WEIGHTY WORDS OF LORD ROSEBERY

The Liberal Leader Speaks Plainly About the Fashoda Affair.

FRANCE HAS DELIBERATELY OFFENDED

In Face of Britain's Warning That the Occupation of Fashoda Would Be Considered an Unfriendly Act, She Sent Troops There—Britain Cannot Recede, and Any Government That Did So Could Not Live a Week.

London, Oct. 12.—Lord Rosebery, the Liberal leader and former Premier, presiding yesterday at an agricultural dinner at Epsom, referred to the critical situation on the Upper Nile. He said:

"As I was responsible, both personally and ministerially, for the declaration of Sir Edward Grey, on which the present policy in regard to Fashoda is founded, and as I have no disposition to recede from a word or a syllable of that declaration [loud cheers]—I feel bound to say a few guarded and, I hope, inoffensive words on a subject so vital to our interests."

"There are two or three considerations in connection with the question which make it of supreme gravity, the greatest being that, in face of a deliberate warning that a particular act would be considered an unfriendly act, that act, in spite of great geographical difficulties, great hardships, and almost insurmountable obstacles, has been deliberately committed."

"The word 'unfriendly,' used, as I understand it, is of exceptional weight and gravity, and when used to denote an act committed by one Government against another, the situation is grave."

"On that point I will say no more. Behind the policy of the Government in this matter, there is the unflinching and united strength of the nation. It is the policy of the nation itself, and no Government that attempted to recede from it or palter therewith would last a week. I am perfectly certain that no idea of any weakening on this question has entered the heads of Her Majesty's present advisers. They have only to maintain the attitude revealed in the blue book, and the nation will make any sacrifice and go to any length to sustain their action."

"On the other side of the channel, the question of the flag is an element of great gravity. We all honor that flag, and would not wish it the slightest disrespect, but, after all, a flag is portable, and I have some hope that the flag in this case is not the flag of France, but of an individual explorer, and not, therefore, carrying the full weight of the republic behind it."

"Among the reassuring features is the fact that M. Delcasse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, has received the representations of Great Britain in a conciliatory spirit. By denying the existence of a Marchand expedition he has deprived Major Marchand of the official character, which would give the holding of the flag a much more serious aspect, and, in spite of the contrary statements of Captain Liotard and Major Marchand, I hope to find that the mission of Major Marchand, conducted far from French territory and across territory to which France has no claim, though other nations have, will prove to be of a local and not of an authoritative character."

"But I found still greater hopes on the fact that in urging the supremacy of Egypt in the territories temporarily abandoned, we are using not so much our own arguments as the arguments of French Ministers and Ambassadors of recent years. If Lord Salisbury and Sir Edmund Monson, respectively, use the language employed by

M. Hanotaux and Baron de Courcel, when I was in office, they will put the claims of Egypt to these territories in a manner so authoritative that it will not be in the power of any Government to repudiate them."

"After mentioning the untenability of Major Marchand's isolated position, Lord Salisbury said:

"These considerations lead me to hope that the incident will be peacefully settled in a conciliatory manner; but France must understand that there can be no compromise of the rights of Egypt."

"Referring, in concluding his speech, to the 'general disposition in recent years to treat Great Britain with neglect, and to infringe upon her rights in various parts of the world, His Lordship said:

"The present Government has shown no want of conciliation—come think too much—and a conciliatory disposition that is widely misunderstood. If the nations of the world are under the impression that the ancient spirit of Great Britain is dead, that her resources are weakened, and that her population is less determined than ever to maintain her rights, and the honor of her flag, they make a mistake that can only end in disastrous consequences."

"The strength of British Ministries does not lie in the votes they command in Parliament, but in the intrepid spirit of a united people. Let other nations remember that cordially between nations can only rest upon mutual respect for one another's rights. Both Africa and Asia have recently furnished strange object lessons in international law and international practice. If that mutual respect be not cultivated, we shall ultimately relapse into a state of things most perilous to peace and the welfare of humanity."

The speech was punctuated with loud cheers.

