St. John, Sept. 5.—The fact that the classes did not fill will be no horse races at Moscovitch Park during exhibition week. New York, Sept. 5.—The Times today says: "The Standard Oil Company sent a sweeping broadcast into the government's case yesterday in the hearing of the suit seeking to dissolve the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, when witnesses began to tell of the character of a number of men the gov't had placed on the witness stand. It came out that because of this attack upon the character of one of the government's witnesses Morris Rosenthal, leading counsel for the Standard, had been challenged to a duel by Henry C. Wootan, one of the government's star witnesses, who testified in Washington several months ago. The duel was never fought."

Victoria, Aug. 8.—The Chinese merchants of Victoria will provide for the primary education of their children in English and the other subjects common to the curriculum of the local public schools. There has been an agitation in progress among the residents of the city's Oriental section, with this object in view, for some weeks past, and yesterday the culminating point was reached when a central site was purchased on Figuard street, between Store and Government, and the appointment was made that immediately on the expiration of the lease of the present premises, work would be started on a new structure three stories in height, for the accommodation of the children of the people of that district who wish to obtain rudimentary knowledge of the Anglo-Saxon tongue.

He said that he had not been brought to his notice that an indictable offence had been committed as yet. The firm of Wilson & McLean had had no communication with him in regard to the matter. He had not the slightest idea of Dickson's whereabouts at the present time. He added that he had been told to respect Dickson, and was sorry to hear of his financial difficulties. David L. Mitchell, appointed school inspector yesterday in the room of N. W. Brown, dismissed, is a graduate of the U. M. school, and has been in the city for some time. Kelly, a Republican on the Abraham Reubens case, was yesterday and last night indicted by the grand jury, and he is held under bonds of $10,000. The indictment contained but one count and speaks Kelly as the prospective juror to whom the bribe is alleged to have been offered.

SPAIN WOULD MAKE IT EASIER FOR MULAI

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The delay in the issuance of the joint French and Spanish note to the situation in Morocco is due to the amendments made by Spain to the French proposals, which prolong the negotiations. Spain, it is learned officially here, thinks it is wiser not to require Mulai Haifa to accept so many conditions as France first suggested. The position taken by France ten days ago is elevated to have been materially changed in consequence of the attitude of Germany and Spain. Nearly forty-four per cent. of the doctors of Austria die of heart disease.

'That is an old check signed by Philip Anson. It is dated, 'Here is his signature repeated several times for amusement...'

Wife of a Prominent Physician Tells How She Was Cured

Mrs. J. R. Flock is the widow of one of the best known physicians in London, Ontario. She was treated by her husband and many other medical men yet never ceased to have lasting benefit.

'Dear Sirs,—Since my early childhood (and I am now in my seventy-third year) I have suffered indescribable torment from stomach trouble and indigestion, complicated with liver disorders...'

'I am glad to be able to recommend "Fruit-tives" and will be glad if you will use my name in any way that will be the means of bringing your remedy before the public.'

'What about you in that rigout? growled the stronger ruffian. 'I will slip into my bedroom. Quick! See who it is.'

'Where's Victor?' he said eagerly. 'In this room; he will be here in a moment. What is the matter? You look pretty plum.'

'I've had a piece of wretched luck. I was at Mrs. Atherley's 'At Home' to day, when Anson turned up. I met him without winking, but he knew me at once. He called me outside and treated me like a dog.'

'He did, eh?' 'He did, was no good trying to bluff him. Only on the guarantee that I would never meet Miss Atherley again would he consent not to mention you...'

ITALIAN SUICIDE WROTE EPITAPH

'Here Lies One Who Should Never Have Been Born.' He wrote for His Tombstone.

Montreal, Sept. 3.—'Here lies one who should never have been born.' Such was the epitaph which Domenico Attilio, the Italian whose dead body had been placed upon his tombstone.

The two letters found on the person of the deceased were translated and their contents prove conclusively that the man committed suicide. One of them, addressed to friends in his native country, was to inform them that he meant to kill himself and wanted them to know.

THE PROVINCES SHOULD CONTROL

C.P.R. Would Have Governments Regulate the Movement of Harvesters.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—'When the men come that they have honestly tried to find work and have failed we will ship them back, I can say that,' said Mr. Charles B. Foster, District Passenger Agent of the C. P. R., when asked what steps were being taken to relieve the congestion of labor in the West.

He added: 'We have given them too much latitude. We let them go where they wanted to go and the consequence was that they were dumped where the demand was not large. Next year the Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba governments should absolutely control the movements of harvesters at Winnipeg. They should be sent where labor was known to be required unless they had written credentials to show that they were going to someone who would find them work.'

