Dominion Scouts Do Effective Work Against German Parties.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, April 3.—In the early morning of March 27 an assault was made on a section of the German defences by a British division immediately on the left of the Canadian corps. As a preliminary to the attack several large mines were successfully fired under a salient in the German lines, severely damaging the enemy's trenches and causing him numerous casualties. Under cover of a very heavy artillery fire, the attacking troops advanced and succeeded in capturing the two lines of German trenches constituting the salient. The length of the front trench seized was approximately 900 yards, and the British troops established themselves on a new front line at one point as much as 400 yards in front of their original positions. In the course of the fighting, which continued for several hours, heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy and five officers and 195 other ranks were taken prisoner. Many of the prisoners were passed back thru the Canadian lines. Canadian Guns Aided. Through the attack the Canadian artillery and trench mortar batteries co-operated in the covering bombardment. A continuous barrage by shrapnel and high explosive shells was placed on all the roads and tracks in rear of the German lines, effectively holding back the enemy supports. In several places German support (Continued on Page 5, Column 5.)

CARSON IS APPOINTED LIBRARIES' INSPECTOR LONDON, Ont., April 3.—W. O. Carson, librarian of the London Public Library, to-day received word of his appointment to the position of chief inspector of public libraries. He will begin his new work on May 1 and his headquarters will be in Toronto. He has been librarian here for the last three years. He is a past president of the Ontario Library Association and is a member of the Council of the American Library Association. He is a native of this city.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

ALTHO the Germans had brought up over a division of fresh troops two days ago to assault the French positions between Vaux and Douaumont, lying north of Verdun, and had gained some ground in the beginning, their attacks soon lost their impetus, and the French by counter-attacks yesterday were able to drive the Germans back nearly to the positions from which they had emerged on the latest offensive. By nightfall the French had re-established their line thru half of the Village of Vaux, which they had evacuated, and close to the northern confines of Caillette wood, which the Germans had penetrated at the outset. Either the defences of the French were too strong to be forced, or the enemy had no fresh men to spare to throw into the fight so as to assist his hardly-pressed troops. On the western bank of the Meuse nothing dreadful has happened from the occupation of Malancourt by the Germans. In order to readjust their lines in this sector, the French, instead of counter-attacking the Germans to regain positions which are apparently of little tactical or strategic value, withdrew their troops secretly during Friday night from the northern to the southern bank of Forges brook. The Germans made a vigorous attack on the empty positions on Sunday night, and were cut down like the grass by fire from concealed batteries across the stream in front, and from concealed batteries at Bethincourt in flank. The future developments at Verdun no man can foretell, but it looks as if the Germans shrink from sparing more men for this adventure, and are planning to use them elsewhere, probably against Russia, if they can gain naval control of the Gulf of Riga, and, perhaps, even if they do not. But supposing that they could force the Dvina River defences and advance towards Petrograd, they would require to gain full command of the Gulf of Riga to bring up supplies by water. A genuine attempt to secure the mastery of these waters would call for the Kiel Canal 12 to 15 of their dreadnoughts to fight the Russian fleet. This would give the British fleet its chance to enter the Baltic and divide the German navy and gain the ascendancy in those waters. But if the British fleet dominated the Baltic, the left flank of Von Hindenburg would then be turned, and the whole of eastern

SHELL INQUIRY WILL BE WIDE PLEDGES GIVEN

Royal Commission Not Limited to Probe of Four Transactions.

PARTIES ARE PLEASED

Extension of Investigation Welcomed by Liberals and Conservatives Alike.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Ont., April 3.—The government has practically decided upon a sweeping inquiry into all suspicious transactions of the shells committee. The order-in-council laid upon the table of the house today not only authorizes and directs Sir Wm. Meredith and Justice Duff, constituting the royal commission, to inquire searchingly into the four transactions referred to in the prime minister's announcement on Thursday last, but further authorizes and empowers them, "also to inquire into such other matters, relating to the act or proceedings of the shells committee as may be referred to these commissioners by order-in-council from time to time, and to report the result of any such further inquiries with the evidence taken therein." The extension of the investigation and the powers of the commission appear to have given general satisfaction to members on both sides of the house. The debate upon the Laurier resolution, being for a parliamentary investigation, will be resumed tomorrow, but it may be voted down, after Hon. W. T. White has finished his speech begun last Tuesday night, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier closes for the opposition.

FRENCH RETAKE GROUND LOST IN VERDUN FIGHTS

Several Counter-Attacks Carry Them Back to Vaux Village.

WOOD ALSO REGAINED

New Lines Established in Northern Outskirts of Bois de Caillette.

SPECIAL Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, April 3.—Gaining ground in their counter-attacks, the French today, in the fighting in the region of Douaumont and Vaux to the north of Verdun, reoccupied the western part of Vaux Village, which they had previously evacuated, and driving forward in another direction, they drove back the enemy as far as the northern outskirts of Caillette Wood and to the north of the Vaux Pond. The bombardment was quite violent in the region of Bois Bourrus, west of the Meuse, but the Germans made no attack. In describing the situation between Haucourt and Bethincourt, the French war office said that they had withdrawn their advanced troops from their positions on the northern bank of Forges Brook, which runs between these points to the southern bank, under cover of Friday night and that the Germans did not perceive it. The enemy launched last night a vigorous attack against the abandoned line and, surprised by a violent frontal fire from the new French positions and by a flanking fire from Bethincourt, his forces suffered heavy losses without being able to get a better view of the streets. No building of public importance was struck, but much damage was done in the residential quarter. "Five persons were killed in a passage leading to a tenement building, whose occupants were obliged to make their exit by means of fire escapes. Two servant girls employed in a doctor's house were killed, while a man was killed in the street. Two hotels were struck and several persons were killed or injured. A bomb in one instance penetrated a building from the roof to the basement." Caused Conflagration. BIG BATTLE EXPECTED ALONG BRITISH FRONT

German Mass Thirty-Four Division Between Somme and Yser.

THIRTY BEFORE VERDUN

General Petain Puts Up Great Defence With First Rate Artillery Support.

