conflict and coordinating UN-system activities. | $100,000
Completed |
| 02-009 The Americas Conference on Corporate Social Responsibility
Inter-American Development Bank and the Organization of American States - Working Group on Probity and Public Ethics This conference deepened dialogue on corporate social responsibility among governments, business, labour groups and non-governmental organizations in the hemisphere. | $100,000
Completed |
| 02-001 Typologies meeting on terrorism financing and economic citizenship, Trinidad and Tobago
The Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF) Workshop sessions organised by the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force Secretariat on counter terrorist financing in April 2002 in Trinidad and Tobago. | $22,500
Completed |
| 01-235 Development of the OAS/CICTE counter-terrorism website network
OAS/CICTE The Inter-American Committee Against Terrorism (CICTE) of the Organization of American States (OAS) created and maintains an inter-American data exchange network among competent authorities and specialized experts, as well as an information exchange in areas related to counter-terrorism. | $13,000
Completed |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Latin America and the Caribbean

01-234 Andean Regional Program	$47,795
Conflict Prevention and Peace Forum	Completed
Support to facilitate contacts between local institutions and UN agencies as well as representatives from foreign governments anxious to support the conflict prevention process. Held consultations and proposed actions to reduce the tensions in the region, and support local and regional peace initiatives.
01-203 Inter-American Democratic Charter	$43,763.85
University of British Columbia	Completed
Support for a conference that examined the dilemmas and options facing international efforts to defend democracy and its institutions in the Americas. The conference brought together policy makers, academics, students and members of civil society.
01-091 Hemispheric Sponsorship Project	$220,460.16
Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC)	Completed
The Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) offered training to 160 selected personnel, mostly civilians, from 33 countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, as part of Canada's overall engagement on peacekeeping and hemispheric security.
01-045 Human Rights and Armed Forces of Paraguay	$80,000
Inter American Institute of Human Rights (IIDH)	Completed
This Inter American Institute of Human Rights (IIDH) in Costa Rica initiative aided the ongoing democratization of Paraguay by developing and implementing a specialized educational framework in order to instill a culture of respect for human rights in the armed forces.
01-002 Network of National Institutions of the Protection of Human Rights of the Americas	$127,000
Canadian Human Rights Commission	Completed
The Canadian Human Rights Commission, in cooperation with the National Human Rights Commission of Mexico, hosted a meeting of National Institutions (NIs) in Mexico City with the objective of establishing a regional network. In its concluding Statement, signed by six NIs, it was resolved to create the Network of National Institutions for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights of the Americas.
00-075 Research into Drug Abuse in Colombia (Rumbos)	$50,000
Organizacion de Estados Iberoamericanos ("OEI")	Completed
RUMBOS, the Presidential anti-narcotics and drug rehabilitation agency of Colombia, conducted two studies to explore areas of research in drug prevention and rehabilitation in the Colombia context.
00-053H Mechanism for Inter-American Convention Against Corruption	$50,000
Organization of the American States	Completed
The Organization of American States (OAS) organized a conference to develop the basic elements of a follow-up Mechanism to the Convention, including its purposes, basic principles, characteristics and structure.

K

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Middle East

- | | |
|---|--|
| 03-235 Sana'a Inter-Governmental Regional Conference on the Promotion of the Rule Of Law: The International Criminal Court, Human Rights And Democracy No Peace Without Justice NPWJ is planning to hold a three-day intergovernmental conference in Sana'a, Yemen, in January 2004. This will bring together officials from Arab and neighboring African and Middle East countries. | $50,000 On-going |
| 03-234 "The ICC and Enlarging the Scope of International Humanitarian Law" in Damascus, Syria International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) On 13-14 December 2003, the ICRC held a symposium in Damascus, Syria on significant issues in international humanitarian law and the role of the International Criminal Court. Participants in the program included officials of the Syrian government, lawyers, academics, journalists, diplomats and students. | $15,000 On-going |
| 03-210 Peacebuilding Support for Iraq International Council for Adult Education - Peacefund Canada for the Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC and the National Council on Canada-Arab Relations (NCCAR) A conference and workshop organized by the Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC) and the National Council on Canada Arab Relations (NCCAR) to identify key issues in relation to potential Canadian technical support for an Iraqi-led transition to democracy. | $77,546 On-going |
| 03-195 Legal Education Project University of Toronto A series of two week courses will be developed on administrative law and elements of criminal procedure, civil procedure, and comparative constitutional law for a legal education program for prospective Palestinian lawyers. The course will be delivered by Canadian lawyers in conjunction with partners at the Al-Quds University Law School. | $25,000 On-going |
| 03-194 Promoting Human Rights and The Rule of Law Through The Judiciary: Training Palestinian Judges (phase II) University of Windsor, Faculty of Law The Faculties of Law of the University of Windsor and the University of Toronto will engage in legal sector capacity building efforts in the Palestinian Territories, through a judicial sector assessment mission and the provision of a two-week course on constitutional, procedural and administrative law at Al Quds University. | $32,970 On-going |
| 03-178 Citizens of the World Project United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) UNRWA will utilize 'popular theater methodology' in its peace education efforts to develop within Palestinian children in refugee camps in Syria a self-awareness as valuable contributors to the global community rather than limiting their identification as mere participants or victims of the Arab-Israeli conflict. | $50,000 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Middle East