A Boon to the Bilious

Are you compelled to deny yourself many wholesome foods because you think they make you bilious? Do you know that your condition is more to blame than the foods? Your liver and stomach need attention more than the diet. When you find yourself suffering with a bilious attack, take and all annoying symptoms will soon disappear. They settle the stomach, regulate the liver and excise the bowels. Their good effects are felt immediately. Beecham's Pills mingle with the contents of the stomach and make easy work of digestion. The nourishing properties of the food are then readily assimilated and the residue carried off without irritating the intestines or clogging the bowels. Beecham's Pills should be taken whenever there is sick headache, furred tongue, constipation, bilious skin or any symptoms that indicate an inactive liver.

MR. BOURASSA SAYS HE IS AN ONLOOKER

At the Same Time Liberals and Conservatives Alike are Wondering Where He Will be Found in the Elections.

Montreal, Sept. 5 (Special).—Just where Henri Bourassa will be found in the next election is a puzzle to Liberals and Conservatives alike and one which is causing considerable wonderment. It is admitted that the redoubtable Henri cuts no small figure in Quebec and is regarded as a desirable ally or an undesirable opponent. Henri Bourassa returned from St. Adèle to Montreal on Wednesday night, accompanied by Mrs. Bourassa. On the train, the member for St. James and St. Hyacinthe met Hon. Mr. Provost, who had not seen him for a long time. The two had a few minutes chat together. Friends of Mr. Provost, who say they know Bourassa, while personally friendly to Mr. Bourassa, will not be his political ally, and that on the contrary, during the session of the Legislature meets in Quebec, the two politicians will be antagonistic.

Mr. Bourassa stated that his present intention is not to take any part in the next Federal election; he intends to be an onlooker. It is announced, however, that he is to take part at a mass meeting for St. Adèle on Sept. 10. On the other hand, it is held in Mr. Provost's constituency, and what was Mr. Bourassa's policy in the Federal election is a matter of speculation. The speechlike manner of Mr. Bourassa, since the last provincial elections, has given good ground for all kinds of hypothesis and gossip.

ST. VITUS DANCE A Severe Case Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

St. Vitus dance is a disease of the nerves brought on by a morbid condition of the blood. It is a common disease with children and attacks females oftener than males. The only cure lies in plenty of pure blood, because good blood is the life food of the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure even the most severe forms of the trouble because they enrich the blood supply thus carrying the enriching food to the nerves. At this stage I chanced on a paper containing a testimonial in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, describing the cure of a little girl afflicted as mine was. I hastened to get a couple of boxes of the Pills, and by the time she had used them I noticed a decided change for the better and purchased a further supply. By the time she had taken seven boxes she was entirely cured. Although she seemed thoroughly cured I was afraid the disease might return again, but it never did, and she has since enjoyed the best of health. I can now thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enough for what they did for my child, and I hope my experience may be of benefit to someone afflicted as my daughter was.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be obtained by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CAPTAIN JACK CRAWFORD THE FAMOUS POET SCOUT

JOHN WALLACE CRAWFORD is the proud name by which his mother first called him, and a name indeed to be proud of; but the name by which he is known to a world of friends and admirers is Captain Jack. If perchance there is a person in the broad land who doesn't instantly identify one of the greatest poets by that title there is no longer a doubt when it is written out as "Capt. Jack Crawford, the poet-scout." He has been a brave soldier, a great scout and is one of the people's poets, but above all that he is one of God's official distributors of sunshine.

Two things have recently happened to bring Captain Jack lovingly back to the memory of the readers of the Standard. One was the public tribute John Mitchell, the great labor leader, paid to him. Mr. Mitchell, in addressing a big audience of his fellow workers, recalled the fact that during the great mine workers' strike Captain Jack was in Butte and gave a benefit for the strikers and with the aid of the Butte miners raised $2,200, which he sent to Mr. Mitchell, not retaining even enough to pay for a first-class fare to Denver, where he took the train and gave another big benefit for the same cause. "I consider Jack Crawford, the former Schuykill county coal picker, the greatest poet of self-made manhood and all-around bigness of any man in the United States, and no man has done more for the poor than he means for suffering humanity," were among Mr. Mitchell's words.

The other thing that has just happened to bring the poet-scout to freshened memory is the publication of a book of his poems by the Roycrofters of East Aurora, under the title of "The Broncho Book." The book contains the evidence of his right to the title of distributor of sunshine. It is full of verses of cheer and optimism, of love for humanity, including the few enemies he has in the ranks of the evasive and ungodly.

"When a bit of sunshine hits ya, After passing of a cloud, When a fit of laughter rolls ya, An' yer spine is feelin' proud, Don't forget to up and sing it, At a soul that's feelin' blue, For the sun it's a boomerang to you."

"I never like to see a man a-sittin' with the dums, 'Cause in the game of life he doesn't always catch the trump; But I can always cotton to a free and easy cuss. As takes his dose, and thanks the Lord it ain't no use 'er kickin' and sweatin' at yer luck, Yer cuss can't correct the trouble mo'ra'n ya can drop a duck. Remember, when beneath the load your head is bowin', That God'll sprinkle sunshine in the trail of every cloud."

