Citizens of Ambitious City Hold Sway at Exhibition

Nearly 100,000 People Passed Thru the Gates—Ex-Mayor Oliver Welcomes Guests at Luncheon, Attended by C.O.M. of Hamilton and Mayor Lees—Cadets Compete in Marching Contest.

Nearly 100,000 people passed thru the turnstiles at the Exhibition grounds on Saturday. It was Hamilton Day, and a record breaker for this occasion. On the same day last year 91,000 was the total attendance, but although no official figure was given, the Exhibition management was responsible for the statement that many more thousands were there on Saturday. The morning was rainy and it was feared that the Exhibition would get a setback of several thousand, but when the sun appeared at midday, the crowds began to appear and before long the largest throng of visitors thus far this year was in the grounds. At the grand stand performance in the evening, there were fully 20,000 spectators, every seat in the stand being occupied, and a huge crowd standing on the lawn.

Today it is expected that the great figure will be reached, when last year's attendance will be beaten by twenty or thirty thousand, and several of the police protection is concerned, there will be a squad of 50 constables in charge of Inspector Dickson on hand to keep the crowds in order.

There will be several new features today, which include the baby show, the opening of the dog show, motor boat races, swimming races, war canoe races, aquaplaning, Labor Day sports, the judging of hunters and jumpers, and many more.

Cadets Shooting. The Imperial Cadets will shoot off the third stage for the King's Trophy at Long Branch this morning, and several corps will take part in the competition before the grand stand in the afternoon in marching, manual exercises and physical drill.

Only one accident occurred on Saturday, when Albert Woodward, one of the besiegers in the "Siege of Delhi," was shot by a blank cartridge, at very close range, in the back of the neck. Just as the red-coated troops were entering the gates of the city, when the firing was at its height, Woodward fell. Many others who were supposed to be shot, fell also, but were not with him by their comrades. No one in the grand stand knew anything about Woodward being hurt, it being thought naturally that it was merely part of his make-believe role. But Woodward was unconscious when taken behind the scenes, and was removed by the hospital corps to the tent hospital on the grounds. He was later taken to his home at 132 Morse street. His neck and the back of his head were badly burned, but he is now able to be upon his feet, although it is not likely that he will appear among the British troops to-night.

With the appearance of the sun at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, renewed hope sprang in the breasts of the Exhibition management. For the morning had been dreary, the rain had fallen intermittently, and the crowds had come very small. But when the sun came, the sky cleared shortly after midday, the prospects looked brighter and chances as on Hamilton Day last year—$1,000. At all times, however, the sky threatened to unleash another deluge, and it is not expected that this figure will be reached today.

Hamilton Day was the occasion on which swarms of inhabitants of the Ambitious City visited the fair. They came early—even in the rain—and they came in crowds and bunches, and they continued to stream into the grounds until late in the day. Even the "Toronto's next greatest suburb" car had coaches loaded and crammed with them.

The sister city's leading celebrities were entertained by the Exhibition director at noon day luncheon. Over 100 were guests at the affair. Ex-Mayor Jos. Oliver presided, the Hon. Mayor Geary, Mayor Lees of Hamilton, Adam Brown, Mayor of St. John's, N.B., and others. The Hon. Adam Brown delivered a patriotic address on the development of Canada from the time the first railway was built between LaPrairie and St. John, N.B. He ended his oration in quoting the parting words of Lord Dufferin: "Canadians, remember that Canada is a country to live and die for." Councillor Frost of Hamilton also spoke.

The principal features of the big show on Saturday were the live stock judging and the butter and cheese making. These exhibitions attracted large crowds. The cadets are making no public appearance except in the competitions before the grand stand in the afternoon and the military tattoo in the evening.

Toronto, St. Catharines and New Zealand cadets competed in the marching drill before the grand stand, and the boys from Ireland, Nova Scotia and Ridley College in the physical drill. The New Zealanders appeared to have made the best showing of the lot, their style of marching and of handling the rifle being even superior to most militia regiments.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!
FIRE PROTECTION PATS
There is no more terrifying cry than that of fire in the small town or village, where there is none or inadequate fire protection. The work of the famous "Waterous Rotary gasoline fire engine," adapted to the needs of just such small towns and villages, which is being shown daily and every evening on the sea wall at the Exhibition will learn how at little cost this danger may be done away with.

This wonderful little engine, which may be drawn rapidly over the roads of town or village by six men, by reason of the wonderful lightness of its construction, is nevertheless so powerful that it will send a solid fire-killing stream over the village church steeple and is so strongly and simply constructed that while anyone can run the danger of disorder and the necessity for repairs is practically eliminated. It has a capacity of 200 gallons per minute, which is ample for the purpose for which it is designed.

Among the many who have watched with wonder and admiration the work of this little engine as it shoots its powerful stream of water over the lake there have been many over the lake who have been amazed at the work it can do. This engine is in use by a number of private corporations, among which is the Canadian Copper Cliff Co., which has three of them protecting its plant.

Hugh Cameron & Son, who are showing this engine, are also exhibiting in the annex of the automobile building a combination chemical and hose fire truck built for the City of London, Ont., and will be delivered there at the close of the Exhibition. The firm was also successful in securing an order from the City of Toronto for two more of these trucks after one of them sold several tests, both by experts and in actual operation in the hands of the fire department. The experts who, as well as the City of Toronto, have placed the engine on the list of approved trucks. Prof. Angus of the School of Practical Science, and Mr. Evans of the Russell Motor Car Co.

This firm is also showing a Waterous Brantford Pitts double cylinder steam road roller, which is also in operation on the roads and track at the grounds. Showing the popularity of these engines there are now 150 of them in use within the Dominion of Canada.

The name of Waterous or Seagrave upon any appliance is sufficient guarantee of its worth, while it is known that Hugh Cameron & Son are and have been doing the leading business in Canada in all fire apparatus, having been established in the business for more than 20 years.

mammoth map, with the route of the Intercolonial shown by a trail of red lamps, shows splendidly the territory traversed by the Canadian Government Railways, and is daily awakening increased interest in Eastern Canada. Across the trail of red which marks the route of the railway, there are shown the various terminal points, while the changing colors. In addition to the map, there is a finely illuminated picture of the Intercolonial Limited, the daily train of the I.C.R. between Montreal and Halifax. The collection of pictures is especially fine. Several of these show the fine opportunities for sport along the line of the Intercolonial, and one that has attracted a lot of attention shows the successful landing of a giant tuna after an exciting struggle by a gentleman well known in Canadian financial circles. The tuna shown in this picture was caught at St. Ann's Bay, Cape Breton, and was the first ever caught in eastern waters by hook and line. As this particular fish weighed 500 lbs., it may be imagined the capture of it was quite an achievement.

There is a fine display of mounted specimens of fish and game, including a life-sized bear, and a diminutive cub. The mounted salmon trout are very attractive to sportsmen.

The Musicians' Mecca.
Stelwag Piano, Nordheimer Piano and Nordheimer "Human Touch" Player Piano are on view at the Nordheimer Company's exhibit in the manufacturing building. For the music lover purchasing a piano or player piano should not overlook this attractive exhibit.

Entering a Profession.
Do you want to become a doctor, lawyer, minister, dentist, druggist, civil, mechanical or electrical engineer, scientific agriculturist, etc.—do you want to enter any profession? The first step is to pass your matriculation. The quickest, cheapest and most effective way to get this is by a mail course with the Canadian Correspondence College, Limited. Call and see them at 15 Toronto street.

City Dairy.
City Dairy is very sorry that its many friends will not be able to get City Dairy ice cream in the Exhibition grounds this year. The Exhibition committee on concessions decided this year to sell a monopoly of ice cream, and the City Dairy did not tender high enough.

We are therefore confined to an educational exhibit which is located in the public health section in the new Dominion building. Any resident of Toronto who is interested in safe milk will be well repaid by a visit to our exhibit, which is in charge of our chemist and bacteriologist, Dr. E. W. Hammond.

The Theosophical Society will receive visitors during the Exhibition in room 205, 22 College street, from 3 till 5 every afternoon. Address on Sunday evening at 7.15.