03-164 Children's Rights Project	$52,500
Early Childhood Resource Centre (ECRC) Jerusalem	On-going
The Early Childhood Resource Centre will undertake a project to raise awareness of the importance of children's rights in the Palestinian Territories. This initiative aims to strengthen the early childhood development sector through the provision of high-quality materials on the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child and training to promote children's rights in the West Bank.
03-151 Women Facilitators Course: Empowering Leaders of Dialogue and Coexistence	$109,240
The Jewish-Arab Center for Peace at Givat Haviva	On-going
The Jewish-Arab Center for Peace at Givat Haviva will conduct an eighteen month course to advance the social, political and cultural involvement of 24 Israeli women from the Jewish, Druze, Muslim and Christian communities in an effort to promote Jewish-Arab co-existence.
03-150 Legal Internet Library pertaining to Human Rights aspects of life in Israeli Occupied Territories.	$110,000
HaMoked: Center for the Defence of the Individual	On-going
HaMoked, an Israeli human rights organization, will establish a legal and human rights internet data base for use by those engaged in the defense of human rights in the West Bank, the Gaza Strip and East Jerusalem.
03-099 Constitutional Options for Post-War Iraq	$17,638.5
The Forum of Federations	On-going
The Forum of Federations, an organization working specifically in this field, proposes to conduct an exploratory study on the prospects for devolved or multilevel governance in Iraq. The work would encompass Iraq's institutional evolution, the feasibility of a decentralized model, as well as a discussion of specific areas in which Canada could play a role.
03-061 Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Project	$74,000
International Crisis Group (ICG)	On-going
The Project is intended to provide the parties to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the wider international community with fresh, independent field-based analysis of the main obstacles to a resolution of the current conflict, and opportunities for reviving and advancing the peace process.
03-041 Business for Middle East Stability	$50,000
Centre for Innovation in Corporate Responsibility (CICR)	On-going
The initiative was first launched in 2002 to explore the accountability of business in Middle East conflicts and aimed to identify opportunities for collective action that could leverage corporate resources and international experiences. In this second phase, the CICR will work towards the development and implementation of specific projects.
02-182 Sesame Stories in the Middle East	$150,000
Sesame Workshop	On-going
Sesame Workshop and its local partners are developing educational materials and a community outreach program. Designed for use in a variety of educational settings, including the home, these materials will include 'tolerance kits', teachers' guides, home videos, posters and storybooks. The educational materials will help reinforce and extend the goals of the series beyond the television viewing experience.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Middle East

01-010 Regional Human Security Centre (RHSC) The Jordan Institute of Diplomacy (JID) The Regional Human Security Centre is the first centre of its kind in the Middle East. The Centre works in collaboration with regional and international partners to address major human security issues in the Middle East.	$685,500 On-going
03-100 Capacity Building for Middle East Peace: Middle East Participants in the Peace Operations Summer Institute (POSI) POSI - Acadia University, the Pearson Peacekeeping Centre (PPC) and the Royal Military College of Canada (RMC) A total of five participants from the Middle East were brought to the Peace Operations Summer Institute (POSI) in Wolfville, Nova Scotia from June 8 -20 to build the capacity of the respective individuals to contribute effectively to peace support operations.	$25,577.74 Completed
03-076 IRAQ Assessment Mission Canadian Justice and Corrections Associated Experts The coalition Office of Reconstruction and Humanitarian Affairs (ORHA) is taking the lead role in Iraqi reconstruction activities. Canada deployed experts from justice and corrections to the ORHA security sector assessment mission, for its duration.	$69,125.54 Completed
03-075 Third CISEPO Deans Meeting (a regional meeting of Arab and Israel Deans of Medicine and Health Sciences) Canadian International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) The aim of the meeting was to further Arab/Israeli commitments to the promotion of peaceful interactions and the joint development of regional benefits through cooperation in the medical field. Participants were presented with the opportunity to develop joint projects in the health sector.	$39,743.07 Completed
03-040 Israeli-Palestinian Seminar on International Presence The Economic Cooperation Foundation (ECF) Akin to our appreciated approach to the Refugee issue, Canada has been working with Israeli and Palestinian partners to develop mutually-agreed upon and operationally feasible approaches to an international presence in the Middle East. Such a mechanism is increasingly seen as a necessary component for stabilisation of the situation and forward movement towards a peace agreement.	$50,000 Completed
03-032 Conference on Media Freedoms Arab Archives Institute for Research and Studies The project was designed to gather experts, media professionals, policy-makers and legislators from the Arab region in a conference to discuss studies on media freedoms that are carried out by the Arab Archives Institute.	$48,000 Completed
02-196 Jordanian-Israeli: "Legal Mediation" The International Institute at Beit Berl College (Israel) This project provided Israeli and Jordanian participants with an introduction to conflict resolution through a three-week training course. Workshops and seminars covered topics such as mediation and negotiation with the goals of promoting coexistence, and acquirement of tools such as the ability to look at the other's point of view and a better understanding of the human security needs of both sides of the Arab-Israeli conflict.	$30,783 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Middle East

- 02-175 The Truman Forum for Public Debate: Arabs and Jews in Israel - Evaluation and Future Activities $49,522
The Harry S. Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace at Hebrew University, Jerusalem Completed
The Harry S. Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem held a series of panel discussions in which leading Jewish and Arab public figures, researchers and intellectuals engaged in the field of Jewish-Arab relations within Israel presented their assessments on the subject, and their visions and recommendations for the future.
- 02-147 Symposium on Humanitarian Law and International Relations $22,500
The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) - Delegation in Syria Completed
The ICRC brought Syrian Government officials, diplomats, academics, legal professionals and civil society representatives together for a two day symposium on 'International Humanitarian Law and International Relations' with an aim to promote understanding of the necessity of national measures to enforce the legal protection of civilians.
- 02-146 Let's Share Information about the International Criminal Court (ICC) $30,000
Sisterhood is Global Institute/Jordan (SIGI/J) Completed
The Sisterhood is Global Institute in Amman, Jordan is undertaking a public awareness campaign on the International Criminal Court (ICC) in the Middle East. The campaign has two primary elements, including: the promotion and maintenance of a global Arabic-language website on the ICC; and the delivery of training sessions on the ICC for regional professionals.
- 02-137 The Role of International Intervention in a Permanent Status Agreement between Israel and the Palestinians $94,000
Economic Cooperation Foundation (ECF) Completed
On 29-30 September, the Canadian Embassy in Tel Aviv and the Economic Cooperation Foundation co-hosted a workshop on possible modes of international involvement in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Participants included Israeli academics and opinion makers from all sides of the political spectrum, several active Israeli Defence Forces officers, as well as DFAIT and DND officials, and was chaired by IDD.
- 02-136 Human Rights Educational Project $50,000
The International Institute Beit Berl Completed
This project brought together Arab-Israeli, Jewish-Israeli and Palestinian students for a series of inter-community dialogue activities in a non-political and non-threatening setting. The aim was to facilitate an on-going dialogue to overcome negative stereotypes and attitudes, and work toward the achievement of a joint human rights declaration to be presented at the Knesset and the Palestinian Legislative Council.
- 02-120 Seminar on Women and Society $26,300
Etana Press Completed
Two two-day seminars to explore the issue of women's rights in the Arab world. These discussions resulted in the compilation of recommendations and proposals targeting governments and civil society in the region.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Middle East