"If you should see a fellow man with trouble's flag unfurled, And lookin' like he didn't have a friend, Go up and slap him on the back, and holler 'How'd you do, And grasp his hand so warm, he'll know he has a friend in you. Then ax him what's a-burkin' 'im, and Don't talk in graveyard palaver, but say, 'Right out loud, That God'll sprinkle sunshine in the trail of every cloud."

"This world at best is but a hash of pleasure and of pain; Some days are bright and sunny, and some all sloshed with rain. And that's just how it ought to be, for when the clouds roll by, We'll know just how to 'preciate the bright and sunny sky. So let us take it as it comes, and don't sweat at the pores. Because the Lord's opinion doesn't coincide with yours, But always keep rememberin', when cures you path embroiled, That God has lots of sunshine to spill be- hind the clouds."

THE BRONCHO. I am saddest when I'm gladdest, I'm gladdest when I'm saddest, And my sadness and my gladness, And my madness all combine, Just to fertilize the gladness In this broncho soul of mine.

his feet will hit bedrock, There's a heap of good set going and a premium on your stock. "And I can not help believing that the sunny smiles we fling, The bits of fun we scatter, with the songs we love to sing, Are the harbingers of blessings on the scurrage line of hope That will light the trail of sunshine as we journey o'er life's slope." In what he calls "A sermon to myself, or you, if it fits," the poet hangs out this glowing star: "Don't be blue—just be true To yourself and smile, Don't you know you'll go on in a little while? "Have some grit—up an' git! What's the recompense— 'Fret and stew, keepin' blue, 'Lackin' common sense? "Take it cool; who, you mule, Kickin' like a steel? Half your trouble's but a bubble; What you got for? "Friends are honey when you've money; Otherwise they're few. Then don't let it play you 'er got it— And you'll git it, too!"

Captain Jack spent his life on the frontier and his low nature too well to content in the city. "Do I like the city, stranger? 'Tain't likely that I would; 'Tisn't likely that a ranger from the border ever could. Git accustomed to the flurry an' the loud, 'Tisn't likely that a cowboy would be anybody in a hurry, man and wimmin, gals an' boys. All a-sittin' like a nation, 'mid the rumble an' the jar, 'Tis as if their souls' salvation hung up on their gittin' 'er there. Like it! No. I love to wander 'mid the vales an' mountains green, In the borderland of Eden, 'Tis there the hand of God is seen."

MOTHER'S WAYS. The poet's religion is simple. Here it is: "What'er my soul may long for, What'er my eyes may see, The simple faith of mother, Is blood enough for me. "God is good and good is God; Then my heart's glad to see, Brookin' of crystal clearness flowin' o'er the rocks, an' lovely flowers, In their tinted beauty growin' in that borderland of Eden, Fairer picture the Creator Never threw on earthly screen. Then my heart's glad to see 'er nat'ur, 'Tis there the hand of God is seen."

Very thoughtlessly he copyrighted one of his best productions, "The Woman in the Moon," and then did include it in his book, and after the publication of "The Broncho Book," he wrote "The Broncho," which he did copyright, because, as he said, it was too good.

I am saddest when I'm gladdest, I'm gladdest when I'm saddest, And my sadness and my gladness, And my madness all combine, Just to fertilize the gladness In this broncho soul of mine.

With a lightning disposition, Than a goodly good smooth one, Who for suckers goes a fishin', For the broncho shows his colors An' reaches out behind him, An' you know just what a comin' When you undertake to bind him.

Some day an appreciative publisher will gather all of the poet scout's writings— prose and verse—and print them cheerfully and incidentally, for the enrichment of his own coffers, in the meanwhile "The Broncho Book" will do, and Captain Jack's little of a little circulation of his signature that he will be glad to autograph every volume sent out, if requested to do so.

Another thing that you will not find in the book is the life story of this most interesting man. He was born in Ireland, and it is very likely that a fellow's hand of his natural brilliancy and poetic soul. Perhaps it does, but he is a Scotchman, though born in Carndonagh, Donegal, that he loves the land of his nativity is evidenced by some of his poems, pretty and romantic like "Donegal," by the Irish sea. He came from an adventurous race. His ancestors on both sides fought with Wallace and Bruce for the freedom of Scotland. His mother was the daughter of William Wallace, a Scottish refugee in Ireland, a descendant of Sir William Wallace, one of Scotland's famous chiefs. Several members of the family came to America in the early days, and three of them fought in the revolution. John A. Crawford, Captain Jack's father, was banished from Scotland for his revolutionary speeches, and with a price on his head fled to Ireland. In 1834 he left his family there and came to America. Later he was joined at Minersville, Pa., by his wife and children. Jack's schooling, in the schools of four walls, was crowded into just one month. The rest of the time he put in picking slate and helping to support the family. On President Lincoln's first call for volunteers the father enlisted for the civil war. He was wounded at Antietam and Cold Harbor, and died shortly after the close of the war.