St. Catharines, Oct. 12.—Rev. George Sexton, D.D., LL.D., dropped dead at the home of Mr. George Turney, with whom he lived, on the Pelham-road. ### MINE OWNERS BLAMED.

Strikers at Virden, Ill., Grew Desperate and Fired on the State Officers.

BLOODSHED IN THE MINING DISTRICT

FIVE HUNDRED SHOTS WERE EXCHANGED

Train Bringing in Negroes to take the Places of Strikers Caused the Battle—Governor Tanner Despatched Troops, But Throws the Blame on the Mine Owners—Says They Should Be Indicted for Murder—Cars Riddled With Bullets.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 12.—The little town of Virden is comparatively quiet to-night, after a day of riot and bloodshed, the long expected clash between the union miners and imported negroes. A Chicago and Alton special train, bearing 200 negro miners from the South arrived at 12:40 p.m., at the stockade around the Chicago-Virden Coal Company's mines, and immediately terrific firing began. The list at 10 o'clock to-night stands seven dead and 18 wounded.

The Signal Given.
Today the Chicago and Alton Limited, due to pass here at 10 o'clock, passed, displaying flags on the rear, indicating that a special was following.

Immediately the word was spread and a dense crowd of miners lined the station platform, while another crowd collected at the entrance of the stockade, half a mile north of the station. D. H. Killey, a Chicago and Alton detective, stood guard at the south end of the station platform, to see that it was not tampered with.

At 12:40 the special train passed the station and signal shots were fired from the south end of the train, announcing the special's arrival.

Immediately shots were fired from the moving train and outside and the battle began. A few moments after the train had passed the switch where Killey was stationed and while he was talking with two citizens, he threw up his hands and dropped dead with a bullet through his brain. He was the first man killed. The train continued to the stockade, the miners firing into it all along the route, and the negro passengers returning the fire. The moment the train reached the stockade, the miners opened a despatch fire with Winchester, revolvers and fire arms of all kinds. The negroes on the train answered with a steady fire. The miners and the train were enveloped in a cloud of smoke and the shooting sounded like a continuous volley.

Engineer Shot From His Seat.
Engineer Burt Tiger received a bullet in the arm and dropped from his seat. His fireman seized the throttle, pulled it open with a jerk, the train was under speed, carrying a load of wounded negroes, passengers to Springfield. How many were wounded is not known. The train stopped at the stockade but two minutes. Its departure did not cause the firing to cease. The tower of the stockade was filled with sharpshooters, armed with Winchester, and they kept a steady fire into the crowd of union miners. Eye witnesses say the dead miners were killed after the train had departed.

Later Particulars.
Virden, Ill., Oct. 12.—An Associated Press reporter secured admittance to the stockade late to-night. He found one man, A. W. Morgan of Chicago, dead and seven seriously wounded.

There are about 35 men stationed inside the stockade to-night, each keeping watch through a loop-hole. Manager Lukens remained at his desk in the office inside the stockade all night issuing orders to his men.

Lukens Blames the Governor.
Manager Lukens said to-night: "The blood of every man shed here is on the Government's head. He is absolutely outside of the law, and has no justification whatever in refusing to send troops to protect the men brought here by us. His statement that the miner had the same right to fight for his property, which was his labor, as the mine owner did to protect his property, inspired those men to the action which they took to-day in firing upon this train as soon as it came into our town."

A detail of militia at 10:45 o'clock to-night shot and killed ex-Lieut. of Police Tom Preston of Chicago, at the stockade. He was standing outside the stockade as guard. The militia gave the by-standing miners the command to halt, and Preston continued walking back to the gate. The militia fired, and he was shot in the stomach. Battery D of Galesburg, under Capt.

MINE OWNERS BLAMED.

Governor Tanner Says They Are Responsible and Should Be Indicted for Murder.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—Governor Tanner has received a telephone message from Sheriff Davenport at Virden, that a fight between the miners and those guarding the stockades is going on, and that one hundred men have been killed.