The Human Touch of a Player.
The Nordheimer "Human Touch" Player Piano appeals to those who wish a player which is not mechanical; it being impossible to distinguish the touch of the player and the touch of the hand. Visitors should see the Nordheimer exhibit in the manufacturing building.

Carter's Tested Seeds.
Nowhere in all the Exhibition is there a more interesting or instructive exhibit than that which shows just how the Carter seeds are scientifically certain to be of the highest grade of fertility. This is shown in an apparatus which is to be found just inside the northeast door of the horticultural building, and in which, or one of their 24 similar devices, all of the Carter seeds are tested before they are sent out to their customers, who are distributed over the map of the world and among whom are numbered by their special warrants of appointment nearly all of the crowned heads. Among these are the Emperor of Germany and the King of Siam. Catalogs setting out the extensive varieties of these seeds and a complete line of bulbs handled by the Carter Company may be had at the booth or by addressing Messrs. Patterson, Wyde & Co. at 85 East Front street, Toronto, the sole agents for Canada for the Carter Tested Seeds.

The Intercolonial Railway Display.
The exhibit of the Intercolonial Railway in the new federal government building is a point of great attraction, especially at night, when the elaborate lighting gives life and brilliancy to the display. The illuminated map with its clever device of changing lights is being greatly admired by thousands of visitors. This

Dean's Boats.
Canoes and boats have formed a popular exhibit at the fair ever since Walter Dean has annually shown his latest designs in boat building. His exhibit of rowboats without oars is one of the most interesting inventions demonstrated. The Dean exhibit, which should be visited by all interested in aquatic sports.

The Dean exhibit of boats and canoes is in the manufacturers' annex to the east end of the grand stand. The many distinctive qualities of the Dean canoes, row and motor boats will be readily recognized by an inspection of the exhibit.

Gundy-Clapperton Company and the Canadian Coat-of-Arms.
This year Gundy-Clapperton Company, Limited, have surpassed themselves. The display of the celebrated cut glass in the manufacturers' building "beggars all description." An especially striking feature of this dazzling display is the three immense pedestal flower pots standing about five feet high and covered with elaborate cutting from top to base. They are without doubt, the most magnificent things of their kind ever put on exhibition in this country. Equally beautiful and more significant is the plate set displayed on a background of purple plush. There are nine plates, each bearing the coat-of-arms of one of the provinces, and a tenth and larger plate carrying the coat-of-arms of the Dominion. These are executed in the delicate stone engraving known as "Intaglio," and first introduced here by the Gundy-Clapperton Company, Limited. The manner in which these intricate designs are worked out on the brilliant white glass is a revelation of the degree of perfection attained in the glass-cutting art. A demonstration of glass cutting in process is given at the southwest end of the process building and is attracting large crowds daily.

Foods Fit for Fairy Tables.
Such fare as one might look for upon the tables of fairy banquets of Alice in Wonderland, are to be seen and sampled at the attractive exhibit of Christie, Brown & Co., in the manufacturers' building, at the Exhibition. There you will find biscuits for every taste and for every occasion. There is no kind of biscuit of which you can think which you cannot find here, and you will find many suggestions to help you make your reception or other social function dressed with just that little distinction which will provide that much sought quality of "charm." It is just these little touches to the table which make the productions of one hostess the envy and wonder of her friends.

Then there are the features of purity and reliability which appeal to dealer and consumer alike. Nothing but the purest materials goes into Christie's biscuits. They are made, shipped and handled in the most sanitary way, by skilled workmen and women, who have long and honorable traditions to spur them to their highest endeavor.

To the dealer let it be said that there is no firm in any line which will guarantee its products with such absolute confidence as Christie's. The independent means prompt delivery of goods, which will bring new old customers and make you still more friends.

This is the exhibit which halted the Duke and Princess Patricia for several minutes, who stood in the throng which Perfection in Player-Piano.

"Perfect as the hand on the keys," is the manner in which the "Human Touch" device used in the Nordheimer Player Piano, was described by one who heard it. The exhibit is in the manufacturers' building.

Defies Cold Weather.
Chilly, unsettled weather is usually very disagreeable, but it served an excellent purpose in one respect at the Exhibition. When it prevailed the coolness in the atmosphere gave the Grenville Board and Pulp Company, Limited, an opportunity to prove to their hundreds of visitors that fibre wall board outlasts frame or brick walls for warmth and comfort. It is also both cheap and durable. This demonstration was made in the model house constructed of fibre wood-board at the Exhibition. It is just east of the entrance. The fibre wall board house is of attractive appearance. It is coated with stucco on the outside and papered and tinted with artistic skill in the inside. The demand for fibre wood board is constantly increasing. It is manufactured in vast quantities with other building materials made of sawdust at the Grenville Board and Pulp Company's factory, at Thorold.

The I.O.O.F. Tent.
Prominent among the many fraternal societies who have established their places for their members and friends, the "Goodwill Row" on the Exhibition grounds is the Independent Order of Oddfellows. Their very attractive tent is the mecca for a large number of members of the Triple Link Family from not only the Canadian provinces, but also from the United States, all of whom express themselves greatly pleased with the comfortable and homelike quarters provided and the hearty welcome and unbounded courtesy which is extended by Bro. W. C. Sims, P.D.D.G.M., and the committee in charge. The Independent Order of Oddfellows is too well known to require any advertisement. Its daily ministrations in alleviating distress, its great work in providing for the education of its orphans, and its praiseworthy efforts to uplift the human race and promote the welfare of every community in which it is engaged.

Real estate brokers in this city handling Regina property are reaping a harvest at present and by no means least amongst these are the members of the firm of McKillop and Benjamin, 75 West King street, who are specializing in "Industrial Centre" and "Industrial Heights," both of which are exceptionally well situated properties.

Nordheimer "Human Touch" Player.
The inventor of the "Human Touch" device used in the Nordheimer Player Piano will be at the Nordheimer exhibit in the manufacturing building every day this week to explain and demonstrate the principles of this wonderful invention. No one interested in a player piano should fail to see the Nordheimer Player.

John Deere Plow Company's Exhibit.
The largest individual exhibit on the canvas at the Exhibition is that of the John Deere Plow Company of Welland. Only one of the plows found on the main road just west of the transportation building. Here farmers of the class who seek to improve their farms and increase the efficiency of their labor. A full line of plows and farm implements is shown.

The leading exhibit of this fair with a line of plows, cultivators, riding and walking spade tooth and disk harrows, corn planters, hay loaders, beet tools, and stiff tooth cultivators. Then there is the great royal line of having tools, presses and ensilage cutters. There is further a complete display of the well known line of Syracuse riding and walking plows, also and spring tooth harrows. When you buy the Syracuse plow, you buy the best plow on earth.

There are also the famous Aspinwall potato diggers, celebrated Hoover ham line of land rollers and pulverizers, with the well known "Line of Speight wagons and sleighs. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. Law.

Then be SURE to visit the CANADA CEMENT EXHIBITS
(Information Department Booth and Demonstration Tent).

You will find them among the most entertaining, as well as instructive, features of the Exhibition. The marvels worked out by the use of the slate-gray powder called Canada Cement will astonish you.

established is sufficient in itself to commend this grand fraternity to the friendship of every citizen who has the most remote knowledge of its constant benefactions. Among its members the bond of fraternity is strong and enduring, and when it is known that its banners float over more than two million members throughout the civilized world, all working in harmony to further the cause of humanity, some conception may be had of the great work the Independent Order of Oddfellows is doing in its quiet and steady way for the betterment of mankind.

See the Stove Lighter.
Have you seen the wonderful demonstration of the wireless stove lighter that is being given by H. M. Hazen in the northwest corner of the gas building? It is one of the most unique appliances for the busy housewife. The device consists of an electrical attachment made from dry cells connected to a gas range with a push button. It does away with all the dangers that flaming matches make. As a match saver it can't be beat. The show is attracting the attention of every visitor and is worthy of the inspection of every woman.

REGINA A GREAT CITY.
Conspicuous for its Extraordinary Development.

Going ahead! One hears that everywhere, especially in regard to the agricultural and real estate prospects of Canada, but it seems that the City of Regina is forging ahead and that it is becoming conspicuous by its extraordinary developments. Its development stands out in comparison with other increasing centres not unlike the new C. P. R. building here close to its neighbors.