LONDON, April 4.—The Times military correspondent in an account of his visit to Verdun and the French front, predicts the development shortly of a big battle on the British front. "The Germans," says the correspondent, "have their army distributed in two great masses—one in front of the British army and the other around Verdun. The first group numbers 34 divisions and the latter 30 divisions. The rest of the line in France is thinly held." Discussing Verdun, the correspondent pays tribute to the French commander, Gen. Petain. "The highly developed telephone service of the Verdun front enables French frontier fire to be turned on at any point in 40 seconds, and a single battery of 75's can then render impassable a zone of considerable length and breadth. "The use of the heavy artillery Gen. Petain also excels. He has rendered it supple in an extraordinary degree. "Every day the obstacles which confront the Germans become more formidable and the cost of success much higher. "There is little doubt that the Germans expected to win Verdun in four days. But Gen. Petain holds firm and much interesting news is yet to come from Verdun." HEADMASTER OF ETON RESIGNS FROM POST Rev. Dr. Lyttelton Much Assailed for Speeches During War.

LONDON, April 4.—Rev. Edward Lyttelton, head master of Eton College, has resigned. His resignation will take effect next Christmas. Dr. Lyttelton in speeches during the war has made the declaration that it is the duty of Great Britain to extend the principles of Christian charity to Germany, and as a result he has been assailed by the newspapers as unpatriotic and a visionary. Several of the newspapers have accused him of being pro-German. Dr. Lyttelton denied these assertions.

At least Eight Persons Were Killed and Many Houses Wrecked.

NO PANIC WAS SHOWN

One Bomb Penetrated Building From Roof to the Basement.

LONDON, April 3, 7.12 p.m.—A Scottish correspondent in a despatch concerning Sunday night's air raid says: "Scotland had its first experience with a zeppelin raid last night. A zeppelin appeared at 11.50 and circled over the town for 40 minutes, dropping many bombs. Warning of the enemy's approach was given the people by the electric lights being cut off. Everybody remained calm, and many persons ventured into the streets to get a better view of the raider. No building of public importance was struck, but much damage was done in the residential quarter. "Five persons were killed in a passage leading to a tenement building, whose occupants were obliged to make their exit by means of fire escapes. CANADA NOT CHEATED IN PURCHASE OF SUBS.

Chile Had Refused Boats for Trivial Reasons, Says Manufacturer.

OTTAWA, April 3.—Final evidence was taken today by the Davidson war contracts commission in the purchase of two submarines by the Canadian Government from the Electric Boat Co. G. C. Davidson, vice-president of the company, stated the reasons Chile had refused the boats were trivial ones, and he believed the Canadian Government had secured good value in the boats at $555,000 each. Davidson said there were many people in Canada who would back him up in the opinion that these vessels had presented the Pacific coast from invasion at the time the German squadron was supposed to be contemplating an attack. "If the German vessels had put in an appearance they would most likely have been sent to the bottom by these submarines," Davidson deplored. J. F. BRISK CAMPAIGN TO BUILD UP BATTALION

Will Be Conducted This Week by the Hamilton Highland Regiment.

TO START CIVIC BAKERY

Battle With Local Bakers Has Stirred Mayor Walters to Action.

HAMILTON, Tuesday, April 4.—All this week the 173rd Highland Battalion will conduct a brisk recruiting campaign in an endeavor to bring the unit up to strength before it goes into camp.

All units here had a large recruiting staffs working yesterday, but the results were not very encouraging.

The Hamilton Recruiting League have decided upon April 14 as the date for the presentation of their memorial, which calls for the enforcing of the Canadian Militia Act.

John Greening, a resident of this city for the past twenty years and in the City Hospital yesterday after a long illness, died at his home.

The entrance of the Toronto-Hamilton highway into this city was discussed at a formal conference yesterday.

Adam Brown, Postmaster of Hamilton, celebrated his ninetieth birthday yesterday.

Guo Calpon was committed for trial yesterday by Judge Macdougall on a charge of attempting to murder Albert West.

Sir John Gibson last night presided over a formal conference of the Toronto and Hamilton National Association.

Several men were killed and injured in an explosion in a building in the town of Zeppelins.

The casualties in Sunday night's air raid are officially stated to have been ten killed and eleven injured.

Those contemplating a trip to Pacific coast points, including Victoria, B.C., Vancouver, B.C., Seattle, Wash., Portland, Ore., etc., should consult Canadian low fares in effect daily until April 14.

Wounded—Driver John Macdonald, Scotland.

Wounded—Lieut. Charles R. Macdonnell, London, Sask.

Wounded—Sapper Wm. Pictou, South Wales.

WHAT CITY COUNCIL DID

Referred back for further consideration the recommendation of the board of control that an additional grant of $50,000 be made to the Toronto-Hamilton Highway Commission.

Made grants of $1000 each to the 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th and 26th Battalions, and $250 to the 27th Battalion.

Decided not to insure Toronto men enlisting with units formed outside of the city after April 5.

Adopted resolution not to allow any pay to civic employees enlisting after April 5, this not to affect any who have already applied for leave.

Carried bylaw regulating the operation of ferry boats on Toronto Bay, fixing the capacity of new boats at 300 people.

Carried bylaw granting Dr. Charles J. Hastings, medical officer of health, two months' leave of absence on account of illness.

Approved Controller Cameron's interim appropriation of $5000 for jail expenditure in advance of the estimates.

Appointed Controller Cameron a member of the Toronto Transportation Commission.

Adopted resolution that council should have no hesitation in adopting the resolution.

Controlled Foster made a bonusing men to be loyal and piling debt upon the city.

Such Attractive Motor Coats for Women

What a boon it is, that warm, loose coat that is so "comfy" for motoring, and is smart and distinctive enough to do duty for street wear or for other occasions, when its owner leaves the car. In the Women's Coat Department you will find such coats literally in their hundreds.