The Governor ordered Capt. Craig, in command of Battery B and the Sons of Veterans' companies of Pana, to proceed at once to Virden.

Governor Tanner said: "I shall give Capt. Craig, who will command the troops at Virden, orders to suppress the riot, protect life and property, and not to allow imported labor to be unloaded at that place. Since the mine owners have carried out their threats, influenced by avarice and gain, to precipitate this riot and bloodshed, I do not propose that they shall further disturb the peace of the state. The mine owners and managers are responsible for and guilty of the murder brought about by this conflict, and should be indicted by the Grand Jury for murder, as I believe they will be."

GENERAL HUTTON ALL RIGHT.

Major-General Hutton, the new Commander-in-Chief of the Canadian Militia, impressed the Queen's Own officers last night with the fact of his shrewdness as a disciplinarian and his attention to minutiae. Some of the older non-coms, so far as to say in fact that he is the best they have served under. That he is approachable, too, was shown when he conversed freely for some minutes at the officers' club last night with Mr. Harris of D. Co., who was with the General at Tel-El-Kehir.

Unsettled and Rainy.

Meteorological office, Toronto, Oct. 12.—(11 p.m.) The low area, which was north of the St. Lawrence Valley yesterday, has passed eastward from the coast and from present indications it is probable that the low area off the South Atlantic Coast will pass too far south of Nova Scotia to cause bad weather in the Maritime Provinces. A low area which has developed since last night is moving quickly towards the lower lakes from the westward and is likely to cause unsettled and rainy weather in Ontario.

HAWAII NOT A POOR MAN'S PLACE. Fraternal Societies. There were 100,000 people in Hawaii when the United States has drawn the attention of the public, more especially the people of the Pacific coast, to this group, and in view also of the fact that many people know but little about Hawaii except the information gleaned from sensational newspaper articles, it is reasonable to suppose that large numbers of the unemployed will desire to rush to what they believe to be a new country with a fine climate, a rich soil, a sparse civilized population and large tracts of lands lying idle and only waiting ownership by possession of the first new comer.

Infux Already Begun. The influx of strangers has already begun, and while no doubt the experience of many disappointed seekers of employment will find exposition in the newspapers of the coast and elsewhere at an early date, (and perhaps deter intending immigrants from making a leap in the dark), still the several fraternal societies of Honolulu deem it a duty to sound the note of warning to their brethren in the hope that much suffering and disappointment may be avoided.

THE STREETSVILLE FAIR

Was a Huge Success in Each and Every Particular.

An Ideal Fair Ground, With a Natural Grand Stand-List of Competent Officers-Horse Racing of an Exciting Kind-Exhibits Above the Average-A Big Crowd.

(By Our Own Reporter.)

The third annual fall fair at Streetsville of Toronto Township Agricultural Society, held yesterday, may be called the third success.

Streetsville possesses direct from the hand of nature an almost perfect fair ground. "The Flats," a local term, is a huge table of green sward, from which rises on one side a high bank, high...

The day was almost perfect, a little raw towards the end, but the interest was unabated from start to finish.

The officials who contrived to make the fair a success are: President, J. D. Orr; first vice-president, V. C. Brown; second vice-president, E. W. Robinson; secretary, J. J. Stewart; treasurer, W. J. Graydon.

Directors-George Irwin, Mount Clayton, Robert Steen, William Shaver, Streetsville; John Leckie, John Graham, Perry West, S. Armstrong, Nigger Bob, M. Soper.

Best Man in Town. One of the busiest men on the ground was President Orr of Meadowdale, in the light coat, that made him a mark for those in want of anything, and it was said that a great deal of the success was due to the hard work and energy of this gentleman.

These are they went. The most exciting part of the program was the speeding in the ring over the mile of the mile track.

The cattle were very fine, especially in Durham and Jersey. The situation on the islands, according to the latest reports, has grown very serious.