In reviewing the figures relating to that city one is tempted to assert that the extraordinary development is in way beyond the carrying capacity of that centre, also that Regina will have to go ahead extensively before it comes up to its industrial and railroad progress.

From a sentimental standpoint this gives pleasure, for no doubt when the Marquis of Lorne made it he did so with the thought of the late Queen Victoria in his mind. It seems as if Regina has become instilled with the spirit of the royal lady after whom it was named. Bully to it! It is succeeding.

While writing news has come to hand to the effect that twenty-two miles of railway between Niobe, N.D., and North Portal will be constructed by November 1. The Canadian Pacific stated on Thursday that the hundred and thirty-four miles from Regina to Portal will be laid before December 1 if the weather permits.

This is of great importance to Regina inasmuch as it will become the chief city for emigration from the United States owing to the new trade advantages the distance to the west.

Real estate brokers in this city handling Regina property are reaping a harvest at present and by no means least amongst these are the members of the firm of McKillop and Benjamin, 75 West King street, who are specializing in "Industrial Centre" and "Industrial Heights," both of which are exceptionally well situated properties.

Wookey's Wonderful Bowling Almost Defeats Toronto C.C.

Rosedale Loses City League
Game by One Wicket—
Pull to Leg for Four Changes Defeat into Victory.

After an exciting finish, a weak Rosedale team was defeated by Toronto, the undefeated champions of "A" section of the City League, by one wicket. Rosedale won the toss and elected to bat on a wicket that was calculated to increase in difficulty under the influence of the sun. Reid and Baines bowled from the north end and Rathbun from the pavilion end. After the morning rain the wicket proved easy as regards play, but difficult to score upon. Stokes that would usually have produced a boundary were only responsible for singles. Reid placed Seagram cleverly to leg for a brace, and a single thru the slips sent up. With the score 12, Baines played in a good ball from Rathbun, and was clear bowled, letting H. W. Wookey in. The left-hander commenced by placing Seagram cleverly to leg for two, and followed with a fine drive to the favorite leg stroke to good advantage. The score was taken to 22 when H. W. Wookey was beaten by Rathbun, and Lewis joined Reid. Without any addition to the score, Reid was unfortunately run out, thus making him a reputation for being run out or being pulled. When apparently set for a good score, Captain Wookey, who pulled Rathbun finely to the on boundary, and placed the following ball behind the wicket also for four.

Wookey Yorked.
At 30 Captain Wookey was out to a " Yorker," which curled with the wind, and Dunbar came in. Lewis pulled Rathbun to leg for two, and Toronto's amount of work on the ball, certain bowling his fastest. Lewis pulled Rathbun round to leg for a couple, sending up 40 and making his own score 26. Two runs later, Rathbun gave way to Davidson and Henderson took up the attack vice Seagram. When he was 21 Lewis gave an easy chance at first wicket off Henderson, who was keeping a good length, and proved difficult to get away. At length Lewis pulled Davidson to leg for a couple, but at 53 Dunbar was caught at short slip by Seagram off Henderson, and Dean came in. Lewis signalled the advent of Dean and Lowmabrough sent up the 40 with a lovely drive along the carpet for two. At 55 Henderson gave a chance off the bat caught off Wookey, Dunbar being the offender. With a single off Baines Lowmabrough sent the 50 up, and at this time the batsmen adopted aggressive tactics. Dunbar was introduced in the attack at 54, and with two runs added Henderson was caught in the slips off the new bowler, letting in Hynes. Reid resumed the attack at the north end, and Captain Wookey at the pavilion end. Hynes was in difficulties early on, and at 61 he was clean bowled by Wookey.

The Excitement.
With 21 runs still required for victory and four wickets to fall, Seagram joined in a captain, and Dunbar relieved Reid. Seagram was telegraphed, and two runs later Lowmabrough's leg-wicket was struck by Wookey, and Leighton came in when ten were required to win. Reid was tried again for the third time, but Captain Wookey met with further success, Seagram being dismissed at 75, letting in McCaffrey. Two singles were added when McCaffrey was bowled by Reid, and Rathbun arrived. Leighton was bowled off his pads by Reid at the same score, and the last man, Neill, joined Rathbun, with seven runs required. Captain Wookey's fine bowling had altered a probable Toronto victory into a possible Rosedale triumph, and an exciting finish was provided for the spectators.

Winning Tactics.
The batsmen manoeuvred in order that Neill should not be bowled. Rosedale's tactics were that Reid should bowl his fastest and keep down the run-getting, one of Wookey's specials should do the trick. Three singles were added, and then Neill with a pull to leg for four off Wookey, snatched the game out of the fire, and thus enabled Toronto to maintain their unbeaten certificate. Wookey had the fine bowling average of six for 53, and his accurate and accurate bowling, most disconcerting to the unsuspecting batsman.

St. Edmunds Win at West Toronto.
Sh. Edmunds C.C. and West Toronto played at High Park, in a Church and Mercantile League game, which resulted in an easy victory for St. Edmunds, who had the advantage of a full team, while West Toronto evidently suffered by absence of the Exhibition. St. Edmunds batted first and lost their first wicket for five runs, but W. Stroud and G. E. Jones put on 38 runs before the second wicket fell. Jones falling a victim to a good ball from Collinge, fulfilling the useful score of 42. Stroud (22) and T. Ashworth (24) were the only others to reach double figures, and St. Edmunds' total was 114. West Toronto were two men short to commence with and two more left shortly after, so they were handicapped by only having seven men to bat, and none of these reaching double figures, they only realized 28 runs. G. Jones got three wickets for 9 runs, Kent one for 17, and W. Stroud one for 17. Collinge took seven wickets for 33 for West Toronto. The score—

Orinoco can't bite. Men—Including fishermen—have been making Orinoco for years and have never had a "bite" yet. Pass a dime to your dealer and ask for a package of Orinoco to-day.

Good Fishing!

So long as you have your trusty briar and a package of fragrant Orinoco—yes. Then you can smile even when there's nary a nibble—for you have caught the true flavor of pipe contentment, which is more than a solace for "fisherman's luck."

ORINOCO

puts sunshine into grey moments. It straightens out trouble-kinks and dispels gloom. For Orinoco is a rare blend of the finest crop leaf tobacco, procurable from the plantations of old Virginia. It is mild, fragrant and full of flavor. Put it in any pipe you have—clay, corncob, briar or near briar—and you get a smooth, sweet smoke that is cool and comforting.

Only One Game Postponed Out of 11 in Rainy Week

Providence Grays Just Manage to Land the Last—
Leafs Off to Rochester to Play Two Games Today.

The Leafs left last night for Rochester, where they play the crucial games of the season in the morning and afternoon today and the third tomorrow. Unless there is a total reversal of the weather, it is probable that the Leafs will play at least two out of the three games. The Leafs have been playing their last games abroad of the season and then come home for four games with Montreal, Buffalo and Rochester in that order, winding up with the Hustlers, a double-header on Saturday, Sept. 6, and a single on Sunday, Sept. 7. However, it is expected the fight will be over before that.

Rain interfered with the baseball program on Saturday, the bad condition of the grounds at noon making it necessary to cancel one of the games. The second one, commencing at 3 p.m., was played on a heavy and slippery field, on which fast work was impossible. However, with the abundance of raindrops that we have had of late the wonder is that only one of the eleven games scheduled for the week was cancelled. As this is the last day of the season, the Leafs will play their last game in the city, the only one so far, in Toronto's list.

Drucke and Lafitte were the offensive leaders, and the latter had quite a bit of the better of the argument, also the Grays got the victory by only one run, the score at the final standing 4 to 3.

Providence got two runs right at the start. Platt walked, Lathers beat out a bunt towards third and Sloan also got on when Jordan fell on the slippery ground in fleeing his base. Schmidt forced Sloan, Platt scoring. Bauman struck out and then the umpire gave Lathers a two-base hit on a foul ball. The Grays then scored two more runs in the third. Lathers singled, reached base on Sloan's sacrifice and went to third on Sloan's sacrifice. Platt then scored on Sloan's sacrifice. The two runs worked the double steal. Lathers scored and Schmidt crossed the plate on Mitchell's single to centre. Two hits and a sacrifice fly gave them their fifth run in the seventh.