- 02-119 TV Documentary Series on Palestinian-Israel Final Status Issues $150,000
Search for Common Ground Completed
- A five-hour documentary series that examines the respective interests and positions of Israelis and Palestinians on the core issues of the conflict. The series looks at the following issues: refugees, Jerusalem, water, settlements and borders. The Program explores how negotiators on both sides might reach agreements that each community could live with.
- 02-077 Fourth Planning Meeting of the MEHA Steering Committee $29,000
Canada International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) Completed
- Canada International Scientific Exchange Program (CISEPO) is working with the Middle East Association for Managing Hearing Loss (MEHA) to treat hearing disabilities, which afflict a large number of Arab and Israeli youth. By promoting cooperation between Canadian experts and their Middle Eastern counterparts, MEHA provides an example of people-to-people dialogue, which is essential in preventing conflict.
- 02-051 Symposium on Lebanon and the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC) $9,000
International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) Completed
- The event aimed at promoting the importance of the ICC in ensuring international justice. This seminar informed Middle Eastern judges, lawyers and government officials both about the character of the ICC as well as the legislation that would be required for ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute.
- 02-031 Legal Protection for Journalists and Media Ethics $71,062.5
Centre for Defending Freedom of Journalists (CDFJ) Completed
- The Centre for Defending the Freedom of Journalists (CDFJ) sought to empower Arab and Jordanian journalists facing legal challenges to their reporting, through a series of workshops. Addressed the issue of legal protection from both the perspective of journalists as well as lawyers involved in media cases.
- 01-186 Copenhagen Group - Arab -Israeli Peace Conference $32,190
Israeli Branch of the International Alliance for Arab Israeli Peace Completed
- Established in 1997, following a meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark, this high-level Middle Eastern dialogue group brought together Egyptians, Jordanians, Palestinians and Israelis in an effort to promote peace between Israel and its Arab neighbours.
- 01-057 Peace Education/Anti-Incitement Programming for Israel/Palestinian Youth $92,700
Justice Solutions Ltd. Completed
- In collaboration with local partners, Justice Solutions is developing practical anti-incitement and peace education tools for Palestinian and Israeli youth as well as other vulnerable groups such as women and refugees. These tools will be designed to compliment existing education programs and curricula, with an emphasis on promoting mutual respect and tolerance.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- 03-253 ICC Clerkship and Visiting Professionals Program $35,000
International Criminal Court, Hague, Netherlands Approved
- The purpose of the project is to meet the short and long term challenges, and correspond to the evolving needs of the International Criminal Court as identified by all the organs of the Court. For an effective and efficient Court, it is of the utmost importance that sound and knowledgeable national capacities are in place, enabling the Court to fulfill its mandate entrusted to it by States Parties.
- 03-005 Gender Perspectives on Small Arms Proliferation $60,000
United Nations University (UNU); University of Cape Town (UCT); Small Arms Survey Approved
- This project will focus on mainstreaming gender perspectives into academic, policy and UN-specific discussions on small arms reduction. The information generated by this project will be compiled in a book-length manuscript, aimed at academics, activists and policy-makers.
- 03-277 Strengthening Maritime and Port Security in APEC Economies $50,000
International Maritime Organization (IMO) On-going
- The International Maritime Organization will assist APEC Economies' maritime security agencies to strengthen their port security systems to meet international security standards. Working with Transport Canada, the IMO will deliver a workshop and training session to carry out needs assessments, provide guidance material for creating a national template, and to guide in the project planning for the implementation of the International Ship and Port Facility Security (ISPS) Code.
- 03-247 Prohibited Practices in Economies of Conflict: Towards Defining Illicit Commodities $150,000
Fafo Institute for Applied International Studies On-going
- Building upon the investigative, analytical and regulatory research conducted to date, the project will seek to identify specific activities that are or should be prohibited in the production or marketing of commodities.
- 03-212 Impunity: Workshop on Best Practices to Combat Impunity $25,080
United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (UN OHCHR), Geneva, Switzerland On-going
- The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) engaged an expert to prepare an independent study on best practices to combat impunity. The study will be submitted to the UN Commission on Human Rights in March 2004.
- 03-201 Experts Meeting on Mandate of Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women $30,000
Office of the UN Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women (within the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)) On-going
- A workshop of ten international experts will discuss the mandate of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women, its causes and consequences. The discussion will seek to identify priority areas for advancing the Special Rapporteur's mandate by preparing a very strategic and focussed plan of action for the next three years.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | |
|---|--------------------|
| 03-183 International Criminal Bar - Outreach Initiative | $60,000 |
| International Criminal Bar | On-going |
| The Montreal-based International Criminal Defence Attorneys Association is conducting an international program of education and outreach on the ICC and the newly-created International Criminal Bar (ICB). The project will be conducted by expert representatives of the ICB in order to ensure global promotion of the ICB and the inclusiveness and diversity of the ICB and counsel appearing before the ICC. | |
| 03-177 Conference on Assessing the Impact of International War Crimes Trials: An Interdisciplinary Appraisal | $12,562.56 |
| University of Texas School of Law School Foundation, Austin, Texas | On-going |
| The University of Texas Law School will hold a conference in November 2003 to consider issues of international justice in the context of the International Criminal Court. The conference will adopt an interdisciplinary approach, involving lawyers, sociologists, psychologists, political scientists and historians. It will also include representatives of the international tribunals, government officials, non-governmental organizations and individuals who have been directly affected by the atrocities that are the subject of trials. | |
| 03-175 The Human Security Network and Small Arms: Consolidating and Agenda for Action II | $200,000 |
| The Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (HDC) and Human Security Network | On-going |
| This process will culminate in a publication "Putting People First: Human Security Perspectives on Small Arms Availability," which will call for people-centred measures including public health interventions, restraint in arms transfers, community-based policing and increased attention to gender-based violence. | |
| 03-160 Strengthening the Security - Development Nexus: Conflict, Peace & Development in the 21st Century | $49,909 |
| International Peace Academy | On-going |
| A thematic workshop on security sector reform will be organized to look at three areas where security and development actors are beginning to work in tandem - security sector, rule of law and governance. | |
| 03-159 Study of the Links Between Terrorism and Other Organized Crimes | $20,000 |
| International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy, University of British Columbia | On-going |
| A survey of open sources dealing with the links between crime and terrorism for the benefit for the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, Member States, and the UN Office on Drugs and Crime Terrorism Prevention Branch. | |
| 03-158 Developing Internet tools in Support of the Norms Against the Use of Disease as a Weapon | $55,598 |
| BioWeapons Prevention Project (BWPP) | On-going |
| The BWPP will enhance its website and create a public discussion forum to increase information exchange, raise awareness and contribute to strengthening the norm against using disease as a weapon. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | |
|--|--|
| 03-157 Impunity: Independent Expert's Study for OHCHR
 United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, Geneva, Switzerland The study, which will include recommendations for appropriate follow-up will be submitted to the Commission at its sixtieth session in 2004. The independent expert will liaise with the OHCHR Secretariat and will conduct electronic consultations with international government organizations, non-governmental organizations and other interlocutors in various geographic areas to support international efforts. | $42,000
 On-going |
| 03-155 Corporate Options: Constructive Engagement in Conflict Zones (Corporate Engagement Project -(CEP) (Phase II)
 The Collaborative for Development Action (CDA), Collaborative Learning Projects The objective of CEP is to work with corporations to examine their experiences in order to provide managers with clear ideas about how their work with communities relates to the broader socio-political environment. | $80,000
 On-going |
| 03-142 ICCLR and the ICC Campaign: Country Specific Assistance
 International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The project, which is to be conducted by the International Centre for Criminal Law and Criminal Justice Policy, will focus on: 1. Conducting country specific technical assistance on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute in the under-represented Caribbean and Pacific regions (focusing on Jamaica and Samoa); and 2. Conducting follow-up country specific technical assistance in a country where ICCLR has begun providing technical assistance, namely Gabon. | $82,580
 On-going |
| 03-141 The First Year of the Functioning of the ICC : Preparation and Implementation
 World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of: The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court is running a series of projects between June 2002-June 2004 designed to increase the number of ratifications of the Rome Statute of the ICC, particularly in under-represented regions like Asia and the Middle East; ensure the development of strong implementing legislation in all ratifying countries; ensure that the appropriate mechanisms are in place for the Court to begin functioning as early and as effectively as possible; and promote the ICC within the United States. | $80,000
 On-going |
| 03-138 The Responsibility to Protect: Building an NGO Role
 The World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy This project is intended to contribute to the development of stronger norms to ensure that the international community responds earlier and more effectively to emerging situations involving the potential for large scale loss of life; and to generate debate about these issues among civil society actors, and increase their capacity to play a role in encouraging effective international response. | $45,000
 On-going |
| 03-121 Intergovernmental Expert Group on United Nations standards and Norms in Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice
 Justice Canada, the Government of Austria (tentative) and the Centre for International Crime Prevention of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime The Department of Justice will bring together criminal justice experts from key developing countries to exchange expertise on how to best implement the UN agreed norms and standards, and prepare proposals to be considered by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its 13th session. | $50,000
 On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | | |
|---------------|---|------------------------------|
| 03-120 | Joint UNDP-DPA Initiative on Building National Capacity for Conflict Prevention
Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery, United Nations Development Programme; United Nations Department of Political Affairs (UNDP)

The Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) will assist UN Country Teams and national actors (governments and civil society) in 6 crisis countries in building their capacity for the peaceful settlement of potentially violent disputes, and to further ensure that conflict prevention is integrated into UN programming mechanisms on the ground. | $500,000
On-going |
| 03-111 | Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict: Humanitarian Challenges in Latin America
UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), Policy Development and Studies Branch (POC Unit)

This workshop will focus on countries in Latin America with the aim to engage them on the humanitarian challenges relating to the protection of civilians in situations of armed conflict and regional strategies for addressing them. | $161,200
On-going |
| 03-109 | Developing a Strategic Vision and Action Plan for Advancing LGBT Human Rights Internationally
ARC (Allied Rainbow Communities) International

ARC International will bring together leaders within and outside of existing international organizations to build an international network of organizations and individuals committed to monitoring Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered (LGBT) human rights, identifying mechanisms for strengthening protection against these abuses, and to work together to develop and maintain international human rights standards for LGBT people. Eventually, it is hoped that this network will help shape the discussion at the 2004 Commission on Human Rights to advance LGBT human rights internationally. | $80,000
On-going |
| 03-103 | Human Security Report - Phase Two
Human Security Centre, Liu Institute for Global Issues, University of British Columbia

The Centre for Human Security at the University of British Columbia will produce an annual Human Security Report. Inspired by UNDP's Human Development Report, The Human Security Report will address the widely acknowledged need for an annual report mapping the incidence, consequences, causes and policy responses to global violence – criminal as well as political. | $450,000
On-going |
| 03-098 | Focusing the Demand Agenda: Research on Crucial Steps to Lessen Small Arms Demand
Quaker United Nations Office, Geneva