QUESTION OF RIGHTS FOR SALE

And Controllers Are Not Disposed to Play Into the Hands

Of the Men Who Are Agitating Cattle Market Removal to Sell Their White Elephant Property—Proprietary Committee Report Goes Back for More Information as to Cost, Etc.—City's Rotten Bridges—Assessment and Surveyor's Departments One—City Hall News.

The Board of Control soundly rated the Property Committee yesterday afternoon for sending on such a "half" report in favor of cattle market removal and sent it back, demanding more information as to cost, etc. This is what the World wanted. The Mayor found it, as he occasionally does find it, opportune to leave before the vote was taken, but behind him his views coincided practically with those of Ald. Hubbard and Burns, who, however, were more outspoken in their condemnation of the men with white elephant city lots, who think they can inflict their profitably on the city. The Mayor, like Mr. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., has expressed himself as dissatisfied with the present site, but he is not in the rush with the Leakes.

The recommendation of a farce. The Property Committee's recommendation is as follows:

Your committee beg to report the following motion, made by Ald. Bowman at its last meeting, and recommended the concurrence of the Council thereon:

"Resolved, that in the opinion of this committee the interests of the city of Toronto and the live stock trade require the removal of the cattle market to a larger and more convenient site, as the facilities for handling the business at the present time are inadequate."

It was no sooner read than the onslaught began. "It is absurd," said Ald. Hubbard, "for the committee to affirm to hold a policy without showing it is to be carried out or how much it is to cost."

Two members of the committee, Ald. Denison and Ald. Hanlan, were present, and, in response to the Mayor's enquiries, the former confessed that the whole recommendation had been a misunderstanding, passed at the fog end of the meeting. This Controller Leslie, also a member, denied in toto.

"But," said the Mayor, "how can Council be expected to affirm this policy without knowing the cost of the new site, of the pens, or of the drainage? All these figures should be obtained, and compared with a report as to the cost of enlargement and renovation of the present site."

Ald. Leslie: "That should come up with the question of site."

"What for Sale?" Ald. Hubbard: "But they simply say the present site is inadequate. They don't say why it isn't. They don't say why Stanley Park could not be distributed among the city, certainly no use as a park. There were, in his view, other considerations. Besides, the question of cost Council should take into account the fact that it were removed to Dundas-street, the business connected with it might be removed to Toronto Junction. There were various other interests vested on the present site. Park Blackwell & Co., after removal had been beaten last winter, had taken in an advance on the site of the building, and had done so extensively. Removal might therefore be regarded as a breach of faith with them."

It was at this juncture that the Mayor left to grace a little function elsewhere. Ald. Hubbard proceeded to affirm that there was room enough in the present market. It was said to be a dirty hole, but it so, all that need be done was to concretize and brick the sides, and the hole could be used to flush it daily. He moved that the report be referred back to the Property Committee for more information.

Denison Misunderstood It. Ald. Denison was heard. He explained that he for one member of the committee had misunderstood the purport of the motion, believing it to simply affirm the inadequacy of the present site. He did not know that it declared for removal. The present site, he declared, was not a very little expense by taking in the lots on the blind street between King-street and Wellington-avenue. There were other Stanley Park property and the other lots north of King-street.

Ald. Leslie, still consistent in his support of a change, agreed that the present site was nothing but a sort of patch-work quilt. Ald. Denison thought it could be cheaply fixed.

The foundation of the whole agitation could be located, in Ald. Hubbard's estimation, in the motto "Lots for sale."

Ald. Leslie: "Set some of the largest cattle dealers favor removal."

Ald. Hubbard: "And they of course are in the deal. I don't want to say what I know about it. What would become of the old site?"

Ald. Leslie: "I think it would be worth double what it is now."

Ald. Hubbard: "And you are wrong. What could we do with it?"

Bowman's Little Project. Ald. Bowman was the "rabble" and he came out even stronger than Ald. Hubbard. His plan was to take in the land between Wellington-avenue and King-street, and have the market offices on King-street, convenient to the street cars. The alleged discrimination against the C.P.R. he got over by running a siding up the blind street.