Toronto started off with three runs. Borton singled and went to second on a wild pitch. O'Hara fanned, but Shaw hit, scored. Platt fanned. Jordan went out at first, but that fumbled Pittsford's fly, going to the fence and blowing the ball, and Shaw came in. McConnell's sacrifice caught in the hole. Holy drove home the two runs. Mitchell reached the best catch of the day, robbing Holy of a three base hit. Toronto's other run came in the fifth. After two were down Jordan and Pittsford singled in succession and then the Grays scored two runs. Lathers singled, reached base on Sloan's sacrifice and went to third on Sloan's sacrifice. Platt then scored on Sloan's sacrifice. The two runs worked the double steal. Lathers scored and Schmidt crossed the plate on Mitchell's single to centre. Two hits and a sacrifice fly gave them their fifth run in the seventh.

NOBLEMEN CIGARS

The Noblemen's Message

"I'll prove the contrary if you'll hear me speak."
(King Henry VI. Act I)

Today the world is a big reception committee, waiting for the man with a message to speak. That is why the

DAVIS' "NOBLEMEN" CIGAR 2 for 25c

got a hearing, and became an assured success from the start. The "NOBLEMEN" was allowed to speak for itself. And to the smoker who thought "imported" cigars the "only thing," the "NOBLEMEN" proved the contrary. "NOBLEMEN" proved that Havana leaf and Cuban workmanship are the only elements that count in a high-grade cigar. The "NOBLEMEN" also proved that the smoker can save 50 per cent. and still get a cigar in all essentials the same as "imported."

"NOBLEMEN" also, 2-for-a-quarter. S. DAVIS & SONS, LTD., MONTREAL. "CONCHA FINA" also, 5 for 25c.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2, 1912.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

There is an election in Vermont tomorrow at which the legislature, the governor and other state officers and members of congress will be chosen.
The presidential electors for Vermont,
as for every other state, will be chosen
on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Nevertheless, the result of Tuesday's balloting will be watched with keen interest as indicating the drift of the country toward Theodore Roosevelt and the new Progressive party. Col. Roosevelt is the only presidential candidate who has taken any part in the Vermont campaign and his enthusiastic reception by the state citizens of that old-fashioned commonwealth has startled the politicians of both parties and has caused old chills to run down the backs of the Standard Oil magnates
and their allies in Wall street.

Five candidates for governor are in the field, including the nominee of the Republican party and the nominee of the Progressive party. It is conceded all around that Mr. Fletcher, the Republican candidate, will lead the poll, but unless he gets a clear majority of all the votes cast
at the election the contest will be thrown into the legislature. The Roosevelt or Progressive candidate will admittedly not receive the support of many Republicans who are supporting Roosevelt in the presidential contest and the more conservative among his supporters do not claim that he will receive over eight thousand votes.

The personal tour made by the ex-president, so far as we have been able to follow it, showed a remarkable awakening of public interest in the reforms for which he stands, but is proved still more significant in attending the strong position in which he has been placed by the Archibald-Pemrose-Standard-Oil conspiracy against him.

No one anticipates that the rock-ribbed Republican State of Vermont will withhold its electoral vote from President Taft, but the situation has been considered sufficiently serious to justify Chairman Hill in flooding the state with oratory and literature designed to keep the Green Mountain
State in line for the Republican party.
The population is old colonial stock,
naturally conservative, hard to enthuse and averse to all new-fangled notions. If in such a community Col.
Roosevelt can frighten the old-line Republican organization it would be difficult to overestimate the possibilities of his influence in many other parts of the union.

The returns from Vermont will not be awaited with interest only second to the anxiety among all state politicians
as to the result of the Maine elections
on the 8th inst.

KINGSTON'S OPPORTUNITY.

The Kingston Standard has wakened
up to the fact that "there is a tide in the affairs of men, which takes at the flood leads on to fortune, and it begins to fear that if this is neglected, Kingston's future will be stranded in shallows and in miseries. The Standard has absolute knowledge, it declares,
which does not permit of any doubt,
that if Kingston does not take hydropower before the line to Brockville shall have been constructed, it will materially increase the cost of power to Kingston.

Also, The Standard testifies to its faith in the Hydro-Electric Commission. "It means gives estimates," it remarks, "and it is worth noting that in all the contracts that have been made so far, based upon earlier estimates, the costs have always been within the estimates." This will be news for those enlightened organs of public opinion, The Kingston Whig,
The Brockville Times, The Peterboro
Examiner, The Hamilton Times, et al.
But the faith of The Standard in the commission does not go so far as to accept the report of its engineers that the expenditure of $35,000 on the old steam plant is "most wasteful and ridiculous excess" and would only lead up the cost of power without any compensating advantage. None of the opponents of the hydro-policy mention the alternative which the engineers suggested, the addition to the steam plant—the installation of a storage battery which would be good under any circumstances, hydro or not.

Kingston has a great opportunity in the approach of hydro-electric power.
The people realized this and voted for it ten to one. But the newspapers and the council decided that other interests just then. We believe that there was some ulterior reason for this action taken against the will of the people.
The Standard still sticks to the proposi-

ed expenditure on the steam plant on the plea that the city cannot run along on an antiquated plant. But it won't take any longer to get in hydro power than to spend $35,000 on unnecessary repairs. The people digested all these facts before they voted for hydro-electric. What antidote was administered to the newspapers and the council which led them to oppose it?

DECIDEDLY FRANK.

The Montreal Financial Times is even more frank than The Montreal Gazette in declaring that the big interests are to have their way with mergers, melons and high freight rates,
and that people who have the temerity to protest to the government will be told to mind their own business. A recent editorial opens thus:

The Royal-Trade Bank amalgamation—or, more correctly, the purchase of the Bank by the Bank—has been sanctioned by the treasury board, and another new stands in the way of giving effect to the terms accepted by the shareholders of each bank, a process which will be completed within two or three weeks. The newspaper agitation against the deal has found no echo in any reasonable quarter, and we presume that no more will be heard of it. We venture to predict, moreover,
that the same will prove to be the case with the newspaper agitation against the C.P.R. stock increase.

The two agitations have this in common, that both were a demand for interference by the government in transactions of the internal business of certain corporations, transactions which require the formal approval of parliament or of the government, but which should by all precedent and equity have received that approval as a matter of course.
If the shareholders of a bank cannot sell their undertaking, lock,
stock and barrel, to the only kind of purchaser who is in the least likely to bid for it—another bank—
there is in all of all true property rights in banking business.

After observing that it is no concern of the public how many banks are consolidated; that the intervention of the treasury board is only for the protection of shareholders, and that its powers are limited to seeing that the proper legal formalities are complied with, the article continues:

The agitation against the increase in the capital stock of the C.P.R.
is equally a demand for interference
by the government in a proceeding which should receive approval as a matter of course. The idea that the new C.P.R. stock, with its enormously valuable participation in the non-railway assets of the company—assets which are the property of the shareholders, and which were acquired out of their profits or granted them by governments on account of their enterprises—should be put up at auction to the highest bidder, thereby taking the belongings of the old shareholders and selling them to provide money for railway work,
is contrary to equity and a violation of property rights. On its surface as a railway enterprise, the C.P.R. stock is worth no
more than the 175 which it is proposed to ask for the new issue
from the shareholders. Its additional value arises from its right to participate in the accumulated land and stock holdings of the company. The present high price of C.P.R. stock is due to the expectation that shareholders will be allowed periodically to "cash out"
on their "hidden assets" by the grant of profitable rights to new stock. If that expectation is to be fulfilled, we doubt whether the will sell much above the price to which the west takes such exception. But it will not be abolished.

This decidedly frank statement calls attention to the fact that the land grants to the Canadian Pacific, which
The Toronto Globe estimates will yield $27,000,000, are to be reserved as a melon patch and are not to be considered to railway uses. This is the proposition that must be dealt with by parliament if it is to deal properly with the railway grievances of the west. Are these vast land holdings to be distributed among the stockholders
or must they be applied to improving the road, to giving better and cheaper service to the people of Canada?

What have The Toronto Mail and
The Toronto Globe to say on this question? We would also like to hear from that great friend to the western farmer, The Toronto News.