The Quaker United Nation Office, Geneva, aims to encourage more international support for the demand agenda of the small arms issue by undertaking a two-year process to define and publicize the most crucial aspects of the demand side. The central product of this program will be a new comprehensive publication that consolidates research findings and, in turn, serves as the basis for the promotion of new international policy on demand issues. | $149,500
On-going |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | | |
|---------------|--|------------------|
| 03-097 | Aiming for Prevention: International Health Campaign on Small Arms and War Prevention | $110,000 |
| | Physicians for Global Survival, Canada (PGS) and International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW) | On-going |
| | This Campaign will organize health professionals concerned with the prevention of death and injuries from small arms, and will add an informed public health perspective to the debate on small arms policy and programs. Activities will include raising awareness and foster dialogue among and between the medical and public health communities through educational materials, forums, web dialogues and other facilitated communications; obtaining statements and commitments of support from medical agencies and Health Ministries, and contributing fact-based advocacy to government policy forums and collaborate with NGOs in this area, most notably the International Action Network on Small Arms. | |
| 03-070 | Economic Agendas in Civil Wars | $50,000 |
| | International Peace Academy (IPA) | On-going |
| | The International Peace Academy (IPA) established an international consortium to investigate economic agendas in civil wars. IPA researchers studied the economic agendas of groups involved in conflict and focussed on how globalization changed the economy of civil war. | |
| 03-068 | Negotiation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption - Assistance to Least Developed Countries (LDCs) | $49,000 |
| | United Nations Office for Drugs and Crime (UNODC), Centre for International Crime Prevention, Vienna, Austria | On-going |
| | Delegates from the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), Senegal, Madagascar, Haiti and Argentina will have the opportunity to participate in the Ad Hoc Committee to ensure that the views of least developed countries (LDCs) are represented at the sessions. | |
| 03-066 | Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) - Phase Two | $720,000 |
| | University of British Columbia: Centre for International Relations (CIR) in the Liu Centre for the Study of Global Issues. | On-going |
| | The CCHS will continue to promote Canadian research and analysis through initiatives such as the Human Security Fellowship research program which will help place Canada on the cutting edge of human security research. The CCHS will also continue to publish the Human Security Bulletin, a widely recognised publication which is distributed to over 2000 individuals and organisations. | |
| 03-038 | Reach Out | $169,000 |
| | International Federation of Red Cross Societies | On-going |
| | Aimed at improving the rights and well-being of refugees, the Reach Out project will continue to provide training to non-governmental organizations', Red Cross/Red Crescent and other international and local humanitarian agencies field staff and incite these actors to assess their ability to protect refugees and to identify shortcomings, missed opportunities, and areas for future joint action. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| 03-030 Global Human Rights Cities Program | $78,000 |
| PDHRE: People's Movement for Human Rights Education | On-going |
| Funding will allow seminars and workshops to be held at Regional Learning Institutions for Human Rights Education (RLIHE) of which there are four globally, with one each in Africa, Asia Pacific, South Asia and Latin America. Community leaders from government and civil society in each of the regions will participate in the training program. A human rights framework will also be developed and tested to measure social and economic justice. | |
| 03-026 Searching for Justice: Comprehensive Action in the Face of Atrocities | $70,000 |
| York University | On-going |
| Experts and practitioners will share their experiences and identify lessons learned and best practices in terms of remedies for genocide, war crimes and crimes against humanity. The conference will also investigate ways to achieve better justice for the victims of these crimes. | |
| 03-021 Faire la paix - concepts et pratiques de la consolidation de la paix - Presses de l'Université Laval | $30,000 |
| Équipe éditoriale: Faire la paix - Concepts et pratiques de la consolidation de la paix
Yvan CONOIR, Centre Pearson pour le maintien de la paix / Gérard VERNA, Université Laval | On-going |
| Funding will be provided to publish a book that will examine the evolution of the concept of peacebuilding during the last ten years both from a Canadian and international perspective. Articles will focus on the experiences and initiatives of Canadian practitioners involved in peacebuilding, as well as an overview of CIDA's and DFAIT's peacebuilding programs. | |
| 03-002 CANADEM Core Funding | $499,990.39 |
| CANADEM | On-going |
| CANADEM is roster of Canadian experts available for deployment to international operations. CANADEM will continue to identify skilled and experienced Canadians for international human-security oriented field missions. | |
| 02-197 The United Nations Human Rights Treaty Information Service | $50,000 |
| York University, Principal Investigator Professor Anne Bayefsky | On-going |
| This project will create and maintain a comprehensive and user-friendly information base about UN international human rights treaties and develop an online advocacy tool for the attainment of rights by individuals in all parts of the world. | |
| 02-154 Investing in Peace: Promoting Responsible Business Practices in Zones of Human Insecurity | $59,450 |
| International Institute for Sustainable Development | On-going |
| In partnership with Canadian Companies, research was conducted culminating in the development of a draft peace and conflict impact assessment (PCIA) methodology for the extractive sector (like mining companies etc.). | |
| 02-135 Biting the Bullet: Briefings on Civilian Possession of Small Arms and Arms Embargoes | $120,000 |
| International Alert (joint project between BASIC, Saferworld and the University of Bradford) | On-going |
| This project produced two policy briefings in the Biting the Bullet II series. The briefings focussed on the implications for human security with regards to two issues that were inadequately addressed in the Programme of Action: civilian possession of small arms and arms embargoes. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- 02-134 Making People Safer: A Study on Small Arms and Global Health $70,000
World Health Organization (WHO) On-going
- The study completed a systematic review and characterisation of the distribution of direct and indirect health effects arising from misuse of small arms, developed a more informed understanding of the determinants of armed violence, and assessed different types of interventions and their relationships in terms of reduction of violent death or injury.
- 02-097 Global IDP Project $210,000
Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) On-going
- Launched by the Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) the project focuses on the protection needs of the world's internally displaced by making accurate information available through the Internet and publications. The Global IDP project also offers field-based training workshops on the UN Guiding Principles on Internal Displacement.
- 02-040 Assessing the Humanitarian Implications of Sanctions $110,000
Office for the Co-ordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) On-going
- The project will use existing studies and reports relating to the humanitarian impact of sanctions to review existing assessment techniques and indicators with the aim of developing a standardized sanctions assessment methodology. After consultation with governments and non-governmental representatives, the results will be presented in the form a Sanctions Assessment Handbook. This handbook will help guide the UN Security Council Sanctions Committees in their work.
- 01-212 Small Arms Survey $375,000
Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva On-going
- The Small Arms Survey serves as the principal international source of neutral information on small arms, including producers, stockpiles, licit and illicit transfers, and direct and indirect effects. The survey also provides information on measures to cope with the small arms problem at the national, bilateral, regional and multilateral levels.
- 01-105 Brookings-SAIS Project on Internal Displacement $480,000
The Brookings Institution and The School of Advanced International Studies On-going
- This project supports efforts to identify ways to improve protection and assistance to the world's forcibly displaced. Country missions and dialogues with governments of affected countries will be conducted, as will research into emerging new areas.
- 01-060 Watchlist on Children and Armed Conflict $252,000
Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children and World Vision On-going
- World Vision Canada and the Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children will set up an international NGO network which will monitor conflict areas, report on specific cases and do the appropriate follow-up.
- 01-016 For the Record: The United Nations Human Rights System (FTR) $900,000
Human Rights Internet (HRI) On-going
- The United Nations Human Rights System, called For The Record (FTR), is a bilingual electronic annual report made available on-line through the Human Rights Internet (HRI) homepage, as well as on CD-ROM. The e-publication has been produced since 1997 and covers human rights developments at the intergovernmental level annually, on both a country by country basis and thematically.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- 03-179 International Symposium for Women Leaders on 'Women's Voice in Conflict Resolution and Peace Building' $20,000
The Golda Meir Mount Carmel International Training Center (MCTC) Completed
The Mount Carmel Training Centre organized an international symposium, bringing together 50-60 prominent women leaders from around the world to explore new and innovative approaches and methodologies to increase the role of women in the promotion of peacebuilding and conflict prevention in their home countries and regions.
- 03-106 Canadian Government Pamphlet to Prevent People Trafficking - Printing $18,975
Department of Justice Completed
Printing and production costs of 18,000 copies of this pamphlet. These, along with and existing 30,000 pamphlets, will be shipped to foreign missions and local community groups. The pamphlet will be available in 14 different languages and in PDF format as well.
- 03-095 Building Multilateral Peace and Security Partnerships: Advancing the International Agenda on Small Arms and Light Weapons $30,000
The Quaker United Nations Office-Geneva; UN Institute for Disarmament Research; Programme in Strategic and International Security Studies of the Graduate Institute of International Studies Completed
Through the "Geneva Process" (an ongoing, cross-regional dialogue process), the project aims to strengthen steps in the implementation of the 2001 Program of Action on the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects. The lens for the project as a whole will be the Review of Progress Conference to take place in 2006, with the aim of shaping and deepening the agenda of work on small arms beyond that critical meeting.
- 03-010 Second Session of the Consultative Assembly of Parliamentarians for the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the Rule of Law $50,000
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) Completed
In September 2003, a second session of the Consultative Assembly of Parliamentarians for the International Criminal Court was held in New York, following the second session of the ICC Assembly of States Parties. The second session of the Consultative Assembly was preceded by two strategy meetings involving key international actors and MPs, and provided a venue in which to enhance the global level of understanding and support for the ICC among parliamentarians from all regions of the world.
- 02-210 Promoting and Advancing Sustainable Democracy Worldwide $50,000
The International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (IIDEA) Completed
The International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (IIDEA) convened a meeting, Foundations of Democracy: Building Electoral Participation, in New Delhi, India from 5 to 8 March 2003. Member-states and several electoral commissions were in attendance.
- 02-203 Canadian Government Pamphlet to Prevent People Trafficking - Translation $17,513
Gilmore Printing Completed
With the aim of helping countries to prevent and suppress the trafficking of human beings, a Government of Canada Pamphlet was created to be used by Canadian missions to protect Canadian citizens abroad and by other governments to protect their own citizens. It is also to be used as a basis for regional meetings on enhancing trafficking prevention cooperation.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