"I put myself on record," he added, "and say that the whole matter of removal is agitated by persons with lots to sell. The alderman who is its chief support (Ald. Bowman) confesses that he is doing it because he so pledged himself during his election to the interested section of his ward. To carry out his promise he would put the whole city to an expense of at least $150,000. This thing should be dropped until after the next elections."

He was also in favor of getting a report made as to cost, etc., and for this reason supported Ald. Hubbard's motion to send the report back to the Property Committee. In the Mayor's absence, of course, this carried it.

Is Hunter Bridge a County Matter? Next in importance were the two big bridge schemes, the first being the Engineer's recommendation that $15,000 be reinstated in the estimates to erect a new bridge over the Humber, and to spend $500,000 to repair it in the meantime. The Mayor called it a scandal that the city should have to build a bridge out in the country, and the board seemed to agree. A report will be given from the City Solicitor as to the city's liability in this matter, the $500 expenditure meantime being ratified.

Leslie and High Levels. AM. Leslie is nothing if not consistent. Whether right or wrong. It was simply consistency, he confessed, which urged him to support a high level bridge over the Don at Queen-street. Bridge Engineer Williams had figured the cost at $250,000, but the controller's survey showed it could not be cut down to $100,000. He favored application to the Railway Committee of the City Council to find out if a high level bridge was not necessary.

"You would avoid damages by a low level bridge," suggested the Mayor. "There is only one man looking for damages," came the reply.

"The first thing the Privy Council will do is to investigate the report of the association."

Twenty-Fifth Annual Report. The Directors beg to submit the Twenty-fifth Annual Report of the Company and accounts for the year ending 31st August, 1898.

Applications for loans were received during the year to the amount of $698,822, on properties estimated as worth $1,236,426, and loans were approved and effected to the value of $591,000, on property valued by the Company's own appraisers at $119,981. During the year Debentures and Certificates of Deposit were issued and renewed amounting to... $640,000.00. While the amount of Deposits and Certificates paid off was... $18,128.70.

Making a reduction in the Limit of the Company of $108,457.51. Applications for loans have been carefully scrutinized by your Directors, and only such loans as were considered absolutely safe, after careful examination and report by the Company's independent appraisers, were granted.

Rates of interest are still declining, rendering it increasingly difficult to invest money profitably, especially in Ontario. The good crops in Ontario and Manitoba have occasioned increased demand for farming lands and your Directors have, in consequence been enabled during the year to dispose of a considerable number of properties at fair prices, and the prospect of further sales is very encouraging. Your Directors expect during the current year to increase business to the satisfaction of these properties.

Your Directors have to deplore the untimely death of the late Manager, Mr. J. P. Kirk, who faithfully discharged his duties in connection with the Company for upwards of twenty-two years. GEORGE R. R. COCKBURN, President.

MR. GIBSON AT WORK

The Minister is Not Allowing the Grass to Grow Under His Feet in Raising for That Seat.

Erin, Ont., Oct. 12.—The first meeting of the campaign in the interest of the Liberals was held here this evening.

Mr. Gibson made a suitable and feeling reference to the untimely death of Mr. Craig, the late member, and then made reference to the cry of the Opposition that he himself was an outsider, but said that it came with very bad grace from a party whose only speaker so far announced, and whose candidate, were from outside the ring.

It would have been more congenial to him to have remained a private, but the him to stay in the Government. He accepted their offering him the candidature of East Wellington as a compliment to the Government rather than in compliment to the County of Wellington as an agricultural county.

Mr. Gibson paid a high compliment to the County of Wellington as an agricultural county, and said that he had been most favorably impressed as he drove through the riding, and hoped to become better acquainted with the people in the course of the two weeks previous to the election campaign. He considered that, as the City of Hamilton for 10 long years, that was not a bad record.

Some of the parties within his recollection had done better. He said that, should he represent this riding, as he expected, he would attend to their interests in the most faithful manner. In all his political career, he considered that he represented not only Liberals, but Conservatives also.