THE SITUATION IS CLEAR.

The application made by the Canadian Pacific Railway to the Dominion Government for permission to issue $60,000,000 additional stock is of vital importance to every Canadian. At the present time the Canadian Pacific Railway stock, with a par value of $100 per share, is selling on the stock exchange at about $280 per share. This high price is due to the huge profits which the company has made thru its excessive freight rates. Those rates are coming down. Nothing is surer than the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway at the present time, if it may take some little time to accomplish the matter, but the change is not far away. In view of this there should be no issue of stock by the Canadian Pacific Railway at the present time.
The stock cannot be issued unless by the express permission of the government, to whom parliament delegated that power some years ago. If the stock is issued today at the market value of $280 a share a serious reduction of freight rates would undoubtedly reduce the value of this stock. Then we would hear tales of the suffering of the Canadian Pacific Railway who had invested their money in the Canadian Pacific Railway stock
and put it on the market at $280 per share, only to find that the stock was worth considerably less than $280 a share
it would be all gobbled up immediately by the magnates who now own the Canadian Pacific Railway. Suppose
the stock is issued at $100 per share,
the magnates would then turn round
and put it on the market at $280 per share and thereby make $180 profit on every $100 invested without giving the slightest return. No new issue of the Canadian Pacific Railway stock
can be made in justice to the people of Canada until the freight rates are adjusted. The railway, no doubt, needs money for development. If so,
its credit is as good as the credit of the Dominion Government. Let the Canadian Pacific Railway borrow money or sell debentures. In that way there will be no addition to the capital liability to form a barrier against freight rate reduction.—Grain Growers' Guide.

A WESTERN COMMENT.

Manitoba Free Press: It is interesting to learn from The Toronto World that Mr. Rogers intends "to elect the Conservative candidate in Macdonald."
By such a majority as to retrieve whatever prestige he may have lost in Sas-atchewan. No doubt Mr. Rogers will do his best to attain such a victory,
but the electors who command the situation may not regard the restoration of Mr. Rogers' prestige as the supreme question at issue. The World itself suggests that there may be other important issues. "Farmers," it says will no doubt see Mr. Rogers where the Borden Government stands upon the proposed money-cutting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, and upon his answer may hinge the result of the election."

GREAT SHOWING IN PIG CONTEST

D. C. Platt & Sons, H. A. Dol-
son, J. S. Cowans, W. C.
Wright, W. W. Brown-
ridge Principal Winners

In picking out the best pigs the judges had no easy task. A large number of entries were made and a standard was exceptionally high.
The exhibit of D. C. Platt and Sons carried off the largest number of awards. Their entries for pigs under a year old were especially notable and in some instances they obtained all four first places in the competition. The Pigs entered by H. A. Dolson were also conspicuous and obtained three first, two second, one third and one fourth. Adam Thompson's entries won two first, one second, one third and one fourth. J. S. Cowans' animals won a second and three thirds. Four firsts were obtained by the entries of W. C. Wright and three fourths.
Pigs owned by MacCampbell and Sons, D. DeCourcy and G. G. Gould also obtained a large number of awards.
The silver medal for the best boar
at any age was won by J. S. Cowan.
W. W. Brownridge won the silver medal for his entry in the competition for the best sow at any age. Other silver medals for different sections were won by D. C. Platt and Sons, D. De-Courcy and Hastings Brothers. Hastings Brothers' entry obtained the silver medal for the best boar at any age and in another section the entry of D. De-Courcy obtained a similar award.

WESTERN CATTLE ARE CHAMPIONS

R. W. Caswell of Saskatoon Swept the Boards With His Shorthorns — Sir Wm.
MacKenzie a Winner.

Sir William MacKenzie, railroad builder and financial magnate, is also a cattle breeder, and on Saturday he carried away many first ribbons when Jerseys were judged. Sir William won female senior champion silver medal
and the female grand champion gold medal. Altogether he captured five first ribbons and one second, two thirds and five fourths.

B. H. Bull and Son of Brampton
was greatest winner in the Jersey class.
Sir William MacKenzie took second to this concern in the number of winning ribbons. Bull and Son carried off a total of first place ribbons, including three silver medals and one gold medal.

R. W. Caswell of Saskatoon was the most successful entry of shorthorns.
He won the bull senior champion silver medal, the bull junior champion silver medal and the bull grand champion gold medal. Besides these victories he looked away four first ribbons, two second, one third and one fourth.

Other winners were T. E. and H. C.
Robson, Hiderston; J. Melick, Edmonton; and Mitchell Bros., Burlington.

A POOR SPECIMEN OF THE REAL THING

In the eyes of a silly girl, clothes make a mighty poor specimen of a man look like the real thing. In the eyes of a few people, some very poor specimens of table water might look like Radnor, but they are certainly lacking in the delightful buoyancy, sparkle and purity which made Radnor the empress of table waters.
Radnor mixes with anything.

Another Call for Farm Laborers to Harvest Western Crop.

Notwithstanding the low rates put in 20, 23, 25 and 30, the number of labor-

laborers' excursions, Sept. 4 and 6.

There Is No Comparison BETWEEN O'Keefe's Special Extra Mild Ale and other brews

O'Keefe's is just what its name implies — an extra mild ale, of
special quality.

It is the great home ale —
the brew used by men and women who enjoy its appetizing flavor — and who know that they are renewing their vigor and strength in every glass
they drink.

You may enjoy O'Keefe's
Special Extra Mild Ale,
even if you find ordinary ale too heavy. O'Keefe's is EXTRA MILD.

at the Exhibition of 1910. It comprises a beautiful display of the great Jamaica rum, artistically arranged in a cupola of highly polished natural woods, on which are also arranged
samples of British grown cane sugar.
Upon its last appearance here gold medals were awarded to it for the superior quality of the rum shown, and a special

Among the most attractive features of the interesting and instructive ex-

National Exhibition is that of Fred L. Myers and Son of Kingston, shows by a series of photographs and

ROOSEVELT'S REPLY

communication with Mr. Archibald on the subject and that he submitted to Mr. Archibald for his approval in advance a copy of the report of the commission.

Unfit to Represent People.

"If these statements are true," he continues, "of course, Mr. Penrose is unfit to represent the people in the United States senate, and the testimony against him is direct."

In the next sentence he takes a well-earned slap at the senate committee for not taking up the charge against Penrose, as follows:

"Apparently, however, the committee is investigating, not this charge against Mr. Penrose, which was sustained in direct evidence, but Mr. Penrose's counter-charge, which was sustained by evidence in all and only by the repetition of second-hand gossip."

The Archibald statement that with his consent and knowledge, Cornelius Bliss, then treasurer of the Republican national committee, asked the Standard Oil Company for $100,000, Roosevelt avers, is "an unqualified falsehood."

Supporting his defence, the colonel includes in his letter copies of his letters to Mr. Cortelyou, his campaign manager, in 1904, ordering him not to accept any money from the Standard Oil Company, also a telegram to Mr. Cortelyou asking him if his desires had been complied with. In reply, Cortelyou told him, the colonel says, that no contribution had been received from Standard Oil or would be received.

The colonel recalls the candidacy, in opposition to Cortelyou, of Senator Penrose, for chairman of the Republican national committee in 1904 and his selection of Cortelyou. He says: "I was not willing to support a man whom I did not know personally and in whose probity I did not have entire confidence."

Dealings With Penrose.

In connection with his relations with Penrose, the colonel asserts he spoke of contributions to the Pennsylvania senator but once and then when he refused to retain one of Penrose's henchmen, a certain Burns, employed in the Philadelphia post-office, after the latter had been recommended for removal by the civil service commission from fellow-contributor. A copy of this letter to Penrose is included in the allusion before the senate committee to the charges of Alton B. Parker, Roosevelt's opponent for the presidency in 1904, that the Republican national committee was making campaign contributions and promising immunity of the contributions were made. Colonel Roosevelt reproduces his reply to these charges in a statement dated Nov. 4, 1904, in which he described them as "false" and "monstrous."

In this statement is a sentence of pertinent interest in the case of the nature of the recent fight between Roosevelt and Taft for the Republican nomination:

"I cannot understand how any honest man, a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, can take refuge in mere personal unpopularity, but in such base and unworthy personalities."