During the war Jack ran away from home twice for the purpose of enlisting, too, but several times he failed because of his youth. Finally he was accepted and went to the front with the Forty-eighth Pennsylvania volunteers. It was his regiment that dug the mine under Petersburg. He was wounded March 12, 1864, at Spottsylvania, near the "bloody angle," and again on April 2, 1865, in front of Petersburg. Jack was in a hospital in Philadelphia and while confined there a Sister taught him to read and write. After the war he came West and did scouting for the army during many Indian campaigns. He served with General Crook in the Sitting Bull campaign in 1876, and for his services he was appointed chief of scouts by Gen. Wesley Merritt. During the Sitting Bull campaign in 1876, and for his services he was appointed chief of scouts by Gen. Wesley Merritt. During the Sitting Bull campaign in 1876, and for his services he was appointed chief of scouts by Gen. Wesley Merritt.

His great love for humanity is chiefly responsible for his continued appearance on the platform, for, as he has often said, he also wants to do what he can for the boys, to save them from cigarettes, dime novels and drink. "His temperance story is the saddest that has ever been told," said John D. Rockefeller once. Captain Jack has his own opinion against the evil of drink, and to his mother, on her death bed, he gave his promise that he would never take a drop of intoxicating liquor. He has kept his promise. It is told that as a banquet in Boston some years ago he was asked to give a toast to the boys across the table to the poet scout with a request that he "drink a toast to the boys." He said, "I don't drink, but I'll look into the laughing eyes of the girl, he said."

"Oh, yes, this is a difficult task you have given me, but a soldier's duty is first to obey orders—and I shall try to drink a toast to women—in that, however, which may bring her husband reeling home to abuse her where he should love and cherish her. Let me to drink to the boys, in Michigan, and the women to lives of shame. No, not in that, but rather in God's life-giving water, pure and clear, and as hearty as her intentions, bright as her smile, sparkling as the light of her eyes, strong and sustaining as her love. In the crystal water I will drink to her, that she may remain queen regnant in the empire she has at her feet, and grounded as the universe in love, built up and enthroned in the homes and hearts of the world. I wish the boys, in Michigan, and the women to creation's morning—which man is but the bad seed blossoming to her, who in childhood chased our little hands and led us to the first prayer to the great All-Father; who comes to us in youth with good counsel and advice, and who when our feet go down into the dark shadows, smooths the pillow of death as none other can; to him, the woman, but God's best gift to man—woman, pure, sweet, and true, and as hearty as her love, in God's own beverage—cold, sparkling water."

EARLY FALL SUGGESTIONS

Toward the end of the season when the green corn becomes too old to serve on the cob or to cut down, it may be used as fritters or even the more delicate, individual puddings. Here are two excellent recipes. To every pint of grated corn pulp allow one scant cup of milk, two tablespoons of flour, one-half a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of red and the same of black pepper.

Another recipe is to mix a pint of green corn with three tablespoons of milk, a teaspoon of flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, and one egg. When fritters are to be made, fry the batter in hot butter. If corn puddings are preferred, bake the batter in tin pie plates, well buttered, in a hot oven.

THOUGHT SHE FACED POVERTY WITH $40,000 Rich Sarnia Woman Attempted Suicide Because She Imagined She Was Poor.

Sarnia, Ont., Sept. 5.—It is thought that Mrs. David Turner, 50 years old, who attempted suicide last Monday evening by severing an artery in her left arm, will not recover. Mrs. Turner is the widow of a former wealthy man, and although possessed of a fortune of $40,000, she has for several weeks labored under the delusion that she was facing poverty. Late Monday evening the woman donned the garments she frequently told her friends she wished to be buried in, and after cutting herself, lay down and was soon unconscious. Registrar Jones reports seven marriages during the present week. Also twelve births, seven of them females.

FATHER OF MEXICO

As speak of the development of Mexico, is to tell of the career of President Diaz, the maker of modern Mexico. The question of what may happen when he retires is one that excites much interest, especially in the United States, but also to a considerable extent in Canada, which hopes to develop trade with the southern republic.

CUBA WILL TRY AGAIN

Once more Cuba is about to try the experiment of self-government. A new president will be elected, and the American troops withdrawn. It is believed that better success will attend this attempt than the former one.

CHICAGO-TOLEDO CANAL

Much interest has been aroused by the announcement that a canal is projected from Chicago to Toledo, Ohio. This waterway would cut 800 miles from the present lake route.

miles below Toledo. From this point traffic could be diverted up the river to the great elevators at and above Toledo, or a straightway run for Buffalo and Lake Ontario would be open.

There is every argument to be made for speedy commencement and the hasty completion of this work, and it is just the time now to do it in these times of business depression when an army of the unemployed are seeking after something to do.