They vary in length from about 48 to 52 inches, the full flaring types predominating, but these belted in scores of different ways, or falling in long, graceful ripples from the shoulders. The favored materials are checks, worsteds, velours, and tweeds; all excellent in quality, one of the reasons for such moderate pricing being that many of the coats are copies of imported models, made in our own workrooms, and embodying all the style of the original at often less than half the cost.

Of such a nature is a smart plain coat of covert cloth in three-quarter length, lined with silk to the waist, cut upon Redingote lines, the fronts shirred at the shoulders. Price, $22.50.

In velours check an effective belted coat with rippling skirt, wide square collar, Raglan shoulders and deep cuffs, at $22.50.

Of a three-colored check, black and white with a red line—is a coat with convertible collar, piped with red silk. This rippled from the shoulders at the back and is belted at the sides. A similar coat can be had in a smart tweed mixture. Price, $17.50.

Mention must specially be made of a splendid assortment of new Burberry coats showing all the perfection of cut and finish for which these coats are noted, and obtainable with Raglan or set-in sleeves in the well-known heather mixtures and homespun tweeds in various colorings. Price, $27.50.

A Delightful Display of

Everything Smart in Juvenile Headwear

Frilly, wee bonnet-like "mushrooms" for the littles tots; quaint little turn-down and turn-up sailors for girdles of five to ten; tricornes and wide-brimmed sailors for school and college girls; and for all—from small Miss Four-year-old up to big Sister of Eighteen—leghorn, straw lace and fancy straw braid hats, decked with ribbons and flowers

PROUD MAMMAS OF LITTLE GIRLS may wander on Wednesday in a veritable cloverbed of modish headwear for their small daughters.

For small girdles of four to six are cunning little mushroom effects, composed of chiffon, silk, or the new lace-like straws, garnished with ribbons and tiny flowers—dainty little confections in pink, blue, white, and rose.

For little maidens of six to ten are quaint little chin-chin and bell-shape hats in white, navy, Alice blue, and rose, with band and streamers of silk or velvet ribbon.

College girls and school girls will find a fascinating lot of smartly tailored sailors of flat and rolling brims, tricornes and chin-chins in Milan, and lacquered straw, decked with chic bows of ribbon and jaunty quills.

And as for "best and Sunday" hats for all ages, the choice includes charming leghorns, lace confections, and the open basketwork hats of latest vogue, with field flowers, and quaint ruchings and frills of ribbons serving by way of ornament.

The hats illustrated are:—

A. Model from Hyland of New York—cherry straw faced with navy straw, with black lacquered foliage and satin bows by way of trimming. Price $15.00.

B. Another Hyland model in white net, frilled with pink and blue patterned Val. lace and ornamented with pink roses. Price $15.00.

C. Rose chiffon accordion pleated, composes this "mushroom," which has streamers of rose velvet. Price $10.50.

D. Quaint poke in cherry red straw, with moire streamers. Price $4.75.

E. Misses' hat in fancy tan straw, with band and streamers of cadet blue velvet. Price $8.50.

Charming Silk and Georgette Dresses, Special Value, $19

Mostly samples! There are any number of dainty little frocks of Georgette, made over white silk foundations, and trimmed in fashionable model with bandings of taffeta or duchesse satin. Some have quaint little coatees or jumper bodices of the silk, and in some this is reversed, the dress being made of satin, taffeta, or crepe de Chine with wide skirt banded and flounced with Georgette, and narrow shouldered coat bodice opening over transparent Georgette vest and sleeves.

Practically every variety of the modish wide skirt is represented—the full bell tunic, pannels, cascade draperies, and gathered and pleated effects, their width enhanced by ruffings, flounces, and tucks. The trimmings are specially pretty and artistically applied, the gleam of metallic embroidery, of brightly colored silk embroidery, of steel beads and contrasting colored silk appearing with great effect in the most unexpected places. And the colors are lovely, including maize, soft jade and pistachio greens, lavenders, and petunia, Joffre and electric blues, as well as the more ordinary browns, navy, and black. In all sizes. Special price, $19.00.

The New "Bakst" Ribbons

Even ribbons have yielded to the Bakst influence and wondrously daring and Oriental are the results. Their vivid colorings and fantastic designs are an echo of the Ballet Russe. They are featured in a 6½-inch taffeta, and these ribbons are considered ultra fashionable for girdles, bows, etc. Per yard, $1.10.

The Vogue and the Becomingness of the Quaint New Cape Collars

Featuring Some Specially Good Values at $1.25

THEY ARE JUST AS charmingly dainty as they can be, and have an early Victorian quaintness which is very much in keeping with the simple, rather close-fitting bodices of current vogue. Furthermore, they will perform miracles in achieving the modish sloping-shoulder-silhouette and will give an up-to-date touch to a blouse that has lost its first freshness that makes them a very real economy.

Perfectly charming is a two-tier, deep, rippling cape collar of net, each tier hemstitched and finished with a narrow, closely pleated, picot edged frill. Just as dainty is an equally large net cape, trimmed with 3 bands of hemstitched Georgette crepe.

Of very fine organdie, hemstitched and picot edged, is another with the tippet front of the early Victorian days. And others of organdie are either hemstitched or lace trimmed. All are $1.25.

Another form of the cape collar, technically known as the "Pelerine," has a long back and some form of rever front. This is available in fine organdie in various shapes, some square at the back, some a series of scallops and many having points on the shoulders. Nearly all are trimmed with hemstitching and edged with narrow guipure or Oriental lace. The price being 50c.

The new sports ties—very smart for middy blouses or as hat trimmings—are obtainable in a splendid range of striped designs and colorings. Price, each, 50c.

Pearl White, the peerless, fearless girl, heads the company and Pathe Freres pronounce her the pick of their stars.

The Great "Elaine" Cast!

To this wonderful company add the magic mystery of Arthur Stringer's imagination-tipped pen and you'll realize that this is a banner day in the motion picture houses—"The Iron Claw" starts now.

SUNDAY thousands and thousands of people read the first Arthur Stringer story in "The Iron Claw" series. And what they found there made them eager for the next one. There's more interest to the square inch in these stories than you'll find in the average three-hundred-page novel. One instalment will appear each Sunday in this paper.