02-198 Program for Briefing and Debriefing special Representatives and Envoys of the Secretary General United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) The Program for Briefing and Debriefing Special Representatives and Envoys of the UN Secretary General (SRSG) prepared SRSGs more systematically for their duties on peace missions and to preserve and pass on valuable lessons and experience shared by previous SRSGs to refine and enhance UN peace operations.	$100,000 Completed
02-183 Protection Against Nuclear Terrorism Program International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) - the Agency Specific activities were carried out in response to concerns regarding the security and safety of nuclear materials and installations. These included: training in the preparation for inspections of physical protection at nuclear facilities and training in the development and maintenance of physical protection regulations.	$150,000 Completed
02-171 UNITAR-IPA Fellowship Program in Peacemaking and Preventive Diplomacy United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) UNITAR's annual Fellowship Program in Peacemaking and Preventive Diplomacy was intended to strengthen the conflict prevention and resolution capacities of senior and middle level UN staff, Foreign Ministry officials from around the world and leaders from regional organizations.	$50,000 Completed
02-163 Academic and Research Support for Canada's Follow-up Efforts on The Responsibility to Protect The Ralph Bunche Institute of International Studies, the Graduate Centre, City University of New York An important element of Canada's follow-up efforts on advancing the Report of the International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty includes the discussion and dissemination of the report in the main academic fora. This project builds on the vital contribution made by the academic community to the report by monitoring the agendas of various conferences, encouraging/arranging discussion of the Responsibility to Protect, and promoting the participation of subject matter experts, including former ICISS commissioners.	$24,700 Completed
02-152 UNITAR Regional Training Program to Enhance the Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Capacities of Indigenous Peoples' Representatives - Asia Pacific United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) The UNITAR Regional Training Program to Enhance the Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Capacities of Indigenous Peoples' Representatives offers advanced training in problem-solving methods of negotiation to representatives of indigenous people in the Asia Pacific region.	$50,000 Completed
02-150 Guide to the Legislative Reforms Required to Implement the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy developed a "Guide to the Legislative Reforms Required to Implement the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime". This guide is a tool for policy makers, legislators, and legislative drafters in countries preparing for the ratification of the Convention or already taking steps to ensure its full implementation.	$50,000 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 02-139 Women, Peace and Security
Julie Shouldice / Jodie McGrath | $44,034
Completed |
| A Government Coordinator was employed to assist the Chair and the subcommittee Chairs in the strategic direction of their work, and ensure that their positions, proposals, and messaging remained in line with those of the government. | |
| 02-128 Commonwealth Regional Workshops on Implementing UNSCR 1373 with ICC component
Commonwealth Secretariat | $125,000
Completed |
| This multi-phased project provided assistance in the implementing of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373 in commonwealth countries. Four regional workshops helped develop effective counter-terrorism legislation and administrative measures, and law enforcement practice. A complimentary component of the project provided legal assistance to countries on the ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court. | |
| 02-125 The Human Security Network and Small Arms: Consolidating and Agenda for Action
Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (CHD) | $80,000
Completed |
| This project aimed to consolidate the efforts of the Human Security Network to address the complex phenomena of small arms proliferation by engaging Network members in a dialogue, with the goal of developing priorities for countering the threats to human security caused by the proliferation, use and abuse of small arms and light weapons. | |
| 02-121 Annual Parliamentary Forum of Parliamentarians for Global Action: ICISS
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) | $100,000
Completed |
| This event, held in Ottawa, November 4-6, 2002, brought together Parliamentarians from around the world for three days of discussions and consultations. Highlights of the event included a special session devoted specifically to the role of Parliamentarians in promoting States' responsibility to protect. | |
| 02-110 The Responsibility to Protect: Developing the Framework for an NGO Role
The World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy (WFM-IGP) | $24,178
Completed |
| Laying the foundation for an effective NGO role at an early stage will be a critical component of Canada's long-term efforts to promote the Responsibility to Protect. This project encouraged a process of consultation and engagement of NGOs for the North and South, leading towards the eventual establishment of an NGO network in support of the Responsibility to Protect. | |
| 02-108 From Entry into Force to a Functioning ICC
World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy on behalf of: The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court | $80,000
Completed |
| The Global Campaign of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) undertook initiatives to increase the number of ratifications of the Rome Statute, ensure the development of strong implementing legislation by States Parties and promote the creation of appropriate mechanisms for the prompt establishment of an effective ICC. | |
| 02-105 McGill Conference on "Pluralism, Religion, and Public Policy"
McGill University and the Center for Cultural Renewal (Ottawa) | $10,000
Completed |
| This conference contributed to the education of those who work on analysing and resolving threats to human security, especially those which arise from disagreements that have a religious component. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- 02-099 Children's Forum $150,000
United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) Completed
- A three day Children's Forum for members of governmental and accredited NGO delegations under the age of 18, who attended the Special Session of the General Assembly on Children.
- 02-095 Youth Mine Action Ambassador Program (YMAP) $75,000
Canadian Red Cross (CRC), Mines Action Canada (MAC) and Mine Action Team (ILX) Completed
- Support to Youth Mine Action Ambassador Program (YMAAP) to build public support for involvement in Canadian initiatives around the Ottawa Convention banning antipersonnel landmines. YMAAP programming included activities such as presenting interactive exhibits on Canada's efforts in mine action at major regional exhibitions and events.
- 02-083 Virtual Clearinghouse on Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs $126,000
Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse (CCSA) Completed
- The Clearinghouse is an internet-based initiative to improve global policy and practice by identifying and linking credible and accurate sources of information regarding alcohol, tobacco and other drugs published on the internet, and sharing this information and knowledge with civil society, government and private sector organizations and institutions.
- 02-081 Consultations on Gender and the ICC $70,000
Women's Caucus for Gender Justice Completed
- The Consultations were attended by activists from a variety of countries, including developing nations. The Consultations included strategy sessions on how the participants could address obstacles and challenges for promoting the ICC in their home countries. The participants also attended the final session of the ICC Preparatory Commission to ensure the continued mainstreaming of gender issues during the establishment of the Court.
- 02-079 Annual Parliamentary Forum of Parliamentarians for Global Action: - ICC $50,000
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) Completed
- The Assembly brought together approximately 100 Parliamentarians representing 53 countries. The Assembly addressed the role of Parliamentarians in ensuring cooperation with the Court and a Special Session was held as Canada's first follow-up to the International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty's report: The Responsibility to Protect.
- 02-071 State-Building: Operationalizing "The Responsibility to Protect" in the United Nations System $60,000
International Peace Academy Completed
- The project explored how the UN's involvement in state-building missions (e.g. Kosovo, East Timor, Afghanistan) is contributing to the transformation of accepted norms of state sovereignty, a fundamental issue tackled in The Responsibility to Protect.
- 02-066 CANADEM Core Funding $500,000
Canadian Resource Bank for Democracy and Human Rights (CANADEM) Completed
- Support to CANADEM, a successful and cost-effective roster of Canadian experts available for deployment to international peace support operations.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