Again Denies Knowledge.

Referring again to the subject of campaign contributions, Colonel Roosevelt makes flat denial of the inference of John D. Archibald that he (Roosevelt), thus Bliss knew of the Standard Oil contribution. He says:

"I communicated with Mr. Bliss very frequently, and never made any allusion to contributions in any letter I wrote him or any conversation I had with him."

"I have never discussed the question of contributions with Mr. Penrose, he goes on, 'save in connection with discussing the accusations brought before your committee.'"

The visit to the White House of Archibald and H. H. Rogers, about a year after Roosevelt's election, is dealt with at length. They protested, the colonel says, against the accusations made against the Standard Oil in connection with rebates, the prosecution then being in hands of Attorney General Bonaparte, Frank B. Kellogg and James R. Garfield, director of bureau of corporations. He told the oil magnates, the colonel says, that he could do nothing for him, Congressman Shibley of Pennsylvania and Senator Bourne tried repeatedly to induce him to alter his course against Standard Oil, but he flatly refused, finally going so far as to order Senator Bourne to contribute in his efforts in behalf of the Standard.

PROBATION TIME IS HUMAN LIFE

Rev. Dr. Lewis of New York
Preached at St. Alban's Cathedral on Life's Problems.

Rev. Dr. Lewis of the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, preached at St. Alban's Cathedral yesterday morning on the problems of life. Dr. Lewis was one of the first curates at St. Alban's, and was in the city for the foundation stone laying by the Duke of Connaught last week.

Rev. Dr. Lewis, in his sermon yesterday morning, said that no event had brought the problem of life so graphically before the civilized world as the Titanic disaster. But the meaning of life was not a new problem, and a great opportunity, and that its most soul-satisfying solution was in accepting it gratefully as a period for wholehearted service for humanity. The Christian church sought for no novelty in faith or creed. Its faith and example were clearly set forth in the life of Christ.

CHRISTIAN AIMS WOULD AID LABOR

That the labor movement can only become a strong and beneficent force by steadfast loyalty to the principles of Christianity was the essence of Rev. Dr. Taylor's sermon last Sunday morning at the Christian Church. As the pastor pointed out, the demands of true unionism, politically and socially, were in harmony with the teachings of Christ. All great movements for the uplifting of humanity had, he said, the sympathy and fellowship of God, and on the other hand, no great controversy should be permanently settled apart from the conditions laid down by the divine Word.

Dr. Taylor referred to the progress of the great brotherhood movement in England as an evidence that large numbers of laboring men were discovering the great possibilities of Christian brotherhood. The ideals of industry which had guided the labor movement in some instances were found to be fruitless of all wholesome advancement. "In the Christian brotherhood idea," he said, "the laborer is not only advanced them individually, but makes them potent in the councils of the nation."

Aims of Labor.

"The aims of the labor forces," he said, "are in a line with the teaching of Christ. The demand of the present time religiously to make the highest first is that it should be humanitarian and practical—not less spiritual but more humane; not less ethical but more charitable. The demand politically is that every mature man should be permitted to express his wish regarding legislation and that the legislators should be immediately responsive to the popular will. Socially the demand is that there should be no stigma put upon a man because of the grade of his work."

Clear and Explicit.

In all these particulars, he said, the teachings of Christ were clear and explicit, and almost in exact conformity to the legitimate demands of the labor world. He pointed out, however, that no fellowship could exist which was one-sided. To work in harmony with Christ would give the labor world a point of contact from which progress would be inevitable.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lamb, Florence Apartments, have returned from a trip to England and France.

A wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at 12 o'clock in the Queen street Methodist Church, when Fanny Gladys, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stipe, was married to Mr. Charles Robert Baker, both of Toronto. The Rev. E. N. Baker, D.D., father of the groom, acted as officiant. Mr. Nicholson, pastor, performed the ceremony. The young bride, who was strangled as a Juliet cap, was dressed in ivory satin with lace tulle embroidered with seed pearls. Her tulle veil, arranged as a coronet of lilies of the valley and bandeau of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore the groom's gift, a pearl ring. The maid of honor, Miss Edith MacPherson, was charming in buttercup satin, with shadow lace and black picture hat, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The groom's gift to her being a silver jewel case. The bridesmaids, the Misses Marie Clark and Lorraine Palmer, wore pale pink and pale green silk, respectively, mob cap to match, and carried pink roses. The groom's gifts to them were necklaces. The little flower girl, Fanny Hooper, cousin of the bride, looked sweet in yellow silk and chiffon, with poke bonnet to match. She carried her basket of yellow roses.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

With the care that does not let you you will succeed in what you undertake. Some journey or change is decreed for you, and keeping your eyes open you can turn it to your advantage. Those born today will be vivacious and fond of pleasure, and will always have confidence in their ultimate success. They will have literary or artistic talent, and by denying themselves some pleasure can cultivate these qualities to a marked degree.

The Nursery

Babies and children of all ages may have malaria. It is most frequent in the spring and autumn, but may occur at any season. The usual course of the disease in older children is as follows: The child feels badly, may have a headache or vomit; then comes the chill, the child feels very cold, the teeth may chatter, and lips become blue. This will be followed by a burning fever, and after that the sweat comes. All these stages will appear at about the same time every day or every second or third day according to the kind of malaria. The regularity of the fever and other symptoms is the chief sign of the disease.

Young babies seldom have a chill or sweat; they show indigestion and irregular fever which may run very high. Sometimes there are convulsions. The appetite is poor and the tongue coated. Mothers make the mistake often of treating their children for teething or "worms" when the child should be examined by a physician.

The treatment of malaria consists in making the child as comfortable as possible. Blankets and hot water during the chill; cool sponge-baths during the fever, and dry clothing after the sweats. The food should be mainly liquid or easily digested solids.

Young babies should have the food lessened and weakened and be given plenty of cool boiled water. The special medicine for malaria is quinine. Generally calomel in small doses is given before the quinine; but a doctor must prescribe both doses. Mothers can do a great deal by proper food, baths, fresh air and proper clothing, but the giving of drugs should be left to the doctor.

and wore the groom's gift, a pearl ring. The groom was supported by Mr. Lloyd Treblecock, who wore the groom's gift, a pearl scarf pin. The ushers were Mr. C. H. Peaker and Dr. H. Baker. The groom's gift to the bride was the groom's present, a silver case. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents in Balfour street, after which the happy couple left for their future home in Montreal. The presents were numerous and costly.

World's Greatest Artists Soon Coming to Toronto

Gadski, Sembrich, Fremstad, Neilson and Other Renowned Vocalists, as Well as Arturo Tibaldi, Famous Violinist, Orville Harrold, Tenor, and Nahan Franke, Musical Director.

Tentative announcements have already been made of a great musical festival to signalize the opening of the autumn. This vast edifice was originally designed for the promotion of the lighter forms of sport, but it is to serve the cause of music as well. It has therefore been decided that it shall in the opening week, which begins on October 7, be the scene of the greatest assemblage of musical artists which has ever been gathered together in the history of Canada. The fact that the arena is under the management of Mr. Lawrence Solman, to those who have brought Teatruluz, the highest-priced singer in the world, and Anna Pavlova, the greatest of modern dancers, to this city. For weeks past, all agents in New York have been endeavoring to secure singers of world-wide celebrity for a gala week. There have been some disappointments owing to the fact that certain singers who were expected to arrive in America early in October have delayed their sailings from Europe, but nevertheless some of the greatest of living vocalists have been secured.

The festival will embrace a series of eight concerts, six evening performances and two matinees. At every one of these concerts an orchestra of fifty of the finest New York instrumentalists will play under the direction of the celebrated conductor, Nahan Franke. Mr. Franke last appeared in Toronto as concert master of the Metropolitan Opera, which was brought here in connection with the royal tour of the present King in October, 1901, is world-famous as a director of operatic music. Among the singers who will appear during the course of the week are the tenor, Orville Harrold, who in his appearance at the London Opera House, under the direction of Oscar Hammerstein, this year, was the sensation of the season at the empire's capital. In critical circles he is regarded as a much greater man than Caruso. The greatest living Wagnerian soprano, Johanna Gadski, needs no introduction to Torontonians; the peerless coloratura soprano, Marcelle Sembrich, whose voice still retains its unexampled flexibility and beauty, will also be heard; the young prima donna, Oliva Fremstad, a Swedish singer of American birth who is already renowned in every great operatic centre of the world, will make her first appearance in this city; and Torontonians will accord a great welcome to the exquisite lyric soprano, Alice Neilson. In addition the vocal ensembles will include several distinguished operatic artists or lesser fame. Nor is the instrumental side of the festival to be neglected, for among those engaged is the renowned violinist, Arturo Tibaldi, one of the most brilliant of living executants.