YESTERDAY the first release of the Pathe Pictures of "The Iron Claw" episodes opened at the motion picture houses. If you want thrills and excitement, go and see twelve swift years pass in less than thirty minutes. See the first episode and you'll be wishing next week were here, so you could see the second chapter.

"The Iron Claw"

By Arthur Stringer, Author of "The Wire Tappers," "The Hand of Peril," "Open Water," "The Silver Poppy," "The Shadow," etc. (First Instalment Published Sunday in This Paper. One Story Will Appear Each Sunday.)

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 4.

Toronto Base Hospital

There should be no hesitation about supporting the request of the military authorities for help in establishing a Toronto base hospital. Arrangements have been completed, and all that is required is the consent of the authorities to take over the old General Hospital building for the purpose.

The hospital trust has no objection to the use of the old building, beyond the possible loss of revenue which the trustees would like to see guaranteed.

Taking Heart. With the spring opening for war styles creating such vivid interest on both the European battle fronts, it is natural that the smaller nations should begin to revive a new liveliness and expectation.

FARMERS OF FRONTENAC FACE LABOR SHORTAGE

SQUAD OF 9 REPORT AT JERSEY CITY

BIRMINGHAM'S BOYS START WORK TODAY

Nineteen Players on the Job at Jersey City — Pitchers Coming.

JERSEY CITY, N.J., April 3.—Practically all of the Toronto ball team reported to Manager Birmingham this afternoon. Tomorrow it is hoped to hold the first real workout of the season. The park formerly used by the Jersey City International League is in fine condition, and the training arrangements are much better than could be had in any southern camp ever used by the Leafs. In camp tonight are the following players: Catchers Kelly and Kritchell; Pitchers Herbert, Cook, Smith of New England League (a left-hander), McQuillan, Corbett, Lyons, Dye, June, all youngsters; Infielders Mahoney (semi-pro), Graham, Wheeler (Georgia League), and Felders Brackett (with Albany last season). Reid of New England League (former of University of Maine), Trout, Becker (New England League), Layden (New York Americans), and Manager Birmingham.

Neal Ball still holds out in the hope that he will be released, so as to manage the Bridgeport team of the New England League. Bert Wilson, Frank Meserle, Blackburn and Hayden are expected tomorrow. Truesdale wintered in Texas and writes that he will report in condition and ready to get into the game immediately. Blackburn is also ready for the opening game. Catcher Hayden of the Fortland Club is coaching the Y. M. C. A. basketball team in that city, and cannot get here for a few days.

Manager Birmingham is now negotiating for a couple of pitchers who are en route north from training camps with major league teams. He is very much elated over the prospects for a first-class team. He demands speed in all departments, and feels that he has been successful in securing it. Including a number of youngsters who are trying out at their own expense, Birmingham will have twenty-five players in uniform tomorrow.

George (Mooney) Gibson was pleased on Saturday with the news that Mrs. Gibson would recover, when her doctor gave him the first ray of hope. Mooney also received a wire from Manager Jim Callahan of the Pittsburg Nationals on Saturday, which inquired of Mrs. Gibson's condition and at the same time asked that he should not leave her bedside until fully convinced that she is on the road to recovery.

An Ottawa despatch says: Manager Frank Shaughnessy of the Ottawa Baseball Club left last night for Warren, Pa. He has been invited to take over the managerial reins behind the Warren club and will probably accept. If Shaughnessy signs with Warren he will be the manager of last year's Ottawa players with him, including "Dusty" Bullock, Louis Peterson, Tom Roberts and Al Eschwege. Next year if the Ottawas operate, of course "Shag" and others will be in the Ottawa club. Shaughnessy was in favor of going ahead with the local club this year, but the decision of the militia department to suspend the exhibition grounds for training purposes forced the directors to suspend, following which the Canadian League also decided to remain inactive until next spring.

It is probable that the grounds in Hull will be sub-let for some professional baseball and lacrosse purposes. Shaughnessy is also thinking of forming a semi-professional team here. He may take Cozy Dolan to Warren.

Pitchers of last year's Ottawa team have scattered. Sammy Ross and Herb Shocker will wind up, in all probability, with Richmond, while Frank Smykal and Pete Powers are making good at Chattanooga. The Jersey City team now claims Ross.

Manager Herzog of the Reds said yesterday that Fred Toney, his best bet in the pitching line, would probably pitch against the New York Yankees on Sunday. Toney injured his pitching hand in a fight at Memphis on Friday with "Greasy" Neale, formerly of London of the Canadian League, following a kidding match.

LONDON IS WAITING READY IF OTHERS ARE

Will Join Any League That is Arranged—News and Gossip of Players.

A London despatch says: London's chance for having professional ball here this summer is growing slimmer every day. In fact it is in the hands of the organization of the proposed international league, composed of three Canadian and three Southern Michigan clubs, and the directors of the London Club are prepared to enter a team and do their full share in the proposed league, but that is as far as they will go. Up to the present nothing has been heard by the London Club regarding the progress, if any, being made in the formation of the new international league.

It is Manager Fohl's intention to carry only two utility infielders and but one extra outfielder this season. With Gandil, Turner and Chapman conceded their positions, and with Joe Evans and Ivan Stowers thought to have the edge on Freddie Thomas when it comes to third base, Fohl's announcement means that Bill Wambansang will fight it out with Thomas for the sixth infield berth, while Wambansang will have the call over the New Orleans graduate, for the reason that Wambansang is a better player. These requests have all been turned down. The club is not combing the bushes. The Tigers, as they are called, are one of the best equipped clubs in the league, and the club owner would be foolish to spend additional thousands in taking remote chances.

The Federal League was a costly experiment—not so costly to the managers of organized baseball as to the Federalists; but, nevertheless, costly enough to influence club owners in making around corners to reduce expenses. The throwing of the 200 Feds on the market also changed things up, and, inasmuch as most of these men had contracts, based on the fact that they were to be paid for it can pay more than scant attention to fellows stepping in.