"Though Mexico holds her next presidential election in 1910 the movement is already under way to induce President Diaz to extend his service for another six years, though he has said that 30 years in office are enough for him, and that he would decline a re-election this time.

PRISON FARMS

The following article from the Boston Advertiser is worthy of the attention of all who are interested in problems of social reform:-

"James J. Hill has the right idea when he says that convicts should be compelled to do farm labor. Not only is that true, but the time is coming in Massachusetts when the idea of farm labor for convicts will be adopted in the Lyman school, the Bridgewater prison, etc., will be the prevailing system in the prisons of this state.

The United States Secretary of Agriculture, James Wilson, who has just returned after an extended trip through the West, takes a most encouraging view of the business situation. The farmers, he reports, in an interview in Washington, have magnificent crops growing and are selling the old crops and preparing to sell the new one, for high prices.

MONTREAL'S INCOME TAX WAS A FAILURE. It Cost More to Collect It Than the City Received in Revenue. Montreal, Sept. 5.—According to a report completed at the city hall the city's income tax, inaugurated about a year ago, is a failure, and will be abolished before the close of the year. The tax was imposed on all residents outside the city who earned their living within the city. The report shows that the total tax collected was seven hundred dollars. It costs more than that to collect it.

Dr. MacGillivray, Chalmers' church and Rev. Prof. Alexander Laird, Royal Military college. The bride was given away by her brother, Rev. MAUD AND THE JUDGE. By JAMES J. MONTAGUE. MAUD MULLER on a Summer's day was sitting on the steps of the Stager Building. Beneath her straw hat glowed the wealth of four 100 carat rings and a pearl necklace. The Judge rots slowly o'er the lane Called Broadway on his serial touring car. He looked at Maud, Maud looked at him. Which was more or less natural under the circumstances.

MORAL: Of all sad words of tongue or pen The saddest are, "Think what might have happened!" COIN CAME BACK. Although a diligent search failed to recover a dollar gold piece which John A. McNeal, of Shippensburg, Pa., received from his father in 1854, the year of its coinage, as a gift on his fourth birthday, the recent heavy rains washed the ground off the road which passes the old McNeal estate, adjacent to Roanoke, and, as though touched by a magic wand, the glittering coin appeared from its hiding-place of more than a half century, and was picked up a few days ago by the recipient of the gift.

EATS 598 CLAMS BUT LOSES WAGER

Champion had the Bet Won at the 400th Clam, but Got Reel-less and Tried for 600 New York, Sept. 5.-The Battery gained a new record yesterday when "Little Neck Silas" came over from Tompkinsville, consumed 598 clams and came within two of winning a bet of $10. The event took place at the stand of Dave Everett, which faces the South Ferry. The two bettors appeared, and the larger man of the two asked Dave if he had enough clams on hand to settle a wager. Everett said he had, and Silas started right in. He could swallow clams faster than any man could open them, and he had Everett panting when he reached the second hundred. But the opener had a reputation to sustain and he manfully kept at his task. He struggled through the third hundred, then took another knife and began again. The man who had made the bet that his friend could not do the trick finally announced "600" and calmly paid over the $10. "What's nothing," said Little Neck Silas. "I could go two hundred more without turning a hair."

COAL TALK

A subject that now has a live interest. According to the Coal Trade Journal from New York reports from all over the country show that people are returning from their vacations and beginning to buy coal. The weather man and the coal man are great friends after the weather man has his summer vacation. The weather man can then be counted on to give the coal man his every few days. Every supply of cold weather at this time brings a rush of coal orders. The weather man is now getting more to get coal. The circular price of Hard Coal in New York is now 90 cents higher than the opening of last spring. The weather man has had to stand this increase and further possible increases the consumer must expect much higher prices than has been retailing all summer. When the weather man gets busy and a rush of business comes on in coal, a great deal more to deliver coal for those seasons. Gibbon & Company have made preparations to take care of their patrons who come early with cash orders for coal. Gibbon & Company have imported some of the celebrated Triple X Lumpy Coal which is the best for self-feeders. The best steamer coming in from Glasgow brings a high grade of Scotch Hard Coal of the best quality for Gibbon & Company. Bargains are bringing Springfield fresh mined for Gibbon & Company. This week Gibbon & Co. received a cargo of selected Old Mine Sydney Lump coal for grate use. The mine's difficulty can be seen at Gibbon & Co.'s office. Those who want to lay in a supply of Broad Cove Coal should get their orders in now in time to get the special rate from a cargo of Broad Cove to arrive soon, and people who like a strong heating clean soft coal, such as Pictou Egg should get their orders early as it is hard to get enough Pictou Egg to supply the demand a little later. A special offer for a few days is now being made by Gibbon & Co. on American Chestnut at only $5.00 delivered in lots of two tons or more, and American Pea Coal at only $3.90. Gibbon & Co. are now making profitable bill prices, on all their coals and it is hard to understand how people will pay 50c to 75c more for ordinary grades of coal when they can get the best quality and have the largest variety to select from by placing cash orders with Gibbon & Company at 64 Charlotte Street, or Smythe Street, near North Wharf. Telephone 676.