Owing to the vast seating capacity of the arena the management has been able to adopt the astonishingly low scale of fifty cents to $1.50, and next week a subscription list for season tickets at $8 and $12 respectively will be available to the public. Subscribers will have the first choice of the plan when it is opened, announcement of which will be made later. There will also be three hundred box seats available, for which a slightly higher fee will be charged.

THEATRES OPEN THIS WEEK WITH LABOR DAY MATINEE

"The Girl of My Dreams" at the Princess, "The Kiss Waltz" at the Alexandra, "The Divorce Question" at the Grand, Will Oakland and Vaudeville at Shea's, and Two Fine Burlesque Shows.

Quite the best thing that indefatigable trio, Wilbur D. Nesbit, Otto Hauerbach and the late Karl Hoschna did was their delightful musical play, "The Girl of My Dreams" in which Joe M. Gaites is starring John Hyams and Lella McIntyre and which comes to the Princess Theatre this week opening with a special Labor Day matinee today.

It is sparkling with witty lines and with scenic innovations and is sufficiently catchy to receive repeated encores, and every song has its own peculiar novelty of stagecraft to add to its success.

The company is composed of people who have the ability to do well the work laid out by the librettist, composer and producer, John Hyams and Lella McIntyre are co-stars in the piece.

As "The Quaker Girl" Miss McIntyre has introduced to the theatre-goers something wistful and infinitely attractive in the way of dainty characterization, and Mr. Hyams has made a hit as the college man who falls in love with her, and announces in a song hits that "I'm Going to Quit and Be Good."

Mme. Nazimova at the Princess. The Princess Theatre will have for its attraction next week Mme. Nazimova in her latest success, "The Marionettes," a comedy that she presented in New York last winter. In this play a young convent bred girl finding herself married to a frivolous young man makes herself the toast of the gayest circle in Paris to arouse her husband's jealousy and so awaken his love. The supporting company includes Frank Gilmore, Arthur Lewis, Edward Fielding, Kate Meek and Ellen Kearney. Matinee will begin as usual on Wednesday and Saturday. The seat sale begins on Thursday.

The Kiss Waltz.

Sweet strains of the modern Viennese school of melody are to delight local music lovers at the Alexandra Theatre this week, with a special matinee today, Labor Day, when Valeska Suratt and her opera company will render Ziehrer's latest composition, "The Kiss Waltz," the opera that delighted New York continuously for over a year at the New York Casino. The piece, it is promised, will be produced in this city with all the magnificence of scenic and costume detail that made the Casino production famous in a night. Ziehrer, the composer, first became known in this country as the author of "Mlle. Mischief," made famous by Fritz Schertz. His "Kiss Waltz" is said to have been selected for Miss Suratt as the bill of play best suited to her peculiar histrionic and physical charms. The musical critic of New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia credit his latest score with being actually equal to the best of the operetta, the work of Edgar Smith. It is brimful of humorous situations.

The various dances in "The Kiss Waltz" were arranged by Oscar Schwartz of the Mosses. Schubert's New York Winter Garden, the lyrical numbers are by Matthew Woodward, the costumes are designs by Melville Ellis from the latest fashion gowns of Paris and London, and the entire production is under the personal supervision of J. C. Huffman, the stage-producing genius of all the Shubert shows. The regular matinee will be given on Thursday and Saturday. Seats are now on sale.

The New Barmald.

Torontonians will have an opportunity next week of seeing a decided novelty, "The New Barmald," an English musical comedy by an absolutely all-English company. The company arrived at Quebec from London last Monday and gave their performance at the Auditorium, Quebec, the latter half of last week, where they created a furore. This comedy has been played most successfully in all English-speaking parts of the world, with the exception of America. The piece is described as one continuous roar of laughter, with sufficient story to hold the interest of the audience through. The entire special scenery has been brought from London, and the exquisite gowns were designed and made in Paris. The composer is John Crook, who wrote the music for "Peter Pan." Chief among the funmakers is that well-known London favorite, Alexander Lotius, who will be seen in his original role of "Bertie White" then there are Vincent Ernie, an eccentric comedian; R. N. Cory, possessor of a delightful voice, and who is also noted for his graceful dancing. The two principal ladies in the company are Lilla Leslie and Edna Molton. Miss Leslie, who is a sparkling, vivacious young woman, will play the title role, which gives her many opportunities to use her beautiful and melodious voice. Miss Molton will introduce the famous "Valse Chaioupe," in addition to singing some of her songs in French. She is so well pleased that there have been capacity houses at the vaudeville theatre since the opening of the season. Manager Shea is still in pursuit of the best talent and this week promises to be well up to the standard established. The headline attraction is a new offering called "At the Club" and introduces Will Oakland, one of the best known of American contractors, and surrounds him with an unusually fine male quartet. The scene is laid in a fashionable club with the men assembled, and the quartet and up-to-date songs find a place on the program. Mr. Oakland has a wonderful contralto voice that is well known throughout the country, also he is making his first vaudeville appearance. The voice is reproduced on hundreds of the best records made. The quartet in the act is composed of the Messrs. Eddie Miller, Fred Lyons, George W. Madison and Billy Cripe. This is Mr. Cripe's first appearance here in several seasons and he will find a warm welcome from his legion of old friends in this city.

Will Oakland At Shea's.

At Shea's Theatre, the patrons have been so well pleased that there have been capacity houses at the vaudeville theatre since the opening of the season. Ideal Vaudeville's latest novelty.

is the special attraction secured by Manager Shea. She is a dainty girl, and her diving is a sensation. A tank arrangement is made for the stage and in this space the dives are made. Hal Davis and his company are back after a long absence and are presenting a farce comedy called "The Money Getter," by Seal Allen. Mr. Davis has always brought something new and always something well-acted. "The Money Getter" promises to be a great comedy success. The scene is laid in a broker's office and Mr. Davis is assisted by Messrs. Martin Somers, Lindsey Hall, Harry O. Bates and the Misses Edith Gray and Della Wheeler. Lola Merrill and Frank Otto are presenting "After the Shower," the dainty singing and dancing side in which they have already scored an immense success. They are favorites with Shea-goers and will be gladly received. Ed. Morton will sing his own songs and Hickey's Circus will delight and amuse. The show will close with new pictures on the kinetograph.

"The Divorce Question."

Depleting the results of the numerous divorces and presenting a vivid contrast between the terrible effects of this evil and wherein two children are sacrificed to the selfishness of the new moral code, "The Divorce Question," Rowland and Clifford's new play, promises to continue its Chicago hit at the Grand, opening the engagement here with a matinee today (Labor Day). For one hundred and seven consecutive performances "The Divorce Question" was given at McVicker's in Chicago, and no other picture this spring created as much comment as did this play. The lesson of the play is brought home by a strong vibrating love story and the comedy is by no means neglected. Rowland and Clifford have increased the success of the piece with a splendid cast, including Charlotte Granville, Virginia Pearson, Burnette Radcliffe, William V. Mong, Frank Peters, Sheldon Lewis, Charles Burnham and others.

New Behman Show.

Few of the shows have received so much newspaper attention as have been devoted to the new Behman Show. This week, Lew Kelly always has commanded the consideration of the reviewers because his is a thoroughly artistic character creation. The Watson Sisters, Lon Hascall, Fred Wyckoff, Vic Cashette, Joe Barton, Amata Pynes and Freda Florence round out as perfect an organization of entertainers as may be encountered in any company, regardless of cost.

The Behman seems likely to be a standard of comparison for other burlesque organizations to be measured by.

this season; certainly it is one of the most beautiful shows ever spread before the admiring eyes of a disinterested people in any line of amusement.