The peace pact also brought a closer relationship between the majors and minors. The Detroit club is no exception and it has received all sorts of requests for its surplus talent—particularly its pitchers. International League, Pacific Coast League and American Association clubs have written to the club suggesting that it should be disposed of.

Thus far no binding contracts have been signed, but it is altogether likely that the Tigers will have two or three farms during the 1916 season.

The Detroit Tigers have asked waivers on Lefty Smithson, who twirled a few games last season for London, and Frank Fuller are still with Hughie Jennings. Waivers have also been asked on pitcher "Rube" Marshall.

Let us turn to the Ottawa from the Southern League two years ago, and lasted a week. Last summer he was in the Southern League with Richmond. Pitchers Dubuc and Leavelle have not shown much interest in their work to date with the result that Jennings threatened to suspend both.

Matty says he is still at sea about the condition of his left arm. In all probability he will not put himself to the test until late in May. He is hopeful, apparently, if not confident, but it is a sure thing that he will be as great in retiring, if needs must, as he has been in action. Matty is built of the right stuff.

MOVEMENT STARTED TO STOP BOXING IN NEW YORK STATE

Hearst's New York American, That Supports Baby Killing, Would Abolish Contests in the Padded Ring.

William Randolph Hearst will stop at nothing to forward the interest of his publications. Probably looking for the support of the murder element, his "American" alone of the big New York dailies espouses the cause of the Hun. Hearst's latest in the sensational line is a frantic effort to stop boxing in New York State. The openly abetting those who wantonly kill women and children in Europe, Hearst would stop scientific boxing from meeting under regulation rules in a 15-foot ring. He seized on the re-trial. He discovered a few days later that the same was not a boxing exhibition but a prize fight. As an argument against Willard, The American reproduces the story of the champion's bout with John Bull Young when the latter met his death. Instead of being a prize fight, it was a boxing match, and the reason why there should be no boxing in New York State is that the boxing of the past was a bad match, and the boxing of the future is a bad match.

The following is the story, written by H. M. Walker of the Los Angeles Examiner, who covered the fatal fight between Willard and Young at Los Angeles:

On the night of Aug. 22, 1913, Jess Brown wins bout at Boston tourney. Defeats New Yorker—Eddie Williams is defeated—Montreal Man Wins.

BOSTON, April 3.—Two national champions appeared to defend their titles at the opening tonight of the national amateur boxing championships. Tony Vattler of this city, holder of the 115-pound title, went thru the semi-finals by winning a rugged bout with Wm. Jones, also a Boston entrant. Adolph Kaufman of this city, holder of the 135-pound title, entered the semi-finals without opposition. Canadian and Kansas City boxers made the best showing of the out-of-town contingent. Joseph Vattler of this city and Joseph Vattler of Montreal, both of whom were swayed punches for three hard rounds before being knocked out by the champion, entered the semi-finals without opposition.

Among other bouts were the following: 108-pound class—Thos. Darcy (Boston) defeated Fred Williams (New York). 125-pound class—Dave Brown (Toronto) defeated Eugene Brasseur (Montreal) won from A. Collalanni (Pittsburgh) by a knockout.

Most of the bouts went the usual three-round limit.

Fred Gilmore winning fights in Australia. CHICAGO, April 3.—Freddie Gilmore of Chicago, who is fighting a series of battles for Snowy Baker in the Antipodes, defeated Knout O'Connor in a 20-round bout on Feb. 28. The information, the first received in Chicago, is that the contest, comes via letter from Gilmore himself.

Gilmore says he did not have much trouble outpointing O'Connor, who, previous to their meeting had been cut down with a series of heavy punches. After his victory, the jinx which had previously followed Gilmore got on the job again. Hooper, who is making necessary a postponement of his bout with Herb McCoy from March 11 to March 18.

While skipping the rope in training, Gilmore was hit and the injury being serious enough to lay him up. Whether the battle was fought on March 11 or 18 is not known.

"This fellow McCoy is a tough, rough lad, who has beaten such boys as Matt Wells, Ted Lewis and Johnny Griggs. "If I defeat him it will be a big feather in my hat. I am to meet my old enemy, Tommy Uren, on April 11. He is the boy who won from me on points in my first fight over here."

FAILED TO KILL MARYLAND RACING. ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 3.—All anti-race track legislation failed on this, the last night of the biennial session of the legislature, and the four bill tracks in Maryland, Pimlico, Havre de Grace, Bowie and Laurel, can continue in operation free from any adverse legislation for two years at least.

This comes from Hot Springs; Speaker's ability is often compared to the skill of a right-handed thrower, but he swings his golf stocks left-handed. It's a hard one to play. Hooper, who is making progress. A very peculiar case is brought out in the golf play of these famous diamond stars. Speaker is a natural left-hander. He throws with his left hand and bats from the left side of the plate.

Willard and John (Bull) Young met in a scheduled 20-round boxing contest in the historic Vernon fight pavilion. Before the ring battle had been in progress 10 minutes it was patent to the veteran followers of the game that instead of scientific boxing we were to see a bloody and brutal exhibition between two wholly unskilled men; giants of brackish brain and braidediceps, whose one idea was to pound and pound and pound until one of the other was hampered into insensibility.

In the eleventh round Young backed toward his corner under heavy punishment. His knees were sagging, both hands were thrown up to protect his face, and in this attitude his chin reached about on a level with Willard's chest. Willard failed forward with a right uppercut, and the result was a knockout. Big Jess, devoid of all science, and fighting with savage instinct alone, was trying to knock Young out by a series of uppercuts, with the jungle man's hope of seeing his opponent topple before him.

He discovered a few days later that the same was not a boxing exhibition but a prize fight. As an argument against Willard, The American reproduces the story of the champion's bout with John Bull Young when the latter met his death. Instead of being a prize fight, it was a boxing match, and the reason why there should be no boxing in New York State is that the boxing of the past was a bad match, and the boxing of the future is a bad match.

AMERICAN TROTTING BOSS HAS A WAR ON. Will Examine Books and Accounts of W. H. Gocher, Treasurer of National Association.