He said in conclusion, that it was of the very greatest importance that a supporter of the Government should be elected for East Wellington, as it would give them great prestige in the forthcoming bye-elections. Mr. Gibson made a strong plea for the support of the party.

Mr. W. Hill of the Erin Advocate made a short speech, in the course of which he complimented Mr. Gibson on his address.

The meeting was closed with three hearty cheers for the Queen.

TRIP TO AND FROM THE YUKON

A Toronto Man Writes an Interesting Letter Telling of the Great Hardships Encountered, the Magnificent Scenery and the Varied Experiences Gone Through—Lights and Shades of Dawson City—The Conduct of Affairs by Canadian Government Officials.

Mr. H. Manley, who has just reached Victoria, B.C., after a trip over the Klondike country, writes an interesting description of his experience which, being authentic, and from a Toronto man, can be relied upon as correct. Mr. Manley says: "The Danube, Capt. Meyer in command, left Victoria on the evening of the 10th with a small number of passengers, the major part of the accommodation being taken up by the workmen who were to be taken to the interior of the stern-wheeler Yukoner, built by the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company, at St. Michael's, Alaska, to ply on Yukon River."

which flew the British flag this season, and it goes without saying that in these days, when Anglo-Saxon talk is so freely indulged in, we got a rousing reception from all of the U.S. craft, the day fitting in so well. Two other fine British steamers, the Manneen and Garson, of Liverpool which came through the Straits of Magellan, joined us a few days after our arrival. At St. Michael's, St. Michael's is the supply headquarters of the two companies, viz., the Alaska Commercial Company and the North American Transportation and Trading Co. They send goods from here to their stores all the way up the Yukon River on their stern-wheelers as far as Lake Bennett, and beyond that point the goods are packed only to be made use of by their own craft, and no ocean steamer can get nearer than two miles beyond shore, on account of the shallowness of Norton Sound.

The four most miserable weeks of our existence were spent here, waiting for our internal fittings and machinery to be placed in position on our stern-wheeler. We were anchored two miles from shore, and the current of the river ran so fast that we could not get ashore, and a walk, as the natives call it, was necessary to get to the beach deep, and beneath it, no trees or vegetation of any kind can live here, but under the moderate temperature of the warmest month of summer, rarely reaches 55 degrees, and the highest temperature for a single day seldom reaches 60.

The rain is notorious the world over, but not only as regards the quantity that falls, but also as to the manner of its falling, viz., in long and incessant showers and drizzles. Cloud and fog naturally abound, three being on an average but 68 clear days in the year. When the sun is out, and the atmosphere is remarkably clear, and the scenic effects are magnificent. All the time we were here the weather was so bad that the workmen were in a continual hurry to get to their work, and the wind increases in force, rain begins to fall, and utter desolation and loneliness prevail. The sky is continuous daylight from the middle of June until the early part of August, and in the depth of winter there is little more than three hours of partial daylight in the 24.

The Cook Was Drowned. The C.P.N.'s staff were unfortunately overtaken by the storm, and the cook, who was at the wheel, was blown overboard, and he was buried in a solid mass of ice. The native Esquimaux do not bury their dead, but simply leave them where they are, in a box covered by a few stones. United States Hospitality. We cannot leave St. Michael's without testifying to the hospitality which we were received by the president and officers of the N.A.T. & T. Co., who placed at our disposal a splendid dinner, and as well as the British consular, who had been extended to British subjects there were tendered us, winding up with a magnificent ball, given upon the eve of our departure, when the whole hotel was given up for the occasion. Events of this kind being so very rare in this wilderness, it goes without saying that much was made out of it, so much so that the event did not terminate until 4 in the morning, when we were escorted to the ship by the police and the company, with the officers of Fort St. Michael acting as a guard of honor. Our stern-wheeler, lying alongside of the Danube, was in readiness to start next day, and nothing would do but Commodore John Irving, general manager of the C.P.N. Co., with us on this trip, with his usual well-known hospitality, invited the party on board, and to the strains of our beautiful piano, brought from Victoria for the stern-wheeler, we continued our festivities for another four hours, when one and all repaired to their state-rooms. The morning of the 29th the Danube left St. Michael's at 10 miles from St. Michael's, and left this cold dreary place for our long journey of 1800 miles up the Yukon River into Dawson City. It might be said here that the Yukoner was built regardless of cost, to enable her to be what she has proved to be, the fastest stern-wheeler on the river. The morning of the 30th she was sailing from St. Michael's, and is 50 miles wide at the mouth. Shallow flats extend all the way up the river for 20 miles, and for four miles it averages three feet deep. We found upon our arrival that seven stern-wheelers getting up the river were being towed up the river, and were along very nicely when, without any warning, we got on a bar, and there we were stuck. Everything in the world seemed to be against us, and we were along very nicely when, without any warning, we got on a bar, and there we were stuck. Everything in the world seemed to be against us, and we were along very nicely when, without any warning, we got on a bar, and there we were stuck.