HOW THE MANITOBA FREE PRESS ESTIMATES CROPS

Much Interest Taken in a Western Crop Forecast Which in Previous Years Has Proven Remarkably Accurate.

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—Considerable interest was taken in the estimate of the Manitoba Free Press. Their estimate of the total wheat crop, compiled by their special correspondents, figures out at 18.58 bushels per acre, which indicated a yield of 111,700,000 bushels. From this, however, they deducted an arbitrary figure of 1.58 bushels per acre for possible damage from frost, but it is felt that this is excessive in view of the fact that the frosts were by no means general. Where frost did occur it was very light, and the general effect on the yield is expected to result.

NOVA SCOTIANS A PREDICT GREAT FUTURE FOR THE PROVINCES BY THE SEA

Progress Has Been Slow, But the Treasures of the Land are Irresistibly Attractive.

Thursday's Montreal Witness has the following: Halifax, N. S., Sept. 3.—After years of indifferent growth, financially and mercantile, the Maritime Provinces are about to enter upon a new era of business activity and development. Leading financiers, manufacturers and business men are becoming more optimistic. They evidently realize the importance of Eastern Canada as a mining and industrial centre, and on every side, plans are being made to carry forward with all energy and determination such business enterprises and improvements as are likely to mark the beginning of a new era in the commercial life of this portion of the Dominion.

Lasting Results from using NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"I am blessed with an abundance of long hair and I use the utmost care in the preservation of it. I have never found anything that pleases me as much as Newbro's Herpicide. It keeps the scalp clean and sanitary and adds a luxurious appearance to my hair that no other preparation will give. I consider it most desirable to use and I can truly say that I prefer it above all other preparations for the hair. I like your soap also and can recommend both highly to any lady who wishes a good head of hair."

While it is not natural for everyone to have extremely long hair, it is possible for every lady to have beautiful hair, for when the scalp is not diseased, the hair will grow naturally and abundantly. The chief disease of the scalp is dandruff—which is highly contagious—and dandruff is now known to be caused by an invisible vegetable growth called the dandruff germ.

Newbro's Herpicide—the original remedy that kills the dandruff germ—will cure any stage of this disease, except chronic baldness, which is incurable. Herpicide not only destroys the dandruff germ and stops falling hair, but it is a most exquisite hair dressing, making the hair light and fluffy and giving it a silken gloss.

Two Sizes: 50c. and $1.00 At Drug Stores—Send 10c. in Stamps to The Herpicide Co., Dep. N, Detroit, Michigan, for a Sample. Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act. June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.

The appearance of Miss Darling, the soprano singer of the Grand Opera company which will open a week's engagement in the St. John Opera House on Saturday evening next, September 12, is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest.

TEMPERANCE EDUCATION BY MEANS OF COLORED CHARTS

Interesting Collection from the World's Centennial Temperance Congress to be Shown at Every Day Club.

During the next week there will be on exhibition at the Every Day Club hall a most interesting temperance exhibit brought to this city by the local branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

It is a series of about twenty-five colored charts, which were on exhibition at the World Centennial Temperance Congress, and which illustrate statistically the relation of alcohol to every-day life. They are not physiological charts, but diagrams covering the relation of alcohol to cell life, longevity, physical and mental vigor, crime, idleness, and the decreasing use of alcohol in medicine.

These charts have just been exhibited at the provincial teachers' convention at the St. John W. C. T. U., and the most convincing demonstration of the evil effects of alcohol upon the human family that I have ever seen.

The exhibit will be one which ministers, physicians, teachers, parents, children and especially those addicted to the drink habit to excess, should study carefully.

AN IRVING EXAMPLE.

(Rocheater Herald.) Henry B. Stanford, for several years the leading man with Sir Henry Irving's company, tells this story of the famous actor: "Sir Henry's wit was of an almost Voltairean character. Once while I was hearing 'Faust' with him at the Lyceum Theatre in London—we were doing 'The Brookside' and he had occasion to reproach an army of exuberant superiors—he said: 'Very charming—but you must remember that you are in hell—not picking on Hamstead Heath.'"

Hints For Health

POINTS WORTH KNOWING. Chery is a nerve tonic as well as helpful to rheumatic persons. Raw egg applied to a wound will quickly heal and allay the pain. When polishing the finger nails, rub across, not up and down. Dust the hands with orris powder for excessive perspiration. Never take a bath within two hours after eating. When tired out and hungry, take a cup of hot soup for quick refreshment rather than tea or coffee.