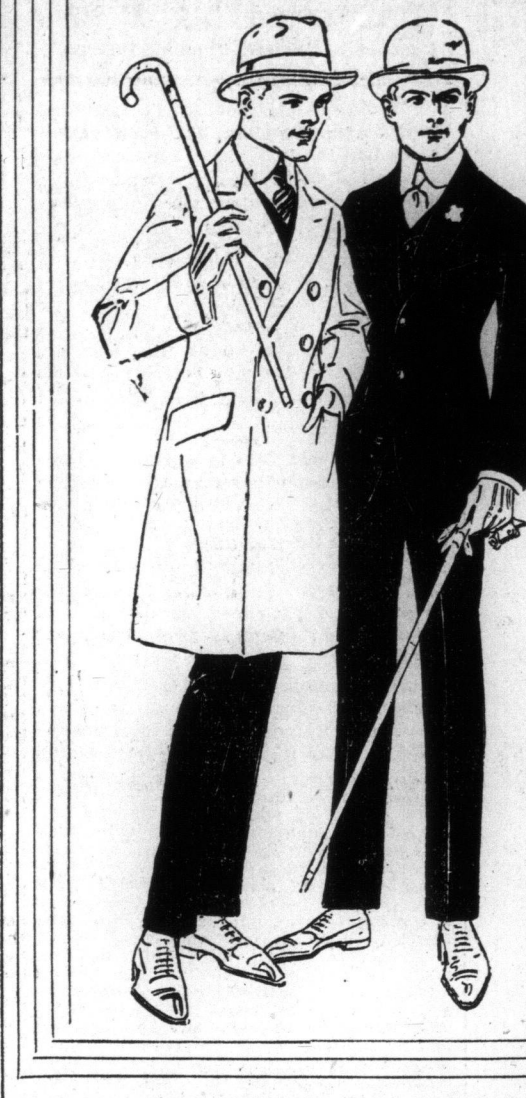

NEW YORK, April 3.—William Russell Allen, president of the American Trotting Register Association, has written to John C. Welty, the new president of the National Trotting Association, asking him to furnish a list of the names of the members of the latter organization, and to investigate the books and accounts of the treasurer of the National Trotting Association.

Members of the board of appeals have no official duties to perform at a convention of the N.T.A., and there is no more reason for paying the expenses of those of any other delegate to such a meeting. With the president, vice-president and secretary of the case, of course, is a question of whether the members of the board of appeals should be paid for their expenses.

When the board of appeals begins their work of investigating the books at Hartington, they will be paid for their expenses. They will be paid for their expenses. They will be paid for their expenses.

practically unanimous in wanting the duty removed. Mr. Lapointe (Kamouraska): "That is very good." (Laughter). Mr. Morphy concluded by saying there was room for three or four roads thru a great north of industry like western Ontario.

Turiff's Challenge. Mr. Turiff (Assiniboia) wanted to know what was the attitude of the government. Sir Robert Borden by lifting his hand could defeat the bill. If Ontario wanted the bill defeated why was it so important, in view of the fact that it furnished 60 government supporters in this house?

Mr. Turiff also wanted to know whether it was the policy of the government to assist the hydro radicals with a subsidy of $3200 a mile or any other amount. He called upon the minister of trade and commerce, Sir George Foster, to furnish the information.

Sir George Foster: "I can only say that no pledge has been given by the government respecting the granting of a subsidy to the hydro radical system."

Mr. Turiff: "The minister has not answered my question, and I did not think that he would."

Bristol Opposes Bill. At the evening sitting of the Bristol (Centre Toronto) made a strong argument in opposition to the bill. He said the line was a local line, and should never have had a Dominion character. There were no vested rights to be interfered with, and the bill should be considered only from the standpoint of the public interest.

Mr. Turiff (Assiniboia) then read to the house a telegram sent him by premier to J. H. Burnham, M.P. Mr. Burnham had wired asking the premier if his government opposed the passage of the bill, and Mr. Hearst sent the following reply:

Toronto, Ont., April 2, 1916. J. H. Burnham, M.P. House of Commons. Cannot understand your message. This government cannot emphasize more strongly than it has done already its opposition to the extension of the C.N.R. charter. Not only was our Ottawa agent authorized to oppose the bills, but a representative was also sent to the attorney-general's department to sustain the government's position, and further that a resolution moved by the attorney-general and passed unanimously by the legislature was forwarded, protesting against these renewals.

Mr. Bennett made a somewhat violent attack upon Sir Adam Beck and the hydro-electric system. He was angry because Sir Adam Beck had pledged to the Dominion Government to grant a subsidy of $3200 a mile to the hydro radial system.

Mr. Bennett charged that the hydro-electric had fallen down in his section of the country where Barrie, before the hydro had to pay 25 cents while Orillia, served by a private company, paid 13 cents. The hydro-electric's development on the Severn River he denounced as a "monument to the folly of Adam Beck."

Mr. Bennett declared that the Ontario government had ever made the statement that interest could not be earned. Mr. Bennett declared that the Ontario government had ever made the statement that interest could not be earned.

amendment requiring all liquors imported into a province for consumption to be labelled and to be plainly addressed to the persons for whose use they were intended.

Reply to a number of criticisms of the Hon. J. Doherty said that no provision has as yet declared for total prohibition. Generally speaking, it might be said that the provinces were merely legislating against the traffic in liquor which was intoxicating.

Mr. Lemieux declared that there was an overwhelming public sentiment in Ontario in favor of total prohibition. "If there is," said Judge Doherty, "it has not manifested itself in provincial legislation." He added, however, that where the Scott Act prevailed that act would be the paramount authority, notwithstanding any provincial legislation.

The committee rose and reported progress at midnight.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

STUDY OF AGRICULTURE AS WOMEN'S PROFESSION

All Young Girls Should Be Encouraged to Take Up This Work.

NATIONAL COUNCIL WORK

Necessity of Training Emphasized for the Betterment of Canadian Women.