The Watson Sisters, the most prominent feminine stars in burlesque, have parts which are peculiarly suited to their singing and dancing abilities, and the gowns which are worn by them are designed in a most elaborate fashion.

The chorus of twenty graceful girls have been selected with great care, and the costumes have been a matter of special consideration.

"Girls From Joyland."

A novel playlet containing considerable human interest is that which Eugene West and Catharine Henry are appearing in, with "The Girls From Joyland" Company at the Star Theatre. "Blanche" is founded upon an incident that some years ago took place in New York and involved a well known Wall Street man, his wife and a famous character of New York's tenor.

"Blanche," following the event, went insane and is today confined at Blackwell's Island, and it was while visiting the island last year in search of local color, when Miss Henry met the real "Blanche," who, in a rational moment, told her the real story of her life, that Miss Henry decided to dramatize the life of the girl.

After Miss Henry had her dramatic story written, she found herself lacking a comedy character; at once she rented an apartment in one of the most characteristic "Chorus Girls' Homes" in New York, and within 24 hours discovered her "type" in real life on Broadway. Miss Henry carefully watched every move of her comedy "type" with the result that the character of "Marion" (a former belle of the tenor) is one of the most interesting features in "Blanche."

SOME INTERESTING REGINA FACTS

Regina's street railway is municipally owned and operated. The following are details of the installation up to December 31, 1911:

Capital expenditure, $565,000; miles of track, 10 1/2; rolling stock, six cars and one snow sweeper; gross earnings to December 31, 1911, $23,637.58; operating expenses, $17,646.96; total number of passengers carried, 480,695.

The city possesses a spur track system on its own property, consisting of some 320 acres, and supplied with spur tracks laid out in a suitable way to serve all districts from the G.T.P., C.N.R. and C.P. Railways.

Regina holds warehouse sites throughout the wholesale district which are served by spur tracks at a uniform value at the present time of $1000 for lots 25 by 125 feet size, except corner lots, which are sold at a slight additional charge. The price is far below the value of the property.

The electric lighting system is owned by the city; the generating plant consists of six boilers, aggregating 2000 horsepower, two sections of economizer, 4000 square feet; one 300 kilowatt Carlin's engine type generating unit; one 100 kilowatt Ideal engine type generating unit; one 450 kilowatt low pressure turbine generating unit; one 1500 kilowatt high pressure type generating unit; one 400 kilowatt direct current railway unit, vertical engine type.

Regina holds the reins in Saskatchewan

Regina has 25.7 miles of sewer, and reduction works capable of treating 9,000,000 gallons of sewage per day. By the close of 1912 $630,000 will have been spent on extension of sewer system alone during the past three years.

A fifty-ton incinerator plant has been erected on North Broad Street, at a cost of $40,500, for the disposal of all garbage and refuse.

The waterworks system is owned and operated by the city. The supply is obtained from the springs of Boggy Creek, supplemented by an extensive reservoir system.

Regina has about 257 acres of land set aside for park purposes.

Regina's building permits are illuminating. The record is as follows:

Year	Permits	Cost
1904	162	$ 210,000
1905	346	750,000
1906	420	2,000,000

ENGLAND SURE CANADA WILL AID

Contribution to Naval Program Would Have Remarkable Effect—N. C. McEachern's Trip Successful.

Frank and Norman C. McEachern of W. N. McEachern and Sons have returned from England, whither they went for funds to assist financing a huge realty and construction project formulated by the firm. Norman McEachern told The World that their mission was even more successful than anticipated. An announcement as to the extent and details of the scheme cannot be given for some time, a few formalities have to be completed.

Naval talk monopolizes the interest of Londoners at the present time, contention in the opinions of the three classes of Englishmen is becoming more pronounced daily. The professional and business classes are eager for war with Germany, believing a contest now would prove decisively in England's favor, but the big moneyed men and the laboring and ecclesiastical classes are decidedly averse to a struggle, and are making every effort to avoid one. "The greatest aid Canada could get would be her contributing several millions to the Imperial naval program. While Mr. Borden was non-committal, it seems generally understood in the old country that it is his intention to have Canada do this."

The transformation in housing conditions wrought by the garden suburbs schemes in old portions of cities, was even more surprising than what had been accomplished in building up new tracts on the co-operative plan. Mr. McEachern found, "Conditions here being so different, a great many things would have to be considered before similar objects could be worked out on a paying basis here. The substitution of garden houses for the tumble down dwellings in some of Toronto's central sections, using the methods employed in England, would be, however, something well worthy of trying."

WOMEN ALL VOTE FOR THIS PLAN

There is Not a Woman in This City That Will Not Cast Her Ballot in Favor of It.

Speaking of "votes for women" it goes without saying that every woman in Toronto will vote for the popular distribution of the Bible now being conducted by The World.

This is the illustrated Bible and to more clearly convey the idea, those words, "the illustrated" ought to be capitalized.

It is "the illustrated Bible" because there is not another Bible like it in the world. Every illustration in it is made to fit a particular verse or subject. In this respect it is entirely different from any other.

It matters not how many Bibles one may possess, this one will make plain many heretofore obscure passages.

Even if one is not a member of a religious organization he will appreciate the educational merits of this Bible in which every picture has a meaning.

Children are always attracted by pictures and this illustrated Bible holds their attention.

Then why wouldn't all women vote for a plan that practically gives this Bible to every reader? You can always depend upon a woman's judgment in such matters. Ask "her" what she thinks of it.

There are both Catholic and Protestant editions to choose from, each in two different styles of binding. Turn to the certificate on another page of today's issue and find the plan explained therein.

ITALIAN NOBLES ACCUSED

Charges of Issuing Bogus Securities Shock to Roman Society.

ROME, Aug. 31.—(Can. Press).—A profound sensation was caused by the arrest today of two prominent leaders of Roman society with five accomplices on a charge of alleged trafficking in counterfeit bank notes and government stock certificates.

The chief accused are Count Faizappa and Count Barbiellini, who are accused of having issued illicit securities on an extensive scale. The organization with which they are said to be connected is believed to have widespread ramifications.

All the arrested men protested their innocence, but they have been incarcerated.

Another Appeal for Harvesters.

On account of the urgent appeal from the west for additional farm laborers, the Grand Trunk Railway have decided to run two more Farm Laborers' excursions on Sept. 4 and 6 from all stations in Canada.

The rate to Winnipeg is $10.00 plus half cent mile from Winnipeg to destination, but not beyond Macleod, Calgary or Edmonton.

Returning half cent mile to Winnipeg, plus $18.00 to destination in Eastern Canada. The farmers along the Grand Trunk Pacific pay the maximum wage and this is an excellent chance for young men to visit the west.

The route via Chicago is an attractive one, as many large cities and breaks the monotony of the journey, as there is something new to see all the time. The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is the shortest and quickest route between Winnipeg-Saskatoon-Edmonton.

Ask nearest Grand Trunk Agent for full particulars, or write A. E. Duff, D.P.A., Union Station, Toronto, Ont.

Single Fare for Labor Day

Via the Grand Trunk Railway System, between all stations in Canada, also to Detroit and Port Huron, Mich., Niagara Falls, Suspension Bridge and Buffalo, N.Y. Tickets good going Aug. 30 and 31; Sept. 1 and 2. All tickets valid for return until Wednesday, Sept. 4, 1912. Minimum rate twenty-five cents.

Secure tickets and full particulars from any Grand Trunk Agent.

DIVIDE CANADA INTO TWO SEES

Special Session of Anglican Synod Will Take Action on Oct. 17.

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—(Can. Press).—The provincial synod of the Church of England in the ecclesiastical province of Canada, will meet in special session in this city on Oct. 17 next for the purpose of formally dividing the province into two metropolitan sees.

proposal to divide the present ecclesiastical province of Canada has already been approved by the individual diocesan synods and by the general synod.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(Can. Press).—The definite assumption by the United States of full control of the affairs of Nicaragua is anticipated by The Temps to be the outcome of the present American intervention in that country.

After a long review of the circumstances leading up to the actual situation, the newspaper concludes: "The United States today holds the little Central American republic in a vice. We may expect soon to see the armed intervention transformed into a protectorate."