02-059 Strategic Roundtable: Regional and Global Implications of the Anti-Terrorism Campaign: Early Warning and Peacebuilding Perspectives Forum on Early Warning and Early Response (FEWER) A roundtable took place with the aim of increasing information sharing between local organizations, states and international organizations on key anti-terrorism policy issues. The roundtable helped map the potential regional effects of the anti-terrorism campaign.	$22,500 Completed
02-058 International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty (ICISS) Follow-up DFAIT/AGDC ICISS Secretariat Based on the ICISS Report, this "follow-up phase" continued to work toward an international consensus by UN members on the responsibility to protect.	$652,000 Completed
02-033 Young People's Involvement in the 2002 UN special Session on Children Save the Children Canada (SCC) Save the Children Canada organized the involvement of Canadian youth in the Special Session. The youth were part of the official Canadian delegation and participated in dialogue and discussions including the drafting of a new global agenda for children.	$26,806 Completed
02-032 Managing Shared Waters Pollution Probe Participants discussed the challenges around shared waters using the Great Lakes and international case studies as examples. Resource kits were distributed containing tools to address issues around prevention of resource conflict.	$100,000 Completed
02-021 ICC Country Assistance and Document Production (phase III) International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) provided technical legal assistance to Cambodia, Gabon, Lesotho, Tanzania and Thailand to ratify and implement the Rome Statute. The ICCLR also produced manuals regarding the ICC, including a second addition of the Manual on the Ratification and Implementation of the Rome Statute.	$199,000 Completed
02-020 Economic Agendas in Civil Wars Research Project (Phase III) International Peace Academy (IPA) The International Peace Academy, in collaboration with various other institutions, established an international consortium to investigate "Economic Agendas in Civil Wars".	$100,000 Completed
02-006 Basic Investigators Course Institute for International Criminal Investigations (IICI) The project used existing studies and reports relating to the humanitarian impact of sanctions to review existing assessment techniques and indicators with the aim of developing a standardized sanctions assessment methodology. After consultation with governments and non-governmental representatives, the results were presented in the form a Sanctions Assessment Handbook. This handbook will help guide the UN Security Council Sanctions Committees in their work.	$100,000 Completed

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Global

- | | |
|--|---|
| 02-002 ICC Defence Bar
International Criminal Defence Attorneys Association (ICDAA) This conference, held in Montreal, was attended by representatives from 68 international, regional and national Bars and associations of counsel, as well as individual legal practitioners and NGO representatives. Participants passed a resolution to establish the International Criminal Bar (ICB) for the ICC and the first meeting of the General Assembly of the ICB was held in Berlin in March. | $31,500
Completed |
| 01-236 Human Security Report - Phase One
Liu Centre / University of British Columbia Data was collected in preparation for the production of an annual "Human Security Report." The report maps the incidence and intensity of global violence, reviews the latest research findings on the causes and consequences of political and criminal violence and discusses policy responses. | $81,996.15
Completed |
| 01-231 Weapons Collection, Management and Destruction Programme
UNDP/Bureau for Conflict and Recovery (BCPR) Support to a United Nations Development Program (UNDP) initiative to reduce the impact of small arms by integrating weapon reduction plans with economic development programs. Specifically, Canadian funding supported the collection, management and destruction of small arms in the Balkans and Niger. | $300,000
Completed |
| 01-183 Parliamentary Session on Counter Terrorism
Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) The Special Parliamentary Session on Counter-Terrorism, held in Stockholm, Sweden, brought together legislators from around the world to discuss strategies for dealing with the threat of further terrorism and to explore ways of preventing such activities in the future. | $75,000
Completed |
| 01-035 Youth Advisory Council
UN: Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict The Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General on Children and Armed Conflict set-up a Youth Advisory Council where children are able to share their experiences, to support and learn from one another, and to act as advocates for the millions of young people who suffer from the effects of war. | $50,000
Completed |
| 01-028 International Criminal Court Technical Assistance Program: Phase II
International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) launched the second phase of a project aimed at producing information materials explaining the Statute, its future rules of procedure and the way in which each country must modify its laws to ensure conformity with the Statute. | $65,000
Completed |
| 01-015 Economic Agendas in Civil Wars Economic Research Consortium
The International Peace Academy (IPA) The International Peace Academy (IPA) established an international consortium to investigate economic agendas in civil wars. IPA researchers studied the economic agendas of groups involved in conflict and focussed on how globalization changed the economy of civil war. | $100,000
Completed |