For a number of years a special committee for the purpose of giving encouragement to the study of agriculture by the women of Canada, and for its adoption as a profession, has been mothered by the National Council of Women. As an enthusiast on the subject and one who has had a life-long personal experience in things which she advocates for others, Mrs. L. A. Hamilton has acted as convener of this committee, and as a zealous missionary in the cause. The war has brought out still another advocate in Mr. C. C. James, commissioner of agriculture, who, in his address on "Farming as a Vocation for Women," given to the University Women's Club, drew graphic pictures of what the women in the nations of the war zone have done in the matter of keeping up the food supply thru their work along agricultural lines. The necessity of training was emphasized, and stress was laid on the point that lack of system and methods was no longer tolerated. Training schools were required in Canada, and girls should be encouraged to take up the work. If people would but exercise thrift and prepare to face new and unexpected problems the close of the war would find Canada in better condition in a material sense than even before its coming.

CONTEST CORRESPONDENCE

A LOVER OF MARY.

74 Devon street, Toronto.
Motion Picture Editor: Enclosed find two coupons for Miss Pickford, who is, by far, my favorite actress. Why isn't she winning? I cannot account for it, unless her admirers are merely watching for results and are taking no part in the contest. She is a splendid actress, has a sweet personality and deserves all the success in the world. Here's wishing the queen of the movies the very best of luck.
A Lover of Mary.

FIRST IF BEST.

Dear Editor: Although I prefer Blanche Sweet I wish to send in a word for Grace Cunard. That is, of course, if you have time to read it. How anyone could possibly think Mary Pickford a better actress than Grace Cunard is something I cannot see. To my mind there is no comparison. I have seen them both and always have been tired of a Pickford film before the end. With Grace Cunard it is different. She is so attractive herself that no matter how long I can always watch it from beginning to end. I have a number of friends who think the same as I do and are going to vote for Miss Cunard. I voted for Miss Sweet. She is the best actress on the screen in Canada. Here's wishing her success in Canada first, if it's best.
From One Who Wishes Justice for P.S.—My sister encloses a vote for Miss Cunard.

STRUCK ON LITTLE ELLA.

Dear Sir—Ella Hall is my favorite, but there are other movie actresses I like, but none as well as Ella Hall. I have been trying to get in the contest myself. I hope when I do get in them I will be liked as well as Ella Hall. You will find my coupon in favor of Ella Hall.
Gertie Clayton,
(12-year-old School Girl).

LIKES BRYANT WASHBURN.

Motion Picture Editor: Enclosed you will find two coupons for Bryant Washburn. I have a little friend staying with me and she wanted to vote, too. I wrote one for her.

LEGISLATURE UPHELD BY APPELLATE COURT

Judgment at Osgoode Yesterday Dismissed Appeals of Separate School Board.

THE STATUTE'S USES

The Commission Was Appointed to Safeguard Rights of Roman Catholics.

According to a judgment given out by the first divisional appellate court at Osgoode Hall yesterday, the Ontario Legislature has been upheld by the court in creating a commission to manage and control the Ottawa separate schools and replace the elected school board. The statute is not open to the objection urged against it, remarks Chief Justice Meredith, "but it is one safeguarding the rights of the Roman Catholic separate school supporters."

Both appeals brought by the members of the board against the Quebec bank and the City of Ottawa, as to the custody of the funds were dismissed and the court directed that the $85,000 in court be paid out to the commission. This represents the separate school board's share of the collected taxes. Sir William Meredith states that he is of the opinion that the act in question does not within the meaning of section 93, prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which the class of persons called Roman Catholics had by law at the union.

Refused to Obey Law. "The privilege or right which the act conferred on that class, as a class, is not prejudicially affected by the legislation or even interfered with. All that is done is to suspend the right of a particular body of persons of the class to manage its schools because it persistently refuses to obey the law and insists upon managing them contrary to law and in open defiance of it."

"The right or privilege which the act of 1885 conferred upon Roman Catholics and the persons chosen by them to carry on and manage their schools was not to manage and conduct them according to their own pleasure but only to do so in accordance with the law and the regulations, and in my opinion a body of Roman Catholics which is managing and conducting its schools as the appellants were doing and insisted upon doing, is not exercising any right or privilege which section 93, (1), of the B.N.A. Act intended to preserve and it would be in my judgment an extraordinary thing if the legislature were powerless to intervene and

A YOUTHFUL FAN.

21 Mulrond street, Toronto.
Motion Picture Editor: Enclosed is a coupon in favor of Grace Cunard. I like Mary Pickford, too, but I like Grace Cunard best. I am only ten years old, and I cannot be compared. However, I am very glad Grace is ahead of Mary Pickford, and I hope she will stay ahead.
Yours sincerely,
Agnes Quin.

THE PLAYER, NOT THE PLAY.

Motion Picture Editor: Enclosed you will find a coupon in favor of Mary Pickford. Some people claim it is her large salary and great amount of publicity which make "Little Mary" so popular. But if she were not an excellent actress no amount of salary or anything else would make people line up, one by one, to see her. After all, it is the player, not the play, every one on the screen. If there are a great many actresses better, Mary would not be able to hold her foremost position so long. I would not have been so surprised to have seen dear little Marguerite Clark ahead of Mary. Miss Clark is a fine little actress, and one forgets that she played on the legitimate stage. I think Miss Cunard is supported by a minority only, and if the majority would only wake up she would not, in my opinion, head the contest.

put to an end the state of things which existed and caused the enactment of the legislature in question."

Welfare Jeopardized. It was also remarked by his lordship, the needed instruction for the children whose welfare is jeopardized by the action of the unfaithful stewards to whom the legislature has committed the care of their education."

Edward L. Baugh, the Montreal broker, found guilty by the jury before Judge Winchester in the county criminal assizes last fall, of conspiracy, was granted a new trial by the first divisional appellate court.