WHEN AND HOW TO EAT. The normal sense of hunger makes the plainest food tasty and delicious. Without hunger, that is, without the call of nature for food, one is not justified in eating, says a celebrated physician. It is under a condition of repletion and not of artificial hunger that food should be created by taking various condiments, spices, rich sauces and savories, and stimulating articles. All these are unwholesome and some of them should be resorted to except in sickness and disease, when it is often desirable and necessary to make food as attractive and appetizing as possible to induce the patient to take it. But even in such cases it is rarely necessary to resort to unwholesome stimulation. A large part of the sickness and disease of this life would disappear if everyone made it a rule to eat only when really hungry and then to take no more than the body requires.

WHY OUR TEETH DECAY. The modern method of making bread whereby the coarser elements are extracted to render it white and soft; the habit of eating it comparatively new; highly seasoned, thoroughly cooked, softened food; and the absence from diet of such hard tooth-cleaning things as raw apples, nuts, etc., are all conducive to dental caries.

Dental caries is the most prevalent of all diseases from which civilized man suffers; an extensive examination of skulls of the ancients reveals the fact that while caries was not unknown even in those days, it did not exist in anything approaching the extent known today. That the primal cause of caries is a microbe has been proved without a doubt. There are 14 different bacteria which take an active part in the production of dental decay. Proper dieting will go far toward prevention. But it must be diet for the teeth as well as the stomach. Food strong in lime properties should be the main structure, including drinkables. Begin with children. Apples, nuts, crusts, hard foods, should be eaten from the earliest possible age.

HEBREW ASKS FOR RAWHIDE, NEVADA BIG GRANT OF LAND IS SWEEP BY FIRE

School Inspector Brown Removed by Board of Education and David Mitchell Appointed.

Frederick, Sept. 4.—At a meeting of the provincial government held here this evening an application was received from Joseph Seimbrock, a Hebrew, residing in Chatham, for 137 miles of crown lands on Gains River and Little River for the purpose of establishing extract works for the manufacture of turpentine, resin and other products. It was decided that he should be granted the land for ten years, at the end of which time the land would be closed up and left ready for settlement.

The government was favorably impressed with the proposition, and it is likely the application will be granted. On account of the depression in the lumber market it was decided that the new regulations increasing the stumpage on hard woods, hemlock and fir should not be put in force this season.

At a meeting of the board of education Nelson W. Brown, of Southampton, school inspector for York, Sunbury and part of Queens County, was removed from office and Daniel Mitchell, of Lincoln appointed in his place. Mr. Brown had been inspector for the last two years. The reasons given for his dismissal were that he had only been appointed temporarily and that he had no grammar school license.

At a meeting of prominent Liberals held today, Saturday, September 19 was chosen as the date for the nominating convention to select a candidate in the place of W. T. Whitehead. The meeting will take place in the Arctic Ring.

"You see, I am practically out of politics, or at least I am not in a position to speak on public matters, as was my privilege when a member of the House of Commons," said Lieut.-Governor Fraser, when asked if he would care to express an opinion as to what was most needed in the Maritime Provinces so as to give an impetus to trade in general.

"But won't you give an opinion on the situation, especially in Nova Scotia?" "Well, first of all, I am proud of the fact that such companies as the Dominion Iron and Steel, the Dominion Coal and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal corporations are doing such a large and profitable business, and in this connection I am anxious to see the fight between the two former settled on an equitable basis."

Governor Fraser called attention to the greatness of the province and the richness of the treasures above and beneath the soil. Down by the sea they have as good things to offer as anywhere else in the Dominion, and he was confident that capitalists would find evidences of wealth all around them.

"Take your departure from this end of Canada, the first ray of the sun which rises from the Atlantic will strike Nova Scotia, with its great mineral and other possibilities, and then as you travel onwards with the light you reach New Brunswick with her vast forest and other wealth; thence on to Quebec, with its population of a different origin, but true Canadian in heart and spirit; then through the rich farm, garden and mineral lands of Ontario; onward again through the West, with its wheat, oats, wheat fields, to the warm waters of the Pacific; thence upward to the Yukon and around the fringe of the Arctic seas, back to the East, and you have seen a world, and touched nothing but Canadian soil."

"Have we not a good reason to be proud of Canada, and to expect much from her in the future? Yes, as the Great West is working out its destiny, why should the older provinces not do likewise? I think they will, and in the process will progress to our national life, the provinces by the sea can be relied upon to do their part in building up the Dominion, and making it a leader in the financial and industrial world."

Rawhide, Nev., Sept. 4.—Three thousand people homeless, a score or more injured and property loss of over $700,000, is the result of a disastrous fire, which started at 9 o'clock this morning in Dr. Gardner's office located in the Rawhide Drug Company's building. Over ten and a half of dynamite was used in the demolition of buildings, which in a measure stayed the flames' progress.

At 11 a. m. the business portion of Rawhide was a smouldering ruin, the flames being finally checked south of Bailou Avenue.