M

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Canada

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| 02-034 Waging Peace: Improving Canadian Peacebuilding Capacities | $250,000 |
| Canadian Peacebuilding Coordinating Committee (CPCC) | On-going |
| The CPCC provides the basis for greater NGO-Government of Canada cooperation in peacebuilding policy development and implementation. The CPCC used this support for activities such as the Annual Peacebuilding Consultations, NGO-Government dialogues, seminars and meetings, and specialized working groups on human security. | |
| 03-117 APEC Smart Border Symposium | $100,000 |
| Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters | Completed |
| To "internationalize" the Smart Border Declaration and Plan of Action as a model, the Symposium is aimed at highlighting the benefits of using innovative technology solutions to increase security yet facilitate trade and building the capacity of developing APEC economies to put similar arrangements in place. | |
| 02-164 Comparative Study on Victims and Witnesses Units of International Tribunals and Truth and Reconciliation | $10,000 |
| Liu Centre for Global Issues, University of British Columbia | Completed |
| Ensuring that the interests of victims and witnesses are adequately addressed during the ICC's proceedings will be fundamental to its effective functioning. The comparative study undertaken by the Liu Institute for Global Issues will provide the ICC with a valuable resource for the operation of its Victims and Witnesses Unit. | |
| 02-162 Take the Stand! An International Criminal Court Youth Program | $92,738 |
| War Child Canada | Completed |
| Support for a youth program that included the production and distribution of lesson plans on the ICC for use in Canadian schools. The program culminated in an ICC conference in Ottawa for students from across the country. | |
| 02-118 ICC Public Awareness Program | $12,000 |
| World Federalist of Canada (CNICC) | Completed |
| Support for a Public Awareness Campaign being administered by the Canadian Network for the International Criminal Court. It involved the production and distribution of communications materials on issues and current events related to the ICC. | |
| 02-086 53 Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs | $150,000 |
| Council of the Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs | Completed |
| Support for the 53rd Annual Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs, entitled "Advancing Human Security: The Role of Science, Technology and Politics." | |
| 02-069 Expert Deployment Capacity Building | $43,000 |
| Pearson Peacekeeping Centre | Completed |
| Funding was provided for consultations with national and international stakeholders on best practices and recommendations for an integrated Canadian Expert Deployment Mechanism. | |

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Canada

02-053 Global Model for a multicultural state	$30,000
Canadian Multicultural Education Foundation (CMEF)	Completed
Support for a two-day pre-conference seminar which took place before the conference in order to prepare the guests participants for full participation in the conference. The aim of the pre-conference was to highlight relevant Canadian experience for peaceful and constructive collaboration across diversity.
02-036 The Quebec City Summit: One Year Later: Roundtable discussion on achievements and challenges surrounding the implementation of he third Summit of the Americas Plan of	$1,500
DFAIT, the Canadian Foundation for the Americas (FOCAL) and the Inter-American Dialogue	Completed
Roundtable discussion, held in Washington, helped to foster a deeper dialogue on the achievements and challenges surrounding the implementation of the Third Summit of the Americas' Plan of Action.
01-180 ICC Youth Campaign	$80,000
War Child Canada	Completed
Warchild Canada launched an information campaign to make Canadian youth more aware of the ICC and of international justice issues. The campaign included online chats, live workshops and presentations to educate youth about the ICC. On March 1-3, 2002, Warchild held the Youth Conference on International Justice and Accountability in Ottawa. The conference brought together 50 high school and university students from across the country to address issues surrounding the ICC, such as crimes against humanity, armed conflicts and the protection of children, terrorism, and the role of civil society and youth.
01-117 Youth Links/InterJeunes	$75,000
The Historica Foundation of Canada	Completed
Historica developed a new education module that leads students through a series of web-based activities that offer them Canadian educational context within which to learn about and reflect upon terrorism.
01-048 Canadian Consortium on Human Security (CCHS) - Phase One	$718,941.03
University of British Columbia	Completed
The Canadian Consortium for Human Security, which is under the responsibility of UBC's Institute of International Relations and which includes Victoria University, Royal Roads University and the Université du Québec à Montréal, will develop a comprehensive research on the international dimensions of human security, encourage a regular interaction between members of the civil society, and act as a civil society's credible partner in the dialogue with the Government of Canada.
IMPACS International Media and Peacebuilding Center	$120,000
Institute for Media Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS)	Completed
The Institute for Media Policy and Civil Society (IMPACS) launched the International Media and Peace Building Centre and an interactive website. The Centre provides a one-stop information point for people working in media and peacebuilding to network, share expertise, and discuss policy development around the issues of media, democracy and good governance.

HUMAN SECURITY PROGRAM

Canada

00-069 Appui à la recherche pour le compte de l'ouvrage L'Action humanitaire internationale du Canada $30,000

Université de Laval

Completed

Two professionals from Laval University and the Pearson Centre published a book entitled "Canadian International Humanitarian Action". It analyzes the depth of the multiplication and complexity of actions linked to Canada's humanitarian action, as well as the promotion of Canadian know-how and commitment in the area of humanitarian action.

LIBRARY E A / BIBLIOTHÈQUE A E

3 5036 01042885 5

DOCS

CA1 EA192 2004H77 ENG

Canada. Dept. of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Human Security Program

Human security program : fiscal years 2002/2003 and 2004/2005 (as of March 12, 2004)