Baugh was charged with conspiracy to fabricate evidence against Connell & Co. A. Stimson, a local broker, and at the opening of the trial, Judge Connell objected to the submitting of certain points argued by Baugh's counsel, T. C. Robinson. Four of the five judges in the appellate court ruled that in their opinion the points ruled against should have been taken and ground ordered a new trial. Justice Magee does not agree with the other judges and in a written judgment states that the conviction against Baugh should stay. Baugh's still out on $20,000 bail.

A new trial has been directed by the appellate division in the case of J. H. Stuart, banker, Niagara Falls. Stuart was sued by his former stenographer for damages and alleged libel. The jury, under Justice Masten, awarded $15,000 damages.

No Undue Influence. Justice Bryton has dismissed without costs the action of Andrew McAlpine and Archibald McVicar against Hugh McKay and Duncan M. Hoesnick, executors of the last will of the late Malcolm D. McCaul. McCaul was an invalid farmer residing in the Township of Nissouri, and when he died in November, 1913, left an estate worth over $18,000.

McCauley was single and had no relatives other than a four-year-old cousin. When he died he named the defendants as trustees and executors of his estate. The plaintiffs were not mentioned in the will and brought suit in the non-jury court at Woodstock against the trustees, McAlpine and McVicar, claiming the undivided estate not competent to make his will, and further alleged that the will was not executed in accordance to the Wills Act.

His lordship, however, on the evidence found McCaul was in his right mind and that no undue influence was shown on the part of the defendants. The following is today's list for the second divisional appellate court: Brant v. C. P. R.; Radcliffe v. Warwood; De v. Crawford; McRobb v. Colville; Marshall v. Cleland; Glen v. Heliotype Company, Limited.

WOMEN'S CO-OPERATION TO AID RECRUITING

Manufacturers and Employers of Labor to Be Approached by Emergency Corps.

Indications seem to point to practical co-operation between the Women's Emergency Corps, the manufacturers and employers of labor. Forms are being drafted by the Manufacturers' Association, which employers will be asked to fill, giving information as to the number of men they have lost by enlistment, how many skilled workmen are required for their shops and how many, if any, places they would like to have filled by women.

This is among the line of action in Britain, where the home secretary and the president of the board of Trade have joined in an appeal to employers to look into the matter of using feminine labor as speedily as possible.

REGULATION OF HOTELS BY THE GOVERNMENT

George Wright Proposes Restriction of the Name "Hotel" to Standard Types.

Mr. George Wright, president of the Toronto Hotel Keepers' Association, and part proprietor of the Walker House and Curie-Hite Hotels, waited on the premier yesterday to express his own views as to the policy which the government should follow in construction after the destructive work they have done in prohibiting the sale of liquor for the period of the war.

He proposed the restriction of the name of "hotel" to buildings which conformed to a certain standard, and the publication of tariffs of charges permitted in various types of hotels.

Mr. Wright's point was that a clean sweep had been made, and that since some accommodation for transients was necessary, the citizens of the province, press, clergy and legislators, should help in making the hotels in the province a commercial success, a credit to the community, and an example to other provinces.

The regulation of rates would be under the jurisdiction of the license commission, he said. They should have power to pass on the rates as submitted. Many hotels which had been entirely dependent or almost entirely so upon their bar business, would find that they could not do business under the new conditions. That would increase the business of the legitimate houses. Regulation of rates would stop extortionate monopoly. It was highly desirable that competition between hotels in Ontario should not have the same effect as it had had in the United States where the present craze for building hotels had rendered it necessary for hotelkeepers to descend to questionable practices to meet the competition.

Mr. Wright suggested that action should be taken by which municipalities might exempt hotels from taxation. He pointed out that the government had paid large sums to lumber companies whose licenses had been cut off at the end of the year. And these companies were not forced to invest nearly as much capital in plant as was the hotel man in a large building on expensive property.

LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Even in a match you should consider the "little things"—the wood, the composition, the strikeability, the flame.

EDDY'S MATCHES

are made of strong, dry pine stems, with a secret perfected composition that guarantees "every match a lighter." Sixty-five years of knowing how—that's the reason.

TOWN BOMBED BY ITALIANS.

Reprisals for Austrian Raids are Carried Out. BERLIN, April 3.—The Austrian war office has given out, under date of April 2, the following statement in regard to the progress of the campaign on the Italian front:

"The situation in the Italian war theatre is unchanged. This morning enemy aviators threw bombs on Alesberg (on Carniola, 22 miles northeast of Trieste), killing two men and wounding several."

BILINGUAL FIGHT NEARS END.

OTTAWA, April 3.—Commenting on the appellate court's decision on the Ottawa separate school tax case today, Senator Belcourt, counsel for the party entrusted with depot laying, were to go as far south as possible, they may nevertheless have been unable to reach Cape Bearmore, the point originally intended.

Stenhouse, explaining the circumstances in which the Aurora broke drift, said: "It might look as if we were running away to save our hides, but as a matter of fact the ship was so buckled by her six weeks' pressure from the ice that the ship's party were on the point of abandoning her and requesting a wireless message to the King, requesting that a relief expedition be sent, when she managed to get clear. It was a sad home-going, but it was utterly impossible for the ship to be of any use in her condition. I hope to return with the same personnel and to pick up the parties left ashore."

TURKS SURPRISE BRITISH?

BERLIN, April 3.—Turkish detachments made a surprise attack on British positions at Alamad, north-east of Sheikh Osman, which the British had been fortifying for some time. After suffering heavy losses the British retreated under protection of their long-range guns to Sheikh Osman.

THE FARMERS' DAIRY

An Ideal—Gained and Maintained—Really Rich Milk

To make it possible for every family to obtain—at moderate cost—milk which is surpassingly rich in cream and absolutely as pure as hygienic and scientific handling could ensure—that was the ideal sought after by the Farmers' Dairy.

The fact that our milk supply comes from regularly inspected cows on the finest sanitary farms in Ontario is evidence that we have reached that ideal; and that ideal of "really rich milk," once gained, we have maintained.

Walmer Road and Bridgeman St. Though the city authorities demand only 3.25% of butter fat (cream), the quality of the Farmers' Dairy milk is still maintained at one-tenth more cream than this standard.