MINING AND MINING STOCKS

Medicines, more than anything else in the world, stand solely upon their merits. Nobody uses a worthless medicine but once, and there is no subject more generally discussed than diseases and their remedies. Only the best survive the crucial test of popular experience. One of the few medicines with half a century of successful practice to its credit is Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. It is sold on a positive and business-like guarantee. The following is printed on the outside wrapper of every bottle: "You must acknowledge that it would be the height of folly to guarantee this medicine, unless we have positive evidence that it will relieve and cure these complaints. While there are many other good remedies, the proprietors have not the faintest guarantee them. All we ask of you is to use two-thirds of the contents of this bottle faithfully, then if you are not cured, you may refund the price paid, or return the bottle to your druggist, and he may refund the price paid, only requiring you to write your name and address in this blank space, as evidence of good faith, and as a record which we desire to preserve. S. C. WELLS COMPANY, Proprietors, Le Roy, N. Y."

Mr. Ross of Fox & Ross, Toronto, writes from Rossland that Mr. Herick, manager of the Iron Mask Company, stated to him that the company has not made a profit since the dividend was paid, but that the company has a good mine account. There is $900,000 worth of ore in sight and the company is putting in a 10-drum electrical compressor plant to replace the old one, and the work is being pushed forward on every hand.

Silver Bell Co. Registered. The Silver Bell Consolidated Gold Mining Company was registered in Rossland yesterday. The company has been formed by Mr. George B. McConley, secretary of the Cariboo Gold Mining Company, who has just reached the city direct from Camp McKinley, B.C. Mr. McConley has a number of mines in the Cariboo which are being worked. He reports the mines running along in good shape and considerable activity in the camp. Golden Cache Will Shut Down. Mr. W. Skene, one of the most interested in the Golden Cache Mine, was interviewed yesterday by The Toronto Evening News-Advertiser, with reference to the various reports being circulated about the robbery. Mr. Skene stated that the mine has not been worked since the robbery, and he is not sure whether the mine will be worked again or not. He is not sure whether the mine will be worked again or not.

The New York Central Always Has Great Train Service. That the passenger equipment of the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad has attained a degree of development very rarely exceeded is the opinion of the traveling public, and is universally admitted. Of the many inventions of safety appliances which have been introduced in recent years, none have served their purpose better, nor added more to the comfort of the traveling public, than the lighting of its passenger cars by incandescent electric lights. This method of lighting produces a clear, white, steady light, causing no shadows, and also has the merits of softness and comparative coolness, and most important of all, it is absolutely safe. The New York Central has recently contracted with the Safety Car Heating & Lighting Company for Pinstrip Gas equipment for 250 more coaches, making a total of nearly 1000 passenger coaches of this line equipped with this popular system of lighting.

As we proceed in half the time it takes from one-quarter to a half mile from a bar in the fall of water. The water all the while is very muddy; it is never clear on 100 tons of coal from the river until we get to the river. We brought that with Comox, B.C., being obtained for $1.25 per ton. The water here is burning wood, which we purchase from the C.P.N. at $1.25 per ton. This of course is the price of the water, but the price of the water is very cheap.