Among the first buildings to go was Collins Hardware store, which contains two tons of dynamite that exploded with a terrific report, hurling burning planks and boards a great distance, setting fire to numerous buildings simultaneously. Many people were injured by flying debris, but none is reported seriously hurt.

A famine was feared, as all the supplies houses and grocery stores were wiped out. A subscription list was started and in a few minutes over $5,000 was raised and a relief train started from Reno, carrying food and bedding.

Before the ashes were cool, planks were well under way for a re-construction of the town.

A report that two commercial travelers from their lives in the burning of the Ross Hotel, has not been confirmed.

The town has been placed under martial law.

HUSBANDS' VALUATION OF WIVES. A solicitor who has just left a substantial sum to his widow on condition that she enters a convent and devotes the remainder of her life to prayer, has been more considerate to his life-partner than some other testators we know of. It was an attorney who wrote in his will, "I leave to Herbert L., my wife, and my sister in the happy assurance of their greed, jealousy, folly, plots, schemes, and lies have succeeded in making life a burden to me. During my married life," declared another testator, "I have always declared that my wife should be the dearest woman in the world, and I am convinced that should any other be rash enough to marry her he will find her so. To deter, far as possible, anyone making such a ruinous experiment, I leave her nothing." A William (name), who, disappointed in his widow's will, bequeathed to her $1,000, declared, "I commenced reading she started playing and singing."

Tomorrow Dr. and Mrs. Murray MacLaren will have completed twenty years of married life. Last evening a large number of their friends gathered at their home, Colburn street, and tendered them a surprise party. The gentlemen brought presents of China, the occasion being a China wedding.

Captain Theo. E. Powers of the yacht Windward, and who is one of the Labor Day party to go to Bald Mountain, will endeavor to get in communication with another party at Martello Tower by helicopter, a distance of 20 miles. If possible he will send a message to the St. John newspapers.

The borings at Courtenay Bay will be completed, it is expected, about the middle of the present month, and Engineer Davy will then send his report to the department of public works. The conditions so far have been found most favorable for harbor development, as no rock has been encountered.

The twenty-second annual convention of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, will open at the Pythian hall here on Tuesday next at 10 o'clock. Grand Chancellor A. J. Tingley, of Moncton, will preside. Sessions the grand lodge will be held both morning and afternoon, and in the evening a meeting of Union Lodge No. 2 will be held, when the third rank will be exemplified in the long form.

A. O. H. DECORATION DAY

The local divisions of the A. O. H. will observe their annual Decoration Day services on Monday. The members, with the Hibernian Knights and Cadets, will march from St. Malachi's hall in the afternoon, headed by the City Cornet band. Two baronets filled with flowers will form part of the parade and the graves of departed members in the old and new Catholic cemeteries will be decorated. Donations of flowers will be received by the committee, Monday morning.

ALD. SCULLY AND THE BRIDGE TO CARLETON

He Saw Hon. Wm. Pugsley Yesterday and Received Encouraging Assurances.

Ald. Scully is very sanguine that the efforts which he has been exerting toward the erection of a bridge between the city and West End will be crowned with success sooner than he had hoped for. Yesterday he brought the matter to the attention of Hon. Wm. Pugsley and while that gentleman told the alderman from the West End that he was unable to pledge the government to any definite policy in regard to the bridge he would personally be in favor of the Dominion government hearing a fair proposition of its cost. Ald. Scully is now looking for Premier Hazen to see what the provincial government is prepared to do in this direction. With the two governments bearing half the cost between them and the city, C. P. R. and St. John Railway Co. to hear from it would seem as if a bridge is not merely a Utopian dream. It would undoubtedly be a great thing for West Side residents and if Ald. Scully is successful his election should be insured for ever and a day.

The Nickel Theatre will have a new programme of motion pictures and illustrated songs on Tuesday evening commencing at 10 a.m.

Special attractions are being arranged for at Rockwood and Spassie Paria.

HE PAID FOR THE SKIRT

Sixteen-Year-Old Theft Weighed on Man's Conscience.

Buffalo, Sept. 5.—An odd instance of restitution made a woman happy the other day. Sixteen years ago, when she worked for the S. O. Barman & Son Co., her street skirt was stolen from the cloak room.

Recently she received a letter from a man who was a fellow-clerk at the time, enclosing a $10 check. He admitted he had stolen the skirt. Should the $10 be not sufficient to cover the loss, he was willing to forward more.

FOOLED THE UNDERTAKER

Buffalo, Sept. 5.—Undertakers got a telegram from Utica to be at the New York Central station to get the body of a woman, who had died on the train, and would not live until it reached Buffalo.

Undertaker and coroner were on hand. The train arrived, but there was no corpse. Mr. Wilkins learned that the woman did not die, but was carried from the train in Buffalo to another train, and had gone on to her home at Wilson.
